

The Good 1431

Chapter 1431: Elf King (1)

Wen Ya!

Shen Yanxiao's heart pounded violently. The impact when she saw the phantom and the physical body was entirely different. The kinship in her blood made her subconsciously want to walk over, but her rationality suppressed her instincts.

Shen Yanxiao suppressed her internal excitement and shifted her gaze away from Wen Ya.

"It has been hard on you. The Tree of Life is able to thrive and grow because of your care and concern." The Elf King smiled. His smile was similar to a wild lily blooming on the edge of a cliff. His beauty was no longer limited to his gender.

All the Saintesses were intoxicated by the Elf King's smile, practically no one could resist it.

He was the king of their hearts and their only belief.

"Boohoo, if the Elf King takes a fancy to me, I would be willing to lose a hundred years of my life." Shi Dan covered her chest and revealed a smitten expression.

Shen Yanxiao pursed her lips.

Was he good-looking? He was not as good-looking as her Xiu.

As if he had sensed Shen Yanxiao's thoughts, Xiu slightly curled his lips.

Immediately after, Shen Yanxiao realized her thoughts could be heard, and she instantly felt shy.

Her family...

Sobs, how shameless.

"Thank you, my king." The elves stood up, but their eyes were still locked on the Elf King.

"You can continue with your work. Don't worry about me. I am only here to take a look," the Elf King smiled and said.

Another group of lovestruck fools had their eyes bulging out.

Shen Yanxiao had countless handsome men by her side, and she even possessed the number one handsome man in the world. Her defense against beauty was off the charts.

As a result, she was only initially surprised by the Elf King's appearance. Soon after, she started critiquing his appearance in her heart.

His eyes were not as deep as Xiu, his nose was not as good-looking as Xiu, his mouth was not as good-looking as Xiu, his eyebrows were not as good-looking as Xiu, and his physique was incomparable!

The thought of Xiu's faintly discernible eight-pack made Shen Yanxiao feel satisfied.

As expected, Xiu was the most good-looking one!

Ever since she confirmed her 'relationship' with Xiu, Shen Yanxiao regarded Xiu as her possession. All the male creatures in the world had become dregs in front of Xiu.

Under the Elf King's orders, the elves began their work. However, all the Saintesses were maintaining their bearings at the highest level. With a wave of their hands and a wave of their feet, they displayed their most beautiful posture and their best side to the Elf King.

Just like a group of peacocks, they would try their best to display their advantages in order to obtain the favor of the opposite gender.

Even a little girl like Shi Dan who was usually inconspicuous started to take small steps.

Shen Yanxiao instantly felt that she was too reserved in front of Xiu!

"They're too inexperienced." Wen Ya, who had been watching a good show, was speechless when she saw their performance.

The Elf King turned to look at Wen Ya, a mixed-race who was once on the verge of becoming his wife. His gaze was so gentle that one would think he was looking at his offspring, and the smile that instantly killed all the elves blossomed on his lips.

"They are still young."

Wen Ya seemed to be immune to such a lethal smile. There was practically no fluctuation in her expression.

"If you don't come out and provoke them, I believe they will be much more normal."

Fen Chu frowned. He disliked Wen Ya's attitude towards the Elf King. However, since the Elf King did not say anything, he could only silently stand on one side and guard.

Chapter 1432: Elf King (2)

The Elf King seemed to be accustomed to Wen Ya's sarcasm, as he did not mind much.

"You've been in the human world for too long. You're becoming less and less like an elf."

Wen Ya shrugged her shoulders and said, "I am not a real elf. You should know that already. I have half the blood of a human in me."

"But you also possess half the bloodline of elves. Wen Ya, you grew up in the Moon God Continent, you belong here." The Elf King sighed.

Wen Ya shot a glance at the Elf King. "I remember someone personally sent me away from the Moon God Continent back then and told me that mixed-race beings are not welcome here."

"My apologies." The Elf King's expression darkened.

"No need, I am merely your prisoner." Wen Ya did not accept the Elf King's apology.

It was hard to imagine who could be so rude to the Elf King.

"Wen Ya..." The Elf King felt helpless.

“Wen Ya, enough is enough.” With a cold expression, Fen Chu stood between the Elf King and Wen Ya. His hand was already on the dagger on his waist.

Wen Ya sneered and raised her eyebrows as she looked at Fen Chu.

“What? You want to fight me?”

Fen Chu said, “If you speak to my king like that again, I don’t mind teaching you the etiquette that an elf should have.”

“Elf? What a joke.” Wen Ya sneered.

The atmosphere between the three sides turned sour. It was about to explode at any moment.

Shen Yanxiao stood not far away. Although she did not hear their conversation, the confrontation between Fen Chu and Wen Ya alarmed her.

“What does Fen Chu want?!” Shen Yanxiao gnashed her teeth. If this stiff face dared to attack her mother, she would not let him have an easy time.

“Wait and see.” Xiu sensed Shen Yanxiao’s internal turmoil and immediately comforted her.

“But...” Shen Yanxiao was extremely anxious. Wen Ya’s strength was not considered great, but Fen Chu was the Silvermoon Guards Chief Commander and the only golden elf other than the Elf King. If Wen Ya were to fight against him, she would definitely suffer.

“That mixed-blood is not as weak as you think.”

“What?”

Just as Shen Yanxiao was in a dilemma, Wen Ya and Fen Chu started fighting.

One tall and one short figure intertwined together in an instant, and flames of war ignited.

All the elves were shocked by what they saw!

That human could actually fight toe-to-toe with the Chief Commander of the Silvermoon Guards!

This was simply unbelievable.

Everyone knew that Fen Chu was the number one expert among the elves, and his strength was second only to the Elf King.

That female human looked weak, but she had the courage to challenge Fen Chu!

None of the elves believed that the human was Fen Chu’s opponent. However, what surprised them was that Wen Ya did not fall into a disadvantageous position the moment she exchanged blows with him. Her punches and blocks were so fast that it dazzled their eyes. She did not give Fen Chu any chance to gain a foothold!

Shen Yanxiao looked at her mother in surprise. She could not believe that Wen Ya’s strength was...

This savage!

The short exchange shocked Shen Yanxiao. She was sure that Wen Ya was not weaker than her. In fact... She was stronger than her?

Shen Yanxiao was thoroughly shocked. In her impression, Wen Ya had always been a gentle and weak woman with the appearance of a virtuous wife and a loving mother. But today, she realized that her mother was also a ruthless character that did not concede to men!

Chapter 1433: Elf King (3)

Mom, does dad know that you're so powerful?

Shen Yanxiao silently lit a stick of incense for her father.

"Xiu, can you help me hear the conversation between them?" Seeing that Wen Ya and Fen Chu were locked in a fierce fight, Shen Yanxiao was anxious to hear some information. She did not wish for her mother to be harmed in the slightest.

"Sure." Xiu would grant anything Shen Yanxiao asked for.

Xiu spread his perception to Shen Yanxiao and she immediately heard Wen Ya's voice.

"Fen Chu, do you honestly think that you are invincible just because you are the Chief Commander of the Silvermoon Guards?" Wen Ya had the leisure to ridicule Fen Chu during the fight.

Shen Yanxiao really wanted to kneel down to this gentle yet cruel mother of hers.

Fen Chu gnashed his teeth and looked at Wen Ya. He did not expect this mixed-blood to be so powerful!

After dozens of exchanges, he did not manage to gain any advantage from Wen Ya!

Fen Chu had never encountered such a situation.

"Assistant Fen Chu! That's enough." The more the Elf King looked at them, the angrier he felt. He was helpless.

As the Elf King berated him, Fen Chu immediately pulled away from Wen Ya.

Wen Ya gracefully landed on the ground and casually patted the dust off her sleeves. There was not the slightest trace of fatigue on her gentle, beautiful face.

"Fen Chu, let me tell you. Other elves may be afraid of you, but I am not. So what if you are a golden elf? If I were not mixed-blood, I would have become the third golden elf in the Moon God Continent." Wen Ya looked at Fen Chu arrogantly. So what if he was the Silvermoon Guards Chief Commander? She would not give him any face even if he was the Elf King.

In this world, other than her husband Shen Yu, only her daughter Shen Yanxiao could make Wen Ya willingly suffer.

Fen Chu looked at Wen Ya in surprise.

Fen Chu did not have much of an impression of Wen Ya. Before she revealed her mixed-race identity, he only regarded her as an ordinary elf. Later on, she was selected by the Elf King, and Wen Ya's identity was subsequently exposed. As a result, Fen Chu had only the slightest bit of an impression of her.

However, never in his wildest dreams did Fen Chu expect Wen Ya to be so powerful.

"Fen Chu, Wen Ya is very powerful. She is not as simple as you think." The Elf King sighed. He seemed to be well aware of Wen Ya's strength.

"If not for your strength, would you have dared to sneak into Moonshine City with an unconscious human? Wen Ya, I have always known that you are courageous and good at hiding. If you are willing, you can continue to stay in the Moon God Continent. I promise that no elves will harm you."

Wen Ya looked at the Elf King. "You know my purpose. If I only want to live freely, I will not come back."

There was a trace of disappointment in the Elf King's eyes.

"You've said what you have to say. I've made up my mind. You don't have to waste your breath." Wen Ya was unwilling to continue with this conversation. She had heard so much persuasion during her stay in Moonshine City.

However, there was something more important in her heart. Her husband, Shen Yu.

"I am already married to Shen Yu. I am a member of the Shen family for life and a ghost in death. My current identity is an ordinary woman, not a former elf." Her heart was like an immovable boulder.

The Elf King frowned. Looking at the stubborn Wen Ya, he turned to Fen Chu and said.

"Fen Chu, take her back."

Chapter 1434: Elf King (4)

Fen Chu immediately walked to Wen Ya's side. Wen Ya coldly glanced at him before gracefully turning around. At that moment, she returned back to the elegant and noble woman in Shen Yanxiao's memories.

As she watched Wen Ya leave, Shen Yanxiao's heart was filled with ups and downs.

When she met her mother, she realized that her mother was completely different from what she had imagined.

However, Shen Yanxiao could at least confirm a few points.

Firstly, Wen Ya and Shen Yu were indeed in Moonshine City and that they were still alive.

Secondly, Wen Ya seemed to have been detained by the Elf King, with her father still missing.

Thirdly, the Elf King's attitude towards Wen Ya was still considered gentle, so he would not harm her for the time being.

"That human is so scary." Shi Dan looked at the direction Wen Ya left with lingering fear.

Shen Yanxiao turned to look at Shi Dan.

“Don’t you think so? She could actually fight on par with Fen Chu. When did humans become so powerful?” For Shi Dan who rarely interacted with humans, Wen Ya was practically inhumanly powerful.

“There aren’t many like her among humans.” Shen Yanxiao smiled with a trace of joy.

When Shen Yanxiao saw that Wen Ya was doing fine, she could finally relax.

She had already found Wen Ya, so where was her father, Shen Yu?

Shen Yanxiao bit her lips. Right now, she had to find a suitable time to meet Wen Ya to obtain more information.

However...

How could she sneak into the palace and talk to Wen Ya?

It was not that Shen Yanxiao did not have a way, but she was unwilling to use it. The result of using that method would either end with her being strangled to death or being despised to death by Xiu.

“You don’t have to use this method.” Before Shen Yanxiao could strangle the thought in her stomach, Xiu immediately extinguished that spark.

“Err... I was just casually thinking about it. I don’t have such intentions.” Shen Yanxiao made a solemn vow.

“Good.” Xiu was slightly satisfied.

Shen Yanxiao’s plan had no depth.

Her plan was a simple honey trap.

The Elf King wanted to choose a wife. If Shen Yanxiao had the heart, she could absolutely beat this group of love-struck fools in seconds. However...

She had just got together with Xiu. If she were to sell her body like that, Xiu would definitely beat her to death!

Such a plan would not work. Shen Yanxiao did not want to experience Xiu’s anger, so she could only find another method.

When she returned to her room at night, Shen Yanxiao had already established a mental connection with Taotie, while Shi Dan was still intoxicated by the Elf King’s beauty.

Taotie, who had been eating for an entire day, was considered normal in front of An Ran. He secretly conversed with Shen Yanxiao. He thought the spiritual link between him and his master was extremely interesting.

“Master ~ master ~ I’ve eaten a lot of things today. Demonic cores, ores, treasured fruits...” As expected of a foodie, her conversation with Shen Yanxiao always started with food.

Shen Yanxiao felt helpless. She did not dare to leave Vermilion Bird in the dungeon, as she was afraid that the two enemies would tear down the dungeon once she left.

She could only maintain contact with Taotie to confirm if the situation at the dungeon was still okay.

“Is Duan Xue doing well?” Shen Yanxiao asked.

“Very good.” If it was not about food, Taotie’s sentences immediately became concise.

“Taotie.”

“Yes!”

“I need your help.” Shen Yanxiao suddenly thought of a method to approach Wen Ya without leaving a trace, and this method required Taotie’s cooperation.

Chapter 1435: Wen Ya (1)

It was a quiet night.

All the elves had gone to sleep, so Moonshine City was quiet.

However, the silence was immediately broken by an earth-shocking roar!

Soon after, the ground of Moonshine City began to tremble violently, and all the elves were awakened by this sudden change.

Two months had passed since the last time Taotie went berserk. Just when all the elves thought that he would calm down for a long time, he suddenly exploded with an even more terrifying roar.

This time, Taotie’s roar had covered the entire Moonshine City. The earth was shaking, and the shockwaves throughout the entire city.

Some parts of the room began to wobble, and fear began to quietly spread.

“I’ll go and take a look.” Shen Yanxiao stood up with a calm expression.

“Don’t go! These things will be handled by the elves of the Silvermoon Guards. W-we just have to stay in our room.” Shi Dan hugged the quilt in front of her tightly in fear. She had never seen Taotie before, but she had heard of how terrifying Taotie was from many elves.

It was an extremely savage magical beast. In order to subdue it, they had lost hundreds of members of the Silvermoon Guards. In the end, if not for the Elf King and Fen Chu joining hands, no one had the ability to take it down.

“It’s nothing. You rest first, I’ll be back soon.” Shen Yanxiao comforted the frightened Shi Dan, but a trace of a smile flashed past her eyes.

Shi Dan wanted to dissuade Shen Yanxiao, but she could only look on helplessly as Shen Yanxiao left the room. The trembling of the earth made her afraid to leave the room.

The entire Moonshine City was in a mess that night.

Taotie’s sudden outburst had far exceeded any other occasion in the past. Even in the area surrounding the Tree of Life, they could still hear the magical beast’s roar.

All the members of the Silvermoon Guards rushed to the dungeon at the first instance. The commotion had even alerted Fen Chu and the Elf King.

Shen Yanxiao stood by the Tree of Life and received a report from Taotie.

The Elf King had appeared in the dungeon.

"It's time." Shen Yanxiao licked her lips and leaped onto the tall Tree of Life. She climbed all the way up with her hands and feet. In a very short time, she also plucked a fruit from the Tree of Life and put it in her arms.

The next second, she leaped and walked towards the palace.

Taotie's roar echoed in the skies above Moonshine City. Shen Yanxiao ran with all her might before arriving at the palace.

Taotie's rampage had attracted all the guards in Moonshine City. The Elf King had also personally made a move, taking away all the defenses here.

Shen Yanxiao swaggered into the palace with Xiu's perception activated, just to search for Wen Ya's aura.

Very soon, Xiu locked onto Wen Ya's position, and Shen Yanxiao immediately rushed towards the direction Xiu pointed.

Under Xiu's guidance, Shen Yanxiao walked through the huge palace as if it was a plain. She was not confused in the slightest, as she dashed towards the tightly shut door.

It was an exquisite door. There was a palm-sized precision heavy lock on the door.

This kind of heavy lock condensed all the wisdom of elves, and it was as difficult as ascending to the heavens to unlock it without a key.

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. Unlocking a lock was an extremely simple task for a thief. In front of the lock, she unhurriedly took out two wires from her interspatial ring.

Chapter 1436: Wen Ya (2)

Click...

With a crisp sound, the heavy lock was opened with ease.

The moment she pushed open the door, Shen Yanxiao held her breath.

In the clean room, there was a large bed placed opposite the door. On the white bedsheets, Wen Ya sat there quietly in a light yellow long dress. Her pair of calm eyes stared at Shen Yanxiao who barged into the room.

"Who are you?" Wen Ya did not show any signs of panic. She merely asked the unfamiliar elf in front of her calmly.

Looking at the other party's attire, he should be a Saintess from Moonshine City. However, she was curious as to why a Saintess would appear in her room.

Ever since she was imprisoned in Moonshine City, other than the Elf King, only Fen Chu could approach her. Both the Saintesses and the Elders were isolated outside.

The Elf King did not allow her to have any contact with any elves.

Shen Yanxiao opened her mouth and looked at Wen Ya.

Even though she had met Wen Ya before, they were still quite far apart back then. It was the first time they were in such close contact.

In her past life, in this life.

Shen Yanxiao had always been like an orphan.

She had never felt any warmth from her parents.

However, the blood in her body was screaming that the woman before her was her mother!

Shen Yanxiao gritted her teeth. She immediately entered the room and shut the door.

Wen Ya looked at the unfamiliar elf's actions. There was doubt in her eyes. However, there was more calmness and silence than doubt.

"I..." Shen Yanxiao stood in front of Wen Ya. She did not know what to say.

Just as Shen Yanxiao did not know how she would explain herself, Xiu removed the disguise on her at the right time.

Wen Ya looked on helplessly as the elf in front of her shrunk bit by bit. Her silver hair was gradually replaced by black. In the blink of an eye, a beautiful human girl suddenly appeared before her.

It was merely a glimpse, but Wen Ya felt as if her heart had been strangled. She held her breath and looked at the face before her that combined all her and her husband's good points.

In an instant, the facade of indifference collapsed.

"Xiaoxiao..." Wen Ya looked at the little girl in front of her with a hoarse voice.

Her eyebrows and lips resembled Shen Yu.

Wen Ya suddenly jumped down from the bed. Without wearing her shoes, she rushed to Shen Yanxiao's side with her bare feet and pulled her into her embrace.

"Xiaoxiao, you've grown up." The yearning she had accumulated for more than a decade had collapsed at that moment. Wen Ya could no longer disguise her calmness and strength on the surface. She could not believe her eyes and everything that had happened.

Her daughter, her child, had unexpectedly appeared here!

"Mother..." Shen Yanxiao barely managed to utter the unfamiliar word.

She originally thought it would be extremely awkward, but she did not expect the word to come out so naturally.

Blood was thicker than water.

“I’m sorry, I’m sorry... It must have been painful for you to be left alone in the Brilliance Continent. I’m sorry that I’m not a good mother.” Wen Ya hugged Shen Yanxiao tightly. They had been separated for more than a decade. When Shen Yanxiao was still a baby in swaddling clothes, she had no choice but to leave her and escape to the Moon God Continent with her husband.

As a mother, how could Wen Ya not miss her child?

Chapter 1437: Wen Ya (3)

Wen Ya might be strong. She might be powerful, but that strength was her determination to face her enemies.

But facing his daughter...

Drops of tears dripped onto Shen Yanxiao’s shoulders. Shen Yanxiao silently hugged this woman filled with guilt.

After more than a decade, at least Wen Ya and Shen Yu were still alive.

“Why are you here?” Wen Ya calmed herself down and looked at Shen Yanxiao with concern. Shouldn’t her daughter be living happily in the Brilliance Continent?

Why would she appear in the Moon God Continent?

Furthermore, with the appearance of an elf.

“It’s a long story...” Shen Yanxiao looked at Wen Ya with a bitter smile. The mother and daughter supported each other and sat down on a chair in the room.

Shen Yanxiao slowly told Wen Ya everything about her life. Except for Xiu, she told her everything.

Wen Ya listened quietly. When she heard of Shen Yanxiao’s years of suffering and the exciting life she had led in recent years, tears flowed down her face.

“At that time, your father and I were ambushed, and you were forcefully snatched away. Even though I could use the source of life to protect your father’s last trace of life, I am not a real elf in the end. I could not keep his life for long. Therefore, I had no choice but to bring him back to the Moon God Continent with the intention of using the Tree of Life to save him. As for you, my child, I can only ask the Sage to save you.” Wen Ya rubbed Shen Yanxiao’s head.

Back then, even though she survived the calamity, she had also suffered from severe injuries. At that time, she was powerless to save Shen Yanxiao. On one hand, it was her husband who was on the verge of death, and on the other, it was her daughter whose life or death was unknown. Wen Ya was forced into a dead end. If not for Shen Siyu, she would have gone crazy over those two choices.

After obtaining Shen Siyu’s promise, Wen Ya brought Shen Yu back to the Moon God Continent, her homeland.

Shen Siyu had given her a soul contract that could protect Shen Yu's heart meridians. However, he had to rely on the Tree of Life to completely recover.

Only the powerful life force of the Tree of Life could revive Shen Yu.

"Back then, I was still a member of the elves, but I was expelled from the Moon God Continent due to my mixed-race identity. I returned again. Not daring to be discovered by any elves, I could only find my former bodyguard, Yue Xi, and your little uncle, An Ran, in private and have them arrange everything for me. However, my thoughts were too simple. Even if I could bring your father into the Tree of Life, I could not completely conceal our aura. Not long afterwards, we were captured by the Elf King. I was detained in the palace by him, and your father was nowhere to be found." Wen Ya was rather sentimental as she recalled everything that happened back then.

Breaking into Moonshine City was the only way to save Shen Yu. Therefore, she had no choice but to do so.

"I met with Third Uncle. He gave me the Purple Night Seed, and he said that it is the key to saving my father." Shen Yanxiao took out the small seed from her interspatial ring.

Wen Ya forced a smile and said, "Shen Jing is a good person, but I don't know where your father is imprisoned. For so many years, I did not dare to act rashly because I was afraid that the Elf King would harm your father. When we were arrested, your father had recovered his consciousness, but his body was still weak. To completely eliminate the toxins in his body, we had to combine the Tree of Life and the Purple Night.. For so many years, the Elf King was unwilling to let me see your father, so I honestly don't know where he is currently imprisoned."

Chapter 1438: Causing a Havoc (1)

"Mother, are you saying that if we want to find Father, we can only ask the Elf King?" Shen Yanxiao touched her chin. She had never seen the Elf King in action, so it was hard to gauge his strength.

Fen Chu's fighting strength was not bad, and the Elf King should not be inferior to him.

Worst of all, Shen Yanxiao was currently in Moonshine City. If she were to fight against the Elf King, she would probably be besieged by the elves at all sides very soon.

Shen Yanxiao was not afraid of getting besieged. What she was afraid of was the possibility of her not being able to take down the Elf King.

Reality proved that even if she had one-fourth of the elvish bloodline in her body, Shen Yanxiao did not have the slightest awareness of being an elf.

Wen Ya was an oddball among the elves, but she had never thought of holding the Elf King hostage. Shen Yanxiao, on the other hand, the first thought that came to her mind was to tie the Elf King up.

"I have been trying to get information about your father from him, but he has his guard up against me and did not tell me much." Wen Ya sighed. For so many years, she did not fall out with the Elf King. On one hand, Shen Yu's whereabouts were unknown and she had to be on guard. On the other hand, she was unwilling to implicate the Moonshine Tribe.

Due to Yue Xi and An Ran helping her infiltrate Moonshine City, the Moonshine Tribe was immediately demoted after the incident. Yue Xi was also deprived of his power as a black elf and was driven to a cyan-level city.

If she were alone, Wen Ya would not obediently stay in the palace.

“Perhaps we can negotiate with the Elf King?” Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. It was not a wise choice to confront the Elf King in the territory of the elves. Not to mention that her maternal family were all elves. Once the conflict was exposed, she probably could not continue to stay in the Moon God Continent, let alone break the last seal and find her father, Shen Yu.

Wen Ya shook her head.

“We don’t have any chips on our side.”

The Elf King ruled the entire Lunar Continent. Was there anything he could not obtain?

Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes.

A bargaining chip?

She seemed to have some, but she wondered if the Elf King would buy it.

“Mother, I should have a way to negotiate with the Elf King. Rest assured that I will make him hand over Father.” Shen Yanxiao had already thought of an excellent method.

Wen Ya looked at her daughter in surprise. In such a short period of time, she discovered that Shen Yanxiao was not as childish as she should be at her age. Instead, she was so mature that even as her mother, she was surprised.

“Don’t be rash. Your father and I would not want anything to happen to you.” Wen Ya was worried.

“I know my limits.” Shen Yanxiao smiled at Wen Ya.

She was not an idiot who would do something stupid.

Shen Yanxiao immediately connected with Taotie and sent him a signal.

Earlier in the day, she had already decided to have Taotie incite a riot to attract all the troops in Moonshine City. The reason why she had chosen to do so at night was because An Ran was guarding the city at night. Even if something were to happen, Fen Chu would not implicate Duan Xue if he were to investigate. After all, Duan Xue relied on the disguise potion to transform into Shen Yanxiao’s appearance. If she were to confront Fen Chu and the Elf King, no one knew if she would be exposed.

Additionally, the night was a thief’s favorite time. It provided a person like her the best protection.

“Taotie, how’s the situation on your end?”

Chapter 1439: Causing a Havoc (2)

“Master ~ I am doing well here. They are enchanting again.” Taotie, who was in the dungeon, opened his mouth and roared. The food provided by Shen Yanxiao had allowed him to accumulate a lot of strength. Even if it was just a casual shout, it was more impactful than his previous hoarse roars.

Taotie dutifully completed the task Shen Yanxiao gave him. His four claws dug around the ground with all his might, and his mountain-like figure caused Moonshine City to tremble.

The group of elves were frightened by what they saw. They were afraid that Taotie would break free from his shackles the very next second.

In fact, Taotie had no intention to run. In any case, he would be free once his master summoned him. He was merely acting.

All sorts of shameless acts like him digging out huge pits on the ground and him screaming at the top of their lungs were just an act.

The elves in the dungeon had a solemn expression on their faces. All the enchanters were using all their strength to write enchantments, and almost all the members of the Silvermoon Guards were present. All of them stood by the Elf King's side solemnly.

The Elf King looked at Taotie with an ugly expression.

This time, Taotie's rage was evidently more intense than before, and the chains tied around him seemed as if they would break free the very next second.

"Why did Taotie suddenly explode into rage?" Fen Chu asked An Ran who was responsible for keeping watch at night with a gloomy expression.

An Ran's face turned deathly pale. He also wanted to know why Taotie had suddenly kicked up a fuss.

For the past few months, Taotie had been very well-behaved. No need to mention going berserk, he did not even utter a single sound. He originally thought that it would be a peaceful night, but who knew that Taotie, who was snoring on the ground, would suddenly become excited as if he had been injected with chicken blood.

An Ran could only swear that he did not provoke Taotie in the slightest!

"I don't know. He had been sleeping before he suddenly went berserk." An Ran felt that he was really innocent. During his shift, he had been carefully guarding Taotie. It had not been easy for him to relax for the past two days, but Taotie played such a trick on him.

"Have the Silvermoon Guards stand-by the entrance of the dungeon and make sure that Taotie does not escape!" Fen Chu immediately gave an order. Taotie had gone berserk for a long time, and even though the number of enchantments were constantly increasing, his strength did not weaken in the slightest.

This had never happened before.

The previous few times when Taotie went berserk, it would at most last for ten minutes. However, this time had exceeded half an hour.

The situation was not optimistic.

How could Fen Chu know that the reason why Taotie was so energetic was all thanks to Shen Yanxiao? With a hundred thousand demonic cores fed to his stomach and a large number of terrifying energy ores piled on top, Taotie finally had the strength to struggle.

Compared to a starving Taotie, the difference in fighting strength was evident!

If Shen Yanxiao were to feed Taotie for another ten years or so, he would probably be able to free himself from the shackles and escape without her summoning.

All the members of the Silvermoon Guards in Moonshine City were mobilized. The dungeon was surrounded by three layers of walls and three layers of guards.

As Taotie was using his roars and body to increase the pressure on the elves, he was happily chatting with Shen Yanxiao in his mental world.

Ever since he signed the contract with Shen Yanxiao, Taotie had liked this method of contacting his master at any time.

“Taotie, do you want to go out and have a walk?” Shen Yanxiao’s teasing words were transmitted to Taotie’s mind.

Chapter 1440: Causing a Havoc (3)

Just as all the elves were solemnly waiting, a strange scene suddenly appeared before their eyes.

Taotie, who was suppressed in the cage, suddenly disappeared without a trace. The chains that were tied to Taotie earlier instantly lost all support and fell to the ground with a clinking sound.

“What... happened?” The elves were completely dumbstruck.

How could Taotie disappear from the huge cage?

“I’ve seen a ghost! Where did Taotie go?” Many elves subconsciously rubbed their eyes, wondering if they were hallucinating due to nervousness.

A huge beast had disappeared right before their eyes!

All the roars disappeared in an instant.

In the noisy dungeon, there was dead silence.

“Where did Taotie go?” Fen Chu’s complexion turned deathly pale. He no longer cared about anything else and was the first to rush into the cage.

On the ground, the indentations caused by Taotie’s stomp were still there, and the chains were intact. Everything was still the same as before.

It was just that Taotie had disappeared!

“Damn it! Immediately have the Silvermoon Guards search the entire city! We must find Taotie!” Fen Chu gnashed his teeth and said. He immediately returned to the Elf King’s side. “My king, it’s not safe here. Please return to the palace.”

The Elf King frowned and slowly shook his head.

“You are not Taotie’s opponent. I will go with you.” Even the calm Elf King could not help but be shocked by what he saw.

With the magical beast disappearing right before their eyes, no one could digest such a scene.

“I know that after a magical beast signs a contract with a human, it can be directly summoned back into their body. However, Taotie did not sign a contract with any human. Moreover, during his period of imprisonment, he did not have any contact with any human. How could this be?” The Elf King frowned. He was not as flustered as the other elves as he calmly pondered over the reason for Taotie’s disappearance.

All the clues pointed to the contract between a magical beast and a human.

However, this should not have happened to Taotie.

None of the nine sons of the Dragon God were close to humans. Taotie had eaten many humans in the Brilliance Continent. It could be said that the detested reputation of Taotie had already spread throughout the human world. Even greedy humans would not be willing to sign a contract with such a dangerous magical beast.

Furthermore, this was the Moon God Continent. Taotie should not have the opportunity to approach any humans.

“My king, could it be...” Fen Chu looked at the Elf King and hesitated to speak.

The Elf King immediately shook his head.

“It can’t be her. She has been detained in the palace. If I am not in the palace, she would be locked in her room with seven layers of locks. She would never open the door from the inside.” The Elf King understood what Fen Chu was implying. In the entire Moonshine City, only Wen Ya was a human, so only she could sign a contract with Taotie.

However, the Elf King was certain that he had kept a tight watch on Wen Ya. It was impossible for her to escape and even signed a contract with Taotie.

If the Elf King knew that the seven layers of locks he was so proud of could not even last ten minutes under Shen Yanxiao, what would he think?

“In any case, Taotie should still be in Moonshine City. Go and find him at once. Do not let him escape!”
