

The Good 1441

Chapter 1441: Causing a Havoc (4)

The entire Moonshine City was anxious because of Taotie's disappearance.

However, in the Elf King's palace, Wen Ya looked at the little boy who suddenly appeared by Shen Yanxiao's side in surprise.

"Master, how was my performance?" Taotie acted as if he was asking for praise as he pulled on Shen Yanxiao's clothes and swung it back and forth. His pair of large scarlet eyes blinked, and it was quickly filled with the emotions of 'quickly reward me and feed me '.

Shen Yanxiao chuckled and took out a bag of ores from her interspatial ring and handed it to Taotie. Taotie immediately cheered and hugged a pile of hard lumps as he gnawed on it.

"Xiaoxiao, is this your magical beast?" Wen Ya looked at the little boy who kept throwing hard minerals into his mouth to chew, her expression somewhat odd.

Wen Ya was smart. Shen Yanxiao must have summoned her contracted magical beast just now.

There were not many magical beasts that could transform into a human form, and for magical beasts to do so, they must be at the level of mythical beasts or above.

However...

Wen Ya looked at the adorable Taotie. It was hard to imagine what kind of savage mythical beast this silly little guy was.

"Mother, he is Taotie," Shen Yanxiao smiled and said.

Wen Ya was stunned.

"Taotie? Isn't he locked up in the dungeon? When did you sign the contract with him?" When she heard of Shen Yanxiao's growth in the past few years, Wen Ya was already shocked. However, never in her wildest dreams did she expect her daughter to be so savage to the extent that she had even abducted the holy beast that the elves had imprisoned, Taotie!

Taotie's notoriety could be said to be well known to everyone. Back then, he wreaked havoc everywhere in the Brilliance Continent and alarmed the armies of the four countries. However, even with the armies of the four countries surrounding and intercepting him, this vicious beast was not injured in the slightest. If it were not for Vermilion Bird and the rest joining hands to hunt down Taotie, perhaps this scourge would still be causing chaos in the Brilliance Continent.

"More than a month ago." Shen Yanxiao touched her nose. She was embarrassed to say that she had intended to give this beast to Lan Fengli.

"But isn't your contracted magical beast Vermilion Bird?" Wen Ya was sure that she had yet to reach the stage where she was blind from old age. Previously, Shen Yanxiao clearly mentioned that she had signed a contract with Vermilion Bird, and thus became a candidate for the next Family Head.

Why was it now... Taotie?

Shen Yanxiao looked at Wen Ya awkwardly and summoned Vermilion Bird.

Wen Ya was dumbstruck as another cute little boy appeared beside Shen Yanxiao.

“I am Vermilion Bird.” Vermilion Bird spoke to Wen Ya with a polite attitude.

“You have two magical beasts?” Wen Ya felt that she was about to faint.

She had never heard of anyone capable of withstanding the origin source of two magical beasts. Furthermore, both of them were savage to a certain extent.

One was a mythical beast, while the other was a holy beast. The level of a magical beast would also affect the amount of pressure the contractor felt.

If Shen Yanxiao had signed a contract with two low-levelled magical beasts, Wen Ya would not be too shocked.

“Yes.” Shen Yanxiao nodded honestly.

Wen Ya held her forehead in silence.

Well, she had always thought that her daughter was savage. But now, it seemed like she was more than savage!

She was simply heaven-defying!

Signing a contract with two magical beasts was above the level of a mythical beast. God knew that any one of them was enough to dominate the Brilliance Continent!

Chapter 1442: Causing a Havoc (5)

“You really... surprised me.” Wen Ya’s heart pounded. Her daughter was so promising!

She had not even reached the age of fifteen and yet, she had already done so many earth-shattering things. This was absolutely forcing those so-called geniuses and experts to their deaths!

“It’s good that I didn’t embarrass you and father.” Shen Yanxiao smiled. How could the praise of others compare to her mother’s?

Wen Ya laughed. “If your father knew of your current achievements, he would be very happy.”

“Mother, don’t worry. I will make the Elf King hand over Father.” Shen Yanxiao looked at Wen Ya with determination.

“What are your plans?” Wen Ya asked.

Shen Yanxiao revealed a mysterious smile and said to Wen Ya, “Mother, just wait for the good show. Leave the rest to me.”

“Sure.” After understanding Shen Yanxiao’s strength, Wen Ya felt at ease leaving the matter about her husband to her daughter.

Shen Yanxiao turned around and said to Taotie who was still eating. “Taotie, eat later. Let’s have a good fight first.”

“Hmm?” Taotie blinked his eyes. He looked at Shen Yanxiao and then at the food in his hands with a struggling expression.

“I’m a little hungry...” He had expended a lot of energy earlier.

Before Shen Yanxiao could say anything, Vermilion Bird had already rushed over to Taotie in large strides. He grabbed the bag of ores in one hand and used his other hand to pry open Taotie’s mouth before pouring all the ores into his mouth!

“You talk too much. Do what she tells you to do! Hurry up and finish it!” Vermilion Bird was rather cruel to Taotie.

“Wu! Wu!!” Vermilion Bird roughly stuffed a mouthful of ores into Taotie’s mouth. Taotie waved his two small claws in pain.

But Vermilion Bird had no sympathy at all.

Finally, after Taotie swallowed all the food in his mouth, he wiped the tears from the corner of his eyes and followed Vermilion Bird outside under his tyrannical might. Shen Yanxiao held Wen Ya’s arm and followed them out.

Outside the palace, the moonlight shrouded the surroundings. The faint moonlight brought about a trace of light in the dark night.

“Taotie.” Shen Yanxiao looked at him.

“Yes!”

“Show me your skills and turn Moonshine City upside down!” Shen Yanxiao revealed a nasty smile.

If she wanted the Elf King to submit, she had to fork out sufficient capital!

“No problem!” Taotie chuckled, and his petite figure suddenly dashed towards the horizon. The blinding light instantly wrapped around Taotie, and the light expanded in the blink of an eye. When the light faded, the huge ferocious beast suddenly appeared before Shen Yanxiao and Wen Ya.

“Roar!” A terrifying roar resounded throughout the horizon!

“Vermilion Bird, take us to the show.” Shen Yanxiao said to Vermilion Bird.

Vermilion Bird immediately transformed into his beast form. In the blink of an eye, a huge firebird appeared in Moonshine City, and scarlet flames reflected in the sky!

Shen Yanxiao pulled Wen Ya and sat on Vermilion Bird’s back.

The appearance of two huge magical beasts had brought about an unprecedented disaster to Moonshine City!

Taotie, who had been imprisoned for more than a hundred years, finally regained his freedom on this day. The shackles that bound him for more than a hundred years had filled his heart with anger. Right now, he had broken free from these shackles.

The king of all beasts that had once struck terror in the Brilliance Continent had reappeared in this world!

Chapter 1443: Causing a Havoc (6)

The wind was roaring, and the horses were neighing. Taotie was roaring, Taotie was roaring!

Moonshine City was enveloped by the roars of beasts.

For elves, this was a nightmare.

For Taotie, this was a party.

No one expected that Taotie, who had suddenly disappeared from the dungeon, would reappear in Moonshine City. However, it was different from the past. This behemoth had already broken out of the cage, and there were no longer any shackles that could restrain its footsteps!

The elves scattered around Moonshine City in search of Taotie were attracted by his roar and immediately began to swarm toward him.

Shen Yanxiao sat on Vermilion Bird's back and looked down at the elves swarming in from all directions. While they were running, those elves had already grabbed their bows and were ready to attack at any time.

Shen Yanxiao curled her lips and said, "Vermilion Bird, don't let them harm Taotie."

She did not want her newly fattened foodie to become a porcupine by those elves.

All of a sudden, Vermilion Bird flapped his flaming wings, and a blazing whirlwind immediately wrapped around Taotie.

Not even elves could maintain the accuracy of their shots in such a gale.

The moment the elves approached Taotie, they subconsciously raised their bows and shot at him. However, as the arrows flew towards him, they were immediately scattered by the strong wind. Not to mention hitting the target, they were even on the edge of being swept off their feet.

At that moment, they discovered a huge magical beast in the sky!

"What's that?" The elves looked at the fiery bird in surprise. Under the protection of the fiery bird's whirlwind, they could not harm a single hair on Taotie.

One Taotie had already caused them to be in a flurry, and it was hard to deal with. Now, there was even a flying magical beast. The elves could only look on helplessly.

Vermilion Bird's position in the sky had exceeded the range of many of the elves, and it was practically impossible to maintain accuracy at such a long distance. Furthermore, Vermilion Bird would not foolishly stay in the air without moving. The overlord of the sky could not be underestimated.

Coupled with the constant flow of air under the Vermilion Bird's wings, the disturbance was much more terrifying than on the ground.

A massive beast on the ground and a massive flaming bird soaring in the skies. The elves of Moonshine City thought that a calamity was about to arrive.

Taotie roared on the ground, and his four thick claws angrily kicked around on the ground, venting his anger from being imprisoned for so many years. Due to Shen Yanxiao's orders, Taotie did not really harm any elves. He was only pretending to flaunt his might, but that alone had caused many elves to turn pale from fright.

Soon, the Elf King arrived with Fen Chu.

Surrounded by a group of elves, the Elf King finally saw the chaotic scene in Moonshine City!

As soon as he saw the two huge beasts, the Elf King's expression turned ugly. When he saw the familiar silhouette on the back of the fiery bird, the shock in his eyes could no longer be concealed!

"Wen Ya?"

Chapter 1444: Causing a Havoc (7)

Wen Ya, who was just a prisoner a second ago, now sat on Vermilion Bird's back, looking down on the elves.

A young lady with a smile on her face sat by Wen Ya's side. Even though she was still young, she had already shown signs of unparalleled elegance, and her brows were somewhat similar to Wen Ya.

The Elf King seemed to have suffered a huge blow as if a huge stone was pressed on his heart.

That kid...

Could she be Wen Ya's daughter?

"What are you trying to do?" The Elf King took a deep breath and forcefully suppressed the despair in his heart.

Shen Yanxiao sat on Vermilion Bird and smiled as she looked at the Elf King whose expression had changed drastically.

"Elf King, please rest assured that I do not intend to do anything. I just have something I wish to discuss with you in private."

If they wanted to negotiate, they had to reveal their bargaining chip at the very beginning.

Shen Yanxiao had to face the supreme ruler of the Moon God Continent in this gamble. This supreme ruler was not something those human rulers could compare to.

An emperor of a nation could mobilize an entire country's army at the very most, and there might even be some generals who were not on good terms with each other and were playing underhanded tricks. However, the Elf King was in charge of all the elves in the Moon God Continent, and no elves would dare to disobey his orders.

The combination of being a symbol of power and a spiritual leader was the most terrifying opponent.

Shen Yanxiao was gambling on whether the Elf King wanted to drag all the elves in Moonshine City to fight her two magical beasts to the death or to calmly sit down and talk to her.

This plan was her last resort.

If not for the sake of finding her father as soon as possible, Shen Yanxiao would not have chosen such a risky plan.

However, Shen Yanxiao concealed her thoughts well. In the eyes of the elves, she was absolutely an extremely arrogant terrorist!

The Elf King's expression was very solemn. He had never thought that a mere human would have the courage to come to his Moonshine City and request for a negotiation!

She was definitely the most daring human he had ever seen!

"What right do you have to negotiate with my king!" Fen Chu stood before the Elf King with a taut expression and looked at Shen Yanxiao who spoke rudely.

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and raised her hand!

In an instant, Taotie's roar and Vermilion Bird's cry rose and fell. Without any attacks, the roars of the two mythical-level and above brought about a huge shockwave. The few elves near the frontline were nearly knocked out by the shockwave.

"With them." Shen Yanxiao curled her lips and looked at Fen Chu arrogantly.

She had been unhappy with this leader for a long time. When Fen Chu and Wen Ya started fighting, Shen Yanxiao had already started to brew some hostility towards him.

Withstanding the shockwave from the two beasts, Fen Chu's expression was extremely ugly.

As the Chief Commander of the Silvermoon Guards, he was responsible for the safety of Moonshine City. Right now, a human had brought two magical beasts to his territory and caused such a scene. He had no other options.

Shen Yanxiao was simply slapping Fen Chu's face!

Just Taotie alone required the Elf King to personally take action, but now, there was another Vermilion Bird. The elves were truly unlucky.

The Elf King looked at Shen Yanxiao and then at the two magical beasts in a rage. He took a deep breath before saying, "Alright, I promise you. But you have to promise that these two magical beasts will not harm any elves."

Chapter 1445: Conversation (1)

The Elf King surrendered!

Facing two super strong magical beasts, he did not dare to use the lives of all the elves in Moonshine City as stakes.

Shen Yanxiao won the bet!

This was a small step for her, but a huge step for humans!

For thousands of years, she was the first and only one who dared to come to Moonshine City to challenge the Elf King.

“My king!” Fen Chu looked at the Elf King in disbelief. He could not believe that he had agreed to Shen Yanxiao’s request.

The Elf King slightly shook his head and told him not to say anything else.

Shen Yanxiao secretly breathed a sigh of relief. Even though she was confident that the Elf King would not send all the elves in Moonshine City into battle, negotiating with the supreme ruler of a race was not something ordinary people could bear.

“You are a benevolent king.” Shen Yanxiao looked at the Elf King and smiled.

If it were the Emperor of the Longxuan Empire, he would have long disregarded his subordinates and called for the army to crush them.

In a sense, the Elf King was a benevolent ruler.

The Elf King did not say anything else and walked into the palace alone. Shen Yanxiao ordered Vermilion Bird to descend with her and Wen Ya following suit.

Before Shen Yanxiao stepped into the hall, Fen Chu, who was not far behind her, immediately said, “Human! If you dare to harm my king, the elves will not rest until you are dead!”

All the elves stood behind Fen Chu and vowed to protect their king.

Shen Yanxiao turned around and smiled as she looked at the nervous Fen Chu.

“Don’t be so nervous. I am a weak girl without the strength to truss a chicken. How can I kill your king?”

A weak girl without the strength to truss a chicken...

The elves wished they could spit out blood on Shen Yanxiao’s face!

Who had ever seen someone who could bring two mythical beasts to the main city of the elves to provoke the Elf King? And she said was merely a weak girl...

Shen Yanxiao completely ignored the elves’ indignation and dragged Wen Ya into the hall.

The Elf King quietly sat on the chair and looked at the two gorgeous women before him.

“Have a seat.” The Elf King spoke in an unusually gentle tone. It was as if he was not threatened by Shen Yanxiao but had voluntarily come to chat with an old friend.

Shen Yanxiao and Wen Ya sat down.

“What do you want to talk to me about?” The Elf King looked at Shen Yanxiao who sat by Wen Ya’s side. Both of them had gorgeous looks, and they looked alike. It was very easy for him to tell that they were related.

Shen Yanxiao said, "I believe you have already guessed my identity. In that case, I shall cut to the chase. I hope you can hand over my father, Shen Yu."

The Elf King chuckled. He did not look at Shen Yanxiao but at Wen Ya.

"Xiaoya, your daughter is as straightforward as you."

Wen Ya looked at Shen Yanxiao with a tender gaze.

"She's my daughter, so naturally, she resembles me."

The Elf King said, "Back then, when you first entered Moonshine City, I remember very clearly that you were always so gentle and elegant in the eyes of outsiders. However, that was not the real you. Your personality was not as peace-loving as the elves. Instead, you were more like a human. Perhaps it was this difference that made me notice you."

Wen Ya did not speak. She already had her husband and child. She did not wish to talk about the past.

Right now, she was merely a woman who wanted to protect her family.

Chapter 1446: Savage Father and Mother (1)

Wen Ya's silence made the Elf King feel that the memories of the past were easily forgotten. He sighed and turned to Shen Yanxiao.

"Would you believe me if I told you that I did not detain Shen Yu?"

"What do you think?" Shen Yanxiao sneered.

The Elf King forced a smile and said, "In fact, believe it or not, I did not detain your father. After I arrested your mother and father that day, my original intention was indeed to separate them and detain them. However, not long after your father was detained, a silver dragon came to Moonshine City and then it took your father away. I have no idea where it went."

Shen Yanxiao frowned. She did not believe the Elf King.

However, Wen Ya revealed a trace of surprise after she heard what the Elf King said.

"Mother? Do you know something?" Shen Yanxiao looked at Wen Ya's astonished gaze and asked.

Wen Ya bit her lips. "If my guess is right, that silver dragon should be Long Shi."

"Long Shi?" Shen Yanxiao was puzzled.

However, the Elf King revealed a look of sudden realization.

"You mean Long Shi? The Six-winged Silver Dragon? Why would it take Shen Yu away?"

Wen Ya held Shen Yanxiao's hand. There was a trace of gratification and helplessness in her eyes. "Your father, Shen Yu, is an outstanding man. Do you know why I noticed him among tens of thousands of humans back then? Because the first day I saw him, there was a dragon standing by his side."

Shen Yanxiao could no longer describe her shock with words.

Her mother was savage enough to fight against the Chief Commander of the Silvermoon Guards, but her father did not concede defeat and even colluded with the dragons?

Shen Yanxiao instantly felt that blood relations indeed had a huge influence. Compared to her parents, the matter of her raising demons was not considered shocking!

“The Six-winged Silver Dragon is an expert at the peak of the Dragon race. Your father is an interesting person, do you know that? Your father did not sign a contract with any magical beast. Even your grandfather could not do anything about that. But no one knew that Shen Yu already had his own contracted beast, but it was not a magical beast, but a dragon.”

Wow! Her father could even deal with the dragons! Shen Yanxiao completely knelt down before him.

The Dragon race could be said to be the most powerful race other than the God race and the Devil race. Their dragon scales were even more resilient than the toughest armor humans ever made, and any one of them would not be smaller than Vermilion Bird.

Dragons were greedy by nature. They liked to collect all sorts of treasures and hoard until those treasures piled up like a mountain in their nest. Their nest was comparable to the state treasury of the human empires!

In the past, there were many humans who wanted to steal the wealth of the Dragon race. In the end, the dragon-slaying knights failed and all of them turned into piles of bones.

If the elves held a huge prejudice against humans, then the dragons could be said to be dismissive of humans!

For better or worse, the elves would trade with humans, but the dragons disdained to even converse with humans. In their opinion, fragile humans were no different from ants on the ground.

How capable was Shen Yu to have signed a contract with a dragon?

Furthermore, it was a six-winged silver dragon that was second only to an eight-winged golden dragon among the dragons?

Shen Yanxiao found it hard to imagine that her parents were so savage that she felt that her achievements were extremely negligible in comparison!!

Chapter 1447: Savage Father and Mother (2)

The fighting strength of any dragon was comparable to a high-level magical beast and that was taking into account only the lowest grade of earth dragons.

As for sky dragons that possessed wings and could soar in the skies, all of them were mythical-level demon beasts!

For sky dragons, the number of wings they had represented their strength.

Two-winged white dragon, four-winged red dragon, six-winged silver dragon, and an eight-winged golden dragon!

The fighting strength of a six-winged silver dragon was comparable to a holy beast. Even if Taotie recovered his peak fighting strength, he might not be its opponent.

As for an eight-winged golden dragon, it was a powerful dragon that only appeared in legends. It was said that it could easily crush a legendary magical beast!

Shen Yanxiao went through her inner thoughts as she was still in a daze.

It seemed like her parents were not to be trifled with!

No wonder her mother dared to smuggle her way into Moonshine City alone!

Savage!

Too savage!

“Long Shi is the name of that six-winged silver dragon. Although he has signed a contract with your father, he does not stay by your father’s side all the time. Most of the time, he stays in the territory of the Dragon race. Back then, when we were attacked, Long Shi was far away on the island of the Dragon race. After getting severely injured, I snuck into the Moon God Continent with your father. Even though I tried to contact him, your father was in a coma, so I could not get to him. Now that I think about it, your father must have contacted Long Shi after he woke up, and that Long Shi must have come and taken him away.” Wen Ya did not know whether to laugh or cry. Her husband, whom she had been yearning for, had been rescued without her knowing

Shen Yanxiao blinked. “Then why didn’t Long Shi save Mother?”

Wen Ya glanced at the Elf King. The Elf King forced a smile and said, “When I imprisoned your mother in my palace, even though that six-winged silver dragon attempted to search for her, I had completely concealed her aura. Moreover, even though he is a six-winged silver dragon, he did not dare to cause trouble in my Moonshine City. After all, the elves and the dragons have a peace treaty with each other. If he were to go too far, it might lead to a war between the two races.”

Ever since the war between the gods and devils, the surviving races had lost their former alliance with each other as time went by. There were endless disputes between them, and they had divided their territories among themselves. To solve that, they used peace treaties as a way to maintain the current peace.

Without the support of the God race, the various races in the world had become enemies.

If not for the restrictions and suppression from the leaders of the many races, the war between the various races would have continued on after the war between the gods and devils ended.

“You’re not lying to me, are you?” Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes and looked at the Elf King as she pondered over the credibility of his words.

The Elf King smiled and said, “I believe Xiaoya would not stand on my side to deceive you. Furthermore, before that, I did not know that Shen Yu was related to the Dragon race.”

Wen Ya nodded. She was sure that not many people knew about the relationship between Shen Yu and the six-winged silver dragon, let alone the Elf King.

“But Third Uncle said that father’s injuries must be cured with the seed of Purple Night.” Shen Yanxiao frowned. She was about to reunite with her family, but who knew that such a change would happen?

“The Dragon race has many secret techniques. I believe that since Long Shi dared to take your father away, he must have a method to cure him. Even if it cannot be completely cured, it can at least prevent further deterioration of his injuries.” Knowing that her husband was safe, Wen Ya felt relieved.

Chapter 1448: Elf King’s Request (1)

Shen Yanxiao nodded, but her expression when she looked at the Elf King was not friendly.

“Since you know that my father has been rescued, why are you still using his safety to threaten my mother? Elf King, this does not conform to the style of an elf.” Shen Yanxiao looked at the Elf King with a sneer on her lips. If not for the fact that Wen Ya believed Shen Yu was in the hands of the Elf King, how could she have stayed in the Moon God Continent for more than a decade?

The Elf King said, “I deliberately deceived Xiaoya.”

“Then tell me, how should we settle this debt?” Shen Yanxiao looked at the Elf King with ill intentions.

“It doesn’t matter how you calculate it. I only have one question for you.” The Elf King suddenly said.

“Speak.”

“Is Taotie your contracted beast?” The Elf King looked at Shen Yanxiao and asked.

“Yes.” Shen Yanxiao did not disguise this.

“Then can I ask you for a favor? No! A favor for the elves! As long as you promise me, my life will be yours after the matter is done. You can do whatever you want with me.” The Elf King’s expression suddenly turned solemn.

Shen Yanxiao said, “You want Taotie to help the Tree of Life dispel the pollution?”

The Elf King was stunned.

“You know?”

Shen Yanxiao pursed her lips. How could she not know?

Because of this pollution, she was almost chased to death by the Qingyuan Tribe.

“I know a little, but I’m curious. What’s wrong with the Tree of Life? Why is there pollution?” Shen Yanxiao did not want to care about this black-bellied Elf King. However, there were still groups of elves that she cared about in the Moon God Continent, mainly the Moonshine Tribe and the Moonlight Tribe. Shen Yanxiao did not want any of them to be contaminated.

“What pollution are you talking about?” Wen Ya did not know about the pollution.

The Elf King forced a smile and said, “Pollution is a natural disaster for the elves. In fact, not long after the war between gods and devils ended, the Tree of Life suffered from a severe problem. The Tree of Life was sick, and it was constantly withering every day. The disease that was spreading in all directions, the so-called pollution.”

“Not long after the war between gods and devils? Didn’t the Tree of Life only fall sick in the recent years?” Shen Yanxiao was surprised.

The Elf King shook his head. “The Tree of Life has been sick for a long time, but it was not this serious in the past. At that time, the previous Elf King had already noticed the changes in the Tree of Life. He tried all means to control the spread of pollution, but to no avail. Not only would pollution bring unbearable negative emotions to elves, but it would also damage their fertility.”

“Right now, the number of elves is constantly decreasing, and many tribes were completely wiped out due to the lack of newborns. As Elf Kings, we cannot sit back and do nothing. Therefore, the first Elf King thought of a method to use his source of life to absorb the pollution in the Tree of Life to purify it.”

“What?” Shen Yanxiao looked at the Elf King in disbelief.

Using one’s source of life to cleanse the pollution?

This was simply courting death!

Even if the Elf King was stronger than the other elves, the Tree of Life could not withstand the pollution, let alone elves.

The Elf King rolled up his sleeves, and his fair arm was suddenly covered with black lines. These black marks had penetrated deep into his bones and had eroded his body. It could be assumed that other than his exposed skin, the rest of his body had also been contaminated

Shen Yanxiao was no stranger to pollution, as Shui Ling had died because of it.

She had also seen many corpses of elves that had died due to pollution, but the traces on those corpses were far less frightening when compared to the traces on the Elf King’s body.

Just a little pollution was already enough to kill an elf. How did the Elf King survive with so many negative emotions boiling inside him?

Shen Yanxiao could not imagine that the Elf King’s attitude had always been gentle. If she had not seen it with her own eyes, she would not believe that he had been contaminated to this extent.

How strong must one’s willpower be to suppress their negative emotions?

At that moment, Shen Yanxiao could not help but feel respect for the Elf King. No wonder the lifespan of the previous Elf Kings was so short. It was not because of their physique, but because they had endured all the pain without anyone knowing.

That was also the reason why pollution had existed for thousands of years but had yet to erupt.

This was an impenetrable wall built by the previous Elf Kings using their blood and flesh.

“I am about to reach my limit, but the condition of the Tree of Life has worsened over the years. Therefore, I had no choice but to detain Taotie in the dungeon, hoping that he could help the elves tide through this crisis one day. I know you hate me, but I would like to ask you to save the elves. If this continues, the elves will completely disappear from this world in another thousand years!” The Elf King’s expression was filled with despair. Who could understand why he was watching the Tree of Life decline day by day and the number of his people decreasing day by day?

Compared to the period when the war between gods and devils was erupting, the number of elves today was less than one-tenth of what it was back then!

The Elf King could no longer control the spread of pollution. Even if he tried his best to absorb a large amount of pollution, he could not save the elves.

Despair flooded the Elf King's mind and body.

Shen Yanxiao was surprised. She did not expect the pollution to be so serious.

"It's better to help the Moonshine Tribe! Please save the elves." The noble Elf King shed a tear. This was his fear of racial genocide and his frustration at his incompetence.

Shen Yanxiao gritted her teeth and said, "I can ask for Taotie's help, but you have to promise me that you will recover the status of the Moonshine Tribe after this is done! As for your life, I don't care about it. Be a good Elf King, and don't let this tragedy be repeated."

The Elf King looked at Shen Yanxiao. Shen Yanxiao's condition was so simple that it was hard to believe.

In such a situation, he would not blink even if Shen Yanxiao wanted to hack him into pieces. However, she did not take advantage of him. She chose to save the elves, almost unconditionally.

"I promise you," the Elf King said excitedly.

Shen Yanxiao took a deep breath and said, "I have another condition."

"Please speak!"

"I want a branch of the Tree of Life." Shen Yanxiao did not forget that the completion of Clemance required a branch of the Tree of Life.

"No problem!" As long as it could save the Tree of Life and eliminate the pollution, not to mention a single branch, the Elf King could even gift all the fruits on the Tree of Life to Shen Yanxiao.

"I'll talk to Taotie." Shen Yanxiao stood up. Even though she was not a real elf, it had affected her greatly.

The Elf King leaned against the chair as he watched Shen Yanxiao leave.

"Xiaoya, you have a good daughter."

Chapter 1450: Elf King's Request (3)

Outside the palace, all the elves were solemnly waiting. When they saw Shen Yanxiao, they immediately lifted their bows.

"Roar!" Taotie immediately roared at those elves and shifted his heavy body to defend Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao ignored those elves and walked to Taotie's side. She put one hand on him and started a conversation with him using her mental energy.

“Yes.”

“If I asked you to eat something you don’t like, would you be willing?” Shen Yanxiao asked.

“Do you have to eat it?”

“If I don’t eat, I will be troubled.”

“Then I will eat it. Even if it’s something I don’t like, I will eat it if it is requested by Master.” The friendship when helping someone in their hour of need was deep.

Taotie always remembered that after he starved for a long time, it was Shen Yanxiao who gave him his first bite of food.

During this period of time, Taotie’s mouth had not been idle. However, no matter how much he ate, Shen Yanxiao would not frown.

As long as he wanted to eat, Shen Yanxiao would satisfy him.

“Alright. After you finish eating, I will bring you back to the Brilliance Continent and find you the best food.” Shen Yanxiao smiled.

Perhaps Taotie was not that smart, but all his emotions were very straightforward.

Disgust and fondness would be expressed bluntly.

“Yes, yes.”

The elves were unaware of the conversation between them. They were merely standing guard.

Not long later, the Elf King walked out from the palace. The moment he appeared, the elves immediately surrounded Shen Yanxiao and Taotie.

Vermilion Bird in the sky immediately spread its wings and prepared to attack.

However, the next second, he received Shen Yanxiao’s orders not to attack.

“You may leave. What happened today is a misunderstanding. This human girl is my friend. She was merely playful.” The Elf King stood before all the elves with a gentle smile and resolved Shen Yanxiao’s farce.

The elves looked at each other, not knowing what had happened.

Why... did their king suddenly have such a good relationship with this human?

Fen Chu was the first to rush to the Elf King’s side. He looked at the Elf King with concern. After ensuring that he was unharmed, he asked, “My king, why?”

The Elf King gently shook his head.

“Go back and rest.”

Fen Chu gritted his teeth. He had no choice but to follow the Elf King's orders and order the members of the Silvermoon Guards to leave. At the same time, he had also been forcefully dismissed by the Elf King.

After the elves left, Taotie and Vermilion Bird transformed into their human forms and stood by Shen Yanxiao's side.

The Elf King smiled as he looked at Taotie pulling Shen Yanxiao's sleeve. It was hard to imagine that the beast would have such an adorable appearance after it transformed.

"Taotie?" The Elf King bent down and looked at him.

Taotie frowned. He did not forget that it was this elf who collaborated with other elves to suppress him and lock him up in the dungeon.

"Master, can he be eaten?" Taotie pointed at the Elf King.

Shen Yanxiao was stunned for a moment before she burst into laughter.

"You can't eat him."

This foodie!

He even wanted to eat the Elf King.

"Oh." Taotie retracted his hand and looked at the Elf King with regret.

"Idiot." Vermilion Bird shot a glance at Taotie. If not for the Elf King, he would have kicked this idiot to death.
