

The Good 1461

Chapter 1461: Phantom Reunion (4)

"..." Before Xiu could answer, Shen Yanxiao blushed.

When the five beasts saw Shen Yanxiao's rarely seen shy expression, they instantly felt the urge to die.

Alright, they felt that they had asked an extremely idiotic question!

Even a bully like Shen Yanxiao was shy. Was it going to rain?

Xiu looked at Shen Yanxiao, and the coldness in his eyes faded as he slowly said, "Xiaoxiao is my fiancée."

The Five Beasts could no longer remain calm.

"Fiancee? You... even if you're from the God race, you shouldn't have laid your hands on an underaged little girl, right? Don't you think you're being too immoral?" Tang Nazhi looked at Xiu. Even though he had to admit that Xiu was the most outstanding man he had ever met, but...

No matter how he thought about it, it was utterly unethical to attack a loli!

"I can wait for her to grow up." Xiu calmly said.

"Then you can wait for her to grow up before you..." Tang Nazhi gestured towards the end of the hug. He felt that the scene was too cruel. He could not bear to look at it.

"Nazhi." Shen Yanxiao suddenly spoke.

"What?"

"I took the initiative to hug him..." Shen Yanxiao felt the need to declare that she was the one that took the initiative.

"..." Tang Nazhi wanted to cry. When did their pure little girl become so shameless?

"Cough, may I know your name?" Qi Xia was the calmest. They would not object to Shen Yanxiao getting close to men, but... they had always regarded Shen Yanxiao as their little sister who they doted on in all sorts of ways. Right now, their little sister that had yet to reach adulthood had been snatched away by someone else. This feeling was really infuriating!

In another three to four years, they would probably start looking for outstanding men for their little sister.

But now...

Absolutely unacceptable!!

"Asura." Xiu cooperated.

"Ah... Asura?" At that moment, a crack appeared on Qi Xia's calm expression.

Legend has it that during the last battle between gods and devils, the commander-in-chief of the Devil race, the Devil God, led the army of the Devil race to launch the final attack. The armies of the seven races were forced to retreat in defeat under the Devil race's attack. Countless experts from various races died tragically in the hands of the Devil God. Just as they were in despair, the War God of the God race descended from the sky and engaged in an intense battle with the Devil God. In the end, he devoured the Devil God and sealed himself, thus determining the final victory of the war between gods and devils.

The War God's name had always been praised by various races.

And his name was Asura!

"I-I have to take my time." Yang Xi covered his chest, as he felt that the amount of information flowing into his head was too much. He was about to collapse.

When Li Xiaowei looked at Xiu, his vigilance turned into absolute admiration.

His teacher had the bloodline of the Devil race, so he knew the details of the war between the gods and devils very well. Li Xiaowei grew up listening to stories of the war between the gods and devils. It could be said that he had great admiration for the War God, Asura!

Yan Yu looked at Shen Yanxiao in silence. Other than shock, there was also praise in his eyes.

He had always known that Shen Yanxiao was savage. Whether in terms of ability or strength, she could crush everyone.

However...

Did she have to be so cruel to find such a man?

Forget about finding a god that had gone extinct for thousands of years!

She had even found the War God of the God race!

God knows that the War God Asura was worshipped by all seven races!

Was it really okay to bring home such an idol?

Chapter 1462: Phantom Reunion (5)

At the start, the Five Beasts believed that Xiu was the culprit behind their relationship. However, after Xiu's identity was exposed, they immediately felt that...

With Shen Yanxiao's personality, she must have tricked the War God into her hands!!

Savage! Too savage!

Not only was she good at stealing, but she was also good at stealing hearts. Was she trying to defy the heavens?

"Xiaoxiao, you're the best!" Tang Nazhi turned around and gave Shen Yanxiao a thumbs up!

There was probably no man in the entire world who could compete with the War God Asura!

He's absolutely the number one in the world, alright!

"That's enough." Shen Yanxiao touched her nose. She honestly felt that once she was with the five of them, her moral principles would disappear.

"Cough, Asura, are you serious about Xiaoxiao?" While Qi Xia was immensely shocked, he still had the conscience to pay attention to Shen Yanxiao's marriage.

"You can call me Xiu," Xiu said.

"I'm serious."

In Xiu's mind, he would never do anything that was not necessary. To him, to toy with women's feelings was no different from killing defenseless women and children.

It was meaningless, and he disdained it.

"I hope you remember what you said today. Even though you are the War God and we are only humans, if you dare to bully Xiaoxiao in the future, the five of us will kill you even if we have to kill ourselves!" Qi Xia took a deep breath. At that moment, he represented Shen Yanxiao's family and friends. He had to secure her future.

"That day will never come," Xiu said with confidence.

Only then did the five members of Phantom relax. However, the moment they relaxed, they felt weak.

Confronting the War God was not something humans like them should do.

Even though Xiu had deliberately restrained his aura, the domineering aura that radiated from his bones had already caused the Five Beasts to feel overwhelmed.

Qi Xia and the rest were young heroes, but Xiu was an absolute king with ten thousand years of accumulated strength.

The difference between the two was too huge!

It had to be known that back then, Xiu merely revealed a trace of his might in front of the two Phoenixes and just that was already enough to make them surrender immediately. That kind of domineering aura was not something ordinary people could possess.

For Qi Xia and the rest to be able to confront Xiu until now and even threaten him after knowing his identity, this was absolutely a test of courage and will.

Shen Yanxiao looked at her friends helplessly. She was touched by their show of concern, but...

"Why are the five of you here?" Shen Yanxiao walked to Xiu's side and looked at the pale Qi Xia.

"Sigh, is it not for a certain heartless girl. We came all the way here to celebrate your birthday, but you only care about your man. I'm so hurt." Tang Nazhi covered his chest and revealed an 'sad' expression.

However, the authenticity of that expression still had to be considered.

"Err, today is my birthday?" Shen Yanxiao blinked. She had forgotten about that.

"I knew you wouldn't remember. We've even prepared a gift. Let me make it clear first. We specially came to the Moon God Continent to find you. As the host, you have to treat us to a big meal. Otherwise, we won't give you this gift." Qi Xia smiled and looked at Shen Yanxiao as he waved the interspatial ring in his hand.

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and turned to the Elf King. "Elf King, may I trouble you to prepare a meal for these gluttons?"

Chapter 1463: Phantom's Reunion (6)

"Elf King..."

The Five Beasts silently shifted their line of sight to the graceful elf.

"No problem." The Elf King smiled and nodded.

"..." The Five Beasts were instantly speechless.

Didn't they say that elves were cold by nature and disdained humans?

Why was the Elf King so easy to talk to? Moreover, Shen Yanxiao asked him to prepare food?

The Five Beasts' impression of elves instantly shattered.

"Xiaoxiao, aren't you going to introduce these five people to me?" Wen Ya, who had been standing on one side without speaking, walked to Shen Yanxiao with a smile.

"Mother, these five are my friends," Shen Yanxiao smiled and said.

"Mother..."

The Five Beasts once again suffered a severe blow.

"Let's wait until after dinner. Vermilion Bird, Taotie, you should eat together."

"Ao, ao, ao, ao!" When Taotie heard that there would be food, he immediately transformed into his human form happily and followed Shen Yanxiao while wagging his tail.

"Taotie..."

The Five Beasts were thoroughly petrified. They were curious as to what had happened to Shen Yanxiao during the past few months in the Moon God Continent.

She had hooked up with the War God.

Enslaved the Elf King.

Found her mother.

Kidnapped a ferocious beast like Taotie?!

Just what had she done?!

During the meal, Shen Yanxiao obediently revealed all her experiences in the Moon God Continent under the interrogation of Qi Xia and the others, including using food to capture Taotie and the resurrection of the Devil God.

“The Devil God will really come back?” After they heard of Shen Yanxiao’s miraculous journey, the Five Beasts were greatly surprised. However, the rebirth of the Devil God had extinguished all their enthusiasm.

At the mention of Satan, the atmosphere became heavy.

“Yes, but the time is still uncertain,” Xiu said.

“Without the God race, can we defeat the Devil race?” The Elf King revealed a trace of worry.

Back then, the God race had exerted all their strength and barely managed to send the Devil race back to the underworld. For that, the God race had paid a huge price. The extinction of their entire race resulted in that result. Now that the God race was extinct, the Devil race was about to rise from the ashes. The situation was not looking good.

“The God race is not extinct.” Xiu faintly said.

“But you are the only one left, how can you resist the devil army?” The Elf King knew that Xiu was powerful, but he was only one!

Xiu looked up and met everyone’s gaze. “The God race will die, but the divine power will not disappear. When the superior gods die in battle, their power will return to the last temple of the God race. As long as they obtain that power, a new superior god will appear.”

“You can create gods?” Everyone was stunned by Xiu’s words.

“You can say that.” Xiu nodded and said, “The original God race was actually founded by the ancestors of various races. Taotie’s father, the Dragon God, was one of them. He was the ancestor of the Dragon race and possessed the purest power of dragons. He was the Goddess of Life of the elves, the God of Wisdom of the dwarves, the Sea God of the merfolk, and the Dragon God of the dragons. Other than the God race, even the devils had their own demon god, and the superior god of the undead was the God of Death. Once a superior god fell, the god would choose a suitable successor from various races.”

“What about humans? Don’t humans have gods?” Shen Yanxiao noticed that Xiu’s narration only lacked humans. Could it be that humans were the same as the God race in the sense that they do not have any gods?

Xiu looked at Shen Yanxiao and slowly said, “The god of the Human race is the Lord God.”

Chapter 1464: Phantom Reunion (7)

“Lord God...” Tang Nazhi looked up and suddenly felt a strong sense of pride as a human!

The Human race was the weakest among the eight major races, but they possessed the most powerful god!

It could not be more wonderful!

“In that case, can we create gods?” Shen Yanxiao’s eyes sparkled.

“To a certain extent, yes. For example, the superior gods of the four races. As long as they can find a suitable successor, it will do.” The devils and the undead were directly eliminated by Xiu. The whereabouts of the Lord God was unknown. The god race were already filled with gods, so they were also eliminated.

“However, the specific situation can only be confirmed after I return to the last temple of the God race.” Xiu said.

“Then when are you going? Take us with you!!” Tang Nazhi’s eyes began to glow green!

Xiu faintly said, “It will take it a while.”

“What?” Tang Nazhi and the rest were stunned.

“Xiu is only a soul form right now. His body... is still in the hands of those warlocks. He can only open a passage to the God Realm by taking his body back.” Shen Yanxiao glanced at Xiu as determination flickered in her eyes.

No matter what, she would help Xiu find his body!

If his soul form was so powerful... wouldn’t it mean if he retrieved his physical body...

The Five Beasts silently swallowed their saliva.

They could not bully the little girl in the future, as she had found a heaven-defying backer!

What a savage kid!

“How’s the situation in the Forsaken Land?” Shen Yanxiao was in the Moon God Continent, but she had been worried about her foundation in the Forsaken Land.

“With the few of us here, what else can happen? Rest assured, everything is going according to plan,” As if to ease the previous atmosphere, Qi Xia smiled and said.

“We won’t tell you the specifics. You’ll understand after you go back.” Tang Nazhi mysteriously winked at Shen Yanxiao.

They had prepared a huge surprise for Shen Yanxiao in the Brilliance Continent!

“Speaking of which, when do you intend to set off?” Yang Xi asked.

Shen Yanxiao said, “It might take a few more days. I am about to break through the last seal. After that, we will return.”

“Sure!”

Shen Yanxiao looked at Wen Ya and said, “Mother, if Grandfather knew that you and Father are still alive, he would be very happy.”

Wen Ya smiled and gently shook her head. “I cannot return to the Brilliance Continent with you.”

“Why?” The smile on Shen Yanxiao’s face froze.

"I need to go to the territory of the dragons, and I need to find your father." Wen Ya smiled. She could not bear to part with Shen Yanxiao, but she was more worried about her missing husband.

Only by bringing Shen Yu back could they be considered as a complete family.

Shen Yanxiao bit her lips. She also wanted to go with Wen Ya, but there were many things waiting for her to handle in the Brilliance Continent.

The beast tide was about to arrive, and she had to return to the Brilliance Continent to oversee it.

"Go back and do your things. When I find your father, I will return to the Brilliance Continent with him to find you." Wen Ya reached out and patted Shen Yanxiao's head, her eyes filled with reluctance.

Shen Yanxiao could only nod.

"Alright! Now that you've had your fill, it's time to get down to business!" Qi Xia stretched his muscles and delivered an interspatial ring to Shen Yanxiao.

"You'll be fifteen years old after tonight. Happy birthday."

Chapter 1465: Phantom Reunion (8)

Within the interspatial ring, there were over fifty city contracts lying there quietly.

Shen Yanxiao widened her eyes and looked at them in disbelief.

When she left, she only had a few cities under her command. However, in a short span of a year, they had conquered more than fifty cities!

Shen Yanxiao could not believe it!

"We have conquered all five main cities. Many of the cities here were sent by advanced-ranked demons." Qi Xia smiled and looked at Shen Yanxiao.

Over fifty cities in a year. What a glorious achievement!

"The number of advanced-ranked demons under your command is already around ten thousand." Tang Nazi leaned against the chair and dropped a bombshell.

More than ten thousand advanced-ranked demons...

It was equivalent to more than ten thousand Second-Class Experts!

Shen Yanxiao felt like vomiting blood. Not to mention anything else, even if the Broken Star Palace were to come for her, she would have the strength to fight them!

"How is it? Our gift is pretty good, isn't it?" Yang Xi looked at Shen Yanxiao with a smile in his eyes.

The reason why they delayed their journey to the Moon God Continent was to occupy more cities.

There were about a hundred cities in the Forsaken Land, and Shen Yanxiao had occupied half of them!

How glorious was that!

For the sake of these fifty cities, the Phantom members had been busy, going without any sleep or rest for the past few months. Other than eating and sleeping, they had devoted all their time to besieging the cities. Cities were taken down one after the other and their strength continued to increase. After more demons saw the prosperity of Sun Never Sets, they started to turn to their side.

The first few months of difficult days became extremely smooth!

Shen Yanxiao stared at the fifty plus contracts with reddened eyes.

Every single contract represented Qi Xia and the rest's hard work during this period of time.

"Thank you." A thousand words had been kneaded into the most direct word.

"Why are you being so polite with us? Our family has divided these cities. We will definitely slaughter you in the future. Don't cry when the time comes." Tang Nazhi chuckled and looked at Shen Yanxiao.

"Kill them as you wish." Shen Yanxiao looked at her five comrades and felt emotional. Anyone of them had the capital to establish themselves in the Forsaken Land, but they had given up their opportunity to conquer the world and wholeheartedly fought for her. She would never be able to repay this favor in her life.

"You're the one who said that. Don't regret it!" Tang Nazhi smiled exceptionally cockily.

"I didn't expect it to be your birthday today. How about this, I'll have the elves prepare a feast tonight as a celebration for your birthday." The Elf King smiled. He appreciated the way the six Phantom members interacted with each other. There was not much talk about benefit, only mutual support.

A grand birthday banquet hosted by the Elf King.

This was the best birthday Shen Yanxiao ever had. She had Xiu, the Phantom members, and her mother. Everything made her feel like she was in a dream.

Shen Yanxiao sat in front of the bonfire and snuggled with Xiu as she listened to the elves' singing. Throughout the night, Xiu sat by Shen Yanxiao's side and watched the lively scene.

"Happy birthday." A trace of fatigue appeared on Xiu's face. After he healed the Tree of Life, he had overexerted his strength. The reason why he did not enter a deep sleep was because he wanted to accompany Shen Yanxiao through her fifteenth birthday.

Chapter 1466: Phantom's Reunion (9)

Xiu's head slowly leaned against Shen Yanxiao's shoulder, his golden eyes narrowed with exhaustion.

"Xiu."

"Yes?"

"I am happy to have you."

"Me too." A faint smile blossomed on Xiu's lips as a sense of exhaustion spread throughout his body. The moment the midnight bell rang, Xiu's figure gradually dissipated into starlight until he disappeared.

Shen Yanxiao lowered her head and touched her chest.

She knew that Xiu was there. He was just tired and asleep.

One day, he would reappear by her side.

“Thank you, Xiu.”

The elves were free from the pollution and finally recovered their peace. The new Tree of Life was not influenced by Satan anymore. Moreover, it had been watered by divine power, allowing it to grow more and more luxuriant.

The Elf King was so grateful for Shen Yanxiao’s kindness that he even took care of the Phantom members.

Shen Yanxiao took the opportunity to negotiate with the Elf King.

The Moon God Continent had strict regulations when it came to making transactions with humans, causing a lot of products to not be traded with each other. This was related to the system of elves.

However, Shen Yanxiao’s status was different from other humans. It was not inappropriate for the Elf King to open up a separate trading port for her. Furthermore, Shen Yanxiao was an unscrupulous bastard who would never give up such a good opportunity.

She directly requested for the Elf King to open up all the transactions between both sides. Of course, this was only for her people, the other humans would be restricted as usual.

The Elf King immediately agreed to Shen Yanxiao’s request. It could be said that Shen Yanxiao was about to become a boss that would monopolize the trades between the Moon God Continent and the Brilliance Continent!

Of course, she would not easily give this privilege to others. She would trade all the resources in the Moon God Continent with the products created by the various cities in the Forsaken Land. This would bring great benefits to dozens of cities under her command!

Having finalized the deal, Shen Yanxiao basically had another layer of economic guarantee.

For the rest of their time here, Shen Yanxiao worked hard to cultivate her source of life. She wanted to reduce the time she had to stay on the Moon God Continent to the shortest amount of time possible so that she could return to Sun Never Sets as soon as possible to replenish Xiu’s energy.

Seeing that Shen Yanxiao was busy, Qi Xia and the rest cooperated and did not disturb her.

This was because they discovered a very interesting toy.

“Open your mouth.”

“Ah!”

“Aha!!”

“It hit!”

Tang Nazhi chuckled as he looked at Taotie who was currently eating. He honestly felt that this gluttonous magical beast was too much fun. No matter what he fed it, it would obediently open its mouth and wait to be fed.

“If you dare to throw a rock into Taotie’s mouth again, I believe Xiaoxiao will chop you into mincemeat after she completes her seclusion.” Qi Xia lazily laid on the grass as he supported his head with one hand and waved the fan with the other.

“Erm...” Tang Nazhi blinked his eyes. In fact, he was not that mean. He merely wanted to tease Taotie earlier on, but he did not know that he would eat everything. Realizing this, it was as if Tang Nazhi had opened up a new world and was having a great time.

Taotie sat on the grass with a pile of food in front of him as he foolishly looked at the dumbstruck Tang Nazhi.

“Taotie, stop eating those rocks. I made you some pastries. Here, have a taste.” The number one chef of Phantom, Yan Yu, walked over with a small tow truck with a smile.

The cart was filled with food and it was really...

all pastries!

Chapter 1467: Phantom’s Reunion (10)

Even though Taotie would eat everything, he had a certain degree of appreciation for delicacies. In a short span of one day, Taotie was defeated by Yan Yu’s food attack.

As long as Shen Yanxiao was cultivating, he would follow behind Yan Yu and beg for food.

Seeing this, Vermilion Bird cursed him in his heart a hundred times over.

Vermilion Bird had his own troubles. He had not eaten the fruit Shen Yanxiao gave him. He would often stare blankly at the fruit of the Tree of Life. No one knew what he was thinking.

Finally, half a month later, Shen Yanxiao finally broke through the last seal of her elvish bloodline. This breakthrough had allowed her to advance further. Not only could she fully utilize the skills of a warlock and an archer, but her strength had also improved.

Shen Yanxiao discovered that after her bloodline breakthrough, she could freely switch between the two races. Even without Xiu’s help, she could still transform on her own.

The last layer of the seal was undone, indicating that Shen Yanxiao’s time on the Moon God Continent had come to an end. She was about to bring her family back to the Brilliance Continent.

Before they returned, Shen Yanxiao and Wen Ya made a trip back to the Moonshine Tribe.

Wen Ya’s return caused the entire Moonshine Tribe to be excited. An Yan even directly dragged Wen Ya to have a long private conversation. No one knew what they had talked about.

However, when the two of them came out from the room, An Yan’s eyes had reddened.

The night before departure, Shen Yanxiao spent the last part of the party with all the elves of the Moonshine Tribe and the Moonlight Tribe in her elf form.

As if knowing that Shen Yanxiao would not return once she left after this, the few old men from the Moonlight Tribe chatted with her for a long time.

Shen Yanxiao handed a branch of the Tree of Life to Lan Si and asked him to complete Clemance.

In the future, she would send someone to retrieve it.

Shen Jing stood quietly at one side amid the excitement. He looked at Wen Ya among the elves with a smile on his lips.

The days before departure would always pass by so quickly, just like quicksand.

Wen Ya left before Shen Yanxiao and boarded the ship heading towards the territory of the dragons.

The next day, Shen Yanxiao and her team were finally about to leave the Moon God Continent. The elves of the two tribes had all set off. They stood before the Moonlight Coast and looked at Shen Yanxiao who was about to board the ship.

Su Qian and Su Chen were sobbing uncontrollably. They pulled on their grandfather's sleeves and looked at Shen Yanxiao with watery eyes.

"If you have time in the future, you must come back and visit us." An Yan's voice was hoarse. She had just sent her daughter away and now, she had to look on helplessly as her granddaughter left. This strong woman was filled with sadness.

"Yes." Shen Yanxiao smiled and nodded.

Little Phoenix and Mini Dragon had been fetched back by the Vermilion Bird. They stood on Vermilion Bird as they waved goodbye to the elves who had taken care of them for a long time.

Other than the magical beasts and the Phantom members, Shen Jing also stood among the departing group. He found a familiar figure among the elves. That gentle figure stood at the end and looked at him quietly.

Shen Jing smiled bitterly and lowered his head, forcing himself not to look at that gentleness.

Shen Yanxiao and the rest stepped onto the ship they had been waiting for a long time. Standing on the ship, Shen Yanxiao waved goodbye to the elves on the Moonlight Coast.

She did not know when she would return, but she was sure that she would come back to see these adorable elves again.

They lifted the anchor and set off on a long journey.

Shen Yanxiao stood at the bow and smiled as she looked at the boundless sea.

"Brilliance Continent, I'm back!"

Chapter 1468: Return of the Lord

The changes that happened in the Forsaken Land for the past a year and a half had shocked the entire Brilliance Continent.

No one expected that the restricted area had become a place where humans could live.

In a short span of a year, the talk about the Forsaken changed from mere mention to yearning.

There was a legend in the Brilliance Continent that a certain area in the Forsaken Land was a paradise for humans, and there, demons would never attack humans.

More and more merchants chose to enter the Forsaken Land to develop their businesses. More and more people yearned to relocate to the Forsaken Land to live there. There were no taxes or oppression there. The stability and potential wealth had aroused the interest of many.

However, once that happened, the Forsaken Land also started its own screening process.

“Boss, another group of people wants to apply to move in. Take a look.” Evil Wolf and Magic Wolf carried a huge pile of applications and walked to Du Lang before they placed down the documents.

Du Lang sat in front of the desk and looked at the pile of applications, feeling a headache coming soon.

“As per the old rules, call Sleep Wolf and the rest over to see if there are any talents that can stay. Also, our attitude towards the Blue Moon Dynasty will never change. Do not recruit any residents from that side.” In the past year, more and more cities had been developed with Sun Never Sets as the centerpiece. A large number of people had flooded in, but a large number of them were slaves rescued from the Scar of Oblivion.

Even though people from other countries had the same thoughts, Du Lang and the rest would have a strict screening process.

The Forsaken Land could be said to be Shen Yanxiao’s private property. All the finalists would be restricted from their original nationality, but even so, there were still many people who wanted to settle the score.

Du Lang and the rest were doing a lot of paperwork every day.

Compared to worry-less slaves, people from other countries would come with some motives.

Since Du Lang was responsible for this, he had to be strict with his standard.

Not only did they have to investigate the background of the applicants, but they also had to assess their personal abilities. Sun Never Sets was no longer the Sun Never Sets of the past. At this moment, it had become very powerful. If too many mediocre people were to enter, they would only be a burden to the surrounding cities.

What they wanted was elites and talents!

“Speaking of which, Third Young Master and the rest have been in the Moon God Continent for quite some time. I wonder when they will return.” Evil Wolf thought as he reviewed the application.

“The City Lord should be returning soon,” Magic Wolf looked up and said.

“You have to call her Lord now.” Du Lang laughed. Shen Yanxiao already owned half of the Forsaken Land. Just like how the demons were addressing her, she had become a real lord!

In the Forsaken Land, all the cities under Shen Yanxiao’s name had been obtained by Qi Xia and the others from the Emperor of the Longxuan Empire through some negotiation.

It could be said that the Forsaken Land had become Shen Yanxiao’s property. She had left the control of the Longxuan Empire and became an independent area.

Just like the God Realm.

“Hehe, that’s right! Lord!” Evil Wolf laughed foolishly.

“Leader!!” Just as they were conversing, Wild Wolf hastily ran in.

“I’ve received news from the Third Young Master! Quick, take a look!” Wild Wolf panted as he ran to Du Lang before stuffing a small piece of paper into Du Lan’s hands.

Du Lang took a quick glance and suddenly stood up!

Chapter 1469: Lord’s Return (2)

Shen Yanxiao sat in the carriage and looked at the Forsaken Land that had changed completely.

The once dilapidated scene no longer existed. New cities were erected in this restricted area. On the paved road, many carriages frequently entered and left various cities. Many humans were gathered at the city gates, preparing to enter the city.

Shen Yanxiao was surprised to discover that there were a few low-ranked demons with their arms around their backs in the crowd. The appearance of those demons did not cause any panic. Instead, there were many humans who would communicate with those demons.

Evidently, the relationship between humans and demons had undergone a huge change in the Forsaken Land. From former hostility to the current peaceful coexistence!

“We’ll be there soon.” Qi Xia leaned against the carriage with his hands behind his back and looked at Shen Yanxiao’s fixed gaze with a smile.

“How did you do it?” Shen Yanxiao looked at the Forsaken Land that was filled with vitality, feeling as if she was in a dream.

“Me?” Shen Yanxiao looked at Qi Xia in doubt. She had not been in the Brilliance Continent for some time.

“You have given us a good foundation. You have changed the attitude of demons towards humans. With Sun Never Sets as a symbol, the people here slowly accepted the existence of demons.” Qi Xia smiled. They had only expanded the foundation Shen Yanxiao had left behind. She was the one who had laid the foundation.

If Shen Yanxiao had not subdued the demons and given them a stable life and a constant stream of food, they would never have been able to accomplish this feat in such a short time.

She was the one who resolved the demons' appetite for humans and indirectly changed their attitude towards humans.

Without the demons' help, they could only rebuild a single city.

Shen Yanxiao touched her nose. She honestly did not know that what she left behind would have such a huge effect.

"Right now, humans and demons coexist in every city. We planted those three plants in every city, and the demons enjoy it," Qi Xia said.

Every city looked so peaceful, and every city wall was so tall and sturdy. Artillery that had been modified were mounted on the wall, making it look unstoppable.

It had become a small country. Be it the living environment or their military forces, it was no weaker than any country in the Brilliance Continent.

It was to the extent that every single resident here enjoyed treatment that far exceeded any other country!

The Phantom Auction House had expanded to dozens of shops. They had established branches in several mid-scale cities and large-scale cities. The most valuable items from the Forsaken Land were auctioned off there, and all of this accumulated a huge amount of wealth for Shen Yanxiao.

Even if Shen Yanxiao were to just retire, she could eat for the rest of her life.

It could be said that Shen Yanxiao's current wealth had reached the point where she had too much money to spend!

With this much economic support, the construction of more than fifty cities was done according to the highest standards. The city walls, buildings, and defenses were all to the best designs.

Any one of them would cause those high-ranked officials in the capital to be ashamed when compared to the other four countries.

In the cities under Shen Yanxiao's jurisdiction, there were no poor people nor beggars. Everyone had ample food and clothing.

Chapter 1470: The Lord's Return (3)

In the cities that were not yet built, there were special pagodas built for cultivating magic and battle aura, which attracted a large number of experts to come over. In order to break through to a higher level, many people had chosen to join the army in the Forsaken Land.

For those who wholeheartedly pursued a higher and stronger goal, nationality no longer had any restrictions on them. They needed a better platform and a wider world.

No place was more suitable for them than the Forsaken Land.

Shen Yanxiao sat in the carriage. As she got closer to Sun Never Sets, the nearby cities became increasingly crowded.

It was a lively scene everywhere.

When the carriage stopped in front of the gate of Sun Never Sets, Shen Yanxiao stepped down from the carriage, stepping on the land that belonged to her. She had never felt so at ease and proud before.

The Five Beasts walked behind Shen Yanxiao and gave their forefront position to the owner of the territory.

Shen Yanxiao walked toward the gates of Sun Never Sets. It was noon, but the gates were locked. She had just arrived, but before she could knock on the gates, it suddenly opened.

The moment the city gates were opened, petals fell from the city walls. The petals danced and the cheers instantly resounded throughout the horizon!

“Welcome back, Lord!” Sounds of orderly and powerful roars sounded from Sun Never Sets. Starting from the city gates, countless humans and demons stood on both sides of the road in an orderly manner. Their right hands were on their chests as they slightly lowered their upper bodies to welcome their lord!

Shen Yanxiao looked at the scene before her in shock. The clean road was sprinkled with pink petals and clusters of fresh flowers were placed on both sides of the road. They were all red, similar to a gorgeous sunset that covered the earth.

Shen Yanxiao opened her mouth and as she looked at those familiar figures standing at the forefront, a heartfelt smile surfaced in her eyes.

She’s back!

The Forsaken Land, welcome back your master!

All the humans and demons stood up straight and did not put down their fists.

The left chest was closest to the heart, and that represented their loyalty.

For nearly a year, they had not forgotten Shen Yanxiao’s existence. They had been working hard and diligently. They wanted to imprint Shen Yanxiao’s name on everything in the Forsaken Land before their lord returned to offer this land to their lord!

At this moment, the Sun Never Sets was silent. Everyone had reached a consensus to shut their mouths. They used their eyes and focused on their lord.

It was solemn.

Walking into Sun Never Sets step by step, Shen Yanxiao felt as if she had returned to her home, her hometown.

Shen Yanxiao had never felt such a strong sense of belonging.

Shen Yanxiao walked at the front with the other five members of Phantom following behind her. However, they maintained a distance of three steps from her.

There were only three steps.

The long road led straight to the City Lord's Mansion. From the city gate to the City Lord's Mansion, the dense crowd was not sparse in the slightest. Even though they had crowded the entire place, there was not the slightest sound.

With the last step, Shen Yanxiao stepped on the stairs of the City Lord's Mansion. She then turned around to look at the crowd gathered in front of the public square.

Those pairs of expectant eyes and those passionate gazes made Shen Yanxiao feel extremely emotional.

"Sun Never Sets, I'm really back!"
