

The Good 1541

Chapter 1541: Beast Tide (11)

“So many...” Tang Nazhi looked at the sky, speechless. He thought that he was pretty talented to have become a Second-Class Expert, but... there were so many Second-Class Experts in the God Realm. Thinking about this made him feel as if he was merely a side piece to the main dish!

Qi Xia looked at Shen Siyu and slowly said, “Brother Siyu, do you know how many Second-Class Experts are there in the Broken Star Palace?”

Shen Siyu said, “The Broken Star Palace was built in secret, so I am not sure about their numbers. However, the method they used to nurture experts is not feasible. Therefore, according to my calculations, the number of Second-Class Experts they have would not exceed the God Realm.”

The Broken Star Palace used Battle Aura Transfer and Magic Transfer as a method to nurture the strong. It was destined that they would have to sacrifice a large number of people with potential in order to create a Second-Class Expert. On the other hand, the God Realm spread its power to every member and with the nourishment of the divine power, their lifespan was greatly extended. As a result, the God Realm’s influence was above the Broken Star Palace.

“Tsk tsk, I heard from that kid Long Yue that the Broken Star Palace is the reason why the four countries attacked us. After the beast tide, I must teach them a lesson.” Tang Nazhi snorted. He held great hostility against the Broken Star Palace.

If the Broken Star Palace did not have as many Second-Class Experts as the God Realm, then there was nothing to be afraid of.

The advanced-ranked demons under their command could rival against the Second-Class Experts of the Broken Star Palace. Coupled with the two sacred beasts, Taotie and Yazi, they would certainly make the Broken Star Palace suffer in the future!

Shen Yanxiao said with a calm expression, “I will definitely settle this debt with the Broken Star Palace, but the most important thing now is to deal with the beast tide.”

She would not let go of the Broken Star Palace and the four countries so easily. The current alliance was just a compromise. She would get back at them one by one in the future.

Outside the city, waves of beast roars gradually approached.

Qu Xun stood alone at the city gates, and his back that was soaked in sweat stuck to the tightly shut gates.

He could already see the silhouettes of those demon beasts. Qu Xun’s mind was about to explode from the deafening roars. He knocked on the city gates with all his might and pleaded time and time again, but he did not get any response.

Qu Xun stared at the approaching demon beasts with his eyes wide open.

Those hideous faces were simply a nightmare.

Even though demon beasts and magical beasts were of the same species, their appearance was incomparably ugly. All of them were entirely black in color, and their sharp fangs were propped against their huge mouths as saliva dripped down.

They all had the same pair of purple eyes as demons, but the whites of their eyes were not white. Instead, they were blood-red, making them look exceptionally terrifying.

Just by looking at the appearance of those demon beasts, Qu Xun's legs had gone soft from fright, and he fell to the ground as his entire body trembled.

Right now, he regretted his decision to reject Shen Yanxiao's conditions. If he had accepted her conditions, he might have a chance to live. But right now, he did not even have a single chance to live!

"Help me... help me..." Qu Xun pleaded but received no answer.

The demon beasts rushed to the city gates, and a flying demon beast picked up Qu Xun from the city gates. In an instant, dozens of flying demon beasts tore the marquis into pieces of meat.

A large amount of blood fell to the ground, indicating that a battle between the beast tide and Sun Never Sets was about to begin.

Chapter 1542: Beast Tide (12)

Shen Yanxiao did not panic when the beast tide attacked.

"Yang Xi, send out the flying troops." Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes and ordered.

With a single command, all the aerial magical beasts of the four-nation alliance and Sun Never Sets moved out. Each of them was grabbing onto a barrel of black oil.

The soldiers of the four-nation alliance did not know what Shen Yanxiao wanted to do. The beast tide was just outside the city gates, but Shen Yanxiao did not send anyone out to fight. Instead, she asked them to gather all their flying magical beasts.

However, Shen Yanxiao had made true with her previous promise. She did not let them become cannon fodder.

There were tens of thousands of aerial magical beasts in the four-nation alliance and Sun Never Sets. These magical beasts flew toward the demon beasts outside the Sun Never Sets with their mythical beasts.

There were not many flying demon beasts among the demon beasts. Thus, before the hundreds of flying demon beasts could unleash their fury, they were killed by the tens of thousands of flying troops.

The flying magical beast hovered above the demon beast, and Vermilion Bird suddenly let out a cry. All the flying magical beasts dropped the oil barrel under their feet at the same time!

One by one, oil barrels the length of an arm smashed down on the demon beasts like rain. The demon beasts released furious roars, but they realized that it did not hurt when it hit them. It was just sticky and uncomfortable.

The kerosene in the barrel covered the demon beasts that were closest to Sun Never Sets. The next second, all the fire-elemental magical beasts released their most powerful fire magic!

In an instant, raging flames rapidly spread on the demon beasts at the front, and the speed at which the oil was ignited was astonishingly fast.

The entire stampede was engulfed in flames.

The magical beasts relied on their advantage in the air and started to chase after the demon beasts that were surrounded by flames.

On the city walls of Sun Never Sets, everyone witnessed the scene of the demon beasts being burnt. They looked at the expressionless Shen Yanxiao in surprise. They did not expect that she would come up with such an idea during their first clash with the demons!

She was using up all the kerosene that had yet to be produced as artillery shells!

The flames formed a natural barrier around Sun Never Sets. Even though the demon beasts had rough skin and thick flesh, they could not withstand the flames.

The demon beasts at the forefront had been burnt by the flames to the extent they wailed. Shen Yanxiao's method had easily eliminated tens of thousands of demon beasts.

While everyone was in high spirits, Shen Yanxiao did not relax in the slightest.

This was only the beginning. If they wanted to repel the beast tide, relying on this little cleverness was far from enough.

"Brother Siyu, I'll leave the rest to you." Shen Yanxiao looked at Shen Siyu. She could not let the inexperienced men from the four-nation alliance and Sun Never Sets do the first part of the battle. Otherwise, they would probably suffer heavy casualties due to their lack of knowledge about the demon beasts. Therefore, it was the best choice for the God Realm to attack first.

Shen Siyu smiled and nodded. With a wave of his arm, the tens of thousands of god envoys from the God Realm immediately moved out.

The gates of Sun Never Sets were opened and the god envoys dressed in white stepped into the battlefield. A faint halo could be seen enveloping them.

That was not a Priest's holy shield, but a shroud of divine power.

As if they had sensed the divine power, the demon beasts that were isolated by the flames began to roar in unease.

Chapter 1543: Beast Tide (13)

Demon beasts were creatures born from the underworld. Just like the devils, they loathed the power of the God race.

The god envoys from the God Realm moved out and attacked the demon beasts with their divine powers.

The demon beasts seemed to be extremely strong, with their rough skin and thick flesh. However, under the sharp blades of the god envoys, their thick flesh was easily cut open. One could vaguely see wisps of white smoke rising from the wound. Evidently, divine power had a strong corrosive effect on demon beasts.

But more accurately, this effect was called purification!

The demon beasts that collided with the god envoys were utterly defeated. Everyone on the city walls looked at that scene in disbelief.

Well...

It was too different from what they expected.

Another reason why Shen Yanxiao asked the God Realm to attack first was because she knew how terrifying the effects of the divine power on demon beasts were. During the battle between the god envoys and demon beasts, both the people from Sun Never Sets and the four-nation alliance could slightly ease their fear of demon beasts.

A soldier who was scared out of his wits before he even stepped into the battlefield would be sending himself to his death if he were to enter the battlefield.

In a sense, Shen Yanxiao's decision was correct, as their gazes were no longer as fearful as before.

As the second vanguard, demons rushed out of Sun Never Sets to support the god envoys.

They and the demon beasts were from the underworld, so they had a high resistance against dark magic.

Neither group had been defeated by the demon beasts, which gave the remaining humans a boost of confidence.

The last wave was the alliance of the four-nation alliance and the soldiers of Sun Never Sets.

Overall, the number of participants on Shen Yanxiao's side had reached a million!

At that moment, be it the soldiers of Sun Never Sets or the soldiers of the four-nation alliance, all of them put aside their previous hatred and joined hands to fight against the demon beasts!

Only victory would give them hope of survival.

As the most powerful holy beasts, Taotie and Yazi dashed into the demon beast camp. Their huge bodies were much larger than the demon beasts around them!

This time, Taotie did not go on a rampage like he did against humans. He directly opened his mouth and swallowed those demon beasts that were only one-fourth his size.

It was a wonderful thing for Taotie to be able to eliminate his enemies and fill his stomach.

Furthermore, the demon beasts tasted pretty good, so Taotie was satisfied.

That scene was simply unbearable to look at.

On the other hand, Yazi savagely tore apart every demon beast that approached it, and its killing intent completely exploded.

Compared to the way Taotie directly swallowed the demon beasts, the way Yazi killed his enemies seemed exceptionally bloody and cruel.

Wherever it went, there were demon beast corpses everywhere.

The battle against the demon beasts was completely different from the previous war with the four-nation alliance. The four-nation alliance paid attention to cooperating with each other in battle, but demon beasts would only blindly rampage. The terrifying aspect of the beast tide was that the demon beasts would violently sweep across cities. They did not even need to attack much, as they could turn a city into dust with their own strength.

Shen Yanxiao did not have many subordinates, but she had many magical beasts. She had two holy beasts and a group of mythical beasts under her. Thus, it was not a problem for her to fight against the demon beasts. Moreover, the God Realm and the demons were familiar with the demon beasts. Therefore, it was not difficult for them as well.

Even though there were many demon beasts, their bodies were also huge and took up a lot of space. They did not have any intellect, so they did not know how to cooperate.

Chapter 1544: Beast Tide (14)

The battle between both sides was in full swing. The god envoys and demons were skilled in dealing with demon beasts, but when the four-nation alliance fought against those demon beasts, they finally realized how terrifying those demon beasts were.

Their skin that was as hard as a rock could not be injured by ordinary attacks.

It was as harmless as tickling a demon beast.

The Swordsman and Knight's swords were bounced back the moment they were struck. Magus's fire bullets could not even burn them.

In the face of those demon beasts that were as hard as iron walls, everyone was shocked. If it were not for the few mythical beasts and holy beasts in front of them, they would have been trampled into meat paste.

Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes and looked at the scene. It was not that those soldiers were useless, but the defenses of those demon beasts were too strong.

After the war between the gods and devils, the demon beasts hid in the forest of the Forsaken Land. For thousands of years, they had launched dozens of attacks on the Forsaken Land. And every time they brought about huge casualties to humans.

The demon beasts with weaker physiques had been wiped out by humans dozens of times in the previous beast tide. So those that survived until now were the best among the demon beasts.

They were not something ordinary humans could contend against.

It was not without reason that the beast tide had caused the people in the Forsaken Land to turn pale.

“Archers above the intermediate level, use Explosive Arrows to attack. Those below the intermediate level, aim at the demon beast’s eyes! Knights, reinforce your defenses. Swordsmen, use your most lethal moves! Priests, take good care of the Knights and Swordsmen’s protective shield. Magi, abandon your small magic spells. Blow them up with medium magic spells and large magic spells!” Shen Yanxiao decisively gave an order. If the situation continued as it were, it would only be a waste.

All the soldiers immediately followed Shen Yanxiao’s instructions and changed their attacking methods. Even though the efficiency of their attacks had decreased, they had finally successfully broken through the demon beasts’ defenses. A few Archers had forcefully nailed the arrows into the demon beasts with explosive arrows.

Other than the god envoys, demons, and magical beasts, the Phantom members were the ones that dealt the most damage to the demon beasts. Qi Xia’s large-scale magic spells could instantly eliminate a large number of demon beasts! As for Tang Nazhi, he did not back down as he forcefully split the demon beasts in half with his Blight Slash!

Yang Xi had Yan Yu’s Divine Shield on him, allowing him to clash head-on against a massive demon beast. With the heavy shield in his hand, he stabbed the demon beast’s eyes with his long sword.

And the most amazing one was Shen Yanxiao.

She allowed Vermilion Bird and Taotie to attack freely while she stood among the team. With a single bow, she could actually shoot ten arrows at the same time. The lethality of each arrow had the effect of an explosive arrow, and every single arrow was aimed at the center of those demon beasts’ brows!

With a strong force, the arrows pierced into the demon beast’s forehead without leaving a single drop of blood, and the demon beast that was as large as a mountain collapsed with a bang.

Shen Yanxiao had imbued battle aura, magic and life force into that small arrow. That seemingly ordinary attack could completely destroy the demon beast’s brain the instant it pierced through it!

Chapter 1545: Beast Tide (15)

Not to mention the demon beasts, even the real devils would not survive if Shen Yanxiao shot between their brows.

However, no one knew of this. They only saw Shen Yanxiao’s light arrow that could kill a huge demon beast. How powerful was that?

At that moment, those soldiers who were fighting at the frontline secretly rejoiced. They were glad that their commander had given the order to stop the attack at the end. Otherwise, if they were to force this demon into a corner, they would definitely die without a complete corpse!

Shen Yanxiao calmly observed the situation. From the looks of it, they should be evenly matched with the demon beasts. However, there was a large number of reinforcements behind the demon beasts while they only had these troops.

Sun Never Sets and the four-nation alliance had just experienced a huge war, and no one had recovered yet. The previous battle had almost pushed their physical strength to the limit. If this battle were to become a long drawn-out battle, then it would be detrimental for them.

However, it was practically impossible to eliminate so many demon beasts in a short time.

As the battle progressed, Sun Never Sets was clearly at a disadvantage.

Even though they had changed their attacking methods, it would require dozens of people to attack together if they wanted to eliminate a single demon beast. To further worsen the situation, a single attack from a demon beast could instantly kill dozens of people.

With such a huge gap, the warriors of Sun Never Sets felt immense pressure.

If not for the God Realm, they would have been forced into the city.

Among the demons, Shen Siyu was the most dazzling one.

The fallen god still possessed the power of the God race, so his attacks were fatal for demon beasts.

Dozens of demon beasts surrounded Shen Siyu, but there was no fluctuation on his handsome face. He still had that smile that was like a spring breeze. He held an exquisite staff in his hand. It was different from the staffs used by Qi Xia and the other magi. This staff was pure white, and the tip of the staff was like two crescent moons that wrapped around a golden gem. A circle of dazzling golden light enveloped the entire staff. All the demon beasts were filled with dread towards it.

A weapon from the God race was the best weapon against those from the underworld.

Shen Siyu quietly stood in the middle of the demon beasts. All the demon beasts were so intimidated by the divine aura he released that they did not dare to approach him. All of a sudden, he inserted the staff in his hand into the cracked earth and pressed his palms together in front of his chest. Then, all of a sudden, the corner of his clothes moved without any wind.

In an instant, a powerful divine power surged around him and a whirlwind emerged from beneath his feet and tightly wrapped around his staff. Amid the strong winds, traces of golden light could be faintly seen.

The moment the last note fell, he opened his quiet eyes. The faint golden color had replaced the original brown color. He suddenly shouted, "Break!"

Accompanied by that one clean word, that golden hurricane instantly swept across the surroundings. The dozens of demon beasts surrounding Shen Siyu were swept into the golden hurricane in the blink of an eye and their huge bodies were torn into pieces by the gale!

Chapter 1546: Beast Tide (16)

The golden hurricane did not stop after it eliminated dozens of demon beasts. It continuously swept towards the demon beasts in all directions. Under this golden hurricane, none of the demon beasts had any room to fight back!

Several miles away from the battlefield, two figures, one white and one black, were quietly looking at this soul-stirring battle.

“Sun Storm? The God of Light is still alive?” The old man in white looked at the golden storm that reached the horizon in surprise.

“After the God of Light sealed the passage to the underworld, he disappeared without a trace. So, he had hidden himself. We had been wondering if the God Realm was related to the God of Light. Now, it seems like we can confirm it.” The man in black raised his eyebrows and looked at the dazzling storm with a sinister smile in his eyes.

“Shen Yanxiao is indeed capable to be able to invite the God of Light. You have to know that he has been hiding for thousands of years. This solar windstorm is equivalent to exposing his identity. Ouyang Huanyu, this little girl you have your eyes on is indeed capable.” The black-robed man looked at the old man in white with ill intentions.

The white-robed old man was none other than the Dean of the Saint Laurent Academy, Ouyang Huanyu.

Ouyang Huanyu looked at the man in black with indifference and said, “Shen Yanxiao and I are really fated. I just didn’t expect that she was the number one I lost back then. If not for Satan’s soul returning, I would have missed a golden opportunity.”

The black-robed man chuckled and said, “Who would have expected that the dead test subject No.1 was still alive? Didn’t Satan say that the soul of the god we transferred into No.1 was still alive? If we can take down Shen Yanxiao this time, then not only can No.1 return, but we can also retrieve the soul of the War God. There are only pros and no cons.”

“Even if we can retrieve the War God’s soul, it is not something we can control. I have promised Satan that after he takes Shen Yanxiao down, he will deal with Asura’s soul. I only want Shen Yanxiao,” Ouyang Huanyu said calmly, but there was a glint of excitement in his eyes.

The former test subject No.1 was the most perfect hybrid he had ever created!

The death of test subject No.1 had dealt him a huge blow. He did not expect to find her again!

“Are you really going to hand over Asura’s soul to Satan? Then wouldn’t our plan be...” The black-robed man was somewhat unhappy.

Asura was the last god in the world. Without Asura, they would probably never be able to complete the experiment of integrating eight races.

Ouyang Huanyu smiled and said, "I believe Asura has stayed in Shen Yanxiao's body for long enough for her to absorb enough divine power. She is our perfect work. Moreover..." Ouyang Huanyu looked at the golden hurricane.

"Without the War God, we still have the fallen demigods."

"You intend to use the God of Light in place of the War God?" The black-robed man was stunned.

"Since you are no longer a god, why don't you come and complete our experiment? The God race has perished. There is no need for the War God or the God of Light to exist anymore. There is no longer room for the God race to survive in this world. Why don't you just contribute your body for us?" Ouyang Huanyu's sanctimonious face revealed a cruel smile.

Chapter 1547: Beast Tide (17)

"You are as vicious as ever. You are so obsessed with blasphemy." The man in black looked at Ouyang Huanyu with a smile. Who could have imagined that a human would scheme against the God race?

Ouyang Huanyu raised his brow and said, "Jun Mo, as someone who would contribute his only disciple, you don't seem to have the right to call me vicious."

The person who colluded with Ouyang Huanyu was the number one Herbalist in the Blue Moon Dynasty, Jun Mo.

"Disciple? If not for the fact that Luo Fan's family can be used by me, why would I accept an idiot as my disciple? However, he is not completely useless. At the very least, he is somewhat useful now." Jun Mo did not feel the slightest guilt about sacrificing his disciple.

"However, I've always been curious. How did you contact the Broken Star Palace? You were able to get them to persuade the four countries to form an alliance and attack Sun Never Sets." Even though Jun Mo had known Ouyang Huanyu for hundreds of years, he still could not guess his thoughts.

The defenses of Sun Never Sets were extremely high and Shen Yanxiao had deployed a large number of troops in various cities in the Forsaken Land. If she were to let the beast tide attack, it would be hard to determine the winner. However, after the war with the four nations, Shen Yanxiao's strength had been greatly weakened, allowing the beast tide to deal a fatal blow to her at that time!

Everything was arranged by Ouyang Huanyu step by step. Even Jun Mo could not help but sigh at Ouyang Huanyu's skills.

He could even invite the Broken Star Palace that was hidden from the world. Who exactly was Ouyang Huanyu?

Ouyang Huanyu glanced at Jun Mo and said, "People who know too much will not live long."

Jun Mo was shocked.

"You don't have to know much. You just have to know that I am in cahoots with you. Right now, we just have to wait for this battle to end and bring back our test subjects." Ouyang Huanyu was unwilling to say anything else. He was waiting. He wanted to personally bring back his perfect test subjects after the final battle.

Shen Yanxiao, I won't let you escape again!

All of a sudden, a loud horn sounded from the rear of the demon beast camp. Hearing it, all the demon beasts suddenly went berserk and released waves of roars. They began to attack all the humans and demons in front of them without any reservations. Their eyes were covered with blood!

The sudden rampage of the demon beasts shocked the soldiers of Sun Never Sets. The demon beasts began to launch destructive attacks. They did not care about the severe injuries they had sustained as they roared and dashed forwards. The Knights could no longer withstand the demon beasts and were sent flying!

"What's going on?" Shen Yanxiao was surprised by the demon beast's sudden outburst.

It was as if those demon beasts had been injected with stimulants. There was no fear, no panic, only madness and killing!

Enchantress was not far away from Shen Yanxiao. The instant the demon beasts went berserk, Enchantress rushed to Shen Yanxiao's side and said with an ugly expression, "It's the horn of the Devil race. It is a type of magic weapon used by the devil race to command the demon beasts. This horn can stimulate the fury in the demon beasts' souls and turn them into a group of killing machines. Not only are they no longer afraid of pain, but their strength would also double!"

Chapter 1548: Beast Tide (18)

"Only the Devil race can use the horn. That sound came from behind the beast tide. And if we don't destroy the horn, these demon beasts will remain in their current state." Enchantress' face was deathly pale. The demon beast army was already unbearable for them, and now with the horn sounding, how were they to win the war?

Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes. She immediately dashed into the demon beasts and found Shen Siyu.

"Brother Siyu." Before Shen Yanxiao could finish her sentence, Shen Siyu had already spoken. "You wish to find the demon that blew the horn?"

Shen Yanxiao nodded.

"That guy might very well be Satan." Shen Siyu said.

"If we don't destroy the horn, we will not win this war." Shen Yanxiao gritted her teeth.

"I'll go with you," Shen Siyu said.

"Sure."

Shen Yanxiao immediately contacted Vermilion Bird and got him to bring them towards the back of the beast tide.

Behind the beast tide, a black-robed man was currently seated on the back of a huge demon beast. That demon beast's size was comparable to Taotie.

The man seemed to have sensed Shen Yanxiao's arrival. He suddenly looked up with an evil smile on his handsome face. The demonic aura in his eyes was not something a human could possess.

That face was extremely familiar!

"Why is it him?" Shen Yanxiao was surprised. She did not expect that the demon that controlled the demon beasts to attack Sun Never Sets and sounded the horn was... Luo Fan?

That Luo Fan who collaborated with Shangguan Xiao and Pu Lisi to force Tang Nazhi out of the academy!

"God of Light, long time no see. I didn't expect you to still be alive." Luo Fan looked at Shen Siyu on Vermilion Bird's back with an evil look.

"Satan?"

"I didn't expect you to recognize me with my appearance." Luo Fan suddenly stood up. A dark purple horn in his hand was placed on his waist.

"You've occupied this human's body!" Shen Siyu stared at Luo Fan. Other than his appearance, the feeling he gave off was exactly the same as Satan, the Devil God.

"Luo Fan" lowered his head to look at his fragile body and said with disdain, "A human's body? I don't want such a fragile body even if it was given to me. If this body could not withstand my devilish aura, do you think I would care for it?"

Humans were only fit to crawl under the feet of devils.

If his real body had not been destroyed, why would he need to reside in a human's body? That was an insult to him.

"I am different from Asura. It is shameful that he is willing to reside in a human's body. I feel disgusted when I think that I was defeated by that guy." Satan sneered.

"Xiaoxiao, I will join hands with you to deal with him. You must be careful." Shen Siyu secretly gripped his staff.

"Yes." Shen Yanxiao nodded. Satan's insult to Xiu made her furious.

Satan looked at them with contempt.

"A magical beast, a mixed-race, and a demigod. Do you think you can defeat me with just the few of you? God of Light, you were not my opponent when you were still a god.. Now, you will still be defeated by me. In this world, no one can defeat me except for Asura and the Lord God!"

Chapter 1549: Beast Tide (19)

Shen Siyu did not say anything else. The sacred power that he had suppressed for thousands of years exploded at that moment and the sacred power completely surrounded him, Shen Yanxiao, and Vermilion Bird.

Shen Yanxiao could feel an unprecedented power filling her entire body, as an endless stream of divine power was frantically pouring into her heart lake.

Shen Siyu gripped his staff tightly and suddenly jumped down from Vermilion Bird's back. His figure was suspended in mid-air as rays of dazzling light rapidly rushed towards Satan.

Satan sneered and an invisible dark aura condensed into a black sword in his right hand. With a wave of the sword, he rudely repelled Shen Siyu's attack.

Shen Yanxiao flew towards Satan with Vermilion Bird. With the longbow in her hand, Shen Yanxiao knocked an arrow and aimed it at Satan. On the other hand, Vermilion Bird spread its wings and spread flames across the earth!

All the demon beasts near the rear were affected by these powerful forces.

The divine power and the dark power intertwined and flames danced. Within the distorted elemental energy field, countless demon beasts were minced into mincemeat. Only the huge demon beast Satan sat on remained unmoved!

Behind the battlefield, Shen Yanxiao, Shen Siyu, and Vermilion Bird were fighting against Satan.

The shields cast by the Priests on the Knights could no longer withstand the demon beast's attack. One by one, the light shields broke and the soldiers were pierced by the demon beast's fangs.

Even though demons and demon beasts were both creatures of the underworld, they could not compete with demon beasts in terms of individual combat ability.

Intermediate-ranked demons of the same beast type could not stop the demon beasts at all. They resisted with all their might, but they were trampled into meat paste by the incomparably strong demon beasts. The skeletons on the ground had blended together with the demon beasts.

A large number of demons had died, and Jia He's entire left shoulder had been bitten off by the demon beasts. Fresh blood continuously gushed out, and Jia Lan rushed to Jia He's side with a pale complexion. He constantly brandished the long sword in his hand in an attempt to repel the demon beasts in front of him. However, before they could repel the enemy, another two demon beasts rushed towards them from the left.

"Jia Lan, leave." Jia He gritted his teeth. One of his shoulders was completely gone, and his wound was a bloody mess. The massive loss of blood made him realize that he did not have much time left.

"Bastard! I will not abandon you and run away by myself! We brothers came to the Brilliance Continent together and have experienced so many battles together. Do you think I will abandon you? We will live and die together! In our next life, we will still be brothers!" Jia Lan tightly supported Jia He's weak body with one hand while his other hand tenaciously resisted the demon beast's attacks. His eyes were bloodshot and filled with despair.

If he abandoned Jia He who was severely injured, he might be able to escape. However, he was unwilling to abandon his brother.

They were born in this world together. Even if they were to die, they would die together!

Freud, Qiao Chu, Enchantress, Tian Qiu and Zhong Ling wanted to break into the demon beasts' encirclement several times to rescue Jia Lan and his brother. However, the demon beasts that continuously surged out blocked their path.

After killing one, more demon beasts would rush forward, completely cutting off their hopes of rescuing them.

"Damn it! Damn it!" Tian Qiu and Zhong Ling's eyes were bloodshot. They had spent thousands of years with Jia Lan and Jia He in Sun Never Sets, but they could only look on helplessly as they fell into a trap.

Chapter 1550: Beast Tide (20)

More and more demon beasts surrounded Jia Lan and Jia He, shrinking the encirclement.

Jia Lan's eyes were bloodshot. He protected Jia He while killing the enemy.

A small demon beast suddenly scuttled out from beneath one of the demon beasts. It bit Jia He's leg and its sharp fangs instantly tore off his entire leg.

Jia Lan shot an arrow and hacked that demon beast to death, but he showed his back to other demon beasts.

In an instant, a demon beast's horn pierced through Jia Lan's chest and a large amount of blood stained his chest.

"Bastard... I... how could Jia Lan die in such... humiliation!" Jia Lan gritted his teeth and shouted. He then stabbed the demon beast's chest with his sword.

The demon beast collapsed and a fist-sized hole appeared on Jia Lan's chest, dripping with blood.

"Jia Lan... leave... ah..." Half of Jia He's body had been eaten by the demon beasts. He squinted his eyes weakly and looked at his brother in despair and sadness.

Jia Lan was still hugging Jia He tightly, and tears the size of beans flowed out from his eyes. He roared and waved the long sword in his hand, forcing back all the demon beasts that approached.

"Don't die... don't die... we haven't had enough fun yet..." Jia Lan's face was covered with tears as he cried out like a madman. However, Jia He's aura was getting weaker and weaker as small demon beasts continued to attack. When Jia Lan turned around, only Jia He's arm remained in his hand.

His brothers could no longer travel the continent with him.

“Come on! Come on! Kill me if you have the guts! Kill me! Bastards!” Jia Lan completely broke down. He stood up straight and roared at the demon beasts in all directions. A group of small demon beasts hidden around the large demon beasts roared and pounced towards Jia Lan. Jia Lan’s long sword cut off the heads of those demon beasts one by one, but his body was riddled with bumps and hollows from being gnawed on by those little demon beasts. The flesh on his legs had been completely gnawed off, leaving only two white bones.

Unable to stand any longer, Jia Lan collapsed. He took one last look at the gray sky of the Forsaken Land. He remembered the scene when he wandered into Sun Never Sets with Jia He.

“Jia Lan, this place will be ours in the future.”

“In the words of humans, are we now kings after we occupy this mountain?”

“Yes! Why not?!”

“Oh, then I want to be the boss.”

“Get lost. I am the brother. I want to be the boss.”

“I’m older than you!”

“I’m older than you!”

Brother... how about I be your younger brother in your next life?

Jia Lan could no longer see the gray sky. His line of sight was covered by the hideous faces of demon beasts.

In an instant, they were drowned in a group of demon beasts.

The advanced-ranked demons who were dozens of meters away could only look on helplessly as Jia Lan and Jia He were gnawed to death by the demon beasts. That scene shocked every single one of them, and it aroused their fury.

“I’ll kill you! I’ll kill you!” Zhong Ling’s eyes were bloodshot as he raised his saber and slashed at the incoming demons.

Enchantress’s cheeks were streaming with tears. She could not believe that her brothers who had been with her for thousands of years had died just like that.

Recalling the scene where they met in Sun Never Sets and how this pair of clowns played around on normal days, Enchantress felt as if a knife was twisted in her heart.

They wanted revenge!

They wanted to tear those demon beasts into pieces!
