

The Good 1551

Chapter 1551: Beast Tide (21)

The demons going berserk made the battle even more intense. Yan Yu constantly waved his staff to supplement the Warriors' blessing and light shield. The sharp decrease in the number of demons and the death of the soldiers made the demon beasts approach Yan Yu.

The White Tiger fought to the death to protect Yan Yu on his back. It used its sharp claws and fangs to tear apart the demon beasts that attempted to harm its master.

The sinister and crafty small demon beasts were lurking in the chaos. They stared at the thin human on the White Tiger's back with malice and crouched down. Then, they suddenly leaped, opened their bloody mouths, and pounced towards Yan Yu's neck.

"Roar!" The White Tiger suddenly stood up and its two front claws smashed the small demon beast into pieces.

However, there were still demon beasts that attempted to kill Yan Yu.

Yan Yu decisively added three layers of light shield and isolated all the demon beasts outside. At the same time, he cast several blessings on the few soldiers nearby.

The arrival of the blessing allowed those exhausted soldiers to recover their strength in an instant. They looked at the powerful Priest gratefully before they rushed into the enemy's lineup again.

A huge demon beast suddenly charged towards the White Tiger. The White Tiger stabilized its body and opened its mouth to release a dazzling light bullet, directly blasting that demon beast's face into a bloody mess.

The demon beasts seemed to have discovered Yan Yu's role as a Priest. They started to attack Yan Yu and the White Tiger again and again. Soon, the White Tiger was covered with scars as fresh blood stained its white fur.

Several huge demon beasts continuously attacked the White Tiger, and the continuous attacks made it difficult for the White Tiger to even stand. The light shield on Yan Yu's body had been smashed into pieces, and a small demon beast seized the opportunity to break through the light shield and pounced on Yan Yu. Yan Yu swept his staff and sent the demon beast flying.

He wanted to cast another light shield on himself, but the small demon beasts continuously pounced on him, not giving him any chance to cast it.

Yan Yu gritted his teeth and repelled all the small demon beasts. Taking advantage of the gap, he immediately put down his staff and summoned hundreds of explosive totems.

"Go!" Yan Yu shouted and the explosive totem surrounded him and White Tiger. Soon after, a series of explosions blasted all the demons around him into pieces!

Hundred Break was the most destructive move in the second class, but it consumed a huge amount of energy. Almost the instant he used up this move, Yan Yu's complexion turned as white as paper and a sharp pain spread throughout his entire body. He trembled as he reached for the bag of medicinal pills on his waist. However, he discovered that his bag of medicinal pills had been bitten through by those small demon beasts, causing all the medicinal pills to be lost.

“My luck is so bad...” Yan Yu forced a smile. The acute pain throughout his body was no longer suppressed by the medicinal pill and the pain almost made him faint.

Yan Yu convulsed as he fell on the White Tiger’s back. The White Tiger immediately sensed his master’s abnormality and immediately ran towards Yang Xi.

Yan Yu had completely lost consciousness. Without the White Tiger Family’s medicinal pills, even without the demon beast’s attack, he would still die from his heart being unable to bear the load.

Countless demon beasts stood in front of White Tiger, but it did not care about its injuries as it dashed forward with Yan Yu.

It could not let Yan Yu die!

Absolutely not!

The White Tiger roared and released numerous light bullets, forcefully blasting a path out. Its tail continuously sent the small demon beasts that pounced on it flying as it ran madly.

Chapter 1552: Beast Tide (22)

Yang Xi and Tang Nazhi were currently fighting against the demon beasts. Both of them were professionals with high defense so even without a Priest’s light shield, their strength was sufficient to deal with the demon beasts.

“That’s White Tiger?” After Tang Nazhi killed a small demon, he widened his eyes and looked at the mythical beast that was dyed red with blood. If not for his familiarity with the White Tiger, he would not believe that it was the White Tiger.

“Something has happened to Yan Yu!” The moment Yang Xi saw the White Tiger, his heart skipped a beat. For the White Tiger to run around like that, something must have happened to Yan Yu.

“Damn it, Black Tortoise, you and Azure Dragon go and support White Tiger!” Tang Nazhi cursed and immediately ordered Black Tortoise and Azure Dragon to rescue White Tiger.

Evidently, there were more demon beasts surrounding White Tiger than them. They soon guessed that these groups of demon beasts had started to learn to attack Priests with low defense.

The Black Tortoise came from underground to provide support while the Azure Dragon descended from the sky. The two mythical beasts had paved a smooth path for the White Tiger.

White Tiger dashed to Yang Xi’s side and used his scarred tail to carefully roll Yan Yu down.

“Ah Yu’s illness acted up. Damn it, the medicine is gone.” Yang Xi gnashed his teeth and looked at Yan Yu’s deathly pale face.

“I’ll hold them here. There’s medicine in Sun Never Sets. Take Ah Yu back!” Tang Nazhi used several Blight Slashes to force back all the demon beasts that approached.

“White Tiger, take us back!” Yang Xi immediately carried Yan Yu.

White Tiger led the two of them towards Sun Never Sets, while Azure Dragon and Black Tortoise made way for White Tiger and forbade any demon beasts from approaching.

“Ah Yu, you have to hold on.” Yang Xi hugged Yan Yu tightly and lowered his body to protect him. His iceberg-like face had cracked.

Taotie watched the White Tiger leave in the chaotic battle. Everything he saw was transmitted to Shen Yanxiao’s mind.

Shen Yanxiao, who was fighting against Satan, almost stopped breathing the moment she received the message from Taotie.

Jia Lan and Jia He had died in battle, and Yan Yu’s life was in danger!

The hatred in Shen Yanxiao’s eyes overflowed. She aimed at the horn on Satan’s waist again and again, wanting to destroy it.

Only by destroying the horn would the demon beasts’ attacks be weakened. If not, the warriors at the frontlines would not be able to withstand it!

“Ah Yu, nothing can happen to you.” Shen Yanxiao took a deep breath and forcefully suppressed the sadness in her heart. As an Archer, she had to maintain her calm at all times in order to maintain her accuracy.

Even if she was devastated by the death of Jia Lan and Jia He, even if she was worried about Yan Yu’s safety, she could only suppress it.

That was the only way she could destroy the horn!

Shen Siyu had practically accepted all of Satan’s attacks and forcefully resisted with the remaining divine power in his body. However, he had lost his godhood and was no longer the God of Light that competed against the sun. He was only a demigod, but he had to fight against Satan in this state. The staff in his hand had already cracked under Satan’s corrosion.

Shen Siyu did not dare to retreat. He did not dare to restrain his strength in the slightest. Once he gave up on attacking Satan, Shen Yanxiao and the Vermilion Bird would certainly die!

“Xiaoxiao, I will control Satan’s power. Find an opportunity to destroy the horn.” Shen Siyu gritted his teeth and used his mental energy to convey his plan to Shen Yanxiao. Satan’s power covered his entire body so if he did not force him to use his full strength, Shen Yanxiao would not be able to destroy the horn in one blow.

Chapter 1553: Beast Tide (24)

Shen Yanxiao had fallen into madness and despair. Taotie, who had a spiritual link with her, sensed Vermilion Bird’s spiritual energy disappearing at the same time.

Taotie stood rooted on the battlefield, not caring about the demon beasts around him.

Vermilion Bird was dead?

How could this be...

That stinky guy who bullied him all day long, how did he... die just like that?

“Roar!” Yazi noticed that Taotie was rooted on the spot. He did not resist when the demon beasts bit him. Seeing this, he immediately rushed to his side and tore those reckless demon beasts into pieces.

“Idiot! What are you doing!” Yazi glared at his brother, not understanding what was wrong with him.

Taotie looked at the direction where Vermilion Bird had fallen in a daze and suddenly let out a furious roar.

All of a sudden, it widened its mouth and a powerful stream of air sucked all the demon beasts around it into its mouth!

Kill them!

Kill them!

All of them deserved to die!

They would all be buried with Vermilion Bird!!

The killing intent hidden deep in Taotie’s heart had awakened. He narrowed his eyes and swallowed countless demon beasts!

Nearly ten thousand demon beasts were swallowed by Taotie in an instant.

Taotie forced himself to absorb all the power of those demon beasts. In an instant, his body suddenly expanded and his size doubled in the blink of an eye!

It was even larger than the Yazi!

This was Taotie’s true holy transformation!

At that very moment, Taotie was in its final form as a holy beast!

“Roar!!!” Taotie roared!

On the city walls of Sun Never Sets, Yin Jiuchen hugged Mini Dragon and looked at the fierce battle below. However, Mini Dragon suddenly felt uneasy.

It heard Taotie’s roar, Taotie’s fury, and... the news of Little Phoenix and Vermilion Bird’s death!

“Guji... Gu...” Mini Dragon broke free from Yin Jiuchen’s embrace and released a mournful cry.

“Gu!” A cry that could make people shed tears.

Mini Dragon’s voice seemed to have traveled through the clouds and time.

In the distant other world, a sleeping dragon opened its eyes in the darkness and listened to the sorrowful voice.

All of a sudden, a huge vortex formed in the clouds above Sun Never Sets. The strong winds blew and countless stones were swept into the air!

Shen Yanxiao, who was kneeling on the ground, suddenly felt her strength being drained at a crazy speed, as if it would be drained the next second.

In an instant, the weather changed and a huge dragon horn appeared from the dense clouds.

A heaven-shocking dragon's roar shook the earth and all the demon beasts trembled from fright!

"Guji! Guji!" Mini Dragon released a mournful sound towards the creature in the clouds.

The next second, the dark clouds that covered the Forsaken Land for thousands of years were blown away by a huge gust of wind. A black dragon that was ten times larger than the holy-level Taotie hovered in the sky!

Yun Qi looked at the black dragon in disbelief. He could not believe his eyes.

"Lord of the Phantom Beasts... Wing of Death... how is that possible..."

The moment the Wing of Death appeared, the two-headed phantom dragon crouched on the ground with its two heads lowered.

The Lord of Phantom Beasts, Wing of Death!

An existence even more terrifying than a legendary magical beast. All the Summoners had heard of its fame, but no one had the ability to summon it to this world.

However, the King of the Illusion Realm appeared in the other world today!

Chapter 1554: Beast Tide (25)

The appearance of the Wing of Death had instilled fear in all the magical beasts and demon beasts. Even the incomparably arrogant Yazi had no choice but to submit to the might of the King of the Illusion Realm.

Yazi sensed a power much more powerful than their father, the Dragon God, from that black dragon.

"Guji!" Mini Dragon struggled to flap its wings and flew towards the Wing of Death.

Compared to the Wing of Death, the mini dragon was like a speck of dust that could be overlooked.

However, the Wing of Death seemed to be able to see this speck of dust as it quietly stopped in mid-air until Mini Dragon exerted great effort to fly to its horns and released a cry.

"I am the Lord of the Illusion Realm, Wing of Death. You have injured my son. I will kill you!"

A voice that did not belong to any race echoed in the air, shocking everyone's soul.

The Wing of Death pounced on the ground with its dragon breath. Hundreds of thousands of demon beasts turned into smoke in an instant and disappeared without a trace.

Shen Yanxiao trembled as she crawled on the ground. Her strength had been completely drained. Not to mention attacking, she could not even maintain her consciousness.

Shen Siyu was severely injured. He knelt on one knee and felt his heart ache as he looked at Shen Yanxiao's condition.

Satan looked at the Wing of Death in surprise. He did not expect that the battle would provoke the Wing of Death.

The power of the Wing of Death was no weaker than his!

Satan was the Lord of the Underworld, and the Wing of Death was the Lord of the Phantom World!

“Since when can humans summon the Wing of Death?” Satan frowned and muttered. He looked at Shen Yanxiao who suddenly fell to the ground with uncertainty. He could sense a faint aura lingering between Shen Yanxiao and the Wing of Death.

“This mixed-blood has the ability to summon the Wing of Death?” Satan raised his eyebrows and suddenly walked towards Shen Yanxiao.

“But as long as I kill you, that guy will roll back to the other world, right? Even though killing you will ruin my agreement with that guy, I don’t want to fight against the Wing of Death right now. So... you better go and die.” Satan cruelly curled his lips. He condensed sword energy in his palm and slashed at Shen Yanxiao!

Just as Satan’s sword was about to touch Shen Yanxiao, she was suddenly shrouded by a gray mist.

The gray mist wrapped around Shen Yanxiao and gradually formed a slender figure.

White robes like snow, black hair like satin, and a pair of golden eyes that faintly carried anger.

“Asura...” Satan looked at Xiu who suddenly appeared in surprise.

Xiu narrowed his eyes and coldly glanced at Satan before he picked Shen Yanxiao up.

“Satan, you deserve to die,” Xiu stared at Satan and said coldly.

Satan gritted his teeth and stabbed his sword towards Shen Yanxiao in Xiu’s arms.

Xiu immediately condensed sword energy in his palm and blocked Satan’s attack.

Xiu held Shen Yanxiao with one hand and fought against Satan with the other. He did not seem to be at a disadvantage at all.

Xiu’s appearance had plunged Satan into a bitter fight.

Right now, he relied on a human’s body, so it was impossible for him to unleash his true strength.

Satan suddenly pulled away from the battlefield and stared at Xiu. “Asura, I was wrong today. Three years later, I will lead the devil army back to the human world! I’d like to see if you can protect this world without the protection of the God race!”

Xiu swung his sword and directly split Satan’s body into two, ignoring his clamoring.

A streak of black mist dashed out from the corpse and escaped from the battlefield without stopping for a second!

Chapter 1555: Beast Tide (26)

Satan's soul escaped again. Even though Xiu wanted to kill him, Shen Yanxiao's situation did not allow him to delay.

"Mini Dragon is the son of the Wing of Death. It summoned the Wing of Death and relied on Xiaoxiao's strength. If the Wing of Death does not return soon, Xiaoxiao's strength will be exhausted by the Wing of Death!" Shen Siyu covered his chest and looked at Xiu.

Shen Yanxiao's battle aura and magic were practically endless, but even so, she could not withstand the consumption of the Wing of Death.

Xiu immediately carried Shen Yanxiao and flew towards the Wing of Death.

In less than two minutes, the Wing of Death had reduced all the demon beasts outside the city to ashes.

Everyone was stunned.

"Lord of the Illusion Realm, she can no longer bear your consumption. Please be magnanimous, and thank you for today's help." Xiu looked at the Lord of the Illusion Realm calmly.

"I have come here today because I have heard my son's call. This person is fated with my son, so I will not let anything happen to her." The Wing of Death's voice echoed in the sky once again. As its voice dissipated, the Overlord of the Illusion Realm gradually dispersed and disappeared into the clouds.

Clouds covered the Forsaken Land again. Mini Dragon fluttered its wings and landed on Xiu's shoulders. It lowered its head and looked at the unconscious Shen Yanxiao.

Due to the appearance of the Wing of Death, the beast tide had been completely eliminated. There was not a single demon beast outside the city.

From now on, the terrifying beast tide would completely withdraw from the stage of history.

The people and demons of Sun Never Sets cried loudly after they won the war. They could not believe that they had survived the devastating war.

This battle had cost them too much.

They would never forget it.

Xiu gently kissed Shen Yanxiao's forehead and infused his divine power into her.

Shen Yanxiao slowly woke up and Xiu's face reflected in her eyes.

"Xiu..." Shen Yanxiao called out in a hoarse voice.

"I'm here." Xiu looked at Shen Yanxiao with heartache. He had been in a deep sleep due to the depletion of his strength. After he realized that Shen Siyu's divine power had been absorbed into Shen Yanxiao's heart lake, he slowly woke up. When he woke up, he saw Satan attempting to kill Shen Yanxiao and that scene brought him great fear.

"Vermilion Bird... Vermilion Bird is dead..." Shen Yanxiao's eyes reddened. She covered Xiu's collar and wept.

Other than Xiu, Vermilion Bird had accompanied her for the longest time, and she was still unable to accept Vermilion Bird's death.

Vermilion Bird was dead, and Shen Yanxiao's soul was lost.

Xiu gently patted Shen Yanxiao's back and looked behind her.

"I believe Vermilion Bird is still alive," Xiu suddenly said.

"What?" Shen Yanxiao looked up in surprise.

Xiu used his gaze to guide Shen Yanxiao. Shen Yanxiao turned around and looked at the Phoenix couple who had unknowingly approached.

A furry red magical beast was sleeping in each of their arms.

"My Phoenix race possesses the ability to rise from the ashes. The reason why our child would die together with Vermilion Bird was because we wanted to use its power to allow Vermilion Bird to be reborn. Right now, Vermilion Bird and that child have already merged their spirits in the process of rebirth, so they are still alive." The female Phoenix's eyes were brimming with tears as she passed the little Vermilion Bird in her arms to Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao looked at the sleeping Vermilion Bird in her arms and wept..

Chapter 1556: New Beginning (1)

Because of the little Phoenix's desperation, Vermilion Bird finally managed to keep his life.

The Phoenix's Flames of Nirvana had fused Little Phoenix and Vermilion Bird's mental energy together. However, instead of saying that they had fused together, it would be better to say that they had established a link.

Shen Yanxiao hugged the little Vermilion Bird and looked at Little Phoenix in its arms. Little Phoenix that had gone through nirvana had evidently grown bigger and its fiery red feathers were somewhat similar to Vermilion Bird.

"Even though it's a link, honestly speaking, it's rather similar to the contract between a magical beast and a human. This child has established a mental link with Vermilion Bird, and it can maintain a connection with it using mental energy in the future. Furthermore, during the process of his rebirth, Vermilion Bird's flames had brought about some effects, which would allow this child's control over flame to be more powerful than ordinary Phoenixes." The male Phoenix was still considered calm. Little Phoenix could be considered to have profited from a disaster. Not every Phoenix could trigger the characteristic of rebirth when they died.

Little Phoenix had succeeded in one attempt and it was very likely related to its reliance on Vermilion Bird.

Even though Little Phoenix was still young, it had already regarded Vermilion Bird as its family. Only by having the determination to die could it trigger the rebirth.

“It’s good that you’re fine, it’s good that you’re fine.” Shen Yanxiao nodded while choking with sobs. The fact that Vermilion Bird and Little Phoenix were still alive was the greatest comfort for her.

Perhaps it was because her mood fluctuated too much, or perhaps it was because the Wing of Death had consumed too much of her strength, Shen Yanxiao finally relaxed and fell asleep in Xiu’s arms.

Xiu lowered his head and kissed Shen Yanxiao’s forehead. He took her place and completed the mission of ending the battle.

The two consecutive battles had dealt an unbearable blow to Sun Never Sets.

The number of low-ranked demons was reduced to one-tenth of its original numbers while the middle-ranked demons suffered more losses. Even the advanced demons were reduced to half.

The Cave Wolves Mercenary Group had lost more than twenty of their comrades. The villagers who escaped from the Graveyard of the Sun with Uncle Nine had also suffered heavy casualties.

The battle was undoubtedly tragic, but after these two battles, the fierce reputation of Sun Never Sets would spread to every corner of the Brilliance Continent like a wildfire.

No one from the four countries would be willing to provoke these terrifying people.

Xiu released Jiang Wan, Elder Wen, and Shi Heng. The three leaders had already heard the endless roars of beasts outside the dungeon. When they walked out of Sun Never Sets and saw the mountain of corpses outside the city, they burst into tears.

“Sun Never Sets will provide you with a certain degree of treatment and you will have to leave immediately afterwards. We don’t care if you will honor your promise or not. We just have to wait for whichever country wants to attack Sun Never Sets again. Then, Sun Never Sets will come out in full strength and destroy that country.” Qi Xia gave the trio an ultimatum according to Xiu’s instructions.

Jiang Wan and the others heard of that tragic battle from their soldiers. Currently, Jiang Wan and Shi Heng truly admired Shen Yanxiao’s personality from the bottom of their hearts. She could have asked the soldiers of the four-nation alliance army to be the vanguard and send them to their deaths, but she did not use her public office to avenge private grudges.

“Please thank City Lord Shen on my behalf. I, Shi Heng, am a man of my words. As long as I, Shi Heng, am still alive, the God Wind Alliance will never trample the soil under you again.” Shi Heng was thoroughly convinced by Shen Yanxiao’s character and strength.

“After I return to the country, I will certainly tell the Emperor everything. I believe the Emperor will think it through.” Jiang Wan also expressed his attitude.

Only Elder Wen remained silent.

Chapter 1557: New Beginning (2)

All the wounded were undergoing treatment and all the soldiers were recuperating.

Within a day, Sun Never Sets had experienced two major battles. When night fell, people still had not forgotten about the thrilling day.

They silently lowered their eyes and mourned for their deceased comrades.

That night was extremely heavy for everyone in Sun Never Sets.

They had lost their friends and brothers. They had lost too much.

No one would cheer for such a victory. If possible, they would rather it never happened.

Shen Yanxiao was lying unconscious on the bed, with no color on her pale face.

Xiu and Shen Siyu stood by the bed with solemn expressions.

“Xiaoxiao overdrafted her strength this time. I wonder when she will wake up.” Shen Siyu’s face was pale. The backlash from his strength had inflicted serious internal injuries on him, but he had no time to care about his injuries.

Shen Yanxiao, who was lying on the bed, was still hugging the sleeping Vermilion Bird in her arms. She did not want to let go of her comrade who had gone through thick and thin with her.

Xiu sat on the edge of the bed in silence. His slender fingers covered Shen Yanxiao’s forehead, and a faint light radiated from his palms to her.

“You’ve just woken up. If you consume your strength like this...” Shen Siyu was worried.

Even though Xiu was powerful, he was only in his soul state. Repairing the Tree of Life required a large amount of energy, so Shen Siyu did not expect Xiu to wake up in such a short time due to such a huge consumption.

“I’m fine.” Xiu lightly said, his eyes filled with heaviness as he looked at Shen Yanxiao.

Taotie and Lan Fengli came from outside with a pile of bottles in their hands.

“Great Master Ye Qing said that Master needs these.” Taotie’s eyes reddened. As a foodie, what he experienced today had made him lose his appetite for the first time.

Vermilion Bird’s tragic death and Shen Yanxiao’s coma were too heavy for this simple-minded magical beast.

“How... is Sister?” Lan Fengli looked at Shen Yanxiao with worry.

“She will be fine with me here.” Xiu did not shift his gaze away.

Shen Siyu took the potions and checked them one by one. Other than healing potions, there were also many potions that could recover magic and battle aura.

These potions were very important to Shen Yanxiao.

Taotie sat quietly on one side. Lan Fengli bit his lips and said, “Yan Yu is still unconscious. I’ll go and take a look.”

Lan Fengli was well aware of how much Shen Yanxiao cared for her five friends. If Yan Yu was not treated after she woke up, he believed she would be even more upset.

What Lan Fengli could do was to take good care of Shen Yanxiao while she was unconscious.

“Thank you so much. If you see Du Lang and Uncle Nine, tell them to come here for a moment.” Shen Siyu said.

Similar to Lan Fengli, he was not related to Shen Yanxiao by blood. However, their feelings for Shen Yanxiao were similar to family.

Lan Fengli nodded silently. He looked at Shen Yanxiao lying on the bed with reluctance before he turned around and left.

His sister was in a coma, so he had to help her deal with the governance of Sun Never Sets!

That way, she would be able to lessen her mental strain once she woke up.

Lan Fengli blamed himself.

It was his failure to protect his sister that caused her such pain.

Chapter 1558: New Beginning (3)

Three days later, Shen Yanxiao finally woke up and everyone in Sun Never Sets breathed a sigh of relief.

During the past three days, Xiu and Shen Siyu had arranged the post-war arrangements. When Shen Yanxiao woke up, everything had been settled.

Sitting on the chair, Shen Yanxiao looked down at the little Vermilion Bird in her arms.

Little Phoenix had been taken care of by the couple.

“I have a feeling that the gap between the four-nation alliance and the beast tide is too short. It seems like someone had deliberately arranged these two battles.” Qi Xia looked at Shen Yanxiao who had recovered and seemed to be in deep thoughts.

“If it were a one-time thing, then neither the four-nation alliance nor the beast tide would bring us much loss. However, these two battles happened on the same day. Isn’t that too much of a coincidence?”

Qi Xia was right.

Sun Never Sets had been making preparations to fight against the beast tide. Every city had arranged corresponding defenses and attacks. But, the alliance of the four nations interfered and directly broke the line of defense between the cities. As a result, a huge sacrifice was made for Sun Never Sets.

“How’s Ah Yu’s condition?” Shen Yanxiao looked at Qi Xia. Ever since Yan Yu’s illness acted up that day, he had been brought back to Sun Never Sets by Yang Xi to consume some medicinal pills. However, due to the sudden onset of his illness, it had been delayed for too long. Coupled with the depletion of energy from the two battles, Yan Yu’s current condition was extremely unstable.

“Uncle Nine and Great Master Ye Qing have already checked. Ah Yu’s relapse this time has brought about severe injuries to his body and the White Tiger Family’s medicinal pills are no longer able to suppress Ah Yu’s illness. We can only find other methods.” Qi Xia sighed. After the battle, Shen Yanxiao and Yan Yu’s coma had caused the other five members of Phantom to worry.

Even though Shen Yanxiao had recovered, Yan Yu’s condition was not optimistic.

“Qi Xia, arrange for a ship to head to the Moon God Continent as soon as possible. The fruit of the Tree of Life might be useful for Ah Yu’s illness. The Elf King owes me a favor, so it should not be a problem for me to ask for a fruit of the Tree of Life from him.” Since the fruit of the Tree of Life could cure Taotie and Vermilion Bird’s severe injuries, it might also be helpful for Yan Yu’s illness.

“Alright, I’ll arrange it later.” Qi Xia nodded.

“Previously, you mentioned that someone deliberately arranged for the four-nation alliance army and the beast tide to attack us one after another. I have also sensed this, but who was it that insisted on killing us?” Shen Yanxiao frowned. She had many enemies, but none of them could invite Satan or the Broken Star Palace.

Jiang Wan and the others had left Sun Never Sets with their soldiers yesterday and returned to their respective countries. Due to Shen Yanxiao’s kind actions, Jiang Wan and Shi Heng hinted to her that the attack on Sun Never Sets by the four countries was related to the Broken Star Palace.

It was clear that Shen Yanxiao had a grudge against the Broken Star Palace, but she did not think that they could invite Satan.

No matter how shameless the Broken Star Palace was right now, they had indeed fought against the Devil race when they were founded. Humans had strong resistance against the Devil race, so it was impossible for them to collude with the Devil race.

Otherwise, no matter how great of a contribution and reputation the Broken Star Palace had, as long as this matter was exposed, they would immediately become the sinner of the Brilliance Continent.

Furthermore...

With Satan’s contempt for humans, Shen Yanxiao believed that even if the Broken Star Palace were to shamelessly seduce Satan, he would just dump them.

Chapter 1559: New Challenge (1)

Who was it that colluded with Satan and the Broken Star Palace and wanted Shen Yanxiao dead?

For the time being, no one could be sure.

“I’ve tallied our losses during this period of time. A total of eleven cities have been destroyed, and one of the city walls of Sun Never Sets is damaged. Countless soldiers and demons have been sacrificed. Based on the losses of the cities, it will take us at least three months to rebuild these damaged cities.” Qi Xia rubbed his eyebrows. The destruction of the cities was secondary. What was more important was that the underground cities in those eleven cities had also been blown up. It would be much more troublesome to rebuild them.

“Fortunately, we have accumulated a lot of funds, so it won’t be too damaging.” The only thing Qi Xia was glad about was that Shen Yanxiao’s accumulated wealth had reached an astonishing number. With the support of a powerful economy, rebuilding the city was only a matter of time.

“Have the people from the other four main cities return to their previous cities. The people from those cities that were destroyed will temporarily relocate to other cities and receive the corresponding compensation for this period of time.” After the war was won, they could not slacken their work after the war.

“Sure.” Qi Xia nodded. He had become the number one financial ambassador in the Forsaken Land.

“Xiaoxiao, do you remember what Satan said before he left?” Shen Siyu suddenly asked as he looked at Shen Yanxiao’s orderly arrangement.

Shen Yanxiao frowned. “What did he say?”

At that time, she was in a semi-conscious state and could not remember what happened.

Xiu and Shen Siyu looked at each other. Xiu slowly said, “Satan will lead the Devil race to attack the Brilliance Continent in three years.”

“What?” Shen Yanxiao was completely dumbstruck.

The devils attacking the Brilliance Continent?

Did that mean that the war between gods and devils was about to repeat?

What’s more...

They no longer had a god!

Not only Shen Yanxiao was shocked, but everyone else in the room was also astonished.

“Wasn’t the passage to the Devil race sealed?” Tang Nazhi felt that the news was too shocking.

Shen Siyu sighed and said, “The seal I left at the passageway back then has become very weak. If it were not for the god envoys from the God Realm who strengthened it day and night, I’m afraid the seal would have disappeared long ago. Now that Satan has returned to the human world, it’s not impossible for him to undo the seal I left behind with his abilities. I believe he did not leave behind such a threat for no reason.”

“The Devil race is really coming? Then what should we do?” Tang Nazhi was thoroughly depressed. Only the God race could contend against the Devil race. Right now, there was only Xiu and Shen Siyu left. Xiu was a soul form while Shen Siyu was a demigod.

How were they supposed to fight?

“The God race has fallen. We can only rely on ourselves.” Shen Yanxiao bit her lips.

“If we want to fight against the Devil race, then we must first unite the other six races. Otherwise, it is impossible to resist the devil army just by relying on humans.” Shen Siyu’s expression was solemn.

“It’s easier said than done.” Li Xiaowei sighed.

Right now, the relations between the various races were extremely bad. The only ones who had some contact with humans were the elves. Merfolks lived in the deep sea for a long time, and it had been hundreds of years since people saw a single merfolk. The dragons resided on the Crouching Dragon Island, and until now, no one knew where the real location of that island was. The dwarves on the other hand had disappeared without a trace, and as for the undead...

Chapter 1560: New Challenge (2)

That was Fu Yongjun of the Devil race!

When the devils invaded the various continents, the undead stood out and stood on the same side as the devils.

It could be said that the relationship between the undead and the devils was very good. It was practically impossible for this race to rise up against the devils.

However, without the help of the undead, it would be hard to rely on humans, merfolks, elves, dwarves, and dragons.

Among the five major races, only the Dragon race could be regarded as a powerful race. However, the number of dragons had always been small. At most, there were a million of them. Compared to tens of millions of humans, the number was pitifully small.

The remaining four races seemed exceptionally fragile before the Devil race.

“No matter how difficult it is, we have to give it a try. I believe the other races will not sit back and do nothing after they know that the Devil race has invaded.” Shen Yanxiao did not find it difficult to form an alliance. During the invasion of the Devil race, the six races had cooperated together before. The only problem was that the previous war was led by the God race.

Now that the God race was nearly extinct, it was a problem to gather the five races into an alliance.

In terms of strength, the Dragon race was number one, but...

The Dragon race was the standard example of having brawny limbs but a simple mind. It was not a problem for them to fight and kill, but it would be a joke for them to oversee the military camp and plan for the war.

After the dragons were the elves. The elves were smart, but their personalities determined that they could not lead the overall situation.

Needless to say, the dwarves were a race that would go berserk at all times. Other than the fact that they could display their wisdom during forging, they were basically time bombs at other times!

Merfolks...

Shen Yanxiao facepalmed. Merfolks did not have a better view of the overall situation than elves.

Humans were probably the most experienced in battles. After all, after the war between gods and devils ended, there were still constant wars and they were the ones who were baptized by the flames of war the most.

However...

The evaluation of humans among various races could be said to be second only to the devils and the undead. In the eyes of other races, humans were weak and despicable. If they wanted those proud and arrogant people to accept the call of humans and form an alliance...

No matter how she thought about it, it was impossible.

Shen Yanxiao wanted to cry but had no tears. She wished she could drag the rulers of the four countries over and give them hundreds of slaps.

Could you not embarrass humans!

A large part of the reason why humans had fallen to such a miserable reputation was due to the constant mutual deception between the four countries.

Even without any external enemies, they were fighting amongst themselves happily.

In the eyes of other races, this was simply a strange phenomenon.

If any of the elves dared to oppose the Elf King, they would definitely be drowned in their saliva.

War had brought about development and progress for humans, but it had also divided their strength and made it difficult for them to be united.

"I feel that if we are to cooperate with other races, the first thing we have to resolve is the internal strife in the Brilliance Continent." Qi Xia was also well aware of how tragic the image of humans was in the minds of other races.

"Don't be so desperate. At least we have good news," Shen Siyu smiled and said.

"What?" Shen Yanxiao asked curiously.

"Isn't the only god in the world on the side of humans?" Shen Siyu looked at Xiu who sat beside Shen Yanxiao in silence.

Xiu raised his brow.
