

The Good 1571

Chapter 1571: Little Vermilion Bird (5)

Vermilion Bird did not regret what he did that day. If he had been the one left behind, he would not have been able to face Shen Yanxiao's death.

"That choice will never happen again in the future." Shen Yanxiao hugged Vermilion Bird tightly. She vowed to make herself and the people around her stronger so that the tragedy of the beast tide would never happen again.

Vermilion Bird nodded silently.

Vermilion Bird had woken up and there was nothing wrong with his memory. It was just that his body size was smaller than before, and he belonged to the type of cute little boy that could trigger the motherly love of countless young ladies.

Vermilion Bird was quietly resting in a loving environment with Shen Yanxiao. However, he noticed a certain obscene figure from the corner of his eyes as the figure slowly walked towards the bun he threw on the ground.

After he was assured about Vermilion Bird's condition, he started thinking about eating again. When no one noticed, he took small steps forward and dashed towards the steamed bun that Vermilion Bird had bitten!

Bun ~ bun ~ bun!!

Boom!

Before Taotie could touch the bun, the poor bun was burnt to ashes by the fireball Vermilion Bird spat out.

"..." Taotie was thoroughly struck dumb. His bun...

That was his last bun...

"Hmph." Vermilion Bird turned his head in satisfaction and continued to converse with Shen Yanxiao.

Taotie continued to squat in the corner and cry...

Shen Yanxiao breathed a sigh of relief as she looked at Vermilion Bird who was as good as new. She shot a glance at Xiu standing on one side and suddenly thought of a very serious problem!

Even she could tell that Vermilion Bird was acting. How could the wise and mighty Xiu not notice?

"Xiu." Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes and stared at the expressionless Great God.

"Yes?"

"Did you already discover that Vermilion Bird had not suffered from memory loss?" If he dared to say no, she... she would use her eyes to despise him!

"Yes." Unexpectedly, it was clean and efficient.

“Then why didn’t you say it?” Shen Yanxiao asked.

Xiu looked at Shen Yanxiao and slowly said, “I think this is pretty good.”

Mommy and daddy. Xiu was very satisfied with such terms.

The way Vermilion Bird addressed him had pleased this great god.

“...” Shen Yanxiao was speechless. Did cultivators like to be fathers that much?!

Wasn’t Xiu and Vermilion Bird’s relationship always disharmonious? How did it suddenly become so good?!

“Xiaoxiao.” Xiu sighed as he looked at Shen Yanxiao’s ashamed and resentful expression.

“What?” Shen Yanxiao shot him a lukewarm glance.

“You don’t have to be so nervous.”

“What am I nervous about?” Shen Yanxiao suddenly became arrogant.

“A child.” Xiu said.

“With my current situation, I am powerless even if I wish to have one.” Xiu felt that it was better to appease this little girl.

“...” Shen Yanxiao’s face turned red.

“You... you... you’re too impure!!”

Xiu did not respond and merely looked at the shy Shen Yanxiao with a spurious smile.

“Let’s not talk about this anymore! Let’s go to the Blue Moon Dynasty. I’m going to give their Emperor a beating.” In order to cover up her shyness, Shen Yanxiao angrily decided to find trouble with the Emperor of the Blue Moon Dynasty.

Someone far away in the Blue Moon Dynasty suddenly felt a chill run down his spine.

He did not know that a matter that had nothing to do with him was about to lead to his tragic fate.

Chapter 1572: Being Brainless Is An Illness (1)

In the palace of the Blue Moon Dynasty, the King of the Blue Moon Dynasty was frowning.

At the bottom of the hall, Qu Rui was crying his eyes out.

It had been seven days since the soldiers of the Blue Moon Dynasty returned. Since then, Qu Rui had been reporting to the palace every day, crying his heart out.

At first, the King tried to appease him, but after seven days, the King of the Blue Moon Dynasty only wanted to strangle this useless second-generation heir to death!

“Your Majesty, you have to uphold justice for my father! That Shen Yanxiao did not care if my father was dead or alive. She left him outside Sun Never Sets and allowed him to be eaten by demon beasts. She is simply insane. You have to uphold justice for me!” Qu Rui cried out loud in the hall. He cried for seven consecutive days. His eyes were swollen like walnuts and his throat was hoarse from crying, but he did not give up.

Hearing from the returning soldiers, he learned that his father had lost his life in the Forsaken Land. For Qu Rui, who had always relied on his father to bully others, this was simply a lightning bolt from the blue!

Without his father, who would he rely on in the future?

The King speechlessly stared at Qu Rui, wishing he could give him a good beating.

What did he mean by Shen Yanxiao did not care about Qu Xun’s life or death? Did Qu Rui even understand why his father went to the Forsaken Land?

He had led an army to attack Shen Yanxiao. Not to mention not saving him, it was only right that she wanted to kill him.

With the return of the soldiers, the entire Blue Moon Dynasty was in misery.

Not to mention the heavy losses, only one of the commanders of the four countries had died, and it was from their Blue Moon Dynasty. Qu Rui had been crying and making a din in the main hall all day long, causing the marquis and dukes to discuss among themselves.

“Qu Rui, your father sacrificed his life for the country. The Blue Moon Dynasty will never forget your father’s sacrifice. You should go back and rest.” A prince hastily persuaded Qu Rui when he saw that the King was about to explode.

This idiot, Qu Rui, did not realize that he had provoked public anger. He said unwillingly, “My father died so tragically! Everyone could enter Sun Never Sets, so why did she leave him alone? Shen Yanxiao is clearly evil! She hates me and my father, so she left him to die!”

Qu Rui could not understand. The Blue Moon Dynasty had sent out so many soldiers, and tens of thousands of them had returned. But why was his father, the commander-in-chief, dead?

In his opinion, as long as someone from the Blue Moon Dynasty survived, that person must be his father.

“Those soldiers left their posts without permission! How dare they commit treason! Your Majesty, you can’t let them off so easily! Otherwise, who would dare to lead an army in the future?” Qu Rui hated Shen Yanxiao and those soldiers who came back alive. As soldiers of the Blue Moon Dynasty, how could they allow their commander to stay in a dangerous place alone?

Qu Xun did not enter the city, so those people should not have entered the city as well!

If those soldiers were to obstruct him, perhaps his father could still survive.

Qu Rui was the same as his father. He never regarded soldiers as humans. In his understanding, those soldiers should fight to the death to protect his father’s safety. So what if they died? How could their cheap lives compare to their father’s?

Qu Rui was so angry that he ordered the King to execute those soldiers.

The King's expression was ugly. They had investigated everything that had happened in Sun Never Sets. The fact that Shen Yanxiao was willing to let bygones be bygones and take in the soldiers from the four countries surprised the rulers of the Blue Moon Dynasty. Even he would not do that.

Chapter 1573: Being Brainless Is An Illness (2)

If it were not for Shen Yanxiao, none of the soldiers of the four-nation alliance would have survived. The news brought by the returning soldiers caused the rulers of the four countries to start to wonder if they had made a mistake.

The Broken Star Palace, who incited them to attack the Forsaken Land, merely stood by and did not offer any help.

In times of crisis, it was their enemies that gave them a chance to survive.

It was rather ridiculous to talk about that.

The King of the Blue Moon Dynasty was not as greedy as the Emperor of the Longxuan Empire. A large part of the reason why he agreed to the Broken Star Palace's request was due to the pressure from the lords.

The system of the Blue Moon Dynasty was different from the Longxuan Empire. This was a country with the highest symbol of royal blood.

The highest authority was the king, followed by the princes.

There were four princes in the Blue Moon Dynasty and all of them held military power. Even the King could not ignore their opinions. These princes were aristocrats that had existed since the completion of the Blue Moon Dynasty. They had power second only to the King and the position of prince could be inherited by their children. As a result, after hundreds and thousands of years, the power that these princes had accumulated was somewhat hard for the King to control.

Below the prince were dukes, then marquises, earls, viscounts, barons, and knights.

Practically every lord had their own territory and army. They would fill up their cities and land in their respective territory. They only had to pay taxes to the country at regular intervals. Their army would only listen to their lords, even the King would find it hard to mobilize them.

When the Broken Star Palace came to sow discord, all the lords and above were present. Before the kingdom had the chance to express their stance, the four princes had already expressed their agreement.

As far as the King was concerned, he did not want to get involved in this mess.

Unfortunately, he could not be as supreme as the Longxuan Empire.

With the return of the soldiers, the Blue Moon Dynasty suffered heavy losses. Hundreds of thousands of soldiers were drawn out by various lords. Not to mention the King, even they themselves felt heartache.

Now that they heard that Qu Rui wanted to kill those soldiers who had escaped with great difficulty, those lords were naturally unhappy.

Your father is just a small marquis. It doesn't matter if he dies. If you want to drag our soldiers down with you, go to hell.

No one sympathized with Qu Xun's death. In private, these people had already started to discuss how to divide up the cities and territories Qu Xun owned.

"Qu Rui, you should go back first." The King rubbed his temples. There were too many things he had to busy himself with recently. Listening to Qu Rui crying here all day long made his mind explode.

Qu Rui was unrelenting. He was only one step away from throwing a tantrum in the main hall, and everyone rolled their eyes.

"Young master Qu Rui, you're still as unreasonable as ever. It seems like you haven't improved in the slightest after such a long time." A voice brimming with laughter suddenly sounded from outside the hall.

Everyone in the hall looked outside in surprise.

All they saw was a devastatingly gorgeous young lady standing outside the hall with a smile on her face. Behind her was a young man with a cold expression as he put down the guard he had just broken the neck of.

Everyone gasped. When did these two break into the main hall? Why weren't there any guards stopping them?

"Men! There's an assassin!" A duke shouted.

Unfortunately, none of the guards came from outside. If they were to walk out of the hall at that moment, they would discover a ground full of corpses.

Chapter 1574: Being Brainless Is An Illness (3)

"Shen Yanxiao!" Qu Rui stared at the familiar young lady before him and could not believe his eyes.

He had seen Shen Yanxiao before, but...

He dared to swear that the previous Shen Yanxiao was not as pretty as this!

Qu Rui's cry of surprise caused everyone's expression to instantly tense up.

Shen Yanxiao?

Wasn't she the one from Sun Never Sets?

Everyone in the hall instantly felt as if a calamity was about to befall on them.

Shen Yanxiao must have come for revenge!

No one dared to cause trouble for Shen Yanxiao at this point in time. This young lady who had just defeated the four-nation alliance and wiped out the beast tide had become their nightmare.

They all knew that not only did Shen Yanxiao have eight mythical beasts, but she also had two more holy beasts!

Unless they were tired of living, they would not dare to go against such a monster.

However, Qu Rui sneered internally.

There was a road to heaven, but you did not take it. Instead, you barged into hell!

Shen Yanxiao actually dared to intrude into the main hall in such an imposing manner. Wasn't this simply courting death?

Qu Rui looked at the King impatiently and said, "Reporting to Your Majesty, this is Shen Yanxiao! She is the one who caused the death of countless soldiers of the Blue Moon Dynasty and my father! Right now, she actually dared to trespass into the hall. Your Majesty, please capture this person immediately!"

Qu Rui was roaring internally. Hurry and grab Shen Yanxiao. He would make her suffer a horrible death!

Qu Rui was very excited, but the other lords in the hall looked at him as if he was an idiot.

This idiot was so stupid that he even wanted to capture Shen Yanxiao?

They did not want to die yet.

An army of three million and a million demon beasts could not even kill this little monster, so how could they possibly do it with their abilities?

The King looked at Shen Yanxiao in surprise. He found it hard to believe that such a devastatingly beautiful girl could be a monster that would kill everyone.

"I did not know that Lord Shen had come this far. Please forgive me for not going out to welcome you." The King suddenly smiled and spoke. His tone was so gentle that it could twist water. He directly ignored Qu Rui's clamor.

The King's good attitude towards Shen Yanxiao caused Qu Rui's jaw to drop to the ground.

This... this was not right!

Why was His Majesty so polite to the enemy?

Shouldn't they have immediately arrested her?

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. The King of the Blue Moon Dynasty was not an idiot. The speed at which he changed his attitude was not inferior to the Emperor of the Longxuan Empire.

Shen Yanxiao crossed her arms and calmly looked at the dumbstruck Qu Rui with ridicule in her eyes.

Catch her?

The three million strong army of the four-nation alliance did not manage to do anything to her. The forces in the palace of the Blue Moon Dynasty were not even enough for Xiao Feng to warm up.

Shen Yanxiao remained silent and only looked at Qu Rui. The others secretly swallowed their saliva.

The King forced a smile and said, "All visitors from afar are guests. Men, bring two chairs for Lord Shen and this young master at once."

Before the King could finish his sentence, the four princes immediately went to fetch the chairs themselves. The four of them almost fought over who would bring the chairs over.

What a joke. Shen Yanxiao had already come to their doorsteps. If they did not take the opportunity to display their abilities, wouldn't they die without a burial ground if this little monster were to start a massacre?

With the exception of Qu Rui, everyone had reached a consensus in their hearts. As long as Shen Yanxiao did not flip out, they would definitely carefully and properly serve this great aunt!

Please don't wash the hall with blood!

Chapter 1575: Being Brainless Is An Illness (4)

Two of the four princes carried a chair and moved it to the main hall. The few dukes who did not manage to grab a chair to show off immediately ran forward and wiped the chair up and down with their neat and luxurious sleeves.

Among the four countries, the Blue Moon Dynasty was the best at flattering and fawning.

Which of the lords in the hall would dare to display their usual arrogance?

In front of Shen Yanxiao, all of them nodded and bowed. They were even more flattering than the most trained servants.

None of them were fools. Shen Yanxiao did not flip out at the first instance, which meant that there was still room for them to turn back. They must not let this little lady get angry!

Not to mention waiting for Shen Yanxiao to take a seat, even if they were to kneel down and massage her legs, they would have no objections.

"Lord Shen, please have a seat!" The King calmly said with a smile, as if those boot-licking bastards had nothing to do with him.

Qu Rui was completely dumbstruck. He stood in the hall in a daze and as he saw Shen Yanxiao and Lan Fengli sitting on the chairs, he wondered if he was dreaming.

His Majesty did not send anyone to capture Shen Yanxiao and even gave her a seat?

Those princes and dukes were even more attentive. What was going on?

Things did not progress as Qu Rui expected.

Shen Yanxiao lazily sat on the chair and crossed her legs. She propped her chin with one hand and tilted her head to look at the smiling king. Her posture was as annoying as it could be and as arrogant as she could be.

"I wonder why Lord Shen has come this far?" The King asked with a smile.

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. “Naturally, it’s because of the war between the four countries and the Forsaken Land.”

She said it!

She said it!!

She finally said it!!

The lords on one side almost collectively scratched the wall, fearing that Shen Yanxiao would suddenly jump up and slaughter them all.

Even though they were of high status and power, all of them were people who only knew how to enjoy life and did not know how to fight. If Shen Yanxiao wanted to start a massacre, she probably could kill all of them without even summoning her magical beast.

Girl! Goddess! No!!

Give me a chance!

We were wrong!

The smile on the King’s face stiffened. He immediately put on a guilty and remorseful expression and said, “I was too muddle-headed in this matter. I shouldn’t have listened to the Broken Star Palace’s instigation and misunderstood Lord Shen. Lord Shen, please forgive the transgression of a vile character. My Blue Moon Dynasty is willing to make up for our mistakes.”

The King of the Blue Moon Dynasty was much better than the Emperor of the Longxuan Empire. Before Shen Yanxiao could speak, he had already brought up the issue of compensation.

It was not that he had no moral principles or bottom line, but he lived in the Blue Moon Dynasty and these skills were innate!

Shen Yanxiao chuckled. She was satisfied with the King’s understanding of the times, which saved her a lot of saliva.

Qu Rui was thoroughly petrified. Never in his wildest dreams would he expect things to unfold like this.

It was one thing if they did not arrest Shen Yanxiao, but why did His Majesty take the initiative to compensate for the loss of Sun Never Sets?

“Your Majesty! You must not do that! That bitch is vicious and has harmed so many of our soldiers. How can we be on good terms with her!” Qu Rui felt that everyone in the hall had been deceived by Shen Yanxiao, so he had to step forward!

Wake them up!

Chapter 1576:

Being Brainless Is An Illness (5)

“...”

Qu Rui's roar echoed in the quiet hall and everyone's gaze focused on this young master with swollen eyes.

Evidently, Qu Rui did not 'enlighten' these lords. Instead, he had attracted countless hatred towards him!

“Lord Shen, this guy is crazy. Please don't make things difficult for him. His father failed to adapt to the circumstances and he has gone crazy from fright. He would shout and cry in the main hall all day long. His Majesty is just being kind and considerate since he has gone crazy. Therefore, we did not punish him. Lord Shen, what he said just now was just empty talk. Please don't take it to heart!” One of the princes immediately jumped out to clear their relationship.

Was Qu Rui sick of living? How dare he ask them to capture Shen Yanxiao?

“Yes, yes, yes! Lord Shen, don't be calculative with a madman. I'll have someone take him away right now.” The King nodded while wiping his cold sweat.

“Men... oh, just the few of you, drag this madman away. Don't disturb my conversation with Lord Shen.” The King immediately pointed at the few viscounts and ordered them to drag Qu Rui away.

If Qu Rui continued to cause trouble, it would be hard for Shen Yanxiao to not explode!

Those who were called out immediately dragged Qu Rui up and tried to pull him out.

Qu Rui was struck dumb. What the heck?

Why did everyone in the room change?

He suddenly thought of something and cursed at Shen Yanxiao. “Shen Yanxiao, you despicable bastard! Did you cast a curse on His Majesty and the rest? You bitch! You caused my father's death and now, you're trying to bewitch His Majesty to cause my death! You bitch! You must die a horrible death! Your Majesty! Wake up, Your Majesty! Don't be bewitched by that bitch!”

Recalling Shen Yanxiao's profession, Qu Rui immediately guessed that Shen Yanxiao must have cast a curse on the people in the hall.

The King facepalmed and did not even want to look at Qu Rui.

What the heck!

I, your father, am very sober. Instead, your brain is flooded with water. You grabbed that little grandaunt and scolded her. Don't tell me you want to cause everyone to die!!

“Hurry up and bring him down. Don't talk nonsense here.”

“Wait,” Shen Yanxiao suddenly spoke.

“Lord Shen?” Everyone looked at Shen Yanxiao in surprise. All of them had their hearts in their throats. Was she about to get angry?

Shen Yanxiao stood up and slowly walked to Qu Rui's side. Qu Rui tried his best to glare at Shen Yanxiao to make himself look more fierce, but his red and swollen eyes were hilarious.

"I've seen many lunatics. Coincidentally, I have a potion here that can cure mental injuries. It's better to come at the right time. The two of you, help Eldest Young Master Qu Rui open his mouth so that I can feed him the potion." Shen Yanxiao smiled and looked at the frightened Qu Rui.

Qu Rui widened his eyes and shook his head in horror.

How could the two viscounts who rode on him dare to oppose Shen Yanxiao? They directly reached out and roughly pried Qu Rui's mouth open.

Shen Yanxiao swiftly took out a bottle of dark green potion from her interspatial ring. Under Qu Rui's despairing gaze, she opened the bottle cap and slowly poured the extremely bewitching potion into his mouth.

Shen Yanxiao's smile deepened as she admired Qu Rui's twisted face.

Being brainless was an illness that had to be cured!

Chapter 1577: Let the Extortion Be Stronger (1)

"Hehe... hehe..." Qu Rui sat in the main hall with a silly smile and a confused expression on his face.

After a bottle of potion entered his stomach, Qu Rui became like this.

He was turned dumb.

"Take young master Qu down to rest." Shen Yanxiao curled her lips and returned to her seat. As she looked at Qu Rui who had turned into a fool being dragged away, an evil smile surfaced in her eyes.

In the past, she was too gentle in her methods, there was no need for her to keep an idiot who hated her to the bones.

From now on, those who submit to me shall prosper, and those who oppose me shall perish.

After witnessing the entire process of Shen Yanxiao using a potion to turn Qu Rui into a fool, everyone in the hall secretly swallowed their saliva. They warned themselves to be careful and not provoke such a demon. Otherwise, they might end up like Qu Rui one day.

No matter how strong the Ling was internally, he could not conceal the shock in his eyes. When he saw Shen Yanxiao looking over, he hastily said, "Thank you so much for your help, Lord Shen. You are so kind-hearted!"

Lan Fengli looked down at his nose and heart. When he heard the King's flattery, he slightly raised his eyelids.

Shen Yanxiao cooperated and said, "It's just a small matter. Even though that potion cost me a lot of gold coins, it would be a good thing if it can cure young master Qu."

The King's heart skipped a beat. If he did not understand this hint, he would be a fool!

“This Qu Rui is from the Blue Moon Dynasty. How can I let you spend so much money? How many gold coins is this potion worth? I’ll get someone to deliver it to you later.” Cunning! Too crafty! The King was honestly speechless. He could only look on helplessly as Qu Rui was tortured by Shen Yanxiao while he had to applaud and cheer at the side. Now, he even had to pay.

Wasn’t it stupid to give out money like this?

The King was about to cry.

“Since Your Majesty has such good intentions, I shall not decline.” Shen Yanxiao smiled like a little fox.

“Great Master Ye Qing personally concocted that potion and used hundreds of medicinal ingredients. I originally intended to send it to the auction house.” Shen Yanxiao restrained her crafty smile and calmly said.

The King suddenly had a bad feeling.

Great Master Ye Qing...

Hundreds of medicinal ingredients...

Auction house...

He had a feeling that Shen Yanxiao’s potion would not be cheap.

“So it’s Great Master Ye Qing’s work. How rare.” The King revealed a fake smile.

“I won’t ask for much from you. I originally intended to use 800,000 gold coins to start the bid for this potion. Now that Your Majesty has given me so much, I will just give you a starting bid of 800,000 gold coins.” Shen Yanxiao put on an expression of ‘I am very generous, I will not calculate the price’ and spoke with a strong sense of righteousness.

The King’s face turned green.

800,000...

What the heck!

Even if it was a potion personally concocted by Ye Qing, the price was too outrageous! Plus, it was a detrimental potion, not a beneficial potion!

Aren’t you asking for too much?

The King had a resentful expression on his face. However, just as he was about to counter, he saw a cold glint that flashed past Shen Yanxiao’s eyes. In an instant, he put down the thought of arguing with her.

“Alright, I will immediately send someone to prepare.” The King swallowed the blood that surged to his throat and tried his best to look enthusiastic.

If you cannot bear to part with your child, you cannot catch the wolf. If you cannot bear to part with your wife, you cannot catch the hooligan!

For the sake of the lives of everyone in the hall, he could only comply!!

Chapter 1578: Let the Extortion Be Stronger (2)

Not long later, an interspatial ring with 800,000 gold coins was delivered to Shen Yanxiao. She directly threw it to Lan Fengli as if he was her private purse.

The King smiled obsequiously. He did not know the purpose of Shen Yanxiao's trip, but he could not chase her away. God knew that he felt like he was sitting on pins and needles.

"Lord Shen, this is your first time in the Blue Moon Dynasty, right? Why don't I let you take Lord Shen for a tour?" The King asked.

Shen Yanxiao looked at the King with a smile and said, "There's no need for that. I'm here mainly to discuss the previous war with Your Majesty."

Another great battle!

Everyone's heart was lifted by Shen Yanxiao's words.

"Lord Shen, please be frank. This is our mistake." The King felt bitter.

"I know that the various countries were instigated by the Broken Star Palace to attack my Forsaken Land in this war. I am not an unreasonable person and naturally, I will not vent my anger on the four countries. However, this war was caused by you and my Forsaken Land suffered heavy losses because of it..." Shen Yanxiao did not finish her sentence as she stared at the King.

The King immediately reacted!

"Naturally, we are in the wrong. The Blue Moon Dynasty will compensate for the losses in the Forsaken Land!" The King said hastily.

"Very well, I have a bill here. I'll have to trouble Your Majesty to see if there's anything inappropriate." Shen Yanxiao smiled and took out a bill. The content of the bill was exactly the same as the one she gave to the Longxuan Empire.

When the King saw the dense list, his heartbeat nearly stopped!

There were countless compensations listed on the list, from the reconstruction of several destroyed cities to the death compensation, and then to the economic compensation for the various cities under Shen Yanxiao...

The King of the Blue Moon Dynasty felt the same urge to die as the Emperor of the Longxuan Empire!

Evidently, Shen Yanxiao was prepared for this.

All the compensation totaled to an astronomical figure. The King swore that he would not be able to compensate even if he emptied the state treasury.

"How is it?" Shen Yanxiao smiled and looked at a certain pale king.

The King opened his mouth. When he saw Lan Fengli suddenly release a powerful killing intent, he immediately restrained his twisted expression and replaced it with a smile.

“Very reasonable, very reasonable. I’ll get it ready right now.”

Money was precious, but life was more valuable!

As long as he was alive, he could tighten his belt!

Compensate!

“Thank you.” Shen Yanxiao nodded with satisfaction.

“You’re too kind.” The King’s voice was filled with laughter and tears. No one knew how bitter he felt.

“Lord Shen, please rest assured. Even if the entire Blue Moon Dynasty were to prepare together, we will definitely repay this sum of money.” The King swallowed his saliva and handed the bill to the Prince of Qi. From the prince onwards, all the lords turned pale.

The King had no other choice. He could only drag these lords who lived in pools of wine and forests of meat into the fire pit.

His life was not his alone. If he had to fork out money, everyone should do it together. No one could go back on their words.

The King had already said his piece and even if they were beaten to death, they did not dare to object in front of Shen Yanxiao. They could only gnash their teeth and swallow their saliva. They had a bitter expression on their faces, but they still had to agree.

They would not die if they did not seek death. They had a deep understanding of their stupidity and they would pay the price for it..

Chapter 1579: Let the Extortion Be Stronger (3)

After the matter of compensation was finalized, Shen Yanxiao handed over the admission letter to the King as per usual.

After the consecutive setbacks, the King’s expression twitched when he saw the contract and he nearly fainted.

Different from the Longxuan Empire, the contract Shen Yanxiao gave the Blue Moon Dynasty clearly stated that if the Blue Moon Dynasty were to completely withdraw from the Forsaken Land, all the members of the Blue Moon Dynasty in the Fantasy Devil City must evacuate within a month and the city would be taken over by Shen Yanxiao.

“Well...” The King felt like crying. Even though the Fantasy Devil City could not be compared to Sun Never Sets, it had cost the Blue Moon Dynasty a lot of manpower and resources to sustain. If they were to withdraw now... it would be like cutting off their flesh.

Geng Yi wanted to cry even more than the King. He was Geng Di’s father. Even though the Fantasy Devil City was owned by the Blue Moon Dynasty, he had benefited a lot from the city because the city lord was his son. Shen Yanxiao’s condition had directly cut off Geng Yi’s path to wealth.

God knew that Geng Yi and Geng Di had already regarded the Fantasy Devil City as their property and invested a lot of effort into it.

It was worse than killing them to have the father and son surrender.

“Your Majesty, you should know how difficult it is to build a city in the Forsaken Land. It is not something that can be accomplished with money. Everyone is well aware of the firm belief on which the Fantasy Devil City was built. Which city under my command was not built like this? A battle destroyed eleven of my cities, and even my main city, Sun Never Sets, was riddled with scars. It is not too much for me to want a small city of the Blue Moon Dynasty as compensation.” Shen Yanxiao sighed and revealed an expression that said ‘I am at a disadvantage ‘.

The King wanted to vomit blood.

Was it difficult for Shen Yanxiao to build a city?

Who was she trying to fool?

If it was really difficult, could you obtain fifty cities in less than a year?

Our Fantasy Devil City alone took us more than a decade. There’s no comparison!

Shameless! Too shameless!

Money and the city!

Can you not be so savage!

Besides, the Blue Moon Dynasty was not the only one attacking the Forsaken Land. The Longxuan Empire, the God Wind Alliance, and the Seven Kingdoms were all involved. Don’t you keep killing us! Can you change to another country?

The King was filled with sadness, but he only dared to grumble in his heart. Lan Fengli, who was seated below, looked as if knives were about to shoot out from his eyes. He believed that if he dared to grumble once or twice, this young man would definitely rush over and stab him.

And there would be no hesitation at all!

“Lord Shen... you mean... that Fantasy Devil City will belong to Lord Shen in the future. However, I’m afraid it’s not enough for the Blue Moon Dynasty to sign this letter of admission.” The King struggled implicitly and stared at the murderous Lan Fengli.

Young man, my tone is very gentle. Don’t hit me!

“Your Majesty, please rest assured that the Emperor of the Longxuan Empire has already signed the same agreement. I know what you are worried about. I will leave this contract with you for the time being. It would not be too late to make a decision after some organizations that targeted my Sun Never Sets were eradicated.” Shen Yanxiao knew of his concerns and was also easy to talk to.

Eradicate... some organization that targeted Sun Never Sets?

Wasn’t this referring to the Broken Star Palace?

The King gasped. He had underestimated Shen Yanxiao's courage!

They dared to confront the Broken Star Palace, one of the two largest organizations in the Brilliance Continent!

Chapter 1580: Let the Extortion Be Stronger (4)

After Shen Yanxiao shocked everyone in the hall, she left the palace with Lan Fengli.

After she left the palace, she did not take Lan Fengli with her. Instead, she called for Vermilion Bird and Taotie. The four of them ate and drank in the largest inn in the capital.

Shen Yanxiao originally wanted Xiu to come out as well, but when she remembered that Xiu would consume his energy materializing, she gave up on that idea. Right now, it was better for Xiu to continue resting. When she returned to Sun Never Sets, she had to let Xiu absorb more dark elements as soon as possible.

There were four of them at one table and all of them had outstanding looks. Even though Shen Yanxiao sat on a seat in the corner, it attracted the attention of many.

A devastatingly gorgeous young lady, a handsome young man, and two little guys that were as pretty as a painting were too eye-catching. Many customers were stretching out their heads to take a look, but they were all frightened by Lan Fengli's cold glare and quickly squatted at the corner to grow mushrooms.

Shen Yanxiao ordered a table full of good dishes, and Vermilion Bird just ate casually. As for Lan Fengli, he just ate in silence, but the gentleness in his eyes revealed how much he cherished this moment.

Only Taotie seemed to have lost his soul when he saw the food on the table. He quickly used both his hands and swept away, as if he was facing thousands of enemies as he happily ate away.

Shen Yanxiao did not care about money at all. She had just extorted a sum from the Blue Moon Dynasty, so she was now filthy rich.

She had already extorted money from the Longxuan Empire for the reconstruction fees and the compensation for the people in the Forsaken Land. So naturally, the money she extorted from the Blue Moon Dynasty fell into her pocket.

"Are we going to the Seventh Kingdom or the God Wind Alliance?" Vermilion Bird had just woken up and did not have much appetite. He had seen the entire process of Shen Yanxiao blackmailing the Blue Moon Dynasty in Shen Yanxiao's body and that made him feel good. Unfortunately, he was still unconscious when Shen Yanxiao blackmailed the Emperor, so he had missed a good show. Right now, he was eager to follow Shen Yanxiao to see her continue blackmailing the other two countries.

Shen Yanxiao took a sip of tea and said, "None of you are going."

"Ah?" Vermilion Bird was stunned.

"Why?" Shen Yanxiao was enjoying the extortion, so why did she stop?

That did not make sense. This was not Shen Yanxiao's style at all. She did not even let go of the Longxuan Empire and the Blue Moon Dynasty. So, how could she let go of the God Wind Alliance and the Seventh Kingdom?

"The God Wind Alliance and the Seventh Kingdom are not under one person's control. Even if I were to go, I would have to wait for them to discuss before I can get an answer. It's too troublesome." Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders. She had to settle this matter as soon as possible. She felt that it would be too much of a waste of time to talk nonsense with those idiots. If she had the time, she might as well bring these three adorable kids to have fun.

"Are we going to let them go just like that?" Vermilion Bird frowned. He had a bad impression of the four countries. If not for those idiots causing trouble, how could they have sacrificed so much to deal with the beast tide?

"Let them go? Dream on." Shen Yanxiao sneered. She would definitely settle her debts, but she did not have to personally pay them a visit.

Vermilion Bird chuckled. As expected, his master was not that easy to talk to.

"Don't worry, I have my ways to deal with them." While speaking, Shen Yanxiao picked up some food for Taotie, Vermilion Bird and Lan Fengli.

The trio nodded and lowered their heads to eat.

After staying in the capital of the Blue Moon Dynasty for a few days, Shen Yanxiao had fun with her three adorable friends before she boarded the carriage back to the Forsaken Land..
