

The Good 1581

Chapter 1581: Cooperation (1)

Shen Yanxiao did not return to Sun Never Sets directly. She just asked Lan Fengli to return first while she went to Twilight City.

In Twilight City, everything was still the same. Elder Wen, who had been scared out of his wits some time ago, did not dare to stay in the Forsaken Land for a long time. He was afraid that Shen Yanxiao would cause trouble, causing everything in the Twilight City to return to Duan Hen's hands.

Night fell and Twilight City was silent. Duan Hen sat by the lotus pond alone and looked at the fish in the pond.

"City Lord Duan's personality is pretty good." A voice that was laced with a smile suddenly sounded behind Duan Hen.

Duan Hen turned around in surprise and looked at the unfamiliar yet somewhat familiar face standing before him.

"Shen Yanxiao?" Duan Hen asked with uncertainty.

"Why? You don't remember my appearance after a year?" Shen Yanxiao smiled and asked.

Duan Hen said, "City Lord Shen has changed a lot." She had become even more beautiful.

Shen Yanxiao touched her face. Perhaps it was because she would sweep a glance at the mirror every day, but she did not notice the changes. Instead, Tang Nazhi and the rest said that her facial features had become more exquisite. From a little girl to a young lady, Shen Yanxiao's stunning appearance had blossomed.

"Really? I don't think so."

"City Lord Shen has graced me with your presence in the middle of the night. I believe you must have something to tell me. The night is chilly. City Lord Shen, please come to my study." Duan Hen spoke with grace.

Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders and followed Duan Hen into the study.

Looking at the increasingly stunning Shen Yanxiao, Duan Hen felt unusually calm.

"I've heard about the four-nation alliance attacking Sun Never Sets some time ago. Is City Lord Shen here for that?"

"Why do you think so?" Shen Yanxiao raised her brow.

Duan Hen chuckled and said, "The news of City Lord Shen visiting the Longxuan Empire and the Blue Moon Dynasty has spread throughout the four countries. As far as I know, Elder Wen has been in a state of anxiety for a long time. He did not even dare to take another step into Twilight City. I believe he is afraid that City Lord Shen would find trouble with him again."

Shen Yanxiao curled her lips. Her relationship with the leaders of the four countries was very delicate, and her relationship with Elder Wen and Qu Xun was the worst. The two of them had also regarded her as an eyesore. And now, Qu Xun was dead, and the news of Qu Rui being 'cured' by Shen Yanxiao had also spread to Elder Wen. Elder Wen was deeply afraid that Shen Yanxiao's next target would be him. So right now, he was hidden in the Elders Council, not daring to take a step out. He pretended to be sick all day long, fearing that Shen Yanxiao's next destination would be the Seventh Kingdom.

"Find trouble with him? He's overestimating himself." Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders. She was not interested in wasting her breath with Elder Wen, that stubborn old man.

"Rest assured. I have no plans to go to the Seventh Kingdom, and I am not prepared to settle this debt with them. I am here for our previous collaboration."

Duan Hen's heart skipped a beat.

Shen Yanxiao said, "We had an agreement that day. If you can manage Twilight City and display your strength, I will agree to your request. Even though I am not in the Brilliance Continent during this period, I know a lot about Twilight City."

Duan Hen was also someone who dared to speak and act. Although he had been suppressed by the Elders Council, he gradually squeezed Elder Wen out of the core circle of Twilight City with his loyal followers.

If not for that, Twilight City would have participated in the war. Luckily, Twilight City did not suffer any damage from this war, which proved Duan Hen's efforts over the past year.

Only those with strength deserved to be cooperated with..

Chapter 1582: Cooperation (2)

"You've really agreed to cooperate with me?" Duan Hen was slightly surprised. A part of the reason why he wanted to invite Shen Yanxiao to form an alliance with him was because he was not strong enough. The other part of the reason was because Shen Yanxiao's foundation had just stabilized and she required the support of her allies. However, after experiencing the four-nation alliance and the beast tide, Shen Yanxiao's reputation had increased day by day.

After Shen Yanxiao led her men to withstand two waves of troops, her cities were immediately recognized as the safest place in the Brilliance Continent.

Some of the aristocratic families and merchants who were spectating back then had also started to express goodwill towards Sun Never Sets.

Even a three-million strong army of the four-nation alliance could not do anything to Shen Yanxiao. At this point, probably no one in the Brilliance Continent could bring her down.

How could Duan Hen not be surprised that Shen Yanxiao would come to him for a collaboration?

"Naturally." Shen Yanxiao nodded.

“Reason?” Duan Hen was no fool. His current strength was insufficient to help Shen Yanxiao.

There must be another reason why he could invite the most influential lord in the Brilliance Continent.

“I want you to lead the Seventh Kingdom and become the only monarch there.” Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes.

Duan Hen gasped.

“I will help you get rid of the seven Elders in the Elders Council, and the rest will be up to you. I will give you three years. I want you to ascend the throne of the Seventh Kingdom in three years. If you don’t have the ability, I will reluctantly accept the land of the Seventh Kingdom.” Shen Yanxiao sneered.

Duan Hen felt a chill beneath his feet. He believed Shen Yanxiao had the ability to do so.

“Why are you helping me?” What good would it do for you when I ascend to the peak of power in the Seventh Kingdom.” Duan Hen did not understand.

Shen Yanxiao looked at Duan Hen and slowly said, “In three years time, the Devil race will reappear in the world, and I don’t want to see humans in a state of disunity. Three years later, I will become the representative of the human race and gather the other races in the world to fight against the invasion of the Devil race. The Longxuan Empire and the Blue Moon Dynasty will surrender to my suppression, but I need a country that is loyal to me.”

“Devil race... is that true?” Duan Hen never expected Shen Yanxiao to bring such terrifying news.

The Devil Clan was everyone’s nightmare!

No matter how capable Duan Hen was, it was impossible for him to imagine that this would involve the Devil race.

“If it’s fake, why would I need to do all these?” Shen Yanxiao spread her hands. Duan Hen was not a fool. He was smart. She gave him everything he wanted, and he had to repay her for her help.

“So you did not intend to go to the Seventh Kingdom from the start?” Duan Hen looked at Shen Yanxiao. While everyone was waiting to see which of the remaining two countries Shen Yanxiao would visit, she seemed to have ignored the Seventh Kingdom.

“Not only the Seventh Kingdom, but also the God Wind Alliance.” Shen Yanxiao was very frank.

“If you support me in the Seventh Kingdom, then who are you supporting in the God Wind Alliance? Long Fei?” Duan Hen narrowed his eyes. Shen Yanxiao was playing a huge game of chess.

She wanted to use her strength to suppress the two countries and secretly support her strength to seize power in the other two countries. She really wanted to become the person at the peak of the Brilliance Continent!

“You don’t have to ask. I’ve given you the opportunity. Whether you can grasp it will depend on your choice.” Shen Yanxiao was unwilling to say more.. She only wanted Duan Hen’s answer.

Chapter 1583: Cooperation (3)

Duan Hen looked at Shen Yanxiao. This was a gamble. If he won, he would walk towards the heights of his life. If he lost, his life would be in danger.

“I promise you.” In the end, Duan Hen chose to gamble.

Shen Yanxiao smiled. She knew that Duan Hen was never someone who was willing to accept the current situation. He was an ambitious person and if used well, he would become a sharp sword in her hands.

“From now on, Twilight City will no longer expand into the Forsaken Land. I will keep your identity as the City Lord of Twilight City for the time being. When you ascend to the highest position in the Seventh Kingdom, Twilight City will belong to me.”

“As you wish!” Duan Hen suddenly stood up and knelt on one knee in front of Shen Yanxiao. He was willing to swear his loyalty to Shen Yanxiao. For the sake of his honor, for the sake of his father’s death, he was willing to sell everything.

“After three months, the seven elders of the Seventh Kingdom will pass away. The Emperor of the Seven Kingdoms will be gravely ill and all the demons lurking in the Seventh Kingdom will riot. How you deal with them will depend on your skills. Don’t let down my expectations of you.” Shen Yanxiao would never mistreat her own people. Since he had pledged her loyalty, she would pave the way for Duan Hen to ascend the throne. Whether he had the ability to win the hearts of the people and ascend to the peak would depend on his strength.

“I will not disappoint you, Lord!” Duan Hen said with determination.

He would not give up any opportunity he had!

“Very well. Remember, you only have three years. If you do not ascend the throne in three years, I will kill you.” Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes. She gave Duan Hen a chance and provided him with conditions. But if he was still useless, then she would not be as kind any longer.

“Yes!” Duan Hen knelt on the ground and answered with determination.

“Your life and your future are in your hands. I will wait for the day when you claim the throne in three years.” Shen Yanxiao stood up. She had said all that she wanted to say. She had no reason to stay.

Duan Hen watched Shen Yanxiao leave. He only stood up slowly when he could no longer see her back. The flames of desire could be seen burning in his eyes.

In three years, he would change his life!

Shen Yanxiao did not go to Blizzard City, nor did she tell Long Fei anything else. Long Fei’s relationship with her was not like Duan Hen’s, where only benefits were involved. She believed in Long Fei’s personality, and she was unwilling to impose such strict conditions on this righteous brother of hers.

After she dealt with Duan Hen, Shen Yanxiao summoned Vermilion Bird and flew towards Sun Never Sets.

Sun Never Sets was bustling with activity.

After two major wars, the city walls of Sun Never Sets had been fully repaired after a month. The wounded had been taken care of by the Herbalists and Doctors. Sun Never Sets had finally recovered its former lively state.

When Shen Yanxiao returned, Qi Xia was having a headache as he looked at the hundreds of carriages parked outside the mansion.

Seeing that Shen Yanxiao had returned, Qi Xia forced a smile and said. "You've fished up quite a lot of things during this trip."

The carriages parked outside the City Lord's Mansion were hung with chess pieces from the four countries. There was only one coachman without a carriage, and the carriages were filled with all sorts of rare treasures.

"The God Wind Alliance and the Seventh Kingdom also sent someone to deliver these treasures?" Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. She had yet to go to these two places to 'collect debts', but they were rather self-aware.

"That's right. It's not any less than the Blue Moon Dynasty and the Longxuan Empire." Qi Xia looked at the list in his hands and his beautiful eyes narrowed into a crescent moon. His foxy nature was on full display..

Chapter 1584: The Thieves Are Planning To Make A Move (1)

Shen Yanxiao made a trip to the Longxuan Empire and then to the Blue Moon Dynasty. How could the God Wind Alliance and the Seven Kingdoms not know that she had beaten them up?

The upper echelons of the two countries had learned their lesson. Without waiting for Shen Yanxiao to personally come and collect their debts, they all followed the Blue Moon Dynasty's list and compensated them accordingly.

It could be said that Shen Yanxiao had accumulated a huge sum of money from her trip.

She only needed to use one of the four sets of compensation to repair the Forsaken Land and the other three parts would fall into her pocket.

With the exception of the amount written on Shen Yanxiao's list, the four countries had sensibly delivered many treasures to please this lord who could cover the sky with one hand.

Qi Xia's hands were cramping from counting money.

"You have good taste. Pick some items that you like and put them away. As for the other items, throw them into the auction house." Shen Yanxiao did not even bother to look at the list and handed it to Qi Xia to handle.

Qi Xia chuckled and said, "You sure trust me. Aren't you afraid that I will withdraw my funds one day?"

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows.

“Do you need to run if you want to take it?”

Even though all the funds and treasures were in Shen Yanxiao’s storeroom, there were several keys to the storeroom. Naturally, the members of Phantom had one each. The seven wolves, Uncle Nine, Lan Fengli, Ye Qing, Yun Qi, Yin Jiuchen, Freud, Enchantress, Zhong Ling, Tian Qiu, Qiao Chu... Shen Yanxiao had also allocated them.

It could be said that Shen Yanxiao was rather at ease with her group of friends. Not to mention that she would not care if they take it, she would not even blink if they did.

They could spend as they pleased!

What I have is money!

“I won’t take it, but I reckon some people will have their eyes on it.” Qi Xia said with a spurious smile.

“Why do you say that?” Shen Yanxiao raised her brow.

In response, Qi Xia just smiled like a fox.

“Speaking of which, as a thief god, don’t you realize what kind of effect the gifts from the four countries will bring?”

Effect?

Shen Yanxiao touched her chin. Based on her personality, if she knew that all the treasures had been sent to Sun Never Sets, she would definitely come out to fish for the gold coins.

Of course, the premise was that these items were not hers.

“Are you saying that thieves would have designs on them?” Shen Yanxiao asked.

Qi Xia facepalmed.

“Don’t tell me you don’t know about the Silver Hands?”

“I seem to have heard of it.” Shen Yanxiao vaguely remembered having heard of such an organization, and it seemed to be a den of thieves.

“To be honest, I just received news two days ago. Silver Hands seems to be very interested in our Sun Never Sets.” Qi Xia helplessly told Shen Yanxiao the information he had received a few days ago.

Shen Yanxiao was amused. A thief like her had been targeted by a group of thieves. That was interesting.

“The Silver Hands has never paid any attention to anyone. As long as it is something they fancy, it is highly likely that it will fall into their hands. Previously, they had released a list that listed all the rare treasures within the four countries. Their leader said that they would definitely steal all these items within ten years.” Qi Xia was rather interested in those thieves.

“They want it all?” Shen Yanxiao lamented. The thieves of this world were too high-profile.. They even dared to publicize what they wanted to steal. Wasn’t that asking them to keep a tight watch?

Chapter 1585: The Thieves Are Planning To Make A Move (2)

How proud were they of their 'skills' to do such a crazy thing?

Shen Yanxiao believed that she was an honest thief. She would steal honestly and not flaunt herself.

She would never do something like letting others know that she stole it and giving out notices beforehand.

Thieves had to be soundless, come and go without a trace. It would be best if no one in the world knew that they were the culprits. That would be perfect.

If they were that high-profile, why were they called thieves and not bandits?

Shen Yanxiao did not have much interest in them.

"They've got quite a few of the treasures in the list, but there are still a few that they haven't gotten." Qi Xia said.

"How long until the ten-year deadline?" Shen Yanxiao asked.

"Two more months," Qi Xia smiled and said.

Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes. Looking at Qi Xia's evil smile, she had an ominous premonition.

"Don't tell me..." Shen Yanxiao looked at those treasures that were being moved down the carriage by the people of Sun Never Sets.

Qi Xia suppressed his laughter and nodded.

"The few that they have yet to obtain are now in our city."

"I knew it! None of the rulers of the four countries are good people!" Shen Yanxiao was furious. They were not giving her a gift, but rather throwing a hot potato into her hands?

The rulers of the four countries were too smart!

Knowing that they would not be able to keep these treasures from the Silver Hands, they might as well give them to Shen Yanxiao as a favor. It would look good and presentable. Besides, if the Silver Hands were to steal the presents, it would have nothing to do with them. In any case, they had already repaid the debt.

Despicable! Too despicable!

"Why? You, as a heartless thief, are afraid of those thieves from Silver Hands?" Qi Xia crossed his arms and calmly looked at the displeased Shen Yanxiao. He was looking forward to the world-shaking scene of a thief god going against a den of thieves.

She had to admit that Third Young Master Qi had a lot of bad taste.

If it were not for his grandfather's suppression, perhaps this young man who was filled with the spirit of adventure would have abandoned wealth and status and ran to become a bandit who occupied a mountain.

“You seem to be looking forward to it?” Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes and looked at Qi Xia who revealed a crafty smile.

“A little,” Qi Xia said with a reserved tone.

“Very well. Write a notice for the presents sent by the four countries and paste it in the city to thank them for their generous gifts.” Shen Yanxiao curled her lips and revealed a nasty smile.

“...” Qi Xia was speechless. Write out everything in these hundreds of carriages?

This was simply killing him.

“Since you want to watch a show, you should at least spend some money to buy a ticket.” Shen Yanxiao looked at Qi Xia with a nasty expression. Didn’t he want to see her fight against the Silver Hands?

In that case, she would give him a chance to honestly write out the gift list and paste it out so that the young masters of Silver Hands could have a clear path.

Without giving Qi Xia a chance to struggle, Shen Yanxiao dashed into the mansion.

Coincidentally, Tang Nazhi arrived just in time. When he saw Qi Xia staring blankly at the hundreds of carriages, he curiously walked over and patted Qi Xia’s shoulders. “This is the first time I’ve seen you frowning when you saw a pile of treasures.” Wasn’t this guy a profiteer?

Shouldn’t profiteers cheer when they see treasures?

Why was his expression so tragic?

Qi Xia suddenly revealed an evil smile when he looked at Tang Nazhi.

“Nazhi, I have an interesting job here.. Do you want to do it together?”

Chapter 1586: The Thieves Are Planning To Make A Move (3)

The Forsaken Land had returned to its former peaceful state. More and more people were pouring into the Forsaken Land. Some organizations that had been observing the situation had also made plans to be on good terms with Shen Yanxiao.

The five main cities in the Forsaken Land were fully open to the public. Other than the fact that Sun Never Sets no longer recruited new members, the other four cities had begun to recruit elites.

However, even though Sun Never Sets did not accept people, there were still many people who came after the city was opened.

Everyone was curious about this powerful city that could withstand two wars. Even if they could not join, they had to admire it.

A large number of people entered Sun Never Sets for a tour, and it was bustling with activity. The shops on both sides of the street were open for everyone to see. Even though the items sold here were no different from the other four main cities, the people who came to Sun Never Sets still wanted to bring some souvenirs back.

Sun Never Sets had become the number one city in the Brilliance Continent.

As a profiteer, how could Qi Xia let go of such a good opportunity to make money? He asked every shop to produce a batch of toys with Sun Never Sets's City of Ming printed on it. The sales of these toys were extremely good.

To the current Shen Yanxiao, money was merely a string of numbers. She had an entire box of interspatial rings filled with money and other than gold coins, she had locked all the other rare treasures in the storeroom.

The endowment of the citizens of Sun Never Sets had crushed the capital of the four countries. It was a pity that the city was no longer recruiting people. Otherwise, those who yearned to enter Sun Never Sets would probably start fighting.

A few young men mingled with the crowd and entered the legendary city. They were dressed in ordinary clothes, but their appearance could be considered delicate and pretty. They came to the largest inn in Sun Never Sets and found a seat by the window.

"Say, second-in-charge, why did you personally come out this time?" A slightly younger young man looked at the most handsome man among them and asked.

"Sun Never Sets is now teeming with people, so I am interested to take a look." The handsome man smiled and looked at the bustling crowd on the street.

"I think that's it. There are too many people, and the Forsaken Land is barren to begin with. Even though we have reclaimed a piece of land, just looking at the gray sky is boring. If not for the previous two wars, Sun Never Sets would be the same. Second-in-charge, you don't have to come this time. Are you still worried about us? Our leader is too cautious." One of the young men disagreed.

"If you ask me, I don't think Shen Yanxiao is smart. Who would she post all the presents she received from others? Isn't that too ostentatious?" Another person said.

"Ha, who cares? Isn't she saving us the trouble? We only lack five of the items that our boss wants, and all of them are in Shen Yanxiao's hands. It would be great if we could resolve this in one go." Their voices were not loud and coupled with the fact that the inn was crowded, no one noticed what they were saying.

All of them were members of the Silver Hands, the number one thief's den in the Brilliance Continent. The handsome man seated on one side was the second-in-command of the Silver Hands, Gu Qingming.

Previously, they received news that the four countries had given all the treasures they had locked onto to Shen Yanxiao, the City Lord of Sun Never Sets. That was why their leader had sent someone to investigate..

Chapter 1587: The Thieves Are Planning To Make A Move (4)

The moment they checked, they discovered that Shen Yanxiao had posted the list of presents sent by the four countries.

The scouts soon discovered five of their targets and went back to report. The leader of Silver Hands then asked Gu Qingming to lead six capable subordinates to follow the vine to fish out the melon.

“Showing off? That’s a pretty good word. Isn’t that how our Silver Hands have always operated?” Gu Qingming propped his chin and revealed a smile. His already handsome face coupled with that lethal smile made the few girls on the table nearby blush and caused their hearts to beat faster.

What an elegant young master. Who could associate such a handsome young master with the second-in-command of a thieving den?

Speaking of ostentatiousness, the Silver Hands were rather coquettish.

They would send out a notification to the other party before they took action against any valuable items. They would only take action after the other party had made proper preparations.

Everyone in the Brilliance Continent knew that the God Realm and the Broken Star Palace were two behemoths that no one dared to provoke. If the God Realm and the Broken Star Palace were tigers, then the Silver Hands were cruel and crafty foxes. They were low-key, but high-profile in their actions. Not only would they steal something, but they would also anger the owner to death.

No matter how strict the security was, the items would still end up in their pockets.

Up till now, no one knew where the Silver Hands’ den was. When the Silver Hands reached out their evil claws towards the state treasury of the four countries, the rulers of the four countries were furious and sent their armies to destroy their den.

However...

Even after searching through thousands of mountains and rivers, they could not find the entrance to the Silver Hands.

They were definitely a group of evil organizations that were arrogant, ostentatious, wretched, despicable and crafty!

Even though the Silver Hands did things with arrogance, they had their own principles. They would never steal from the poor.

Not only would they not steal from the poor, but they would also distribute the stolen gold coins to the citizens from time to time.

Of course, they had to keep the treasures for themselves.

Therefore, even though the Silver Hands were regarded as despicable by the officials and aristocrats, the poor commoners were very supportive of them.

“Hehe, second-in-charge, are we also going to send a notice to Shen Yanxiao this time?” The man rubbed his palms as he felt that this challenge was extremely exciting.

Previously, their goal was a group of idiots who only knew how to enjoy themselves. But this time, their goal was the Lord of the Forsaken Land that had caused a sensation throughout the entire continent!

“Why? Are you afraid?” Gu Qingming quirked his brow.

“Afraid? Impossible! We can’t be happier. If we can get something from Shen Yanxiao, wouldn’t that be so cool! I heard that Shen Yanxiao was already a second class expert before she reached adulthood, and she’s also a genius in both magic and battle aura. Such a target is simply too exciting!” The members of Silver Hands were all crazy. They loved to take risks and seek excitement.

“I will inform you of the time to release the news. Remember, the target this time is not ordinary, and you must be careful not to be followed by Shen Yanxiao’s men. You have to know that not only are there humans under Shen Yanxiao, but there are also a large number of demons. Demons have a sensitive sense of smell, so you have to remember to conceal your aura.” Gu Qingming chuckled. His expression seemed calm and collected, but his eyes were flickering with flames of anticipation..

Chapter 1588: The Thieves Are Planning To Make A Move (5)

When the Silver Hands’ notification letter appeared in front of the city lord’s mansion, the entire city was in an uproar.

No one knew when the notification letter was placed outside the mansion, but everyone recognized the brand of the Silver Hands.

For a moment, Sun Never Sets exploded.

The notification letter contained five treasures, and the tone in the letter was extremely arrogant. In an instant, the citizens of Sun Never Sets were enraged.

Weren’t the Silver Hands too bold?

How dare they come to their city and provoke them? Did they think that there was no one in Sun Never Sets?

Without waiting for Shen Yanxiao’s instructions, the demons and citizens of Sun Never Sets automatically formed a search team. Anyone who showed any suspicious signs would be interrogated, and they also would patrol outside the City Lord’s Mansion for twenty-four hours.

Three layers of security surrounded the entire mansion.

In the City Lord’s Mansion, Shen Yanxiao lazily sat on a chair and was happily eating a bowl of grapes. Qi Xia, Tang Nazhi, Yang Xi and Lan Fengli sat by her side.

A few days ago, Li Xiaowei had boarded a ship with Yan Yu to the Moon God Continent.

“Qi Xia, I think you can change your name. Don’t call yourself Qi Xia. Isn’t it better to call yourself a jinx?!” Tang Nazhi looked at Qi Xia with a crafty smile. A few days ago, he was tricked by this fox to help him write a list. For that list, he wrote for a long time and almost broke his hand.

Qi Xia raised his brow and lightly said, “Then you should change your name as well. Call me Mr. Bai.”

Tang Nazhi blushed.

That night, he was tricked by Qi Xia into writing a list. As Young Master Tang was getting so sleepy that he could not take it anymore, he had made a lot of mistakes with a wave of his hand and even got ridiculed by Qi Xia, his friend.

“That was an accident! I was sleepy that day.” Tang Nazhi protested. That was a huge stain in his life!

“Practice makes perfect. If the handwriting is good, it can be neat even if it’s smeared. How long has it been since you’ve touched a pen? How can you list wrongly when you are just listing the gifts from the four countries?” Qi Xia smiled and looked at Tang Nazhi, not minding that he had exposed his shortcomings.

Tang Nazhi unhappily snorted. “I’m not a scholar, why would I need a pen! My hand is used to hold a sword and protect my country!”

He was very ambitious!

“...” Tang Nazhi felt even more depressed.

Weren’t they discussing the Silver Hands? Why did the topic involve him again?

Those bastards, don’t they feel uncomfortable all over if they don’t hurt him?

“I’m going to ignore the both of you!” Tang Nazhi became arrogant! He turned to Shen Yanxiao who was enjoying her grapes and said, “Xiaoxiao, this Silver Hands has stepped on your face. Why are you acting like nothing has happened?”

Can you be more courageous?

Some thieves were already thinking about her treasury, and she still was in the mood to eat grapes!

Shen Yanxiao blinked her eyes and swallowed the grape in her mouth. She said calmly, “Then what should I do?” Follow the citizens and demons in the city and patrol around?

“You should at least be prepared! As far as I know, the Silver Hands have never made a mistake. This announcement has already been issued and if they succeed, how embarrassing would it be for us?” Tang Nazhi angrily said.

“Prepare for what? The state treasury of the four countries has been guarded to that extent, yet they were still reduced to that extent. Let them be.” Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders. She was not affected by Tang Nazhi’s hot-bloodedness at all.

“Then let them steal it?” Tang Nazhi glared at Shen Yanxiao. When did this little girl become so generous?

Chapter 1589: The Thieves Are Planning To Make A Move (6)

Shen Yanxiao looked at Tang Nazhi’s furious expression and hesitated for a moment before she placed the fruit bowl on the table.

"I won't stop them from stealing, but whether they have the ability to bring the items out of the city is another story."

Tang Nazhi's eyes brightened.

"You want the entire city to arrest them!"

Shen Yanxiao rolled her eyes.

"Can you think of something with more style?"

Tang Nazhi felt aggrieved. How was he lacking style?

Qi Xia did not know whether to laugh or cry when he looked at the extremely stupid Tang Nazhi and said with a smile, "Xiaoxiao means that her hands are itching. It's rare for her to meet someone of the same profession, so she intends to have a good fight with him."

Tang Nazhi finally understood what Shen Yanxiao meant. His previous grievances were swept away as he looked at Shen Yanxiao with shining eyes and said, "Xiaoxiao, how do you intend to fight? Literary or martial arts? One-on-one or a group fight?"

Shen Yanxiao facepalmed. When would he finally understand?!

Apart from his good looks and talent in his profession, Tang Nazhi had always made others wonder how could he be so stupid and how did he survive until now?

Among the five young men of Phantom, the most popular one was not the elegant young master Qi San or the gentle Yan Yu. Instead, it was Tang Nazhi.

Even though he was an idiot, in front of beautiful women, he would be shrouded with an aura that was not inferior to Shen Yanxiao's third uncle, Shen Jing.

"Thieves naturally have to compete with their thieving skills. You won't understand even if I explain. We just have to sit and watch the show." Qi Xia laughed.

"But..." Tang Nazhi frowned.

"Every time Xiaoxiao attacks, I can't even react. How am I supposed to watch the show?"

Shen Yanxiao's skill of appearing and disappearing unpredictably and stealing in passing had been trained to the epitome of perfection. It was not something he could see just because he wanted to. Even if Shen Yanxiao were to display her skills as a thief god right in front of him, he probably would not be able to react in time.

Qi Xia was stunned for a moment. "Nazhi, I realized that you're not that stupid."

Not to mention Tang Nazhi, even Qi Xia did not have good enough eyesight to see how Shen Yanxiao did it. Otherwise, Shen Yanxiao would not have robbed all his assets back then.

Shen Yanxiao looked at these few clowns helplessly. Looking at the quiet Yan Yu and the calm Li Xiaowei, she felt that her friends were getting more and more crazy.

"You don't have to worry about this. I have my ways." Shen Yanxiao sighed.

To be fair, Shen Yanxiao looked forward to the fight with the Silver Hands.

Stealing was her main profession. After she reincarnated, she had yet to meet any peers in this world. And now that she had the opportunity to exchange blows with the world's top thieves, she was naturally filled with expectations.

Shen Yanxiao's hands were itching.

However, she was very patient. She would wait for her opponents to enter before competing with them.

"Sister, will it be dangerous?" Lan Fengli looked at Shen Yanxiao. He did not care what those people were here for. He only cared if they would harm Shen Yanxiao.

"Although the Silver Hands is a den of thieves, they have a good reputation. They only take money and not harm others." Shen Yanxiao patted Lan Fengli's head.

Lan Fengli nodded silently. He could tell that Shen Yanxiao was interested in the Silver Hands. As long as he could ensure Shen Yanxiao's safety, he would wait and see. It was enough as long as he could make her happy..

Chapter 1590: The Thieves Are Planning To Make A Move (7)

The Silver Hands' notification letter caused an uproar in Sun Never Sets, but Shen Yanxiao did not respond to it.

The citizens regarded Shen Yanxiao's silence as her confidence.

Their Lord was a busy man, so how could she have the spare time to deal with these pesky thieves?

The Lord was mighty and domineering, unifying the world for thousands of years!

It could be said that after two battles, the citizens of the Forsaken Land had become Shen Yanxiao's die-hard fans. Not to mention the Silver Hands, even the Broken Star Palace and the God Realm could not compare to their Lord!

Well done!

Night fell and the spontaneously formed patrol team outside the City Lord's Mansion continued to patrol the surroundings.

A few wretched figures soundlessly arrived at a small building outside the mansion.

"Does she think she can stop us just like that? Shen Yanxiao is too naive." One of the Silver Hands members looked at those patrolling citizens with disdain.

Gu Qingming looked at this seemingly tight defense, but it was filled with loopholes.

From an ordinary person's point of view, the City Lord's Mansion was surrounded by three layers of security. Not to mention humans, not even a fly could fly in.

However, in the eyes of these thieves, these patrol teams were merely decorations, and they could think of a hundred ways to sneak into the mansion in minutes.

“Have you prepared the Aura-Concealing Potion and the Invisibility Potion?” Gu Qingming asked.

“Yes! They are all Great Herbalists! I bought them at the potion shop in the city!” The few thieves chuckled as they spoke. They had prepared those potions themselves, but they only prepared advanced potions. However, there were Great Herbalist potions in the Sun Never Sets. The effects of these potions were much better than the advanced potions they had.

Even though the price was slightly expensive, the Silver Hands never lacked money.

Gu Qingming could not help but laugh. This group of bastards had come to steal from someone else’s territory and they even used the medicine sold in the city. They were too arrogant.

“Alright, work hard tonight and don’t embarrass our Silver Hands,” Gu Qingming said with a smile. They had already obtained some of their targets in the capital of the four countries, and the only place they had yet to take action in was Sun Never Sets. If they could successfully steal these five places, it would absolutely help the Silver Hands regain their former glory!

“Yes!”

The Silver Hands members immediately drank the Aura Concealment Potion and the Invisibility Potion.

After concealing themselves and their aura, the few of them immediately headed towards the mansion.

The humans and demons surrounding the City Lord’s Mansion did not notice anyone approaching. They were still patrolling around, not knowing that a few invisible figures had already quietly passed by them and climbed over the wall to enter the City Lord’s Mansion.

They were not in a hurry to take action after sneaking into the mansion.

The duration of the Invisibility Potion was very short, and it would lose its effect not long after they entered the City Lord’s Mansion. Therefore, they did not rashly search for their target, instead hid behind the rockery. They planned to take action after the effects faded.

Even though the effects of a Great Herbalist Invisibility Potion were good, the price was very high. Although they had bought dozens of bottles, even if they were rich, they could not drink it like water.

Furthermore, the few of them believed in their abilities and felt that as long as they entered the City Lord’s Mansion, wouldn’t those treasures be easy to steal with their abilities?

Gu Qingming made a few hand gestures to his subordinates, and the six of them immediately fled in all directions.. Their figures directly disappeared into the darkness without any sound.
