

The Good 1611

Chapter 1611: Throes of Experts (7)

After Su Feihuan and Qin Ge changed their clothes, they came to the hall with wandering gazes.

“Please have a seat. This is an unexpected calamity. What have you lost? Sun Never Sets will compensate you accordingly. After all, the items were lost in the City Lord’s Mansion.” Shen Yanxiao looked at the frustrated Qin Ge and Su Feihuan with a look of pity and expressed her magnanimity and friendliness.

However, the expressions of the two who had just been dealt a heavy blow were extremely ugly.

They were the top thieves in the Brilliance Continent, but never in their wildest dreams did they expect that on the night they arrived in Sun Never Sets, they would be robbed clean by their peers. Both of them only had their underpants on with nothing else left behind.

As thieves, Qin Ge and Su Feihuan were extremely vigilant. Not to mention being robbed, they would immediately wake up if there was the slightest movement at night.

But this time, not only were both of them robbed, even their clothes were taken off by that heartless thief. What was more depressing was that both of them did not feel anything.

Qin Ge and Su Feihuan, who had always been confident of their thieving skills, had been dealt a huge blow by that heartless thief.

Savage! Too savage!

Did they have to be so ruthless? How much could those clothes be worth?

1

Clearly, the other party was flaunting their skills and at the same time, they were ruthlessly suppressing Qin Ge and Su Feihuan’s arrogance.

This time, Su Feihuan and Qin Ge were speechless.

Both of them had unknowingly fallen into their trap. How could they continue to be proud?

“There’s no need... There’s nothing of value.” Qin Ge forced a smile. The only fortunate thing was that when he and Su Feihuan came out, they did not carry much stuff with them. Even their waist badges were left in the Silver Hands. Otherwise, if this were to spread out, they would be too ashamed to face anyone.

The Silver Hands was known as the number one thief-god organization in the Brilliance Continent, and these three leaders had suffered a setback in Sun Never Sets. It was such a disgrace.

Qin Ge noticed a familiar jade pendant hanging on Tang Nazhi’s waist. That pendant was something he stole from Tang Nazhi yesterday. Now that the pendant had returned to Tang Nazhi, it meant that the thief god that visited him and Su Feihuan yesterday must have a good relationship with Shen Yanxiao.

She wondered if that person had told Shen Yanxiao that he stole Tang Nazhi's jade pendant.

However, Shen Yanxiao's attitude towards them was still as gentle as before. She did not seem to have discovered that they were thieves.

Qin Ge frowned. Did Shen Yanxiao and the rest not know of the existence of that thief god in Sun Never Sets? That thief did it without Shen Yanxiao and the rest knowing? Then, they put the lost item back?

1

Qin Ge's mind was in a mess. That was the biggest setback he had ever suffered.

"Speaking of which, I'm sorry. I think I roughly know who stole your things." Shen Yanxiao was over the moon when she looked at the forced smile on Qin Ge's face. If it were not for Xiu, she would have probably stripped their underwear last night.

Qin Ge's heart skipped a beat.. He tried hard to suppress his excitement and looked at Shen Yanxiao.

"Lord, do you really know who did this?"

Chapter 1612: Throes of Experts (8)

Shen Yanxiao nodded and said in all seriousness, "Some time ago, the Silver Hands issued an announcement to me, but I haven't seen them take action for a long time. I think it's very likely that they were the ones who stole your items."

"..." Qin Ge and Su Feihuan's faces turned white, green, and purple.

1

Silver Hands your head!

1

They were from the Silver Hands alright!

In the entire Sun Never Sets, only the two of them were members of the Silver Hands. Did they steal from each other?

Qin Ge thought that Shen Yanxiao was going to reveal the thief god by her side, but who knew that Shen Yanxiao would shift the blame to the Silver Hands? Qin Ge felt like weeping but had no tears. He could not possibly jump out and tell Shen Yanxiao, "We are from the Silver Hands! We can't possibly rob ourselves, right?"

"Sigh, those thieves from the Silver Hands are too arrogant. Even if they could not steal the treasures in our estate, they should not have attacked two innocent people. They even stole your clothes. They are... too crazy." Qi Xia and Shen Yanxiao sang the same tune with a look of pity.

Qin Ge and Su Feihuan wanted to die. It was not them!

1

They were an organization with moral principles! They would never do something as shameless as stealing someone's clothes!!

Not only had they been robbed, but the crime was also pinned on their heads. This grievance nearly caused them internal injuries.

Even if they had mouths all over their bodies, they could no longer explain themselves!

"I didn't expect to implicate you. Please be rest assured that I will have Sun Never Sets be more wary. I will catch those thieves from the Silver Hands and avenge you!" Shen Yanxiao said with a strong sense of righteousness.

Qin Ge and Su Feihuan almost cried.

Catch the Silver Hands to avenge them? Wouldn't that mean capture them?

1

It was the first time Qin Ge and Su Feihuan felt so wronged after stealing so many things.

It was true that they wanted to steal, but weren't they robbed by their peers before they could do anything?

Looking at how righteous Shen Yanxiao was, Qin Ge believed that she did not know that she had a thief god by her side. The five treasures that Gu Qingmei obtained previously might have been secretly stolen by that thief god and placed back in their original position. He reckoned that Shen Yanxiao did not even notice it.

This time, he was extremely depressed.

If Shen Yanxiao did not know that she had a thief god by her side, then the Silver Hands would be blamed for their theft.

"Don't the Silver Hands only rob their targets after sending out a notification letter? We did not receive any notification letter, so I don't think it's them." Su Feihuan resisted the urge to vomit blood and tried his best to correct his organization's reputation!

They had moral principles. They would never do anything rash.

Shen Yanxiao said disapprovingly, "Those are rumors after all. It can only prove that they did that when they stole something. It does not mean that an incident without a letter has nothing to do with them."

"That's right. They're a thief after all, so they shouldn't be so well-behaved." Qi Xia agreed.

Qin Ge and Su Feihuan wanted to jump out and tell them that the Silver Hands had rules and would never mess around. However, they could not speak due to the current situation. They could only listen to Shen Yanxiao and Qi Xia's bombardment of the Silver Hands' reputation with ashen faces.

They had been unjustly implicated!

They were wronged!

Chapter 1613: To Be Completely Convinced (1)

Qin Ge and Su Feihuan did not know how they returned to their room. All they could think of was that the reputation of the Silver Hands had been ruined!

Broken into pieces!

“Brother...” Su Feihuan looked at the empty-eyed Qin Ge. They had really kicked an iron plate this time. That thief god did not reveal their identities to Shen Yanxiao nor expose them. Other than stealing their belongings, they did not do anything else.

It was as if someone was teasing them.

They thought they were lions, but right now, they had become the prey that the mysterious thief god teased.

It was extremely frustrating.

Qin Ge looked at Su Feihuan with determination.

“We will take action tonight and leave Sun Never Sets immediately after we get our hands on the treasures.” He absolutely could not joke around with the reputation of the Silver Hands. Since that peer wanted to tease them, then they could only strike first and gain the upper hand.

At this point in time, Qin Ge had completely given up on the idea of absorbing that person into the Silver Hands. A thief god whose strength far exceeded theirs was probably not someone they could recruit.

In order to protect the reputation of the Silver Hands, Qin Ge had already made plans for the worst case scenario. He would just grab the treasures and immediately leave Sun Never Sets to return to the headquarters of the Silver Hands. He would never give that person a chance to do anything.

“Tonight?” Su Feihuan was surprised. It was only the second day since they arrived at Sun Never Sets.

“It’s obvious that they don’t want to expose their identity. It’s impossible to rope them in. I can’t joke around with the reputation of the Silver Hands.” Qin Ge sighed. The notification letter had been sent out. If they were still unable to obtain the treasure, then it would be a huge blow to the reputation of the Silver Hands.

At that very moment, Qin Ge had no choice but to put down his adventurous spirit. He had to focus on the reputation of the Silver Hands.

Su Feihuan hesitated for a moment. Other than meeting Lan Fengli once on the first day, he did not even see him again. If he were to leave tonight, he wondered when they would meet again.

However, looking at Qin Ge’s determined expression, Su Feihuan knew that he had to listen to his brother’s decision.

“Alright, we’ll take action tonight.”

Having made up their minds, Qin Ge and Su Feihuan did not do anything else and just waited for night to fall.

When night fell, Qin Ge and Su Feihuan, who had been prepared, snuck into the storeroom soundlessly.

In the storeroom, the five treasures were placed on a table as if they were waiting for someone to take them.

Qin Ge and Su Feihuan immediately approached the table. Unfortunately, before they could take action, a black shadow suddenly appeared before them and forced them back.

Qin Ge was slightly shocked. Looking at the person wearing a black mask, he immediately guessed their identity.

“You were the one who messed with us previously!” He did not sense anyone approaching before this. Probably only that person could conceal their aura and footsteps to this extent.

The person in black crossed their arms and calmly looked at Qin Ge and Su Feihuan who were on guard. They had tacitly agreed to everything.

“Who exactly are you!” Su Feihuan looked at the person in black in surprise. From their physique, the other party was much thinner than him.

The black-robed person narrowed their eyes and slowly said. “Who I am is not important. What’s important is if you can take these five treasures from me..”

Chapter 1614: To Be Completely Convinced (2)

The gentle and pleasant female voice carried a tone that was above everything else. Qin Ge slowly recognized the voice.

Looking at the petite and somewhat excessive peer before him, a shocking thought formed in Qin Ge’s mind.

“Lord?” Qin Ge tried to sound them out, but his question caused Su Feihuan to widen his eyes.

Lord? Shen Yanxiao?

How was that possible?

Su Feihuan would rather believe that the person before him was that straightforward young man than Shen Yanxiao!

A Second-Class Summoner, a Second-Class Magic Archer, a Great Herbalist, a young lady who possessed the entire Forsaken Land, and the person that caused the four countries to tremble in fear was the thief god they had been thinking about?

This world was a fantasy!

The black-robed person did not seem to be surprised by Qin Ge’s guess. They slowly removed the mask on their face and revealed their appearance that would cause the world to lose its color. There was also an unforgettable smile on their lips.

Even though he was mentally prepared, the shock in his heart could not calm down for a long time after he saw Shen Yanxiao’s appearance.

“It’s really you...” Su Feihuan widened his mouth and could not believe his eyes.

How old was Shen Yanxiao? She seemed to be younger than him by two years, but with her current achievements, any random achievement could make the world worship her. Even if she devoted her entire life, it would be hard for her to achieve one of them. However, Shen Yanxiao had grasped all these unparalleled powers in her hands.

Su Feihuan finally understood why those people were secretly calling Shen Yanxiao a monster.

That's right, a monster!

Only a monster could possess such terrifying strength at the age of fifteen.

Su Feihuan even suspected that Shen Yanxiao had spent all her time training herself other than eating and drinking.

"You don't have to be so shocked. All visitors from afar are guests. I was only joking with you." Shen Yanxiao said with a smile. She did not feel guilty about stripping them naked.

Qin Ge and Su Feihuan's expressions changed. They had practically excluded Shen Yanxiao from the suspect list at the very first instance. However, they did not expect that the girl they thought was the most impossible outcome was the answer they had been searching for.

"Since we've already met, why don't the both of you reveal your real identities?" Shen Yanxiao stared at the both of them as if she was chatting with her friends who came from afar.

"I am Qin Ge, the Leader of Silver Hands. This is the Third-in-command of the Silver Hands, Su Feihuan." Qin Ge accepted his fate.

"I see. Are you here for these five treasures?" Shen Yanxiao asked with a smile.

"That's right." Qin Ge had never encountered such a situation. He was actually chatting with the owner of the treasures he wanted. Even the arrogant Silver Hands had never done this before.

Of course, no one else had the ability to catch Qin Ge and Su Feihuan on the spot.

Shen Yanxiao chuckled and said, "These five treasures are not worth mentioning to me. However, I have a principle. No one can take anything that belongs to me, unless they are one of us."

Shen Yanxiao's words made Qin Ge and Su Feihuan's heart jump.

Shen Yanxiao was undoubtedly extending an olive branch to the Silver Hands.

"You seem to want these five treasures. In that case, let me make a deal with you.."

Chapter 1615: To Be Completely Convinced (3)

"If you can take any of these five treasures out of the storeroom tonight, I will hand over the five treasures with both hands and promise that I will not pursue this matter in the future. However..." Shen Yanxiao suddenly changed her tone. "If you cannot do that, then from tomorrow onwards, the Silver Hands will work for me."

Shen Yanxiao liked her peers. Even though their skills were not as good as hers, it was enough for this world.

Thieves were not only powerful in their thieving skills. They could come and go without a trace and with their skills, they could transform them into an outstanding group of killers and intelligence gatherers.

Shen Yanxiao had been used like this in her previous life. In the words of the leaders of her world, as a thief god, she not only had to steal things, but also human lives and information.

As long as it existed in this world, there was nothing a god could not steal.

Treasures, human lives, information, even stealing human hearts and souls had to be learned.

That was a real thief god.

The Silver Hands only knew how to steal, and that was only the most basic level. What Shen Yanxiao wanted was to control these people and nurture them into real thieves.

“It’s up to you to decide if you agree or reject. If you reject, you can leave here directly. I will pretend that nothing happened tonight and you will still be the guests of Sun Never Sets.” Shen Yanxiao placed all the preferential conditions before Qin Ge and Su Feihuan. The future path of the Silver Hands would be up to them.

“You want the Silver Hands?” Qin Ge looked at Shen Yanxiao in disbelief. The Silver Hands might have some fame in the Brilliance Continent, but he did not think that that fame could move Shen Yanxiao.

In the Brilliance Continent, the Forsaken Land had become a powerful existence comparable to the God Realm and the Broken Star Palace.

If the God Realm and the Broken Star Palace were the peak forces, then the Silver Hands was merely a second-rate force. Even though they had a high reputation for theft, their strength was not shocking.

“Why?” Qin Ge could not understand.

Shen Yanxiao smiled and said, “You don’t have to know the reason. Accept or reject?”

Qin Ge gritted his teeth. The Silver Hands had sent out a notification letter and they had never failed before. If he could not retrieve the five treasures this time, not only would he be unable to fulfill his promise to the Brilliance Continent, but he would also ruin the reputation the Silver Hands had painstakingly built up.

Once they failed, the legend of the Silver Hands would no longer exist.

“I accept your condition.” Qin Ge took a deep breath. At this point, he could only choose to move forward.

He could not allow the reputation of the Silver Hands to be ruined by his hands.

“Brother.” Su Feihuan looked at Qin Ge. He was not confident. Shen Yanxiao’s previous actions had caused them to suffer a crushing defeat.

“We have no other choice.” Qin Ge sighed. If he could, he wished that he had not sent a notice to Sun Never Sets. He wished that he had never set foot in Sun Never Sets.

“Very well. In order to respect the both of you, I promise I will not use any force to stop you.” Shen Yanxiao smiled. The only way to conquer a thief was to instantly destroy them with her thieving skills..

Chapter 1616: To Be Completely Convinced (4)

“You won’t use the skills of a Summoner or a Magic Archer?” Shen Yanxiao’s promise stunned Qin Ge. A large part of his despair came from Shen Yanxiao’s strength.

Even though he was a Second-Class Expert, he was not confident that he could defeat Shen Yanxiao who had gone through two class promotions.

However, Shen Yanxiao had abandoned that advantage.

“Since we are thieves, we naturally have to use our skills. You can be rest assured.” Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders. She was not shameless enough to use force in a competition between peers.

Qin Ge relaxed. He began to carefully calculate the gap between him and Shen Yanxiao. Based on their previous fight, Qin Ge had concluded that Shen Yanxiao far exceeded him and Su Feihuan in both speed and accuracy. In a one-on-one fight, he was not confident that he could win against Shen Yanxiao.

But this time, he had Su Feihuan by his side. Shen Yanxiao only said that if they only needed to bring out one treasure, he had to make good use of that rule.

Qin Ge could sense Shen Yanxiao’s confidence in her skills. Otherwise, she would not have come up with such a method that she had a low chance of winning.

However...

Qin Ge narrowed his eyes. Shen Yanxiao might be strong, but he and Su Feihuan were not idiots!

“Feihuan, let’s split up and seize every opportunity to rush out of the storeroom.” Qin Ge had already thought of the most ingenious strategy.

“Yes!”

Almost at the same time as his voice fell, Qin Ge and Su Feihuan disappeared on the spot and turned into two black shadows as they moved behind Shen Yanxiao.

Two black shadows moved towards the table behind her at an extremely fast speed. Four hands that were comparable to the Hands of God swept away the five items on the table in the blink of an eye and escaped in two different directions.

Qin Ge’s plan was to separate from Su Feihuan and force Shen Yanxiao to attack one of them so that the other person could leave the storeroom with the treasures.

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. Her petite figure flashed past the table so fast that no one could see her.

Su Feihuan hid himself among the dense cabinets and made use of his thin physique to speedily make his way through the narrow space. With a treasure in each hand, he moved forward at a rapid pace.

However, the next second, Shen Yanxiao's smiling face appeared before him. Before Su Feihuan could come back to his senses, Shen Yanxiao had quietly stretched out her hands and took away the two treasures in Su Feihuan's hands.

Without any pause, Shen Yanxiao threw the two treasures back on the table and disappeared from Su Feihuan's sight. She then dashed towards Qin Ge who was about to rush out of the storeroom.

Qin Ge was one step away from escaping from the storeroom, but the moment he took his last step, a gentle breeze swept past him. When he stepped out, his hands were empty and the ruyi that was hidden in his arms had disappeared without a trace.

Qin Ge turned around in surprise and saw Shen Yanxiao smiling as she took turns to throw the three treasures into the air.

"Qin Ge, you've lost." Shen Yanxiao threw the three treasures back to the table.

The shock on Qin Ge's face had yet to subside. This time, he had personally experienced Shen Yanxiao's speed, and it was not something he could compare to.. He did not even know when she approached and when she took action.

Chapter 1617: To Be Completely Convinced (5)

Qin Ge and Su Feihuan had been defeated. They were utterly defeated. Not only could Shen Yanxiao steal away the two treasures in his hands the moment he took the last step, but she had also taken away the ruyi hidden in his clothes.

It was not that Qin Ge could not accomplish this task, but his speed was not as fast as Shen Yanxiao.

Plus, even before dealing with him, Shen Yanxiao had already dealt with Su Feihuan.

"You've won." Qin Ge smiled bitterly. This was his first failure since he entered the Silver Hands. He accepted the defeat without any excuse.

"The Silver Hands will listen to your orders in the future. However, I have something to say first. The reason why the members of the Silver Hands are willing to stay in the Silver Hands is entirely due to their own wishes. If you cannot convince them, they will leave on their own accord. You cannot stop them." Qin Ge took a deep breath. So what if Shen Yanxiao obtained the Silver Hands? If she did not have the ability to make the members of the Silver Hands accept her leadership, then what she obtained was merely an empty name.

The Silver Hands would never be imprisoned by anyone. They would always be free.

If Shen Yanxiao had the ability to make those people work for her, then that was her own ability.

"I know my limits. I will now assign you the first task. Gather all the members of the Silver Hands in Sun Never Sets. I want to talk to them in person. If someone wants to leave, I will not interfere." Shen Yanxiao said.

"You promise that you won't force them?" Qin Ge stared at Shen Yanxiao. He was waiting for her answer. Sun Never Sets was too powerful. If the Silver Hands were to come in full force and Shen Yanxiao had evil intentions, none of them would be able to escape.

Shen Yanxiao clenched her right fist and pressed it against her chest.

"I swear on the name of the Lord of the Forsaken Land. If I hurt any of them, I will not have a good death."

"I hope you remember your promise tonight. If you break your promise, I will make you pay with your blood even if I have to die." Qin Ge stared at Shen Yanxiao.

"I will return tonight and bring them to you."

"Sure," Shen Yanxiao smiled and said.

"Aren't you afraid that I won't come back after I leave?" Qin Ge frowned. Shen Yanxiao seemed too easy to talk to.

"If you were to do that, I can only blame myself for not being able to properly see through people." Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders. She would never doubt someone she trust. That was her usual style.

Qin Ge looked at Shen Yanxiao and was silent for a moment. "Feihuan."

"Yes!" Su Feihuan was shocked.

"Stay in Sun Never Sets."

"Ah?" Su Feihuan was stunned.

With that said, Qin Ge turned around and left. He would honor his promise and hope that Shen Yanxiao would not disappoint him.

Watching Qin Ge leave, Su Feihuan turned to look at the smiling Shen Yanxiao with a tangled expression. Even though he had personally fought against Shen Yanxiao, Su Feihuan still found it hard to believe that Shen Yanxiao was an extremely powerful thief god.

"Erm... my brother left me behind as a hostage." Su Feihuan swallowed his saliva. He was not afraid of powerful people. The only people respected were thieves with better skills than him.

Shen Yanxiao nodded and said in all seriousness, "Rest assured, I never mistreat my own people."

Su Feihuan blinked.. His big eyes rolled around as he whispered. "Can we discuss this? Can I be Lan Fengli's man?"

Chapter 1618: To Be Completely Convinced (6)

Seven days later, hundreds of men in black cloaks entered Sun Never Sets, causing a huge commotion. Many people who entered Sun Never Sets for a 'sightseeing tour' were speculating which faction was prepared to rely on Shen Yanxiao.

After all, since Sun Never Sets became famous after the two wars, hundreds of forces of various sizes had come to seek refuge.

The group of people did not stop in their line of sight and directly walked to the City Lord's Mansion.

Fortunately, Shen Yanxiao had built a very large mansion. Otherwise, it was unknown if it could accommodate so many people.

Gu Qingfeng stood behind Qin Ge and waited for Shen Yanxiao's arrival in the hall. A few days ago, Qin Ge rode a flying magical beast back to the Silver Hands Headquarters and told everyone about Shen Yanxiao. Until now, they were still in a muddle-headed state.

Even until now, the seven people who had been robbed by Shen Yanxiao could not believe that she was the culprit.

"Are we really going to surrender to Shen Yanxiao?" One of the Silver Hands members looked at the huge hall with a tangled expression.

The Silver Hands was their home, but now that they had been defeated, almost no one could accept the fact that they had to surrender to Shen Yanxiao.

However, they still came. Their arrival did not mean they were convinced. Instead, they did not wish for Qin Ge to be in a difficult position.

No one cherished the Silver Hands more than Qin Ge. No one would blame him for his failure. They only felt heartache and reluctance to part with him.

"It's up to you to decide if you want to stay or leave. The Lord has promised that she will not make things difficult for anyone who leaves." Qin Ge looked at his group of friends, and his heart was filled with sadness. He could not break his promise, but he did not wish for his friends to be oppressed. The Silver Hands would always be a symbol of freedom.

"What about you, Boss?" Gu Qingfeng looked at Qin Ge.

Qin Ge forced a smile and said, "As long as someone stays, I will. I will personally witness Shen Yanxiao's actions. If she breaks her promise one day, I will kill her."

Qin Ge's words made everyone's hearts heavy. They were unwilling to leave the Silver Hands, their home.

Qi Xia, who was standing on one side, raised his eyebrows. Looking at those thieves with an oppressive atmosphere crowding over their head, it was as if they were waiting for the final verdict. The sadness and negative emotions were hard to conceal.

Ever since Sun Never Sets was completed, Qi Xia had come into contact with many forces that came to seek refuge. The Silver Hands was the only group of people that had the opportunity to seek refuge in Sun Never Sets and treated it as torture similar to death.

It was evident that they did not trust Shen Yanxiao and were even resistant to her.

Tang Nazhi, who stood by Qi Xia's side, whispered as he looked at the group of people with bitter expressions. "Can they not be so pessimistic? It's clearly a happy thing to work under Xiaoxiao." Why did these people look so tragic. It was as if they were about to go to the execution ground.

Qi Xia chuckled and said, "Xiaoxiao's actions this time are very unyielding. Naturally, they would have some resistance."

"It's hard to say if it's a good or bad thing to gather these people under her wings." Yang Xi narrowed his eyes. None of Shen Yanxiao's subordinates were not sincere in following her, but Silver Hands was an exception. They did not willingly submit to her, but were tricked by Shen Yanxiao.

"Since the little girl has the courage to do so, she naturally has the ability to control it. Let's wait and see.." Qi Xia was confident in Shen Yanxiao's charm.

Chapter 1619: To Be Completely Convinced (7)

The Silver Hands members waited in the hall for a long time, but Shen Yanxiao did not appear. All of them frowned and felt somewhat impatient. They were already filled with resistance towards Shen Yanxiao, and they disliked this new boss who liked to put on airs.

Two figures came to the hall at that moment. The members of Silver Hands took a deep breath and prepared to face Shen Yanxiao with the worst attitude.

However, what entered their sights was not a beautiful girl, but a handsome young man with a cold expression and...

"Xiao Feng, wait for me." Su Feihuan followed behind Lan Fengli with a bitter expression. Lan Fengli's current height was comparable to Qi Xia and the others. Su Feihuan, who was half a head shorter than him, had to use a lot of strength to keep up with Lan Fengli's long legs with his short legs.

"Scram." Lan Fengli spat out the word without any expression.

However, Su Feihuan was unwilling to give up. He clung onto him with all his might.

"Please don't. The Lord said that I will be under your care from now on. You cannot disobey her orders!" Su Feihuan brought up Shen Yanxiao with a righteous tone. Hearing this, Lan Fengli frowned. After thinking for a while, he did not push him away again.

Su Feihuan secretly laughed. After a few days of interaction, he had discovered Lan Fengli's Achilles' heel.

This guy had a cold expression on his face, but when he faced Shen Yanxiao, his expression was as if water could be squeezed out from it. As long as it was Shen Yanxiao's orders, Lan Fengli would never say no.

Su Feihuan spent three days coaxing and pestering Shen Yanxiao. He pestered her incessantly and in the end, Shen Yanxiao could no longer bear it. She could only throw this energetic young man to her brother.

Right now, Su Feihuan was by Lan Fengli's side in a justifiable manner. As long as Lan Fengli told him to get lost, he would immediately bring up Shen Yanxiao, this death exemption token, and he would never be satisfied!

"Third-in-charge..." Everyone from the Silver Hands was dumbstruck as they looked at their Third-in-charge following that cold-faced young man with a smile. No matter how cold that young man's face was, Su Feihuan was sticking very close to him... very close...

The tense atmosphere was shattered by the impact of Su Feihuan losing his image.

Qin Ge facepalmed. He did not want to admit that Su Feihuan was his comrade.

Even though Su Feihuan was very lively, he was famous for being a smiling tiger when he was in the Silver Hands. Even though he was young and always had a smile on his face, he was merciless when he took action. Not only was his thieving skills second only to Qin Ge, but he was also good at using poison. If there was one member of the Silver Hands that had the most number of corpses in their hands, it would undoubtedly be Su Feihuan.

In the entire Silver Hands, with the exception of Qin Ge and Gu Qingming, practically no one had not suffered at Su Feihuan's hands.

However, as they looked on helplessly as the needle turned into a sticky gum in front of Lan Fengli, they were extremely shocked.

"Eh? Brother, you're here." Only then did Su Feihuan realize the existence of Qin Ge and the others. However, he followed Lan Fengli to a chair on one side and did not intend to meet up with the rest.

"Where's the Lord?" Qin Ge forced himself to ignore Su Feihuan's actions and tried to calm himself down.

Su Feihuan said, "The Lord has come a long time ago. Didn't you see her?"

She's already here? Qin Ge frowned.. He did not even notice her presence.

Chapter 1620: To Be Completely Convinced (8)

Just as the members of the Silver Hands were curious about Shen Yanxiao's whereabouts, a figure appeared before them like lightning.

Shen Yanxiao wore a white robe and was standing before the Silver Hands members with a smile. Hundreds of ribbons could be seen floating on her hands.

"Hey, that belt looks familiar. I think she stole it from my brother," Su Feihuan stared at a certain golden silk belt and said.

Shen Yanxiao smiled. The instant her smile blossomed, the pants of the few hundred members of the Silver Hands slipped down in an instant.

2

“Ah!!”

Screams of misery sounded one after another, and everyone hastily lifted their pants in panic.

“It’s just a small gift, please don’t take offense.” Shen Yanxiao chuckled and slowly sat down before placing the ‘spoils of war’ on the table.

Hundreds of hot-blooded men lifted their pants and blushed as they looked at the beautiful Lord.

Beautiful.

It was everyone’s first impression of Shen Yanxiao. With the exception of those who had seen her before, everyone was shocked by her beauty the moment they saw her. Along the way here, they were more or less affected by the depressing atmosphere and resistance. However, when they saw her smiling face that was as beautiful as a flower, those men who had not interacted with the opposite gender for a long time instantly felt an inexplicable shyness...

What made them even more embarrassed was that a young lady had taken all their belts!

“Lord...” Qin Ge looked at Shen Yanxiao, not knowing whether to laugh or cry. Shen Yanxiao’s tricks had exceeded his expectations. He previously thought that she might take them down a notch or she might say some touching words to make them stay.

However, Qin Ge would never have expected Shen Yanxiao to display her superb skills and take away everyone’s belts.

During this period, none of them discovered Shen Yanxiao’s existence.

It could be said that Shen Yanxiao’s actions had instantly confirmed her skills as a thief.

Embarrassment replaced the original negative emotions, and everyone blushed as they stared at this extremely good-looking young lady.

No one could reason with Shen Yanxiao righteously and aggressively as they held onto their pants. Especially when they saw that the other party was such a delicate little girl, the anger and sharp words they had suppressed in their hearts turned into nothingness.

They even felt that if they were to speak louder with Shen Yanxiao, they would scare her into tears.

If that happened, they would feel a strong sense of guilt.

They seemed to be bullying a little beauty together.

“Feihuan, return these belts to everyone.” Shen Yanxiao said with a smile.

Su Feihuan immediately went to distribute the loincloths while jolting his buttocks. Shen Yanxiao was his death exemption token. Not to mention something as simple as handing out loincloths, he would even send them bricks even if he had to.

Looking at how obedient Su Feihuan was, Qin Ge could only look up at the sky speechlessly. What exactly happened during these past seven days? Why did his third brother change sides so soon?

The moment everyone took back their belts, they turned around and tied their pants, afraid that Shen Yanxiao would see something.
