

The Good 1621

Chapter 1621: To Be Completely Convinced (9)

“In addition to what Qin Ge has said to you, I would like to tell you four things. Firstly, even though the Silver Hands belong to me, all the internal rules are kept. I will not interfere with your internal operations and actions. Your leader will still be Qin Ge. Secondly, from today onwards, the headquarters of the Silver Hands will be established in Sun Never Sets. Members of the Silver Hands will join Sun Never Sets and become residents here. They will enjoy the same treatment as the other residents in Sun Never Sets. Thirdly, you are not allowed to treat people rudely in the Forsaken Land. Fourthly, if anyone is willing, I can teach you how to improve your stealing skills. However, as long as I teach you, you have to do as I say. Of course, this is voluntary. If you do not need my guidance, I will not interfere with your actions.” Shen Yanxiao told everyone her rules clearly.

After they heard what Shen Yanxiao said, everyone was struck dumb.

Other than the relocation of the Silver Hands Headquarters, there seemed to be no other changes. Even Shen Yanxiao promised not to interfere with their actions, and she even allowed them to enjoy the same treatment as the citizens of Sun Never Sets!

It had to be known that everyone in the Brilliance Continent understood that a resident in Sun Never Sets was treated better than the nobles in the capital of the four countries. Not only were there rooms built to increase magic and battle aura, but there were also ample gold coins to be earned every month. Even potions and weapons were provided for free.

Not to mention, there was a place here that specialized in teaching the residents magic and battle aura. There were also teachers here who were all Second-Class Experts in the six professions.

None of the potions they used were lower than Advanced Potions. If they were interested in learning potions, they could also receive guidance from the number one Herbalist in the Brilliance Continent, Ye Qing.

It could be said that the citizens of Sun Never Sets were the happiest people in the Brilliance Continent. Not only did they not have to worry about food and drink, but they also had powerful support in their personal advancement.

As long as you wanted to learn, there was nothing you could not learn here.

Potions, forging, magic, battle aura, business...

After reaching a certain level, Sun Never Sets would take the initiative to equip the, with powerful magical beasts.

Everything was free!

Even if they wanted to be extravagant and add some gold, silver, and jewels for decoration, they would be satisfied as long as they applied for it at the City Lord's Mansion.

Many people wanted to become a resident of Sun Never Sets, but they had stopped recruiting residents a long time ago. This situation made countless people vomit blood. They wished they could join Sun Never Sets as soon as possible so that they could enjoy the best treatment!

Sun Never Sets was no longer a simple city. It had become a cradle for the strong. Be it demons or humans, as long as they lived here, they would improve in all aspects very quickly.

Shen Yanxiao had promised all of them that they could live in Sun Never Sets and enjoy this paradise-like life without paying any price.

It was like a dream!

Not to mention the other members of Silver Hands, even Qin Ge was stunned. He had thought that Shen Yanxiao needed the Silver Hands because she wanted them to work for her. However, none of the few requests she made were forced. All of them were options they could take. Moreover, she even gave them such good treatment.

Had Shen Yanxiao gone crazy?

Chapter 1622: To Be Completely Convinced (10)

“Lord, is what you said... true?” Qin Ge looked at Shen Yanxiao with uncertainty. Everything Shen Yanxiao said could be said to be of no benefit to her. She placed a lot of beneficial conditions for the Silver Hands for no reason. In the end, if this continued, probably no one would consult her or listen to her orders.

This was practically a losing deal.

“Yes.” Shen Yanxiao nodded with determination.

Qin Ge’s expression became somewhat tangled.

“It doesn’t matter if you don’t believe me. You’ll know after you stay here for a while.” Facts speak louder than words. Shen Yanxiao did not care if her words would be believed. When the matter was done, they would naturally look at it with their own eyes.

The terms Shen Yanxiao offered were too enticing. There was not the slightest burden on their welfare, and that made the Silver Hands members tempted.

Most importantly, the Silver Hands was still under Qin Ge’s management and Shen Yanxiao would not interfere. This was what the Silver Hands members were most resistant to. However, Shen Yanxiao resolved this problem without any discomfort.

“If anyone wishes to leave, I have already prepared a hundred thousand gold coins for you as a severance fee.” Shen Yanxiao smiled and said, making sure that she did not leak any information.

She was willing to fork out money the moment she took over?

The members of the Silver Hands were struck dumb. They were thieves, so they never lacked money. But this was the first time they had seen someone so generous.

“Cough.” A man from Silver Hands raised his hand and his honest face blushed.

“My lord, I have something to ask,” he said, somewhat ill at ease.

“Please speak,” Shen Yanxiao said.

“If... I mean if we were to meet the woman we like here...” The man’s face flushed red. He could not finish his sentence, but he had expressed his intentions clearly.

In order to keep it a secret, the Silver Hands was located in a remote area. There, there was not a single member of the opposite gender within a hundred miles. Occasionally, they would encounter a member of the opposite gender when they were out on a mission. But due to the fact that they had a mission on hand and were afraid of exposing the Silver Hands’ position, they did not dare to come into contact with them.

However, after they entered Sun Never Sets, they saw many delicate and pretty girls on the way here. This made the group of men who had not been in contact with the opposite gender for years to be fascinated.

Women!

So many women!

If they could stay here in the future, wouldn’t they be able to see many girls every day?

Oh!

Just the thought of it filled them with hope!

The man’s words were the thoughts of many Silver Hands comrades.

Shen Yanxiao was stunned for a moment before she suddenly laughed.

“If you are truly in love, then you can go for it freely. If you can reach the stage of marriage, I will cover the expenses.”

“Really?” The eyes of the Silver Hands members shone.

“Yes.” Shen Yanxiao nodded.

Qin Ge sighed helplessly. He was almost sure that none of the Silver Hands members would choose to leave under Shen Yanxiao’s enticement.

She had given them freedom, good conditions, and hope of getting married...

Even if Shen Yanxiao wanted to back out now, the Silver Hands members would not give her such an opportunity.

“My Lord, I believe all 367 members of the Silver Hands are willing to stay in Sun Never Sets. I hope you will remember your promise today..” Qin Ge looked up at Shen Yanxiao and made the decision for everyone in the Silver Hands.

Chapter 1623: Eating Vinegar (1)

All the members of the Silver Hands had decided to stay in Sun Never Sets. Shen Yanxiao had already arranged a place for them to stay. A group of men with expectations and prudence walked toward their new home with jolting buttocks. Throughout the entire journey, their gazes were attracted by those girls walking away with smiles on their faces.

“So many girls...” The Silver Hands members secretly wiped their saliva. Under Qin Ge’s warning gaze, they reluctantly left, turning back three times with each step, wishing that they could take another look.

This was different from the opposite gender they usually encountered when they were out on missions. These girls could very possibly become their other half in the future!

How could the Silver Hands members remain calm?

With the Silver Hands under her wing, Shen Yanxiao finally resolved one of her worries.

As the only member of the Silver Hands that could stay in the mansion, Su Feihuan followed behind Lan Fengli, no matter how ‘cold’ his expression was.

“Your welfare conditions are pretty good.” Tang Nazhi touched his chin. Shen Yanxiao’s treatment towards the Silver Hands members was exceptionally good.

However, he did not think that Shen Yanxiao would make a loss.

Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders and did not explain anything.

“I’ll go back first. You can move around freely.” Shen Yanxiao waved her hand and turned to walk back to her room. She was not worried that the hundreds of thieves she had just recruited would cause trouble in Sun Never Sets.

Before she could fully integrate the Silver Hands, Shen Yanxiao had to work hard to absorb the dark elements so that Xiu could recover as soon as possible.

In order to deal with the Broken Star Palace, Shen Yanxiao had to find out their location first. Right now, she already had asked her demons to spread the news among the demons. Currently, all the demons in the Brilliance Continent were searching for the Broken Star Palace’s location for Shen Yanxiao.

Once they were found, Shen Yanxiao would bring about a calamity for them.

Shen Yanxiao returned to her room and sat cross-legged. She habitually placed the dark crystal in her arms.

Closing her eyes, Shen Yanxiao calmed her mind and absorbed the dark aura in the air.

As usual, Shen Yanxiao focused her mind into her heart lake. However, she could not find that familiar figure in the endless heart lake.

“Xiu?” Shen Yanxiao looked at the empty heart lake with hesitation and a trace of uneasiness surfaced in her eyes.

All of a sudden, Shen Yanxiao felt her body being pulled up. Next, she felt her mind being pulled away from her heart lake.

Shen Yanxiao opened her eyes in surprise and the familiar golden eyes came into view.

“Xiu...”

Shen Yanxiao looked at the face that was right in front of her. She was wrapped in Xiu’s arms and her slender waist seemed as if it would be broken the next second.

Xiu lowered his head and his long black hair brushed past his peerlessly handsome face. There was not the slightest fluctuation in his golden eyes that had been frozen for thousands of years. He slightly bent down and their noses gently touched. Shen Yanxiao tightly clung onto Xiu and her chest that was constantly moving due to her panting pressed against his broad chest.

Xiu narrowed his eyes and looked at the little girl in panic.

Shen Yanxiao practically held her breath as she looked at Xiu who had suddenly condensed his body without knowing what to do. The arm around her waist tightened bit by bit, pressing down all the gaps between them. Shen Yanxiao could even clearly feel the ice-cold temperature that belonged to Xiu coming from under his thin clothes..

Chapter 1624: Eating Vinegar (2)

The air in the room seemed to have frozen at that moment. Shen Yanxiao’s eyes flickered as she looked at that pair of calm eyes. She had a vague feeling that there was an emotion brewing deep in that pair of golden eyes that she had never seen before. However, that emotion was buried under a glacier that could not be dug out.

“What’s wrong?” Shen Yanxiao tried hard to find her voice and her heartbeat nearly stopped.

Xiu’s face enlarged in Shen Yanxiao’s eyes and her cry of surprise was covered by his ice-cold lips. When that trace of coolness touched her lips, his ice-cold lips pried open her teeth and his slightly chilly tongue entered her mouth as he kissed and sucked on it.

Shen Yanxiao widened her eyes and her breathing stopped at that moment. Her small hands that were pressed against Xiu’s chest faintly trembled and the strength in her body seemed to have been pulled away in an instant. Shen Yanxiao subconsciously moved backward, but the arm around her waist forcefully pulled her back. With the intent of punishing her, it domineeringly sealed her cry of surprise that was about to escape her mouth.

Even the gap between breaths was completely taken away. When their lips and teeth touched, only that ice-cold sensation blossomed on the tip of her tongue and a cool sensation slid across every corner of her mouth.

The air in Shen Yanxiao’s chest was practically squeezed out. She wanted to breathe, even if she had to put some distance between them. However, in Xiu’s embrace, it was as if she was bound by a curse and could not move.

The gradual lack of oxygen made Shen Yanxiao's limbs weak. In the end, she could only rely on Xiu's arms to stand.

Just as Shen Yanxiao felt that she was about to die from the lack of oxygen, Xiu finally gave up on his invasion. The cold tip of his tongue gently swept across her abnormally rosy lips. His pair of ice-cold eyes seemed to be brewing the desire to devour the world.

Receiving fresh air once again, Shen Yanxiao was like a drowning person as she gasped for air. Her watery eyes looked at the familiar face before her, and her slightly parted lips seemed to be issuing another silent invitation.

"Why..." Shen Yanxiao struggled to speak as she breathed heavily.

This was not their first kiss, but it was a soul-stirring one. At that moment, she almost thought she would die in Xiu's arms.

Such a kiss made her apprehensive.

As for Xiu before her, Shen Yanxiao also felt something amiss. His gaze seemed to be somewhat different from before, but as for the specifics, she... could not pinpoint it.

That kiss came so suddenly that she even sensed his displeasure from his kiss. How much forbearance did he have to suppress his emotions beneath his indifference? It was only revealed slightly, but it had already caused her to be at a loss.

Xiu lowered his head and his ice-cold forehead gently pressed against Shen Yanxiao's forehead. His deep eyes looked straight into Shen Yanxiao's eyes with intoxicating charm.

"You are not allowed to do that again." A low and hoarse voice sounded in Shen Yanxiao's ears. It was filled with strong desire, making her tremble.

"What?" Shen Yanxiao widened her eyes and looked at Xiu in confusion. She did not know what he meant.

She did not realize what she had done to make him unhappy.

Xiu lowered his eyes and abandoned his grip on Shen Yanxiao's hands. Instead, he slid across her back and entered her clothes. His slender fingers hooked onto the ribbon around her waist and gently pulled.

"This."

Chapter 1625: Eating Vinegar (3)

The belt around Shen Yanxiao's waist was easily pulled open and the skirt that had lost its bindings fell down layer by layer like blossoming petals.

A slight chill brushed past Shen Yanxiao's exposed legs and her jade-like skin slightly trembled from the sudden chill.

"..." Shen Yanxiao was stunned. She seemed to have understood what Xiu meant.

"I was just showing them my skills..." Shen Yanxiao blushed. She felt ashamed, just like a wife who had been caught climbing a wall by her husband.

"Hmm?" Xiu lowered his head and pressed his sharp face against Shen Yanxiao's neck, yearning for her scent.

Shen Yanxiao trembled and shrunk her shoulders in embarrassment. Fortunately, her coat was long enough to cover her legs for the time being. Even so, the hand that had snuck under her coat seemed to have lifted her clothes as it touched her back with a slight chill.

Shen Yanxiao wanted to cry out that she was honestly obedient.

If it were in the past, she would have stripped Qin Ge and the others clean without leaving any underwear.

And a belt...

She could swear to the heavens that after she stole the belt, she did not linger for a second and would immediately turn around. She did not see anything that she should not have seen, not a single thing!

"I didn't see anything..." Shen Yanxiao tried hard to defend her innocence, but the chill on her back gradually increased.

It was clearly an ice-cold fingertip, but it left a trace of warmth where it brushed past. Every inch of skin that Xiu had touched had become abnormally hot.

Xiu did not seem to be satisfied with her answer. His lips gently pressed on her neck and his ice-cold tongue lightly touched the sensitive skin on her neck.

"There won't be a next time." Xiu lowered his voice.

Shen Yanxiao nodded foolishly. Xiu released his grip on her and she immediately crouched down. She hugged her skirt that fell to the ground and pulled on her coat to cover her fair legs.

She crouched on the ground like a frightened rabbit.

Shen Yanxiao's mind was blank. Everything that happened earlier on had caused her brain to be unable to react in time. She looked at the ground in front of her and tried her best to calm her breath.

All of a sudden, she was lifted up horizontally. Almost instinctively, she covered her mouth with her hands. She subconsciously opened her mouth and said in a muffled voice, "I won't do it again..."

If she had known that revealing her skills would incur the displeasure of Great Master Xiu, she would have used other methods.

"En," Xiu softly answered. His voice was filled with hoarseness, as if he was trying hard to suppress something that was about to break free.

Gently placing Shen Yanxiao on the bed, Xiu turned around and left the room, leaving Shen Yanxiao alone to tidy up her clothes.

Sitting on the bed, Shen Yanxiao grabbed the quilt. Her flushed face was filled with conflict and her watery eyes looked sluggish.

Xiu's sudden actions had caught her off guard. This was the first time she realized that Xiu's strength did not lie in his strength. Instead, it lay in his irresistible charm. He usually kept a low profile, but once he revealed it, it was irreversible.

Blinking her eyes, Shen Yanxiao suddenly had a strange thought.

Why did she feel that...

Lord Xiu's actions were very... very... very similar...

To jealousy?!

Chapter 1626: Eating Vinegar (4)

Like a snail, Shen Yanxiao dawdled around the room for a long time before she slowly opened the door, but Xiu was nowhere to be seen.

Instead, it was Taotie who sat at the door with a bag of steamed buns in his arms. When he heard the door opening, he looked up and blinked his eyes foolishly when he saw Shen Yanxiao's ruddy complexion.

1

"Master, have some steamed buns." Taotie lovingly stretched out his hands with a steamed meat bun in them.

"Where's... Xiu?" Shen Yanxiao cleared her throat and tried to cover up her previous unnatural behavior.

Taotie pointed towards the study. "Qi Xia called Lord Xiu away."

"..." Shen Yanxiao facepalmed. Had she been delayed in the room for too long?

Pulling the foodie with her, Shen Yanxiao walked towards the study. Along the way, her mood fluctuated as she imagined ten thousand different reactions when she saw Xiu again.

However, when she pushed open the door and saw the cold figure seated on the chair, the emotions that she had managed to dispel with great difficulty surged into her mind once again. The numbness on her lips seemed to be reminding her of what had happened earlier on.

Her originally valiant and spirited aura immediately shattered into pieces.

"Xiaoxiao, what are you standing there for? Come on in." Tang Nazhi sat in the study and waved his hands enthusiastically when he saw Shen Yanxiao standing there in a daze.

It was rare that Xiu had the time to talk to them. Even though he did not speak more than ten words, it was enough to make Tang Nazhi excited.

Oh oh oh!

The War God!

The living War God!

He was the ultimate idol of many youths in the Brilliance Continent. Even though he had met Xiu several times, Tang Nazhi was still unable to remain calm. If he were not afraid of getting sent flying by Shen Yanxiao, he would not mind immediately worshiping Xiu.

Shen Yanxiao made a fuss and walked in with a muffled voice. She did not dare to look up and meet that pair of eyes.

But even if she lowered her head, she could still feel that gaze locking onto her.

“What are you talking about?” Shen Yanxiao pretended to be calm as she spoke. However, she could not help but look at Xiu from the corner of her eyes. Even though he was only seated close to her, she seemed to be able to sense Xiu’s aura surrounding her.

It was as if she was drowning in it.

“I’m talking about the Broken Star Palace. Lord Xiu said that the reason why the Broken Star Palace had concealed itself so deeply was very likely because it is located in a restricted area and rarely could anyone approach it. Therefore, no one has discovered it.” Tang Nazhi said.

“Forbidden area? Could it be the battlefield of the war between gods and devils?” Shen Yanxiao’s attention was finally pulled back like a wild horse that had lost its reins.

“It’s possible. Those who founded the Broken Star Palace were all survivors from the war between gods and devils. The restricted area that others feared is extremely familiar to them. After the war, there were countless deaths and injuries. It is very likely that they would choose to build their forces in the last battlefield.” Qi Xia touched his chin. They had thought wrongly previously and had paid too much attention to the hidden places deep in the mountains. However, in the Brilliance Continent, there seemed to be no other places that people dared not approach other than a few restricted areas.

The Broken Star Palace had always been well hidden. It was very likely that they had chosen a restricted area that no one dared to enter.

If it were not for Xiu’s words, they probably would not have found the correct location even if they had searched the entire Brilliance Continent.

Chapter 1627: Eating Vinegar (5)

“Where is the last battlefield?” Shen Yanxiao subconsciously looked at Xiu.

When she met his golden eyes, her heart skipped a beat.

“I have no idea,” Xiu calmly said. Other than a strange expression deep in his eyes, he still looked as cold as ice.

During the war between gods and devils, the War God and the Devil God were frozen at the same time. The devil army that had lost its commander was defeated by the alliances of various races. As for the final battlefield, probably only Shen Siyu who had sealed the passage between the devils knew.

“I’ll go and find Brother Siyu.” Shen Yanxiao stood up almost immediately and left the study without any delay. The moment she turned around, the long hair on her neck gently lifted, revealing a few bright red marks to the eyes of the few youths in the study.

“...” Tang Nazhi stared at Shen Yanxiao with his mouth agape, his eyes filled with horror.

Why did he think that it looked very much like a hickey on Xiaoxiao’s neck?

Tang Nazhi hesitantly looked at Xiu who sat as still as a mountain. Before his doubtful gaze met with Xiu’s eyes, he decisively turned to look at Qi Xia and the rest.

In Qi Xia and Yang Xi’s eyes, he saw the same speculation as himself.

Tang Nazhi was shocked!

Lord Xiu was... too savage!

Xiaoxiao was the Lord of the Forsaken Land after all. Was it really okay for her to plant strawberries on her neck so brazenly?

Even though Tang Nazhi had the reputation of being a playboy, he was an expert on paper, but his actual combat experience was zero... cough cough.

Almost the moment Qi Xia and the others looked at Xiu again, their gazes became extremely inquisitive.

As expected of their idol. He could even win over a heaven-defying little girl like Xiaoxiao. They had to worship him!

Xiu was unmoved like a mountain and was not affected by those few gazes.

Not long afterwards, Shen Siyu, who was temporarily staying in Sun Never Sets, was brought to the study by Shen Yanxiao. Vermilion Bird came with her, but Vermilion Bird’s current expression...

He was furious!

The moment he entered, Vermilion Bird glared at Xiu.

Xiu looked up.

Vermilion Bird hovered in mid-air and suddenly reached out to push away Shen Yanxiao’s hair, exposing those few eye-catching strawberries to everyone.

Shen Yanxiao was shocked.

Vermilion Bird angrily said to Xiu, “Did you hit her?!”

“Pfft!!” Tang Nazhi spat out a mouthful of tea.

Vermilion Bird was a magical beast that lived alone deep in the mountains for a long time. Even if he were to sign a contract with his previous masters, Vermilion Bird would be politely invited to another room to rest at certain times. As a result, Vermilion Bird had no idea where those few strawberries came from. He only saw the mist in Shen Yanxiao’s eyes and suspicious marks on her neck.

Therefore, he immediately rushed over with killing intent and vowed to fight against his master, the War God!

"I will fight you one-on-one! Even if you are the War God, you cannot harm my master!" Vermilion Bird glared at Xiu in fury, completely unaware that the atmosphere in the study had become extremely strange.

Shen Yanxiao's face that had recovered with great difficulty was currently flushed red.

She wanted to cry. Vermilion Bird had it totally wrong!

How was he protecting her? He was clearly embarrassing her!

In the face of Vermilion Bird's clamoring, Xiu suddenly stood up..

Chapter 1628: Eating Vinegar (6)

Vermilion Bird was on full alert and was prepared to attack at any moment, but Xiu just walked past him and came to Shen Yanxiao's side.

The sudden appearance of a slender figure caused Shen Yanxiao's gaze to tremble. Her heart that was beating at a constant speed suddenly skipped a beat due to Xiu's appearance. She slightly opened her mouth and looked at Xiu's gradually approaching figure. When he walked to her, his golden eyes slightly lowered, and in them reflected her doubtful appearance.

All of a sudden, Xiu stretched out his long arms and pulled Shen Yanxiao into his embrace. The arm around her waist slightly moved upwards and Shen Yanxiao subconsciously straightened her body. She widened her eyes in surprise and before she could ask anything, she was swallowed by his ice-cold lips.

Shen Yanxiao held her breath in shock. That kiss was similar to a declaration of ownership which was filled with deep greed. However, Shen Yanxiao felt as if her breath had been taken away.

The entire study fell into a dead silence as everyone's gaze locked on Xiu and Shen Yanxiao.

Shock, surprise, and horror. All her emotions had been devoured by the scene before her.

At a certain moment, Xiu finally ended that earth-shattering kiss.

Shen Yanxiao panted as her surging thoughts gradually returned to its original position. When she looked up and met Xiu's eyes, it was as if she was struck by lightning.

Did they... did they... did they... did... did...

Shen Yanxiao turned around in shock. Everyone in the study, including Shen Siyu who had always been as calm as water, was petrified on the spot.

Vermilion Bird, who was originally furious, widened his mouth in horror.

Shen Yanxiao wanted to die...

Never in her wildest dreams would she expect that Xiu, who had always been cold and detached, would do such a heaven-shocking thing in front of everyone.

From that, it could be seen that the Lord had drunk... a lot of vinegar.

Please give her a crevice and let her escape.

Xiu slightly raised his chin and held Shen Yanxiao's shoulders with one hand. His golden eyes were half-squinted as he looked down at Vermilion Bird. His cold voice broke the dead silence.

"You mean this?"

"..." Vermilion Bird nearly swallowed his tongue.

He seemed to have finally realized that there was a huge misunderstanding.

Even though he had never experienced it, he was not completely ignorant. However...

Oh god, please strike him to death!

Vermilion Bird's proud face had turned red and his trembling hands were pointing alternately between Shen Yanxiao and Xiu. His face that was filled with anger seemed as if he would faint the very next second.

"Cough, I thought you called me here to discuss the Broken Star Palace." The gentle Shen Siyu could not bear to see a certain tsundere idiot die from his stupidity and mercifully spoke up to resolve the strange atmosphere in the room.

"That's right..." Tang Nazhi softly muttered. Just a moment ago, they were still lamenting Xiu's savageness. They did not expect to be fortunate enough to see the live version.

1

"Take a seat first." Shen Siyu rubbed his brows and looked at Shen Yanxiao who had her head lowered like an ostrich. Then, he looked at Xiu who had a calm expression.

Asura, the War God, was the coldest superior god among the God race. He had been a god for tens of thousands of years, and he had never seen him getting close to any of the opposite sex. Unexpectedly, he had the opportunity to see a certain great god's passionate scene.

Shen Siyu was sure that Xiu's motive for ending that kiss was not because he was satisfied.. He was probably afraid that if this continued, he would not be able to suppress some urges.

Chapter 1629: Eating Vinegar (7)

Shen Yanxiao did not know when she sat on a chair. She vaguely felt that Xiu had pulled her over and pressed her down.

Please forgive her for her shock. As a young lady who had been pure for two lifetimes, it was hard for her pure heart to accept that someone she admired had done such an impure thing in public.

As for Vermilion Bird, he was dragged to a corner by Taotie.

Regarding his master being almost eaten, Vermilion Bird was thoroughly dumbstruck. He just silently followed Taotie to the corner to rear mushrooms.

Qi Xia, Yang Xi and Tang Nazhi had yet to recover from their shock. Shen Yanxiao continued to be in an ostrich-like state. Seeing this, Shen Siyu felt a headache.

The only normal one was a certain great master who had just kissed his lover.

The study was still silent.

Shen Siyu sighed. “You’ve been to the main battlefield of the war between gods and devils.”

“What?” Shen Yanxiao suddenly looked up and her blank mind finally recovered its senses when she received the shocking news.

“We’ve been there?” Qi Xia raised his brow.

“Where is it?”

“The Scar of Oblivion,” Shen Siyu said.

“The Scar of Oblivion? How is that possible?” Tang Nazhi could not believe it. They had all gone to the Scar of Oblivion to rescue the slaves, but they did not discover anything strange there.

Other than the inhumane slave owners and those despairing slaves, only the nobles who came to play would stay there.

Shen Siyu said, “When Asura and Satan were sealed in the mysterious ice, the armies of the six major races allied together to eliminate the remnant forces of the Devil race. They used the valley that extends endlessly from the Scar of Oblivion to completely eliminate the Devil race that invaded the Brilliance Continent. However, at that time, the Devil race’s army was incomplete and it was not considered a major war. It could only be regarded as the final cleanup. Therefore, not many people knew about it. The five spirit beasts had been arranged to stay in other areas at that time and so, they were not very clear about it. However, I am certain that this was the last battlefield.”

As the god that sealed the passage, Shen Siyu experienced the last battle. After ensuring that the Devil army had been completely eliminated, he then began to seal the passage.

The war between the gods and the devils had lasted for a long time. Thousands of battles had occurred in almost every corner of the Brilliance Continent. Hundreds of battles had been fought in the Forsaken Land alone. No one knew how many battles the Scar of Oblivion had experienced.

“But when we went to the Scar of Oblivion, we did not find any suitable buildings. Don’t tell me the Broken Star Palace is built underground?” Tang Nazhi was puzzled. Back then, the Broken Star Palace was built by human heroes and not some shady demon. So, there was no need for them to live underground.

Shen Siyu shook his head. "The Scar of Oblivion is larger than you can imagine. What you saw there was merely the entrance to the Scar of Oblivion. I believe that the foundation of the Broken Star Palace might be hidden in the depths of the Scar of Oblivion. It has been thousands of years since a human has set foot there."

Due to the existence of the market, the real pathway to the Scar of Oblivion was concealed. Therefore, everyone believed that the Scar of Oblivion was what they saw.

However, Shen Siyu's words had thoroughly crushed that theory.

No one would doubt the words of this god who had experienced the last battle between gods and devils.

Chapter 1630: Eating Vinegar (8)

Shen Siyu's words planted a seed of doubt in everyone's hearts.

Probably no one could associate the palace of heroes of the Human race with the heartless slave market.

If all the speculation was true, then the Broken Star Palace's concealment work was impeccable.

"Want to take a look?" Qi Xia looked at Shen Yanxiao and asked.

Shen Yanxiao wanted to nod, but she subconsciously looked at Xiu.

"I'll accompany you," Xiu slowly said.

"..." Shen Yanxiao dared to swear that the 'accompanying' Xiu mentioned was not as simple as squatting in the heart lake. He wanted to use his physical body to accompany her.

"Won't it consume too much energy?" Shen Yanxiao was somewhat uncertain. She was worried that Xiu would consume too much energy to materialize.

"It's fine."

"Alright, I'll bring the dark crystal with me." Shen Yanxiao dared to forget everything except for the dark crystal. Only with it could she guarantee that she could replenish Xiu's strength no matter where she went.

Xiu's expression was still cold, but the expression in his eyes was unusually gentle. He seemed to be smiling, but no one could catch it.

That trace of gentleness buried deep in the glacier was extremely precious to Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao had seen many lovers, and she was not envious of any of them. She had once thought that if she wanted one, she would want a unique relationship that no one had ever had.

Whether it was that person or that relationship, it could only belong to her.

If the other party was giving her kindness but was also giving it to others, then she would rather not have it. Even if there was the slightest flaw, she would not fall for him.

In terms of relationships, Shen Yanxiao had severe mysophobia that even she did not realize.

“My eyes hurt.” Tang Nazhi covered his eyes and sighed.

Did those two have to display their affection in public? Could they consider the feelings of the singles?

Displays of affection were the most annoying!

“Cough.” Shen Yanxiao cleared her throat and a trace of shyness flashed past her eyes.

“In that case, when are we setting off?” Yang Xi was comparatively calmer. It was mostly due to his expressionless face. Perhaps, his heart was even more surging than Tang Nazhi.

“The sooner the better. We have owed a visit to the Broken Star Palace for a long time.” Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes. At that moment, she was the Demon Lord that even the Brilliance Continent feared!

“In three days’ time, let’s make a trip to the Scar of Oblivion and investigate. Once we discover anything, I will immediately have Vermilion Bird come back and inform Freud and the rest.” Shen Yanxiao sneered. The Broken Star Palace better pray that she could not find them. Otherwise, she would certainly repay everything she had suffered a hundredfold!

“Just the few of us?” Qi Xia pointed to the few people in the study and automatically skipped over Shen Siyu. As a righteous sage of the God Realm, Shen Siyu was not suitable to confront the Broken Star Palace.

“And Xiao Feng.” Shen Yanxiao naturally did not forget about her brother.

“Alright, I’ll prepare the carriage.” Qi Xia nodded and left after a short discussion with Shen Yanxiao.

As soon as Qi Xia left, Tang Nazhi and the rest made up an excuse to slip away. Even Vermilion Bird and Taotie who were crouching in the corner were dragged out by them.

Before he left, Shen Siyu even thoughtfully closed the door.

Shen Yanxiao and Xiu were the only ones left in the study..
