

The Good 1651

Chapter 1651: The Horn Before Revenge (4)

When Freud received Vermilion Bird's message, he immediately led his team to the Scar of Oblivion. There were still many advanced-ranked demons in the Forsaken Land who had been bringing their subordinates to apply to join Sun Never Sets. However, as the time had been too tight, Freud did not dare to continue delaying. He quickly brought over all the advanced-ranked demons that had already joined Sun Never Sets over.

As for the next coming wave of advanced-ranked demons, he had given Du Lang full responsibility.

In a short span of a month, the number of advanced-ranked demons in Sun Never Sets had almost recovered to its peak. Looking at the advanced-ranked demons that covered a large area, Qi Xia and the others were thrilled.

With these advanced-ranked demons, it would no longer be a problem to take down the Broken Star Palace!

Everyone was in a state of excitement, but Xiu's expression did not change in the slightest. He quietly listened to Freud's report without any joy. Instead, he asked in an extremely cold voice, "How many demons have undergone training?"

Freud was stunned for a moment before he immediately said, "I have asked my former comrades to guide these demons. Even though they cannot completely replace their deceased comrades, there should not be too much of a difference in their skills. I have already instructed the veteran demons to mix with the fresh blood, so once the war starts, they can support each other."

Freud understood what Xiu was implying. These old troops of Sun Never Sets were personally trained by Xiu, and their fighting strength and tacit cooperation were naturally not comparable to ordinary advanced-ranked demons. However, the current situation did not allow these newly joined demons to undergo long-term training. He could only let the veterans lead the fresh recruits. Fortunately, the strength and toughness of these advanced-ranked demons were rather high.

Xiu nodded and reluctantly accepted Freud's arrangement.

On the other hand, Tang Nazhi secretly complimented him. He still remembered the first time he met Freud, this advanced-ranked demon with the appearance of a young man gave him an extremely unreliable feeling. Not only was he sloppy, but he was also indecent all day long. However, under Xiu's guidance, this demon gradually transformed into a general that could take care of the overall situation. Not only could he lead troops in battle, but he had also begun to think independently.

It had to be known that Xiu did not have much time to teach Freud and the rest. They had only undergone a short period of training, but it had already achieved such an effect. It was really amazing.

Tang Nazhi looked at Xiu with admiration. That was the power of the War God.

No one in the world could compare to him.

No matter how disobedient a good-for-nothing soldier was, they could be trained into a steel-like army that would make the enemy tremble in fear when they heard Xiu's name.

Once upon a time, Xiu led ten thousand gods and defeated millions of devil soldiers. Even until now, there was still a legend of him that spread around the world. Only after they had witnessed the effect of Xiu leading the army would they sigh that the rumors were true.

If it were not for Xiu, the victory and defeat of the war between the gods and the devils would have undergone a tremendous change due to the huge disparity between their forces.

"Where is the Lord?" Freud did not see Shen Yanxiao and could not help but be curious. Vermilion Bird had come with them but was summoned back by Shen Yanxiao the moment they entered the Scar of Oblivion. He thought he would see Shen Yanxiao here, but he did not expect to not even see her shadow.

"Master is in those palaces." Taotie pointed to the seven palaces not far away.

"Master said that you have to wait here for now.. She will send out a signal later and that's when you can attack."

Chapter 1652: The Horn Before Revenge (5)

Within the Broken Star Palace, Shen Yanxiao crouched in Ah-Qi's room and looked at the speechless Vermilion Bird standing before her.

"You... can you be any more daring!!" Vermilion Bird looked at Shen Yanxiao in shock. He originally planned to bring Freud and the rest into the Scar of Oblivion to meet up with Shen Yanxiao. However, the moment he stepped into the Scar of Oblivion, Shen Yanxiao summoned him back into her body. And when he reappeared, he discovered...

He had come to the enemy's base camp!

Crash!

Did this damned woman even know what she was doing?! She was about to start a war with the Broken Star Palace, but she still dared to stay inside!

If the Broken Star Palace were to discover this, they would chop her into mincemeat in minutes!

Shen Yanxiao looked at the furious Vermilion Bird with a smile and reached out to stroke his head. She said in a kind tone, "I still have that bit of confidence. Don't be too mad. I called you here to create a surprise for the Broken Star Palace."

Vermilion Bird snorted. He crossed his arms arrogantly and glared at Shen Yanxiao with dissatisfaction.

“Can you behave yourself? Freud has brought more than twenty thousand advanced-ranked demons into the Scar of Oblivion. Even if you do nothing, you can flatten the Broken Star Palace.” Sometimes, Vermilion Bird wished he could pry open his heartless master’s head and take a good look at the structure of her brain.

“More than twenty thousand advanced-ranked demons?” Shen Yanxiao was stunned. She remembered that when she set off from Sun Never Sets, there were only about ten thousand advanced-ranked demons in the city. Even if she were to include the advanced-ranked demons in the other cities under her command, it would only barely exceed ten thousand. How come the number had doubled in just a few days?

Even if it was raw, it was not that fast!

“Your reputation has been pretty good recently. Recently, those advanced-ranked demons that resided in various places had all brought their families to seek refuge with you. Their dowry had even been prepared. Right now, two-thirds of the cities in the Forsaken Land are under your name.” Vermilion Bird snorted.

“...” Shen Yanxiao was speechless.

She merely left the city to cause trouble for the Broken Star Palace. Why did such a huge change happen in the Forsaken Land?

It was hard to digest the fact that so many advanced-ranked demons had come with their ‘dowry’.

“There are still some advanced-ranked demons who are applying for admission. However, the Sun Never Sets has been flooded with demons recently and the underground city can no longer accommodate any more demons. Du Lang is waiting for you to return so that he can discuss with you about the expansion of the underground city.” Vermilion Bird touched his chin. When he went back to report, he saw batches and batches of demons who had decided to camp outside the city gates because they could not enter the city. There were tens of thousands of advanced-ranked demons, hundreds of thousands of intermediate-ranked demons, and countless low-ranked demons that surrounded the Sun Never Sets like a swarm of locusts. It was a spectacular scene!

“...” Shen Yanxiao facepalmed. This piece of exciting news made her speechless.

The war had even brought about benefits.

Shen Yanxiao’s two exciting wars in the Forsaken Land had not only won her the hearts of humans, but also the demon’s approval. The advanced-ranked demons, who had been indecisive before, were now willing to submit to this Lord.

At this point, Shen Yanxiao had already controlled most of the demons in the Forsaken Land. As for the rest, it was not that they did not want to surrender, but they were still queuing up to surrender...

Chapter 1653: Look, I’ll Kill You (1)

The news brought by Vermilion Bird caused Shen Yanxiao to look dazed. She could almost imagine how crowded Sun Never Sets was right now.

“Well, I will return after I have resolved the matter with the Broken Star Palace.” Shen Yanxiao cleared her throat. The news was shocking, but she had not forgotten the purpose of her trip.

“Speaking of which, what surprise do you intend to give the Broken Star Palace?” Vermilion Bird raised his eyebrows. He was almost accustomed to Shen Yanxiao’s unconventional behavior.

Even if Shen Yanxiao said that she wanted to strip everyone in the Broken Star Palace, he would not be surprised.

Vermilion Bird’s thoughts were getting more and more impure. How could an innocent and good girl like Shen Yanxiao, who had just undergone Lord Xiu’s “lessons”, possibly do something so immoral?

“Follow me and you’ll know.” Shen Yanxiao pretended to be secretive as she hooked her fingers at Vermilion Bird, as if she was trying to lure him in.

Vermilion Bird furrowed his brows and reminded, “The Broken Star Palace has a special array that targets magical beasts like us. If you wish to go all out, I advise you not to place your hopes on me.” Even though he did not wish to admit that his hands were tied in front of the Broken Star Palace, he did not wish for Shen Yanxiao to fall into danger due to her wrong judgment.

“I’m not that stupid. Return to my body first. You can attack when I tell you to.” Shen Yanxiao gave Vermilion Bird a slap and forcefully recalled him back into her body.

Putting on the signature black cloak of the Broken Star Palace, Shen Yanxiao walked towards the underground laboratory in the hall with a bellyful of evil tricks.

In the laboratory, Sage Lin was still extracting battle aura and magic from the two Second-Class Experts who had been sent over a few days ago. Shen Yanxiao’s arrival did not attract his attention.

In the eyes of the other members of the Broken Star Palace, Ah-Qi, who was only a thin line away from turning into dregs, was simply a dispensable existence. Many of them believed that Ah-Qi would soon become a test subject in their hands with the Palace Master’s recent policy to increase the amount of medicinal pills getting extracted.

Shen Yanxiao, who was ignored, walked calmly in the laboratory. She looked at the huge furnace. The size of the furnace was almost comparable to a large high-level magical beast. The top of the furnace even reached the ceiling of the laboratory. To wrap around the giant furnace, dozens of men would have to form a circle with their hands together, even then they might not even be able to hug it.

Within the furnace, there was a strange blue flame burning. This flame was the key to the Broken Star Palace’s experiments. The magic and battle aura extracted would combine with other potions and be placed in the furnace to be refined into a pill.

According to Luo Ke’s informative boasts, Shen Yanxiao knew that the blue flame was not afraid of wind nor water. As long as there was air, it could burn indefinitely. The only thing that could control the spread of the flame was the balance iron used to build the furnace.

However, this balance iron was extremely rare and not many could be found even in the Broken Star Palace. The remaining balance iron was used to build the seven pill furnaces in the laboratory beneath the seven palaces and not much more could be found.

“Vermilion Bird, can your flames blast the furnace made of balance iron?” Shen Yanxiao concealed herself as her eyes flickered with a nasty glint.

“Balance iron? There shouldn’t be a problem, I guess? My flame is fundamentally different from that cyan flame. What it fears, my flames will not..” Vermilion Bird answered through their spiritual connection.

Chapter 1654: Look, I’ll Kill You (2)

“Alright, when I release you later, blast this broken furnace and immediately return to my body. I will then take you away.” Shen Yanxiao chuckled. Vermilion Bird’s answer was simply wonderful.

Vermilion Bird was surprised. He did not know what that blue flame was, but he would follow Shen Yanxiao’s orders to a tee.

Shen Yanxiao chose a concealed place and secretly released Vermilion Bird. Only those ‘dregs’ imprisoned in the iron prison could see this location.

But it didn’t matter as those dregs had been made silly by the Broken Star Palace’s special potions. They could not even turn their eyes away, let alone leak the information.

Vermilion Bird cooperatively retracted his transformation and soundlessly appeared in a corner of the laboratory.

Following Shen Yanxiao’s gaze, Vermilion Bird immediately pressed his palms together and a small flame condensed between his palms. The flame bullet was extremely tiny but the power it radiated was extremely powerful. In order to prevent anyone from noticing his actions, Vermilion Bird tried his best to suppress his flames to the extreme!

The instant Vermilion Bird spread his arms, the concentrated flame bullet shot towards the huge furnace at lightning speed.

It was so fast that no one had time to react.

A loud explosion sound echoed in the sealed laboratory. The seemingly sturdy furnace was instantly covered by huge flames and cracks covered the entire furnace at an extremely fast speed.

“What’s going on?” The loud noise caused the other people in the laboratory to be startled. Sage Lin looked for the source of the noise in surprise and saw the furnace that was originally standing upright in the laboratory turning into pieces of broken metal that fell to the ground.

The moment the red flame destroyed the furnace, it extinguished. The cyan flame that broke free from its binds swept across the entire laboratory.

The air in the laboratory had become the perfect reagent for the cyan flames to spread. In an instant, the cyan flames quickly devoured several members of the Broken Star Palace.

Those members did not even have the time to make a sound. The instant they were enveloped by the cyan flames, they turned into a wisp of smoke and disappeared without a trace. Not even their bones were left.

“So violent!” Shen Yanxiao, who was hiding in a corner, was speechless. The destructive power of this cyan flame was too savage!

“Why did the furnace explode!?” Sage Lin was dumbstruck as he looked at the scene before him. His complexion turned deathly pale in an instant. No one knew better than him how terrifying the cyan flames were. The flames that could evaporate the battle aura and magic in an expert’s body with just a lick was simply a nightmare for all experts!

The entire laboratory was in a mess and the cyan flames devoured everything it could devour.

With the exception of the balance iron scattered on the ground, everything touched by the cyan flames instantly turned into dust. The people crowded in the laboratory fled in all directions, screaming. However, how could their speed be faster than the spread of the flames?

In the blink of an eye, more than half of the members of the Broken Star Palace were devoured by the cyan flames. They did not even have the chance to struggle.. The evaporated magic and battle aura flickered with light and hovered above the ceiling like mist.

Chapter 1655: Look, I’ll Kill You (3)

The shrill screams were like music to Shen Yanxiao’s ears. She summoned Vermilion Bird back into her body, and as she looked at the members of the Broken Star Palace who had been pushed to the edge by the cyan flames, a ruthless smile surfaced on her face.

“Little kid, you still want to torture me? Watch how I toy you to death.” Shen Yanxiao sneered. She drank a bottle of potion made by Great Herbalist and ran out of the passage like the wind.

The moment she left the passageway, Shen Yanxiao turned around and looked at the wall that immediately closed. She suddenly raised her hand and fiercely punched the switch on the wall, shattering it into pieces.

The hard gravel left a trail of blood on Shen Yanxiao’s fist, but she did not feel any pain. Her heart was filled with the thrill of revenge.

Destroying the switch was tantamount to ending the lives of everyone in the laboratory. This grave Shen Yanxiao had personally built was for those people to be buried underground forever.

Shen Yanxiao did not allow the cyan flame to spread throughout the entire palace because it would spread infinitely once it came into contact with air. If the flames were to completely spread throughout the Scar of Oblivion, it would probably cause a huge disaster. Perhaps the flame could burn all the way to the Forsaken Land and that would be a huge loss.

After the underground laboratory was sealed, the cyan flame only extinguished after the oxygen inside was completely burnt.

But before that, the evil members of the Broken Star Palace would stay there forever to experience the thrill of death!

“Where one should I go next?” Shen Yanxiao turned around and removed her disguise. A black cloak covered her petite figure. She pulled up her hood and concealed herself in the cloak while her pair of eyes flickered with determination, coldness and killing intent.

This was merely an appetizer and the feast was yet to come. Broken Star Palace, enjoy the music of destruction I have brought to you!

When Shen Yanxiao wanted to attack, no one in the Broken Star Palace could stop her. She had utilized her stealth and concealment skills to the extreme.

So what if there were many experts in the Broken Star Palace? Relying on the Moonlight Necklace that concealed her aura, Shen Yanxiao utilized the most exquisite skills of a thief god and played songs from hell in the laboratories under the seven palaces.

Burn, destroy, and bury. The laboratories that rarely people went to determined Shen Yanxiao’s advantage.

The sealed laboratories and the destroyed switch were not discovered until half an hour later.

However, it was too late.

For fear of someone intruding the laboratories, the Broken Star Palace had specially used ten tons of diamond to conceal the entry. Without a switch, it would take at least an hour to destroy the diamond blockage even if they bombarded it with magical cannons.

And that one hour was enough for the cyan flames in the laboratory to devour everything!

The seven laboratories were attacked in succession, causing a huge commotion in the Broken Star Palace. Countless Dages were invited to destroy the diamond blockage that blocked the doors of the laboratories.

Just as the entire Broken Star Palace was in a state of chaos, a petite figure leisurely left. The black cloak was pulled away after she got a hundred meters away from the Broken Star Palace.

Shen Yanxiao had her back to the Broken Star Palace. Amid the endless tells, she walked toward the demon army that had gathered not far away.

“We pay our respects to the Lord!” Tens of thousands of demons knelt on one knee and greeted their commander with the most devout gaze!

Chapter 1656: Look, I’ll Kill You (4)

The army had arrived, and a great war was about to break out.

This time, it was Shen Yanxiao who started the war and she would be the one to lead!

“Only the demons and us will be participating in this war. Vermilion Bird and the other mythical beasts are not allowed to participate.” Shen Yanxiao had yet to find out where the Broken Star Palace’s array for dealing with magical beasts was. But even so, she had nothing to worry about.

She had more than twenty thousand advanced-ranked demons and Xiu, the War God, as her backup.

She had just set a fire in the Broken Star Palace, leaving it in a complete mess. The people in the laboratories were all elites of the Broken Star Palace, and Shen Yanxiao had just eliminated hundreds of experts without spilling a single drop of blood.

“Yes.” It was rare that Vermilion Bird did not act like a tsundere and listened to her orders.

“Speaking of which, Xiaoxiao, what have you gained after staying in the Broken Star Palace for the past few days?” Tang Nazhi’s eyes were filled with curiosity as he looked at Shen Yanxiao who had just returned. Shen Yanxiao had been staying in the Broken Star Palace for the past few days and rarely would she send news to Taotie.

A nasty smile appeared on Shen Yanxiao’s face. She shrugged her shoulders and said, “Nothing much. I just learned a little about the Broken Star Palace and caused them some trouble.”

Tang Nazhi looked at Shen Yanxiao in doubt. He did not think that the ‘little trouble’ Shen Yanxiao mentioned was a small matter.

In the entire Brilliance Continent, she was probably the only one who could lurk in the Broken Star Palace for such a long time.

“What trouble? Tell me about it.” Qi Xia was also curious.

Shen Yanxiao casually said, “I found the laboratories they used to transfer battle aura and magic. After I summoned Vermilion Bird, I set fire in their labs. I reckon that before those people could escape, they would all be burnt to death.”

Shen Yanxiao’s words shocked Tang Nazhi and the rest.

That was really... a small matter!

Nevermind going to the Broken Star Palace for several days, she had even caused a scene in their laboratories before she left. Just by thinking about it, they knew how chaotic the Broken Star Palace was right now.

The laboratories of the Broken Star Palace were definitely not an easy place to enter. Not only did this little girl enter the top-secret lab, but she had also wreaked havoc inside. It was simply admirable.

Hearing the girl’s tone, it was as if she had just burned a few ants.

If the people from the Broken Star Palace were to hear her, wouldn’t they vomit blood from anger?

“This is merely an appetizer, so you have to put on a good show.” Shen Yanxiao did not feel that her actions were crazy. If not for the fact that she was afraid that the cyan flames would be hard to control, she would have used those flames to burn the entire Broken Star Palace into ashes.

“Tsk tsk, savage, too savage. You’ve killed so many by yourself. If we don’t work hard, wouldn’t we be looked down upon?” Tang Nazhi sighed. The people Shen Yanxiao had killed were not ordinary people. All of them were elites of the Broken Star Palace! They were at least Second-Class Experts!

“Ha, without Ah Yu here, you have to be careful,” Shen Yanxiao smiled and said.

There was not a single priest in their team, so they had to rely on themselves for all the battles.

“Rest assured, we will not disappoint you.” Tang Nazhi smiled confidently.

Shen Yanxiao nodded and looked at the silent Xiu.. She knew that even though he did not say much, he had been silently supporting her.

Chapter 1657: Disaster (1)

Within the Broken Star Palace, everything was a mess. Sage Feng led hundreds of members to stand before the sealed laboratory, and his expression was as black as the bottom of a pot.

“What exactly happened?!” Sage Feng roared.

“We... we don’t know either.” The people on one side looked at the situation in horror. The seven laboratories of the Broken Star Palace had suffered from an inexplicable attack. All the passages had been sealed and the mechanisms had been completely destroyed. It was impossible for them to break the diamond blockage in less than half an hour.

Sage Feng’s expression was gloomy. The seven laboratories had been attacked one after another and the interval between each attack did not exceed five minutes. During this period of time, not to mention a large-scale attack, even if he were to move at full speed, it would take him around three minutes to arrive at another laboratory from one laboratory. However, the difference of five minutes had caused the doors to be sealed.

They could not enter and the people in the laboratory could not come out. They had no idea what had happened inside.

“Continue with the bombardment. We must rescue the people inside as soon as possible.” Sage Feng’s heart bled. The people in the laboratory were all top-notch experts of the Broken Star Palace. Not only were they powerful, but they were also very skilled in the transfer technique. If anything were to happen to them, then the Broken Star Palace’s losses would be incalculable.

“Yes!”

Hundreds of Archmagis and Great Archmagis began to bombard the diamond blockage at the entrance and the sounds of explosions echoed throughout the entire hall.

Such a huge commotion had alarmed all the upper echelons of the Broken Star Palace.

A white-haired old man walked to Sage Feng who was surrounded by a crowd.

When everyone saw the old man, they revealed an expression filled with the greatest respect. After Sage Feng saw this old man, his complexion turned pale, and he hastily went forward and knelt on one knee.

“Palace Master.”

The old man in front of him was none other than one of the founders of the Broken Star Palace in its earliest days. He was a human expert that survived the war between gods and devils. He was already more than ten thousand years old and had exceeded the limits of human age.

In the world of battle aura and magic, humans could increase their lifespan by increasing their strength. The lifespan of an ordinary person would at most be around a hundred years, but the lifespan of experts above the advanced level could be extended according to their strength.

However, he himself was only a few thousand years old at most. There was no one else in the entire Brilliance Continent that was as old as the Palace Master of the Broken Star Palace.

“How is the situation?” The Palace Master expressionlessly looked at Sage Feng who was drenched in cold sweat.

“I have already arranged for our men to break the diamond blockage in all the seven laboratories. In... another ten minutes or so, we should be able to open the entrance.” Sage Feng was so nervous that he was about to tremble. No matter how respected and powerful he was in the eyes of others, he was merely an ant before the Palace Master.

There were more than twenty human experts who founded the Broken Star Palace. After the baptism of the war between gods and devils, they had become indifferent to everything in the world. They avoided the secular world and built the Broken Star Palace in the Scar of Oblivion.

As time passed, the original experts could avoid the call of Death, and the only one who survived was the current palace master.. The other members of the Broken Star Palace had been invited by the old man to join the organization when their talents were revealed.

Chapter 1658: Disaster (2)

No one knew how powerful the Palace Master was. When Sage Feng joined the Broken Star Palace, the Palace Master had already started his long period of seclusion training and would only appear occasionally. The various affairs of the Broken Star Palace were all handled by the few Sages.

Sage Feng’s current strength had reached the peak of a Great Professional of the second class promotion, and he was only one step away from entering the Saint Profession.

The Saint Profession was at the peak of the second class promotion and was only one step away from the Divine Profession.

Among the many Sages in the Broken Star Palace, there were two who had successfully broken through to the Saint Profession. They were only second to the Palace Master.

The strength of a Saint Professional was enough to contend against a holy magical beast. Other than the Divine Archmagus, they were at the peak of the six professions, and they were the group that stood at the peak of the Brilliance Continent.

The Sages of the Broken Star Palace already had the strength of a Saint Professional. Therefore, no one knew how powerful the founder of the Broken Star Palace was.

They only knew that the aura they sensed from the Palace Master was far more terrifying than those two Saint Professionals.

“You have to be fast.” The Palace Master frowned. He was not satisfied with Sage Feng’s answer.

“We will try our best to rescue the people inside.” Sage Feng secretly wiped his cold sweat.

After more than ten minutes, the diamond blockage was finally smashed into pieces. However, the instant the diamond shattered, a heatwave surged out from the passageway and the boiling hot airflow directly burnt the few people who stood at the entrance.

“What a high temperature!” Sage Feng was speechless as he cautiously looked at the palace master who had yet to leave.

Heatwaves continuously surged out from the passageway and for a moment, no one dared to rashly enter the laboratory.

An ominous premonition rose in everyone’s hearts.

The heatwave lasted for five to six minutes before it subsided. When the temperature in the passageway was no longer as hot, Sage Feng led a team of men into the laboratory that had been sealed for nearly half an hour.

However, when they walked into the laboratory, what they saw made them dumbstruck.

The laboratory that was originally filled with various apparatus was now empty. Other than a few fragments of the balance iron scattered on the ground, nothing else could be found in the huge room.

The walls that were buried deep underground were connected to the Scar of Oblivion. However, the walls that were piled up around the laboratory had disappeared without a trace and a large area of charred soil had solidified on the ground.

The entire laboratory seemed to have been set on fire.

“What... exactly happened here?” Sage Feng swallowed his saliva. The scene before him was beyond his comprehension.

“It’s the smell of cyan flames.” The Palace Master had mysteriously entered this unrecognizable laboratory. He narrowed his eyes and sensed the lingering aura in the laboratory. Even though the flames had disappeared, there was still a faint smell in the air. The substance mixed in the air made one's lungs ache as if they had been set on fire just by inhaling it.

"Someone destroyed the furnace and used the cyan flames to burn everything here." The Palace Master had a solemn expression. Other than the scent of the cyan smoke, there were also many drifting traces of battle aura and magic mixed in. Evidently, these powers came from those experts who had been evaporated by the flames.

A laboratory with dozens of peak experts had been burnt to ashes in a short span of half an hour!

Chapter 1659: Disaster (3)

At that moment, even the expression of the unfathomable Palace Master turned ugly.

"Go and investigate who did this." The Palace Master lowered his voice, but one could clearly sense the anger beneath his calm expression.

The seven laboratories had been destroyed. Not only were all the dregs and test subjects dead, but even the rare cyan flames had disappeared without a trace.

The Palace Master was furious.

He did not care about those dead test subjects. As long as he was willing, he could ask Ouyang Huanyu to nurture more talents that knew how to transfer battle aura and magic. With the dregs gone, there were still many Second-Class Experts in the Broken Star Palace. It was not a problem to grab some of them and use them as sacrifices.

However, he had painstakingly obtained that cyan flame from Ouyang Huanyu. The real name of that flame was the Flames of the Netherworld. It was only formed when the God race and the Devil race perished at the same time before their souls dissipated. The Flames of the Netherworld originated from the war between gods and devils thousands of years ago. After countless battles, the God race was wiped out and the Devil race suffered heavy casualties. That was how the Flames of the Netherworld were formed.

The Palace Master was well aware that it was impossible for him to find the Flames of the Netherworld after the God race was completely destroyed.

This kind of unique item was destroyed in one go and that made him vomit blood.

If Shen Yanxiao knew that the cyan flame was so powerful, she would not have sealed all the rooms. At the very least, she would have left some fire seeds for herself.

Right now, all the remaining Flames of the Netherworld had been extinguished. Without the flames, the speed and purity of the transfer technique would be greatly reduced.

It could be said that Shen Yanxiao's actions had directly caused the Broken Star Palace's future advancement to be greatly slowed down.

However, none of this was known to her.

The Palace Master's anger spread to the people of the Broken Star Palace. They started to search for suspicious people like crazy.

Unfortunately, they could not even find a single strand of hair. No one knew how this disaster came about.

While everyone in the Broken Star Palace was busy looking for the culprit, Shen Yanxiao had led her demon army to the gates.

The few teams of guards at the entrance of the Broken Star Palace were completely dumbstruck when they saw such a large army. They ran back to the palace and reported the news to the depressed Palace Master.

"Someone intruded? Who is it?" The Palace Master sat on the throne in the main hall. The loss of the Flames of the Netherworld had angered him to no end. Now, there was actually an idiot who did not care about their life and dared to lead troops to attack the Broken Star Palace. They were simply courting death.

"Reporting to the Palace Master, their leader... seems to be Shen Yanxiao."

"It's her?" A trace of surprise appeared on the Palace Master's face. Due to Ouyang Huanyu, everyone in the Broken Star Palace had seen Shen Yanxiao's portrait, but the Palace Master did not think much of this young lady who was highly regarded by his partner.

The reasons why they had taken action several times against, first, for the sake of the Broken Star Palace and second, for the sake of doing Ouyang Huanyu a favor.

It could be said that until now, the Palace Master had never paid any attention to Shen Yanxiao.

"Shen Yanxiao is approaching us with tens of thousands of demons." The guard swallowed his saliva. Even though he was a Second-Class Expert, he had never seen such a large army of advanced-ranked demons..

Chapter 1660: Disaster (4)

"Shen Yanxiao, are you trying to send yourself to death?" Sage Feng, who stood at the bottom of the hall, frowned. The Broken Star Palace had just experienced a disaster, and this little kid brought her troops to their doorsteps?

Wasn't the timing too coincidental?

Sage Feng could not help but suspect if the destruction of the seven laboratories was related to Shen Yanxiao.

However, he soon overturned his theory.

Shen Yanxiao might be regarded as a top expert in the Brilliance Continent, but she was not worth mentioning when placed before the Broken Star Palace. Not to mention the unfathomable Palace

Master, even those two Sages who had broken through to become Saint Professionals could easily kill her.

Even if Shen Yanxiao had three heads and six arms, it was absolutely impossible for her to sneak into the Broken Star Palace without anyone knowing, much less knowing about the location of the seven laboratories.

Unless she was not human!

In a sense, Sage Feng was right.

“Palace Master, Shen Yanxiao has repeatedly made things difficult for our Broken Star Palace. There is no need for you to continue to indulge her. Sir Ouyang merely said that he wants Shen Yanxiao’s life, so it is fine as long as we do not kill her.” Sage Long, who stood above Sage Feng, slowly spoke. He looked to be around fifty to sixty years old, but he was actually an old man over a thousand years old. He was also one of the people who broke through to become a Saint Professional in the Broken Star Palace.

He rarely interfered in the affairs of the Broken Star Palace and had only heard of Shen Yanxiao. He was well aware that the Palace Master’s tolerance for Shen Yanxiao was in fact due to Ouyang Huanyu.

A little kid dared to cause trouble in front of their Broken Star Palace just because she had some achievements. How ridiculous.

The Palace Master furrowed his brows. The loss of the Flames of the Netherworld had caused his mood to hit rock bottom. Shen Yanxiao bringing her troops here at this time was touching his bottomline.

“Ignorant brat, it’s time to teach you a lesson. Sage Long, you and Sage Yu, take your men and kill all the demons and humans Shen Yanxiao has brought with her and capture her.” The Palace Master sneered. He did not care about Shen Yanxiao’s strength. A trash like her did not even have the qualifications for him to attack.

“Yes, I understand.” Sage Long and Sage Yu stepped forward with smiles in their eyes.

As the supreme experts of the Broken Star Palace, they despised these ignorant pieces of trash.

“Remember, just keep her alive. In any case, what Ouyang Huanyu wants is her body. As long as she is not dead, everything will be fine.” The Palace Master sneered. There was a road to heaven, but you chose to go to hell.

Shen Yanxiao, how capable do you think you are?

If not for Ouyang Huanyu, the Broken Star Palace would not have even spared you a glance!

I will soon let you realize how foolish you are to oppose the Broken Star Palace.

“Alright.” Sage Long and Sage Yu looked at each other and saw a trace of ruthlessness in each other’s eyes.

Shen Yanxiao might not be a significant opponent in the face of the Broken Star Palace, but her physique that trained in both magic and battle aura made them salivate. If they could use the First Origin Pill that was extracted from Shen Yanxiao’s body, it would definitely be a great help to them.

In any case, the Palace Master had already said that as long as she did not die, they could do as they pleased.

The two Saint Professionals who received the order immediately led the people from the Broken Star Palace out to fight.
