Chapter 1681: Taking Over the Broken Star Palace (4)

“Xiu, kill him.” Shen Yanxiao did not wish to talk nonsense with such a jerk.

“Every man for himself! What’s wrong with me doing this?! What did I do wrong?!” The Palace Master went crazy. He desperately gathered all his strength and raised his staff in an attempt to inflict heavy damage on Shen Yanxiao.

However, before he could gather his strength on his staff, an ice-cold hand covered his head.

Xiu had come behind him and grabbed his head with one hand.

“You should not have survived the war between gods and devils.” The cold voice ended everything. The moment his voice fell, Xiu suddenly closed his fingers.

The Palace Master’s head exploded between Xiu’s fingers.

There was no room for struggle. This scum that had lived for tens of thousands of years had finally died in the hands of the God race.

No one would remember his name, and no one would be grateful for his efforts in the war between gods and devils.

He might have contributed to the Human race during the war between gods and devils, but what he did after, his contribution was not enough to pay for his crimes.

Shen Yanxiao took a deep breath and remembered Xiu once said that humans were the most complicated race among the eight major races and that humans would never be satisfied.

With great desire, kindness and justice would turn into sin.

She did not want to become that kind of person.

The death of the Palace Master caused those who surrendered to Shen Yanxiao to quieten down.

They looked at the scene of their former leader dying and felt extremely complicated.

There was relief and also fear.

Finally, they had broken free from the shackles and obtained freedom.

At the same time, they were also shocked by the strength of the god.

A simple strike had caused a Divine Archmagus to fall.

As long as Xiu was around, these people would never dare to mess around with Shen Yanxiao.

Xiu was Shen Yanxiao’s greatest trump card and also her eternal support.

“The Broken Star Palace... is gone just like that?” Tang Nazhi still could not accept it.

The Broken Star Palace that had once made the four countries submit to had really perished?

Right in front of him?

“The Broken Star Palace is still here,” Shen Yanxiao suddenly said.

“What?”

“The Broken Star Palace will not disappear. It is a symbol of the human spirit. However, from today onwards, it will become the true Hall of Heroes.” Shen Yanxiao turned to Tang Nazhi with a smile.

The Broken Star Palace would not be destroyed once she took over.

She would reshuffle the cards, get rid of those dirty ones, and retain the true beliefs of humans.

Xiu stepped on the golden light and walked toward Shen Yanxiao. There was not the slightest trace of blood on his hand. It was as if he did not crush the Palace Master’s head.

“This is good. At least there’s no smell of blood.” Shen Yanxiao walked to Xiu and lifted his hand to rub against the tip of her nose.

Xiu’s eyes revealed a trace of gentleness. He reached out his other hand and hugged Shen Yanxiao in his embrace. He then bent down and pressed his head against her neck.

“I need to rest.”

In order to achieve a shocking effect, Xiu would always deliver a fatal blow. This seemingly simple move contained a huge amount of power. After two consecutive strikes, the power he previously accumulated had been depleted.

Except for Shen Yanxiao, no one else knew of this.

“Leave the rest to me. Thank you..” Shen Yanxiao turned her face slightly and planted a kiss on Xiu’s cheek.

Chapter 1682: Dragon’s Heart (1)

Xiu’s figure gradually turned into light dots and disappeared from everyone’s line of sight.

As for a god that only existed in legends, no one would doubt Xiu’s departure.

From their point of view, the matter had already ended, so naturally the god did not have to stay to handle everything.

Shen Yanxiao looked at the group of people from the Broken Star Palace.

“Pack your things and follow me back to the Forsaken Land. From today on, you are a member of the Forsaken Land. I don’t care why you have surrendered, but you have to know that I am your leader in the Forsaken Land. I will provide you with the best training environment and I will also let you enjoy the same treatment as the other residents in the Forsaken Land. However, if any of you dare to continue the transfer technique in private, I will make your life worse than death!”

Shen Yanxiao’s sharp gaze swept across everyone in the Broken Star Palace.

These experts nodded one by one and were secretly amazed by Shen Yanxiao’s sharp gaze.

She was only a young lady half their age, and her strength was not even as strong as most of them. However, the aura of a true king had already taken shape within her. Coupled with that god, no one from the Broken Star Palace dared to have any designs on her.

“Lord,” A member of the Broken Star Palace suddenly spoke.

Since they had surrendered, they would naturally address Shen Yanxiao as how the people of the Forsaken Land would.

“What is it?” Shen Yanxiao looked at that person.

“L... I have a dragon mount. Can I bring it with me to the Forsaken Land?” The man asked cautiously. He had just surrendered to Shen Yanxiao, and he did not know her personality.

“You have a dragon? Why didn’t you bring it out before?” Shen Yanxiao looked at him in shock. Looking at his weapon, he should be a Knight. Knights would advance to become Dragon Knights after their second class promotion. However, after the war between gods and devils, dragons had completely hidden themselves and rarely appeared in public. As a result, there were no dragons for the many Dragon Knights.

For example...

Yang Xi!

He had become a second class Dragon Knight a long time ago, but he did not wish to use ordinary mounts because he could not find a dragon. Therefore, he was still running on his two legs.

“It... it was the former Palace Master of the Broken Star Palace who found it for me. He captured a few dragons from god knows where and wanted the few of us who were about to break through to the level of a Saint Professional to sign a contract with the dragons. However, the dragons were not willing to submit to us. It was not until a few years ago that I successfully signed a contract with a dragon. The former Palace Master said that the dragons were very precious, so he would not allow me to bring them out in normal circumstances.” The man spoke carefully. In fact, until the two Saint Professionals perished, none of them believed that Shen Yanxiao would be such a hard nut to crack. So naturally, they would not bring out the only dragon that had signed a contract.

“Where are the dragons?” Shen Yanxiao was curious about the appearance of dragons. It was said that the dragons were the strongest race other than the God and Devil races. That scum from the Broken Star Palace could actually capture dragons? He must have some skills.

“It’s in the seventh hall. If the Lord wishes to see it, I can bring you there.” The Dragon Knight said.

“Yang Xi, Qi Xia, Nazhi, and Xiao Feng, follow me. Su He and the demons, rest here. Members of the Broken Star Palace, go back and pack your bags.” Shen Yanxiao immediately assigned the tasks and led the four of them to the seventh hall of the Broken Star Palace.

Chapter 1683: Dragon’s Heart (2)

When Shen Yanxiao snuck into the Broken Star Palace, she had visited all seven palaces, but she did not see any dragons

It was not until that Dragon Knight led them to a secret door that Shen Yanxiao learned that there were many hidden passages in the Broken Star Palace.

Just as the hidden door hidden behind a mural was opened, several furious dragon roars could be heard.

The powerful aura of the Dragon race permeated throughout the entire darkroom. Almost the instant Yang Xi entered the darkroom, he felt the battle aura in his body continuously roiling.

“What’s wrong? Shen Yanxiao noticed Yang Xi’s abnormality.

Yang Xi touched his nose and forced a smile. “As a useless Dragon Knight, you have to understand my battle aura’s yearning for a dragon.

The aura of the dragon was extremely attractive to a Dragon Knight who had yet to sign a contract with the dragon.

There are a few dragons here that have yet to be contracted. If you are interested, you can give it a try. However, their tempers are very bad.” The Dragon Knight looked at Yang Xi. He knew Yang Xi’s identity. As a Dragon Knight, he could understand the abnormal reaction in Yang Xi’s body.

“The dragons are very aggressive. How did you suppress them here? Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes. The dark room was pitch-black and she could not see the road ahead. However, she could guess that it was very spacious from the echo.

The Dragon Knight hesitated. He pursed his lips and hesitated for a moment before he said, “There’s a heart of an eight-winged golden dragon here.”

What? Shen Yanxiao suddenly stopped and looked at the Dragon Knight in disbelief.

The Dragon Knight's face was filled with pain. For a Dragon Knight, dragons were extremely precious. It could be said that for them, dragons were comparable to magical beasts that had yet to sign a contract

“Ouyang Huanyu gave it to the previous Palace Master. Ouyang Huanyu used a special method to release the dragon's might from the dragon's heart. The eight-winged golden dragon's might would suppress the other dragons here, but at the same time, after they sensed the death of their peerless golden dragon, the dragons here became exceptionally irritable and furious.”

The status of an eight-winged golden dragon was similar to the Elf King in the Dragon race, but there was more than one of them.

Imagine if the elves were locked up in the darkroom with the Elf King's heart inside. It would be strange if the elves did not go crazy.

Ouyang Huanyu and that bastard collaborated a lot? Shen Yanxiao frowned.

The rarity of an eight-winged golden dragon was similar to that of a human at the Divine level. Who was Ouyang Huanyu to be able to obtain the heart of an eight-winged golden dragon?

“Ouyang Huanyu passed the Transfer Skill to the previous Palace Master. Other than the Transfer Skill, he would also send some other items. Similarly, the Broken Star Palace must hand over the people who died after undergoing the Transfer Skill to him. I heard from the other Sages that the people who were sent there were used for experiments. As for the details, I am not sure.” The Dragon Knight told Shen Yanxiao everything he knew. He did not like to participate in the dirty transactions of the Broken Star Palace, and he just devoted himself to training. Therefore, he became the only one who signed a contract with a dragon.

The fact that a dragon was willing to accept him proved that his character was not bad. Otherwise, the dragon would rather die than submit.

Chapter 1684: Dragon's Heart (3)

“Birds of the same feather flock together.” Yang Xi snorted. He, who had always been a man of few words, was furious at the disaster that befell the dragons here.

“It’s too dark here.” Shen Yanxiao surveyed her surroundings. There was nothing that could light up the darkroom. She took out a few light crystals from her space ring and threw them in the air.

This type of light crystal would automatically float in the air, and it was quite bright.

When the light crystals illuminated the entire darkroom, Shen Yanxiao gasped.

In the huge darkroom, four huge iron cages were placed at the four cardinal directions. A huge dragon was imprisoned in each cage. The dragon’s huge body occupied almost every inch of space in the cage, so they could only curl up and squeeze themselves in the cage. Their dragon claws had been twisted and deformed due to it being curled up for a long time, and scars could be vaguely seen on their dragon wings that they tried their best to fold

The strength of dragons was common knowledge.

However, Shen Yanxiao and the rest never expected that the dragons they met for the first time would be so pitiful.

These hegemony of the sky were tied up in the cage. They could not fly in the sky and were trapped in an iron cage.

Shen Yanxiao swallowed her saliva with great difficulty.

This was a humiliation for the dragon race!

At the center of the room, several iron chains were tied to a translucent glass ball. Within the crystal clear glass ball, a bright red heart was beating continuously and ice-blue lightning was striking the heart inch by inch.

Shen Yanxiao’s heart suddenly cramped, as if someone had strangled her neck, causing her to not be able to breathe.

Exactly how inhumane were they to have done such a crazy thing?

The eight-winged golden dragon was already dead, but those people did not even let go of its corpse. The heart of the dragon had been plucked out, and they used the Forbidden Skill to stimulate it with magic, making it pump endlessly and release the might of a dragon.

All for the sake of suppressing the four dragons imprisoned in this room!

All of a sudden, Shen Yanxiao took out the long bow from her interspatial ring.

Ten arrows were suddenly nocked on the bowstring and with a pull of her fingertips, ten arrows flew towards those chains like lightning!

The tinkling sound echoed in the room.

The ten chains broke and Shen Yanxiao continued shooting

She released dozens of arrows in the blink of an eye and the glass ball that had lost its binding fell from the sky.

Lan Fengli suddenly dashed over and caught the falling glass ball in mid-air.

When Lan Fengli landed on the ground, the four dragons in the darkroom released shrill screams.

These powerful dragons were making a sound that could cause everyone to be depressed.

For his own selfish reasons, he had even attacked his former ally.

“Xiao Feng, smash it and let the golden dragon rest in peace.” Shen Yanxiao voice stiffened. For some reason, her heart ached when she saw the heart that was forced to beat.

It was as if that heart did not come from the dragon race, but from her family.

At that moment, Shen Yanxiao almost wanted to drag Ouyang Huanyu out and dismember him.

“Yes.” Lan Fengli nodded decisively. He had acted subconsciously just now, when he held the heart of the eight-winged golden dragon, he felt unprecedented sadness.

This feeling was the same as when Shen Yanxiao passed out after the beast Tide..

Chapter 1685: Dragon Blood Awakening (1)

Lan Fengli decisively pierced through the glass ball with one hand and the influx of air dispersed the magic stored in the ball. The lightning disappeared in the blink of an eye and this heart that had been beating for god knows how long was finally freed at that moment

Lan Fengli looked at the heart in his hand and his fingers trembled. He looked up at Shen Yanxiao, at a loss.

Tears glistened in his eyes.

Sorrow came out of nowhere.

And, the pain in his heart nearly suffocated him.

Shen Yanxiao was also deeply saddened. Her heart was buried by an unprecedented sadness.

“Sister. what should I do? Lan Fengli, who was flustered, looked at Shen Yanxiao in confusion. At that moment, he could only ask for her opinion as he could no longer think.

“Burn it and have the dragons bring the ashes back to the continent of dragons.” Shen Yanxiao took a deep breath and suppressed her internal abnormal emotions.

Lan Fengli hesitated for a moment before he took out a flint. Taking a deep breath, he gently placed his heart on the stone steps and ignited a flame to burn it.

The instant the flame engulfed that heart, Shen Yanxiao felt as if her entire heart had assimilated with that heart as waves of scorching heat burned.

In an instant, Shen Yanxiao’s complexion turned deathly pale and acute pain filled her mind. Immediately after, her legs went soft and her entire body went limp.

“Xiaoxiao!” Panic flashed past Qj Xia’s eyes. He dashed to Shen Yanxiao’s side and hugged her limp body.

Shen Yanxiao frowned and closed her eyes in pain. Bead -sized beads of sweat dripped from her forehead.

“What’s going on?!” Tang Nazhi grabbed the Dragon Knight’s collar, his eyes bloodshot, as if he was about to strangle him to death.

The Dragon Knight was shocked by Shen Yanxiao’s change. He stuttered, “I. I don’t know..

“Xiaoxiao, how are you?” On Qi Xia’s lazy face, there was a rare trace of anxiousness. He stared at Shen Yanxiao’s pale face. He could feel that the body in his arms was emitting an abnormal heat.

Shen Yanxiao bit her lips. The pain made it impossible for her to think.

Lan Fengli stood rooted on the spot. Looking at his heart that had been burnt to ashes, he did not know what to do.

“I. I’ll lead the Lord away first. The eight-winged golden dragon’s heart has been cremated and these cages will no longer trap the dragons. I only signed a contract with one of the dragons here and as for the other three, I’m afraid we won’t be able to deal with them if they go berserk,” the Dragon Knight nervously said. Who would have expected that Shen Yanxiao would encounter such an accident at this time?

If Shen Yanxiao were to die here for no reason, then he could imagine the scene of him dying without a complete corpse once he left the room.

Qi Xia lifted Shen Yanxiao up horizontally. Just as he was about to leave, he realized that the slightest movement would cause Shen Yanxiao’s complexion to turn green.

At this discovery, he did not dare to move at all.

“If only Ah Yu were here.” Yang Xi was burning with anxiety. The might of the eight-winged golden dragon had disappeared and the four dragons in the darkroom were frantically attacking the cage. Without the suppression, the cages could not restrain the strength of the dragons.

Soon, the four dragons broke through the cages with little effort.

Their tall and broad bodies revealed the true appearance of the dragon race.

However, at that very moment, Qi Xia and the rest were no longer in the mood to appreciate the strength of the dragons. That was because the four dragons had started to approach them after they broke free from their cage!

Chapter 1686: Dragon Blood Awakening (2)

“Call Qilin and the rest out!” Qi Xia immediately ordered. In this situation, he did not dare to move Shen Yanxiao.

In the blink of an eye, Qilin, Azure Dragon, and Black Tortoise transformed into their human forms and appeared around them. Lan Fengli also hurried over and summoned Yazi.

‘The four dragons continued to approach them. Qi Xia and the others were prepared for a fight.

However, at that very moment, Vermilion Bird and Taotie suddenly jumped out from Shen Yanxiao’s body.

“You, get lost! Close the door and don’t tell anyone what happened here!” The moment Vermilion Bird appeared, he immediately pointed at the Dragon Knight and said.

The Dragon Knight was momentarily stunned. And before he could react, Vermilion Bird impatiently blasted him out with a fireball.

Then, Taotie flashed to the door and closed it completely.

“Vermilion Bird?” Tang Nazhi looked at him with a trace of doubt in his eyes.

“Master is fine. That eight-winged golden dragon’s heart might very possibly belong to the same dragon as the dragon bloodline that was integrated into Master’s body. That heart might very possibly be the last trace of that eight-winged golden dragon’s existence in this world. You’ve destroyed it and the aura from the burning stimulated the awakening of the dragon blood in Master’s body. Master might very possibly... awaken the dragon bloodline.” Vermilion Bird secretly gnashed his teeth. The moment Shen Yanxiao had an abnormality, he already wanted to rush out.

As a result, Xiu, who had fallen into a deep sleep, suddenly woke up in his heart lake. He forced himself to wake up and told Vermilion Bird and Taotie about Shen Yanxiao’s condition.

It was because of this that they came out late.

“Xiaoxiao is about to turn into a dragon?” Tang Nazhi widened his eyes as he could not believe his ears.

“I’m not sure for the time being, but we can’t let others know about Master’s secret. We can’t move her right now. If the bloodline of the Dragon race is to awaken right now, our best option would be to wait here for the awakening to end.” Vermilion Bird’s face was taut. The reason he chased that Dragon Knight out the moment he appeared was to keep Shen Yanxiao’s secret safe.

“Then should we deal with these four dragons first?” Tang Nazhi secretly relaxed. It was great that Shen Yanxiao was fine.

“I don’t think so. They don’t have any bad intentions toward Master,” It was rare for Taotie to side with someone and speak in a serious tone.

“Lagree with Xiaowu.” Yazi stood on one side with his arms crossed. From the start, he did not feel that the four dragons were going to cause any harm to Shen Yanxiao.

A holy-level magical beast could already sense one’s intentions to a certain extent from the aura coming out of the dragons.

Moreover, the four dragons did not have any killing intent.

“Are you sure?” Tang Nazhi asked.

“Yes.” Yazi nodded.

‘The four dragons gradually approached but did not attack. They merely surrounded Qi Xia and the rest.

Under the gaze of Qi Xia and the rest, a four-winged red dragon with two pairs of wings transformed into a tall and handsome man.

For members of the Dragons race, only dragons with four wings and above had the ability to transform into humans.

Thank you for reading on myboxnovel.com

‘The four-winged red dragon was covered with scars of various sizes, but there was not the slightest fluctuation in his expression. He stood in front of Qi Xia and the others and slowly said, “Human, we will not attack you. The human girl in your arms and that young man here possess the aura of our king.

Chapter 1687: Dragon Blood Awakening (3)

The red dragon’s words stunned everyone present.

Other than Shen Yanxiao, the red dragon was referring to Lan Fengli who stood beside Yazi.

Lan Fengli’s eyes were filled with doubts.

“Even though some of you have broken the agreement, you are not villains. We will not harm mixed-bloods with my king’s bloodline.” The red dragon did not want to fight with Shen Yanxiao.

For a long time, even though they had been abused by humans, to the extent that they had to look on helplessly as their king was dismembered by humans, the minds of the dragons were very simple. They would not vent their anger on them. Instead, they would seek revenge against those humans who had hurt them.

“You mean, Xiaoxiao and Xiao Feng possess the bloodline of that eight-winged golden dragon?” Qi Xia narrowed his eyes. They already knew of Shen Yanxiao’s secret, and Shen Yanxiao had also revealed some information about Lan Fengli to them.

They had always been curious as to why Lan Fengli relied so much on Shen Yanxiao after he lost his memory.

From the looks of it, the bloodlines of other races in their bodies might very possibly come from the same body.

At the very least, they could confirm that both of them had the same bloodline.

That was why Lan Fengli mistook Shen Yanxiao as his sister.

“Yes.” The red dragon nodded.

“We were previously imprisoned by that mixed-race and we know that he used various races for racial integration experiments. The seven bloodlines in this young man have completely awakened, but the girl in your arms has only just started recovering her dragon bloodline. You better maintain a quiet environment for her. If anything happens during the awakening process, I’m afraid it will be detrimental to her.” The red dragon had a good impression of Qi Xia and the rest. If it were not for them, their king would not have been able to rest and the four of them would have still been trapped in those narrow cages.

“Nazhi, tell Freud to arrange for the Broken Star Palace and the demons to stay in the Broken Star Palace. We have to stay here for the time being.” Qi Xia decisively gave orders. According to the current situation, they could not leave.

Shen Yanxiao could not move, so Qi Xia could only hug her and stand rooted on the spot. His hands did not dare to tremble in the slightest.

Tang Nazhi did not mention a single word of what had happened. The Dragon Knight had also cleverly chosen to keep his mouth shut. After receiving the order, Freud led all the demons to reside in the Broken Star Palace for the time being. He did not ask much and merely waited quietly according to the information Tang Nazhi brought.

The four dragons chose to stay in the room to protect Shen Yanxiao. They used their aura to guide the dragon bloodline in Shen Yanxiao’s body to awaken bit by bit. Lan Fengli carefully put away the ashes of the eight-winged golden dragon’s heart and handed it to the red dragon.

Within the darkroom, everyone was waiting for Shen Yanxiao to wake up.

Shen Yanxiao, who was in a coma, had a high fever and her body was boiling hot. Her complexion turned from white to red and pieces of golden dragon scales gradually covered her right arm and spread to her neck.

‘The area covered by the dragon scales was very small, and it was indeed very eye-catching.

Every sign told everyone that Shen Yanxiao’s dragon bloodline was awakening!

Chapter 1688: Dragon Blood Awakening (4)

Shen Yanxiao slowly woke up. The moment she opened her eyes, she saw the exhausted Qi Xia. The trace of fatigue on his face broke her heart.

“You’re finally awake.” Qi Xia revealed a gentle smile and his tensed expression finally relaxed.

“What’s wrong with me?” Shen Yanxiao frowned. She vaguely felt something was wrong with her body.

“Your dragon bloodline has awakened.”

“What?” Shen Yanxiao was surprised. She raised her hand subconsciously, and nothing happened.

She was afraid that she would suddenly turn into a dragon.

“I didn’t turn into a dragon?” Shen Yanxiao looked at her hands in confusion. When she awakened her elvish bloodline previously, she had directly turned into an elf. It seemed like it was an obvious change this time.

“I’m not sure, but you do have a few dragon scales on your neck.” Qi Xia said. While Shen Yanxiao was unconscious, her body indeed had been covered by dragon scales several times. However, those scales soon faded away, leaving only a small patch on her neck. It was golden-bright and dazzling, and it looked pretty good.

Shen Yanxiao realized that she had been hugged by Qi Xia for quite some time. She immediately jumped down from his embrace. After that, Tang Nazhi, Yang Xi, Lan Fengli, Taotie and Vermilion Bird surrounded her.

“You’re finally awake.” Looking at Shen Yanxiao who was as good as new, Tang Nazhi breathed a sigh of relief. These past few days had really frightened them to death.

“How many days have I been asleep?” Shen Yanxiao rubbed her temples. The long period of sleep had caused her mind to be confused.

“Five days,” Yang Xi said.

“That long?” Shen Yanxiao looked at Qi Xia. If her guess was right, Qi Xia had not moved much for the past five days.

He just stood there and hugged her for five days.

Qi Xia curled his lips and put his tired hands on Tang Nazhi.

“You’re awake now, so I can finally rest well. That little girl is quite heavy.”

“...” Shen Yanxiao was speechless. Was he saying that she was fat?

In fact, Shen Yanxiao’s weight was very light. Otherwise, Qi Xia would not have been able to persist for five days. However, the high temperature on her body was unbearable while she was unconscious. Qi Xia did not dare to use his frost protection to lower her temperature and could only suffer from the high temperature.

In the darkroom, three dragons were resting on the ground. A man walked to Shen Yanxiao and said, “I am Qian Yuan, a four-winged red dragon. You have my king’s bloodline in you.”

Shen Yanxiao was stunned. She had already guessed that the awakening of her dragon bloodline was very likely related to that heart.

Qian Yuan and the other three dragons were being very polite to Shen Yanxiao. It was probably because she had the aura of their king.

Shen Yanxiao took a short rest and learned of the arrangement of the demons from Tang Nazhi.

She tried to look for Xiu and discovered that he was deep asleep. She did not want to disturb his rest and so, she could only ask Shen Siyu why there was no problem with her body when her dragon awakened.

Thank you for reading on myboxnovel.com

After Shen Yanxiao woke up, she did not leave immediately. She asked the people guarding the darkroom to rest for two days. During this period, she brought the demons to the slave market in the Scar of Oblivion. In just two days, the largest slave market in the Brilliance Continent was completely destroyed by Shen Yanxiao. Those slave owners fled in all directions while the remaining slaves were taken in by Shen Yanxiao..

Chapter 1689: Number One Person of the Brilliance Continent (1)

There were more than three hundred thousand slaves in total. It seemed like a large number, but there were still many empty cities in the Forsaken Land, so it was easy for her to take these people in.

On the morning of the third day, Shen Yanxiao returned to the Forsaken Land with her demon army, all the members of the Broken Star Palace, and 300,000 slaves.

Shen Yanxiao's return had brought about a huge shock to Sun Never Sets.

Du Lang and the others stood outside the City Lord's Mansion and their eyes nearly popped out when they saw those people behind the demon army.

Even though those people had their heads lowered and followed behind the demons, their aura had exposed their strength.

"More than ten thousand Second-Class experts... how is that possible?" Evil Wolf who stood beside Du Lang rubbed his eyes in disbelief.

If his memory served him right, their Lord should have led the demons to attack the Broken Star Palace. What was with these ten thousand Second-Class Experts?

Prisoners of war?

Evil Wolf felt like he was about to go crazy.

"They are from the Broken Star Palace?" Du Lang swallowed his saliva. Not to mention Evil Wolf and the rest, even he found it hard to accept what he saw.

Had the Broken Star Palace, the organization that stood at the peak of the Brilliance Continent, really been eradicated by Shen Yanxiao?

Were they really prisoners of war?

"Du Lang, get someone to tidy up Dim City. From today onwards, members of the Broken Star Palace will be residing in Dim City." Shen Yanxiao looked at the dumbstruck Du Lang, Dim City was one of the five main cities in the Forsaken Land, and the current city lord of Dim City was not her, but Qi Xia. With the exception of Qi Xia, Yang Xi, Yan Yu, each of them had a main city to their name, while Li Xiaowei and Tang Nazhi both shared one main city.

The five main cities in the Forsaken Land were all given to her Phantom members.

At present, of the five main cities, only Sun Never Sets was crowded. As for the other four cities, only a small number of slaves were living there to maintain the normal operations of the cities.

Similar to Sun Never Sets, the requirements to enter the other four main cities were also very high. Qi Xia and the rest were already interested in moving the four great aristocratic families to the four main cities to oversee the city.

Shen Yanxiao was also at ease with handing over the Broken Star Palace to Qi Xia. With his intellect, it was not difficult for him to manage these people. Even though the members of the Broken Star Palace were powerful, they were not a scheming bunch due to their long seclusion from society.

For Qi Xia, that crafty fox, manipulating them was an easy matter.

“Lord, did you really destroy the Broken Star Palace? Are these prisoners of war?” Evil Wolf looked at Shen Yanxiao excitedly.

“They are not prisoners of war. They are the new members of the Forsaken Land. From today onwards, the Broken Star Palace will belong to the Forsaken Land,” Shen Yanxiao explained.

Everyone gasped.

Not only did Shen Yanxiao destroy the Broken Star Palace, but she also took over the remaining forces of the palace and recruited all of them under her wing!

This was simply unbelievable!

To add on to everything, the God Realm was exceptionally friendly to the Forsaken Land. Moreover, the founder of the God Realm was their Lord’s brother!

And now that Shen Yanxiao had taken over the Broken Star Palace, they would have to follow her orders in the future.

Looking at the current Brilliance Continent, who could compete with the Forsaken Land?

The surrender of the two great organizations in the Brilliance Continent had pushed Shen Yanxiao’s influence to the peak!

From now on, Shen Yanxiao would become the number one person in the Brilliance Continent!

Chapter 1690: Number One Person of the Brilliance Continent (2)

The slaves Shen Yanxiao brought back were soon allocated to various cities in the Forsaken Land. In the blink of an eye, 300,000 slaves were stuffed everywhere.

With Shen Yanxiao getting famous after the two wars, more and more advanced-ranked demons brought their families to surrender and offered up the cities they occupied with their own hands.

At this point, Shen Yanxiao had taken down all the cities in the Forsaken Land without any effort. The underground city of Sun Never Sets could no longer accommodate so many demons. Even so, there were still a lot of demons trying to join, so Shen Yanxiao had no choice but to assign the first batch of demons to other cities to guard. Only the first batch of advanced and intermediate-ranked demons remained in the city. At the same time, she absorbed the advanced-ranked demons who came to surrender and asked Freud to teach them how to become a real member of Sun Never Sets.

With the demons in their hands and their men in place, they were just waiting to rebuild those abandoned cities.

However, Shen Yanxiao stopped all her actions at that moment.

On the third day after she returned to Sun Never Sets, Shen Yanxiao led Sage Feng to the City Lord's Mansion. Following her was the Dragon Knight from the Broken Star Palace who had signed a contract with a dragon.

Sage Feng cautiously looked at Shen Yanxiao, who was seated in front of him, with complicated feelings.

The two-winged sky dragon sensed Leng Ye's sincerity and also sensed that he did not harbor any hidden motives like the other Dragon Knights.

Ultimately, the arrogant dragon chose to sign a contract with this persistent Dragon Knight.

Leng Ye could be said to be the only Dragon Knight in the entire Brilliance Continent that had signed a contract with a dragon.

Therefore, Yang Xi often asked him for tips on how to get along with dragons. In the end, Shen Yanxiao decided to leave Leng Ye in Sun Never Sets. After a few days of observation, she also felt that Leng Ye's character was not bad, so her attitude towards him had become much more mild.

Shen Yanxiao's attitude had a direct impact on the attitudes of the humans and demons in Sun Never Sets.

Thus, Leng Ye did not feel ostracized and naturally blended into the group. Therefore, he was naturally not afraid to stand in front of Shen Yanxiao.

His performance was much more natural. Compared to him, Sage Feng acted a lot more cautious, constantly in fear that he would make a mistake..
