

The Good 1931

Chapter 1931: Dare to Touch My Students (1)

Shen Yanxiao did not even look at Qinxuan as she strode into the room.

The students in the room looked at Shen Yanxiao with doubt and displeasure.

“What are you doing here?” Luoqiu stood in place and looked at Shen Yanxiao with his chin slightly raised.

Shen Yanxiao smiled. “I want my students back.”

“What do you mean?” Luoqiu frowned slightly. With his status in Deathfire Academy, he would never deal with a small character like Shen Yanxiao. If it were not for Kehr, he would have thrown Shen Yanxiao out already.

“I’m curious. It’s time for class now, and you seem to have fewer students here.” Shen Yanxiao looked around. Normally, Luoqiu should have 50 to 60 students under him, but now there were only a dozen or so students here. Shen Yanxiao knew very well what those students were doing.

She did not want to waste time looking around for Naken, so instead, she went straight to Luoqiu.

During class, Naken and the others could not leave without Luoqiu’s approval. With such a large group of students leaving halfway, Luoqiu must know what they were going to do.

Whether it was with his acquiescence or secret orders, Shen Yanxiao was not interested in guessing.

“This has nothing to do with you. We are still in class. Please leave immediately.” Luoqiu ordered the guest to leave.

The students outside the gate all stretched out their heads to look inside. They did not expect Shen Yanxiao to suddenly come to Luoqiu. The status of these two people in Deathfire Academy could be said to be worlds apart. Shen Yanxiao was the object of disgust for all students, while Luoqiu was indeed the mentor they yearned for.

Shen Yanxiao’s students stared at the scene in shock.

Shen Yanxiao just said to Luoqiu...

She was here to get her students back?

“It seems like Mentor Luoqiu does not intend to hand over my students.” The smile in Shen Yanxiao’s eyes was gradually replaced by coldness.

Luoqiu glanced at Shen Yanxiao and snorted.

“In that case, there’s nothing more to say.” Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders. She suddenly raised her chin and pointed to the arrogant Luoqiu. “Since your students have captured my students, I can only settle accounts with their teacher.”

Shen Yanxiao's words caused an uproar.

Was she going to attack Luoqiu?

All the undeads felt that Shen Yanxiao must have gone crazy.

She was merely a low-level undead, and Luoqiu was not only a purebred undead, but his strength was also top-notch among the high-level undeads. The gap between the two was so huge, yet Shen Yanxiao still had the courage to provoke Luoqiu? Wasn't she just seeking her own death?

Luoqiu looked at Shen Yanxiao as if she were crazy. Even he did not expect Shen Yanxiao to say such words to him.

"Yan Di, you want to settle accounts with me?" Luoqiu narrowed his eyes.

A low-level undead wanted to settle accounts with him? What a joke.

"That's right." Shen Yanxiao said.

"Do you think that with Kehr's protection, you can do whatever you want in Deathfire Academy?" Luoqiu sneered and said, "You are not qualified to fight me."

Shen Yanxiao chuckled and said, "I think you're the one who's mistaken. Why do I need permission to fight you? As a teacher, since you can't teach your students well, I can only teach you."

Did they really think that Shen Yanxiao was easy to bully? Usually, she would ignore whatever these bastards said about her, but this time, they had set their eyes on her students. If she did not teach Luoqiu a lesson, wouldn't she disgrace her title as the Demon Lord?

Chapter 1932: Dare to Touch My Students (2)

The atmosphere in the room became tense, and Shen Yanxiao was ready to take action at any time.

The spectating students thought that they were really lucky to have encountered such a lively show. Luoqiu's students felt that Shen Yanxiao was a joke. Just her? Did she deserve to fight with their mentor?

In the whole Deathfire Academy, only the dean and Kehr could defeat Luoqiu. Who did Shen Yanxiao think she was? Luoqiu could crush her with one finger!

"Mentor Yan Di!" Shen Yanxiao's students, who had been standing at the entrance, not daring to step into the room, finally rushed in at this moment. They surrounded Shen Yanxiao with worry written all over their faces.

"Mentor Yan Di, let's go back."

"Mentor Yan Di, we have yet to complete the task you have given us."

"Mentor Yan Di, we are still in class. Let's go back and continue."

A group of students could not bear to see Shen Yanxiao and Luoqiu fight. Although they recognized Shen Yanxiao's strength, Luoqiu was too powerful. They knew very well that Shen Yanxiao came here to avenge them.

For the sake of this group of good-for-nothing students, she actually dared to confront Luoqiu, one of the top ten mentors. This sentiment moved these teenagers, but they did not want to see Shen Yanxiao get hurt in the slightest.

Voices of persuasion with a trace of pleading echoed in the room.

They could endure it, but they did not want to see their mentor get hurt because of their uselessness.

Shen Yanxiao looked at the group of teenagers and the fierceness in her eyes was replaced by gratitude.

A scholar would die for his bosom friend. These brats were so sensible. It was worth it.

“I say, are you done causing trouble? Why don’t you take a look at your own status? How dare you come here and cause trouble? If you want to act up, get lost and go back to your own territory. Who are you putting on airs for?” Qinxuan, who had been ignored by Shen Yanxiao from beginning to end, gnashed her teeth and glared at her.

How could a low-level undead have the courage to confront Luoqiu? She had run over so boldly and said so much, but in the end, she still had to put on an act with her students to give herself a way out.

“I say, some trash really can’t recognize their own identity and came here to put on an act. Aren’t you going to fight with Mentor Luoqiu? Why aren’t you doing anything?” Luoqiu’s students followed Qinxuan and jeered. From the beginning, they did not think that Shen Yanxiao really wanted to fight with Luoqiu. Everything she said before was just a show. If she really wanted to fight, did she have the courage?

“This is called birds of a feather flock together. What kind of knowledge can a good-for-nothing mentor teach a group of good-for-nothings? They don’t have the ability, and yet they want to put on airs. Aren’t they just sending themselves to our doorsteps to put on a show? Do they really think we are fools? Stop being disgusting here and get lost.”

A burst of laughter sounded in the classroom. They did not regard Shen Yanxiao as a mentor of Deathfire Academy. In their eyes, Shen Yanxiao was just a piece of garbage crawling into Deathfire Academy while hugging Kehr’s thigh.

The words of those students became more and more unpleasant. The faces of the teenagers around Shen Yanxiao turned pale. They clenched their fists tightly and endured the anger in their hearts.

They could not cause trouble for Mentor Yan Di.

Endure.

They could only endure.

The teenagers chose to endure for Shen Yanxiao, but she would not let her students suffer such abuse. She suddenly walked out from the crowd and her petite figure dashed out like lightning.

Chapter 1933: Dare to Touch My Students (3)

Like a gust of wind, in the blink of an eye, Shen Yanxiao arrived in front of those students who spoke ill of her.

She raised her hand and slapped the faces of those brats before they could react.

Pa! Pa! Pa!

The moment three crisp sounds echoed in the huge classroom, Shen Yanxiao had already flashed behind the three of them. She quickly raised her foot and swept it towards their knees.

Three thuds sounded in succession.

The three ignorant students knelt on the ground.

Qinxuan was struck silly. She knelt on the ground in a daze and looked up at Shen Yanxiao who had come to her.

She had such a petite figure, but at this moment, she made her feel incomparable fear.

Shen Yanxiao was extremely fast. It was only after the moment she stopped that the surrounding students realized what had happened.

Gasps suddenly sounded throughout the entire classroom.

How fast!

Shen Yanxiao looked at Qinxuan with a sneer and reached out to hold her chin, forcing her to raise her head.

Qinxuan's eyes were full of fear.

"Do you not understand what respecting your teacher means? Or do you want me to teach you?" Shen Yanxiao's lips curled into a cruel smile.

"Yan Di, you dare to touch my students?" Luoqiu never dreamed that someone would dare to beat up his students in front of him. This was simply slapping his face!

Shen Yanxiao raised her head and looked at Luoqiu, who had revealed his anger, and said with an arrogant smile, "If you don't know how to teach students, I don't mind doing it for you."

Luoqiu took a deep breath and suddenly raised his hand. A ball of black death energy condensed in his hand.

The next second, the ball of death energy was thrown towards Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes and immediately dodged sideways. The moment she dodged, she grabbed Qinxuan's neck and lifted her up.

The moment Qinxuan was pulled up, she took Shen Yanxiao's place. Luoqiu's ball of death energy directly hit Qinxuan's back.

Qinxuan suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood.

Luoqiu did not hold back at all, and Qinxuan could not bear such heavy damage.

The next second, Qinxuan fell directly to the ground, passed out.

All the undeads were struck dumb. No one expected Shen Yanxiao to have such fast reaction speed and still have time to think about using Qinxuan to withstand this attack.

Just her reaction speed alone had made those undeads who disapproved of her shut their mouths completely.

None of the undeads present, with the exception of Luoqiu, was sure that they could do this.

“Alright, since you want to teach your students a lesson yourself, then I won’t interfere. However, Mentor Luoqiu, you are really ruthless. Even though this girl is brainless, it is not appropriate to severely injure her.” Shen Yanxiao, who had perfectly acted out the act of using someone else’s knife to kill, looked at Luoqiu with a crafty smile.

Luoqiu was almost angered to death by Shen Yanxiao. His attack was clearly aimed at Shen Yanxiao, but who knew that this girl was so despicable as to use Qinxuan as a shield?

Now, this little girl actually had the cheek to say that he was teaching his students a lesson!

She was simply reversing right and wrong!

Chapter 1934: Dare to Touch My Students (4)

In terms of shamelessness, 10 Luoqius could not compare to Shen Yanxiao.

“Yan Di, you’re shameless!” Luoqiu was so angry that his face turned blue. As one of the top ten mentors, when had Luoqiu ever suffered such humiliation?

Not to mention that the other party was an unknown low-level undead!

Luoqiu was completely enraged. He raised his hand without any hesitation and shot several orbs of death energy at Shen Yanxiao.

However, Shen Yanxiao was like a nimble cat as she accurately dodged all the orbs.

Shen Yanxiao’s perfect display of dodging shocked the undead teenagers who were watching the show.

They were well aware of Luoqiu’s strength. No one among them could escape unscathed from such a dense swarm of attacks. However, Shen Yanxiao had avoided all the attacks and her movements were elegant.

“Yan Di... is she really a low-level undead?” Several undead teenagers standing at the door began to have doubts.

Not to mention a low-level undead, even high-level undeads like them did not have the ability to do this.

“It must be a lie... How can a low-level undead be so agile?”

With Shen Yanxiao’s actions, more and more students began to doubt her true level.

As for Shen Yanxiao's group of students, they had long been thoroughly convinced by Shen Yanxiao's gorgeous skills. They had repeatedly endured because they were worried that Shen Yanxiao would suffer at Luoqiu's hands. But now it seemed that their worries were unnecessary.

Shen Yanxiao dealt with Luoqiu's attack with ease, and soon, she grasped Luoqiu's method of attack.

To put it bluntly, the way undeads fought was very similar to that of human magi. They both condensed their strength to launch long-range spells.

Shen Yanxiao had fought against many magi. When she was in Sun Never Sets, she would often spar with Qi Xia, so she was already very experienced in dealing with long-range attacks.

As Shen Yanxiao dodged all the spells, she approached Luoqiu, bit by bit.

All the undeads' hearts were in their throats at this moment.

Luoqiu looked at Shen Yanxiao who was getting closer and closer to him in shock. He had clearly used an extremely dense number of spells, but how did Shen Yanxiao dodge all of them?

Soon, Shen Yanxiao arrived at Luoqiu's side.

Looking at Shen Yanxiao, Luoqiu's face turned pale in an instant.

How was this possible?

A cold smile suddenly curled on Shen Yanxiao's lips. All long-range professionals would lose horribly if they were approached!

Shen Yanxiao's ghostly figure suddenly flashed behind Luoqiu. Before he could react, she suddenly raised her hand and hacked at Luoqiu's fragile back!

But just a second before Luoqiu was hit, a black shadow rushed over at a very fast speed, and Luoqiu was pulled away by a force.

Shen Yanxiao's hand swung down, but it hit nothing.

She narrowed her eyes and turned her head to look at Kehr, who was not supposed to be here.

Kehr's expression was so gloomy that it was somewhat frightening. He had just bid farewell to Shen Yanxiao and was about to go back to do something else when he heard that Shen Yanxiao had come to find Luoqiu. He was afraid that there would be a conflict between Shen Yanxiao and Luoqiu, so he came in a hurry.

Along the way, he was worried that Shen Yanxiao would be injured by Luoqiu, whose strength was second only to him in the whole Deathfire Academy.

However, he did not expect to see Shen Yanxiao almost splitting Luoqiu into two the moment he arrived!

Chapter 1935: Dare to Touch My Students (5)

Kehr knew that Shen Yanxiao's physical skills were very strong, but he did not expect them to be this strong.

Kehr knew Luoqiu's strength like the back of his hand. Although he was not at the top, he could suppress many high-level undead. No matter how strong Shen Yanxiao's physical skills were, they were only useful in close combat. With Luoqiu's strength, he could completely repel Shen Yanxiao from a long distance and not give her a chance to get close.

But what happened in front of him completely overturned Kehr's understanding.

Luoqiu was actually approached by Shen Yanxiao!

Furthermore, Shen Yanxiao was so close to killing Luoqiu.

Kehr broke out in a cold sweat when he thought of the thrilling scene just now. Shen Yanxiao looked very kind on ordinary days, but he did not expect her to be so ruthless. If he had not pulled Luoqiu away in time, Shen Yanxiao's hand chop would have made Luoqiu stay in bed for at least three days.

It was almost unimaginable that an intermediate-level undead could cause such terrible injuries to a high-level undead with one blow.

"Yan Di, what are you doing?" Kehr suppressed the shock in his heart and stared at Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao did not expect Kehr to be here. Without Kehr, Luoqiu would have been lying on the ground.

"I'm here to get my students back," Shen Yanxiao said expressionlessly.

"Your students?" Kehr was a little confused.

Shen Yanxiao sneered and said, "Mentor Luoqiu's students suddenly ran to the martial arts arena during class. And not only did they disturb my students' training, but they also captured two of them. I'm here to ask for them."

Kehr frowned slightly. Previously, Luoqiu had expressed his rejection of Shen Yanxiao to the dean. So, he knew that Luoqiu did not like Shen Yanxiao, but he did not expect the situation to worsen so much.

"Luoqiu, what's going on?" Kehr looked at Luoqiu.

Luoqiu's expression was somewhat stiff. He still hadn't realized what had just happened.

He had no idea how Shen Yanxiao had snuck behind him.

"I don't know what she's talking about." Luoqiu spoke stiffly with a taut face, not meeting Kehr's eyes.

In fact, it was Luoqiu who asked Naken to find trouble with Zhanye and others. When he learned that the dean wanted to see Shen Yanxiao in person, he was very dissatisfied. What qualifications did a little low-level undead have to enter Deathfire Academy as a mentor? He had people keep an eye on Kehr, and after Kehr took Shen Yanxiao away from the martial arts arena, he motioned Naken to find trouble in the martial arts arena in order to make Shen Yanxiao look bad.

There was no need for a mentor who could not even protect her students to stay here.

However, Luoqiu did not expect that Shen Yanxiao would guess that he was the mastermind in the first place, and that she had the courage to come here.

Evidently, the actions of this low-level undead had exceeded Luoqiu's expectations.

There was no expected calmness, only murderous rage.

Just as Luoqiu tried to cover up his instructions for the students to cause trouble for Shen Yanxiao, Naken and dozens of other students rushed back from outside. Among them were two unconscious teenagers, Zhanye and Shile, who had been taken away.

As soon as Naken and others came back, they saw a group of students surrounding the door of their classroom. Naken, who did not know what was going on inside, walked in with a frown, only to see the group of teenagers they had just beaten standing in their classroom.

Chapter 1936: Dare to Touch My Students (6)

Naken was instantly amused. He did not notice the three mentors at the other end of the classroom. He only saw this group of losers.

"Yo, I was wondering who it was. What are you stray dogs doing here? Don't tell me you haven't been beaten enough? Is your skin itching again?" Naken spoke arrogantly, but before he could finish speaking, a low shout sounded.

"Naken! What are you doing!" Luoqiu suddenly roared.

Luoqiu's roar stunned Naken. He immediately looked up and saw two mentors standing beside Luoqiu. One of them was Kehr, and the other looked very much like the new mentor, Yan Di.

Naken's heart jumped, and he was immediately struck dumb.

"Mentor Luoqiu, if I'm not mistaken, the two people your students are carrying are my students." Shen Yanxiao crossed her arms over her chest and sneered.

Luoqiu's expression was extremely ugly.

Kehr felt helpless.

"Yan Di, leave this matter to me. Take your students back to recuperate first," Kehr looked at Shen Yanxiao and said.

Shen Yanxiao looked at Kehr, her eyes full of distrust.

"How will you deal with it?" She didn't think Kehr would punish Luoqiu at all.

Kehr did not speak. Shen Yanxiao's foundation in Deathfire Academy was still shallow, and Luoqiu was one of the most influential mentors here. Even if Luoqiu really did harm Shen Yanxiao's students, Kehr could not punish him.

Kehr's silence made Shen Yanxiao's eyes turn cold, while Luoqiu on one side raised a proud smile.

"Mentor Yan Di, it is their nature for students to compare notes once in a while. You can't make such a fuss." Knowing that Kehr was on his side, Luoqiu began to find a dignified excuse for this incident.

“Compare notes?” Shen Yanxiao sneered.

“Since Mentor Luoqiu and your students like to compare notes so much, why don’t we have a match?” Since Kehr could not give her students justice, she would do it herself.

“Compete in what?” Luoqiu looked at Shen Yanxiao cautiously. Shen Yanxiao’s attack just now had left him with lingering fear.

“How about a friendly match between our two classes in a month’s time?” Shen Yanxiao smiled and suggested.

Luoqiu breathed a sigh of relief. To tell the truth, Shen Yanxiao’s elusive physical skills really confused him. But if it were a competition between students, then...

“Alright, I agree.” Luoqiu’s eyes flickered with a vicious light. His students were all top students of Deathfire Academy, and their strength was the best. The batch of students in Shen Yanxiao’s hands were all eliminated by him at the beginning. The fighting strength of the students on both sides was not proportional at all.

“However, a simple spar seems boring. Why don’t we increase the stakes?” Luoqiu said with ill intentions.

“What stakes?” Shen Yanxiao asked neatly.

“If one side loses, it means that the other side is not qualified to teach. Then we can only ask the mentor to leave Deathfire Academy,” Luoqiu finally said his thoughts.

He never thought that his students would lose. Moreover, Shen Yanxiao actually gave him such a good opportunity to justifiably expel her from Deathfire Academy. What an idiot.

Luoqiu’s words stunned Kehr a little, and he quickly realized Luoqiu’s intentions.

Chapter 1937: Play Big If You Want To Play (1)

No one believed that Shen Yanxiao’s students could win the match. No matter how vicious Luoqiu’s ideas were, his strength was obvious to all. After Kehr gave up teaching, Luoqiu became the strongest mentor of Deathfire Academy. Each of his students was a top student carefully selected by the academy. Whether in overall quality or personal ability, they were much better than Shen Yanxiao’s students.

This was Shen Yanxiao’s first time teaching a physical skills class, and it was impossible for the dean to hand over the best students to her at the very beginning. This group of students was merely an experiment, and their quality was lacking. Compared to top students like Naken, the potential and talent of these students were extremely ordinary.

Luoqiu made this bet with Shen Yanxiao, obviously looking for an excuse to force Shen Yanxiao out of Deathfire Academy.

“Luoqiu, don’t go too far.” Kehr frowned and looked at Luoqiu. He never thought that Shen Yanxiao would win at all. Although he recognized Shen Yanxiao’s strength, physical skills could not be learned overnight. Even if Shen Yanxiao taught them all her skills, they were still green.

From the time they learned from Shen Yanxiao until the start of the match, it would only be two months. It was simply impossible for them to make a major breakthrough in physical skills in two months.

Luoqiu sneered and said, "Kehr, why are you so nervous? I think Yan Di is very confident in her students, isn't she? Besides, this match was requested by Yan Di herself, not me. I think Yan Di should be very confident in her students, so she opened her mouth and requested the match. But if Yan Di feels that her students are really not up to par, then forget it. I will just treat it as a joke."

Pairs of eyes stared at Shen Yanxiao. Some were waiting to watch a good show, while others harbored ill intentions.

Shen Yanxiao's students took the unconscious Zhanye and Shile from Naken's hands. Looking at their unconscious brothers, the anger in the hearts of these hot-blooded teenagers was burning.

They could not wait to fight Naken to the death, but the stakes for this match were too high. They did not dare to use Shen Yanxiao's matter as a stake.

However, even they themselves did not believe that they had the ability to defeat Naken.

Shen Yanxiao chuckled and said to Luoqiu in front of all the students, "Since Mentor Luoqiu wants to play big, I can't lose. I'll do as you say!"

The moment Shen Yanxiao said that, the entire classroom was in an uproar. Everyone thought she had gone crazy.

He actually dared to accept such a bet.

"Yan Di, don't be impulsive." Kehr was anxious. If Shen Yanxiao really agreed to Luoqiu's wager, then once the match was over, no one could change the result, not even the dean.

Shen Yanxiao smiled and said, "I'm not impulsive. I'm very calm right now. A month later, my students will wait for the arrival of Mentor Luoqiu and his students in the martial arts arena. At that time, the result will naturally be clear."

Kehr still wanted to persuade her, but Luoqiu beat him to it and said, "Yan Di is indeed straightforward. Then this matter is settled. My students and I will come as scheduled in a month."

"I'll wait for you." Shen Yanxiao glanced at Luoqiu and turned to her students.

Shen Yanxiao and Luoqiu had made a bet in front of so many students. Even if Kehr wanted to stop them, he was powerless.

Chapter 1938: Play Big If You Want To Play (2)

The bet between the two mentors had begun to spread in Deathfire Academy.

From the teachers to the students, everyone was excited about the match.

Everyone was saying that Yan Di was an idiot who did not know the immensity of heaven and earth. How dare she challenge Luoqiu?

The public opinion of the whole Deathfire Academy was leaning towards Luoqiu.

On the other side, Shen Yanxiao brought her students back to the martial arts arena. None of the forty plus students dared to speak as they stood in the martial arts arena with their heads lowered.

The atmosphere in the martial arts arena was so oppressive that it was almost suffocating.

“Take Zhanye and Shile to rest first. Give them these bottles of potions to drink.” Shen Yanxiao did not say much. Her attitude was no different from before. She just took a few bottles of potions and handed them to the students.

Seeing that it was about time, Shen Yanxiao casually said a few words and left the martial arts arena.

Shen Yanxiao returned to her room as if nothing had happened. Even Taotie could not understand his master’s thoughts. He ran out with jolting buttocks and sat on the bed with his two short legs crossed, blinking his eyes at Shen Yanxiao.

“Master, I don’t think your students have a stronger death energy level than those little bastards.” When Taotie was in Shen Yanxiao’s body, he could feel the death energy levels of the undeads around her. Of the dozens of students under Shen Yanxiao, none had a particularly strong death energy. The one with the strongest death energy should be Zhanye. But at Luoqiu’s place, Taotie noticed that any random student could have a death energy level comparable to Zhanye.

Especially that little bastard named Naken. His death energy was much purer than that of ordinary undead teenagers.

It would take three Zhanye combined to be comparable to Naken’s death energy level.

The disparity between the two classes was not optimistic.

“Death energy level does not represent everything. There are many people in the Brilliance Continent who are stronger than me in magic. Qi Xia is stronger than me in magic, and Tang Nazhi and Yang Xi’s battle aura is purer than mine. However, I can still abuse them.” Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders. She knew her students very well.

Taotie pursed his lips and looked at Shen Yanxiao with a tangled expression.

Shen Yanxiao could be said to not be the best in any field. Her magic was not the strongest, her battle aura was not the purest, and she was not among the top few elves. There were many dragons that were more ruthless than her, but even so, she was an incomparably strange existence.

Her combat methods and integration with various forces could allow her to defeat all opponents stronger than her.

However, not everyone was like Shen Yanxiao who could defeat the strong while being weak. Not everyone could combine all their skills perfectly like her.

There was only one Shen Yanxiao in the world that could not be copied.

“They are not masters.” Taotie struggled for a long time before he could squeeze out such a sentence. As a foodie, his thinking ability was not outstanding. If it were Vermillion Bird, he would probably roll his eyes at Shen Yanxiao.

Taotie was still too pure.

“But they are my students.” Shen Yanxiao revealed a confident smile. She had confidence in Zhanye and others.

“Master likes them very much?” Taotie tilted his head and looked at Shen Yanxiao. He found that Shen Yanxiao’s attitude towards those undead teenagers had changed slightly during this period of time. At first, she ignored them, but then she changed after seeing them standing up bravely because she had been insulted by their peers.

Chapter 1939: Play Big If You Want To Play (3)

Shen Yanxiao smiled and said nothing. She reached out and rubbed Taotie’s little head.

The next day, Shen Yanxiao arrived at the martial arts arena on time to prepare for a new day of training. However, the moment she walked in, she saw that all the students in the martial arts arena had already started their training. All of them were covered in sweat. Evidently, they had come over very early and repeatedly practiced what Shen Yanxiao had taught them in the previous month. Moreover, they were spontaneously allocated to fight in pairs and compare notes with each other.

“Mentor Yan Di!” The teenagers noticed Shen Yanxiao’s arrival and stopped their training one after another.

Young faces covered with sweat looked at Shen Yanxiao with a vibrant smile.

“Mentor Yan Di.” Zhanye and Shile came out of the crowd and walked to Shen Yanxiao.

They suddenly bowed to Shen Yanxiao.

“We are sorry to have caused you trouble.”

Yesterday, when the two of them woke up from their coma, they immediately heard about the bet between Shen Yanxiao and Luoqiu from other students. All of this completely shocked the two hot-blooded teenagers.

Zhanye’s heart was full of guilt. If it were not for the contradiction between him and Naken, he and Shile would not have been taken away by Naken alone. Then, Shen Yanxiao would not have run to Luoqiu for their disappearance, and nothing would have happened after that.

Shen Yanxiao made such a harsh bet with Luoqiu all because of them.

At this moment, Zhanye regretted how impulsive he had been. He had made a mistake that his mentor had to cover.

“Mentor Yan Di, I apologize for my disrespect to you in the past.” Shile’s voice was a little choked up. He was much more cheerful than Zhanye. From the beginning, he did not take Shen Yanxiao seriously. But during this period of time, he had regarded Shen Yanxiao as his real mentor. Shen Yanxiao did not hesitate to confront Luoqiu for the sake of these two students who had been rude to her. This kindness, in any case, they could not repay it.

Shen Yanxiao looked at Zhanye and Shile with a smile on her lips.

“Do you think you will lose?”

All the students were silent. They did not want to lose, but the difference in strength was too great. They were powerless.

“I don’t think so,” Shen Yanxiao smiled and said.

A trace of surprise, gratitude, and helplessness appeared on their faces.

They were grateful for Shen Yanxiao’s trust and praise, but they were helpless because they were useless.

If they could be stronger, perhaps Shen Yanxiao would not have to face such a predicament.

Perhaps it was self-blame, or perhaps it was unwillingness, but early in the morning, all the students in the class tacitly chose to come to the martial arts arena for training. From the moment the sky had just brightened until now, they did not rest for a moment. They did not even squeeze out time to eat.

They mustered all their strength and tried their best. They only hoped that in a month’s time, they could be stronger.

Because what they wanted to represent was not only themselves, but also Shen Yanxiao.

Their victory or defeat was directly related to whether their mentor could continue to stay in this academy in the future.

For the sake of their dignity, Shen Yanxiao used her job as a chip on the table.

“I just want to ask you, do you want to win or lose the match in a month?” Shen Yanxiao restrained the smile on her face and looked at her students seriously.

Chapter 1940: Play Big If You Want To Play (4)

“We want to win!”

Without any hesitation, all the students released a deafening roar at the same time.

Shen Yanxiao smiled. This time, her smile came from the bottom of her heart.

“Give me a month’s time, and I will lead you to victory.”

“Mentor Yan Di, please!” They let out another roar in unison. All the students bowed to Shen Yanxiao at this moment.

A scholar would die for his bosom friend.

They were not the best students in Deathfire Academy. In the eyes of many mentors, they were hopeless waste. No mentor was willing to sincerely spend their time and energy on them. Even they themselves had no confidence in themselves. However, Shen Yanxiao still gave them such an opportunity, so they could only take a gamble.

“In the next month, you will live a miserable life. I hope you can persevere.” Shen Yanxiao looked at these students with a smile. She was well aware of the stakes in the match between her and Luoqiu. She was not blindly impulsive.

She knew that the quality and foundation of these students could not be compared to Luoqiu’s students.

But so what?

“Mentor Yan Di, you can train us freely. We have decided to endure it!” The teenagers opened their mouths excitedly. Shen Yanxiao had brought them too many surprises. Seeing Shen Yanxiao’s determination, a thought began to emerge in their hearts.

If she were to teach them, perhaps it was not impossible for them to win.

More than 40 students, from this moment on, all entered the ultimate training state. Shen Yanxiao submitted an application to Kehr. In the following month, this group of teenagers would give up all other courses and stay in the martial arts arena all day long, trained by Shen Yanxiao herself.

The entire martial arts arena was completely sealed off. Shen Yanxiao changed the original three-hour long class to twelve hours.

Right now, she had changed her previous lazy mentality after entering Deathfire Academy.

Shen Yanxiao and her students were completely immersed in their training.

The whole Deathfire Academy was also boiling over the bet between Shen Yanxiao and Luoqiu.

Other than Shen Yanxiao, no one was optimistic about her students.

Kehr found the dean at once, hoping that the dean had a way to stop the competition.

“Dean, Yan Di was impulsive this time. We can’t just watch her and Luoqiu fight like this.” Kehr was anxious. Luoqiu was very powerful, and the students who graduated from him had always been the best in Deathfire Academy.

Not to mention that it was Shen Yanxiao’s first time teaching, the overall quality of the students in their hands was very different. Coupled with the fact that they would only have a month to prepare, it was impossible to turn the tables.

There was no expression on the dean’s face as he narrowed his eyes.

“Why don’t we let her try?” The dean said.

Kehr was slightly stunned.

“Even if we can help, we can only help once. Besides, I’ve already heard about this matter. It was Yan Di herself who asked for it. So many students and mentors have heard it with their own ears. If we intervene now, Yan Di’s reputation will be greatly damaged. Yan Di is very special. If she wants to establish herself in Deathfire Academy, she must have some achievements, and this may be an opportunity for her. Besides, I don't think Yan Di is a reckless person. She must have her own reasons for saying this. We might as well wait and see and give her this opportunity," The dean explained.
