

The Good 2121

Chapter 2121: Stowaways (5)

“Fourth Brother, don’t worry so much. We have Lord Xiu, the Dragon God, and Yaksha. My master is also very powerful, and so are her companions. We are not without the ability to fight against the Devil race.” Taotie looked at his brother’s sad expression and could not help but comfort him.

Bian looked at Taotie and said nothing more.

Knowing that Shen Yanxiao and the others were about to go to the Storm Continent, Bian promised to stay and see if he could find his brothers there.

With Bian’s participation, Shen Yanxiao’s team grew stronger and stronger.

After Little Phoenix and Mini Dragon showed off their might, they retreated with jolting buttocks. They had discovered a new companion— Bian.

The serious-looking Bian soon attracted the attention of the two cute little ones. They jumped up and down and scuttled around Bian.

Shen Yanxiao was worried that Bian would slap these two reckless kids to death several times, but other than frowning occasionally, Bian did not show any other reaction. Instead, he let Little Phoenix and Mini Dragon jump around on him.

During the journey, Shen Yanxiao and Bian also chatted several times. The content was nothing more than the current situation of humans and their alliance with other races. Bian was most concerned about whether their alliance was strong enough this time.

Bian was kind to everyone, but to Taotie...

“You’ve been living for so many years, yet you still regressed. Why do you still look like a child?” Bian had a lot of opinions about Taotie’s human form.

Taotie shrunk his neck and knelt on the ground. He lowered his head and obediently listened to his brother’s reprimand.

In fact, he could have returned to his human form a long time ago, but Shen Yanxiao liked his little boy form, so Taotie and Vermillion Bird had maintained this form. However, he did not dare to explain it to Bian. Otherwise, with his brother’s stubbornness, he would probably kick him into the sea again!

“Before we arrive at the Storm Continent, I have to supervise your training. The war is about to begin. You can’t always be so lazy.” Bian frowned. He could not understand Taotie’s character.

It was almost without desire. Other than eating, there was nothing else.

When Taotie was young, he often lost his way because of his appetite. At that time, Bian and his other brothers often searched around everywhere to find Taotie.

This kind of personality trait was very not a problem in peaceful times, but not now.

The bitter Taotie wanted to resist, but he nodded stiffly under Bian's glare.

From then on, Taotie embarked on a tragic path.

The Dragon God was very large, enough for Bian and Taotie to ride on it in their human forms.

Except for when Bian was resting or eating, he just supervised Taotie's training.

This was the first time Shen Yanxiao had seen the training method of a magical beast. She was somewhat helpless when Taotie looked at her for help.

Not only was Taotie forced to train every day, but even his meal times were decided by Bian. The length of his meal had also been sharply reduced from dozens of hours to three hours, which made Taotie, who enjoyed eating, wish he were dead.

But even if Taotie wanted to die, under Bian's whip, he had to honestly train and eat according to Bian's plan, otherwise...

Bian would mercilessly kick him into the sea and let him drink enough seawater!

"Wuhuhu, if I had known this would happen, I wouldn't have brought my fourth brother here." Taotie cried countless times. Did his brain get flooded with water? Why did he bring him such big trouble?

Chapter 2122: Stowaways (6)

For the first time, Taotie understood the phrase 'finding trouble for yourself'.

After eating less and moving more, Taotie felt that he had lost weight.

He was probably the one who looked forward to arriving at the Storm Continent the most!

Shen Yanxiao sympathized with Taotie's plight, but she could not help him.

The elder brother was in charge of his younger brother, and she was in no position to interfere.

Besides...

She did not have the time to care!

Perhaps inspired by Bian's training of Taotie, Xiu also gave Shen Yanxiao targeted guidance.

Shen Yanxiao had awakened four bloodlines in her body.

Her human bloodline, her elf bloodline, her dragon bloodline, and her undead bloodline.

Shen Yanxiao had strong control over her first two bloodlines. After all, they were her starting bloodline, so she was very skilled in the skills of humans and elves.

However, her dragon and undead bloodline who awakened later were not so lucky.

When she first arrived at the Dragon race, Shen Yanxiao encountered a rebellion. She had to hide with the little golden dragon all the way and think of ways to deal with the undeads in the Hidden Dragon

Continent. She did not have much time to familiarize herself with the characteristics and methods of dragons.

After her dragon bloodline completely awakened, her undead bloodline unexpectedly awakened and she was directly transported to the Howling Abyss.

Originally, the Howling Abyss was the best place to train in death energy, but Shen Yanxiao chose not to take the ordinary path and instead trained in physical skills.

Although she had made great progress in physical skills, she had not mastered much of the unique death energy of undeads.

It could be said that other than being able to transform into a dragon or an undead, Shen Yanxiao had not grasped the characteristics of these two races at all.

This also caused her to be more inclined to using battle aura and magic. She had no concept of death energy or dragon might, wasting the advantages of her bloodlines.

Thus, Xiu guided Shen Yanxiao on how to use her dragon and undead bloodlines.

Shen Yanxiao had to change her racial form frequently to complete the tasks assigned by Xiu.

When she turned into a dragon, Xiu would task her to fly freely in her dragon form while he would ambush Shen Yanxiao in the air. Shen Yanxiao had to master the flying skills of dragons and the use of dragon might. Otherwise, she would follow in Taotie's footsteps and take a bath in the ocean.

In fact, this was not the worst part...

The worst part was when she had to use her undead bloodline...

Shen Yanxiao could not bear to recall the training she had gone through when she became an undead.

One word were enough to sum it up!

Tragic!

Shen Yanxiao clearly realized that regardless of any substantial changes in her relationship with Xiu, when he trained her...

Her fiancé was really not soft-hearted at all!

When Taotie looked forward to reaching the Storm Continent as soon as possible and escaping from the bitter sea, Shen Yanxiao could not help but have the same thought.

She felt that if she continued to be trained by Xiu like this, she would probably have a mental breakdown!

Finally, one morning, a continent appeared in front of everyone in the blue sea.

"Storm Continent! Boohoo! We've finally arrived at Storm Continent!" Taotie wept with joy. He hugged Shen Yanxiao and wept. He could finally get rid of Bian's torture!

Storm Continent, a continent filled with cute dwarves, would soon unveil its mystery in front of Shen Yanxiao.

Chapter 2123: Mechanical Puppets (1)

Huge fortresses stretched along the edge of the Storm Continent to places beyond sight.

Shen Yanxiao finally understood why undead ships could not approach this area.

Each fortress was equipped with three cannons. The cannons of Sun Never Sets were pitifully small compared to these cannons. With such firepower, not to mention a warship, even a strong and agile eight-winged golden dragon would probably be blown down.

Dwarves had a small physique, but they were the worst race to provoke.

When the Devil race invaded, the Brilliance Continent, the Moon God Continent, and the Hidden Dragon Continent were all attacked. However, only the Storm Continent had become a pure land. At the end of the war, the other regions were torn from the flames of war. The Devil race integrated their forces and launched a strong assault on the Storm Continent, only then did they broke into the continent. Even so, the Devil Race had paid a heavy price.

The devils had lost millions of troops just to land.

It could be imagined how terrible the military defense of the dwarves was.

Shen Yanxiao held her breath. Imagining that she was about to see a group of cute dwarves appearing on those fortresses, her little heart could not help but be a little excited.

Shen Yanxiao's love for cute things was really very firm.

However, when the Dragon God flew over the coast of Storm Continent, not a single dwarf appeared on any of the fortresses.

"Where have the dwarves gone?" Shen Yanxiao looked around and did not see any cute dwarves.

The Dragon God flew around for a while, trying to find the whereabouts of the dwarves, but he found nothing.

Just as they were about to land, a series of explosions attracted their attention.

In a mountain forest, several huge mechanical puppets were seen attacking fiercely. These mechanical puppets were huge, but their movements were very agile. Even in the mountains where the terrain was rough, they were still walking as if they were on flat ground.

Magic bombs were thrown out from the hands of those mechanical puppets one after another, exploding into flowers of flames in the mountain forest, filling the whole mountain forest with dust.

"What is that?" Shen Yanxiao was shocked to see a mechanical puppet for the first time.

"Mechanical puppets built by dwarves. Dwarves are small in size. Thus, in addition to alchemy and swordsmanship, they have used alchemy to develop these mechanical puppets for combat, which can make up for their individual weaknesses.” Xiu was no stranger to mechanical puppets. As early as the last war between gods and devils, a large number of mechanical puppets among the dwarves had been thrown into the battlefield.

These mechanical puppets were agile, resistant to attacks, and huge. They were very effective when dealing with the devil soldiers. When the dwarves participated in the war, the vanguard was a mechanical army made up of mechanical puppets. One hundred thousand mechanical puppets caused heavy damage to the devil army and added a glorious story to the history of dwarves.

“Mechanical puppets...” Shen Yanxiao stared at those mechanical puppets that were more developed than anything she had seen in the 21st century, and her worldview completely collapsed.

Those mechanical puppets, in terms of speed and performance, were much better than the robots developed by scientists in her previous life. If she could get a mechanical puppet back to modern times, it could absolutely beat all the scientific and technological talents!

Chapter 2124: Mechanical Puppets (2)

“What are they doing?” Looking at the mechanical puppets bombarding a certain direction, Shen Yanxiao could not help but wonder if the dwarves’ fiery temper had developed into a crazy place.

They liked to throw bombs for no reason?

Suddenly, a black figure jumped out from the dust, so fast that it was hard to catch.

The black shadow rushed towards a mechanical puppet at an extremely fast speed. With a flash of silver light, the incomparably hard mechanical puppet was cut in half in the blink of an eye. Its heavy upper body fell heavily to the ground, and a petite and exquisite body crawled out from the wreckage of the mechanical puppet with great difficulty.

Although there was a lot of smoke around, none of the people on the Dragon God’s back had bad eyesight. They could clearly see that a little guy, who was only three heads tall, was climbing out of the wreckage with a tender and soft face. The little guy was also wearing the special equipment needed to connect to the mechanical puppet.

The black shadow that attacked the mechanical puppets had jumped continuously in just a few seconds. Every time, its target was a nearby mechanical puppet. In the blink of an eye, five mechanical puppets had been cut in half. Among those damaged mechanical puppets, petite and young-looking little guys crawled out one after another.

Nearly ten mechanical puppets were completely destroyed in less than a minute.

High up in the sky, Shen Yanxiao looked at this scene in surprise. Such fierce and fatal moves made her subconsciously think of Lan Fengli.

Lan Fengli was also so fast in fights, and his attacks were always fatal!

This familiar feeling made Shen Yanxiao feel very puzzled.

All the mechanical puppets were destroyed, and the black shadow that represented destruction for the dwarves finally stopped.

It was a young man in black. His long black hair was tied up casually, swaying in the wind.

Several petite dwarves soon gathered together. The mechanical puppets had been destroyed, and their only support was the long swords in their hands. However, the dwarves, who had always been confident in their abilities, revealed a trace of uneasiness at this moment. They looked at the human teenager in front of them in fear. It was as if their eyes were not looking at a human, but more like they were looking at a monster!

The young man on the ground had a handsome and cold face. He was clearly not old, but his whole body exuded a suffocating killing intent. His black clothes made his slightly thin body look even more upright. He looked coldly at the dwarves who were trying to struggle, and the gloves made of chains made a shrill sound of metal friction as he clenched them.

When Shen Yanxiao saw the young man's appearance, she was completely stunned.

"It's him!"

"Master, do you know him?" Taotie clung to the edge of the Dragon God's wings and looked at Shen Yanxiao with his head tilted.

Shen Yanxiao bit her lips and said, "Taotie, Bian, follow me down!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Shen Yanxiao jumped down from the back of the Dragon God.

"Vermilion Bird!"

At Shen Yanxiao's command, Vermilion Bird suddenly dashed out from her body and extended his flame wings in mid-air to catch Shen Yanxiao.

Chapter 2125: Mechanical Puppets (3)

The young man in black, who was about to attack the dwarves, suddenly felt several powerful auras approaching quickly, and he suddenly dodged sideways.

The next second, a huge fireball smashed where he stood.

The young man in black raised his head. In the sky, three people with powerful auras stood on a huge firebird.

"Mo Yuxun." Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes and looked at the young man in front of her.

He was none other than the mixed-race teenager she met when she snuck into the Broken Star Palace. He was known as Young Master Xun by everyone in the Broken Star Palace, but in fact, he was one of the experimental subjects Ouyang Huanyu cared about the most.

After recruiting the Broken Star Palace, Shen Yanxiao had also inquired about Ouyang Huanyu and Young Master Xun.

From the mouths of the people from the Broken Star Palace, Shen Yanxiao had learned that this Young Master Xun was called Mo Yuxun. Like Lan Fengli, he had the blood of the seven major races mixed in his body. Moreover, his integration was personally carried out by Ouyang Huanyu. Evidently, Ouyang Huanyu attached more importance to him than Lan Fengli.

Shen Yanxiao did not expect to see Mo Yuxun in the Storm Continent, and looking at his actions just now, it was clear that he wanted to harm these dwarves!

Mo Yuxun slightly tilted his head and looked at Shen Yanxiao standing on Vermilion Bird's back with a cold face. His dark eyes could not capture the slightest emotion.

The next second, Mo Yuxun left without warning, so fast that Shen Yanxiao and the others could not catch up at all.

Mo Yuxun's sudden departure finally made those frightened dwarves breathe a sigh of relief.

"Who are you?" A little fellow with curly hair came out from the group of dwarves. Under his brown hair, his big deer-like eyes were cautiously staring at Shen Yanxiao and others.

Shen Yanxiao was just about to speak when she suddenly felt that Xiu had returned to her heart lake. The Dragon God then transformed into his human form and slowly landed on the ground with Little Phoenix and Mini Dragon.

"Dragon?" The dwarves immediately noticed the uniqueness of the Dragon God.

"I say, what's going on with you little guys? Why are you attacking that mixed-race?" The tall body of the Dragon God standing in front of the dwarves was like a huge wall of flesh. The dwarf, who was already very petite, immediately became even smaller when standing side-by-side with the Dragon God.

"You! Who are you calling a little fellow! Idiot of the Dragon race! Do you want to have a duel?!" The dwarves, who were still nervous a moment ago, completely blew their tops because of the Dragon God's remark. They clenched the heavy swords in their hands without a care and glared at the Dragon God with anger on their faces. At any moment, they were ready to pounce on the Dragon God and fight him to the death!

"..." Shen Yanxiao blinked her eyes and looked at this group of adorable little guys who would explode easily. In terms of size, they were about the same size as the child forms of Vermillion Bird and Taotie, but the heavy swords in their hands were as big as the heavy swords held by human swordsmen. It could be said that each heavy sword was twice the size of these dwarves!

Imagine, a group of kindergarten children dragging a huge sword twice their size and exploding their anger in front of a tall and muscular man!

Shen Yanxiao really didn't expect that the dwarves would be so explosive. Before the Dragon God said anything, these little guys were ready to fight him!

The Dragon God was also apparently frightened by the fierce reaction of these little guys. He stared at the little ones who were pointing their heavy swords at him with a look of disbelief.

Chapter 2126: Blameless! (1)

A group of kindergarten children roared at a strong man with a lethal weapon...

The straightforward Dragon God did not know how to react for a moment.

Before the Dragon God became a god, he had never had any dealings with the dwarves. After he became a god, he crouched in the God Realm all day long and had little contact with dwarves. His only chance of contact was during the war between gods and devils, when the gods led the alliance army and the dwarves also joined the battle, but...

The Dragon God had died too early!!!

He had completely missed the opportunity to interact with such a group of adorable creatures.

The Dragon God's brain crashed.

But the dwarves, who felt that they had been greatly insulted, were not ready to stop there.

"Although we are very grateful that you have saved us, we will still fight you to defend our dignity for insulting the lofty image of us dwarves!" The group of dwarves looked at the Dragon God with firm expressions.

Shen Yanxiao, who was watching from the sidelines, was speechless. 'Lofty image'! Which damn dwarf came up with this adjective?

"Dragon God, you have to apologize." Bian, who had always been just, stood on the dwarves' side at this moment.

"..." The Dragon God turned to look at Bian and the corner of his mouth twitched. "Just because I won't attack these little guys doesn't mean I won't attack you!"

To face a group of little guys who had yet to reach his thighs, as a superior god, he could not bring himself to do so. As for Bian, he could beat him up as he pleased!

As a result, when the Dragon God once again blurted out the word "little guy" again, it immediately ignited the dwarves' explosive temper!

"Duel!"

"I want to fight you!"

The group of cute little things talked at once, all wanting to fight the Dragon God to the end. The Dragon God wanted to cry but had no tears.

He was merely telling the truth, so why was there a need for a duel?

He really did not want to fight with these little guys. It would always make him feel that he was bullying the young...

Although the integrity of the Dragon God had been shattered into pieces in Shen Yanxiao's mind, he still believed that he had a bottom line as a dragon!

But the stubbornness of the dwarves was far beyond the imagination of the Dragon God. The silence of the Dragon God aroused the courage of this group of dwarves, and one of them had already roared and rushed to the Dragon God.

Why did Shen Yanxiao feel that the roar was like a kitten acting cute?

It had to be said that the dwarves really radiated an adorable halo from top to bottom.

The petite dwarf leaped up and dragged the heavy sword in his hand towards the Dragon God.

The Dragon God looked at the little cutie who pounced on him with a sad face. He did not know whether to move or not. He simply stood there motionless, letting the dwarf's heavy sword strike his shoulder.

A crisp sound echoed!

The Dragon God's clothes were not even torn, but the incomparably sharp heavy sword in the dwarf's hand was directly broken into two halves...

The dwarf who attacked the Dragon God looked at the broken heavy sword in his hand in surprise. He had a tearful expression on his face, and his big eyes were covered with a layer of water vapor due to shame and indignation. His tangled little face looked particularly heartbreaking.

The Dragon God looked helplessly at the little cutie who was about to cry, fearing that he would cry the next second.

"Alas, don't cry. Why don't you change to another sword? I'll let you chop me twice more to appease your anger." The Dragon God tried his best to persuade the little fellow.

Chapter 2127: Blameless! (2)

The dwarf pouted, and bean-sized tears swayed in his eyes.

Vermilion Bird, Taotie, Bian and Shen Yanxiao looked at the Dragon God with contempt. Their eyes were expressing the same meaning.

Dragon God, you are so despicable! How can you bully such a lovely creature?

The Dragon God expressed that he was wronged. He didn't even return the blow and just stood there for the dwarf to swing at him. Whose fault was it if their swords were broken. What did it have to do with him? Did he have to peel his hard scales off himself so that they could easily poke into his flesh?

The scales of a diamond dragon had reached a point that would make one mad!

"Don't cry! Don't cry! I'll let you chop it. You can chop it as you wish. Please don't cry!" The Dragon God was about to cry. He didn't do anything, so how come it was like he was bullying the weak? He was wronged!

The dwarf sniffled and finally stopped his tears from falling. He raised his head and looked at the Dragon God with red eyes.

"It's me who is not as skilled as others! I can't defend the dignity of my dwarves! I have let my people down!" With that said, the little fellow raised the broken sword in his hand and waved it at his neck.

This action completely frightened Shen Yanxiao and her group.

Shen Yanxiao rushed over at the first instance and grabbed the sharp blade of the broken sword.

Shen Yanxiao did not have the diamond-hard scales of the Dragon God. The sharp blade soon cut her palm, and the end of the broken sword happened to rub against the delicate skin on the dwarf's neck. A beautiful drop of blood oozed from the dwarf's skin and rolled down the blade to Shen Yanxiao's wound.

The moment the blood came into contact with her wound, Shen Yanxiao felt that her body was wrapped in a ball of blazing flame, and a dazzling light flashed in front of her eyes. When the light faded, Shen Yanxiao found that her field of vision had changed. The scenery around her seemed to have become much taller in an instant. She looked at the dwarf opposite her, but instead of looking down, her line of sight became... level.

"Master... Master..." Taotie's stammering voice sounded behind Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao turned to Taotie and found that she could not see the top of his head.

"You are also a dwarf!" The dwarf rescued by Shen Yanxiao suddenly said something unbelievable.

"What?" Shen Yanxiao was dumbfounded. She suddenly lowered her head and looked at her other hand. Her now small white and tender little hand in her eyes instantly blew away all the thinking ability in Shen Yanxiao's mind!

Who could tell her what was going on?!

"Idiot! Your hand!" Vermilion Bird recovered from his shock and immediately rushed towards the stunned Shen Yanxiao. Like a red whirlwind, he picked her up and carefully examined the wound on her hand.

"..." Shen Yanxiao was thoroughly speechless.

She! Could! Be! Hugged! By! Vermilion Bird!

"You are of the same race as us? But why can you transform? Is this some new form of alchemy?" The dwarves, who were just thinking of fighting to the death, suddenly came over and surrounded Shen Yanxiao.

Pairs of eyes filled with curiosity and doubt stared at Shen Yanxiao. Shen Yanxiao saw her reflection in these big eyes.

It was a petite little fellow that was the size of a toddler. Moreover, she was wearing clothes that did not match her appearance...

Chapter 2128: Blameless! (3)

Oh god, strike her with lightning!

Shen Yanxiao never dreamed that the dwarf bloodline in her body would awaken in such a dramatic way!

She was really innocent!

“Let me calm down.” Shen Yanxiao’s mind was filled with thoughts, “I’ve become a dwarf, I’ve become my favorite little cutie. Will I get a nosebleed everytime I look in the mirror in the future?”

“She’s injured! Get the hemostatic bandage!” Realizing that the other party was a member of the same race, the attitude of the dwarves immediately changed 180 degrees.

Several dwarves immediately took out all kinds of hemostatic potions from their mini first-aid kits.

“We don’t need your help!” Vermilion Bird was not grateful. He did not have a good impression of these dwarves. If it were not for these stubborn fools, his master would not have been injured.

The dwarves were stunned by Vermilion Bird’s roar. The dwarf who wanted to kill himself seemed to have realized that it was his fault that his kind was injured. He blamed himself and lowered his head. The tears that he had been enduring could not help but fall.

“I’m sorry...” The grumpy dwarf wept because he had hurt his own kind.

The other dwarves also lowered their heads in disappointment, looking pitiful.

“Vermilion Bird...” Taotie stood behind Vermilion Bird and pulled on his clothes.

Vermilion Bird frowned and said angrily, “Can these things really stop the bleeding?”

Hearing Vermilion Bird’s question, the dwarves immediately raised their heads and nodded vigorously.

“Yes, yes, this is our best hemostatic medicine and hemostatic bandage. It won’t leave scars after use,” the dwarf eagerly explained.

“Taotie,” Vermilion Bird said.

“Ah?”

“Give it to Master.”

“Oh, okay.” Taotie eagerly brought over the medicine and bandages contributed by the dwarves. The innocent Taotie even showed them a friendly smile.

After a while, the wound on Shen Yanxiao’s hand was bandaged.

On the other hand, as the injured person, Shen Yanxiao did not feel any pain from beginning to end.

Because at this moment, she had not yet recovered from the shock of suddenly becoming a dwarf.

Shen Yanxiao did not react, so Vermilion Bird hugged Shen Yanxiao tightly and did not let go. It seemed like he wanted to seize the opportunity when his master had become so adorable.

“Well, this... You don’t have to blame yourself. It was an accident.” The Dragon God, who was completely ignored by the dwarves, felt that he needed to come out and make his presence known. He tried to show the gentlest smile on his resolute face, but the effect...

“It’s all your fault! You insulted the dwarves and hurt our companions!” The cute dwarves uniformly looked at the Dragon God with hostile eyes. They hated this guy who had insulted them repeatedly.

The Dragon God was about to cry.

What did Shen Yanxiao’s injury have to do with him?

It was clearly you guys who were too weak-minded. You wanted to kill yourselves because you could not cut me down, so Shen Yanxiao had to save you. How did it become his fault?

“I...” The Dragon God still wanted to explain himself, but the dwarves had turned their heads proudly and pointed their little butts at him...

Compared with their dislike for the Dragon God, the dwarves treated their own kind like a spring breeze.

“She has lost so much blood and needs a good rest. Our tribe is not far from here. Should we take her to rest?” The dwarves looked at Shen Yanxiao with concern.

Chapter 2129: Could You Be More Silly? (1)

At the invitation of the dwarves, Shen Yanxiao and her group followed them to their tribe.

Shen Yanxiao was in a trance along the way. She expressed her inability to adapt to her pair of small hands.

No matter how petite her body was back then, she was still a young lady. But now...

She looked like a baby!

When they came to the dwarves’ tribe, the architecture of the place could be said to be “bright and colorful”.

Adorable little houses surrounded each other to form a residence, so small that a big man like the Dragon God was simply not allowed to enter...

In the residential area, a group of soft and petite dwarves were hopping towards a certain place.

In an open space outside the residential area, a large wave of dwarves were eagerly watching something.

“What’s going on?” Shen Yanxiao finally came back to her senses.

The leader of the dwarves said, “It’s a duel!”

“Duel again?” The Dragon God, who had been traumatized by the word ‘duel’, was about to go crazy. Why did a group of little guys, whose fighting strength was negligible, like duels so much? Wasn’t acting cute more suitable for them?

“Hurry, hurry, hurry! If we don’t go now, we won’t be able to watch.” The unusually excited dwarves dragged Shen Yanxiao toward the dueling area.

Vermilion Bird and the rest could only follow.

In the middle of the dwarves, two adult dwarves in armor were sitting in semi-open mechanical puppets, confronting each other.

The life cycle of dwarves could be divided into childhood, adolescence, adulthood, and old age. After adulthood, male dwarves would become very strong. Adult dwarves might not be big and cute, but once they took off their clothes, they would definitely be muscular. As they grew older, male dwarves would also grow beards and wrinkles.

However, no matter how old they were, they were still so adorable...

“Why do they want to duel?” Shen Yanxiao looked at the two dwarves sitting on the semi-open mechanical puppet. This kind of semi-open mechanical puppet was more like a mechanical vehicle. All the mechanical parts only reached the chest, and the chest was the cockpit, which was directly controlled by the dwarves. Unlike the fully enclosed mechanical puppets Shen Yanxiao had seen before, this kind of mechanical puppet was only used for small-scale battles, because it had only offensive features and no defensive features.

“For honor!” The dwarf looked excited.

Obviously, dwarves had a fiery temper and liked to fight. They didn’t think it was a big deal at all.

Shen Yanxiao could not figure it out. The dwarves had shown great concern about her injury just now, but if one were to start a duel at will, wouldn’t it cause unnecessary bloodshed?

“You don’t understand?” The dwarf tilted his head and looked at the puzzled Shen Yanxiao.

“A little.”

“Ah, don’t tell me there’s no duels in your tribe?” The dwarf’s face was full of sympathy, as if they were looking at a country bumpkin.

“No...”

“That’s a pity.”

“...” Isn’t it good to be harmonious and loving? Must there be fighting and killing? Shen Yanxiao was thoroughly shocked by the divine logic of this group of dwarves.

“Then how do you choose the chieftain of your tribe?” The dwarf then asked.

Shen Yanxiao was stunned. It turned out that their duel was for honor and to compete for the position of chieftain?

Chapter 2130: Could You Be More Silly? (2)

The two aggressive dwarves, sitting on huge mechanical puppets, confronted each other. The atmosphere was very tense.

Shen Yanxiao was very interested to see how dwarves dueled each other. The previous duel with the Dragon God before did not count...

“Ah!!”

“Ah!!”

Suddenly, the two dwarves urged their mechanical puppets to rush towards each other at a very fast speed. Shen Yanxiao held her breath and stared intently at the upcoming battle.

The two dwarves waved their right hands on top of their mechanical puppets!

Two adorable creatures with “fierce” expressions and small mustaches stretched out their small hands and wrapped them into fists...

“Rock, paper, scissors!”

“Rock, paper, scissors!”

“...” Shen Yanxiao heard the sound of her heart breaking.

“Rock, paper, scissors!”

“Rock, paper, scissors!”

“Rock, paper, scissors...”

Shen Yanxiao facepalmed silently. She had only been in the Storm Continent for more than an hour, but her worldview had completely collapsed!

Who could tell her why the so-called duel between the dwarves was... rock-paper-scissors!

Could you be any more childish?

Shen Yanxiao’s heart that was full of expectations turned into a pool of stagnant water, but the enthusiasm of the dwarves around her was high. One by one, they bounced and waved their hands and issued fierce shouts.

“Kill him!”

“Kill him!”

Shen Yanxiao’s heart ached. She wanted to know how they could kill the other party with rock-paper-scissors...

What made Shen Yanxiao want to vomit blood was that these two little fools had just been playing... rock during the rock-paper-scissors game!!!

After more than ten consecutive draws, these two guys seemed to have brain cramps. There was no change at all!

They could have won if one of them just showed paper, but they were very persistent... Fists! Fists!

“Pfft!” Looking at this scene, Vermilion Bird could not help but laugh. When he heard his laugh, he hastily covered his mouth with the corner of his lips twitching.

Taotie widened his eyes and opened his mouth as he watched the two dwarves play rock-paper-scissors.

“It seems... fun.” Taotie choked out such a sentence after a long time.

Vermilion Bird immediately looked at him as if he was looking at a monster. However, Little Phoenix and Mini Dragon on Vermilion Bird’s shoulders had the same thoughts as Taotie. They had already started their rock-paper-scissors game on Vermilion Bird’s shoulders.

“Chu!”

“Guji!”

“Chu!”

“Guji!”

Shen Yanxiao silently looked at the two adorably stupid children who could only use their wings to play paper. Tears quietly flowed down her face.

“This is your duel?” Shen Yanxiao spent a lot of effort to find her voice that had been shattered by lightning.

The excited red-faced dwarf blinked his big watery eyes at Shen Yanxiao and nodded very firmly.

“Is it exciting? Aren’t you excited? Ahhh!”

Shen Yanxiao was speechless. She did not feel excited at all!
