

The Good 611

Chapter 611: A Carnival for Demons (3)

Shen Yanxiao marveled at how acute a demon's perception could be. At the same time, she was curious as to what Lan Fengli was in the demons' eyes.

It was evident that even the high-level demons with powerful senses could not see through Lan Fengli for what he truly was.

"Demon?" Du Lang looked at the five people behind Shen Yanxiao in shock. The Vermilion Bird and the two Phoenixes were magical beasts, for sure. Was there a demon amongst them? Lan Fengli and Freud... was a demon?

Freud shrugged, as he wiped his hand over his eyes. The same violet eyes appeared.

The Cave Wolf Mercenary Group's members felt as if they had been struck by lightning.

The villagers did not give much of a reaction because they were no more informed of demons than Lan Fengli.

"Don't be so nervous. I will not eat you." Along the way, the mercenaries had been hanging out with him for fun. Those mercenaries' faces had turned deathly pale, so Freud decided to blow a kiss to them as a joke.

The mercenaries shivered.

"This is my first time meeting an interesting human like you. However, that does not change anything since you are already here." The two high-level demons smiled after they observed Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao also smiled at the two handsome demons and said, "Such a shame. I am coming here to change everything in this place, including the city of the Sun Never Sets and the demons in the Sun Never Sets."

"Oh? How audacious! Do you know how many demons there are in the Sun Never Sets? There are 37,800 low-level demons, 6790 middle-rank demons, and 231 high-level demons. The four countries from the Brilliance Continent even worked together back in the day, but they still failed to eliminate all of the demons. What do you think you can achieve? You want to change everything? With the three magical beasts behind you? Or are you relying on the traitor? Or, maybe, that little fellow with a suspicious origin?"

"Well? Is that what you think?" Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. She waved her hand immediately after that.

The Vermilion Bird and the two Phoenixes transformed into flames and rose to the sky. Three masses of fire burned in the atmosphere before it spread out and formed a sea of fire above the abandoned city. The red flames lit up the entire town and cast a red hue over the sky.

The moment the flames faded, the three enormous birds of fire were revealed. They continued to hover in the sky as their wings of fire spread opened; they almost covered the entire city!

The handsome demons' smiles froze. They were scared when they stared at the three giant birds in the sky.

"Phoenixes and the Vermilion Bird... three magical beasts of the mythical level!" The two demons' voices cracked. Fear replaced their sense of dignity and elegance.

They had already known that the Vermilion Bird and the two Phoenixes were mighty, but they never expected them to be magical beasts of the mythical level!

High-level demons were formidable. However, they were no match against mythical beasts, let alone three mythical beasts.

"Since when could humans have so many mythical beasts?" The two demons had not imagined that someone could unleash three mythical beasts at the same time!

Apart from the extinct god race, no single being from other races could own three mythical beasts at any one time!

However, how did they miss the aura of the god race in Shen Yanxiao?

The god race had become extinct tens of millions of years ago. They were long gone from the world. The demons even witnessed the death of the god race with their own eyes.

Chapter 612: Negotiation (1)

The demons could not understand that in this world, apart from the contract, there was something else that the mythical beasts would answer to, and that was ties of friendship.

The three mythical beasts conquered the sky. The two advanced demons did not have to think with their brains to know they had no advantage at all.

"Well, lady, I think there is some misunderstanding between us. We were just making a joke as a way to welcome you. We are all demons with good manners. We haven't eaten any humans for hundreds of years. How can we do something so demeaning as to eat humans?" The two demons abandoned their arrogance at once. They put on a smile and spoke to Shen Yanxiao with a kind and pleasant attitude.

Advanced demons were highly intelligent. They were not animals driven by primal urges. They knew that a wise man must submit to fate!

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and sized the two demons that went back on their words so quickly.

"I have told you that the demons here are a bunch of hillbillies." Freud laughed heartlessly. He found it very funny to see how his fellow demons could act so differently from just a moment ago.

Shen Yanxiao glanced at Freud; he was not a kind character himself!

Du Lang and the others were still in shock over the change demonstrated by the two advanced demons. Du Lang knew that many people would cave under pressure, but he did not realize that demons could be this shameless as well.

A joke? That was not a joke!

If it were not for Shen Yanxiao, they would have become food for those demons!

“Oh? You were making a joke, right?” Shen Yanxiao smirked wickedly.

The two demons knew that they were out of luck that day. They thought that someone had delivered fresh food to their doorstep. How could they anticipate that they would encounter that freaky human punk!

Had humans evolved that much during the hundreds of years when the demons stayed in the Forsaken Land?

“Yes! That was just a joke, for sure!” The two demons were worried that the three mythical beasts above their heads would trample them to their deaths. They nodded quickly, fearing that one second late would mean their tragic deaths.

Food was precious, and dignity had value, but both could be forsaken for the sake of their lives...

Shen Yanxiao giggled. The demons were an interesting race.

“Don’t worry. I will not do anything to you. I just have something I want to discuss with you,” Shen Yanxiao said with a smile.

“Discuss with us?” The two demons looked at each other. They had never heard of any human being willing to sit down and talk to the demons calmly.

Demons and humans were born to be enemies. When demons were more powerful, humans were their food. When humans gained the advantage, demons would become the subjects that they must eliminate.

However, that human defied all the conventions. It was already impressive that she would negotiate with the demons in their habitat, not to mention how unbelievable it was for her to bring an advanced demon with her.

All the doubts and suspicion aside, they were not as stupid as to bargain with Shen Yanxiao.

“Sure! Talk as you like!” The two demons said with one voice.

So, Shen Yanxiao dragged Freud with her, stepped forward, and huddled with the two demons for a conversation.

They kept their voice down, so Du Lang and the others could not hear it.

They just stared at the back of Shen Yanxiao with horror in their eyes...

How did she dare to bring an advanced demon with her? How could she talk cheerfully and humorously while surrounded by three advanced demons?

Would any normal person be capable of such doings?

Chapter 613: Negotiation (2)

Du Lang and the others would not be surprised if Shen Yanxiao told them that she was a demon, too!

The two demons listened to what Shen Yanxiao had to say in earnest. Their expressions on their faces shifted from respect and submission to doubt. The next moment, they began to stare at Shen Yanxiao in astonishment.

“Are... are you serious?” When a particular demon heard that Shen Yanxiao had the dark elements that could make them “full,” he began to gulp, and his heart pounded.

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and pointed to the best example she had with her, Freud, and said, “Why else do you think this guy would follow me around?”

Freud smiled. He felt no shame for his actions as a food-lover.

The two demons were not entirely convinced yet. Ever since they went to the human realm, they could hardly get any dark elements. Eating humans could keep their stomach full, but it did not bring them any tangible progress. That was why the number of advanced demons at the Brilliance Continent had barely changed. Their demise would mean further decrease of the demons’ forces at the Brilliance Continent. It had bothered the demons that their lower-level counterparts could not evolve, and they had not had any new advanced demons.

In no small part, they were willing to reside at the Forsaken Land because they simply could not afford to have any more deaths. If all advanced demons were to die, their race would be wiped out from the Brilliance Continent.

Therefore, they would rather endure hunger than to step out of the Forsaken Land.

Strong forces could make the demons surrender, but they would never erase demons’ cruel nature.

However, the bait that Shen Yanxiao offered enticed them.

“So, what do you say? Are you willing to go with me?” Shen Yanxiao waited for their reply after she cast her bait. Instead of killing the demons in the Sun Never Sets, she planned to breed them in pens.

The demons’ concept of hierarchy was quite strict. The low-level demons would submit to orders of any advanced demons. Therefore, Shen Yanxiao had decided to lure all the advanced demons in the Sun Never Sets into her league, and they could then command the middle and low-level demons. She would turn the Sun Never Sets into a place where humans and demons could coexist!

The two demons nodded happily. They had to become cruel so that they would not starve. Since someone would provide them with delicious food, they would have to be idiots to turn down the offer!

“Good. What are your names?” Shen Yanxiao asked with a smile.

“I am Jia Lan and he is Jia He,” the demon Jia Lan told her honestly.

“You are brothers?” Shen Yanxiao was curious.

Unlike humans, a demon could only give birth to one child in one lifetime. If the two demons were brothers, then they must be twins. Twin demons enjoyed special status amongst the race. The twins could leverage each other’s strength and inflict double damage.

“Yes.” Jia Lan nodded and went on with pride, “We have gained some fame in the Sun Never Sets.”

“Oh? You have mentioned that there are over two hundred advanced demons in the Sun Never Sets. If you rank them according to their respective strength, which ones are the top five demons?” She would be exhausted if she had to visit the over two hundred demons one by one. Destroy the leader, and the gang would collapse. She might as well negotiate with the strongest demons. After she convinced them, she would not have any problems with the other demons.

Chapter 614: Negotiation (3)

The twin demons looked at each other. Slowly, they gave up the names of the most powerful demons in the Sun Never Sets.

According to the twins, they were two of the top five demons in the Sun Never Sets. The other three demons' strengths were similar to them, but if the twins were to join their hands, they could handle them easily.

The twins decided to demonstrate their power in front of Shen Yanxiao in case other demons would swoop in and rob them of the benefit. They knew that it was essential to follow the person who would be breeding demons!

The four talked for a long time, and Du Lang and the others felt like they were on an emotional roller coaster.

Their trip had been smooth and steady, but somehow, it did not feel right.

People usually regarded the Forsaken Land as a restricted place as they were worried that the demons would devour their bones and remains as soon as they stepped onto the land.

However, when Du Lang and the team entered the city, everything seemed quiet.

Was it appropriate to bend one's arms around the demon's shoulders like that?

A moment later, Jia Lan and Jia He, who wore similar complicated expressions, followed Shen Yanxiao to her team.

The mercenaries of the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group put on even more complex expressions on their faces.

“Well, from now on, Jia Lan and Jia He will be our allies. The demons in the Sun Never Sets will not attack us if they were with us. I hope you can be kind to each other and love each other from now onward,” Shen Yanxiao said as she beamed with a bright smile.

She wanted humans and demons...

To be kind to each other and love one another?

How could her words sound so horrifying?

Whether the humans could accept it or not, it had become a fact.

Jia Lan and Jia He did not walk nearer the crowd as they feared that they would frighten those fragile human beings. They did the smart thing to stand with Freud; since the humans could accept Freud the demon, they should be able to accept them as well.

The twins were unaware that Du Lang and the others thought Freud was a human being until about half an hour ago.

Then...

Forget it. It was a depressing subject!

Shen Yanxiao was free of any psychological burdens. She knew that it would be unrealistic for Du Lang and the others to accept demons as one of them so quickly. There would be ample time for the two sides to get acquainted.

Shen Yanxiao did not mind the embarrassment between the demons and her fellow humans. She told Jia Lan and Jia He to show her to the other three advanced demons in the Sun Never Sets.

It was only the beginning of a frightful journey for Du Lang and the rest.

Everyone felt their brains had stopped working when they walked past the streets crowded with demons as they pressed on amid the demons' greedy stares. They even saw an advanced demon with glamorous looks by the door of a worn-out building.

It had become a routine to receive such astounding news. Nothing else could shock them.

Let it all break in fury!

Du Lang and the others watched quietly as Shen Yanxiao took the three advanced demons with her and met with another three advanced demons. Du Lang and the others felt as if their world views had become entirely twisted.

Since when could demons and humans engage in such friendly encounters?

'Xiaoxiao, you are something else. Did your family know that?'

At dusk, Shen Yanxiao brought her team to some shabby auditorium for a rest.

Every person on the team felt like they had never been so scared in their lives than that day.

"Gurky."

Du Lang stared at the air with a stiff face as a low-level demon with some hairs bounced past him. That demon worked with the other low-level demons to prepare 'beds' for the humans on the auditorium floor. Somehow, Du Lang felt as if a lifetime had passed.

Chapter 615: Partner with Demons (1)

Shen Yanxiao stood outside the auditorium and looked at the six advanced demons with her. Apart from Freud, Jia Lan, and Jia He, the other three were top-five demons in the Sun Never Sets.

They were Tian Qiu, Zhong Ling, and the Enchantress.

Tian Qiu and Zhong Ling appeared to be quite similar to Freud and the twins with the same unique, elegant, and handsome features found in demons.

However, Shen Yanxiao was surprised when she met the Enchantress.

Enchantress was a female demon.

There were not many female demons. Due to inherent physical dispositions, female demons were much weaker than their male counterparts. Therefore, it was rare to see an advanced female demon.

However, the Enchantress was not only an advanced demon, but she was also one of the best amongst 200 advanced demons.

She must have been quite powerful.

The Enchantress looked quite glamorous. Most men, old and young, could not take their eyes away from her long, slender legs.

Shen Yanxiao's beauty could shake the world, and it was the kind of natural beauty that people loved.

Compared to her, the Enchantress' appearance was like a tempting flower that could cloud the people's minds with her seductive looks.

Their noses would bleed when they looked at her curvaceous body.

"Based on our discussion, I will be the master of the Sun Never Sets. I do not wish to see any demons attacking humans here. Since all five of you are the elites here, then I will leave it to you to control the other demons." Shen Yanxiao gave her orders to those demons without any worries or concerns.

"Yes." The demons were sensible. All of them had had a taste of the dark aura produced by the three plants. For the demons, the dark elements were the most delicious food.

Shen Yanxiao wants to be a hands-off boss after she gave her instructions.

Under the advanced demons' command, the low and middle-level demons prepared accommodation for the humans.

The Sun Never Sets was a dilapidated place. They had searched for a long time and eventually found the auditorium that was good for a rest before they could move on to longer-term arrangements.

In less than a day, Shen Yanxiao took care of the Sun Never Sets' demons.

She even got some advanced demons as her minions without striking a single blow. There was a smile on her face as she looked at the low-level demons as they put up beds of hay in the auditorium.

Shen Yanxiao was happy, but her team did not share her joy.

Members of the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group felt as if their hearts would leap from their throats when they saw ugly demons walked around them.

A fight had been avoided, and there was no casualty.

Yet, it was still hard for humans to digest what was in front of their eyes.

They had a hunch that they might have to spend their future with those demons.

For the humans, it was a miserable prospect.

However, at the same time, they felt lucky to find themselves in such a situation while they were at the Forsaken Land.

To live under the same roof and eat at the same table with the demons or be eaten by demons...

That was a conundrum!

Amidst his team members' sad looks, Du Lang stood up and walked toward Shen Yanxiao.

Du Lang had just gone to Shen Yanxiao when the Enchantress, who stood next to Shen Yanxiao, turned around and fixed her eyes on him. To make it worse, the Enchantress' well-developed chest shook as well.

Du Lang felt as if he could die.

"Xiaoxiao, may I have a word with you in private?" Du Lang asked Shen Yanxiao in all seriousness. He had decided to ignore the attractive demon.

Chapter 616: Partner with Demons (2)

Shen Yanxiao nodded. The five demons went off to take care of their assignments and left the two alone.

"Brother Du, what is on your mind?" Shen Yanxiao asked.

Du Lang watched as the five demons left. Slowly, he shifted his eyes to the little girl.

For the past day, he had been on the receiving end of too many surprises. He had met more demons in that one day than the first half of his life.

"What is going on between you and the demons?" After much hesitation, Du Lang asked the question. He had a hard time picturing a peaceful coexistence between humans and demons. The two races were enemies, incompatible as fire and water.

"Nothing much. It's just that we have reached some agreement. Don't worry about it. The demons here will not attack you," Shen Yanxiao answered with a smile.

However, her answer did not convince Du Lang.

"You should know about the relationship between demons and humans. How can they reach an agreement with us? Advanced demons are a clever bunch. They are only afraid of the mythical beasts, including the Vermilion Bird, so they dare not set themselves against you. However, they might scheme against you in private."

Shen Yanxiao shook her head.

"Brother Du, they will not do that; trust me." It was not the right time for her to reveal the facts about the three plants. Those plants had everything to do with the demons' attitude in the Sun Never Sets, Xiu's further recovery, and her seal's removal. She did not want more people to know about it unless it was absolutely necessary.

“Very well.” Du Lang sighed. He could not get Shen Yanxiao to agree with him. He decided to ask others to pay more attention to the demons’ actions.

The sun was setting. Everyone went back to the auditorium and sat down on the straw mattresses that the demons had prepared. Their hearts were troubled.

They had food, but none of them had any appetite.

Shen Yanxiao observed their reactions quietly. The villagers that came with Uncle Nine did not know much about demons, so they were not worried.

However, the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group was quite disturbed by the situation.

Shen Yanxiao sat in the corner with her hands under her chin. It was what she had expected.

She believed that Du Lang and the mercenaries would eventually accept that they had allied with the demons. Humans and demons would live together in the Sun Never Sets.

“You are challenging their psychological endurance.” All was quiet in the dead of night. Xiu, who had not spoken for a long time, suddenly said to Shen Yanxiao.

“I didn’t want this, either. But I think Du Lang and his people will eventually accept it. They had already accepted the fact that I am a warlock. Mundane concepts do not easily manipulate them.” Shen Yanxiao bent her knees and put her chin on them as she gazed at the dark clouds in the sky.

At the Forsaken Land, the lingering dark clouds would always blot out the sky; no starlight could come through.

“Xiu, do you think that humans and demons can exist together?”

“It has never happened.”

“Demons and humans are mortal enemies, but demons only eat humans for their survival. However, the demons will not need to do that if I can provide them with real food.” The laws of nature naturally controlled nature’s rules, and it could be changed once the rules of that law were found.

“Do you think humans will set aside the prejudice they hold against demons?”

“Gradually, they will.” Shen Yanxiao felt a bit tired. Her eyelids slowly closed as she surrendered to her dreams.

Chapter 617: Partner with Demons (3)

The next morning, Shen Yanxiao was woken up by a shrill cry.

She opened her eyes and saw a terrified Evil Wolf as he stared at a low-level demon crouched by his bed.

That low-level demon held some strange-looking fruit in its hands and looked at Evil Wolf in confusion. The low-level demon slowly put down the fruit, turned around, and ran out.

“It scared me!” Evil Wolf patted his chest; his heart still fluttered with fear. Nobody would stay calm when they woke up so early in the morning to see a demon right under their noses.

“Well, that demon is just trying to give you something to eat.” Magic Wolf looked at the fruit on Evil Wolf’s bed as he made fun him

“Piss off!” Evil Wolf glared at Magic Wolf grumpily. Evil Wolf glanced at the fruit on the bed. He found it hard to develop an appetite, so he just ignored it.

Every day they spent in the Sun Never Sets was a massive challenge to their psychology.

“It looks like that little guy wants to express his thanks to Evil Wolf.” Before she knew it, Freud had gone to Shen Yanxiao’s bed. He leaned against the wall and looked at the Evil Wolf with a grin.

“Thanks?” Shen Yanxiao found the word interesting.

Freud said, “Yesterday, when you were talking with the Enchantress and the others, some low-level demons were tidying up things in here. A rock fell off from the ceiling and almost landed on that poor fellow. Evil Wolf kicked that demon away just before the rock landed on the ground.”

“...” It was a surprise to Shen Yanxiao.

For one thing, rocks could fall from the ceiling of that jerry-built project! They were fortunate that the ceiling was firm enough to last through the previous night; no more rock fell. Otherwise, many would have been crushed to death in their dreams.

For another, it turned out that low-level demons knew how to be grateful.

So, minus the hostility, the demons were not foolish.

“But I don’t suppose Evil Wolf realized this,” Freud went on with a smile.

“What?”

“Because to you humans, all low-level demons look the same.”

That was right!

Shen Yanxiao did some stretches before she got up and went out.

Jia Lan and the other four demons had been waiting outside for a long time. They decided to wait for her in case they would scare the other people.

“Things are looking good. They have all accepted your terms. But they wanted a taste of the dark elements before they work to their death for you,” Jia Lan said. The negotiation between demons was much simpler than that between humans. As long as there was enough benefit, everything could be negotiated.

“No problem. Tell the advanced demons in the Sun Never Sets to gather at the plaza in the afternoon. I will fulfill their wishes.” Shen Yanxiao was in a good mood. Everything was about to be ready. When she was done with all the demons, she could start building the city.

“Sure.” The five demons looked solemn, but they were secretly thrilled.

Yes! Finally, they could eat the delicious dark elements again!

That afternoon, all the advanced demons in the Sun Never Sets came out of hiding. The air was heavy with a profound sinister aura. All the low level and middle-level demons were too terrified to come out from their hiding spots.

Advanced demons enough to destroy half a country had gathered at the abandoned plaza in the Sun Never Sets simultaneously as they waited for the revelry to come.

In the auditorium, Du Lang and the others heard the animal-like howls and screams from a distance. There was excitement in the shouts, but they could also make people shiver in terror.

Nobody knew about Shen Yanxiao's plan. All they knew was that they would have to coexist with the demons!

Chapter 618: Fantasy Devil City (1)

At the southern region of the Forsaken Land, a dignified city stood on the crumbling earth.

The city belonged to the Blue Moon Dynasty, and it was known as the Fantasy Devil City.

A team of servants fatigued from a long journey dragged their exhausted bodies to the city gate.

The soldiers stood on the city wall and looked at those people for a long time, but they could not tell who they were. They were filthy, and they were covered in so much dirt that it was as if they had crawled out of the mud.

"Hurry and open up. Young Master Qu Rui is back." The man threw himself to the city gate and was practically crying.

When they heard the name of Qu Rui, the soldiers opened the city gate at once.

Two people carried Qu Rui into the city.

"What happened?" Surprised, the soldier at the city gate stared at the team of people who looked like drowned rats. He knew that, half a month ago, Young Master Qu Rui led more than 200 people to the mining area. How did he get in such an awkward predicament?

Also, why did only about dozens of them come back to the city?

"Hurry... Tell the city master that we were attacked," the man who carried Qu Rui stuttered. Qu Rui had already passed out.

The soldiers sent someone to report to the city master.

A beautiful and slightly feminine man was sitting in the hall. The exquisite white clothes gave him an incredibly noble and sacred look.

He was the city master of the Forsaken Land, Geng Di, son of a duke of the Blue Moon Dynasty. Thanks to his strength, he became the blue-eyed boy for the Emperor of the Blue Moon Dynasty. Ten years ago, when he was only 22, he successfully built the Fantasy Devil City at the southern region of the Forsaken Land and was titled an earl of the Blue Moon Dynasty.

He had continued to stay in the Fantasy Devil City for the next ten years to explore uncultivated soil at the Forsaken Land for the Blue Moon Dynasty.

Nobody knew that an earl with awe-inspiring fame had such a feminine face. The overly tender look had always been a thorn in his heart.

At the moment, Geng Di squinted his eyes, which usually indicated danger, and looked at the men who knelt in front of him.

“What the hell is going on? More than 200 people left the city, and you only brought back 53 people!” Geng Di was furious. He could not figure out how he lost half of the mining party. Furthermore, Qu Rui was still in a coma. It was arguably the most significant loss that Geng Di had ever suffered since the city was built.

“Well...” Those men shook in fear. Geng Di might have looked feminine, but he was capable of horrible means. Everyone who worked for him would have to exercise great care.

“Tell me! If you cannot explain it, I will kill all of you!” Geng Di bellowed.

“We were mining in the eastern region. Everything was going well until a Longxuan Empire delegate passed by us. She saw us mining in the eastern region and told us to go away. Young Master Qu Rui argued with her, and then... a fight broke out.”

“Delegate for the eastern region?” Geng Di squinted his eyes and sneered. “Where did that punk come from? How could she defy the rules like this? Why didn’t she do some research before she came to the Forsaken Land? Which delegate from the Longxuan Empire dares to insult us? How dare she tell our people to go away? She must be tired of living! How many men did she have in her team?”

Chapter 619: Fantasy Devil City (2)

“Four... four...”

Geng Di stood up from the chair with a whooshing sound. He was boiled with anger, so he grabbed the cup on the table and threw it at the man’s head.

“Four people! Are you a bunch of garbage? How can four people defeat 200 people? Why should I keep you around?” That had to be the funniest joke that Geng Di had ever heard. The strongest people working for Qu Rui were at the middle-level of their professions, but there were 200 of them. They should not have been pushed into such a tight corner by a mere four people.

“My Lord, I said it wrong... I said it wrong.” That person put his hand over the bleeding wound on his head, remained on his knees, and begged.

“Wrong?” Geng Di sneered.

“Not... not four people, but two people and... and two mythical beasts.”

The words mythical beasts struck Geng Di like a bolt of lightning. Surprise emerged in the depth of his eyes.

“Mythical beasts?”

“Yes... yes.”

“Two?”

“Right...”

Geng Di’s face clouded. The previous delegates from the Longxuan Empire were powerful, but none could gain a foothold after three other forces forced them out. However, it looked like things were different.; two mythical beasts had shown up. They could not underestimate that.

Besides, the new delegate was upright and frank. It was a surprise that she dared to confront other forces in public just as she had arrived at the Forsaken Land. Perhaps she had overestimated her strength or was just overly confident.

“Give me a detailed account of everything that had happened, from the time they appeared to your return.” Geng Di realized that a person with two mythical beasts was not someone to be taken lightly.

That person had to blurt out everything to the city master.

When they fought Shen Yanxiao, Qu Rui was the only one injured. The rest died on their way back to their city.

They were in too much of a hurry when they fled from the mine. They forgot to pick up the Demon Confuser from the tents.

Therefore, on their way back, the demons had discovered their tracks. They were assaulted by many demons, which was the cause of their tremendous loss.

When they encountered the demons, Qu Rui had almost recovered from the first wound. However, he passed out again from exhaustion from the subsequent battles.

So, the Blue Moon Dynasty’s losses were not directly linked to Shen Yanxiao.

Unfortunately, Geng Di had different thoughts.

“You are telling me that that person is a teenage girl?” Geng Di’s mouth twitched. If it were not for the fact that he knew his man would not lie to him, he would have regarded it as a joke.

No one could tell what was in Geng Di’s mind.

Every delegate from the Longxuan Empire were champions for the Inter-academy Tournaments. What changed? Why would the Longxuan Empire send a teenager to the Forsaken Land? Had they decided to relinquish their right in the Forsaken Land, so they just sent a random person?

It seemed odd.

“What was her name?” Geng Di questioned.

“Shen Yanxiao.”

“Shen?” Geng Di squinted. There was only one family that could use that surname in the entire Longxuan Empire.

“She is from the Vermilion Bird Family, isn’t she? No wonder she is so pretentious.” Geng Di sat down on his throne and crossed his legs. The look on his face indicated no good intention.

Chapter 620: Fantasy Devil City (3)

“We have rules here in the Forsaken Land. Since she does not understand the rules, as seniors, we must teach her a lesson.”

“Send a report to the northern and western region. Tell them that some kid has decided to come to the eastern region.” Geng Di put his hand under his chin. A wicked smile appeared on his lips.

The little miss must have lived luxuriously in the Vermilion Bird Family, right?

She had mistaken the Forsaken Land as a garden in her family. She had two mythical beasts to protect her. So what? At the Forsaken Land, any accident could happen.

“Yes.” The imperial bodyguard accepted the order.

The Forsaken Land had its rules, and no one should violate them.

An outsider, no matter how strong, should always respect the local customs. The strength of the force behind her was not important because the Forsaken Land was an area isolated from the outside world.

It was impossible to rely on one’s family’s strength to build a city there.

Only the exceptionally powerful people could keep their foothold there.

It was incredibly tough to rebuild a city in the Forsaken Land. It did not only require wealth and manpower; one must have enough strength as well. Aside from the dilapidated towns, they also had to be prepared for any demon attacks.

Demons were the real nightmare in the Forsaken Land.

Geng Di had gone to great lengths to obtain the recipe for the Demon Confuser. That was how he could build the city in such a short time.

However, not everyone could have the Demon Confuser. That new fellow probably did not have such helpful items.

Geng Di’s eyes looked like those of a vicious viper. In his mind, that young lady from the affluent family would soon become prey in his claws.

He would make it clear to Shen Yanxiao that she must comply with their rules if she wanted to survive the Forsaken Land. If she failed to see his point, then he would have to teach her a serious lesson!

Fantasy Devil City was not the only party that enjoyed the eastern region’s resources. Forces in the west and north were involved as well.

None of the three forces would allow the delegate of the eastern region to gain a foothold there.

Otherwise, they would have to bid farewell to a large number of resources.

Only those who lived in the Forsaken Land knew that the eastern region had the most resources in the entire Forsaken Land.

The eastern region had become a piece of meat that nobody was willing to give up.

“Listen up!” Geng Di shouted.

“Yes.”

“I need someone to keep an eye on the eastern region. Find out which city Shen Yanxiao is in.” A plot had brewed, which was evident by the looks on Geng Di’s feminine face.

Step by step, he would drive that poor little guy out of the Forsaken Land.

Not long afterward, two cities in the western and northern regions received news from the Fantasy Devil City.

The guest from the orient was waiting for them to ‘welcome her.’

After they received the news, the city masters of the northern and western cities sent their trusted underlings to the eastern region to monitor Shen Yanxiao’s activities.

Far, far away in the Sun Never Sets, Shen Yanxiao had zero idea that three different forces had targeted her simultaneously.

It was merely the beginning. At the Forsaken Land, the curtains of war had just been lifted.
