

The Good 801

Chapter 801: Blasphemy (2)

Shen Yanxiao was greatly shaken by what Yun Qi had said.

Those Warlocks used the god, who had sacrificed his life for the benefit of the world, for their experiments.

How dare they disrespect such a valiant god!

“That is too much!” When Ye Qing heard that, he could no longer contain his anger.

That god had saved the world, ending the possibility that the devils would attack the continent ever again. However, in the end, a group of shameless humans didn't even give him the needed respect, but instead used him for their experiments.

“Are they even human?!” No matter how good-tempered a person was, no one could not contain their anger when they heard that.

Except for the Devil race, the God race was the faith of all races. The position of the God race in the hearts of all races was elevated to an exalted status. No matter how heartless a criminal was, he would never even dirty the statues of the God race. That was the admiration and gratitude of all living beings towards the God race. Those who blasphemed against the gods had already abandoned all beliefs.

“They are no longer humans. In order to achieve their goals, they would resort to even the most extreme of means. For them, gods and devils are merely test subjects for their experiments.” Yun Qi smiled sadly. He could not describe the shock and sadness he felt when he saw the frozen god.

“When I found out about the death of my wife and children, I was disheartened. Even though I wanted to kill them, I knew that I was not strong enough to fight against them. Therefore, to soothe my anger, I tampered with their souls.” Yun Qi's lips curled into a sneer. That was his greatest act of revenge against those animals.

“They have always wanted to integrate the eight races, but the repulsion between the gods and the devils was too strong. There is almost zero possibility of integrating the two races. However, I knew that they would never stop their experiments. Perhaps, one day, they would find a suitable vessel to fulfill their wishes, but I would never allow that to happen. Therefore, I activated the god's soul. Even though the god's soul would not regain consciousness for a long time, as long as he recovered his consciousness, he would never allow himself to suffer in the hands of those Warlocks ever again.”

“Xiaoxiao, you said that they have completed the integration of the seven races, and Lan Fengli standing with us is an example of their experiment. I believe that it is not because they have not found a way to integrate the soul of the God race into Lan Fengli, but because they have lost that god's soul!” Yun Qi knew his former peers very well. They would never give up on that final step if they had already integrated the seven races into one body.

The only thing that could stop them was if they didn't have the resources to do so, which most likely meant that they had lost the god's soul.

Without the soul of the God race, they no longer had any hopes of integrating all the eight races.

That was because there was only one god left in the world, and they had lost him.

Once he was lost, there were no other substitutes.

Yun Qi smiled, but there were tears in the corner of his eyes. He had taken his revenge, but he had also lost everything. What he had lost was irreversible.

“Teacher ...” Shen Yanxiao looked at Yun Qi with sadness in her eyes. Her heart felt as if it was pricked by a thousand needles.

“Even though they could not fulfill their long-cherished wish, Xiaoxiao, you mentioned that since Lan Fengli exists, then they should still be alive. If that is the case, do you know how dangerous it is for you to keep Lan Fengli by your side? For them, Lan Fengli should be the most perfect specimen they have right now. His disappearance will definitely cause panic amongst them, and they will spare no effort to find him. If they were to discover that Lan Fengli is with you, I’m afraid they will spare no effort to try and steal him back, even if it meant eradicate you.”

Chapter 802: Blasphemy (3)

“I will protect Xiao Feng. I will not let him get taken away,” Shen Yanxiao said with determination.

Lan Fengli was her younger brother, and no one should even think about forcibly taking him away from her.

“Teacher, have you heard of the Broken Star Palace?” Shen Yanxiao remembered the other study of Forbidden Skills, the transfer of battle aura and magic.

Yun Qi calmed himself down and sat down slowly.

“I have heard of them, but there hasn’t been any news on them for a long time.”

“When you were there, did the Broken Star Palace contact those Warlocks?”

Yun Qi frowned.

“Never saw any signs of it.”

“But the Broken Star Palace has the ability to transfer battle aura and magic.”

Yun Qi’s expression immediately darkened. He knew about the Broken Star Palace, but if they were to join hands with those Warlocks, then...

“It has been more than a hundred years since I left them so I am not sure about their current situation. However, Xiaoxiao, you must remember to be extra careful when dealing with them. As for Lan Fengli, you better help him change his appearance. If they were to discover you, you will not be their match with your current strength.”

Shen Yanxiao could not afford to attract the ire of two Great Summoners and one from the Broken Star Palace.

“I will be careful.” Even though Shen Yanxiao said that, she felt helpless about the situation. Even though she did not provoke those Warlocks, she had already offended the Broken Star Palace.

If they were connected to each other, she would have to face them one day.

However, like what Yun Qi had said, she was still too weak.

Even though she had eight mythical beasts with her, she was still facing a monstrous organization with unimaginable depth.

No one knew how powerful the Broken Star Palace, which had been established for thousands of years, was. Furthermore, the Warlocks, who had instigated panic among the four countries in the Brilliance Continent, had unfathomable powers too.

Suddenly, Shen Yanxiao wondered how many successful specimens they had.

With Lan Fengli’s current strength, even the Vermilion Bird would have to tread carefully to deal with him.

Eight mythical beasts were not enough to deal with so many enemies.

She had to become stronger and stronger so that she could protect the people she cared about and to not let them get hurt any longer!

“Teacher, please keep what we have said today a secret.” Shen Yanxiao looked at Ye Qing. She dared to talk about this taboo subject in front of Ye Qing because she believed that Ye Qing would never betray Yun Qi and her.

“There is one more thing that I would like to ask Teacher Ye Qing for help with.”

“Just say it.”

“The Blood Banquet Potion is needed to cure Teacher Yun Qi’s injuries. So, I would like to request for you to help him create one because you are the only Herbalist I know who is about to reach the level of a Grandmaster Herbalist.” Shen Yanxiao had no choice but to ask for Ye Qing’s help. Even though she wanted to help Yun Qi with his illness, she did not have much time to research herbalism due to the imminent crisis.

“I have been working on the Blood Banquet Potion for a very long time. However, the formula is somewhat incomplete, and I’m afraid I won’t be able to complete it in a short time.” Ye Qing smiled bitterly. The Blood Banquet Potion had been a problem that had bothered him for more than a decade.

“Teacher, I’ll have to trouble you further. I will think of a way to gather all the required medicinal ingredients.” Shen Yanxiao had just given Ye Qing the real formula of the Blood Banquet Potion!

Chapter 803: Tension (1)

Shen Yanxiao did not reveal the Warlock's secret to anyone. The fewer people who knew about it the better. It would only cause unnecessary panic if she were to spread the news. She did not want anyone to know about the uniqueness of Uncle Nine and his group. It was hard to gauge a person's true intentions, and if someone were to leak the information, the tragedy would repeat itself.

Ye Qing and Yun Qi would be returning to Saint Laurent Academy in a few days. Ye Qing was the most famous Herbalist in the Brilliance Continent, and he would bring a series of troubles if he were to leave the academy for a long time. Yun Qi also promised that he would not leave the academy before the Blood Banquet Potion was completed. He was someone who had participated in the research on Forbidden Skill, and his exposure would bring huge problems to Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Yanxiao could not dissuade her two teachers otherwise, so she had no choice but to send them back to Saint Laurent Academy.

The five beasts gathered in the city lord's mansion to discuss the future development of Sun Never Sets.

"Both of your teachers have left. If someone were to scheme against you again, are you going to invite them from Saint Laurent Academy again?" Qi Xia propped his chin and looked at Shen Yanxiao lazily. As long as Sun Never Sets was still around, people who harbored ill intentions would find opportunities to attack them sooner or later.

Ye Qing and Yun Qi were already old, so it would not be a pleasant experience if they had to go back and forth like that.

Qi Xia had hoped that Shen Yanxiao could rely on her friendship with the two old men to plop them in Sun Never Sets.

With Ye Qing's support for the city, it would be hard for Sun Never Sets' connections to not explode. The title of 'Number One Great Herbalist in the Brilliance Continent' was not just for show. Not to mention the Forsaken Land where the demons ran wild, even if they lived at the bottom of the sea, there would probably be people who would come to them.

Furthermore, with Yun Qi's bountiful experience, they would no longer need to worry about being cursed. After all, Yun Qi was an encyclopedia for Warlocks.

Shen Yanxiao shrugged her shoulders. She knew that it would be beneficial for them to stay, but she did not want to use their kindness to force them to do things that they did not want to do.

"Before he left, Teacher, gave me thirty Illusion Beads. As long as I place them in the wells, I don't think anyone will have the chance to trick me again."

"Illusion Bead? That is a rare item." Yan Yu, who was from the White Tiger Family, was no stranger to Illusion Beads.

"Is an Illusion Bead a good item?" Tang Nazhi did not know what was going on, so he took one from the dozens of glass beads that Shen Yanxiao had placed on the table and held it in front of his eyes. He looked at it pensively, but he could not find anything interesting.

“You don’t know your stuff.” Yan Yu shot a glance at Tang Nazhi and picked up an Illusion Bead.

“Illusion Beads are items that only a Second-Class Summoner can create. Powerful curses can be infused into an Illusion Bead, making it suitable for any type of scenario depending on the curse infused into it. I think these Illusion Beads must have been infused with protective curses that could block curses of other Warlocks. This is similar to the Xuantian Pearl, but it is not as time-consuming as the Xuantian Pearl. However, it would probably still take a lot of effort to produce so many.”

“With this, we don’t have to worry about our enemies using curses on us any longer.” Yang Xi also took one and rolled it around in his hands.

The table was filled with Illusion Beads, and all these beads were signs of Yun Qi’s care and concern for Shen Yanxiao. Even though he was not in Sun Never Sets, he was still worried about his only disciple.

Chapter 804: Tension (2)

Ye Qing had also left behind a large number of Great Herbalist potions for Shen Yanxiao. Ye Qing had produced those potions during his days in Sun Never Sets.

“What is it?”

“You should have already guessed the culprit who had tampered with the wells. But, this is not a good time for revenge.” He had already guessed the identity of the culprit, so Shen Yanxiao must have guessed it as well. He knew that with Shen Yanxiao’s protective nature, she would definitely attack Fantasy Devil City the moment everything was arranged. However, the timing was not right.

“Oh? Why do you say that?” Shen Yanxiao crossed her legs and looked at Qi Xia calmly. She had to admit that Qi Xia understood her very well. She was prepared to take Vermilion Bird to Fantasy Devil City for a sightseeing tour later that night.

“To be able to cast a curse that even you cannot identify, there must be a Second-Class Summoner and a Grandmaster Herbalist hidden in the city. Fantasy Devil City has been quite well-behaved recently, but not long ago, they suddenly took action. They already knew that you have eight mythical beasts in your hands, and if they did not have a certain degree of confidence, they would not have come and provoked you like this. If they dared to attack you, it would mean that there is a group that we do not know about in the city acting as their support.” The enemy was in the dark while they were in the light. If they were to attack, Sun Never Sets would definitely suffer.

Qi Xia believed that Geng Di would have predicted Shen Yanxiao’s retaliation, but he was still as fearless. It was as if he was waiting for Shen Yanxiao to attack him. That was not normal.

Even though he did not know who was the group behind Fantasy Devil City, he felt that it was better not to act rashly before he found some more clues about them.

Shen Yanxiao frowned. Everyone had bullied her, but Qi Xia told her to endure it for the time being. That was not in line with her personality.

When they saw Shen Yanxiao's frown, all five of them knew that the little girl's protective nature had once again exploded.

Yang Xi cleared his throat and said, "Actually, you don't need to charge into his city for a fight. If you really want to teach Geng Di a lesson, there is another option for you to do so."

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows.

"Even though the four countries have created an alliance in the Forsaken Land, there is an unwritten rule here. Every year, the city lords, who have successfully built their cities in the Forsaken Land, would gather their elites on the seventh day of the seventh month to compete. The winner would be sent some resources to their respective cities as a reward." Yang Xi looked at Shen Yanxiao with a meaningful glance.

There were policies and rules. However, although the resources in the four areas of the Forsaken Land were concentrated, the resources each area produced were not the same. In order to obtain those resources in other regions, they had decided to have a friendly competition.

Shen Yanxiao had three professions, and she was an advanced-level expert in all of them. She also had a mythical beast, Vermilion Bird. If she were to fight against the lords of the other three cities, it would be a one-sided fight.

Furthermore, the casualties in the competition would not suffer any retaliation. It was an excellent opportunity for revenge!

Chapter 805: Loud Clapping (3)

The five beasts were despicable, and so they found a despicable method for Shen Yanxiao to vent her frustrated feelings.

As expected, Shen Yanxiao's expression immediately calmed down when she heard that.

"Seventh day of the seventh month? It's May now, so there are about two months left." Shen Yanxiao touched her chin in ponderment. She felt the competition was a great idea. It would be great if she could outright beat Geng Di in public. Furthermore, she would beat him until he would have to look for his teeth all over the ground in front of all the elites in the Forsaken Land. That was definitely better than wreaking havoc in Fantasy Devil City.

“Are we going to settle it in the competition?” Qi Xia looked at Shen Yanxiao as he tried to sound her out. This girl would not care about the consequences of her actions if she were to explode. If he did not appease her, it would probably be another bloodbath.

“Yes, but we still have to investigate the people who are backing Fantasy Devil City. It is always better to be prepared.” Shen Yanxiao had no bottom line when it came to revenge, as she thought about how she would continue to cause trouble while beating up their lord.

The five beasts were speechless. They thought that the little girl was easy to talk to. It turned out that they had misunderstood ...

“I will send someone to investigate that, but the most urgent matter at hand is the auction,” Qi Xia said.

Sun Never Sets had been completed, and they only needed to open the gate to welcome the guests.

According to their previous plan, the auction would be the main way to publicize Sun Never Sets to the Brilliance Continent.

“I have listed all the items for auction on the list. After we confirm the auction house’s name and the time, we can get someone to spread the news.” No one would dare to claim to be number one if Qi Xia claimed to be number two in the subject of management.

“The auction will be set in half a month. As for the name of the auction house ...” Shen Yanxiao touched her chin and narrowed her eyes in deep thought.

“How about we call it Sun Never Sets Auction House?” Tang Nazhi suggested.

“...” Tang Nazhi puffed his cheeks. Was he not using his brain? That was such a fitting name!

“Why don’t we call it Phantom?” Shen Yanxiao decided to name the auction house after their small organization. The auction house did not only belong to her, but it also belonged to the five of them.

“I like it.” Yang Xi was the first to raise his hand in agreement.

Under the influence of Shen Yanxiao’s modern words, the five of them had learned some phrases from another world.

Shen Yanxiao did not know whether she should laugh or cry as she looked at these five people.

They were not good at learning, but they were all good at copying.

With that, the Phantom Auction House was finalized. The six members of Phantom started to get busy in their respective posts. Qi Xia had his men spread the news about the auction house to every corner of the Brilliance Continent. Yang Xi and Yan Yu made arrangements for the treasures that they had transported, while Tang Nazi and Li Xiaowei were responsible for the decorations in the auction house.

Shen Yanxiao immediately gathered the high-ranked demons in Sun Never Sets and told them that a large number of humans would enter the city in half a month's time. She also told them to manage their subordinate demons and to not wander around during crucial times.

Chapter 806: Demons Trade Union (1)

"Lord, are you sure you want to let a lot of humans in?" Jia He's eyes were dull. There were quite a few humans in Sun Never Sets, but at least they were mentally prepared for their presence. They could remain calm when they saw the demons. However, he did not think that the humans outside would continue to smile if they saw them.

It was not a big deal to run away, but it would be a headache if they were to pass out in front of them.

Demons addressed her differently than humans. Jiu Shu and the others addressed her as the city lord because she was the owner of Sun Never Sets. However, in the demons' eyes, Shen Yanxiao was the lord of the Forsaken Land. If all the demons in the Forsaken Land knew that Shen Yanxiao had delicious dark elements, they would bring their families and their in-laws to beg for food.

Shen Yanxiao crossed her legs and propped her head on the chair as she looked at the dozens of advanced-ranked demons in the hall. As the number of demons in Sun Never Sets increased, the number of advanced-ranked demons almost exceeded the three hundred mark. But, she would usually only discuss issues with the top twenty strongest demons. As for the rest, she would leave it to those twenty to convey the information.

"Yes."

The twenty advanced-ranked demons looked at each other with distorted expressions.

"Well ... we don't have any objections, but I'm afraid that the people outside of Sun Never Sets will not be able to bear with us," Jia Lan whispered.

They were willing to be friendly with humans, but they did not know how to deal with them if they would constantly sprint into a mad dash wherever they saw them. If Shen Yanxiao were to pursue the matter with them, wouldn't they be faulted wrongly?

"Let them take the bait and get used to it first. For now, keep an eye on your low and intermediate-ranked demons."

Bait them in first?

The demons' hearts pounded excitedly. Shen Yanxiao was usually swift and decisive, but they did not expect her to be unscrupulous when dealing with her own kind.

Was it alright to help demons fool humans?

“Lord, since we are about to open the city, what should we do in the future?” Tian Qiu suppressed his shock at Shen Yanxiao’s shamelessness. He was more concerned about their future than the humans who were about to enter Sun Never Sets.

Sun Never Sets had become a real city and a large number of humans were about to enter. What would they do now? Would they continue wandering around the streets all day to maintain public security?

Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes. She was not used to letting tens of thousands of demons eat and drink for free. Even though she did not have to pay much for their food and drinks, it was still a waste if she didn’t use them as free labor.

There were hundreds of advanced-ranked demons, and each of them was comparable to a Second-Class expert. She would be a fool if she did not use them.

Shen Yanxiao’s naked gaze made the group of demons feel as if their clothes were about to be ripped off. They had always been proud of their physiques, but they subconsciously covered their chests like shy women.

“Don’t worry, I have prepared a job that is very suitable for you.” Shen Yanxiao revealed an evil smile. Three hundred Second-Class experts were definitely the most luxurious entourage one could ever wish for in the Brilliance Continent.

Even though advanced-ranked demons were different from real Second-Class experts, it was not a problem for them to crush those Second-Class experts.

Chapter 807: Demons Trade Union (2)

How exalted was the status of a Second-Class expert in every country?

Now, Shen Yanxiao had about three hundred such experts under her.

“What is it?” The group of demons gulped in trepidation. Their lord was shameless and crafty. They felt nervous when she stared at them like that.

Shen Yanxiao whispered in her ear for a while before Enchantress suddenly stood up with an excited smile on her face.

Jia He and the other demons watched Enchantress’ departing figure as their hearts pounded wildly. They did not know what their lord had in mind.

Du Lang and the six wolves sat in the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group’s headquarters. Shen Yanxiao had specially prepared this building for them when she planned out Sun Never Sets. It was much better than the place they had in Black City—it was spacious and bright with excellent accommodation. Almost no one in the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group was willing to leave Sun Never Sets and return to Black City.

What a joke! They would be fools if they wanted to turn back on such good treatment. Furthermore, their city lord was so kind and friendly. Even if they had to be thick-skinned, they would follow her to the end.

The Cave Wolves Mercenary Group's slogan had changed from 'eat meat if you follow the leader' to 'eat meat if you follow the city lord'.

Du Lang had no complaints about that. He was also happy that his brothers had a good home.

Moreover, Shen Yanxiao trusted him. He and Uncle Nine were responsible for many things in the city, and she was not worried that he would leak the secret.

A scholar would die for his bosom friend. With a city lord that trusted him so much, Du Lang was determined to work hard for Shen Yanxiao.

The seven wolves sat around the table as they discussed the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group's plans for the city.

In the end, they were still a mercenary group so they could not just eat and drink for free. They were prepared to resume their old profession and continue with their days as mercenaries.

"Hey, do we have to accept missions in the Forsaken Land often?" Evil Wolf asked with a smile.

Du Lang looked at Evil Wolf calmly and picked up his cup. "Are you going to kill demons?"

Demons were the most populated creatures in the Forsaken Land. But, with Su He excavating the mineral products here, it seemed like the only job they could do left was to fight demons.

Evil Wolf's mouth twitched. Fight demons? He thought about how he had been hanging out with little demons all day long, so it was quite hard for him to return back to his uncaring attitude when attacking such 'adorable' creatures.

The Cave Wolves Mercenary Group's moral values had become twisted after they had stayed in Sun Never Sets for so long.

The demons that everyone despised and feared had become good friends in their hearts.

The seven wolves immediately felt their blood boiling.

Other than being adorable, demons were also very sexy.

Enchantress did not even look at the six flushed wolves as she sat quickly on Du Lang's lap.

Du Lang nearly choked on his tea.

“Ahem ... Enchantress, why are you here?” Du Lang, who had always been a man of steel, looked at the gorgeous demon on his lap helplessly. He wanted to push Enchantress away, but he did not dare to touch her.

Which of these wasn't a restricted area? He did not dare to touch anything!

Chapter 808: Demons Trade Union (3)

Their leader's luck with women was pretty good.

Enchantress seemed to like to tease Du Lang, and she would usually tease him whenever she saw him. That had become a common occurrence in the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group. They would not be shocked even if Du Lang were to say that he wanted to marry Enchantress.

They also wanted to be teased by the attractive and sexy Enchantress!

Even mercenaries who had been in contact with the opposite gender for years were enthralled by the beauty of demons. They would even accept devils, let alone demons.

Please tease me! Please seduce me!

Enchantress raised her hand with a smile. Her weak, seemingly boneless arms naturally wrapped around Du Lang's neck. Her soft body pressed against Du Lang's broad chest as she softly said, “Leader.”

The six wolves nearly fell from their chairs. That was such a sweet voice!

Please forgive these hot-blooded men!

“Err ... is there ... something wrong?” Du Lang, who had always been mighty and domineering, was like a mouse that had seen a cat when facing Enchantress. His face was flushed with panic.

“The lord has summoned you to the city lord's mansion.”

“Oh ... I will go now.” Du Lang gulped and carefully lifted his hand to pull Enchantress's arms from his neck.

The Enchantress raised her eyebrows and softly said, “I am tired from the journey. I will have to trouble you to bring me back.”

“...” Du Lang had the urge to die.

Brilliant! Truly brilliant!

Even demons would kneel before their leader. At this point, they could only worship him.

Du Lang could not dissuade Enchantress, so he had no choice but to brace himself. He stiffly picked up a certain beautiful demon and walked out of the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group with Enchantress in his arms.

Du Lang wanted to strangle his brothers when he saw the admiration and envy in their eyes.

Du Lang did not even know how he got to the city lord's mansion. He only knew that the crowd that had surrounded him and Enchantress' intimate actions almost drowned him out. Enchantress in his arms laughed like a cat that had stolen a fish.

Du Lang was speechless. He was innocent!

When Du Lang appeared in the city lord's mansion with Enchantress in his arms, their ambiguous actions immediately shocked all the male demons there.

"Seriously? Enchantress is actually ... tsk tsk." Jia Lan muttered.

"Leader Du is a true man! I admire you!" Jia He silently praised Du Lang in his heart.

Even though Enchantress was a female among the demons, she was so powerful that all the male demons would tremble in fear at the mere mention of her name. There were even instances where a few high-ranked demons stole her clothes, who were then hung at the city gates for the demons to learn their lessons.

Everyone knew that the Enchantress was beautiful but cruel.

No one dared to touch the thorny rose again.

When they saw Du Lang return with the beauty in his arms, all the demons admired him.

He even dared to take advantage of the tigress. He was definitely a real man!

When Enchantress was done with her teasing, she left Du Lang's embrace and gracefully gathered her hair before she calmly returned to her seat.

Du Lang was still in a daze ...

He felt as if the female demon had thoroughly played him.

"Brother Du?" Shen Yanxiao suppressed her laughter and looked at the dull Du Lang.

Chapter 809: Demons Guild (4)

When Du Lang heard Shen Yanxiao's call, he immediately came back to his senses and stared awkwardly at Shen Yanxiao.

"City Lord."

"Brother Du, please take a seat. I called you here today because I need to discuss something with you." Shen Yanxiao appeared calm but she was internally cracking up. It was so fun watching Enchantress teasing Du Lang.

"Yes." Du Lang quickly calmed his rapidly beating heart down and found a seat.

He did not know if these demons were deliberately making fun of him, but he was coincidentally seated right across Enchantress.

The moment Du Lang looked to his front, he could see Enchantress' chest slowly moving with each breath she took, and his face turned even redder.

"Brother Du, you have led a mercenary group for quite a long time, right?" Shen Yanxiao suddenly asked, breaking him from his reverie.

"It has been more than a decade." Du Lang could not help but smile when he mentioned his mercenary group.

"That's great. I would like to have a mercenary guild in the city. Brother Du, please help me." Shen Yanxiao smiled.

"That is not difficult. However, my mercenary group has a limited number of members, so it will be difficult to run a mercenary guild ourselves." Every city would have a mercenary guild so it was not unusual for Shen Yanxiao to have thoughts of creating one. However, Cave Wolves Mercenary Group did not have many members to begin with. With their number, they could still manage as a mercenary group but they would not be able to run as a mercenary guild.

"If City Lord plans to recruit more mercenary groups to Sun Never Sets, then running a Mercenary Guild will not be too difficult. The average mercenary guild has at least a dozen mercenary groups under their control. However, if it is an elite mercenary guild City Lord wishes to create, then the mercenaries can be fewer, but we would still require a few hundred mercenaries."

"That is not a problem. However, I do not intend to recruit any mercenary groups into the guild." Sun Never Sets was her territory, and it was also her most important asset. She could not guarantee that she would not face some power-hungry mercenaries if she were to recruit an unknown group.

Unlike a bunch of merchants, a mercenary group could easily cause a ton of trouble.

They are not planning to recruit any mercenary groups? Du Lang thought. There were not many people in Sun Never Sets who could fight. Uncle Nine and his group had their own responsibilities, so it was impossible for them to become mercenaries. The slaves, who were bought over, did not have any battle aura or magic, forcing them to only do some basic daily task; they were not good fits to be mercenaries.

"City Lord, may I know who would be joining the mercenary guild?" Du Lang could not think of a suitable candidate, so he could only seek answers from Shen Yanxiao.

Following where she was looking at, Du Lang was speechless.

"Brother Du, what do you think about Enchantress and the rest?"

Surely... not...

Du Lang almost passed out.

Advanced-ranked demons were stronger than the seven wolves. Even Enchantress could easily hold her ground against all of them by herself. There was no problem with their strength, but realistically speaking...

“City Lord, are you sure?” Du Lang asked with difficulty.

“Is it not good? There are hundreds of advanced-ranked demons in Sun Never Sets, and the number will increase in the future. Isn’t it a good choice for them to gradually integrate themselves into our society?” Shen Yanxiao blinked. She did not think that her words were shocking at all.

Du Lang almost knelt down in front of her.

City Lord, I know that you like to take the more unusual paths, but isn’t this decision too shocking?

She wanted hundreds of advanced-ranked demons to form a guild and work for the humans who used to be their food?

Du Lang wanted to cry. He felt that the idea was horrifying.

Their mercenary guild was going to be made up of hundreds of advanced-ranked demons. How luxurious was this lineup? However, had City Lord considered the feelings of her citizens?

Chapter 810: Demons Guild (5)

Compared to Du Lang’s shock, the group of demons seemed to be in high spirits.

“My lord! I think it’s a fantastic idea! Why don’t we set up a guild called Demons Guild?” Jia He stood up with a cry. Without the problem of food constantly breathing down their necks, the demons had long been bored out of their minds. Moreover, they had heard that being a mercenary was an exciting and fun-filled profession. They were so excited to finally have some fun that they almost pounced on Shen Yanxiao and shouted, “Long live the lord!”

“Speaking of which, can mercenaries earn money? Will we be able to buy something in the future?”

“What do you want to buy? It’s not like you lack food.”

“Can’t I buy food for Xiao Jiu and the rest?”

“That’s a good idea!”

The group of demons cried out in agreement with Shen Yanxiao’s decision. There were two reasons for their support. Firstly, they were too idle for their own likings. Secondly, they wanted to earn money to support the businesses in Sun Never Sets.

Even though they ate and drank a lot in Sun Never Sets, Shen Yanxiao had never given them a single gold coin. Every time they saw those people walking past them with a smile on their faces and with a bag filled with gold coins, the demons could only drool and draw circles on the ground.

Shen Yanxiao was surprised by the demons’ enthusiasm. She looked at Freud in confusion. He was the only advanced-ranked demon that lived outside the Forsaken Land.

Freud looked at Shen Yanxiao with a faint smile.

“There’s no problem with the decision. It’s good for them to spend their time working.” Freud leaned against the back of his chair. He was the first demon to follow Shen Yanxiao, and he had a high status among the advanced-ranked demons in Sun Never Sets.

Since Freud had no objections, Shen Yanxiao decided to ask Du Lang for his opinion.

Du Lang had mixed feelings about that. On one hand, he was happy that he would soon have many powerful colleagues in the future. On the other hand, he was sad for the humans who were going to compete with advanced-ranked demons in the job market!

Where was the justice?

How could they beat their racial advantage?

Bang!

Forget it, they should just learn to work with demons in the future!

Clink!

“Then it’s decided. Cave Wolves Mercenary Group will still be under your jurisdiction, Brother Du. In addition, all the advanced-ranked demons in the city will form a guild with you as their aid. When Sun Never Sets is officially open to the public, they will be able to accept any missions assigned to them. Rest assured that I will have them keep their human form for the time being so no one will know their identity for the time being.” It was beneficial for her to establish a guild filled with so many powerful demons.

Demons were easily stronger than the most powerful of mercenaries. With them on the job, they would easily be able to complete any missions assigned to them with just brute force alone.

Furthermore, demons were more sensitive than humans, making them much more adept in missions that required keen senses. They did not even need to eat or drink. And they would immediately be revitalized after returning to Sun Never Sets to smell the dark elements. Furthermore, demons were more resilient than humans, making them the perfect meatshield.

They definitely had the best qualifications to be a mercenary.

With such a powerful mercenary guild in her city, it would easily attract people from all over the Brilliance Continent to come and issue missions to them.

Among the four countries, only the God Wind Alliance, established by five top mercenary groups, could compete with them. After all, their ferocity had once intimidated the other three countries.
