

The Good 861

Chapter 861: Coming Under the Tutelage (3)

No matter who that impersonator was, he must have come from the God Realm. The people from the God Realm had always been proud and arrogant, and they would never allow their people to be subservient to a commoner like her. When Shen Yanxiao thought about that, hope immediately ignited in her heart.

She did not think there was anything wrong with classifying herself as a commoner.

However, when Nangong Mengmeng heard Shen Yanxiao's terms, joy immediately appeared on her face.

Wasn't that simple? His Highness was the easiest to talk to. As long as she pestered him enough, he would definitely agree to it. Furthermore, he had always been concerned about her idol, so it would be easy to convince him to agree!

"My future teacher, just you wait. I will immediately discuss with His Highness... er... the sage!" Nangong Mengmeng clenched her fist and flew out of everyone's line of sight like a little swallow.

Shen Yanxiao sighed in relief.

Qi Xia looked at Shen Yanxiao thoughtfully.

"Did you notice that girl's slip of the tongue?" Qi Xia asked.

Shen Yanxiao was stunned. Then she remembered that Nangong Mengmeng had called the sage... Your Highness?

"Is there anyone in the God Realm who would be addressed as Your Highness?" Shen Yanxiao frowned. Nangong Mengmeng had accidentally revealed the truth.

It seemed like their previous guess was right. The sage in Sun Never Sets should be someone important in the God Realm. However, he was not the real sage but... His Highness?

"I think I have heard of it." Yan Yu seemed to have thought of something.

"Let's hear it." It was not easy for them to get hold of a clue. They immediately became excited.

Yan Yu said, "It was my grandfather who said that when the sage went to the White Tiger Family, he summoned the White Tiger for us. At that time, everyone in our family respected the sage, and we had always thought that he was the person with the highest authority in the God Realm. However, my grandfather quickly denied it. Even though the sage was powerful, he would die eventually, and that fact was something that could not be changed. This was why there had always been different sages throughout the many generations. And the person who was choosing these future sages was the person who truly controlled the God Realm. However, the God Realm never mentioned a single word about that person's origin or name. Everyone knew about the existence of that person but they never knew who he was."

The Phantom members were smart so they had their own guesses when Yan Yu said that.

"I am curious as to how the God Realm could survive until today and still enjoy a good reputation. The previous sage of the God Realm passed away a hundred years ago, and after that, the position of the sage of the God Realm had been left vacant for many years. The one who summoned the mythical beasts for our families was the new sage. During the period when the seat of the sage was vacant, the God Realm was not affected at all. At that time, there was no one with power to oversee it. Such situations are rarely seen. After I heard what Ah Yu said today, I feel that the White Tiger Family's old man was right." Qi Xia seemed to have grasped something.

"Err, don't tell me that the person that Grandfather Yan referred to is the prince that Nangong Mengmeng had mentioned?" Tang Nazhi gulped. If that was true, then he could understand why the god envoys would allow someone like that to impersonate the sage.

"I think it's possible." Yang Xi nodded.

Li Xiaowei looked at everyone and hesitated for a moment before he slowly said, "Actually, I might know something about His Highness from the God Realm."

"Brother! You have all the gossip!" Tang Nazhi looked at his brother in horror.

Li Xiaowei scratched his head in embarrassment and said, "It's not me, it's my teacher..."

Chapter 862: Uninvited Guests (1)

Everyone knew that Li Xiaowei's teacher had some demon blood in him.

"My teacher said that when the Devil race was defeated, the last god used his godhood to seal the passage to the surface of the underworld. However, the god who lost his godhood did not perish. Instead, he established the God Realm. The prince that you mentioned might very well be the last god." Li Xiaowei revealed what he knew.

"How is that possible?!" Shen Yanxiao looked at Li Xiaowei in surprise. She had heard from Yun Qi not long ago that the last god had been used as a test subject by those Warlocks. However, the information she received from Li Xiaowei was completely different from Yun Qi.

Shen Yanxiao had an explosive reaction to what Li Xiaowei had revealed, and the five beasts looked at her in confusion.

"Well, I think it's quite possible. The God Realm... that name does sound like it has something to do with the God race. Furthermore, isn't it rumored that the God Realm possesses the power of gods? Li Xiaowei's teacher is a descendant of the Devil race, so one of his seniors must have experienced the war between the gods and the devils. He must have some knowledge about the whereabouts of the last god." Tang Nazhi was puzzled about Shen Yanxiao's reaction.

It was unlikely that Li Xiaowei was fooling them for fun. He was after all quite a trustworthy person.

Shen Yanxiao frowned. Tang Nazhi's analysis was right. The God Realm might be related to the God race in terms of both strength and legend.

However, she was at a loss. Yun Qi had no reason to lie to her. Both of their statements had some truth to it, but it was also a conflict between them.

Even though their conclusions were different, they had the same point.

The last god was still alive.

As for whether he was the prince of the God Realm or a tool used by Warlocks for their experiments, no one knew.

Shen Yanxiao did not dare to tell the five beasts everything that Yun Qi had told her. It was a dark time for Warlocks, and it also involved Lan Fengli. Furthermore, there were many risks involved, and she did not want her friends to worry too much about her.

However, it was a strange situation. Both of them made sense, but which one was the real truth?

If Li Xiaowei was telling the truth, then who was the mysterious man who gave the Warlocks the man encased in ice?

The more questions came one after another, and Shen Yanxiao felt a headache coming on.

“If he is a god, then he should be easy to talk to. The god race has always been friendly with humans. They will not do anything to us,” Qi Xia comforted her.

Regardless of the prince’s background, it seemed like he had no intention of harming Shen Yanxiao and Sun Never Sets. He did not allow the god envoys to stroll around the city, and he merely chatted with Shen Feng and Shen Ling from the Vermilion Bird Family.

None of their friends could come up with an answer to that question, making them trust Li Xiaowei’s statements more.

However, Shen Yanxiao was not so sure about that. She was now thinking that she should meet Yun Qi to resolve her doubts once she had the chance.

At that moment, Shen Yanxiao felt as if her head was about to explode. However, something even more troubling happened soon after that.

Two thin and weak figures stood upright in front of the city gates. Their faces looked very similar, but one of them was a young lady while the other was a young man.

“Sister?” The young man turned to look at the girl with fear in his eyes.

Chapter 863: Uninvited Guests (2)

Shen Yanxiao was already having a headache about the last god, but more headaches soon followed.

Shen Jiawei stood nervously in front of Shen Yanxiao, and his already thin and weak body seemed to be on the verge of collapse. He stole a glance at Shen Jiayi, who stood by his side, and then quickly looked at Shen Yanxiao before lowering his head in discomfort.

When the Vermilion Bird Family was in trouble, Shen Yue entrusted Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei to Shen Duan in hopes that his children would be fortunate enough to enter the Broken Star Palace. However, before Shen Duan died, he stated that Shen Jiawei and Shen Jiayi did not go to the Broken Star Palace.

So where did they go?

No one knew.

However, those two unruly kids, who had been missing for a long time, had finally appeared in front of Shen Yanxiao again.

How capable were they to find Sun Never Sets?

Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei were once the young master and young miss of the Vermilion Bird Family, and they were coddled by everyone in the family. Other than Shen Yanxiao, who gave them some hardships, they had never known what it meant to fail. Even though they were an embarrassment, these two unruly kids were still so high and mighty.

However, today...

Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei's clothes were no longer in their original color. They were only a year older than Shen Yanxiao, making them only fifteen years old. However, both of them were skinny, and their sallow, emaciated faces were covered with hideous scars. Some of the scars were even infected.

If their appearances had not changed, Shen Yanxiao would not have recognized them as those two unruly kids in her memories.

They were once proud sons of heaven, but now, they were reduced to two beggars.

Even though Shen Feng hated Shen Yue and Shen Duan, he still cherished Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei. After all, the Vermilion Bird Family only had her and these two unruly kids left in the lineage.

Even though Shen Feng had not said anything about finding them after he left the capital, Shen Yanxiao knew that her grandfather still cared about his grandson and granddaughter. However, he had taken her feelings into account, and so he had never mentioned it.

Shen Yanxiao understood that, but she did not have a favorable impression of the twins. Furthermore, she believed that they must have known about Shen Duan and Shen Yue's rebellion. Even if they had not participated in it, they still stood idly by the sidelines and watched as chaos unfolded.

Shen Yanxiao did not expect these two kids would travel so far to find her.

From their sorry state, it was apparent that Shen Duan had not given them a good place to stay.

How should she deal with them?

Shen Yanxiao sat on the high chair and propped her chin as she looked down at the two silent kids.

Her principle had always been to eliminate the problem at its roots. She had never regarded Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei as family, let alone after the fact that she had killed their father with her own hands.

These two unruly kids were already dissatisfied with her, and now they even had a grudge against her for killing their father. She did not think that it would be a good thing to extend a helping hand to them.

Kill them?

Shen Yanxiao frowned.

Shen Feng was still unaware of their arrival. The guards had brought Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei to her as soon as they arrived at Sun Never Sets. So, now would be a good opportunity to kill these two unruly kids right now.

Chapter 864: Uninvited Guests (3)

Killing intent surged in Shen Yanxiao's eyes, but she did not act on it.

On the other hand, the five beasts, who were there to gossip, were somewhat worried. When Shen Yanxiao received the news, they were there with her.

They knew about what had happened to the Vermilion Bird Family. Based on their understanding of Shen Yanxiao, they knew that the twins were doomed.

However...

Shen Jiayi was the sole descendant of the Vermilion Bird Family. Shen Duan, Shen Yue, and Shen Yifeng were all dead. Shen Siyu was not related to the Vermilion Bird Family by blood, and Shen Ling was still unmarried. Shen Jiawei was the only one who could continue the Vermilion Bird Family's bloodline.

If Shen Yanxiao were to kill Shen Jiawei, it would mean that the Vermilion Bird Family would have no descendants...

The five beasts broke out in cold sweat.

It seemed cruel to end one's family line.

Shen Yanxiao did not say anything for a long time. She merely stared at Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei thoughtfully. Qi Xia and the rest of the group could not figure out what Shen Yanxiao had in mind, so they could only look at her.

"You are quite capable. How did you manage to find Sun Never Sets? How did the demons not devour you along the way?" Shen Yanxiao wrinkled her eyebrows. The moment she opened her mouth, she immediately used her poisonous tongue to insta-kill those around her.

Shen Jiawei shivered and looked up at Shen Yanxiao. When he met her ice-cold gaze, he immediately lowered his head and trembled in place.

“It’s better if we were eaten. I don’t want to live anymore.” Shen Jiayi had a bitter smile on her dirty face. She did not know if she was mocking Shen Yanxiao or herself.

“We... we didn’t encounter any demons on our way here.” Shen Jiawei pulled on Shen Jiayi’s sleeve as he trembled. He was worried that Shen Yanxiao would be angered by Shen Jiayi’s rude tone.

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. It was not that they had not encountered any demons, but that all the demons on the road to the Sun Never Sets would deliberately avoid humans. That was her deterrence.

“What are you doing here?” Shen Yanxiao was not sure if she should kill them or let them go.

On one hand, killing them would align with her principle. But on the other hand, killing them would mean ending the lineage of Shen Feng and the Vermilion Bird Family.

Shen Jiayi wanted to say more, but Shen Jiawei immediately held her hand with a pleading expression. Shen Jiayi gritted her teeth and turned away without another word.

Shen Jiawei turned to Shen Yanxiao and said, “We heard that grandpa and fifth uncle are in Sun Never Sets. We want to see grandpa...”

Shen Yanxiao sneered.

“Meet my grandfather? On what basis? Based on the crazy things that your father has done? Or are you thinking you two are innocent just because you stood by and did nothing?”

Shen Jiawei turned pale.

“We know we were wrong! We know we were wrong. We just want to live our lives in peace and stability. We don’t want to think about anything else. Please... please be magnanimous and let us go to see grandpa.” Shen Jiawei’s voice sounded like he was about to cry. They had nothing left. Their warm family, their loving father, and all of their wealth had become fleeting clouds. They were even worse than beggars.

“Oh?” Shen Yanxiao sneered. “I’m curious. Where did Shen Duan send you? If you answer honestly, I might let you go and meet grandpa.”

Chapter 865: Uninvited Guests (4)

Based on her understanding of Shen Duan, he would never send the two of them to the Broken Star Palace. Plus, it was not a good place to live either. From their current situation, she knew that her guess had hit the mark.

However, she was curious as to where Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei were sent to. How did they manage to escape even though they were in such a sorry state?

In fact, Shen Yanxiao had given up on the thought of killing them. She did not want anything else but to make that old man, who was mentally and physically exhausted, no longer feel sad about his unfilial children and grandchildren.

Shen Jiawei and Shen Jiayi were brainless and incapable. They could not avoid her eyes and ears if they wanted to stay in Sun Never Sets. She had her ways to make these two unruly kids behave.

However, she had to make sure that she knew where they had come from and what had happened to them.

The moment Shen Yanxiao asked that question, Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei's faces turned pale in an instant. Their eyes were filled with the same despair and fear.

It was not a ruse, but fear that came from the bottom of her heart.

Shen Jiawei trembled even more. He crossed his arms and stared at the ground as his teeth chattered.

That memory was something that he never wanted to recall again.

"We... we were sent to a terrifying place..."

As Shen Jiawei spoke, Shen Yanxiao gradually revealed a trace of surprise.

After Shen Yue entrusted Shen Jiawei and Shen Jiayi to Shen Duan, he found a middle-aged man to take them away from the capital.

They rode on the carriage for several days before they were brought to a hidden valley.

They thought that they would be welcomed with great entourage, but they did not expect that what happened next would become their eternal nightmare.

The men who brought them into the valley handed them over to a few expressionless men in black robes. They were brought to a dark room in a daze. They then were forcefully imprisoned in a dirty dungeon without any explanation.

There were also many people imprisoned in the dungeon, and most of them were youths who had yet to reach adulthood. However, everyone there was filled with despair.

Shen Jiawei and Shen Jiayi were also shocked by what was happening.

However, the next day, they were taken out of the dungeon. Four burly men carried them to a basement and tied them to two long tables.

Those people in black cloaks began to use all sorts of strange potions on them. Their minds became more and more confused. They could not feel anything in their bodies. However, their mind was very clear. Their minds could think, but their bodies could no longer be controlled.

They could only look on helplessly as those people cut open their bodies and stuffed the contents of the bottles into their bodies...

"I don't know what they did to us, but... but ever since then, I felt that something was wrong..." Shen Jiawei looked at Shen Yanxiao with a deathly pale expression. As if to prove that he was not lying, he suddenly raised his hand and bit his arm. Then, he showed his hand to Shen Yanxiao.

It was a bone-deep wound, but there was not a single drop of blood. The wound looked pale, as if someone had drained the blood from his body.

Chapter 866: Uninvited Guests (5)

“They did something to us, but I don’t know what specifically.” Shen Jiawei was sobbing. He was afraid, afraid of the fear of the unknown change.

Undead...

They were one of the eight major races in the world. They were the only race that stood on the Devil race’s side in the war between the gods and the devils. They were dark and gloomy, with bodies filled with the aura of death.

Devils were terrifyingly powerful, but undeads were terrifying.

Someone once said that the undeads were immortal creatures. Unless they evolved, they could recover even if they were broken into pieces.

However, as the devils retreated in defeat, the undeads also withdrew from the Brilliance Continent. No one knew where they went.

Shen Yanxiao was sure that Shen Jiawei was a human.

However, he had the characteristics of an undead. Coupled with Shen Jiawei’s previous description of her encounter, Shen Yanxiao had a bad feeling about it.

Did Shen Duan send Shen Jiawei and Shen Jiayi to those people?

The villagers from the Graveyard of the Sun had also been infused with the characteristics of various races, but she did not find anything related to the undeads in them.

Shen Jiawei and Shen Jiayi were probably used as test subjects as well.

Shen Duan had connections with those people?

Shen Yanxiao gritted her teeth. She should not have killed Shen Duan so easily.

“How did you escape?” Shen Yanxiao stared at Shen Jiawei. After the incident at the Graveyard of the Sun, she did not believe that those people would let go of their precious test subjects. Even the failed products would be destroyed or severely controlled. How could they possibly escape?

Shen Jiawei was stunned.

“We did not escape...”

“You did not escape?”

“That place was destroyed, and those black-robed men were all dead. That was why we could escape.” Shen Jiawei’s face was pale as he silently pulled down his sleeves to cover his strange wound.

“Who did that?” Had someone already discovered that group of people? Shen Yanxiao thought that it was good news.

Shen Jiawei shook his head. “I don’t know.”

Shen Yanxiao pursed her lips. She did not believe everything Shen Jiawei had said.

At least she knew that what had happened to them was probably the same as what had happened to Uncle Nine and his group.

Shen Yanxiao’s gaze landed on Shen Jiayi, who had remained silent the entire time. Shen Jiayi and Shen Yanxiao were born to be at odds with each other, and even now, Shen Jiayi did not want to bow to her.

However, so what? She did not need them to bow to her. She only kept their lives to reassure Shen Feng.

“Alright, I will have someone arrange for you to settle down in Sun Never Sets. I will bring you to see grandpa later.” Shen Yanxiao’s mind was flooded with information, so she decided to analyze it before she made her next move.

Shen Jiawei’s eyes were filled with surprise as he looked at Shen Yanxiao in disbelief.

“Are you really taking us in?”

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and rudely warned them, “I’m only keeping you here for my grandpa. If you are obedient, I will not do anything to you. But if you dare to do anything out of line, I don’t mind killing you.”

Chapter 867: Turning Over A New Leaf? (1)

Shen Jiawei shivered. Shen Yanxiao had changed so much that he could no longer associate her with that pitiful girl.

It had only been a year, but the Vermilion Bird Family had undergone tremendous changes. He and Shen Jiayi were once pampered children of the Vermilion Bird Family. However, their father had rebelled and was subsequently executed. Shen Duan had also died. On the other hand, Shen Yanxiao had risen to fame. Not only did she have outstanding achievements, but she also had skills that left them in the dust. She had won the Inter-academy Tournament and built Sun Never Sets in half a year. None of them could surpass her.

When he entered Sun Never Sets, Shen Jiawei noticed the interior and exterior of the city. He was amazed by the perfection of the city, and his dissatisfaction with Shen Yanxiao had quickly turned into admiration after his recent encounters with Shen Yanxiao’s achievements.

Even though he was unscrupulous and willful, he had matured after so many setbacks.

He no longer dared to question Shen Yanxiao. Instead, he felt a subtle respect and admiration for her.

He was a year older than Shen Yanxiao, and he had been pampered since he was young. He also had his father to care for him, and he had the best food and clothing. However, he had fallen to such a state.

On the other hand, Shen Yanxiao had always been bullied by them and neglected by the Vermilion Bird Family. However, her achievements were beyond their reach.

He did not expect that Shen Yanxiao would take them in. He came to Sun Never Sets because he was at his wit's end. He did not expect that Shen Yanxiao would let bygones be bygones.

Shen Jiawei's immature mind was flooded with indescribable complicated emotions. There was disappointment, surprise, and even more indescribable emotions.

"Thank you, City Lord." Shen Jiawei looked up at Shen Yanxiao. He felt ashamed when he thought about how he had belittled Shen Yanxiao.

Shen Jiayi did not say a single word from the start to the end. She just allowed Shen Jiawei to take the lead.

Shen Yanxiao found Evil Wolf and asked him to arrange accommodation for Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei.

"Retribution is not a pleasant thing. I am amazed." Yan Yu had a gentle personality, and he could not help but sigh when he saw what had happened to the twins.

"It seems like Shen Jiawei has matured quite a bit. They must have had a rough time during this period." Tang Nazhi felt sorry for the pair of siblings. They had enjoyed wealth and status throughout their lives, but their family had been ruined because of their father's misjudgement.

"I thought you would kill them."

It was Shen Yanxiao's usual style to eliminate the weeds and the roots. He did not expect that she would let the twins off.

Paying evil with kindness?

That was not her style.

Shen Yanxiao glanced at Qi Xia and said,

"I don't care if they live or die, but I have to be mindful of my grandfather. They have already received their due punishment. If they live their lives honestly in the future, I will naturally raise them well. But if they don't know what's good for them, I will not hesitate to take action."

She no longer wanted Shen Feng to suffer the pain of losing a kin. She wanted Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei to live as a show of filial piety for Shen Feng.

Chapter 868: Turning Over A New Leaf? (2)

Evil Wolf arranged for Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei to stay in a pretty good yard. Even though the yard was not big, it was enough for the two youths who had yet to reach adulthood.

“You can stay here in the future. I will get someone to send you some food and clothes so that you can wash up in your room.” Evil Wolf did not know the identities of these two newcomers. He was only following Shen Yanxiao’s instructions.

Evil Wolf laughed heartily. Then, he took the twins to have a look around the yard before expressing his intentions to leave.

“Thank you, brother. How may I address you?” Shen Jiawei looked at Evil Wolf gratefully.

“Ha, you can call me Evil Wolf. You can rest first. I will arrange for someone to come.” Evil Wolf scratched his head. Shen Jiawei had good looks, and even though he was in a sorry state, he did not look detestable.

On the other hand, the young lady at the side did not say anything. Instead, she constantly had a gloomy expression on her face. Evil Wolf did not want to stay any longer and left as soon as he said that.

Shen Jiawei watched as Evil Wolf left. Just as he was about to go to his room to get some water to wash up, he saw Shen Jiayi staring at him with a gloomy expression.

Shen Jiawei’s heart dropped. He felt afraid. He and Shen Jiayi were imprisoned separately, and they had only met again when they were escaping. Shen Jiawei had always been afraid of his sister, and the Shen Jiayi that he saw now was even more frightening.

“Sister...”

Bang!

Before Shen Jiawei could finish his sentence, Shen Jiayi slapped him.

“Bastard! Aren’t you so quick to please that bitch just now? You’re so shameless! And you even dared to call me sister?!” Shen Jiayi narrowed her eyes and glared at Shen Jiawei fiercely. She gave him a tight slap that left a red mark on his face.

“Sister, what are you doing? We... we are already in this state. City Lord is already being very kind to take us in. Why are you still talking about her like this?” Shen Jiawei had turned over a new leaf. After his suffering, the sharp edges in his body had been worn away. He was sincerely grateful for Shen Yanxiao’s kindness.

He could not understand why Shen Jiayi was still acting like this.

“City Lord? Ha! Shen Jiawei, you disgust me. What is that trash? Have you forgotten that it was that bastard who killed our father?” Shen Jiayi said coldly.

“Father was in the wrong. He wanted to harm grandfather...” Shen Jiawei bit his lips. Even though he was heartbroken about Shen Yue’s death, he knew that he had only himself to blame. Even they had received their share of retribution

If their father had not rebelled, they would not have been sent to that place, and they would not be in their current state.

“You good-for-nothing!” Shen Jiayi was furious when Shen Jiawei tried to explain himself. She lifted her leg and kicked him to the ground.

“That bastard is already a candidate for the next Family Head. If father had not done what he did, that bitch would have trampled all over us! You idiot, how can you defend the person who killed your father? You’re such a jerk! Who do you think caused our current situation? It’s all because of Shen Yanxiao. If she had remained as a fool, the position of the next Family Head would have belonged to us. If that did not happen, would father need to do what he did? If not for her, why did you think we would be reduced to this state?”

Chapter 869: Turning Over A New Leaf? (3)

Shen Jiayi hated Shen Yanxiao. Without Shen Yanxiao, her life would not have turned out like this. It was all because of Shen Yanxiao.

Why?!

Why was Shen Yanxiao so successful while she was treated as a guinea pig? Not only was she about to inherit the Vermilion Bird Family, but she also had a perfect city to her name with a group of elegant, handsome young men by her side.

She was merely a mixed-blood between a human and an elf. She did not deserve to live in this world!

Why was it that all the good things in the world were taken by her? And why did she deserve all this suffering?

If it were not for Shen Yanxiao...

If it were not for Shen Yanxiao, everything would have been hers!

Hatred surfaced on her scarred face. Shen Jiayi vented all her anger on Shen Jiawei. That traitorous bastard had the cheek to defend Shen Yanxiao!

“Sister... stop it!” Shen Jiawei curled his body as he trembled. His face was covered in tears as he endured Shen Jiayi’s punches and kicks. He did not know what was going on with his sister. How was Shen Jiayi still unable to understand their situation?

“I’ll just beat you to death. It is a disgrace to keep you alive. Don’t you like to curry favor with that bastard? If you like it so much, I’ll kill you right now! Let’s see if you can continue curry favor with her!” The more Shen Jiayi abused her brother, the angrier she got. She could no longer control her strength.

Shen Jiawei rolled his eyes and fell to the ground as his body convulsed.

She would not let Shen Yanxiao have an easy time. She would take back everything that she had lost!

The people that Evil Wolf had arranged for them to come in saw Shen Jiawei, who was still convulsing in the yard. They hastily helped him into his room and laid him down.

Shen Jiawei had lost consciousness, and his face was covered in tears. His lips twitched as he continued to mumble.

Shen Yanxiao soon found out about the fight. Evil Wolf had left and Shen Jiawei was the only one left in the yard—it was obvious who did it.

These siblings were really unpredictable.

“I think Shen Jiawei has learned his lesson. Shen Jiayi, on the other hand, is still as annoying as ever.” Tang Nazhi pursed his lips when he heard the news. How could that young miss still have the thought to hit her brother?

“Shen Jiawei is not a bad person. At most, he is just a lackey. He only listens to Shen Jiayi’s words.” Shen Yanxiao knew the twins well. Shen Jiawei was not a vicious person. He didn’t have the guts to do what he did. Most of the time, it was Shen Jiayi’s suggestion to commit evil.

Even when they bullied her, it was Shen Jiayi’s idea.

“Shen Jiawei might be sincerely repentant, but that is not the case for Shen Jiayi. You have to keep an eye on her,” Qi Xia said.

“Of course.” She had never thought that Shen Jiayi would turn over a new leaf.

Even after so many dreadful experiences, she still refused to change. She probably still hated her to the bone.

But she would continue observing Shen Jiawei. If he were truly repentant, she would take care of him for Shen Feng’s sake.

“When do you plan to arrange for them to meet with your grandfather?” Yang Xi asked.

Shen Yanxiao frowned. Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei were still injured, and if Shen Feng were to see them in that state, his heart would ache.

Chapter 870: Turning Over a New Leaf? (4)

Due to the strange state of Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei’s bodies, Shen Yanxiao asked someone to invite Uncle Nine over.

“Uncle Nine, I have two people with me. Can you come with me to check whether they are the same as the people in the Graveyard of the Sun?” Shen Yanxiao was not sure if the people that Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei had encountered were from the same organization as the people in the Graveyard of the Sun. Therefore, she invited Uncle Nine to take a look.

“Sure.” Uncle Nine nodded.

When the two of them arrived at Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei’s yard, Shen Jiawei, who had just woken up and freshened up, walked out of his room in a simple robe. The door to Shen Jiayi’s room was locked.

“City Lord, why are you here?” Shen Jiawei looked at Shen Yanxiao in surprise.

“I brought someone here to check on your injuries,” Shen Yanxiao said with a straight face.

“Err... thank you,” Shen Jiawei lowered his head in surprise and said in embarrassment.

Shen Jiawei felt embarrassed that someone he had once bullied had brought someone to examine his wound.

Shen Jiawei lowered his head in silence and clenched his fists.

“Perhaps my sister is tired and is still resting.” Shen Jiawei did not dare to let Shen Yanxiao meet Shen Jiayi. He still remembered Shen Jiayi’s flurry of curses, and he knew that his sister still hated Shen Yanxiao.

If it were in the past, he would have helped Shen Jiayi to deal with Shen Yanxiao. However, at that moment, he only hoped that he could persuade Shen Jiayi not to go against Shen Yanxiao.

“In that case, let Uncle Nine take a look at your injuries.” It was good that she would not see that brat. Shen Jiawei could still be saved. Shen Jiayi, on the other hand, was the perfect example of an incurable person.

Shen Jiawei looked nervous. He looked at the kind Uncle Nine and subconsciously covered the wound on his arm.

“I... I will scare him,” Shen Jiawei stuttered.

His current physical condition was completely different from that of an ordinary person. It was likely that his condition would shock them.

“You’re so long-winded. I told you to let him look, and you will do as I say.” Shen Yanxiao frowned.

“Young lad, don’t worry. I’ve seen your condition before.” Shen Yanxiao had given him some of the details prior their arrival. He already had a general idea of what had happened, but he still needed to observe more to determine if they were the same group of people.

“Then... I’ll have to trouble you, senior.” Shen Jiawei nodded obediently like a young child.

“Uncle Nine, I will have to trouble you to take care of this. I still have some matters to attend to. You can tell me more when you have reached a conclusion.” Shen Yanxiao had asked Uncle Nine to come to check on Shen Jiawei’s condition and to treat his injuries. If he had fused with the characteristics of an undead, then even ordinary doctors would not be able to tell. Uncle Nine was an experienced doctor in that regard.

“Sure, go ahead.” Uncle Nine smiled and dragged the nervous Shen Jiawei into a room.

Shen Yanxiao turned to look at Shen Jiayi’s room. The door was tightly shut, but she could still feel a pair of malicious eyes staring at her through the gap.

Shen Yanxiao sneered. It seemed like she would never change.

She wanted to see what kind of trouble Shen Jiayi could cause in her city!
