

The Good 951

Chapter 951: Army Training (1)

Seven days later, Long Fei left Blizzard City with his men.

Shen Yanxiao summoned Xiu at the very first instance.

“I’ve become a Second-Class Expert!” Shen Yanxiao stood in front of Xiu with a smile. Her curved eyebrows made her look like a cat that had stolen a fish.

Xiu glanced at Shen Yanxiao and asked, “So?”

“Hehe, help me train my army!” Shen Yanxiao blinked innocently.

“Alright.” Xiu agreed to Shen Yanxiao’s request without any hesitation.

That was what they had agreed on beforehand.

However, Shen Yanxiao’s growth was too fast. Even Xiu did not expect her to break through to become a Second-Class Expert in a month.

“I’ll hand over the demons in Sun Never Sets to you, and you’ll train them for me?” The constitution of an ordinary person was very weak. Even though Shen Yanxiao had thought of letting those slaves train, they were already adults. Even if she were to use various potions to wash their meridians, their futures would be limited; it would be hard for them to become a Second-Class Expert in their lifetimes.

Letting Xiu train them was similar to having an architect build a magnificent castle with blocks of tofu. It might look beautiful on the outside, but it could not withstand a real blow.

Therefore, Shen Yanxiao had already thought it through. Since she wanted Xiu to take action, then she must prepare the best for him.

Advanced-ranked demons were her targets.

Previously, Shen Yanxiao had brought back a few advanced-ranked demons from the north. Those demons had officially joined the demon army in Sun Never Sets. Coupled with the number of advanced-ranked demons in Sun Never Sets and Qiao Chu and the rest from Oriental City, there was an endless stream of advanced-ranked demons that came to join Sun Never Sets. When those demons gathered together, the number of advanced-ranked demons under Shen Yanxiao had exceeded 400!

Most of the 400 advanced-ranked demons had entered the Demons Guild for mercenary activities.

However, demons were lazy by nature. Even though they were powerful individually, their ability to cooperate together was trash.

Otherwise, they would not have been forced into the Forsaken Land by the regular armies of the four countries.

Shen Yanxiao had no idea to make those advanced-ranked demons cooperate.

Right now, the best choice was to hand them over to Xiu.

Demons had always been unruly. Even after they had been subdued by Shen Yanxiao, there was probably no one other than Shen Yanxiao that they truly obeyed.

Even though Du Lang had taught the demons about mercenaries, all he could do was talk about his experiences, whether the advanced-ranked demons actually listened to him, he had no clue.

They were willing to listen to Du Lang's preaches because of Shen Yanxiao. However, if Du Lang were to try to stand above them and criticize them, those demons would have already rebelled.

However, Xiu was different. Shen Yanxiao still had not figured out his strength until now. If she said that there was another individual who could suppress those demons besides her, it was obviously that apart from Xiu, there was no second candidate.

"Sure." Xiu nodded. He was satisfied with Shen Yanxiao's decision. In fact, he was worried that he would have to train ordinary humans. Before he could actually train them, they might actually be left either dead or injured.

Shen Yanxiao's decision made him feel more at ease.

Chapter 952: Army Training (2)

"But it doesn't seem like you can condense your body for a long time. Will you be okay?" Shen Yanxiao was still worried. Xiu was in his soul form after all. It would be very difficult for him to condense his body for a long time in front of the demons.

"I have my ways," Xiu faintly said.

"Alright, I'll get Freud and the rest right now." Shen Yanxiao did as she was told. After Xiu returned to her body, she immediately rushed towards the Demons Guild.

In the Demons Guild, two advanced-ranked demons were seated at the front desk, lazily sprawled on the table. The bulletin board on one side was plastered with various missions.

Most of them would gather and escort caravans in the Forsaken Land.

For advanced-ranked demons, these missions were simply child's play. It was no wonder that those demons could not lift their spirits.

Thinking about it, it seemed like it was a waste of resources to have a group of advanced-ranked demons comparable to Second-Class Experts running errands for some weak humans.

At first, the advanced-ranked demons found it interesting, but later on, they became quite impatient.

When the two advanced-ranked demons notified Shen Yanxiao's arrival, they immediately became spirited.

She was their master! They had to perform well.

"Where's Freud?" Shen Yanxiao looked around. The arrangement of the Demons Guild was built according to the normal guild; Du Lang seemed to have put in a lot of effort.

"Boss is in the back hall." The two demons stretched out their claws and pointed behind them.

Freud was the boss of advanced-ranked demons for two reasons. Firstly, he was the first one to follow Shen Yanxiao, making him much closer to her than other demons. When Shen Yanxiao arranged for demons to do things, Freud would usually be the one to lead them.

Second...

It was Freud's strength. One could only imagine how powerful he was. After he beat up Tian Qiu, Zhong Ling, and Jia Lan and Jia He, no demon would question his strength.

Shen Yanxiao walked towards the back hall. The moment she entered, she saw Freud lying on the soft couch like a master, sleeping soundly!

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and stepped forward. She lifted her leg and kicked that sleeping guy to the ground.

No wonder the advanced-ranked demons were so listless, it was all because of this guy's bad influence!

Freud was sound asleep when someone suddenly kicked him off the bed. Disturbed, he immediately opened his purple eyes that were filled with fury.

He looked up, wanting to see which idiot dared to disturb his rest.

When Shen Yanxiao's face suddenly entered his sight, the fury in Freud's eyes instantly disappeared without a trace, and his purple monstrous eyes returned to normal black eyes.

"City Lord... why are you here?" Freud carefully looked at Shen Yanxiao. He had suffered that kick for nothing.

Shen Yanxiao snorted and sat on the soft couch. She crossed her arms and legs as she looked at the unusually obedient demon.

"Did you sleep well?"

Freud subconsciously nodded, but he immediately realized his mistake and immediately shook his head.

"Uncomfortable... erm, City Lord, is something the matter?" Freud secretly wiped the cold sweat on his forehead. The change of this little girl was too savage. When he first met her, her strength was not worth mentioning before him. He could have pinched her to death with a finger. But in a blink of an eye, her strength grew to be about the same as his.

Chapter 953: Army Training (3)

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

"Yes." Shen Yanxiao looked at Freud with uncertainty. At that gaze, Freud felt as if he was sitting on pins and needles.

"Leave the current task at hand to the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group for the time being. In a while, gather all the advanced-ranked demons in the city," Shen Yanxiao said.

“Err! Lord, which city do you want to attack?” Freud immediately became spirited. The last time Shen Yanxiao asked him to gather demons, she wanted him to demonstrate her might to Oriental City. Now that she was asking him to gather the demons again, she was planning on abusing someone again!?

Freud’s blood immediately boiled.

God knew that they had been flooded with some trivial tasks all day long—it had nearly suffocated them to death. They sincerely wished that a few idiots would jump out and give them an excuse to let out their frustrations on them.

Shen Yanxiao’s orders today finally allowed Freud to see hope!

But very soon, Shen Yanxiao’s next words sent Freud from heaven to the eighteenth floor of hell.

“What the heck? Do I look like such a violent person to you?”

Freud looked at Shen Yanxiao and swallowed back the word ‘yes’.

“No!”

“Don’t ask so many questions. Just call them over.”

“Oh.” Freud did not dare to ask any more questions. He immediately ran out to find a way to bring all the advanced-ranked demons over.

It had to be said that Freud’s efficiency was pretty good. In less than an hour, all the advanced-ranked demons in Sun Never Sets and Oriental City stood before Shen Yanxiao in unison. The four hundred plus advanced-ranked demons tightly packed the entire lobby until not even a drop of water could trickle through.

Standing at the forefront were Freud, Enchantress, Zhong Ling, Tian Qiu, Qiao Chu, Jia Lan, and Jia He. In addition, Shen Yanxiao also saw a few advanced-ranked demons that she had tricked into coming from the north; one of them was tall and another was short.

The advanced-ranked demons were very excited. They were so bored out of their minds that they were even considering watching paint dry. So, when they heard that the City Lord was calling them over, they immediately rushed to the gathering point, fearing that they would miss the opportunity to fight.

Shen Yanxiao sat on the soft couch, feeling the passionate gazes from the demons in front of her. These demons were just short of engraving the words “seek excitement, fight to the death” on their forehead.

Were they really that bored?

Shen Yanxiao facepalmed. Missions in the Forsaken Land were not challenging enough for the demons, but she did not intend for the Demons Guild to accept any missions outside the Forsaken Land for the time being.

After all, they were her trump cards, and she would not be willing to lose any of them.

Shen Yanxiao said nothing, but the demons continued to be excited.

However, the few demons that Shen Yanxiao tricked into coming here from the north were filled with confusion.

“She the City Lord of Sun Never Sets?” A northern advanced-ranked demon asked as he pulled the sleeves of the local demons.

The local demons said with contempt,

“Other than our Lord, what human could be so gorgeous?”

As long as it had something to do with Shen Yanxiao, the demons had learned to sing praises of her. They would never forget to sing praises for her.

“...but she wasn’t the one I met back then.” That demon was innocent. He was tricked into coming here by a young man who claimed to be called ‘Shen Jue’. Even though the standard of living in Sun Never Sets was very high, there seemed to be something wrong with the person who recruited them!

Chapter 954: Army Training (4)

At that time, the one they met was an unattractive young man, so why was ‘he’ now a peerless beauty?

The northern advanced-ranked demons were puzzled.

“Haven’t you been bored lately?” Shen Yanxiao lazily lay on the soft couch. She propped her head with her fair, tender hands and looked at the group of adorable demons with a faint smile.

“The Lord is mighty!” The group of demons fawned on her endlessly.

Shen Yanxiao revealed a wicked smile.

“That’s great then. I have something for you to do, and I guarantee you won’t feel bored doing it.”

“Really...?” The advanced-ranked demons looked at Shen Yanxiao with excitement. Only Freud’s expression was not as bright.

He had a hunch that the ‘something’ Shen Yanxiao had found for them this time...

Would not be to their likings.

However...

Freud did not dare to say it!!

Shen Yanxiao had just caught him goofing off. If he were to mess with the Lord’s plans right now, he would definitely be beaten to death!

“Really.” Shen Yanxiao’s eyes flickered with a nasty glint.

The demons were getting even more excited.

“I will invite a person...” Shen Yanxiao paused. A person? That did not seem right. Xiu was not a person.

“A great god.” Shen Yanxiao took a deep breath and said, “For today onwards, he will train all of you until you turn into a powerful army.”

“An army...?”

The demons, who were as excited as if they had been injected with chicken blood, were suddenly all dumbstruck when they heard the truth.

The Lord intended to train them into... an army?

“That’s right. You will become the first regular army of Sun Never Sets.” Shen Yanxiao smiled.

The demons were instantly petrified.

This news was too shocking!!

“Lord, are you serious?” They were already depressed enough being mercenaries, but Shen Yanxiao wanted them to be soldiers? They were demons for goodness sake!

Savage demons! Was it alright for her to use them like humans?

“What do you think?” Shen Yanxiao sat up with a smile that made every demon’s hair stand on end.

The demons wanted to reject the idea. But for some reason, they felt chills down their spines when they saw Shen Yanxiao’s smile.

Shen Yanxiao saw through their intentions with a glance and sneered. “Those who wish to withdraw can leave at any time. The dark elements in Sun Never Sets do not feed freeloaders.”

Freeloaders...

The group of demons cried in an instant. They were at least as strong as Second-Class Experts, but they were regarded as freeloaders by the Lord.

“Why? You don’t think so?” Shen Yanxiao smiled and said, “Why don’t you tell me what use you have to Sun Never Sets? I have humans to build the city, and I have humans to develop it. Even the guards are under the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group. What use are you demons?”

Shen Yanxiao’s words were like a bucket of cold water that splashed all over the demons.

It seemed like they were really of no use to Sun Never Sets.

Even their current mercenary missions were trivial matters. Those missions were something the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group could easily handle. Du Lang had only given them these missions because he noticed that they had nothing to do...

The demons who were brimming with confidence instantly wilted like dried eggplants.

So they were useless. They had been eating for free!!

Sobs, this did not make sense. They were demons that had ruled over land. How did they end up like this?

Chapter 955: Army Training (5)

The demons did not notice that Shen Yanxiao had tricked them into thinking that they were worthless.

They had been recruited by Shen Yanxiao to lessen the obstacles in regards to the construction of Sun Never Sets, and because of that the entire eastern region of the Forsaken Land had also stabilized.

However, since Shen Yanxiao did not mention it, they did not realize it.

Right now, all they could think of was why they were so useless. Even weak humans were contributing so much to Sun Never Sets, but advanced-ranked demons like them were just waiting around doing nothing.

This had greatly hurt the demons' self-esteem.

When Shen Yanxiao saw that she had dealt enough blows to their self-esteem, she gently comforted them. "Truthfully, I think that all of you are very strong. It would be a waste to have you do those meager tasks. I rather like the sound of being the strongest army in the Forsaken Land."

Shen Yanxiao gave them a tight slap. First, she said that the demons were useless. Now, she was praising them for their potential. Soon, the demons who were resistant to the idea of forming an army were moved.

"Lord, why don't we give it a try?" The demons were confused and they rightly fell into Shen Yanxiao's trap.

Freud, the only one who was still rational, had already shed tears for Shen Yanxiao's shamelessness and for the demons' innocence.

Despicable, too despicable!

Was it alright to fool innocent demons like so?

Unfortunately, Freud did not dare to voice his anger, as he had completely surrendered to Shen Yanxiao's tyrannical might.

"Sure." Shen Yanxiao smiled and looked at the demons.

"Then who is this great god that the Lord intends for him to teach us?" The demons were confused. They were already familiar with the members of Sun Never Sets. Other than Shen Yanxiao, they did not think anyone could suppress them.

For example, even though Du Lang was experienced and smart, he could not suppress these advanced-ranked demons with his aura.

Shen Yanxiao smiled and suddenly raised her hand. Promptly, a faint black mist overflowed from her chest.

The demons widened their eyes as they looked at the scene before them in shock.

They watched as the black mist gradually condensed, and before long a slender figure appeared before their eyes.

They had just barely glimpsed at the figure, but the four hundred plus advanced-ranked demons suddenly felt a powerful pressure that they had never experienced before suddenly enveloping them in an instant.

Almost immediately, beads of sweat started to drip down from their foreheads and their breaths became extremely heavy.

Every demon's gaze was locked on that peerlessly handsome figure. What shocked them was not his peerless appearance, but the powerful aura he radiated.

Xiu condensed his body, and his slender figure floated in the air. His golden eyes carried a dreadful chill as he swept across the group of advanced-ranked demons before him.

With just a glance, every advanced-ranked demon felt an invisible fear.

A few weaker advanced-ranked demons almost had the urge to kneel when they saw Xiu.

"Demons." Xiu's thin lips parted. His cold golden eyes carried a trace of chilliness.

Immediately as he spoke, the demons in the hall immediately felt a huge pressure crashing down on them. More than four hundred advanced-ranked demons knelt on the ground at the same time!

Chapter 956: Army Training (6)

Xiu was like a king as he looked at the kneeling demons.

Shen Yanxiao was stunned. She had experienced Xiu's aura before on Mount Kuluo.

Back then, Xiu had released the same pressure to suppress the two Phoenixes.

However, it seemed like demons were more susceptible to Xiu's aura. It was as if Xiu's existence had a great influence on them.

"This great god is the one who will be training you. You can call him Xiu." Shen Yanxiao cleared her throat. The demons' reaction was far too intense; it was a little out of her expectations.

"We wouldn't dare!" The group of demons immediately trembled.

They did not have the courage to call him by his honorific name.

Shen Yanxiao was instantly speechless. Xiu had only just said two words and revealed his face, yet he had already frightened these advanced-ranked demons to this extent?

"Forget it. In any case, you won't have the chance to call for him. You just have to know that you will be under his care in the future." Shen Yanxiao sighed. She reckoned that under Xiu's tutelage, this group of demons would not have the energy to call him. Besides, looking at their current state, they were like rats that had seen a cat when they saw Xiu. How could she expect them to say anything?

"Yes!"

The demons were extremely obedient.

Shen Yanxiao felt depressed. If she had known that they could be this obedient, she would have let Xiu out earlier on to scare them to death. She had truly wasted her breath.

Xiu did not say much. He only asked Shen Yanxiao to find a hidden and spacious place to train the demons.

Shen Yanxiao directly gave Xiu a training ground in the underground city. That place was originally used by the Devil race to train their troops. As it was underground, it was not damaged and could be used at any time.

However, Shen Yanxiao kept the matter of training her troops a secret. So, for the time being, she would leave the Demons Guild to the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group's care.

Du Lang did not ask any questions and quietly took over the matter of the Demons Guild. Even though some people in Sun Never Sets were curious as to why the advanced-ranked demons had suddenly disappeared, they were smart enough not to ask.

In regards to Shen Yanxiao's arrangement, everyone in Sun Never Sets was highly cooperative. They would listen to whatever Shen Yanxiao was willing to say. They believed that she had her reasons for not telling them.

Even the five beasts did not ask much.

Thus, Xiu's training of the demons was decided.

Shen Yanxiao did not know how Xiu trained the demons. Every day when she entered the training ground to bring Xiu there, she would always be sent away with a look of disdain.

Even when Xiu's strength ran out, causing him to return to her body, she did not know what method he used to train the demons.

She wanted to find out more, but Xiu forbade anyone from entering the training ground. Furthermore, all advanced-ranked demons were not allowed to go out of the training ground. Unless the training ended, they would be locked up in the training ground forever.

In any case, demons did not need to eat. They just needed dark elements.

The collective disappearance of the advanced-ranked demons in Sun Never Sets made the merchants who entered Sun Never Sets curious. They did not know the identities of those advanced-ranked demons. They only knew that there were many handsome men missing in Sun Never Sets; this tragedy had caused many women who admired them to bite off numerous handkerchiefs in frustration.

There were also many women who came to the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group to inquire about the status of the advanced-ranked demons in the main hall. As a result, the serious men of the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group were beating their chest and stomping their feet in jealousy.

Chapter 957: Army Training (7)

Although they knew they were demons, they still felt immensely jealous when groups of young, pretty maidens were chasing after demons with tears in tow and throwing handkerchiefs at them, while they, as normal humans, were left alone. Their self-esteem as men had suffered an unprecedented blow on that day!

The men of the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group were crying, and so were the demons in the underground city.

Although the advanced-ranked demons were the ones going for training, low and intermediate-ranked demons were also suffering by their side at a fixed time every day.

The pressure radiating from the training ground was simply torture to them.

Think about it. How could low and intermediate-ranked demons handle the pressure when advanced-ranked demons couldn't even save themselves?

They wanted to die!

The leaders had all ran off, and they were still tortured by the unknown god. This was such a painful matter for the heart.

As Xiu would appear every day, Shen Yanxiao had to work harder in her training. Moreover, she would help Xiu absorb dark elements with the black crystal when she had nothing better to do.

With regards to Shen Yanxiao frequently entering and leaving the underground city, the five beasts could not help but...

"Say, Xiaoxiao, aren't you either locked up in your room to train or going to the underground city these past few days? What exactly are you doing?" Tang Nazhi had been holding in his curiosity for several days before he finally dragged his friends to find Shen Yanxiao. He was honestly curious as to what this little girl was doing behind their backs.

Shen Yanxiao had just finished her training and came out to hunt for food when she saw the five beasts appearing in front of her in unison.

She pursed her lips and looked at the five beasts. "Do you want to know?"

The five of them nodded in tacit understanding.

"Just wait. You will know soon." Shen Yanxiao smiled.

"..."

This little girl did not intend to tell them anything!

The five beasts were depressed.

At that very moment, a figure quietly appeared outside the mansion.

Shen Jiawei looked at the tightly shut gates of the mansion with hesitation. After pacing back and forth for a long time, he finally knocked on the door.

When Shen Jiawei entered the mansion, the five beasts were still staring at Shen Yanxiao. When they saw Shen Jiawei, a trace of doubt surfaced in their eyes.

Why was this kid here?

Ever since Shen Jiawei and Shen Jiayi entered Sun Never Sets, they had been well-behaved. Shen Yanxiao's previous arrangement was right. When Shen Feng saw the two children, the joy on his face could not be concealed. No matter how evil their father was, they were still Shen Feng's grandson and granddaughter. Shen Feng was very grateful that Shen Yanxiao had allowed them to stay.

Shen Jiayi rarely appeared in public, and she had not moved into Shen Feng's residence. Instead, she stayed in the yard that Shen Yanxiao had first arranged for them. Other than going out to eat, she basically would not leave her room. She would lock herself in the house, not leaving any time to interact with outsiders. Even Shen Jiawei could not speak to her.

As for Shen Jiawei, he had truly come to his senses.

During this period of time, he had been very well-behaved. Every day, he would pay his respects to Shen Feng and chat with him. For the rest of the day, he would help out in various parts of the city. He would never ask for more nor did he ever demand anything. It was as if he was atoning for his previous sin. He was really trying his best to reduce the burden on Shen Yanxiao.

Not long ago, he had even thought of joining the city guards to oversee the city gates.

The five beasts saw the change in Shen Jiawei, so they were not as prejudiced against him as before.

Chapter 958: Never Changing 'Till Death (1)

"Jiawei, what's the matter?" Shen Yanxiao looked at Shen Jiawei with a calm expression.

His hands in his sleeves, Shen Jiawei looked at Shen Yanxiao with hesitation.

"I... have something to discuss with the City Lord in private... is that okay?" Shen Jiawei carefully asked.

Shen Yanxiao said without any hesitation, "Sure, come with me to my study." After she said that, she left.

Shen Jiawei nodded to the five beasts and followed Shen Yanxiao.

"Why do you think Shen Jiawei came to look for Xiaoxiao?" Tang Nazhi crossed his arms and looked at Shen Jiawei's stiff back.

"We don't have to worry." Qi Xia shrugged his shoulders.

The five of them had reached a consensus to not pry further. Thinking about it, Shen Jiawei coming to look for Shen Yanxiao was probably for an internal matter of the Vermilion Bird Family, so it was better for them not to listen in.

In the study, Shen Yanxiao sat on the chair and calmly looked at Shen Jiawei who was somewhat nervous.

When Shen Yanxiao had just transmigrated, the first thing she saw when she woke up was Shen Jiawei and Shen Jiayi, these two unruly kids, mocking her. At that time, she was the Vermilion Bird Family's disgrace, and was swiftly derided by everyone.

With the passage of time, the people who had humiliated her had grown ill at ease before her eyes.

"Have a seat first." Shen Yanxiao was not a child anymore, so she had no interest in continuing this petty fight between children.

Shen Jiawei and Shen Jiayi were no longer worth her time to deal with.

Shen Jiawei hesitated for a moment before he slowly sat down. As he looked at Shen Yanxiao, there was a trace of struggle in his eyes. The words he was about to blurt out were swallowed back in hesitation.

Shen Yanxiao was not anxious. She just looked at Shen Jiawei quietly. She knew that he would say something once he was ready.

"I... I have something to tell you..." Shen Jiawei hesitated for a long time before managing to squeeze out that sentence.

Shen Yanxiao sighed and said, "Just say it."

Shen Jiawei took a deep breath and said, "Sister... has been acting weird recently."

"Why do you say that?" Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows. She did not expect Shen Jiawei to come and talk to her about Shen Jiayi.

The twins did not have a particularly good relationship with each other. She had heard about it a lot from many people. Shen Jiayi seemed to hate Shen Jiawei. Every time she met him, she would be unhappy. Shen Jiawei, on the other hand, still respected his straightforward sister like before. Even when Shen Jiayi beat him up, he never fought back.

What exactly happened that made Shen Jiawei, who had always protected Shen Jiayi, suddenly come find her?

A trace of struggle appeared on Shen Jiawei's face.

"Until now, Sister is still unwilling to go out of her room. She locks herself in her room all day long, and I'm worried. There were several times when I wanted to ask her out for a walk but she chased me out. However..." Shen Jiawei bit his lips.

"But some time ago, when I went to look for her, I discovered that there was someone else in her room."

"Who is it?" In Sun Never Sets, these two unruly kids did not know many people. Furthermore, due to Shen Jiayi's strange personality, the people here did not like to interact with her. Who would look for her?

"I'm not sure. I only stayed outside for a while and only heard a man's voice. It's unfamiliar, and it did not sound like anyone I've met in Sun Never Sets. Moreover, what that man said worries me," Shen Jiawei frowned and said.

"What did he say?" Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes and asked.

Chapter 959: Never Changing 'Till Death (2)

Shen Jiawei hesitated for a moment before he slowly said, "He said... did you find No.2..."

"No.2?" Shen Yanxiao frowned. She did not quite understand the meaning of the question.

Shen Jiawei nodded. Seeing that Shen Yanxiao was puzzled, he said, "When we were imprisoned in the hands of those evil men, we heard that they had modified many people before turning to us. Nine of them were mentioned often. When they mentioned those nine people, they would usually only mention their code names. From No.2 to No.10, No.2 was one of them. But I heard that the No.2 test subject was lost.”

Shen Yanxiao was surprised by Shen Jiawei’s words.

Modified? Lost test subjects?

All the clues pointed to one person... Lan Fengli!

Shen Yanxiao remembered Yun Qi’s instructions and immediately asked. “Do you know anything else about No.2?”

Shen Jiawei said, “I only heard them mention it from time to time. They only said that someone had rashly sent No.2 out for a mission, but the mission was not completed. No.2, who was sent out for the mission, mysteriously disappeared. They seemed to be in a great hurry to find No.2. Oh, I heard that No.2 disappeared at a place called Graveyard of the Sun...”

Graveyard of the Sun!

Shen Yanxiao gasped. She was almost sure that the No.2 Shen Jiawei mentioned was Lan Fengli!

Yun Qi once mentioned that after the soul of the last god was lost, the greatest result those people could produce was the integration of the seven races. Uncle Nine had once mentioned that Lan Fengli was integrated with the characteristics of the seven races. That was to say, Lan Fengli was the missing test subject No.2!

However, how did they know that Lan Fengli was in Sun Never Sets?

Shen Yanxiao frowned. Ever since Yun Qi gave her those warnings, she had Lan Fengli disguise himself, completely changing his original appearance. Moreover, before that, Lan Fengli rarely had any contact with anyone in Sun Never Sets.

Uncle Nine and his group would never betray her. Du Lang was also unaware of the situation with Lan Fengli. The Cave Wolves Mercenary Group should not have anything to do with the Warlocks. Up until now, they still believed that Uncle Nine and his group were just ordinary people.

There was no need to mention the demons.

If it was not someone from Sun Never Sets, then who leaked the news about Lan Fengli?

Shen Yanxiao felt that she must have missed something. She kept searching for clues in her mind.

Very soon, a thought popped into her mind!

That day, when she was lured underground by the array of the Graveyard of the Sun, Vermilion Bird had caused chaos in the Graveyard of the Sun for many days. With Vermilion Bird’s personality, he would not have any reservations when attacking; his arrogant attitude bred from the fact that he was a mythical beast would immediately expose his identity!

Since that group of people sent Lan Fengli to deal with Uncle Nine and the others, they must have met with Vermilion Bird and thus found out about his identity.

Shen Yanxiao had been concealing her identity. Even if the people from the Graveyard of the Sun were to search for her, they would not find any leads.

However, during the Inter-academy Tournament, she had brought Vermilion Bird with her, which practically exposed everything.

Vermilion Bird's appearance in the Graveyard of the Sun meant that Shen Yanxiao had also appeared near the Graveyard of the Sun. Lan Fengli's disappearance was also in the Graveyard of the Sun; both the time and location matched perfectly!

However, Shen Yanxiao was more worried about another mistake.

Chapter 960: Never Changing 'Till Death (3)

Shen Yanxiao took a deep breath and looked at Shen Jiawei. "Have you seen Number Two's appearance?"

Shen Jiawei shook his head.

"When Shen Jiayi and you were imprisoned there, were you always together?" Shen Yanxiao asked again.

"No, Sister is different from me. She was taken somewhere else, and I was only able to meet her afterwards." Shen Jiawei did not know why Shen Yanxiao's expression was so ugly, so he tried to speak more carefully.

Shen Yanxiao's expression darkened. She grabbed the chair handle in frustration.

She finally knew why she found it strange.

Based on the abilities of those Warlocks, it was impossible for them to be easily discovered. With their abilities, they could even destroy the failed products. It was absolutely impossible for them to release Shen Jiayi and the other test subjects in one piece after suffering a setback.

Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei coming to Sun Never Sets was not as simple as seeking refuge.

Shen Jiawei might not know anything, but Shen Jiayi...

Shen Yanxiao clearly remembered that when Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei had caused trouble for her at the Inter-academy Tournament, Lan Fengli was by her side and he had even injured Shen Jiayi!

As the siblings were being experimented on, she had been separated from Shen Jiawei. No one knew if Shen Jiayi had seen Lan Fengli's portrait!

With Shen Jiayi's personality, she probably hated her to the bones. However, Shen Jiayi had unexpectedly agreed to Shen Jiawei's proposal and came to Sun Never Sets to seek refuge.

However, during her time in Sun Never Sets, Shen Jiayi never showed any signs of remorse or regret for what she had done.

All of this made Shen Yanxiao feel suspicious. Coupled with the information Shen Jiawei brought, Shen Yanxiao was almost certain that it was not an accident that Shen Jiawei and Shen Jiayi had escaped.

Someone must have deliberately created this opportunity for the twins to escape to Sun Never Sets. Moreover, they had used their encounter to obtain her sympathy so that she would allow them to stay in Sun Never Sets!

In order not to arouse Shen Yanxiao's suspicions, Shen Jiayi did not tell Shen Jiawei the truth and only used him as a cover.

That way, she would have a reason to stay in Sun Never Sets and search for No.2 for those people.

With all the clues connected together, Shen Yanxiao could finally see the whole story.

When she appeared before the public with Vermilion Bird, those people already suspected that she was involved in No.2's disappearance. However, by then, she had already arrived at the Forsaken Land and even if they wanted to investigate her, they still had their reservations. But now that the Vermilion Bird Family had been moved to Sun Never Sets, Shen Jiayi and Shen Jiawei were their best excuse.

"What a good move!" Shen Yanxiao revealed a sneer. Her gloomy eyes were terrifying.

Shen Jiawei subconsciously shrunk his neck.

Shen Yanxiao looked at Shen Jiawei and said, "Why are you telling me this? Isn't Shen Jiayi your sister?"

Shen Jiawei paused for a moment and gritted his teeth. "She is my sister and the person closest to me. Precisely because of this, I don't wish to see her in trouble. City Lord, I am well aware that the difference between us is like heaven and hell. Neither I nor my sister can be your opponent. Right now, I only wish to live well, to atone for my previous actions, and to beg for your forgiveness. I only wish to live my life in peace and stability. I don't wish to see my sister making mistakes again because I know that no matter what she does, she will not be your opponent."