

Chapter 241

Jason did not say anything. He turned around and took a taxi to the hospital!

He urged the driver to speed all the way!

D*mn Noble Brown! He spared his life and now he wanted to do bad things again.

What the hell was he trying to do?

He let Noble go last time and now he came back again. Was he coming for revenge?

Jason panted when he got out of the car at the hospital's entrance. He ran all the way to the sixth floor and came to Angela's ward.

Bang!

He suddenly pushed the door open!

Jason saw a man sitting on the sofa, drinking coffee in the ward. He was wearing a navy blue suit with two serious-looking bodyguards standing behind him. They were all in black suits and their faces were cold.

Judging from the aura coming from these two bodyguards, they looked as though they had suffered a lot of life-and-death situations.

Jason quickly glanced at Noble. When he came to Angela's bed, he saw that she was sleeping soundly.

"As expected, a father's love can't be matched. I didn't expect you to arrive so soon."

Noble put down his coffee cup. He looked at the Rolex on his wrist and smiled coldly.

Jason turned around, clenched his fists and walked towards Noble.

The bodyguards behind Noble stood up immediately and blocked Jason.

"What do you want to do?"

Jason's eyes were cold and he stared at Noble who was unrecognizable.

This guy had changed. He had become more arrogant and from the way he looked, he seemed like something of a big shot.

Especially the way he dressed. All of his clothes were branded and he was followed everywhere by bodyguards.

Had Noble made a comeback again?

"Don't be nervous. We're old classmates."

Noble smiled, stood up, and flicked his suit collar. He raised his eyebrows and sneered, "Do you remember how you dealt with my family? Do you remember how you put my father in jail? And do you still remember how I begged you like a dog?"

"Jason, it's lucky that I'm back. I'm here to take revenge on you. I'll slowly take away everything you have cherished. I want you to experience the feeling of your family being destroyed."

Noble laughed wildly with a provocative look on his face.

Jason sneered and his eyes were red. He stared at Noble, "Noble Brown, if I can defeat you once, I can defeat you again! Although I don't know who you are dealing with and what means you have, you will always be a loser in my eyes!"

Noble's face turned cold and he glanced at Jason. Suddenly, he pushed away the bodyguards in front of Jason.

They looked into each other's eyes. Each burst in flames of anger.

"I have investigated you," Noble said with an evil smile on his face.

"I'll listen to what you have to say," Jason said calmly.

"You are the Smiths' young master," Noble continued.

"It seems that you are working with powerful people," Jason said.

Noble nodded slightly, "I didn't expect a loser like you to be the young master of a rich and powerful family. I really want to know the reason why you hid your identity. Does Cindy know about this?"

Jason said coldly, "It has nothing to do with you."

"It matters."

Noble said, "The reason I'm back is to take revenge on you and take Cindy with me."

"That depends on what you're capable of. Since you've discovered my identity, I'm very curious about the powerful person that helps you. Aren't you afraid of death?"

Jason raised his eyebrows.

Noble laughed out loud, "If I tell you the person I'm with, you will die of shock."

With this, Noble patted Jason on the shoulder with disdain in his eyes.

Jason raised his hand to knock off Noble's hand. He took a step forward with coldness radiating from his body. "Noble, don't make me kill you!"

The temperature in the ward suddenly dropped after Jason said this.

As if you can hear the cold air creaking.

Noble's pupils shrank suddenly. He felt Jason's intent to kill.

This made him tremble all over.

"That's ridiculous! You'd better watch out for yourself."

Noble sneered, then turned around and left.

As he was walking to the door, he suddenly stopped and turned around, "By the way, can you still hide your identity from Cindy? Do you want me to tell her?"

"How dare you!"

Jason turned and shouted angrily!

"Haha!"

Noble raised his head and laughed and walked out of the ward.

After Noble left, Jason quickly dialed a series of numbers with rage circulating inside him. He said, "Investigate a person named Noble Brown. I want to know who is he working with."

"Daddy."

Suddenly, a tender and sweet voice rang out.

Jason turned his head with a gentle smile on his face. He saw Angela who had just woken up and was asking for a hug.

"Hey! Daddy is here."

Jason walked over with a smile. He picked Angela up and played with her for a while.

After a while, Leah Fang came in and saw that Jason was there. She asked with a pleasant smile, "Brother Jason, why are you here today?"

Jason, who was playing toys with Angela, smiled, "Just come and have a look."

Suddenly, he remembered something, "By the way, how is your brother now?"

After Jason mentioned this, Leah came straight over and knelt in front of him. She thanked him with a fearful tone, "We have to thank Brother Jason for saving our lives. From now on, no matter what I will repay your kindness."

Jason was anxious. He hurriedly held Leah up, "What are you doing? It was nothing. You don't have to do this."

Jason knew that Leah was a kind-hearted girl, but was not great at communicating with others. She kept everything to herself.

Jason felt distressed when he saw Leah's crying face.

This little girl had so many burdens to carry.

"Okay. Okay. Don't cry. Taking good care of Angela is the best way to repay my kindness. Do you understand?"

Jason took a tissue and handed it to her.

Leah nodded and hugged Jason suddenly, "Brother Jason, thank you."

The sudden hug shocked Jason. However, he still comforted her and patted her soft shoulder, "All right. All right. It's okay. Just come to me if you have any trouble in the future."

Amanda Yang suddenly came in with a small cake in her hand and a smile on her face.

"Angela, grandma is here to visit you."

When Amanda entered the door, she saw Jason and Leah hugging each other.

"Ah! You two!"

Amanda suddenly burst into anger!

This d*mn Jason really had a mistress!

And the mistress was Leah!

Suddenly, he remembered something, "By the way, how is your brother now?"

After Jason mentioned this, Leah came straight over and knelt in front of him. She thanked him with a fearful tone, "We have to thank Brother Jason for saving our lives. From now on, no matter what I will repay your kindness."

Jason was anxious. He hurriedly held Leah up, "What are you doing? It was nothing. You don't have to do this."

Jason knew that Leah was a kind-hearted girl, but was not great at communicating with others. She kept everything to herself.

Jason felt distressed when he saw Leah's crying face.

This little girl had so many burdens to carry.

"Okay. Okay. Don't cry. Taking good care of Angela is the best way to repay my kindness. Do you understand?"

Jason took a tissue and handed it to her.

Leah nodded and hugged Jason suddenly, "Brother Jason, thank you."

The sudden hug shocked Jason. However, he still comforted her and patted her soft shoulder, "All right. All right. It's okay. Just come to me if you have any trouble in the future."

Amanda Yang suddenly came in with a small cake in her hand and a smile on her face.

"Angela, grandma is here to visit you."

When Amanda entered the door, she saw Jason and Leah hugging each other.

"Ah! You two!"

Amanda suddenly burst into anger!

This d*mn Jason really had a mistress!

And the mistress was Leah!

She had seen this little girl's coquettish eyes the last time. Her guess was not wrong after all.

"Great! I've finally caught you red-handed! I will kill you! You disgusting couple!"

Amanda threw away the cake immediately. She grabbed her bag and walked over to hit Jason.

Jason was confused by Amanda's sudden appearance. He hurriedly protected Leah behind him and shouted, "Mom, you misunderstand. It's not what it looks like."

This was really f*cking corny!

Jason had a headache.

"Wasn't what it looks like? Both of you were hugging. Do you think that I'm blind?"

Amanda was angry and scolded with her hands on her waist, "Well, why are you so kind-hearted to help a little girl who has no relation to you? Last time, you beat me because of this vixen. Now, I have caught you red-handed. I want to see how you try to explain it! I'll kill you, sc*m!"

Amanda swung her bag and hit Jason again. She slapped him in the face, kicked him, scratched his face and pulled his hair.

She used all kinds of different ways to hit Jason.

Jason felt very helpless and did not dare to fight back.

Leah stopped Amanda and shouted, "Auntie, you've misunderstood. It's really not what you think."

Bang!

Amanda turned her head and slapped Leah in the face. She pointed at Leah's nose, "Shut up! You b*tch! I can smell it on you! You seduced my son-in-law, didn't you? You've ruined my family, haven't you? I must expose you and make the hospital fire you!"

Amanda scolded and went up to tear Leah's clothes. Leah was just a little girl. She could not deal with the unreasonable Amanda.

All of a sudden, the ward's door was surrounded by lots of people. Everyone was gossiping about them.

"Hey guys! This disgusting couple is having an affair in the hospital. They even did it in front of the child. It's so shameless."

Amanda cursed viciously and slapped Jason several times. She pointed at his nose, "Scum, I'll make Cindy divorce you. You are so ungrateful. Our Jiang family has been so supportive of you for so many years. In return, you get a mistress behind our backs. Are you even a man?"

Chapter 242

It was so hard for Jason to explain himself when so many people were accusing him.

Jason roared, "Enough!"

After saying this, he closed the door immediately. He looked at Amanda who was still swearing at Leah Fang, "Amanda, what are you doing?"

Amanda's mouth was dry out of scolding too much. She took a sip of water and then cursed, "What am I doing? You have done something wrong and you don't want me to tell anyone? You're dead today. I'll call Cindy right now."

After that, Amanda took out her mobile phone and pretended to make a call. She looked at Jason and said loudly, "I'll call her right away. You both will have to divorce after Cindy finds out about your affair!"

Did Amanda dare to call Cindy?

She did not dare to.

Now she knew that Jason had actually bought Palace No.1.

Nothing good would come of it for her if she caused trouble.

She had to get Palace No.1 first before she could kick Jason out.

Amanda could not sleep at night because of what Jason did in the villa a few days ago.

Having this kind of person in her house was like a ticking time bomb.

What if domestic abuse occurred one day?

It was too terrifying even to think about it!

Jason chuckled and finally figured it out. "Just tell me, what do you want?"

"What do you mean by 'what I want'? Hey! Jason, what do you mean?"

Amanda could not lose her dignity and asked with her eyes wide open.

Jason chuckled, "Since you don't have anything you want, I'll help you to call Cindy. I'll explain it to her myself."

After that, Jason took out his mobile phone and got ready to make a call.

Amanda became anxious and rushed over. She grabbed Jason's mobile phone and said in a hurry, "Hey! I know what trick you are to play. I have to make this phone call myself."

Amanda glared at Leah when she spoke, "Get out of here you vixen!"

Leah still wanted to explain. However, Jason glanced at her and motioned her to leave along with Angela.

There were only Jason and Amanda in the ward.

Amanda acted like a noble woman. She sat on the sofa with her legs crossed and said arrogantly, "Jason, I will pretend I didn't see it as long as you admit your mistake and apologize about your affair. Then, you must add Charles' and my name to the villa."

Amanda finally said what she really wanted after holding it back for a long time.

She looked at Jason in front of her and saw that he had a very calm expression.

What was this dude thinking?

Was he really not worried about her telling Cindy?

He sneered.

Jason had figured it out. It turned out that this was Amanda's plan.

"How do you know that I bought the villa?" Jason asked.

Amanda was still very nervous, "Cindy told me."

She had a guilty conscience. After all, the villa had been bought by Jason. This loser had enough money to buy the villa so his identity must be so unimaginable.

At this moment, Amanda kept thinking about Jason's identity and how much money he must have. She would become very rich if she could get her hands on his money.

And she would enjoy glory and wealth soon.

"Jason, did you really buy this villa?"

Amanda asked because she wanted to hear the truth with her own ears.

Jason was silent for a moment and replied, "Yes."

He really was the one who bought it!

All of a sudden, Amanda's breathing became rapid and was somewhat restless.

It was only a guess, even though she already knew it to be true. Amanda was still very excited when she heard the truth from Jason.

"Are you a rich second generation? Why did you come to our house? I've been mean to you for so many years. Will you take revenge on me?"

This was what Amanda was worried about the most. She lowered her head and kept clenching her hands. Her mind was in a state of anxiety.

Jason chuckled, "Amanda, you are not worthy of my revenge. If I really wanted to revenge, I wouldn't be sitting here with you calmly."

Amanda finally breathed a sigh of relief.

If Jason really wanted revenge, she would not be able to deal with it.

Juliette alone was enough to make her suffer.

"Okay, that's what you've said. Please keep your promise!"

Amanda said immediately.

Jason shook his head helplessly.

"By the way, are you really a rich second generation? How much money does your family have? When will you bring me to meet your parents?"

Amanda suddenly grinned and asked. The wrinkles from her smiling face were disgusting.

"Does it have anything to do with you whether my family has money or if I'm a rich second generation?"

Jason asked coldly.

Amanda was speechless. She secretly scolded Jason in her heart, but still forced a smile, "Oh! You are my son-in-law after all. So, it's quite weird that I haven't met your family in these three years."

"You don't have to meet them."

Jason got up, "And for the villa. Let's go and do it now. I'll add your name and dad's names."

Jason's idea was very simple. Just add their names so that Amanda would not make any more trouble.

Since Amanda cared so much about the villa, it was better to add her name so that she could rest her mind.

"Really?"

Amanda suddenly widened her eyes. She was overjoyed and praised, "Hey! Jason, I was blind in the past. I didn't know you were a rich second generation. I'll treat you like my own son from now on. I'll cook for when you and Cindy come home tonight."

Amanda looked like a villain intoxicated with success now. She behaved like a snob who had suddenly become rich.

After both of them had gone out, they arrived at Dragon City. Jason had contacted Joe earlier, so they could process the names quickly.

When Amanda saw her name on the property ownership certificate, she was so happy that she could not stop smiling.

"Mom, go home first. I have something else to do."

Jason left after he finished talking.

Amanda rolled her eyes when she looked at Jason leaving and muttered, "Hehe, do you think you can please me by just adding my name to the villa? I'm going to find out how much money your family has."

How could Amanda give up if she did not take all of Jason's property?

Amanda twisted her big ass and went back to the villa. She immediately announced the news to the world and held a party to celebrate with her friends.

On the other hand, Cindy had been busy in the company the whole day.

She was so busy, especially when it came to the new medicine sale channels.

Bi Kang was faced with a lot of pressure from the Southern River District. Lots of their sales channels had been taken.

If it went on like this, Bi Kang would collapse before it could get the investment from the Smith Group in the capital city.

After thinking for a while, Cindy decided to contact the Smith Group from the capital city to see if they had any ideas.

She called Hayes Qian, the CEO of the Smith Group in the capital city.

"Hello, Chairman Hayes."

Cindy said with a smile. Her tone was one of tenderness.

Hayes was in a meeting when he received the call. He immediately stopped the meeting with a very respectful attitude. However, he was a little too respectful. "Ah! President Jiang. What can I do for you?"

Hayes had been working for so many years. He definitely knew that something must have happened to young madam if she called him.

"President Hayes, I want to meet with Master Smith. Can you help me to contact him? I didn't get to meet him last time. I feel very sorry for Bi Kang's staff, so I want to..."

Cindy thought for a while and came up with an excuse.

Hayes nodded and felt a little embarrassed. He said, "President Jiang, why don't we do it this way? I will check with Master Smith's schedule. Don't worry."

"Okay, President Hayes. So sorry to trouble you."

Cindy hung up the phone politely and then paced back and forth in her CEO's office.

She was very anxious. The current situation was very unfavorable to Bi Kang.

She had to find a new sales channel as soon as possible. Otherwise, she would have to cooperate with the ruthless and greedy, Austin Ning.

He wanted sixty percent of the profit. This was too much!

Hayes immediately dialed Jason's number and said respectfully, "Young master, young madam wants to meet you."

Jason who was on his way to his company asked suspiciously, "What's wrong? Did something happen in her company?"

Hayes said, "Young master, according to our people's report, Bi Kang Pharmacy's sales were blocked by Southern River District. Young madam is looking for new cooperation. Do you want to arrange a meeting with her?"

Hayes felt helpless too. They were husband and wife but they had to live a secret life.

However, he did not dare to ask the reason young master did so. He must have his reasons.

Jason thought for a moment, "Okay, you can arrange it."

"Okay, young master."

After hanging up the phone, Hayes arranged the meeting nervously.

After thinking for a while, Jason decided to meet Cindy. Then he could reveal his identity in a proper way.

After that, Jason went to his company. With Ashley Su's arrangement, he had bought lots of clothes in the mall, had changed his hairstyle and dressed up nicely.

Ashley could not take her eyes off Jason when she looked at the handsome man in the mirror.

Was this Jason?

He was so handsome!

He was just like the noble offspring of rich and powerful families. He exuded a noble aura from head to toe.

"Let's go."

He was wearing a Briani suit with a white shirt. He even had a bow tie on the collar. He wore a beautiful Two Night Sky Eagle watch which worth four million dollars on his wrist.

He departed to the restaurant which had been arranged by Hayes. It was the most high- end sky garden restaurant in Shang Jiang City.

The restaurant was one hundred meters tall. There was a beautiful flower garden and a suspended fountain below the sky garden. The whole place looked like the Milkyway!

Very luxurious!

It was like something from a fairy tale.

Cindy dressed up very well tonight. She wore a white knee- length dress decorated with encrusted crystals. Her long hair was coiled up and her long legs were straight and slender. She stepped on a pair of high block heels. She held a red purse in her hands and took elegant steps. Under the guidance of the waiter, she walked to the table in the restaurant.

The entire restaurant had been booked out.

Cindy was surprised as well. She did not expect the meeting tonight to be so grand.

She was somewhat restless and looking forward to it.

Who exactly was this rumored Master Smith from the Capital City?

Did she really know him?

At this moment, Jason had arrived at the entrance and saw Cindy waiting under the light from a distance. She looked very beautiful and mature.

Such a perfect woman.

He took a bunch of Eldora red roses handed over by the waiter and walked over with confidence.

Chapter 243

Facing the spotlight, Jason strode towards Cindy.

All of a sudden, there were footsteps behind Jason. A man in a black suit hurriedly stopped him and bowed respectfully, "Young master, Madame Juliette invited you to the Royal Villa. Master Tyler is here."

Master Tyler?!

Jason was shocked. He looked at Cindy who was sitting under the spotlight and shove the roses in his hand to the waiter, "I'll come back soon. Tell her to wait for me for a while."

After that, Jason turned and strode out of the Western Sky Garden Restaurant.

The fast black Bentley drove along Shang Jiang city's main road and across the bridge. It raced up the vast green mountain and arrived at the Royal Villa.

Jason could not calm himself down and frowned. Master Tyler was here.

Why was he here?

Had something happen to the family?

The car stopped at the villa's entrance. There were two rows of black-suited bodyguards standing on both sides of the gate.

The atmosphere was very serious but there was something unusual about the silence.

Jason got out of the car and was followed by a female assistant wearing a white shirt and red skin tight skirt to the manor hall.

After pushing a heavy and simple looking door, Jason saw a white haired middle- aged man sitting and smoking on the sofa with his legs crossed. He was wearing an expensive grey suit. He was talking and laughing with Juliette with a golden pipe in his mouth.

Master Tyler.

Tyler Smith.

He was Jason's uncle. He was Titus Smith's brother and the ruler of the gangland forces.

This man was thoughtful and cruel but he was also very kind.

Tyler immediately got up and opened his arms when he saw Jason. He walked up to Jason with the pipe in his mouth. He laughed, "Well, my nephew, it's been a while since we last met each other. You have grown taller and stronger."

He was so friendly.

Jason hugged Tyler and shouted respectfully, "Uncle Tyler."

Tyler took a drag on his cigarette and looked at Jason carefully. He reached out his hand and patted Jason on the shoulder. There was a kind and relieved look in his eyes. He said, "Great to see you."

Juliette saw this. Her expression did not change at all. She just smiled faintly, "Please have a seat."

"Haha! Yes, yes, have a seat. Come here and sit next to me."

Tyler pulled Jason to sit down, "We haven't seen each other for seven years. You, why don't you even come home and visit me?"

Jason smiled and scratched his head awkwardly.

Juliette interrupted, "Tyler, why have you come Shang Jiang city all of a sudden?"

Juliette was not prepared for Tyler's sudden visit. Had something happened to the family?

But then, why hadn't they received any news?

"I was passing through Shang Jiang City and I heard that Jason is here. So I came here to pay a visit."

Tyler laughed and looked at Jason. He stood up, "Come here, I have something to tell you."

Jason glanced at Juliette who was slightly stunned. He got up and followed Tyler out of the hall and came to a scenic spot in the manor.

There they could see the night time view of Shang Jiang City's skyline in the distance.

"Uncle Tyler, what brings you here?"

Jason could not help asking.

Tyler took a puff of his pipe and dismissed the bodyguards behind him.

These bodyguards were the most loyal hatchet men in the Smith. They only listened to Tyler's orders.

After a while, Tyler narrowed his eyes, "Jason, it's time for you to go home. Actually, it was your father who asked me to come over."

Jason was silent, "How is my father now?"

"His situation is not good. The Smith need you to come back right away." Tyler sounded very sad.

"I see."

Jason replied. He felt anxious and looked at the night sky.

After all, his father life had almost come to an end.

Tyler patted Jason on the shoulder, "I know what you're worried about. Juliette and the Yun family are not your obstacles. Let me help you to get rid of them. When you are free, you can bring Cindy and Angela back to visit your father."

"That incident wasn't your father's fault. He had his own difficulties to contend with."

Tyler remembered the incident which had been buried deep down in his memory.

That incident was a serious blow to the Smith.

"I have long forgotten that incident." Jason said with some disappointment and sadness in his eyes.

Tyler looked at him. He laughed, "Ahh, there's one more thing. I have this for you."

Tyler took off a plain jade thumb ring with the word 'Imperial' carved into it.

"Your father gave it to me last time. I'll give it to you now and hope it can help you. Although, I don't know what you have prepared these years. I know that you'll definitely need this thumb ring if you want to deal with the Yun Family."

As soon as Tyler finished, he handed Jason the jade thumb ring which only looked ordinary and charming.

Jason did not dare to pick it up.

He knew what the jade thumb ring meant!

It was such a big responsibility!

That was the symbol for the entirety of the Smith's armed forces!

It meant that anyone who had the ring controlled the entire force of the Smith!

This was the Imperial General's Order!

Just like with the family transfer order, Jason still needed to arrange it through Joe's or even ask Juliette for approval.

Even if Jason successfully mobilized those armed forces, he would still receive a lot of protest and dissatisfaction from many uncles as well as VIPs from all over the country.

However, Jason could mobilize and command at will when he owned the Imperial General's Order. No one would dare to say anything!

This was the strength and identity of Tyler.

This was the power of the Smith.

Every countries in the world could not violate the order from the owner of the jade thumb ring.

The thumb ring indicated the identity of an emperor.

There were only three of these Imperial General's order rings.

They were all as powerful as each other .

The other rings, one was with Juliette and another one was with Jason's biological mother, Zara Lin.

However, Zara's thumb ring disappeared after her car accident.

They were only two thumb rings in the world now.

"Uncle, I can't accept this."

Jason refused. He knew Tyler's purpose in giving it to him.

Tyler smiled, "I have been a military warrior my whole life. I have sacrificed my time for the Smith and now I'm too tired to do it anymore. I don't know who I should pass the ring to, if it's not you."

Letting it go showed Tyler's courage.

"You still have a long way to go. The Yun family is too greedy. After all, they are unwilling to be under the Smith's control. Over the past few years, Juliette has been expanding her power and has put lots of spies in our home. Nine out of ten people in the Smith family are her followers. I have other things to settle. You have to own the Imperial General Order."

Tyler said in a gentle tone and talked like an elder.

Meanwhile, Juliette was in the hall. She was standing by the window and watching the two people chatting outside. She frowned and sipped the red wine in her hand.

"Madam, we have made the arrangements. Please give the order."

Juliette's hot female assistant, who was standing behind her, bowed and asked.

Everyone in the Royal Villa was one of the Yun Family's followers.

Tyler had only brought a few people with him this time around so it was not enough to deal with Juliette.

Juliette could capture Tyler if she wanted to do so.

In the past, she could not do anything to Tyler because they were both in the Smith family.

However, Tyler was outside his territory now so he could not do anything about it.

"Make them leave."

Juliette said as she took a sip of her wine. There were so many thoughts racing through her mind.

"Madam, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. We..."

The female assistant was anxious.

"Let them go!"

Juliette turned and stared at the female assistant with cold eyes. Her aura was very scary.

"Yes, mdam."

Cindy had been waiting for an hour at the sky garden restaurant but she still did not see a sign of Master Smith, the legend.

Hayes Qian who arrived in a hurry smiled apologetically, "President Jiang, I'm sorry to keep you waiting."

Cindy stood up and shook hands with Hayes. She smiled, "President Qian, why are you here? Where is Master Smith?"

Hayes apologized, "I'm sorry, President Jiang. Our young master has something to do for the time being. I'll take care of this meeting."

Cindy smiled and did not say anything. Both of them chatted happily.

Finally, Smith Group promised to help Bi Kang to find a new sales partner.

Cindy got up and said excitedly, "Thank you for your trust in Bi Kang, President Qian."

Cindy still had an unreal feeling. The Smith Group was too easy to cooperate with. How could they just agree so easily to cooperate with her company?

First, it was the one billion dollar investment. Then, it was a new sales partner cooperation.

Why did it feel like pennies are falling from the sky?

Hayes just shook Cindy's hand politely. He released his hand, "You don't have to thank me. It was all arranged by our young master."

Cindy thought for a while when she heard this and asked in a weak voice, "President Qian, what kind of person Mr. Smith is? Do I know him?"

"Well..."

Hayes was in a dilemma. He was not sure if he should tell Cindy about Jason's identity.

"President Jiang, in fact, you should have seen our young master, and you see him every day." Hayes was thinking about it and said with a smile.

"I've seen him before? Who?"

Cindy was suspicious. She kept thinking about the people she had seen recently, especially those she got to see every day.

Chapter 244

Hayes Qian smiled and said nothing more.

After they parted, Cindy Jiang returned to the villa and kept recalling the last few words that Hayes said.

He was someone she knew and she even met him everyday.

Jason Smith appeared in Cindy's mind. Was it him?

A lot of things had happened recently. When Cindy pieced these things together, she felt Jason was really different.

Who on earth was her husband? What on earth was he hiding?

Cindy opened her bag when she thought of this and took out the bank card that Jason had given her earlier.

She decided that she would check the balance the next day.

There was another thing she wanted to check as well.

Cindy rummaged through the boxes and finally found the golden card with the word 'Yun' that Juliette Yun had given her.

Juliette mentioned that as long as Cindy took this, she could find Juliette in any shop in Shang Jiang City with a flag with 'Yun' labelled on it .

Cindy had a lot of thoughts in her mind. It was not that she did not believe in Jason, but there were too many things that had happened recently. So she needed proof.

What Hayes had said made her doubt Jason's identity.

It seemed that her husband had concealed a lot of things from her.

Moreover, Juliette was Jason's stepmother.

She was definitely not just a normal restaurant owner, she was more than that.

"Cindy, you're back."

Meanwhile, Amanda Yang came in with a glass of hot milk and a smile on her face.

"Mom, anything?"

Cindy tidied up and asked.

"What are you doing?"

Amanda was very puzzled when she saw both the bank card and a golden card in Cindy's hands.

Cindy smiled and put them away, "It's okay. By the way, what's the matter?"

Amanda did not care. She smiled, "Cindy, I have some good news for you."

Cindy felt happy when she saw Amanda's radiant smile, "Mom, what made you so happy?"

Amanda said, "The names of your father and I are now one of the deed to this villa. In the future, the three of us can own this villa legally. Jason can't condemn me anymore and neither can he order me around."

Amanda was very happy when she thought of this.

The villa would finally be hers, so she would not have to depends on Jason's attitude anymore.

These days, she had been pretending to be a good person in front of him. It was really hard for her to live this kind of life.

Jason would always be a loser in Amanda's mind. Suddenly, she found out that Jason had bought the villa and that he was very rich.

Chapter 244

Hayes Qian smiled and said nothing more.

After they parted, Cindy Jiang returned to the villa and kept recalling the last few words that Hayes said.

He was someone she knew and she even met him everyday.

Jason Smith appeared in Cindy's mind. Was it him?

A lot of things had happened recently. When Cindy pieced these things together, she felt Jason was really different.

Who on earth was her husband? What on earth was he hiding?

Cindy opened her bag when she thought of this and took out the bank card that Jason had given her earlier.

She decided that she would check the balance the next day.

There was another thing she wanted to check as well.

Cindy rummaged through the boxes and finally found the golden card with the word 'Yun' that Juliette Yun had given her.

Juliette mentioned that as long as Cindy took this, she could find Juliette in any shop in Shang Jiang City with a flag with 'Yun' labelled on it .

Cindy had a lot of thoughts in her mind. It was not that she did not believe in Jason, but there were too many things that had happened recently. So she needed proof.

What Hayes had said made her doubt Jason's identity.

things from her.

Moreover, Juliette was Jason's stepmother.

She was definitely not just a normal restaurant owner, she was more than that.

"Cindy, you're back."

Meanwhile, Amanda Yang came in with a glass of hot milk and a smile on her face.

"Mom, anything?"

Cindy tidied up and asked.

"What are you doing?"

Amanda was very puzzled when she saw both the bank card and a golden card in Cindy's hands.

Cindy smiled and put them away, "It's okay. By the way, what's the matter?"

Amanda did not care. She smiled, "Cindy, I have some good news for you."

Cindy felt happy when she saw Amanda's radiant smile, "Mom, what made you so happy?"

Amanda said, "The names of your father and I are now one of the deed to this villa. In the future, the three of us can own this villa legally. Jason can't condemn me anymore and neither can he order me around."

Amanda was very happy when she thought of this.

The villa would finally be hers, so she would not have to depends on Jason's attitude anymore.

These days, she had been pretending to be a good person in front of him. It was really hard for her to live this kind of life.

Jason would always be a loser in Amanda's mind. Suddenly, she found out that Jason had bought the villa and that he was very rich.

Amanda could not accept it.

"Mom, what did you say to Jason?"

Cindy was very angry when she heard this and muttered.

She knew that her mother would come up with this idea but she did not expect that she actually manage to achieve it.

"Hey! What's with your attitude? Was it wrong of me to do this? I did it for our family. Even if Jason has become rich, he is still the son-in-law of the Jiang family. My son-in-law, so he should listen to me. His is mine. Belong to our Jiang family."

Amanda gritted her teeth and raised her eyebrows slightly.

"You never use to say so in those days. You always wished that I would divorce Jason. Now you recognize him as a son-in-law? Mom, you changed your attitude too quickly."

Cindy chuckled with disdain in her words.

Amanda was angry. She pinched Cindy's head and scolded, "Hey! You are my daughter. Why do you always help that outsider? I treated him badly before because he was a loser back then. Why did he pretend to be poor since he is so rich?"

Cindy was too lazy to talk to Amanda. She was too money minded.

Amanda knew that Jason had money now, but she still could not restrain herself.

She was really looking for trouble.

"Hey! Cindy, don't you think Jason doesn't trust us? He has been a loser in our house for the past three years. He probably doesn't want us to use his money. If that's the case, it's totally not okay.."

Amanda shook her head desperately, "It turns out that Jason is playing with us. Cindy, you have to be on my side this time. Let me help you, I'll take all his money. This is just compensation. It's compensation for what he has owed us over the past three years."

"Mom, why are you being so unreasonable?"

Cindy had a headache and was really annoyed by her mother. "You looked down on Jason. You scolded and hit him in the past because he had no money. Did he ever complain? Jason is rich now. However, you still look down on him and want me to get his money. Mom, are you out of your mind? What are you thinking?"

Cindy was really fed up with her mother.

What was wrong with her mother? She was getting out of control.

Amanda was angry. She glared at Cindy with hatred, "You are so ungrateful. I have raised you for more than twenty years. I'm doing this just for our family and for your future."

"Stop it. We all know what you are up to. I won't stand with you. Jason is my husband. I trust him."

Cindy was stone-faced.

"Trust him?"

Amanda snorted and gave a sarcastic laugh. "Cindy, you are really stupid. Men will change when they have money. What's more Jason has been lying to us for three years. Do you know what he has been doing for the past three years? How do you know that he doesn't have a mistress? What if he has children as well?"

Amanda was angry when she caught Jason red handed in the hospital.

As expected, Jason was not a good guy.

All men are the same.

Cindy felt uncomfortable when she heard this, "Mom, how can you talk about Jason like this? Don't you know what kind of person he is?"

"What kind of person he is?"

Amanda rolled her eyes and said earnestly, "Cindy, please believe me. I'm an experienced woman and I have an instinct that Jason is a bad guy. Let's not talk about anything else. We must fight for this villa. In this way, you won't have been married to him for nothing. You have given birth to a child for him and now you are pregnant again. What would you do if he has an affair in the future and wants to divorce you?"

"Mom, please leave. Can you please stop talking nonsense?"

Cindy was really annoyed. How dared her mother say such things?

Cindy went to the bathroom with her clothes.

Amanda was sitting in the bedroom full of anger. She threw the milk in her hand into the trash can and scolded, "You are so ungrateful. You don't understand me. Both father and daughter are so ungrateful!"

She went out after shouting this.

Half an hour later, Cindy put on a windbreaker and went out of the villa. She drove to a shop in Shang Jiang City.

The shop that hung a flag that written with 'Yun' on it.

Cindy parked the car and got outt. She was wearing sunglasses with wavy hair. She walked into the shop with noble and elegant steps.

It was a jade store.

"Hello, miss. What can I do for you? All of this is our store's latest jade.."

The store owner came out with a purple teapot. He was wearing a pair of gold-rimmed glasses and gazed Cindy up and down.

Cindy did not hesitate. She took out the card that Juliette had given her from her bag and handed it to the boss, "I want to meet her."

The boss did not react when he saw the card being handed over by Cindy. However, he panicked when he took it and saw the golden card with a pattern of clouds imprinted on it and the words 'Yun'!

"This... This is... Please wait a moment!"

The boss did not dare to neglect and hurried to the backyard of the shop. He dialed the housekeeper's number, "Housekeeper Qiu, there's a guest in the shop. She's holding a cloud gold card and wants to meet madam."

"I see."

The phone was hung up immediately.

The jade shop owner returned to the lobby and asked Cindy to wait for a moment.

In less than five minutes, three black Mercedes-Benz cars parked up outside the jade store. Several bodyguards in black suits got out of them and came into the store.

"Miss Jiang, madam wants to see you."

The leader of the bodyguards bent down and said to Cindy respectfully.

Cindy was a little stunned. After thinking for a while, she followed them out of the jade shop and got into the car.

The car drove quickly into the vast night. It passed through the river bridge and arrived at the Royal Villa.

Jason and Tyler Smith returned to the hall after finishing their conversation.

Juliette looked at them with a gentle smile on her face, "I've asked the housekeeper to prepare dinner. Why don't you stay and have some meal?"

Jason said coldly, "No, I have something else to do."

After that, Jason turned and was about to leave.

However, Juliette smiled, "Jason, not so fast. A guest is coming over. I think both of you should meet."

Guest?

Jason turned and looked at Juliette in confusion. He saw that the smile on this woman's face was a little inscrutable.

Her smile was extremely gentle but chilling. She would stab you in the back at the first opportunity when you did not pay attention to it.

What was she planning?

Three Mercedes-Benz cars stopped at the Royal Villa's entrance.

Cindy got out of the car and was shocked by the luxurious manor.

Where was this place?

Cindy followed the maid and walked carefully to the center of the manor.

"Miss Jiang, please wait for a moment."

The maid in front of her smiled and opened the door.

"Creak!"

The heavy door in the hall was slowly pushed open. Jason looked over...

Chapter 245

The heavy door was pushed open. Jason Smith turned around and saw a figure.

A man was dressed in a grey tunic suit. He was carrying a red and gold dragon head crutch and looked over seventy years old. He hunched his back, squinted his eyes and had a faint smile on his face.

His presence was like that of a mountain. He stood in the doorway and made everyone in the hall feel as though they were unable to breathe.

Even if he kept a low profile, his presence would still make Jason frown.

Clifford Yun.

He was the current ruler of the Yun family, Juliette Yun's father.

This man was extremely conceited and proud.

It took him only forty years to turn the Yun Family into the largest family below the Smiths.

He was extremely ambitious.

There was a middle-aged man in his forties or fifties behind Clifford. He had gray hair and he wore black glasses. He had a briefcase in his hand. He was dressed in a black suit and a tie. He kept nodding all the time. He looked ordinary. However, everyone knew that he was not an ordinary people because he was a follower of Clifford's.

He looked very calm as he glanced at Jason.

However, this calmness made Jason feel as he was facing a formidable enemy.

Swoosh!

A figure suddenly appeared in the hall!

Suddenly, there was a man in front of Jason who looked as though he was going to kill someone. His handsome face and cold eyes stared at the middle-aged man behind Clifford. He was looking at the middle age man as if he was his prey.

Yeates Li.

Yeates was Titus's adopted son. He had undergone training for different methods of torture. He would be the best hitman to protect Jason!

Yeates was Jason's only hitman!

Only Jason and Titus knew about Yeates's existence.

He was the hitman who could fight anyone!

Jason sent him abroad seven years ago. He had just returned to Shang Jiang City recently.

Both of them exchanged looks. However, it seemed to last for an eternity.

All of a sudden, a dangerous kind of tension broke out in the house!

Juliette looked at the shadow of the man in front of Jason and recognized him in an instant. The last time Jason came to the villa, the killer she had seen in the dark was him!

"Ezra."

Clifford said in a low voice with a sense of slight dissatisfaction.

The middle-aged man behind him immediately bowed his head and bent down. He was suppressing the murderous feeling emitting his body.

"Yes, master."

The middle-aged man replied respectfully. His attitude and tone were full of awe.

Jason raised his eyebrows and looked at Yeates who had just managed to control himself. He stood aside, leaned against the carved pillars and played with a dagger in his hand. Yeates' eyes kept watching the middle-aged man.

As Clifford stepped into the hall, the sound of the crutch clinking on the floor tiles made Jason and Tyler dare not drop their guard.

Why had this old guy suddenly appeared here?

"Father."

Juliette stepped forward and helped Clifford to sit.

Jason and Tyler looked at each other. Tyler laughed, "Haha, I didn't expect to see the current master of the Yun family here today."

After that, Tyler sat down immediately without showing any fear at all.

The Smith family members were not afraid of people in the first place.

There was nothing in this world that could scare the Smiths.

The Yun family was nothing to be afraid of.

Clifford was not a threat at all.

This showed Tyler's confidence and pride.

Clifford narrowed his eyes and said with a smile, "Tyler, even if your brother would have to call me father-in-law, if he were here right now."

Tyler was stunned and his eyes were cold. He said, "Clifford, it won't work if you try to use seniority to suppress me. I will always believe in the power I have in my own hands. I don't like people like you who barge in to our family and then talk about seniority."

Juliette's face turned cold, "Tyler, he's my father and your eldest brother's father-in-law. Doesn't it bring disgrace to the Smith family for you to speak like this?"

Juliette was very dissatisfied with Tyler's attitude towards her father. In her eyes, no one could be this disrespectful to him.

Even Tyler was not allowed to disrespect her father.

"Juliette, it's to show respect to you to call you sister-in-law. However, you're nothing in my eyes, do you understand?"

Tyler continued smoking his pipe with a sneer at the corner of his mouth. His mustache showed his intention to provoke.

Swish!

Suddenly, several thugs in black suits rushed out from all corners of the hall and surrounded the area.

Each of them were holding a gun in their hands with serious and murderous looks on their faces. They were waiting for their madam's orders.

All of a sudden, the atmosphere in the hall became serious and intense.

Juliette's personal assistant came out from the crowd and stood in front of her. She bowed and said respectfully, "Madam, he is disrespectful to the master! He deserves to die!"

Juliette's eyes were wide open and she stared at the female assistant angrily. She slapped her immediately, "Who let you in? Get out!"

"Crash!"

The group of people retreated again.

Tyler who was sat on the sofa raised his head and laughed, "Juliette, your family is so impetuous. What exactly are you capable of?"

Jason sat aside and had not not spoken since this started.

Because he knew that his uncle was helping him now.

Juliette's face darkened and the corner of her mouth twitched slightly. She wanted to kill Tyler right now. In this way, the Smiths would lose a very powerful person.

However, she did not dare to do so.

She was afraid of Tyler's power.

After so many years, Tyler was afraid of Juliette's power too.

They had been fighting against each other for more than a decade and had to be restrained from each other.

"All right, all right. We're family."

Clifford spoke suddenly. He sat on the sofa and put his hands on the dragon head crutch. He looked at Jason who was sitting on the other side and said with interest, "You must be Titus' son, Jason. You are really extraordinary. You really look like your dad."

Jason smiled coldly and got up. He put his hands in his pockets, "Sorry, the Smiths and the Yuns are not family. I thought there was something extraordinary about the Yun family. But for a bad old man like you being in charge of the Yun Family, it really disappoints me."

All of a sudden, Juliette and Clifford were completely stunned by what Jason said.

Both of them frowned.

Juliette eyes narrowed. She said to Jason in a low voice, "Jason, do you know what you just said?"

Jason shrugged indifferently, "Then I'll repeat it again. I'm Titus' son. I'm twenty-five years old and you Clifford, you must be in your seventies, right?"

After Jason finished speaking, he stepped out of the hall and left Clifford in a state of shock.

Tyler laughed as well. He got up and left the hall.

The young master from his Smith Family was indeed extraordinary.

The atmosphere was very dull in the hall.

"Father, what do you think of him?"

Juliette sat quietly beside Clifford and made some tea for him.

Clifford narrowed his eyes and sneered, "Titus has a bold son. It's the first time someone has ever talked to me like this."

Clifford felt sad after saying that.

Yes, he was already in his seventies and he could not compete with the young boy, Jason.

He did not have much time left.

"Ezra, did you notice anything?"

Clifford asked the middle-aged man next to him.

The middle-aged man opened his mouth and said humbly, "An imperial look."

Thud!

Clifford's face turned green. How could he have an imperial look!?

There was already an emperor-like figure in the Smith family. And now they had another one?

When would the Yun Family had the opportunity to stand out?

"Impossible!"

At this moment, Clifford who had been calm this whole time suddenly burst out and smashed the tea set! He hit the floor tiles hard with the dragon head crutch in his hand and said angrily, "Why does he have the imperial look? No! Absolutely not! Titus has already suppressed our Yun Family for the past forty years! Do you think our Yun Family will continue to be suppressed by a little b*stard, Jason for forty more years?"

"Calm down father."

Juliette hurriedly helped the furious Clifford to sit down and then patted on his chest. She said, "My preparation is almost complete now. Our Yun Family won't lose this time. The world belongs to us."

Meanwhile, a servant who had welcomed Cindy walked in, put her hands in front of her belly and said respectfully, "Madam, Miss Jiang is waiting in the side hall."

Juliette nodded and asked the servant to assist Clifford to rest. She tidied up and went to the side hall.

Cindy had been waiting in the side hall for over ten minutes.

She did not dare to walk around because this place was too big and luxurious.

Meanwhile, she heard some noises outside.

"Jason, I was in such a hurry that I didn't prepare any present for you. This is the golden lock that I bought when I was on my way here. This is for..."

"Uncle, you don't have to..."

The voice was so familiar. It seemed to be Jason's voice.

Cindy hurried to the door just as she heard the sound fading.

Chapter 246

"Cindy, why do you suddenly want to meet me?"

Meanwhile, Juliette walked into the side hall and stood in front of Cindy with a gentle smile on her face.

Juliette acted very differently when she was in the hall.

Cindy saw the two figures in a daze. They had disappeared in the night and left the manor.

"Aunt Juliette," Cindy greeted politely.

Juliette held Cindy's arm and walked to the sofa to sit down. She ordered the servants to prepare desserts.

On the other hand, Jason Smith and Tyler Smith had left the manor. He looked back suspiciously because he seemed to hear someone called "Cindy".

Jason shook his head, opened the door and got in the car.

Cindy was still uneasy especially when she was facing Juliette.

This woman was Jason's stepmother and Jason had some misunderstanding with her.

"Come, Cindy, taste the freshly baked desserts."

Juliette smiled gently and handed Cindy a green cake with her slender fingers.

Cindy nodded slightly. She took it politely and said, "Aunt Juliette, it's okay."

Juliette raised her eyebrows. She signaled the servants to leave.

There were Juliette and Cindy left in the side hall.

Juliette was extremely elegant and full of pride. She looked at Cindy with a smile on her face and asked, "Did you come here to ask me about Jason's matter?"

Sure enough, Cindy began to suspect.

Juliette narrowed her eyes slightly and looked at the nervous Cindy. She had a solution in her mind.

"Aunt Juliette,"

Cindy hesitated for a while and asked, "Jason told me that his family owned a restaurant. Is it really that simple?"

Cindy opened her eyes wide and looked at Juliette. She was eager to know the answer.

"Yes."

Juliette smiled gently and said, "Jason is right. Our family owned a restaurant, but..."

But?

Cindy was stunned for a moment. There was indeed something else.

"Our family restaurant business maybe a little bigger than you thought. The reason Jason didn't tell you probably he was worried that you couldn't accept the truth. The main reason I came to Shangjiang City was for business. Secondly, I want to persuade Jason to go home. Jason had a bad relationship with his father and ran away from home. His father had been very regretful all these years. His father was seriously ill now and he may be pass away at any time. I hope that you could help me to persuade him to go home and visit his father."

Juliette said calmly. Her words revealed a sense of indifference.

She wanted to force Jason to go back so that he would break the agreement that had been reached by both parties for so many years. Then she could implement her next plan.

She wanted to force Jason to go back so that he would break the agreement that had been reached by both parties for so many years. Then she could implement

Cindy trembled all over when she heard this. Her father-in-law was seriously ill?

"Okay, I'll try my best to persuade him."

Cindy said and then got up. "Aunt Juliette, I have nothing else to ask so I'll leave first."

Juliette got up, "I'll ask someone to send you home. You can come here anytime you want to. Make yourself at home."

Cindy smiled and hooked her hair by her ear, saying, "Aunt Juliette, if you are free tomorrow, you can go to my house for dinner. I'll arrange you to talk with Jason."

"Great. Thank you so much, Cindy."

Juliette smiled happily and walked over. She hugged Cindy like a gentle mother.

Cindy asked before she left, "Aunt Juliette, this manor?"

Juliette crossed her arms over her chest and looked at the large manor gracefully. She said, "It was bought by our family and it belongs to you and Jason in the future."

Thud!

Cindy was shocked!

This manor was so huge and luxurious. It was actually owned by Jason's family.

How much would that cost?

How dare this Jason hide such a secret from her!

Cindy was a bit angry. She turned and left the manor. Then she took a Mercedes back to the villa.

.....

"Cindy, where have you been?"

Jason arrived home earlier. When he saw Cindy coming home, he greeted her with a smile.

However, Cindy glared at him coldly and pulled him into the master bedroom.

Bang!

The door was closed.

Amanda Yang who was downstairs sneaked out of her bedroom. She crept upstairs and leaned at the master bedroom's door to listen to their conversation.

"Jason, do you know where I just came back from?"

Cindy sat on the bed angrily and asked with a cold face.

Jason was a little confused and asked with a silly smile, "Where?"

"Aunt Juliette's place."

Cindy crossed her arms around her chest and stared at Jason with burning eyes. She wanted to see the change of expression on his face.

Jason was stunned at first. Then he smiled and asked, "Why did you go to meet her out of a sudden?"

Oh no!

Why did Cindy find Juliette?

Did she felt suspicious of him?

What did Juliette say to Cindy again?

Jason was in a panic at the moment.

"Jason, did you hide something from me?"

Cindy asked and stared at Jason.

Jason leaned forward and held Cindy in his arms. He smiled and said, "No, what are you thinking. I have told you everything."

Jason was guessing in his heart. He bet that Juliette did not say anything.

This was because he knew that it was impossible for Juliette to tell Cindy.

Then, he could go back with Cindy and Angela in a fair and proper way.

Jason had his own considerations of why he did not want to reveal his identity to Cindy.

Cindy was from an ordinary family without any rich family background. Once Jason revealed his identity or bring Cindy and Angela home, it would inevitably lead to the counterattack of the Yun family and other forces.

The Yun Family was not the only one in the world to keep an eye on the Smiths family!

The current situation was like a hemp rope and many forces were competing with each other.

Once Jason broke the balance, the chain reaction would come.

Many people would break up with the Smiths!

In that case, it was absolutely impossible for Jason to protect Cindy and Angela wholeheartedly.

Jason was like a weed now and no one would pay attention to him.

However, this weed would suddenly grow into a big tree. So, everyone could not wait to come up and trample this weed to death mercilessly.

Therefore, he could only do it slowly and continue to develop until he was strong enough not to fear any forces and power. Then only he could reveal his identity to the world.

Cindy twisted her body, rolled her eyes at Jason and said, "Aunt Juliette told me that your family restaurant's business is far bigger than what you have told me."

Jason frowned and asked eagerly, "Did she tell you the details?"

Cindy shook her head and said, "This is the reason I want to ask you. I'm your wife. Why did you hide it from me?"

"Jason, how big is your family business?"

Jason breathed a sigh of relief in his heart. Then, he pretended to be nonchalant and explained, "Cindy, in fact my family..."

Bang!

Suddenly, the master bedroom door was pushed open from the outside!

Amanda fell at the door. She widened her eyes and looked at them sitting on the bed with embarrassment and a smile.

"Oh! Well Cindy, I have something to talk to you. Please come downstairs."

Amanda got up immediately. She glanced sideways, turned around and left.

On the other hand, Cindy and Jason looked at each other helplessly. They were really speechless with Amanda.

Cindy stood up and said, "I'll go downstairs for a while."

After that, she went out of the master bedroom and came to the living room. She saw Amanda sitting on the sofa sulking.

Amanda had heard the conversation between Cindy and Jason just now.

D*mn Jason! He really hid a lot of things.

His family owned a restaurant?

He was very rich so it must be chain restaurants!

"Mom, what are you looking for me for?"

Cindy walked over and did not sit down.

Amanda pulled Cindy to sit down and glanced upstairs. She lowered her voice and asked, "Cindy, please tell me what on earth did Jason's family do? I just heard from you that they owned a restaurant?"

Cindy knew that her mother would ask this, so she did not intend to hide it. She said, "Well, Jason's family owns a restaurant and I did not know it until recently. If you have nothing else to ask, I'll go upstairs now."

After saying that, Cindy turned and left which made Amanda anxious. Amanda pulled Cindy and said, "You silly girl, why did you just tell me now?"

"Mom, what the hell do you want?"

Cindy was speechless. At first glance, she knew that her mother wanted to make trouble again.

"What can I do? Of course, I concern about you. Since Jason's family is rich, why didn't he tell you before? Don't you think he has bad intentions? We have to be united and I will help you fight for property from Jason!"

Amanda spoke in a chiseled way.

Cindy shook her head helplessly and said with a cold face, "Mom, can you stop fooling around every day?"

After that, she went upstairs.

Amanda muttered to herself in the living room, "Am I making a fool of myself? It's all for your own good! Such an ungrateful person!"

The next day, Cindy and Jason left the villa. Amanda was ready to go out as well. However, as soon as she arrived at the gate, a figure blocked her way.

"Who is it? How can you be so blind? How did you break into my house?"

Amanda was rummaging through the bag. Before she raised her head and looked at the figure carefully, she began to scold.

"Amanda Yang."

All of a sudden, the cold voice scared Amanda.

She was too familiar with the voice!

When she suddenly looked up, she saw an extremely noble woman standing in front of her.

Amanda felt that she was too weak in front of this lady.

Juliette Yun!

Why did she come?

Bang!

Juliette raised her hand and slapped Amanda immediately. Amanda opened her eyes and her mouth wide. She dared not make noise for a while.

"Did I tell you not to be too arrogant anymore?"

Juliette said coldly. There were eight bodyguards in black suits and sunglasses standing behind her.

Chapter 247

Amanda did not dare to rebel against the powerful Juliette.

She only dared to be outrageous to Jason.

If she met an outsider, she would not even dare to say anything,

Especially such a powerful woman like Juliette, Amanda was afraid of her.

"I, I..."

Amanda hesitated and covered her face, not knowing what to say.

Pat!

Juliette slapped her again and said harshly, "Amanda, I warn you, put away your bad intentions. Do you really think people from the Smith family are easy to bully? Have you forgotten the warning I gave you before?"

As expected, Amanda was an ordinary person. She forgot the pain after the wound heal.

She was the most shameless person in the world.

"I, I didn't..."

Amanda covered her face with her hands and lowered her head. She was trembling all over and did not dare to look straight at Juliette.

Juliette glanced at her coldly and went straight into the villa. After she looked around, she sat on the sofa in the living room.

Amanda quickly went to pour tea and handed it to Juliette with fear and flattery. She said, "Well, Madame Yun, please drink some tea."

Juliette did not take it, so Amanda had to put it on the tea table. She tried to sit down slowly.

"Who asked you to sit down?"

Suddenly, Juliette's cold words scared Amanda. She immediately stood straight at the side and her back was wet with sweat.

She secretly looked at the eight bodyguards behind Juliette, and her heart kept beating. If these people hit her, wouldn't she die instantly?

Thinking of this, Amanda lost her courage and knelt. She begged for mercy, "Madame Yun, don't hit me. I'm wrong. I will never dare to do it again. I'll definitely treat Jason well. I'll treat him as my own son."

Juliette was also stunned, but her expression was still calm.

She did not expect that a person could be so shameless.

Jason, as the heir of the Smith family. How could he be bullied by such an ordinary person for three years?

Such a coward.

Seeing that Juliette did not speak, Amanda was as anxious as a cat on hot bricks. She kept kowtowing and slapping herself in the face. She apologized, "Madame Yun, I, I'm a good-for-nothing. Don't bother about people like me. It's not necessary to bother about people like me. I know I'm wrong."

In the end, Amanda cried.

Juliette got annoyed and got up directly. She left a sentence, "Amanda, be responsible for your actions. If I found out that you have bad intentions on him, I would definitely pull out your tendons, strip your skin, and throw you into the river to feed the fish."

Amanda knelt on the floor, and her whole body was lying on the tiles. She breathed a sigh of relief and fell to the ground after Juliette left.

"D*mn b*tch! B*tch!"

Amanda was so angry that she scolded. She had never experienced this.

Jason received a phone call on his way to Bi Kang Pharmacy. It turned out to be Melissa!

Bruce's daughter.

"Jason, do you miss me?"

Jason got goosebumps all over his body when he heard her soft voice.

How did she get his number?

Jason was a little vigilant and asked, "Miss Scott, why are you looking for me this early in the morning?"

Melissa's voice sounded very pleasant. With a cold tone, she said, "Are you free this afternoon?"

Jason was a little confused. A little beauty was trying to ask him out. Just thinking about it made him feel that there was something wrong.

"I don't have time."

Jason refused directly.

On the other side, Melissa said with a smile, "That's a deal. I'll pick you up later."

"Wait a minute. What are you talking about? Don't mess around. We're not close." Jason said.

However, the phone hung up directly.

Jason felt helpless, but he did not take it seriously. He treated it as a joke.

When he arrived at the company, several receptionists at the front desk avoided Jason. They even ignored his greeting.

Jason was confused and shrugged helplessly.

What was going on?

He came here today to check on the company's situation. Early in the morning, Hayes told him about the meeting with Cindy last night.

Therefore, after thinking for a while, Jason asked Joe to do something for him.

From today on, he was officially an employee of Bi Kang Pharmacy.

He wanted to see what Juliette wanted to do!

The marketing department staff were celebrating the success of their quarterly assessment when he arrived at the company. They were all stunned for a long time when Jason came in. Then they returned to do their jobs. No one spoke, and they were avoiding him as he was the god of the plague.

The atmosphere of the whole company was depressed.

Jason looked around for a long time, but he did not understand what happened, so he shook his head helplessly.

"Jason, how dare you come here?"

Mandy suddenly appeared in front of Jason and looked at the office door sneakily, as if she was avoiding people to come in.

Jason looked up and frowned slightly. "What's wrong?"

Mandy hurriedly bypassed the table and whispered beside Jason's ear, "I advise you to leave quickly. I heard that our deputy director is targeting you!"

Harrison Li?

Jason frowned. Just as he was about to say something, two people suddenly broke in at the door.

"Jason, why are you here?"

With a sneer on his face, Harrison stood at the door and looked at him like a fool. "And you, Mandy, what are you doing? Why are you wandering around during work time! Do you want to be fired?"

"No, Mr. Li. I'm..."

Mandy's face was full of fear. She wanted to explain, but was interrupted by Harrison.

"What no? I guess you don't want to work anymore."

Harrison's eyes darkened. "Wandering around during work time and not doing your job properly. You're fired!"

At this moment, Jason's face darkened, and he said, "Mr. Lee, there's no need for you to target others. If you want to deal with me, just come to me. It has nothing to do with Mandy."

"Jason..."

Mandy was a little touched and wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes.

He smiled and said, "Mr. Lee, I forgot to tell you that from now on, I'm also an employee of Bi Kang."

Swoosh!

The employees of the whole company were stunned!

Jason actually became their colleague?!

Was it arranged by President Jiang?

Harrison also trembled slightly. The muscles on his face twitched, and he said angrily, "What are you talking about? I'm the deputy director of the company. When did you become an employee of the company? How did I not know about this?"

Jason said faintly, "You also know that you are just deputy, so it's not surprising that you don't know."

"What did you say!"

Harrison was angry. He pointed at Jason and shouted, "How dare you! Although I'm the deputy director, you are also under my management. An employee like you who doesn't respect your superiors, Bi Kang Pharmacy won't hire you! I'll ask the human resource department to fire you now!"

Harrison sneered in his heart. He thought Cindy hired Jason with her power.

How dared Cindy to abuse her power.

Did they really think their family owns this company?

If Jason knew what he was thinking, he would definitely smile and said that the company was really owned by their family. They bought the company.

The quarrel here had already been spread to the Chairman's office.

"What a farce!"

Cindy frowned. She got up, stepped on the high heels, and came to the marketing department.

Cindy was shocked by the scene in front of her!

Jason waved his fist at Harrison's face!

"Stop!" Cindy shouted in panic.

How horrible would things become if he punched him!

"Jason, what are you doing?"

She walked quickly to the front of Jason and glared at him fiercely.

"Okay, okay!"

Harrison was so angry that his whole body was trembling. He was shocked by Jason's momentum just now.

He pulled his tie and said with a grim face, "President Jiang, as you can see, your good husband wanted to punch me. Does he have respect for me as the deputy director? He has to know the rules even if you recruited him with your power."

New employee?

Cindy also had a headache. What the hell was going on? She turned to look at Jason, pulled him aside, and asked anxiously, "What's going on? Why are you here?"

He shrugged and smiled innocently. "I'm here to work."

Hearing this, Cindy put on a suspicious look on her delicate little face and asked in surprise, "You came to work?"

Then, she covered her mouth and laughed. She was surprised and asked, "How could you come to our company? Well, well, I know you are worried about me. Go back first. I can handle the company's affairs."

Jason was very helpless. He took out the offer from his pocket and handed it to Cindy, saying, "I really came to work."

Cindy took the offer and was stunned instantly.

This. Jason was going to be her assistant?

Why didn't she knew it before?

"You, how did you get recruited, and you are my assistant."

Cindy was confused.

Chapter 248

Jason touched on Cindy's nose, "I'm your capable man. In the future, I'll be your knight."

Cindy rolled her eyes at him shyly.

On the other hand, Harrison was so angry that he gritted his teeth. He scolded when he watched this sweet couple walking in, "President Jiang, you must give me an explanation for what happened today. Otherwise, I will report it to the board of directors!"

Cindy came over and said with a straight face, "Mr. Lee, if you're not happy, I apologize on Jason's behalf."

After that, Cindy turned to the crowd, "Everyone, welcome our new colleague, Jason Smith. From now on, he will be assistant to the board of directors."

Clap! Clap! Clap! Clap!

Everyone except Harrison gave warm applause.

Most people had their own secret opinions.

Jason really lived off a woman, that was why he could be promoted to board of directors' assistant so easily.

It was really shameless to rely on a woman to get a promotion.

However, Jason did not care. He would only come here to work for a few days.

"All right! Wait and see, dude!"

Harrison knew that he could not do anything so he left with his assistant in anger.

Jason grinned and waved his hand. "Mr. Lee, I will always welcome you in the Director's Office."

As soon as he finished, Cindy pulled his ear to the board of directors..

They could hear all kinds of noise through the door of the board of directors' office.

"Honey, don't work so hard. You have to take good care of the baby."

Jason was squatting on the ground and listening to Cindy's tummy.

Cindy pushed him away and said with a smile, "What are you trying to hear? It's only been a short time."

Jason smiled and walked behind Cindy massaging her shoulders.

Meanwhile...

Austin Ning slammed on the table and flipped some folders on it. He smashed a lot of ornaments in the Ninghai Group branch's General Manager office.

He pointed at two followers standing in front of him and shouted angrily, "Useless things! Was it so difficult for you to catch one person? Why do I employ trash like you!"

"Trash! Losers!"

Austin's heart was burning with anger. He went up and kicked the two people over.

The urgent ringtone interrupted Austin's tantrum. He looked at the caller ID on his phone. He frowned. He tightened the tie around his neck and adjusted his breathing, "Hello, Mr. Lee..."

Before Austin could finish, Harrison's exasperated voice came from the other end of the phone!

"Austin, what has happened to you? You promised that you would capture Cindy that day. What's going on? Give me an explanation!"

Harrison was extremely angry from his intonation. Austin frowned and suppressed his anger, "Mr. Lee, don't worry. It was an accident. I'll arrange everything."

"An accident. What accident?"

"At first I had planned to invite Cindy to the banquet alone. I could have killed her on the spot if I had followed my plan. However, I didn't expect that she would bring someone who could really handle alcohol!"

Austin was still scared thinking of it. He did not expect Jason to be so good at drinking!

"Who could have defeated you at drinking? Who was it?" Harrison obviously did not believe it.

"It's her loser husband, Jason Smith!"

When Austin mentioned the name, he gritted his teeth with hatred!

"Why is it him again? I don't want to listen to your explanation. Please keep your promise! Otherwise, our previous deal will be voided!"

"Mr. Lee, Mr. Lee..."

Austin held his phone. He jumped up in anger and smashed it. "F*ck! How dare you hang up on me! Who do you think you are? You're just a loser from the Li family. Do you really think that I'm going to run errands for you?"

Austin was so angry that he ripped off his tie and stood in front of the French window. He looked over the city streets.

The glass wall reflected his sinister face and vicious eyes.

"Get in touch with The Alphas from my home town. I must take down Cindy! Beside that, ask them to bring some people here to deal with Jason. It doesn't matter how much it costs!"

Austin looked gloomy. There was unquestionable viciousness on his face, "I don't want to see this person again in Shang Jiang City!"

"Yes, young master!"

.....

Time went by very fast. Jason left work first and got ready to visit Angela in the hospital.

"Jason."

Suddenly, a sweet and tender call rang out.

Jason turned his head and saw a pair of charming long legs walking towards him.

It was Melissa Scott. She was wearing a sky-blue sportswear and high ponytail behind her head. The snow-white skin on her neck and especially her breast was stunning.

She was neat, cool and had a voluptuous figure!

Jason's eyes lit up. It was rare to see such an outstanding goddess, so he could not help glancing at her a few times.

However, this was just appreciation.

What was this little girl trying to do by dressing up like this?

When Melissa approached, Jason came to his senses, "What can I do for you?"

Melissa was really beautiful. Her face was petite and delicate. Although she was plain-looking, her skin was really smooth. She was charming.

"Have you forgotten? I promised to pick you up."

Melissa was slightly displeased but did not show it.

Had he not kept his promise?

Jason was helpless. He turned his head, "I don't have time. I have to go to the hospital to see my daughter."

Melissa was stunned. What was wrong with this guy? She had come to pick him up personally but he did not even appreciate it!

Did Jason know how many men dreamed of dating her?

How could he be so ungrateful!

This was the first time that she had invited a boy!

So what if he was married?

Melissa was a girl who loved hard. She had asked Jason for a date just so she could confess her feelings.

It did not matter to her even if she was labelled as a mistress by the public.

"No, you have to accompany me!"

Melissa ignored him and dragged Jason into the car immediately.

Melissa had booked a seat in advance at a western restaurant. Both of them sat face to face. Neither of them spoke for a while.

"Why on earth did you want to meet me?"

Jason was afraid of the awkward situation so he asked Melissa the first question.

"Hehe, it's not a big deal. I just wanted to have a meal with you."

Melissa said with a smile.

Jason was not stupid. He smiled and crossed his arms.

"Well you've done. Can I go now?"

Haha, this little girl with her bad thoughts.

Bruce Scott, he did not teach his daughter well.

If Bruce had been here, he would have been so scared that he would have knelt down long ago.

Melissa was a little anxious when she heard that. She quickly grabbed Jason who was about to leave and explained, "Don't worry. I have something to ask you."

Jason sat down again and waited for her to speak.

Melissa's red lips wrapped around her straw. She sucked a sip of ice sexily. She propped up her chin and stared at Jason, "I like you."

Jason finally understood that this little girl was fond of him.

Jason thought for a moment, "Little girl, I know that I'm a little charming but I'm married and I have a lovely daughter. Do you understand? How old are you? You have to restrain your budding feelings."

"I know but I really like you." Melissa said with a smile.

Hmmm?

Melissa did not get Jason's meaning.

This type of girl was the most difficult to deal with.

Jason thought for a while and finally rejected, "But I don't like you. I only love my wife and daughter. If there's nothing else, I'll leave."

Melissa's excited little face slowly darkened after hearing this. She said with regret, "Do you really not like me? I can accompany you every day. If you ever miss me, I can rush over to accompany you."

"Melissa, why are you here?"

Suddenly, a voice came from behind Jason.

Three figures came over. Jason had never seen the leader before but he was dressed very nicely. At first glance, he seemed to come from a rich family.

As soon as he came in, he pointed at Jason with a straight face.

"Melissa, why are you having dinner with such a man? No wonder you always says you're not free whenever I ask you out. You've been lying to me!"

Cord Lu became very angry at that moment. He had asked Melissa for dinner today, but had been rejected.

What surprised him even more was Melissa was dating another man!

He would not allow his goddess to have contact with other men!

Melissa put down the cold beverage. She glanced at him coldly, "Cord, I've told you many times not to meddle in my affairs. Besides, I didn't lie to you. I'm really busy. As you can see, I'm having dinner with my boyfriend."

Boyfriend!

Cord was very angry and the consequences would be very serious!

He looked at Jason with a gloomy face and threatened, "B*stard, get out of here immediately, if you don't want to lie in the hospital! Otherwise, you will suffer the consequences!"

He was threatening Jason!

Jason smiled bitterly to himself. He did not expect that anyone would make trouble with him just for coming out to dinner.

Moreover, the thing he hated most was being threatened.

Chapter 249

Melissa could not stand Cord's behavior either. She got up and said angrily, "All right, Cord! Don't behave like such a little prince. Jason is my boyfriend and I won't allow anyone to hurt him!"

Cord became even angrier when Melissa said this. He pointed at Jason and asked with an unhappy look, "Melissa, how dare you scold me for this man?"

Cord felt dissatisfied. Why was Melissa treating him like this?

It was all because of this man named Jason. It was all because of him!

Melissa would not treat him like this if this man had not appeared in her life!

"It's all because of you!"

Cord vented his anger on Jason. He picked up the bottle next to his hand and smashed it on Jason's head!

"Ah!"

Melissa was so frightened that her face turned pale. She covered her mouth and shouted loudly.

Jason's head would surely be injured and bleeding from that smash!

Cord sneered. He believed that if this bottle of wine was smashed over his head, then the guy would definitely beg him for mercy!

Then, Melissa would know who was the real man!

Jason raised his eyebrows indifferently and sneered. Everyone saw something happen quick as a flash. Jason's right hand snatched the bottle from Cord and his left hand grabbed his throat tightly!

Everything happened in only a second!

Everyone was scared by Jason's lightning-fast reaction!

Jason seized Cord by the throat and a strong aura suddenly burst from him. His eyes were cold and he said calmly, "Get out!"

His voice was not loud but a shock of electricity swept over Cord!

He trembled all over and felt the power of this man in front of him. This kind of extremely aura was even more powerful than his father's!

Cord's body suddenly went weak and his legs could not help trembling!

If he could replay the scene, he would rather not have met Jason. He would rather not have hit Jason in anger!

Jason loosened his hand and pushed Cord backwards heavily. He grinned, "What's wrong? Do you want me to invite you out?"

Cord felt as if he had been granted amnesty. He could not care less about the embarrassment he felt in front of Melissa. He wiped away his cold sweat, "Okay! Just wait and see!"

After that, Cord ran out of the restaurant in a panic with his two followers.

The onlookers were still trying to get a glimpse of the busting scene. They gave Jason thumbs up with great satisfaction.

Not long after, Cord and his two followers ran out. They asked, "Young master, are you okay?"

Cord was panting heavily at that moment and had finally recovered from the sticky situation. He shook his head, "It's okay."

"Young master, what should we do now? Shall we call for help?" The follower asked.

Cord's face was gloomy. He clenched his fist and bit his lips. He looked at Melissa and Jason who were having nice conversation in the restaurant, "Melissa will definitely be my woman! She must be!"

"This dude is not so simple," Cord said with a trace of malice on his face, "Call! Call Fabian and others over! I must make him crawl out of the restaurant today!"

Jason did not take this little drama to heart. He looked at Melissa who was still in a panic and said with a smile, "Miss Melissa, it's really dangerous to come out with you. If there's nothing else, I'll leave."

Melissa was stunned. She hurriedly got up and apologized, "Sorry, it's all because of me. I apologize to you on his behalf."

Jason waved his hand and did not show any hit that he cared.

Both of them sat down for a while and got ready to leave.

However, Melissa who had only just got up suddenly shouted, "They're coming. Get out of here immediately!"

"Who?"

Jason asked subconsciously. He turned his head and saw some tattooed men coming in through the back glass door. They were very serious and looked like gangsters. Cord, who had previously been scared away, followed behind them!

"Is that him?"

The tattooed leader with big muscles asked as he pointed to Jason who was standing in the restaurant.

"Yes! That's him!"

Cord looked at Jason with shame and indignation. He sneered, "What's wrong? Your face looks pale. If you are afraid, you can kneel down and call me master now. Then, I will let you go!"

Jason had no choice but to sneer. Before he got chance to say anything, Melissa had already stood in front of him and said angrily, "Cord, what kind of man do you think you are? Is it fair to bring lots of men? It's not that I'm looking down on you. Now, let us out! Otherwise, I will ask my father to teach you a lesson!"

After that, Melissa took Jason's hand and wanted to leave.

However, the fierce tattooed man blocked their way immediately. He cupped his chin and said in surprise, "Hey! Don't worry, beauty. Master Lu told me that this guy is looking for trouble and my brothers and I are just here to check what's going on."

"How about this? Play with us beauty. There is a hotel next to us. As long as you accompany me, I will not make things difficult for your little boyfriend. What do you think?"

Fabian's eyes were full of greed and lust. This was the first time he had seen such a beautiful woman with such an outstanding charm. Especially her plump breasts, tiny waist and a pair of slender legs!

"Brother Fabian, don't make things difficult for Melissa. It's this dude. It's him..."

Cord who stood nearby noticed that something was wrong.

"F*ck you! Do you think you can interrupt me when I'm talking? Get out of my way!"

Fabian slapped Cord in the face and kicked him aside, "What's wrong? Are you going to accompany us to the hotel?"

"I'll accompany you!"

Cord was serious about Melissa. He pulled his face and squeezed a smile.

"Oh my god! Are you for real? Who the f*ck said you could follow us!"

Fabian brushed his hair. He went up and kicked Cord to the corner.

"Young master, don't think that you can command me just because of some stinking money! I can do whatever I want, it's not up to someone else to order me around!"

Fabian did not care about Cord at all. He just wanted the money before he came.

After Fabian arrived, he decided that he wanted the woman!

"Beauty, what do you think?"

Fabian's face was full of lust. He rubbed his hands and stared at Melissa. His eyes fixed on Melissa's plump chest.

"Not so fast, idiot!"

Suddenly, a discordant voice sounded in the restaurant.

"Who is that? Do you want to die?"

Fabian shouted angrily. He began to search for source of the voice with his beady eyes. He finally fixed his eyes on Jason who stood behind Melissa.

Jason did not want to intervene in this matter at first. However, he had to do something because she was Bruce's daughter.

"Don't tell me that you want to kill me. I have heard this more than hundred times, but I'm always still alive."

Jason said with a naughty smile. He was not afraid of these people at all.

"Well well well. You're really bold!"

Fabian sneered and formed a plan in his mind.

"Brother Fabian, kill him! How dare he scold you?!"

"Yes, Brother Fabian. This guy doesn't know how to appreciate favors. I'll break his legs so that he will learn his lesson!"

The followers behind Fabian were all talking as if they were deciding Jason's fate.

Fabian raised his hand and sneered, "Dude, I've no problem with you but I will give you two choices. Either, climb over here and call me master, or it'll be climbing over our dead bodies to get out!"

Fabian was a well-known bully in this neighbourhood. He had done a lot of things such as fighting and collecting protection fees. He had gone to jail many times but was still active and vigorous.

It was all because Fabian had Shang Jiang City's Seven Stars Gang to protect him!

The Seven Stars Gang was neither too big nor too small. It was just a gathering place for rogues. However, they were just second-rate gangsters.

Jason shook his head and pushed aside Melissa who wanted to stop him. He burst out a scary aura, "You're Brother Fabian, aren't you? I'll give you two choices as well. First, take your men and get out of here. Second, I'll help you to leave."

All the people looked at Jason like an idiot after he'd finished talking. All of them sneered in their minds: Was this dude out of his mind? He even dared to taunt Brother Fabian. Did he want to die?

A follower behind Brother Fabian hurriedly stood up and pointed at Jason's nose, "B*stard, you are asking for trouble. How dare you taunt Brother Fabian!"

Brother Fabian reacted. He frowned and his face suddenly turned green. He did not know where Jason had got the courage to be so arrogant. Was there someone behind him?

"Young man, who are you working with?"

Although Fabian was fierce in his work, he was well-educated and quite smart. He knew he had to ask about the guy's identity first.

Because he knew very well that there were some people he could not afford to offend.

Although he was lecherous, he would not lose his life because of a woman!

Jason glanced at him indifferently and replied, "Bruce Scott."

Chapter 250

All the people present were shocked by Jason's words!

Bruce Scott?

What the f*ck!

This idiot must be bragging!

Did he know who Bruce was? How dared him to take advantage of someone using his name?

"Hey, you're really good at bragging. Everyone here knew who Mr Scott is. Are you saying that you are under Mr. Scott's protection?"

Fabian sneered and thought, was this silly man afraid of them?

"Believe it or not, but I have to remind you that you better don't offend me. Otherwise, you will be in great trouble."

Jason said faintly. His deep eyes gazed at them coldly.

"F*ck! Who do you think you are? How dare you talk to Brother Fabian like this!"

Several followers of Fabian immediately became unhappy, and they threatened him.

They had never seen such a person who dared to talk to Brother Fabian like this!

He was courting death!

If he offended Fabian, he would get into great trouble, and he might even lose his life.

Melissa, who was at the side, was very touched because this man stood up for her. When she heard Jason's arrogant words, she was worried. She pulled his arm and said, "Jason, let's run away now. They aren't kind. I'll ask my father to teach them a lesson later."

"Hehe, beauty, you're right. We aren't kind people. What do you think of the choices that Brother Fabian gave you just now? As long as you agree to go to the hotel with Brother Fabian, I promise that your boyfriend will be fine and he can leave here safely..."

One of Fabian's follower rubbed his hands and said with a lascivious smirk.

This was a good opportunity to show his ability in front of Brother Fabian, so he had to grab this opportunity!

Look, the other brothers were looking at him with envy!

Even Fabian was looking at him with praise at this time. He knew the right thing to do.

However, the next second!

Jason did not listen to Melissa's dissuasion. He even took a step forward.

"Plup!"

A loud noise appeared in the dining hall, and it shocked everyone there!

Everyone was stunned. They did not expect that Jason would start the fight. He slapped the follower in front of Fabian.

"You've talk too much!" Jason said coldly.

"You! How dare you slap me!"

The follower came to his sense after a while. He covered his swollen face and pointed with anger to Jason!

Fabian's face darkened, and he said angrily, "Break his arms and legs, then throw him out!"

Several of his followers picked up the chairs and beverage bottles in the restaurant and rushed toward Jason!

In their eyes, no matter how arrogant this guy was, there was only one of him. They were a group of people!

Ouch!

Ouch!

Jason swept his leg and kicked away a few people in front!

The strength of his kick was so strong that several people's ribs might have been broken!

Then, he moved like a flash, and he rushed straight into the chaos of the crowd alone.

He defeated them easily!

In just a moment, only Brother Fabian and Cord, who was hiding in the corner, were left standing!

Hiss!

Fabian let out a cold gasp at this time, and his legs were shaking slightly. He had been scared by the horrible strength of the man in front of him!

He gulped down a mouthful of saliva. Fabian was so scared that he wished he could die right now!

It was too scary!

Was this man a human?

He defeated all his brothers in half a minute!

He was like a martial art superstar on the TV.

Fabian suddenly felt weak. As he saw Jason walking towards him with a wine bottle in his hand, he felt the threat of life for the first time!

Yes, this man's eyes were so cold, and the chilling aura on his body was too strong!

"Brother Fabian, what do you think of the choice I gave you?"

Jason grinned.

However, his smile was like the devil's smile in Fabian's eyes.

A cold sweat broke out on his forehead. He stuttered and begged for mercy, "..... Brother, I was wrong, I'm a b*stard! Please let me go, brother, I'll get out of here now!"

Fabian knew clearly that he was in an unfavourable condition, so he quickly decided to bow his head and admitted his mistakes.

Jason did not say anything but looked at him with a smile. He raised his eyebrows and motioned him to continue.

Fabian thought for a while and glanced at his brothers who were scattered on the ground. That was terrible!

Then, he slowly squatted down, held his head and curled his legs, and surprisingly rolled out of the restaurant in public!

"Get the hell out of here!"

Jason shouted coldly.

The gangsters in the restaurant, who were lying on the ground and pretending to be dead, seemed to have been granted amnesty at this moment. They all got up from the ground with a whine, covered their faces with their hands and supported each other, and then rolled out of the restaurant together!

Yes, more than a dozen people, all held their head, and rolled out of the restaurant like balls!

The scene was really shocking!

Cord saw what happened in front of him and was so scared that he could not say anything. He did not expect Jason to be so powerful!

He was unwilling to give up!

Jason glanced at him and said coldly, "And you, what's your choice?"

Cord was stunned, and his face turned red instantly. Then he gritted his teeth, squatted down in front of Melissa, and rolled out of the restaurant like a ball too.

Melissa was the most surprised one. She watched all this happened with her own eyes, which was too unbelievable!

She did not expect that. Jason was not only a distinguished guest of her father, but he was also good with martial arts!

Had this guy learned some Kung Fu?

Shadowless kick?

"Do you know Kung Fu?"

Melissa asked with her mouth slightly open.

Jason smiled and said, "Yes, why? Are you interested? I can teach you."

Melissa immediately held Jason's arm with a smile and said, "Sure, sure, I like men who were good with martial arts the most!"

Jason's face turned red. He coughed awkwardly and pulled Melissa's arm away because his elbow seemed to touch something soft. It made his mind ripple.

Melissa was also stunned. She quickly let go of his hand. She touched her hair around her ear, and said with a red face, "Well, I stay in the Star Lake Garden. If you have time, come visit me."

Jason was stunned. Was she so straightforward?

Melissa also noticed the slip of her tongue, so she hurriedly shook her head and said, "No, no, I didn't mean that... Oh, I'll go back first. I'll contact you next time.

Melissa ran out of the restaurant with a red face. She was too embarrassed. Why would she panic?

But it was indeed the first time for her to be touched by a man. She was nervous.

Melissa sat in the car and watched Jason came out of the restaurant. She patted the steering wheel with shame and annoyance. "D*mn Jason, why didn't he apologize after taking advantage of me! Humph!"

After scolding, Melissa drove away. She received a phone call just now, and there was something urgent for her to deal with.

Not long after Jason walked out of the restaurant, a few people followed behind him stealthily.

He put his hands in his trouser pocket, stopped and turned around. The seven or eight people who followed behind him all squeezed together like frightened birds. One of them did not manage to take a firm stand and caused everyone to fell down on the ground.

Their faces turned green with fear.

"Fabian Ding?"

Jason frowned and asked.

Wasn't this guy convinced?

Yes, it was indeed Fabian and others who followed behind Jason.

Before Jason could react, Fabian got up from the ground quickly and bent over. He said, "Brother Smith, please accept us as your followers. We will do anything for you!"

Hmm?

They were asking him to accept them as his followers?

Jason smiled mockingly and said, "I thought Brother Fabian wasn't convinced and brought a group of people to attack me secretly."

Fabian was scared, and he trembled when he heard this. He wiped the cold sweat on his forehead with a grin and explained, "Brother Smith, how dare I? From now on, we brothers will rely on you."

"Yeah, Brother Smith, we were naive and ignorant just now."

"Yes, yes, Brother Smith, please forgive us!"

Suddenly, the followers behind Fabian interjected at the same time.

Jason held his chin and made a thinking posture. Fabian and others were not able to figure out Jason's thoughts.

Just now, after Fabian escaped from the restaurant, he wanted to bring a few people and take revenge on Jason, but someone in his brothers said, "Why don't we follow Jason?"

Fabian thought about it for a moment. He could not defeat Jason with so many people. It would be useless even if he brought a few more people.

Fabian's heart trembled when he thought of Jason, who was scary and cold like a devil.

That was why this dramatic scene happened.

"Brother Smith..."

Fabian called with a shy smile.

Jason nodded. He put his arm around Fabian's neck and said with a smile, "In that case, we will all be brothers in the future."

Jason's idea was simple. He really needed a group of people to help him with something.

He would probably encounter more troubles in the future. At that time, he would need someone to help run errands for him.

14:11

This group of people could be handed over to Bruce for training.

"However, I have three conditions."

Jason suddenly stopped.

Chapter 251

Fabian Ding was smiling but then, he was stunned. "Brother Smith, you can order us to do anything. We will do anything you say."

Jason Smith put his arm around Fabian's shoulder and several brothers formed a circle. He said,

First of all, you're not allowed to do any of those bad things you have done in the past.

Secondly, don't turn against each other. I absolutely won't allow this to happen!

Thirdly, we need to hold onto benevolence, righteousness, honesty and integrity!

After that, Jason noticed that Fabian and others' facial expressions had changed.

He knew that it was very difficult for these ruffians not to do these bad things and tease women. After all, they were used to doing this.

However, Jason would not allow this happened. He had his limits and his own plans!

"Okay!"

Fabian finally nodded. He gritted his teeth, "From now on, Brother Smith will be our leader. We will listen to you. Everyone, call him Brother Smith."

"Brother Smith!"

Everyone called out Brother Smith in unison. The sound was so loud that it scared the pedestrians. All the pedestrians ran in a hurry.

Jason smiled and patted Fabian on the shoulder, "That's all for today. I'll ask Bruce Scott to contact you later."

"As for your livelihoods, I will help you to find a place for you all to be security guards. Being security guards is far more promising than what you are doing now."

"Really? Thank you, Brother Smith!"

Fabian suddenly burst into tears. The group of brothers behind him became excited too. They were screaming!

They did not really want to do these illegal things, but had no choice because they needed to make living.

They wanted to live a normal life and be normal people!

However, they responded after Jason left.

"Brother Fabian, Brother Smith just said that he would ask Bruce Scott to contact us. Is it true?"

"This..."

They felt dazed.

"Does Brother Smith really know Mr. Scott?"

Jason returned to the hospital after he had settled this matter. After visiting Angela, he went to the rest area and took out his mobile phone. After thinking for a while, he called Cindy.

"What's wrong? Are you in the hospital?"

On the other end of the phone, Cindy sounded a little tired. However, her voice was very pleasant.

"Yes, my dear, I would like to ask a favor of you."

Jason said cheekily.

"A favor? Is there anything that you need my help with, Master Smith? Tell me, what's the matter?"

Cindy teased especially after learning that Juliette lived in such a big villa last night. She knew that Jason's family was definitely not simple.

As for how extraordinary the truth was, Cindy did not dare to ask.

She was waiting for Jason to tell her.

"Is there a shortage of security guards in your company? I have one or two brothers looking for a job."

Jason immediately said in a hurry, "Dear, my brothers are in peak condition and are experienced fighters. They are absolutely competent to work as security guards!"

"Okay, I understand. You can ask your brothers to come here later."

After that, Cindy hung up the phone and continued with her work.

Jason was secretly happy. He called Fabian and told them to wait for him at Bi Kang Pharmacy's entrance right away.

Fabian suddenly cried down the phone and swore that he would be loyal to Jason!

When Jason arrived at the company's entrance, he saw that Fabian and the others were dressed in uniforms. They stood in a row respectfully waiting for his instructions.

"Brother Smith!"

Jason was shivered when he heard their greeting.

All of the people walking in and out of the building were shocked by this scene!

"Wow! I didn't expect Jason to be a rich second generation. Look, these are all his bodyguards!"

"Yeah! Yeah! He's so dreamy. Did you hear that just now? They called him Brother Smith. He's so imposing! I like him so much!"

Suddenly, there were many crazy women gathered at the building's entrance. Everyone was looking at Jason like he was their dream husband.

However, there were some others who were dissatisfied with Jason's approach.

"What do you guys know? He lives off his wife"

"That's right. It's shameful to rely on his wife to get a job in her company and then make such a scene."

"Hehe, he is just a loser. I don't know why President Jiang married this kind of person."

Meanwhile, Jason walked to Fabian and said with a smile, "Not bad, it's a bit over the top. If you do a good job, you will never be treated badly."

"Please don't worry, Brother Smith. From now on, I vow to serve Brother Smith with all my heart!"

Fabian raised his right hand and clenched his fist. He placed it over his heart!

The brothers behind him all made the same gesture.

"Vow to serve Brother Smith until we die!"

Of course, their voices were much louder than Fabian's!

The voices went straight to the sky and echoed throughout the square!

Those crazy girls almost fainted immediately by the company's ground floor entrance!

Jason was so handsome!

He was their dream prince charming!

Harrison was in a bad mood because he had been scolded by his father the night before.

It was because of the company's business and the Yun family's urgency.

He had got in touch with the medicine market's big shot in Southern River District. However, his plan had been ruined by the foolish Jason.

Therefore, Harrison was very angry and sad.

From a distance, he heard the noise coming from the company's entrance and suddenly frowned.

"What are you doing? What are you doing here?"

Harrison raised his finger. He pointed at Fabian and the others. He scolded, "Who are you? Why are you dressed like this?"

Fabian just glanced at Harrison coldly and did not pay any attention to him.

Harrison's face darkened. He glanced out of the corner of his eye at Jason who was standing beside him. He said in a low voice, "Why are you here?"

"Why can't I be here?"

Jason asked with a grin.

Harrison snorted and did not want to waste his time on him. He turned his head and pointed angrily at Fabian and others, "Who are you? Who asked you to come here? What kind of trash are you wearing? This is Bi Kang and isn't a place for you to show off your shameful line dancing!"

Fabian frowned and looked Harrison up and down. He knew that this guy had a powerful background. However, Fabian was not a fool who would tolerate this. He said, "Who are you?"

Harrison sneered, "Who am I? You don't even know me. What are you doing here?"

"We're here to work!"

Fabian replied very seriously.

"To work? What kind of job?"

Harrison sneered again, "Poor guys like you are working for us? Do you really think our company is a shelter to accomodate just anybody?"

As Harrison said this, he suddenly glanced at Jason. It was so obvious that he was scolding Jason indirectly!

Fabian was very angry. The brothers behind him were very angry too. Some of them could not help but wanting to fight!

However they were stopped by Fabian. He knew that Brother Smith was in front of him and they could not fight before Brother Smith ordered them to do so. He could only hold back his anger, "Brother Smith told us to start work today. We are security guards!"

When he said this, Fabian felt very proud. He raised his chin as if the security guard job was very glorious for him!

"Haha! This is so hilarious. Brother Smith? Security guards?"

Harrison pulled at Fabian's clothes and pointed towards Jason, "You call him Brother Smith? Believe it or not, I could order him out of here immediately."

Jason frowned. He did not like Harrison's sarcastic tone.

"You are not allowed to insult Brother Smith!"

Fabian was angry. He grabbed Harrison's collar as if he were holding a chicken by the neck!

Fabian could tolerate people scolding him but not his idol Brother Smith!

All of a sudden Harrison was surrounded by Fabian and his brothers!

"What do you guys want to do?"

Harrison was scared. He was surrounded by so many people, each of them staring at him with scary glances.

Jason did not want to make a big scene but the words Harrison had just said hurt Fabian and the others' self-esteem!

Harrison was Bi Kang's Deputy CEO and Fabian was his follower. After weighing the pros and cons, Jason signaled Fabian to release his hand and said with a smile, "Deputy Mr. Lee, I'm sorry. Fabian and his brothers are rough people. Please don't mind them."

Harrison was already in a bad mood and now he had been scared by this group of unruly people. He was on the verge of going insane!

He went up and kicked Fabian in the abdomen making him stumble. He pointed at Fabian's nose and cursed, "Dirty sw*ne! Do you know how expensive my suit is? You couldn't afford it in your life! People like you want to be Bi Kang's security guards? Did you get my permission? Who allowed you to come here?! Cheap f*!th! Bah!"

Harrison was so angry that he cursed harshly. These words were venomous and ruined the brothers' self-esteem!

Fabian had never been employed in a normal job. He had been living the gangster life with his group of brothers.

However, he knew what a hot-blooded man was as well as his dignity!

He was so angry that he took off the security hat that he had carefully put on in the morning. He pointed at Harrison angrily who was dressed in a suit and leather shoes, "You fu*k*ing son of a b*tch, give it your best shot!"

He moved. The brothers next to him took off their cap as well and stared at Harrison angrily. If Harrison dared say another word, they would break his legs!

Cindy happened to pass by and frowned.

She heard Harrison's insults which caused her eyebrows to frown until they were knitted together.

Jason raised his eyebrows and pulled back the angry looking Fabian. He said with a sneer, "Deputy Mr. Lee, it's not good to say something so unpleasant."

Harrison sneered. He fixed the thousand dollar tie on his neck, "Why? Are you not convinced? Aren't you just a group of society's sc*m? Do you really think you can look presentable just because you put on a security uniform? I think all of you only have a primary school level education. Are you educated or illiterate? Losers like you want to work in Bi Kang Pharmacy? Dream on!"

pat!

As soon as Harrison finished his words, even though the arrogance on his face had not dissipated, a loud slap rang out in front of the building!

Jason slapped Harrison's ugly face without warning!

Jason had used all his strength to slap him!

Harrison was stunned. He stood there and looked blankly. Half of his face swelled up immediately!

No one dared to hit Harrison, let alone slap him in public!

Fabian and others were very excited. Brother Smith, whom they relied on, did not disappoint them. At the critical moment, it was Jason who took action for them!

They swore that they would follow Brother Smith for the rest of their lives!

"Brother Smith, you're so ruthless!"

Chapter 252

The company staff who were onlooking widened their eyes at this moment and covered their mouths in shock when they saw this sudden scene!

How dared Jason, the good-for-nothing, slapped the deputy director of Bi Kang Pharmacy?"

Harrison was the young master of the Li family in Jinling!

The Li family had a lot of influences and connections in Shang Jiang!

Was he courting death?

Cindy who stood on the side staggered and almost dropped her jaw. Jason's way of dealing with this went completely beyond her expectation!

Why was this guy not considering the consequences at all!

He was getting harder to understand.

When Jason saw Harrison was about to awake from shock, Jason hurriedly rolled up his sleeves and pretended that he wanted to continue the argumentation for justice. He said, "Deputy Director Li, it's too hurtful to us that you say such a thing! Today, I must have a serious talk with you!"

"What is equality? The most important thing needed in society now is equality! Every occupation should be honored equally. You can be a boss or a farmer, but we are all equally same being a human and we have our self-esteem too! Look! Who are the people who are protecting our country safety at the border from day till night? Who are the people that work hard under the hot sun for building constructions? And who are the people who patrolling during day and night to ensure the safety of our company?"

"It was them. The people who are about to take the job as security guards. They sacrificed their time and even their lives to protect our safety and our company's property! How could you, the deputy director of our company, say such evils words to these people who protect our company? How could you trample their dignity? They are also human and they have dignity too.

"And you, Harrison Li, was just a despicable and contemptible man in my eyes! You are a man who was proud and arrogant who couldn't tolerate the ordinary people!"

Jason was happy to be able to scold him!

Tears already rolled down from Fabian's and the other brothers' faces. They were all wiping their tears.

Jason was right. Every sentence that he said were exactly what they wanted to tell. They were dignified and upright human too!

This built a thought in their heart that they would forever be the followers of Jason until they die!

Harrison was so angry that his face turned red with teeth gritted. How could he not be angry when he was scolded so badly by someone for the first time!

"You! I'm going to fire you! And you guys too! You all are absolutely not allowed to work in our company.

Harrison shouted in anger with a vicious face.

He was so angry that he had lost his intellect. He pointed at Jason maliciously and threatened, "I'll remember that you slapped me today. Just wait and see! You deserve ten times to suffer as you wish!

A teamed of security guards rushed out from the buildings at this moment!

Frederick Liu, the captain of the security team, received the news that someone was making trouble at the entrance of the company and that person even slapped the deputy director, Mr. Li. It was a piece of terrible news!

Why was there such a courageous person, who dared to slap the deputy director, Mr. Li!

If Frederick did not settle this well, he would lose his job!

"Deputy Director Li"

Frederick stood at attention with a crooked cap, a group of security guards was panting behind him.

Harrison relaxed his eyebrows and seemed like he found his support. He cursed and shouted at the security guards who just rushed here "What were you doing? Why did you just arrive now! Get them out of the company, especially him, arrest him!

"Yes, Mr. Li!"

Frederick turned his head and saw Jason, who looked at him with a smile. Wasn't he the one who stood up for them and drove away Quentin Lei's gang last time?

He was the useless husband of Cindy, the CEO.

"Jason, why are you here?"

Frederick asked.

Why did Deputy Director Li ask him to arrest Jason? What was going on?

What if President Jiang blamed him for arresting Jason, but Mr. Li asked him to do so.

Frederick was in a dilemma. He was so anxious that his head was full of sweat because he did not know what to do.

"What are you standing there? Chase them out now? Do you want to lose your job?

Harrison yelled in mad.

Cindy saw that the situation was subtle, so she stood out and coughed softly. "Jason, what's happening here?"

She had no other choice but to question Jason first because Harrison is the deputy director of the company.

Cindy, the cool beauty attracted everyone's attention as soon as she stood out.

Frederick wiped the cold sweat on his forehead and felt grateful in his heart. Fortunately, President Jiang appeared now. Otherwise, he did not have the ability to deal with current situations.

Jason shrugged his shoulder in a relaxed attitude. When he was about to answer, Harrison, who was in anger, pointed at him and shouted, "Cindy Jiang! Do you know what your useless husband just did to me? He slapped me, who is his boss in the public! This is the attitude of the employee that we hired. Your assistant! Who gave him the courage to do that? He is just a coward and loser who lived with the support of his wife.

Cindy slightly frowned and she showed a cold expression. She said coldly, "Deputy Mr. Lee, we are in the company now. Please call me President Jiang!"

"Also, he is my husband, and he is not a good-for-nothing! If you dare to mention that again, I'll also slap you like how my husband just did."

Cindy said brutally.

Harrison was stunned. He looked around the crowd and cursed at them to stop them from watching. "Okay! President Jiang! As the deputy director of the company, I urged you to fire Jason Smith now and this group of security guards who came to work in the company without permission!"

"Oh, I hired these security guards. Do you have problems with that, Deputy Director Li?"

Cindy replied indifferently. She did not like Harrison's attitude of acting arrogantly with others name.

Moreover, he just insulted her husband.

Cindy said unpleasantly, "Besides, just to inform you that I would not fire Jason either."

"You!"

Harrison was speechless because of Cindy's answer. He pointed angrily at Jason and Fabian with his brothers. "I will never let this matter go easily! Just wait and see, Cindy! I will definitely report this matter to the board of directors!"

Harrison left the company under the protection of a group of security guards.

Cindy turned her head and looked at Jason coldly. Then she frowned and looked at Fabian and his brothers who were standing at the side, and said, "You, come with me to the office!"

Jason knew that this matter would not end easily. He asked Fabian and his followers to wait for him in the company while he leisurely followed Cindy up.

As soon as they entered the office, Cindy pinched Jason's ear and said, "Did you know that you've gone too far just now? If Harrison wanted to call to account for that, I can't protect you either."

Jason begged for mercy and said in hurry, "Ouch, ouch. Dear, just let go of me. I know I was wrong.

Cindy rolled her eyes at him and said, "Okay! You go back and write a ten thousands words review for me."

Jason was stunned, and he showed a bitter face. He begged for mercy immediately, "Dear, it's not necessary to write a review. You also clearly seen what happened just now. It was Harrison, that b*stard, who insulted my brothers first. I just asked justice for them."

"You still dare to mention that gang of people. Let me ask you, are they your brothers? They are clearly a group of hooligans and gangsters."

Cindy rolled her eyes at him and continued, "As for the situation in the security team, I will inform the security department. Just tell your brothers to go back and settle first."

"Dear, can't you just do me a favor?"

Jason was a little anxious. He had promised Fabian and others to give them the job.

"Please call me President Jiang when we're in the company."

Cindy said. She looked at the figure who stood behind the glass and listening to what they said. Then she winked to give a sign to Jason. Then she scolded, "Did you understand that? Even if you are my husband. I'm still your boss in the company, so did Harrison. Go back and write your review."

Jason said loud and clear while helping Cindy to massage her shoulder, "Noted, President Jiang."

Both of them looked at each other and smiled, as they were having telepathic.

After resting for a while, Jason went out of the CEO's office, and he met a group of acquaintance.

Austin did not expect that he would meet Jason. He could not help to burst into anger when he saw Jason derisive face.

He blocked Jason's way immediately and pulled the sleeve of his expensive suit. He sneered and said, "Hey, isn't this Brother Jason who lived depending on your wife. We haven't meet each other since the last time we met in the hotel. Are you free tonight? How about having a drink with me?"

Jason frowned and looked at Austin up and down. Then he said out of a sudden, "Do we know each other well?"

Did we know each other well?

This phrase repeated in Austin's ears and also heard by his secretary, assistant, and bodyguard's who was behind him.

Everyone looked at Jason like he was a joke. Who was this man? How dare he talk this way to the Young Master of Ning's family? Was he looking for death?

Austin was very angry, and his face fell instantly. He said in gloomy, "Jason, what do you mean now?"

"Idiot!"

Jason directly rolled his eyes at him. Then he just went away from his side and did not care about him at all.

He just ignored Austin!

Austin gritted his teeth in anger. He clenched his fists and stared melaciously at Jason's back. "You can be arrogant now but let's see if you can survive tonight!"

After half an hour more.

Jason was waiting for Cindy at downstairs of the company. He remembered that Cindy said that an important guest would visit their house tonight.

"Hello, Mr. Smith. Master Damien from The Alphas would like to invite you for dinner."

Suddenly, a firm voice interrupted Jason's thought.

He looked up and saw two strong men in black suits with black tie and sunglasses blocked his way.

Master Damien from The Alphas?

Jason was puzzled. Who is this?
What is The Alphas? Was there any organization like this in Shang Jiang?

"Did I know him?" Jason replied, and he just ignored both of them.

"Mr. Smith, please don't make things difficult for us.
President Jiang was there already."

The two men threatened him by blocking his way with their outreached hands.

"Cindy went there already?"

Jason's narrowed his eyes and he started to feel unpleasant.

These people did not come here with good intentions.

Chapter 253

Jason's eyes were cold. He used the phone in his hand to send a text message. Then he put the phone back into his trouser pocket and looked at the Cadillac behind them. After thinking for a while, he followed them and got in the car.

Intercontinental Hotel, president suite private room.

Jason followed the two bodyguards into the room and saw eight strong men standing in the private room. All of them were dressed in uniform black suits. Their cold aura showed that they had been through a lot of battle. It made people feel cold deep down in their hearts.

On the main seat of the round table sat a fat middle-aged man, who was happily eating mutton hot pot.

Cindy was sitting at the side, with her arms crossed over her chest, and her cold face was a little anxious.

Jason estimated roughly, he knew their ability with just a glance.

The eight people seemed to be proficient in martial arts, so their skills should not be bad.

As for the man who was eating hotpot, he looked wealthy, but every movement of him was full of evil spirit.

He might be a troublesome man to deal with!

But all of this was nothing in Jason's eyes.

A good-for-nothing?

Excuse him, Jason was not someone like that.

His two years of martial arts training with Zayne Xiao was not wasted in vain.

Although it was not as good as Yeates' skills, he still had the ability to protect himself.

When Cindy saw Jason in the private room, she was happy but worried. She quickly stood up and said, "You're here. You came alone?"

Didn't her husband see her text message?

He did not even bring anyone with him.

Jason smiled gently and said, "It's okay. I can handle it alone."

Cindy was speechless. She kept winking at him. But Jason did not look at her at all. He went straight to the round table and sat down casually!

Cindy could only sit down as well, but she kept kicking his leg under the table to remind him.

"Dear, they are people of The Alphas from the Southern River District. They came here for the cooperation with the Ning's family."

Cindy reminded him with a worried look in her eyes.

She did not expect that Austin would ask gangster to come forward for their company. That was a threat.

An absolute threat!

Jason nodded and gave Cindy a look of assurance. Then he picked up the chopsticks on the table without asking, he dipped a piece of mutton in the boiling pot and started eating.

Cindy was dumbfounded.

Her husband was so domineering!

At this time, the man sitting opposite Jason.

It was Damien Zhang, master of The Alphas, one of the top five gangdom in the Southern River District.

He had to be accountable for the death of many people.

He was sinister and vicious, and his way of doing things was cruel!

It was said that he even threw his wife into the river to feed the fish just because his wife chatted a little too much with a strange man. The man was also castrated!

However, Damien was still living well even if he killed a lot of people. Associated personnel could not do anything about him, because the forces behind him were The Alphas.

From the Southern River District!

Shang Jiang was far from being comparable.

Jason ate slowly and did not care about Damien sitting opposite him at all.

The guy was already full. He picked up a napkin to wipe his mouth and drank a glass of red wine. There was a mysterious look in his slightly malicious eyes.

"Brother, there is a kind of person in this world that I hate the most."

Damien finally spoke with a sneer. "A good-for-nothing."

Jason picked up another piece of mutton and said in surprise, "This mutton is not bad."

Damien's face darkened. It was the first time that someone was so disrespectful to him!

Cindy was also anxious. She kicked him under the table and said with a smile, "Mr. Zhang, my husband, Jason, is not very good in social events. Please don't mind."

Jason raised his eyebrows, dipped the mutton in the sauce, and said with a smile, "Honey, this meat is good. Have some."

Cindy could only glare at him, indicating him not to speak.

If he irritated this man in front of them, both of them would be screwed.

It would not bother her, but she could not let anything happen to Jason.

He was Angela's father, and he was the only one that could take care of Angela.

This was Cindy's limit.

Damien laughed a few times, he got up and walked behind Cindy. He put his hand on her shoulder, deliberately leaned his face closer to smell the perfume on her body, and said undisguisedly, "CEO Jiang, I like you very much. I've heard a lot about you being the prettiest woman in the whole pharmaceutical industry of Shang Jiang City. If you are willing to, come to my room tonight. What do you think?"

Upon hearing this, Cindy was stunned and tried to control her anger.

Jason was sitting next to her. He could clearly feel her slightly trembling body and the frost on her face.

"Honey, I want to beat him up. What should I do?"

Jason suddenly put down his chopsticks and said.

He was extremely arrogant!

This was the first time that Damien had heard someone talk like this in front of him since he joined the gangdom.

It was always him who beat other people half death and threw them into the river to feed the fish!

Right this moment, someone ignored him completely and threatened to beat him up.

Cindy's face darkened. She turned her head and looked at Jason. Suddenly, she got up and said, "Don't kill anyone."

After that, she went straight to the window, facing her back to everything in the private room.

She did not know why she trusted Jason so much, but it gave her a sense of security when he patted the back of her hand under the table just now.

Moreover, Jason had been giving her surprises during a lot of critical moment.

At this moment, she believed in Jason.

Her husband was not as simple as she thought.

Damien sneered and stared at Jason with a pair of gloomy eyes. He said, "Kid, I heard that you are very arrogant and I finally saw it happens today. I just don't know if you can walk out of this private room alive."

Jason had no expression on his face. He was holding a pair of silver chopsticks, a knife and fork in his hand, but his body was slowly releasing a kind of coldness!

He squinted at Damien with a smile of death on his face and said, "I don't know if I can go out alive, but I know in definite that you can't go out unharmed!"

After that, Jason moved his hand. He was fast as lightning and the fork and knife pierced straight into Damien's arms.

Blood immediately flowed out!

Before Damien could react, he saw that his arm had been stained with blood!

He held his arm and took a few steps back. With a malicious look on his face, he roared, "Kill him! Cut off his limbs!"

Jason's action was so fast that the eight bodyguards in the private room were shocked. These people looked at Damien in a daze. It was the first time for them to see their boss, who was always condenscending to be in such miserable situation.

What's more, the momentum of the person who did it was too frightening!

"What are you guys waiting for? Beat him to death!"

With Damien's roar, these bodyguards reacted instantly and attacked Jason!

This was simply unacceptable. It was their dereliction of duty to let him hurt the master of The Alphas in front of them. They would be questioned and lost their limbs later because of this.

Jason, however, looked calm and glanced at them faintly.

At this time, a bodyguard approached and punched Jason in the face with his huge fist!

Jason easily grabbed the fist and then exerted a little strength. A scream like that of a pig being killed appeared.

"Crack!" There was a crisp sound!

The guy's arm was broken in the opposite direction, and he was so painful that he lay and rolled on the ground.

Then, Jason moved again, as fast as lightning. Before the second bodyguard could react to what happened, he lost consciousness and his arm was broken!

Crack!

The third one!

The fourth one!

The fifth one!

In an instant, the eight sturdy bodyguards were all lying on the ground, screaming and rolling.

Everything happened so quickly!

Of course, Jason was attacked too. He was hit in the chest and face several times.

At this moment, Damien's face was gloomy. He held his blood-stained arm and looked at Jason in the private room. For the first time, he felt the threat of death, so he shouted desperately, "Do you know who I am? I am the master of The Alphas from the Southern River District..."

Before he could finish his words, Jason took a quick step and stood in front of him. He grabbed his throat and lifted him!

Crack!

"I'm not interested in knowing who you are. I just want to tell you, don't mess with my wife, and don't have any hostility against me. Otherwise, I'm not sure whether I will kill you or not!"

There was a piercing chill in Jason's voice. Even a person like Damien, who had joined gangdom for decades, also felt chill all over his body at this moment!

This was the threat of death!

He felt a chill all over his body, and his face turned red. He could not breathe at all!

Who on earth was this person?

Didn't Austin say that he was just a good-for-nothing who relied on his wife to live?

Why, why did he had such strong aura on him!

Plop!

Jason let go of his hand. Damien fell to the ground. He covered his neck with his hand and coughed violently.

"Get lost! If I see you guys again, I'll break your necks!"

Jason shouted. He knew that for this kind of people, he had to frighten them with his power. Otherwise, they would not let it go easily!

"Let's go!"

Damien covered his bloody arm and glared at Jason with hatred as if he wanted to engrave this face firmly in his mind.

The nine of them escaped out of the private room like defeated dogs.

"Honey, do you think it's okay to solve it like this?"

Jason shrugged his shoulders and asked.

Cindy turned her head with a trace of surviving joy on her face. But she said, "Don't do this again in the future. They are not good people. And the company is in trouble again."

Jason looked indifferent and said, "What trouble? If they come again, your husband, I will settle it for you."

Cindy rolled her eyes at him. She rubbed Jason's blushing cheek and said, "You, you only know how to be rough. They are all arranged by Austin. If you offend them tonight, they will definitely not let it go. Don't worry about this matter. I will solve it myself. I will contact the Smith Group. They should be able to help us."

Master Smith?

Jason shrugged his shoulders, and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth. "It's okay. I'm here."

"You? What can you do?"

It was not that Cindy did not want to believe Jason's words at this time, but it was too unreliable.

They were the people from The Alphas of the Southern River District.

Even if Jason's family was rich and powerful, he should not be able to deal with the people from The Alphas.

"Aren't you going to look for help from the Smith Group? Actually, your husband, I..."

Jason smiled and reached out his hand to touch Cindy's cute nose.

Chapter 254

"Aren't you looking for the Smith Group? Actually, I'm your loyal servant. If you face any difficulty or trouble, I'll help you to solve them."

Jason smiled and reached out his hand to touch Cindy's nose.

Cindy burst into laughter and blinked suddenly, "Jason, I feel like I can't recognize you lately. Since when had you had such great fighting skill? It's really scary."

Jason scratched the back of his head, "I used to learn from some guys back home. It's just a piece of cake. It's not a big deal."

"Really?"

Cindy looked at Jason with a keen expression as she asked.

Jason smiled awkwardly.

.....

Meanwhile, Damien and others were standing at the Intercontinental Hotel's entrance with bloodstains all over them. They were really in a mess!

He was The Alphas's leader, one of the top five underground forces in the Southern River District. How could he be injured like this?

Even if Bruce was stood here today, he would have to show The Alphas some respect.

Damien stared at the Intercontinental hotel's entrance with resentment. He gritted his teeth and shouted, "Please gather more people! I'm going to make this place mine! Especially that guy, I'll skin him alive!"

"Yes! Master Damien!"

Damien's followers all looked at each other after they heard his order. Then they went and called for help.

A black business car stopped at the hotel's entrance. It was Austin who got out of the car.

"Master Damien, what happened to you? Why are you injured?"

Austin was very shocked when he saw that Master Damien's bloody arm. He suddenly felt very uneasy

"Austin, you arranged the dinner for me and I got hit!"

Damien rushed over and shouted angrily at Austin.

"What?"

Austin gasped. He definitely understood what Master Damien meant. "Who has the guts to attack Master Damien? Doesn't he want to live?!"

"Who else could it have been? It's that Jason who you asked me to deal with! D*mn it! I want him torn into pieces tonight!"

The fury in Damien's heart was like a mad, red eyed wild dog!

After he finished, some of his followers rushed over with the members of The Alphas!

There were thirty to forty people in total!

This was Damien's power, the leader of The Alphas!

This time around he had purposely brought followers from the Southern River District!

This was because Damien was in Shang Jiang City, so he did not dare to be too arrogant. He could only bring this amount of people.

If he had been in the Southern River District, he would have brought at least one to two hundred followers!

Austin looked at them with a cold smile on his face. "Jason... Oh Jason, you're dead!"

As Damien gathered his forty followers to stand at the hotel's entrance, two figures came slowly out from the door.

As soon as Cindy walked out of the door, she saw lots of people with black tattoos on their backs. There were forty of them. It was so over the top!

Jason followed behind her and noticed she was stunned at the spot. He asked, "What's wrong?"

He stretched out his head and finally saw the crowd in front of him. There were forty people, all carrying weapons!

Damien, who stood at the entrance, was a bit embarrassed. His hands were wrapped with bandages but his eyes were full of cruelty and anger!

Not only him, but all of the followers stood near him looked as if they were ready to kill!

Austin, who was stood behind the crowd, saw Cindy and Jason coming out from the hotel.

He ran forward with a sneer at the corner of his mouth and whispered in Damien's ear, "Master Damien, do whatever you want to the guy. I hope you will show mercy and not hurt the girl stood beside him. If so, I'll give you one million dollars to compensate your medical fees."

Damien did not even open his mouth. He glanced at Austin coldly and snorted.

Damien pointed to his blood stained arm and said with a gloomy face, "I have been a gangster for more than ten years and have never had such incident before. This is really a disgrace to The Alphas! He didn't respect The Alphas! Even Shang Jiang City's big boss, Bruce Scott has to show me some respect. If this guy dare to hurt me, needless to say, I have to chop him up and throw him into the river to feed the fish! Otherwise, no one will respect The Alphas in the future!"

He was trying to keep his reputation.

He was well-known for being a mentor for other gangsters.

On the other hand, Jason frowned tightly and his heart became colder. There were forty people parked in their business cars at the hotel's entrance.

The Ning family from the Southern River District had crossed the line.

Jason was very angry. It was just Bi Kang Pharmacy and one billion dollar investment. How could it have stirred up such a problem?

Jason knew it very well that there must be some behind it to have caused this kind of problem.

There were forty people, all of them were fierce gangsters. They were either topless with tattoos on their bodies, carrying steel pipes, watermelon knives or something other weapon!

It had been many years since forces had battled so openly in Shang Jiang City.

Let alone fighting across the border involving themselves in an other forces' territory.

Especially, the word 'brother', branded in red on these people's clothes!

"What the f*ck! These are The Alphas from Southern River District. Why would they come to Shang Jiang City?"

"Oh my God! What has happened? The Alphas? The Alphas are even greater than Bruce Scott?"

A lot of passersby recognized this group of people and quickly hid. They did not want to get involve with the fight!

"What's going on? Landon He got killed last time. Why are The Alphas here now?"

Many people exclaimed. The events in front of them were grand.

All of The Alphas followers were hired thugs. They were a group of desperadoes. The knives in their hands had all killed people before!

Austin's sneer became louder when he saw that Damien had brought a lot of his followers. However, he did not sneer for too long.

Damien's bandaged wrapped hands clenched into fists!

He stared at Jason was who stood in front of him, "Brothers, you know what to do. Someone provoked The Alphas today and according to our club rules, we have to chop him up and throw him to feed the fish! I still need the woman. Capture her and leave her to me!"

Damien looked arrogant. He was not worried about any mistakes would appear!

What was so great about Jason's outstanding fighting in the private room just now?

He would not be able to fight much against these forty people!

Jason did not know why so many people wanted to throw him into the river to feed the fish. It was clear that the others had provoked him. However, in the end people would still blame him.

He shook his head helplessly and pulled away Cindy who was still stunned at the spot. He patted her on the shoulder and said to her ear next to her rosy cheek, "Dear, go inside and hide for a while. You can come out later."

Cindy was stunned. She turned her head and looked at Jason in astonishment. She grabbed him. She said anxiously with concern, "What are you going to do? Many of them have knives. You will die if you go out like this! I'll call the police now. Let's hide inside first!"

Cindy was so scared that she trembled all over and held Jason tightly.

Jason shook his head and gave Cindy a very firm look, "Don't worry, these people can't hurt me. Just wait. Wait for me to pick you up."

There were some tears in Cindy's eyes. For some unknown reason she felt a lot of trust for Jason, just like how she was in the private room earlier.

However, she was very worried about him.

There were too many people outside.

She held Jason's hand tightly and hesitated for a while, "Be careful!"

Austin saw this and felt hatred. He was so angry that he jumped up when he saw the woman he wanted flirting with another guy!

"Disgusting couple, let's see if you can do that later! Cindy, I'll press you down in bed tonight. I'll make you kneel in front of me and beg for mercy!"

Austin swore in his mind.

Damien waved his hand and yelled, "Let's go! If anyone stands in our way, beat them until they are disabled!"

All the followers behind Damien rushed forward like hungry wolves. They were heading straight to Jason who was standing at the entrance!

Damien was not worried that anything would happen, he would handle the police. As long as he did not make too much trouble, he could solve all the problems in the world with money!

It would not be a problem if he killed one or two people. He would just tell the police it was a streetfight and then ask a begger to admit to the crime!

Damien had done a lot of things like this before and he was so experienced!

What about Bruce, the leader of Shang Jiang City?

Hehe.

Damien did not care at all. Even if Bruce came, he would kill Jason to establish his prestige!

Austin looked at the bandaged wrapped, Damien approached him purposely, "This guy is really looking for trouble. How dare he attack Master Damien? If I were you, I would break his neck and so as to send a message to others!"

Damien raised his eyebrows when he heard this and turned. He was a little surprised but also a bit playful. "What do you want to do?"

Austin said with a smile, "The guy named Jason dared to beat you. He's really bold! I don't know if you can do me a favor and hand over the man to me personally? I'll add an extra one million dollars when the time comes!"

Someone wanted to see Jason, so Austin had to bring him back.

Two million dollars!

This was such a good deal!

Damien was a businessman so he knew how valuable this person's life was.

He smiled and patted Austin on the shoulder, "Since you have said so, I have no reason not to agree. Deal!"

Austin hurriedly bowed to thank Damien. He whispered in Damien's ear, "In fact, I've brought some people here tonight just in case something else happened!"
