Chapter 904

Chapter 904 Rosetta Comes To School

“I believe you know the reason very well, Aaron! I warned you guys not to test my patience!” Benjamin said coldly.

Feeling a little awkward, Aaron said apologetically, “I’m sorry, Benjamin. I’ve already lectured my sister for her mistake.”

“I don’t want to hear that crap. How you guys educate Ms. Adams is none of my business!” Benjamin shouted and hung up the phone immediately after.

Aaron tried calling back a few times, but Benjamin refused to answer his calls.

I know what the Adams family has in mind. Even if Dad didn’t remind me about it, I still would’ve figured out that Aaron was hiding the truth to protect Rosetta.

Arissa picked up the pace to complete as much work as possible before the time she needed to go pick the kids up from school.

When it was time to leave, she packed her stuff and sent Benjamin a text before leaving the office.

She was already on the road by the time Benjamin saw her text.

“Why didn’t you wait for me?” Benjamin asked in displeasure over the phone.

“Are you going to pick the kids up with me? Aren’t you busy with work?” Arissa asked.

She believed it wouldn’t be appropriate for a CEO to leave work early with her every day.

“Wait for me at home!” Benjamin said.

“I’ll be visiting Grandaunt at the hospital later.”

Arissa was planning to visit Mary with the kids after picking them up from school.

“Go home as soon as you’re done!” Benjamin ordered.

“Aren’t you going to visit Grandaunt?” Arissa asked.

“No. Say hi to her for me,” Benjamin replied.

“Got it. You can carry on with your work now. I’m almost at the school.”

Arissa then hung up the phone and had the driver pull over by the side of the road.

Benjamin felt incredibly unhappy after ending the call with her.

How would she know if I’m busy with work or not?

Benjamin glared at Ethen, who came into his office with a stack of documents in hand.

“Your approval is required for these documents, Mr. Graham!”

Benjamin motioned at him to leave them on his desk as he got back to work.

Realizing he was in a bad mood, Ethen decided to leave immediately after delivering the documents.

He was just about to step out the door when Benjamin called out to him, “If there’s anything you need to report to me, do so before five!”

“Understood, Mr. Graham!” Ethen turned his head to look at Benjamin and replied.

Is Mr. Graham in a hurry to leave work?

Ethen quickly informed all the other departments to hurry it up if they had any documents that required Benjamin’s approval.

Arisa narrowed her eyes when she arrived at school and saw Rosetta at the gate.

Rosetta? What is she doing here?

Instead of walking up to her, Arissa decided to observe her from the side to see what she was up to.

It wasn’t long before the kids arrived at the school gate. As the parents started leaving with their kids, Gavin and the others came out as well.

Because of how cute the six of them looked, they received a lot of attention from the other parents.

Rosetta stepped forward and waved at Gavin and the other kids.

All six of them frowned in unison when they saw Rosetta.

“It’s that shameless woman! How dare she come to see us?” Jasper exclaimed in displeasure.

“She probably wants to win us over so she can get closer to Daddy!” Oliver said with a pout.

Jesse snorted disdainfully. “Hmph! Daddy doesn’t even like her! Just how shameless can she get?”

Zachary furrowed his brows. “Let’s ignore her!”

Tim nodded in agreement. “Yeah! We’ll act like we didn’t see her!”

“Walk behind me, you guys!” Gavin said as he gave the bodyguards a call and had them come over.

As the bodyguards were on standby near the school, they arrived in just a few seconds.

The corner of Rosetta’s eye twitched when she saw that. What the... Aren’t these kids being a little too cautious?

“Hi, Gavin! Come here!” she said while stepping forward to greet them.

The crowd began murmuring among themselves when they recognized her. “Isn’t she from the Adams family?”

“Is she here to pick up Mr. Graham’s kids? I hear the children from the Graham family are studying here. Are those kids Mr. Graham?”

“All six of them are Mr. Graham’s kids. I saw him come here with his wife to pick them up a few days ago. However, this woman is definitely not the one that came with him the other day! Those kids already have a mother, for goodness’ sake! This woman must be really shameless if she’s trying to take her place!”
