

The More The Merrier

Chapter 907

Chapter 907 Benjamin Prepares A Dress For Her

“We need to tell Mr. Graham all about that evil woman tonight! He’ll teach her a lesson!” Jesse said with a frown.

Arissa gave them all a hug. “All right, let’s stop talking about that woman. I want us all to be smiling happily when we visit your great-grandaunt!”

The six kids nodded in unison. “Okay!”

After spending some time with Mary at the hospital, Arissa brought the kids back home.

She was surprised to see that Benjamin was already home by the time they got back.

“You’re home early.”

“Yup!” Benjamin nodded and helped carry the kids’ bags. “Go to the study, all of you. I’ll check your homework.”

The kids simply stared at him in confusion. “But we don’t have homework today!”

“I meant the one I gave you!” Benjamin said while secretly winking at them.

He then turned toward Arissa and told her, “Go take a shower upstairs and get ready for dinner.”

Arissa gave him a strange look. “We’re heading out for dinner?”

“That’s right! Now, hurry up and go take a shower! The clothes are on the bed,” Benjamin replied and gave her a gentle nudge.

Huh? Clothes?

“Okay...”

Benjamin waited until Arissa went upstairs before leading the kids into the study.

“That evil woman came to see us at school today, Mr. Graham! She even said something nasty to Mommy!” Jesse was the first to speak up about the incident earlier. Benjamin frowned deeply when he heard that. “You mean Rosetta?”

“Yes, that’s her!”

Gavin let out a disdainful snort. “She said Mommy deliberately approached you, so Mommy gave her a slap!”

Benjamin arched an eyebrow at them when he saw their angry faces. “Tell me what happened in detail!” The six kids proceeded to tell him the full story of the incident.

With a gloomy look on his face, Benjamin made his way over to the balcony and gave Aaron a call.

“What’s up, Benjamin?” Aaron sounded excited.

“What the heck is wrong with that sister of yours? You should get her admitted to a mental hospital!” Benjamin yelled coldly.

Aaron was a little confused as to why he was so angry.

“What did she do this time?”

“She caused a scene at the school! I’ll send you the surveillance camera footage, so you can see it for yourself!”

Not wanting to waste any more of his time explaining, Benjamin hung up the phone and sent the surveillance camera footage over to Aaron.

This isn’t over until the Adams family provides me with a satisfactory explanation!

The look in Benjamin’s eyes was icy-cold when he put his phone away.

The six kids, who were sitting on the couch, felt relieved after hearing his conversation with Aaron.

Arissa’s eyes lit up with joy when she entered the bedroom and saw a white dress on the bed. It looked really beautiful with a pastel blue-colored hem.

Her lips curled into a smile as a sweet sensation filled her heart.

She took a quick shower, blow-dried her hair, put on some makeup, and tied up her hair after putting the dress on.

Arissa looked like she was about to attend a fancy banquet as she examined her appearance in the mirror. Her pink toes looked particularly adorable in the high heels lined with diamonds.

Sure enough, the shoes fitted her perfectly.

Arissa broke into a sweet smile as she realized Benjamin had taken his time to prepare all of that for her.

Wow... He even knows my measurements and shoe size! What an attentive man!

With that in mind, Arissa grabbed her handbag and phone before heading downstairs.

Benjamin was still tutoring the kids in the study at the time.

Since she saw no sign of them in the living room, she decided to go check in the study.

Her heart melted when she opened the door and saw him guiding them through their homework. It was truly a heartwarming sight to behold.

Arissa was really glad to see them getting along so well. "Are you guys not done yet? I'm ready!" she said while making her way into the study.

The kids' eyes went wide with surprise when they turned around and saw her.

"You look beautiful, Mommy!" they exclaimed as they ran up to her.

Benjamin found himself unable to take his eyes off Arissa when he saw her gorgeous figure and beautiful face.

□ □ □