Chapter 361: Past and Future, This Life

The change in the three Dao Flowers made Ye Qiu a little confused. Then, he said, "Senior, what's going on?"

The Lord of the Forbidden Area was also silent for a moment, his gaze fixed on the three Dao Flowers. After deducing for a while, he seemed to have seen the tip of the iceberg of the future and revealed a gratified smile.

"Haha... Wonderful, too wonderful. The three Dao Flowers represent the past, future, and present? Three Flowers Summit, fused together very cleverly with the Dao of blood. What kind of potential is this? I'm really looking forward to it."

The Lord of the Forbidden Area was a little excited. His hundred thousand years of hard work seemed to be about to be realized by this young man in front of him. He had once deduced the ancient method and searched for the profundity of longevity, but he had never discovered such a strange phenomenon.

He had broadened his horizons today and became even more determined about the Dao in his heart.

This was destined. This fate was Ye Qiu's luck and his luck. He had been trapped here for several eras and was urged to wait for someone, and this person was Ye Qiu.

"Haha! I understand, I understand."

After thinking this through, the Lord of the Forbidden Area laughed loudly. All the grudges in his heart seemed to have been put down. His hair... actually turned white in an instant.

"Three lifetimes in exchange for a chance of survival. This is the Dao of Longevity. Good kid, I was indeed right about you. Don't reject it. Continue deducing and build your foundation with your blood!"

The Lord of the Forbidden Area said solemnly.

Ye Qiu didn't dare to delay and hurriedly continued to deduce. He felt the blood in his body burning continuously. His body was in unbearable pain, and his soul was trembling.

Under this torture, Ye Qiu gritted his teeth and endured it. The moment the last drop of blood landed on the three Dao Flowers.

The three Dao fetuses in the flower seemed to have been given a soul and instantly opened their eyes.

.....

Boom!

The underground world trembled violently, as if the world was about to collapse.

The Lord of the Forbidden Area looked at the change in front of him in surprise. He gently raised his hand and suppressed it. If he hadn't done this, this place would have been shattered and turned into ruins.

The outside world would become even more turbulent.

As Ye Qiu's three Dao fetuses opened their eyes, the entire forbidden area emitted a dazzling light, and the world changed.

Boom!

"Pfft..."

In just a breath, everyone was sent flying.

Meng Tianzheng spat out a mouthful of blood. His face was pale and his body was seriously injured. He struggled to get up from the ground and looked at his junior brothers around him. He heaved a sigh of relief after realizing that there were no casualties.

"Phew..."

Taking a deep breath, he didn't dare to approach Ye Qiu's true body anymore. Instead, he said with a solemn expression, "This aura is too terrifying. I'm afraid a mere Deva Realm cultivator can't do this. What exactly did Junior Brother Ye experience?"

Meng Tianzheng was very confused. From Ye Qiu's aura, he was indeed in the Deva Realm. However, his strength seemed to be stronger than a Perfected Immortal. He was not joking at all. He was really terrifying.

Ever since the three Dao Fetuses had souls, Ye Qiu's entire body seemed to have undergone a transformation. His strength increased greatly, and the profundities of his spells were endless.

Under the Abyss of Death, the Lord of the Forbidden Area revealed a gratified smile when he saw this scene.

"Three lifetimes into the Dao, using blood to build a foundation, it had succeeded. Haha! My hundred thousand years of hard work is finally going to be realized."

The Lord of the Forbidden Area was incomparably excited. This was the compensation from the heavens.

Looking at Ye Qiu, he seemed to see himself when he was young. It would be a pity not to polish this shocking talent.

Thinking of this, another thought appeared in the Lord of the Forbidden Area's heart. He said excitedly, "Young man, I'll teach you the reincarnation technique today. I hope you can comprehend it well. Perhaps in the future, this technique will be your last barrier."

After saying that, the Lord of the Forbidden Area raised his hand and a golden rune instantly surged into Ye Qiu's mind.

Ye Qiu could clearly see the dazzling golden runes under the chaos. He was shocked that this reincarnation technique was actually so profound.

The Lord of the Forbidden Area was indeed a powerhouse from ancient times. The reincarnation technique he grasped was extremely terrifying.

It was even more terrifying than all the techniques he had learned. It was even more difficult to comprehend.

“Reversal of Yin and Yang, reincarnation! This... control over life and death.”

Ye Qiu was shocked. He was really shocked. He did not dare to hesitate and immediately began to comprehend it. However, this technique was too profound. He spent a long time and only comprehended a thousandth of it.

It could be seen that it was almost impossible to cultivate this technique without tens of thousands of years.

Moreover, his current strength was not enough to use the reincarnation technique.

After an unknown period of time, Ye Qiu woke up. When he opened his eyes, he discovered that the old and lonely Lord of the Forbidden Area had white hair.

His pale face was filled with a smile, as if the knot in his heart had been untied. Everything was over.

“Senior, you...”

The Lord of the Forbidden Area waved his hand and said, “It’s fine. I... have already been sealed in a dark cage for several eras and have long forgotten about life and death.

“It’s just a few strands of white hair. Take it as a farewell to the past.”

When Ye Qiu heard this, he felt a little uncomfortable. The Lord of the Forbidden Area had brought him into the Dao and taught him techniques. He was equivalent to his master. He respected him extremely. After all, he was willing to teach Ye Qiu his hundred thousand years of bitter cultivation.

If Ye Qiu didn’t have any gratitude, would he still be human?

This was an elder giving great hope to his juniors.

Ye Qiu could understand this feeling because... he was also a master.

“Senior, is there any way to help you undo these seals?” Ye Qiu asked sincerely.

The Lord of the Forbidden Area shook his head and said, “Don’t waste your energy. I’m already used to the darkness and loneliness here after being sealed for several eras. These thousands of forbidden seals were set up by a supreme expert. The current you is not qualified to face him. Don’t try it rashly. Otherwise, what awaits you will be eternal damnation.”

After a while, the Lord of the Forbidden Area said, “Young man, I’m very optimistic about your future. Perhaps one day, you can really reach that legendary realm.

“I observed your body just now and saw that it has already reached the peak of the Three Flowers Summit. You have entered the Dao three times and your potential is limitless. From the moment you take this step, your path to immortality has officially begun.

“Young man, I can only help you so much. You’ll have to rely on yourself in the future. I don’t know what the future will be like. Perhaps we will meet again in the distant future. I just don’t know what kind of terrifying being you will grow into at that time.”

A gratified smile appeared on his pale face. The Lord of the Forbidden Area waved his hand and sent Ye Qiu away from the Abyss of Death.

There was no farewell. Everything seemed so casual. He seemed to be very determined that Ye Qiu would meet him again.

Chapter 362: Surging Dark Tide

Just like that, Ye Qiu was sent out of the Abyss of Death and returned to the forbidden area.

As a golden light surged in, Ye Qiu’s soul returned to his body.

“Pfft...”

As soon as he returned to his body, Ye Qiu spat out a mouthful of blood. Because he had just broken through to the Deva Realm, his soul and body had been separated and he had yet to adapt.

The momentary backlash made him vomit a mouthful of blood.

“Junior Brother, what’s wrong?”

Everyone saw that Ye Qiu had recovered and hurriedly surrounded him. Meng Tianzheng asked with concern.

Ye Qiu wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and waved his hand. “I’m fine. I just broke through and haven’t adapted yet. Let me make some adjustments.”

After instructing one last time, Ye Qiu entered a meditative state again.

With the help of the Lord of the Forbidden Area, Ye Qiu had successfully entered the Deva Realm. Moreover, he used the path of the Lord of the Forbidden Area to establish the Three Lifetimes Dao.

Three lifetimes were the past, present and future.

It could be said to be the past, present, and the future. It could also be said to be the past life, present life, and future life.

Currently, the three Dao fetuses belonging to the Three Life Dao Flower had fallen into a deep sleep again after their first formation.

.....

Ye Qiu could feel that each of these three Dao Fetuses was extremely terrifying. If they woke up, there might be an earth-shattering change.

“Three lifetimes of karma in exchange for an immortal encounter? Senior’s path of the Dao of blood is an endless domineering path. I can blast this world with just my fists and shake the world with a raise of my hand. What will it be like if I reach the end?”

Ye Qiu was filled with anticipation for his future.

The Lord of the Forbidden Area had said that his path to immortality had only truly begun after he stepped into the Deva Realm.

This meant that this was another starting point, the qualifications to explore the path to longevity.

The wider world of the heavens was still waiting for Ye Qiu to explore.

After adjusting his breathing for a moment, Ye Qiu slowly stopped and finally calmed the surging power in his body.

He could feel that his power had increased by more than a hundred times, a thousand times. The strength of his power had also begun to suddenly increase after cultivating the technique of the Lord of the Forbidden Area.

Ye Qiu didn’t know how strong he could be because there was no standard to measure it.

“Pheh...”

Ye Qiu let out a long sigh of relief. He felt refreshed and his face returned to its calm and carefree state.

His white clothes were like snow, fluttering like an immortal. An immortal aura drifted from his body, as if an immortal was standing right there.

This change in temperament shocked everyone around him and they discussed softly.

“Did you guys notice that Martial Uncle Ye seems to have become more and more elegant after his soul return? He makes people feel unfathomable.”

Unknowingly, Ye Qiu seemed to have become the goal that everyone pursued. He stood there and did nothing, but it seemed to have imperceptibly inspired everyone.

Ye Qiu watched all of this silently. He could tell what these young disciples were thinking and was happy that he could become their faith. Only by walking in front would more people be filled with fighting spirit and continue forward.

“Junior Brother, have you really broken through to the Deva Realm?”

In such a quiet atmosphere, Qi Wuhui rubbed his head and walked up in disbelief. He might still be a little stunned and couldn’t believe that Ye Qiu had become an immortal so easily.

Didn’t they say that the path to immortality was as difficult as ascending to the heavens? Why did he suddenly become an immortal after wandering around for a while?

Ye Qiu looked at him in amusement and said seriously, “Huh? Is it very difficult? Wasn’t this achievable as long as you have hands?”

Qi Wuhui was stunned.

“As long as... as long as I have hands?”

Qi Wuhui rolled his eyes and grinned, speechless. It seemed like it. To him, it was indeed achievable as long as he had hands, but to others, it was as difficult as ascending to the heavens.

Comparisons were odious.

“Haha!”

Meng Tianzheng laughed unkindly as he looked at Qi Wuhui’s livid face. He turned around and said, “Alright, Junior Brother Ye, back to the topic. Do you have a way to break the array now?”

Currently, there was still the greatest difficulty in front of them, which was the taboo in front of them.

That was a killing array left behind by Gongsun Baizhi to bind Ye Qiu. Just now, it was really not easy to break through this array formation before Ye Qiu broke through.

But now.

“Haha, what’s so difficult about that?”

Ye Qiu smiled faintly and gathered strength with one hand. In an instant, the power to overturn the sky erupted and a violent wind swept over.

“Using force to break the array?”

Everyone was shocked. They watched as Ye Qiu punched over. In an instant, the world seemed to have collapsed.

Boom!

A shocking bang erupted in the forbidden area and resounded throughout the entire lower world.

At this moment, in the Celestial Thearch’s treasure vault, Gongsun Baizhi vaguely sensed the signs of a forbidden fluctuation below. He felt a little uneasy.

“Hmm? Strange, could it be that the taboo I left behind has been broken?”

Sitting alone in the void, Gongsun Baizhi pushed his hands horizontally, creating a shocking array that controlled the abyss in front of him.

As he controlled the array formation, he muttered, the uneasiness in his heart growing stronger. However, he shook his head and did not believe that his array formation would be broken so easily.

He was still very confident in his methods.

“Hmph, I don’t think they’ll cause a ruckus.”

With a cold snort, Gongsun Baizhi swept away the worry in his heart and focused on the full moon in the sky.

“Ye Qiu, just you wait. I’ll settle the score with you when I reach the Deva realm. Heaven Mending Sect? How dare you destroy my orthodoxy and destroy the providence of my Immortal Mountain. If I don’t take revenge, I won’t let this matter rest.

“None of you... can run.”

After saying this coldly, Gongsun Baizhi began to break through with all his might. He comprehended the Dao, analyzed the secret technique, and pried into the true intent of the Heavenly Dao.

In another world, Lian Feng sat alone under the cold lake, cultivating in seclusion. After comprehending a cycle, she suddenly opened her eyes and muttered.

“Heaven Mending...”

At this moment, Lian Feng fell into a state of self-doubt. There was always a strange feeling in her heart. It was as if she had some unfinished business. Especially in the past few days, the uneasiness in her heart had become stronger.

She had a feeling that something big was about to happen. However, she didn’t know what was going on. The only hint was that every time she entered a meditative state, two words always appeared in her mind.

Heaven Mending.

“What does this mean? Is it my Heaven Mending Sect? Or is it...?”

She could not figure it out. At this moment, she was sitting alone in the cold lake, enduring the impact of a million years of profound ice and tempering her immortal body. Her cultivation had already taken that step. She was just short of the final perfection before entering the Deva Realm.

“Qiu, where are you...”

Taking out the wind chime, Lian Feng tried to call out to Ye Qiu, but there was no response. The uneasiness in her heart became stronger.

She didn’t know where Ye Qiu had gone. She and Ye Qiu had been separated ever since the Celestial Thearch’s treasure vault opened.

Even those two little girls had run off somewhere.

Chapter 363: Battle Of The Geniuses

As the uneasiness in her heart became stronger, Lian Feng gradually lost the thought of cultivating. She wanted to go out and find Ye Qiu and those two girls.

However, on second thought, the most important thing now was to break through. Only by successfully breaking through would she have the confidence to face the upcoming danger.

After calming down, she fell into cultivation again.

At this moment, in the Nine Heavens.

An immortal pill that flew down from the 33rd Heaven attracted the attention of countless people. Almost all the large clans and immortal holy lands in the Eight Desolates were attracted by this immortal pill. It was very lively.

The immortal pill quietly stayed in the precious gourd and stood above the clouds.

Everyone watched greedily, but no one dared to take it. This was because no matter who it was, as long as they dared to attack, they would definitely be surrounded by others.

In a moment, they would be in danger of dying.

Under such circumstances, the atmosphere was in a deadlock.

“Haha! Everyone, this isn’t a good idea. Why don’t we do this? The people who came here today are all young and handsome disciples of the various large clans and immortal holy lands.

Everyone has their own unique skills. There’s naturally no need to doubt our strength. Since no one wants to back down, why don’t we use this as an arena and launch a genius meeting to determine the outcome with martial arts? Whoever stands last will take the immortal pill. How about that?”

A descendant with long antlers and golden light all over his body said.

His suggestion immediately won everyone’s approval.

.....

“Agreed.”

“Since it’s a competition between peers, we’ll rely on our own ability to survive.”

Everyone hurriedly echoed and reached a consensus. The atmosphere gradually became oppressive. Their gazes were fixed on their surrounding opponents. All the descendants of the Monarch’s bloodline and the golden bloodline with potential received special care.

In the crowd, Lin Qingzhu silently watched all of this. The Cloudy Heavens Sword was already prepared at any time.

“Senior Sister, this immortal pill is extremely powerful and has excellent medicinal effects. If you can obtain it, it will definitely help you become a King. Perhaps it can even help you step into the Martial Monarch realm.”

Zhao Wan’er’s eyes were like torches as she said with a serious expression.

Lin Qingzhu nodded. She was determined to obtain this immortal pill. Because she already had a premonition that her master was about to ascend to heaven. She had to catch up as soon as possible.

In this world, she no longer had any family. Her master and mistress were her only elders. Her master treated her like family. He helped her grow and protected her carefully. She only wanted to stay by her master’s side, take care of him, and repay his kindness.

However, when she saw that her master was about to ascend, yet her cultivation remained the same, she was extremely anxious.

The only thing she wanted to do now was to break through and cultivate to the Martial Monarch realm as soon as possible. She wanted to comprehend the Heavenly Dao and ascend to become an immortal.

And the immortal pill in front of her was an opportunity. She could not let it go.

“Don’t worry, I’m determined to obtain this immortal pill.”

Lin Qingzhu gave Zhao Wan’er a very firm gaze, and Zhao Wan’er was also stunned for a moment. She had never seen her senior sister with such a gaze.

Zhao Wan’er smiled gently like a spring breeze. She was warm and moving as she said gently, “Senior Sister, all the best.”

Zhao Wan’er was already prepared to support her senior sister at any time.

Before the battle began, the atmosphere became more and more oppressive as more and more people entered.

“Haha! None of you dare to move, right? Then I’ll be the first.”

A heroic voice sounded as a red light flew across the sky. Under the void, a handsome man slowly revealed his true body.

“Descendant of a Monarch’s bloodline?”

“Fire Clan, Crimson Soul?”

As he appeared, the atmosphere immediately became tense.

Everyone discussed and pondered.

Looking at the surrounding people who were intimidated by his aura, Crimson Soul laughed and said, “Who dares to fight me?”

With a loud shout, the world seemed to have fallen silent. It was terrifyingly quiet.

Just as Crimson Soul thought that everyone was afraid of him, a golden figure appeared above.

As that cold snort fell, a terrifying golden light appeared. In an instant, Crimson Soul was forced back.

That powerful aura instantly intimidated everyone present.

“Golden Lion.”

At this moment, everyone was shocked. The legendary golden bloodline, the Golden Lion, had actually appeared.

This was one of the most stunning geniuses at that time. There was a prophecy that his future achievements would surpass his ancestors and he would become a fully deserving powerhouse.

His appearance was undoubtedly the most sensational thing.

Moreover, with a cold snort, he directly forced back a descendant of a Monarch’s bloodline. It could be seen how terrifying his strength was.

“Looks like this event is destined to be bloody.”

It was originally a small-scale battle, but now, because of the entrance of these innate supreme beings, the atmosphere gradually changed.

This was no longer a battle for immortal pills, but a true battle for bloodline.

“Pfft...”

Crimson Soul was forced back by the golden lion’s cold shout. He spat out a mouthful of blood, his eyes filled with fear.

Lin Qingzhu’s heart trembled.

“This guy’s strength actually increased so quickly.”

Gradually, she felt a trace of pressure. She had seen the Golden Lion when she first came to the East Sea. His strength was similar to that of the white tiger cub, but after a training session, he seemed to have obtained some kind of heaven-sent opportunity and became hundreds of times stronger.

The current Lin Qingzhu did not dare to say that she had absolute confidence in taking him down.

The golden lion looked down at the crowd and was invincible. His furious roar enraged the mountains and rivers. Everyone had fear on their faces, but they did not dare to say anything.

Such a commotion frightened everyone. Lin Qingzhu saw that the situation was wrong and was about to attack.

Suddenly, a fiery red figure flew over from afar, emitting scorching sparks.

Everyone looked up and saw a divine bird covered in flames in the sky.

“This is... the descendant of the Vermilion Bird?”

“Hiss...”

This glance scared everyone silly.

What day was it today? A golden lion was already terrifying, but now, a divine beast descendant appeared?

This was a descendant of the Mystic Fire Vermilion Bird known to oversee the south. Its bloodline was terrifying, even more so than those so-called descendants of the Monarch’s bloodline.

“Interesting... Even the descendant of the Vermilion Bird has appeared. This battle is getting more and more interesting.”

Feeling the scorching heat, even Zhao Wan’er became excited. She was more sensitive to flames because she had the strongest flames in the world.

“I wonder what other descendants will appear next. I’m really looking forward to it.”

Zhao Wan’er smiled and looked like she was watching a good show. Lin Qingzhu rolled her eyes at her. “This wretched girl. Don’t you know that your senior sister is under a lot of pressure?”

Chapter 364: Provocation from the Immortal Mountain

“Haha!”

Just as Lin Qingzhu was still hesitating about whether to attack, a hearty laugh came from the horizon.

She looked up and saw a handsome young man in white walking over in the air. He circled around and landed steadily on a mulberry tree branch. His expression was frivolous, and his eyes were filled with disdain. His strength was at the astonishing peak of the Paragon realm.

The moment he appeared, the atmosphere instantly stirred again.

“Who is this?”

Lin Qingzhu’s eyes were filled with doubt. She could feel that this person was very strong and his background was unknown. She could not help but raise her guard.

She heard a cry.

“This guy... Could he be the legendary chosen one of the Immortal Mountain who broke the Immortal Ancient trial record nine times, Gongsun Baiyu?”

“What!”

For a moment, everyone was stunned and revealed shocked expressions.

The Immortal Ancient Trial was known as the tomb of the young supreme beings. Over the years, countless stunning figures had been buried in that training ground. Which one of those who could pass the trial wasn’t invincible in the world?

Not to mention, this guy had broken nine trial records in a row. It was an unprecedented legend.

.....

At this moment, even the insufferably arrogant golden lion revealed a dangerous gaze.

“Gongsun Baiyu! I didn’t expect you to not come either.”

The golden lion felt immense pressure. If it was just facing a Vermillion Bird descendant, he might have a chance to take it down.

However, if he faced the two of them at the same time, his chances were almost zero.

Gongsun Baiyu slowly took a step forward and waved his jade fan. He had a graceful bearing and smiled calmly. “Golden Lion, if you can come, why can’t I?”

Such provocative words were extremely ear-piercing to the golden lion. His expression turned slightly angry as he said coldly, “Why? Do you want to spar with me?”

The Golden Lion had his own pride, so how could he lower his head in front of others? While dealing with Gongsun Baiyu, he was also wary of the Vermillion Bird descendant.

The atmosphere gradually froze. The golden lion originally thought that Gongsun Baiyu would join forces with the Vermilion Bird descendant, but it didn't expect that... he didn't even bother with it.

Instead, he looked at the crowd. After a while, he said, "Golden Lion, I'm not interested in you."

Glancing at the surrounding crowd, Gongsun Baiyu said, "I heard that the Eastern Wasteland's Heaven Mending Sect seems to have produced an extraordinary figure.

"She has extraordinary sword techniques and has been famous for a period of time. I would like to experience the legendary successor of the Sword Immortal."

At this point, Gongsun Baiyu's eyes were deep, revealing a trace of killing intent. It was hidden very deeply, but it was discovered by the meticulous Zhao Wan'er.

Zhao Wan'er frowned and reminded her, "Senior Sister, he's here for you."

Lin Qingzhu naturally heard it. Coupled with what her master had said previously, she immediately understood something.

Back then, the Heaven Mending Sect destroyed the orthodoxy of the Eastern Wasteland's Immortal Mountain and indirectly affected the Immortal Mountain in the Southern Wasteland. They were here to take revenge.

The conflict here had already reached an irreversible stage. Only a battle could resolve it.

Lin Qingzhu was not in a hurry to respond. Instead, she thought to herself.

Previously, when they entered the treasure vault, their master had said that he wanted to go down and find the others from the Heaven Mending Sect.

A few days had passed, but why was there still no sign of him?

Lin Qingzhu couldn't help but worry. Could it be that the Immortal Mountain had really attacked the Heaven Mending Sect?

A trace of doubt appeared in her heart. Lin Qingzhu's eyes immediately turned cold when she saw Gongsun Baiyu's calm expression, as if victory was in his grasp.

The killing intent in her heart gradually appeared. If the others of the Heaven Mending Sect were to be attacked by the Immortal Mountain, she did not mind bleeding them.

And the best target was Gongsun Baiyu.

Above, Gongsun Baiyu said sarcastically. There was no response for a long time, and his patience was gradually worn down. He said coldly, "What? Could it be that... the people of the Heaven Mending Sect are all cowards and don't dare to accept the challenge?"

"Impudent."

As soon as these words were spoken, it immediately attracted the angry shouts of a Heaven Mending Sect disciple in the distance. He walked out with a sword in one hand and said with a cold gaze, "How can you taint the reputation of my Heaven Mending Sect? I'll fight you."

Everyone was a little stunned by this young talent who had suddenly appeared.

Everyone knew that Gongsun Baiyu had already made it clear that he wanted to find the Eastern Wasteland's Heaven Mending Sect. What was your Heaven Domain's Heaven Mending Sect doing here?

But on second thought, it made sense.

Gongsun Baiyu mocked the Heaven Mending Sect and did not avoid the Heaven Mending Sect of the Heaven Domain at all. This was tantamount to turning the two Holy Lands into one Holy Land.

Facing this Heaven Mending Sect genius who had suddenly appeared, Gongsun Baiyu smiled disdainfully. "Just you? Haha... You're not worthy of being a clown."

That arrogant and conceited expression made him perform vividly. These mocking words were like a needle, ruthlessly poking the heart of that Heaven Mending Sect disciple. He could no longer suppress the anger in his heart. After all, he was one of the outstanding figures of the Heaven Mending Sect's younger generation of the Heaven Domain.

He was actually looked down on so much.

"Arrogant."

With a furious shout, Chao Feng slashed out. A powerful sword energy tore through the sky and arrived in an instant.

The battle began. The world changed in this instant. Everyone was focused and prepared to witness this unprecedented battle.

Unexpectedly, Gongsun Baiyu waved his fan and sent Chao Feng flying with a terrifying force.

"Pfft..."

Chao Feng spat out a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground, fainting.

"Insta-killed with one move?"

This shocking move shocked everyone present. No matter what, Chao Feng was still a peak-level Paragon expert. How could he be so weak?

Everyone was puzzled.

Someone shook his head and explained, "There's also a difference between innate supreme beings.

"In the same realm, some people have gone through countless hardships, but some only need to sleep and wake up. That's heaven's choice.

"Some people break through naturally, while others slowly polish the previous many realms until they reach the perfect realm before choosing to break through.

"Therefore, although the two of them have the same realm, their actual combat strength is worlds apart."

After hearing his explanation, everyone finally understood.

Gongsun Baiyu was known as the most talented person in the Immortal Mountain since ancient times. He was also known as the chosen one, so there was no need to mention his talent.

There was no lack of rumors about him in the Eight Desolates. Someone had once heard that he had polished all his early-stage cultivation realms to the limit.

His foundation was almost unbreakable.

This was also why the golden lion revealed a threatening expression in the beginning.

Gongsun Baiyu looked disdainfully at the unconscious Chao Feng on the ground and continued to mock, "This Heaven Mending Sect is only so-so.

"Sigh... I thought that this generation of the Heaven Mending Sect would produce some extraordinary figures. Looks like I was thinking too much."

Such ear-piercing sarcasm fell into everyone's ears, causing a commotion.

"F*ck, how ruthless! This guy... is openly declaring war on the Heaven Mending Sect."

"Is he really that confident?"

For a moment, everyone was excited. No one could stand such mockery.

Chapter 365: Go to Hell

Not to mention the disciples of the Heaven Mending Sect, even they felt agitated when they heard this.

The Heaven Domain's Heaven Mending Sect disciples present were even more furious.

"Damn it! This guy actually underestimated my Heaven Mending Sect. Unfortunately, Eldest Senior Brother isn't here. Otherwise, I would definitely let him feel how powerful my Heaven Mending Sect is."

The people from the Heaven Domain of the Heaven Mending Sect suppressed their anger. They had never suffered such humiliation in their many years of cultivation.

"Damn it, let me meet him."

The more he thought about it, the angrier he became. Another person walked out from the crowd and prepared to challenge this insufferably arrogant Gongsun Baiyu.

Everyone was also furious and said, "Senior Brother Li, attack, damn it."

Li Tian, who walked out from the crowd, felt the pressure multiply. His strength was similar to Chao Feng's, so he could barely win.

Gongsun Baiyu could instantly kill him with one move. Therefore, he was very flustered. However, in this situation, even if he knew that he was no match for him, he could not hide behind.

Otherwise, the sect's reputation would be completely humiliated by this fellow.

"Hmph, Gongsun Baiyu, let me experience your Immortal Mountain's ultimate technique today."

Li Tian shouted to boost his courage. He had the aura of a warrior who would never return.

Just as he was about to walk out, Gongsun Baiyu looked at him with disdain and gradually lost his patience. He said coldly, "You? Spare me. Is there no one in the Heaven Mending Sect? Why are you giving me some trash? I don't have time to waste with you."

.....

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone was shocked.

"F*ck, how arrogant is this guy?"

These humiliating words were a ruthless blow.

Li Tian's face darkened and he became furious. He actually looked down on her and couldn't even be bothered to attack?

"Damn it..."

The people from the Heaven Mending Sect were even more furious. It was too aggrieving. They had never suffered such a huge humiliation in their lives.

"Damn it, this guy is too arrogant. Senior Sister, go and teach him a lesson."

These words made even a gentle person like Zhao Wan'er furious. She clenched her fists and looked angry.

This was too humiliating. When had the disciples of the Heaven Mending Sect ever suffered such humiliation?

Lin Qingzhu only came back to her senses after Zhao Wan'er's reminder, and the worry in her heart was temporarily put down. She would put aside his master's matter for the time being and settle this matter first. She believed that her master's strength was unfathomable and that there would definitely be no problem.

After coming back to her senses, Lin Qingzhu looked coldly at Gongsun Baiyu in the sky, her eyes revealing a trace of killing intent.

It was bone-chilling.

Her white dress swayed in the wind. Under her beautiful face was a trace of cold killing intent.

Such a shocking temperament also made the surrounding people tremble.

"Who is this?"

The surrounding people were shocked. Why was there such a powerful person in the crowd that they had never noticed?

Under everyone's gaze, Lin Qingzhu took a step forward. Her white clothes gave people a feeling of brightness. She was like a fairy from the heavens, standing alone in the world.

"It's her."

As soon as Lin Qingzhu walked out, someone immediately recognized her and exclaimed, "She's the legendary disciple of the Sword Immortal."

"What!"

Everyone was shocked, and Gongsun Baiyu's playful expression finally revealed a trace of seriousness. He turned to look at Lin Qingzhu. After taking a closer look, he was also stunned by Lin Qingzhu's stunning appearance. He was stunned for a long time before coming back to his senses.

"Haha, you're finally willing to appear. I thought you would always be a coward."

Gongsun Baiyu sneered. There was admiration in his eyes and killing intent gradually rose. There was no need to doubt that everything he had said and done was to lure Lin Qingzhu out.

He had come for her.

Yes, he had heard of Lin Qingzhu's reputation a long time ago. She was praised by the world. And the proud him naturally wouldn't admit that there was someone better than him.

In addition, the conflict between the Immortal Mountain and the Heaven Mending Sect had gradually formed an obsession in his heart. That was to defeat Lin Qingzhu and crush her invincible legend, telling the world that the Immortal Mountain was the strongest holy land.

Lin Qingzhu looked coldly at Gongsun Baiyu and did not say anything. Instead, she was thinking about something.

After a while, an expression finally appeared on that cold face.

"Immortal Mountain? Heh... I remember now. The battle in the Hopeless Sea a few days ago was done by your Immortal Mountain, right? You secretly arrested my Heaven Mending Sect's missing senior brothers, right?"

After thinking for a long time, Lin Qingzhu finally understood what was going on.

Previously, she had encountered a group of Immortal Mountain disciples and elders in the Hopeless Sea region. At that time, Lin Qingzhu had just bid farewell to the others from the Heaven Mending Sect and was preparing to explore other forbidden zones.

Unexpectedly, the next second after she left, there was an extremely intense battle behind her. When she rushed back, the scene was a mess. Nothing was left.

In the beginning, Lin Qingzhu did not suspect that anything had happened to those Heaven Mending Sect disciples. After all, there were many Heaven Mending Sect elders in that team. Qi Wuhui was also in the team.

Therefore, Lin Qingzhu did not suspect anything. She finally realized that something was wrong after combining all the clues.

Gongsun Baiyu spread out his hands and did not refute or admit it. However, the answer seemed to be obvious from the smile on his face.

Seeing this, Lin Qingzhu's gaze gradually turned cold.

“Very good. Since you’ve already attacked, I don’t have to be polite to you. Courtesy is the motto of my Heaven Mending Sect.”

As soon as she finished speaking, Lin Qingzhu waved her hand, and in an instant, the Nine Heavens Mystic Frost covered the area. Suddenly, a shocking sword intent erupted, and the entire world seemed to have entered a strange sword formation domain.

Under everyone’s shocked gazes, an immortal sword slowly flew out of the void and landed steadily in Lin Qingzhu’s fair hand.

She said, “Didn’t you want to see my sword technique? I’ll fulfill your wish.”

Lin Qingzhu’s eruption was simple and crude. She held her sword in one hand and stepped into the sky. In an instant, thousands of sword energy condensed in the sky, and a shocking aura pressed down.

“What terrifying sword energy.”

The world changed at this instant, and the expressions of everyone present changed drastically.

Gongsun Baiyu also put away his frivolousness at this moment. At this moment, he already understood that his actions just now had completely angered this cold woman in front of him.

She was furious.

Without any nonsense, Lin Qingzhu slashed out the moment she condensed her sword intent.

“Go to hell with your arrogance.”

That shocking slash cut through the void, causing the world to tremble.

Gongsun Baiyu’s face revealed fear.

Chapter 366: Xuanyuan Sword

“What an astonishing sword energy. Has this guy’s comprehension of the Sword Dao already reached this level?”

Everyone’s expressions changed drastically as they looked at the sword that cut through the void.

In an instant, the flying sword energy was like a violent wind, blooming with light in an extreme domain.

There was not a single pure land within a hundred miles.

“This person’s Sword Dao domain has already surpassed the mortal realm. I’m afraid I can’t even match her. Looks like this generation has indeed produced many shocking geniuses.”

At this moment, even the insufferably arrogant golden lion revealed a terrified gaze.

Gongsun Baiyu, who was standing at the center of the storm, was even more terrified. He had heard rumors a long time ago. At first, he did not believe in Lin Qingzhu’s attainments in the Sword Dao. But after he truly saw it, he completely believed it.

After a short period of fear, Gongsun Baiyu's handsome face revealed a trace of excitement. The fighting spirit in his heart was gradually aroused. He felt the excitement of meeting his match.

As one of the most stunning geniuses in the Southern Wasteland, a legendary figure who had broken the Immortal Ancient trial record nine times, How could he be frightened by this mere sword energy? He was just surprised just now.

Please don't misunderstand.

"Haha... A pure sword battle? There's finally something to look forward to."

Gongsun Baiyu's expression did not change as he faced the sudden slash. In an instant, an immortal sword was slowly drawn.

Immediately, everyone was shocked.

.....

"This guy... he actually has an immortal sword too?"

For a moment, the expressions of everyone present changed. No one expected Gongsun Baiyu to also have an immortal sword. Moreover, in terms of grade, it seemed to be a supreme-grade immortal sword.

"Could this sword be the legendary ancient divine sword, the Xuanyuan Sword?"

Everyone was shocked when they saw the incomparably domineering sword intent emitted by the immortal sword. Some people even recognized the origin of this sword.

This was a sword that only existed in the ancient catalog, a Demon Slayer Sword.

This cry attracted the attention of countless people.

"What is the Xuanyuan Sword? Quick, tell me where this sword came from."

For a moment, everyone's interest was piqued. The scene was very lively.

After a while, the person looked flustered and said, "This is a Demon Slayer Sword, a sword that only exists in legends. According to the ancient records, the first time this sword appeared was on the Immortal Ancient Battlefield.

"The person holding the sword is an immortal god. With this sword, he fought hundreds of thousands of miles and killed countless demons. He became a god with one strike.

"The second time it appeared was during the dark and chaotic period of Ancient Chaos. It awakened in the darkness. The person holding the sword is a human youth who walked out of the Great Desolate World. The youth seems to have the ambition to soar to the clouds, walk the green mountains, and kill all enemies. He slaughtered countless demons and killed his way to the strange source, calming the chaos.

"The Xuanyuan Sword appeared twice and twice with the power to turn the world around. It defied the heavens and changed fate, allowing the mortal world to continue.

“From then on, this sword was given a legend. Every time there was a calamity, the Xuanyuan Sword would definitely appear.”

At this point, everyone’s expressions changed drastically. They looked at the Xuanyuan Sword in Gongsun Baiyu’s hand in disbelief.

“Could it be that this guy is the destined child?”

Everyone was shocked. Gongsun Baiyu holding the Xuanyuan Sword had appeared. Didn’t that mean that he was the next youth to slaughter demons? Otherwise, how could he have obtained the recognition of this immortal sword?

For a moment, no one could accept this fact.

Gongsun Baiyu sneered and slashed back as he watched the sword slash through the void.

The world trembled as the two powerful sword energies collided violently. The sky seemed to have opened up, and a powerful force was instantly expelled.

“Pfft...”

Those who were closer did not even have a chance to dodge and were directly struck head-on, bleeding. Everyone was shocked by the shocking demeanor of these two people, and the atmosphere gradually became anxious.

Lin Qingzhu was sent flying for several kilometers by the powerful impact after her sword was blocked. After spinning a few times, she gradually stabilized her steps. Her gaze was incomparably cold as she looked at the Xuanyuan Sword in Gongsun Baiyu’s hand in surprise.

She could feel that this sword’s power was extremely domineering. The Cloudy Heavens Sword was no match for it. Just now, when their sword energies collided, Lin Qingzhu only relied on the power of her sword technique to barely fight to a draw.

She was not in a good state, but Gongsun Baiyu was the same.

“Ahem ahem...”

Gongsun Baiyu coughed lightly and stabilized his body to ease the impact on his body. He regained his insufferably arrogant expression.

“Looks like this Heaven Mending Sect’s sword technique is only so-so.”

Hearing those sarcastic words, Lin Qingzhu’s face turned cold and her killing intent was completely aroused. Before she could move, Gongsun Baiyu walked over leisurely. He slowly said, “I thought that the legendary sword immortal’s disciple’s sword technique was magical. Now it seems like... it’s just so-so. If this is the case for a disciple, then I’m sure that the master is only so-so.”

“Hiss...”

As soon as these words were spoken, the crowd erupted.

“Oh my god, this guy... Is he courting death? He even dares to mock that fierce person?”

Everyone felt like they had been struck by lightning and turned pale with fright. How arrogant was he? He didn't even care about that Sword Immortal?

Any smart person could tell that Gongsun Baiyu's words were not arrogant. He was deliberately provoking Lin Qingzhu to make her angry.

Once a person entered a state of anger, they would lose their rationality and make mistakes easily.

Clearly, Lin Qingzhu fell for it as soon as she said this. However, she wasn't angry. She was cold and filled with killing intent.

In her heart, Ye Qiu was her only restraint. Anyone who dared to provoke her would be killed.

"Immortal Mountain? Hmph... Since you want to die, I'll fulfill your wish."

The angrier Lin Qingzhu was, the calmer she became. This was because the technique she cultivated was an extreme ice technique. She slowly drew her sword. In an instant, an ice phoenix seemed to flicker in the sky.

An endless cold aura spread out. In an instant, everything within a hundred miles was frozen.

"Not good, retreat quickly."

Sensing the abnormality, everyone hurriedly retreated from the extreme ice domain.

Gongsun Baiyu's expression changed. He did not expect that not only did his words not anger Lin Qingzhu, but it also made her even calmer.

Gongsun Baiyu did not dare to provoke this cold killing intent anymore and put away his contempt. Although he had the Xuanyuan Sword, he did not dare to underestimate an opponent like Lin Qingzhu.

This was because the person standing in front of him also had many legendary records and her strength was not inferior to his.

Lin Qingzhu's eyes were filled with endless killing intent. Cloudy Heavens attacked. In an instant, the world changed.

"Freeze!" Lin Qingzhu shouted coldly. In an instant, the mountains and rivers within ten thousand miles froze.

Chapter 367: Still That Familiar Taste

"Oh no!"

Gongsun Baiyu's footsteps were in a mess as he felt the extreme ice attack. Not daring to underestimate it, the Xuanyuan Sword instantly slashed out, wanting to break through the layer of ice. However, as he cut open the shackles in front of him and before he could turn around, what faced him was an expressionless face and cold, heartless, and murderous eyes.

Boom!

A deafening sound came from the sky. Lin Qingzhu charged forward with her sword. Her sword technique was simple and crude, with an indomitable aura.

Cloudy Heavens was superb in her hands, suppressing Gongsun Baiyu step by step. Under that violent attack, Gongsun Baiyu's white clothes were covered in blood in less than a moment.

"Damn, this is too shocking. Such a battle is rare in my life. Every strike between them is fatal. There's no unnecessary fancy. It's just to defeat the enemy. Who would have thought that such a beautiful girl would be so fierce when she erupts?"

Everyone was stunned. They saw that the void was in chaos that day.

The sparks produced by the collision of the sword energy between the two sides were like dazzling fireworks under a golden age. The hundred miles of mountains and rivers had already turned into wasteland.

As he was suppressed step by step, Gongsun Baiyu looked at the bloody wounds on his body and couldn't care less about the pain.

The anger in his heart was gradually beaten out.

"Get lost!"

In his anger, Gongsun Baiyu held the Xuanyuan Sword and slashed out, forcing Lin Qingzhu back.

Anger. Endless anger burned in his heart.

Ever since he started cultivating, he had never suffered such injuries. Moreover, the person who caused these injuries was a little girl he did not care about.

The powerful sword energy temporarily forced Lin Qingzhu back. The battle was not over yet, and she only stared coldly at Gongsun Baiyu below.

Lin Qingzhu sneered. "Immortal Mountain? So-so..."

Lin Qingzhu even gave Gongsun Baiyu the same words. It was like a needle that ruthlessly stabbed into his heart.

At this moment, anyone with a discerning eye could tell that he was completely suppressed in the battle just now. And he was so arrogant when he appeared, completely disregarding the other party.

Now, Lin Qingzhu even insulted him bluntly, almost making Gongsun Baiyu vomit blood.

It had to be said that Lin Qingzhu had learned most of how to humiliate others.

Back then, Qi Wuhui was almost angered to death by Ye Qiu.

Lin Qingzhu had followed her master for so long. How could she not learn?

Standing with her sword behind her back, Lin Qingzhu revealed a rare playful expression and said, "I thought the Immortal Mountain's ultimate technique was very powerful. So this is it? That's it? It's nothing much. I was so excited. I thought it was amazing. Sigh... I'm disappointed."

“Pfft...”

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone laughed. Zhao Wan'er even held her stomach and laughed out loud. She looked at her senior sister's serious expression and already had an image of the child.

This was a complete replica of Master. She was learning too well. I was already starting to get angry. Fortunately, Martial Uncle Qi was not here. Otherwise, if he saw this scene, he would probably recall his past and his face would turn especially ugly.

It was still that familiar taste.

“Haha!”

The Heaven Mending Sect disciples who had been humiliated by Gongsun Baiyu earlier were laughing wildly.

“This is too f*cking satisfying. We should ruthlessly rub off the sharpness of this arrogant kid.”

Lin Qingzhu's words directly led to everyone's mocking laughter.

Gongsun Baiyu could no longer suppress the anger in his heart.

“Damn it!”

Gongsun Baiyu was enraged after his furious roar failed to anger others. He was originally a proud and arrogant person. He was the center of attention and respected by the world. When had he ever suffered such humiliation?

In his anger, he instantly injected violent power into the Xuanyuan Sword.

At this moment, a shocking power swept through the sky. The sky was immediately enveloped by runes, and the world lost its color.

Seeing this, the originally chaotic scene immediately fell silent.

Everyone knew that Gongsun Baiyu was going to use a big move.

At this moment, Lin Qingzhu became serious. She knew that Gongsun Baiyu's limit was definitely not just what it seemed.

As expected, after he entered a berserk state, his strength increased by dozens of times. Lin Qingzhu gradually felt the pressure multiply.

“This guy...”

She couldn't help but praise in her heart. It had to be said that although this guy was arrogant, he still had his own strength.

“Damn girl, prepare to suffer the consequences of angering me.”

Gongsun Baiyu's eyes gradually turned red. A terrifying sword intent covered the sky and swept through the Nine Heavens. This shocking commotion attracted more and more people. Everyone was shocked by this shocking sword intent.

"This is... an immortal technique?"

Everyone's breathing became tense as they felt the soaring sword energy wreaking havoc.

Gongsun Baiyu was actually using a legendary immortal technique?

"No, how is this possible? This guy can actually comprehend such a profound immortal technique. I don't believe it."

Seeing this scene, the golden lion let out a cry of disbelief.

As someone with a golden bloodline, he had only barely comprehended an immortal technique with the help of his ancestors.

As for Gongsun Baiyu, he seemed to have forcefully comprehended it with his own comprehension.

How abnormal was this person's potential?

For a moment, everyone present was shocked.

The moment Lin Qingzhu saw the other party use his ultimate move, she stopped underestimating him. Since the other party had already used his ultimate move, there was no need for her to hold back any trump cards.

"Immortal technique? Then let's see who's better."

After saying this with a serious expression, Lin Qingzhu's eyes instantly emitted a cold light. In an instant, the world trembled again.

Cloudy Heavens tore through the sky, and an even more shocking sword energy attacked.

"Another immortal technique. Is this a battle between immortals?"

This instantaneous change shocked everyone present. Everyone was stunned. When did immortal techniques become so worthless?

What surprised them even more was that these two people had actually comprehended the profundity of immortal techniques. This meant that their talent and aptitude were above everyone else.

These people who usually liked to think of themselves as geniuses felt a little ashamed at this moment.

What right did they have to call themselves a genius in front of them?

Lin Qingzhu soared into the sky in a single step, and a powerful sword force suddenly erupted. It was as if a line had opened in the world, as if she was ascending to immortality, and her white clothes were peerless.

A cold voice came from the air.

"Opening A Line In The World!"

“Slash!”

With a cold shout, Cloudy Heavens instantly slashed out. In an instant, it was as if the world had been cut open. It carried extreme ice, bone-chilling and piercing to the soul.

That sword was developed by Lin Qingzhu by combining the Opening A Line In The World and her own ice attribute. Its power had increased by hundreds of times.

The battle was about to begin, and the two sword energies collided in the sky.

Boom!

This treasure vault was in violent turmoil and was in danger of collapse.

Chapter 368: Mirror Image

The moment the two sword energies collided, the world trembled. A violent wind swept across hundreds of miles of mountains and rivers and it turned into dust in an instant.

Such a huge commotion instantly attracted countless people’s attention.

“What happened there?”

“What a huge commotion. Could it be that some rare treasure has appeared?”

For a moment, everyone’s attention was attracted as they guessed what had happened there.

At this moment, in the center of the battlefield, a cyclone formed by the collision of sword energy surrounded the two people on the battlefield. The fluctuations of the battle became more and more turbulent. The powerful impact instantly separated the two of them.

“Pfft...”

Lin Qingzhu’s beautiful face turned pale. She spat out a mouthful of blood and her condition weakened. With a cold gaze, she wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth and stood up with difficulty. She looked at Gongsun Baiyu in the distance. His current state was extremely bad.

His flawless white clothes were completely torn apart at this moment. His hair was disheveled and his body was covered in blood.

“Urgh...”

Gongsun Baiyu spat out a mouthful of blood. His face was pale. The Xuanyuan Sword was inserted into the ground, supporting his broken body with difficulty. His limbs were trembling, and his eyes were filled with confusion and disbelief.

“No... I can’t lose. Why? I reached the top of the Immortal Ancient’s peerless throne nine times and experienced thousands of tribulations to cultivate this Dao. How could I lose?”

Gongsun Baiyu roared indignantly. He looked at the Xuanyuan Sword in his hand and let out an incompetent rage.

“I have the Xuanyuan Sword. It’s impossible for anyone in this world to defeat me. This is absolutely impossible.”

He had gone completely crazy with extreme anger and revenge. He stood up again, his eyes red as if he had been possessed.

Lin Qingzhu looked at him coldly and said, “How laughable. What you rely on is only the Xuanyuan Sword in your hand. All your confidence comes from this sword, but you forgot that the swordsman himself is a person, not a sword.

“My master once told me that the key to victory in a true battle is not the sword, but the person holding the sword. Your obsession is too deep and you rely too much on the sword in your hand. You are destined to fail.”

Gongsun Baiyu’s faith seemed to have collapsed as Lin Qingzhu’s cold voice sounded.

Every word was heart-wrenching.

“No!”

With a furious roar, Gongsun Baiyu completely fell into madness. He was the most stunning swordsman in the world. No one could doubt his sword.

With extreme anger, Gongsun Baiyu laughed wildly into the sky and held his loose hair.

“Haha! My life is up to me, not the heavens. No one in this world can defeat me, not even you.”

As soon as that arrogant voice fell, everyone present was shocked and immediately understood.

The battle was not over yet.

Lin Qingzhu adjusted her state again and ate a Supreme Spirit Pill. She instantly recovered. However, the aftermath of the battle had yet to dissipate, and she was still unable to reach her peak state.

As for Gongsun Baiyu, he seemed to have become even more shocking after becoming a demon. The Xuanyuan Sword seemed to have displayed dozens of times its power in his hand.

“Heaven Mending Sect, haha!”

Gongsun Baiyu slowly lowered his head after letting out a wild laugh. In an instant, a golden light bloomed and covered the sky.

Crazy power surged in, and the entire world fell into extreme fear.

“What sword technique is this?”

Standing in the sky, Lin Qingzhu gently grabbed the wind. She felt a wave of sorrow and endless sorrow in her heart. In an instant, it was as if a thought had surged into her mind, and tragic images appeared one after another.

Lin Qingzhu’s face instantly turned pale. The scene that appeared in her mind was the scene of the flames covering the hundred miles of mountains and the town being attacked. Her body began to tremble and she gradually lost control of her emotions as she watched her parents collapse in front of her, covered in blood.

“Oh no! This is an emotional method.”

Zhao Wan'er, who was below, immediately saw the profundity of Gongsun Baiyu's sword and her heart tightened. She knew the pain in Lin Qingzhu's heart. This was the secret that she was most unwilling to accept and hid in the depths of her heart.

She had always been strong and had never shown weakness in front of others. However, Zhao Wan'er could see it many times late at night. She silently guarded the window and looked at the moon, missing her deceased family.

When Zhao Wan'er realized the profundity of Gongsun Baiyu's sword, she completely panicked. She knew that Gongsun Baiyu's sword had hit Lin Qingzhu's soft spot.

“Senior Sister! You have to hold on.” Zhao Wan'er was burning with anxiety as she shouted in her heart. She really wanted to attack, but this was a fair battle. If she interfered, it would be equivalent to destroying her own reputation and Lin Qingzhu's life.

She was very helpless. She thought about it. If the person above was her, would such a thing have happened?

Lin Qingzhu was in endless grief and was infected by those emotions. A tear streaked across her cold face.

“Father... Mother...”

She lost control of her emotions as she looked at the familiar figure in the image.

Seeing this, everyone present became nervous.

“You have to hold on.”

Countless people shouted in their hearts to cheer her on. No one expected Lin Qingzhu to have such a weakness. Perhaps Gongsun Baiyu accidentally bumped into it.

The situation of the battle began to change. Gongsun Baiyu also let out an arrogant laugh after seeing Lin Qingzhu gradually lose herself.

“Haha! As long as one is human, it is impossible to leave the seven emotions and six desires. Even immortals are no exception. I've explored countless times in the darkness and experienced countless hardships before I finally comprehended this sword technique. Originally, I wanted to keep this sword and wait for the final competition to use it. I didn't expect you to force it out today.

“You're very lucky to be the first soul to die under this sword. It's your supreme honor.”

There seemed to be a million mirrors in front of her. Lin Qingzhu acted as if she didn't hear anything when she faced Gongsun Baiyu's voice. She seemed to have entered some kind of illusion and lost herself in it. She looked at the thousands of mirrors that reflected her true heart.

“A thousand faces? Master once said that a thousand people have a thousand faces. Through the surface, one can see through one’s heart and pry into one’s most real world.

“Dao can be said to be extremely Dao. Dao is the Heartless Dao and also the Emotional Dao. The Dao is natural. Between choices, you have to be able to pick it up and let it go.”

The scene of her master explaining the Dao on Violet Cloud Peak flashed across her mind.

This was the first time Lin Qingzhu had looked at her own heart and realized her shortcomings.

Yes, she was still an immature girl after all. The obsession in her heart was too deep. No matter what it was, she liked to grab it with both hands and refused to let go.

“A mirror can reflect two faces. It’s for good or evil. The highest profundity of Dao techniques is give and take. Only by giving can one gain...”

Lin Qingzhu’s confused eyes seemed to light up again.

“I understand!”

Chapter 369: Stepping into the King-Ranked Realm

At this moment, Lin Qingzhu seemed to have understood something.

Originally, she had been stuck at the peak of the Paragon realm and was unable to break through. Because her journey had been too smooth, she did not have a deep understanding of her own Dao with her master guiding her.

Under Gongsun Baiyu’s mirror image, she saw her true self and accidentally understood the meaning of Dao.

Yes, she had an epiphany.

Her eyes gradually regained their former luster as she gently exhaled. Suddenly, a violent wind blew over. In an instant, the mirror world seemed to have collapsed. She looked at her parents lying in pools of blood in the image of thousands of destroyed homes.

Lin Qingzhu used her last bit of remembrance to bid farewell to the past. From today onwards, she welcomed her heart. She will put down her obsession.

Bang!

In an instant, a mirror shattered.

That clear sound shocked everyone present, and Gongsun Baiyu had a look of disbelief.

“No! Impossible. How could she break my mental demon?”

Gongsun Baiyu panicked and completely lost control of his emotions. This was his final trump card. He thought that he could easily deal with Lin Qingzhu. Unexpectedly, she still walked out at the last moment.

At this moment, her eyes were only cold and without a trace of sorrow. Her emotions were no longer affected by the surrounding mirror images and she had comprehended the true Supreme Forgotten Love Dao. She only felt the energy in the surroundings surging towards her in an extremely violent manner.

Boom!

With a shocking bang, Lin Qingzhu emitted a peerless light. At that moment, she was the Mystic Fairy in the sky. She was beautiful and peerless.

“This is... King-Ranked seal.”

A blue symbol appeared between her brows as the blue light flickered. That was the mark of a King-Ranked.

“How is this possible? She actually broke through in this state?”

For a moment, everyone was shocked. They had never seen such a shocking scene. In this world, no one had ever broken through and awakened under such circumstances.

This was a precedent.

“Letting go of the past means a new life. Senior Sister has... transcended into the Dao?” Zhao Wan'er muttered, her eyes filled with shock. Even she couldn't believe that Lin Qingzhu could break through under such circumstances.

At this moment, the immortal bones in her body were constantly emitting intense immortal power, crazily baptizing her body.

The body of a King appeared. In an instant, a shocking force pounced out. Gongsun Baiyu, who was in the center of the battlefield, was directly forced back hundreds of miles by this violent force.

“Pfft...”

Gongsun Baiyu fell heavily to the ground and spat out a mouthful of blood. At this moment, he no longer had the strength to support his broken body. With an unwilling expression, he forced himself not to collapse and said, “How... did you do it?”

Lin Qingzhu looked at him coldly. That cold and heartless gaze seemed to be the best response.

“Forget emotions, forget emotions... Haha!

Gongsun Baiyu smiled weakly and finally lowered his proud head. Just as Lin Qingzhu was about to finish him off with a sword,

Suddenly, an incomparably old hand stretched down from the sky.

“Not good, retreat quickly!”

This sudden change shocked everyone present and they hurriedly retreated.

Under that shocking pressure, no one could raise their heads, and Lin Qingzhu was no exception. She also knew in her heart that the owner of that hand was definitely an expert from the Immortal Mountain. He could not bear to see an outstanding junior die and forcefully saved him.

However, Lin Qingzhu did not want him to succeed just like that. Just now, Gongsun Baiyu had humiliated the Heaven Mending Sect. Now, she wanted to return it tenfold.

“Stand down!”

With a cold snort, Cloudy Heavens instantly attacked. It drew a line in the world and opened a Heavenly Gate.

Lin Qingzhu’s King-Ranked power instantly erupted. An earth-shattering sword energy instantly swept through the Nine Heavens, and the terrifying power shook the void.

The expert in the sky also felt a trace of threat when facing this sword. In an instant, the moment he grabbed Gongsun Baiyu, a supreme immortal power crushed over.

“This is... an immortal?”

When he truly erupted, everyone understood how terrifying this mysterious expert’s strength was. Not to mention Lin Qingzhu, even a Martial Monarch would be defeated by such heaven-defying strength.

“Pfft...”

In just a moment, Lin Qingzhu was slapped down from the sky. Her face was pale and she was seriously injured. Wiping the blood from the corner of her mouth, she stood up again.

After that person took Gongsun Baiyu away, he did not seem to have given up. From the chaos, a white-haired figure appeared. He said in an extremely cold voice, “Junior, you’re very strong. Unfortunately, your existence has already affected my plan, so... you can die.”

As soon as he finished speaking, the mysterious expert slapped over, wanting to kill Lin Qingzhu on the spot.

Lin Qingzhu truly realized death at this moment and closed her eyes in despair. She knew that even if she didn’t kill Gongsun Baiyu today, the other party wouldn’t let her off. This was because her potential was too astonishing. To those experts who had been in high positions for a long time, her potential represented a threat.

They would do anything to eliminate the threat.

This was the law of the world.

Initially, she wanted to kill Gongsun Baiyu. Even if she died, she would take one with him. Now, it seemed that this thought had failed.

The world seemed to have fallen silent when that palm slapped down.

At this critical moment, an iron rod suddenly barged into the battlefield.

“Oh... I’m here.”

“Who is it!”

This sudden exclamation caused the crowd to erupt again.

Above the clouds, a monkey suddenly barged in. He held a golden rod and suddenly became bigger. He swept the rod with his huge hands.

There was a loud bang and a strange sound was faintly audible.

At this moment, everyone was shocked. They watched as a monkey appeared on the battlefield and used the stick in its hand to chaos the entire battlefield.

Lin Qingzhu also happened to escape because of the monkey’s sudden intrusion. She looked at the other party gratefully. Unexpectedly, this guy’s thoughts were not for saving her at all, but for the immortal pill.

“Hehe... I’ll accept this immortal pill for you.”

With a loud laugh, Monkey unkindly rushed towards the immortal pill and was about to snatch it away.

The mysterious expert in the Nine Heavens was furious.

“Where did this wild monkey come from? How dare you interfere in my matters.”

In an instant, the old man attacked the monkey with his palm. Unexpectedly, the monkey ignored his attack. With a whoosh, he took the immortal pill and swept his rod forward. Immediately, an incomparably domineering Martial Monarch realm aura erupted.

“A Martial Monarch expert.”

“When did this monkey break through to the Martial Monarch realm?”

At this moment, everyone was shocked.

Back then, when Monkey was injured and fled, he was only at the Paragon realm. How did he become a Martial Monarch in a short period of time?

Chapter 370: The Mysterious Expert in the Forbidden Area

“Haha! Take this.”

After obtaining the immortal pill, the monkey began to let himself go and completely entered a berserk state. He was not a kind person to begin with. He was competitive by nature. It was not easy for him to master his divine technique. How could he let go of this rare opportunity to practice?

The Jingu Rod smashed fiercely towards the huge hand with a loud bang.

“Monkey, how dare you!”

The old man’s angry roar came from the sky, and the scene was instantly in chaos.

Lin Qingzhu’s eyes flickered. She thought for a moment and silently retreated.

“Senior Sister, are you alright?” Zhao Wan’er asked worriedly when she saw that she had returned safely.

Lin Qingzhu comforted her and said, “Fortunately, this monkey interfered in time. Otherwise, my life would have been in danger.”

At this moment, she was still in a state of shock. She held a jade token in her hand. If the monkey had not appeared in time to disrupt the situation, she would have crushed this jade token that her mistress had left for them.

With gratitude, Lin Qingzhu stared at the mighty and domineering monkey in the sky.

A world-shaking battle erupted. In the depths of the forbidden area, a strange law rune flowed, and there were faint traces of shattering.

The meticulous Lin Qingzhu discovered that there seemed to be an incomparably terrifying figure hidden behind the black rune array. An ominous feeling immediately surged into her heart.

As expected, the moment this thought appeared, Monkey used his full strength to sweep through the forbidden area.

Bang!

In the forbidden area, there was a rustling sound. Under the darkness, the sleeping demon woke up.

At that moment, the sky turned incomparably dark, and rolling dark clouds crushed over.

“What’s going on?”

The sudden change in the violent wind made everyone’s expressions change.

The mysterious old man in the Nine Heavens also frowned and looked deeply at the figure in the darkness with extreme fear.

“Let’s go.”

Without any hesitation, he stopped entangled with the monkey and grabbed Gongsun Baiyu to leave. But how could the monkey let him do as he wished?

“You want to leave? Take this.”

At this moment, the monkey might not have realized what kind of terrifying existence his unintentional action had released. He still did whatever he wanted. Holding the Jingu Rod, he smashed it towards the void figure.

“Damn it! Get lost!”

The mysterious old man was gradually enraged. At this moment, he only wanted to leave, but the monkey refused to let him take Gongsun Baiyu away.

It was too late, the sleeping demon was about to awaken. He gritted his teeth and instantly used his divine power. Ancient runes appeared, and a shocking technique was exposed. A terrifying power suppressed the entire place.

“This is the Immortal Mountain’s inheritance technique, the Grand Unity Immortal Fiend Art!”

At this moment, the identity of this mysterious old man gradually became clear. Even though he didn’t want to be tainted by this karma, he was tainted because of the monkey.

Clearly, the moment he attacked, a red light emitted from the depths of the forbidden area and a pair of blood-red eyes the size of lanterns stared at him.

“Roar!”

In an instant, a furious roar came from the depths of the darkness, and a cold murderous aura swept over.

“What a terrifying vicious aura.”

Lin Qingzhu felt how terrifying the other party was and secretly sucked in a breath of cold air. The killing intent of the fellow sleeping in the depths of the forbidden area was too shocking. Lin Qingzhu had never heard of such a level of ruthlessness.

Even Tianmeng back then did not have such ruthlessness.

It could be seen how terrifying the other party’s strength was.

“Wan’er, the situation here is wrong. Prepare to retreat.”

After thinking for a while, Lin Qingzhu immediately made a judgment and nervously observed the surrounding situation.

Zhao Wan’er nodded in agreement. She could also feel that the person in the depths of the darkness was extremely terrifying.

After a furious roar sounded from the depths of the strange forbidden area, the Nine Heavens fell silent. This world seemed to have been imprisoned by a forbidden domain.

When everyone woke up, they were surprised to discover that they could not move.

“What’s going on? Why am I not moving?”

“What happened?”

The scene was in chaos. Everyone struggled, wanting to break free from the shackles, but they realized that they were powerless. In the chaos, they kept questioning. Their faces were filled with fear, as if they had seen something terrifying.

Lin Qingzhu and Zhao Wan’er were also imprisoned and struggling with all their might.

“Damn it!”

After struggling for a while, Lin Qingzhu’s face turned pale and she was a little indignant. She had a premonition of danger the moment the other party appeared. Unfortunately, before they could leave, the other party had already attacked.

“What secret technique is this?” Zhao Wan’er also asked in panic. She had never seen such a strange method.

It didn’t seem like a spatial secret technique.

This was more like an ancient forbidden technique. It was extremely strange. No matter how they comprehended it, they were unable to see through its true meaning.

“Looks like we’re going to die here this time.”

After the panic, Lin Qingzhu gradually calmed down and quickly thought of a countermeasure. She looked at the jade token in her hand and wanted to crush it. However, in the face of such a terrifying thing, even her mistress was not its match.

If she called for help now, she might implicate her mistress.

After thinking about it again, Lin Qingzhu gave up on crushing the jade token.

Boom!

A loud bang came from the depths of the darkness.

A dark torrent shot out from the depths of the forbidden area, and the Nine Heavens was immediately corroded by the black fog.

Under everyone’s gaze, a strange figure slowly walked out from the dark forbidden area. His entire body was emitting blood energy, and his ruthlessness was oppressive. There was no color in his pale face, as if he had died for many years.

He licked his lips slightly and looked at everyone present. His gaze stopped on the descendants of the golden bloodline and the Monarch’s bloodline.

His greedy gaze kept demanding, as if he was seeing delicious food.

“There are so many delicious foods. Which one should I eat first? Let me think about it.”

Everyone couldn’t help but shiver when they heard that terrifying voice.

Suddenly...

A golden light flickered and bloomed with a dazzling light. Monkey held the Jingu Rod and smashed it down.

“What a pretentious thing. Take this.”

This sudden action shocked everyone present.

“F*ck, does this monkey want to die? Has he always been so brave?”

Under the domain of the forbidden area expert, no one could move, nor did they dare to move. Only this monkey seemed to be unrestricted and could still come and go freely. What was even worse was that instead of taking the opportunity to escape, he actually attacked the other party?

Boom!

The sky was in chaos. The clouds rolled and the Nine Heavens trembled.

The scene changed. Everyone saw that the mysterious expert in the forbidden area only used two fingers to firmly clamp down on Monkey's Jingu Rod.

Then, he looked at him disdainfully and sneered. "Connate stone monkey? Interesting... Is the birth of heaven and earth's spiritual root, someone born to face calamity?"

With just a glance, he saw through the monkey's background as if it had run through his entire life.

Monkey was shocked and immediately understood that he had provoked a tough nut to crack this time.
