

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 251 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Mark worshipped the man and muttered to himself with his eyes shining. “He has such a dominant temperament. Outside the organization, people’s as lowly as ants.”

Grace also adored the man. It seemed that she had entered a new world where she found herself to be enthusiastic about the guy.

Even Elizabeth and James had the same reaction. Instead of worshipping him, they had a humble idea and agreed with what the man said. He was a human, but they were ants.

Ryan felt the reaction of the crowd. He frowned slightly as he realized that he had underestimated the other party. The man was deliberately instilling such an idea to people.

Of course, Ryan had to stop the man from doing so. He coughed twice. His voice was not loud, but when it fell into everyone’s mind, it was undoubtedly a bolt from the blue. It exploded with a loud bang and instantly regained clarity.

“Your hypnosis technique is quite high. You hypnotized so many people unknowingly, who almost took you as a god. It seems that this is how you fooled Mark and made him the boss of the KL Group your lackey.” Ryan said disdainfully, exposing the other party’s trick.

The man was surprised that Ryan was not affected by him and even broke his hypnosis with a cough.

“Interesting.” Instead of getting angry from embarrassment, the other party clapped and looked at Ryan. “Indeed, no wonder you’re Saintess’ bastard. Impressive.”

The word “bastard” enraged Ryan and made his blood boil.

The man felt his anger, and the curve of his mouth was even higher. He said, “Are you angry? You’re an ant indeed. After I say a few words and you get angry. Its shame that you have the blood of Saintess, who’s from our organization. Since that’s the case, then I will help Saintess and take back your life. A bastard like you has no right to live in this world without the permission of our organization.”

After that, he began to fight.

His movements were very subtle and did not make a sound. Clearly, he was very fast, and his feet stepped hard on the ground. It should make a huge noise or even shake the earth, but there was no sound. It was as if he was a cat with a thick meat pad on his feet.

The huge contrast between reality and their feeling made people extremely uncomfortable.

The reason why people got carsick was that their anticipation was different from the shaking in reality. There was a deviation, so they got carsick and retched.

When the man rushed towards Ryan, he could give everyone such a carsick feeling. Obviously, his kungfu could be said to be extremely brilliant!

However, he could influence others, but he could not affect Ryan, because Ryan had already expected that.

Although he was not affected, he was a little nervous. He felt the strength of the man, who was a strong opponent! “Good timing.”

He didn’t retreat but intended to confront him.

His footsteps were the exact opposite of the man’s. Ryan’s movements were small but heavy. His movements seemed to be light.

However, when he stepped on the ground, he was like an elephant weighing a thousand kilograms. Every step made the house shake as if there was an earthquake. People were all shocked.

Now, people felt that Ryan was extremely heavy.

Elizabeth and James were stunned. They were as confused as the first time they met Ryan. They even suspected that they had hallucinated! Otherwise, why was Ryan so powerful?

After all, not long ago, Ryan was a loser who couldn't even find a job. However, he suddenly became a big shot that they all had to look up to.

This strong contrast made it difficult for them to accept for a while.

Bang!

They fought.

At the moment their fists and feet collided, the ground shook visibly, and even the chandelier above their heads shook slightly. It was conceivable how powerful they were.

Sensing their strength, they were both a little surprised that they underestimated each other's strength.

However, the man from the Raoul organization was more shocked. He did not expect Ryan to be so powerful. It was rare for him to feel pain after a collision just now!

Although he was not the most outstanding person in the organization, he was still a member of it. There was a fundamental difference between him and the ordinary people.

It seemed that Saintess's genes were too strong. The son she had with an ordinary man could even have such great power.

But, so what? Ants were always ants, and they could never be god's opponents.
"Yes, you're not bad. I'm getting more interested in you."

He smiled, but he did not stop at all. Instead, he launched a more ferocious attack.

Soon, Ryan became even more stressed.

Ryan did not say anything. His eyes were cold. He was serious now, not because he could not beat the man, but because he was angry.

They fought so fast that ordinary people could not catch up with them with their naked eyes, which was completely beyond ordinary people's understanding. After all, most ordinary people did not know that there were people in this world who were so capable of fighting, and their speed and strength could be so extreme!

As they fought and moved their positions, the floor that they had stepped on began to crack, creating cracks after cracks.

A few people were hurt by their fists and feet because they were too close. They were all injured by the degree of fracture.

Others people were so scared that they quickly hid in a corner and shivered.

“This... Is too fierce!” Mark’s eyes flashed with a crimson glow, and he was extremely fanatical. “This is the realm I want! It turns out that big brother didn’t lie to me. He’s really powerfull”

He licked his lips and was no longer afraid of Ryan. He thought that Ryan was definitely no match for big brother.

Not only him, but the rest of the people thought so too because they saw that Ryan was constantly retreating. Ryan was like a candle in the rain, ready to be blown out at any time.

At that moment, Ryan finally spoke and said calmly, “Is this what you call god’s power? I don’t think so. The speed is too slow and the power is too weak.”

When the man heard this, his eyes narrowed and his heart thumped. He thought that Ryan was not his rival. Ryan was at the end of his tether. However, Ryan still had the energy to speak and his breath was so stable, which meant that Ryan was capable!

But how could this be?

As soon as he finished speaking, Ryan retaliated fiercely. At this moment, the momentum on his body had undergone earth- shaking changes. The image that he had been struggling to support suddenly became powerful. In the spiritual world for everyone, the sleeping lion had awakened!

The next moment, he suddenly sped up and punched the opponent in the eye, breaking through his defense and hitting him hard on the chest.

With a bang, the sound was loud and dull as if it was from a sledgehammer. Ryan hit the man heavily. It was completely the force that the man could not bear, causing the man to spurt out a mouthful of blood, fly out like straw, hit the wall heavily, and then slide down feebly.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 252 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

The power was so great that the paint on the wall fell off and there was a faint dent. It could be seen how powerful Ryan's punch was just now!

Whoosh...

Ryan took a long breath. Grace, who was about ten meters away from him, could feel his breath. It was like a powerful fan, which made her feel cold!

All of a sudden, the whole room was absolutely quiet, and everyone was dumbfounded.

No, it should be said that they were frightened. They were astonished. Now their minds were blank. At that moment, they all lost their senses and were frightened by Ryan.

Before today, they did not know that people could reach such a state. They thought that the boxers and sandals on TV were standing at the peak of human fighting.

Advertisement

However, it was only now that they realized that people's fighting ability could reach such a state!

Ryan won. In fact, he knew exactly how capable he was from the beginning, but he still underestimated the other party who forced him to use 80 % of his power.

This punch showed Ryan's strength and spirit, and all his internal strength was injected into the opponent's chest, causing a hole in his chest. So it was more serious than a fracture.

This way, that man would not survive.

Many neighbors were attracted out due to the noise. They thought it was an earthquake. Ryan went out in time, greeted them, and closed the door to avoid causing panic among the neighbors.

Now, the whole room was controlled by Ryan. When Ryan looked at Mark, Ma immediately shook violently, and his face turned pale instantly. He was so scared that he knelt down in front of Ryan and slapped himself. And Ma cried and begged for mercy.

"Mr. Howard, I was wrong! Mr. Howard! Please forgive me this time. Just treat me like a fart and let me go! I promise I won't bother you again!"

Ryan didn't bother to talk to him at all. He kicked Mark over, then kicked him out. Finally, Mark fainted.

Elizabeth and James were both shocked by his violent behavior and became frightened! Elizabeth, in particular, was scared to tremble. In the Scotts, Elizabeth was the one who bullied Ryan the most. Usually, she not only asked Ryan to wash her underwear, but also often fed Ryan rotten rice and vegetables. In various ways, she humiliated Ryan in order to drive Ryan out.

But now, Ryan was not a useless man at all, but a big shot. Now Elizabeth was finished! If Ryan wanted to settle the score with her, she wouldn't even have the chance to resist.

So she was pale and trembling with fear. She didn't even dare to look straight at Ryan.

As for Grace, she was confused and regretful. She couldn't figure out why Ryan, who had been a waste for so long, suddenly became so powerful that she could never provoke him. She regretted that she was so stupid that she ran over to betray Phoebe and made such a big trouble for herself.

Now that Ryan's gaze swept over her, she immediately broke down. She knelt down in front of Ryan without hesitation, kowtowed, apologized and begged for mercy. "Brother-in-law, brother-in-law! I was wrong... It was my stupidity. I shouldn't have listened to Mark's slander. I... I didn't want to betray you and sister Phoebe. I don't want to die yet. Can you let me go? I beg of you... I'm willing to work for you, as your slave..."

She had a nervous breakdown, and she was crying so miserably with tears and snot. All her arrogance had gone.

However, Ryan was too lazy to talk to her at all and said coldly to Grace, "It's no use begging me. You should beg Phoebe. If she's willing to forgive you, I can forgive you. If she isn't... Hmph!"

Ryan stepped hard, and with a click, a tile on the ground cracked! When Grace saw this scene, she was extremely frightened and lost control of her expression.

She was originally a person who was afraid of death. Now that Ryan had shown more strength than she could accept, she even suspected that Ryan was not a person, but a god. Only a god could have such a terrible strength!

So she was in a state of complete madness. She knelt down in front of Phoebe, kowtowed hard, and begged for mercy, "Sister Phoebe, I was wrong. For the sake of our friendship in the childhood, can you let me go this time? I beg you, I sincerely beg you.

I don't want to die yet, please..."

Phoebe was a soft-hearted person. She was really angry with Grace at first, but now, when she saw that Grace was so pitiful, most of her anger disappeared, and she couldn't bear to scold her. No matter what, Grace was her cousin, with the same blood in her bones. She really couldn't just let her die.

So she slapped Grace and scolded, "If you dare to do this again, I'll let you die!"

Grace was overjoyed and quickly kowtowed. "Thank you, Sister Phoebe. Thank you. I won't do this anymore. I won't do this anymore! I wish you and brother-in-law a long life together and love forever! Thank for your mercy!"

When Phoebe heard this, she bit her lips and felt worried. Did she have a chance to grow old together with Ryan?

She looked up at Ryan and found that Ryan did not look at her at all. Instead, he walked over to the so-called 'god' of LT Organization and looked down at that 'god'. "What's your name?"

That man tried to stand up, but he was so badly injured that his ribs were stuck in his internal organs. As long as he moved, it would hurt him to death.

Now that Ryan saw that he still wanted to move, he stepped on him and that man screamed like a pig. "Ryan! Kill me if you have the guts. Don't try to humiliate me!"

"Really?" A teasing smile appeared on Ryan's face, and then he began to push hard, stepping on the man's chest and pressing down bit by bit.

That man was in so much pain that his body was convulsing, his face was pale, and he felt the pain that human beings couldn't bear.

Finally, he couldn't help it. He suddenly broke down and began to beg for mercy, "Stop! Don't step on it! If you do it again, I'm really going to die!"

"Die?" Ryan smiled disdainfully and said, "Don't you call yourself a god and your life form is one level higher than mine? Why are you afraid of death now?"

When that man heard Ryan's words, he was very embarrassed, and his eyes had lost brightness, arrogance and contempt. He looked at Ryan with only fear and deep jealousy.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 253 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Yes, it was jealousy. Ryan could tell that the man was jealous that he was the son of Saintess.

Before that, Ryan didn't know anything about the LT Organization. He just knew that the organization was mysterious and powerful. His mother came from this organization, but he didn't know the nature of this organization or where it was headquartered.

Now, after he met Mark's eldest brother, he had a vague understanding of LT Organization. According to the situation, his mother's status in the organization was not low. The 'Saintess' should be his mother's identity, not the name. In this way, he became more interested in the LT Organization.

That man's life force was very strong. He had been seriously injured and had not stopped breathing. He was just coughing and extremely weak. Now he had completely lost his arrogance and began to fear death.

"I don't have much patience." Ryan said coldly, stepping harder on his opponent's chest.

In this way, that man screamed even harder, and his whole body was in spasm from the pain. At this moment, he felt Ryan's murderous intent. If he didn't say it, Ryan would really kill him. His strong desire for life made him shout quickly, "Raven! My name is Raven! Please don't kill me, please."

Raven? The Raven who betrayed the Apollo?

Ryan was stunned for a moment. Then he picked up that man with one hand, pinched his neck, and scolded coldly, "How dare you tease me in such a dangerous moment? I think you're really not afraid of death, are you?"

As he spoke, he began to exert himself.

"No, no, no! My name is really Raven. This is my nickname. The members of our organization use the names of immortals. My real name is Colman. I swear I didn't lie to you!"

Raven cried. He looked extremely embarrassed and miserable. No one could find his arrogant and extraordinary look. This strong contrast made Ryan more powerful. Everyone looked at him with more shock and awe.

Ryan believed his words. At this time, he could tell that the man was not lying, which could be seen by his superiority just now.

Ryan sneered disdainfully. "It seems that you LT Organization really thinks of yourselves as gods. You even have the name of a god."

Raven was a little awkward. Now that he was a prisoner and had no right to negotiate, he could only smile and flatter, saying, "Then can you let me go? I promise I won't reveal your information."

Ryan immediately smiled, "How dare you threaten me at this time? It seems that I can only kill you."

At this moment, a suffocating killing intent erupted from Ryan, as frightening as a landslide and tsunami, pervading the entire house, and everyone's heart involuntarily tightened!

As the party concerned, Raven felt even stronger. He was completely terrified and begged for mercy without any dignity. "Don't kill me. I didn't..."

However, before he could finish his sentence, Ryan's hand hit on the back of his neck. Like a computer power cut off, Raven's voice died instantly, and his neck tilted down.

In the eyes of the others in the room, Raven was killed by Ryan.

Instantly, fear and panic crept into everyone's hearts, especially Mark, who was trembling to the extreme.

"You, you, you killed him?" Mark was shivering and his teeth were shaking.

Did Ryan really kill Raven?

Of course, that was impossible. He just knocked Raven unconscious.

The killing was illegal. Even if he really wanted to kill Raven, he wouldn't be so stupid as to do it in front of other people.

He turned around and saw the way everyone looked at him, especially the way Phoebe and her parents looked at him, then he could not help but sigh in his heart. What happened today was really far beyond his expectations.

So sometimes life was like this. Even if you planned carefully, there would still be unexpected happenings. No one can completely control their life in their hands, and the future was full of uncertainty.

But it did happen. It was useless to regret it. Now it was a matter of how to explain it. He walked up to Phoebe and said guiltily, "I'm sorry for getting you involved in this and making you scared because of me."

Phoebe looked at Ryan and wanted to ask a lot of questions, but she could not say them out. What happened today completely overturned her world view. Even if her psychological quality was strong, it would be difficult to accept it for a while.

In the end, she had to shake her head and say softly, "It's okay."

"Okay." Ryan felt guilty, but for now, he couldn't explain much and had to deal with Mark and Grace.

He looked at Elizabeth and James and said, "Dad, mom, I'm sorry to scare you. I'll help you untie the rope."

The rope was hemp rope which was very thick, and had to be cut with scissors. Of course, it was not a piece of cake for Ryan. He could break it at will. Anyway, now that his martial arts were exposed, he didn't have to hide it like before. He just broke the rope and untied them.

Elizabeth and James saw that Ryan broke such a thick rope easily. They couldn't help but tremble and didn't dare to look Ryan in the eye. Elizabeth smiled nervously and said, "It's okay. You don't have to be so polite..."

James also said, "Yes. Ryan, you're too polite. We're fine. We're fine." Sensing their fear for him, Ryan felt helpless, but he didn't want to explain anything more. Finding something, Ryan said coldly, "Mark, if you move again, I'll break your leg."

Mark, who was preparing to escape secretly, shivered when he heard this. His face turned pale with fear. He stopped stiffly and did not dare to move anymore. He turned his head mechanically and saw Ryan's sneer. He felt as if he had fallen into the ice. He shivered and quickly explained, "Mr. Howard, don't get me wrong. I don't want to leave. I just stand for a long time and want to stretch my muscles."

Seeing Ryan walking towards him with a cold face, Mark broke down immediately. He knelt down and kowtowed to Ryan to apologize and beg Ryan to forgive him.

The others also knelt down and begged for mercy. Now they had no intention to resist at all, and they were in a state of complete reverence for Ryan.

Ryan didn't make things difficult for them, but he didn't let them go easily. He gave them a kick and kicked them in the ribs as punishment. Finally, he said to Mark: "For the sake of your father Kiwi, I'll spare your life this time. And next time, I'll not only break your ribs. Of course, you can also choose to call the police and seek revenge on me. I know you have the guts anyway."

"I dare not, I absolutely dare not!" Mark shook his head like a rattle drum, and then asked carefully, "Then Mr. Howard, can I go now?"

"Get lost." Ryan waved his hand and told them to leave.

Then Ryan called Malcolm to send someone over to tie Raven up and take him away. Next, he had to interrogate Raven about the LT Organization.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 254 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Ryan didn't call Master Chou here. Instead, he called Malcolm. He just didn't believe in Master Chou. Anyway, Master Chou was a member of the LT Organization. Maybe he would let Raven go. Ryan had always been cautious. With his character, he would never do such a stupid thing.

As for Grace, after what happened today, she was already a little out of sorts. Ryan did not make things difficult for her and let her go.

After everything was settled, Ryan breathed a sigh of relief. The fight with Raven just now had consumed a lot of his mental and physical energy, and he was a little tired.

Turning around, he saw the lines of sights of Phoebe and her other family members. They looked at him in a more or less unfamiliar way and in awe, and he felt quite uncomfortable.

He walked over, smiled, and said, "The house is in a mess now. Why don't we move to the villa in Dragon Bay first? There are many rooms there."

Elizabeth was originally quite afraid of Ryan. But upon hearing Ryan's words, her eyes lit up immediately and she blurted out, "Okay, okay! Move over now?"

James was also a little excited. It was a big villa worth almost 40 million dollars. Living there was a symbol of status!

Phoebe immediately called out to Elizabeth, winked at Elizabeth, took a deep breath, and said to Ryan, "That won't be necessary. We can rent a room outside and live there for a while without disturbing you."

Ryan said, "No bother. I won't be that bored when you come here. Besides, you're implicated because of me. Just give me a chance to make up. Don't refuse me, okay?"

Ryan looked deeply at Phoebe. Ever since their divorce, their relationship had become even more subtle.

Elizabeth became very excited when she heard this, and her reverence for Ryan had disappeared a lot. She had been thinking about the scenery after she lived in Dragon Bay. If this spread, she would be admired by more people!

She quickly pushed Phoebe and winked, "Phoebe, Ryan is right. Anyway, our house has been damaged and we can't live here for a while. We have to renovate it. And it's not convenient to find a room to rent in the middle of the night. I think we should go to Ryan's place first. We are a family. Now that Ryan is doing well, it's good for us to gain some advantage from him!"

As she spoke, Elizabeth gestured James, indicating that James should not remain silent and shall echo her words.

James said quickly, "Yes, yes. Let's go to Ryan's place first. We're a family anyway."

Phoebe bit her lips gently. She hesitated for a moment and finally said softly, "Well. Thank you in advance."

Ryan was overjoyed and quickly waved his hand. "It's okay"

That way, Phoebe, Elizabeth, and James packed up their things and followed Ryan over.

Along the way, Elizabeth and James's fear of Ryan disappeared because they found that Ryan didn't change at all. Ryan still respected them very much. He did not become very superior to them and arrogant after he got rich.

That made the two secretly breathe a sigh of relief and made up their minds that Phoebe and Ryan must be remarried so that Ryan could be firmly tied up to the Scotts.

As for Phoebe, she was full of doubts and wanted to ask Ryan. From time to time, she looked up at Ryan.

Advertisement

After arriving in Dragon Bay, Elizabeth became even more excited, as if she had forgotten what had happened just now. She also took photos and shared them in her Facebook. The content was that from now on, she would live in the most high-end villa area in Dragon Bay and felt what it was like to live in a 40 million villa.

When this piece of Moments was seen by others, a sensation was caused immediately. Not only did many people pressed the button of LIKE and leave comments for her, but also many people came over specially to ask Elizabeth if it was true. Elizabeth was a very vain person. At this moment, she felt that she was at the peak of her life and felt extremely proud. Many noble women who used to look down on her now also lowered their attitude and chatted with her. She felt great!

So she had fallen into the vanity of living in the big villa and had forgotten about what happened to Ryan just now.

When James saw his wife like this, he couldn't help but feel excited. He also did a similar thing to what Elizabeth did. As expected, it caused a great sensation. All of a sudden, many people envied him, and they wanted to come over to him for tea and see the big house of 40 million dollars.

Of course, the most shocking thing was the group of people from the Scotts. When they saw Elizabeth and James's Facebook Story, they were completely confused. They couldn't figure it out. Just now, wasn't the Young Master of the KL Group still looking for trouble for Ryan? Only a few hours had passed, but they now went and lived in the imperial Dragon Bay villa?

Could it be that this matter was solved?

When they entered the villa, Elizabeth and James were even more amazed by the luxurious atmosphere inside. They kept taking out their cell phones to take photos and were so excited.

They also kept praising Ryan.

When Ryan saw that the two of them looked like that they had never seen the world before, he was also satisfied as he had a lot of vanity at this moment. After being a live-in son-in-law for so many years, it was the first time he had been praised like this by his father-in-law and mother-in-law.

It would have been even better if he hadn't divorced Phoebe.

Phoebe came in and saw the luxury of the villa. She was also a little surprised, but that was all. She and Elizabeth were the opposite. She was not vain at all and did not care about material enjoyment.

Ryan saw that she had been absent-minded and full of thoughts. He knew that he had to explain this to Phoebe.

Sure enough, Phoebe was the first one who couldn't resist the urge. When Elizabeth and James went upstairs to pick their room, Phoebe took a deep breath and said to Ryan, "Can we talk?"

Ryan nodded and said, "Okay." They walked to a place where they could chat. Ryan said, "Phoebe, actually..." Phoebe interrupted him without waiting for him to finish. She looked at him nervously and said, "Are you really the Chairman?"

In fact, Phoebe had countless questions just now that she wanted to ask Ryan, but she didn't intend to ask this question first. But when she really asked, she couldn't help but ask this. This was also the question she cared about the most.

Ryan was silent for a moment. He didn't expect Phoebe to ask this question first.

Seeing that he hadn't answered for a long time, Phoebe became sad. She tried to squeeze out a smile and said, "Forget it if it's not convenient for you to answer."

Ryan looked at her and said, "It's not that it's inconvenient to answer or not, but that if I answered, would you believe me?" In fact, this sentence was already the answer. Phoebe bit her lips even tighter. "I believe it."

Ryan said very seriously, "I am."

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 255 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Even though Phoebe knew the fact in advance, when she heard Ryan admit it himself, it was still overwhelming! Her whole body was in shock, and she felt like bottles of condiment spilled over in her heart.

She opened her mouth and wanted to say something, but she could not utter a word, and her mind suddenly went wild.

What had happened before now surged into her mind and reappeared in front of her eyes.

The first time she met the chairman of the ZQ Inc, she went to ZQ Plaza alone. As the president of the ZQ Media, Elliot was greatly respectful to her. He even fawned and feared her and sent her to the chairman's office personally.

When she met the chairman, he was actually wearing a mask, not showing his true face, and he was so polite to her. They were alone in a room but the chairman did not try to take advantage of her and gave her 20 million dollars without an IOU attached.

Later, she was tricked by Brian. When she fell into danger, the chairman of ZQ Inc seemed to have the ability to see the future and appear in front of her in time to save her. And immediately, he met Ryan...

And then Malcolm's respect for Ryan, the flattery, and so on...

Advertisement

Too many coincidences were connected. Now that she thought about it, who else could the chairman of ZQ Inc be if he wasn't Ryan? Anyone with half a brain could understand this, but she couldn't. She thought Ryan was lying!

The point was, Ryan also explained to her. But she didn't believe him and said so much to hurt Ryan. When she thought of this, she couldn't stop her tears from flowing down her face.

Seeing that she was crying, Ryan was worried and at a loss. "Hey, why are you crying? Weren't you fine just now?"

When Phoebe heard his words, she cried even harder. She couldn't hold back her tears and it attracted the attention of the passers-by beside her. They thought that Ryan was a scumbag and did something to hurt Phoebe.

Advertisement

"Why did you, why..." Phoebe sobbed in a broken voice.

Seeing her so aggrieved and sad, Ryan thought that Phoebe could not accept the fact that he was the chairman of ZQ Inc. He felt a sharp prick in his heart, then he forced out a smile and said, "I lied to you. I'm not the chairman of some ZQ Inc. Why don't you think about it? If I were the chairman of ZQ Inc, why would I be willing to be the live-in son-in-law of the Scotts for so long. So you can rest assured that the chairman of ZQ Inc is someone else. He's a handsome man. I happen to know him well. I'll introduce him to you another day..."

Ryan didn't get to finish the last word when his eyes widened suddenly, full of disbelief, because Phoebe actually stood on tiptoe, wrapped his neck with both hands, and kissed his mouth.

Bang! Something exploded in Ryan's mind.

This was the first time they had kissed in so many years of marriage!

In an instant, Ryan felt his head was spinning and he was in a complete daze.

Phoebe actually kissed him. Even though it felt so real now, he still thought it was an illusion because it was too dreamy.

Lips parted.

Ryan looked at her as if she was a ghost, swallowed heavily, and said, "Phoebe, you..."

Phoebe's face turned a bright pink now. She got especially shy, but she did not escape Ryan's gaze. Instead, she mustered up the courage to say, "Ryan, let's getting back together."

"What, what?" Ryan was stunned. He opened his mouth so wide that he could swallow an egg.

Phoebe bit her lip gently, then leaned into Ryan's ear and said softly and seriously, "Let's getting back together." This time, Ryan heard it clearly. But even if he did, he was still in a daze.

What did that saying goes?

"It's just happening so fast when happiness strikes."

Soon, Ryan was overwhelmed by this joy, which made him dizzy. Seeing that he had stayed silent for so long, Phoebe deliberately snorted and said, "Why, don't you agree? Then Forget it." Ryan finally came back to his senses and said quickly, "I agree! Of course, I agree! How could I not agree?!"

Phoebe's face also beamed with joy. It was like a brilliant flower the world had ever seen and everything else would be humbled by its beauty.

Ryan got carried away for quite a while before muttered, "Phoebe, you're so beautiful." Phoebe's joy was obvious and she deliberately scolded, "You goose".

Today was arguably Ryan's happiest day. In fact, every day after his divorce from Phoebe, he never stopped thinking about remarrying to Phoebe, even though he knew that the hope was very slim.

When this day really came, he was really happy!

On the way back, Phoebe held Ryan's hand all along. They had never been intimate like this before.

The two of them had talked about a lot tonight, and they didn't go back to their room to sleep until three in the middle of the night.

The next day, when Elizabeth and James found out about their plan of getting married again, they were so excited that they could hardly speak.

Ryan was also very happy about this, but he did not forget his business because of this. After Phoebe went to work, Ryan also went out. He was going to see Malcolm.

Of course, it was actually Raven that he was going to see. Now Raven was imprisoned by Malcolm.

“Chairman, you’re here!” When Malcolm saw Ryan come in, he quickly stood up and bowed respectfully to Ryan.

In fact, Ryan was not very used to it. After all, Malcolm was in his sixties. He was still so respectful to Ryan every time he met him, which made Ryan embarrassed for it would make people think that he didn’t know how to care for the elder.

However, this was strongly requested by Malcolm. The gap between their previous identities was too big. If Malcolm was not allowed to be so respectful, he would probably scare Malcolm and made Malcolm think that he had done something wrong.

So Ryan simply didn’t say anything and let Malcolm continue to be so respectful to him.

“Well, Malcolm, thanks for the hard work. You’ve been watching the prisoner for me all night.” Ryan said.

“Not at all!” Malcolm said quickly. “It’s my honor to work for the chairman!”

Ryan smiled and said, “Where is he? Take me to him.”

Malcolm said, “Okay, he’s in the confinement room.”

Soon, under Malcolm’s guidance, Ryan went into the basement’s confinement room and saw Raven.

When Ryan saw him, he almost didn’t recognize Raven.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 256 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

How could Raven look as extraordinary, superior, and condescending to all living things as he was in the beginning? Now, he was a prisoner. It was not too much to describe him as a beggar.

His clothes were dirty and torn, stained with blood. He looked as if he was about to die at any moment.

When he saw Ryan, there was a flash of panic in his eyes. In an instant, his eyes returned to gloominess and fear.

The corner of Ryan's mouth rose slightly, revealing a meaningful smile. He turned to Malcolm and said, "You beat him so badly."

Malcolm said quickly, "Chairman, he wanted to escape, so I used some methods. Please don't worry, chairman, our subordinates have a sense of propriety. He only suffered beating. There is no danger of life!"

Malcolm was in a panic, afraid that he had done something wrong.

Because that day, Ryan called him over by phone and handed him the person directly. He did not tell him who he was or how he should be treated. Malcolm had no idea what to do. He could only make a judgment based on Ryan's attitude towards Raven at that time. He thought that Raven was Ryan's prisoner. So today, when Raven wanted to escape, he asked his subordinates to teach Raven a lesson by beating him.

Ryan sighed. When Malcolm heard this, he was even more afraid. Just as he was about to apologize, Ryan said, "You are too gentle with him. You can't hurt him at all."

After saying that, Ryan suddenly kicked Raven. Raven's pupils suddenly contracted. All his muscles tensed up. He was very sharp and about to dodge. However, his speed was still a little slower than Ryan's. Finally, Ryan kicked him in the waist. He kicked him hard against the wall like a ball bouncing to the ground. Raven spat out a mouthful of blood!

"You should be like me. Only through this way can you hurt him, or it would be tickling to him." Ryan said with a smile.

When Malcolm saw this scene, he was obviously in a daze. When he came back to his senses, he swallowed hard. He looked at Ryan with quite different eyes and he became more afraid.

He knew that Ryan was not simple. He was the chairman of the ZQ Media, which was worth several billion dollars. He also had something to do with the underground emperor of H City, Master Chou. But he didn't know that Ryan was so skillful and ruthless.

At this moment, he felt the majesty of the fairy dragon from Ryan. He was not to be blasphemed or offended.

"Yes, yes..." Malcolm nodded quickly, "Thank you for your guidance, Chairman."

Ryan walked over to Raven with a bright smile on his face. He said to him like his friend, "Raven, your injuries are recovering very quickly. I was almost fooled by you. If I were here one day later, you would have run away by now."

A strong fighter beside him said, "That's impossible. With our brothers watching him, he can't escape!"

"Yes, he seems not strong. And he is seriously injured. How can he escape? He's not a god." Another fighter said with some dissatisfaction. They thought Ryan was underestimating their ability.

When Malcolm saw that his two men were actually retorting Ryan, he was so anxious that he quickly went over and slapped them in the face and scolded them, "Bullshit! What kind of people are you? If you dare to question the chairman's words, slap yourselves and apologize!"

They were still very afraid of Malcolm. Being slapped by Malcolm, they didn't dare to talk back. They lowered their heads and apologized to Ryan. But there was still obvious dissatisfaction on their faces.

Their performance angered Malcolm so much that he was afraid that two idiots offended Ryan. When he was about to teach them a lesson, Ryan stopped him. "That's enough, they haven't seen Raven's Kungfu before. It's normal not to believe me" "Chairman, both of them are brainless. You don't want to bother yourself arguing with the likes of them." Malcolm pleaded.

Ryan waved his hand to show that he didn't take it to heart. Then he said to Raven, "All right, Raven, you don't have to pretend anymore. I can feel your vitality is very strong now. You're about to recover half of your strength."

"Cough, cough, cough..." Raven coughed with difficulty as he seemed dying. He said to Ryan, "I don't understand what you mean.

Don't you know how much you've kicked me? I'm dying now. Ryan, for the sake of my relationship with your mother, can you please let me go? I can give you a lot of money."

"Oh? How much can you give me? Tell me." Ryan raised his eyebrows, looking very interested.

There was some hope in Raven's eyes. He coughed with difficulty and said, "One billion. As long as you let me go, I can transfer it to your account soon."

Hearing the amount of money, the others in the room widened their eyes. Their breathing became rapid. Even Malcolm's eyebrows jumped. He was moved.

One billion!

He had worked hard for so long. He didn't have a billion dollars in savings. However, as long as Ryan said one word, he could get the billion!

At this moment, Ryan in his mind became even greater.

As for the other fighters, they couldn't imagine that amount of money. They might have to work hard for ten generations to earn that much.

Ryan smiled. "Raven, you're dying. Do you think I'll believe your trick? Besides, a billion is just a small amount to me. Do you think you can really seduce me? If you promise me ten billion, I can consider letting you go."

Hearing this, Raven also understood that Ryan could not let him go. He was just playing with him. For a moment, his expression changed uneasily.

Then, while he was lowering his head, he found a breakthrough around him. Then, without warning, he suddenly jumped and began to run in another direction, intending to jump out of the window and escape!

His sudden outburst scared Malcolm and the others. It was completely out of their expectations that Raven, who had been injured so badly, had such explosive power. He was faster than an athlete!

And the two strong men standing in front of the window were easily pushed away by him. They were like little kids who couldn't resist at all.

This scene was too unexpected for them. The two fighters who had just expressed their dissatisfaction with Ryan, especially, were completely dumbfounded.

Seeing that Raven was about to run out and jump out of the window, a man moved.

It was Ryan. He was as quiet as a virgin and moved like a rabbit. Ryan took three or four steps forward and reached behind Raven. Then he grabbed Raven's neck and pinched it hard. With a crack, Raven's spine was twisted and dislocated. He screamed miserably and became paralyzed. He was caught by Ryan's hand and could only walk back slowly.

Seeing this scene, everyone in the house was filled with shock.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 257 -

For a moment, the room became very quiet, leaving only Raven's moan and the sound of Ryan dragging Raven over. Malcolm and the others were stupefied by Ryan.

They had just seen how explosive Raven was. He was not as weak as the injured. He was stronger than anyone else here.

Raven's power was beyond their imagination. Just now, Raven was about to jump out of the window, when Ryan stepped forward and caught Raven easily.

They thought Raven was the Monkey King who made a big fuss in the heavenly palace, while Ryan was Buddha who easily pressed Monkey King down the Buddha Mountain.

Ryan carried Raven back to his original position. Ryan put Raven down and said to Malcolm, "Okay, you guys go out. I'll talk to him alone."

Malcolm took his eyes away from Ryan, but could not hide his shock. He nodded hard. Unconsciously, Malcolm became more respectful towards Ryan!

It was reasonable. Ryan was the chairman of the ZQ Media and the master of Master Chou. He became so rich and powerful at such a young age! Malcolm had lived in this cruel society for so long and had seen various people, but it was the first time he had seen someone as astonishing as Ryan. In Malcolm's mind, Ryan was no different from an immortal.

It was also at this moment that Malcolm completely surrendered to Ryan and had no intention of resisting at all.

So when he heard Ryan's order, he left in a hurry.

After coming out of the room, Malcolm closed the door and lapsed into long silences before hearing the sound of swallowing saliva.

"Boss, who on earth is the chairman? Why? Why is he so powerful?" One of the thugs who had been unconvinced of Ryan asked carefully. Then he looked at the room nervously, afraid that Ryan would hear him.

Others also shared the same doubt, who were all looking at Malcolm curiously and anxiously.

Malcolm grimaced and coughed for warning, "Why do you ask so much? He's the supreme among the big shots. Is it proper for mortals like you to inquire about him?"

They felt very aggrieved after being scolded by Malcolm.

After a pause, Malcolm added, "Of course, since you are eager to know, I can tell you. But you mustn't tell anyone else.

Remember?"

"We promise!"

“Don’t worry, boss. We won’t tell anyone!”

“I won’t tell anyone...”

Everyone nodded, like chickens pecking at rice.

Malcolm raised their curiosity and began to say, “He is the chairman of the ZQ Media and the master behind the secret controller of H City, Master Chou. He is also a highly skilled martial artist! Such a person can be called an immortal. You mustn’t talk about him behind his back in the future. Once heard, even the god can’t save you!”

Hearing Malcolm’s words, all of them gasped and their heads went numb.

They were all gangsters, and they didn’t understand what the chairman of the ZQ Media meant, but they knew about Master Chou!

Advertisement

Master Chou was the underground emperor of H City, the supreme being in their circle, and it was not too much to call him god.

But even people like Master Chou were Ryan’s servants? Jesus, they couldn’t even imagine how powerful Ryan was.

When they were talking about Ryan, Ryan had already begun to interrogate Raven.

“Now tell me everything you know. If what you said please me, I can let you go.” Ryan said.

Raven lay on the wall. His spine had been broken by Ryan, so now he could not move at all even if he had the intention to run away. Besides, Ryan kicked him so hard that he was seriously injured that it was impossible for him to escape. And now that Ryan was watching him, which made it even more difficult to flee.

“So, are you still unwilling to tell me? It seems that you’re really not afraid of death. Well, I can invite you to experience some punishment tools which can loosen your muscles.” As he spoke, Ryan was about to torture Raven.

Raven sensed Ryan’s murderous aura and knew Ryan was not joking. Being frightened, Raven quickly said, “I’m just a nobody in the organization. I don’t know that many things. It’s useless for you to ask me.”

“Then tell me everything you know. You know what I want to know. I don’t have much patience.” Ryan sat in front of him and said.

Raven was thinking about whether to say it or not, with his eyes rolling quickly.

Ryan got impatient and started torturing him. He broke one of Raven's fingers. The nerves of the fingertips were linked with the heart. The intense pain made Raven unable to breathe, and his will was instantly broken.

"I said, I said, I said! Please don't step on my fingers again!" He quickly begged for mercy.

Ryan let him go. "Spit it out. It's your last chance."

Raven looked at Ryan for a few seconds and then said, "Ryan, you are not like the Saintess at all. Saintess is so kind. How could she give birth to... Ah! It hurts. Sorry, I'm wrong!"

"One more word of nonsense. I'll kill you." Ryan said coldly, impatient.

Raven sweated heavily and gasped, "Your mother, Luna, is the Saintess of our organization. She was to marry the Saint King in the future. But once she went out on a mission and fell in love with an ordinary person. It was your father, Romain. Later, Saintess was missing. She left the organization and gave birth to you, which made the organization furious and mobilized a lot of people to find Saintess. After searching for many years, they finally found her four years ago."

"They found out that Romain has passed away, but the kid of Saintess is a smear to the organization. The organization can't accept this kind of thing. It was Saintess who managed to save you alive."

"Not long after that, Saintess returned to the organization, but she was imprisoned and could not leave the organization and that place for the rest of her life."

Ryan fell silent after hearing this. What Raven told him was almost the same as what Chou had said. This indicated that the truth of the matter was probably what they said.

"What does your organization do and where is it?" Ryan asked.

Raven was stunned for a moment, then realized something. He shook his head and asked, "Do you want to find the organization to save Saintess?"

Ryan acquiesced.

"I advise you to get rid of this idea as soon as possible. You don't know how powerful the organization is. You can't provoke it at all." Raven said with disdain on his face.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 258 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

He showed a strong sense of disdain. It was the disdain from his bones. He thought that Ryan's resistance against the organization was like crushing a stone with an egg.

He had seen Chou showed the same expression as Ryan. He thought that Ryan overestimated himself, and was trying to kill himself by fighting against the organization. He suggested that Ryan give up his innocent idea.

Ryan was a stubborn person. The man's reaction inspired his thought of challenge! "According to you, your organization is very powerful. If I make trouble with you, I will die?" Ryan asked.

Raven said, "Almost the same. You don't know our organization, so it's normal that you don't know how powerful our organization is. After all, the power of our organization is completely beyond the imagination of ordinary people. You may think you're the chairman of the ZQ Media now and you have billions of dollars in wealth and your martial arts are strong, then you're almost invincible in the world. Stupid! But for the sake of being the mere son of Saintess, I'd advise you to give up the idea of fighting against the organization, or you'll die without a burial ground."

When Raven said this, he was apart and above when Ryan first met him. He looked at Ryan with contempt.

Ryan did not say anything, but just stepped on it. In an instant, Raven felt painful and he began to beg for mercy again.

"Cut the crap. Tell me where your organization is, tell me what your organization does, and where my mother is locked up. I'll let you go." Ryan said.

When Raven heard the last sentence, his pupils shrank, and asked tentatively, "As long as I tell you, are you really willing to let me go?"

Without waiting for Ryan to respond, Raven shook his head again. He looked afraid and muttered, "No, no, no. If the organization finds out, I will be finished!"

And he shivered, which showed that his fear of the organization came from his soul. "Say it!" Ryan stepped down again and threatened him.

After Raven hesitated for a while, he gritted his teeth and made a difficult decision, "Actually, I don't know where the headquarters of the organization is. I'm just a nobody in the organization. I have no access to the key information."

Seeing Ryan's grim expression, Raven's heart skipped a beat. He was scared, and quickly explained, "I'm serious. I definitely didn't lie to you! I'm really just a nobody in the organization. I don't know where the headquarters is. But I can tell you what the organization does."

"Say it." Ryan said quietly.

Raven cleared his mind and added, "The work of organization covers a wide range of fields and our people hide in all walks of life. You are almost unable to imagine how powerful and huge our organization is. Moreover, the organization's power is not only at home, but also in many Asian countries... Ryan, I know you are very good at martial arts, but I still advise you to give up the idea of fighting against the organization as soon as possible. Otherwise, your fate will be very miserable."

"Besides, I can tell you that you can survive in this world only because your mother, the Saintess who had pleaded for you. But it doesn't mean that you will be safe in the future. The stronger and more high-profile you are, the easier it will be to get the attention of the organization. Once you exceed the tolerance of the organization, you will be wiped out. So, if you want to live a peaceful life, you should keep a low profile and just think about how to be a good chairman without thinking about looking for the Saintess. Besides, I have a GPS system in my body. Someone in the organization already knows that I'm here to find you. If you really kill me, then the organization will definitely avenge me and kill you directly."

Raven looked at Ryan sincerely. He was really thinking about Ryan.

If it was an ordinary person, he would have been fooled by Raven. But Ryan had experienced so many things, and he was a very smart person. How could he be fooled so easily? He said, "Raven, at this juncture, you are still lying to me and trying to threaten me."

Raven's eyes flickered a little and shook his head, "Ryan, you are too suspicious. I've already said the truth. You don't believe me yet."

Ryan said, "You just don't feel threatened until the knife is beside your neck. Do you think you can trick me at this time? You come here by yourself. You don't have any GPS system, and no one else in the organization can know where you are. Because you didn't care about me from the beginning, you just wanted to play the cat-and-mouse game with me. So if I kill you now, your organization won't know."

Hearing this, Raven's body trembled violently, and for the first time, a frightened expression appeared on his face. It was obvious that Ryan was right!

"What, there's nothing else to say?" Ryan wore an indifferent smile.

Raven almost broke down and he begged for mercy, "Son of the Saintess, please let me go, for the sake of so many organizational secrets I've told you!"

"You haven't told me many secrets, have you? You haven't told me where the Saintess is imprisoned." Ryan said.

Raven said with a bitter face, "I really don't know. The status of the Saintess in the organization is noble. How can a cipher like me be qualified to know? But I really didn't lie to you. You can't be too high-profile. Otherwise, the organization will really trouble you. Once the organization takes action, you will definitely be unable to resist."

Ryan believed this. After all, his existence was a stain and a shameful thing for the LT Organization. If he became extremely powerful, the LT Organization would definitely make trouble for him.

But, so what? When had he ever been afraid of anything?

He wasn't afraid that the organization would trouble him. Even if the organization wouldn't trouble him, he would trouble LT Organization in the future! After all, his grandfather died because of LT Organization, and his mother was imprisoned because of the LT Organization. It was very likely that the death of his father, Romain, was also related to this LT Organization!

Next, Ryan asked Raven a lot of questions about the LT Organization. He had a deeper understanding of this organization and his mother Anna.

Her mother, Anna, was the Saintess of the LT Organization. She had been trained and kept her virginity since she was a child.

When she grew up, what she should do was to marry the Saint King of the LT Organization and become the Saintess. But she fell in love with an ordinary man, Romain, and she disappeared and hid herself by constantly changing her identities for many years, which made the LT Organization very angry. In the end, she was found, and almost the entire the Howards was implicated!

Ryan was what the LT Organization could not bear most. He shouldn't have been alive in this world. It was his mother, Luna, who finally used her freedom in exchange for his survival.

"Mom, don't worry, I will definitely save you! Wait for me!" Ryan clenched his fists with a terrifying light in his eyes, and swore in his heart.

After squeezing out Raven's value, Ryan was ready to cripple Raven and let him go. At this moment, the locked door was suddenly kicked open violently. A figure walked in quickly. When that man saw the situation in the room, his eyes flashed with coldness. He came to Raven and clapped his hand, killing Raven.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 259 -

From breaking the door to slapping Raven to death, it took only two seconds, which was so fast. It would be difficult for ordinary people to react.

Even if it was Ryan, he did not realize what happened at that moment. It was not that he was not swift, but that he was stunned to see that the person who broke the door was Master Chou. When he came back to his senses, Master Chou had already slapped Raven to death.

“Chou!” Ryan’s eyes widened and he grabbed Master Chou’s collar. “What are you doing?” Master Chou let Ryan grab him and said, “If you don’t kill him, you’ll be killed.” Hearing this, Ryan was not that angry.

Master Chou continued, “This man is Raven, one of the peripheral members of the LT Organization. His martial arts are great. Young Master, since you can take him down, your martial arts have already been better than his. If miss Saintess can see the scene, she will be very pleased. However, with your current strength, young master, it will still difficult for you to fight the LT Organization and save miss.”

Before Master Chou continuing, Ryan already knew what Master Chou meant. He just killed Raven so he couldn’t tell the LT Organization.

“But you shouldn’t have killed him.” Ryan let go of Master Chou, sighed, and looked at Raven, who was lying on the ground, dead. Some regret flashed through his eyes.

Advertisement

Master Chou also looked at Raven on the ground and said, “Being merciful to the enemy means being cruel to yourself. Once you let Raven go, he will definitely report it to the LT Organization, and you couldn’t afford the consequence.”

Ryan knew this. He also knew that Master Chou was doing this for his own good. He did not blame Master Chou. But he didn’t want others to die.

“Young Master, you’re too kind. Your character is really similar to the lady’s.” Master Chou looked at Ryan and said.

Ryan smiled and said, “Haha, you and Raven have the opposite opinion of me. He said that I am not like Saintess at all. He said I am cruel but Saintess is kind.”

Advertisement

Master Chou smiled, shook his head and said, “That’s because Raven doesn’t know you well.”

While Ryan and Master Chou were chatting inside, Malcolm and the others were shivering outside.

Just now, Master Chou suddenly appeared with a large group of people. He walked in with a gloomy face without saying a word. He had scared them out of their wits!

Master Chou was so famous in H City that he was the real underground ‘emperor’. Even big brothers of the gangsters like Malcolm should be humble in front of Master Chou, let alone others.

After Master Chou rushed in, they were all controlled by Master Chou's men like chickens. They were helpless, and even Malcolm was not spared.

Gulp!

Someone swallowed his saliva heavily and asked timidly, "Mr. Edwards, what is Master Chou doing here? We don't seem to have offended Master Chou, do we?"

The others looked at Malcolm in fear.

Malcolm knew Master Chou's relationship with Ryan, so he was not worried. He said angrily, "Do you think Master Chou would be so polite to you if you really offended him? He would have already thrown you into the sea. Don't worry. Master Chou is Mr. Howard's man. He's here for Mr. Howard."

Advertisement

"Is Master Chou really Mr. Howard's man? Mr. Howard is so awesome! And he is so young but very powerful. Amazing."

"You're not talking nonsense. Didn't you see how awesome Mr. Howard was just now? He's like a god. Otherwise, how would Mr. Edwards follow Mr. Howard?"

"Since Mr. Howard is so powerful and we have his support, we can do everything we like in H City!"

"That's right. From today on, Mr. Howard is my father. No, he's more important than my father!"

They all discussed excitedly, looking forward to the future.

Malcolm's smile could not be concealed. He deliberately put on a straight face and pretended to be serious. He said, "Mr. Howard is high up. There are countless people who want to follow him. How can nobodies like you be his men?"

After hearing that, they were very disappointed.

Malcolm coughed again and said, "Of course, as long as you follow me, I will not treat you badly in the future. I will recommend you to Mr. Howard if you perform well. As long as you become Mr. Howard's men, you won't have to worry about your future."

Malcolm's words excited them again.

Just then, when they saw Master Chou and Ryan coming out of the room, they immediately stopped talking and quickly made a respectful gesture to welcome Master Chou and Ryan.

Ryan wanted to say hello to Malcolm, but as soon as he walked over, his phone rang. He took it out and saw that it was Phoebe. He had to answer the phone. "Hello, Phoebe, what's the matter?"

When others saw him making a phone call, they all shut their mouths, not daring to make a sound for fear of disturbing him. Phoebe's voice came from the phone. "Ryan, where are you? Can you pick me up?"

"Okay, where are you? I'll pick you up now." Ryan asked.

Phoebe gave him the address, where was not far from Ryan. It would only take about ten minutes to get there.

However, on the phone, he heard that the background was quite noisy, and there seemed to be a lot of people. He could clearly hear a man's voice.

Phoebe was talking in a strange tone. It seemed that she was in trouble and could not get rid of it.

Ryan asked, "Phoebe, what happened to you? Are you okay?"

Phoebe said, "Nothing. Just come to pick me up."

"Okay, I'll be right there."

Ryan was just about to hang up the phone when he heard Phoebe's voice again. "Well, if it's convenient for you, can you drive a car over?"

"Oh, okay, I'll be right there." Ryan nodded, agreed, and then said to Master Chou, "Chow, I'm going to pick someone up. I'll leave this to you."

Master Chou nodded and said, "Okay." "Lend me your car." Ryan said.

Master Chou signaled his men. The man immediately bent over and handed a key to Bentley keys to Ryan with respect. He said, "Mr. Howard, this car is the latest Bentley. Do you need me to drive you?"

Ryan took the key and said faintly, "No need."

Malcolm and the others had been waiting for Ryan to say hello to them. But Ryan didn't even look at them, which disappointed them greatly. They didn't dare to complain at all, but regretted that they didn't do well and missed the opportunity to curry favor with Ryan!

As Ryan drove the Bentley to the address Phoebe told him, Phoebe was in trouble...

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 260 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

It had been a long time since Phoebe had encountered such an awkward thing, and she didn't want to stay here for even one second.

She was especially regretful now. If she had known it was such a party, she would not have agreed to come. She had been deceived this time.

Looking at the women hanging off their arms off men and their sleazy behaviors, Phoebe could not help but blush. She had never felt so uneasy before!

She was forced to come here by an important client. She had thought she was here to have a meal and meet other bosses, but she didn't expect it to be such a party! If she had known this, she wouldn't have come over at all.

This client was a shareholder of a decoration company and had a good relationship with SK Lighting. She was close to Phoebe.

She was quite virtuous and quiet. Phoebe never expected that she would be so different in her private life. She actually cheated on her husband! Her children were about to go to junior high school, but she was hooking up and flirting with other men. If she hadn't seen it with her own eyes, Phoebe wouldn't have believed it!

"Hey, Phoebe, where have you been? When did you come here?"

Advertisement

Just after Phoebe hung up the call with Ryan, a voice came from behind her, and a hand was wrapped around her waist and someone blew in her ear. It was the important client who brought her here.

All of a sudden, Phoebe's muscles tensed up, and goosebumps appeared on her ear. "Sandra, don't talk in my ear. I'm especially ticklish." Phoebe quickly moved away and said awkwardly.

Sandra was a woman in her forties. Her shape was not so nice now and she started to gain weight. When she saw Phoebe so young, with a nice shape, and so beautiful, her eyes unconsciously showed envy and jealousy. "Phoebe, twenty years ago, I also had a nice figure. I was beautiful and young, just like you are now. Unfortunately, time takes its toll."

When Phoebe heard this, she had no choice but to laugh dryly and say, "Sandra, you are very young now. You keep a good figure."

Advertisement

When Sandra heard Phoebe's compliment, she looked happy. She waved her hand and said, "Let's not talk about this. Let's go and play. Tonight's party is very rare. Many handsome men have come. They can't move their eyes when they see you, especially that Colin. He's one of the shareholders of Forever Properties. He's young, rich, and handsome. He's very famous in our circle and very popular. Many sluts want to hook up with him."

As Sandra said, she pointed to a man in the hall. He was dressed in a white suit, his hair was meticulously combed, and he was handsome. He was tall and straight and stood out.

Phoebe had to admit that this man was very charming to women, but he was not attractive to her.

"Sandra, I'm married." Phoebe said.

Sandra sneered and said indifferently, "That's nothing. Many of our sisters coming here for fun are married. Most of them have children. Some even have grandchildren. We are rich. If the money we earned was not spent on having fun, life would be boring.

Besides, who said that only men can have fun in such places? Sister, I brought you into this circle because I think that you are a good person. Don't let me down."

Hearing Sandra's words, Phoebe was shocked. She regretted that she had come here with this woman in the first place!

If it was someone else that said this, Phoebe would have left. But this person was Sandra, a big client of the company, and she couldn't offend her, so she said patiently, "Sandra, I'm not suitable for this kind of place, so I'd better get going."

Sandra pretended to be unhappy and said, "Sister, you're embarrassing me! I've been taking care of your company's business a lot lately."

Phoebe quickly explained, "Sandra, you misunderstood. That's not what I meant. It's that I can't drink. I would be drunk after one glass. And it's getting late. My husband asked me to go back..."

"If you can't drink, then don't drink so much. Reject your husband. Besides, your husband is a good-for-nothing. Why should you care about his feelings? Have fun here. Trust me, this is your first time, so you don't like this place. After you enjoy the service here once, you'll know how fun this place could be. I promise you'll thank you."

As she spoke, Sandra took Phoebe's hand and walked towards the crowded place.

There were probably hundreds of people in this banquet hall. All of them were rich people in the upper class, but the scene was very sleazy. If Phoebe hadn't seen it with her own eyes, she wouldn't have believed this would happen.

Phoebe was the most beautiful woman in the room. She had the best figure. Besides, she was a newcomer, so after she appeared, she attracted the attention of all the men. They looked at her eagerly and passionately. This made Phoebe feel really uncomfortable and anxious. She didn't want to stay here!

But Sandra held her tightly and refused to let her leave.

"Oh, Sandra, I really need to go..." Phoebe said in a pleading tone.

Unfortunately, Sandra was already drunk and high. She had been like this before, so she knew that Phoebe was shy for the first time. Then she would lose her inhibition soon. She had been enjoying herself very much these years.

"I would like to introduce a new member, Phoebe, the new chairman of SK Lighting. It's her first time here. So guys, be gentle with my sister." Sandra said with a laugh.

The men's eyes lit up when they heard that it was Phoebe's first time to come here and that she was a chairman.

Colin's eyes were filled with eagerness. He stared at Phoebe without concealing his intense interest in her. He smiled slightly as a hunter smiled at his prey.

Being stared at by so many people, Phoebe was especially uneasy and panicked. She quickly said to Sandra, "Sandra, I really have to go. I have called my husband. He is coming soon."

Sandra's face immediately darkened and she said angrily, "Phoebe, what do you mean? I was kind enough to bring you in. You kept saying you were leaving and even calling your husband. Are you playing with me?"

"No, no, that's not what I meant!" Phoebe hurriedly explained. "Sandra, why would I do that? It's just that I can't fit in. I can't do anything wrong to my husband, so I really have to go. My husband will be here soon. If he sees this, he will be very angry."

However, when the men present heard her words, their eyes became brighter. They were more interested in those women who were happily married. They felt more sense of fulfillment after conquering such women. Plus, Phoebe was so young and beautiful! She was exactly what they liked.

Colin gulped down the wine in his goblet, then strode over and said to Phoebe, "Hello, Miss Scott. I'm Colin of Forever Properties. Since you are the chairman of SK Lighting, I believe we will have many opportunities to cooperate in the future."
