

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 271 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Kaylie was wearing a fashionable dress today, which was stylish but elegant, perfectly setting off her figure and temperament.

She was one of the three beauties in H City. She was so beautiful that she was the center of attention wherever she went. Now, she held Ryan's arm intimately and cleaved to him. She even kissed Ryan on the face, which made all the men around envious and jealous. Ryan suddenly became a public enemy.

Especially Tristan, who was standing opposite him, his face immediately darkened, extremely ghastly, and the corners of his mouth could not help but twitch.

He was introduced to Kaylie by a friend in the name of a blind date. He didn't like it at first. After all, he was a successful man, a financial elite. Back then, he was admitted to a famous university as the number one student in gaokao.

Before he graduated, many big famous companies went to school to recruit him. In the end, he chose a large advertising company. After a few years of hard work, he made a big name in this circle. Many people had to greet him respectfully.

Especially when he returned to his hometown, his neighbors, relatives, and friends would come over to curry favor with him.

Recently, he was poached by a newly opened advertising company in H City. They offered an annual salary of 30 million dollars and promised him the position of general manager. His future was promising!

Now the new advertising company was about to open, and as soon as it started, he would take office.

Because of this, he was full of confidence in his future. After five more years, he could make a name for himself in the business world. Maybe he could compete with Elliot of the ZQ Media!

Since he was such an excellent man, what kind of woman couldn't be gotten? So at first, when his friend told him to introduce him to a girl, he didn't take it seriously. When he really met Kaylie, he was amazed that Kaylie was much prettier than in the photo, and he immediately fell in love.

Advertisement

Later, he realized that Kaylie was the daughter of the Knights, and his desire to pursue Kaylie became even stronger! So when they had a meal, he tried his best to please Kaylie. Unfortunately, Kaylie didn't show him much passion. He thought that Kaylie was pretending to be distant and playing hard-to-get. After all, he was also a handsome and excellent man. As long as Kaylie was not a lesbian, it was impossible for her not to fall for him.

So when Kaylie told him that she had a boyfriend in the middle, he didn't believe it at all, but he never expected this to happen!

Ryan was caught inadvertently by Kaylie and she even kissed him on the face. His heart thumped and he secretly complained, 'Damn, this girl used me as a shield again. She was too naughty.' He thought.

Now that he saw Tristan's murderous expression, he knew that it wouldn't work even if he explained, so he could only sigh helplessly in his heart and acquiesce in Kaylie's behavior.

Tristan had not suffered such humiliation like this for a long time. He was so angry that he snorted heavily and questioned the woman next to him, "Elsa, didn't you tell me she was single? What's going on now? Are you fooling me?"

Tristan was very angry and his expression was ghastly. His anger gave people huge pressure.

The woman named Elsa was Tristan's former subordinate. Now that she saw Tristan lose his temper, she was scared. She quickly explained and said, "President, how dare I fool you? No one dares. Kaylie is really single."

"Her boyfriend is here. How dare you lie to me now?" Tristan was furious. He was superior, an absolute social elite, and he was considered as one in a million everywhere he went, but now he was tricked like this! This was unacceptable to an arrogant man like him.

When Ryan saw this, he immediately figured out the whole story and couldn't help but have a headache.

Elsa saw that Tristan was really angry, and she was badly nervous. She said to Kaylie, "Kaylie, what are you doing? Why are you joking with the president? You've always been single. Where did you get a boyfriend?"

Kaylie hugged Ryan's arm tightly and did not hesitate to touch Ryan with her chest. She looked up with a sweet face and said, "Are you kidding me? This is my boyfriend. His name is Ryan. He's very nice to me. We're all ready to get married."

Hearing this, Ryan almost choked on his saliva and coughed. He had to explain. Otherwise, if Phoebe heard, he would be doomed. "Well..."

But as soon as he opened his mouth, Kaylie pinched him hard and whispered in his ear, "Help me this time, or I'll tell your wife that you made a pass at me."

Kaylie was half a head shorter than him, and now she stood up and whisper in his ear. It was so close that her breath sprayed into his ear. It was itchy and made his desire run like a horse. He got goosebumps.

Ever since he had s*x with Phoebe last night, he knew how happy to make love, and it was even harder to resist the temptation.

Now that Kaylie was so close to him, it would be embarrassing if he could not control himself and did something impolite.

So he had to obey Kaylie and cooperate with her.

After figuring this out, Ryan no longer ran away and took the initiative to offer his hand to Tristan and said, "Hello, I'm Ryan, Kaylie's boyfriend."

Tristan did not show any kindness to Ryan's being nice at all. Instead, disdain and contempt were revealed on his face. He said to Elsa, "Elsa, I'm not satisfied with the dinner tonight. You're fired. Find another way out for yourself!"

When Elsa heard this, she immediately became anxious and pulled Tristan to plead for an explanation. She was so flustered that tears were about to flow out. But Tristan still ignored her, including the others who stepped forward to say nice words for her. Tristan did not give anyone face. It was obvious that Tristan was really angry.

Kaylie frowned at this scene and said to Elsa, "Elsa, you don't have to beg him. He's too stingy to work for him? I told him I have a boyfriend long ago and I'm not interested in him. He still felt good about himself and thought I was playing hard to get. Elsa, I believe you can find a better boss. You're extraordinary. You don't have to be afraid?"

When Tristan heard this, his face became even terrible. He laughed in anger and said, "Well, well, since that's the case, there's nothing we can talk about. You guys wait and see! I'll remember what happened today! Elsa, I want to see if you can find another way out and see who else in the circle dare to hire you."

Tristan's words were a threat.

Elsa was already very flustered, and now that she heard his words, she was even more flustered and completely out of her wits.

She could easily tell Tristan's implication that he wanted to use his power to end her career!

She had always been a subordinate of Tristan and knew very well how powerful Tristan was. Once Tristan did this, her career would definitely be doomed. No one would offend Tristan for her.

Her expenses were very huge every month. The mortgage, the car loan, her parents' and children's expenses would cost tens of thousands a month. If Tristan really did this to her, she would have to die.

"President! Please! This is a misunderstanding. It's definitely a misunderstanding. You know me. If I knew that Kaylie had a boyfriend, how could I introduce her to you? I didn't know either." Elsa was so anxious that she was about to cry.

Tristan saw that Elsa was in such a panic and begged him and his expression looked much better and his vanity was greatly satisfied. On the surface, he said with a straight face, "You don't have to say this! You know very well how busy I am. I came here to meet your friend for your sake. In the end, I was humiliated like this by you guys. Do you really think I am a pushover?!"

Seeing that Tristan refused to forgive her, Elsa was completely desperate and couldn't help crying.

Ryan frowned unhappily when he saw this. This Tristan was too narrow-minded. He couldn't bear to see that a woman was embarrassed because of this kind of unimportant thing. He stood up and said, "Hey, Tristan. You go too far for doing this."

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 272 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Originally, Ryan didn't want to talk to him. He didn't want to lower himself to argue with an ordinary like Tristan, but Tristan was so narrow-minded that he wouldn't let go of a small matter and even bullied Kaylie's friends and made her cry.

His words made Tristan raise his eyebrows and show a disdainful expression, and said with a half-smile, "Too much? Who are you? She is my subordinate. I can scold her as I want. Does it have anything to do with you?"

Tristan looked down on Ryan from the bottom of his heart. As an elite, Tristan had met a lot of big bosses and was insightful enough to see a big shot if he met one.

Ryan in front of him was just an ordinary person. He couldn't be a big shot. Any ordinary person was an ant in his eyes. He could trample on him and humiliate him at will!

But he was also very jealous of Ryan. Such a lowly, incapable person was Kaylie's boyfriend. He actually got what he was not worthy of! He seriously suspected that there was something wrong with Kaylie's brain. She was so pretty and from a distinguished family, so she should have chosen an elite like him, but she ended up with Ryan. She must be insane.

The two reasons made him especially unhappy with Ryan.

When Kaylie heard Tristan scold Ryan, she was furious and scolded him. "Hey, Tristan, mind your language. We didn't offend you!"

Tristan thought that Kaylie was starting to be afraid, and the smile on his lips broadened.

Ever since he became rich, he had been surrounded by beautiful women and even slept some not-so-famous female stars, but he had never slept such beauty as Kaylie, and he rarely saw such one as pretty as she was.

At first, he thought that Kaylie was single, and he was very confident that he could win Kaylie's heart. He was very excited, but then he found out that Kaylie actually had a boyfriend. Seeing a top-class beauty like Kaylie being intimate with the man with his own eyes made him mad. Otherwise, he wouldn't be off and have made things difficult for Elsa in public, which would sully his reputation.

"Kaylie, I admire you very much. As the miss of the Knights, you are willing to be with a poor boy. You usually give him money, tight?" Tristan sneered, and then said to Ryan, "You have hands and feet, but you actually choose to be a gold digger. You abandoned your dignity for money. Shame on you."

There were still a lot of people around. Hearing Tristan's words, they looked at Kaylie and Ryan in strange eyes, showing they actually believed what Tristan said.

They did that for a reason. Kaylie looked like a rich girl of a rich family judged by her outfit and temperament. But Ryan was wearing ordinary clothes and looked like a poor man. Some people would believe that he was a delivery guy.

But these two people so different were actually in a relationship. Any normal people would think that Ryan was the male gold digger.

When Kaylie heard this, her face immediately changed. She hurriedly looked at Ryan, afraid that he would be angry and would not contact her anymore. Fortunately, Ryan was very calm and indifferent.

She heaved a sigh of relief and immediately felt a little resentful. She felt that Ryan was too cold and didn't care about her at all. Ryan felt the change of her emotions, and he didn't know what she was thinking.

It was not that Ryan was indifferent. He didn't think there was a reason for him to be angry because he knew he was not a gold digger. In his eyes, Tristan was just a nobody.

Tristan couldn't see through him, but he saw through Tristan. Kaylie said anxiously, "He is not a gold digger! Open your eyes wide. His name is Ryan, the chairman of ZQ Media in H City! He is worth more than six billion, many times more powerful than you! You are just a nobody in front of him!"

Advertisement

Then, Kaylie couldn't wait to say to Elsa, "Elsa, you don't have to be afraid. My boyfriend is the chairman of ZQ Media. He has a great reputation in the circle. As long as he is around, Tristan can't ban you at all. I'll ask my boyfriend to let you work at ZQ Media."

The chairman of ZQ Media? This guy wearing clothes worth a few hundred was a chairman? When the people heard Kaylie's words, they couldn't help but be shocked and looked at Ryan.

Elsa was also stunned. She had known ZQ Media. It was a very famous media company in the whole country. It had a lot of stars. It was a powerful company with a market value of billions. It was also a big enterprise that she looked up to!

The chairman of ZQ was a legendary person. To the middle-class white-collar workers like them, he was undoubtedly mysterious and high in status. In recent months, she had heard more than a hundred discussions about the chairman of ZQ.

She didn't even dare to think about what such a giant was like, but now Kaylie actually told her that the young man in front of her, who looked common and wore clothes that worth only several hundred, was the famous chairman of ZQ?

She felt that either Kaylie was joking with her, or she was nuts! Kaylie was so excited to see Ryan partly because she knew that Ryan was the chairman of ZQ Media, a super big shot. As long as Tristan knew about his identity, he would definitely shrink back and not dare to pester her again.

Now that she saw the stunned look of Elsa and the others, she was especially pleased and said to Elsa, "Elsa, are you scared? Ryan is the chairman of ZQ Media. His one small move can cause an earthquake in the business circle of H City. So you don't have to be afraid. A nobody like Tristan can't do anything to you at all."

Elsa came back to her senses and looked at Ryan. Then she looked back at Kaylie and reached out her hand to touch Kaylie's forehead. "Kaylie, are you sick?"

Kaylie slapped Elsa's hand away and said angrily, "You're sick. I'm telling you the truth. My boyfriend is really the chairman of ZQ. If you don't believe me, ask him yourself."

Ryan looked at Kaylie who was trying to intimidate others with his real identity and felt his head ached.

At this moment, someone laughed. “Hahaha... This is hilarious. He is the chairman of ZQ Media? You have the audacity to pretend to be such a big shot. Do you think everyone is an idiot?”

Tristan laughed as if he had heard a big joke. He laughed so hard that tears were about to flow out.

When the people around them heard this, they couldn't help but laugh. They felt that Kaylie and Ryan were shameless if not crazy.

Everyone present knew the chairman of ZQ Media was an absolute big boss, a business tycoon, whose every move would affect the H City. Would such a big shot appear in such a place without bodyguards, assistants, and even wore such cheap clothes?

The most ridiculous thing was that, as the big boss of ZQ Media, he actually let others ridicule him? Would he be so cowardly?

Elsa also shook her head, thinking that because Kaylie was crazy, she said such ridiculous things.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 273 -

The text "The Vengeful Son-in-law" is displayed in a bold, black, sans-serif font. It is centered within a bright yellow, irregular, hand-drawn style shape that resembles a splash or a cloud. The background of the entire page is white, and the text is framed by a thin black border.

“What are you laughing at? Ryan is really the chairman of ZQ Media!” Kaylie was so angry that she said with arms akimbo and a pout. She looked so cute.

Elsa looked at Kaylie sympathetically and sighed, “Kaylie, have you suffered any emotional shock recently? I know your family has put a lot of pressure on you, but you have to take care of yourself.”

Kaylie said anxiously, “Elsa, listen to me. Ryan is really the chairman of ZQ Media. If you don’t believe me, you can find the photos online.”

Elsa was not the only one who thought Kaylie was mentally ill. Others also thought so. It was a pity that such a beautiful woman had a mental problem.

Elsa said bitterly, “Kaylie, it’s my fault. I shouldn’t have asked you out for dinner. You’ve been staying at home for too long. Alas! Kaylie, I know a psychiatrist who is quite good. Why don’t I take you to that doctor today?”

Elsa thought that Kaylie was mentally ill and needed to see a psychiatrist.

Several other friends who were having dinner with them said the same, and their eyes were filled with sympathy when they looked at Kaylie. As for Ryan, they ignored him directly. They never believed that Ryan would be the chairman of the ZQ Media.

It was as ridiculous as someone randomly pointing at a beggar on the street, saying that the beggar was a god.

Kaylie had never been so aggrieved. She was telling the truth, but no one believed her. Instead, they thought she was mentally ill, which made her so anxious.

“Ryan, say something! They don’t believe you’re the chairman of ZQ Media.” Kaylie held Ryan’s arm and said anxiously. It was so uncomfortable to be misunderstood!

Advertisement

Ryan smiled bitterly and said, “Does it matter if they believe it or not?” “Yes!” Kaylie nodded hard, “They’re looking down on you. Don’t you want to embarrass them?”

“What’s the point of embarrassing them?” Ryan said with a smile, “They are just nobodies. What difference does it make to me whether they believe it or not? The most important thing is to be calm, not pleased by external gains, not saddened by personal losses.”

Ryan explained his philosophy of life. He had gone through so much, so he was more and more indifferent to what others thought and said about him. He only had to live his life the way he wanted. Thus, He didn't care about the misunderstanding and contempt of Elsa, Tristan and others.

Unfortunately, when others heard his words, they took them as signs of cowardice, especially Tristan. He smiled even more sarcastically and wantonly, "Hahaha, I have widened my horizon today. How can you be so shameless? You are obviously a poor guy, but you pretend to be very sophisticated. If you are really so awesome, prove to us that you are the chairman of ZQ Media. I think you are the one who cleans the toilets for the ZQ Media. Haha!"

Others laughed when they heard Tristan's words, and the air was filled with joy for a moment.

Kaylie was so angry that she trembled and wanted to hit Tristan in the face! Ryan didn't want to lower himself to the same level as Tristan. He said to Kaylie, "Let's go."

Kaylie couldn't understand why Ryan could be so calm. Wasn't he angry at all? Ryan was the chairman of ZQ Media, and he was able to embarrass Tristan. She still remembered very clearly how powerful Ryan was at the engagement party that night, holding the whole audience in awe and making Martin and Rory beg for mercy. Why did he become so timid now? This was not Ryan's character at all!

Although Kaylie was so upset, she could only grin and bear it and leave with Ryan because Ryan didn't want to argue with them.

However, when Tristan saw that Ryan was so timid, he became even more determined that Ryan was a kept man. He decided to take advantage of the victory and continued to insult Ryan. He took a step forward, stopped Ryan, looked up and said loudly, "Why? You want to leave after offending us?"

Ryan was a little unhappy now. He frowned slightly and said, "What do you want?"

Advertisement

Tristan looked like a winner and stared at Ryan with disdain and contempt. At this moment, he thought he was the absolute king, and Ryan was just his plaything.

"The chairman of ZQ Media is my good friend. You dare to impersonate him and slander his reputation. As his good friend, I must uphold justice for my good friend." Tristan said loudly.

His words immediately made many people exclaim, and they looked at him with more fervor and adoration.

"Wow, President Tristan is too awesome. He even knows the chairman of ZQ Media! He is an absolute big shot."

“He’s so awesome that even the chairman of ZQ Media is his good friend. Then he must be a boss too. No wonder he can blacklist others.”

“He looks so young. He has boundless prospects.”

Hearing the exclamations of the people around him, Tristan smiled more happily and he felt more complacent. In fact, he had never met the chairman of ZQ Media, let alone be his good friend. However, if he didn’t say it, who would know it? Besides, he was about to change his job to the new advertising company opened by the chairman of ZQ Media. With his ability, it would be easy to get the appreciation from the chairman of ZQ Media.

Now he was very confident and looked at Kaylie with a proud look. He wanted to tell Kaylie that giving up on him would be the worst decision of her life!

Kaylie was so angry at Tristan’s shamelessness and she went completely crazy. She couldn’t understand why there was such a shameless person in this world! He wasn’t guilty at all when he lied. Ryan, the chairman of ZQ Media, was right in front of him, but he still dared to lie. He was really a shameless bastard!

Ryan’s expression also became strange and he asked Tristan, “Are you sure you and the chairman of ZQ Media are good friends?”

“Of course!” Tristan looked very confident and said rudely, “You are so reckless. How dare you impersonate the chairman of ZQ Media? Let’s cut the crap. Kneel down and apologize to me, and I will help you beg the chairman for your pardon. Otherwise, if he knows it, he will torture you to death.”

Everyone looked at Ryan gloatingly, thinking that Ryan was getting into trouble. As an adult, it was absolutely embarrassing to kneel down and apologize in public.

Besides, now the Internet was so developed, and everyone had a cell phone. If anyone took photos and posted them on the Internet, Ryan would be notorious.

Tristan also thought of this. He was very happy and looked at Kaylie with even more joy and pride.

At this moment, Ryan suddenly laughed, “I’ve seen a lot of people who act recklessly, but I’ve never met anyone as stupid as you.

Originally, I didn’t want to lower myself to the same level as you. Even if you talked wildly, I didn’t take it to heart. Now you want me to kneel down and apologize to you? Okay, in that case, I’ll fulfill your wish.”

When they heard Ryan’s words, they were a little confused. On one hand, he appeared to be very domineering. On the other hand, he said he would satisfy Tristan. Was he suffering from schizophrenia?

Only Kaylie clenched her fists in excitement when saw the expression on Ryan's face. She knew that Ryan was going to teach Tristan a lesson!

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 274 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

For some reason, when Tristan saw Ryan's expression, he suddenly felt a little scared. Immediately, he shook his head and threw the fear out. He cursed himself for being too cautious and even afraid of Ryan.

"Hmph, how dare you to be arrogant, you dead man? Do you really think I can't do anything about you?" Tristan snorted heavily and pointed at Ryan with a malicious expression. He said, "Your name is Ryan, right? I know you now. If you don't kneel down to apologize today, I have thousands of ways to make you suffer in H Country! If you don't believe me, you can try."

Elsa said to Kaylie worriedly, "Kaylie, you'd better let your friend kneel down and apologize. The president is very powerful in H Country. If he wants to end your friend, he really can."

Kaylie said indifferently, "Elsa, don't worry. The person who should kneel down is not my friend, but this guy."

Elsa saw at this time, Kaylie could still say this. She shook her head and did not say anything more. She thought that Kaylie and Ryan must be doomed. She quickly walked aside and wanted to keep her distance, afraid that they would get her into trouble.

"I don't have much patience. I'll count to three. If you haven't knelt yet, don't blame me for being rude!" Tristan's eyes widened, and a powerful aura emanated from him. His arrogant aura made many people feel scared, especially Elsa and other old subordinates.

Advertisement

"One..." "Two..." He began to count, and Ryan looked at him like he was a clown.

Finally, on the count of three, Ryan still did nothing. Tristan's face became even more malicious now. He cursed at him for refusing to accept the easy way. Then he walked up and decided to personally hit Ryan.

It could be said that he had learned Muay Thai from his movements. He must have practiced kungfu, and two or three ordinary people were not his match. Ryan was still motionless. When Tristan moved, Ryan fought back casually and easily caught a punch from Tristan. "I didn't know you practiced Muay Thai, but you are too weak."

Advertisement

Tristan didn't expect to be easily grabbed by Ryan with his full punch. His face suddenly changed and he snorted, "Why you're so bold. It turned out that you've practiced kungfu before. I..."

Before he could finish his sentence, he could not hold back a scream. Ryan exerted more strength, grabbed Tristan's fist, and pressed it down. His strength was completely beyond Tristan's limit so that Tristan knelt down on the ground and looked extremely embarrassed.

Even a blind person could tell that Tristan and Ryan were not at the same level at all. It happened too fast. Before many people could realize what happened, Tristan was already kneeling in front of Ryan.

Elsa opened her mouth wide, her face full of horror and fear. Her face turned pale and she wailed in despair, "It's over. The president will definitely not let me go!"

She was right. Ryan was Kaylie's boyfriend, and Kaylie was invited by her. Now Tristan was not only humiliated but he was forced to kneel down. He must want to kill her!

All she could feel was that her world was dark and her future ruined. She knew very well Tristan's influence in this circle. As long as Tristan ordered, she really couldn't survive.

At this moment, she not only regretted it but also began to blame Kaylie. If it weren't for Kaylie's boyfriend, she would still have a bright future!

Kaylie saw Ryan could make Tristan kneel down easily. She was so happy and joyful that she couldn't help but applaud.

Tristan was about to explode. It was a great shame for a noble man like him to kneel in front of a poor loser!

Advertisement

"Damn you, I'm going to kill you... Ah!" Before Tristan could finish scolding, Ryan began to exert his strength, so Tristan began to scream again, and his body was trembling with pain.

Now he really wanted to kill Ryan, this lowly man. Ryan dared to fight back and made him kneel down! This was a huge humiliation to him, an unprecedented offense.

He swore that he would take revenge and kill Ryan, definitely!

"You're dead. I swear, you're dead!" Tristan let out an earth-shattering roar. The whole floor was startled and many people came over to watch.

Ryan shook his head and said disdainfully, "How dare you yell at me? In that case, you won't know who I am until I teach you a lesson."

Ryan made a heftier move. He kept twisting Tristan's wrist back, creating a huge arc, as if it was about to break at any time, and Tristan's body turned to a strange position.

The intense pain finally destroyed Tristan's will and quickly begged for mercy. "Pain, pain, pain... Let go, please let go, my arm is about to break..."

Ryan did not let go and stared at him condescendingly, "Now that you know the pain, do you dare to be arrogant?"

"No, please." Tristan begged for mercy, but there was still some coldness and hatred in his eyes, and he wanted to seek revenge on Ryan.

How could Ryan not see through? It was just that he didn't bother to get tangled with this trash.

So he let go of Tristan and scolded faintly, "Fuck off."

Tristan quickly got up from the ground. His face was already ferocious with anger. He shouted, "You want to leave? No way! Who will stop this beast for me? I'll give him 100 thousand dollars!"

There must be brave followers under the heavy money. Tristan's words immediately stimulated a lot of people. They began to surround Ryan and not let Ryan and Kaylie go.

Tristan smiled grimly, then took out his phone and began to call for someone here to help him.

When Ryan saw his crazy look, his expression gradually calmed down. He was in a good mood because he came over for the celebration dinner of the new company tonight. He didn't want to waste his time on Tristan, but Tristan didn't know to surrender. Since that was the case, then he didn't have to show any mercy.

His generosity did not mean that he had no temper. Tristan's behaviors had already crossed his bottom line and he had to be punished.

But he didn't do anything or make any calls. He wanted to see who this Tristan could ask for help.

After Tristan hung up the phone, his face was full of excitement and hatred. He pointed at Ryan and scolded coldly, "Bastard, you are dying! I've already called people from ZQ Media. You idiot, how dare you pretend to be the chairman of ZQ Media? I'll watch your death personally this time!"

Hearing this, Ryan's face showed a strange expression again. This Tristan actually called someone from ZQ Media? Ryan simply asked, "From the ZQ Media? Is Elliot that fat man?"

Tristan pointed at Ryan and said, "You are doomed. How dare you scold Elliot for being fat? You must die this time! Wait, Mr. Murphy will be here soon!"

Mr. Murphy?

Ryan frowned slightly and thought about who was surnamed Murphy in the top management of the ZQ Media. After a while, he recalled who was him...

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 275 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

When Tristan saw that Ryan could still smile, he kept sneering in his heart, thinking that Ryan was a lunatic!

He called Mr. Murphy on the phone just now and told him what had happened in an exaggerated way. Mr. Murphy flew into a rage immediately and agreed to come as fast as he could.

Mr. Murphy was an executive of the ZQ Media. He was worth hundreds of millions dollars and had a high prestige in the industry.

He was one of Tristan's seniors. It was Mr. Murphy's credit that Tristan could work in the advertising company that the chairman of the ZQ Media newly set up. Mr. Murphy recommended him to Elliot.

Mr. Murphy was about to arrive. With Mr. Murphy's temper and power, Tristan didn't believe that Mr. Murphy would let this bastard Howard off!

Tristan knew Mr. Murphy's power very well, and he was nothing compared with Mr. Murphy. Moreover, on the phone just now, he specifically told Mr. Murphy that Ryan was a master of martial arts, intending to tell Mr. Murphy bring more people with him. Tristan believed that as long as Mr. Murphy was there, Ryan would be a dead man!

The only thing he needed to do now was to keep an eye on Ryan, not let him escape and stall him until Mr. Murphy came.

Advertisement

However, the current situation was that Ryan didn't try to run away and still wore a confident smile! Tristan really couldn't figure out why Ryan was so confident. Was it because he knew a little kungfu? Come on, this was the 21st century, the era of hot weapons. Besides, it was a society ruled by law. No matter how good a fighter he was, he couldn't be very powerful. This society valued power and status.

In Tristan's eyes, Ryan was already a dead man.

Elsa was quite soft-hearted and worried about Kaylie when she saw this situation. Nonetheless, she didn't dare to go talk to Kaylie. She gave Kaylie a hint with the eyes, telling Kaylie to run quickly. Otherwise, when the executive of the ZQ Media came, she wouldn't be able to run away even if she wanted to!

Elsa and Kaylie had been friends for years. Elsa knew that Kaylie was the rich young lady of the Knights and had a powerful background. However, the Knights was nothing compared with ZQ Media. Once the chairman of ZQ Media got angry, Kaylie, the daughter of the Knights, would not be spared!

Advertisement

Unfortunately, what made her anxious was that Kaylie didn't listen to her. Instead, she still stood there, and even chatted with Ryan. Elsa was really speechless!

Now she really suspected that Kaylie was crazy now. Otherwise, with her understanding of Kaylie, she would not be so stupid! Elsa was very anxious, but there was nothing she could do. Now she really didn't dare to offend Tristan.

"Ryan, who is Mr. Murphy? Have I seen him before?" Kaylie asked with a smile, not worried at all.

After all, she knew Ryan's real identity. If Tristan called the police, she would be a little worried. However, Tristan called an executive of ZQ Media, so she wasn't worried at all. The most powerful person in ZQ Media was right in front of her. She was more and more eager to see Tristan's expression when Mr. Murphy arrived.

As for Elsa and others, they didn't believe what she said, and the truth would come out when the executive from the ZQ Media came!

Just the thought of the scene thrilled her.

Ryan also wore an intriguing smile on his face and said, "You probably haven't seen him before. He's just one of executives."

"Then he should know you, right?" Thinking of this, Kaylie asked nervously. If the person who came was just a nobody in the company and was not qualified to know Ryan, it would be a little troublesome.

Fortunately, Ryan's words reassured her. Ryan said, "Yes."

Kaylie breathed a sigh of relief and smiled brightly again, "That's good!"

When Tristan saw that Ryan and Kaylie were still laughing and talking at this juncture, he was so angry that he gritted his teeth. It was obvious that Ryan didn't take him seriously at all!

He thought to himself that when Mr. Murphy came, he must teach Ryan a lesson.

Finally, after a few minutes, while everyone was waiting with great expectations, a large group of people came in. At the front of them was Mr. Murphy, a commanding figure with a square face.

Mr. Murphy was followed by a dozen people. Half of them were bodyguards and the other half were people from ZQ Media.

Mr. Murphy was a subordinate of Elliot, and his position in the ZQ Media was quite high, owning no more than one percent of the shares. Nonetheless, this was enough to make him find his feet in the field.

When he received Tristan's phone call, he was especially angry. He happened to be having dinner nearby. When he knew about this, he immediately called some people to come over.

He was a loyal supporter of the chairman of ZQ Media. Ever since Ryan bought the ZQ Media, his wealth had been increasing every day. Unconsciously, he treated Ryan not only as simple as his boss, but also admired Ryan. He would not allow anyone to impersonate the chairman of ZQ Media or to destroy the reputation of the chairman!

Tristan was overjoyed when he saw Mr. Murphy coming over with so many people. He waved hard and quickly greeted Mr. Murphy.

When he passed by Ryan, he even made a gesture of killing. He revealed a cruel and grim smile, and threatened, "You're a dead man. Mr. Murphy is already here. Go to hell!"

Ryan remained calm. He sat there and enjoyed a cup of tea in a relaxed manner.

Kaylie really admired Ryan when she saw that he could still maintain such a calm posture under the gaze of so many people. Her eyes sparkled as she looked at Ryan.

She couldn't help but walk behind Ryan and massaged Ryan's neck obediently. Tristan was very excited. He trotted to Mr. Murphy and greeted him respectfully, "Mr. Murphy, that's great. You're finally here!"

Mr. Murphy was a burly, middle-aged man with a square face. His beard and hair were very thick, and he looked ferocious. He had an aura of authority, which far surpassed Tristan.

He nodded and said in a low voice, "You said someone was impersonating the chairman of ZQ Media here? What's going on?"

Seeing Mr. Murphy's angry look, Tristan was even more excited. He said loudly, "Yes, Mr. Murphy. The reckless bastard, dares to pretend to be the chairman of ZQ Media, making everyone angry and ruining the reputation of the chairman! After being exposed by me, he still didn't repent of what he had done and even hit me. It's absurd and lawless!"

Mr. Murphy was very angry when he heard this. He looked in the direction of Tristan's fingers and saw Ryan sitting in a chair with a faint smile on his face. Ryan greeted Mr. Murphy, "Soren, why do you bring so many people here? Are you going to teach me a lesson?"

When Mr. Murphy saw Ryan's face clearly, he was stunned. When he heard Ryan's words, he immediately became frightened and his legs trembled. "C-Chairman, ugh? You..."

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 276 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Soren swore that he never expected that the person who Tristan said was pretending to be the chairman was the chairman himself!

Now that he saw the indifferent smile on Ryan's face, his scalp began to tingle! Who was the person Soren was most afraid of now? It must be Ryan!

At his age, he had rich life experiences, and he was accustomed to the ups and downs in the business world. Besides, he was quite self-confident, and would not easily fear others, but when he faced Ryan, he would really feel fear and awe from the bottom of his heart.

To be honest, when the first time he saw Ryan, knowing that the new chairman was so young, he actually didn't take it seriously.

Soren thought Ryan was just an innocent young man born with a silver spoon and was arranged to work here by his wealthy parents. So Soren didn't take Ryan seriously in his heart.

However, through deep contacts, Soren was gradually convinced by Ryan. Not only did he not look at him with contempt, but he was also in awe. Especially once seeing Ryan lose his temper, Soren was completely scared by Ryan.

People around could tell that Soren was a big shot, an extremely important person. They saw Soren bring so many people over, assuming that Ryan would be in trouble. Now they were all waiting to see Ryan's joke.

But they never expected that Soren, who had a fierce expression, would react like this when he arrived. He trembled in front of Ryan and his face turned pale with fear!

Moreover, they heard correctly that Soren called Ryan “chairman”.
Tristan was the most confused and numb person in the room!

Now even if he was a fool, he could realize that Ryan was not a poor boy, but the real chairman of ZQ Inc.

At this moment, Tristan’s hands and feet became cold. He was extremely scared, feeling like falling into an ice cave.

The four words, “chairman of ZQ Inc”, meant the man with the supreme power. He didn’t dare to offend the chairman.

Now Tristan only felt as if his world had collapsed, and it was dark in front of him, and he was filled with despair.

“He, he, he is really the chairman of ZQ Inc?” Elsa was stunned as if she saw the ghost. Her mouth was so big that she could stuff her own fist.

Not only she, but also the others reacted in the same way. They were all shocked.

Only Kaylie was not surprised. She was so excited that her face turned red. She tried her best to massage Ryan’s shoulder. The bright smile on her face could not be concealed.

Ryan said jokingly, “Soren, how powerful you are. You brought so many people to teach me a lesson. Do you want to replace me?”

Ryan’s eyes widened as he finished speaking. A powerful aura burst out from him and oppressed Soren. Soren immediately collapsed. He knelt down and begged for mercy, “Please forgive me, chairman! Please! I didn’t know it was you. If I knew it was you, I wouldn’t dare to offend you! It’s all because of this bastard, Tristan. He lied to me. He said that someone was impersonating our chairman outside. So I brought these people here to protect your reputation. I don’t mean to offend you! Please forgive me...”

Soren knelt down...

This scene stimulated Tristan more!

In his eyes, Soren was a very important person in the circle, because he had connections, resources, and property, which made Tristan want to curry favor with Soren. But such a person actually knelt down in front of Ryan! Tristan started to faint. He could not imagine how powerful Ryan was, and he could make Soren do this. Tristan only realized that this time he really got into big trouble.

Ryan didn't expect Soren to kneel down. Soren was a big character at least, and he didn't offend Ryan directly. No matter what, Soren needn't kneel down and beg for mercy. This was because Ryan underestimated his deterrence to Soren. In the company, everyone was afraid of Ryan.

Ryan was not an unreasonable person either. He naturally knew that Soren was innocent and that the person should be blamed on was Tristan.

"Okay, get up." Ryan waved his hand and said. Then he looked at Tristan and said, "Is he your friend? I don't want to see him again. I'll leave this matter to you. If its not settled, you needn't come to work in ZQ Inc in the future."

Soren breathed a sigh of relief, nodded quickly like a chicken pecking rice and said, "Mm-hmm! I understand. I promise Tristan would be unable to survive in the circle in the future!"

Then Soren went over and slapped Tristan hard. "You blind dog, you dare to provoke our chairman. I think you're looking for your death! As long as I work here for one day, you'll never be able to work in this industry!"

Tristan was frightened and hurriedly apologized and asked for pardon. He knew Soren's words meant that he was thrown to hell from heaven, which was absolutely unacceptable to him.

Soren refused to talk to him. Tristan immediately knelt down in front of Ryan and begged Ryan to spare his life, with tears and snot.

Ryan kicked him away and didn't want to show any sympathy to such a person. There were so many people around him, but no one sympathized with him. Everyone saw how arrogant and aggressive he was just now.

After settling this matter, Ryan did not stay here. He did not want to be a monkey surrounded by tourists, so he left the hotel with Kaylie and the others.

"What's wrong? Why do you keep looking at me? Is there something on my face?"

Ryan touched his face and said. On the way leaving the hotel, Kaylie kept staring at Ryan. Her eyes were fixed on him, making him feel creepy.

Kaylie's eyes were full of fervor, and she didn't conceal her admiration and love for Ryan.

"Ryan, you were super handsome. I'm so proud that you are the man I personally chose!" Kaylie came over and took Ryan's arm.

Her eyes narrowed into a crescent moon. Her happiness could be felt by people far away.

Ryan was hugged by her again and felt the temptation of her. He could not help but breathe a little faster. He coughed quickly and said, "Miss Knight, its not appropriate for a man and a woman to touch each other casually. I don't think it's proper for you to hug me like this."

Kaylie blinked and said, "What's wrong? We're already engaged." Ryan was startled and said quickly, "Miss Knight! When did I get engaged to you? Don't talk nonsense!"

Seeing Ryan's agitated look, Kaylie curled her lips and said, "Just joking. Why are you so scared? Besides, is it unsatisfying for you to get engaged to me?"

"You can't joke about this!" Ryan rolled his eyes and said angrily, "I'm married. I'm a married man. You're a single girl, so you should keep your distance from me, okay?"

Kaylie turned her eyes and suddenly said something shocking.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 277 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

"So what if you are married? I can be your secret lover." Kaylie blushed and looked down at her toes.

Ryan was dumbfounded by her words. "You, you, what did you say?!"

Kaylie was also shocked by her own words. Her face was burning red. She quickly shook her head and said, "Nothing, nothing, it's just a joke."

Ryan was overwhelmed and said angrily, "Do you think you're still a child? You are more than twenty years old. Don't you know what to say and what not to say? If your parents hear you, they will be pissed."

Kaylie didn't take it seriously and muttered in a low voice, "Like hell they would. They all want me to throw myself into your arms as soon as possible."

She said this in a low voice. Just as Elsa and the others caught up, Ryan did not hear her and asked doubtfully, "What did you just say?"

Kaylie shook her head and said, "Nothing."

She didn't lie. Ever since the Knights found out that Ryan was the chairman of ZQ Inc and the Young Master of Master Chou that night, the whole of the Knights had been thinking that Kaylie should hook up with Ryan, even if they knew that Ryan had married.

They just couldn't help it. Ryan's status was too high. If the Knights could get acquainted with Ryan, then the Knights would be prosperous directly.

At this moment, Elsa and the others followed up and stopped a few meters away, not daring to move forward. Their faces were full of fear, awe, excitement, and admiration.

In their eyes, Ryan was a high and mighty God, someone that could only be looked up to. They wanted to curry favor but did not dare to. They were afraid that Ryan would be angry and get themselves into trouble.

Kaylie waved at them and said, "Elsa, why are you standing there? Come here."

Only then did Elsa dare to come over. Even so, she was still very uneasy. She tiptoed and walked with unprecedented caution, afraid that she would provoke Ryan with one wrong move.

"Kaylie, I'm sorry about what happened just now. I didn't know your boyfriend was the chairman. I'm really sorry. Can you forgive me?" Elsa said nervously. She stole a glance at Ryan and immediately retracted her gaze. She looked very timid and afraid.

The others were the same, making Ryan quite helpless. Did he look that scary?

Kaylie waved her hand and said indifferently, "Look at you, so scared. Don't be so nervous. We're good friends. It's not your fault today. You didn't mean it. The only hateful person is that guy Tristan. Now he had already got his punishment."

Elsa relaxed a little. Immediately, she looked at Ryan anxiously and said with great humility, "Chairman, I didn't mean to offend you just now... I apologize to you. I hope you can forgive me."

Ryan waved his hand and said, "No need, I'm not that petty."

Then, Ryan said to the few people who didn't dare to come over, "Relax. I can tell right from wrong. What happened just now had nothing to do with you. I won't make things difficult for you."

Only then did they slowly relax and look at each other, then try to walk over and observe Ryan closely.

Ryan laughed in his heart when he saw how scared they were. Did he look that scary?

It was getting late at this point, and Ryan showed a little impatience. They didn't dare to stay any longer, so they all wisely found some excuses to leave.

"It's getting late. You should go back and rest too." The two of them were left alone, and Ryan said to Kaylie.

"It's only ten o'clock. It's still early. Why don't you come over to my house?" Kaylie blinked and said.

Ryan shook his head and said, "I'll have to pass that. I still have to go back and report to my wife."

Kaylie's eyes flashed with gloom. She bit her lips and said, "Are you afraid of your wife?" "It's not fear but respect. Forget it, you've never been married before." Ryan said.

Kaylie wanted to refute, but Ryan didn't give her the chance. He stopped a taxi by the side of the road and left. She was so angry that she stomped her feet hard. Then, she snapped her fingers. A few bodyguards immediately came out of the street and picked her up.

When Ryan returned home, Phoebe was already at home. When she got closer, Phoebe sniffed hard and smelled the perfume coming from Ryan. Her expression changed slightly.

As a woman, she was also very sensitive to the fragrance of women. Naturally, she could smell it. It was a very expensive woman's perfume.

Ryan secretly complained that it was not good. He was careless. Because he had made such a mistake before, Ryan was very nervous. Just as he wanted to explain, Phoebe said first, "Don't worry. I believe you."

Ryan was rendered speechless.

Since Phoebe had already said so, he would make himself look guilty if he still tried to explain.

It was strange that Phoebe knew that Ryan was with another woman tonight, but there was not much negative emotion in her heart. Instead, she felt a little inexplicable relief.

After a long time of reflection, she realized that it was because Ryan was too outstanding. After knowing Ryan's identity, she had developed a sense of inferiority in her heart. She thought that she was just an ordinary woman and did not have the fortune to occupy Ryan. And she knew that a man as outstanding as Ryan would definitely be favored by many women. Which successful man only had one woman in his life? This was unrealistic. Especially after she became the chairman of the SK Lighting, she had seen a lot of big bosses and understood this even more.

So she had already been mentally prepared about Ryan having other women. As long as Ryan still had a place in his heart for her, she would be satisfied.

Next, Ryan spent most of his time on the new company and then increased his investment, planning to make the company successful within three years.

On this day, the opening ceremony of the new company was grand. As the biggest boss, he was going to cut the ribbon on the spot. There were many media and reporters, and all the major TV stations broadcast it live. It was a very grand scene.

However, Ryan was a very low-key person. He was not interested in such ceremonies. So he handed the ribbon-cutting task to Elliot and Malcolm, and he quietly assumed the responsibility as the boss behind.

After the establishment of the new company, it wasn't that a big deal to the ordinary people, but to the people in the upper class, their reverence for chairman ZQ Inc deepened because everyone in the circle knew that the real boss of this advertising company with a registered capital of two billion was the chairman of ZQ Inc. Elliot and Malcolm were just shareholders.

In addition, Ryan had recently done a lot of deterrent things in the public, so slowly in the circle, there was a saying, "Rather provoke the king of hell than Mr. Howard."

Ryan set aside two billion dollars to set up a new company. Not only did he have less money, but he had more. His balance had already exceeded sixty billion dollars, and it was all cash flow! This was an incredible thing. Even many bosses of the big companies in the country might not have so much cash in their hands.

With Ryan holding the money, he would naturally not be so stupid as to keep it in the bank. He would want to continue to invest and expand his strength.

At the same time, in a mysterious place in H Country.

Somewhere in the depths of the forest, a village with about ten square kilometers was actually built, and the village's equipment was extremely advanced. It looked very calm on the surface. In fact, there were many high-tech weapons hidden inside. Whoever dared to break in without permission would certainly be killed.

Halfway up the mountain in the village, there was a house made of bamboo and wood. Inside lived a woman, elegant and noble, with a hint of sadness between her brows. Judging by her temperament, she was already fifty years old, but her skin was well maintained. Besides some crow's feet at the corner of her eyes, at first glance, anyone would think that she was a young woman in her thirties.

She lived in the house and was embroidering a picture of a young man.

If Ryan was here, he could tell that this young man looked exactly like him four years ago!

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 278 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

The woman gazed at the person on the embroidery with deep feeling, her eyes full of tenderness and hope, which could melt everything in the world.

“Ryan, how are you doing now? Do you already know about me? I’m sorry about what I did to you and the Howards...”

The woman’s eyes were filled with tears, and there was a worried and heartbreaking look on her face.

Two tears dripped on the embroidery, wetting the forehead of young man upon it.

At this moment, a red figure appeared silently behind the woman, moving gently and softly, afraid of waking the woman up.

The woman sensed the arrival of the red figure. She wiped her tears, looked up, smiled and said, “Sunny, you’re here. Have a chat with me.”

Sunny was a girl in her twenties. She was very beautiful, like a fairy walking out of a painting. In terms of beauty, she was slightly better than Phoebe and Kaylie!

Sunny was dressed in Hanfu, the traditional dress of Chinese people. She looked like a rich young lady of ancient times.

However, she was more valiant than graceful. She would not make people think that she was thoroughly accomplished in lyre- playing, chess, calligraphy and painting. Instead, she was like a heroine in movies.

She sat down beside the woman. When she saw that the woman had cried, her eyes flashed with sorrow and anger, “Auntie, why are you crying again? Crying all the time makes you get old easily.”

The woman smiled gently and said, “Sunny, I haven’t seen you for a long time. Where have you been? You haven’t come to see me for so long. Do you not care about me anymore?” Sunny quickly shook her head and said, “This is impossible. Auntie, you saved my life! I will never forget your great kindness! ”

“All right, you little girl. Auntie is just joking with you. Look how scared you are.” The woman said jokingly, then continued to work on the embroidery.

Sunny also turned to look at the embroidery in the woman’s hand. When she looked at Ryan’s appearance in the embroidery, a strong feeling of pity flashed in her eyes. She held the woman’s hand and said softly, “Auntie, you’ve started embroidering Ryan again.”

The woman smiled and did not answer. There was a smile in the corner of her eyes, as if there was endless warmth and kindness. The world was a little warmer because of her.

After a while, Sunny said, "Auntie, I went to see Ryan. He's doing well now. He inherits Anderson's legacy, and is now the chairman of the ZQ Media. In addition, he has set up a new advertisement... Auntie, are you okay?"

When the woman heard Sunny's words, she was suddenly in an anxious state of mind. Therefore, her hand trembled, and she pricked her finger on a needle. A drop of blood fell on the embroidery.

Nonetheless, she didn't feel any pain at all. There was a demented expression on her face. When she came back to her senses, she quickly grabbed Sunny's hand and said excitedly, "Sunny, have you really met Ryan?! How is he now? Is he okay? Has he lost weight or gained weight? Does he... remember me?"

The woman's voice trailed off and her eyes reddened as she spoke the last few words. Endless sadness, yearning, and regret appeared on her face...

Sunny quickly grabbed the woman's injured hand and put it into her mouth to suck, then said, "Auntie, don't worry. Ryan is doing well now! He must remember you. During this time, I went to H City to see Ryan. He has grown up and is no longer the child who needs your protection."

This woman was Anna, Ryan's biological mother, and the Saintess of the LT Organization.

Of course, she was no longer the Saintess anymore. She had been stripped of the identity of the Saintess since she left the LT

Organization and married Romain, an ordinary person. Now she was caught back under house arrest in the LT Organization. In a sense, she was just a prisoner.

"Really? Is Ryan okay now?" Anna looked at Sunny expectantly and anxiously.

Sunny nodded hard and said, "Yes, he's doing very well! Auntie, Ryan is really your son. He is so outstanding. Although he has not been trained by our organization, he became very strong now. He almost found me out."

"That's good. That's good." Anna finally relaxed and smiled again. There was endless tenderness and hope in her eyes. It was as if Ryan was all she had. As long as Ryan was happy, she would be happy.

Sunny took the embroidery from Anna, looked carefully at Ryan's appearance on it, and said, "Auntie, your embroidery skills are so good that the person you embroider looks just like Ryan. Nonetheless, Ryan's character has changed a lot. He's not as ostentatious as he used to be. Ryan is quite reserved and calm now."

"Calm?" When Anna heard this, she was slightly stunned, as if it was difficult for her to connect calm with Ryan.

As his biological mother, Anna had watched Ryan grow up. She knew her son's character very well. He was a flamboyant and outgoing child. Even after Ryan became an adult, he was still flamboyant.

Ryan had been very smart since he was a child and learned everything very quickly. In addition, he was born in the Howards, so he grew up in the spotlight, leading to his flamboyant personality. Thus, when Anna heard that Ryan was reserved and calm, she couldn't believe it.

Thinking of something, Anna immediately said, "In the four years I disappeared, has Ryan experienced any unforeseen events?!"

Anna reacted quickly and immediately realized this. She knew Ryan too well. If Ryan had not experienced a great change, his character would not have changed so much.

Sunny lowered her head, nodded gently, and said, "Over the past four years, brother Ryan did go through a difficult time..."

Then, Sunny told Anna about Ryan being expelled from the Howards and then being a live-in son-in-law of the Scotts.

With Sunny's ability, since she could find Ryan, it was not difficult for her to investigate what Ryan had been through for four years.

After hearing this, Anna began to cry. She said regretfully and sadly, "My poor Ryan. You have suffered in the past few years!"

Sunny felt bad when she saw Anna like this. She quickly held Anna's hand and smiled, "Auntie, brother Ryan is very popular now.

Those hardships he went through over the past four years are good for him! He is rich and powerful now, and he has a family. He is very happy now. You don't have to worry about him."

Anna sighed faintly and said, "It's good that he's happy... Alas, it's all my fault. I'm not a good mother, making him suffer so much."

Sunny was silent for a while and said, "Auntie, I also found out something. Brother Ryan, he seems to have known about what happened that year and wants to come to you..."

“What?!” Anna reacted violently when she heard this and shook her head hurriedly, “No, no! He can’t come to me. Once the organization finds him, he will be doomed!”

Sunny bit her lip and said, “Auntie, don’t worry. I’ll protect him secretly in the future. I won’t let the organization find him.”

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 279 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Anna held Sunny’s hand and said, “Sunny, thank you for your hard work.”

Sunny smiled and threw herself into Anna’s arms. She looked like an obedient girl and said, “Not at all. Auntie, you saved my life. Now, you only have Brother Ryan. I will help you to protect and take good care of him.”

Anna gently stroked Sunny’s hair, and there was an infinite tenderness and kindness in her eyes. She said, “Sunny, that I brought you back in the first place was the best decision that I have made in my life.”

Sunny said, “It’s Sunny’s greatest blessing to have you by my side in this life. If it weren’t for you, I wouldn’t know the meaning of living in this world.”

“Silly girl.” Anna said with a smile.

Thinking of something, Anna added, “I heard that the organization has arranged for you to marry a handsome man. Have you met? How do you feel?”

Advertisement

Sunny immediately showed a repulsive and disgusted expression on her face and said, "I've seen him before. He's a pervert. I don't want to marry him! I won't marry anyone in my life. I'll be with you as your servant for the rest of my life. Hahahahah."

Anna gave her a knock on the forehead and said with faking anger, "You little girl, what nonsense are you talking about? A woman's life is incomplete if she doesn't marry someone. You only live once, and you should live for yourself, or else you will fail yourself, understand? Besides, I'm a healthy person, and I can live a good life myself. There's no need for you to protect me. You should find a good man to marry. It's a waste for you not to marry someone, my perfect Sunny."

Sunny blushed and said, "Auntie, even you make fun of me. You're the one who told me that a handsome face means nothing. The real soul lies in the mind."

Anna blinked and said, "Have I said so?"

Advertisement

While the two of them were chatting, a few people came from afar. When Sunny saw them, she immediately frowned, her face full of anger and hostility, and said, "It's been so many years, they still don't want to let you go. They have gone too far! I have to report to the organization immediately!"

Anna held Sunny and shook her head, "Sunny, don't act rashly. This is my fate. No one else can change it." Sunny said unwillingly, "But auntie, you've already been punished. But the Saint King still won't spare you! Besides, you've never done anything to hurt the organization! He has gone too far!"

Anna quickly covered Sunny's mouth, glared at her and said sternly, "Don't ever criticize the Saint King like that. You hear me, or don't call me your aunt!"

Sunny bit her lips tightly. How could she not know that her aunt was to protect her by scolding her? The more she did this, the sadder Sunny felt when she saw her aunt suffer.

In a short while, those people had already walked up to them. There were three men and two women, dressed in ancient clothes, tall and straight, with an extraordinary temperament, different from ordinary people.

"Anna, it's time to be punished." A handsome man among the five said coldly with an expressionless face.

Sunny immediately said angrily, "It's been four years since she suffered this. No matter what serious sin she committed, she should be spared. Why should she still be punished?"

The handsome man ignored Sunny and looked only at Anna.

When Sunny saw their rude behavior, her heart was filled with anger. Her position in the LT Organization was not low. The five people in front of her should be her inferiors and be respectful to her, but they looked so arrogant.

However, when she still wanted to say more, Anna stopped her, took a step forward and said, "Okay, I'll go with you." "Auntie..." Sunny chased after her.

Anna turned around and looked at Sunny, implying her to guard Ryan. Sunny understood. She bit her lips hard and nodded slowly.

Seeing Anna being taken away in front of her, Sunny was so unwilling, but now she had no choice. Then she looked at the embroidery cloth on the table. Ryan looked so ostentatious and so spirited on it. She muttered, "Ryan, I hope you can really grow up and lead auntie out of her misery."

Ryan began to get busy again during this period of time. As the chairman of the two companies, he had a lot of things to deal with, especially when the new advertising company was established. No matter how desperate he wanted to avoid his duty, he still had to make a lot of significant decisions.

And now that he was getting more and more close to the upper class, many people began to ask him out for dinner.

There were some necessary meals that he could not refuse.

Here was the truth, "There are pros and cons to everything in this world." If you gained somewhere, then you must lose in another place. The higher a person's position, the greater his achievements, the less freedom he owned, and the more things he had to take into account.

Now Ryan was like that. His status had risen, but there was less freedom.

Fortunately, he was good at finding talents. After he had been busy in the early necessary period, he immediately hired a professional team and assigned the task. Now he only needed to be the behind-the-scenes leader.

So after working hard for half a month, he could finally relax.

“Bang!”

With one punch, Ryan broke the sandbag and the iron sand flowed out. He shook his head and said, “These sandbags are too fragile to bear my heavy punch.”

Beside him, there were already more than a dozen sandbags that had been broken by him like this. Even those famous international heavyweight boxers would be shocked to see this scene.

Master Chou walked over and said, “Your strength has surpassed the peak that ordinary humans can reach. Naturally, these sandbags can’t bear your heavy hit.”

Ryan took a towel, wiped his sweat, and then asked, “In the LT Organization, how many people owned the strength like mine are there?”

Master Chou said with a strange expression, “Do you really want to know?”

Ryan had already known the answer from his expression. He said, “It seems that your organization is not simple. There are specialized training methods that can train so many masters.”

Master Chou said, “Of course. The leader of the LT Organization is an extraordinary person. In just a few decades, he has expanded the LT Organization on such a large scale. To some extent, he is close to becoming a god.”

Ryan asked again, “Have you seen him?”

Master Chou shook his head, and then he said, “There are very few people who have met him in the world. Young Master, this is not something you should care about. It’s too far away.”

Ryan could hear the contempt in Master Chou’s tone, and he did not respond because it was the truth. The more he came into contact with the LT Organization, the more he knew about how powerful the LT Organization was. Though he had high status and wealth, he was really far from the LT Organization.

After a while, Ryan said, “What can I do to break through the bottleneck and improve myself?”

Master Chou thought for a moment and said, “In a few days, there will be an auction in Phoenix . I heard that someone seems to auction the Purification Pill. If you can get it, it should be helpful after taking it.”

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 280 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

“Purification Pill?” Ryan was stunned and said with an odd expression, “Are you sure?”

Master Chou understood Ryan’s suspicions. He said seriously, “It’s not what you think. The Purification Pill is made by a highly skilled master who through professional means extracts the essence of various herbs, animals, and other things, and then refines it into a pill. For ordinary people, it’s poison, but for those who practice martial arts in our realm, it’s the perfect Purification Pill. It can improve the meridians, increase the capacity, enhance the strength of internal organs so that the pill taker could achieve a breakthrough.”

Then, Master Chou described the nature of the Purification Pill in detail. It turned out that the Purification Pill was an ordinary pill, not so different from western medicine. It was from the essence from plants and animals extracted through professional means.

However, the materials of the Purification Pill were rarer, and the extraction was more difficult. The most important thing was that it required a very capable master to refine this kind of Purification Pill, and he may fail by accident. Once he failed, it would waste a lot of time and money. Generally, people without talent and rich property couldn’t afford it.

As a result, Purification Pill was very expensive, and the average boss couldn’t afford it.

So that was the case. After Ryan heard it, he said, “Chou, it seems that you have a wide range of knowledge. You even know something about the Purification Pill.”

Master Chou said, "There are alchemists in the organization. Of course, I know."

Ryan was not surprised by this. Since LT Organization was so huge, it was normal to have professional alchemists.

"Then we go to this auction a few days later and see if the Purification Pill is really that amazing." Ryan said with a smile.

Then Ryan practiced with Master Chou for a long time. In the evening, he stopped and wanted to go home.

Just as he walked out of the room, his temples suddenly jumped on both sides and he felt a gaze from the direction of five o'clock. He looked back quickly but found nothing.

"That is strange. Is it because I've been so nervous these days that I am hallucinating?" Ryan frowned slightly.

His martial arts skills had improved a lot, and his sixth sense had also increased a lot, so if someone looked at him deliberately, he could feel it.

The sixth sense was very difficult to understand for ordinary people, but it was not a rare thing for a master of a certain level.

Because the sixth sense was originally an animal instinct. When rabbits and sika deer were targeted by tigers and lions, even if they did not see the predators, they would be able to sense them and escape.

Human beings should have this instinct, but because humans thought too much, they forgot this instinct. Now Ryan regained this instinct through cultivation.

Just now, he felt that someone was secretly staring at him, so he was on guard.

However, when he looked back immediately, he did not see anything, which made him quite confused. If it wasn't because he had an illusion due to nervousness, it should be because the other party was stronger than him that he couldn't tell where he was.

Then he stayed there for a long time. Looking in different directions, he did not notice the look just now. He gradually dispelled his doubts and drove home.

After he left for a minute, in a corner, a red figure came out. Looking in the direction of his car, she said to herself, "Ryan, you have made great progress. You almost caught me."

This person was Sunny. Now that she had changed into modern clothes, she looked especially fashionable and elegant. Her every move was full of women's charm, which enchanted many men passing by.

Fortunately, she was wearing sunglasses and a mask, which almost blocked her entire face. Otherwise, with her gorgeous face, it would definitely cause a sensation. Not long after, when Sunny appeared again, she was already in front of Master Chou and called out, "Chou."

Hearing her voice, Master Chou shuddered. For the first time, his calm face showed a shocked expression. He suddenly turned around and saw Sunny. His eyes widened and he called out, "Fairy Sunny, it's you!"

Sunny waved her hand and said, "Call me Master Sunny. Auntie said that we are all human beings. There is no essential difference between us."

When Chou heard this, his body shook even more. He said excitedly, "Master Sunny, did the lord ask you to come here? How is she?"

Chou asked this question with respect and expectation and there was a strong eagerness in his eyes.

If Ryan were here, he would be surprised to see Chou's expression. He had known Chou for many years but had never seen him treating a person with such enthusiasm and respect as if the person was a god.

Sunny's eyes flashed with sadness and she said, "She's fine. She just doesn't have freedom."

"That's good. That's good!" Chou nervously rubbed his hands, then asked expectantly and uneasily, "Master Sunny, did the lord have any orders?"

Sunny sat down. She crossed her legs and looked out of the window. She was in a daze and did not answer the Chou's question.

Chou did not dare to say anything, so he bent slightly and stood aside, waiting for Sunny to speak.

"Ryan's kungfu has improved very fast. I was almost discovered by him just now." Sunny said.

Chou was surprised to hear that. As a member of LT Organization, Chou knew very well the strength of Master Sunny in front of him. Her strength was unfathomable. He had no ability to fight back and could not even take a single move of her.

But Ryan almost found Master Sunny?

But soon, he let it go over his head. Ryan was no longer the little boy with average martial arts skills. Even he was no match for Ryan now.

“The young master is a martial arts prodigy. He indeed has made great progress.” Chou nodded and said.

Sunny said, “Now that he’s at a bottleneck, he has to use the Purification Pill to break it.”

Chou said admiringly, “Master Sunny, you are really observant. Now the young master is indeed at a bottleneck and needs to take Purification Pill. There will be an auction in Phoenix a few days later, and I have asked the young master to attend it.”

“The auction in Phoenix ?” When Sunny heard this, there was a meaningful look in her eyes.

“Yes, I will ask the young master to buy this Purification Pill.” Chou replied respectfully. Sunny nodded and did not continue. Instead, she said, “Don’t tell him about my existence. He still has a long way to go.”

When Chou heard this, his heart thumped. Thinking of something, he immediately widened his eyes and said excitedly, “Master Sunny, is this what the lord wants? The lord wants...”
