

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 511 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Landon was so scared that he couldn't stand still. He had never been as frightened as he was today. Ryan's words just now offended all the rich second generation present. Now it's over. It was completely over. Landon was afraid that it couldn't be solved just by chopping hands!

Now Landon was especially regretful. If he had known what would happen tonight, he wouldn't have brought Ryan here today. He thought he could help Ryan, but instead, he made Ryan stick in the mire!

He thought Ryan must have lived a life so unsatisfactory that it had led to a mental disorder, which led him to say such things.

Ryan was not overly arrogant and cocky. To him, the rich second-generation group, the so-called big shots, were just a bunch of ants. And even if their elders were present, they were still the same.

So he didn't care at all that his words would offend these second generation rich people, including Remi. He said to Remi indifferently, "The one who took advantage of your woman just now was not him, but Chase, so go find him if you want to chop off someone's hand."

When Chase was pointed at by Ryan, some panic immediately flashed across his face and he immediately retorted, "You bullshit! Ryan, you trash, wimpy son-in-law, don't even think about slandering me! Just now it was clearly Landon, this brute, who took advantage of Mr. Watson's maiden. He admitted it, and you still dare to throw dirty water on me?!"

Then he immediately said to Remi, "Mr. Watson, please do not listen to his nonsense. He's a psycho! Just now, he dared to say that we are all ants. We absolutely cannot let him walk out of here unharmed. Otherwise, how humiliating for us!"

Chase's words were so emotional that they successfully provoked a lot of people's anger. They were full of anger and murderous towards Ryan, and they made up their mind that Ryan must not be allowed to leave here easily.

At the same time, outside the crowd, when Isabella heard the word "Ryan", she was stunned. Then, she immediately stood on the chair and looked over. She saw Ryan's figure. In an instant, her eyes widened and she covered her mouth, her face full of disbelief and then full of surprise.

It was him, Ryan!

The moment Isabella saw Ryan, she felt that the world had become exciting again, and even the sight in front of her was much brighter.

Diana, who was standing by the side, was very surprised to see her standing on the chair and making such an indecent move, not Isabella's style. She asked, "Isabella, what's the matter?"

Isabella immediately said to Diana excitedly, "He's here. Look, he's here. It's great!"

Diana was full of confusion when she saw Isabella in this agitated to the point of losing her composure and asked, "Who's here?" As soon as she finished saying this, she immediately reacted. In an instant, her eyes widened, and her heart beat much faster. The few people next to them were shocked and confused when they saw their reaction.

The next moment, Isabella hurriedly got down from the chair and pulled Diana to Ryan.

On Ryan's side, he actually saw Isabella just now, but he pretended not to.

He said directly to Remi, "I don't want to bullshit with you kids. The person who just touched your woman was Chase, not him. You should go after Chase."

Remi was furious and ordered the dozen bodyguards to attack Ryan.

However, at this moment, a loud shout came from behind, "Stop it all! Who dares to disrespect my idol? I, Diana, will not spare him!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Diana walked over violently. Anyone who stood in front of her was violently pushed away by her. Several of the men were inattentive and were directly pushed by Diana and fell to the ground.

They were originally annoyed, but when they immediately saw that it was Diana, they swallowed their discontent and had to meekly put up with it. It was not that they were timid, but Diana was not a woman they could afford to mess with.

Diana's appearance was so domineering that it attracted everyone's attention, including Remi, who was stunned for a moment, then frowned and said to Diana, who was walking in front of him, "Evelyn, what do you mean?"

At this time, Diana had already walked out of the crowd. She saw Ryan and recognized him. Her heart beat faster, and her face turned red. She looked like a big fan who met her loved star.

She couldn't help it. Ryan was her idol, and she had been dreaming of meeting him for a while now.

Ryan was stunned when he saw her crazy expression. He couldn't figure out why Diana was so fanatical about him, as if she became a dog who had seen shit and her eyes were green.

Isabella, who was beside Diana, also held her own hand and looked at him closely. Her eyes were full of surprises, joy, joy, and resentment, which made him even more headache.

When Landon saw Diana, his face became even paler and he almost collapsed on the ground. He kept saying, "It's over, it's over this time..."

Chase did not expect that Diana would show up. He was stunned for a moment, then he was overjoyed. Maybe he could take this opportunity to curry favor with Diana!

If he got lucky and was able to chase down the gorgeous Isabella beside her, he would really be rich!

So, he quickly walked out and said to Diana, "Miss Foster, you came just in time. Just now, it was Landon, the beast, who molested Mr. Watson's woman! It's your banquet tonight, and his behaviour is a total embarrassment to you! Especially his accomplice, this Ryan, who just said that we were all ants, was too arrogant to take you seriously!"

Then, he immediately said to Landon and Ryan, "You two are dead!" But as soon as he finished speaking, he was kicked and fell to the ground with a plop. It was Diana who kicked him.

"Who are you to speak ill of my idol?!" Diana cursed disdainfully and angrily. Then, she made a move that surprised everyone.

She smiled obsequiously and walked up to Ryan and said, "Idol, I'm Diana. I met you at the airport last time. Do you remember?"

Her flattery was tinged with anxiety, which immediately stunned everyone present. What was going on? Diana, as the lady of the Fosters, was famous for his irritability and arrogance in the circle. Now she was actually fawning on a man?

Everyone who knew Diana, at this moment, wondered if they were hallucinating, and many were still rubbing their eyes hard.

Especially Remi, who had known Diana for seven or eight years and had never seen Diana in this humble state before. At that moment, his eyes widened and he had an expression of having seen a ghost.

As for Chase, he was now completely in doubt. A big shot like Diana was actually called Ryan idol? Was he hallucinating or was there something wrong with this world?

Not to mention them, even Ryan himself was in a daze. He was still confused and said oddly, "Idol?"

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 512 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Diana nodded and said, "Yes, idol, you are my idol!" Then, Diana even knelt down to Ryan and said loudly, "Idol, please accept me as your disciple!"

Ryan was even more confused. What the hell was Diana doing? He had met Diana when he went to the airport to pick up Amelia. At that time, Diana didn't like him and even wanted to fight against him. Why did her attitude change abruptly?

He looked at Isabella. But Isabella was face palming. Obviously, Isabella was also surprised by Diana's sudden action. And the rich second generations present were completely dumbfounded.

Landon, who was already in despair, stared blankly at this scene. He could never figure out why things were going like that. Ryan asked, "Are you out of your mind?"

If anyone else dared to ask Diana this question, Diana would have slapped them. But she wasn't angry at Ryan. Instead, she felt that Ryan was qualified to ask that because he was her idol.

She shook her head and said, "My idol, I know you're surprised, but I'm serious! My idol, I've been paying attention to you for a long while. Ever since you killed May and became famous in H City, I've determined that you are my idol! Idol, please accept me as your disciple. I will be a good disciple!"

She was going to kowtow to Ryan, but Ryan quickly stepped aside and said to Isabella, "Isabella, what's wrong with your friend?" Isabella sighed. She also seemed to feel that Diana's action made her quite embarrassed. She said, "She is a martial idiot. After she knew that you are the top martial artist in G State, she regards you as an idol and wants to be your disciple."

Diana said, "Yes, my idol, can I be your disciple? I'm very capable. As long as you accept me as your disciple, I'll do whatever you ask me to do!"

Ryan had never expected that he would encounter such a scene when he accompanied Landon to a party. He was surprised by Diana's craziness.

What happened now was completely beyond everyone's expectations, and everyone was very surprised.

Advertisement

Chase and Landon were both old acquaintances of Ryan and knew Ryan's background. They thought he was just Phoebe's useless husband who couldn't even find a job. Why did he become Diana's idol now?

At this moment, a surprised voice came from the crowd. "Oh! He's Ryan, a master of the Innate Realm, the top martial artist in G State. He had killed Peter of the North Sky Association and May the devil! And he's the chairman of the ZQ Media!"

Many people were surprised by his words. Gradually, others also realized who Ryan was. Although most of them didn't reach the Innate Realm and couldn't meet Ryan, they had heard about Ryan. And they finally realized who he was.

Remi was now looking at Ryan with eyes were full of awe and fear. His arrogance immediately disappeared.

He had heard a lot of stories about Ryan. He knew that Ryan was the top martial artist in G State. He was not only proficient in cultivation but also a rich and powerful big shot. A while ago, he donated 19.43 billion dollars at the charity conference and won the title of Charity Ambassador. He was the all-powerful man!

Even Remi's family was a nobody in front of Ryan. Ryan was right when he said they were a group of ants.

And when he thought that he had threatened Ryan and even wanted to hit Ryan, he was trembling with fear.

His identity had been recognized, so Ryan didn't bother to hide his strength. He released a part of his aura and immediately, scaring all the rich second generations present out of their wits. At that moment, it was as if the mountains had collapsed and the sky had cracked.

Chase's body was trembling wildly. He lay on the ground humbly and looked up at Ryan as if he was a god, and he himself was just an ant. Ryan could kill him effortlessly.

Advertisement

Diana sensed Ryan's aura and she felt great pressure, but she was not afraid. Instead, she became more excited. She was staring straight at Ryan with burning eyes, and her breathing quickened.

He was her idol. He was indeed a super-strong man!

Ryan snorted. And everyone seemed to have heard a thunderbolt and was almost deafened.

"Since you all know who I am, I won't hide my strength." Ryan looked straight at Remi. "Let me say it again. The person who took advantage of your woman was Chase, not my brother."

Remi nodded humbly. Now that he knew Ryan's identity, how could he refute him? And he was very quick. He understood Ryan's meaning and walked straight to Chase, then kicked Chase in the face and punched him. "Chase, you scumbag, how dared you to harass my woman and frame Mr. Howard's brother! Do you want to die? Fuck! I will beat you to death!"

Remi immediately looked at Ryan and saw the appreciation in Ryan's eyes. He breathed a sigh of relief and immediately became excited again. If he could be Ryan's friend, then he didn't need to worry about his future. He could do everything at his will in G State!

Wasn't that right? Ryan was such a powerful man and even Diana wanted to be his disciple.

The others were also getting excited and kept flattering Ryan.

Chase was beaten and kept screaming. It was only then that he finally realized that Ryan was no longer Phoebe's useless husband but had become the big shot he should admire!

If he had known this, he wouldn't have dared to disrespect Ryan. He desperately begged Ryan for mercy, but Ryan ignored him.

Then he begged Landon for mercy with a miserable voice. Landon was indeed soft-hearted, but he could do nothing since Ryan glared at him.

Seeing that the matter had been settled, Ryan did not want to stay here any longer. He was ready to leave with Landon.

Diana quickly stopped him and insisted on being his disciple, which annoyed him a little.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 513 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Ryan did not take in any apprentices, but he had no intention of taking in any. He was not even thirty years old. Many Boxing Master started to recruit students because they were in this business. Every time they received a disciple, they could earn a sum of tuition fees. They could even make a fortune if the apprentices were rich.

Or maybe some of them were getting older and their standards had fallen. In order to protect their reputation, they had to accept some talented disciples to inherit their mantle. When enemies came to challenge them, they could have powerful disciples to fight for them, so as not to end up in misery.

But Ryan didn't need it. He had hundreds of billions in his account and his strength was rising. According to his current situation, he could still maintain his peak state for at least 30 years.

Thirty years later, he would have broken through to the Immortal Realm. By then, his life form would have entered another level and could extend his peak period probably, so recruiting apprentices were unnecessary.

To him, taking in an apprentice brings much concern. For the time being, he would naturally not do such a thing.

So he rejected Diana without hesitation and left, looking free and easy.

Diana clenched her teeth and looked disappointed. Looking at Ryan's back, she snorted and said, "Idol, it doesn't matter. I will definitely let you feel my sincerity! Don't worry. I won't give up easily. One day, I will become your disciple!"

Advertisement

After what happened just now, Diana and Isabella were not in the mood to stay any longer. And after they left, the upper-class party tonight had lost its point and ended directly.

Chase ended up being the most miserable one. He was now covered in bruises and his hands were broken. He lay there like a dead dog in regret. At the same time, he couldn't figure out how Ryan, who used to be so useless, had won worship.

He was not the only one who was confused, and Landon was the same. Until he left the hotel with Ryan, he still couldn't come back to his senses for a long time. What happened just now was too magical and subversive for him, and he found it hard to believe for a long time.

"Well, can't you guys recognize me?" Ryan looked at Landon's skeptical look and found it interesting.

Landon looked at Ryan and swallowed, "Ryan, what have you been doing these years?" Ryan knew that it was hard for Landon to accept. "It's complicated. I'll talk to you later," said Ryan.

In Landon's opinion, Ryan had changed. In the past, Ryan gave the impression he was amiable and even a push-over. But now, Ryan seemed to be very easy-going on the surface, but he had the aura all around him, like to the most dignified elder in the family. No one dared to make a fuss in front of Ryan.

Next, Ryan and Landon chatted for a while and asked what Landon had done with Chase over the years.

It was unexpected that over the past few years, Landon seemed respectable but he was basically a slave to Chase. It could be said that most of the credit for Chase's success went to Landon. But Chase never showed gratitude to Landon, nor did he give a share to Landon. Instead, he kept exploiting and oppressing him.

It was also Landon's kindness to indulge Chase until tonight when Chase's actions deeply hurt him.

In the end, Ryan asked Landon meaningfully if he wanted to follow him. Landon immediately became nervous and stammered.
"Well, Ryan, I don't know anything... I'm afraid that if I delay your big business..."

Ryan burst into laughter.

Landon was stunned and wondered why Ryan was smiling so happily. Was he joking?

Finally, Ryan stopped laughing and looked at him seriously. He said earnestly, "Landon, you are a good man, kind and hardworking, but you are too insecure and afraid to trouble others. This is not going to work, you know? A man must have confidence in himself and drive ahead. To tell you the truth, my business is indeed very big. Tens of billions of business won't be delayed just by you."

Advertisement

When Landon heard his words, his eyes widened immediately, and he breathed quickly. Tens of billions were astronomical to him. Chase's business could be only about 120 million at most!

And 120 million, in his opinion, was already astronomical!

Ryan patted Landon on the shoulder and said, "Landon, you're a talent. Start working with me tomorrow. Of course, I won't give you a promotion just because you're my friend. You have to start from the bottom. Don't expect me to take special care of you. Everything depends on your ability. Of course, if you really have the ability, I will promote you without hesitation, okay?"

When Landon heard this, he was thrilled with a red face. He nodded hard. "Yes! Ryan, I know. I won't disappoint you!"

Ryan also smiled and said, "Okay, I look forward to that day."

The next day, Ryan arranged for Landon to be under Malcolm's command. He didn't ask Malcolm to take care of Landon.

Everything went as planned because he knew that once he told Malcolm, Malcolm would definitely take care of Malcolm, which would not help Landon's growth.

Landon was one of the few people who didn't look down on him when he was down and out and thought of him as a real friend.

Moreover, Landon was indeed capable, and now he just needed a platform. Ryan provided him with this platform. He believed that he would soon make a career.

At Ryan's level, he had a good eye people. Moreover, he saw Landon's seal begin to shine, which was obviously a sign of good luck.

Landon was bound to have good fortune in later years after surviving a great disaster.

Ryan naturally wanted to keep him by his side. He now felt that in this world, there was some kind of luck that could not be seen from the underworld. He gathered some people with good luck around him. After so long, his luck would be affected.

Somehow, Ryan felt that there was a misfortune waiting for him, and now he had to do everything to prepare for it!

At the same time, Marlin, the instructor of the Scout Team of Military Intelligence 3, arrived in H City.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 514 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Marlin was no ordinary person. As soon as he arrived in H City, a large group of people was waiting for him.

“Haha, Marlin. Welcome!”

A dignified middle-aged man in a Tang Suit strode towards Marlin with a bright smile on his face. His aura was very powerful and anyone could tell at a glance that he was a powerful person. Behind the man in the Tang Suit, there were five men with the same aura. And behind them stood a large group of people. They were powerful bodyguards with bright piercing eyes. At a glance, there were ten top masters who reached Extrinsic Peak and more than 20 masters who reached Master Realm!

This lineup was very powerful. Its destructive power could be compared to a small force! In society, with such a lineup, the leader must be very powerful and have a high social status.

So when Marlin first saw it, he was also a little surprised.

Of course, he was only surprised and didn't pay much attention to it. This lineup seemed very strong to ordinary people but not that powerful for a strong man in the Innate Realm. Moreover, he had reached the third stage.

Marlin smiled and strode up. He hugged the man in Tang Suit and said boldly, "Brother, it's been a long time since I saw you. You are getting stronger and stronger."

The man in the Tang Suit said with a smile, "Marlin, don't tease me. My Kung Fu is nothing compared to yours."

Advertisement

Marlin laughed and began to chat with him. They had known each other for a long time and had always been good friends. There was a period of time when Wells was talking about business abroad, he also hired Marlin as his bodyguard and escort him to protect him from danger. And that time, he established a deep friendship with Marlin and especially respected Mazrlin's cultivation!

This time, he invited Marlin over because he wanted Marlin to take in a few of his the Fosters junior disciples.

Marlin himself was the instructor of the Scout Team and he had a special status and extraordinary strength. If he could really take the younger generation of the Fosters as disciples, then he would definitely cultivate more outstanding offspring for him! If a family wanted to survive for a long time and gradually grow stronger, talent was the most important thing. As a big family in the south, the Fosters naturally understood this.

If the Fosters had a few experts in the Innate Realm, it would be difficult for the Fosters to fall.

Advertisement

Marlin also knew what the Fosters meant, and he quickly agreed. Although he was the instructor of the Fosters, he had the right to take in disciples.

In fact, in addition to the members of the Scout Team, he still accepted two disciples outside.

Now that the Fosters wanted him to take in a few the Fosters's offspring as disciples, of course, he would not refuse such a good thing. After all, the Fosters was not poor in its strength or status. If he could get close to them, there would be only benefits and no disadvantages.

After chatting for a while, a middle-aged man next to Wells smiled and said, "Marlin, I wonder if you can tell how strong these bodyguards are behind me."

Marlin glanced at them and nodded, "Not bad."

The middle-aged man's eyes flashed and said jokingly, "I heard that Marlin's cultivation has reached the third stage of the Innate Realm. Then, your strength is unfathomable. I wonder how much time it will take you to defeat these bodyguards?"

His words were in a joking tone, but in particular, there was still a hint of temptation and provocation. Marlin was a smart person, so he naturally recognized the implication and became serious with a fake smile.

Marlin glanced at Wells again and found that Wells was only smiling faintly and did not say anything. Obviously, he acquiesced to this. Marlin was smart and realized quickly that the Fosters trying to test his Kung Fu.

Marlin was quite disdainful about them. These thirty bodyguards were powerful masters and ten of them were experts of the Extrinsic Peak. To ordinary people, they were so powerful. But to him, Marlin, it was nothing.

Advertisement

"About a minute." Marlin sneered and flicked his fingers, looking relaxed.

"What?" The middle-aged man was immediately surprised. But then he frowned slightly. He didn't believe Marlin's words. He thought Marlin was too arrogant and began to brag.

The other the Fosters people didn't say anything. But from their expressions, they obviously didn't believe it.

After all, ten of these 30 masters were the top masters at the Extrinsic Peak. No matter where they were, they were a force that could not be underestimated. In addition to the more than 20 masters, the group was powerful enough to wipe out all the forces in H City. But Marlin was alone. Even if he was an expert in the Innate Realm, he couldn't be confident to say that he alone could defeat more than 30 bodyguards in a minute, right?

So they all had a bad impression of Marlin, thinking that Marlin was bragging.

Marlin, on the other hand, had seen through their thoughts. He smiled and said, "Look at your expressions. You don't seem to believe me. Why don't you try?"

Another middle-aged man said, "Not very good. After all, people are blind when fighting each other. If someone gets hurt, it would be bad."

Marlin burst into laughter and said, "Don't worry about that. I'm not going to really hurt your bodyguards. Well, if I can't beat your bodyguards in a minute, I'll lose, okay?"

When they saw Marlin's confident look, they were a little hesitant. Did Marlin really have this ability?

The middle-aged man said, "Okay, Marlin, please grant instruction to broaden our horizon. Haha."

The corners of Marlin's mouth rose slightly and a disdainful smile appeared. Then he walked over to the bodyguards who instantly surrounded Marlin.

These bodyguards had just heard Marlin's words. They were quite unhappy with Marlin's contempt as they were also considered experts. Not many people dare to disdain them. Even if he, Marlin, reached Innate Realm and could beat any one of them, but they were now more than 30 masters together. How couldn't they beat Marlin?

They didn't believe it! So they all decided to teach this arrogant Marlin a lesson.

Marlin naturally felt their enmity. He smiled disdainfully, glanced at everyone, and said, "Oh, ! miscalculated. It won't take a minute. It will just take 40 seconds to defeat you."

His words immediately enraged the bodyguards, especially the ten masters who reached Extrinsic Peak. It was humiliating. They exchanged glances and attacked Marlin together!

It had to be said that with so many of them fighting together, the momentum was very great.

Unfortunately, they underestimated the great gap between the Extrinsic Peak and the Innate Realm and Marlin's horror! The moment they moved, Marlin began to move. The speed was so fast that it was hard to be seen clearly.

Bang bang...

In 37 seconds, all the bodyguards who attacked Marlin fell down, and none of them could get up.

Suddenly, when Wells and the others were all stunned at this scene and became more in awe of Marlin.

At the same time, Ryan also received an invitation from the Fosters. It wrote that three days later, he was invited to a banquet held by the Fosters.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 515 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

“the Fosters?” Ryan was a little surprised and asked, “Which the Fosters is it?”

Elliot said, “It’s the famous meritorious family in the south. It has great strength. In the past three generations, the Fosters has produced many meritorious generals and has a very high status in the country. The younger brother of Creed the current family owner, is the current state owner. In addition, there are a lot of influential officials with powerful background in the Fosters.”

Elliot was afraid that Ryan would lose his temper and disagree, so he quickly said, “Mr. Howard, I think it’s better to go since the Fosters has invited you.”

Ryan smiled and said, “What’s the theme of the Fosters’s banquet this time? Is it the birthday of some big guy from the Fosters?”

Elliot shook his head and said, “It’s not the birthday of a big shot in the Fosters. It’s that the Fosters wants to select a powerful person to be the master of their children, so as to cultivate an overmatch in the Innate Realm.”

Hearing this, Ryan was a little interested. He said, “So the Fosters wants to invite me to be the master of those children?”

Advertisement

The generations of such a huge meritorious family as the Fosters usually pursued a career in politics, so it was a little strange when they suddenly said that they were going to choose a master for their children.

Elliot said, "I'm not sure, but in my opinion, the main reason that the Fosters invited you is to ask you to give them some advice?" Ryan nodded. He didn't take it too seriously. No matter what the Fosters planned, it was up to him to decide. Elliot asked carefully again, "Are you going to the Fosters's banquet, Boss?"

"Yes, why not?" Ryan felt a little funny when he saw Elliot's nervous look. Back then, Elliot was still a big shot. The Scotts had to rely on Elliot, and even Phoebe had to accompany Elliot for 20 million dollars. Fortunately, Ryan stopped it in time.

Elliot didn't know what Ryan was thinking. Being looked at by Ryan like this made him inexplicably scared.

Advertisement

Ryan's aura was getting stronger and stronger. Just a look often made Elliot shiver and extremely afraid.

And because of what Ryan had done these days, Elliot's reverence for Ryan was deep in his bones. To put it bluntly, if Ryan asked him to eat shit, he dared not refuse it.

The Fosters's banquet would be held tonight, and the venue was on a huge cruise ship, extremely high-end and luxurious, even bigger than the "titanic".

The cruise ship was private to the Fosters and very valuable. Most importantly, it was a symbol of status.

It was the first time Ryan had attended a banquet on a cruise ship.

When Ryan and Elliot appeared at the port, there were already a lot of people. At a glance, there were all luxury cars and the people were big shots in all fields.

Ryan was a big shot in G State now, but when he appeared in the crowd, not many people recognized him. In fact, he was too low-key. At first glance, he was an ordinary person, not at all conspicuous.

Instead, Elliot, who was beside him, was imposing. People could tell at a glance that he was a big boss.

All the big shots were followed by a lot of bodyguards. They were very ostentatious. Nearly no one like Ryan and Elliot attended alone.

Therefore, many people thought that Ryan was Elliot's bodyguard.

Advertisement

When they boarded the cruise ship, someone finally recognized Ryan at close range. They opened their eyes wide and said in surprise, "Mr. Howard, you're here too. Nice to meet you!"

This was a boss in the real estate industry. He had seen Ryan twice before and was very impressed with Ryan. When he first saw Ryan, he was stunned for a moment, thinking that he was wrong. When he blinked and looked again, he was sure that it was Ryan.

Ryan smiled and said, "Hello, nice to meet you."

Ryan didn't call out his name, but the real estate boss was not angry or embarrassed at all. There was excitement on his face. He shook hands with Ryan and lowered his posture. He said, "Mr. Howard, it's really you. That's great! Mr. Howard, I've always wanted to get to know you, but I've never had a chance before."

Then, he hurriedly took out his business card from his pocket and handed it to Ryan with both hands. "Mr. Howard, this is my business card."

Ryan took the card, glanced at it, and said with a smile, "So you're Mr. Murphy. I've heard a lot about you." Mr. Murphy had a bright smile on his face. It seemed a very exciting thing for him to get close to Ryan.

Soon, some people also recognized Ryan and came over to greet Ryan.

It was at this moment that Ryan became more aware that he was famous in the upper class and many people competed to curry favor with him.

When he boarded the cruise ship, Ryan immediately had a different feeling, as if a towering tree leaving the earth and the "root" was gone.

The cruise ship was very stable on the sea. Ordinary people could not feel the shaking, but Ryan could feel it very clearly! As the saying goes, power came from the ground. The "root" of a martial artist is the earth. All the power was generated through the power of the earth and then through his own body.

Before that, Ryan had always been connected to the earth, but now that he had left the earth, he felt a sense of "loss" in an instant.

It was like a baby, who had been in his mother's arms, leaving her arms.

This feeling was very mysterious, and anyone who did not reach the realm of Ryan could not feel it.

However, Ryan adjusted himself in only one breath, and didn't feel uncomfortable anymore.

But at that moment, he felt his own inadequacy and dependence on the earth. No matter how high his realm was, at the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, his strength still came from the earth. Once he left the earth, his strength would be lost a lot.

In an instant, he had a glimmer of enlightenment that he had never had before. Perhaps, only when he reached the Immortal Realm could he break free from the embrace of the “mother of earth” and grow up to live alone.

Actually, while he was thinking about those, Ryan only took two or three breaths. Soon, he came to his senses. No one knew that he had just experienced such an understanding.

In the lobby of the cruise ship, it was spacious and exceptionally luxurious, more luxurious and upscale than any banquet Ryan had attended before.

It can be seen that the Fosters was really powerful, even surpassing the Paynes! Holding such a banquet was actually just a matter of selecting masters for a few younger generations.

When Ryan appeared here, he immediately sensed several powerful auras, which came from some masters of the Innate Realm!

Among them, who attracted Ryan’s attention most was a tall man by the ten o’clock direction, who was nearly two meters tall. He was actually in the third stage of the Innate Realm! His strength was extremely strong.

In addition, the other few masters of the Innate Realm also had deep cultivation and could not be underestimated.

The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 516 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

The man who was nearly two meters high was Marlin. He sat there like an iron tower, attracting the attention of the whole audience. With his sturdy build and powerful aura, he did attract the attention of the audience!

When Ryan appeared, Marlin's eyes swept over Ryan's body, then he frowned slightly, and quickly looked away.

At first, he thought that Ryan was also a master of Innate Realm, so he looked forward to him with special respect. But immediately, he realized that he was wrong. Ryan's aura was not strong, and the energy in his body was not particularly high. At best, Ryan was just a master of Extrinsic Peak. Anyone below the Innate Realm was an ant. And he thought Ryan was an ant, so he naturally do not cause him any concern.

The other masters of the Innate Realm reacted the same way. Their eyes simply stayed on Ryan for a while and immediately moved away.

A master of the Innate Realm was already not in the same form as an ordinary person. No matter how easy-going their personalities were, deep down they all had a kind of arrogance. They considered ordinary people below the Innate Realm to be mere ants and thought they were not worth mentioning.

Ryan naturally saw their reactions. He smiled and didn't care much. At the scene, his realm was the highest. Because of his martial arts, as long as he wanted to keep a low profile and hide his strength, it was impossible for anyone who was not at a higher level than him to see through.

However, he did not recognize Marlin either. He just felt that the Fosters had made a big deal this time and invited so many masters of the Innate Realm to come here. After all, masters of the Innate Realm, no matter where they went, were noble and rare.

As long as they reached the Innate Realm, they must become arrogant. Generally speaking, they would not listen to others. The Fosters could invite so many inborn realm experts to the scene, which showed that the Fosters was very powerful.

Soon, everyone was there, and the cruise ship began to leave the port and go deep into the sea.

After a while, someone from the Fosters came out and said to everyone, "Good evening, friends. I'm Wells. Thank you so much for coming to our banquet at the Fosters tonight."

After that, thunderous applause broke out.

With a bright smile on his face, Wells pressed down his hand and continued, "I believe everyone knows that tonight's banquet is mainly about picking out suitable masters of Innate Realm for the younger generation of the Fosters. Today, I invite you all here to witness it together."

Wells did not say this very bluntly, but everyone knew the meaning of his words. He was saying that the Fosters wanted to select the most powerful one among these several experts of the Innate Realm to be the master of several descendants of the Fosters. The reason why so many people were invited over was mainly to increase the seriousness of this worship.

After all, accepting disciples was a big deal. Masters in the Innate Realm to accept disciple was the biggest deal of all!

The more famous a martial artist was, the more cautious and serious he must be. It would be a tragedy if a master taught his disciple well while the disciple deceived his master and destroyed him. If this ceremony was carried out in the presence of many big names, then this master-disciple relationship was so strong that even if the disciple did not get along with the master and wanted to betray him, would have to consider it carefully!

This virtually gave the master insurance and the disciple a shackle.

Moreover, the Fosters was a prestigious and large family, and their descendants paying homage to their master must not be sloppy, which was why they held tonight's banquet.

Ryan knew a little about such rules. If he were to take on a disciple in the future, it would certainly not be sloppy, and he would have to make it as grand as possible.

After hearing this, everyone at the scene was jealous. It was a great honor to be able to learn from a master of the Innate Realm! If someone could really break through to the Innate Realm, then it would be a great blessing!

Ryan sat in the crowd and watched the scene with interest.

After Wells finished speaking, he clapped his hands and immediately, eight young people from the Fosters came out from behind the scenes. Each of them was in high spirits, confident and noble, and their build was strong. It was obvious that they were good materials for martial arts practice.

The youngest of them was only fifteen or sixteen years old, and the others were in their twenties. Only one woman, relatively old, was twenty-five or twenty-six years old.

When Ryan saw this woman, he was immediately stunned. Wasn't this Diana? Was she from the Fosters? All of a sudden, Ryan patted his forehead. Why didn't he think of it? Diana was Isabella's best friend and had a distinguished status. The upper-class banquet that day was held for her. Diana was infatuated with martial art and wanted to learn from him.

Then tonight's the Fosters banquet was to select a master for their descendants...

Fortunately, Ryan was sitting on the right side, not in the middle, and he was not very conspicuous. Diana did not see him, or else she would have to chase him to ask him to accept her as his disciple, and it would be a little troublesome.

Wells said to Marlin and other masters of Innate Realm, "Masters, these eight are the best descendants of my the Fosters."

These five masters of Innate Realm did not choose their disciples immediately, but looked at each other. Finally, they looked at Marlin and said, "Marlin, you choose first?"

Obviously, these four masters of the Innate Realm were a little afraid of Marlin and intended to give him the first pick.

Marlin smiled and said, "You pick first."

The remaining four masters of Innate Realm looked at each other, then a middle-aged man in a white training suit with a yin and yang tai chi thorn on his back came out first, smiling and saying, "Since everyone is not in a hurry, let me, Ben, start first."

He was a master of the first stage of the Innate Realm. He was not very tall, and even a little short and fat, but his eyes were especially energetic, and his temples were also high and bulging.

He walked straight to a 20-year-old youth and asked with a smile, "What's your name, young man?"

The young man straightened his back and said loudly, "I am Joel!" Ben laughed and said, "Joel, that's a good name! Joel, let me ask you, what do you think the Innate Realm is?"

Joel was confused for a while, then he said loudly, "The Innate Realm is the ultimate yearning of a martial artist, the limit that human beings can reach, and a higher level than mortals!"

"Okay!" Ben was very satisfied with the answer. Then he pinched Joel and found that his bones were very good and he had a talent for martial arts. He nodded and continued to say in a deep voice, "Joel, are you willing to let me teach you?"

Joel was overjoyed and nodded hard. He was very obedient and immediately fell to his knees, and kowtowed hard, saying, "Disciple Joel, pay respects to my master!"

Ben was even more excited and satisfied when he saw how energetic Joel was.

Next, there was a formal teacher worship ceremony. The disciple paid three obeisances and made a vow that he should never betray, otherwise he would be punished by lightning.

Only under such formal procedures and such a vicious oath would Ben be willing to teach Joel.

Next, the other three masters of the Innate Realm also selected their disciples one after another.

So, Marlin was the only one left. He went straight to Diana, looked at her with bright eyes and said, "Would you like to learn from me?"

Everyone looked at Diana and thought that Diana would agree excitedly. However, Diana's next reaction stunned everyone.

"No." Diana shook her head.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 517 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Diana said very directly. There was no hesitation. She didn't think twice because Marlin was a master at the Innate Realm. It was obvious that she had never thought of becoming Marlin's disciple in the beginning.

So Marlin's expression immediately became gloomy. What was his identity? He was the Instructor of the Scout Team of Military Intelligence 3, a very powerful man at the third stage of the Innate Realm. He came just to show his respect to the Fosters. In the end, Diana rejected him without any hesitation. Everyone was stunned for a moment. When Wells, who was on the side, saw that Marlin's expression was not good, he immediately panicked and said quickly, "Evelyn! You little girl, what nonsense are you talking about? Don't apologize to Marlin quickly, and be his disciple!"

Several other masters at the Innate Realm were also surprised that Diana had rejected Marlin. What was the Fosters thinking?

Everyone thought so. Diana was from the Fosters, and she was just a little girl. Her every move must have been directed by the Fosters.

Marlin also thought of this, and he immediately looked at Wells with some hints of questions. He was not a nobody, but the instructor of the Scout Team, and a master at the Innate Realm. Others had to respect him, so naturally, he couldn't be fooled for nothing. Otherwise, if the news spread, how could he live with dignity?

Wells felt Marlin's pressure, and he was even angrier at Diana.

Advertisement

Diana straightened her back and said, "I just said that I don't want to be Marlin's disciple. In fact, in my mind, I have already had a master in my heart."

"What?!" Wells was immediately shocked, and Marlin's expression became even more gloomy. He said directly to Wells, "Wells, you have to give me an explanation about this!"

Wells nodded hurriedly, and cold sweats broke out on his forehead. Then, with a grim face, he scolded Diana, "Ridiculous! What do you mean by that you have already had a master in your heart? Diana, you are stubborn by nature, but you have to see what kind of occasion you are on now? Marlin is the head Instructor of Military Intelligence 3's Scout Team. His cultivation has reached the third stage of the Innate Realm, which is invincible. Today, the Instructor is willing to accept you as an apprentice, which is a blessing you had in your previous life. No one else has the chance to worship Marlin as a master!"

Diana felt Wells's anger, and she was not a willful and lawless person. Now, in this situation, she also knew that if she refused to worship Marlin as her master, it would have a great impact on the Fosters.

Besides, Marlin was indeed a super powerful man. It was indeed her blessing to be taught by Marlin. She was really lucky.

Advertisement

However, in her heart, she had already made up her mind that Ryan was her master. She had always wanted to learn from Ryan in her dreams. Although Ryan rejected her last time, she had always fought for this goal. Being Ryan's disciple even became her dream.

Now, she was always reluctant to give up her idea of being Ryan's disciple!

So she gritted her teeth tightly, her face full of unwillingness. Wells was furious. Tonight's banquet was going well. He could not only get close to the five masters at the Innate Realm, but also train a few talents for the Fosters with the help of the five masters at the Innate Realm. It would be even better if the Fosters could have a master at the Innate Realm in the future.

But now, what Diana did broke the Fosters's good plan! In particular, the one who was offended was Marlin, who had the most powerful background. This was too bad.

Ryan, who was sitting in the crowd, suddenly had a bad feeling when he saw this scene. Diana, this crazy girl, would not be so determined to worship him as her master, would she?

At this time, a middle-aged man with especially rough brows and an imposing and powerful aura came out from the Fosters domineeringly and shouted at Diana, "Evelyn, you're naughty again! You're an adult, and you haven't changed your stubborn character yet. How can you marry someone in the future?"

When Diana saw this middle-aged man, she immediately showed awe on her face and her neck shrank. Obviously, she was afraid of him and she called out weakly, "Dad."

This man was Diana's father and the owner of the Fosters, Creed.

When the crowd saw Creed coming out, they quickly greeted Creed. They were in awe of him. Even when Marlin saw Creed, he relaxed a lot. Marlin's expression was not as ugly as before, and he nodded at Creed as a greeting.

Advertisement

Creed, as the owner of the Fosters, had a much more important identity than Wells.

When Ryan saw Creed, he couldn't help but nod secretly. Creed had the aura of a king on him. He was invincible to gods and ghosts. He was rich and powerful all his life. He was in charge of power, and he was destined to have all of these. This kind of person could become a hegemon in any era.

Unexpectedly, Diana was still Creed's daughter, which showed that she was of noble status.

After Creed appeared, he warned Diana, then smiled apologetically and cupped his fists at Marlin to apologize, "Marlin, I'm sorry. My daughter is naughty. She just made a joke. Please be magnanimous."

Since Creed had said so, Marlin still had to respect him. However, Marlin had also had to make things easy for himself. "How can I argue with your daughter? I'm just curious. Who can make your daughter admire him so much? I wonder if this person is there?"

When Marlin said this, his eyes swept across the whole audience. It was as if he was smiling. Anyone who was looked at by him could not help but feel afraid. They lowered their head and did not dare to look at Marlin.

How could Creed not tell that Marlin was trying to make things easy for himself? After all, he was a well-renowned master. He was rejected by a descendant, Diana, in front of so many people. Even if Diana had successfully worshipped him as her master, someone would still criticize him and think that he was not as good as the person in Diana's mind. This was not good for his reputation.

But if Diana had said who the master in her heart was now and that master was still on the scene, Marlin could fight with him, then all his worries would be over. It would even make Marlin become more prestigious.

So Creed immediately said to Diana, "Tell Marlin who the master in your heart is."

Diana also understood this: Originally, she was already in despair. But now, she had some hope. If Marlin fought with her idol and Marlin lost, then she would not have to worship Marlin as her master. And she could also worship her idol. This was killing two birds with one stone!

"To tell the truth, the person I admire in my heart is Torn, the chairman of the ZQ Media. He is the number one master in G State and my best friend Isabella's rumored boyfriend." Diana said loudly. At the same time, her eyes swept across the crowd, looking forward to finding Ryan.

Ryan, who was in the crowd, heard her words and his heart suddenly thumped. He secretly cried out that it was not good! Sure enough, his guess was right. Diana made up her mind to be his disciple.

Elliot, who was on the side, was immediately stunned. He immediately looked at Ryan and saw the bitter smile on Ryan's face.

Elliot's expression was strange. Then Elliot looked at Diana... Elliot couldn't help but get excited when he thought of something in his heart.

Diana was Creed's daughter. If Ryan became Diana's master, then his influence would be even stronger! Everyone present had a wonderful expression when they heard the name, Ryan.

Yes. Ryan was no longer a stranger's name in the upper class. In fact, they were all very familiar with it. Ryan had done too many big things during this period of time, and it was difficult for them not to remember him.

"Ryan?" Creed and Marlin were both stunned at the same time. Then, they remembered who Ryan was one after another...

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 518 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

Wells slapped himself on the forehead and realized that he forgot about Ryan. This time, he also sent an invitation to him and planned to get close to Ryan. He even wanted Ryan to choose someone from the Fosters as his last disciple. After all, Ryan was an expert in Innate Realm and he earned his reputation with his strength in G State.

Creed looked at Wells and asked, “You invited Ryan here too?”

Wells nodded and said, “Yes, I sent an invitation to Mr. Howard, but I didn’t contact Mr. Howard personally, but Elliot instead. I asked Elliot to send the invitation to Mr. Howard...”

Marlin, on the other hand, narrowed his eyes. He had already remembered that the instructor of the fourth group who had beaten Marcus, Edmund, and Wolf up a while ago was Ryan, the chairman of the ZQ Media!

Unexpectedly, this Ryan also came to the Fosters party today. One couldn’t avoid his enemy.

“The new instructor of the fourth group? That’s interesting.” Marlin’s face revealed an intriguing smile. At the same time, his eyes scanned the whole room, trying to identify Ryan.

However, he glanced twice at Ryan's face and still did not recognize him. At this moment, a heated discussion broke out.

"Wow, this Creed's daughter is actually going to learn from Ryan?"

"Ryan is not some simple man. He is known as the number one expert in G State. Ever since he has shown up in public, he has been so furiously resolute that even Peter and May died in his hands. He is considered to be the top expert in Innate Realm!"

"It's going to be a good show. Ryan is the best in the eyes of the Fosters's daughter. No wonder she refuses to take Marlin as her teacher. Ryan's reputation is indeed now better than Marlin's.

"That's not necessarily true, is it? Marlin is a veteran expert in Innate Realm, and he is also the head coach of the Scout Team in Military Intelligence 3, with so much power. There are countless foreign experts who died in his hands. I think Marlin is better!"

Advertisement

Hmph, you are mistaken about that. Ryan is the one in million. Peter and May who died in his hands are not someone unknown! Anyway, this time, it is really a good show. It's supposed to be a sure thing that Marlin wants to take the Fosters's daughter as his student, but the Fosters's daughter prefers Ryan. Marlin couldn't bear this. He thought that he would maintain his reputation by defeating his opponent. He never expected to meet a tough guy."

"What if Ryan isn't here?"

"That's impossible. I saw Ryan with my own eyes just now. In my opinion, Ryan came to humiliate Marlin on purpose this time, right?"

Marlin's hearing was very sharp, so his ears didn't miss the discussion of these people around and his face immediately became even more gloomy.

He had good reason to believe that what happened just now was fomented by Ryan to destroy his reputation! "Damn good, Ryan! Such a cruel and bold man!" Marlin's chest was filled with anger.

In his opinion, Ryan was going against him. From the beginning, he attacked the Scout Team members, scolded the Scout Team as trash, ignored his threat, and did not take the initiative to apologize and make peace. Now, at the banquet of the Fosters tonight, he staged all of this!

How arrogant! How unruly! At this moment, Marlin had already regarded Ryan as his enemy. Even if he was Thorn's man, he would teach Ryan a lesson.

Wells was also looking for Ryan. Soon, he saw Elliot beside Ryan and said happily, "Mr. Cook, you're here. I wonder if Mr. Howard is here?"

Advertisement

Before Elliot spoke, Ryan sighed helplessly and stood up, "Mr. Wells, I'm here." In an instant, everyone's eyes looked at Ryan. In an instant, Ryan felt a huge pressure, but soon, it was resolved by him. He looked calm and talked happily.

Diana found Ryan and immediately became excited. She dragged Creed's sleeve and pointed at Ryan, "Dad, he's Ryan, my idol. I just want to learn from him!"

Diana's words were loud and her eyes were filled with enthusiasm as she looked at Ryan.

Marlin's face darkened even more. As the head coach of the Scout Team, he had ever been so humiliated. And Ryan had already turned to be his eyesore!

Creed saw that Ryan was so young that he was not even thirty years old. He was completely the same age as his daughter Diana!

Before that, he had heard of Ryan's reputation and knew that Ryan was very powerful and was known as the number one expert in G State. However, he had never seen a picture of Ryan and never imagined Ryan to be so young, which was completely beyond his expectations.

The average age of masters in Innate Realm was at least 40 years old. Marlin was already 42, and the other four masters were almost 50.

Ryan could feel Marlin's anger, and he was even more helpless. It was not that he was afraid of Marlin, but that there was no grudge between them, and they were instructors of Military Intelligence 3. It was really meaningless to be enemies.

Wells had already walked up to Ryan. When he saw Ryan so young, he couldn't help but be surprised, but his surprise didn't show on his face. He held Ryan's hand and said apologetically, "Mr. Howard, nice to meet you. May you have a wonderful night." One couldn't stay indifferent to a smiling man. Ryan smiled and said, "Mr. Foster, thank you."

Ryan's appearance brought about a subtle change in the atmosphere at the scene. Unconsciously, they all looked at Ryan and Marlin, looking forward to a big fight between them.

Diana also walked to Ryan, a little shy, but more determined. She took a deep breath and said, "Respected Mr. Howard, please accept me as your disciple. I will definitely not let you down!"

Ryan felt annoyed when he saw Diana. He had seen a lot of stubborn people, but it was the first one like Diana who was stubborn and didn't have any vision. The point was that Diana was a woman. He didn't expect her to be so passionate about martial arts.

He had no choice but to pretend not to hear her. Creed looked at him and said, "Mr. Howard, I wonder when did you take my daughter as your student. Why didn't you tell us about such a big deal?"

Diana was so excited that she clenched her fists. Learning from Ryan was her dream. Ryan had no choice but to smile bitterly and say, "Mr. Foster, this is a misunderstanding. Actually, your daughter and I..."

However, before he could finish his sentence, he was interrupted by a loud, hostile and angry voice. "Good you, Ryan! You are always against me. I think you want to die!"

It was Marlin, with his tower-like figure, who strode towards Ryan. His expression was cold and fierce with his eyes on Ryan determinedly. As long as he wanted, he could launch a thunderous attack on Ryan at any time.

Ryan frowned slightly. He really didn't expect to bump into Marlin here, and in this way.

Facing Marlin's insolence, Ryan felt unhappy. Seeing that they were all working for the Military Intelligence 3, he decided to control his anger and patiently explained, "Marlin, I think you misunderstood. I didn't want to go against you."

Marlin seemed to have heard a big joke and burst out laughing, "Ryan! How dare you call yourself the number one expert in G State? You dare not admit what you did? I think you are not that good as rumors said! In the Military Intelligence 3, you hit my soldiers and said that my team was a piece of trash. For the sake of Thorn, I didn't teach you a lesson. I just asked you to apologize to me, but you didn't. In the end, you pretended to ignore my words! Now you're embarrassing me? Since you don't respect me, I want to see how capable you are to oppose me like this!"

His words were too loud like thunder, and the whole hall shook. Vaguely, it seemed that the entire cruise ship was shaken.

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 519 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

In an instant, everyone present began to panic. They looked at Marlin with fear. Some of the timid women even screamed.

In their opinion, Marlin was too scary. He was almost like a divine man as a word of his could cause a cruise ship to shake. Such an ability was magical!

In fact, they overestimated Marlin. No matter how powerful Marlin was, he was only a master of the Innate Realm. He was still a human being. How could his word cause a huge cruise ship to shake? The reason why the cruise ship was shaking was that it met the waves on the sea while sailing. Besides, the cruise ship only shook slightly.

Ryan could tell at a glance that Marlin had just sensed a wave rolling in the distance ahead of time. So Marlin took advantage of the wave.

In other words, if Marlin really had this ability, Ryan could immediately run away. Ryan knew that Marlin would not give up. He said directly, "What do you want?"

Marlin smiled grimly. "Very simple. Didn't you claim to be the number one master in G State? Since you bullied my soldiers in the Military Intelligence 3 and counteracted my efforts at the Fosters banquet, then take up the glove. Let's fight! I'll see if you have the ability!"

Advertisement

As he finished speaking, his warpath continued to rise and he was highly concentrated. Everyone felt that his warpath almost condensed, which was suffocating.

Many people were excited and felt it a god-given opportunity to watch two masters of Innate Realm fighting! It was indeed a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Diana widened her eyes and felt so excited that her face turned red and she stared at Ryan. She was a true martial arts addict. She had no interest in dressing up and only loved martial arts.

Ryan shook his head and said, "I can fight, but not now. When we get to the ground, I will fight."

Advertisement

Marlin laughed disdainfully. "What, are you afraid? With your guts, you still have the face to call yourself the number one master in G State?"

Ryan was no longer an unknown person but already a famous master. Marlin had already angered him by taunting him so many times. If he didn't take the fight, everyone would think that he was afraid of Marlin, which would have a huge impact on his reputation.

Although Marlin was powerful and his cultivation had reached the third stage of the Innate Realm, he was still quite far away from him. Now that Ryan was in the fourth stage, his fighting ability had improved a lot after having hard battles with Peter, May, and Sean. He had accumulated a lot of experience.

"Marlin, you were a Scout Team instructor and had contributed to the country. Therefore I made concessions many times. Do you think I'm really afraid of you?" Ryan said coldly, "Marlin, let me tell you this. You are not my opponent." As he finished speaking, Ryan's eyes suddenly changed and became sharp. At the same time, his momentum also changed drastically. He was no longer as ordinary and easy-going as before, but full of domineering and violence, like a war god.

Marlin felt the change and his pupils shrank. He was not as disdainful as before but became more serious. He still sneered and said, "Ryan, you really have some skills. No wonder you dare to oppose me! Well. I haven't met a qualified opponent in a long time. Today, I want to see if you really have the ability."

After speaking, Marlin directly attacked Ryan without hesitation. His move was an irresistible thunderbolt!

Everyone present felt his power. In their spiritual world, what they saw was no longer Marlin's thin figure but a huge, hundred-meter humanoid Titan. This Titan was so strong that he could take the stars and the moon off and shook mountains and rivers.

Now Marlin punched Ryan like a meteorite was going to bump into the Earth and made a hole in the land! To Ryan, Marlin's punch was completely destructive. He was soon to be wiped out by Marlin's punch and died.

Advertisement

Ryan's expression was solemn. It wasn't that he was afraid of Marlin, but he was worried that the cruise ship was unable to bear the full force of the two masters of Innate Realm. Although the floor under his feet looked very thick, it was incomparable to the real earth.

Ryan was at a higher level than Marlin. Facing Marlin's punch, he could think of no less than 20 ways to deal with it calmly.

However, the price of calmness was to damage the cruise ship. Now that there were thousands of people on the cruise ship, he really didn't want to do this unless he had to.

So during their fight, Ryan still chose to dodge and avoid his sharp attack.

With a whoosh, Ryan's figure disappeared from its original position, as fast as lightning. No one could catch it with their eyes. By the time Ryan appeared again, it was already more than ten meters away. To the people present, it looked like teleportation.

"Marlin, stop. This cruise ship can't stand our damage." Ryan said in a low voice.

However, Marlin ignored Ryan and thought that Ryan was afraid. He sneered and said, "Hmph, I think you're more or less cowardly! I don't need to spend too much time teaching you a lesson?"

After saying that, he pounced on Ryan again, and his speed was extremely fast. He had already regarded Ryan as a thorn in his eye. So he did not hold back his strength. He directly threw a thunderbolt attack at him. He had to defeat Ryan to show his power!

Moreover, he did not believe that Ryan could compete with him.

Ryan dodged a few more times, but Marlin did not stop. Instead, the attack became more and more fierce. He attacked him more frequently. And the lobby of this cruise ship, which was not expanse enough, had been damaged by Marlin a lot.

Marlin's violent actions began to cause a lot of damage to the cruise ship. The huge hull began to sway again. This time, it was not because of the impact of the waves, but because of Marlin's damage.

"Marlin, that's enough! Don't think I'm really afraid of you!" Ryan was also angry.

Marlin sneered disdainfully and said, "Ryan, is this so-called the top master's ability in G State? You only know how to run around? You're nothing more than that! I don't think you should call yourself Ryan. Why don't call yourself Turtle Ryan? hahaha!"

Many of the people present saw that Ryan had been dodging and did not dare to fight Marlin at all. They saw his aura was overwhelmed by Marlin and thought that Ryan was not Marlin's opponent but had a vain reputation. Diana, especially, was beginning to be disappointed with Ryan.

Ryan snorted heavily. He had saved Marlin's face many times. In the end, Marlin not only didn't appreciate it but also kept pushing forward and thought he was afraid!

He knew that no matter how much he endured, Marlin would not give up. Only battle could solve it!

His figure, which had been rapidly retreating, suddenly stopped and faced Marlin. He widened his eyes and his spirit was shining. Then, he gave Marlin a forceful palm.

Marlin burst out laughing. "Good!"

And then he confronted Ryan.

Unfortunately, he still underestimated Ryan. He was nearly two meters tall. But he was slapped backward by Ryan's hand. He slammed into a wall behind him and broke it open!

Marlin's face suddenly changed, revealing a strong shock. Obviously, he did not expect Ryan's strength to be so strong!

The collision directly caused more damage to the cruise ship. At the place where they collided, the steel flooring directly had a huge pit and the surroundings were in a mess.

And this was just the beginning. It was conceivable that the cruise ship would definitely be seriously damaged if they continued to fight until the results were sorted out. Perhaps the ship would be directly penetrated through. At that time, it would be a disaster for the people on the cruise ship.

Marlin roared. He was actually pushed back by Ryan. To him, it was a great shame!

"Again!"

As he spoke, he continued to pounce. Moreover, this time, he used all his power. The attack was even fiercer than before! Ryan's face changed. If they kept fighting like this, the cruise ship would really sink.

Was there any way to stop it?

All of a sudden, Ryan had a brainwave. He could change the battlefield.

It was not suitable to fight on a cruise ship. But they could fight on the sea!

When he thought about it, without any hesitation, he turned around and ran. He jumped off the deck and landed on the sea.

Everyone present was shocked and stunned by his actions. What was going on? Was Ryan really so scared of Marlin that he jumped into the sea and killed himself?

Marlin was also stunned. Even he did not understand Ryan's move for a moment.

However, just as everyone was in a daze, Ryan's voice came from the sea, "Marlin, aren't you going to fight? I will accompany you to the end on this sea!"

What was going on? While everyone was in a daze, Diana rushed to the deck immediately. Looking down, she saw an unforgettable scene.

Ryan stood steadily on the sea with his hands behind his back. The sea breeze blew his clothes which floated around. He was like the God of the sea!

The Vengeful Son-in-law Chapter 520 -

The Vengeful Son-in-law

"The God of the Sea..." Diana was completely stunned and murmuring something. At the same time, the others in the cabin also rushed out. When seeing this, they were also shocked!

Those who did not see it with their own eyes could not sense the shock caused by this scene. Standing on the sea like this, Ryan, almost all of him stood on the sea with his ankle sank into the sea. He was very stable, not swayed by the waves and the wind.

This was totally beyond their knowledge. They had never seen anyone standing on the sea like this. This was a personal battle against the entire ocean!

Some elder men, whose faces were filled with enthusiasm, knelt down directly in the direction of Ryan. With faces filled with piety, they shouted loudly, "The God of the Sea! The God of the Sea!"

Even when Creed saw Ryan standing on the sea, his face, which had always been calm, also changed greatly.

Previously, he had seen the masters of the Innate Realm personally, who could walk on the lake only for a period of time with high speed on the water, whose water level reached the knee position!

Advertisement

Ryan stood on the stormy sea with his ankle sank into. It was the first time he had seen such a state! At this moment, he even had the idea that Ryan was really the God of the Sea.

Not to mention him, those masters' of Innate Realm pupils contracted at this moment, filled with fear and awe for Ryan! They were masters of the Innate Realm. Naturally, they knew how difficult it was for Ryan to achieve this!

Although they were masters of the Innate Realm, they could only stand on the sea for more than ten seconds without such calm and stable like Ryan! It could be seen that Ryan's accomplishment was far above them.

Marlin also widened his eyes and stared straight at Ryan with shock on his face. He never expected Ryan to stand so steadily on the sea.

Advertisement

He could also stand on the sea, but it was still difficult to be as relaxed as Ryan.

In other words, did he underestimate Ryan's actual strength?

In an instant, his face darkened a lot.

Seeing Marlin's expression, with a look of contempt on his face, Ryan said, "Marlin, are you afraid?" Marlin's face was cold and he did not answer. He just stared at Ryan.

"Just now on the cruise ship, I've been avoiding you. I'm not afraid of you, but for the sake of many people on the cruise ship. As a master at our level, once we fight, we sink the cruise ship in minutes." At this moment, Ryan no longer had his patience and mediocrity on the cruise ship but released his momentum, full of arrogance and confidence, and charm. Even on the vast sea, he could not hide his light.

Ryan laughed, "How, Marlin, weren't you very rampant just now? Don't you dare now? I don't think you're better than that! Hahaha..."

His laughter shook the world and soared into the sky, spreading across the vast sea, as if it had startled the creatures below the sea. For a moment, the whale spat and the dolphin leaped, which formed an extremely spectacular scene.

Ryan was in a wonderful and happy mood. It had been a long time since he had been so happy. The sea was boundless at a glance which made him proud and enthusiastic. All the people present felt his lofty sentiments, and for a moment, they were infected by him. Thoughts surging in their minds, they were full of envy for Ryan. Life should be like that.

No matter how much money they made, they were just mortals, wasting their whole life in the ordinary. Unlike Ryan, power was already the pursuit of the bottom level for him. Only the breakthrough of the human limit and the pursuit of heaven and earth were his goals.

Even Creed couldn't help but envy Ryan.

For a moment, everyone's view followed Ryan and looked at Marlin with a little more contempt.

Marlin's face darkened. He did not expect Ryan to do this again. Although he was extremely conceited about himself and thought that Ryan was not his opponent based on ground confrontation. Now that Ryan had moved the battlefield to the sea, he was not so sure.

But facing Ryan's provocation, he had to meet head-on. If everyone thought that he was afraid of Ryan, where would he put his face?

Besides, with his strength, even on the surface of the sea, Ryan might not be his opponent.

In his opinion, the reason why Ryan could stand so steadily on the surface of the sea was that he took advantage of his weight. Actually, his real strength was just so so.

After thinking about that, he burst out laughing, "Hahaha, Ryan, since you're in such a hurry to die, I'll do it for you!"

After that, he jumped straight into the sea, kicked his legs out of the air, and his shoes quickly attacked Ryan's face.

Ryan sneered. How could Marlin hit him? He suddenly sank, and the water reached his knees. Marlin's two shoes flew over his head and crashed heavily into the sea behind him, causing a huge wave. It was obvious that the awesome strength of Marlin's feet.

Then, Ryan's body immediately rose and returned to his ankle. If anyone with good eyesight could see that under Ryan's feet, the undercurrent surged under the sea. His ten toes were swinging rapidly, which seemed like turning into propellers, creating resistance to support him to stand steadily on the sea. Not that he really had the ability to control the sea.

Soon, Marlin jumped into the sea, and he was standing steadily on the surface of the sea. However, he could not be as relaxed as Ryan. Moreover, the water spread to his calves, which was ten centimeters away from his knees. Physically, he was not as strong as Ryan.

Although Ryan was slightly lighter than Marlin, he was not much lighter. Within ten kilograms, Marlin looked much taller in size. In fact, Ryan's bone density and muscle density were both greater than Marlin's, so even if there was a difference in size, there was no great difference in weight.

Ryan saw that Marlin was going to fight, and a happy smile appeared on his face. It was a very happy thing for him to fight a master like Marlin!

The higher level he reached, the harder it was to find an opponent. Besides, Ryan was still a kind of warlike person at heart. So Marlin was just a toy to him.

Feeling Ryan's emotions, Marlin snorted coldly, without any nonsense, he directly started to attack Ryan. On the surface of the undercurrent, he ran towards Ryan. Every step he took, he would make a loud explosion at his feet, as if there was a bomb tied to his feet, blowing up the sea.

On the deck of the cruise ship, everyone widened their eyes and stared at the two people on the sea. To them, this was a war that was rarely seen!

Ryan faced Marlin's initiative and a bright smile appeared on his face. He also shouted, "Good!" Then, without retreating, he rushed towards Marlin. Tens of meters away, he disappeared in the blink of an eye.

Compared to Marlin, Ryan caused even more noise. Every time he stepped on the sea, there was a huge explosion. The sea beneath his feet exploded, directly rushed up to more than 20 meters, and then fell down. This scene was extremely shocking!
