Chapter 101 – There Has To Be A Wedding!

When Jia Li and Fu Hua arrived, they could feel the celebratory atmosphere.

They walked into the house, and they could already see the new decorations in the house. Also, the servants that were close by, bowed as they congratulated them.

Jia Li was a bit surprised, but Fu Hua remained unfazed. Just then, Grandfather Fu walked out of the sitting room with some of the family members.

Grandfather Fu and the others who saw the previous dress Jia Li wore before leaving the house, were surprised to see her new looks and a new outfit.

They didnt say anything, for they knew it was Fu Huas arrangement.

You two are back? Let me see the marriage certificate. Grandfather said with a smile.

If other people were not with him, Fu Hua wanted to ask, You dont believe me? but he refrained from doing so, so he turned to Jia Li to say...

Give the marriage certificates to grandfather.

Jia Li quickly opened her bag and took the marriage certificates out, and then passed it to the old man who took them from her happily.

Grandfather Fu was all smiles after he confirmed they both were truly married. He handed the marriage certificate to Butler Lu who was standing at the side, as he said to them, I will keep it for you both.

Fu Hua scoffed inwardly, for he knew the old man was afraid they would get a divorce, so he decided to keep their marriage for fear of them actually getting a divorce.

Jia Li was more than surprised. What's going on here? Shouldn't the couple be the one to keep the marriage certificate?

Thinking that it may be a tradition of the Fu Family, she dropped the thoughts.

You two can come inside, let's go and celebrate the newly married couple. Grandfather Fu announced, and there were cheers.

Fu Hee was too angry to come out with them, so she remained at the huge dining room that was rarely used in the house.

The biggest dining room in the house was so the other extended Fu family members could join them at the table if there were any occasions such as this.

Everyone made their way from the entrance and straight to the big dining room.

Jia Li walked beside Fu Hua towards the dining table. Grandfather Fu who was sitting at the head table, gestured to Jia Li to come and sit at his right-hand side, and so Fu Hua had to follow as well.

Since they were married they had to sit beside each other.

Grandfather Fu led everyone to toast to them and to give them their blessings. Because of being overjoyed, Grandfather Fu gave red packets to everyone, and he tripled the salary of the servants for the month.

The servants were already earning a good sum of money every month because they were working in a big family such as the Fuses, and also because the old man liked to reward hard work a lot. And now that he tripled their salary for September, they were more than excited and grateful.

When it was time to toast them, Fu Hee didn't want to participate, but coincidentally, her eyes met with Grandfather Fu's scary glance, so she had no choice but to raise her glass.

Today had been the most frustrating day of her life. She had to watch her son get married to some ordinary girl from a small family. As if that wasn't enough, Mrs. Bai has been calling her all day, and be sure she wasn't ready to give her a reply, she turned off her phone. And added to the fact that the other Fu Family members that just visited kept asking her the reason Fu ChunHua was playing her role.

Fu Hee was already exhausted mentally and had to lie to them by saying she wasn't feeling well, and so asked Fu ChunHua to take her place for the time being.

How could she tell them her position had been taken away from her because she hit her now daughter-in-law? That would be a big embarrassment. She didn't want to face any shame.

All her life as the mistress of the Fu Family, she has been well respected and had never been shamed simply because of the authority and power she had because of that position.

Thinking more about this, Fu Hee felt her head and heartache. She was almost tempted to ask to be excused because she wasn't feeling well.

When she thinks about how she would explain things to the Bai family, she could feel her head shaking. She wished she could disappear from the earth after causing big trouble and losing her position.

All this is because of that girl! Fu Hee thought as she glanced towards Jia Li, but Fu Hua blocked her view, so her glare couldn't pass through.

Well, it's not like Fu Hua did that on purpose, he had just adjusted his position, so it was not his fault.

As they were eating, one of the members of the extended Fu Family asked, Uncle, when will you host a big wedding for Fu Hua and Jia Li, signing their marriage certificates is not enough. As the Fu Family, we have to be grand in style, after all, this is the marriage you had high hopes for.

When the others heard this, they also supported what the woman said. She was the daughter of Grandfather Fu's deceased elder brother.

Fu Hee was really tempted to shut their mouths! She was already planning to see if there was a way to get Fu Hua and Jia Li to divorce as soon as possible, so she could work out her plans, so them keeping a low profile about the marriage would be the best way for her.

But seriously, Fu Hee was thinking too much. Because she didn't follow them out to welcome Fu Hua and Jia Li earlier, so she was still unaware that Grandfather Fu was the one with their marriage certificate.

With most of them in agreement with what the woman said, Grandfather Fu smiled as he raised his hand, and immediately, there was silence.

Of course, there has to be a wedding, but that will come later. Jia Li is about to conclude with her schooling.

After saying this, Grandfather Fu raised a toast.

Jia Li glanced at Fu Hua, who was silent and was busy eating his food. It was as if he didn't hear what the old man had said.

Chapter 102 – Fu Hua Takes Jia Li To His Bedroom

When the last toast was made, Fu ChunHua glanced at Fu Hua and watched him drink from his wine glass, and she hid her smiling gaze with her wine glass as well.

This is going to be so much fun! Fu ChunHua thought before glancing at then annoyed-looking Fu Hee.

Fu Hee noticed her gaze and glared at her, but Fu ChunHua didn't take it to heart.

When the last toast ended, Fu Hua and Jia Li receive red packets from the rest of the Fu Family members for their wedding gift.

Considering that Jia Li would be tired after the whole days hassle, Grandfather allowed everybody to retire for the night around 8 PM.

Jia Li felt grateful because she couldn't stand the glances she was receiving. It was too much for her.

After Fu Hee left the dining table, Fu Lei and Fu Geming followed with a few of the extended family members.

Jia Li was the next person to leave. She said good night to Grandfather Fu before leaving. Grandfather smiled at her and allowed her to leave.

When she was out of sight, Grandfather Fu lowered his tone and said to Fu Hua. Wont you follow your wife ?

Fu Hua glanced at him with creased brows.

Grandfather Fu sighed and said to him, Dont you think you need to show your wife the way to your room ?

With Grandfather Fu reminding him of this, Fu Hua remembered that Jia Li has never climbed upstairs before because her room and Grandfather FUs study were on the ground floor, even the library too. So, there was no way she would know his bedroom.

So where then did she go to ?

Fu Hua said good night to Grandfather Fu before leaving in silence.

Grandfather Fu smiled as he watched him leave. Then turning his gaze back to the dining table, he caught Fu ChunHua looking towards the direction that Fu Hua disappeared in, and the smile on his face was replaced with a stern glance.

Fu ChunHua was a bit startled when she was caught by Grandfather Fu's smile, but then she smiled back at him.

Jia Li who Grandfather Fu was worried about, seemed a bit dumbfounded at the sight of what used to be her room, or maybe her room.

She has just opened the door to her room, only to see how empty it looked. She thought she had stepped into the wrong room, so she took a step back and glanced at the door, and confirmed she was at the right place.

Where are my things? Jia Li muttered in a low tone as she walked inside, leaving the door open. She made her way towards her walk-in closet and saw some of her things there.

She walked into the bathroom, and she couldn't find anything there. Now noticing the things in her bathroom and bedroom were gone, she began to panic. And just then, she heard the cold male voice say to her...

What are you doing here? Fu Hua asked with his hands in his trouser pockets. After talking with grandfather just now, he wasn't surprised that Jia Li would be there.

Jia Li was surprised to see that tall handsome guy with a cold look standing inside her room.

What is he doing here? She thought.

I...I want to sleep, but I can't find most of my things. Jia Li explained in a low tone.

Fu Hua gazed at her for a few seconds, and Jia Li couldn't tell what he was thinking. She was brought out of her thoughts when she heard him say, Follow me!

At first, she thought she didn't hear clearly until she saw him turn around and walk out of her room, then she immediately followed after him after closing the door to her room.

Jia Li followed Fu Hua and climbed the stairs. They walked through a hallway, and then took a turn before she saw him stop in front of the door.

Fu Hua opened the door to his bedroom before saying to her as he walked in. Come in and close the door behind you.

Jia Li was confused by the instruction, but she just followed it. She has just walked in and closed the door before turning around, and only to see the majestic bedroom that belonged to him.

She stood at the door and glanced around the bedroom, and she concluded that Fu Hua was someone that had a high taste for good things.

No wonder he dolled her up just for them to sign their marriage certificate. Jia Li thought.

But this was not what was important. The important question is, What were the things missing in her room doing in his bedroom? Jia Li screamed in her head

Seeing that she was still standing at the door and looking around his bedroom, Fu Hua frowned and asked, What are you doing standing there?

Jia Li finally regained her composure as she gazed at him and asked, My things are here?

Fu Hua gave her a confused glance as he asked, Where else would they be? If you want to take your bath, the bathroom is that way. You can change inside there as well. Most of your clothes are in the walk-in closet, so feel free.

Jia Li was still in a state of confusion when Fu Hua said she should have her bath, that he would be right back.

Hearing the door close behind her, Jia Li came back to her senses and almost screamed in horror. She forgot she was now married to him, and it was right for them to share the same bedroom.

Jia Li was really scared for her life, but there was no time to waste. Since he said he would be back shortly, she had to hurry up and take her bath before he comes back in.

With this thought in her head, Jia Li immediately walked into the walk-in closet. There was no time to admire the expensive things there, and how stylish Fu Huas things were, so Jia Li found the space her things were arranged and picked a conservative nightdress, then she walked into the bathroom to bath quickly.

By the time she came out of the bathroom, Fu Hua had already returned and was taking off his cuffs.

Fu Hua glanced at her before walking inside the inner room to change out of his clothes, and to take his bath.

Jia Li who had a big sweater wrapped around her body sighed in relief before turning to glance at the bed.

Chapter 103 – Fu Hua Is Uncomfortable Late Into The Night

Fu Hua glanced at her before walking inside the inner room to change out of his clothes and to take his bath.

Jia Li who had a big sweater wrapped around her body sighed in relief before turning to glance at the bed.

Next, her eyes moved to the couch as she was contemplating where to rest her tired body. And finally, she decided to go sleep on the couch.

She picked up a pillow from the bed before walking to the couch. She placed the pillow at one end of the couch before lying down and resting her head on the pillow.

Jia Li found it a bit difficult to sleep immediately because she was not used to the new environment and she was a bit insecure.

She was spending the night in the same room with that cold-faced man that just became her husband, she didn't feel safe at all.

As different thoughts were going through Jia Li's mind, five minutes passed before she slowly closed her eyes due to her tiredness.

Not long after she closed her eyes, Fu Hua walked out of the inner room. He was dressed in his thick sleepwear as he walked into the room.

He glanced at the bed and saw it was empty before moving sight over to the couch and there he saw Jia Li's figure.

He frowned as he walked towards her and asked, Why are you lying on the couch, what happened to the bed?

Jia Li who was not in a deep sleep yet heard his question and slowly opened her eyes.

I left the bed for you, I can sleep on the couch.

What do you mean? We are married, so why should we sleep on separate beds? Come to bed and lie down comfortably. Fu Hua said as she walked past her and walked towards the bed.

Jia Li thought she heard wrongly, so she gazed at him with a little confusion written all over her face.

Fu Hua got into the bed and sitting up, he arranged the duvet before using the remote controller to adjust the temperature of the room. This was the Autumn season, so the weather was very cold.

Seeing Jia Li still sitting on the couch and gazing at him, Fu Hua asked, Do you want to come to the bed yourself, or do you want me to come and carry you?

Having heard his two options which didn't leave any room for to reject, Jia Li got back to her senses pretty quick.

I can come on my own. Jia Li replied in a low tone. She was deeply worried about Fu Hua's next actions after she comes to join him on the bed.

She knows she was now his wife and had some wifely duties to perform but she was not ready at all. She was still trying to adjust to their new status and get to understand and till then, she wouldnt feel comfortable with being intimate with him.

Jia Li slowly walked towards the bed with the pillow in her hand. She placed the pillow on the bed, before lying on the edge of the bed.

Fu Hua could tell what Jia Li was thinking about, so he assured her.

Relax, I dont plan on doing anything to you. I didnt want you to be uncomfortable sleeping on the couch all through the night. And this is my bed, so why would I sleep on the couch instead? Four people can comfortably lie on this bed, so please dont fall off the bed while sleeping. Im not a hooligan, so I wont touch you.

After saying all of these, Fu Hua was quite annoyed with himself. He has never talked so much to someone before. Just now, he talked for the longest time possible just to convince Jia Li to lie properly on the bed so she wouldnt fall off in the middle of the night.

Even Jia Li was surprised that he was showing too much care towards her. But in order not to fall off the bed at night, she adjusted her sleeping position. When she felt she was comfortable enough, she stopped moving.

Fu Hua slowly relaxed his creased brows. He adjusted the duvet for Jia Li before turning off the light in the room and leaving only the sensor light on, so it would be easy to move freely at night.

Fu Hua laid his back on the bed and slowly closed his eyes to sleep.

Jia Li who has been a little tensed slowly drifted into sleep.

An hour later, Fu Hua woke up due to the uncomfortable feeling in his lower area. He tried to ignore it, but he couldn't.

He had no idea of the reason he was aroused in the middle of the night. He could feel how hot that place was.

At last, he opened his eyes and sat up. His eyes glanced at the lower part of his body. He saw his member standing and he became very annoyed.

He was wondering what was wrong, why would he suddenly become aroused without having any absurd thoughts.

Fu Hua felt his body was getting hotter, so he got off the bed, and walked toward the inner room. Jia Li who heard the movement remained calm, but she continued to keep her eyes closed.

Because she didn't feel secure, she wasn't in a deep sleep.

Fu Hua took a warm shower before coming back to bed when he felt his body cool down. But to his surprise, it didn't take up to 20 minutes before he started to feel his body get hotter and his member rising slowly.

At this moment, Fu Hua didn't need to be told that he had been drugged, but by who?

Who would dare to drug him? Fu Hua thought as anger slowly rose in his heart. He couldn't wait to strangle the person if he finds out who it was.

Four hours later, Fu Hua couldn't stay for 5 minutes on the bed without getting up to take a shower. He had stopped taking warm baths a long time ago and only taking cold showers despite the cold weather but it still wasn't able to calm him down.

Knowing that only s*x could calm him down, Fu Hua glanced at Jia Lis back.

Chapter 104 – What Every Good Girl Does

Knowing that only s*x could calm him down, Fu Hua glanced at Jia Lis back. He didnt want to touch, so he has managed to endure the torture for so long.

But right now, he was powerless and just wanted to be comfortable. Outwardly, his body was hot but inside he could feel his cold bones, due to standing under the cold shower

Before Fu Hua could touch Jia Lis back, she turned around to ask, Are you okay?

She has been feeling him stand up and leave the bed so many times and she couldnt fall asleep. She could tell he was uncomfortable, so she was a bit worried and decided to ask about it.

Fu Hua gazed at her innocent looks as his eyes flashed with passion.

Im not fine! He replied in a hoarse voice.

Jia Li was uncomfortable with his gaze but she still proceeded to continue with her questions.

Are you uncomfortable? Do you feel sick?

I am very uncomfortable! Fu Hua replied as he shut his eyes tightly. He was trying really hard to hold in his feelings.

Why are you uncomfortable, did you eat the wrong thing? Jia Li asked with worry laced in her tone.

I indeed ate the wrong thing, as someone actually dared to drug me! Fu Hua said as he let out a groan thereafter.

Jia Li was a bit confused with what he meant by someone drugging him. But seeing his actions, she immediately understood. She became scared and hurriedly turned her back towards him.

Fu Hua didnt know what to think seeing Jia Lis actions.

Is she scared? He thought as he quickly reached out to his member and grabbed it. He squeezed it and he let out another groan as beads of sweat appeared on his forehead.

From the little knowledge Jia Li had, she could tell he was suffering a lot, but she didnt dare to face him to ask any more questions.

At first, she thought he had an upset stomach given how many times he had left the bed but when she found out he was drugged and had probably gone out those times to settle himself, she became scared.

She felt the drug was so strong, as he couldnt calm down for so long.

With his eyes filled with lust and his body in urgent need of s*x, Fu Hua couldnt hold it in anymore. He groaned out of pleasure as his eyes landed on Jia Li. He quickly reached out to her and turned her over.

Ah! Jia Li shrieked out of fear as she covered her ears.

Dont scream! Fu Hua warned as he glared at her. Jia Li stopped screaming as she glanced at him fear in her eyes.

Jia Li, I cant hold it in anymore and I will have to break my promise to you. Fu Hua said in a hoarse voice.

You...you...you want to...to touch me? Jia Li stuttered.

What I want to do is more than touching you and this is the only way I can feel better. I already feel my cold bones as a result of taking cold showers. Fu Hua said as he moved closer to her body.

Brother Hua what are you trying to do?! Jia Li asked quickly as she tried to evade him, but she was caught tightly.

Look who I am. I am your husband, who is your brother?! Fu Hua asked in an annoyed tone as he felt his member twitch.

Jia Li was in a dilemma on how to address him and he answered that question.

You can call me by my name. Fu Hua said as he leaned in to brush his lips against her cheek.

Jia Li shuddered when she felt his warm lips touch her cheek. She wanted to escape but she was held tightly by Fu Hua.

Fu...Fu Hua, cant you manage till tomorrow ? Jia Li asked when she felt more kisses rain on her cheeks and neck.

You might really be accused of killing your husband the next morning. Fu Hua replied under his breath as he sat up and helped Jia Li to sit up as well.

But... But I havent done this before. I...I... Jia Li stuttered as she held tightly onto her sweater, so Fu Hua wouldnt be able to take it off, but he still managed to find a way to take it off, leaving her only in her thin nightdress.

I know. You look and act so innocent so its obvious. Jia Li, I didnt plan on touching, but I am forced to. You will have to blame the person that drugged me or all of this wouldnt be happening. Fu Hua said and leaned in to kiss Jia Lis lips.

Jia Li was taken aback when those hot wet lips touched hers. She instinctively placed her hands on his shoulders as she tried to push him away but he held her hands and stopped her from going ahead with her actions.

Jia Li was not really comfortable with all of these, as it was foreign to her. As she was thinking of ways to resist Fu Hua, she felt a hot palm on her left breast.

Jia Li couldnt tolerate this any longer and was about to bite Fu Hua when he released her lips and her breast.

He gazed at her before slowly cupping her cheeks.

Jia Li, I know youre scared, but you can trust me. I promise to be gentle to you. I wont force you again after this time. I am very uncomfortable and cant hold on any longer. Fu Hua said in a hoarse tone.

Jia Li managed to slowly look up to see that face looking at her pleadingly. She could tell he was in so much pain but what to do, she didnt want to give herself to him.

You are my wife and there is nothing wrong with doing this with me. Since I want it, you will have to agree with me. Thats what every good girl does. Fu Hua said as he slowly leaned in to kiss her lips and cheeks.

Jia Li was left stunned. She was a good girl and her mother had always taught her to do the right things.

Jia Li was thinking of what her mothers advice would be in this situation if she was alive.

After being lost in thought for a while, Jia Li was forced back to reality when she felt the palm squeezing her breast.

Jia Li quickly pushed Fu Hua away. Seeing the deep frown on his face, she quickly looked away from him and said in a soft tone You...you... take it easy, I...I heard its painful.

Chapter 105 - "Fu Hua... Please"

After being lost in thought for a while, Jia Li was forced back to reality when she felt the palm squeezing her breast.

Jia Li quickly pushed Fu Hua away. Seeing the deep frown on his face, she quickly looked away from him and said in a soft tone You...you... take it easy, I...I heard its painful.

Who told you its painful? The person lied to you. But dont worry, I will be gentle. Fu Hua said as he tore her nightdress. Jia Li was really scared by his actions.

He just said he would be gentle, but whats with the violence?

There is no time, Im in pain. Fu Hua explained as he threw her shredded clothes to the rugged floor.

Jia Li was embarrassed because she was naked and this was the first time a person from the opposite sex was seeing her in that state.

Fu Hua was not in the right frame of mind to care about Jia Lis shy appearance. Seeing Jia Lis naked body, increased the powerful flames

Fu Hua didnt have the time to study her body, as he had a pressing need to settle. He immediately took off his clothes and threw them on the floor.

In her embarrassed state, Jia Li glanced at Fu Huas hot body, and she was charmed by it. But when she saw him taking off his briefs, she immediately looked away.

When Fu Hua was done undressing, he moved closer to Jia Li and hugged her. Feeling their naked bodies touch, Jia Li felt a foreign feeling rise within her.

Fu Hua elapsed Jia Lis face and kissed her lips gently. From her lips, he moved to her jaw and then to her neck.

Jia Li let out a moan for the first time in her life and she felt deeply embarrassed.

Its okay. Fu Hua whispered in his hoarse voice before licking her neck with his wet tongue. Jia Li felt a tingling sensation as she let out another moan.

She felt pain in her nether regions and she rubbed her legs together. Fu Hua noticed her actions and placed his hand on her lap, caressing it.

The sensation was too much for Jia Li so she clasped her legs together but Fu Hua licked her ear as he whispered some words open your leg.

As if under a spell, Jia Li listened to him and opened her legs for him and he made his way to her milky-way.

When Fu Hua touched her there, Jia Li shuddered as she felt the pain increase. And one thing weird she noticed was that she felt if he inserted his fingers or touched her there, she wouldnt feel the pain anymore.

Youre wet. Jia Li, Im going to be gentle with you since this is your first time, so spread your legs wider for me. Fu Hua said in a seductive tone before kissing her lips and rubbing her clit.

Jia Li closed her eyes and let out a deep moan out of pleasure as she unconsciously wrapped her legs around his fingers.

Fu Hua didnt command her to open her legs again. From her lips, he moved to her breasts. He sucked one and fondled the other while the other hand remained to rub her clit.

Jia Li couldn't help moaning his name this time around. She felt so pleased that she wanted him.

She has never felt this way before. And she didn't have the time to be embarrassed anymore because all that was currently going through her mind, was for her to settle her sexual needs and so she ended up giving Fu Hua access to her entire body.

When Fu Hua felt she was ready for him, he stopped kissing and fondling her breasts. He knelt before her and opened her legs wider. Jia Li didn't want him to look at that place so she attempted to close her legs, but he held them apart.

Jia Li wanted to remind him to be gentle, but when she caught a glimpse of half of his member, she shut her mouth.

Fu Hua slowly moved his member to her clit and rubbed it for a little while and that action alone, nearly made Jia Li lose her mind and she didn't know when she started pleading with him.

Fu Hua...please....

This was indeed torture to her, but luckily for her, someone was in a condition worse than her as he wasn't in the right condition to continue teasing her because he was suffering more than her.

Without any more delay, Fu Hua slowly slid his member into her core. Jia Li moaned softly as she searched for something her fingers could grab.

Because Fu Hua had his arms under her laps, she couldn't break free from him, so she could only allow him to try to penetrate her.

Fu Hua felt a little relieved when he entered her. He wanted to continue moving, but he met with a roadblock and when he tried again, Jia Li's sudden painful cry, reminded him of something.

It's painful! Jia Li cried out in pain when she felt the big hot thing try to penetrate her.

Im sorry, I will be careful. Fu Hua apologized as beads of sweat appeared on his forehead. He was perspiring to show how much he was suffering.

Fu Hua learned his lesson and began to move in her slowly, and while doing that, he thought...

If I really get past this stage without exploding, I don't think there is any other I can't withstand.

Jia Li felt this was painful. She felt Fu Hua lied to her because she just found another way to feel pain.

How come nobody told her this was very painful? Jia Li thought as tears streamed down her eyes.

After much dedication and patience, Fu Hua finally made a breakthrough, and Jia Li felt a little better.

Fu Hua began to move in and out of her slowly after he broke her hymen. The hardest part was done, and now he could move in and out of her even though there was still a little restriction.

This was Jia Li's first time, so she was still very tight.

Chapter 106 – "Are You Angry With Me?"

After what felt like forever to Jia Li, Fu Hua sprayed his seed inside her before gently kissing her sweaty forehead while panting for air.

Im sorry. He said in a low tone as he brushed the few strands of hair off her forehead.

Jia Li slowly opened her eyes, and as their eyes met, She turned away from him. She didnt know what to think as this was the most uncomfortable period of her life.

Are you angry with me ?. Fu Hua asked in a hoarse tone as he slowly pulled out of her.

Jia Li turned her back against him once he pulled out of her, and when she did so, she hissed in pain.

Fu Hua sighed and didnt know what to do other than to part her shoulder as he apologized.

Jia Li felt like crying, but she couldnt. She could only blame Fu Hua for seducing her and getting her to agree to do this kind of thing with him.

If this is how painful it normally is, then I don't want to do it again. Jia Li thought.

After laying on the bed for over an hour, Fu Hua became aroused again, and Jia Li who was trying hard to fall asleep was woken up again.

Learning that he wanted to go for another round, Jia Li rejected him.

I'm still sore, and this is so painful, I don't want to do it again. Jia Li said in a soft tone. Deep down her heart, she was bearing a grudge against him.

It's because it's your first time, and that's why you're uncomfortable. I promise to be gentle this time around. Fu Hua said.

Even Fu Hua found his situation frustrating. He couldn't believe he would stoop so low as to beg the woman he didn't love for s*x. And the worst part of it was that it was inconvenient for her.

But you...you...you lied to me. You said you would be gentle the first time, but you didn't keep your promise. Jia Li said with her gaze on him.

I know, I'm wrong. This is the last time you have to do it, okay?. Fu Hua said as he kissed her lips.

Jia Li felt she was being deceived for the second time, but she wasn't given enough time to think about it, because Fu Hua had already started to mess with her brain.

Fu Hua ended up going two more rounds with Jia Li before he finally let her go.

This time around, Jia Li refused to speak to him. She turned her back to him and closed her eyes to sleep. And luckily for Fu Hua, he was sexually satisfied.

The next morning, the two people were sleeping naked under the sheets. Because they slept late last night, they still werent up even when it was breakfast time.

Thirty minutes later, Fu Hua slowly opened his eyes. He was used to waking up early, so it wasnt a surprise to him that he could still get up on time even though he had only 3 hours of sleep last night.

The first thing Fu Hua did when he opened his eyes was to glance at the woman who was still sleeping soundly beside him.

Remembering last nights events, his brows creased in a frown. He couldnt want to find out who was shameless enough to drug him.

He knew his grandfather wouldnt go to such an extent to bring him closer to Jia Li, so he needed to find out who that person was.

Fu Hua got out of bed, picked up his nightclothes, and put them on before walking into the inner room.

He walked out fifteen minutes later dressed in a shirt and pants.

He walked towards the bed to check on Jia Li. Glancing at his wristwatch, he guesses she would be up late today, so he left the room.

Downstairs at the dining room, Fu Hees face was squeezed in annoyance since breakfast started, and Fu Hua was nowhere to be seen.

Whats keeping Fu Hua and Jia Li, do they want us to wait for them?. Fu Hee asked.

Fu Hee, why are you bothered? Everyone here knows that your son and Jia Li got married yesterday, and it's perfectly normal for newlyweds to sleep in the next morning. Fu ChunHua said with a marvelous glint.

What do you mean?!. Fu Hee asked in an annoyed tone as she glared at her.

Enough! Nobody asked you to wait for them. Eat your food quietly!. Grandfather Fu commanded as he directed a stern gaze towards her.

Fu Hee frowned as she picked up her cutlery and began to eat like the orders.

Father, I will be going back to the base this evening, there is an emergency meeting with the government tomorrow morning, so I have to leave today. Fu Lei announced.

It's fine. You and Geming should play cards with me before you leave. Grandfather Fu said.

This is a good idea to get away from the stress at work. Fu Geming said with a smile as he supported Grandfather Fu.

Okay. I have enough time in my hands before I leave. Fu Lei said.

Fu Hee nudged his arm as she fixed her gaze on him. Fu Lei glanced at her in return, waiting for her to speak.

I have something important to discuss with you after breakfast. Fu Hee said in a low tone.

Fu Lei nodded and went back to eating his food. His lack of interest annoyed Fu Hee, but there was nothing she could do about it.

Just then, steady footsteps were heard, and it caught the attention of everybody in the dining room.

Since they extended members if the Fu Family were sent to the hotel reserved for their stay, it was the main Branch of the Fu Family that was present.

Soon, Fu Hua was seen making his way to the dining area. Fu Hee sighed in relief when she saw him, and she was hoping that nothing happened between him and Jia Li last night.

Chapter 107 – Fu Hua Gives Fu ChunHua A Warning

Soon, Fu Hua was seen making his way to the dining area. Fu Hee sighed in relief when she saw him, and she was booing nothing happened between him and Jia Li last night.

Fu Hua, why are you only coming out now ? We have been waiting for you. Fu Hee said with her gaze on him.

When did we start to wait for everyone to gather before breakfast ? As far as I remember, Grandfather is the person we all wait for. Fu Hua said as he found an empty seat and sat down.

Is Jia Li sleeping? Grandfather Fu asked as he glanced at Fu Hua.

Yes. Fu Hua replied as he picked up the mug of black coffee a servant just dropped in front of him.

Fu Hua was all smiles as she said, Later, you will have to take some breakfast to Jia Li.

Fu Hua glanced at her and seeing her smiling from ear to ear, he guessed she must have been the one that drugged him and everything made sense now.

She was now the Mistress of the family, and she was basically the one in charge of things in the kitchen, so she could just order the servants around and get them to do anything. But he knew in order not for the news to spread, she must have done everything herself.

At the thought of this, Fu Hua's expression darkened. He couldn't wait to have a word with her.

It would be embarrassing to him and also to Jia Li if anyone found out he was drugged and it will be easy to guess what went down with Jia Li last night.

He didn't want Jia Li to be embarrassed by anyone's gaze or thoughts towards her, so he at least had to protect her in that way.

The breakfast table was calm as everyone ate to their fill, except for Fu Hee who was too angry to eat properly.

When grandfather Fu was done eating, he wiped his lips and said with his gaze on Fu Hee.

Fu Hee, have you settled things with the Bai family? He asked.

Fu Hee almost choked on her food. She swallowed her food and wiped her lips before replying.

Not yet! But I will inform Mrs. Bai of the news of Fu Huas marriage. Fu Hee replied.

Make sure you dont blame anybody. And I hope you know what to say? Grandfather Fu asked with a stern gaze.

Yes, Father. Fu Hee replied with an annoyed tone. She was angry because she felt the old man was meddling in something he shouldnt be interested in.

Grandfather Fu left the dining table after that.

Fu Hee was the next to leave, as she had long lost her appetite.

Brother, are you going to the company today? Fu YingPei whispered to Fu Huas hearing.

Fu Hua glanced at him. He was tempted to reply sarcastically since he was not in a good mood, but he refrained from that.

I am not going. The sales of the company are going on well after the show. Fu Hua replied.

Oh! Fu YingPei said with a smile. He wanted to tease Fu Hua but the latter didnt seem to be in a good mood.

One after the other after breakfast, Fu Lei, Fu Geming, Fu Ling, Fu Juan, and Fu Meixu left the dining room.

Fu Hua saw that YingPei wasn't still leaving the dining room, so he got annoyed and said to him, Do you plan to report to work late? It looks like you don't want your promotion by the end of this year.

Ah! I'm leaving already! Fu YingPei said as he hurriedly wiped and left the dining room while wondering what was wrong with his brother.

Now that only he and Fu ChunHua were left, Fu Hua fixed his cold gaze on her.

Fu ChunHua noticed that icy gaze on her and turned to glance towards the direction she felt it, only to see Fu Hua staring at her.

She was a little startled simply because she was guilty of an abominable crime. But she masked her nervous look with a smile as she asked...

Fu Hua, do you need more food?

Cut the crap! Why did you drug me yesterday? Fu Hua asked straightforwardly as he didn't want to waste time with her.

Ah! What are you talking about, you must be mistaken? Fu ChunHua denied his words as she stood to her feet. She was about to walk away when Fu Hua's words stopped her.

Aunty, it looks like you're too old so you're losing your memories. Maybe when I report your shameless acts to grandfather, you will remember something. Fu Hua said with a cold gaze.

Fu ChunHua felt pain in her chest when Fu Hua addressed her as an old woman because of her age. The fact that she was older than her husband, his mother and was of the same age as his father, has always been a thorn in her flesh.

Now hearing him mention that, she felt something heavy was pressing on her chest. And as if that wasn't enough, he had also threatened her.

Fu ChunHua slowly forced back the painful feelings back inside her heart as she slowly turned around to glance at him with a painful expression on her face.

You want to report me to Father so he will remove my position and hand it back to your mother? She asked.

Fu Hua stood to his feet and said as he walked towards her, No, so you two can have a long rest while someone more capable will take over the position you two couldn't keep.

Fu ChunHua shivered as she felt the cold air from Fu Hua as he came close to her.

Aunty, don't mess with me next time... Fu Hua said in simple words before walking past her.

Once he was out of sight, Fu ChunHua sat back on the chair as she breathed heavily.

Mum, you really dared to drug Fu Hua, are you courting death? Fu Ling asked with a frown as he walked over. He has been hiding in the corners when he saw Fu Hua talking to his mother.

Actually, he came back to ask his mother for something when he saw them taking, so he hid and listened to them.

He only walked out when Fu Hua had left.

Chapter 108 – Fu Hee Sets An Appointment With Mrs. Bai

Mum, you really dared to drug Fu Hua, are you courting death? Fu Ling asked with a frown as he walked over. He has been hiding in the corners when he saw Fu Hua talking to his mother.

Fu ChunHua glanced up to look at him, then she looked away without saying anything.

Mum, you never learn, do you? You already caused Fu Hua to be angry with you when you used underhand methods to get Meixu into FJ and now, you even drugged him? Mum, you know Fu Huas personality very well. That he left you now is already questionable but Im sure there wont be next time. If you cross his path again, even grandfather wont be able to save you. Fu Ling advised.

Fu ChunHua had her grievances, but she couldnt voice them out.

She wanted to tell him she was helping the old man to bring Fu Hua and Jia Li closer, but she knew telling him will be useless, because he will ask...

Did grandfather ask for your help?

Fu Ling had no more words left to say when he saw that his mother still had something to say to defend herself, so he just turned around and left.

Are you going to play games again?! Fu ChunHua shouted behind him, but he didnt turn back and only walked away quickly.

Fu ChunHua could only sit back angrily. And before she could react, a servant approached her.

Maam, young master Fu Hua asked for Miss Jia Lis breakfast to be sent to his room.

Fu ChunHua heaved a sigh as she stood up and left with the servant.

As Fu Hee was sitting in the bedroom, Fu Lei walked in and was about to go straight for the inner room when Fu Hee blocked his way.

What are you doing? He asked with a frown as he was a little impatient.

Lei, I asked you to come with me to go and see the Bai family and explain things to them but instead, you agreed to play games with father. Do you still have conscience? Fu Hee asked with her hands spread out.

Who was the one that didnt have a conscience before going to make arrangements with the Bai family without consulting anyone, even her husband? Move out of my way! Fu Lei said to her in an annoyed tone.

Because of my little mistakes, are you saying that you wont go with me? Fu Hee asked with an unbelievable expression on her face.

You have said its a little mistake, then fix it! Fu Lei said as he walked past her so freely.

Fu Hee couldnt believe her husband did not agree to go with her because she never told him of her arrangements or involved him with the plans she had with the Bai Family.

Fu Hee did not know what to feel. She only thought her husband was so petty as he couldn't show her a little support because he bore a grudge against her.

Fu Hee felt wronged and needed someone to talk to. She wanted to call her daughter and complain to her but she remembered that she still had to go through another trouble of explaining things to her, and since she was the friend to the daughter of the Bai family, she would immediately tell her off and run off to reveal everything to her friend.

And since she hasn't yet explained things to the Bai Family, she couldn't let her know anything about it.

What a headache! Fu Hee thought as she went back to sit on the bed.

After mustering enough courage, She picked up her phone as dialed Mrs. Bais number and on the first ring, the call was answered.

Oh! Thank God Fu Hee, you finally called back. What happened, I called you a dozen times yesterday, but you didn't answer any of my calls, and you didn't call back. Is everything alright? Mrs. Bai asked.

Fu Hee sighed as she replied, Everything is okay. Some of the extended Fu families came over and you know as the Mistress, I have to arrange everything.

Oh! I see. It must have been hard on you. But why did the extended family members visit, was there an occasion? Mrs. Bai asked.

That's a story for another day. Fu Hee said to her.

Okay, it's fine. I'm glad you called back now because I was already dressed up and planning to visit you. Mrs. Bai revealed.

What! You wanted to visit me? Fu Hee asked in shock as her eyeballs nearly popped out of their eye sockets.

Mrs. Bai found her reaction weird, so she asked, Why, is something wrong with me visiting you or coming to the Fu Family?

Realizing that her reaction was indeed questionable, Fu Hee covered it up as she laughed over it. Dont mind me. I was only surprised that you care about me this much.

There is nothing to be surprised about, after all, you are my friend, and our children are going to be married soon, and that will make us in-laws, and its only right that I should care for you. Mrs. Bai replied in a happy tone.

At this point, Fu Hee wanted to run away from the country as she didnt know how to bring up the topic she has been trying so hard to hide.

Mrs. Bai was about to ask Fu Hee if she had spoken to Fu Hua and the rest of the Fu Family about the arrangements, but it was as if Fu Hee guessed what her next question would be, so she directly cut her off.

Bai Fen, I have something important to talk to you about. Lets meet at  by 2 PM. Ah! my husband is out, I will meet you at that place, bye! Fu Hee said and ended the call before Mrs. Bai could ask any questions.

Fu Hee patted her chest as she kept her phone aside. She felt so lucky for being smart. Fu Hee sighed as she began to think of what she would say when she met up with Mrs. Bai.

After a while, she said to herself, Ah! I cant have a heart attack because of this matter.

And as she said so, she removed her shoes and climbed up the bed. Fu Lei walked out of the inner room to see her sitting on the bed with her hands folded.

He just glanced at her and walked past her to leave the room without saying anything.

When Fu Hee was on the phone, he heard everything she said, and he began to think when his wife became so good at lying.

Fu Hee also did not spare Fu Lei more than a two seconds glance before looking away. And when he left the room, she laid on the bed and closed her eyes.

Chapter 109 – Fu Juan Is Pitiabile

Glancing at her, grandfather Fu asked her to wait as he received some files from Butler Lu.

What do you want to see me for? He asked as his attention was on the files in his hands.

I wanted to see you about Jia Li. When you refused me to adopt her a year ago, I didnt know this was the idea you had although you told me you had plans for her. Father, dont you think you made the wrong decision? Fu Juan asked.

Grandfather Fu replied without glancing at her. I didnt make any mistake. I think deeply before making any big decision, so all of you that are worrying about me pairing wrongly, shouldnt think too much about it. Things may seem bleak now, but I know the future is bright.

Fu Juan had no words to refute him with. Since the Old man thinks hes right, then hes right. But surprisingly the Old man is always right since he always thinks deeply before making any decision.

But Fu Juan thought this was a matter of two lives, two Destinys and setting them up like that was a gamble. But she hopes he will be right like he has always been.

Your husband didnt come with you yesterday, where is he? Grandfather Fu asked as he took out the papers from the big envelope and placed them on the table.

He is always traveling. We dont have a child, so theres no need for him to come back often. Fu Juan replied as she tried to mask the sadness in her heart but Grandfather Fu was still able to see them in her eyes.

He has you to return to. The two of you should make plans to adopt a child and there is nothing wrong with that. Grandfather Fu advised.

I dont think thats a good idea. He is so busy and I sometimes get busy as well. Who will look after the child? Fu Juan asked.

Stop giving silly excuses. You're still hoping on having your child, which is not a bad thing, but you should think about your age and know it is 99.9% impossible. Grandfather Fu said as he slowly looked up to glance at her.

Fu Juan sighed without saying anything because she knew he was right.

Grandfather Fu sighed as he fully concentrated on talking to her now.

I loved your mother and before I married her, I already made plans that if we didn't have children, we can always adopt one or two. But if she liked me then there wouldn't be a need to adopt any child. In your case, the person that needs the child the most should adopt. Adoption is not wrong, but you should be able to take care of the child and be responsible for him.

Fu Juan shut her eyes and then opened them the next moment. I will talk to my husband once he comes back from this trip.

When are you going back? Grandfather Fu asked.

After chatting with Grandfather Fu for a while, Fu Juan left.

This daughter of mine is really pitiable. I wonder what she would do if she finds out her husband betrayed her. Grandfather Fu said with a sigh.

Hmmm... Master you mean... Butler Lu said as he trailed off. He was still in shock with what the Old man said.

Her husband cheated on her and I won't be surprised if he already has children with another woman. So, Juan has to adopt a child that will keep her company. Grandfather Fu said.

Butler Lu looked shocked to learn of this revelation.

Master, if your son-in-law cheated on your daughter, shouldn't you punish him and get justice for her? Butler Lu asked, not quite understanding the old man's thoughts.

I will only interfere with their matter if she finds out and come crying to me. For now, I can't be the one to let her know about it. And I can't fully support her because she has an idea that her husband is not faithful. Grandfather Fu disclosed.

Master, then you really need to make investigations to confirm if he has children with another woman. Butler Lu suggested.

I will not do that. I asked Fu Juan to marry the person I chose for her but she refused and her mother made me allow her to go with her choice, now look at it. And because I promised my wife, I allowed my children to pick their partners. But when it came to Hua, I insisted I would be the one to select his marriage partner since I brought him up and you know, I can't watch him make a terrible mistake. His parents had agreed at that time. If Fu Juan had listened to me, she wouldn't have to suffer all of these.

But master, if General and his wife accepted that you will select master Fu Hua's partner, why did the Mistress go-ahead to arrange a marriage with the Bai family without consulting anyone? Butler Lu asked.

He thought he already knew so much about the Fu family, but it turned out there were some important matters he had no idea about.

You can say she lost her mind for a while. Grandfather Fu replied before finally fixing his gaze on the papers before him.

But Master, what about your daughter, wont you assist her? Butler Lu inquired.

Lu, take note that you cant help everybody even when you have the power. More especially, you cant help the people that are afraid of the truth. Grandfather Fu before finally immersing his concentration on the papers.

Butler Lu just learned something from the old man. He just guessed that Fu Juan might have an idea of her husbands unfaithfulness but she didnt want to confirm it because she was afraid of knowing the truth, so she is still acting ignorantly about the matter.

Chapter 110 – Fu Hua Is Worried He Might Have Hurt Jia Li

Lu, if you betray the Fu Family, your head will roll. Grandfather Fu said casually, which may or may not be a threat.

Yes, Sir! Butler Lu said as he bowed. He was not scared, because he was used to staying with the old man and he didnt have any plans of betraying him so he wasnt guilty.

When Fu Hua walked into his bedroom, he didnt see anyone on the bed and that was quite a bit of a surprise to him because he had no idea that Jia Li would wake up early.

Glancing at the bed, he saw that the duvet was gone and there was a small red patch on the side of the bed Jia Li lay on.

He walked closer to the bed to take a look at it, and when he guessed what it was, he took a step back and glanced at the door leading to the inner room which was tightly shut.

Did I injure her? Fu Hua thought as his brows creased up in a frown.

He didnt know what else to think other than to think he injured her as he couldnt explain any other reason there would be a bloodstain on the bed.

Years ago, when Fu Hua met Feng Alix and they got to know each other well enough, she told him she was a virgin and he was her first boyfriend. But when they finally got together, he didnt see her bleed after it and he didnt have any trouble with getting through her.

So, seeing the blood on the bed that belonged to Jia Li, Fu Hua thought he hurt her, without having the slightest idea that virgins with their hymens intact bleed on their first s*x.

Fu Hua felt guilty as he stared at the bloodstain on the white sheets.

He was currently thinking if he let Fu ChunHua off so easily because if she didnt drug him, he wouldnt have touched Jia Li and then she wouldnt have gotten hurt.

As Fu Hua was still thinking about the matter, Jia Li stepped out of the inner room and was surprised to see him in the room.

Just now, she was bathing and didn't hear when someone stepped into the bedroom.

Fu Hua glanced at her to see her fully dressed in some casual clothes. She was currently putting on a pair of jeans and a shirt and there was a big jacket in her hand.

Jia Li turned to run back into the inner room when he called her back.

Did I hurt you last night? Fu Hua asked gently.

Jia Li who still had a grudge against him, turned around to glance at him, then she shook her head in a negative affirmation.

Fu Hua was confused by her response, so he asked further.

But the blood on the sheets belongs to you. Fu Hua said while pointing to the bed.

Jia Li followed his finger and saw the blood on the bed and she felt like disappearing.

When she got out of bed, she saw the bloodstain, and made a mental note to come back to change the sheets after dressing up but who would have thought he would walk into the room when she was bathing, and now he had to see the blood before she could get rid of the sheets.

Jia Li slowly walked towards the bed to pick up the sheets as a blush appeared on her face.

Yes, it belongs to me, Jia Li said in a muffled tone as she proceeded to drag the sheets of the bed.

Fu Hua became more worried. Since the blood on the sheets belonged to her, then I must have really hurt her badly last night.

Now thinking about having an injury down that place, Fu Hua frowned as he knew how painful and uncomfortable it will be.

Jia Li, about last night, Im sorry. I didnt mean to be rough with you and I hurt you in the process. Come, have your breakfast and I will take you to see a doctor. Fu Hua said to Jia Li.

Jia Li who managed to gather the sheets off the bed glanced at Fu Hua for only a second before looking away embarrassingly.

I dont need a doctor. Jia Li said in a small tone as she carried the sheets and was about walking away but Fu Hua caught her arms and stopped her in her steps.

He took the sheets from her and dumped them on the floor, and all of these surprised Jia Li.

Holding her shoulders and forcing her to look into her eyes, Fu Hua said to her with a frown.

I know youre upset with me and I have apologized already. Its fine if you dont want to accept it but I need to take you to the doctor since you have an injury down there. I dont want you to suffer from any complications later on.

Jia Li was scared seeing this side of Fu Hua and the worst part of it all was that she couldnt free herself from his grasp, so she had no choice but to remain standing before him.

Fu Hua, Im not injured, Im fine. Jia Li said as she gazed at him with a sincere look.

Fu Hua released her shoulders and asked, Then how do you explain the bloodstain on the sheets ?

Jia Li finally understood that the man before her didn't know anything about this. And even though she was embarrassed, she still had to explain to him or who knows if he might get a doctor to the house to come and examine her and then everyone would know something was wrong with her.

Thinking of these, Jia Li shuddered.

Jia Li looked down and explained to Fu Hua in a soft tone.

I'm not injured. It's normal for some women to bleed on their first time.

Then glancing at Fu Hua, she saw he was still confused. She couldn't stand there and explain further as she was not his biology teacher, so she hurriedly escaped from his sight after she picked up the sheets.

Chapter 111 – What Did You Call Me For?

Then glancing at Fu Hua, she saw he was still confused. She couldn't stand there and explain further as she was not his biology teacher, so she hurriedly escaped from his sight after she picked up the sheets.

Fu Hua could only watch as Jia Li fled in embarrassment. He glanced at the bedside and saw the jacket she left behind, then he walked up to pick it. And just then, a knock sounded on the door.

Fu Hua put the jacket on the bed as he said in a cold tone, Come in!

The door was pushed open, as a trolley of food was wheeled into the room.

Sir, Ive brought breakfast for Miss Qin. The servant said after she served the food.

Mmm, you may leave. Fu Hua said as he waved his hand for her to leave.

The servant bowed and left after she wheeled the cart to a good position.

After the servant left, Fu Hua was wondering how long it would take Jia Li to keep the sheets in the laundry basket and come out.

He glanced at his wristwatch before walking towards the door. He knocked on it before saying,

Jia Li, so you plan to sleep in there?

Jia Li who had been hiding inside glanced at the door nervously.

Fu Hua didnt hear any response from her, so he added, Breakfast is served, dont spend your whole day there.

Jia Li sighed tiredly. She really wanted to spend some time alone but it looks like he wouldnt let her.

Jia Li walked towards the door and opened it. When she walked out of the inner room with new sheets, she saw Fu Hua sitting on the couch with his phone in hand, and he seemed to be really busy.

Jia Li walked towards the bed with steady steps, and in a few minutes, the bed was dressed neatly.

Sighing to herself, she glanced at Fu Hua, who was sitting on the couch. She was already very hungry and wanted to eat, but she didn't know why he would go to the same couch where her food was served, to sit.

Jia Li was still contemplating when her stomach grumbled. She covered her stomach embarrassingly as she glanced towards Fu Hua who only spared her a glance before looking back at his phone.

Why are you still standing there? He asked with his gaze on his phone.

Jia Li slowly walked towards him, and as she tried to sit on the couch, she had a funny way of doing that, which caught Fu Hua's attention.

Are you....?

Thank you for the breakfast. Jia Li said, cutting off any other word he had left to say.

Fu Hua could only keep quiet as he went ahead to continue with his research online. And if only Jia Li saw what he was reading, she would have spat her food out.

Jia Li ate quietly as Fu Hua continued to browse on the internet. He was making inquiries to find out more about a woman's first-time s*x experience.

He has only slept with two women in his life, and according to them, they were virgins, but why were their experiences, different?

From what he read on the internet, Fu Hua could tell the reason Jia Li bled. But as for the reason Feng Alix had a different experience, another article described it.

The reason she didnt bleed on her first time (according to her) maybe because of sports or exercise.

After noting all of these, Fu Hua was lost in thought. He was so quiet and calm at the same time that Jia Li was wondering what he was thinking about.

Jia Li did not bother with him. She ate to her satisfaction and gathered the plates and remaining food on the trolley before pushing it outside the door.

Coming back to the room, Fu Hua glanced at her and said, Wear something nice, Im taking you somewhere.

Jia Li looked surprised as she reminded him, But I just finished eating.

Oh! you can rest for a while then. Your painting arrived yesterday and was delivered to the room by one of the servants when we were having dinner. Where do you want to put it? Fu Hua asked as he pointed to the painting that was still wrapped and sitting on one corner of the room.

Wow! Jia Li exclaimed as she walked towards the painting. She lifted it and admired it before carrying it with her and went to sit on the couch beside Fu Hua.

She put the painting on the floor beside her before proceeding to unwrap it with a smile on her face.

Fu Hua was thinking how easily Jia Li was fascinated by just a painting.

Fu Hua, thank you! Jia Li said with an appreciative smile while admiring the painting she just unwrapped.

Where do you want to put it? Fu Hua asked after acknowledging her appreciation.

Jia Li glanced at the walls in the room before looking back at Fu Hua. Can I put it here in the room? She asked, not sure if he would agree with her request.

I will ask someone to put it up for you before we leave. Fu Hua replied and his phone started ringing immediately after that.

Glancing at the caller ID, Fu Hua frowned but didn't hesitate to answer the call.

Jia Li knew the call was kind of important, so she left the room with the papers that were used to wrap the paintings.

Fu Hua glanced at her back until she disappeared out of the room before glancing back at the painting she left behind.

Speak! Fu Hua spat out in a cold tone.

Are you still angry with me? The familiar female voice asked from the other side of the world.

What did you call me for? Fu Hua asked as he was starting to get annoyed.

Feng Alix knew she had to stop beating around the bush, so she went straight to the point. Im sorry about the other day. I landed a huge job but didn't tell you about it when I knew we had plans...

Fu Hua didnt wait to hear what she still had to say, so he directly asked, If you want to talk about this, I dont have time for it.

Okay. I forgot you would be in the office by now. Feng Alix said in a low tone but Fu Hua didnt feel it was necessary to correct her.

She didnt have to know where he was, who he was with, or what he was doing, so he didnt say a word about that.

Chapter 112 – Jia Li Misinterprets Fu Huas Words

If you have nothing else to say, I will get busy now. Fu Hua said directly as he didnt want to waste time with her on the phone.

Wait! Are you not going to ask me when I will be back? Feng Alix asked.

Why should I do that? I have given you enough time already. Fu Hua said with a frown, then Feng Alix recalled when he said to her to take her time during their last conversation.

She had thought he said it out of anger, but who knew he meant what he said?

She thought it must have been hard for him to accept that she was going to stay away from him for another three months, so he had to agree even when he was furious.

That was fast but she was glad she didnt have to plead with him for a long time.

Fu Hua, dont be mad at me, okay? I will be back in three months. Feng Alix said to him.

Take your time, I am not in a hurry. I will wait for you to be back. Fu Hua said in a neutral tone.

What he meant to say was, You can take as much time as you want, its not like you are still holding me back.

Feng Alix was happy and immediately said a few words before ending the call.

When her manager walked in and saw her smiling like that, she asked, Did you speak to Mr. Fu?

Yes. I told him I would be back in 3 months and he asked me to take time. See, he really understands me. He was only furious the other day. Feng Alix said as she put her phone away.

Hah! Why did you only call him back today when you should have done that earlier since you committed a huge crime? The manager asked in surprise.

She thought Feng Alix had long apologized to Fu Hua, and that todays conversation was about them talking about another thing, but she just got to know Feng Alix was only apologizing now.

She had since wanted to ask her if she had explained things to Fu Hua, but because of her attitude, she didnt want to ask too much. Now learning of this, she didnt know what to say.

I only found time today. And whats there to be worried about? I just explained things to him, and he got the message. And besides, Fu Hua is always busy, so Im sure he wouldnt have time to listen to any excuses, so I just went straight to the point. Feng Alix said as she crossed her leg over the other.

When are you going back? The manager asked.

I told him I will be back in 3 months, but I will surprise him by coming back in two months. After spending a week with him, I will return to finish my work. Feng Alix said proudly.

Her manager didnt want to butt in again, so she remained quiet and accepted what she had to say.

After the call, Fu Hua shut his eyes and massaged his temples for a while before his phone rang.

Boss, the wife of the minister for sports and tourism, asked to meet with you. Her Secretary just called to inform us so we could set an appointment. Fu Huas personal Assistant reported over the phone.

Does she want to order dresses this year or does she have a business proposal? Fu Hua asked.

Mmm... Boss, I dont know. What time would be convenient for you? His personal Assistant said.

I will meet her tomorrow morning by 8 AM. Fu Hua said.

What about the meeting with the sales department, when should I fix it?

He asked again.

Are you my personal Assistant so I would have to instruct you with everything? Arrange my schedule like before. You only need to ask about important matters. Fu Hua said in a cold tone.

Im sorry Sir. Then... Goodbye Sir. His assistant said as their conversation came to an end.

Jia Li walked into the room a few minutes later. She didnt have to go to school today, and because she was used to spending time in her room when she didnt have anything to do in school.

Where do you want to go to today? Fu Hua asked as soon as she returned.

Ill be fine with relaxing at home. Jia Li replied.

Dress up, I have a place to take you to. When we return, you can relax all you want. Fu Hua said after glancing over at her.

Jia Li glanced back at him before asking, Is it a formal event? She asked so she would know how to dress since he had a problem with her dressing sense.

Fu Hua glanced at her again before replying, We are going to have lunch outside. Dont dress too casually. You can put on something easy to remove.

Jia Li felt warning bells

Im also taking you to the beauty parlor, and you would need to change out of your clothes there.

Oh! Jia Li exclaimed as her palpitating heart calmed down a lot. She still had a palm on her chest as she breathed heavily.

She felt that he frightened her on purpose, but having understood his personality, and the kind of relationship they had, he definitely didn't have time to tease her.

Jia Li walked into the inner room to change her clothes, and she came out a few minutes later dressed in a purple gown with a huge jacket covering her upper body, and a long pair of boots on her feet.

Fu Hua approved her looks with his gaze before going on in to change his clothes. He came out some minutes later dressed in a trousers with a coat on his upper body, and another one in his hand.

It will be very cold outside, take off the jacket and put on the coat. Fu Hua said as he handed the long overcoat to Jia Li.

Chapter 113 – Fu Hua Allows Jia Li To Nap For A While After The Massage

It will be very cold outside, take off the jacket and put on the coat. Fu Hua said as he handed the long overcoat to Jia Li.

Thank you!. Jia Li said as she took it from him and put it on.

The two walked out of the room and used the stairs to go down. They saw Butler Lu just as they came downstairs.

Butler Lu, inform Grandfather that Im going out with Jia Li, and there is no need to wait for us during lunch. Fu Hua informed.

Okay. Butler Lu said with a smile as he bowed.

On their way to the beauty parlor, Jia Lis phone rang, but because of Fu Huas presence, she didnt want to answer the call.

At the third ring, Fu Hua glanced at her. Dont you want to answer the call?.

No, its my friend, I will return the call later. Jia Li said in a soft tone as she put her phone on silent mode.

Fu Hua glanced back at the road and turned on the music.

Getting to the beauty parlor, Fu Hua assigned someone to take care of Jia Li while he went to another section to shop.

Jia Li had no idea she was the only one getting a massage, and she didnt know the reason he brought her to that place.

Well, Fu Hua did that because he felt guilty after he tired her out last night, so getting a massage will help her not to feel sore again.

While Fu Hua was getting a body massage, Fu Hua was shopping for beauty products for her with the recommendation of one of the beauticians in the store.

After an hour had passed, Jia Li was already asleep because her fatigued body had finally relaxed. But before she got the massage done, she played out a drama.

Jia Li was bursty so when she changed and had to lie on the bed and expose her back, her boobs were showing from the side, and she felt a bit embarrassed.

She ended up asking the person that was going to attend to her to put some clothes on her sides to cover her boobs from showing.

The attendant smiled and did as Jia Li requested that. And for this reason of being the only one getting a massage in the room, Jia Li felt at ease and relieved that Fu Hua didnt join her.

While getting a massage, Jia Li fell asleep, and the beautician had to leave her to continue resting in the room as she went out to report to Fu Hua, who told her to let Jia Li rest for a while.

So for 30 minutes, Fu Hua sat waiting for Jia Li to wake up from her nap.

When Jia Li woke up, the attendant was sitting beside her.

How long have I been sleeping?. Jia Li asked as she sat up immediately and covered her body with the dress.

She was thinking about Fu Hua when she asked that question. With the impression she had of Fu Hua, she guessed he was capable of leaving her there.

Almost 35 minutes. The sir you came with is waiting for you. The attendant reported as she passed Jia Lis clothes to her.

Thank you!. Jia Li said as she sighed in relief. She only started to get dressed when the attendant left the room.

5 minutes later, Jia Li appeared before Fu Hua all dressed up. Because she just woke up from sleep, her face was yet to brighten up.

Seeing Fu Hua who had his gaze on her as she walked towards him, Jia Li apologized.

Im sorry, I fell asleep and no one woke me up. Jia Li said with her head bowed.

I know. I asked them to allow you to get some sleep. Lets go. Fu Hua said as he got up and started walking ahead of her.

Jia Li was truly confused by Fu Huas actions. She didnt know if he liked her, or he was being good to her because of Grandfather.

Next up, Fu Hua took Jia Li to a restaurant for lunch.

During lunch, he didnt let her eat too much because they still had another place to take her to.

Do you like ice cream?. Fu Hua asked as they got into the car after having their lunch.

Ice Cream?. Jia Li asked as she looked confused.

I noticed you only eat home-cooked food and you dont eat much when I take you out to eat, because of the way you were brought up, so Im taking you somewhere to go try some other food. Fu Hua informed her.

Okay. Jia Li said to him.

Fu Hua still remembered beat transported the first time he dined with Jia Li about a year ago during the time grandfather Fu was hospitalized in her hometown.

It looks like he has long been paying attention to her.

Jia Li didnt know a lot of places here because she didnt go out often. So she felt a bit relaxed as Fu Hua drove around for a while.

When they got to a famous fast food, Fu Hua took her to get some ice cream.

Jia Li didnt know if she could handle the ice cream in the cold weather, but she agreed to give it a try.

Walking into the place, she relaxed when the warm air hit her. And now she knew she could enjoy the ice cream because of how warm the inside was.

Fu Hua ordered some ice cream and other snacks for the both of them before they went to sit in one corner of the restaurant.

Jia Li, I know you are surprised by my action of being kind to you. Im doing this because I may not have the time to take you out again. And understanding what our relationship is like, I wouldnt want the media to know about us. Im not interested to get any attention from them. Fu Hua explained.

Jia Li finally understood the reason he was treating her so well. She felt a little bad, but what could she do? She didnt blame him at all because they didnt love each other and were forced to get married.

Since hes trying to treat her well like he promised, she was already appreciative enough.

Chapter 114 – Fu Hua Tells Jia Li The Harsh Realities Of Getting Into FJ

When will you be through with your studies ?. Fu Hua asked with his gaze on her.

Mmmm... my final exams will be starting soon, in a few weeks. Jia Li replied.

Have you thought of where you want to work ?. Fu Hua asked.

I havent talked about it, but grandfather asked me to come over to FJ once Im through with school. Jia Li replied but hesitated a little before adding as she didnt know if he was angry.

If you dont like it, I will ask grandfather to let me work in another place. Jia Li said in a soft tone as she looked downwards.

I didnt say anything. If you are coming over to FJ, then you must prepare your heart and your mind to be strong. You are only a young designer who will be graduating in a few weeks. You dont have work experience, and FJ is really not a place for you. You dont look like a strong woman to me, so I doubt your capabilities if you will be able to survive in FJ. Fu Hua said to her with the sincerity of his heart.

.He didnt mean to be harsh on her, as he was only telling her the truth about the realities of life.

Jia Li felt tensed as she listened to Fu Hua.

Grandfather May think hes doing a good thing for you by allowing you to come work in a place as prestigious as FJ, but its actually going to be a very tough journey for you. At work, you are my employee, and I cant help you, so youve got to protect yourself as you cant go against your direct Boss. Fu Hua said to her and sighed in the end.

Jia Li looked downcasted as she thought about the truth Fu Hua just said to her.

Of course, FJ was not a place for everybody. Only experts or the best experiences could get in there. But who was she ?

She was just someone with no work experience who would enter FJ Styles. She may be bullied, or not allowed to shine and forever remain under the shadows if she was not lucky.

Seeing Jia Lis mode change, Fu Hua apologized.

I didnt mean to be outspoken and be that harsh to you. I was only trying to let you know what you are about signing up for. But youre a grown woman, so why do you let my grandfather make decisions for you ?. Fu Hua asked.

Slowly looking up at him, Jia Li replied, Grandfather is like my only parent, and he has raised me for the past year. He has been so good to me, so I have to listen to him since he knows what is best for me.

Including getting married to me ? Fu Hua asked as his sight narrowed.

Jia Li waved her hands as she tried to explain, I tried to get grandfather to cancel his proposal, but he didnt listen to me. And that was the first time I was refusing something from him.

Thats in the past now. From now onwards, you need to learn how to voice your opinion and get someone to do your bidding. If you dont master this act, you may turn into a slave or someone that is easy and can be used by anyone. Fu Hua said in a kind reminder.

Thank you! Jia Li muttered in a low tone.

Sighing, Fu Hua asked her to finish the food before her. And while staring at her, he felt he brought up the topic at the wrong time because she seemed to be in a bad mood.

Jia Li, if you want anything, you can tell me about it instead of going to grandfather. If Im not too busy, I will help you out directly or ask someone to help you with it. Fu Hua said to her as he tried to remedy the situation.

Thank you!. Jia Li said with jer gaze on the ice cream that was melting.

Do you want to see your friends ?. Fu Hua asked.

This time around, Jia Li looked at him as her eyes brightened a little.

I will help you meet with your friends, but that may be after your exams since you need maximum concentration. Fu Hua said.

Thank you!. Jia Li said with a small smile. She hasnt met with her friends since she came to live with the Fu Family. Now that Fu Hua promised to help her meet with them, she was happy, and she forgot about her worries and finished up everything he ordered for her.

Fu Hua finally relaxed when he saw Jia Li eating happily again.

On their way home, he asked her to make a list of the things she wanted to do, and the places she wanted to visit.

If I have the time some other day, I will. ring you out to those places.

When Fu Hua and Jia Li arrived home, Fu Hua was not around, as she had already left for her appointment with Mrs. Bai.

Fu Hee was on tenterhooks when she got to the venue she booked. She ordered a hot tea while waiting for Mrs. Bai to arrive.

At last, when Bai Fen arrived, Fu Hee smiled and hugged her in greeting.

Fu Hee, you looked as if you lost some weight these few days. Bai Fen said she sat down with her gaze on Fu Hee.

I've been under a lot of stress lately, so I'm not surprised. Fu Hee replied as beads of sweat began to appear on her forehead.

As the Mistress of the Fu family, I understand that things are not so easy for you to handle, but you need to rest and don't exert yourself. By the way, what is that Fu ChunHua doing, can't she assist you to arrange some things?. Bai Fen asked with a frown.

As the Mistress of the house, I have to be in charge, and the of man trusts me, so I can't just order everyone around in case the plan to sabotage me. Fu Hee lied smoothly.

I understand, but still you need to take it easy with your health. Bai Fen said as she pats her hand.

I know, thank you!. Fu Hee said with a slight smile as she took out a handkerchief from her bag.

Bai Fen poured some tea for herself from the ceramic tea jug on the table as she asked, You called me out today, and I guess its something important, what is it?.

Chapter 115 – Your Best Is Not Good Enough!

Bai Fen poured tea for herself from the ceramic tea jug on the table as she asked, You called me out today, and I guess its something important, what is it?

Fu Hee rubbed her palms on her laps nervously before looking straight at her. She didnt know how to start explaining things, but she knew the earlier she confessed, the better it would be for both parties because she had dragged things out for too long.

Bai Fen, I dont know how to say this, but please you have to trust me. Fu Hee with a helpless gaze.

Bai Fen felt that something was wrong, and as she felt a bad premonition, she stopped smiling as her face turned serious.

What happened? She asked.

Bai Fen, I will really have to disappoint you as I have no choice. That after our last meeting, I went home to talk to Fu Hua only to learn from my father-in-law that he already had someone arranged for Fu Hua, so he asked me to cancel the arrangements I made with you since he had already found a wife for my son. Fu Hee disclosed with a guilty look.

Fu Hee, I dont understand a word that youre trying to say to me. Are you trying to tell me you want to dissolve our agreement because Old Fu arranged a woman for your son?! Bai Fen asked with a fierce gaze

She was truly angry now and couldnt hide that fact.

I know you are angry and disappointed with me, but the matter is out of my hands. Fu Hee said as she tried to grab her hand, but Bai Fen dodged her touch.

As Fu Huas mother, are you saying that you dont have any right to choose a partner for your son? Bai Fen asked with a smile that was not a smile.

Fu Hees facial expression turned ugly as she narrated the embarrassment she faces from trying to oppose the old man.

Fen, you dont know what happened that day. When I was confronting the old man in his study about his decision to get Fu Hua married to the woman he chose, I tried to exercise my right as Fu Huas mother, but that old man splashed me with his calligraphy ink, embarrassing me in front of the servants. Thats not all, he sent his Butler to ask me to pay up for the ink he splashed on me, or I wouldnt be allowed to have dinner. So, I had no choice but to pay for the expensive ink.

Bai Fen wanted to pity her, but she couldn't, because she still couldn't accept that the marriage between her daughter and the son from the Fu family couldn't pull through.

No, I have to find a way to make this work. My daughter has to get into the Fu family, and she must marry Fu Hua! Bai Fen thought.

Fu Hee, I know you've tried your best, but I am still not satisfied with it. I will have to talk to my mother-in-law about this, so we can visit Old General Fu and talk about this matter again. Bai Fen said with her gaze fixed on Fu Hee.

Her gaze says that she was not going to back down so easily.

It's too late Bai Fen, it's too late. Nothing can be done now. Fu Hee replied as she shook her head in regret.

Bai Fen looked confused and annoyed at the same time as she asked, What do you mean it's too late? You should be thinking of ways to remedy the situation, so what do you mean by these words now?

Fu Hee looked up at her, sighed, and then explained her words, Fu Hua had already gotten married to that girl, so nothing can be done.

What?! What do you mean?! Bai Fen asked angrily as she stood to her feet with a fierce gaze directed at her.

Sshhh... calm down and stop shouting. Fu Hee said to her as she tried to drag her to sit back on her chair, but Bai Fen flung her hand away.

Right now, Bai Fen was very angry and her chest felt a tight constriction. She felt her head hurt.

She couldn't believe that all the calculations and plans she made would go down the drain like that. She will never accept that fact!

Do you think I am in the mood to care about my image now? Fu Hee, how could you hide this from me?! I thought we were friends, but look at the way you treat your good friend! How am I going to explain things to my daughter? That girl has been in love with Fu Hua since we both gave her that idea, and now you want to break her fragile heart to pieces? I won't let that happen. Your Fu family must give us the Bai family an explanation. Bai Fen said while pointing at Fu Hee.

Fu Hee on the other hand looked disturbed with Bai Fen's actions and words.

Bai Jun, it's all my fault, but I really did try to salvage the situation, but you've heard what happened. Fu Hee said with a frown.

Your best is not good enough. You made me lose so much a golden opportunity to match Bai Jun with the son of the current minister. If you didn't mention this, I would have secured a promising future for my daughter, but look what you've caused, I have lost all the chances. Bai Fen said angrily.

Although Bai Fen shouldn't blame Fu Hee because she was the one that intentionally gave her that idea, but she just couldn't be happy that such a golden opportunity to be connected to the Fu Family by marriage would slip out of her hands just like that after all the efforts she managed to put in.

Fu Hee was feeling guilty deep down in her heart, but she was also angry with Bai Fen for being too harsh with her words.

Fu Hee could only blame herself for looking for trouble in the first place, so she had to explain her true situation so the blame wouldn't be on her anymore.

Chapter 116 – Bai Fens Meticulous Plan

Fu Hee could only blame herself for looking for trouble in the first place, so she had to explain her true situation so the blame wouldn't be on her anymore.

Acting all pitiful, Fu Hee poured her grievance on Bai Fen.

Bai Fen, aren't you being a little inconsiderate here? Do you know what I went through to get the old man to cancel the marriage he arranged for Fu Hua? I even lost my position as the mistress of Fu Family, and still, nothing changed! Fu Hee revealed with a painful expression on her face.

Bai Fen looked shocked to learn that Fu Hee lost her position as the Mistress of the Fu family because of that matter.

She was probably too shocked as she sat back in her seat and gazed at Fu Hee with a shocked look.

You lost your position as the Mistress of the Fu family? She asked in disbelief.

Are you doubting me? The old man gave my position to that old hag Fu ChunHua because I hit the girl he asked Fu Hua to marry. Fu Hee said as she felt so angry thinking about all the losses she encountered because of Jia Li.

What? That girl even came to your house? Bai Fen asked in surprise.

Not only that, she lived with us before she got married to Fu Hua. Fu Hee revealed. And now seeing how confused Bai Fen looked, she proceeded to explain things to her.

She told her how Jia Li came to stay with the Fu family and live with them.

After listening for a while, Bai Fen said with a frown. Im sure that girl is a gold digger. She must have planned all of these. But its too bad that all of you didnt notice it on time.

I dont like that girl at all, and to think she had the guts to have ideas on my son. I hate her so much that I just want to snap her into two. Fu Hee said with hatred.

Bai Fen felt a bit relaxed on seeing how much Fu Hee hated Jia Li. She smiled to herself as a new idea formed in her head.

Going back to her serious look, she said to Fu Hee, Since that girl is so hateful, how can you tolerate her being married to your excellent son without fighting back? If I were to be in your shoes, I will definitely deal with that girl and ask Fu Hua to get a divorce.

Fu Hua doesnt want to listen to me. Its only that old man that has such influence over him. See, I picked a wife for him, and the old man did the same, but he chose the old mans option even though he didnt like any of our plans. These days, he doesn't listen to me! Fu Hee revealed in an annoyed tone.

We have to find another way. And I'm sure General Fu threatened him, so he had no choice but to listen to him. We have to find a way to get Fu Hua and Bai Jun together, but before we think of a new idea, you can't let that girl get pregnant for Fu Hua or things will be difficult as General Fu adores her. Bai Fen said to Fu Hee in a low tone.

This task will be easy for me since they live under my nose. I can easily monitor her and mess with the food. I can never allow her to get pregnant for my son! Fu Hee swore with a firm look.

Good. You have to do your task well, while we wait for my daughter to come back. I will have to inform her of this so she will be prepared, but I can't bear to see her so heartbroken. Bai Fen said with worry in her tone.

She looked so worried, and her words were successful in convincing Fu Hee to listen to her since she was guilty and ready to make amends.

Don't worry, I will keep watch on her. But how do we convince Fu Hua to listen to me? Fu Hee asked a little concerned.

Since he was forced to marry that girl, then I'm sure he doesn't love her, and since it's so, we can easily make him get close to Bai Jun and fall in love with her. You just need to stall for time till Bai Jun come back. Bai Fen said with a smile.

She was happy with her meticulous plan. She has to make sure Jia Li doesn't get pregnant or their plans would have a high chance of getting ruined.

If Jia Li becomes pregnant, then it will be difficult for Fu Hua to divorce her, because the old man will never allow that to happen since he adores Jia Li.

Knowing all of these, Bai Fen had to make such plans, in hopes her daughter would get into the Fu family.

Bai Fen dont worry, I will put my all into this, you can relax. Fu Hee promised with determination.

There was no way she would let the person that made her lose her position and be embarrassed, have peace, or get pregnant with her sons child.

She would never allow that!

Fu Hee and Bai Fen talked a little about other matters before going back to their various homes.

When Fu Hee went back home, she looked a bit relaxed and was no longer tensed like she was several hours ago.

Fu Hee wanted to speak to Fu Lei, but she learned he was playing games with Fu Geming and the old man, so she let him be.

As she was climbing the stairs to go to her room, she met Jia Li who was coming down the stairs.

Jia Li looked afraid and was a bit tensed when she saw her, but she couldnt turn away.

When she was finally standing side by side with Fu Hee, she greeted her, but the latter snorted and walked past her.

Jia Li sighed in relief since she wasn't told off by her.

Chapter 117 – Locking Her Up In Prison

Jia Li walked out of the house and went straight to the back to find her dog who was kept in its cage.

When the German Shepherd saw its owner, it started barking happily.

Jia Li smiled as she released it from its kennel and rubbed its head.

Did you miss me already? Jia Li asked with a loving smile as she knelt on the grass and rubbed its head.

She always made sure to come to see the dog and play with it every day. And most times when she doesn't have the time, the person grandfather Fu got to take care of it, will do that in her stead.

The dog barked to acknowledge Jia Li's words.

I'm sorry. I'm sorry, I missed you too. Jia Li said as she hugged the dog with a smile.

The dog seemed happy as it stayed allowed Jia Li to hug her.

Ocean, lets go for a walk. Jia Li said as she stood to her feet with a gentler gaze.

Ocean barked in acknowledgment as she followed Jia Li out.

While strolling in the big compound, Jia Li talked to the dog happily, and at times it would shake its tail and respond by barking.

Twenty minutes later, Jia Li walked back to the dog kennel with Ocean tagging along. Now at the dog kennel, Jia Li squat and rubbed her hair.

Ocean, I have to say goodbye to you. But I promise to send your breakfast tomorrow, now go in. Jia Li said after hugging the dog.

Ocean barked before obediently walking into her kennel, and Jia Li rubbed her back before closing the cage.

Just when she stood up, her phone started to ring, so she took it out of her pocket. When she saw caught a glimpse of the caller ID, she almost face-palmed her forehead because it was her friend that was calling.

DanDan was the one that called earlier when Fu Hua and Jia Li were on their way to the beauty salon, and Jia Li forgot to return the call.

Just as expected when she answered the call, she heard DanDans loud voice.

Jia Li, are you okay? You finally answered my call, what happened?! DanDan asked.

Im fine. Im sorry I forgot to call back. Also, I wouldnt answer your call earlier because I was not in a good place. Jia Li explained.

Okay, its good that you are fine, I was worried about you. So, you are married now? DanDan asked.

Yes. Jia Li replied in a low tone as she took few steps away from the dog kennel.

Jia Li, what should I say to you, you are really so pitiful. Your life is being decided and controlled by someone else. DanDan said and sighed thereafter.

DanDan, dont say that. Im not being controlled by anyone. This is the first time Grandfather Fu asked something of me, so how could I reject him after everything he did for me? Jia Li asked as she felt bad DanDan saw the old man as someone that controlled her life.

She would not fail to correct anyone that had any bad impressions about Grandfather Fu, because the man had done a lot for her.

Feeling the disappointment in Jia Lis tone, DanDan apologized right away.

Im sorry. Is your husband treating you well at least? She asked.

Yeah, he is. Dont be bothered about me, I am living a good life. I only hope you see you and the others soon. Jia Li said with a smile.

Dont worry, you will see us soon. Just let us know your graduation day, and we will be there to support you. DanDan replied in a lively tone as she became happy.

Okay, I will give you the date once its fixed. Jia Li promised.

Okay. Remember to take care of yourself, and call for help if your husband bullies you. Dont forget to come online more often. DanDan reminded her kindly.

I will, thank you. Bye. Jia Li said with a big smile on her face.

After the call ended, Jia Li was still smiling because DanDan was concerned for her.

When Jia Li went back inside the house, she was told that Grandfather wanted to see her.

She had just walked right through the entrance door when she saw Butler Lu.

Butler Lu sighed in relief when he saw her.

Miss, Master wants to see you. He informed with a smile.

Okay. Jia Li nodded as she followed him to Grandfather Fus study, where the old man was waiting.

When Jia Li walked into the room, she met the old man sitting on the couch in the study for the first time since she started staying with the Fu Family.

Grandfather Fu wasnt the only one there, because Jia Lis sight landed on Fu Hua was sitting opposite the old man.

Jia Li walked in and greeted the old man.

My good granddaughter-in-law, come and sit beside me. Grandfather Fu said with a gentle smile as his gaze rested on Jia Li.

Jia Li gave a small smile as she went to sit beside him.

I've been waiting for you for a while. Grandfather Fu said as he glanced at her with a smile. He didn't seem as if she had kept him waiting.

I'm sorry about that, I went to take Ocean for a walk, and then I spoke to my friend on the phone for a while, when I was outside. Jia Li explained.

It's okay. I wanted to see you for three reasons. Your Aunt is troublesome, she has tried to sell your house more than 10 times now, and she doesn't want to give up. Actually, I'm thinking about locking her up in prison for a few days to teach her lessons about trespassing and trying to sell a property that doesn't belong to her. Grandfather Fu revealed and he didn't seem happy about it.

Over the past year, Mu Keers situation got worse, and she tried to sell the house that belonged to Jia Li's parents, but she didn't expect not to succeed after trying so many times.

Somehow when she was about to close the deal, the people would not contact her again, and she didn't know the reason for their peculiar actions.

Chapter 118 – Be Mindful Of Your Words

Somehow when she was about to close the deal, the people would not contact her again, and she didn't know the reason for their peculiar actions.

What she didn't know was that Grandfather Fu had things under control. He had placed a person to watch over the house, tip the people that wanted to buy it off at the point after they have agreed to make payments.

He always does these to give Mu Keer hope of getting a huge amount of money, and then not getting anything in the end.

Jia Li wasn't too surprised when she heard of these, because she knew her greedy Aunt was capable of doing that.

She was kind of surprised when she didn't receive any news of her bad behavior over the past year, but now she had found out the Old man had been taking care of it.

Grandfather next time, just teach her a little lesson. She still has children to take care of, so they may not be able to cope if she is hit too hard. Jia Li said.

Even though she was unhappy and wanted her Aunt to be punished for going too far, she had to put her cousins into consideration.

You are really kind, rest assured that I will not punish her for a long time. Grandfather Fu promised.

He felt Jia Li was too kind to her enemies, but he couldn't go against her wish since this was her family member.

Turning to glance at Fu Hua, Grandfather Fu said to him, Fu Hua, I want you and Jia Li to move out of the house, you two are newly married and need your own space.

Fu Hua glanced at him and asked, Why do you want us to move out so soon ?

Jia Li was surprised by grandfather Fu's instruction and also wanted to ask the question Fu Hua just asked because she also felt it was too soon for her to leave the Fu house immediately after moving out. And she didn't know how she would cope when she has to live alone with Fu Hua.

I already said you two are newlyweds. And besides, you need to get to know each other well enough, and that can only happen when you are left in your own space. You two have to move out as soon as possible.

Grandfather Fu said to the both of them.

He had really thought things through and knew it would be best for Fu Hua and Jia Li to live in their own house.

He wanted them to get to know each other very well, and also he didn't want Jia Li to be bullied by Fu Hee when he wasn't watching.

How soon do you want us to leave ? Fu Hua asked after glancing at Jia Li, who looked troubled over the matter.

You will have to do that before I go on a mission. I have an important military mission to carry out, as it is a confidential matter that has to do with the country. The best time is during the weekend. But first of all, you need to follow Jia Li to her hometown to go and pay respects to her parents. It's been a year since their deaths, so it's time for Jia Li to go back and visit them. Grandfather Fu said.

Jia Li felt teary hearing her about her deceased parents from the old man. She felt grateful to him for always caring about her.

Thank you, grandfather. Jia Li said gratefully with her teary eyes.

She has already thought about how to ask the old man for permission to go back to her hometown to pay her respects to her parents since its been a year they died, but who knew the old man had the same thoughts as her.

You dont need to thank me. And dont cry if you dont want to make this old man sad. Grandfather Fu patted her shoulder as he comforted her, while Fu Hua watched from the side.

Seeing the scene before him, he finally understood the reason Jia Li listens to everything the old man says.

She is willing to sacrifice anything to make his grandfather happy because he was the only one that took good care of her and was always thinking of her.

Now, he knew the reason Jia Li would do anything the old man asked of her.

When Friday came, Fu Hua and Jia Li returned to the Fu mansion early as they had to travel to Jia Li home town the same day.

As Fu Hua and Jia Li were stepping out of the house with their little suitcase, they met Fu Hee who just came back home.

She was surprised to see the both of them leaving the house with their suitcases, so she asked hurriedly with a worried look on her face.

Fu Hua, where are you going to?

Im going with Jia Li to her hometown to see her parents. We will be back in two days. Fu Hua replied with a straight face.

Fu Hee became alarmed on learning they would be spending two days outside alone. Now thinking about the possibility of Jia Li sleeping with her son and getting pregnant, Fu Hee couldn't help but be worried, so she asked, hurriedly...

Why don't you let me come with you two?

We don't need your presence. Stay at home and rest properly. Fu Hua said in a cold tone with an emotionless gaze on her.

Fu Hee was very angry deep down since her son refused her request. She could only resort to her only option.

Since you said so, I will rest at home. Go ahead, I have a few words to say to Jia Li.

Fu Hua glanced at her, and then at Jia Li before glancing back at her.

Be mindful with your words. He said before taking the luggage in Jia Li's hand and walked away.

When Fu Hua left their side, the smile on Fu Hee's face disappeared as she turned to glance at Jia Li with a look of disgust.

You better know your place and respect yourself. You are going to pay respect to your parents, and not to have fun, so you better behave properly.

After saying this piece, Fu Hee scoffed and walked away.

Jia Li didn't understand the meaning of Fu Hee's words and the hidden meaning in them, but she was not too worried.

She walked towards the car Fu Hua and two men in military uniform were standing.

Jia Li got into the back seat of the car with Fu Hua, while the two military men got in the front side of the car.

The military men were the escorts arranged by grandfather Fu.

Chapter 119 – Fu Hua Escorts Jia Li To Pay Respect To Her Parents

Two hours later, Fu Hua and Jia Li arrived at the hotel they booked. Since no one has been staying in Jia Lis house, the place would have been too dusty, so they had to book a hotel.

What do you want to eat, I will order it for you. Fu Hua asked after they settled in their hotel room.

Im not really hungry, but you can order anything for me. Jia Li replied.

She was feeling nostalgic after returning to her hometown after a year, so she didnt have much appetite.

But since it had already turned dark outside, she knew she would be hungry later at night, so she had to order something.

At her reply, Fu Hua picked up the telephone and placed their food order before going into the bathroom.

Jia Li was not in a good mood, so she didn't have time to worry about some things.

When their food was served, Jia Li ate a little before going to the bathroom to change her clothes, and after which she went to the bed to lie down and sleep.

Fu Hua was sitting and watched her every movement, knew she wasn't in a good mood, and he guessed the reason for it.

After eating Fu Hua called the hotel staff to come and take the plates away before going to take a shower and change his clothes.

The hotel Fu Hua booked was a room that has one bed, and a couch in one corner, then a wardrobe and a bathroom, so changing clothes could only be in the bathroom.

It was too late to drive down to the Fu Villa, as it was still a bit far, so they had to stay in the hotel for tonight.

Fu Hua dressed in his night robe and came back to the room. He turned off the lights before going to lie on the other side of the bed.

Jia Li who was lying on the bed with different thoughts in her mind didn't know when she fell asleep.

The next morning, Fu Hua and Jia Li packed their things and left the hotel after breakfast with the two soldiers that came with them.

According to their plans, they went straight to visit the site where Jia Li's parents were buried.

Fu Hua respected her privacy and walked some distance away from her.

Glancing at the tablets that had her parents names on them, Jia Li became teary as she caressed them with her hands after placing a bouquet each on their tomb.

Mum, dad, its been a year since you left me. I wish you two were still here with me. I miss you two so much. I miss our breakfast and dinner together. I miss you two spoiling me with your love and care. I miss all of our moments together that sometimes I wished you took me with you. When I go back to watch our pictures and videos, I feel a wrenching pain in my heart knowing that those moments can only be a memory. Dad, Mum, I wish I could go back to the moment I was about to leave for the Fu house the first time, I would have begged with grandfather Fu to allow you both to follow me.

As Jia Li reached this point, she was already in tears, and she didnt try to wipe them away.

Sniffing, she continued with pouring out her emotions in front of her parents grave.

...Mum, Dad, grandfather Fu took good care of me in the past year, and he enrolled me in one of the best fashion and designing schools in the country. Now, Im married to his first grandson, and you two know him. He is Fu Hua. Mum, we talked together about my feelings for Brother Huang, and before you could help me confess my true feelings to him, you and dad left, which made me devastated, and I had to take few steps back.

At this point, a snort was coming out of Jia Lis nose, so had to wipe it with the handkerchief she put into the pocket of her thick jacket.

Jia Li wiped her nose before continuing to pour out her emotions. Her nose had already turned red, but that was not her worry.

Mum, Dad, I don't know what my future with Fu Hua will be like, and I don't dare to ask for it to be perfect like your relationship, but I only hope he would continue to treat me well, and things will get better between us. Mum, Dad, take care, I will come back next year to visit you again. Jia Li said as she cried painfully.

The death of her parents was still her weakest point. Their death created a huge vacuum in Jia Li's heart, that can never be filled.

She has understood what life without one's loving and caring parents meant.

No matter how much grandfather Fu cared for and looked after her, she still felt she was missing out on so many things.

She couldn't bring herself to forget her parents, and she always felt they were the best and were better at loving and caring for her.

It took twenty more minutes for Jia Li to leave her parents' grave.

Even with the pain in her heart, she didn't fail to notice how clean the place was. She smiled as she remembered Grandfather Fu.

The man truly cared a lot about her matters.

Fu Hua saw Jia Li walking over with tears in her eyes. He took out a handkerchief from his pocket and handed it to her.

Jia Li took it from him as she muttered a word of thanks to him.

She wiped her tears and her snort away, before putting the handkerchief away.

Jia Li and Fu Hua got into the car with the soldiers and were now on their way to Jia Lis house. Since she wanted to see it after a long time, they had to drop by before going to the Fu Villa.

When their car parked in front of Jia Lis house, they all came down from the car.

Jia Li stared at the place she once used to call her home. She felt nostalgic as she became teary again.

Do you want to go in? Fu Hua asked as he saw she wasnt making any move.

Jia Li came back to her senses and nodded in response before taking out the key from her bag. And before she could take a step forward to unlock the door, Fu Hua took the key from her and unlocked the doors to her house, and they all went in together without knowing someone had been looking at them through the window.

Chapter 120 – Mu Keer Comes Over Before Jia Li Leaves

Hello, Mu Keer? its me. Your niece just came to the house now, if you want to meet, hurry up! Jia Lis neighbor informed.

She was the person Mu Keer asked to keep an eye on Jia Li and inform her whenever she comes around.

She is there?! Im coming right away. If she wants to leave, please stall her till I get there. Mu Keer said and hung up immediately.

Mu Keer was very happy and her heart was palpitating. She didnt expect that the person she has been looking for, was in the town already.

She quickly took permission from her superior in the factory she was working at, before leaving hurriedly.

Jia Li, on the other hand, glanced at the empty living room while reminiscing with her parents.

Because of dust, the furniture and everything in the house were covered with white cloths, and there were cobwebs everywhere in the house.

Fu Hua frowned as he glanced at the dusty living room filled with cobwebs, then he made a mental note to employ someone to be taking care of the house.

And as he was thinking of that, he took out his phone and made a call, and finally, a servant working in the Fu Villa in the same hometown was assigned to come and clean the house every month.

Jia Li overheard the conversation and thanked him, before going on to check every room in the house.

The house did look different to her, maybe because its been a long time since she was there.

Jia Li spent almost 15 minutes looking around and going through things in the house before deciding to leave, or more as Fu Hua convinced her to leave.

You must be hungry, and you need to eat and rest before we travel back to City X. Fu Hua said to her.

Jia Li heaved a sigh as she agreed with him.

As they stepped outside the house, they met a woman who rushed to their side but was stopped by the soldiers.

Jia Li, its me! Mu Keer shouted as she looked over.

Jia Li almost did not recognize Mu Keer because her skin had tanned.

Aunty Keer? Jia Li called out in surprise as Fu Hua gave the soldiers a sign to let Mu Keer go.

Immediately she was released, Mu Keer ran to Jia Lis side and started bellowing.

My good niece, I have been looking for you. How can you leave and not say anything to me? Dont you know I will be worried about you? Mu Keer asked as she continued to wail.

Aunty, why are you crying as if I died? I only left the town. Jia Li replied as she managed to get her hands off her grasp.

Looking up, Mu Keer said to her, You should have told me. I am the only family member you have so how can you leave this town without telling me? Do you want other people to accuse me of maltreating you?

Nobody will accuse you of anything, stop crying first. Jia Li said with a frown.

Mu Keer wiped her tears and that was when she saw someone standing next to Jia Li. She recognized him as the young man that was always with the Old man the few times she came around after her brothers death.

This scene got her thinking a lot.

Why is Jia Li with this man ?

Did Jia Li go to live with that wealthy family ?

But why is she together with this man ?

As Mu Keer was still lost in thought, Jia Li was getting impatient so she said to her, Aunty, its too cold, and I was about to leave before you came, so I have to leave now.

Mu Keer came back to her senses just as Jia Li walked past her. She caught onto Jia Lis right palm, and that was when she felt and saw the ring on her finger.

Because of her action, Jia Li had to stop in her steps. Now seeing her lift her fingers to glance at her wedding ring, Jia Li took her hand back from her.

Mu Keer recognized the ring as a wedding ring because of the finger it was worn. Now she was curious about Jia Lis life, Mu Keer couldnt help but ask...

Jia Li what have you been up to for the past year ? Are you married ? How come you got married without informing your only relative ? Who is your husband ?

Fu Hua frowned with his gaze on Mu Keer as he replied from the side, I am her husband, do you have a problem with that ?

Hearing Fu Huas cold voice, Mu Keer shivered and hurriedly shook her head in fear.

But thinking how lucky Jia Li was to marry into a wealthy family, Mu Keer couldnt standstill. She was suffering with her children, but Jia Li got to enjoy in a big city while being married to a rich man.

No, I have to do something! Mu Keer thought.

Looking up at Jia Li as tears started to stream down her eyes again, Mu Keer said to her, Jia Li, since youre leaving a good life, you have to help your cousins out. Weve been suffering since your Uncle was sent to prison, and we didnt even get to see him for the last time. At least now that you married into a wealthy family, you have to take your cousins to the City.

It would have been better if we didnt mention her uncle, because right now, Jia Li was so angry.

Aunty, how can you mention my parents killer so causally? If you have gotten over your brother and sister-in-laws death, I havent gotten over my parents death! Jia Li said angrily as tears started brimming in her eyes.

You...you how can you still be thinking of what happened in the past? I am only asking you to help your cousins since youre so rich now. Look at your expensive clothes, look at how nice you smell. See how youre living a carefree life while your cousins and I are suffering, dont you think its unfair? Mu Keer asked as she was also starting to get annoyed.

Once her greedy heart was set on extorting money from Jia Li, she wouldnt stop until she gets it. But now seeing that Jia Li did not look like she was going to help them, she became angry.

Chapter 121 – Jia Li Learns That Her Mother Had Eloped With Her Father To Get Married

Im living a carefree life ? Do you know what I went through over the past year getting over my parents death ? You see me dress well, so you think I am living a carefree life ? Jia Li asked a little hurt.

Fu Hua wanted to intervene, but he felt that Jia Li needed to sort things out with her Aunt. He could only stand beside her in case she needed help, of which he wouldnt delay throwing Mu Keer out.

Are you not living a good life ? Can you deny that fact ? You are really heartless ! Mu Keer said in anger.

You tried to sell my fathers property, but you dont feel you were heartless as well ? Jia Li asked.

I have to feed your cousins and train them, so I need money. What I did wasnt wrong. You also imprisoned my husband, wasnt that enough for you ? Mu Keer asked with her hands on her waist.

Jia Li could see very well what kind of relative she had, and she felt glad Grandfather Fu rescued her on time.

Aunty, you are not a good person. But I will advise you to work hard to provide for your children since your husband is never coming back.

When you put your uncle in prison, did I come to quarrel with you? I was not happy I wouldn't see my husband, but I had to accept your decision, but then we need a way to survive. But do you have to rub it on my face that your uncle is never coming back? Mu Keer asked in an angry tone while pointing at her.

He is not my uncle. If you didn't insist on marrying him and listened to grandfather, he wouldn't have caused my parents' death and ruined our family, and you would have been living a good life. Jia Li pointed out for her.

Mu Keer scoffed as she said, Did your parents tell you that? They are both wrong! If they hadn't made the same mistake I did, they wouldn't have ended up in the ground so early!

Enough!!! Fu Hua said in a cold tone as he was very angry. He felt that Mu Keer was very rude, and she didn't have respect for the dead.

Mu Keer rolled her eyes and looked away. Jia Li looked hurt to hear her speak about her parents like that.

Aunty, what are you trying to say? What mistakes did my parents make for you to talk about them in this manner? Jia Li asked as she wiped her tears.

Am I the only one who didn't listen to my parents about my marriage partner? What about your mother who canceled the marriage with her fiancé and eloped with my brother, which caused a lot of problems for her family? Mu Keer revealed.

Jia Li was shocked by this revelation because her parents never mentioned anything about it. She has always thought her mother came from a simple family, and so they were late. But how would she have known that something like this happened?

Fu Hua was also surprised by this revelation, but he really knew how to mask his facial expressions well.

Seeing the shock in Jia Li's eyes, Mu Keer laughed out loud. Then with a taunting smile, she said to her...

Are you very surprised that your parents could act like that? When my father was still alive, he accepted them, but he couldn't accept my choice. Can you see the reason why I don't care about any of them? Mu Keer asked.

Fu Hua could no longer stand and listen to Mu Keer, as he had finally exhausted his patience. And there was no way he would allow Jia Li to continue to be hurt with her Aunties harsh words, so he decided to bring her away.

Didn't you see the significant differences between both marriages, or is your insight blind as well? This should be the last warning you will get on a good note. If you try to sell anything that belongs to Jia Li, you will join your husband for some time. Fu Hua said in a cold tone before bringing Jia Li away.

Mu Keer wasn't completely a fool as she heard and understood the threat in Fu Hua's words.

He just said he would put her in prison the next time she tried to sell the house.

Mu Keer didn't know how long she stood there because when she came back to her senses, Jia Li, Fu Hua, and the soldiers were long gone.

Why is everything I do wrong? Why is there no one supporting me? Mu Keer asked herself.

This girl is so mean. After getting married to a rich husband, she became so heartless and doesn't care about her cousins. What a wicked girl! Mu Keer muttered under her breath, then she glanced at the house one more time before leaving with a big grudge in her heart.

In the car, Fu Hua passed another handkerchief to Jia Li to let her wipe her face.

Jia Li was still thinking back to what her Aunt just revealed to her. And she still couldn't believe her mother would do something like that.

Fu Hua could tell what she was thinking about, so he tried to comfort her.

Jia Li, don't dwell on what your Aunt said to you, and even if it's true, there may be more stories to it. You trust your parents, and you believe they are not people like that, so there must be a reason they eloped and got married.

Jia Li indeed felt comforted by his words, and she glanced at him with an appreciated look.

Yes, she believes that if her parents eloped, then they did that for a reason, and there was a reason they didn't tell her about it.

Jia Li's parents did elope, and they decided not to tell Jia Li about it, because they didn't want her to worry and, also because of other important reasons.

Before Jia Li and Fu Hua got to the Fu Villa, she had already stopped crying and had covered her emotions.

Jia Li wanted to meet with her friends, but she felt the situation wasn't right, and they may not be available since she didn't inform them about her arrival.

After having lunch, Jia Li and Fu Hua rested before leaving for City X.

Chapter 122 – Fu Hua Talks With Grandfather Fu About Letting Jia Li Make Her Own Decisions

After Fu Hua and Jia Li arrived at the Fu House in City X, they began to gather their things and in between that, Grandfather Fu called Fu Hua to his study to find out about their trip to Jia Li's hometown.

Grandfather Fu listened for a while before commenting.

It's not right to judge without knowing the full details. If Jia Li wants to find out about her maiden family, we will help her. But for now, without her permission, we can't do anything.

Fu Hua nodded in response before asking, When are you leaving?

Im waiting for you both to move out first. I dont want to leave and hear stories that your mother bullied Jia Li, I will not be happy and, I will not tolerate it. Grandfather Fu said.

I have an appointment that was moved forward, so after meeting with the person tomorrow morning, I will move out with Jia, and then you can travel. Fu Hua calmly said to him.

Remember that Fu Hua was supposed to meet with the wife of the minister? Well, something came up from their side, so the appointment was moved to another day.

Remember you have to take good care of Jia Li and learn to build a good relationship with her. I wont be there to keep my eyes on you, but I believe that since I raised you, you will do the right thing. Grandfather Fu said with a serious gaze on Fu Hua.

Fu Hua gazed back at him with this reply...

Grandfather, you dont have to keep reminding me of that. I already promised to treat Jia Li well. But you also need to stop making some decisions for her, because you might be doing more harm to her than good.

What harm can I cause to my favorite person? Grandfather Fu asked with an astonished look.

Why do you want her to come to FJ? You should know the competition is very high there, and she may end up getting bullied. Fu Hua asked as he wanted to know his grandfathers reasons.

Why would she be bullied when you are there? You better take good care of her! Grandfather Fu warned in a serious tone.

From Fu Huas words, he could tell he didnt have any plans of helping Jia Li out when it came to her working in FJ, so he had to warn him immediately.

Fu Hua still had his gaze on him and watched him continue to talk.

The reason I want Jia Li to go to FJ Styles, its because that is the place that will bring out the best in her. You may not know this, but Jia Li is very talented, so she needs a place with high competition like FJ to be able to unleash her talents. This will be to your advantage, and you will thank me later. Grandfather Fu said with a smile.

Fu Huas brows creased in a frown. He doesnt know what his old man was thinking, but there was no way he was going to pay full attention to him.

Grandfather, Jia Li is my wife, and it is right that I should take care of her. But Jia Li is also an adult who can make decisions herself. I hope you know you shouldnt take that right from her. Fu Hua reminded him.

Grandfather Fu sighed. Do you think Im controlling her? Im only doing what I feel its best for her. Alright, I will listen to you. But you have to make sure she does the right thing because I wouldnt want her to suffer.

I know. I have to leave now. Fu Hua said as he got up and left the study.

The next day, Fu Hua went to work, and Jia Li went to school. Jia Li has been absent from school for a few days, so she had so many things to catch up with.

Fu Hua on the other hand was a big Boss who had lots of people under him to help him out, and he didnt need to come to work every day.

Today, Jia Li came home from school around 2 pm. And immediately she came back, she went straight to the bedroom to wash up before she sat on Fu Hua's desk and started to sketch with her sketchbook.

She had an assignment to work on an exquisite outfit for spring, and the earlier she started, the earlier she would be able to handle the challenges before the submission date.

Not only was Jia Li and her colleagues asked to make a design draft, but they were also asked to make the dresses they designed in their sketchbooks.

Jia Li wanted to sketch the perfect dress, but she felt she wasn't getting so many things right, so she kept tearing out the drafts and throwing them on the floor.

When Fu Hua came back and walked into the room, that was the scene he saw. He frowned when he saw the papers littered on the floor.

He saw how busy Jia Li was and wondered what she was up to, so he walked towards her before stopping after a few steps as he lowered his body to pick up one of the paper crumbles.

Jia Li was into her sketch, so she didn't notice that Fu Hua had returned and even walked to her side to pick up one of the pieces of paper she crumbled and threw away.

Unfolding the paper, Fu Hua saw the half-finished sketch. He went on to pick the rest and also had a good glance at them. He could tell that Jia Li was good at designing, but he hasn't seen that special art in her.

Fu Hua thought so, maybe because he hasn't seen all the mind-blowing finished designs Jia Li has in her first sketchbook.

Jia Li has different sketchbooks, and the first one she has used whenever she got inspiration. And because her inspiration or creativity is triggered sometimes, Jia Li can use that first sketchbook to put down mind-blowing creativity.

Jia Li has one sketchbook she normally takes out with her, in case she is in the mood to try out something.

She also has one she used for her school assignments and all of that.

At the end of each successful sketch, she would put down the date she designed the draft, and would sometimes give a name to the design draft.

Chapter 123 – Fu Hee Is Shocked To Find Out That Jia Li And Fu Hua Has Moved Out

What are you working on? Fu Hua asked with his gaze on Jia Li.

Jia Lis furrowed brows relaxed as she turned to glance at Fu Hua who held the stack of papers in his hands.

Jia Li glanced at the floor and saw he had picked all of them up.

Im working on an assignment. Jia Li replied.

Fu Hua heaved a sigh as he put the papers on the desk before saying to her. Do you normally get rid of your old drafts?

Yeah, they have a lot of flaws, so I can't keep them. Jia Li replied.

You should keep them, they may still be useful. As Fu Hua said that, he picked up a stapler from his drawer, and stapled the papers together.

A smile appeared on Jia Li's face as she watched Fu Hua's actions.

After stapling the paper together, Fu Hua glanced over and caught her gazing at him with a smile.

Why are you staring at me? He asked as he felt she was acting weird.

Jia Li collected her gaze, but the smile remained on her face. She picked up her pencil and continued to sketch as she replied.

My mum used to pick up the paper drafts I crumbled and threw away, and then she would arrange them and put them on my desk and ask why I would discard such beautiful drafts. So, when I saw you do the same, I was reminded of it.

I see... Can I see what you've got there? Fu Hua asked as he became interested in seeing her drafts.

Jia Li passed the sketchbook to him.

You were asked to design an outfit for spring? Fu Hua asked the second he glanced at it.

Yes. It's the last major assignment given to us, and we need to produce the dress. Jia Li revealed to him.

You've got a nice draft here. Do you need help to complete it? Fu Hua asked.

No thank you! Jia Li rejected his help without a second thought.

Glancing at her, Fu Hua understood that she wanted to do complete the design herself, and he didn't insist.

Tell me when you're ready to start making the dress, I can help with the material recommendation. Fu Hua said as he passed the sketchbook back to her.

Thank you! Jia Li replied as she accepted her sketchbook from him.

We have to move out tomorrow evening, so you have to gather your things before tomorrow morning. The servants will help you, and you only need to guide them. Fu Hua said to her.

Do I need to pack up everything? Jia Li asked.

This is the Fu house, you don't need to pack everything since we can still return once in a while. Fu Hua replied before walking away into the inner room.

The next day after breakfast, Jia Li and Fu Hua left the house together. Fu Hua dropped her outside her college gate before driving to FJ.

Once they left, Grandfather Fu asked Butler Lu to gather his things as he was getting ready to leave for his trip as well.

When Fu Hee heard that the old man would be away for a few days, she became happy as she began to plot on how to deal with Jia Li, and if possible, cause her not to be able to bear children.

With Grandfather Fu being away for a few days, was the perfect opportunity for her to do anything to Jia Li and escape from it.

That morning after breakfast, Fu Hee left the house, and before she could return, Jia Li and Fu Huas things had already been packed and moved to their new house, and Grandfather Fu left for his trip after he made sure things were right.

When Fu Hee came back, she didnt notice anything was wrong until dinner time when she was asking for Fu Hua.

Fu ChunHua smiled as she revealed everything to her.

How can you be in this house and not know that your son and daughter-in-law have moved to their own house ?

Fu Hee was shocked by this revelation and didnt want to believe whatever Fu ChunHua said, so she turned to Fu YingPei to ask, Is it true ?

Fu YingPei took his time to swallow the food in his mouth before replying.

Its true. Brother told me about it a few days ago.

Fu Hee felt pain in her chest and quickly placed her hand on that side as her face was squeezed in an ugly way.

Fu ChunHua scoffed before asking, Why are you so worked up ? Your son has moved out to start a new family with his wife, shouldnt you be happy ?

You crazy woman ! Fu Hee shouted as she hit the table with a fierce gaze directed at Fu ChunHua.

Everyone at the table was a bit surprised by Fu Hee's outburst. They knew she wasn't in support of Fu Hua's marriage to Jia Li, but her reaction had gone too far.

Fu Chunhua didn't get angry about Fu Hee calling her a crazy woman. Instead, she laughed before calling out to Butler Lu, who appeared in the living room once he heard her calling for him.

Butler Lu, did you hear and see what happened? Fu Chunhua asked with a smile.

Yes. Butler Lu replied as he walked out to stand before them.

Just like Fu Hee was very surprised to see Butler Lu, the rest were also surprised.

Good! You know, you should do a good job by making sure to report exactly what you saw and heard to Father when he returns. Fu Chunhua instructed with her gaze on him.

Yes. Butler Lu replied before walking away, and then Fu Chunhua turned to glance at Fu Hee with a smirk.

Fu Hee glared at her angrily as she asked, Did you arrange these?

How could I? I don't have such rights to command Butler Lu. Fu Chunhua replied as she picked up her cutlery and began to eat.

Chapter 124 – Fu Hua Beholds A Magnificent Sight

How could I? I dont have such rights to command Butler Lu. Fu ChunHua replied as she picked up her cutlery and began to eat.

Are you saying that Father arranged this? Fu Hee asked with a twisted facial expression.

It is what it is. Fu ChunHua replied with a smile and continued to eat.

Fu Hee left the dining room angrily. She was so pissed of with Grandfather Fu.

You allow my son to move out of the house, but you dont let me the mother know about it? Fu Hee said to herself as she paced around the room.

When Fu Hua said they would be moving out in the evening, Jia Li thought they would have to go back to the Fu house first, before leaving.

When Fu Hua came to pick her up after her classes, he took another route. She thought he was following another route home until he stopped the car in more than 10 floors apartment.

Fu Hua turns off the engine and removed his seatbelt.

Where...where are we? Jia Li asked as she looked around.

Seeing the confusion on Jia Li's face, Fu Hua replied. We are at my place. Didn't I tell you we would be moving out today?

Oh... Jia Li muttered in a low tone. I thought we would have to go back first.

You don't have plans of sleeping in the car, do you? Fu Hua asked with his gaze on her.

Jia Li recovered from the surprise and removed the seat belt. She picked up her things and followed Fu Hua into the building.

Entering the elevator, Fu Hua pressed on the button for the 7th floor.

With a ding sound from the elevator, they arrived at the 7th floor.

Jia Li had no idea of where she was, so she could only follow behind Fu Hua. On getting to his door, Fu Hua said to her, The password is * in case you have to leave or come in without me.

Oh! Jia Li responded as she watched him key in the password to the house.

Following Fu Hua into the house, Jia Li stood by the side as he locked the door, before walking behind him into the sitting room.

When she stepped into the sitting room, Fu Hua's artistic nature was revealed to her. He had a high taste, and she was no match for him.

Come, let me show you to your room. Fu Hua said to her.

Okay. Jia Li replied before following him.

There were a total of three rooms in the house. One of the rooms was turned into a study by Fu Hua, and that was the first place he showed her.

There are two bedrooms and one belongs to you. Fu Hua said while pointing to the door opposite his bedroom.

Jia Li glanced at him before nodding. She was very surprised they wouldn't be sharing the same bedroom.

You can go in and change your clothes, I will warm the food. Fu Hua said before turning away.

Jia Li only entered the room that belonged to her when Fu Hua left her side.

Walking into her room, she could see it wasn't as big as the one she had in the Fu House, but she wasn't complaining. She liked the fact that the room was warm and cozy.

Seeing the painting Fu Hua got for her hanging on the wall at her bedside, she smiled. She took off her books before putting her backpack away.

Straight up, Jia Li went to wash up and came into the room wrapped only in the big white towel. Since the closet was inside the room, she needed to dress up in the bedroom.

After picking out her nightdress, she put it on the bed and proceeded to take off the towel, and in that minute, Fu Hua opened the door.

He was about to walk in when he saw the magnificent sight. He had to pause to admire the sight before him, but too bad he couldn't satiate his desire because Jia Li screamed and hurriedly wrapped the towel around her body.

She looked frightened to see Fu Hua, because of the state she was in.

Fu Hua cleared his throat. The food is served. He announced before leaving and closing the door behind him.

Jia Li sat on the bed and looked as if she was about to cry. She withdrew her gaze from the door as she thought...

Does he not know how to knock before coming in ?

While Jia Li had that thought, Fu Hua had a different thought in his mind.

Does she not know how to lock the door ?

Because Jia Li was annoyed with Fu Hua for coming in without knocking and seeing her naked without apologizing, she took her time getting dressed before coming out of her room.

With the time Jia Li wasted, Fu Hua had already freshened up and was already dressed. So, the time Jia Li opened her door, Fu Hua opened his door, and their eyes met seeing each other after the awkward incident.

Together, they went to the dining area to have their dinner, which was silent.

After dinner, Jia Li took the dishes to the kitchen and washed them. When she returned to the sitting room, Fu Hua was still there.

Jia Li had something to say to him, so she walked towards him. Fu Hua glimpsed at her before looking back to the magazine in his hand.

Fu Hua about taking me to school, you dont have to do that anymore, I can get a cab from here to school directly. Jia Li said in a soft tone.

Fu Hua used the magazine before replying to her, I will arrange a cab that will be taking you to school and bringing you back home, and maybe any place you want to visit.

No, dont stress yourself about that, I can get a cab myself, I dont want to disturb you. Jia Li said.

She didnt want him to be doing things for her every time. She wanted to get used to doing things herself so she wouldnt be spoiled to the extent that she would forget that he may fail. But Fu Hua did not agree with her.

Chapter 125 – Feng Alix Returns

So you want grandfather to come after me? He has been looking after you and making sure you dont stress yourself, so how come you got married to me and your standard of living has to drop? You have to listen to me this time around. Fu Hua said in an unrefutable tone.

Jia Li stood there without saying anything. She didnt know if he was treating her well because of grandfather Fu, or because it was right he should do so.

You can make use of my study if you want to sketch, as it is more like a small workshop. Fu Hua said to her.

Oh... good night. Jia Li replied before walking away.

Fu Hua heaved a sigh after she left. He was about to continue going through the fashion magazine when his phone started to ring.

What is it? Fu Hua asked.

Brother, mother is very angry about you moving out without telling her. Fu YingPei disclosed.

How is that my business?! Fu Hua asked with a frown.

Fu YingPei sighed. Im telling you this so you can protect sister-in-law. Mum doesnt like her, and as long as shes still married to you, she would continue to be bullied by mum.

We have moved out already, she cant bully her. Fu Hua said.

You cant be certain, because there are different ways to get a work done. But just know that mum is very angry. Fu YingPei reminded.

Okay, Ive heard you. Fu Hua said and ended the call before putting his phone aside.

Somewhere in another City, Feng Alix was just telling her manager to push back her schedule.

In a few weeks, I will return to City X to give Fu Hua a big surprise. So, push my schedule back from next month and clear everything out for two weeks. Feng Alix instructed.

You will be gone for two weeks? Her manager asked.

Yes. Once two weeks are up, I will return to continue with my schedule. Dont forget to accept any endorsement that comes my way, and do your best to secure more works for me with the slightest chance you get. Dont forget, that you cant relax for a bit. Feng Alix said to her.

Are you going alone? She asked.

Youre coming with me, and thats the more reason you have to work hard before we leave for City X. Feng Alix said with a smile that was not a smile.

Okay Her manager replied before leaving her presence.

Feng Alix smiled to herself as she couldnt wait to see the look on Fu Huas face when he would see her.

Five weeks later, it was the month of November, and the weather was colder. This evening, a plane landed at City X airport.

A tall lady with sunshades and a muffler wrapped around her neck could be seen walking out of the airport with her manager walking behind her with two pieces of luggage in her hand.

Outside the airport, Feng Alixs manager flagged down to cabs for them.

Feng Alix got into the first one and gave out the address she was going to, while her manager took the second cab with their luggage in it.

When Feng Alix arrived at the familiar vicinity, she took out the mirror from her bag and reapplied her lipstick while looking at it.

She was all smiles after she checked herself out. Her heart was racing at the thought of seeing Fu Hua, and what his reaction would be.

She could tell how surprised he would be when he saw her. She couldnt wait to see him and to kiss him and snuggle under the sheets with him.

At the thoughts of these, Feng Alix blushed.

When the cab finally pulled up in front of the building, Feng Alix got out of the car after she paid for the ride. She adjusted her clothes before picking up her bag and walking into the building.

This place didnt feel foreign to her because she used to come over to visit Fu Hua sometimes when he asked her to come over, and other times when she went over on her own, so she was very much familiar with the place.

Entering the elevator, Feng Alix pressed the button for the 7th floor. In less than a minute, she arrived at the 7th floor and stepped out of the elevator, and made her way to Fu Huas door.

Feng Alix came straight from the airport because she was sure Fu Hua would be back from work.

Since Fu Hua would sometimes stay at the Fu house, she planned that if she didnt see him, she would lie naked in his bed and send him her nudes, and then, he would have to come over to see her.

On getting to Fu Huas door, Feng Alix keyed in Fu Huas password. The door opened to her, and she walked in and closed the door behind her.

Feng Alix saw that the lights in the house were turned on. She guessed that Fu Hua was around, so she smiled as she thought to herself, perfect timing

With a smiling gaze, she put her big handbag down before changing out of her shoes. She was too happy to notice that there were another pair of female shoes on the shoe rack.

After changing out of her shoes, Feng Alix picked up her bag and walked into the living room. She noticed some changes there, and the living room carried a different scent from the one she knew.

Feng Alix felt something was weird in the atmosphere, but she didn't dwell on it because she thought she was feeling weird since it's been more than a year since she last came around.

Feng Alix had just put her bag on the couch after bringing out the bottle of wine she bought for them when she heard a sound from the kitchen.

She turned her gaze towards that direction as she thought, Is he in the kitchen?

Feng Alix smiled and put the wine on the table before she walked towards the kitchen in light steps.

Jia Li, on the other hand, was cooking in the kitchen when she heard the door make a sound, so she thought Fu Hua was back because he left to buy a pack of bottled water.

To Jia Li's surprise, Fu Hua didn't come into the kitchen after a while, so she decided to go and check.

Chapter 126 – Feng Alix Felt The Blood Drain From Her Body

To Jia Li's surprise, Fu Hua didn't come into the kitchen after a while, so she decided to go and check.

What happened next was that Jia Li and Feng Alix met each other and were both stunned.

Jia Li felt that Feng Alix was familiar, but she couldn't remember where she had seen her. Seeing the tall beautiful lady, Jia Li agreed that she was indeed beautiful.

Who are you and what are you doing here? Feng Alix asked as her woman instinct became alert.

Jia Li was surprised by the question. This is my house, and I have been living here for a while. Since when did visitors start asking such questions?

Jia Li was tongue-tied by the question as she tried to guess Feng Alix's identity. And with the way she walked inside the house, Jia Li didn't need anybody to tell her she was familiar with this place since she knew the password.

Feng Alix had a frown sitting on her face while waiting for Jia Li to reply.

Becoming impatient, she asked, Where is Fu Hua?

Jia Li was about to reply when they both heard the door unlock and the sound of steady footsteps followed next. Their attention was caught immediately, so they both fixed their gaze towards the direction the person was coming from.

Fu Hua had just stepped into the house with the pack of bottled water in his hand and was about to change his shoes when he saw an unfamiliar female shoe on the shelf.

He frowned as he thought, Do we have a visitor.

After changing his shoes, he lifted the pack of water and walked towards the sitting room. But he stopped in his steps when he saw that familiar tall lady standing beside Jia Li.

What are you doing here? Fu Hua asked in a cold tone as he glanced at Feng Alix with a frown.

Feng Alix smiled when she saw it was Fu Hua who had just walked in. From his tone and facial expression, she could tell that he was still angry with her.

She took a few steps towards him and only stopped when she was close enough. With a smile on her face, she said to him...

I wanted to surprise you by coming back unannounced. I came straight from the airport after making a guess you would be here.

What did you come back for? Fu Hua asked.

Feng Alix was surprised by his question, but still thinking it was because he was mad at her for abandoning him, she had to explain to him.

Are you still angry with me? Dont be angry. I came back to spend some time with you, to make up for the lost times.

Her words alone were enough for Jia Li to know her identity.

She is Fu Huas girlfriend? She thought with a stunned gaze.

Jia Li didn't know what kind of feelings was bubbling inside her, so she just turned around and left.

Fu Hua glanced at Jia Li's back with a frown, while Feng Alix glanced at her back with curiosity.

You still haven't changed. You took a break and came to see me, but you didn't think about if I had something important or a busy schedule. Fu Hua said to her before walking into the kitchen with the pack of water in his hand.

He took out the bottles of water and stacked them in the fridge (even though it was off) before turning to Jia Li to ask...

Is the food ready?

Yes, I will serve it now. Jia Li replied without turning to look at him.

Fu Hua wanted to say something to her, but Feng Alix who has been standing outside the door walked into the kitchen and asked, Fu Hua, who is she? Is she a maid?

She felt that there was something off about the relationship between him and the woman he was talking to and had to ask that question.

Fu Hua turned to look at her with a frown, This is my wife, does she look like a maid to you? Please check your language.

Jia Li was surprised that he would acknowledge her as his wife in front of his girlfriend, the bitter feeling in her heart, slowly dissipated as she relaxed.

Feng Alix felt the blood drain from her body as her face turned ashen-white.

She tried to smile, but her facial expression was too ugly.

Fu Hua, what kind of joke is this? Please stop it, you're not good at it.

You just said that I'm not good at joking, that means you know me very well, and know that I don't joke. I am married, and this is my wife, Jia Li. Fu Hua said, making it clear to her.

Feng Alix was still in a state of shock when Fu Hua introduced Jia Li to her.

Jia Li, this is my ex-girlfriend, Feng Alix. I have mentioned her to you before. Fu Hua said to Jia Li.

Oh! Jia Li said as she turned to glance over at Feng Alix. Seeing the state she was in, Jia Li couldn't bring herself to say hello to her.

Jia Li didn't want to get involved in their matter, because from the look of things, Feng Alix had no idea of who she was, and that Fu Hua was already married.

Jia Li didn't have time to dwell on their matter, so she turned off the gas and started to dish the food.

Fu...Fu Hua, what's the meaning of this? When did you get married and how come you didn't say a thing to me? Feng Alix asked after a while. She felt her heart was in pain.

Now that you are asking, I will answer you. Fu Hua replied before walking out of the kitchen.

Feng Alix glanced at Jia Li's back before following Fu Hua to the sitting room.

I got married to Jia Li around the ending of September. So, now that you know that Im married, dont call or text me anymore. If its work-related, you know the right person to meet. Fu Hua said to her without caring about her emotions.

Chapter 127 – Jia Li Flees From Fu Hua After A Hot Kiss

I got married to Jia Li around the ending of September. So now you know that Im married, dont call or text me anymore. If its work-related, you know the right person to meet. Fu Hua said to her without caring about her emotions.

After a while, Feng Alix found her voice. Why did you do this to me? She asked as tears brimmed in her eyes.

What did I do to you? That I got married without telling you after you abandoned our plans in pursuit of fame? Fu Hua asked in a cold tone.

But I asked you for time and you agreed to it, why would you do this to me, to us? Feng Alix asked with tears in her eyes as she had her gaze fixed on him.

When did I agree. Listen carefully, its over between us and nothing will bring us back together. I have been waiting for you to return, so we can break up officially, just like the same way we got together. Fu Hua said without emotions.

Right now, he had no feelings for her, as everything had died away.

Fu Hua, I dont believe you would do this to me! Did your family force you to marry that woman? Feng Alix asked as she tried to touch Fu Huas arm, but he dodged her.

It doesnt matter what the truth is, go back home, and dont try to approach me again! Make use of the door! Fu Hua said as he pointed at the door.

How could you be so mean to me after the years weve been together? You promised not to break up with me unless I was the one that brought it up, but you went back on your words, you cheated on me, and you got married and youre only telling me about it now? Feng Alix asked as she reminded him of the exact words he said to her over a year ago.

Fu Hua felt an oncoming headache and regretted why he made that statement. Glancing back at her, he scoffed.

You first cheated on me. You lied to me, and then you left me hanging. You know what happens when you dont value me? You lose me. Alix, you have long lost me. And I have the right to the final interpretation of my words... you brought up the breakup with your actions, so I accepted it wholeheartedly. You may use the door now!

Fu Hua said in a cold tone, and this time around, his gaze was fierce.

Looking at the man that was every womans dream, and the man she managed to capture after a lot of hard work, Feng Alix saw that she couldnt recognize who he was anymore.

The times they had disagreements, he has never been so mean to her like today.

Feng Alix who has always been a strong woman, felt hot tears roll down her cheeks because it was too late for her to realize that she has lost something huge.

Not being able to tolerate the situation she can never control, Feng Alix picked up her bag and her shoes before running out of the house.

After she left, Fu Hua went to lock the door, and Jia Li finally came out of the kitchen and served the food.

Fu Hua saw the food had been served, so he went to sit down, and Jia Li joined him a minute later.

Jia Li literally played with her food. She didn't eat much, and Fu Hua noticed it.

Why are you not eating? He asked with a frown.

Jia Li replied without looking at him, I don't have much appetite.

Fu Hua didn't say anything more, because he thought she was not happy because of what happened.

After eating, Jia Li cleared their plates, while Fu Hua remained sitting on the dining seat. When Jia Li was through, Fu Hua called her over.

Jia Li, come over here... Fu Hua commanded.

Whats with that tone ? Jia Li thought as she made her way to him in slow steps.

When she was three steps away from him, she stopped.

Fu Hus sighed as he gazed at her face. Are you angry ?

No. Jia Li replied as she slowly glanced at him. Next, she tried to turn and walk away, but Fu Hua caught her hand and pulled her towards him.

Jia Li let out a yelp as she fell on Fu Huas lap. And before she could recover from the shock, she felt two warm palms, hold her face before a slightly cold pair of lips, covered her.

Jia Li was beyond shocked by Fu Huas action, and when she came back to reality, she tried to struggle and release herself from his grasp, but Fu Hua did not let her.

Fu Hua continues to kiss her, so she gave up struggling. Fu Hua only let her go when he considered that she was starting to get breathless.

Immediately he let her go, Jia Li fled. She ran into her room and shut the door with a loud thud, before using her body to block the door.

She was still breathing heavily as she thought back to the scene at the dining room.

She had no idea why Fu Hua kissed her so suddenly, but she was thankful she escaped quickly before he could think of swallowing her whole.

A smile appeared on Fu Huas face when Jia Li ran away from him, but the smile did not last, as he couldnt believe he was starting to be amused by Jia Li.

Fu Hua did not stay long in the living room, because he had some work to do in his workshop, so he turned off the lights in the dining room and went to the sitting room, and there, he saw the wine Feng Alix left on the table.

By just a glance, Fu Hua recognized the wine as a very expensive wine brand, but he was not moved. He turned off the light in the sitting room before walking away with an unfazed look on his face.

Chapter 128 – Feng Alixs Trick Goes Wrong

The next morning when Fu Hua was enjoying his morning black coffee, his phone rang. He had no idea who was calling, but he decided to answer the call.

Mr. Fu, its me, Alixs manager. Feng Alix manager reported.

Because Fu Hua wanted to grab the sandwich Jia Li put on his plate, he chose to hold his mug of black coffee in his hand than holding his phone.

Fu Hua put his phone on speaker mode, and now, Jia Li who was sitting at the same table, was able to hear the conversation.

Mr. Fu, Alix got in danger last night. The manager reported.

Why did you call me? I don't have any business with her, didn't she tell you about it? Fu Hua asked.

Mr. Fu, I don't know what happened between you and Alix last night, but I called to check up on her last night since she was supposed to spend the night at your place, but someone else answered the call, and informed me that Alix was involved in a serious accident, was being rushed to the hospital.

After the manager revealed this news, Jia Li was surprised and worried, while Fu Hua's brows furrowed in a frown.

Where is she? He asked.

In the hospital. The manager replied hastily.

Send the address to me. Fu Hua instructed before terminating the call immediately and went back to eating his breakfast.

Jia Li who heard the whole conversation peered at him from the corner of her eyes.

When you're ready, I will drop you in school first. Fu Hua said as he glanced at her. And at the same time, he seemed unbothered.

After breakfast, Fu Hua drove Jia Li to school, so the contracted driver didn't have to take her to school today.

After dropping Jia Li in school, Fu Hua drove straight to the address the manager sent to his phone.

On getting to the hospital, the manager was already waiting at the entrance for him.

Mr. Fu. The manager called out as she bowed in greeting.

Quick, I don't have time, take me to where she is. Fu Hua said without acknowledging her greeting.

Yes, Sir. The manager said as she led the way for him while wondering if they had really broken up because, from his reaction and actions, he didn't seem to hold any feelings for Feng Alix.

How did the accident happen? Fu Hua asked.

When she left your house, she got into the road without looking and a car hit her. The manager replied.

Fu Hua didn't say anything anymore till they got to the VIP room where Feng Alix was admitted.

When she was first brought to the hospital, she was in the general ward, but after her manager came, she was moved to the VIP ward.

When Fu Hua walked into the room, he saw Feng Alix lying on the bed with her eyes closed. She had bandages on her right leg and left hand. Also, there was a neck brace on her neck.

She was lying there with her eyes closed.

What did the doctor say? Fu Hua asked, taking a moment off to glance at the manager.

She has a minor break on her neck with many bruises all over her body. Her right leg is broken, and there was a cut on her left hand. The manager reported.

How long does she need for recovery? Fu Hua asked before glancing back at Feng Alix.

The manager glanced at Fu Hua as she replied, 8 weeks at least.

2 months? What about her work? As her manager, what do you plan to do about it? Fu Hua asked with his gaze on her.

I...I... will have to make some calls over there to take some weeks off, but I doubt it will work because she might be replaced from most of the works we managed to secure, 2 months its a long time. The manager replied.

How long did she plan to stay over there? Fu Hua asked with a serious expression on his face.

He wanted to find out what Feng Alixs plans were if he was wrong about her being selfish.

The manager was tongue-tied and didnt know if she should say the truth, or cover up Feng Alixs lies.

Fu Hua who could tell what she was thinking, cautioned her immediately. Dont try to lie.

The manager heard Fu Huas cold tone and knew he was not to be trifled with, especially now that his heart was cold.

Glancing at Feng Alix who was still sleeping, she looked back at Fu Hua before she started to explain things. She told Fu Hua everything she knew about.

I was never wrong, she didnt make plans for us, she was only after fame. She didnt think to tell me about her change of plans, did she think Im just anyone, she can manipulate at her will? Fu Hua said with a frosty look.

Mr. Fu, she repented at the end, and thats the reason we came back so she could explain things to you and spend some time with you. The manager said as she tried to remedy the situation.

I guess you still dont know that I am married. Fu Hua said to her.

The manager was so shocked, and now the reason for Feng Alixs accident was clear. She must have been so heartbroken that she ran into the road and had an accident.

You, contact her agent. And as her manager, you should look after her. I dont have any business with her, so dont expect me to come back here. Fu Hua said before turning away to leave.

Mr. Fu... The manager called out, but all she could see was his back which was as hard as a rock.

Fu Hua didnt turn back and continued walking till he came out of the building and got into his car. He drove away without a second thought.

The manager glanced at Feng Alix who was still lying in bed and could only blame her because she was the cause of her problems.

Feng Alix deliberately walked into the middle of the road, but she didnt expect that the accident would be serious.

She just wanted to have a few scratches that could heal in two weeks, so Fu Hua would pity her and come to take care of her, and when two weeks were up, she would travel back, and not delay her projects over there.

But what she didnt expect was that the accident would be serious, and she would suffer a big loss.

The manager only has to wait till she woke up to break the news to her. Thinking of Feng Alixs reaction would be worthwhile because she would lose her important jobs, and the persons attention she was trying to get, failed.

Chapter 129 – Grandfather Fu Bans Fu Hee From Visiting Jia Li And Fu Hua

At the Fu Villa, Grandfather Fu was in his study as usual when Butler Lu walked in to whisper something to his ear.

Grandfather Fus sight widened a little before he relaxed.

She really went straight to see him from the airport? I wonder how Jia Li felt seeing another woman walk into her house without the little courtesy of ringing the doorbell. Grandfather Fu said.

Sir, right now, that woman is hospitalized after getting into an accident last night, and master Fu Hua went to visit her. Butler Lu informed.

No, this nonsense cant go on! Fu Hua promised to take care of Jia Li, but what is he doing? He has to move out of that place immediately!

Grandfather Fu said angrily.

He couldn't accept the fact that Feng Alix got into Fu Hua's house because she knew his password. He was annoyed that Jia Li might have suffered a loss.

Sir, we have to get a house ready. Butler Lu reminded him.

Prepare one as a backup plan in case he finds a better one. They have to move out of that place within a week. And when they move out, send Ocean to Jia Li, I want to see which woman dares to walk in as she pleases. Grandfather Fu said in annoyance.

But Sir will Master Hua like the idea of a dog staying inside his house? Butler Lu asked with his gaze on the old man.

In fact, there is no need to get him to find another house. The villa we have here is a little far away and will be inconvenient for Jia Li, just buy one today and start renovating it according to his standards. We mustn't give him a new room to reject it. Grandfather Fu said thoughtfully.

I get it, he will have no choice than to accept it. Butler Lu said with a slight smile on his face.

Exactly! What has Fu Hee been up to recently? Grandfather Fu asked with his gaze on him.

She goes out a few times a week to visit the woman from the Bai family. Butler Lu reported.

Grandfather Fu asked with a frown, Which of them?

Bai Fen, the one she is good friends with? Butler Lu explained.

Who knows what she is thinking. Grandfather Fu said as he tapped on his desk.

Butler Lu walked closer to him and said in a low tone, Sir, she still hates Miss Jia Li, so she might be up to something.

I know. As long as she is still interacting with that woman from the Bai family, her attitude will never change. Its just that I dont understand when Fu Hee became so easy to manipulate. Grandfather Fu said with a sigh.

He just couldnt lay his hands on Fu Hees change in attitude. Before Fu Hee used to be smart, even smarter than Fu ChunHua, but these days, it seems that their brain capacity and roles were reversed.

Sir, what should we do about her? Butler Lu asked.

Leave her, but make sure she doesnt step her feet in Jia Li and Fu Huas house. I will even give her that order today. Grandfather Fu said.

It looks like he was fully prepared to protect Jia Li at all cost, just like he has been doing.

When Jia Li and Fu Hua moved out newly, he didnt send any servant to their house. After all, he was afraid Fu Hee could easily manipulate the servant and get her to bully Jia Li since she still had some influence because she has been the mistress of the Fu family for so many years.

Grandfather Fu thought deeply about this matter, he knew the servants would still respect Fu Hee, so he ruled out the option of sending a servant to them from the Fu house.

Another reason was that he wanted them to bond for some weeks before he employs a new servant for them.

Lu, employ the new servants that have been training, pick up a few, I will select them myself. When their house is ready, send Jia Lis servant from here to that place, she is good to Jia Li, and I will also speak with her so she wont be easy to manipulate. I cant trust my daughter-in-law again. Grandfather Fu said in a heavy tone.

Sir, everything will be taken care of as per your request. Butler Lu said with a smile, before turning to leave.

That same day in the evening, Grandfather Fu warned Fu Hee about going to visit Fu Hua and Jia Li.

Father, are you banning me from visiting my son ? Fu Hee asked with a frown.

Whats wrong with this old man ? She thought.

Do you have any right to visit your son when you dont accept his wife ? Dont think about going there if you dont want to get in trouble !

Fu Hee wanted to roll her eyes at the old man, but she refrained from doing that. Her action might cause her something valuable, so she controlled herself and left his sight.

She has been looking for a way to monitor Jia Li and Fu Hua, but she hasnt found a way. She was thinking the old man would send a few servants to them since he liked Jia Li so much and wouldnt want her to do any work.

But she was surprised that he didnt send anyone over to help them with the house chores, and her plans to monitor Jia Li through the servants failed.

And now that she was planning to visit them to access what was happening, and how their relationship was, he already banned her from doing that before she could even start.

His actions made her wonder if he could hear her thoughts.

After Fu Hee left, Butler Lu came to report something to him.

Sir, there is a request for an interview.

What interview? Don't these people know that I don't accept interviews?
Reject it! Grandfather Fu said as he looked away.

Butler Lu sighed and turned to leave with the tablet in his hand.

Chapter 130 – Feng Alix Plots Again

Two days later, Feng Alix woke up after an afternoon nap. She was still bedridden and looked very pitiful.

She has just learned of her situation and some jobs she would lose because of it. Not only that, but she also failed to get Fu Huas attention.

She couldn't accept that she would be pushed to the end of the cliff. Now that she has understood how foolish she was, she couldn't accept it.

What was more painful to her and harder to accept was losing Fu Huas love and trust. And now, he didn't even care about her even when she was in this state.

Feng Alix had tears in her eyes as she squeezed the sheets with one hand.

As she was thinking, an idea dropped in her head, so she said to her manager, Call Fu Hua over. Tell him that I want to see him for the last time.

Huh!

But Mr. Fu said I shouldn't call him, so he wouldn't pick my calls. Her manager said with a confused look.

I don't care, you have to get him to come and visit me. You can use my phone to make the call. Tell him that I have gone into depression from losing him, my jobs, and the injuries I sustained from the accident. Look for a way to get him to come here. Feng Alix instructed.

Her manager felt she was planning something from her facial expression and the instructions she was giving out, so she asked, What next?

When he comes, take a picture of us together, and don't let him find out about it. We need that picture to create a hype or a scandal depending on how big the flames are. Feng Alix said.

She wanted to smile for coming up with a brilliant plan, but she was in so much pain that she couldn't handle a smile.

The news of you being hospitalized after getting into an accident has leaked to your fans, do you think he will agree to come? Her manager asked with doubt.

He will come. Since I said I want to see him for the last time, and because he wouldn't want me to disturb him again, he would come, just do your work. Feng Alix said with confidence.

Okay, I will give him a call, but you might infuriate him if he finds out about the picture. Her manager said after a while.

Do I look like I care? Feng Alix said.

Feng Alix knew Fu Hua and could guess some of the ways he thinks, so it might not be hard to get him to come over.

Feng Alix's manager phoned Fu Hua with Alix's phone, and it took up to the 10th time before he answered the call.

Speak! Fu Hua said angrily. He was currently in his office and was busy with his laptop when the call came in.

At first, he didn't want to answer the call, but his phone kept ringing, so he had to answer it.

Feng Alix's manager was happy he answered the call, and she immediately used that opportunity to relay Alix's message to him.

She wants to see me for the last time? It looks like she is finally starting to think straight. I am very busy today, tell her I will come over tomorrow, and she only has 5 minutes to say whatever she wants to say, so she can start thinking about how to make good use of the 5 minutes since she has enough time to think about it. Fu Hua said and ended the call right away.

What did he say? Feng Alix asked in a tensed tone with a curious gaze on her manager.

He agreed to come, but he will do that tomorrow. He said you only have 5 minutes to tell him everything you have to say. Her manager revealed.

Five minutes are enough, as long as you get to take the picture of us together. Feng Alix said as she managed a smirk.

When Fu Hua got home that day, he didnt see Jia Li in the living room, so he checked the kitchen but he didnt see her there as well.

He had no choice but to go to her bedroom. He didnt see her as well, so he started to wonder if she wasnt back from school yet.

But its late, where could she be ? Fu Hua asked himself after he came out from her bedroom. Then, his sight went straight to the door of the workshop.

She might be there. He thought as he made his way over.

As he opened the door to the workshop, he saw Jia Li there, and she was busy sewing some pieces of materials together with a hand sewing machine.

Jia Li heard the footsteps and raised her head to glance at Fu Hua.

Youre back ? She asked in a soft tone.

Mmmm Fu Hua hummed in reply.

Jia Li didnt say anything to him again and went back to continue with her work.

Fu Hua had his gaze on her as he made his way over. He saw that she was putting on a sleeveless dress, and her jacket was on the couch nearby.

Jia Li was so into her work that she had no idea if when he made his way to her side and even came to stand behind her.

From that angle, Fu Hua could see Jia Li's ample breasts, due to the V-neck dress she was putting on. Not only could he see her breasts, but he could also see her deep cleavage.

Something in him was tempting him to touch her, and surprisingly, he yielded to the temptation.

He slowly reached his right hand into her dress from behind, and gently squeezed her left breast.

His actions shocked Jia Li and when she felt the warm hand pressing her breasts, she shrieked and put down the pieces of materials she was sewing.

Fu Hua didn't stop there. He continued to squeeze her breast gently and leaned in to put his face on the side of her neck.

Chapter 131 – A Little Romance In The Workshop

Fu Hua didn't stop there. He continued to squeeze her breast gently and leaned in to put his face on the side of her neck.

He slowly breathed in her scent and continued to squeeze her breast.

Jia Li quickly grabbed his hand and tried to stop him.

Fu Hua. She called out in a soft tone.

Shhhh... relax. Fu Hua whispered to her ear before sticking out his tongue and licking her neck, and next, he proceeded to kiss her neck.

Jia Li felt his wet tongue kiss her neck, and she shut her eyes as goosebumps appeared on her skin.

She breathed heavily as Fu Hua continued to tease and fondle her breasts. She felt like she was under a spell, because she couldn't even say No to him, or push him away.

She didn't know it would be so easy for him to control her.

From her neck, Fu Hua kissed her down to her shoulder. He found her zipper at the back of her dress, and slowly withdrew his hand from her breast.

Jia Li heaved a sigh of relief, thinking that he had let her go. But when she heard the sound of her zipper opening, she was startled and jumped up from her seat.

Why are you so scared? Fu Hua asked with a slight smile with a heated gaze on her.

Jia Li was uncomfortable with that gaze, so she looked away and glanced towards the direction her jacket was.

She forgot she was busty, and the kind of dress she wore, revealed her cleavage.

But it wasn't her fault, this was still Autumn, but she was starting to get hot since the temperature in the room was warm, so she had to take off her jacket.

And when Fu Hua walked in, all her concentration was on sewing the materials on her table together, so she forgot about her dressing.

Fu Hua followed Jia Li's sight to her jacket and smiled even more. He pushed the seat aside, so there was nothing in-between them.

Did you just notice that you seduced me, so you want to cover your body? Fu Hua asked as he trapped her.

Jia Li had nowhere to escape to, as she was trapped between Fu Hua and the table behind her.

Replying to his words, she looked down and said, I didn't do it on purpose, I was feeling hot so I took my jacket off.

Don't worry, I am not blaming you. You are free to dress the way you want while you are at home. Fu Hua said as he stretched his hands towards her face.

Jia Li shrank her neck back in fear, but he still caught her face, and held it in place, before leaning in to kiss her lips.

Fu Hua kissed Jia Li's lips gently for some seconds, before moving his hands to squeeze her butts.

Jia Li felt that things were getting out of hand, and so, called his attention. Fu Hua, I'm hungry.

Dont talk. Fu Hua said to her before lifting her and placing her butts on the table, then he came to stand in between her legs and placed his palms on her face again, as he stared into her eyes.

Jia Li looked away when their eyes met. Fu Hua smiled when he noticed that Jia Li was shy, and was starting to get aroused.

Fu Hua leaned in to kiss Jia Lis lips, and he did it so sweetly, like he was licking a candy, and chewing a bar of chocolate at the same time.

While kissing her, Fu Hua raised her dress and caressed her inner thighs with his palms, and Jia Li moaned in-between the hot kisses.

Fu Hua continued kissing her lips with his hands caressing her laps while their eyes were closed. He was starting to feel a reaction from his member down there.

Jia Li, on the other hand, felt funny. She was aroused and could feel the pleasure of pain down there, and as if to meet up to her expectations, Fu Hua moved his member and positioned it to hit her milky way.

Jia Li let out a moan as she felt the waves of pleasure hit her. Fu Hua grunted as he ground his member against her.

They both still had their clothes on, but still felt pleasure that way, and couldnt wait for the next part.

Jia Li felt embarrassed and buried her face in his neck.

I doubted you when you told me you were hungry because I thought you wanted to run away, but it looks like I was wrong. Fu Hua said with a smile as he slowly calmed down.

Jia Li didnt reply as she slowly raised her face from his neck.

When she told him she was hungry, she meant it, but she also wanted to run away from him.

Jia Li sometimes felt hungry while working. And even before Fu Hua walked in, she has been feeling very hungry but didnt stand up to look for food.

The hunger she felt was like never before, but she tolerated it for a while until Fu Hua came to distract her from work, and it was then that she understood how hungry she was.

Come with me, lets find something to eat together. Fu Hua said as he zipped her dress and helped her to get down from the desk.

Jia Li followed him out of the room with her head down, because she was embarrassed with what they did inside the workshop, and how her stomach embarrassed her earlier.

Change your clothes first, I will serve dinner.

When they got to their room doors, Jia Li said to him in a soft tone before walking away in a hurry.

Fu Hua had his hands in his trouser pockets as he watched Jia Li leave in a hurry. A slight smile appeared on his face before he went into his bedroom.

Chapter 132 – An Ambiguous Caption

The next morning, Jia Li and Fu Hua had breakfast together, with Jia Li eating so little.

Why dont you eat more, you have an exam today. Fu Hua said with a frown.

No, Im fine. Its exactly because I have an exam this morning that Im tensed. Jia Li replied as she wiped her mouth.

Are you that nervous ? Fu Hua asked.

Yeah, and if I eat more, I will end up throwing everything up. I dont want my stomach to be uncomfortable when Im already dealing with being tense. Jia Li said.

Okay. I will take you out for dinner later today. Fu Hua said to her after glancing at the food she ate so little from, and she tried hard to hide her smile.

After breakfast, Fu Hua and Jia Li left the house together.

Today, Fu Hua let her take the cab to school, while he drove straight to the hospital to see Feng Alix.

When Fu Hua got to the hospital and walked straight into Feng Alix's room, he saw her sitting up on the bed with her back against the pillow.

She looked so different from what she used to look like.

When Feng Alix saw Fu Hua, her heart gladdened, and it was time to act.

Her manager who was in the room greeted Fu Hua and asked him to come to sit on the chair, but he chose to remain to stand, so she sat back down and picked up her phone.

Fu Hua... you really came to see me? Feng Alix asked in a weak tone with an affectionate gaze.

I said I would come to see you, and since I came, then you should be aware that your time has started counting. Fu Hua said to her, as he remained unfazed by her condition.

The joy Feng Alix felt earlier after seeing him, disappeared instantly.

Fu Hua, you don't have to remind me about it. I asked to see you for the last time before I go travel out for treatment. I came back to see you, and this is all I got. Feng Alix said as she started to cry.

But a reminder from her manager, caused her to stop crying.

Alix, you broke 6 rib bones, remember what the doctor said.

After reminding her in a concerned tone, she started to type away on her phone, or more like pretending to be busy while waiting for the right opportunity to take the picture.

Up till now, Fu Hua hadn't gone close to Feng Alix, he has been standing some distance quite away from her.

To Feng Alix, it was more like he didn't want to be in the same space as her, and she felt more heartbroken.

Feng Alix knew she didn't have much time left with him, so she had to do something to make him come close to her.

At that moment, she caught the sight of the glass of water on the table close to her bed, but because she was injured, she knew she couldn't move around. So she pretended to be thirsty and stretched her hand towards it with her face squeezed in pain.

Her manager pretended to be very busy with her phone, so she didn't look up.

Fu Hua's patience was depreciating each passing moment, and when he saw her trying to reach out for the water, he walked towards her bed and took the glass of water before passing it to her.

Her manager immediately got hold of the opportunity to take the pictures.

Fu Hua didn't notice what was happening, since the manager had already turned off the shutter sound from the camera when he walked in.

After passing the glass of water to her, Fu Hua stepped away before reminding her, You have 2 mins left.

Feng Alix saw the thumbs up

Fu Hua, don't you feel anything for me? I came this far to see you, but look what happened to me? I lost more than half of the jobs I worked so hard to secure, don't you feel a little pity for me? Feng Alix asked.

I pity you, and that's the only emotion I can feel towards you. You shouldn't have come back, because no one asked you to. I hope you have said everything you wanted to tell me because your time is up. Fu Hua said before turning around to leave.

Fu Hua, please hold on... Feng Alix said as she tried to call him back, but it did not work.

Fu Hua walked out of the room, without looking back.

After ten seconds of silence in the room, Feng Alix wiped her tears before saying to her manager, Bring the phone, let me take a look at the pictures.

Two pictures ? Thats fine. Feng Alix said as glanced through the pictures.

We were lucky to get one, the other one is blurry. Feng Alix said as she deleted the blurry one.

Yes, Mr. Fu was so fast, that I almost missed out. Her manager confessed.

Log into my Weibo and Instagram accounts, and post the picture. I will tell you the caption to put. Feng Alix said as she glanced at her bandaged leg.

Her manager took back the phone from her and did as instructed.

Since your fans know you were hospitalized, this picture will confirm the news, and also link you to Mr. Fu. Her manager said.

That's exactly what I want. I want everyone to speculate on our relationship. When we were dating, I didn't want anyone to know about it, but now he got married without ending things with me, I'm going to cause a commotion for him. He hasn't been in a scandal before, now he has work to do. Feng Alix said with a smirk.

Her manager sighed...

What caption should I add?

After being hospitalized for 5 days due to the serious injuries from the accident, I was already slipping into depression, and I only felt a little better when someone special came to visit. Thank you so much, Mr. Fu.

How does that sound? Feng Alix asked with her gaze on her manager.

Very ambiguous! She replied as she typed away on her phone.

Exactly what I want. Now prepare for us to leave this hospital now. Is the private hospital my mum prepared ready? Feng Alix asked.

Yes, and your room is ready as well. We can leave now. Her manager replied and kept the phone away after posting the picture successfully.

Good, we can leave now. Feng Alix said with a smile, as she couldn't wait for the latest news to explode.
