Chapter 333 – Another News

When Fu Hua returned from work, Jia Li asked him to go freshen up before he eats the food she prepared for him.

Hearing that his wife cooked for him. Fu Hua quickly gave a kiss to Jasmine before hurrying away.

Jia Li smiled as she watched his back. Gazing back at the little one in her arms, she said to her, Your dad is in a hurry to eat the food cooked by me. I guess he has missed it.

It has really been a long time since Fu Hua ate the food Jia Li made. And knowing how much he liked her food, Jia Li decided to cook up a mountain of dishes for him.

Jia Li understood that money and gifts were not a problem to Fu Hua and he was not moved by them. But the little things which seemed insignificant she did for him, was what he liked best.

Fu Hua quickly had a shower and got dressed before going downstairs.

Jia Li and Jasmine were already waiting in the dining room for him.

Seeing the table of dishes, Fu Hua asked as he went over to his seat, When did you find time to cook all of these ?

Sit down and eat before the food gets cold. My job was to cook the food while the servants helped to get everything read. Its not possible to have done the whole work when Jasmine is here. She is a little troublesome. Jia Li said with a smile as she pinched the cheeks of the little girl that was babbling.

You have worked hard, thank you! Fu Hua said as he picked up his chopsticks

Fu Hua chewed on the food and hummed, I missed this taste.

Jia Li smiled happily. Since you like it, then eat up!

You have to eat as well. Fu Hua said to her.

Jia Li tried to put Jasmine on her stroller which was beside her but the little girl started crying. She wanted her mother to hold her.

You, why are you crying now? Jia Li asked with a smile as she lifted the crying little girl in her arms and immediately, Jasmine stopped crying.

Fu Hua glanced up with a smile. Jasmine, you have to let your mother eat, she will hold you later.

Jasmine was not in the mood to listen to her parents. She wanted her mother to hold her and that's it!

Jia Li had no choice but to hold her in her arms and eat with one hand.

Jasmine smacked her lips when she saw the food that was going into her mother's mouth.

This is the reason I wanted to put you down but you don't want it. Jia Li said with a smiling gaze.

We don't have to worry about her eating adult food when the time comes, she really can't wait. Fu Hua said with a smile.

Its possible that she might not like the taste. But I will be glad if she starts eating other foods earlier. But she looks like she wouldnt give up on her milk even if she likes other food. Jia Li replied.

Lets take things slowly. Bring her, I will hold her while you eat. Fu Hua suggested. He wanted his little wife to eat comfortably.

Jia Li smiled and rejected him, Dont worry, Im fine. I am already used to it.

Finally, Jasmine looked away from her mother. Her interest was now on her mothers dress. The design seemed to catch her eyes, so she was staring at it.

Jia Li and Fu Hua sighed in relief after they finished eating in peace. Fu Hua took the little girl and went to play with her, while Jia Li went to get some rest.

When Jasmine slept off, Fu Hua carried her to Jia Lis bedroom and laid her in her cot, before going to the study to do some work.

FJ would be launching another collection that involved a few dresses, travel bags, and handbags. He needed to get his proposal ready for the Competition he has in mind.

3 weeks later, FJ launched a new line of travel bags and handbags, along with a few dresses. What sparked the reactions of everyone, was the limited number of dresses Jia Lis work had. There were only 7 pieces of it and it was very expensive.

Knowing the price, people that have seen the dress said it was worth it, given how many gemstones that were spent on the dresses.

Another news that caused an uproar was that the CEO of FJ liked the dress so much that he got one for his wife.

Now, everyone wanted to see a picture of The Hidden Wife in the dress. They had no idea of Jia Lis identity, what she looked like and her figure, so they were very curious.

On the same day the new collections were released, FJ announced in a statement that Jia Lis dress has all been sold out, as different calibers of people, placed an order for the dress immediately it was unveiled.

One foreign celebrity got the dress for the upcoming met Gala. A Politicians daughter bought the dress to celebrate her birthday party. A bride got the dress for her wedding reception. A popular singer got the dress and wore it for the show she was invited to. It was said that one royal family, got the dress and the last one was taken by an Indian actress.

As the dresses were in different colors, it was easy for FJ to see the dresses sold out quickly. This was a strategy given by Fu Hua.

He instructed the creative Arts department to make the 6 dresses in different colors and Sunny went on to choose the different colors for the dresses.

Each dress had a different color and a different color of gemstones. The dresses were very beautiful, and when Jia Li saw the pictures of them, she agreed that she was talented and FJ knew how to market her talent.

It wouldnt be bad partnering with them.. Jia Li said with a smile.

Chapter 334 – Bai Juns Trick

Jia Li invested 70% of all the money she had, and she did that through Fu Hua. He helped her to buy some shares and stocks.

Jia Li gave out 20% of her money to charity, and the remaining 10% she left for herself.

This was the first time Jia Li was taken a bold step in her financial life, and Fu Hua was proud of her.

You are really smart. Fu Hua said as he pinched her cheeks.

Of course I am. As time goes by, I will increase the percentage for my the charity. Jia Li said with a hearty smile

Since I am teaching you properly, what can you give to me?. Fu Hua asked.

I will cook lunch and send it to your office for 7 days, his does that sound?. Jia Li asked with a wink.

Fu Hua agreed immediately. Deal.

Jia Li kept her promise sent lunch to Fu Hua for 7 days. He was very busy and knowing how serious he was with work, he wouldnt mind skipping lunch just to get his work done.

Jia Li didnt know what new project Fu Hua was working on that was taking his time, but she did her best to keep to her promise, and hopefully, it was enough to last his busy periods.

A week later, FJ announced the designer behind the Dream dresses that were sold off within a few hours.

Jia Li came to the limelight again. And everyone was requesting an interview. Many people were curious as to the reason Jia Li has not joined FJ yet, but her designs were still being used.

Fu Hua released a statement first. He said that Jia Li was already working with FJ, but would join them in full swing, soon.

FJ followed their Boss's footsteps and released a statement towards that. Jia Li only said something when Fu Hua gave her the sign to.

Jia Li posted on her social media handles that she would join FJ soon, as she was looking for the right opportunity to do so.

Many people interested in her affairs were curious about the right opportunity she was talking about, but Jia Li never mentioned it. She only said they would find out soon.

Because of that media attention, some people were jealous of Jia Li's success, and it was normal. Someone like Bai Jun was seething in rage when she saw the news about Jia Li being the designer behind the dresses she liked.

She was thinking of getting into FJ quickly, so she can find out who that designer was and ask her to mentor her, but who knew it was Jia Li, her enemy.

Brother Hua is deceiving the public, and this is so unfair!. Bai Jun said with gritted teeth.

Its possible that Fu Hua designed the dress himself and only used the news to create a hype around that girl, so she could easily get into FJ. Bai Fen said in a restless tone.

Brother Hua can do anything. I hate that bitch! She already had brother Hua wrapped around her fingers. Bai Jun said in an angry tone.

Dont worry too much, I will look for more credible teachers for you, you have to shit your eyes from the media and concentrate on improving yourself. Bai Fen advised.

Its so hard to do that especially when Brother Hua is always acting this way! Ah! Im so angry!. Bai Jun said as she kicked her feet.

Bai Fen sighed and said to her, When last did you speak to FangSu ?.

A few days ago. Im sure she fought with her mother the last time I saw her, and she gave a hint about it. She must still be feeling guilty about the lies I told her, so she didnt tell me directly, so I can continue to have faith in her. My plans worked. Bai Jun said happily.

Good. You have to contact her once in a while, but when she does, dont answer her immediately. Delay, and when she complains you remind her of her mother visiting to warn us to stay away from her. Bai Fen said in a low tone.

I will do just that. I have to call her now, because I have something to say to her, Bai Jun said with a smile as she picked up her phone.

What do you want to say to her ?. Bai Fen asked in a curious tone.

You will see. Bai Jun said with a proud smile.

When FangSu saw Bau Juns call, she hesitated for a few moments before accepting it.

After exchanging greetings just like before, Bai Jun changed her tone to that of a sad one as she said to her, FangSu, have you seen the news?.

Which news?. FangSu asked in a confused tone.

One statement from Bai Jun about the news and FangSu already knows the reason she was calling. She sneered and pretended not to know about it.

Dont tell me you havent seen the news about your brother revealing that girl as the designer behind those dresses. Bai Jun said wide-eyed.

I havent checked the news, and I am not in a good mood to check it. I want to be by myself. FangSu replied in a low tone.

What happened? why is your mood bad?. Bai Jun asked in a curious tone. She really wanted to know if it was something she would celebrate when she hears it.

I just learned that my brother banned me from working in FJ, FangSu said as she cried out.

What! What do you mean?!. Bai Jun asked in surprise. She didnt believe what she just heard.

I can not work with FJ until my brother lifts the ban he placed on me. He is taking revenge on me for going against him. FangSu said with a fake cry.

Bai Jun and her mother exchanged glances. Bai Jun was happy with the news. Now that she has chosen the path she wanted, she wanted to do it to the fullest.

Are you sure its not Aunty that did it? You said you fought with her the last time after you went home. Bai Jun said in a low tone.

If it was before, FangSu would have foolishly believed her, but since she knew the truth about that incident, she couldnt believe Bai Jun would try to lead her to blame her mother.

Chapter 335 – The Attention Seeker

FangSu asked as she tried to make her tone sound surprised, Are you saying my mum might have told my brother to blacklist me because I fought with her?.

Bai Jun chuckled nervously. Dont get me wrong, its not like Im accusing Aunty. Im just trying to analyze the situation. You know you shouldnt have argued with your mum for my sake, its not right. Its possible that your mum might have been angry with you, so she did that.

Thinking that FangSu would never agree to an apology, Bai Jun added, Since your brother and mother have a big authority over you, just go and apologize to them, thats the only way to get into FJ, you just have to listen to everything they tell you.

FangSu did not disappoint Bai Jun's expectations by rejecting the idea just like her usual self.

I will never apologize to them! They don't want me to get into FJ? I will, even if it takes me 20 years, I will get in without their help!

Bai Jun was thrilled and satisfied with her outburst and response. She knew how prideful her friend was, so she deliberately brought up the matter about apologizing because she knew she was going to act headstrong and refuse.

Bai Jun wanted FangSu not to get into FJ if possible, so she could plan on getting Fu Hua all by herself. If she worked in the same place as her, it will be difficult to pull some tricks FangSu would never agree to. So losing out on getting into FJ, was Bai Jun's intention for FangSu.

Bai Jun smiled more profoundly and said, It's okay FangSu, whatever you want to do, just do it, I will forever support you just like you've always had my back.

FangSu had an unbelievable facial expression on her face.

Is this the kind of friendship I signed up for? FangSu thought with an ugly look on her face. She couldn't believe Bai Jun's ridiculous idea. What kind of friend doesn't lead their friends to the right path?

Bai Jun was a first for her.

FangSu let out a sigh after holding her anger and disappointment since the start of their conversation. She deliberately asked Bai Jun, Do you still plan on getting into FJ?.

Bai Jun wanted to say, Yes, it has always been my dream, but her mother gave her a sign not to say the truth, so Bai Jun paid heed to her.

No, not anymore. I plan to relax for a bit more and start applying to other big brands, or even open a private store for myself. Bai Jun lied with a smile.

FangSu didnt want to stay longer on the phone with her, so she said goodbye.

After the call ended, Bai Fen lashed out at her daughter. I cant believe you wanted to spill your plans to her!.

Why, whats bad with that? Bai Fen asked with a confused gaze.

Dont you know FangSu can get jealous and ruin your plans? Have you forgotten her family will never let you get into FJ if they find out youre trying to do that?. Bai Fen asked with a frown.

Bai Jun didnt look bothered as she replied, But FangSu is not like that. She has a good heart, and she will never report me to her family.

Lies! Dont you ever underestimate the human mind!. Now tell me, how do you think FangSu would feel when she finds out what weve been doing behind her back? She would find it unbelievable, and this is the same way you would feel if she decides to surprise you by getting you blacklisted before you can get into FJ. Bai Fen said, bursting her bubbles.

But, FangSu doesnt look like someone like that... Bai Jun said with a frown. She still refused to believe that her friend can do something like that.

Do you think FangSu is a saint? Youd better get your facts straight. Keep to yourself before you ruin the only opportunity you have. Bai Fen advised.

Okay mum, I will listen to you. Bai Jun said in agreement. Her goal was important, and she can not let any careless mistake ruin it.

Unlike Bai Jun, someone out there couldnt sit still after seeing the trending news about Jia Li and her latest collaboration with FJ.

Knowing Jia Li to be Fu Huas wife, Feng Alix was envious and decided to turn the media attention to herself after a long time.

It has been more than 6 months since she disappeared from the limelight after the scandal. And she was also sure the media would be more than happy to find out where the beloved dress from the Autumn show went to.

Yeah, thats right, Feng Alix has the dress the media has been searching for, under her custody. She has been waiting for the right opportunity to turn the media attention to herself, and she has finally gotten the right opportunity.

That weekend, Feng Alix went on a birthday party with her old male lover where she was sure the media would be present, and just like she planned meticulously, so many eyes were on her because of that dress, and the media snapped away.

Because of her scandal back in China, not many people talked much with her. But given that she was a big person before she fell, she had her share of connections.

At the party, Feng Alix asked her partner to take a picture for her as she handed her phone to him. Her partner who could probably pass as a grandfather to her agreed to take the pictures of her.

With a wealthy man, Feng Alix didnt mind the age.

After he was done taking the pictures, Feng Alix acted cute with him and asked him to help her pick the perfect picture to post.

This will look good. Her old lover said with a smile while pointing at the second shot he got.

Thank you! I will post it now. Once again, thank you for the dress. Feng Alix said in excitement.

No need to thank me, I will do anything to make you happy. Go ahead and post the picture, I need to greet my friends.. Her old lover said and pecked her lips before leaving with a smile.

Chapter 336 – I Love You Forever And Always

Feng Alix posted the picture with this caption, Thank you, darling, for the dress ♥

After posting without using any tags, Feng Alix smiled satisfactorily before putting her phone away and going in to enjoy the party in full swing.

That was her first post in a long time, and it was going to trend.

It didnt take up to 3 hours before Feng Alix started trending because of her post in FJs Autumn collection. There was fire all over the media.

Everybody was curious as to how Feng Alix managed to get her hands on that dress. Then the caption under her post drew much attention.

Most people were wondering about the identity of the person that she called, darling. They began to speculate if she had a secret lover. And if she had one, who was he? Fu Hua? or some other person?

Everyone was going crazy as they all went under Feng Alix's post to comment. Many people were asking different questions like...

Where have you been?

Are you dating now?

How did you get that dress?

Are you planning on doing a comeback?

Have you reconciled with FJ?

Are you good friends with FJ's Boss?

Are you not ashamed of yourself to wear this dress?

The comments and questions were endless, in fact, it was more than the likes she got for that post. The surprising thing was that Feng Alix did not reply to any of them. Instead of doing that, she changed her page from public to private, now anyone that wanted to see her posts must request to follow her.

This was another strategy by her to get more followers and constant attention from curious people.

After she set her page to private, the news began to trend.

Back in China, FJ immediately released a statement as people were questioning them for the dress Feng Alix wore to the private party.

People asked them how Feng Alix managed to get the dress, if they had settled the past feud between her, and if they planned to welcome her back to work for them.

FJ released a statement saying that they do not have any business with Feng Alix, as they did not sell any of their goods to her.

This statement made everyone believe that Feng Alix must have gotten the dress through her lover. Most people believed that she was trying to get attention for herself.

Fu Hua was asked a few questions, but he never responded as he didn't care. He only directed how FJ should reply to the public after they called them out on social media.

Fu Hua was at home with his family when that happened. He didn't want Jia Li to misunderstand, so he quickly explained things to her.

Sweetheart, don't misunderstand me, I have no idea how she got that dress because FJ will not sell anything to her. She is stirring up attention for herself just to be noticed by the media after disappearing from the spotlight for several months.

Jia Li chuckled softly as she found the situation funny. Why are you trying so hard to explain when I trust you? I know your ex is seeking attention, and that's it.

I really need to explain to you, after all, you know a little about our history, you should know the kind of person she is, always taking advantage of situations. Fu Hua said and let out a sigh.

I know. Its okay, I trust you. Just let her be. Since she is trying so hard to garner attention for herself, just let her be, after all, it must not have been easy for her. You can pretend that she is not existing. Jia Li said with a smile as she caressed his face with her palms.

I will do just that. Also, I want to apologize about my past with her. Fu Hua said as he took Jia Lis hands in his.

He stared right into her eyes as he caressed the back of her hands with his two thumbs.

Why are you bringing up that past?. Jia Li asked with her gaze on him.

Because I feel that I owe you a big apology. I am sorry for having something with her, something I shouldnt have shared with her. Im really sorry about that. Fu Hua apologized.

Jia Li smiled and said to him, Your past is your past. We didnt have anything to do with each other at that time, and she was your girlfriend, so its okay. Lets not talk about it.

Jia Li understood what Fu Hua was talking about. She knew he was apologizing for being intimate with his ex.

I didnt know what love was, and I would have made the biggest mistake if you didnt come into my life. Since you came into my life, I now know that love is. Fu Hua said as he kissed the back of her hands.

What do you know about love?. Jia Li asked curiously. She wanted to hear of the opinion he had for the love he had for her.

I Just know the love I have for you is like an oxygen pipe. Without your love, I would lose my breath and my existence would cease to exist. Fu Hua confessed.

Jia Li blushed and quickly removed her hands from his grasp. She covered her face with her palms, and said, You are cheesy!.

Fu Hua took her hands away from her face. Im only saying how strong your love is, and is influencing my life. I love you, forever and always.

Jia Li smiled happily. She really liked his cheesy nature most time. Not wanting him to go free like that, she asked, You are so good with making a woman happy with your words. You are an expert in this.

Youre the first and only woman apart from our daughter, I have made to feel good with my words. I never did that with any other person, I didnt have that interest in the past, and will not in the future. Fu Hua replied.

Prove your love for me. Jia Li said in a demanding tone.

Anything for you sweetheart!. Fu Hua said in an excited tone before lifting Jia Li in a bridal style.

Where are you taking me to?. Jia Li asked as he carried her out of the workshop.

I am going to prove my love for you. Fu Hua replied without stopping in his steps. He seemed to be in a hurry instead.

Jia Li was quiet until they got in front of his bedroom. Youre going to prove your love for me in the bedroom?. Jia Li asked with an unbelievable expression on her face.

Yes. You will love the wonderful experience.. Fu Hua said with a smile as he walked into his bedroom with her in his arms.

Chapter 337 – Jia Li Shows An Interest

Fu Hua proved his love to Jia Li till she begged him to stop.

Lying naked under the sheets, Jia Li said to Fu Hua, Jasmine has an appointment with her doctor tomorrow morning, after her tummy time. Are you coming along?.

Why not? I will move my schedule, so I can go with you for our daughters checkup. Fu Hua said as he hugged her tightly in his arms.

The next morning after her tummy time, Jasmine and was bathed and clothed, and throughout that time, the cute little girl babbled and moved her fists and legs about.

You look so excited. Jia Li said with a smile as she gently touched her daughters cheeks.

Jasmine smiled at her and babbled with her fingers in her mouth.

You are so cute!. Jia Li said as she continued to dress her up.

Do you want some milk?. Jia Li asked as she lifted the little girl in her arms. Jasmine babbled as she moved her fists about.

To the little girl, it feels so good to see her mother. Her sight was a lot better now since she was already 2 months old.

Alright, mummy will give you some milk. Jia Li said with a smile as she positioned the little girl in her arms, before going on to breastfeed her.

Jasmine was more than excited to drink her milk. She even went as far as to move her feet about, with her hand placed on her mothers breast.

30 minutes later, Jia Li, Fu Hua, and the little girl were already at the hospital to see her pediatrician. Jasmine was getting her immunization shot today after the checkups.

Fu Hua felt bad for his little princess when she cried out pain due to the shot she got. Jia Li quickly consoled her by speaking gently to her and trying to give her milk directly from her breast in other to soothe her.

Even with the nipple in her mouth, Jasmine still cried, and would only suck for 2 seconds before crying again.

Fu Hua rubbed the little girls back as he said, Who dares to hurt my little princess? Jasmine sorry okay, dont cry anymore.

The doctor tried to pacify the little girl from the side, but it didnt work.

Jia Li had to start singing while rocking her in her arms, and at the same time, trying to breastfeed her.

A few seconds later, Jasmine stopped crying and enjoyed drinking her milk.

Jia Li and Fu Hua sighed in relief after Jasmine stopped crying. The little girl fell asleep while sucking and had no idea when she got home.

Fu Hua paid for more drugs for Jasmine since the one they had was almost finished. Throughout that day, Fu Hua pet Jasmine and held her in his arms for a long time.

Since Fu Hua had an important meeting scheduled with the board of directors the next day which was Monday, he used today to spend a lot of time with his daughter.

The next day being Monday, Fu Hua brought up his proposal about the competition to the board of directors for the Executive Committee. His idea for the competition was very big.

His vision or motive behind the competition was to give an opportunity to young talented designers out there, to work with FJ for a given period, and the ones that passed their probation period would receive a 5 years contract.

This was going to be a first in FJ, and also the first of any kind in the Fashion Designing World, no brand has ever taken this step before.

Mr. Fu, how many people are you looking to employ from this competition?. One of the directors of the Executive Committee asked.

At most 20. Fu Hua replied.

20 is much, lets look at 10, after all, this is the first of its kind. We can use this competition to test waters. Another Executive Committee said.

10 its little. My idea is that the Top 20 finalists, will get 3 months probation, and after that period, only 10 of them would be given a chance to work with us for 5 years. And as time goes on, we can talk about renewing their contracts. Fu Hua suggested.

That sounds like a good idea. We should be expecting a lot of applicants once we announce the competition and the date for it, at least more than 15,000 applicants from all over the world. Another Executive Committee said.

They don't need to be that much. Once we are done with planning the competition, we can start promoting it in the media. We can set up a time range for the interested applicants that passed our criteria to join the competition, to apply. A female Executive member said.

This matter was deliberated on for a while before Fu Hua dismissed them. He asked them to plan very well and show him what they've got after a week interval. He still needed to talk with the board of directors and big Investors about it, so that funds for the competition, can be set up as well.

When Fu Hua got back home, he told Jia Li about the competition and the little details that were discussed in the meeting, but who knew that Jia Li would pick an interest in the competition.

From the details she got from him, she could tell how tough, challenging, interesting, and fun the competition would be.

When will FJ be done with finalizing the competition? When do you think the competition will start?. Jia Li asked in a curious tone as her eyes shone brightly.

We will start the publicity around ending of this month. As for the competition, two months from now, it's a good time to hold it. It may take up to a month for the different stages in the competition to end Fu Hua replied. It was only when he finished answering her questions that he saw her eyes twinkling.

He was taken aback as he asked with a narrowed gaze, Why do you look excited, don't tell me you want to join this competition?.

Your guess is right, I will join this competition.. Jia Li replied in an excited tone.

Chapter 338 – The Fight (I)

What! why ? Fu Hua asked with a surprised gaze. He never thought that she would be interested in that kind of tough competition where probably the best of them all will compete to get into FJ.

He had already prepared to get her into FJ without stress and he was waiting for her to be ready and for Jasmine to get a little older, where she can cope a little without her mothers presence all the time.

This competition is going to be tough but it will help to unlock more hidden potential that I may not be aware of. The competition will be fun, as I get to use my head, you know, I havent used it in a long while. Jia Li answered.

Fu Hua put his hand on his forehead and said, You dont have to do that. I have already prepared a contract invitation for you, I was only waiting for you to be ready before I hand it over to you.

Jia Li looked confused at first, then a thought scrambled into her head, Are you saying FJ would send me an official invitation to work with them when Im ready ?

Exactly, so you dont need to go through all that troubles. The media knows that we are interested in working with you, so you will make waves once you accept our invite. Fu Hua said with a smile.

This is such a good opportunity. For FJ to send a contract invitation directly to me, this is an honor, you really went all out for me. Jia Li said with an appreciative smile.

You can't let my hard work be in vain. You have to think about this matter, I will give you enough time to make the decision, in case you are confused on which road to go to. Fu Hua said with a serious gaze.

Jia Li waved her hands and said, No, there is no need to waste more time on this, I have made my decision and I know what's good for me. I will have to reject your offer. I want to work my way to FJ and not sent a contract invitation because my husband is the Boss. Thank you for your hard work.

After saying that, Jia Li turned to walk away but Fu Hua was fast enough to grab her hand.

You can't join this competition, I am worried about you. What about Jasmine, you won't have time to spend with her once the competition starts. Fu Hua said in a gentle tone.

Jia Li leaned over with a smile that was not a smile. She gazed into his eyes and said in a low tone, What are you afraid of? Are you worried that I won't get in if I join the competition? Or are you truly worried about the stress I would have to go through during the competition?

Fu Hua was tongue-tied for a moment. He didn't know how to reply to her. Initially, he was worried she would be stressed during the competition, so he didn't want her to join. But now that she mentioned losing, he was thinking if he was scared of that too.

Seeing how quiet he was, Jia Li got angry and hit his hand away. Don't try to stop me, I will get into FJ through the competition. Tell me if you dont want me working in FJ, so I can think of other plans for myself. But if you dont mind me working in FJ, then let me get in through my means.

After saying that, Jia Li walked away in quick steps. She was so angry at him when she thought of the possibility that he didnt trust that she can get into FJ through that competition.

Jia Li wait! When did things come to this?! Fu Hua asked with creased brows. He could tell his wife was angry at him and it has been a long time since she was that angry.

Fu Hua didnt chase after her. He remained sitting with a big frown on his face. He also felt a bit annoyed that his wife didnt appreciate the method he developed to get her into FJ instead she chose the tough path.

Jia Li went straight to find Jasmine who was having a good time with Housekeeper Zu. Jia Li carried the little girl and went straight for her bedroom.

She asked a servant to bring two servings of food to her bedroom and when the servant did so, she chased everyone away and locked the door to her bedroom.

The innocent little girl that lay in her carrier, had her gaze fixed on her mother. She looked curious as to what her mother was up to.

Jasmine, I fought with your father, I am angry with him and dont want to talk to him anymore. He is looking down on me and I dont find that funny. Even if anyone would do that, at least not him. I am so disappointed! Jia Li said as she carried her little bun in her arms.

Jasmine babbled and reached out her salivary hands to touch her mothers face. Do you agree with me? Youre disappointed, right? Good. So we are going to stay here till he agrees to let me do what I want.

Jasmine continued to babble and reached out to touch her mothers eyes but Jia Li was fast enough to shut them.

Jia Li moved the little girl she was holding unto a little distance away from her, before she opened her eyes.

You little girl did your father send you to make me blind? Jia Li asked with a frown.

Jasmine stopped babbling for a moment and continued again with her gaze on her mother as she put her fingers in her mouth.

You are the cutest girl I know. Jia Li said with a smile before leaning in to kiss the bundle of cuteness on both cheeks.

Jasmine giggled and moved her hands about. Jia Li hugged the little girl for a while before laying her in her cot to change her diapers.

Mum, is going to wash your bottom, lets go! Jia Li said with a smile as she lifted the cute little girl in the air, before laying her on her chest.

Together, the mother and daughter went into the bathroom, so the little girl could have her bottom washed.

Chapter 339 – The Fight (II)

When Fu Hua finished from the workshop, he went straight to find his daughter, but her mother had already taken her away.

Fu Hua didnt think much of it. He wasnt ready to argue any further with Jia Li, so he resisted the urge to go and find his daughter.

It was during dinner that Fu Hua knew that matters were not simple. He didnt see any signs of Jia Li or Jasmine at the dining table, so he asked about it, and was told that the people he was looking for, were in the bedroom.

Has my wife eaten ?. Fu Hua asked.

Yes, Sir. Housekeeper Zu replied.

Is she avoiding me ?. Fu Hua thought as he picked up his cutlery and began to eat. He only went to find the mother and daughter when he was done eating.

After knocking on the door to Jia Lis bedroom a few times now, he didnt hear any response.

Jia Li, I know youre angry, but this is not the time to do this. I know you can hear me, open the door. Fu Hua said in an exhausted tone.

Jia Li who was breastfeeding the little girl, remained motionless as she sat down and continued with her maternal duties. She refused to say a word to him.

Fu Hua knocked heavily this time around as he called out to her, Look, Jia Li, I know you can hear me, wont you open the door for me ? Its late already, I need to sleep and I am tired.

You have your bedroom, go there and sleep. Youre not stepping an inch into my room. Jia Li replied in an angry tone.

Fu Hua had a frown sitting on his face as he asked, Which room is yours ?.

Oh! I dont have a room, thanks for reminding me that this house belongs to you. I will get a house for myself as soon as possible!. Jia Li said in a taunting tone.

Fu Hua was almost going crazy with Jia Lis logic. What nonsense are you talking about ?. I only said that as I consider both rooms to belong to us. My things are here just like your things are in the other room.

It doesnt matter!. Jia Li replied.

Fu Hua was so furious with Jia Li that he couldnt wait to get his hands on her. He would press her on the bed and teach her a lesson.

Fine! Since you dont want me to come in and sleep, at least open the door so I can see my daughter and bid her good night. Fu Hua said.

Which daughter, do you have a daughter?!. Jia Li asked.

Jasmine is my daughter, and I want to see her. Fu Hua said as he was slowly starting to lose his patience. He didnt understand why his wife was acting unreasonably because he doesnt want her to join the competition.

You are joking. Jasmine belongs only to me. She is my daughter, and not yours!. Jia Li said in a loud tone, and that caused the little one in her arms to fidget.

Mum is sorry, Jasmine whispered to her little bun in a gentle tone and patted her back.

Fu Hua couldnt understand what was wrong with his wife. How could she claim that their daughter belonged to her alone ?

Jia Li what is wrong with you ? Jasmine is my daughter as well as yours. At least I contributed a sperm that formed her.

As Fu Hua was saying this, two servants passed by with their heads lowered. Fu Hua saw them and became embarrassed.

I carried her for 10 months, and I went through pain and a lot to give birth to her. You think she belongs to you because you contributed a sperm, you must be joking! Go back to your bedroom and sleep, tomorrow I will start looking for a house. Till then, you have to tolerate my daughter and me. Jia Li said to him without a care.

She was still angry with him because he refused to let her join the upcoming competition. She was more furious when he came to sleep in her bedroom like he didnt do anything wrong. Instead of agreeing to her request or trying to reason with her, he was only after coming to spend the night and see his daughter.

You are just being unreasonable, dont even think about leaving this house!. Fu Hua said and walked away in anger.

He walked back to the bedroom and banged the door and went straight to lay on his bed. He felt uncomfortable as there was nothing to hold, so he picked up a pillow and hugged it in his arms, but he was still missing something.

As for Jia Li, she made the sleepy little girl burp before putting her in her cot. She stood beside her cot and watched her for a while. Letting out a sigh, she went to sit on her bed with an exhausted look.

Jia Li was feeling unsettled. Fu Hua didn't want her to join the competition, but she wanted to. She wanted to work hard for something, so people wouldn't say she got into FJ because she was the wife of the Boss, later when they found out her identity.

Some people would still say that she passed the competition because of Fu Hua, but working hard towards the competition, had a different feeling, so she was willing to put her brain to work.

Feeling thirsty, Jia Li got up to use the bathroom first before leaving the bedroom. She went downstairs to drink some water, and to get another glass for herself, so she wouldn't have to come down to have a drink in the middle of the night.

Going back to her bedroom, Jia Li walked straight to put the glass of water on the table before walking towards the cot to check on Jasmine, but she was alarmed when she saw that the cot was empty, she almost screamed in shock.

Thinking that no one would dare to take her child without her permission, Jia Li could only think of someone, Fu Hua.

Fu Hua!. Jia Li called out through gritted teeth as she left her bedroom for his, with anger boiling in her.

Fu Hua where is my daughter!.. Jia Li asked angrily as she banged his door with her hands when she discovered that the door to his bedroom was locked after she touched the handle.

Chapter 340 – The Fight (III)

Jia Li's tone and the loud banging on the door were enough to disturb Jasmine's sleep. Fu Hua was scared the little bun will wake up and start crying, so he quickly walked to the door and opened it.

Jia Li stopped shouting and tried to rush into the room but Fu Hua blocked her way.

Are you done making noise? Do you want to wake Jasmine up? Fu Hua asked

Move out of my way! Jia Li said in a fierce gaze but he wouldn't budge.

Jia Li, what is wrong with you? Fu Hua asked with creased brows.

You are even calling my name, why don't you add Miss Qin to it? Jia Li asked.

It's just now that she noticed he has been calling her by her name.

This is not my sweetheart, I don't know who you are. Fu Hua said as he stared into her eyes. Jia Li's behavior today, was truly an eye-opener for him.

She was so different from that quiet and innocent-looking girl he married. He couldn't place a hold on her.

Your sweetheart has long disappeared. But if you love her so much, you can go and look for her, but I doubt you can find her. Jia Li replied.

She was still very much angry with him. He already committed a sin and he dared to crown it by stealing her child when she went to the kitchen to get water, it looks like he doesn't want to be forgiven.

Jia Li, I really do not have the strength to argue with you, go back and sleep. Tomorrow, I bring Jasmine back to you. Fu Hua said and attempted to close the door but Jia Li out her hand there.

Fu Hua, give my daughter to me, I can take care of her more than you can do. You took her without my permission, and you are out here giving me instructions, what do mean? Jia Li asked with a frown.

What I mean is that you should get some rest, you look stressed. Fu Hua said and took her hand away from the door and closed it before she could blink.

Jia Li started banging the door and shouting and at last, that noise caused Jasmine to wake up with a frown.

The little girl frowned and was about to start crying when Fu Hua quickly went over to lift her in his arms. Fu Hua hushed her and rocked her while walking around the room.

Fu Hua give me my daughter! I will tell grandfather that you bullied me! Jia Li said as she started crying. She never stopped hitting the door and right now, her palms were red due to the impact.

Fu Hua couldnt believe his ears. Was that woman crying?

Jia Li went beyond his expectation to sit on the cold floor to cry.

Housekeeper Zu came over and asked her to get up but she didnt listen.

Madam, the floor is cold. You should get up. Housekeeper Zu said to her in a gentle tone, but Jia Li was too stubborn to listen.

I want my child! My husband bullied me! He is treating me this way because he doesnt love me! Jia Li said as tears streamed down her eyes.

Madam, its not true. Sir loves you so much. Get up, so you dont catch a cold. If you do, you cant hold the little Miss. Housekeeper Zu said in a low tone as she helped her up.

I hate that cold-hearted man! Jia Li said in tears as she allowed housekeeper Zu to lead her to her bedroom.

Fu Hua heard the whole conversation. He was surprised Jia Li would cry seriously as he wasnt expecting that. He thought she would only get angry and walk away, but who knew she would start crying like a child.

Fu Huas heart went soft for her as he began to think if he was a bit extreme with his treatment. Glancing at the child in his arms who looked uncomfortable with her gaze on him, Fu Hua sighed and continued to rock her.

Jasmine made sounds of protests as she moved her arms and feet about. Fu Hua had to change the position he was holding her.

He placed her on his chest and pat her back with the other arm. He said sweet words to her in a gentle tone as he walked around.

About 10 minutes later, the little girl was already asleep but Fu Hua did not put her down, as he was deeply thinking about his wife.

It didnt take long for him to hear the sound of a door closing, so he went over and opened his room door. He was in time to see Housekeeper Zu leaving Jia Lis bedroom.

Is she sleeping? Fu Hua asked in a low tone.

Yes, Sir. Housekeeper Zu replied with a slight bit before walking away.

Fu Hua sighed in relief. He stood at that spot for some seconds before walking over to Jia Li's bedroom. He was careful to open the door quietly and walked in with the sleeping little bun in his arm.

Closing the door behind him, Fu Hua walked in. He glanced at Jia Li who was sleeping soundly on the bed, and his heart truly melted.

Without delay, he laid the little bun in her cot and made sure she was comfortable, before going to join Jia Li on the bed.

Fu Hua lay beside Jia Li and hugged her from behind. He whispered his love for her and went ahead to kiss her arm before closing his eyes to sleep.

Throughout the night, Fu Hua took care of Jasmine. He was so sensitive that he would get up to take care of her before her cries would get louder.

Around 5 in the morning, Fu Hua left for his bedroom. He went to change into his tracksuit before leaving the house.

What woke Jia Li up, was Jasmine's cries. She was surprised to hear Jasmine's voice in her sleep. Her eyes shot open immediately and she quickly sat up on the bed.

Knowing that she wasn't dreaming when she heard Jasmine's cries again, she quickly got up and saw her little bun laying in her cot.

Jasmine! Jia Li called out with a smile.

Chapter 341 – Fu Hua Confides In Grandfather Fu

Jia Li was really taken by surprise to see Jasmine in the same room with her. The last she remembered last night, was that Fu Hua refused to hand over the child to her. She remembered housekeeper Zu escorting her to her bedroom and nothing else.

Did he bring her when I was sleeping? Jia Li said in a low tone, but she didn't think it was so because throughout the night, she didn't hear Jasmine crying.

Even if she slept with the notion that Jasmine was with her father, there was no way her cries wouldn't wake her in the middle of the night if Fu Hua brought her back after she fell asleep, so there was only one possibility, that he brought her back this morning.

...but that doesn't mean I will forgive him. Jia Li murmured as she changed Jasmine's diaper.

When she was done changing Jasmine's diaper, she breastfed her just before Housekeeper Zu came in with another servant to assist in the little buns bath.

Jia Li wanted to ask Housekeeper Zu if she knew when Jasmine was brought to her, but she stopped just before the question could leave her lips.

This morning, Jasmine was very quiet. She was normally active in the morning as she would be babbling to herself but she was calm this morning.

Jia Li thought she must have over-eaten, so she pinched her tender cheeks with a happy gaze, and continued to dress her up.

Madam, your breakfast has been served. A servant came to inform Jia Li.

Bring it here. Jia Li said without sparing the servant a glance.

Housekeeper Zu smiled from the side as she informed Jia Li, Madam, Sir left the house more than an hour ago.

Did I ask about him? Why are you telling me about it? Jia Li asked with a frown.

I thought you didn't want to eat at the dining because of him but it looks like I had it wrong. Housekeeper Zu said in an apologetic tone.

Who said I was avoiding him? Serve my food here. Jia Li said and looked away from them.

Yes, Madam. The servant that came to report about her breakfast, replied before walking away.

Jia Li asked housekeeper Zu to watch the little bun while she goes to have her bath. When she came out from the washroom dressed in some casual clothes, her food had already been served.

Jia Li was lucky to eat peacefully as Jasmine was fine playing by herself.

Jasmine, you will get hungry so quickly if you play so actively. Jia Li said to her.

The little bun heard her mother's voice and glanced over. She paused with her actions for only a second before she smiled and went back to kicking her legs and her hands about.

Jia Li was glad that her little bun was happy. As she ate, she was thinking about her little bun and the competition.

Jasmine would be 5 months old by the time the competition would end and at that age, it wouldn't be so bad to start working. She just needed to make good plans, so she can see her little bun during lunch hours.

After breakfast, Jia Li fastened Jasmine to her body in her baby carrier and took walks outside the house.

Ocean and her puppies barked and circled Jia Li and the little bun.

Jasmine looked frightened at first because of Ocean's barks but she relaxed after her mother pacified her.

Jasmine, do you want to say hello to them? Jia Li asked with a smiling gaze on the little bun.

Jasmine looked at her before glancing at Ocean and the puppies. She had a curious gaze on them.

Lets do a quick introduction since your father is not here. Jia Li said as a servant spread a mat on the grass for her to sit.

Jia Li released Jasmine from her carrier and sat her on the mat, while she sat behind her with her legs spread. The little girl was basically leaning on her mother as she looked up to glance at Ocean and the approaching puppies that came to play with her.

Fu Hua who left the house early drove straight to the Fu House instead of going to his office. His gaze looked unapproachable.

It was still quite early when he came over but Grandfather Fu was taking early morning walks when he came to his side.

Good morning, Grandfather. Fu Hua greeted with a slight bow.

What are you doing so early this morning? How are Jia Li and Da Xia doing? Grandfather Fu asked with a smile.

They are fine. I came out early because I have something to talk to you about. Fu Hua said with a collected gaze.

10 minutes later, the grandson and grandfather were sitting side by side on the couch.

You look like you quarreled with Li girl. What is the matter? Grandfather Fu asked in a concerned tone.

Is it obvious? Fu Hua thought.

Grandfather, there is an upcoming competition FJ is planning but Jia Li wants to join. The competition will be tough as thousands of designers will be applying for it. I... Fu Hua went on to explain everything that went down between him and Jia Li, but he omitted the part where he took Jasmine from Jia Li and made her cry.

...She rejected the goodwill I did for her... At first, I thought about her before thinking about this competition but after analyzing things, I knew it wouldn't be an easy one, so I made another plan for her to get into FJ but she doesn't want it, she instead chose the tough part. Fu Hua complained.

Grandfather Fu glanced at him with a smile. How can a little matter make you quarrel with your wife? Do you know how sad she is? I know you care about Jia Li but you also have to think properly and not let your fondness for her, get in the way of a serious matter.

Fu Hua looked confused and waited for the old man to continue.

You are being over-protective of her and that's the reason you are not thinking clearly. Allow Jia Li to join the competition. I have faith and trust in her and even if she fails, I will still believe in her. This competition will be a chance to stretch her. She is getting into FJ but she needs training or she would be swallowed up by jealous wolves. This competition will train her and sharpen her horizon. Go home and make peace with your wife. You can help to put her through with important details concerning the designing, if you are that scared she would lose.. Grandfather Fu said and looked away from him.

Chapter 342 – A New Ride For Jia Li

Fu Hua seemed to want to protest, but he couldn't find the right words. It wasn't in his thought to be scared that his wife wouldn't make it to FJ through the competition, but there were odds, and he was starting to be scared that she wouldn't make it, and what her reaction would be.

With his grandfather's advice, Fu Hua deliberated on the matter and decided to let Jia Li have her way. Whether she emerges as one of the winners or not, she would definitely develop skills that will help her in the future.

From the Fu Villa, Fu Hua went straight to work. His attention was divided during work hours, and the only time he paid full attention was during a short meeting because of the competition.

It was agreed that Fu Hua wouldnt be directly involved with the competition, as he would only stay on the sidelines to approve of the various steps for the competition.

After work hours, Fu Hua drove straight to a car dealer company with his assistant, to pick a car for Jia Li.

Jia Li didnt know how to drive, but since she had plans of getting into FJ, she would need a ride of her own to get to work every day. He wouldnt want her to take a taxi

Fu Hua planned to send her to a professional driving school, for at least a month, depending on how fast she could learn. And after that, she would get a driving license and would be allowed to drive herself around.

He got her a low-key jeep, that at least wouldnt question her profile. Being able to afford that kind of car, wouldnt be a problem, because the money she has earned so far from working with FJ, was enough to fetch her that car.

Fu Hua selected a black Range Rover Jeep for her. He would have gone for other colors, but he didnt want any color that would draw attention to her, so he went for black.

Fu Hua had the company put a big red ribbon

Jia Li was in the workshop with the little bun sitting comfortably in the baby carrier attached to her. Jia Li was currently staring at the painting of Fu Hua and the little bun, which she painted.

After staring at it for a moment, she sighed and turned to leave the workshop. She was studying the flaws in the painting to see how much they were.

She agreed that her talent in painting people was a bit rusted, but the painting still did make sense.

Along the hallway, Mei (Servant) came to inform her that Fu Hua was back.

Oh!. That was Jia Lis careless response.

Mei did not say anything else and escorted her to her bedroom.

After releasing the little bun, Jia Li stacked some pillows behind the little girl, so she can lean on them.

Jasmine stared at her and pouted her lips as she was about to cry, but Jia Li shushed her.

With a finger on her lips, Jia Li shushed her. Dont you dare! You made me carry you the whole day, and now my waist is hurting. Do you know how much you weigh?.

The little bun paused for a moment with her tactics. She was staring curiously at her mother. Are you saying I am fat?

Jasmine, you have troubled me enough for today, you wouldnt even let me put you down for a minute, please pity your poor mother, my back aches. Jia Li complained with a frown.

All Jia Li did today, was to carry the little bun in her embrace, since the little bun refused to be put down. It looks like today was one of the days that she wanted to be in her mothers embrace for long hours.

Jasmine licked her lower lip before bringing her fingers to her mouth to suck them, but Jia Li remove her fingers and was about to put her pacifier in her mouth when she started crying.

You, are you kidding me right now?. Jia Li asked.

She has just given the little bun an opportunity to be disobedient.

Madam, I will hold her for a while so you can get some rest, Mei said from the side.

Jia Li sighed and said, Do you think she will let you? This will be the 3rd time youre trying for today.

Mei decided to give it a try, but the little one increased her volume, so Jia Li had no choice but to take her back in her arms.

No, thats not what the little bun wanted, she wanted her mother to carry and stand to her feet. When Jia Li discovered that was what she wanted because immediately she carried her to stand up, the little bun stopped crying, she was in disbelief.

In a mild tone, Jia Li scolded the little bun who didnt seem bothered at all, until Fu Hua knocked and opened the door.

On seeing him, Mei bowed and left the bedroom.

How are you?. Fu Hua asked as he approached the mother and daughter.

Jia Li had a frown on her face, while the little bun looked ecstatic when she heard her fathers voice. She instantly turned to glance at him with an excited gaze as she babbled.

Fu Hua touched the little buns cheeks with a smile for a brief moment, before fixing his gaze on Jia Li.

Are you still angry with me?. Fu Hua asked.

Yes. Jia Li replied.

That was quite direct. Fu Hua said in a low tone and let out a sigh of relief.

Im sorry about last night. I should have talked things out with you like an adult instead of arguing with you. Im sorry about my actions last night, forgive me. Fu Hua apologized as he stared into her eyes.

Jia Li gazed directly into his eyeballs to search for his sincerity, and she found them.

Jia Li sighed and looked away from him.. She was waiting for him to talk about the next step, which concerned her involvement with the upcoming competition.

Chapter 343 – He Took In All Of Her Reactions

About the competition, you can join if you want to.

After saying that, Fu Hua glanced back at the little bun who has been babbling continuously. He smiled at her and held her small hand for a while, before letting go and turning to leave, but Jasmine started wailing. She wanted him to hold her.

Jia Li was still surprised that Fu Hua agreed to let her join the competition after apologizing. At first, she thought he may want to go on to talk things out with her or maybe try and convince her not to join, but he surprised her.

I will take her with me. Fu Hua said to Jia Li as he stretched his hand to carry the little bun from her.

Jia Li came back to her senses and whispered in a soft tone, Thank you!.

It doesnt matter. You can get some rest, I will spend some time with her. Fu Hua replied before walking away.

Are things not a little bit awkward between us ?. Jia Li said in a frown as she thought about the first time she was getting to know Fu Hua after they got married. She felt their relationship has returned to the Origins.

Fu Hua carried his daughter to his bedroom and placed her on the bed and took off his cufflinks and shirt, while the little girl watched him in excitement.

Jasmine was really happy to see her father, as she babbled on with her fingers in her mouth.

Princess, were you obedient to your mother while I was away ?. Fu Hua asked with a gentle gaze.

The little girl smiled and continued to play with her fingers.

Fu Hua wanted to change out of his trousers, and there was no way he would leave her alone in the bedroom, so he planned to carry her into the inner room to bring a change of clothes, but Jia Li came to his rescue.

Jia Li knocked and walked into his bedroom, I figured you would have trouble changing your clothes, so...

Thank you, thats exactly what I needed. Fu Hua said with a smile before glancing at the little girl and leaning over to say to her, Princess, Im going to have a quick shower, stay with your mum for the time being.

Jasmine had a confused gaze as she watched her father walk away, and her mother come to her side.

Jia Li sat on the bed but didnt attempt to lift the little bun. Jasmine stared into her eyes for a while before stretching her arms towards her and kicking her legs.

Now you want me to hold you ? Naughty girl. Jia Li said with a smile as she touched her nose.

At last, Jia Li lifted the little girl in her arms. The little bun was so obedient in her mothers embrace. Even when her father came over, she didnt cry like before.

Fu Hua smiled as he carried the little girl. He planted kisses on her face before turning to Jia Li say, I bought a new ride for you. You will need a car since you will be working in FJ.

What! You bought a car for me ?. Jia Li asked in surprise.

Yes. Fu Hua answered.

Thank you, but I dont know how to drive. Jia Li said in a dejected tone. She couldnt believe he bought a car for her, but she was happy. Right now, she seemed to be a little disappointed as she didnt know how to drive.

That is not a problem. You will start your driving classes next weekend. Every day, you will have 1 hour of practice for a week till the second week where you will have to practice for 3 hours daily. Fu Hua informed.

Oh! Thank you!. Jia Li said with her head lowered.

Come and check the car out and see if you like it. Fu Hua said with a smile as he led the way.

Jia Li quickly followed him, she was also curious to see the car he bought for her.

Seeing the black Range Rover Jeep with a big red ribbon

This is for me?. Jia Li asked as she stared at Fu Hua in disbelief.

Yes. Fu Hua replied as he took out the car key and pressed a button to unlock the car before giving the key to her.

Jia Li took the car key from him and stared at it.

As she was not making a move, Fu Hua thought she didnt like the car and asked, Dont you like the car? If you dont like it, I will...

I will check it out. Jia Li said in excitement as she ran towards the car. She circled it first, before going to the drivers side to open the door.

Jia Li looked wowed when she saw the exquisite interior decor. She almost screamed in her head as she could guess how expensive the jeep was.

Fu Hua stood with the little bun in his arms as he took in all of Jia Lis reactions, and slowly, a smile formed on his lips.

Jia Li couldn't get over her excitement with her new car. She shocked Fu Hua when she ignited the engine.

Fu Hua was scared she would move the car and cause an accident, so he said in a raised tone so she could hear him, Jia Li that's enough for the day, turn off the engine.

Oh! Okay. Jia Li replied and turned off the car's engine before jumping off the car. She took quick steps towards Fu Hua and glanced at him with an appreciative gaze.

Thank you for the car, I love it!. Jia Li said in a happy tone.

That's fine. This is not the latest, so you shouldn't be worried anyone would confront you about it. At least they should be aware you made some good money working with FJ these few times. Fu Hua whispered to her.

Jia Li smiled and didn't say anything. She was very happy about her new ride, and she couldn't wait to send a picture of it to her friends.

Slowly, things were no longer awkward between Jia Li and Fu Hua, after the former apologized. They were back to their little happy family.

A few days later, FJ announced their idea for a competition for creative young fashion designers from any part of the world.

Chapter 344 – FJ's Assistant Creative Director

Currently, the internet has been carrying the news and it was known everywhere that FJ has intentions of organizing a never-before competition in the Fashion Industry and it was the first of its kind.

As intriguing as it was, everyone knew it was a blood bath, as only the best could get in.

Bai Fen scheduled a meeting with FJs Assistant Creative director. They met in a private location and Bai Jun was present.

Since Bai Jun was interested in the competition even though it was against her mothers wishes, Bai Fen had no choice than to ask for help.

Im sorry but there is no way to help you, you have to get in with your efforts. The Asst. Creative Director, Chyou said with a smile.

Bai Fen heaved a sigh. She didnt like this idea of getting in with ones effort. She was aware that the competition will be tough, so she doesnt want her daughter to try it in case she fails and becomes embarrassed and disheartened.

This is such a big competition and it wont be a surprise if there is no loophole. Bai Jun commented. She didnt seem all that surprised that there was no way to help her get in with some tricks.

Since things have come to this, why dont you let us in, on some of the arrangements for the competition. Im sure it will go a long way. Bai Fen said in a low tone. That was the only idea she could think of. Right now, her gaze was filled with worry.

Im sorry to disappoint you again but I cant help you with that. Only the higher-ups know about the plans, we havent been informed about anything yet. All I can say is for Miss Bai to work really hard or she may not last the first or second round of the competition. Chyou said in a smile that was not a smile.

If not for her sister, she wouldnt be sitting with the likes of people that wanted to get benefits without working for it.

Bai Jun found Chyous words an insult to her but she could only swallow everything because she was the assistant creative director of FJ, she couldnt talk to her like other people, otherwise, that will be the end of her getting into FJ.

Bai Jun smiled half-heartedly as she said in a smooth voice.

Miss Chyou, its fine if I cant get in with your help but can you at least, coach me, I believe you have substantial talent and your teachings can help me go through the competition.

Chyou chuckled softly. She liked people praising her as she didnt get that a lot at FJ since there seemed to be someone better than her.

Im sorry but it is against my work ethics to mentor someone who is not a designer in FJ, privately. Its getting late, I have to leave now. Chyou said with a smile.

Bai Fen saw that she was about to leave and stopped her. Miss Chyou, please hold on. Bai Fen said as she took out an envelope from her bag and passed it to her.

What is this for, I didnt help you out today? Chyou asked with a confused gaze after she glanced at the envelope.

It doesnt matter. You took out time out of your busy schedule to see us. Bai Fen said with a smile.

Inwardly, Bai Jun was angry that her mother prepared another cheque for Chyou when she didnt help with anything today but she didnt let her emotions out. She was waiting for Chyou to leave so she can confront her mother.

Chyou smiled and took the envelope from her. Well, I can take your money for free.

Its good that you know! Bai Jun said to herself as she rolled her eyes. She made sure she wasnt seen or she wouldnt be able to redeem herself if Chyou saw her.

Bai Fen was the only one who was relaxed because she knew the outcome of her tricks beforehand. It was only someone who didnt have a conscience that would have taken the money and left. It looks like she was not wrong about Chyou, as her mind has been re-shaped while working in FJ.

Since I cant mentor Miss Bai, there is someone I will introduce you to. He will teach you the best but you need to get your money ready because he charges a lot. Chyou said with her gaze on Bai Fen.

Money is not a problem, you just have to introduce us and thats it. Bai Fen said with a confident smile. No amount of money was too expensive to get her daughter into FJ because it was all worth it, as it would pay when she finally gets her hands on Fu Hua.

It wouldnt be bad if she climbs from his mistress to his second wife and then a first wife after she gives birth to a son. Bai Fen thought as she chuckled.

Good! I will give you a call tomorrow. Have a nice day! Chyou said to them with a smile as she got to her feet.

Bai Jun and her mother got up to bid Chyou goodbye. Thank you Miss Chyou, for the tips. Bai Fen said gratefully.

Chyou bowed slightly and turned to walk away.

Bai Jun was surprised by the turn of events. When she felt her mother has wasted the ¥1 million, who knew that Chyou would finally say something important?

Mum just now, I thought you almost wasted a good sum of money. Bai Jun said as she hugged her mothers arm.

You still have to learn a lot from me. You need the patience to deal with all kinds of people. Bai Fen said confidently. Chyous actions were not a surprise to her.

I didnt know money could move people like her. Bai Jun said with a smile. She thought Chyou was different, given the aura around her but who knew that money can still move her.

Its not money, its greed. But its good she is not that difficult to deal with, at least she knows the right thing to do after collecting someones money. Bai Fen said as she gave off a proud vibe.

Bai Jun laid her head on her mothers arm and said to her in an excited tone, Mum, I am in the mood to shop, lets do that to celebrate.

Didnt you hear what Miss Chyou said? We have to get the money ready for your new tutor, so we have to spend wisely. You know your father and your grandmother will never allow this, so I have to pay from my purse. Bai Fen reminded her.

Mum, your brother is rich and he married a wealthy wife, surely we can ask him for money. Bai Jun said with a wink.

Bai Fen hit her arms gently and scolded her, You want me to beg for money? You can't be serious. If you are looking for what to celebrate with, we have so many expensive bottles of wines at home, we can pick your choice.

Bai Jun agreed reluctantly and left with her mother.. Her private tutorials were more important than shopping for clothes.

Chapter 345 – I Will Help You

As Bai Jun receives tutors from the designer FJ Styles assistant creative director recommended, Jia Li and other intended applicants were not idle, they were getting their skills sharpened.

Fu Hua didn't call any private designer to teach Jia Li some skills, instead, he drilled her himself. He was always giving her assignments after each class and that was so tiring to the mother of the little girl that loved attention, especially when she didn't care if her mother or father were not in the mood.

If Jasmine wanted you to carry her and walk around, you just have to do that, as there were no other options yet.

Sometimes, Jia Li would pause to stare at her while she cried after putting her down, just like now.

Should I send you to your grandmother or great-grandfather? You know, they would welcome you with open arms.

Jasmine doesn't hear that. She continued to cry as she kicked her arms and feet about.

Jia Li held her forehead and sighed tiredly. She was so tired from holding the little girl that doesn't want to sleep yet. The little bun has learned a bad habit of wanting either of her parent to carry her while they are standing.

An idea came to Jia Li's mind and she pouted her lips and began to imitate the crying little girl. Jasmine slowly stopped crying as she fixed a surprised gaze at her mother.

Maybe the little girl didn't think that adults could cry as well. You need to have seen how quiet she was while directing a curious gaze at her mother.

Jia Li saw that her trick was working, so she continued without slowing down. She did that a few more times before stopping.

Jasmine didn't bother to cry again after seeing a peculiar sight of her mother. She gazed at her mother as she put her fingers in her mouth.

Jia Li screamed in her mind for success of making the little girl quiet.

Jasmine, you know you're my cute little bun, right? But why do you do that all the time? You stress your mother when she needs rest, do you care about me? But I do care about you, please treat me better. Jia Li said with a pout.

Only if her little bun could understand her, she would be more relieved.

Since you fell for my trick obediently, we are going to see your favorite cartoon. Jia Li said in an excited tone as she clapped her hands.

Jasmine babbled as she kicked her feet and hands about. The little bun seemed to be excited as well. Jia Li lifted her little bun and planted a kiss on both of her puffy cheeks.

Jasmine was chubby and cute, no wonder Jia Li complained of her weight whenever she carried her for longer than an hour. The little bun was eating healthily.

Jasmine giggled when her mother kissed her cheeks and played with her for a while. Jasmine was so excited that she moved her hands to grab her mothers hair and that was when Jia Li got in trouble.

Hey! Can you let go of my hair! Jia Li said immediately as she tried to reach out to the little girls hands but Jasmine had a firm grip on her hair.

The little bun was still babbling excitedly. She looked so happy as she leaned over to put the hair in her mouth and that was when Jia Li got a chance to escape her hold.

Jia Li stared at her bundle of cuteness and didnt know what to say to her. Her scalp was in so much pain that she could go on scolding without stopping but who did she want to scold, a baby?

Jia Lis hair was in a mess because of the pulling, so she loosened her hair and let its length fall behind her. The little bun seemed surprised to see all that glory.

Give me a minute. Jia Li said to the little bun as she tried to massage her scalp and right at that moment, a knock sounded on the door, it opened.

Jia Li glanced over, her gaze turned to a smile, Youre back. Welcome.

Thank you! Fu Hua replied in a gentle tone as he walked towards her with a smile. He kissed her lips and her cheeks before leaning away.

Jasmine looked excited to hear her fathers voice and she continued to babble on and on until he came to her side to kiss her forehead.

How are you princess ? Fu Hua asked with a smile as the little girl grabbed his fingers out of excitement.

Jia Li watched them with a smile, before turning her gaze away. Right now, she was trying to tie her hair up but she couldnt.

You look like you need help. Fu Hua said as he got up and went to her side.

I do. Your daughter almost pulled off my hair. Her grip is quite strong for a 3-month-old. Jia Li complained.

She is growing properly. Fu Hua replied as he moved his hands about on Jia Lis long silky hair.

Right then, a knock sounded on the door and Housekeeper Zu walked in only when she heard a response.

Madam, its time for the baby to be put to sleep. I will help you with that. Housekeeper Zu said with a bow.

Jia Li thought that Fu Hua would refuse but to her surprise, he approved and Housekeeper Zu took the little girl away along with some of her things.

Come, lets go to the inner room. Fu Hua said as he pulled her along.

When they got there, he made her sit, before he started to take care of her hair. He took his time combing her hair, before deciding to pack it in a bun.

How do you see it, Jasmine wont see anything to grab unto apart from your bangs. Fu Hua said with a smile.

Jia Li chuckled softly as a sign of tacit agreement with his words.

I need to take a quick shower. Fu Hua said as he took off his tie from his neck.

I will help you. Jia Li said as she stood in front of him with a smile.. Next, she put her hands on his shirt and began to unbutton it, all to Fu Huas amazement.

Chapter 346 – Going All Out

(WARNING!!! INCOMING HOT SCENES

Fu Hua was all smiles as she unbuttoned his shirt. And instead of taking off the shirt directly, she looked up at him with a smile as her hands slowly caressed his firm chest.

Fu Hua chuckled as he asked, What are you up to ?

Jia Li continued to caress his bare upper body with a smile. I just want to admire my husbands body, is it wrong ?

Its not wrong but Ive got to take a shower, wait till Im done. Fu Hua replied with a smile as he reached out to touch her cheeks gently.

It was rare for his dearest wife to take the initiative for this kind of thing. It even became more difficult when they had Jasmine. Her attention was all on their little princess but she gives in anytime he makes a mood. So, he was very happy that she was taking a step without him leading her on, it looks like sending the little girl away was worth it.

Fu Hua didn't have any plans of doing anything with Jia Li when he allowed his little princess to be taken away, he just wanted to rest for a while in bed but it looks like his dearest wife has other plans.

A shower is it necessary? Jia Li asked with a seductive smile as she pinched his nipples. That caused a tinge sensation in Fu Hua. His gaze changed and he leaned in to kiss her lips gently.

Give me 5 minutes, I will be back. Fu Hua said in a gentle gaze after he released her lips.

Okay but don't take too long or the fire might quench. Jia Li said with a wink. Today, she was in the mood to do some naughty things and her confidence was growing daily.

Sometimes, she was afraid of looking back at how innocent she used to be in the past because she was so different right now and may even get worse in the future.

Being in love sheds your past self.

If the fire quenches before I come back, I will ignite it when I come back. Fu Hua said as he took off his belt and trousers.

Jia Li smiled and went to sit on the king-sized chair, while Fu Hua left for the bathroom.

While Fu Hua was taking a shower, Jia Li glanced at herself in the mirror. She was thinking of changing her looks.

She wanted to let her hair down because Fu Hua liked seeing her hair fall behind her, especially now that they were about to be intimate.

Ah! But he really took his time putting this hair in a bun. Jia Li muttered to herself while touching her hair.

Remembering the time Fu Hua spent putting her hair in a bun, Jia Li was reluctant to ruin his efforts but thinking about making him happy, she said it would be worth it.

Smiling to herself, Jia Li went to find something sexy to put on. Her mind went to those short skirts Fu Hua bought for her and thinking if it will be her size, she found them and decided to try them on.

Jia Li took off her clothes and was now in her panties and nursing bra. Taking one of the skirts, she glanced at it curiously, before going ahead to try it on.

The skirt was a little tight on her as it showed off her figure, slim waist, and big hips and it was a little difficult to button it up.

One thing Jia Li was grateful about, was that her stomach was flat now and it just remained a tiny bit for it to go back to its original form.

I think I will have to wear something else. Jia Li thought while glancing at herself in the mirror.

But more than changing the skirt, there was something more that was out of place and that was her nursing bra.

Im sorry Jasmine but your father has to take over for now, so I have to put on something sexy. Jia Li said with a smile and quickly, she found her normal bra and put it on, before walking back to the mirror to admire her body.

She felt she looked very hot and irresistible and smiling to herself, she loosened her hair and let it fall behind her and that completed her look.

The person that was thinking of changing clothes, was busy admiring her body and her looks when Fu Hua walked in with a white towel, wrapped around his waist.

Jia Li looked surprised to hear the footsteps and she quickly turned to glance at him in surprise.

When did he finish ? Jia Li thought to herself. She was so busy admiring her body that she didnt notice when he finished bathing and she was still in that skirt she wanted to change out of.

Fu Hua was surprised to see Jia Li dressed like that. She was only putting on a bra and a skirt that was too short and showed off her fair thick thighs.

A smile slowly turned up on Fu Huas cheeks as he stood there in admiration of the wonder of her body.

What ? Youre really going all out for this. Fu Hua said in a low tone. He was becoming excited quickly, as his little brother tinged.

Jia Li smiled as she approached him. I was trying something on and I didnt know when time passed.

Jia Li placed her hands on his chest and touched it. It was more like she was grabbing his firm chest.

Fu Hua wrapped his hands around her waist and leaned in to kiss her forehead before whispering seductively to her ears, You look so hot!

I can imagine. Jia Li said as her hands reached for his lower body and squeezed his little brother gently.

That was unexpected, so Fu Hua let out a groan with his eyes shut. He slowly released a deep breath as his wives hands worked on him.

Jia Li smiled happily, as she felt his d*ick gain strength and move under her touch. She liked how she controlled him and it works every time.

You really cant wait, can you? Fu Hua managed to say in between deep breaths.

Jia Li stared into his eyes and smiled. I think youre the one who cant wait.. She said and gave him another gentle gaze before turning to walk away.

Chapter 347 – It Has Pleased My Heart To Satisfy You

Fu Hua let out another groan and quickly caught her arm. Where are you going? He asked in a low husky tone with his deep gaze on her.

He had no idea of where she was going to after igniting the fire in him. He wouldnt accept any excuses from her no matter what it was until he satisfied his urges.

Jia Li smiled as she replied, Im looking for something better to wear.

No need, Im fine with this look. Fu Hua said as he pulled her back into his arms and immediately caught her lips.

Jia Li caressed his chest as he explored her mouth wildly. He was not thinking of slowing down, as he seemed to be in a hurry.

With his hands moving all over her back and even going on to grab her butts Jia Li felt something spark in her.

She broke the kiss and stared into his eyes with a sultry gaze. And before Fu Hua could say anything to her, she pulled along and pushed him to sit on the king seat.

With a smile, Jia Li kneeled before him and placed her hands on his laps, before slowly caressing his thighs.

Fu Hua let out deep breaths as her hands worked their way to his d*ick. Jia Li didnt touch it directly, she only teased him for a bit before going on to remove the towel on his waist.

Seeing him in his naked glory, a huge excitement quickly built-in Jia Li.

Dont tease me for too long because I cant stand it. Fu Hua warned as he reached out to touch her cheeks.

Jia Li decided to provoke him by grabbing his d*ck and squeezing it gently. Why, has any woman tempted you lately ?

Fu Hua fixed his dark gaze full of desires on her. Youre right, there is just one woman who has managed to keep me off my feet.

Really? Jia Li asked as she lowers her lips to lick the tip of his thick d*ck.

Fu Hua almost couldn't sit still when her wet tongue gave him a lick. He took deep breaths to stabilize his emotions before saying to her in an unstable tone...

Yes and she is right before me, the only woman who satisfies me all-round. I am pleased that she is my wife and the mother of my daughter.

I see... Jia Li said as she trailed off with a smile. Her gaze looked satisfied after she gave him that compliment.

It has pleased my heart to satisfy you this evening. Jia Li replied as she continued to caress him.

What an honor my queen. Fu Hua said with his dark gaze on her. He really couldn't wait to enter her, as he was almost reaching his limit.

He wanted her so badly but he didn't want to ruin her plan. He could only sit still and curb his impatience and desires.

Jia Li smiled satisfactorily and gave him a few gentle squeezes, before leaving over to put his little brother in her mouth.

Fu Hua let out a groan when she put his full length into her mouth. He felt so pleased that he squeezed his palms in a fist and shut his eyes.

Jia Li liked the sensation she was giving him when she saw his reaction. She became encouraged to continue. From a slow pace to a fast one, she sucked and licked him till she was tired.

At a point, Fu Hua couldn't help grabbing her hair and caressing it while she worked on him. When he was about to have a release, he warned her but she didn't let go and instead increased her pace again.

At last, when he had a release, she swallowed everything before releasing her mouth from him but her hands were still on him.

You're so good. Fu Hua said to her out of breath. He was pretty satisfied and happy that his wife had improved on giving him a BJ.

I have to learn for my husband. Jia Li said with a smile before leaning over to kiss the head of his d*ck.

Glancing at him with a smile, she hugged his neck and pulled him closer to kiss his lips. Fu Hua didn't mind that his taste was still in her mouth, as he kissed her vigorously, while his hands moved to caress her back.

Fu Hua wanted to unhook her bra but she stopped him.

Why? He asked in a gentle tone.

It will hurt if I move vigorously. Jia Li replied with a naughty smile.

Fu Hua understood what she meant and smiled. Stand up. He said to her.

Jia Li obeyed his instructions and stood before him, as he glanced at every inch of her body like he was watching a sculpture.

Fu Hua moved his gaze to her thighs and it looked so inviting that he didn't think twice before putting his hands on her.

Put your legs apart. Fu Hua instructed in a low tone. Jia Li was being very obedient as she set her legs apart. She gave him access to touch in between her inner thighs.

You're wet. Fu Hua said when he touched her there and felt her wet panties.

Mmm.. Jia Li moaned softly.

Fu Hua smiled as he moved his hands inside her skirt and the next moment, he was pulling her panties off her body.

Fu Hua got to his feet and leaned in to whisper to her ear, I'm going to eat you up till you beg me to stop and I will only listen when I'm pleased.

His words excited Jia Li further and she welcomed his kisses when they came on her. She was excited and couldn't wait for him to be inside of her but she wanted to have a little fun before that.

Fu Hua pushed Jia Li to sit before he kneeled before her. Jia Li's legs were apart when she sat in the seat and Fu Hua's eyes saw the hidden treasure and that turned him on even more.

Fu Hua did not allow Jia Li to relax. He pulled her a little out from the seat, so he could gain easy access to her hidden treasure.

Raising her skirt to her waist, Fu Hua put his hot palms on her laps and began to caress her thighs.

You're sure taking your time.. Jia Li said as she sucked in a lot of air.

Chapter 348 – We Can Swap

You teased me till I almost began to doubt my self-control, so why dont I teach you how to have the same self-control ? Fu Hua asked in a serious tone as he slipped 2 fingers inside her, while his thumb caressed her clit.

Jia Li felt waves of pleasure hit her as she arched her back and moved on the couch.

You know youre not being obedient. Fu Hua said in a low dangerous tone.

I dont want to be obedient. Jia Li said as he moved his fingers in and out of her while caressing her clit.

She was feeling so pleased that she didnt want to care about her image at the moment. Her image didnt matter, what mattered was her sexual needs being met.

Fu Hua chuckled at her response and added an extra finger inside her. If you dont want to be obedient, thats fine because I know how to make you obedient.

Then make me! Jia Li said with a daring gaze amidst her getting f*cked by his fingers. She looked like was she was not afraid of anything and that was the same thing as telling him to bring it on.

Fu Hua slowed down his hand movements and narrowed his gaze on her. I see. He said in a low dangerous tone.

Oh no! Wrong move! Jia Li screamed in her head when she saw that dangerous look. She didnt know what came over her and made her dare him.

Can...can I take back my words ? Jia Li asked in a pleading tone.

Fu Hua raised her legs and opened them. No Sweetheart, its too late. Fu Hua said with a smile before putting his mouth on her hidden treasures and began to suck, graze his tongue and move in and out of her.

As his tongue worked wonders in her, Jia Li couldnt sit at a place and she couldnt keep her hands to herself.

Jia Li moaned with her eyes closed while her hands caressed Fu Huas hair.

Fu Hua ate her to the point where her voice began to move his heart and only then did he stop. Jia Li heaved a sigh of relief and shut her eyes and was about to rest when she felt something hard touch her core.

Immediately after, she opened her eyes to see Fu Hua torturing her with his member. Jia Li moaned and begged him to take a rest.

Let me rest a little. Jia Li said and attempted to close her legs but Fu Hua stopped her.

Now you want to take a break? Sorry sweetheart but I cant accept that. We havent had s*x yet. Fu Hua said in a gentle tone as he continued to tease her with the tip of his member.

Jia Li either wanted to take a break or for him to enter her because what he was doing right now, was torturous to her.

Fu Hu, please, just do it. Jia Li said and she tried to grab him with her hands but he caught her hands with one hand.

What did you call me? Fu Hua asked as he slipped in and pulled out of her immediately.

Jia Li screamed in pleasure and wriggled her body. Darling...

Good girl! Fu Hua said before releasing her hands and legs and going straight to take off her bra, letting her big breasts free to dangle in his sight each time there was a little move from her.

Just as Fu Hua was about to put his lips on her breasts, she pushed his head away. I didnt pump enough milk for Jasmine, dont suck everything.

Fu Hua chuckled and asked, You are now seeing me as someone that eats his babys food. Dont worry, I know when to stop.

Fu Hua couldnt blame Jia Li that she thought of him that way, as this was not the first time he was sucking her breast and stealing his daughters food.

The maternal instinct in Jia Li, made her remember she still had a little daughter to breastfeed and if her naughty father drank everything, her baby would surely be hungry and wail because of it, so she had to speak up on time.

Jia Li sighed in relief as she trusted his words. She knew he wouldnt go too far as he said because he wouldnt want his little princess to be hungry after stealing her food.

Fu Hua kept his promise and didnt suck her breasts for a long time. As he sucked her breasts, his fingers started to work inside her again.

Jia Li heaved a sigh of relief because that section didnt waste time.

Before Fu Hua could make any move, Jia Li swapped their position. She pushed him to sit, while she removed her skirt and climbed on him.

Circling her arms around his neck, Jia Li let Fu Hua guide his d*ck inside her. Both of them let out gasps of pleasure when they finally met.

Now that Jia Li was sitting on Fu Hua, she was the one that had to make the move and control the pace.

If youre tired, we can swap. Fu Hua whispered in a husky voice.

Im fine. Jia Li replied in-between moans as the sound of them hitting against each other was heard.

Fu Hua put his hands on Jia Lis butts, while she circled her arms around his neck and ground him.

ummamhmmms... Jia Li moaned as she began to grind him at a faster breath. Now, they were breathing heavily as their skin was slapping against each other.

That sound was so powerful enough to give them some of the pleasure they seeked for.

Fu Hua felt that he was more in advantage because he could feel the sensation of his wifes breast as they continued to move against each other.

If he wasnt sure that he had drunk enough of Jasmines milk, he wouldnt mind sucking her breasts again, as they were too tempting not to touch or suck.

Some minutes later, Jia Li and Fu Hua found their release together and they both let out a deep breath.

Chapter 349 – Good Luck Kiss

I love you. Fu Hua whispered to her ears before planting a kiss on her earlobe and neck.

I love you too. Jia Li replied in a soft tone, while still sitting on him. She enjoyed every bit of their lovemaking.

Fu Hua kissed her neck a few more times before grabbing her butts and giving them a gentle squeeze. He lifted her and slipped out of her before letting her sit on his thighs.

Are we not going for another round? Jia Li asked.

Kissing her lips, Fu Hua replied, Im tired.

Jia Li broke the kiss and caressed his face. Youre tired? But he doesnt seem like he is tired. Jia Li said as she glanced at his arousal. His member was still erect and said otherwise.

Fu Hua chuckled as he sent a few strands of hair behind her ear. You look like I didnt satisfy you.

No you did but I want more. Jia Li said as she looked downwards. She was satisfied after the first round but she wanted more and she mustered up the courage to ask for it.

Did you drink or eat something? Fu Hua asked as he gave off a low laugh. He was really surprised by his wife who kept asking for more s*x. She was getting bolder by the day.

I didnt take anything, I just want you buried deep inside of me. Jia Li replied in a soft tone.

But really, she has missed her husband. Since her last stage of pregnancy up until now, they don't have s*x as frequently unlike before.

Fu Hua heaved a sigh and said as he raised her chin, It looks like I have been neglecting the sexual aspect of our lives. I thought that I should let you rest since you spend all your time with Jasmine and at night when you are supposed to rest, you will end up waking up to feed her or change her diapers. Looking at all of these, how dare I demand s*x? But it looks like I was wrong. I promise to satisfy you each time, till you beg me to stop.

Jia Li couldn't get a grip on her man. One moment he was acting sweet and the next moment, he was acting like a rouse.

Do you still want it? Fu Hua asked with his gaze on her, while his hands moved all over her body.

Jia Li had to think twice before replying to his question. His last statement showed her that he wouldn't go easy on her, as it looks like she must have hurt his pride. Deep down, she still wanted him but now, she will have to weigh his words and what she wanted.

I will pass. Let's shower so I can put you to sleep. Jia Li said as she got off his laps. She has made her decision.

No, go and have a bath first while I do a little tidying. Fu Hua replied as he got to his feet.

First, you need to help me with my hair. Jia Li said after she planted a kiss on his lips.

Fu Hua made her sit on the vanity chair while he combed her hair before putting it up in a bun.

Some minutes later, the couple was lying under the sheets and sleeping in each others arms.

The young husband and wife woke up late in the night when their little bun was already fast asleep.

Jia Li and Fu Hua had dinner together before Fu Hua went to the workshop. Jia Li followed him there to continue from where she left out on her work.

I thought you might want to sleep some more. Fu Hua said with his gaze on her.

Im not sleepy and I would be bored if I stayed in the bedroom doing nothing. The competition is in a few weeks, Ive got a lot of work to do. Jia Li replied.

Knowing the kind of competition she had ahead of her, sleep wasnt her problem. She still had enough time to sleep after she gets into FJ.

Fu Hua smiled and beckoned on her to come to his side. Come, let me give you a good luck kiss.

Jia Li smiled and walked over to his desk to receive his good luck kiss. She leaned in slightly so he could easily kiss her lips since he was sitting.

The kiss was soft and gentle. It was the kind of kiss any woman will need from her husband for success.

When Fu Hua released her lips, he smiled at her and said, How did you see it?

Jia Li blushed and replied, I loved it.

As she was about to move away from him, Fu Hua's eyes landed on her chest area. Jia Li was putting on a loose singlet, so when she bent over to receive his kiss, she also sampled her cleavage.

Jia Li saw him staring at her chest and followed his gaze to see her breasts on display. She immediately stood upright and walked away with a smile.

Fu Hua smiled as his gaze followed her till she settled on her desk and only then did he look away and put his attention on the work before him.

As it was just a few weeks left before the competition, FJ has been making a lot of preparation for it.

The investors already agreed to it and funding wasn't a problem, so at the end of every week, FJ would post a piece of new information concerning the competition.

This week, they mentioned the criteria for joining the competition and a few of them are listed below...

1. Applicants must be aged 22 - 30
2. Single/married/divorced (but your personal life should never affect your professional life)
3. Male/female
4. College
5. Profile/CV/Resumé (You can add any other information apart from the basics, you think it's important for us to know)
6. Two picture samples of any of your works

7. You must be free to travel down to City X in Country C if you are asked to.

These criteria have already narrowed down the kind of people FJ is looking forward to working with.

Initially, most of the directors didnt want those that were either single or divorced to apply but Fu Hua said otherwise.

I am married and most of you are married as well, so tell me, does your relationship status stop you from getting your work done? Fu Hua asked with his gaze on them.

Sir, thats not it. The problem is that these youngsters think and act differently from us.. One of the directors said.

Chapter 350 – Fu Huas Rage

Youre calling them youngsters, what about me? Are you indirectly trying to say that I have aged? Fu Hua asked in an angry tone.

The director was scared of out his wits. When did his talking about the applicants become an insult to him?

The director, quickly rendered an apology to Fu Hua, along with a bow.

If you are that worried about their relationship status, then add, That each one of them must be able to separate their personal life from work. Fu Hua said as he hit his desk with his palm.

He was still very much angry with that director and seeing how angry he was, nobody dared to mention anything about relationship status or age.

Even Zimo was scared for his life. It has been a very long time since the boss got this angry. Even if he did get angry once in a while but today's own was unexpected.

The director that just annoyed Fu Hua cried in his heart. When and how did I offend him?

The rest of the directors pitied him. Since their Boss could flare up because of something not worth it, it meant that they had to tread on a thin line in today's meeting.

Fu Hua was not meant to give them rules and criteria for the competition but it looks like if they said anything he didn't like, he will not spare any of them.

Fu Hua calmed down and asked, Is there any other thing any of you would like to add?

The directors exchanged glances. Nobody wanted to get on his bad side and get scolded, so many were afraid to speak up.

Fu Hua looked around and saw that nobody was saying anything, he nodded and said, Since there is nothing...

Fu Hua's words stopped on his lips as one director raised his hand to seek permission to speak.

Fu Hua didnt say anything. He was so angry today with the directors with the criteria they came up with and now someone dared to cut his words off.

The director that raised his hands, glanced at Fu Hua when he didnt permit him to speak.

What? Should I beg you to speak after you interrupted me? Fu Hua asked with a smile that was not a smile.

Im sorry, Sir! The director apologized with a bow. Then he took a deep breath before speaking up.

Sir, since we will be picking only 30 people for the final round, then we shouldnt allow more than a thousand people to apply for this competition, as it will be unfair to many applicants.

Fu Hua shut his eyes and opened them again. Fixing a menacing gaze on him, Fu Hua asked, Do you want to lose your position?

The director looked confused as he glanced at his colleagues before glancing back at Fu Hua who looked like he would swallow him whole the next minute.

Forgive me, Sir, please forget what I just said.

Fu Hua scoffed at him and asked, I should forget you interrupted me? Is your relationship status distracting you from behaving properly?

The other directors looked away, as this one was clearly asking for a beating. How could he interrupt the Boss to say something and then tell him to forget about it?

No, Sir. The director replied. He was still confused if the matter he brought up wasn't important.

Fu Hua looked like he was still angry with what he said about the relationship status of the future applicants.

His wife was going to apply, so does it mean she shouldn't bother to apply because she was married? Fu Hua was so angry when he thought about this.

I think we should relieve you of the stress for a few months. Go back home for today. Fu Hua said to him.

Fu Hua was definitely asking him to take a leave for a few months as a punishment. The person Fu Hua was angry at, was the other director that spoke about relationship status but he was lucky he escaped and now, he had to pour aggression on another person.

Sir, I'm sorry but I don't know what I did wrong. The director said.

That's the more reason why you should spend more time at home to rest because the stress has confused you greatly that you no longer remember the rules when you bring up a problem. Fu Hua said while knocking on the desk.

The other directors understood what Fu Hua was talking about. During an important meeting like this, anyone bringing up a problem, should suggest a solution and not just say something and keep quiet.

Actually, this was not supposed to be a big deal but what can they do when their Boss made it a big deal?

The director in question was too nervous to think properly, so Zimo had to help him out.

Director Chuo, the boss is waiting for your suggestion, Zimo said in a kind reminder.

One glare from Fu Hua was all it took for Zimo to turn into a statue.

The director finally got why Fu Hua was annoyed and quickly apologized before giving his suggestions.

... I think the site for the application should be open for a limited number of hours.

Fu Hua finally looked away from him and glanced at the rest of the directors for their opinion.

Since their Boss was waiting for their opinion, the rest of the directors finally reacted and a few of them chipped in some words.

Finally, Fu Huas verdict came. From your agreement, the site should be made open for only a few hours and this means that the server will be very busy. The tech department should take note and work on the site. As for the time interval, there shouldnt be any. Once we have up to 1,000 Applicants, the site will automatically close.

According to Fu Huas instruction, the information was put up on social media, along with the criteria for the competition.

This was not too surprising, as everyone knew that many people were eyeing that competition and if there were no rules and implementation from FJ, they should be expecting nothing less than 15,000 applicants, so it was a good thing that they made their stance known.
