Chapter 383 – Bai Jun Warns Yang Peng

Quickly, Monday came and everyone was back to their various business. To Jia Li, it was a very long morning as the little bun clung to her and refused to part with her no matter what since she woke up.

Jia Li felt an incoming headache while staring at the little bun that wouldnt let her eat in peace. Since Jasmine saw that her mother was all dressed up, she knew she was leaving the house and refused to let go of her.

When Fu Hua tried to hold her, she refused and wanted only her mother to hold her.

Jasmine, did you see me in your dreams last night? Jia Li asked with a tired gaze on the little bun.

If she wasnt too young, I would suggest we send her to the Fu house. Fu Hua said with his gaze on the stubborn little bun.

She is 6 months old and yes, she is still a baby. Sometimes I cant scold her because I feel bad for having to leave her and go to work every day. Jia Li said in a soft tone as she kissed Jasmynes hair.

Its not your fault, thats the situation we found ourselves in and we have to adjust to it. Fu Hua said from the side.

Jia Li tried to breastfeed the little one to see if she would fall asleep but her plans failed. Jasmine refused to be decided today.

I have so many meetings today, otherwise, I wouldn't mind taking her to work. Fu Hua said while caressing Jasmine's hair that was packed in 2 buns.

Are you planning to show her off at work? Jia Li asked.

Not necessarily. I can take her into my office and no one will notice but I have so much work to do and won't have time to look after her. Fu Hua said with a sigh.

There is no need to bother yourself. I still have an hour to be at work, I will make her sleep. If she doesn't, I will just have to cover my ears and run away, so I wouldn't feel bad when she starts to cry. Jia Li said with a smile.

Jia Li didn't blame her daughter for being fussy and clinging most of the time because she was still too young to be left alone for several hours without her parents by her side, so she felt guilty most of the time.

Luck seemed to be by Jia Li's side today because when she was almost about to give up, Jasmine fell asleep while sucking.

Fu Hua smiled when he saw his wife sigh in relief as he knew what her prayer has been.

After laying Jasmine gently in her cot in the living room, Jia Li picked up her handbag and tiptoed away much to Fu Hua's amusement.

Jia Li got to work before Fu Hua and was in time to settle down before working hours started. Today, Bai Jun was not herself and ended up getting scolded by her supervisor for making some mistakes with the tasks he assigned to her.

After breaks, Sunny made Jia Li her assistant to help her reach out to the other 5 students in her team and to help her with some tasks.

As Saturday was fast approaching, news of Bai Jun's engagement to Yang Pen spread in her circle. Those that were still on good terms with Bai Jun called to ask her about it but she ended up not taking their calls after she replied to one of them.

FangSu was naturally happy when she heard the rumors and she couldn't wait to make fun of Bai Jun.

Since the engagement was a family thing, no friends were invited, so on Saturday afternoon, the Bai family and the Yang family met in a private room reserved for that occasion.

After Yang Peng slipped the engagement ring onto her finger, it was time to make a toast but Bai Jun wasn't in the mood. One glare from her father was all it took for her to come back to her senses.

Bai Jun and her mother have been obedient since their family lost the bid they needed so dearly to help with their business. Any misbehavior from them was enough for a death wish to be sent to them, so they have both been computing themselves.

After the engagement party ended, Yang Peng called Bai Jun out to see her privately.

Why did you call me out? Bai Jun asked with a frown as she approached him.

Yang Peng smiled and said to her, My instinct tells me that you hate me and I don't know what I must have done wrong to anger you.

Bai Jun sneered and said straight to his face, I will tell you so you won't have to think too much about this meaningless union. I don't like you one bit and I will never like you because my heart is set on someone else.

The smile on Yang Peis face vanished as he said, Since you said that you will never like me and that your heart is set on someone else, what is the point in going on with the marriage? I will call off the wedding right away.

Dont you dare! Bai Jun said to him with a glare. If he called off the wedding because of what she said, wasnt that going to make her land in big trouble?

Why cant I dare? Your grandmother told me on our first meeting that I can lay out any complaints I have, so do you think that you have the right to command me? Yang Peng asked with a frown. He was starting to like Bai Jun because she was beautiful and looked well-mannered even though she didnt seem to be interested in their marriage. But with her saying that she will never like him and with her disrespectful tone, he decided not to be polite with her.

Are you threatening me? Bai Jun asked in anger. She was angry with Yang Peng mentioning her grandmother and reminding her about her words.. She felt that he had no right to threaten her since her family was in a better position than his, so she looked down on him.

Chapter 384 – We Cant Do Anything

Im not threatening you. Im just saying what I want to do because I dont like your attitude. I was forced into this marriage as well but I was trying to work things out with you. But it looks like its not possible. I dont want to live with someone who is rude and wouldnt regard me. Yang Peng said and walked away.

The only thing Bai Jun thought was that she was in deep trouble if Yang Peng goes to report her and cancel their marriage, so she stopped him.

There is no need to cancel the marriage because I have already made up my mind for it. Bai Jun said to him.

Yang Peng removed his arm from her grasp and said to her with a deep frown on his face, You are not acting like someone that has made up her mind for this marriage. Today you stopped me from canceling this marriage and remember that I wont tolerate your arrogant attitude and your insults again.

After giving her a clear warning, Yang Peng walked away out of annoyance. He has already warned her ahead of time and it was up to her to choose to cross the line or not to.

Now left alone, Bai Jun was so angry that she stomped her foot. She thought she would be the one to have the upper hand in this new disgusting relationship but it turns out that the person she was getting married to, was not a fool.

After checking things out and discovering that she couldnt control him, she was very angry. She was at a big disadvantage. And now, she wasnt allowed to vent her anger and frustration on him.

After releasing a deep breath, Bai Jun turned around only to see one of her Aunties standing beside a pillar and was watching her with her arms crossed.

Bai Jun was shocked as she didnt how long she has been standing there and how much she heard.

The third daughter-in-law of the Bai family had a sharp gaze on Bai Jun as she approached her.

Give me one reason I shouldn't slap you and report you to your father and grandmother? The woman in her late forties asked.

Bai Jun's heart skipped a beat as she confirmed that her Auntie heard everything she said to Yang Peng. Seeing her fierce gaze, Bai Jun lowered her gaze and replied in a low tone...

I'm sorry. I said those words out of anger. I lied and I didn't mean them. If you hit me now, everyone will see my face and know that something went wrong. I promise to behave.

The woman scoffed and said with a serious gaze, Bai Jun, do you think you will survive if Yang Peng cancels this marriage? Tsk...tsk I promise you that I will kill you! Do you see how much your cousins and uncles are suffering in the company because of you? I will return the same pain to you a thousand folds if you go out of line again. Bai Jun, you better behave or I will save everyone the stress of worrying too much and get rid of you since you can't be redeemed.

Bai Jun still had her gaze lowered as she listened to the threats. She didn't dare to raise her head or say a word after being caught in the act. Her life would be meaningless if the words she said to Yang Peng got into her father's or grandmother's ears.

You just offended someone who you wouldn't have had any problems with if you respected yourself but it looks like you will have to rely on yourself and your monthly salary because you won't be getting anything from the family again and I wish you luck with finding a means to take care of yourself.

This piece of news was shocking to Bai Jun because she was never expecting that her family would cut her off financially once she got married. This was another turning point for her. She was so angry that she would hardly keep her mood in check when she went back to the room full of people.

When Bai Jun got back home, she went straight to her bedroom and her mother followed her immediately when she noticed that she was not in a good mood.

Jun did something happen at the hotel? Bai Fen asked in a worried tone.

Bai Jun skipped the important matter and went straight to tell her about being cut off financially from the family

Bai Fen sighed and said to her, No matter how unfair this is to you, we cant do anything and I am helpless. Dont worry too much, I will send you some money every month. I will not allow you to lack anything.

Thank you, mum! Bai Jun said as she finally felt a little relieved. She almost felt like crying with the changes in her life, but who could she cry to?

When Bai Fen went back to her bedroom, she thought how much her daughter had had to suffer for more than a week now both in the family and at work and her heart was almost bleeding.

Picking up her phone, Bai Fen took advantage when her husband was not in the room and called Chyou. Bai Fen called to ask her to look after Bai Jun at work but Chyou rejected her.

We dont have any business together after your daughter got into FJ. I am not her instructor here at work and besides, your daughter will face many challenges if she wants to make a foothold here.

Bai Fen didnt get to say anything again before Chyou ended the call.

You ungrateful woman! After spending so much money on you, you don't care about my daughter's affairs! Bai Fen cursed angrily.

She knew that Chiyou didn't owe her anything but she was expecting her to show a little care towards her daughter while at work, given how much she spent on her.

Monday came too fast again and everyone was back to work. Bai Jun became the center of attention because of the ring on her finger and it was also then that the others noticed that Jia Li wore one as well.

Since they have been working together, no one has really paid attention to Jia Li's fingers as it was normal for young ladies to put on rings these days....

Chapter 385 – A Class With The Newbies

Bai Jun didn't have a choice but to wear the ring because she has caused too many troubles for herself recently, and in order not to get into another one, she had to put on the ring.

JL are you married?. Linda asked in a surprised tone. She had no idea of her marital status since none of them haven't had the time to bond yet.

Jia Li smiled and replied, Yes, I am. She seemed proud to announce the fact that she was married.

Wow! I had no idea. Linda said with a smile. She was in the same group as Jia Li, so they often conversed with each other.

What about you, Jun, you are engaged, when is your wedding?. Linda asked with her gaze on Bai Jun who didnt seem to be in a good mood to socialize.

All attention was now on Bai Jun, as they were all waiting for her reply, and this gave Bai Jun no choice but to answer them. My wedding is on Saturday.

What! Its here already! Why dont you take leave to plan your wedding, there must be so many works to do. One of them suggested.

Yes, your wedding is in a few days, why dont you take the week off?. Another said with a frown.

Bai Jun was getting irritated by their concern, but she had to pretend to be in a good mood. She didnt understand the reason they were so interested in her matter.

My family doesnt want me to be tired out, so they let me continue with my work since I optioned for it. Bai Jun lied smoothly.

If that is the case, then youre lucky. A male newbie like them said.

If I were to be getting married, Im so taking 2 weeks off from work. One week before my wedding and one week after my wedding to enjoy my honeymoon. Marie said with a proud look.

Linda glanced at Bai Jun and asked, Do you have plans for your honeymoon?

Bai Jun heaved a sigh and said to her, Honeymoon will come later, I just got into FJ, I need to keep a track record.

You take your work so important, thats good!. One of them said with a smile.

Who wouldnt take their work seriously after going through a lot to get a spot in FJ, and we are still currently under probation. Another reminded all of them.

Thats right! Jun, since your wedding, is on Saturday, why havent we seen your invitation? Marie asked, and others gave curious glances at her.

Bai Jun was tongue-tied. She didnt want them to come to her wedding because she wasnt getting married to the person she loved. She also had no idea about what kind of plans her grandmother and Aunties had for her wedding so she didnt want to give them an invite.

Its not a big party. Bai Jun said to them.

It doesnt matter, we are expecting to see your invitation card tomorrow, Marie said with a smile before walking away.

Its time for our morning classes, who has an idea of who our teacher will be for today? Linda asked in an excited tone as they all made their way towards their normal lecture room to get ready for their classes.

Im also curious. Do you think it will be the Big Boss?. One of them asked.

Jia Li became nervous as she thought of the possibility of Fu Hua taking them for their class today. She didnt know the kind of attitude he would approach them with, and she also didnt know how to face him.

At home, she was her husband, and she sometimes argued with him and he made jokes with her. But at work, they had another relationship. He was her big Boss and she couldn't easily reach him.

I hope to see the Big Boss today, at least he should grant us the honor of seeing him for the first time since we joined FJ, Linda said with an expectant smile.

Hearing them talk about Fu Hua, Bai Jun's heartbeat increased as she became expectant. She couldn't wait to see the love of her life, so she thought.

After everyone settled down, they became composed while waiting for their teacher of the day to arrive.

Fu Hua on the other hand was going through some documents in his office when his assistant knocked and walked in.

Boss, you have a class with the newbie in 5 minutes. Zimo reminded.

Fu Hua who had almost forgotten about the class glanced at his wristwatch and saw that it was almost time and got to his feet. Picking up the lecture note he prepared, he walked out of his office with Zimo walking behind him.

On his way to the lecture room, Fu Hua was smiling to himself while thinking of how he was going to see his wife, and what her reaction would be.

Fu Hua made use of his private elevator to get to the floor for the lecture. He came in at exactly 10 on the dot. And as he walked in with Zimo, his steady footsteps were like rhythm to the hearts of the expectant.

When you see a hot tall handsome young man who is also your Big Boss, it will be difficult for you not to resist the temptation of gushing over his looks, especially for the young ladies, and that was what was going on right now.

As soon as Fu Hua stepped into the room, the hearts of the young girls melted including those that were dating, engaged, and married. All of them had their gazes locked on him as they gushed over him.

Jia Li was really surprised by her husband with a different aura, and she felt that he looked more handsome and outstanding than ever. Seeing how his looks and charisma were much appreciated by her colleges, Jia Li began to feel a sense of ownership for Fu Hua.

As for Bai Jun, she dropped her worries immediately she saw Fu Hua. She was no longer feeling heavy-hearted after seeing the man that was after her heart, and forgetting in the sensitive position she was put in, because of the Fu family, she couldn't wait for Fu Hua to see her.

Chapter 386 – Fu Hua Calls Jia Li Out

When Fu Hua stopped in front of the podium, he was already annoyed with the manner the newbies were staring hungrily at him and making hushed noises, so he looked to give them a sharp look, and that made all of them shut up and comport themselves.

Oh my God, I love how hes fierce!. One of the ladies said in a low tone as she blushed. Bai Jun who was sitting next to her glared at her, but no one saw that.

With his hands in his pockets, Fu Hua took his time giving each one of them a good look with a deep frown on his face.

Finally, his gaze locked with Jia Li, and to Jia Lis surprise, his facial expression didnt change as he glanced over at the next person beside her.

Is he ignoring me? Jia Li thought to herself when she didnt notice any change in his facial expression, not knowing that Fu Hua was more than happy to see her, and the reason he looked away so quickly was so that he wouldnt smile at her.

After glancing at a few students more, Fu Hua saw Bai Jun who was smiling eagerly at him. It was as if she has been waiting for a long time just for him to see her.

It was at this point that Fu Huas facial expression changed. He couldnt keep up with the normal facade and couldnt help expressing his deep annoyance through his gaze.

Fu Hua had no idea that Bai Jun was also a newbie in FJ as this was the first time he was seeing her. He began to wonder how she made it with the difficult stages in the competition and decided to investigate it.

Bai Jun could feel Fu Huas annoyance from his gaze on her, and slowly, the smile on her face disappeared, and she began to wonder if hated her just like the rest of his family.

Fu Hua didnt want time on Bai Jun and continued with the glances on other students, and finally, after meeting the gazes of everyone in the room, He went on to start something to them.

Im not going to introduce myself. If you dont know me, you shouldnt be here, because Im sure all of you got my basic information before getting into FJ. Fu Hua said while giving them occasional glances.

Next, he made a statement that shocked all of them. When I walked into the room, I saw that a good number of you were ogling at me. Please dont look at me that way, I am married, and I hate it when Im being stared at that way.

Fu Hua was so straight to the point that everyone was taken by surprise. Most of the ladies felt bad that they couldnt stare at their male god in admiration. I mean, he had such good looks, and he is tall, wealthy, and smart, who wouldnt like to fantasize about him ?

Zimo who was standing at one side, couldnt help smiling to himself because he knew the lady Boss was sitting amid the newbies, and his boss had to say such words, how sweet of him.

The same way Zimo thought, was how Jia Li felt. Never in her wildest imagination did she think that Fu Hua would give that kind of rule. It was difficult not to admire someone like him, nevertheless, she felt sweet inside.

The same couldnt be said for Bai Jun who was gritting her teeth

The other ladies felt that it was too bad that since their male god was already married, and from the look of things, he loves his wife so much.

The reason Im saying this is that, if I catch anyone fantasizing about me, I will immediately walk the person out of FJ. My second rule is that if I ask you a question, and you fail to answer it, you will lose a point. Now lets get to the agenda of the day. Fu Hua said as he opened his booklet and introduced the topic he would be handling them on.

Everyone in the room could feel that Fu Hua was not there to joke with them, so they immediately behaved and pay attention to him. And it was now they knew that he was truly the big boss.

Since the section had to do with measuring and cutting materials, things were already prepared before Fu Hua came in.

After talking for a few minutes to introduce them to the topic, it was time for him to demonstrate.

Fu Hua picked up the booklet he came with and read out the measurements he would be working with for the class.

It took Jia Li a lot of willpower not to scream and question him on the spot when she heard her measurements being mentioned. She could hardly hide her facial expression while staring at him in surprise, but it was too bad that Fu Hua didnt spare her a glance, which made her think if he was doing it on purpose.

After announcing the measurements he would be working with, Fu Hua picked up a chalk and began to draw on the sample of material on the big table beside the podium.

After drawing for a short while because he was too fast, he picked up a pair of scissors ✂ from the table and asked while playing with it, to the amazement of his students.

One of you is going to demonstrate your cutting techniques for all of us to see. Fu Hua announced while staring at them, and everyone began to anticipate the person he was going to call out.

Whether they had a good cutting technique or not, many of them wanted to be called out and stand next to Fu Hua, so they could have a sense of achievement.

While glancing at them, Fu Huas gaze came to rest on Jia Li, and he discovered that she wasnt paying attention. A frown appeared on his face as he immediately called her out...

JL, you have sold a few pieces of your designs to FJ, now can you come up here and show us your cutting techniques ?

Chapter 387 – At Least You Learned Well

Jia Li was taken aback by the order. Because she was lost in thought, she didnt think she heard him clearly, and so remained sitting with a confused gaze.

To others, they were a bit jealous that the Big Boss knew Jia Lis initials, but most of them thought nothing more about it since she has somehow worked with FJ before now.

Seeing her Jia Li remained sitting with that confused gaze, Fu Hua fixed his gaze on her without saying anything as a frown appeared on his face. He didnt plan to repeat his words.

Fu Hua was thinking of what was going on in Jia Lis mind to make her that lost in thought that even when he called her name, she wasnt able to get the question he asked.

Linda who was sitting next to Jia Li nudged her and whispered to her with a hand over her mouth, Mr. Fu said you should go and demonstrate your cutting skills to us.

Oh... thank you!. Jia Li said with a nod as she got up from her seat and walked towards the stage while talking to herself as all eyes were on her.

Darling, shouldnt you have repeated your question? why must you make things awkward for me?

The situation didnt sit right well with Bai Jun who thought that Fu Hua couldnt help showing off Jia Li in front of them as his wife secretly.

The reason Bai Jun thought differently was that she already knows the true relationship between them.

When Jia Li came to the stage, Fu Hua pointed at the table and asked her to show them her cutting style, and without saying anything, Jia Li walked towards the table and picked up the scissors.

As all eyes were on her, she was a bit nervous, coupled with Fu Huas gaze. If she dared to make a mistake since she dared to space out when he was teaching, she was sure to get a scolding from him, or point deduction.

After calming her nerves down with deep breaths, Jia Li held the material and started cutting them with the measurements Fu Hua marked on it.

From her skills, her colleagues could tell that she was quite good. When she was done cutting the materials, she put the scissors on the table and turned to glance at Fu Hua who had his gaze on her.

Giving a slight bow, she said, Mr. Fu, I am done cutting the materials.

It felt like they had gone back to the old days where she used to address Fu Hua as Mr. Fu, and that was before they became close.

Zimo went over to the table and picked up the materials Jia Li had cut and shown them to Fu Hua.

Not bad. At least you learned well. You can go back to your seat. Not even a smile appeared on Fu Hua's face as he said that.

The only thing that managed not to throw Jia Li into confusion as she went back to her seat, was the fact that she was guessing the reason he was acting this way was that they were in front of people.

After Jia Li went back to her seat to the envy of Bai Jun and Marié, Fu Hua continued to teach them and went on to show them his cutting skills and gave them a few pointers.

Seeing how fast he was and how he cut the materials sharply without a stroke out of place, the newbies were wowed by his skills.

When the class was over, Fu Hua left without giving them any tasks. He was all smiles when he walked through the hallway with Zimo behind him.

Fu Hua was happy that his wife did not disappoint, and that was the main reason he asked her to come out and show her skills.

When the newbies went back to their desks, they began to work on the little tasks given to them.

Just before the lunch break, Sunny came out of her office with a thick file and came to find Jia Li.

Jia Li, come with me, Sunny said with her gaze on Jia Li. The latter didn't know why she was called, but she quickly paused her work and immediately followed after her.

Sunny took Jia Li to take the elevator, and it was there that she told her where they were going. Im taking you to officially introduce you to our Boss. You sold a few of your designs to us, and now that you are working here, it would be good to let him know you are here.

Jia Li was really confused as she thought if it was necessary. She also didnt know what kind of attitude Fu Hua was going to give her. Before she could express her opinion to Sunny, the latter said...

You are also my assistant and will be helping me with simple tasks like this. So, it wouldnt be bad if he sees you with me now, and I hope he really agrees to this. Sunny said in a low tone as they both got off the elevator.

What can Jia Li say? She didnt have the right to say anything and went along with her direct superior. Now that she was Sunnys assistant, she will be the one running little errands like taking files, documents to Fu Hua for approval or signing since Sunny as the Creative art director is always very busy.

Sunny was another workaholic Jia Li had seen. And also seeing that she was young and had a successful career because of the quality time she put into her work, Jia Li knew that she had a long way to go.

Having approached the door to Fu Huas office, Sunny pressed a button on the door, and Fu Hua who was inside his office glanced at the small monitor on his desk and saw Sunny standing outside his door, so he opened it by pressing a button on the monitor.

Lets go in, Sunny said to Jia Li with a smile before walking inside.. This was Jia Lis second time in Fu Huas office, and she still can not manage to get her mind off the beautiful and spacious classy office.

Chapter 388 – Her Superiors Reject Her Invitation

Fu Hua was surprised to see Jia Li come in with Sunny and it was too late to mask his surprised gaze because Sunny saw it, but she didnt think much of it.

Mr. Fu, this is Jia Li, my assistant. Sunny introduced Jia Li with a smile.

I see. Take a seat. Fu Hua said as gestured for Sunny to sit in front of him before turning to glance at Jia Li who was still standing and asked her to sit on the couch.

After taking a seat, Sunny handed the files in her hand to Fu Hua and started talking about the new travel bags and suitcases they were launching along with matching bags and shoes for the ladies.

As Jia Li sat comfortably on the couch, she remembered the first time she came to FJ and stepped into Fu Huas office and how well he treated her. But today, the situation was different, so she thought.

Fu Hua and Sunny engaged in a conversation concerning the new products they were to launch soon. They both talked till it was time for a break.

I will go through all of them and get back to you soon. Fu Hua said to Sunny in conclusion.

When Sunny and Jia Li were about to leave his office, Jia Li and Fu Hua's gazes met. Fu Hua smiled and winked.

As Jia Li and Sunny made their way to the elevator, Sunny said to her, Jia Li, I'm sorry for keeping you away from your tasks for a long time. Don't worry, I will adjust your schedule to make up for the time you lost.

Thank you, Miss Sunny. Jia Li said with a polite smile. She was grateful that Sunny seemed to care about her.

While others were working, she was in her husband's office sitting there and doing nothing, which wasn't the best, so Sunny understood how precious time was and apologized to Jia Li and also offered to make up for it.

When Fu Hua came home in the evening, he went to hug his wife. He hugged her from behind and breathed in her scent and asked, Why were you absent-minded during my lectures today?

Jia Li smiled and replied, I couldn't behold how handsome you were, so I was lost in thought while thinking how you belonged to me.

Fu Hua chuckled and kissed her neck. You've learned to say cheesy words.

You thought me. Jia Li replied as she laughed heartily because Fu Hua continued to kiss her neck.

I will punish you for not paying attention in my class today. Fu Hua said as he turned her over and immediately pulled her to him.

As he locked her in his embrace, he leaned in to capture her lips with his mouth. As he kissed her softly, Jia Li couldn't help smiling. She loved this man who belonged only to her even though he was an idol to many people.

After delivering a deep kiss, Fu Hua tried to put his hands inside her shirt, but she turned him down.

No way, get your hands off me. Go and take a shower, I need to take Jasmine out to the garden. Jia Li said with a smile.

Fu Hua sighed and kissed her cheek before letting her go. I will go take a shower then. He said and disappeared into the inner room.

At the Bai family residence. Bai Jun met her grandmother to request some invitation cards.

What do you need them for?. Old lady Bai asked with a frown. Now, she didnt trust her granddaughter as the latter didnt give her any reason to do so.

I want to invite my colleagues and my superiors from work. Bai Jun replied. Because of the way she was bombarded because of her wedding invitation at work, she decided to get a few invitations for them.

By superiors at work, who do you mean?. Old Lady Bai asked with a frown. She thought that Bai Jun thought of giving the wedding invitation to Fu Hua since he was also her superior at work.

Bai Jun could tell what her grandmother was thinking and felt annoyed within her, but she managed to hide her feelings.

My coach at work. He supervises me directly in the course of this production period. Bai Jun replied.

There is no need to invite him, this is a small-scale wedding, and just got into FJ. Old lady Bai said to her.

But it will look bad from my side if I dont give him an invite as everyone already know that Im getting married on Saturday. Bai Jun said with a frown. Now, she needed a reason to give out her wedding invitation.

Old lady Bai felt that she was right and allowed her to take some invitations to give to her colleges and superiors at work.

The next day at work, Bai Jun gave out her wedding invitations to the colleges that she was close to, but when she tried giving her invitation to Sunny, the latter glanced at the wedding card in her hand and gave it back to her.

I wont be free this Saturday, so I cant come. Congratulations in advance. Sunny said to her with a smile.

Bai Jun smiled and left after a polite bow. But deep in her heart, she was already cursing. She felt that nobody in FJ cared about her.

When she gave the invite to Chyou, the latter doesnt even take it from her and asked, Why are you giving it to me, are we close?.

When Bai Jun gave her invitation to her supervisor, he said he wasnt interested in it, but congratulated her.

So far, Sunny was the most polite one amongst them, but still, Bai Jun wasnt satisfied. She felt that everyone loved Jia Li more than her.

When the Fu family received Bai Juns wedding invitation which was sent by Old lady Bai, Grandfather didnt bother to glance at it as he said he wasnt interested.

FaangSu wanted to go to the wedding and talked about it at the dinner table, but grandfather Fu refused.

There is no need to go there. You are not friends with that Bai girl, so why are interested in her wedding?.. Grandfather Fu asked with creased brows.

Chapter 389 – Fu Hee Leaves For The Fu Residence

Fu Meixu smiled and spoke up at this time. Grandfather, we have to go and represent the Fu family, so people wont say that we are on bad terms with the Bai family.

We are already on bad terms with the Bai family, whats there to hide?. Fu Geming asked with his gaze on his daughter.

But old Mrs. Fu doesnt think that way. Father doesnt need to show up, the young ones will represent us well. Fu ChuHua said with a confident smile.

Why do I feel like they are going there to cause trouble?. Fu YingPei whispered to Fu Ling.

I think so too. Fu Ling whispered in a low tone.

YingPei and Fu Ling knew that their family and the Bais can never go back to how they used to roll again. And FangSu who is now enemies with her once-in-a-lifetime best friend was surely attending the wedding to cause trouble or to make fun of Bai Jun.

Grandfather, even if you're not coming for the wedding, at least allow us to go, FangSu whined like a child.

Have you apologized to your brother and Li girl?. Grandfather Fu asked with raised brows.

FangSus facial expression changed as she stopped acting like a child. She looked away from her grandfather and pouted her lips.

Fu Meixu smiled and continued eating her food as everyone was quiet with their gazes on FangSu.

You still haven't apologized to your brother?!. Fu Lei asked in an angry tone.

FangSu was scared that he was going to hit her and flinched.

I didn't say I wasn't going to apologize, it takes a lot of courage to do that, so I'm preparing my heart. I will apologize after the wedding. FangSu replied and picked up her chopsticks.

You are looking for courage? Why can't I remember that you also looked for courage before causing a lot of trouble?. Fu Wei asked while pointing fingers at her. He was so mad at her that he could hit her at that moment.

Fu Wei, even you have forgotten your table manners. Why are you yelling during dinner? Eat your food, you can scold her later. Grandfather Fu said after a sigh.

FangSu was lucky to be saved by the old man and continued eating her food and forgetting to mention the marriage talks again.

Today's afternoon, Bai Jun went her wedding dress fittings with her mother and aunts. Since this was not the perfect wedding she had in mind where she would get married to the love of her life, Bai Jun wasn't worried about getting a customized wedding dress.

And even if she wanted a customized dress just to show off, her family would never let her, given how many times she has offended them.

The two daughters-in-law of the Bai family sat and watched Bai Jun try on the wedding dresses in her size. At least, they gave her the freedom to pick her choice of wedding dress. And it's not like Bai Jun was interested in picking a perfect dress, but her mother made sure she chose a good dress even if she wasn't getting married to Fu Hua. At least she had to look good, so she thought.

After shopping for the wedding dress, shoe, and bouquet

On Friday evening after Jia Li and Fu Hua came home from work, Fu Hee was ready to leave for the Fu house as she would be attending the Wedding. Grandfather Fu asked her to join the others to keep everyone in check, as he wouldn't want his family members to cross the line.

Fu Hua was holding the cute little bun in his arms as she clapped her hands with her pacifier in her mouth.

Say Bye to your grandmother. Jia Li said to the little bun with a smile. Jasmine glanced at Fu Hee and clapped excitedly while babbling. The little girl looked so happy.

Fu Hua smiled and said to her, Are you that happy that Im leaving for a few days ?.

The little bun slowly stopped clapping as her gaze turned innocent, then the next month, she giggled and clapped her hands again.

Jia Li and Fu Hee laughed out loud, while Fu Hua smiled proudly at his little princess.

Mum, I will walk you to the car. Jia Li said as she held Fu Hees arm.

Its so cold outside, there is no need. Fu Hee said with a smile, but Jia Li insisted, so Fu Hee had no. House than to allow her to walk her outside.

Jasmine, say bye. Fu Hua said as he held Jasmynes hand and waved it at Fu Hee. Fu Hee smiled and waved back at the little bun before walking out the door with Jia Li.

I will be back soon to take care of Da Xia. Fu Hee said to Jia Li.

Mum, spend the weekend well, you need to go out often as you are always cooked up at home with Jasmine. Jia Li said with a frown.

Since Fu Hee started staying with them, she doesnt go out and her social life has become boring, so Jia Li was worried about that.

Then next weekend, lets go to the spa. Fu Hee suggested.

Okay, bye. Send my regards to grandfather. Jia Li said as she waved at Fu Hee who got into the back seat of the car. Fu Hee waved back with a smile before the car drove away.

When Jia Li returned inside the house, the little bun was already playing with her father on the mat, so she joined them.

Jia Li and Fu Hua were not going to Bai Jun's wedding as they had no business with her and the Bai family. Now, the family of three had the weekend to themselves.

Quickly, the next day came and it was the day Bai Jun would get married to Yang Peng. FangSu and Fu Meixu dressed so beautifully like they were going to steal the show.

Fu Meixu was a celebrity, so it was given that she had to dress beautifully when going for a public event. As for FangSu, she specially ordered a very beautiful dress that could be used for the red carpet of the MET Gala.

These two daughters of the Fu family were dressed to garner attention from Bai Jun's guests, and they are coming in hot.

Chapter 390 – FangSu And Fu Meixu Bickers

Bai Jun, Fu Meixu, Fu Hee, and Fu ChuHua were all dressed up and ready to leave for the wedding. FangSu wanted them to leave early, so they would watch Bai Jun say her wedding vows and exchange rings with the person that she never dreamed of having a future with. FangSu wanted to capture every moment she thought would be heart-wrenching to Bai Jun.

There is no point in arriving early. You should walk in during the reception, so all attention will be on you. You have to walk in like a princess from a Royal family so that heads will turn at your arrival. Fu Meixu said. She preferred coming in late so that all attention would be on her.

Are you ladies going to attend a wedding or to draw attention to yourselves?. Fu Hee asked with a frown.

Allow them to enjoy themselves. Fu ChuHua said with a proud look. She too loved dramas and would wholeheartedly support FangSu and Fu Meixu in their plans.

At last, they left for the wedding on time. But when they got to the church, FangSu already had a change of mind. In order not to lose out on her cousin stealing the limelight during the wedding reception, she decided to sit in the car with her, while Fu Hee and Fu ChuHua went in for the wedding. But before then, FangSu passed her phone over to her mother to record Bai Jun saying her vows to her husband, but Fu Hee refused.

You want me to embarrass myself, no way!. Fu Hee said. Fu ChuHua on the other hand said to FangSu with a smile, I will capture the scene with my phone.

By the way, what are you going to do with the video?. Fu Hee asked.

In case Bai Jun wants to step out of line, I will send her the video of her exchanging vows with her dearest husband, as a reminder to behave as she is married, FangSu said with a smile.

True to Fu ChunHuas promise, she really took the video when Bai Jun was exchanging vows with Yang Peng when the priest pronounced them as husband and wife, and he asked them to kiss, and that was the awkward moment of the day.

When the priest said, You may now kiss the bride Yang Peng refused to move an inch. He had already said his fake vows, so there was no meaning and reason to kiss Bai Jun.

Bai Jun on other hand didn't want to have any physical contact with Yang Peng as she was saying her body for the man after her heart, but glancing at the congregation and seeing her family, colleagues from work, friends from her social circle, moreover, Fu Hee and Fu ChuHua representing the Fu family, She didn't mind kissing her now-husband to save herself from embarrassment.

But seeing how Yang Peng wasn't making any move and the atmosphere was turning awkward, Bai Jun gritted her teeth and took a step forward.

She leaned over and kissed Yang Peng on the lips, and everyone applauded them, as most of them thought that Yang Peng was a shy groom, while Bai Jun was the bold bride.

Bai Jun didn't really kiss Yang Peng, instead, she just placed her lips on his lips for a few seconds before moving away with a fake smile. Yang Peng was initially surprised by her bold move earlier, but later, he scoffed and couldn't wait to walk away.

When FangSu was watching the video, she couldn't help chuckling loudly when she watched that part. After watching the video, she sent it to her phone and returned Fu ChuHua's phone to her while thanking her.

It's nothing. It was fun to watch and share. Fu ChuHua replied.

I can finally sigh in relief now that Bai Jun is married. But I hope that she doesn't cause any trouble in FJ. Fu Hua said at loud.

She would be courting death if she tries it, FangSu said with a smile.

Sometimes, one would want to fourth death when they are tired of living. Fu Meixu chipped in.

You would like you've tried it before, you can share it with us, FangSu said as she made fun of her while Fu Hee and Fu ChuHua had their gazes on them.

You think it's funny? I am an actress, so I love to think of plots. Fu Meixu said when she saw her mother's gaze on her.

Admit it, you have always been a villainess, FangSu said with a smirk.

Who turned me into one?. Fu Meixu said with a fierce gaze. She could still recall the memories of their childhood of how FangSu was the most favored and used to look down on her. Till today, those memories still hurt her.

It's not my fault that you were not smart when you were younger, you grew up late, but it's saving your ass in the entertainment industry right?. FangSu asked as she blew on her red-polished artificial long nails.

What did you just say?. Fu Meixu asked with a frown as she was react to fight it out with FangSu.

Are you two trying to fight in the Van right in our presence?. Fu ChuHua asked.

Fu Hee frowned as she said to them, Im not against you girls fighting, you can fo it later when we get home, but if you insist on fighting inside their van, then we would have to forgo the wedding reception and go back home, after all, it would be a wonderful sight for your grandfather to behold.

Fu Hees threat worked because FangSu and Fu Meixu rolled their eyes at each other before looking away.

Finally we can have some peace. Fu ChuHua said as she closed her eyes and rested comfortably on the seat.

Because of the wedding and to keep an eye on FangSu and Fu Meixu so they wouldnt cause trouble, Fu Hee picked the Van so they could all travel to the Wedding Venue and the reception, together.

Chapter 391 – FangSu Humiliates Bai Jun

Saturday Saturday Saturday... was surely a day to relax, because Jia Li and Fu Hua were watching a cartoon with Jasmine. The little one was sitting in between them on the couch with her eyes and all her attention on the TV. At this point even if her mother dressed up to leave, she wouldnt even notice until the TV goes off.

From time to time, Jasmine would babble, clap her hands excitedly, and move her hands and feet about while watching the Baby Tv. Her parents found her actions funny and continued keeping their eyes on her.

When it was time for Jasmine to eat, the little girl still had all her focus on her cartoon, so Jia Li brought her bottle of milk and gave it to her.

For a brief moment, Jasmine grabbed her bottle of milk from her mother and tried to put it in her mouth, and went on to suck on it before taking it out of her mouth and playing with it while her eyes were on the TV.

You dont want your food now ?. Jia Li asked as she took the bottle from her.

Shes got something more fun to watch. Fu Hua replied with a smile.

Jia Li tried to put the bottle in Jasmynes mouth, but the little girl pushed it away with a glance before turning back to the Tv and continued babbling excitedly.

Jia Li glanced at her and back at the TV before picking up the remote to turn it off. This was like a dream to Jasmine because she was watching something interesting and it suddenly went off.

The little bun turned to glance at her mother in time to see her put the remote on the table in front of them.

Now I have your attention. Jia Li said to her as she carried her in her arms and started feeding her through the bottle.

Fu Hua couldnt help smiling as he said to her, When Jasmine is staying by herself, you will want to hold her. But if she is crying, you will want to run away, I havent seen a mother like you.

Thats because Im the first one. Jia Li replied with a smile. The little bun in her arms drank her milk obediently with her gaze going between her mother and her father.

At Bai Jun's reception, Bai Jun and Yang Peng were just welcomed in, and all attention was on them before FangSu and Fu Meixu decided to pop in.

Heads turned as FangSu and Fu Meixu made their way into the hall with smiles on their faces. Both of their mothers had already gone in before now.

Bai Jun and Yang Peng glance over from the stage to see FangSu and Fu Meixu walking down the red carpet in stunning dresses, and she knew they were here to steal her show because their actions were on purpose.

Bai Fen glanced over from where she was sitting and a big frown appeared on her face. What is wrong with the people of the Fu family, are they here to steal the spotlight.

You are the only one who would think like that. I like their dresses, it is expected of them to dress up that way as they are from a wealthy family. The third daughter-in-law said with a smile.

Are you that daft or what? Can't you see that they are doing this on purpose? Should I wait till when it's one of your sons' weddings and create a similar situation?. Bai Fen asked angrily.

Are you trying to embarrass yourself and your daughter by creating a scene? Don't you know that we are the center of attention today?. Bai Fen's husband asked with a slight frown.

Bai Fen couldn't go on because truly, they would be the center of attention since they were the bride's family. But still, she couldn't forgive what FangSu and Fu Meixu did.

When it was time for Bai Jun and Yang Peng to make a toast, they first went to the Bai family's table to make a toast.

Yang Peng, take care of my daughter. Bai Fen said as she raised another toast to them. Yang Peng on the other hand faked a smile and drank from his glass without saying anything.

Bai Jun's eyes accidentally met the third daughter-in-law's eyes who was staring at her with a smirk as if to remind her of her words the day she acted rudely to Yang Peng.

Old Lady Bai also said a few words to them before allowing them to leave. Next, Bai Jun and Yang Peng went to the Yangs table to offer a toast to them.

After offering a toast to both families, they could now start offering toasts to the guests. As it was time to go to the table reserved for the Fu families, Bai Jun was reluctant to go, but how was that possible that she wouldn't go there to give a toast?

When they got to the Fu family's table, Bai Jun faked a smile and greeted Fu Hee and Fu ChuHua. Fu Hee didn't respond to her and left Fu ChuHua to do the talking.

What a perfect couple. Bai Jun, you look so good on your day, and I'm sure this is the best day in your life. Fu ChuHua said as she raised a toast to her.

Bai Jun was already angry, as she thought how on earth could today possibly be the best day in her life? She knew that she would surely get mocked or ignored if she came to give a toast to them.

FangSu glanced at Bai Jun with a brightened-up gaze before shifting it to Yang Peng who seemed only to respect them because of their status, as deep down, he was not interested to meet any guests and offering a toast to them.

Mr. Yan, my supposed best friend is as gentle as a dove, but she always seems to follow the crooked path, so as her husband, you must lead her onto the straight path so she wont get you and your family into trouble...cheers, FangSu said as she clinked glasses with them by herself and drank happily.

Yang Peng glanced at Bai Jun with hatred before saying to FangSu, Thanks for the reminder.. He definitely got FangSus point and understood that she was no longer friends with Bai Jun.

Chapter 392 – FangSu Releases The Video Of Bai Jun. . .

Bai Jun couldnt mask her anger anymore as it was revealed on her face. She felt like asking people to hold FangSu while she hit her face repeatedly. As anger was evident on Bai Juns face, FangSu couldnt help chuckling softly.

Before Bai Jun could rebuke FangSu, Fu Meixu who has been watching the fun quietly, picked up her wine glass and said with her gaze on Yang Peng, Mr. Yang do not worry too much about your wife. She has a thing for married men who are successful and good-looking. And seeing that you are married to her and you have notable achievements for yourself and added to the fact that you have good looks, you are good to go.

Bai Fen who had her gaze on her daughter all the time saw that she has been standing at the Fu familys table and knew they were giving her a hard time. She became worried and started to complain about it.

Bai Jun deserves it, so let her be. The first daughter-in-law said, and Bai Fen rebuked her immediately.

How can you say that? Even if Jun deserves it, at least not on this day! How dare they embarrass my daughter on her wedding day?! Bai Fen asked angrily.

Then your daughter should have thought things through before deciding to disrupt the Bai familys peace. The third daughter-in-law said with a scoff.

Bai Fen couldnt argue with her and looked over at the Fu familys table in worry. Since she wasnt allowed to go over there, she could at least watch to keep an eye on them.

Bai Jun has never been more embarrassed today than now. FangSu and Fu Meixu were definitely here to embarrass her, and she couldnt continue taking it, not that she cared about what Yang Peng thought of her, but that he may treat her worse than before.

Which man would like to hear about his wifes ugly past that she doesnt seem to want to let go of? No man will tolerate that.

At least, Bai Jun was after protecting her image than on what opinion Yang Peng would have. Also, she was scared that the other guests next to them, would hear such embarrassing words.

Bai Jun who has already reached the maximum of her contentment was ready to confront the Fu daughters. She has just opened her lips to speak when Fu Hee who hasnt spoken since she arrived, cut her off.

Bai Jun, you and your husband shouldnt waste any more time on our table, Im sure other guests are waiting to receive a toast from you.

Yang Peng smiled and raised a glass to her before walking away without caring if his new bride was following or not.

Fu Hee didnt scold FangSu and Fu Meixu for embarrassing Bai Jun, as she felt that she deserved it after what she and her mother put her and FangSu through.

After Bai Jun and Yang Peng left the Fu familys table, Yang Peng stopped to say to her in a low tone, Now I know why you hate me, it turns out that you like married men. I never knew you were this shameless. I cant continue to do this with you, greet the remaining guests alone.

After getting insulted, Bai Jun could only grit her teeth and watch yang Peng walk away. You bastard! Do you think I care about you!. She cursed in a low tone.

In order to keep up with the appearances, Bai Jun faked a smile and went on to greet the guests alone. When she was asked about her groom, she lied.

His head aches, so he has gone to rest. He has been tired from planning the wedding while I only had to relax and be taken care of.

It looks like the groom is so smart and doesnt want to walk with a bitch like Bai Jun, FangSu said with a smirk.

Mind your language. Fu Hee said to her with a frown. They were in public and if anyone heard those uncaught words from her, they would think the children of the Fu family were not properly trained.

Bai Jun got what she deserved, I dont pity her at all, and she is not acting remorseful so, why would we care about her?. Fu Meixu said with her gaze on Bai Jun.

I have a wedding gift for her, FangSu said with a smirk as she took out her phone from her bag and went straight to find the video of her slapping Bai Jun and sent it out to their social circle.

What are you trying to do ?. Fu Hee asked with a frown.

It doesnt matter what she is trying to do, as long as it doesnt shame our family. Fu ChuHua said with a smile as she picked up her wine glass.

Fu Meixu who was sitting beside FangSu saw her sharing the video to their friends and a smirk formed on her lips as she thought about how lively the party was going to be soon.

As FangSu sent out the video, the friends from their social circle, immediately got the notification on their phones and clicked on the video to watch it. And once they saw the content of the video, they exclaimed in shock and started talking about it.

The reason they opened the video in the first place, its because FangSu was the one that sent it to them with an interesting caption. And because they were curious about its content, they clicked on it to watch it.

Oh my! what am I seeing?! Ah lam said after letting out a gasp of shock with a hand over her mouth.

This is the evidence of how your birthday party was ruined. One of the ladies said and let out a low chuckle. Ah Lam rolled her eyes and said, Dont even remind me of how they ruined my day, and they havent even apologized about it.

Each time Ah Lam remembered how FangSu and Bai Jun ruined her birthday party, she would become angry.

But why is FangSu sending us the video?.. One of them asked with a frown.

Chapter 393 – Someone Like That

MingXia smiled and said, Its been boring around here, so she wants us to have some fun.

Just then, Bai Jun finished greeting the guests next to their table and walked over to them. The ones that saw her on time, quickly put their phones away.

Ah Lam saw her but she refused to put her phone away, as she was still angry about what happened at her birthday party.

Bai Jun smiled brightly and greeted her friends but their gazes and responses seemed fake, so she slowly retracted her smile and asked, What is the matter?

Oh my! This is a very interesting video. Ah Lam said as she increased the volume of her phone while staring happily at her phone.

Bai Jun who was confused glanced at her friends who looked away from her. While wondering what this video was all about, she suddenly heard FangSus voice scolding someone. Those words sounded familiar that she was forced to remember how she was embarrassed at the birthday party.

Thinking that Ah Lam must be watching that video, she looked shocked as she quickly made her way over to her and snatched her phone from her to have a good look at the video she was watching.

Make sure you dont destroy my phone like the way you ruined my party. Ah Lam warned in a tight tone after her phone was snatched.

When Bai Jun saw the content of the video, she was so angry that she asked Ah Lam, How did you get this video ?

Al Lam snatched her phone from her and chose not to answer her.

Glancing at her friends from the same social circle, Bai Jun saw Mingxia smiling at her and her frown intensified.

You were the one that shared this video right ? Bai Jun asked without bothering to mask her voice.

Mingxia smiled meaningfully and said to her, Why ? You want to slap me again and destroy my phone like you did last time ?

The others looked shocked when they heard that something like that happened. Bai Jun dared to hit one of them and destroy her phone because of the video ?

One of them got angry at this discovery and said with a deep frown, Bai Jun, your shamelessness knows no bound. You really think you are a princess that can hit anyone. Did we ask you to love who you shouldnt love ?

Do you want to ruin your wedding as well ? Another asked unhappily.

We all know that you were forced to marry because of your crazy intentions towards a married man but we came out here to support you and not to be treated like we are nothing. Another said angrily.

Bai Jun was already annoyed because of the video and now seeing her friends blaming her and talking to her in that manner, she could no longer keep her feelings in check.

Are you sure you are my friends because you all are very rude right now? Since you all hate me, whats the point of pretending, did I tell you that Im lacking friends?

The ladies were surprised at her outburst so they exchanged glances. Bai Juns voice wasnt loud plus the music that was playing in the hall at highest volume, it would be the people at the neighboring table that would hear her.

Ah Lam chuckled angrily and said to her, You have opened our eyes today. You need to ask your best friend about the video, dont come here and treat us like we are homeless. You dont care that your words have offended us? And you still havent apologized to me about my birthday.

Bai Jun scoffed and said to her, Do you think I care about offending you and all of them at this point? And about your birthday, deal with it because I will never apologize to you! I told you a secret and you couldnt keep your mouth shut, you got what you deserved!

After saying those words angrily, Bai Jun marched away. The girls scoffed and scolded her angrily.

She really thinks she is something.

She doesnt care about offending us?

I know that she was scolded after going over to the Fu familys table.

And her husband abandoned her. I really hate her guts.

She is so shameless about the fact that she loves a married one and that is the reason she worked so hard to get into FJ.

I hope her colleagues know the kind of person they have in their crew ?

I hope they discover it soon. I cant sit here anymore, Im leaving.

Im leaving since she doesnt care about offending us.

What a shameless bitch!

Im leaving as well.

As the girls conversed angrily while getting to their feet, they couldnt keep their voices down, so everyone sitting at the table next to them heard their voices clearly.

While the girls all stood up to leave at the same time, it attracted the attention of everyone. Seeing how they were leaving with ugly expressions on their faces, the other guests wondered if they fought with the bride just after she went over there to toast them.

Bai Jun and the girls had no idea, or actually, they didnt look properly, so they were unaware that the newbies of FJ, were sitting at the table next to them, and some of them heard their conversation.

I cant believe Bai Jun is someone like that. One of them said with a disgusted look.

What did they talk about now ? I only heard something about a video, FJ and Bai Jun loving a married man. Marié asked.

Its good I could hear them but I am so pissed off right now. I really want to get my hands on the video. One of them said.

I will go and get it and find out what they talked about. Marié said as she got up and left her seat.

When Bai Jun left her friends, she immediately went to find FangSu since she was the one that sent out the video.. On getting close to the Fu familys table, Bai Jun saw that FangSus seat was vacant and she gritted her teeth angrily.

Chapter 394 – A Proper Way To Convey Her Message

Looking for someone? FangSu asked from behind her with a smile. Bai Jun turned immediately to glance at her.

Come with me! Bai Jun said as she pulled her to walk away.

Where is that Jun girl taking FangSu to? Fu ChunHua asked with a frown when she saw Bai Jun pulling the smiling FangSu to leave the hall.

They are probably going to talk things out. Let them be, after all, what can go wrong? Unless the Bai family wants to go bankrupt tomorrow, nothing will happen to FangSu. Fu Meixu said without a care.

Fu Hee was a little worried but she thought the same as Meixu, so she didnt get up to go look for her daughter.

Once FangSu comes back, we are leaving. Fu Hee said to them.

Im starting to be bored already. Fu ChunHua said as she glanced over to where the Bai family were sitting and saw them converse with a serious facial expression.

What is wrong with your daughter? Is she trying to tell everyone she is unhappy with her friends? The first daughter-in-law asked with a frown.

I saw her friends leaving and now, she is pulling FangSu to outside with that cold attitude. Its truly a blessing that we have married her off. The third daughter-in-law said with her gaze on Bai Jun.

Why are you blaming my daughter for everything. What if her friends infuriated her? Ban Fen asked angrily. She hated how everyone was blaming her daughter for everything.

Even if she was infuriated, is that enough reason to chase her guests away? Look at how she has become the center of attention and this is so embarrassing to our family. The first son of the Bai family said in anger.

Look how you brought up our daughter. If I knew you lacked home training, I wouldnt have let you raise Jun. Bai Juns father said to her mother.

Enough! We are not about to create a scene for people to watch. Find the MC and end this party soon. Im going over to greet the Fu family members before they leave. Old lady Bai said as she got up from her seat.

Bai Fen couldnt say a word as all the blame has turned to her. The more she and her daughter were embarrassed, the more she hated the Bai and the Fu families.

At the restroom, FangSu hit Bai Juns arm away when they got there.

Why did you bring me out here? FangSu asked.

Bai Jun was angry with FangSus nonchalant attitude. She pointed angrily at her and asked, How dare you try to embarrass me today? Why did you send that video out?!

Shouldnt you be grateful that I didnt put it on the big screen so everyone would see it? FangSu asked.

What! Are you mad?! Bai Jun asked angrily. She couldnt believe her ears. FangSu wanted her to be grateful that she didnt put that embarrassing video of her on a screen for her guests to watch?

Maybe I have really gone crazy. I never knew you had such a strong attitude before but now I know youve been deceiving me since the talk about my brother. You always acted like a green-tea bitch who was so harmless and couldnt hurt a fly but look what kind of attitude you have now, you are showing us your true colors now! FangSu said as she looked her up and down.

Bai Jun gritted her teeth and raise her hand to hit her but FangSu caught it on time. Tsk...tsk... dont you dare, if you dont want me to ruin your face and your dress.

Bai Jun pulled her hand out from FangSus grip and glared at her. Do you think I will let you be after all you have done to me?

FangSu rolled her eyes as she said, Shouldnt I be the one saying that to you?

You have done enough, so just wait for my turn. I will teach you a big lesson for crossing the line. Bai Jun said to her in a fierce gaze and she meant every word she said.

FangSu smiled and leaned in to whisper to her, I will be waiting.

Bai Jun had a murderous gaze as she watched FangSu walk away.

FangSu, you have really crossed the line! She said through gritted teeth.

When Old lady Bai walked up to Fu Hee and Fu ChunHua, she smiled and exchanged greetings with them.

I hope you are comfortable, do you need anything? Old lady Bai said as she glanced at them with a smile.

We are fine thank you. Fu Hee said in reply.

Thank you for coming over to join us in this celebration, Im glad you could make it. Old lady Bai said to the two women.

Old lady, we are happy to attend this wedding and we hope it will be helpful to keep your granddaughter off married men. Fu ChunHua said without a care. She didnt mind that she was ruining the mood of the innocent old lady.

Seeing how the Old ladys smile faltered Fu Meixu chuckled inwardly and shifted her gaze away. Fu ChunHua looked away unapologetically and let Fu Hee do the talking.

Old lady Bai, dont be annoyed that ChunHua didnt choose a proper way to convey her message to you. We wish Bai Jun wouldnt cause trouble anymore.

Old lady Bai who felt insulted initially smiled and assured Fu Hee that Bai Jun wouldnt look for trouble anymore.

I hope so. As the Mistress of the Fu family, I must take care of the family and oversee that everybody and anything going on in the family, so I wont hesitate to take matters into my hands if anyone external fly tries to come into my family to cause trouble. Fu ChunHua said to the old lady with an annoyed gaze.

Old lady Bai frowned as she glanced at Fu ChunHua before looking at Fu Hee. Fu Hee didnt spare the old lady a glance this time around. She felt a prick in her heart after she was reminded of how she lost her position as the Mistress of the Fu family.

FangSu is here, we can leave now.. Fu Meixu said after she saw FangSu walking towards them with a smile.

Chapter 395 – Bai Jun Wants To Stay Back

Old lady Bai was reminded that Fu Hee lost her position as the Mistress of the Fu family because of her daughter-in-law, so she quickly said a few words of apology when she saw Fu Hee standing to her feet and ready to leave.

Old lady, I almost lost everything but I managed to be redeemed, my daughter and I. And because I know that you are innocent, I will give you a piece of advice. It will be right to get rid of those that will cost you your peace before its too late. Never be afraid to do so. Fu Hee said to the Old lady before walking away.

The old lady of the Bai family would be lying if she said she didnt feel insulted and all of these were because of Bai Fen and Bai Jun.

Marié who finally met with Bai Juns friends from their circle approached them boldly and introduced herself to them.

After introducing herself, she went straight to the point to ask about the video and everything they talked about at their table.

Seeing as she didnt understand Chinese and that she was also one of Bai Juns colleagues at work, Ah Lam offered to ruin Bai Juns image more by telling her the truth about Bai Juns true character.

... I would have sent the video to you but I cant because of another reason but I will let you watch it and translate the conversation. Ah Lam said to her.

Marié was totally fine with it and asked her to go on and play the video. Marié had her reason for being curious about Bai Juns matter because she didnt want to work with someone who was two-faced. Although she didnt have a not-so likable personality, at least she was true to her expressions, unlike someone.

After watching the video, Marié thanked them and walked away.

Why did you refuse to share the video with her? Mingxia asked with a frown. The others who were curious about the same question, fixed their gazes on Ah Lam while waiting for her reply.

Ah Lam sighed and decided to answer to their curiosity.

I have two major reasons. One, Bai Jun didnt share this video with us to circulate it, as she may have other plans. Well, we have to hear from her first. Secondly, I dont know who she is apart from the fact that she is Bai Juns colleague.

What Ah Lam said made sense to them, so they stopped asking questions and left the hotel.

When Marié went back to her seat, she immediately spilled everything she news told. The rest looked shocked as they listened.

I cant believe that Jun is that kind of person. Linda said in shock.

She is in love with the Big Boss? Is she crazy? Another one asked.

Who wouldnt love someone like our Boss. One of the male newbies asked.

At least not a married man. Linda said with a frown.

Although I was once someones mistress before I decided to be useful to myself but I wasnt as shameless as to go for a married man. Marié said as she picked up a glass of wine from the table to drink from it

Now we know the kind of person we have been working with. One of them said with a scorned look.

Guys, have you noticed that JL and Jun have never had a conversation since we all got into FJ? One of them asked with a curious gaze.

I noticed that but I didnt think much about it. What do you think the reason is? One of the guys asked.

I dont think JL should be the problem, since she is normally quiet but would always return a smile and respond to our greetings. One of them said.

JL is a sweet girl, she is definitely not a problem. Linda said

I dont care who is at fault, I dont like any of them. One looks so quiet that she can be an easy target for bullying, while the other one has a haughty personality. Marié said in an annoyed tone.

Dont tell me that you expect everyone to be wild like you. Marié you need a break. Linda said as she touched her shoulder.

After the wedding reception which didnt last long because of Old Lady Bais order, the Bai and the Yang family started to greet their guests and send them off.

Bai Fen sneaked away and pulled Bai Jun to one corner to question her. Seeing her mother, Bai Jun cried while pouring out her grievances.

Fu Hee didnt raise a good daughter. How dare she try to ruin your image again? Bai Jun dont worry, just lay low for a while. I promise to help you get revenge at the right time. Bai Fen said while consoling her.

Mum, I must make FangSu pay for all the embarrassment she gave to me! Bai Jun swore with tears.

Of course we wont let her get away with this but dont do anything now since your grandmother and father have their attention on you, also, the Fu family. You must lie low first. Bai Fen advised.

Both of them have just gotten away from trouble narrowly but it still came with a heavy price. Bai Fen had a feeling that they wouldnt escape unscathed next time if they were not careful, so she advised Bai Jun to stay low first.

Mum, I dont want to go to the Yang family, I want to stay back. Bai Jun cried out another part of her worries.

And why wouldnt you go back to your new family? The first daughter-in-law asked as she walked over. She had just come over when she heard Bai Jun crying and saying that she wanted to stay back.

Bai Fen sighed in relief as her co-wife didnt hear their initial conversation.

You dont have a daughter so you will never understand my daughters feelings. Bai Fen said in a heavy tone while still holding onto Bai Jun who immediately stopped crying.

The first daughter-in-law sneered and said to them, I bet if it was the person she so desired that she got married to, she wouldnt cry and want to stay back in the family.

Chapter 396 – A Stroll In The Park

There was no way Bai Jun would have stayed back with her family for a few days, it was not possible. I mean, what would she be doing there when she is now married?

So, Bai Jun went followed her new husband and his family back to their new home. It turned out that Yang Peng was still living with his family, and he didnt have any plans of moving out soon.

Bai Jun was annoyed, because living with him was a problem, and now that his parents were staying with them, it was a big deal for her.

Jia Li and Fu Hua didnt stay at home throughout today. In the evening, they packed a few necessities they would be needing outside and left in two cars.

When they arrived at the childrens park, Jia Li carried the little bun out from her car seat, while Fu Hua went to the booth to bring out the little buns stroller and set it up.

As the weather was cold, the family of three was not all covered up. The little bun looked so cute while being dressed like an apple. Her external outfit was made to look like an apple. Since it was thick enough to shield her from the cold, Fu Hua didnt mind his little princess looking like an apple from behind.

The little bun looked so cute in her outfit as she looked around the vicinity.

In the second car, Ocean and her pups were let out of the car, and they immediately jumped out and ran towards them.

Having gotten into the main park, everyone went straight to have a cup of hot tea and coffee. As it would be Valentines Day in a few days, the park was already preparing for it which can be seen in their decors.

After drinking their tea, Fu Hua put the little bun in her stroller and left to walk around the park with Jia Li walking beside him.

There were only a few people in the park who happens to be the workers. Fu Hua being a wealthy man, had all the money and all the connections to rent the public park for his use.

The little bun sat in her stroller and let her father push her, while she looked around curiously. Ocean her pups accompanied the family of three in their stroll, and this image was perfect for everyone that saw it.

Why didnt you tell me that Bai Jun was working in FJ?. Fu Hua asked with his gaze on his little woman that was initially smiling from ear to ear.

Jia Li glanced at him and replied, When I first saw her, I was surprised, and then I thought you knew about it, so I didnt mention it to you. When I found out that you had no clue, I thought it wasnt important if she was working in FJ or not, so I didnt mention it to you.

Tell me everything, it is necessary and important. I dont want any wild chicken roaming around my company or my family. Fu Hua said to her.

Okay, I will tell you everything from now on. Jia Li promised.

Thats more like it. Fu Hua said and sighed. I investigated her to know how she got into FJ, but I was surprised that she was so smart to get into FJ without any kind of fraud. I can sack her with any little reason, but I dont want to do that.

When Fu Hua said up to this point, Jia Li thought that he didnt want to be petty and sack Bai Jun just because he didnt like her, as that would be against his work ethic. As he said that everyone working in FJ should be able to separate their personal life from their professional life, so he has to lead by example.

Because Jia Li has not been disturbed by Bai Jun as the latter has never spoken to her or played any tricks, Jia Li thought she was harmless, so she didnt think too much about the situation.

So, you are going to let her continue to work in FJ?. Jia Li asked curiously as she wanted to know what his reply would be.

I won't let her continue to work in my company for long. I thought she was just a bystander, so I didn't put any eye on her, so it is my mistake that she got into FJ, I would have stopped her from the very beginning just like I did with FangSu. Now, I'm going to make sure that she becomes so frustrated with work that she would have no choice but to leave. Fu Hua replied.

How are you going to do that?. Jia Li asked.

Fu Hua smiled and pinched her cheek. One instruction from me, it's enough. Now that's enough with the wild chicken, let's talk about something else. Where do you want us to go for Valentine!.

Do we have time for that? Valentine is on Thursday. Jia Li said with creased brows.

We will when I tell everyone to leave work early because I want to spend time with my wife. Fu Hua announced.

You sure know how to serve dog food. Jia Li said with a low laugh. Fu Hua smiled and hugged her with one arm while pushing Jasmine's stroller with his other hand.

The little bun was so happy with being outside. She kept babbling and clapping her hands. And when she saw something she was curious about, she would fix her gaze on it and watch it quietly and with all interest.

There was nothing to be bored about while taking a look at the park, and also, Ocean and the pups made the day.

When the weather got colder, the family of three had to leave for their home. When they got home, they were surprised to see that Fu Hee had returned.

Mum, how come you came back today ?. Jia Li asked as Fu Hee took the sleeping little bun from her arms happily.

Tomorrow is Sunday, you two should relax and prepare for the new week.. Fu Hee replied.

Chapter 397 – Confrontation

At night at the Bai family house, Bai Fen was restless about her daughter. She had in mind of calling to check up on her, but whereby she was being monitored in the house, was what made her restless. The worst was that she couldnt even slip away from anyones sight to make the call.

The person Bai Fen was worrying about, was currently being given rules to obey.

We can never sleep on the same bed, so you take the couch, thats your bed from now on. Yang Peng said to Bai Jun while pointing at the couch.

What do you mean? Why do I have to be the one to sleep on the couch while you sleep on the bed?. Bai Jun asked with an unbelievable facial expression.

Do you need to ask this question? This is my house, and as the visitor, I dont want you to sleep on the bed with me. I chose between the floor and the couch for you and decided that I should be more human. If you dont like the arrangements, you can go back to your Bai family to continue being the spoiled princess that you were, but that is if you will be accepted back into the house. Yang Peng said to her and walked away to change his clothes in the bathroom.

Bai Jun couldnt believe what was happening. Since she was born, when did she have to sleep on the couch at night? There was not even one time that it happened.

Of course, Bai Jun wouldnt like to stay on the same bed as him, but she was not expecting him to ask her to go sleep on the couch as she was thinking that he would still be annoyed with her and take one pillow and a blanket to go sleep somewhere else.

Now, it looks like she will be the one to suffer till the day they reconcile which was never going to happen or all through the time they stay married.

Bai Jun who has been mistreated for the last two weeks had no choice but to take a blanket to cover herself while laying on the couch to sleep.

On Monday when everyone returned to the office, Bai Jun noticed that she was receiving weird glances from her colleagues, and when she greeted any of them, they wouldnt reply to her, it was only a few that replied to her nonchalantly.

Bai Jun who didnt know the reason she was getting weird gazes, thought it was because she didnt go to her colleagues to toast to them at her wedding. While thinking it was because of that, Bai Jun waited patiently till it was time for a lunch break to apologize to them and to explain things to them.

Going to the companys cafeteria for staff, Bai Jun saw her colleagues sitting there and talking. They were already eating, so she quickly went to pay for her meal and go to the table to join them.

Marié was not welcoming when Bai Jun came to join them. What are you doing here ?. She asked with a frown while the others looked on.

Bai Jun knew that all of them were angry with her, and had to explain things to them.

Guys Im sorry that I never came to greet any of you at my wedding. I was so busy and didnt have the time to finish greeting other guests as well. Im really sorry. Bai Jun said in a pitiful tone.

Zip it! Marié said while rolling her eyes.

Jun, do you take us all as fools or what ?. Linda asked.

Now, Bai Jun began to wonder if she did any other thing apart from ignoring them at her wedding, because the negative energy she was getting from them, was high.

Before apologizing, she thought they would all understand how busy and tired she was, but it looks like reverse was the case.

I said Im really sorry. My mind was going through a lot of things that day. Im sorry it will never happen again. Bai Jun said with creased brows as she tried to win back their favor.

Why would it happen again, unless you plan to have another wedding. One of them said while rolling her eyes.

No, thats not what I meant. I mean if I invite you for another function, I wont act like before, I will definitely treat you all well. Bai Jun said as she managed a smile.

And you think if you send us an invite we will attend? No thank you, but we don't want to be associated with someone like you. Another said with a disgusted look on his face.

Now, Bai Jun was sure that something else happened that caused them to show her this side.

Did I do something wrong again?. She asked in a slightly nervous tone.

Marié couldn't tolerate them wasting their time on Bai Jun, so she said after a scoff, It is so surprising to find out that you are in love with our Big Boss. You are really uncultured.

You know what it feels like for your heartbeats to escalate, that was exactly what was going on with Bai Jun. Her heart was beating 5 times faster than normal, and she couldn't control it.

How did they find out about this?

Did FangSu tell them about it? But FangSu doesn't know them.

How on earth did they find out about this?!

Bai Jun's thoughts were in disarray as she thought hard about her how colleagues came to know of this secret. Everything changed after her wedding, so what happened when she wasn't watching?

Seeing how you are shocked, this news must be true, Linda said and looked away.

Now, Bai Jun saw that she couldn't deny the truth, and it was not going to help even if she did. She couldn't deny it, because she didn't know they found out about it, and seeing how sure they were, denying it would be a foolish act, so she opted to admit to it.

After releasing a deep breath, Bai Jun glanced at them and said, Its true!

Chapter 398 – Thursday

Before anyone could say a word to admonish her after giving her that disgusting gazes, Bai Jun added, But that was in the past, not anymore. My family and his family were very close, so I know him on a personal level.

You dont expect us to believe that do you ?. Marié asked while rolling her eyes.

I dont care if you know the Big Boss outside of work, but you should mind your actions. He is married, and Im sure everyone heard clearly when he said no one shouldnt have ideas about him or the consequences will be dire when caught. Linda said with a frown.

Im serious, I dont have any ideas about him. Bai Jun said with creased brows. Deep down, she was annoyed that she wasnt able to deceive them.

Stop trying to fool us. We watched the video of you getting hit because of your crazy ideas. One of them said while rolling her eyes.

We are aware of the reason you got married, its because of this. I dont want to waste my time with you, so please leave, or I will leave the table. Marié said with a disgusted facial expression.

Jun, you are such a good liar. We heard you and your friends confronting each other, and I bet you didn't know we were sitting next to their table. One of the male newbies said.

The others started to complain and talked in a hushed tone. Bai Jun was embarrassed that she was asked to leave. Hearing them mention that video, and the fact that they were sitting next to her friends when she exchanged words with them, made her know that there was no low she could tell that would make them forget everything they heard and saw.

With anger boiling in her heart, she stood up with her tray of food and said to them, Its fine if you don't believe me, this is not the first time I will suffer from people misunderstanding me.

After saying that, Bai Jun walked over to another table to sit and eat her food.

Is she trying to blame us?. One of them asked in disbelief.

She has just shown you how shameless she can be. Another said.

Why is JL not here?. One of them asked as she looked around.

She is probably eating somewhere else since she normally comes with home-cooked food, or maybe she is still working, Linda said.

She is really passionate about this stuff.

All of us are passionate about it as well, Marié said and picked up her spoon and began to eat.

Jia Li who they were talking about, was eating somewhere else. There are two places to stay and have lunch in FJ, so Sunny asked JL to join her for lunch in the place reserved for the directors. And as they ate, they conversed about matters related to work.

You can now go to the Boss's office on my behalf when I can't make it, his assistant approved according to the Boss's instruction. Sunny revealed.

Jia Li nodded in understanding. She knew this was Fu Hua's doing, as this would be a big opportunity for them to see each other during work hours. Jia Li smiled inwardly and continued to eat her food.

Soon, Thursday arrived, which was Valentine's Day. Most ladies wore a red outfit to work today, to celebrate the day of Love.

All the staff in FJ heard that their Boss allowed them to get off work by 3 PM, so they were very excited. Those that had dates to go to, were more than excited, because they now had time to rest a bit after work before going on a date.

Rumors had it that the Boss of FJ wanted to get off work on time to celebrate Valentine's Day with his wife, so he allowed the staff to leave work on time as well.

When Bai Jun heard the rumor, she gritted her teeth as she gazed at Jia Li in jealousy. She hated how Fu Hua flaunted his love for her.

As everyone was in a joyous mood, Jia Li had the same feeling as well, but she put in a lot of effort with today's task so she could leave work much earlier.

Before leaving for work, Jia Li went to take permission from Sunny to get off work on time for the upper week.

Why do you want to leave work early next week Thursday? Sunny asked curiously.

I have something to organize in my family, so I needed to get off work on time. Jia Li said in a nervous tone.

Sunny gazed at Jia Li for a while before saying, You know that work should come first, and that's a priority in FJ, your personal affairs can't affect your work here.

Jia Li thought that she didn't ask her question well, so she rephrased it, I am aware of that. So I want to ask if I can leave work before time if I finish my tasks?.

If you finish your tasks before time, then you are free to leave. But mind you, Thursday may be a busy day. Sunny reminded her.

Thank you!. Jia Li said with a smile before leaving her office.

Working back to her desk, Jia Li sat down

While getting her things ready to leave for work, Jia Li got a text from Fu Hua asking her to go wait in his car in the underground park as he wanted them to leave together.

Jia Li was surprised by his request and immediately phoned him while waiting for the elevator.

What if someone sees me?. Jia Li asked in a nervous tone.

Nobody will, Zimo will make sure of that. He will call you now and help you get to my car without anyone seeing you.. Fu Hua said from the other end of the phone.

Chapter 399 – Spending The Night Out

After speaking with Fu Hua, Zimo contacted Jia Li and asked for her location, before coming to get her.

Zimo took her to take Fu Huas private elevator, and because Zimo has been in FJ for a long time, he knew the corridors and hallways to follow in other not to be seen.

Jia Li who was nervous, finally sighed in relief after she got into the front passenger seat of Fu Huas car without being seen by anyone.

Maam, Boss will be out in a few minutes. Please give your car key to me, I will send your car home. Zimo said with a smile.

Do you know where he is taking me ?. Jia Li asked curiously. She had no idea of what Fu Hua planned out, and he didnt give a hint when they woke up in the morning, so she was curious.

Im sorry Maam, but I have been instructed not to say anything, Zimo said with a big smile as he bowed slightly.

The reason he was smiling, was because of the arrangement his Boss made. It was very simple but romantic, so he couldnt help but blush when he thought about it.

Now, Jia Li was very curious. Seeing how Zimo refused to say anything, she wondered how crazy Fu Hua's plans were as she handed her car keys to him.

Soon, Fu Hua was seen walking towards them in long strides, and there was a little smile that played on his lips.

Zimo immediately walked towards him to take his work bag from him.

Take it to the house. Fu Hua said as he walked straight to open his car door and get into it. Zimo bowed with a smile before walking towards Jia Li's car.

Hello, beautiful!. Fu Hua greeted with a smile as he leaned in to kiss Jia Li's cheek.

Hello, handsome. Jia Li greeted back as she blushed.

Fu Hua smiled as he fixed his seatbelt and ignited his car before driving away.

Where are you taking me to?. Jia Li asked with a curious gaze. Fu Hua smiled and said to her, You will see when we get there.

Now, all the curious Jia Li had to do was to be patient.

On their way to their destined location, Fu Hua turned on the radio so they could listen to a piece of love music while making conversations about work and every other thing.

Fu Hua drove into the premises of a 5-star hotel to Jia Li's amazement. Jia Li wanted to ask if they had a date there, but Fu Hua shushed her in time.

Dont ask any questions and just follow my lead. Fu Hua said with a smile as he helped her out of the car.

Fu Hua went straight to open the cars booth and took out one travel bag before closing it. With the luggage

Since he has already told her not to ask any questions and just follow his lead, Jia Li had no choice but to remain calm no matter how the curiosity to know about his plans was killing her.

Walking into the hotel, Fu Hua got their room card as one of the hotels staff took the luggage from him and lead them to the elevator and straight to their suite.

You can leave. Fu Hua said to the hotel staff as he took the luggage from him. The staff bowed and left Jia Li and Fu Hua in the room.

Jia Li walked past the living room and went straight to the bedroom, where she saw rose petals neatly arranged in a big heart shape on the white sheets.

This is beautiful, Im so going to lay on this bed. Jia Li said in an excited tone as she immediately rushed over to pounce on the bed, but Fu Hua was quick to stop her by hugging her from behind.

Why are you in a hurry?. Fu Hua asked as he chuckled close to her ear.

Didnt you prepare it for us?. Jia Li asked with a confused gaze.

Fu Hua smiled as he turned her around. I did prepare it for us, but its not time to lay on the bed, there are other things to do first. You know, you really acted like Jasmine some seconds ago.

Jasmine would always get excited when she saw things that please her sight, and she would also make an effort to get, so that's the reason Fu Hua said Jia Li acted like Jasmine earlier because she was going to pounce on the bed of roses.

Jasmine? That's right. Darling, where is my baby we are going to leave her alone for the night?. Jia Li asked as she became worried.

Relax, mum will take care of her. We will return home early in the morning, so we will get to see her and spend about 2 hours with her before leaving for work.

So this means that we are spending the night here?. Jia Li asked with a smile.

It was just now that Fu Hua understood that Jia Li played smart with him. She wanted to get some information out from him, so she used her worries to make it happen.

Fu Hua pinched her cheeks as he said, You are becoming naughty. Go and take your shower, I will get your dress ready.

Are we going somewhere again?. Jia asked with a curious glance.

Sweetheart, go and take a shower first. Fu Hua said as he gently pushed her into the washroom before shutting the door.

While Jia Li was having a shower, Fu Hua was unpacking their things from the luggage and arranging them in the closet.

Some minutes later, Fu Hua got a call from the front desk, telling him the arrangement he ordered for, was ready.

Without wasting time, he brought out the outfit for their evening date and laid them out.. When Jia Li came out from the shower with a towel wrapped around her body, Fu Hua kissed her lips and asked her to dress up while he went to have a shower.

Chapter 400 – Valentine Date

When Fu Hua was fully dressed, he walked into the room and saw Jia Li in the red hot dress he got for her.

You look, gorgeous sweetheart. Fu Hua said with a smile as he approached her and wrapped his hands around her waist.

Dont you think the dress is too short, and my boobs are popping out a lot ? Dont you mind other people staring at me ? Jia Li complained. She was surprised at the kind of outfit he got for her.

It was a red short dress that showed off her laps and her cleavage. Since she was busty, her boobs were popping out, but she was concerned, although it wasnt a lot.

I got you this dress because I wanted you to look hot for me, and not for any other person. Dont worry, I promise that no one else will see you. Fu Hua assured her in a low husky voice, after which he leaned in to capture her lips in a hot kiss.

Seeing how sexy his wife looked, Fu Hua's throat tightened, and he couldn't wait to make love to her.

Jia Li willingly let him kiss her till they were both out of breath.

Fu Hua put his forehead on hers and took a deep breath. If we didn't need to have dinner, I wouldn't be this patient in devouring you.

Jia Li was relaxed as she let him hold her for a while. They haven't had s*x in over a week and seeing her dressed in such a provocative way, was more than enough to tempt him, and this was what he wanted.

Without wasting much time, Fu Hua took Jia Li's hand and led her out of their suite, and went straight to take the elevator up to the rooftop which seemed to have its class.

The rooftop was covered with transparent glass and was decorated with many lights and decors to mark Valentine's Day.

The weather would have been chilly if there was no covering over the rooftop, and heater in the room, so Jia Li did not put on a coat to feel warm.

Seeing how beautiful the room was decorated, with a round table and two dining chairs in the middle of the room, Jia Li felt the atmosphere of love.

Fu Hua picked up a bouquet of red roses

Thank you!. Jia Li said with a beautiful smile as she took the roses from him and sniffed them. The roses were fresh, and so was their fragrance.

Do you like it?. Fu Hua asked with a smile as he watched her inhale the fragrance from the roses.

I love it, thank you. Jia Li thanked him with a smile. She was happy to receive the fresh beautiful roses from him. All she could say was that he was very romantic and knew how to treat the woman he loved, well.

I will show you something even better. Lets have dinner first. Fu Hua said to her as he took her hand and led her to the table. He pushed out a chair for her, and let her relax on it before going to sit on the other chair.

I ordered a lot of food for us, you can eat anything you want, dont be shy to spend your husbands money. Fu Hua teased as he picked up the bottle of red wine and popped it.

You dont need to remind me, I will make sure to eat whatever I want. Jia Li said with a smile. How could she not eat when she was hungry? If it was before when she was still getting used to eating out, she would have been picky with the food, but now that her dearest husband has turned her into a pro, she will eat whatever she wanted without holding back.

As Fu Hua poured wine into their glasses, he said to her in a kind reminder, Dont overeat, so you wont be tired out easily.

He said that because he had another agenda planned out for them.

After clinking glasses and taking sips from them, Jia Li and Fu Hua picked up their cutlery and began to eat while chatting happily, over soft music playing in the background.

The only thing Jia Li and Fu Hua talked about were things that were fun and made them happy. Whenever any of them remembered something funny, they would talk about it and laugh over it.

After eating, both of them drank and continued chatting till Fu Hua asked Jia Li for a dance.

I cant dance. Jia Li said with a surprised smile while gazing at Fu Hua who stood in front of her with his hand stretched out to her.

I know, and thats why we going to take it slow. Fu Hua said with a smile. Jia Li chuckled softly and placed her hand on his, and he helped her up to her feet before pulling her gently to go stand in somewhere in the room, to dance.

Relax, trust, and follow my lead. I wont let you get hurt. Fu Hua whispered to her ear. And as that hot breath landed on Jia Lis ear, she felt goosebumps on her skin.

Jia Li was a little stiff at the beginning of their dance, but within a few minutes, she loosened up and followed his lead.

After the dance, Fu Hua took Jia Lis hand and led her to watch the beautiful nightlife of the city. Fu Hua hugged Jia Li from behind and rested his jaw on her shoulder as they watched the City together.

Ten minutes later, Fu Hua released her and said to her with a smile, The time is up.

I enjoyed a beautiful evening. Jia Li said with a smile as they walked back to their table. Fu Hua picked up her flower and gave it to her before leading her out of the room. I enjoyed the evening as well, thanks to the beauty that gave me the honor by choosing to accompany me. Fu Hua said.

Taking the elevator back to their floor, Fu Hua already had a heated gaze on Jia Li who refused to look at him.

Why are you looking at me like that?. Jia Li asked as she slowly looked up at him with a shy gaze.. He has been staring at her for a while now as if he couldnt wait to eat her whole.
