Chapter 401 – Jia Li's Valentine Gift To Fu Hua

You're beautiful. Fu Hua replied as he stretched his hand towards her face, but Jia Li dodged it and said, We are in the elevator. Fu Hua chuckled and retracted his hand, and only then did Jia Li lose her guard against him.

Still carrying the bouquet of roses, Jia Li followed Fu Hua into their suite, without knowing that Fu Hua was waiting for the right time to attack.

Immediately he shut the door, Fu Hua turned and grabbed Jia Li, pulling her close to him, and in the process, the bouquet fell to the floor.

Jia Li looked like she had a little complaint, but Fu Hua said to her with a smiling gaze, We are not in the elevator. His reply caused Jia Li to chuckle.

Can this man act his age for a minute?

I love you. Fu Hua said while staring right into Jia Li's eyes. He meant every word he said. Jia Li smiled and confessed to him, I don't think I will ever stop loving you even if I want to.

The only thing Fu Hua picked from her words, was what was going to bother him. Why would you want to stop loving me. He asked with his gaze on her, waiting for answers.

Its possible to offend each other, and in anger, we may do things we never wish for. Now, Im telling you that youve bought my heart, I cant stop loving you no matter what you do to me. Jia Li said with a smile.

Her words were now satisfactory to her. He was glad to know that she loved him to that extent. Next, Fu Hua cupped her face and looked her in the eyes to say, We can always talk things out if there is any problem or misunderstanding. I love you so much, that I can do anything just to keep you by my side.

Both of them stared into each others eyes and saw the love they had for each other. Fu Hua didnt want to wait anymore, as he brought his lips to meet Jia Lis. He first started with a slow soft kiss, before kissing her deeper and exploring her mouth with his tongue. But suddenly, Jia Li pushed him away and looked at him with a flushed gaze.

I got you a gift, and it has been in my bag for a day now. Now I know the reason I didnt remember to leave it in the house.

If Jia Li had remembered that she had the gift in her bag, she would have taken it out and dropped it in the house, and she would have missed the opportunity of giving it to him at the right time since he brought them to stay over at a hotel.

You got me a gift?. Fu Hua asked with a smile. He always felt happy whenever he learns that his wife got him something. Even if it was candies, he would appreciate it. But this is the same man that asked her not to gift him, it turned out that he said another thing, and wished for the same thing.

Yes I did, and I hope its to your taste. Jia Li said as she pulled him into the bedroom. In the room, Jia Li found her handbag and opened it to take out a well-packaged box, before handing it over to him.

Here, your gift. She said with a smile. Fu Hua gladly took it and started to unwrap it. Jia Li wasn't sure of what his reaction will be, so she made an excuse to return her bag to the closet, and also take off her stilettos

Fu Hua only allowed her to leave his sight for a moment, as he went on to unwrap her gift with a smile.

After taking off her shoes, Jia Li tiptoed back to the bedroom to see Fu Hua trying on the wristwatch. From his side view, she was able to see his smile, so she asked with a smile as well, Do you like it?

Fu Hua turned to glance at her as his smile became broader. I love it. You must have spent a little fortune to get me this.

Jia Li became more confident after he admitted that he loved her gift. She walked up to stand in front of him and said, The price I paid doesn't matter, what matters is the smile is the smile I'm seeing on your face.

Who thought you to say those cheesy words?. Fu Hua asked with a low chuckle. He had no idea that his wife could talk like that. Well, it was rare for his wife to speak like that, and any time she spoke like that, he did cherish it.

What do you think, I learned from the best. Jia Li said with a smirk and turned to walk away, but Fu Hua pulled her hand and brought her to his chest.

With her back against his hard chest, Jia Li enjoyed his warm embrace as a smile played on her lips.

Where do you think you are going to? You gave me an expensive gift, I have to repay you. Fu Hua said as he nibbled on her earlobes.

Jia Li felt ticklish and couldn't help chuckling while trying to pry his hands off from her waist. You don't owe me anything, the food and dance paid for it.

What? How can you compare a gift worth more than 2 million dollars to the money spent to organize this little stuff? You must have burnt a deep hole in your pocket. And when did you prepare this?. Fu Hua asked as he kissed her neck.

He was excited that his wife loved him so much as to spend this kind of money on a gift for him. He was really moved by her actions.

This is a little gift compared to what you've been doing for me. Did you see your initials engraved on it?. Jia Li asked.

Of course I saw it, FH with the heart symbol. Thank you for this meaningful gift. Fu Hua said to her.. More than the price, he was happier with his initials that were engraved on the wristwatch.

Chapter 402 - Feelings Of Guilt

Don't you want to know the reason I engraved your initials on it?. Jia Li asked with a smile while relaxing her back on his chest.

Isn't it because you love me so much?. Fu Hua asked with his jaw on her shoulder.

No, its because I didnt want you to sell it. Jia Li said with a big smile. Because Fu Hua was behind her, he couldnt her struggling to hold her laughter in.

Fu Hua was taken aback by her response, What! who gave you that logic? Do you think I would dare to sell anything you give to me?. Fu Hua asked as he turned her to face him.

Jia Li chuckled with a hand over her mouth. I was just pulling your legs. I know you wouldnt sell it since Im the only woman dear to your heart.

No, not just you, you and our little princess. Fu Hua said as he pinched her cheeks happily.

Jasmine is a baby, but I am a woman, so... Jia Li said while pointing at his chest.

Cut it out, I cant help but want to devour you right away. As Fu Hua said that, he immediately captured her lips and kissed her fiercely, and Jia Li responded by hugging his neck and kissing him back.

From kissing to taking off their clothes to exploring their bodies and then down to making hot love on the bed of roses.

After an hour of lovemaking, Jia Li and Fu Hua went into the bathroom to have a bubble bath, over a bottle of champagne and a soft love song playing in the background.

Jia Li was laying against Fu Huas chest with a glass of wine in her hand. Fu Hua on the other hand, had one hand roaming all over her body, while the other hand, held a glass of champagne.

This was a lovely sight to behold

After the long Bubble bath with a bottle of champagne, Jia Li and Fu Hua got dressed and changed into their nightdress before going to the bed to lay in each others embrace for the night.

Early in the morning around 4 AM, Jia Li and Fu Hua showered, got dressed, and left for their home. Jia Li didnt want to put on the Valentine dress, because her mother-in-law was at home. She didnt want Fu Hee to think she did something with Fu Hua last night, but Fu Hua knowing her thoughts, told her there was nothing wrong with it.

If you are shy about anyone at home seeing you in this dress, then you shouldnt be. How did Jasmine come into this world, is it not obvious to them? You need to stop thinking about a lot of things.

What more could Jia Li say, his words were enough to shut her up.

It wasnt surprising to see that Jasmine was awake by the time Jia Li and Fu Hua got home. Jia Li pitied her little bun and mother-in-law.

Jia Li felt bad leaving her little daughter to go have fun, while she stayed home with her grandmother and the servants. Seeing Fu Hee holding the little girl in her arms and pacing around the room, Jia Li was touched.

You are back?. Fu Hee asked with a smile when she saw Jia Li standing in front of the door in that red hot dress.

Yes, mum. Good morning. Jia Li greeted as she approached with a smile.

Jasmine who was lying on her grandmothers shoulder heard her mothers voice and immediately turned to face the direction of the door, and immediately she saw her mother, she started crying while stretching out her arms.

My baby. Jia Li said in a teary tone as she walked over to pick Jasmine up, and only then did the little girl stop crying as she rested her head on her shoulder.

Heh, Baby, how are you?. Jia Li asked as she twirled gently with the little girl in her arms. Jasmine was quiet as she hugged her mother whom she has missed for a long time.

Mum, did she disturb you all through the night?. Jia Li asked with a worried gaze.

Fu Hee smiled and replied, She only cried for a little while. It was a relief that she was so sleepy, so I put her to sleep.

Mum, thank you! Im going to take care of her for a few hours before leaving for work. Jia Li said with a smile.

Go ahead, I will sleep for a little while. Fu Hua urged her with a smile.

Jia Li met Fu Hua on her way upstairs, who was already coming down to get her.

Is she sleeping?. Fu Hua asked. Instead of Jia Li to reply, the little bun responded by lifting her head to gaze at her father.

Hey, little princess, how are you?. Fu Hua said with a smile as he touched Jasmynes cheeks. Jasmine just stared at him without saying anything, and then she went back to resting her head on her mothers shoulder.

Why is she making me feel guilty?. Fu Hua asked with his gaze on Jia Li.

That's the same way I felt when I saw her. Jia Li replied with a smile.

Fu Hua smiled with his gaze on the little bun who was staring silently at him. And then he glanced at Jia Li to see that it was risky for her to stand on the stairs while facing him, so he quickly told her to come up, so they could go to their bedroom.

With the little bun in her arms, Jia Li walked the stairs in her stilettos, up till she got to her bedroom. Knowing that the little bun wouldn't let her go so easily, Jia Li sat on her bed with the little girl in her arms.

It wasn't quite long since Jasmine has been in her mother's arms before she began to demand for her food. Seeing her mother's boobs from her dress, the little girl reached out her hands to touch and press them, and would sometimes glance up to look at her mother while doing so.

You want your milk? Fine, wait for me to change my clothes okay?. Jia Li said to her in a soft tone, but the little bun pouted her lips as if she was going to cry the next minute.

Since Jia Li felt guilty for leaving her, she didn't want her to cry, so she asked Fu Hua to unzip her dress, so she could breastfeed their little bun.

Seeing the big buns in front of her, the little girl quickly put her mouth on one and reached out to touch the other one with her hand.

It's going to be a long morning. Fu Hua said with a smile as he watched the mother and daughter.

And that's why I prepared for it.. Jia Li said with a sigh.

Chapter 403 – FangSu Is Ready To Apologize

At work, everyone that celebrated Valentine the previous day was chatting happily about it during their lunch hours. Most people gossiped about how their Boss must have spent the day with his wife as he said.

But because they were afraid of being heard by their superiors while talking about the Big Boss, they could only talk for a short time, before giving up on the topic.

Bai Jun who spent the evening alone with her parents-in-law, couldnt stand listening to that conversation and went to sit on her desk and scratched it with her nails while building up the hate within her.

Meanwhile, today is the same day that FangSu made up her mind to apologize to her brother. It took a lot for her to decide to end everything today, and so, she picked up her phone to call her mother and tell her of her decisions.

You have made the best move. Now go on and pay a visit to your brother in the company. You can only meet him when work hours have ended. Dont forget to be sincere with your apologies. Only call me when you have apologized to him, good luck. Fu Hua said to FangSu before terminating the call.

FangSu frowned in worry as she wondered why her mother was in a hurry to end the call when she was about to ask her for more details concerning how she should bring up the apology.

When FangSu thought about her big brother, all she saw was a cold-faced man who looked down at people with indifference because he doesn't care about them. Now seeing her bother in the light, FangSu wondered how possible it was for her to apologize to someone like him.

The more FangSu saw Fu Hua in that light, the more she became afraid to go and apologize to him because she was scared of him.

While biting her lips and thinking of what to do, she walked into the sitting room and she saw Fu Meixu all by herself while smiling with her gaze on the TV. It was rare to see Fu Meixu in the house since she now had an apartment to herself.

Most of the time, she would be busy filming or resting in her condominium. She would only come back to the house when she felt like it.

Seeing how idle her cousin was, an idea came to FangSu, and she suddenly relaxed.

Meixu, I want you to follow me somewhere, FangSu said as she came to stand by the side where she could be seen.

Yah... when last did you call me by my first name. Fu Meixu said in wonder. Honestly, she was surprised with FangSu addressing her that way.

Was that the only thing you picked out of everything I said to you?. FangSu asked with a frown.

Fu Meixu looked her up and down before glancing back at the Tv. Why do you want me to follow you out?

Because I want you to follow me out, FangSu replied with a serious gaze on her.

What kind of reply is that? Well, let's skip to the next part. What will I get in return for following you out? You know, I am a very busy woman with a tight schedule, you have to buy my time if you want my attention. Fu Meixu said with a proud gaze.

FangSu scoffed as she asked, You have a tight schedule? But why do I see that you are here watching dramas alone.

This is my free time. It looks like you're looking down on me, well you can leave if you don't have anything to offer for my help. Fu Meixu said as she looked away.

Knowing how important it was to apologize to her brother, FangSu stopped arguing and said to Fu Meixu, Alright, I will take you to buy any bag of your choice.

Well, that's more like it. Fu Meixu said in an excited tone as she jumped up to her feet. I will go and get dressed now.

Won't you ask where we are going to? FangSu asked in a low tone as she watched Fu Meixu skip away immediately.

Actually, it's good that you didn't ask, because you may not want to leave with me. FangSu thought with a sigh before going to get ready.

FangSu was really annoyed when she finished dressing and came out only to learn that Fu Meixu was still making up. She angrily went to find her in her bedroom.

I said to follow me out, did I ever say that we were going to see your boyfriend? FangSu asked angrily.

Relax. I am a celebrity, so of course, I have to look good if I am to appear in public. Dont worry, Im almost through. Fu Meixu said while applying a red lipstick FangSu glared at her. Are you the only celebrity in the world, am I not a celebrity as well ?.

Fu Meixu got to her feet and stood face to face with FangSu, and opened her lips to ask with a proud smile, Who has more fan base ?.

That question really shut FangSu up. And FangSu was beginning to regret the reason she asked her to follow her out.

Just wait till you see where we are going, then lets see if you still feel proud of yourself. FangSu thought to herself.

Without wasting time, Fu Meixu picked up her phone and bag and followed FangSu out.

Immediately they got into the car, Fu Meixu asked with her gaze on FangSu, Where did you say we were going again ?

We are going to FJ to see my brother, FangSu replied as she put the car key in the ignition. Immediately Fu Meixu heard where they were going to, she was dumbfounded and immediately tried to pry the door open, but FangSu who was faster than her as she already knew what her next move would be, immediately locked the door.

You eat to run away ? Its too late. FangSu said as she ignited the cars engine and drove away.

Ten minutes into the ride, Fu Meixu asked with creased brows, Was it that hard for you to tell me where you wanted me to follow you to ?.

Chapter 404 – Out For A Cup Of Coffee

You never asked, and out of my benevolence, I wanted to tell you about it, but you ran to get dressed, so who am I to stop you with just a few words? I didnt want to disrupt your peace. Fangsu said with her eyes on the road. She was really having fun seeing Fu Meixus ugly facial expression.

Really?. Fu Meixu asked with an unbelievable gaze on her. She was so angry right now that Fangsu deceived her.

Im serious. Dont worry, no harm will come to you. I just want to meet my brother to apologize to him, thats all. FangSu said while sparing her a glance.

No harm will come to me? Are you for real, dont you know how scary your brother is? I really admire your confidence. You are not sure of your safety, and you are already assuring me of mine. Fu Meixu said as she looked away angrily.

Heh! dont scare me, or we will both get into trouble, FangSu said in a nervous tone after being reminded of how scary her brother could be when he was angry.

Minutes later, FangSu and Fu Meixu arrived at FJs underground parking lot. After turning off the cars engine, Fangsu sighed while glancing at her surroundings.

Fu Meixu opened the car door and stepped out, but when she turned around, FangSu was not making any move, so she asked with a frown, Work hours just ended, are you waiting for your brother Hua to arrive before you step out of the car like a proud little princess that you are?.

Being reminded of what she came to do, FangSu took a deep breath before stepping out of the car.

15 minutes into waiting, FangSu saw Jia Li coming out of the elevator, and it was obvious that she was about to leave work.

Jia Li is out, let's go and say hello to her. Fu Meixu said with an excited gaze as she watched Jia Li walk towards their side, but it was obvious that the latter had not seen them yet.

I didn't come here for her, FangSu said with a frown. What she felt towards Jia Li was immense guilt, while she felt fear for her brother, given all the evil she had done to them.

You want to apologize to your brother? Then you have to do it through his wife. It is easier to get through your sister-in-law's heart, than your brother's heart. Go and apologize to her, then the road leading to your brother's heart will open up a little. Fu Meixu advised.

But I'm also afraid of her, FangSu revealed.

Fu Meixu rolled her eyes at her and said, I never knew there were people you feared. Let's go and greet her before you miss this opportunity.

Before FangSu could protest a little, Fu Meixu had already called out to Jia Li, while pushing her to the front.

This girl! FangSu exclaimed in her mind.

Jia Li heard her name being called, so she glanced around to see who it was. Jia Li was surprised to see Fu Meixu and FangSu standing together. Last she remembered, those two were enemies. But that's not the point, the point, is what were they doing in FJ's underground parking lot?

Jia Li, how are you?. Fu Meixu greeted in excitement as she dragged FangSu to meet her close to her car.

Im fine and you, sister Meixu?. Jia Li asked with a smile.

Im fine. Fu Meixu replied as she secretly pinched FangSu as a reminder for her to greet Jia Li.

Hello, Jia... Sis... sister-in-law. FangSu greeted in a small tone.

Jia Li glanced at her in surprise. She was really taken aback that she took the initiative to speak to her, and it started with a greeting.

Hello!. Jia Li replied.

FangSu found the scenario awkward, and she didn't know how to continue until she received another pinch from Fu Meixu who was smiling harmlessly, and only then did she speak out.

Sister-in-law, Im sorry for everything I have done to you, please forgive me, FangSu said with her head down.

Jia Li released a deep breath and said to her in a low tone, while being surprised that she was apologizing to her, Its okay.

After saying that, Jia Li walked forward to open her car, but Fu Meixu caught her arms and smiled sheepishly.

Jia Li, can I invite you for a quick cup of coffee?. Fu Meixu requested with a smile.

Fu Meixu knew that Jia Li had not really forgiven FangSu, and just said that because she had to. FangSu dropped her pride to apologize, and knowing Jia Li, she would accept the apology, but wont try to get close to the person, so Fu Meixu knew that she had to but some of her time.

Even FangSu could tell that Jia Li had not forgiven her, and as she didnt know what next to do, she could only watch her walk away.

Jia Li was in a dilemma at Fu Meixus request. I need to get back home on time, Mum has been taking care of Jasmine since I left in the morning.

Actually we came to see you. Dont worry, you just have to sit with us to have a cup of coffee, and then we will bring you back here. Fu Meixu assured her with a smile.

Seeing that Fu Meixu was putting in a lot of effort for her, FangSu quickly chipped in, We promise not to waste your time.

Jia Li glanced at the two young ladies of the Fu family, before agreeing to follow them out.

Thank you!. Fu Meixu and FangSu chorused happily.

Fu Meixu quickly pulled Jia Li towards FangSus car, while the latter walked ahead to unlock the car door for them.

When Fu Hua came out to leave in his car, he was surprised to see Jia Lis car still parked in the underground parking lot.

Is she still working?. Fu Hua thought as he picked up his phone to call Zimo so he could check on Jia Li.

When Zimo confirmed from Sunny that Jia Li had already left work some minutes ago, and reported it to Fu Hua, Fu Hua became worried and dialed Jia Lis number.

Jia Li was already at the cafe with FangSu and Fu Meixu when Fu Hua called, so she excused herself to answer the call.

Are you okay? where are you?. Fu Hua asked in a worried tone.

Im fine, I went out with someone. I will be back soon. Jia Li replied after sensing the worry in his tone.

I will wait for you in the underground parking lot.. Fu Hua said to her.

Chapter 405 – Did I Ask You To Rip Me Off?

When FangSu was driving Jia Li back to FJ, the latter told her that Fu Hua was waiting at the car park for her, and she could drive in if she was ready to meet him.

FangSu was scared to learn that her brother was waiting at the underground parking lot, even Fu Meixu became afraid and said that they would meet him next time.

But after forcing herself to think appropriately, she knew it wouldn't be right not to meet her brother when she was already at his company, and besides, Jia Li would surely tell him that she was out with them.

In order not to be disrespectful to him, FangSu decided to drive in much to the surprise of Jia Li and Fu Meixu.

Sister-in-law, I will drive in, I want to greet my brother. The worst that could happen, is that I will get scolded for appearing in front of him, and I'm ready for it. FangSu said to Jia Li.

But I'm not ready you idiot! Fu Meixu screamed in her head. She was already happy that they wouldn't need to see Fu Hua after speaking with Jia Li, but who knew that the Cold CEO would be waiting for his hidden wife? Fu Meixu felt like dying at this moment so she could escape from her cousins' rot.

Jia Li saw how FangSu and Fu Meixu were acting as if they would go to hell if they met Fu Hua. Jia Li found their actions funny, but she didn't laugh out loud.

When FangSu drove into the underground parking lot, she saw Fu Hua standing far away with another man (Zimo) standing beside him, and immediately, she became tense as she gripped her steering tightly.

Fu Meixu's heart skipped a bit as she slowly lowered her gaze. She was wondering why Fu Hua was standing outside instead of sitting in his car. Did he miss his wife so much that he couldn't stay put? She thought to herself.

He is not going to eat you. Jia Li said as she glanced at the two young ladies.

Jia Li, you have to speak in our favor, we are sorry for taking your time.
Fu Meixu apologized.

Now, Jia Li couldn't help laughing at them. She just confirmed how scared the two of them were of Fu Hua.

When FangSu drove closer, Fu Hua saw her face and a deep frown appeared on his face as wrinkles appeared on his forehead.

Fu Hua had a narrowed gaze as he watched his sister park in front of him, and out came his wife from the back passenger side of the car.

You were with them? Fu Hua asked Jia Li who came to his side after FangSu and Fu Meixu stepped out of the car.

Jia Li glanced at the two ladies that just managed to mask their nervousness, before glancing back at Fu Hua. Yes. We went out for a cup of coffee.

What did they come to see you for? Fu Hua asked with a frown.

FangSu and Fu Meixu has been trying to find an opportunity to greet Fu Hua, but he wasn't giving them an opportunity, instead, he continued to ask Jia Li questions as if they were not existing.

It's nothing much, don't worry about it. Have you been waiting for a long time? Jia Li asked with a gentle gaze on him.

Not much. Fu Hua replied as he pulled her close to him. As an opportunity presented itself, FangSu and Fu Meixu quickly walked over to greet Fu Hua.

Hello, brother Hua. Fu Meixu greeted with a smile.

Hello, brother. FangSu greeted in a low tone.

Fu Hua finally gave them a good look before saying, You can leave. After that, he took Jia Lis hand and walked to his car to open the front passenger door for Jia Li.

Give me your car key ?. Fu Hua asked as he stretched his palm out to Jia Li, who in turn, put her car key in his hand. Zimo quickly walked over and took the car key from him before stepping back.

FangSu was thinking, how could she let her brother go like that when he didnt respond to their greetings, so she gathered courage and spoke immediately, Brother, please can you give me a minute of your time ?.

Fu Hua glanced at her with a frown and said, I dont have any time to spare for you.

Fu Hua got into his car and drove away without looking back. Zimo on the other hand got into Jia Lis car and drove away as well.

After they left, Fu Meixu took back her smile and laughed in relief. But when she glanced at FangSu, she that the latter was smiling.

What is wrong with you, did an angel visit you ?. Fu Meixu asked in wonder.

I am happy that my brother spoke to me. You dont know this, but he hasnt said a word to me for over 6 months now. FangSu said in an excited tone. She didnt care what Fu Hua said to her, but that he spoke to her, was a reason for her to be jumping up and down in excitement.

You have totally lost it! I almost forgot to breathe because of his response, and you are happy. By the way, you owe me a bag, come and drive me to the shopping mall now. Fu Meixu demanded before getting into the car.

FangSu was so happy that she didnt mind fulfilling her promise to Fu Meixu, so she got into the car and drove straight to a high-end mall.

Some minutes later, FangSu was regretting while she said she would buy a bag of any choice for Fu Meixu because the latter just picked up one of the most expensive bags in the mall.

When I said I would get you any bag of your choice, did I ask you to rip me off?. FangSu asked with a deep frown as she watched Fu Meixu smile so sweetly at the bag in her hands.

Its because you didnt mention it thats the reason I want to pick the bag I have been eyeing for a long time now. Fu Meixu said as she glanced at FangSu with a smile.

I dont have much money to spend, and I really have to be very tight with my budget, FangSu complained.

Thats not my problem, next time, dont make promises you cant keep, or actually, you have to think twice before making a promise. Now get your ass over to the counter and come pay for the bag. Fu Meixu said with a smile before walking away.

FangSu was so angry that Fu Meixu was going to rip her off, but she couldnt blame her, since she made a promise to her.. So after stomping her feet in anger when no one was watching, she changed her looks immediately, before following after Fu Meixu with a fake smile.

Chapter 406 – Jia Li Secretly Plans Fu Huas Birthday

Why did they come to see you ?. Fu Hua asked with his eyes on the road.

FangSu came to apologize to me. Jia Li replied.

Has she finally regained her senses ?. Fu Hua asked with a frown.

You, dont be angry and just keep your eyes, Im tired. Jia Li said to him. Fu Hua glanced at her and asked, Why, you dont want to hear me speak ?.

No thats not it. But if you say sweet words to me, I wouldnt mind. Jia Li replied with a smile.

I see... Fu Hua said as a smirk turned up on his lips. This was someone who was angry a few seconds ago, but immediately he heard that she wanted to hear sweet words from him, his mood changed for the better.

So tell me, what do you want to hear ?. Fu Hua asked with a smiling gaze.

Anything, as long as its sweet. Jia Li replied with her eyes closed. At least she managed to draw his attention to another thing, even though it would cost her a little blushing.

Okay. So do you want to know what it feels like for your clothes to be ripped off in the car, and you get bent over while I come in from behind?. Fu Hua asked with a smirk on his lips, as he gazed at her to see her reaction.

What! Are you kidding me? These are not sweet words. Please drive me back home, I need to see my daughter this minute. Jia Li said as she looked away. This was more than she expected him to say.

Fu Hua chuckled at her response and moved his bareback to the road. It looks like Mrs. Fu can not stand my sweet words.

Since it was the weekend, it was the best time to relax, but Jia Li feigned busy, so Fu Hua left her alone. Apart from when he forced her to take walks in the garden, apart from that, she was left alone.

Fu Hua had no idea that Jia Li was secretly planning a surprise birthday party for him, so she was using all the contacts she had to prepare things while hiding from him.

Fu Hua thought she had an assignment from work, and so he didnt trouble her. And in other not to distract her, Fu Hua took care of Jasmine by himself. He watched cartoons with her, and played games with her, and then watched over her while she crawled all over where she could get to.

Yes, Jasmine finally decided to crawl before walking, and now, it was becoming harder to look after her, as more attention was required.

Since the little bun learned how to crawl, she doesnt stay at a place anymore. If you take your eyes off her for a minute, you will definitely regret it, because she would take something she was not supposed to, or touch something she shouldnt. Then lets not talk about her pulling, smashing, and hitting important things on the floor, and then putting harmful things in her mouth.

Just dont take your eyes off her, and everything will be fine. And in case she wants to crawl t the wrong place like the kitchen, you just have to carry her away before its too late.

The little bun had so many knee pads that Jia Li bought to prevent her knees from getting injured or scrapped.

Not minding how troublesome Jasmine could be, it was really fun to watch the cute little chubby girl with her hair tied up in two buns, crawling all over the place.

So, while Jia Li was secretly planning to surprise Fu Hua, the latter was spending time with their daughter.

It was not just Jia Li who remembered Fu Huas birthday, but most people including Bai Jun and Feng Alix remembered his birthday.

These two other women were in different situations, but they didnt forget Fu Huas birthday. Although in different situations, both had the same thought. They wanted to gift Fu Hua something so they started preparing for it.

By Wednesday, Jia Li was done with her plans and they were already being implemented. Jia already sent out invitations to all the immediate members of the Fu family, inviting them to their home to celebrate Fu Huas birthday.

She also mentioned in the invite that it was a surprise birthday party, so they cant say anything to Fu Hua.

Fu Juan and FangSu got an invitation as well, but FangSu was the most excited out of everyone. She couldn't believe that she could attend her brother's birthday party simply because she made peace with her sister-in-law. FangSu was grateful to Jia Li.

Jia Li already told the kitchen what to prepare, and with Fu Hees help, Jia Li got people to decorate the house in preparation to celebrate Fu Huas birthday.

The next day which was Thursday and Fu Huas birthday, Jia Li woke up early and kissed Fu Hua on the cheeks. And when he opened his eyes to look at her, she wished him a happy birthday.

Happy Birthday, Darling. Jia Li said with a big smile before leaning in to kiss his lips again.

Fu Hua smiled and stretched his hands out towards her and brought her to his chest and hugged her tightly.

Thank you!. Fu Hua said in a low husky tone.

Today is your day, but you have to listen to everything I tell you, don't ruin the fun. Jia Li said as she raised her head to gaze at him.

With his hands on her back, Fu Hua asked with a smile, You just said that today is my birthday, but why do I have to listen to you, shouldn't it be the other way round?.

I know, but you have no choice but to listen to me today. You have to dismiss everyone on time at work today, so we can meet up with the appointment I made at the spa. I'm taking you to get a massage after work. Jia Li said as she pinched his nose.

Hmmm

You would really see my hands on your body if you dont stand up this minute. Jia Li said as she pinched his nipples.

That was unexpected, so Fu Hua screamed in shock and quickly let go of her.

Chapter 407 – Mrs. Yangs Worries

While they were getting ready for work, Fu Hua was still sulking like a child because Jia Li pinched him. Seeing how childish he looked, Jia Li chuckled softly and asked, Why are you sulking like a child?.

You pinched me. Fu Hua replied in a childish tone as he went on to take off his pajamas.

Does it still hurt?. Jia Li asked as she glanced at nipples that had already turned red.

It still hurts. Fu Hua replied with a pitiful gaze on her. Jia Li took pity on him and decided to cheer him up.

She licked his nipples with her cool tongue before looking up at him with a smile. This should be fine.

You dont want to leave for work on time?. Fu Hua asked as he held her hands and brought her to his embrace.

Since I started working in FJ, I have never been late to work. Wash up and get dressed, I will give you a treat after work. Jia Li said with a wink.

I will be anticipating. Fu Hua said with a smile.

Knowing that Fu Hua liked to see her hair down, Jia Li purposely let her long silky black ink hair down. She put a beautiful hairpin by the right side of her hair and looked satisfied after she glanced at herself in the mirror.

Today, she put extra care while dressing up, because she wanted to look good as it was Fu Huas birthday.

When Fu Hua saw her looking so beautiful, he smiled proudly and hugged her from behind. You look so gorgeous.

I know, thank you!. Jia Li said to him.

Im leaving now, I have an important meeting with someone before going to the office, so see you later. Fu Hua said as he kissed her cheeks.

Mmm... see you. Jia Li replied with a smile.

When Fu Hua left her sight, she picked up her phone to call Zimo. Is everything ready on that end ?.

Yes Maam, Zimo replied in an excited tone. It felt so nice to surprise his Boss, and he couldnt wait to see what his reaction will be.

Before leaving the house, Jia Li reminded Fu Hee about the event planner she got.

I know, go to work already and stop worrying about it, I will take care of everything. Fu Hee said with a smile.

Jia Li was worried because she wanted her plans to be perfect to celebrate her husband, so she couldn't help but act up.

After getting her mother-in-law's assurance, Jia Li agreed to leave for work.

Bai Jun who thought hard about what to gift Fu Hua for his birthday slept very late after successfully making a purchase and paying for the delivery.

Right before laying on the couch to sleep, she set an alarm with her phone, so she can wake up early the next morning to prepare for work, but Yang Peng was very irritated by the alarm that disturbed his sleep, that he woke and angrily walked towards the couch.

Yang Peng canceled the alarm and went into the bathroom. When he finished getting ready for work, he picked up his phone and his work bag and left the bedroom.

Immediately he closed the door with a loud thud, Bai Jun felt disturbed in her sleep and frowned as she slowly opened her eyes. Picking up her phone to check the time, she screamed in shock and immediately got off the bed and ran into the bathroom to take a quick shower and get dressed for work.

Bai Jun did all these while cursing. She was sure that she set an alarm before sleeping, and now she was wondering the reason she didn't hear it ring.

After getting dressed in a hurry, Bai Jun applied a bright red lipstick before taking her bag with her and leaving the bedroom.

Bai Jun did not bother to have breakfast when her mother-in-law called out for her, and its not like she always joined them, so she wouldnt join them now that she was running late to work, after all, none of them bothered to check up on her when they didnt see her by the usual time.

Yang Peng had already left for work when Bai Jun cane out of the bedroom. Whether he canceled the alarm on purpose or because it disturbed him, only he could tell.

Do you think they are quarreling?. Mrs. Yang asked her husband with a deep frown.

Glancing up at her, Mr. Yang said, This is not the first time they are acting like this. In short, since they got married, they have been acting indifferently towards each other.

Dont you think this is bothersome, dont you think I should talk to them?. Mrs. Yang asked with a frown. It was not a good thing to learn that her son and daughter-in-law were having silent issues just after they got married, so she was deeply worried.

Dont rush things, you can talk to them at different times. Mr. Yang advised, and Mrs. Yan accepted it.

When Fu Hua was done with his meeting, he came to FJ with Zimo. Walking into the building, his staff greeted him cheerfully and wished him a happy birthday.

Fu Hua smiled slightly and walked past them. The only thing he was thinking about, was his wifes promise to him before he left the house.

When he got to the door of his office, he put his fingerprint and the door unlocked. Pushing it open, he got the most shocking surprise of his life.

His office was fully decorated with birthday stuff. What is going on here ?. He asked as he stepped into his office. He was still wowed by the surprise.

Zimo who was following behind him asked with a grin, Sir, do you like it? Maam made all the arrangements to surprise you.

My wife did all these and she didnt say anything to me at home ?. Fu Hua asked while taking a good look at his office. There was a big cake on his desk and a bouquet with a bottle of champagne as so many other interesting things.

The office was decorated with blue and black balloons, and rose petals.. And there were also unopened boxes of gifts given to Fu Hua.

Chapter 408 – Jia Li Lies To Get Away

Of course Boss, its Maam that made the arrangement. Without your permission, who dares to do this to your office ?. Zimo said with a proud smile. He was very happy that he was part of the surprise.

Fu Hua felt so sweet that Jia Li planned a wonderful surprise for him. Walking up to his desk, he picked up the bouquet and glanced at it before turning to his assistant to ask, Do women give men flowers? This seems weird.

Boss, it happens, its just rare, Zimo replied with a smile.

You can leave. Fu Hua said to him as he went to sit down

When Zimo left Fu Huas office, He immediately texted Jia Li. Mission successful

Soon, everyone heard that the hidden wife of their Cold Boss prepared a surprise to celebrate their Boss's birthday. Most of them were not sure, but the rumors were already spreading all over in FJ.

Imagine what Bai Jun who was just scolded and some points deducted from her, did when she heard of the rumors. She glanced at Jia Li with a death gaze.

She could tell that Jia Li dressed up so beautifully on purpose because today was Fu Hua's birthday. And letting her hair down, made her look more attractive, so Bai Jun was jealous. She was having a bad morning, while someone was having a good day.

Close to the time for a lunch break, Jia Li went into Sunny's office to report something to her.

Miss Sunny, the Boss's assistant Mr. Zimo asked me to come over to verify a document we submitted to the Big Boss yesterday. Jia Li lied with a straight face.

Jia Li couldn't wait to see Fu Hua and hug him while giving him plenty of kisses, so she had to lie just so she could get to see him. She was really becoming very bold.

Sunny who already had a file in her hand, glanced at Jia Li in surprise. She felt that Jia Li looked so different today, but she didn't think too much about it.

Jia Li, on the other hand, thought that Sunny was sensing fishy, and became tensed. She immediately took the file from Sunny as she said to her in a polite tone, Miss Sunny, do you also want to give this to the Boss? Since Im going to see him, I will help you submit it.

As Jia Li was saying that, she was already taking the file from Sunny, and after that, she turned to leave immediately, but Sunny who was taken aback, immediately called out to her.

When did I say you could leave?. Sunny questioned with her fists on her jaw while gazing at Jia Li.

Her question made Jia Li to think that something serious was already up. She thought she had been found out, and so took a deep breath and turned around, before lowering her gaze to apologize first.

Im sorry. I was in a hurry to submit the file and come back to continue with my work.

Sunny who had her thoughts on a different matter said to Jia Li, I know this sounds childish, but can you take a picture of the Boss's office, so I can see how romantic his wife is.

With the rumors spreading regarding the hidden wife and the surprise she made for their Boss, Sunny was equally curious just like every other worker in the matter, and this was weird for her to make that kind of request, but it was rare for her to show interests in the matters related to their Boss's hidden wife.

Jia Li was truly surprised by Sunny's request. But because of the latter's serious facial expression, Jia Li could not afford to laugh, because her request was weird.

I will, Miss Sunny. Jia Li assured her with a polite smile, and only then did Sunny allow her to leave.

Jia Li was more proud of herself that she was able to tell such a lie to Sunny and go away safely. But if you ask her if she has any plans about taking this kind of risk again, she wouldnt want to think about it.

Walking into Fu Huas office with a file in her hand after the door was opened by Zimo who was also coming over to give something to Fu Hua.

Fu Hua who had a telephone in his hand, and was about to dial 📞 a number, slowly put the telephone down and sighed in relief when he saw Jia Li.

I was about calling Sunny to send you up here if you didnt appear now. Fu Hua revealed as he opened his arms.

He couldnt allow the fact that his wife who planned all these for him, would not come up once, to at least drink with him or cut his cake with him so he was about calling Sunny to ask Jia Li to come up with one reason on the other before Jia Li appeared before him.

Im here now, you dont need to worry too much. Jia Li said with a smile as she looked around his office to admire the decors. She was the one that chose the colors for everything in there, but just was the first time being opportune to see the designs after they were assembled.

Zimo knew that it was time to go away, so he smiled and walked away silently.

I love all of these, when did you have time to prepare all these ?. Fu Hua asked.

I was my just with the planning during last weekend. Jia Li said with a wink.

Come here. Fu Hua said as he gestured for her to come over to his side, and so Jia Li obediently went over.

Pulling her to sit on his thighs, Fu Hua kissed her lips and thanked her for the surprise. Jia Li didnt need him to thank her, so she blocked his mouth with her lips and kissed him deeply.

It took a while before they separated, and they were already out of breath by them.

Chapter 409 – Birthday Celebration

Thank you, my love. Fu Hua said with his hands wrapped around her waist. Jia Li just smiled and gave him a peck before looking around his office

I had no idea you were this proved by your employees. They sent you so many gifts.

Fu Hua glanced around and said with a smile. I dont care about their love, I only care about the one you have for me.

You are so naughty. Jia Li said as she got off his thighs. I have to get back to my station in 10-15 minutes.

No, 20 minutes. Spend 20 minutes with me. We will cut the cake together, drink some wine and chat before you go back. Fu Hua said while holding her hand.

Jia Li stared at him for a few minutes before saying, 20 minutes it is then. But work matters have to be included, so I can report back to Miss Sunny.

Fu Hua agreed to her requests, and so they went on to cut the cake, drink a little wine since it was still work hours, and chat. Talking about the gifts, Fu Hua said they would go through them together the next day.

Before Jia Li left, she didnt forget to take a few seconds video of the entire office.

When Jia Li showed the video to Sunny, the latter was surprised at how she managed to get the video without Fu Hua noticing.

He wasnt looking, so I took that opportunity to get the video. Jia Li replied.

Jia Li was now so good at lying that she was doing it so smoothly. This was the person that told Fu Hua to pretend like she wasnt there while she took the video.

Sunny believed her but felt that she took a big risk, because if Fu Hua discovered her, he may punish her.

To the surprise of FJs employees, their Big Boss shared his birthday cake amongst them. This has never happened before! They all began to wonder when their Boss became so kind.

Bai Jun was happy to eat a piece of the cake, without minding that Jia Li was the one that arranged everything. She envisioned that Fu Hua personally picked a piece from his cake and gave it to her with a smile. That was what Bai Jun thought while eating the cake.

After eating the cake, she forgot about all the troubles and disappointments she faced that day and was now thinking if Fu Hua had seen the gift she sent to him.

After work hours, Jia Li took Fu Hua to get a massage, after which she got a new outfit for him to get dressed in.

Are you taking me out for dinner?. Fu Hua asked with a smile.

Kind of, but we are having dinner at home. We cant stay out today, Jasmine has to partake in her fathers birthday celebration. Jia Li replied.

Fu Hua saw sense in what Jia Li said, and agreed to that, so they got into the car and left for home.

On their way back home, Jia Li sent out a text to Fu Hee to ask if everyone had arrived. After getting a positive response, Jia Li relaxed her tense shoulders.

When they got home, Fu Hua held Jia Li by the waist and walked into the house, but what he saw, shocked him. All the immediate members of his family were in his house, and immediately he stepped in with Jia Li, they started singing a birthday song for him.

What? Fu Hua said with an unbelievable facial expression as he glanced at everybody before looking at Jia Li who was standing by his side and singing along with everyone else. He was really taken aback by everything.

After singing the birthday song, Fu Hua turned to look at Jia Li and asked to the hearing of everyone, When did you have time to do all of these?.

Brother, are you surprised? Then this is a good thing! YingPei said with a big smile. It was not easy to do anything to surprise his big brother, so he was happy that it was possible to take him unawares.

Why are two still standing over there? Come in and seat down.

Grandfather Fu said as he beckoned on them. The old man was sitting while carrying his great-granddaughter on his thighs.

Jia Li and Fu Hua walked in proper and came over to greet the old man and the rest of the elders like Fu Lei, Fu Geming, Fu Juan, Fu Hee, and Fu ChuHua.

When Fu Hua saw FangSu, his smiling gaze almost disappeared. He was about to ask what she was doing in his house when Jia Li touched his arm and whispered to him, I asked her to come and celebrate with us, Im sorry I didnt mention it to you since I was planning a surprise for you. Im going to change my dress, I will be back in 10 minutes.

After saying that, Jia Li patted his hand with a smile before walking away.

FangSu who was scared that her brother would chase her away finally relaxed after Jia Li spoke to him, and he moved his gaze away from her.

I told you that you dont have to worry about being chased away. Once you are in Jia Lis good books, you are safe. You really need to thank me again for helping you out. Fu Meixu whispered with a proud smile.

FangSu glared at her and said, I spent all my money to buy you a gift, and still you are not appreciative. Why dont you sell me and use the money you will get?

I will consider it. Fu Meixu replied with a smirk before leaving her side. FangSu felt so annoyed by her attitude of nonchalant. Her heart has been bleeding silently since she saw paid for that expensive bag.

Fu Meixu appeared on the news because of that bag, and given its worth, it was enough to garner attention from the media and fans.

When Fu Meixu was asked how she got the bag, she said it was a gift from someone. She said that in a suggestive tone, and everyone thought it was a male friend that gave it to her.

Seeing the news, FangSu was angry at everyone's speculation. One time, she screamed at her phone saying, Its my money, I bloody bought the bag for her!

Chapter 410 – Arguments

After changing her dress, Jia Li came down, and that was when Jasmine decided that she had to be in her arms. When the little girl became fussy, it was really hard not to give in to her.

What could Jia Li do other than to hold her in her arms? The little bun did not let anyone hold her again until her father came to carry her, and only then did she allow him.

From Fu Huas arms, Jasmine went to Fu Hees arms, and then everyone got to carry her. When FangSu tried to take the little bun from Meixu, she refused.

FangSu really wanted to hold the little girl, so she did everything she could just to get her attention, and at last, she succeeded.

FangSu deceived the little bun to come to her by holding up an adult food in her hand. Jasmine got excited and dived straight into FangSus arms, before stretching her little hands towards the chicken drumstick

When she failed to get it because FangSu moved the chicken away from her reach, the little bun started to cry with grievances.

Those that were watching, laughed hard at how much the little bun was interested in eating adult food.

Do you really want it?. FangSu asked in surprise. She had no idea that the little bun would react so strongly to her actions.

Jasmine cried and tried to reach out to the chicken drumstick again, but FangSu put it back on the plate. Seeing that she was deceived, the little bun wanted to get away from FangSus hold and started kicking her feet.

Hey, why are you crying? You are so cute, you shouldnt cry. FangSu said to the little bun with a frown.

Fu Hua walked over and took Jasmine from her and walked back to his seat while comforting her.

Princess, you cant eat the chicken, its adult food, and its spicy. Fu Hua spoke softly to the little bun who was still crying in his arms.

Mum is brother angry with me?. FangSu whispered to Fu Hee in worry.

He is not angry, but he is clearly unhappy. Fu Hee said with a sigh before walking away.

Whats the difference? FangSu thought with a frown.

Jia Li walked up to Fu Hua and passed a bottle of milk to the little bun who immediately stopped crying when she recognized her food.

Jasmine, take it. Jia Li said in a soft tone while handing the bottle to the little bun who glanced at her before shifting her gaze back to her bottle of milk. The next moment, the little bun reached out to grab her milk bottle and put the nipple in her mouth, and started sucking it.

Da Xia can feed herself? Fu ChuHua asked with a surprised gaze. She couldnt believe that the little bun could hold her bottle herself while sucking from it.

Its not difficult, she is a few days from being 7 months old, and before now, she has been grabbing things by herself. Fu Hee replied.

Now that the little bun was feeding herself while relaxing in her fathers arms, the party can continue now.

Fu YingPei turned into a videographer and a photographer as he didnt fail to capture most of the moment.

After cutting the cake and everyone got a piece, Jia Li gave a tiny pinch from her piece to the little bun. Jasmine gobbled everything she was given and even reached out for more, but Jia Li refused to give her anymore and instead fed her water.

Everything that looked like food to the little bun that passed by, she would want to eat it. And it was a good thing that there was a tight watch on her, because after seeing that being in peoples embrace wasnt working, the little bun moved about in her mothers arms, and Jia Li had no choice but to put her down.

After getting her freedom, the little bun turned into a terrorist. She would crawl to anyone that had food in their hands and try to take it from them. Her actions were so cute that everyone found her funny and interesting.

After the party ended, the Fu family members were ready to leave. Before stepping into his car, Grandfather Fu asked Jia Li and Fu Hua to return to the Fu family.

...come back and stay with us for some time. I am proud that my family is united once again. You dont have to be afraid of getting bullied or treated unfairly. I am getting too old, and want to spend my last years with my family.

Fu Hua said he would think about it, and the old man nodded before stepping into his car.

Jia Li was touched by the old mans words and asked Fu Hua not to think for a long time before giving a reply.

Bai Jun on the other end has just finished quarreling with Yang Peng for what he did to her in the morning. He turned off her arm and made her go to work late. And the consequences of going to work late, made her receive scoldings, and some points were deducted from her.

This is my bedroom, and I can do what I want. How dare you set an alarm to disrupt my sleep? Yang Peng asked angrily.

Why are you so inconsiderate. I agree that this is your bedroom, but you are not here alone. I also need to do what I want as well! Bai Jun said angrily.

You dont have any right here. When you have your bedroom, you can do whatever you feel like and nobody will say anything. Yang Peng said with an ugly facial expression. He hated Bai Jun so much now that he didnt even care about her. He didnt care if his actions brought her trouble or not.

Is that what you are saying? Fine!. Bai Jun said before storming off.

Bai Jun went straight to find her mother-in-law and demanded that she arranged the visitors bedroom for her.

Mrs. Yang looked worried when she saw how angry Bai Jun was, so she asked, Why do you want a different bedroom?.

I can no longer accept being treated like a homeless dog by your son, so I want a bedroom for myself.. Bai Jun said in a raised tone.

Chapter 411 – Assessment On The Newbies Begins

How dare you raise your tone on my mother, have you lost your manners?! Yang Peng asked angrily as he walked into the sitting room.

You should have thought about that before making me lose points to get retained in FJ!. Bai Jun shouted back.

How dare you!. Yang Peng asked as he raised his hand angrily, but Mrs. Yang immediately came to block him.

Were you trying to hit me now? It looks like you don't treasure your life and your family. If you ever lay your hands on me, I will sue you for assault and abuse. Don't think that my family is dead and you can mistreat me. Bai Jun threatened while pointing a finger at him.

You still have the guts to stand there and talk back at me?. Yang Peng asked and tried to make a move, but his mother stopped him in a pleading tone while blocking his path.

Peng! stop it and go back to your bedroom!.

Why won't I have the guts? I was born in a wealthy family, and never once have I been mistreated like this. You make me sleep on the couch every night, and you give me rules that I have to abide in. Today, I got scolded at work and points deducted because you turned off my alarm when it rang, and you didn't care to wake me up?. Bai Jun retorted.

Bai Jun was fed up with Yang Peng's mistreatment and wanted to have her bedroom. She couldn't tolerate his attitude anymore.

You deserve every reaction and action you get from me! Yang Peng said in a raised tone.

Bai Jun did not bother to talk to him anymore. She glanced at Mrs. Yang and said to her, Auntie, I want my bedroom, and my things moved into it right now! If you don't agree, I will go and lodge in a hotel or better still go back to my family, because I can not continue to be treated like a nobody.

Jun, I'm sorry, I will get the maid to arrange your things in the visitor's bedroom. Mrs. Yang said in a pleading tone.

Mum why dont you leave her to go back to her family or rent a hotel. She is a shameless woman!. Yang Peng said in anger. He was angrier that Bai Jun had the guts to talk back at him after how shameless she has been.

Yang Peng, please go back to your bedroom, we will talk about this matter another time. Mrs. Yang said as she pushed him so he could leave.

At Bai Juns request, one of the visitors bedrooms was arranged for her that night, and her things were moved over, and finally, there was peace in the Yang family.

After Bai Jun settled down in her new bedroom, she felt more at peace. Now, she could do whatever she wanted and nobody can stop her.

The next day at work, Jia Li came to Fu Huas office to help him to unwrap the gifts he received. Anyone that didnt have the name of the sender for confirmation, Fu Hua would give them to Zimo and ask him to use them after making sure nothing was wrong with it.

Fu Hua gave out almost all the gifts he received because he was wealthy and didnt need most of them. Jia Li felt that Fu Huas actions were rude, but she understood his principles and decided not to dwell on them.

Zimo was happy to receive so many gifts from his Boss, and couldnt wait to try them on.

Bai Jun and Feng Alix who sent gifts to Fu Hua without attaching their names to it waited to see Fu Hua in what they gifted him, but that day never came, and it was a big disappointment to them.

Two days later, Feng Alix brought attention to herself again by showing off her engagement ring and the old man after her heart. She was very bold to type, Thank you my honeypie, we make a perfect couple

This time around, Feng Alix was smart enough to turn off the comment section under that post. And because of that particular post, the internet was on fire again.

A week later, Fu Hua makes a decision and moves back to the Fu House with his family. Grandfather was so happy that he threw a feast that night to welcome them back.

This thing about seeing the whole family, and a new environment was a new thing for Jasmine. The little girl kept glancing around her surrounding curiously for a few days before she started to relax and adapt to it.

Now in the new month of March, it was time for FJ to access their newbies, and those who didnt accumulate or cross the point marks, will be on 3-4 months probation before another test will be given, to them, and so tasks were assigned to them.

Sunny gave them their first test, and that was to mend a broken dress within 4 hours. Different types of dresses with many different issues were given to the newbies to fix.

When each of them got the dresses they would be mending, they almost freaked out, because the kind of dresses they got was as good as waste. At that point, they all wished they were asked to make a new dress within 4 hours than to fix a well-damaged dress.

The worst part of this task, was that they were not informed beforehand, they only knew they would be performing a pretty difficult task soon, but what could they do about it, it was part of their assessment.

When Marié took a good look at the dress she would be working on, she said in her language out of annoyance, This is truly an ugly difficult task.

What a good task to welcome us on Monday morning right after the weekend!. Linda said in an annoyed tone.

Jia Li who rarely showed any emotions through her facial expressions, did today. A big frown appeared on her face as she stared hard at the damaged dress before her. She was thinking of how she was going to fix it.

After having a bad weekend, there was nothing worse like this that Bai Jun could have expected to do after a stressful weekend, so there was anger written all over her face.

Chapter 412 – Caught Red-handed

Knowing that they just had four hours to finish mending the dresses and go have lunch, everyone got ready to put in their best effort.

Jia Li took off her wedding ring and tied up her hair properly before she began to work on the dress.

There was a big clock with a timer already set and placed in front of the big room, so the 20 of them would see the time they had left, each time they turned to glance at the wall.

After working for 4 hours, the timer went off, and everyone was asked to leave and go have lunch. Everybody sighed in relief and left for the canteen for lunch.

Jia Li was too tired to say a word to anybody she went straight to get her food before going to sit at an empty table.

Bai Jun was the second person to arrive. She ordered her meal and found an empty table to sit down and eat.

The rest of the newbies arrived in groups and went to place an order for their food before Linda dragged Marié and the others to go sit at Jia Lis desk.

The other groups of people, went to find another free table and chairs to seat, leaving only Bai Jun to herself.

This is the kind of treatment Bai Jun has been receiving since everyone found out the secret she tried so hard to deny but failed.

Glancing over at Jia Lis table and seeing how she was surrounded by the others while no one came to her, anger and jealousy brewed in Bai Juns heart. As anger and jealousy filled Bai Juns heart, she lost appetite to continue eating, so she carried her tray and walked away.

Sometimes I want to pity her, but I cant. One of them said as she retracted her gaze from Bai Jun.

If you pity her, I will send you straight to her, so you two can become best friends and partners in crime. Marié threatened.

Linda smiled, as her eyes went to Jia Li's finger, finding it empty. Having noticed that her wedding ring was not there, she asked, JL, did you take off your wedding ring?.

Huh.

Thanks for the reminder, I left it on my work desk, I'm going to get it now, bye. Jia Li said as she got off from her seat with her tray in hand.

What about your food?. One of them asked in surprise.

I'm done eating. Jia Li replied and left hurriedly, her wedding ring was more important to her than the food she was eating.

It's just a ring, why is she in a hurry, she didn't finish her food because of it, Marié said with her gaze on Jia Li.

It's not just any ring, it's her wedding ring, Linda replied.

When Bai Jun left the canteen, she returned to the room where they stayed to work on the dresses and discovered that all the dresses they finished mending before going for lunch, had been taken out already.

Bai Jun sighed as she wondered if she did a good job with the dress she worked on. As Bai Jun was about to leave, an inspiration to take a look in the room came to her, and so, she began to walk from desk to desk.

After passing 5 desks, she went straight to the desk Jia Li used.

Immediately she got there, light from the item on the desk reflected on her eyes, and after she re-positioned herself and took a good look, and behold, she saw a being lying on the desk and gladly picked it up.

She recognized the ring as Jia Lis wedding ring. And thinking about how Fu Hua must have put the ring on Jia Lis finger, Bai Jun became unhappy and took off her wedding ring and put Jia Lis wedding ring on her finger.

While admiring the ring on her finger, she said, Whats so good about that bitch, this ring looks good on me too.

What do you think youre doing?!. Jia Li asked angrily when she walked in and saw her wedding ring on Bai Juns finger.

Bai Jun was shocked to see Jia Li and became a bit worried now that she was seen. She has been so busy fantasizing about Fu Hua putting the ring on her finger instead of Jia Li, that she didnt notice when someone walked in.

Bai Jun was still shocked by Jia Lis appearance that she forgot to react, and that angered Jia Li the more. She immediately walked up to Bai Jun and snatched her wedding ring from her finger forcefully. Then after cleaning it, she slides it on her ring finger.

Miss Bai, you have really crossed the line today. I advise you not cross me again, or this will be the end of you working in FJ. Jia Li threatened while pointing a finger at her.

Bai Jun came back to her senses and chuckled before responding. Its not like you have any evidence to report me with, so why are you showing off your fake authority in front of me?.

Fake authority? I can make you leave FJ this instant if I want to, because that CCTV camera there, is evidence to show my husband of the kind of twisted mindset you have about him, and let me see how you will relate in an environment where people hate and curse you for trying on another married womans wedding ring after taking off yours. Jia Li threatened again.

She was so angry that she felt like slapping Bai Jun hard on the face. And this was the first time in their lives they were exchanging words and having a face-off.

When Bai Jun was reminded of the CCTV cameras in the room, she became angry and said to her, Do you think Brother Hua will go against work ethics to fire me for personal reasons ?.

Not when the personal reason is related to him. Im sure you remember his warnings clearly.. After saying that, Jia Li walked away, leaving the angry and humiliated Bai Jun to herself.

Chapter 413 – Motherhood Is Not Childs Play

The second task given to the newbies was a question and answer section, which was taken over by their supervisors. The last task given was to sketch a dress with the theme, Black Beauty. They didnt need to make the dress, the sketch was enough to judge.

The best sketches would be produced into the outfit by FJs creative department and released along with other designs.

24 hours were given to the newbies to think of any design of their choice and sketch it. That was more than enough time for them to come up with something unique.

Two weeks later, which was close to the end of March, judgment was passed, and the results were announced. It was with delight that the 15 people that passed, were taken to dinner by Sunny and the other two assistant creative directors to celebrate their winnings.

Bai Jun and the other 4 people that didnt make it, were put on probation and demoted. They wouldnt be given any major work, or join their colleagues to partake in the upcoming Autumn Fashion Show.

All Bai Jun had, were tears to shed. After the results were announced, and she found out that she didnt get up to 50%, she ran to the restroom to cry and phone her mother to complain.

Jun, how could they do this to you? I know you are talented and would have easily made it, but this is so unfair!. Bai Fen said in an angry tone.

As if telling her mother that she didnt pass the tests, Bai Jun went on to reveal to her how she has been mistreated by her colleagues at work, and at home by her so-called husband who doesnt even speak to her.

Bai Fen was almost going berserk. She couldnt believe that her daughter has been suffering so much for several weeks, and she didnt say anything to her.

...Jun, I cant tolerate you going through so much. Get a divorce, resign from FJ, and one back home. I cant allow my only child to continue suffering even for a second.

Mum, Ive come this far, I cant do that. I didnt come to FJ just so I can quit after 2 months. I just feel so pained that Brother Hua doesnt look at me. Its hard to see him. Since I came to FJ, I have only seen him thrice, and not even a moment did I get a chance to speak to him. Bai Jun said in a tired tone as she used her other hand to wipe her tears.

Bai Fen was silent for a while before saying in a more gentle tone, Jun, you are my child, and I wouldn't want anything bad to happen to you. Take your mind off Fu Hua, he is not worth it anymore. I don't want you to continue to suffer in FJ and the Yang family. You are still young, and you have a bright future ahead of you. But this will not stop you from getting revenge from everybody that brought you pain.

Mum, no matter what you say, I won't leave Brother Hua and FJ. I have lost so many things because of him, so it's too late to quit. I don't have any friends anymore, my reputation keeps going down the drain. Mum, don't worry about me, I will be fine, and I promise to get my revenge!. Bai Jun promised.

Seeing how she has suffered a lot, and there was no progress, was the more reason she couldn't give up. She couldn't accept losing so much because of Fu Hua, and then give up just like that, at least not without a fight.

When Bai Jun came out of the restroom, her eyes were red from crying, and everyone who saw the results knew the reason. Out of the 5 people that were on probation, Bai Jun was the only one her colleagues didn't comfort.

Now that Jasmine was 8 months, Jia Li was already telling the little bun that she would stop breastfeeding her soon.

Jasmine, you have to quit this before you turn a year old. Do you hear me?. Jia Li said to the little bun that was hugging her boob all to herself.

Jasmine just gazed at her and sucked as quickly as possible. She kind of understood what her mother was saying, but she didn't agree with her.

If you dont stop soon, I will let your father eat all your food. Jia Li threatened. Because of Jasmine, Fu Hua doesnt suck on Jia Lis boobs that much, since he was considering his daughter. So, Jia Li wanted to stop breastfeeding soon, so Fu Hua could have full access to her.

Jia Li wouldnt dare to say this in Fu Huas presence, because that would look weird to her. Currently, she was trying to cut down the number of times she breastfed the little bun in a day.

At least, she would breastfeed her in the morning before leaving for work, and in the evening, and the middle of the night.

As for her bottle of milk, she was still giving it to her but planned to cut down on it so she could introduce more other baby foods to her.

Jasmine didnt care about what her mother was saying. She even babbled while the nipple was in her mouth, and raised her hand to touch her mothers face.

Taking a good look at her daughters facial features, a smile appeared on her face as she leaned in to kiss the little buns forehead.

Why are you so cute? When I look at you, I dont have the heart to scold you. Okay, just be obedient and know when to stop, I wont force you to quit, but mama is going to get very busy with work soon.

Jasmine giggled after she released her mouth from her nipple. It looked like the little bun was satisfied.

Jia Li made sure she burped, before putting her in a sitting position, so she could play with her toys.

This was the mother and daughter time, so Jia Li was spending time also with the little bun. She talked to her about colors and the toys. It didn't matter if the little bun was paying attention or not, Jia Li did what she was supposed to do.

What made Jia Li speechless was the little bun, abandoning her toys and crawling to go look for something more exciting. This made Jia Li become more attentive and follow her everywhere.

Chapter 414 - Bribing The Little Bun

Bai Jun who still hasn't gotten over the fact that she was left behind, didn't mention to anyone about it, only her mother knew about it.

Currently, it has been a struggle for her to see other people doing so well, while so much hate was directed towards her. And now, she was beginning to think why she couldn't get up there, and why no one wanted to be her friend.

Recently, there were rumors and pictures of FangSu and Zhang Junjie on the internet, and rumors had it that they were dating. Seeing this news was all it took for Bai Jun's head to spark, and so she began to plot against how to ruin FangSu.

FangSu was the one that reported her to the Fu family, and her family forced her to get married, so she couldn't stand there and watch FangSu doing so well, while things went downhill for her.

FangSu who was currently being talked about on the internet regarding the dating rumors, just came back home late in the evening only to be called to the room by her mother.

What's your relationship with Zhang Junjie?. Fu Hee asked with furrowed brows.

JunJie? We are good friends. Don't mind the rumors going around. FangSu replied in a worry-free tone.

How can he just be a friend when a picture of you two holding hands surfaced online?. Fu Hee inquired further. She didn't believe that her daughter was just friends with the Zhang guy, and wanted to hear the truth.

FangSu got tired of her questions and said, Mum do you want me to lie to you? I am not his girlfriend, he hasn't asked me out yet, so we are just good friends.

Is he good to you?. Fu Hee asked as her tone softened.

Of course, he is very good to me. I wouldn't be good friends with him if he didn't treat me well. FangSu replied with a smile. Recalling the moments she has spent with Zhang Junjie so far, she liked him more as he has been very good to her.

Fu Hee seemed to have calmed down a little. It's good that he treats you well, but you will have to answer to your grandfather and explain things to him. He doesn't seem to be happy seeing that picture of the internet.

I know, it will be easy to speak to grandfather, he will understand me, FangSu said in a confident tone, but Fu Hee burst her bubbles.

Where is your confidence coming from? Don't forget that you are no longer the old man's favorite.

FangSu sighed and replied, I know, he loves Da Xia more, that shouldn't be a problem. I just have to bribe him by using Da Xia.

You want to use my grandchild to get what you want? How dare you think about that!. Fu Hee said as she hit her back before she managed to escape from her.

Mum, why are you so angry? It's not like I'm going to do anything bad. I just have to hold Da Xia in my arms and go to his study to see him. He wouldn't have the heart to scold me seeing that cute little bun in my arms. FangSu said with a big smile.

Fu Hee totally gave up on her. Just leave my bedroom.

FangSu did what she said. She found Jasmine watching a cartoon with her nanny and two other servants by her side, and decided to bribe her with a lollipop

Because she has been deceived by her before, the little bun didn't immediately follow her. She first glanced at the red color lollipop in her hand, before looking up at her.

Da Xia, what are you waiting for? Come over, and I will give you the lollipop and take you to grandfather, but you can't tell your mum or your father about it, otherwise, I will be in trouble. FangSu said as she beckoned on the little girl.

Jasmine glanced at the red lollipop again, and slowly put her fingers in her mouth. She was interested in it, but she didn't trust FangSu anymore.

Miss, you can't give the little miss any lollipop, she is too young to taste it. Mrs. Zu said from the side.

Who said I'm going to give it to her?. FangSu said in a low tone so that Jasmine wouldn't listen to her. Mrs. Zu relaxed after getting an assurance from her.

Seeing that the little bun was hesitating, FangSu came to her side and picked her up in her arms, and walked away.

When they got to a place no one was watching, FangSu let the little bun have the lollipop to get a taste.

Jasmine didn't need any assistance with the pop, she took it from FangSu, and touched the red part with her other hand. Next, she waved the sweet in her hand and babbled excitedly.

It's good that you don't know you can put it in your mouth, FangSu said and sighed in relief.

When FangSu brought the little bun into Grandfather Fu's study, Butler Lu happily showed her to the couch.

Grandfather Fu was happy to see his great-granddaughter and immediately left his desk and went to FangSu's side.

Seeing how interested her grandfather was in the little bun's presence, FangSu gobbled up that opportunity.

Grandfather, dont mind the rumors going on the internet, Im not dating Junjie, we are just friends. But when something serious is going on, you will be the first to know.

Grandfather Fu had wanted to give her a good scolding, but he relented and ended up telling her off in a gentle tone.

Dont tarnish our family image, be careful!. Grandfather Fu said to her before moving his gaze to the little bun who had something in her mouth.

What is Da Xia eating ?. The old man asked with creased brows.

At first, FangSu was a little confused until she glanced at the little bun in her arms who was busy licking the lollipop in her hands. FangSu was shocked as she speedily snatched the lollipop from her.

Her quick actions frightened the little bun, and she started to very when she realized that the sweet thing she was enjoying a moment ago was gone.

Who gave the lollipop to her ?. Grandfather Fu asked with a fierce gaze.. At this moment, he resembled Fu Hua when he was angry.

Chapter 415 – Friends? I Dont Need Them

FangSu was scared of getting scolded and immediately got up with the little bun in her arms.

Grandfather, Im sorry, we need to leave now.

Before the old man could react, FangSu had already run away with the little bun. After escaping from her grandfather, FangSu gave the little bun an unwrapped lollipop to play with, in other to placate her.

When Jia Li saw her daughters red lips and tongue, she pinched the little buns cheeks and asked her what she has been eating.

Jasmine, what did you eat?. Jia Li asked with a frown.

Madam, I think Miss FangSu gave her lollipop. Mrs. Zu said from the side. She shouldnt have trusted FangSu for a bit.

Lollipop?. Jia Li asked before glancing at the little bun in her arms who was busy licking the unopened lollipop in her hand.

Jia Li decided to snatch it from her while saying, Day Xia you cant eat that. But the little bun started crying and reached out to snatch the lollipop from her hand before she calmed down.

Jia Li tried giving the little bun milk, but she refused as her interest was solely on the lollipop she was playing with.

Jia Li didnt want to let her have it, so she turned on a baby song on the Tv and placed Jasmine on the floor so she could watch it. Slowly, the little buns interest was divided and later, when she was lost while clapping her hands and babbling along, Jia Li stole her sweet and escaped unnoticed.

When the little bun remembered her sweet and turned around to take it, she didnt find it again. The little bun was surprised for a bit before getting on her hands and knees to crawl around in search of it, but she didn't find it. In the end, she gave up and moved her attention back to the TV.

As hours turned to days, it came to the day the young people of the social class decided to meet up at the club to drink, dance, and have fun. This was FangSu's social circle, and so she participated in the event since she wasn't busy. Zhang Junjie told her beforehand that he would be out of the city for a few days, so he wouldn't be joining them.

When everyone turned that there was no one left, Bai Jun surprised them with her appearance.

What the hell is she doing here?. Ah Lam asked with a deep frown.

I think I should be the one asking that question?. FangSu said with her gaze on Bai Jun who was taking her time to walk up to them.

We already know that she has a thick face, and would definitely show up, and besides she is still on our group chat, MingXia said with a disgusted look.

I can't stand her shamelessness, I'm going to remove her from the group right now. Another person said and immediately took out her phone.

At last, Bai Jun appeared before them with a big smile on her face.

As expected of the shameless one to appear where she is not welcomed. mind is said as she looked away.

Bai Jun heard her clearly and smiled, You are thinking too much. I didn't come here to join in your meaningless conversation. I have been here for almost 20 minutes now, having fun without any of you. I just came to see how you girls have been holding up.

Shouldnt we be the ones worrying about you ? I mean getting married to someone you dont even like, is enough to tell that you are living an ugly life. FangSu said to her.

A life without friends must be a terrible one for you. Ah Lam chipped in.

Bai Jun chuckled and replied, Friends, I dont need them, especially people of your kind. Anyway, I just came to inform you all to enjoy tonight.

You should enjoy your night alone. One of them retorted, and Bai Jun smiled and walked away. She didnt have to explain anymore to them.

What a bitch, always showing off!. One of the cursed.

There is no need to mind her, lets make our order, FangSu said with a smile.

Ah Lam called a waiter over, and everyone placed their drink orders and chatted happily while waiting for it.

Bai Jun saw the waiter she called over and followed him slowly after he left their table. Now, Bai Jun had a big bottle of the ladies favorite drink in her hand as she approached the waiter who was currently placing a drink order and waiting to collect it from the bartender.

Immediately the waiter received the same drink Bai Jun had in her hand and put it on the trolley, Bai Jun pretended to miss a step, and the phone in her hand slipped and fell beside the waiter.

The waiter was scared that he had caused an accident because big shots and people from prominent families usually came to their club, and he was afraid of offending anybody.

Immediately the waiter finished apologizing to her, and lowered his back to pick up her phone, Bai Jun switched the drink.

Miss Im so sorry, your phone didnt crack. The waiter said in a nervous tone as he handed the phone back to Bai Jun.

Bai Jun took it from him and feigned anger. If it was my drink that fell, I would have closed down this club.

The waiter was frightened by the threat and immediately apologized again before Bai Jun allowed him to leave.

There was a big smile on Bai Juns face at her success in switching the drink. Now, all I need to do is just to sit, wait and watch. Bai Jun said to herself as a smirk turned up on her lips.

When their drink order arrived, the girls immediately cheered up and watched as the waiter popped open the drink and poured a little quantity into their glasses.

Cheers!. The girls said as they clinked glances before drinking from it.

In one of the rooms upstairs, Fu Meixu was present with her companys director and other big celebrities including Zhi Ruo.

The director decided to take them out for drinks and to thank them for their hard work.

...thank you for your hard work, and hope you will continue to put in more effort. The director said with a proud smile.

Director, you are wrong, there is someone here who doesnt work hard anymore, so I dont think she should be here in the first place.. Fu Meixu said with a smiling gaze on Zhi Ruo.

Chapter 416 – But I Dare To Mess With You.

Zhi Ruo rolled her eyes at her and asked, And who could that be if I may ask ?.

Do I need to spell it out for you, Senior?. Fu Meixu said in a mocking tone.

What do you mean ?. Zhi Ruo asked in an annoyed tone as she didnt want to believe that Meixu was referring to her.

Fu Meixu ignore her and picked up a glass to drink from it. Her silence already revealed her response.

Before a fight could start, the director lifted his glass and said to them, Everyone has worked hard since they joined this agency. Dont slack off, lets bring more deals for the company.

Fu Meixu had just put her cup down when her assistant walked in and went to her side to whisper something to her ear. Instantly, Fu Meixus gaze changed as she asked with widened brows, What ?!

Her assistant nodded with a worried gaze to show her concern, so Fu Meixu had no choice but to take permission to leave.

It looks like you have an emergency, you can leave. The director said as he waved her off.

Thank you. Fu Meixu said with a slight bow and picked up her bag to leave with her assistant.

There was no way that Fu Meixu could sit tight after learning that her cousin, FangSu who was in the same building as her, was dancing with random guys. That could appear on the news tomorrow, and be a taint to their family's image.

And another thing is that she was nominated for an award, and would be attending the film festival, at the end of the month, and that kind of scandal would ruin her reputation too.

I can't believe this girl is out to ruin everybody. I thought she liked Zhang Junjie?. Fu Meixu asked angrily as she walked down the stairs.

Her assistant looked more worried as she followed behind her. Where did you see her?. Fu Meixu asked. They had just come downstairs. And looking around, she saw how crowded it was and knew it would be difficult to find FangSu.

I saw her at that place. Her assistant pointed at somewhere that was not really in the limelight, and Fu Meixu immediately stepped forward to go look for her.

When Fu Meixu approached the place that her assistant pointed out to her, she stood at a place and searched around with her eyes. Luckily, she found FangSu, but the scene before her was alarming.

FangSu was dancing sexily with a random guy while calling, him, Brother Junjie. Fu Meixu almost went crazy as she angrily walked over and yanked FangSu away from the random guy.

Hey! Whats wrong with you ?. The random guy asked after Fu Meixu dragged FangSu away from him.

Dont you know who she is, how dare you try to get close to her ?. Fu Meixu asked angrily while holding onto the fussy FangSu.

The random guy didnt want to get in trouble after he recognized Fu Meixu, so he said this before walking away. I did the do anything wrong, she approached me first.

Bai Jun who has been sitting in one corner and capturing all of FangSus crazy moments got up to leave after the random guy left.

I want my brother Junjie! who are you!. FangSu asked while trying to push Fu Meixu away ?

Fu Meixu got so angry that she slapped FangSu on her cheek. Thanks to the loud music, only a few people glanced over at them.

If you still love yourself, shut up your damm mouth!. Fu Meixu scolded before looking around, and that was when her eyes caught sight of the familiar figure of Bai Jun walking towards the exit with a smile and her phone in hand.

Normally, nothing is supposed to be wrong if Bai Jun came to this kind of place, but given the amenity between Bai Jun and FangSu, it was right for Fu Meixu to think that something was wrong.

You hold her and take her to my car. Fu Meixu I instructed her assistant who took over immediately.

Wait for me in the car. Fu Meixu said before walking away.

Because her eyes were searching everywhere, Fu Meixu was opportune to catch a glimpse of FangSus friends dancing widely on stage and in the spotlight, and a few people were recording them.

Now, Fu Meixu was clear that Bai Jun had a hand in this, and things could get out of hand if the situation was not managed, but it was too late.

First things first, she needed to get a hold of Bai Jun, and so went out of the building in search of Bai Jun.

Two minutes later, Bai Jun was standing in a secluded place and answering a phone call. Her tone sounded happy.

...yes mum, I spiked their drinks and recorded a few of their video, but most especially, FangSu. I have an exclusive one of her because she chose to go to a different area where no one was watching. I almost lost my mind, but its good that I got something on her.

You did well, you can send the videos out immediately, Im sure no news agency would reject such juicy news. Bai Fen said in excitement. She was happy that her daughter has succeeded in taking revenge on the people that hurt her daughter.

Tomorrow, the Internet will be on fire. These prominent families will lose a lot of company shares, and their daughters reputation ruined. Fu Meixu said with a chuckle.

Thats good. Jun, I have to go now your father is coming, I will call you back later. Bai Fen said and ended the call immediately.

Bai Jun smiled as she glanced at her phone with a smile. Thinking of the material she had that could ruin the lives and careers of Fu Meixu and their friends from the same social circle, Bai Jun felt proud for teaching them a lesson.

FangSu, this will be a lesson to you and those lousy bitches. No one dares to mess with me. Bai Jun said with a wicked smile.

But I dare to mess with you!. Fu Meixu said from behind with an ugly facial expression.

Bai Jun was shocked to hear the voice behind her. She didnt turn around immediately, instead, she slowly looked up from her phone to see the shadow of the person that was behind her, before slowly turning around to see the angry Fu Meixu standing behind her.

Bai Jun almost had a fright as she thought, She saw me when I was leaving?

Chapter 417 – A Punch

So you set this whole thing up by yourself? Why dont you learn lessons?. Fu Meixu asked with a frown.

I dont understand, what do you mean?. Bai Jun was trying to play safe as she wasnt sure of how much Meixu heard and knew.

Are you trying to feign ignorance? I heard everything you said to your mother just now. You dared to drug the ladies from prominent families, are you tired of living ?. Fu Meixu asked. She has never met someone as reckless as Bai Jun. The lady was so stubborn that she didnt seem to learn from all the lessons she has been thought.

Now that she has confirmed that Meixu knew everything, there was no need to hide anything from her, so Bai Jun just cane clean.

And so what if you are right, what can you do to me ? You dont have any evidence to prove that I did that, and there are no cameras here to pick up the video, or my voice. Bai Jun said in a confident tone.

She was very sure that Fu Meixu didnt record when she was speaking with her mother, so she was very confident.

Fu Meixu could not accept the fact that Bai Jun still had much confidence left. She immediately delivered a punch to her face.

What the f**k! Bai Jun screamed in pain as she fell to the rough ground with her hand holding her bleeding nose.

Thank you for reminding me that there are no cameras here. Fu Meixu said as she moved her fingers about. The force she used to punch Bai Jun, caused her to dislocate 2 finger bones (phalanges).

You bitch! Did you just hit my nose ?! Bai Jun screamed with her hand still holding her nose. She was in too much pain that she couldnt help screaming at Fu Meixu.

She never knew that Fu Meixu would be so fast in delivering a punch, and she didnt see that coming.

Not only did I punch your nose, but you will need to get your nose fixed because I made sure to break your bone, thanks to the martial arts Im currently training on, for my new movie. Fu Meixu replied with a smile.

You bitch! I will sue you for assault. You dare to break my nose?!. Bai Jun screamed angrily. If she wasn't still in pain she would have loved to return the same favor to Fu Meixu.

I dare you to call me a bitch one more time and see if I won't ruin your face. After all, there are no cameras here, and you don't have any evidence. Fu Meixu said in a low tone as a kind reminder before bending to pick up Bai Jun's that was lying on the ground.

Now, Bai Jun could only shout in pain while holding her nose and watching Fu Meixu remove her sim card from her phone.

I can't stop myself from being lenient with you, so I will leave your sim card with me. As for your phone, I will help you get rid of it, least you fall into another temptation of releasing the videos in your custody.

FangSu said as she threw the sim card on Bai Jun's body.

Fu Meixu, I promise you that you will pay for what you did to me today!. Bai Jun swore angrily. How could she allow the person that discovered her to live freely? Just now, she could feel something warm streaming down her nose, and she didn't need to confirm that it was blood.

Now let me warn you, I am not FangSu or just anybody, I am used to getting rid of people that stand in my way, and that's the reason I am so successful in the entertainment industry. Nobody dares me and goes freely, even the slightest sin against me will always be returned in triple folds, so now I warn you. If you love your mother so much, you better stay in your lane. But if you feel that she has overstayed her welcome in the Bai family, you can go ahead and try me and see what I can do.

After threatening her, Fu Meixu turned to walk away, but then she remembered something and turned to glance at her again.

Lest I forget, if any video of my cousin appears online, you will have to forgive me because I will be forced to fulfill my promise to you sooner.

After saying that, Fu Meixu walked away without looking back.

Bai Jun cursed out loud, but the pain she felt in her nose, brought her back to reality. First things first, she had to go to the hospital immediately.

Never in Bai Jun's life would she have guessed that Fu Meixu could be so violent. This was a new experience for her, and never again would she dare to cross paths with her.

After dealing with Bai Jun, Fu Meixu went to the place we parked her car to meet her assistant and the drunk FangSu.

Miss, where are we going to?. The assistant asked as Fu Meixu ignited the car engine and drive away from the club.

To my condominium. Fu Meixu replied and increased her speed.

On the way to her condominium, Fu Meixu phones the manager of the club and gave him a sentence filled with warnings.

If you don't want your club to be shut down, which there is already a high chance of that, you had better find a way to send those misses back to their various homes and stop people from taking videos of them, because their drinks were spiked under your watch!.

The club manager was scared and immediately ordered for the music to be shut down and asked the people that recorded the videos of the young misses misbehaving, to delete the videos before leaving.

After pleading with them, the manager immediately got people to send those Misses back home.

Most of the people that recorded the video, deleted it, while the rest refused to listen, and there was nothing the manager could do to those people because he couldn't force them.

All through the night, the manager called the security team to check the CCTV cameras in the club to find out how the drink was spiked, but there was no evidence to convict Bai Jun of the crime because no camera caught her exchanging the drinks. There was really no evidence.

On the other hand, Fu Meixu called home and reported that FangSu was with her so there wouldn't be a need to worry about her.

Chapter 418 – Repercussion

That same night, Fu Meixu invited a doctor over to her condominium, who came to check on FangSu, and from the test conducted with FangSus blood sample, it was discovered that Bai Jun put a hallucinogenic drug into their drink.

As for Bai Jun, she was currently at the hospital. Her face was swollen, especially in the nose area. The doctor who came to check on her left a few minutes ago after telling her that she would have to undergo surgery after a few days, and till then, she needed to rest at the hospital.

For the kind of injury Bai Jun sustained from the punch, it was either a rhinoplasty, which is a surgery to realign the nose was performed or a septorhinoplasty, which is a surgery to repair the nasal septum is performed.

The reason is this... Closed reduction, rhinoplasty, and septorhinoplasty arent usually performed until 3 to 10 days after the injury after the swelling goes down.

Now, Bai Jun has to take about 2 weeks leave from work because of her injury and to recover from the surgery.

Being in this kind of ugly situation filled with pain and anguish, Bai Jun cursed about it until her mother arrived, and that was when she started crying.

Bai Fen was angry to see her daughter in that state and almost left to go confront Fu Meixu if not that Bai Jun stopped her.

When Bai Fen heard the full gist of what happened, she was so angry that their plan failed because of another member of the Fu family who was also the person that inflicted pain on her daughter, and not only that, she damaged her daughters face as well.

Jun, I can no longer allow you to suffer, I have had enough of this! We keep losing, and you keep suffering from the repercussion, I cant take it anymore. I want you to end whatever feelings you have for Fu Hua and concentrate on recovery. Look at the state you have been reduced to. You are now being bullied by just anyone! Since when can the daughter of the Bai family be a subject of ridicule. Bai Fen said.

Bai Jun was too pained to respond to her. She was deeply thinking about the bullying, pain, suffering, and humiliation she has been through since everyone found out about her love for Fu Hua who was already married.

At least if Fu Hua was willing to pay attention, she wouldn't mind suffering if she gets his attention, but no, none of that happened. He doesn't spare her a glance, and he has never cared about her.

Bai Fen talked for so long, and the conclusion came out like this... She wanted Bai Jun to take her mind off Fu Hua and concentrate on herself while waiting for the perfect day to get revenge on the entire Fu Family because she believed that they were responsible for every negative situation she has ever been through.

Bai Jun lay on the bed and cried silently as hate for Fu Hua was starting to slowly build up in her. She was starting to hate him for not caring about her.

The next morning, FangSu woke up very later with a big headache. She could feel her head pound as she made small movements to sit up.

Aish! My head hurts so badly. FangSu said with her hands on her head. A bitter expression was visible on her face.

I think it should hurt more. Fu Meixu said with folded arms.

FangSu stopped with her complaints and glance upwards only to see her cousin staring at her with a smile that was not a smile, and these words escaped from her lips, What are you doing here ?.

Fu Meixu chuckled bitterly and asked, What am I doing here ?. Seeing how sluggish FangSu was being, she added, Look where you are before asking that useless question. You are in my house.

In your house?. FangSu asked in surprise as she looked around the bedroom she found herself in and discovered how unfamiliar it was. Having discovered that she has never seen or been in this place before now, she figured out that she must be in her cousins condominium.

What are my doing here?. FangSu asked as she placed her hands back on her head again with a frown.

Good question. I think it will be hard for your chicken brain to recall last nights events. Well, your friends are being roasted out there, while you the sleeping beauty are sleeping without worries. I must say how fortunate you are to have me in your life. Fu Meixu said as she clapped her hands.

What happened to my friends? What happened last night?. FangSu asked in a panicked tone. She was now worried about her friends and thinking about what must have happened the previous night.

When you see the news, you will find out. First, you should take the pills on the nightstand and finish the glass of water and come out for some porridge. Fu Meixu said before walking out of the room.

FangSu glanced at the glass of water and the pills on the nightstand while thinking what kind of trouble her friends might have landed in for it to be on the news.

As she attempted to get off the to search for her phone and to check on the news, she felt her head hurt a lot, so she had no choice but to heed her cousins advice of taking the pills on the nightstand.

A few moments later, FangSu felt better after taking the pills and went out to look for Fu Meixu who was already sitting in the sitting room and waiting for her to step out.

Can you tell me what happened last night and how I came here?. FangSu asked in creased brows. She was still feeling a little weak and uncomfortable, so she found herself a place to sit.

Eat first, that is an instruction from me. You wont know anything if I dont allow you, because your phone is with me. But if you want to leave, then I will have to tell the family about last nights real situation. Fu Meixu threatened.

FangSu stared hard at her as she thought of what kind of dangerous situation she must have gotten into last night.

Chapter 419 – Grandfather Fu Sends For FangSu

Im thinking we should set up a playground for Jasmine before she turns 1. That would really be an exciting experience for her. Jia Li suggested with her gaze on Fu Hua.

Fu Hua was changing Jasmynes diaper, but it looks like he was having a hard time as the little bun wouldnt stay put. At a point, he thought of caging her hands, so she wouldnt move about. But all he did was to think about it, he never carried it out. Instead of waiting for the little bun to move about, he handed her the fascinating toy she has been trying to reach, so she can stay put.

Jasmine didnt disappoint to put the toy in her mouth. Fu Hua got a hold of the situation and managed to finish changing her diapers quickly.

Its not a bad idea. We are in spring, we can set up a lot of things so she can have lots of fun in our absence. Fu Hua said in agreement as he lifted the little bun in his arms with a smile.

I saw a swing suitable for a few months old, I think we should get that one first, what do you think ?. Jia Li said in excitement.

Lets go shopping. Fu Hua said, and so, the family of three left for the huge shopping mall in disguise (a pair of sun shades and masks).

Jia Li did not just shop for a baby swing, she got lots of fascinating toys for Jasmine that will help in her daily activities.

Fu Hua picked up a few storybooks, building blocks, and some other fun games that will be good for Jasmynes development.

All Jasmine had to do was relax in her stroller while her parents shopped for her. Most times, Jia Li would show her the beautiful things she picked up, and the little bun would babble and move her hands and feet out of excrement. But Jia Li did not let her touch them, as she thought of how germs could be on them.

From the toy section, Fu Hua suggested they shopped for some clothes, and so, the family of three went to the clothing section to pick lots of outfits for the little bun.

Jia Li and Fu Hua spent more than an hour in the clothing section before taking the little bun home.

Jasmine was already asleep when they got home. Fu Hua took her straight to her crib to lay her down, while Jia Li went to the kitchen to get freshly squeezed juice.

Walking into the kitchen, she saw Fu Hee there, and she immediately walked up to her with a smile. Mum

Fu Hee heard her voice and glanced at her with a smile. Are you back? Did you get a lot of fun things for Da Xia?.

Yes, we did. Mum, have you heard from FangSu or Meixu?. Jia Li inquired. This morning, it was on the news that FangSus friends shamed themselves and their families in the club by dancing with random people and doing crazy things. And according to a witness, FangSu was present, but no evidence could prove that.

The two of them are together. Their grandfather has asked them to come back home and explain things to him, so they will be around before dinner time. Fu Hee explained.

Oh... Jia Li said trailing off. She was curious as to what went wrong at the club last night.

Just as Fu Hee said, FangSu and Meixu came before dinner time. Fu Meixu seemed to be the only one in a good mood, while FangSu had an ugly expression on her face.

After breakfast, Meixu had broken the news to her, and she couldn't believe the fact that Bai Jun could pull off that trick just to taint their reputation.

FangSu cursed and talked about suing Bai Jun for what she did to them.

... I will let everyone know the kind of devil that is living amongst men!.

Where is your evidence. Which evidence do you have that can convict her of the crime?. Fu Meixu asked.

Dont you have one?. FangSu asked with a frown.

Fu Meixu rolled her eyes at her and said, I dont have any evidence, and the video of you in her phone, can not prove that she was the one that harmed you.

Still, I cant take this lying down. How can that bitch get away with this? FangSu asked angrily. She couldnt accept the fact that Bai Jun was doubt okay why her friends suffered.

It would be best if you stay put and not do anything. Your dearest best friend would have to spend at least 2 weeks in the hospital to fix and recuperate from her broken nose. Fu Meixu revealed.

FangSu sighed as she sat on the couch, That is just a little thing. I wish I can get ahold of her phone and see whats inside there that can put her in big trouble.

Too bad that she has a lock for everything. What a secretive person she is. But even if we see something, it would be her confessions of love to Brother Hua, and if it gets out, it will ruin her reputation, but it wont also look good on Brother Hua, because that is embarrassing. Fu Meixu analyzed.

That incompetent fool!. FangSu cursed.

She is not incompetent. She almost got you in a real shit, you should be thanking me for saving your careless ass. Anyways, Bai Jun cant tell the truth to anyone, of she still loves her life, so she would have to suffer alone till she recovers. Fu Meixu said.

Bai Jun wouldnt dare to tell anyone the truth of how she got a broken nose apart from her mother, because there was no evidence. And if she revealed that Fu Meixu was the one that put her in that situation, the latter will expose her dirty plans too.

Now back to the Fu house, Butler Lu came to inform her to come to the old mans study for interrogation. Bai Jun was scared of her grandfather scolding her and glanced at Fu Meixu for help, but the latter seemed not to care about the situation.

Dont look at me. Go in there, and make sure to use your brain. That was all Fu Meixu said before walking away.

FangSu had no choice but to follow Butler Lu to Grandfather Fus study.

Chapter 420 – No Matter What Happens

All FangSu said, was that she truly went to the club with her friends, but she met Meixu who was there coincidentally, and left with her early and didnt know what happened after that, so she didnt get into any trouble with Grandfather Fu.

As for the girls whose reputation was going down the drain, couldnt explain to their families what happened at the club.

In other to vent their anger, their families punished them by sending some of them out for Masters abroad, locking them up in the house, cutting off their financial aids. As for the club, they shut it down.

Bai Jun and her mother lied to their Bai family about what truly happened to her. Bai Jun said she had a little accident and fell on her face. Her grandmother was so worried about her that she stayed with her in the hospital to look after her.

Bai Fen thought that this was the perfect opportunity to make a suggestion since the old lady was emotional about seeing her only granddaughter in that state, but the other daughters-in-law blocked it off.

Mum, Jun is suffering so much, why dont we bring her home to recuperate after the surgery?.

That is wrong. Jun is no longer a full-time member of our family, and she cant come to stay with us when she is married into another family. The first daughter-in-law said.

You cant say that, this situation is different, and Im worried about her not being well taken care of over there. Bai Fen said with a frown.

Can you repeat these words in the presence of the Yang family?. The first daughter-in-law asked.

Of course I can repeat them, do I look like Im scared of them? Every mother has the right to be concerned about their children. Bai Fen said.

She didnt care if her words were polite or rude, and she doesnt care about the Yang familys feelings, because to her, they were not equal to them.

The third daughter-in-law said, Well if you care about Bai Jun so much and are worried that she wont be well looked after by her husband and his family, you can go over to the Yang family to make sure they treat her properly.

Are you kidding me?. Bai Fen asked with a deep frown.

Do I look like I'm joking?. The third daughter-in-law asked while rolling her eyes.

Finally, the old lady broke the fight. Enough! No matter how bad I feel for Jun, she can't come home with us. She is married, and if news gets out about her accident and she comes over to the house, her reputation, the Yang family, and our family will be at stake. People would think she was maltreated by the Yang family.

Bai Fen was angry with the Old Lady's words, so she asked, Mum, which is more important, our family reputation or your granddaughters happiness?.

Bai Fen, don't question me. Jun can not come back home with us, but I will make sure she is treated by the best doctor and well taken care of in the Yang family. Old Mrs. Bai said with a frown.

No matter what happens, Bai Jun can not come back to the Bai family when she is still married. The old lady now cared about their family's reputation more than emotions.

Bai Jun who they were debating about, was sleeping, but not peaceful because of the pain in her nose. It was not a good thing to sleep while being uncomfortable.

The next day when Bai Jun woke up, the first thing she did was to take 2 weeks leave from work due to the accident. And right after breakfast, the Yang family visited, but Yang Peng was absent with the excuse that he was busy with work. He didn't care about her, so why should he visit her?

When Bai Fen heard the silly excuse that didn't make any meaning to her, she was very angry as that was a big insult to her daughter and their family. But because of the old lady's presence, she couldn't retaliate or scold them.

The next day being Monday, Bai Jun's colleagues do not see her at work, and they learn that she got into an accident and took 2 weeks from work.

Is she finally getting her retribution? Marié asked with a smile.

It seems like it. I just hope she spends a longer time recovery because find it hard not to get annoyed when I see her face. One of them said in an annoyed tone

She sure chose a particular time to be absent from work, I guess she is still suffering emotionally after being on probation. Another said and chuckled loudly.

Is she the only one who was put on probation? I get it that it hurts to fail, but think that in her case, she deserves it because her heart is too dark for good things to locate her. Another person said without a care

Okay, enough talks about her, I'm getting annoyed already, Linda said with a frown.

If only Bai Jun can see how much she is hated by her colleague, then maybe, she will rethink her whole existence, but it looks like she doesn't mind.

Around the third week of April, Feng Alix got married in grand style to her old lover. Her wedding pictures were all over social media, and because she was very popular before her downfall, a lot of people had an interest in her.

Getting married to an older man is not wrong, but the intentions behind it, because love doesn't mind age, tribe, or Nationality, but it is, a matter of the heart.

Because she was well-loved by her old lover who already had grandkids, a lavish wedding was thrown for her, much to the anger of her lover's family.

Before getting married to Feng Alix, the elderly man's family rejected his idea of getting married to her. They agreed that she can be his girlfriend, but his wife, but the man didn't listen to them, and went ahead to do what was in his heart.

Feng Alix was hated by her lover's family, but she didn't seem to mind as she was with him for his money and connections.

Chapter 421 – Fu Hua And The Little Bun

A day after her wedding, Feng Alix announced on her social media pages, that she would be spending her 2 weeks honeymoon in China.

It's been more than a year since Feng Alix left China, and now, she was coming back to spend 2 weeks honeymoon there, despite the controversies she had before she left.

The internet was on fire, but no one dared to mention Fu Hua alongside Feng Alix, because they all knew the dire consequences.

Fu Hua was not interested in the news or his ex, he was only interested in the little girl that was trying to snatch a banana

Princess, I cant give you this, your mother will scold me. Fu Hua said to the little bun that crawled to his side and held him to get to her feet, before stretching her hand out to reach for the banana.

Jasmine who had her hair tied up in 2 buns, glanced at her father and smacked her lips before pointing at the banana and speaking a few words to him.

I dont know what you are saying, but your mother disagrees with you. Your dietician says you can eat them, but your mum is worried about you. Fu Hua said as he hugged the little girl with one arm. He was currently sitting on the floor and looking after her.

No matter what Fu Hua said, his little princess didnt agree with him. When she reached out for the banana for the 4th time, and he moved his arms further away, she started crying.

Fu Hua was not surprised that his little princess would cry since she didnt get what she wanted. The little bun was a foodie, and his heart hurts whenever she cried.

Okay, I will let you have some before mummy comes back, okay?. Fu Hua said as he made the little bun sit in front of him before handing the banana to her.

Jasmine stopped crying immediately and took the banana

This little bun who was 9 months old, and had only two teeth on her lower gum, sure knew how to take a bite from the banana in her hand.

Fu Hua sighed in relief that she didnt bite off a big chunk of the banana, or he would have been very worried.

It was not easy to be with his little princess, but ur was fun as well, as the little girl was a character of her own. Her actions were funny most of the time but can be annoying as well.

Jasmine chewed on the banana for a little while before swallowing it up. When they one was gone, she bit off another little chunk and chewed on it, while using her other hand to touch the big banana

Fu Hua couldnt stand her cuteness and took out his phone to record her. The way her small chubby cheeks moved when she chewed the banana, and her facial expression when she was excited, plus the ways she sighed in the end after swallowing the banana in her mouth, Fu Hua got all of them.

After keeping his phone aside, Fu Hua had a proud smile on his face as he leaned in to kiss the little buns cheeks.

Jasmine thought he wanted some, so she passed the banana to him to have a bite. Fu Hua was touched by her benevolence and kissed her cheeks again, before biting a chunk from the banana.

Thank you, princess, Fu Hua said happily. He was really feeling very proud.

When he leaned in again, Jasmine repeated her actions, and Fu Hua took another small bite.

The third time, Fu Hua but off a big chunk of the banana, because he was worried about his little girl finishing one finger of banana since the fruit was known to soften the stomach.

When Jasmine saw the little thing that was left, she glanced at her father in shock, she couldn't believe that he just betrayed her by eating the whole thing. As the little bun watched the movement of his mouth, she stretched her hand out to his mouth and tried to pry it open, but failed.

Fu Hua couldn't help chuckling with his mouth closed. He knew his little girl was ready to get the banana out of his mouth if he opened it, so he chose to seal his lips.

Fu Hua's actions didn't seem to sit well with the little bun, as she started crying immediately. She was angry that her father was laughing after biting a huge chunk of her banana.

Fu Hua still couldn't stop laughing after the little bun started to cry, but as a good father, he apologized to her and tried to comfort her, but it didn't work, so she was forced to threaten her just like the way Jia Li does when he couldn't deal with her.

Princess, if you don't stop crying, I'm going to eat the remaining piece up. Fu Hua said to the little bun who was crying with her gaze on him.

Jasmine understood what her father said, but that didn't stop her from crying, and now, Fu Hua was feeling guilty already as he thought that his threats were harsh, so he decided to come more softly.

Princess, can you give daddy some more?. As Fu Hua asked that question, he leaned in to take another bite from the banana, but the little bun moved the banana away before his mouth could touch it.

What? You don't want to give daddy some? Fu Hua asked with a fake surprised gaze, which seemed to catch the little bun's attention, because she suddenly stopped crying, but continued gazing at him.

Fu Hua apologized to the little bun and asked her to eat up the remaining piece of her banana, and she obeyed him, although her heart was still not gladdened.

When Jasmine finished eating the banana, Fu Hua cleaned her hands with the wipes and fed her some water from her cup.

When the little bun was satisfied, she pushed the cup away and heaved a deep breath.. Fu Hua picked up her bib and cleaned her mouth with it.

Chapter 422 - I Will Make It Happen

Princess, are you satisfied now ?. Fu Hua asked with a smile as he caressed the little buns cheeks. Jasmine licked her lips and clapped her hands in response.

Alright, I can see you are satisfied. Dont tell mummy I gave you banana

Now sitting comfortably on her fathers thighs, Jasmine glanced at him and smiled while making small noises with her mouth. The little bun seemed to have forgotten that she was betrayed earlier by her father because she was excited again.

In other to let her relax, Fu Hua turned on the Tv for her, and let her watch her favorite cartoon station. With this, Fu Hua didnt have to worry about his daughter crying, or throwing a tantrum.

Several minutes later, Jia Li walked into the nursery with a bowl of baby food in her hand, but the sight she saw caused a warm smile to appear on her face.

Jasmine was lying on her fathers chest sleeping soundly, while the television was still on. As fo Fu Hua, he had his eyes closed until he heard the door open and Jia Li walks in.

Are you done working?. Fu Hua asked in a light tone.

Yeah. I just made some food for Jasmine after that, but it turns out that she was sleeping already, and you, you look tired. Jia Li said in a soft tone as she approached them with light footsteps.

Yeah, Im tired. its boring to watch cartoons. Fu Hua said with a smile.

Lets go to the bedroom. Jia Li suggested, and they left for their bedroom together.

Back in their bedroom, Fu Hua out the little bun in her crib before going to lay on the bed to get some rest. When he turned over, he saw Jia Li about to leave the room, so he asked, Where are you going to?.

I will leave you two to rest, I will go and tidy up the nursery. Jia Li replied in a soft tone.

No, come and get some rest, the maids will do that. Fu Hua said as he stretched out his hands to her.

But I like to take care of Jasmines stuff myself. Dont worry, I will be back in a few minutes. Jia Li assured him, but Fu Hua didnt want to listen to her, so she had no choice to go and lay in his embrace.

It's been a while since we took afternoon naps together. Fu Hua said as he kisses her forehead.

You wanted to get some rest, remember. Jia Li said with a low chuckle. Right now, the little bun was sleeping, so if they must communicate, they have to talk softly.

I know, but it feels quite good to talk to you. Fu Hua replied in a low husky tone. He was tired, but making small talks with his wife was more important.

I know, but you have to rest first. Jia Li replied as she heaved a sigh and rubbed his arm.

If my wife says so. Fu Hua replied as he hugged her and shut his eyes.

It wasn't a surprise for the little bun to wake early from her nap. Jia Li immediately woke up after she heard the little girl's voice. She changed her diapers, before carrying her out to the nursery to feed her and play with her.

The swing was already set up in the nursery, so Jia Li put her there and pushed her gently. The little bun was still getting used to her swing, so she held onto the ropes tightly with visible excitement on her face.

Jia Li didn't have to look after the little bun for long, because Grandfather Fu asked for the little bun to go on a walk with him right outside the house.

It felt weird for a 9-month-old baby to go on a walk with her great grandfather, but the picture was warm. The old man wanted to take a stroll with her little descendant, and that was picture perfect.

Grandfather Fu personally pushed Jasmines stroller while taking a walk in the garden. Ocean, her pups, and the father of her pups were out, so they accompanied the old man and his little descendant.

Jasmine had fun while on a stroll with the old man. She kept clapping and babbling excitedly. When Grandfather was tired, he sat down and let her face him.

Da Xia, call me great gramps. Grandfather Fu said to her with a smile. Instead of calling great gramps, the little bun kept bubbling words of her own.

Great gramps can see your little efforts, so I will you have some toys. Grandfather Fu said she handed her toy to her, which the little bun took excitedly.

It was so refreshing to spend time with his little descendant.

As Feng Alix said that she was coming down to China to spend her honeymoon there, she really did it. She arrived 2 days later with her husband, and so many escorts followed behind them.

Feng Alix came to China with a new identity, Mrs. Suarez. After arriving at the same country that cursed and forced her to leave, all she did, was smile while linking hands with her husband.

Just on the first day of arrival, so many pictures of Feng Alix and her husband were already spreading online, and this act was intentional. Feng Alix wanted to show everyone that she was doing very well, after how poorly they treated her.

Many people still cursed her and called her a gold digger who was seeking the medias attention, but no matter what was said about her,

Feng Alix didnt care or bother about it, because the huge money sitting in her bank account didnt change.

My heart, just tell me anything you want, and where you want to go, I will make it happen. You are my wife now, dont be shy to ask me of anything. Mr. Suarez said with a big smile.

How can I dare to trouble you? I contend that you agreed to let us come to this place to spend our honeymoon. Feng Alix said with a smile.

This is your hometown, so why wouldnt I agree with you? You are not troubling me, just tell me everything you want, and it will be done. Mr.. Suarez with a doting smile.

Chapter 423 – Making Her Happy

Feng Alix pretended to think for a while before whispering a few words to his ears with a smile.

After leaning away, Mr. Suarez frowned slightly as he asked, Why do you want to go there, after being treated like that?.

Thats because I want to show you off. But its okay if you dont want to go, we can go other places as well. Feng Alix said with a smile while caressing his jaw.

Okay, we will do what you want. We will go there, and also to other brands, so you can pick whatever catches your attention. Mr. Suarez said before leaning in to kiss her cheeks.

Mr. Suarez truly loved Feng Alix, because it was rare for a young woman like her who had a future, to want to be with an old man like him who already had grandkids.

Feng Alix was quite excited that he agreed to her requests, and now all that he had to do, was to pick an outfit, get her hair and makeup done after picking a date.

In this new month of May, Feng Alix and her husband Mr. Suarez visited FJ headquarters to shop for clothes. Alix was almost embarrassed by the staff in FJ, but her assistant stepped forward and said to them...

Did your superiors train you to be disrespectful ?.

Sorry, we cant let Miss Feng Alix shop here, she has been blacklisted by FJ since a long time ago, so I hope you dont mind my rudeness. The staff said in an apology, but her looks showed nothing like that.

This is where you have it wrong. You blacklisted Miss Feng Alix, but this is Mrs. Suarez and her husband Mr. Suarez. Do you have an idea of who they are? Can you bear the consequences of offending them? Do you want to get FJ in trouble when this appears on the news?. Alixs assistant asked in an authoritative tone.

Feng Alix just stood by the side and linked arms with. She knew this embarrassment would happen, so she was not moved.

The staff that was scolded was in a dilemma. Because of the gossips, she already looked up Alixs husband on the internet and saw that he was a business tycoon, and it wouldn't be right to offend him. And truly, FJ blacklisted Feng Alix, but now that she has a new identity, they will have to bend their rules for today.

The staff glanced at her colleagues before saying to Alix's assistant, Give me a few minutes. And then walked away with the other, and a minute after that, 2 security team officers, brought seats for them before turning away.

When Fu Hua learned that Feng Alix came to shop in FJ headquarters with another identity, he didn't feel anything. But because of the identity of her husband, he couldn't ignore them, so he sent Zimo to relay a message to them.

No one comes to our office to shop, because we don't have a shopping mall here. But because of your love for our brand, I will show you where you can get all of our products.

After relaying the message from Fu Hua, Zimo stepped aside with a nonchalant gaze, while waiting for Mr. Suarez's response.

Feng Alix was disappointed that she was not allowed to shop directly from FJ's headquarters, but more importantly, Zimo didn't talk to her or glance at her, he only conveyed Fu Hua's message to her husband.

Instead of waiting for her husband to speak, Feng Alix stepped forward with a smile.

Mr. Zimo, I must say that I am disappointed. FJ made me drag my husband over here but disappointed us at the end. What about your boss, I'm sure he knows my husband well and should have come to relay this unfortunate message directly because this is disrespectful.

Honey its okay, we will go to another place to shop, and there you can pick everything you want. Mr. Suarez said while patting the back of Alixs hand, before turning to speak to Zimo...

Tell Mr. Fu Hua that I appreciate his hospitality.

Zimo bowed slightly in response before personally walking them to their cars. When he returned to Fu Huas office to give him feedback, Fu Hua didnt look interested and didnt want to know the outcome of the conversation.

In the car, Mr. Suarez felt bad that his beloved wife wasnt able to shop directly from FJ Styles headquarters, so he squeezed her palms and comforted her. Feng Alix smiled and said that she didnt feel bad, instead, she felt bad for dragging him there.

There is no need to apologize. Lets go to the mall to get FJs brand of clothes since you like them a lot, or do you have another idea?. Mr. Suarez asked.

Feng Alix who was already pained, because of what Fu Hua did, didnt want to shop for FJs products again. Now, what was going on in her head, was on how to retaliate for Fu Huas embarrassment.

Holding her husbands hands, she said to him with a smile, I know of another brand that is not proud like FJ, they are popular just here in China, but their outfits are nice and love to pay them a visit.

Really? Then lets go. Today will be all about making you happy. Mr. Suarez said with a smile.

In other to make his wife happy, he took her to the headquarters of the fashion brand she talked about, U&ME.

Unlike FJ who didnt care about Feng Alixs new identity now, and didnt want to have anything to do with her, U&ME was different. They received Feng Alix and her husband and treated them like VIPs.

The difference between FJ Styles and U&ME is that the former was an International brand, while the latter was a local brand, which had a few branches in the country. But apart from that, both fashion brands were very good.

Feng Alix and her husband were treated very well and were also toured around the creative arts department by the owner of the brand, who was a young man like Fu Hua.

Before touring, the brand owner, took permission from Alix to film, which she agreed on because she knew it was going to appear on the TV, in magazines, and in newspapers, and she wanted Fu Hua to see it.

Chapter 424 - U&ME Fashion Brand

Feng Alix has been a public figure and been in the limelight for years, so she understood how the media worked. It doesnt matter if you are loved or hated, as long as you are being followed, you can easily draw the medias attention to you.

This was what Feng Alix knew, and she always took advantage of it. Whatever she does would trend, because she knew how to bring the medias attention to her.

The next day, news had it that Feng Alix visited the U&ME Brand with her husband, and she was toured around. The news was confirmed when U&ME released the video they took when Alix and her husband were touring.

There was also a rumor of future business collaboration with U&ME, but this particular rumor was neither accepted nor declined, so the public didnt know what to believe.

With Feng Alix stirring things up, she successfully brought U&ME to the limelight and made them popular.

A few days later, some pictures of Feng Alix doing a photoshoot for U&ME in their latest products, surfaced online, and so the rumors about a business collaboration were finally understood.

So many questions were thrown out there for U&ME and Feng Alix to answer, and happily, they both accepted to do an Interview.

To Feng Alix...

QUESTION: Why did you accept to boost U&MEs brand instead of FJ Styles, since once worked with them for a few years, are you short of money ?.

REPLY: (chuckles softly) FJ is already made, and its time for other brands to be in the limelight instead of being pushed away. And no, Im not out of money, because I can never run out of money.

QUESTION: Since you helped U&ME with publicizing their products, and you are even wearing one of their products right now, do you plan to go back into modeling ?.

REPLY: No, I dont have plans like that. My husband wants me to look after myself and do things that wouldnt stress me out. I just did this stuff to lend a helping hand and to show my support for brands that have a great vision.

QUESTION: One personal question, please...

REPLY: Sorry, I wont accept any personal questions, thank you!

To U&MEs Boss...

QUESTION: Since Mrs. Suarez formally known as Feng Alix, helped your brand, there has been a very big boost in product sales and returns. What made you think about asking for her help ?

REPLY: I didnt have that intention initially until she walked into our company with her husband to shop for some clothes. I asked her while considering that she may reject my proposal, but to our surprise, she accepted it but refused the payment.

QUESTION: Whats your vision now that U&ME has received a big boost ?.

REPLY: Our Vision has become bigger, and we are working hard to compete with FJ Styles and overtake them soon.

END OF INTERVIEWS

When the interview records were released, a lot of people whose favorite brand was FJ, three hard words on U&ME brand fit saying they were working hard to overtake FJ.

You just experienced a little attention, and you are already tying ahead of yourselves!

You think you can overtake an International brand like FJ? Well yes, you can, only in your dreams!

I won't be shocked if your brand folds up for using a woman of bad reputation to boost your brand and sales!

There were so many people against U&MEs Boss for speaking that way. It's not bad for people to want to overtake the people already ages of them, but saying it out, could bring about a lot of critics, especially when the people are already infuriated by their means.

While many people were speaking against U&MEs Boss for the bold words he used, that didn't stop them from making more money from their sales.

2 weeks later, after Feng Alix had left China with her husband, U&ME released a new clothing collection which attracted a lot of attention, because the outfits released, made sense.

Close to the end of May, U&ME received a nomination alongside FJ Styles and other reputable Fashion brands for the best Fashion Brand in the country. The votes were still ongoing, and the results would be announced in the 2nd week of June.

Fu Hua and FJ were not moved by all of these. Their brand was still waxing strong even without releasing any new collection, and that's to show that they are not competing with anyone.

Shortly before Feng Alix left, it was rumored that she went to FJ to shop directly from their headquarters, but was not allowed even with her new identity, but FJ didn't release any statement, so no one knew how true the rumors were.

Bai Jun was back from her leave, but she used plaster on her nose for another week before removing it.

During Feng Alix and U&MEs collaboration, she found out that Alix has not gotten over Fu Hua, and her instinct told her that she was doing all of these to draw Fu Huas attention.

If it was before, Bai Jun would have been in the spirit to fight anyone that showed interest in Fu Hua, but now, it looks like her soul has traveled, and her mind, having other thoughts.

Just as Bai Juns instincts were working Jia Lis instincts were working too, but she wasnt worried that Fu Hua would have anything to do with Feng Alix again. She was confident of how principles her husband was.

After work today, Jia Li packed up her things and left her desk. She worked till very late today, and she was tired. She didnt worry much about Jasmine, because the little girl was in good hands. There were a lot of people in the house to look after her and to play with her.

You could say that the little girl always had good times when her mother was not around, because Jia Li seemed to be the only one who was a little strict with her. The others always bent to what she wanted, but would only back away if the stuff she wanted would harm her.

Apart from this, Jasmine the little princess of the Fu family always had her ways. She was getting lots of love from her family, but Jia Li was a little scared that sue would bring up a little brat in the future, so she decided to bring up rules the family had to follow when it comes to looking after the little bun.

Jia Lis concerns were understood, so Grandfather Fu asked everyone to listen to her.

Chapter 425 – Its Bai Jun

In the underground parking lot, Jia Li was seen walking towards her car when Bai Jun who was sitting in her car tiredly, saw her. This was the first time Bai Jun was seeing Jia Lis ride, and she became jealous.

It looks like she doesnt bother to keep a low-key. Bai Jun sneered jealously as she watched Jia Li unlock her car. But just then, She saw Fu Hua approaching Jia Li with long strides while calling out to her, Sweetheart!

Bai Jun quickly hid away while Jia Li turned in surprise after recognizing the familiar voice.

Why are you calling out to me, what if anyone saw us, and heard you ?. Jia Li asked in a worried tone as she glanced around.

There is nothing to be afraid of. I dont mind if they find out about us right now, you are my wife. The only reason Im still keeping you hidden, its because you are building yourself now, so you dont need the medias attention as my wife. Fu Hua said with a smile as he came to her side, and hugged her.

Jia Li was still afraid that someone would see them, so she tried pushing away and protesting, but the result was that Fu Hua hugged her tightly before sealing her lips with his mouth.

Jia Li didnt dare to relax, and tried really hard to push him away, but failed. At last, Fu Hua let her go after almost a minute of kissing, and at the end, he but her lips softly and called her a stubborn woman.

Darling, this is a serious situation, what if people saw us, that wouldnt be good. Even if you dont care if we are seen, but this is not a good way to convey this message, people would think we are having an affair. Jia Li said in a worried tone.

If she was seen kissing Fu Hua in the underground parking lot, a few people may guess that she was his hidden wife, while a lot of people would think they were having an affair, because they were sneaking around.

Fu Hua was not bothered, instead, he became thrilled. It wouldnt be bad if we are seen, and the news about us having an affair comes out, that would be fun.

Jia Li was speechless and wondered if he knew when to joke and not tom Seeing tee ugly expression on his wifes face, Fu Hua smiled and caressed her cheeks before leaning in to peck her lips.

Dont mind me I was joking. We can go home now. Fu Hua said with a comfortable gaze as he took a step back from her.

Bai Jun who has been hiding in her car saw the sweet exchange between Fu Hua and Jia Li, and her anger boiled. She felt an excruciating pain in her chest as she watched them act all lovey-dovey with each other.

Bai Jun cursed both Jia Li and Fu Hua in her mind and ignited her car immediately and drove off to the shock of Jia Li and Fu Hua who was not expecting anyone to be in the underground parking lot.

Oh my goodness, who was that?. Jia Li asked in a frightened tone. She didnt expect that someone has been in the parking lot, and only drove away now.

Someone trying to sneak around. Relax, I will find out who that person is. Fu Hua said and asked Jia Li to get into the car.

Darling Im really scared right now. Jia Li said with creased brows. She didnt want to leave now that she had something serious to worry about.

Fu Hua sighed and asked her to wait for while he phoned Zimo and asked him to find out the identity of the person that drove away some seconds ago.

Within a few minutes, Zimo reported back to him with a clear picture of Bai Jun walking towards her car and getting into it, and a short video of how she came to the underground parking lot, and Jia Li coming in next before their entanglement.

Its Bai Jun, you dont need to worry, we can go home now. Fu Hua said to Jia Li.

Bai Jun, wont she tell on us?. Jia Li said with a little worry. She knew that Bai Jun hated her, and wouldnt mind using any opportunity she had to get back at her, so she was worried that she must have taken a picture or a video of them.

Dont think too much about it. She knows what will happen if she reveals any information about my private life. Fu Hua said without worries.

Jia Li was slightly comforted by his words and agreed to fo home, and Fu Hua followed her in his car immediately.

Bai Jun was driven by anger to leave, but she also thought about some things because she was smart. She wanted to draw attention to herself as well, and she knew that Fu Hua would find out about her identity.

That little attention from Fu Hua was what Bai Jun needed to stay sane. She thought that the next day, Fu Hua would call for her to ask her not to divulge any information about his private life. She didn't mind if his words would hurt or cause her to be jealous, as all she needed was another little attention from him, and an opportunity to converse with him, but it never came.

The next day at work, Bai Jun waited patiently for Fu Hua to call her to meet and talk, but that never happened. Thinking that he wouldn't do that because he was busy, she started having hope that he would at least send his assistant over to speak to her, but that didn't happen.

Two days later, Bai Jun confirmed that Fu Hua didn't take her as someone important. He didn't even care that she knew more than a lot of people about his private life, and he didn't care if she tries to divulge that to the media.

Seeing her insignificant she was to him, Bai Jun's hope came crashing down at a high speed, and every love and little affection she had for Fu Hua died immediately, and it was replaced with hate and a strong urge for revenge.

Chapter 426 - Complaining To Her Family In Tears

In the 2nd week of June, the results for the best fashion brand in the country were revealed, and of course, no one could beat FJ. U&ME came in 3rd, which was surprising because they have never made it to the Top 3 before.

Sunny took Jia Li to receive the award on behalf of FJ, to the envy of some people

For U&ME, most people were saying it was because of the boost they experienced and that was the reason some attention was given to them.

The Boss of U&ME was satisfied although he came in 3rd place, but now, he has become greedy and wants to overtake FJ overnight. He was currently staying up all night and looking for a way to overtake FJ before their next Autumn Fashion Show, and at last, an idea came to him to host a fashion show before FJ does.

After bringing up this suggestion in a meeting he had with his board of directors, only a few of them agreed that it was a good idea. But the majority said that it wouldnt work and what was their reason?

They said that FJs Autumn Fashion show will be hosted 2 months later, and for them to host theirs before them, they would have to do a pot of preparation which would take a lot of time. They thought that bringing up that suggestion on a whim, was not a good idea, because they may lose the fame and reputation they managed to gain in a few months if they were not successful with the Fashion Show.

The creative department of FJ Styles do not sleep, and are constantly developing new ideas for their products, so why should our creative Arts department slack off?. The Boss of U&ME asked with a frown. He didnt want his idea to be kicked away, as he wanted to fight to get to FJs level in a few months.

Our brand can not be compared to a brand like FJ which has been in existence for more than 50 years. They have taken time to build their brand and reputation, so how do you think its possible to overtake them in such a short while?. One of the board of directors asked in an annoyed tone.

Our brand may not compare with them now, but that doesnt mean it will take us 50 years before we can be like them or overthrow them, we can make it happen, and this is my final decision. The creative arts department should work their asses off and get ready for our Fashion show which will be held next month!. The Boss of U&ME said before walking away.

Seeing as he didnt care about their opinion, the board of directors that were not in support of his plans, left him to do what he wanted. But they were waiting for him to fail, so they could tackle him.

While U&ME was being turned upside down by their Boss, things were going on smoothly for FJs employees. They were already preparing for the Autumn show which would be held in August.

Bai Jun was very pissed off at the fact that she was not involved with the major work in FJ. The other people that were on probation with her, lived better off than her. It was as if she was not visible anymore and no one cared about her feelings.

And as if that was not enough, her so-called husband named Yang Peng recently made it to the news headlines after being seen with another girl.

Yang Peng was the son-in-law of the Bai Family, and he was bound to get some attention from the media. And the photo taken of him and the unidentified lady was suggestive. He had a hand wrapped around the lady with a happy smile on his face.

Despite being married to the last person he would care about, Yang Peng decided to get a girlfriend for himself. And when he appeared in the newspaper because of it, he didn't feel any remorse, because he was not trying to hide it. He was tired of his relationship with Bai Jun even though they never had any interaction.

Yang Peng felt that Bai Jun being his wife, was a taint to his reputation, so he decided to get rid of her by following his mind.

Even though Bai Jun didn't love him, but she will not tolerate him getting caught by the media with another woman, while still being married to her. And that was exactly how Bai Jun felt. She felt ashamed and humiliated that she had to go back to her Bai Family to cry and complain.

Old Mrs. Bai was unhappy with Yang Peng and the Yang family because his actions were a slap to her family's face. Doing something so degrading and being caught on camera was a big shame to them.

Mum, have you seen the kind of man you picked up for my daughter? Now he has slapped all our faces in the mud!. Bai Fen ranted angrily.

Why are you screaming and blaming us? I'm sure if Bai Jun had behaved properly, Yang Peng wouldn't have treated her this way. The first daughter-in-law said as she rolled her eyes.

How is it my daughter's fault for the mistake you made? You couldn't even pick someone capable, and now her youth is ruined, and our family is being made fun of. Bai Fen said angrily while pointing at them.

She couldn't accept the fact that her daughter has been shamed to that extent.

The third daughter-in-law of the Bai family sneered and said, Don't wag your tail like an animal. Jun is to blame for everything that is happening. If only she didn't confront Yang Peng on the day our families met, then he wouldn't have treated her this way.

What do you mean?. Old Mrs. Bai asked with a frown.

What nonsense are you talking about, are you trying to cook up some stories because of your capabilities of picking a good husband for my daughter?. Bai Fen asked while pointing angrily at her

The third daughter-in-law smiled as she glanced at Bai Jun who suddenly became silent. Bai Jun, why don't you tell your mother and grandmother how you confronted Yang Peng on that day?.

Bai Jun shivered as all attention was now on her.

Chapter 427 - Bai Jun's Decision

Jun, what did you say to Yang Peng before you two got married?. Old Mrs. Bai asked with a deep frown. She was thinking that if her granddaughter really said anything insulting to Yang Peng, then she really deserved what she was getting.

There was silence for a few moments as Bai Jun received to speak. The third daughter-in-law seeing that Bai Jun refused to speak, made a suggestion.

Jun, I can see that you are not able to talk anymore, so why dont I narrate the whole story to everyone, then if Im lying, you can confirm it.

Without waiting for Bai Jun to say anything, the third daughter-in-law went on to narrate the story of the exchange of words between Bai Jun and Yang Peng, much to everyones horror.

Bai Jun never told her mother about this, so she was quite shocked learning all of these right now.

Bai Jun cursed the day she met her Aunt. She thought she wasnt going to speak about it since she forgave her when it happened, but it looked like she has been saving the story for today.

Jun, did you really say that to Yang Peng?! Old Mrs. Bai asked in an authoritative tone. She was so angry for the kind of granddaughter that was raised in her family. Her granddaughter was busy crying and blaming Yang Peng while she has been the one at fault.

Grandma... Grandma, I really did say that, but I had no choice as I didnt have any control of my anger. Bai Jun said in a low tone as she lowered her head. If that very day was to repeat itself, she would still take the same step, because she hated Yang Peng so much for embarrassing her.

You dared to tell your husband that you loved another man a few days before married, and you said you didnt have control of your anger?! Old Mrs. Bai scolded angrily as she pointed fingers at Bai Jun.

Bai Jun, dont tell me that you still like Fu Hua? OMG! What kind of disgusting personality do you have? Mother, I think we have to do something about this. The first daughter-in-law suggested.

Bai Fen got so angry that she immediately scolded the two daughters-in-law. You two had better stop putting words in mothers mouth. Dont accuse my daughter of indiscipline.

Old Mrs. Bai felt a big headache coming as she raised her hand to massage her temples before glancing at Bai Jun to ask a very serious question.

Bai Jun, do you still like Fu Hua ?.

If it was before, Bai Juns heart would have been pounding nervously out of guilt, but right now, the same heart that held affection for Fu Hua held as much hate as the previous feelings she had for him.

Bai Fen was a bit tense and immediately denied those words before her daughter could say anything, as she was scared she might say the wrong thing.

Allow Jun to speak, and dont say anything again!. Old Mrs. Bai warned with a deep frown.

There was no need to think twice about the matters of her current heart, so Bai Jun decided to come out with her real feelings.

Slowly looking up at her grandmother as tears of pain filled her eyes, Bai Jun said to her, Grandmother, I dont if you will believe me or not, but that doesnt matter because it is the truth. I dont like Hua of the Fu family.

The first and the third daughters-in-law were taken aback by Bai Juns way of speaking. This was the first time she was addressing Fu Hua as such, and it was filled with disrespect.

Bai Fen glanced at her daughter in surprise. She had different thoughts going through her head at the moment.

Seeing everyone's curious gazes on her, she wiped her tears and continued, Before, I might have had a little hope of getting together with him, but not anymore. I hate him so much now, and the people from the Fu family.

You hate Fu Hua? Is this a joke or something else?. The first daughter-in-law asked with a frown.

Are you trying to use another method to try and deceive us?. The third daughter-in-law asked with a smirk. She didn't trust Bai Jun one bit after how sly she has been in the past.

I don't need anyone to believe me, because I don't care anymore. Glancing back at her grandmother, Bai Jun said with determination in her tone, Grandmother, I want to get a divorce.

What?! The two women exclaimed in shock, as they didn't expect Bai Jun to bring up the kind of suggestion. They thought she would ask for Yang Peng to be punished, or ask to stay in the Bai house for some time, but she went beyond their imagination.

Bai Fen didn't know what her daughter was up to, as they didn't have any discussion before this meeting, but she could only stand and watch.

Bai Jun, do you know what will happen if you get a divorce?. Old Mrs. Bai asked. She didn't truly believe her granddaughter so she was testing her.

I will have to quit my work in FJ, which I'm ready to do. I don't want to work where my coworkers hate me and refuse to speak to me. I don't want to work with people that isolate me and don't care about me. I want to get out from this bondage!. Bai Jun screamed as more tears rolled down her cheeks.

Jun, you want to quit your job at FJ?. Bai Fen asked in shock. The suggestion she made on that day Fu Meixu punched her, was to kill her feelings for Fu Hua, and about quitting her job, she couldnt remember saying that.

Yes, Mum, I am tired of everything. My life is ruined already, I want to take a long break. Bai Jun said with her gaze on her mother.

Bai Fen felt for her daughter and decides to allow her so what she wanted. Her daughter has suffered too much after struggling to love someone that has never once glanced at her.

Are you sure that you want to quit your job in FJ?. Old Mrs.. Bai asked after a deep sigh.

Chapter 428 – Bai Juns Decision II

Bai Jun has already made her decision, abd being asked that question, there was no need to think about it again, so she nodded in response and also confirmed it with words.

Bai Jun, I will give you a few days to think about this, because there will be no opportunity for you to go back to FJ again. Immediately after filing for a divorce, you are going to America. Old Mrs. Bai said.

The Matriarch of the Bai family felt for her granddaughter too. She felt that Bai Jun has suffered a lot just to learn a big lesson, but she couldn't blame anyone for that, since she refused to listen.

Old Mrs. Bai knew that Bai Jun was pained and would need to leave the country for a while for her to get better, and probably start a new life there, so she was ready to send her out of the country.

Mother, why does Bai Jun have to leave the country? She can stay here with us, she needs our company!. Bai Fen cried out in anger.

How could my daughter leave for America immediately after filing for a divorce without spending some time with her family, and what about their revenge plans?

Bai Fen was still thinking about taking revenge on the Fu family, and if her daughter left, who was she going to plan it with?

Fen, if you don't do anything, then you should at least know that your daughter is going to be a laughing stock which she already is. If you want her to still stay sane, then she has to leave this country and only return when this chaos is over. At least, this should be the last thing we can do for her. The first daughter-in-law said.

All of you destroyed my daughter's life by making her get married against her wishes, you destroyed her prospective future!. Bai Fen said angrily. She was still deeply upset about the marriage between her daughter and Yang Peng.

Perspective future of getting close to a married man? Bai Fen, you better listen clearly because none of us will take it if you accuse us again. Your daughter destroyed her future and not us. She made every decision herself, we didn't force her to pick any option. The third daughter-in-law said while pointing at her.

Bai Fen hit her finger away and said, But you left her with no choice. You led into danger and destruction!.

And you contributed a great deal to her destruction by not raising her well! The third daughter-in-law said with a scoff.

She believed that if Bai Jun was not spoiled when she was little, she wouldnt have grown up to be a headache.

How dare you tell me I dont know how to raise children when your son goes about spending money on girls?. Bai Fen retorted. She couldnt accept the blame of being the only bad mother who didnt know how to raise a child.

At least, he doesnt mess up unlike your daughter, and that must be the reason you dont have another child so you wont have a chance to corrupt him with your bad morals!. The third daughter-in-law said with a sneer.

What did it just say to me?. Bai Fen asked in anger. She couldnt believe what she just heard.

Enough! Both of you!. Old Mrs. Bai shouted angrily. She also felt that her third daughter-in-law went too far, but she didnt have any plans of scolding her, because she blamed Bai Fen for not raising her daughter well.

Bai Jun who was still sitting on the floor didnt move an inch or react to her mother being insulted, because she didnt care about anybody at the moment. She has made a vow to herself to be selfish.

Bai Fen was pained that no one was coming to her defense after she was called barren. But mother... She managed to say just before the old lady cut her off.

All of you shut up and leave my sight!. Bai Jun, go and think about what I said, Im giving you a week to get back to me, you can leave with your mother. Old Mrs. Bai said with a casual glance at her.

Bai Jun got up from the floor and walked away without saying anything. She didnt need time to dwell on anything apart from how she was going to get revenge on Fu Hua, and the entire Fu family, including Jia Li if she left for America soon.

When Bai Fen came to find Bai Jun in her bedroom, her door was locked and after knocking and calling out to her, Bai Jun still refused to open the door for her and asked her to go away.

Old Mrs. Bai later confronted the Yang family about their sons actions and how it was damaging their familys reputation. After the Yang Family apologized, the husband and wife waited for their son to come back home before scolding him.

Yang Peng wasnt remorseful about his actions and walked away while his parents were still speaking to him.

I think we need to let me get a divorce. Since they were married, we havent had peace in this house. Mr. Yang said with a frown.

I have thought about that as their relationship is getting worse by the day, but we cant be the one to suggest it, it will be disrespectful to the Bai family, after what our son did you embarrass them. Mrs. Yang said with a frown.

Mr. Yang glanced at her and asked, So you want us to wait until the Bai family brings up the topic about divorce before our son will be freed from these shackles called marriage?.

Do we have a choice? Even if Peng does not like that girl, he shouldn't have done that, now see, he was caught and everyone knows that our son cheated. Mrs. Yang said.

She didn't care much about reputation, but this was really embarrassing to be pointed fingers at, and be the topic of discussion.

Mr. Yang got angry with her and walked away, as he felt that the marriage between his son and the daughter of the Bai family should end as soon as possible.

Bai Jun who has been thinking of a way to get revenge on Fu Hua, Jia Li, and the Fu family, finally got an opportunity to do so.... Although she felt the revenge was not as heavy as she wanted, she still took the little opportunity she got.

Chapter 429 – Mr. U Meets Bai Jun

In the last week of June, the Creative Arts department of FJ was already through with their designs, and after Fu Hua approved of them, Sunny gave the signal for production to start in 2 days after the materials for the outfits has been sought out.

Since Jia Li was Sunnys assistant, she had a copy of the designs for the Autumn show in her system and being the easiest target, and because of the revenge she had in mind, Bai Jun decided to steal the designs directly from her, the same day she submitted her resignation later.

(Wait,

After complaining to her family about ending her marriage with Yang Peng, Bai Jun refused to go back to the Yang family's home and insisted on staying in the Bai house.

Since the old lady of the Bai family did not speak against it as she pitied her granddaughter, nobody in the family said another word.

That weekend, on Sunday evening, Bai Jun went to a club to get high as she was feeling depressed. She went straight to the bar to sit and order a drink for herself.

From her countenance and actions, it could be seen that she didn't come to have fun in any way. Bai Jun didn't care if she was recognized and drank away her pain.

The Boss of U&ME was sitting somewhere and drinking with someone he was about to do business with.

Let me see the kind of designs I'm paying for. Mr. U (Boss of U&ME) said with a frown as he put his glass

I'm sure you will like them. The man said as he picked up his glass and drank from it in a relaxed manner. His tone sounded confident as well.

Opening the document, Mr. U went on to bring out the sketches in it and put them on the table. While going through them, he asked, Where did you get these designs from?

I bought them from young talented people, but I won't divulge their identities to you, since it's my business. The man replied with a proud smile.

The designs make sense, how much did you pay them, and are you sure they are amateurs?. Mr. U asked as he looked up at him.

They are indeed amateurs, and dont know rye value of their talent, so all I did was to take advantage of that. This is not really professional, so you can get your design team to alter a few things and you are good to go. As for the price, I wont tell you. The man said to him as he swirled his glass.

You dont need to tell me the price, I will still pay you the same amount we agreed on, you did work hard. Mr. U said as he whipped out his phone to carry out a transaction.

In less than 2 minutes, the other man sitting opposite him received a credit alert, and that made him happy. He quickly stretched out his hand for a handshake.

It was nice doing business with you, Mr. U

You can leave now, and remember not to wag your tongue. Mr. U warned with a careless glance.

I know, thanks for the treat. The man said happily and got up to leave.

After he left, Mr. U picked up the sketches on the table and glanced at them one more time before putting them back into the envelope.

Their fashion show was in 2 weeks, and he only had 10 designs for it, that were already in production. The remaining samples of sketches his creative arts department brought, were totally useless to him, so he had to find a means to complete the designs himself.

After sitting there for a while, Mr. U decided to leave. As he walked away, his gaze swept through the bar area, and there, he saw Bai Juns familiar figure. He felt that Bai Jun seemed familiar, and took a detour towards her.

Miss Bai, you seem to be having a good time. Mr. U said as he sat on the stop next to her.

Bai Jun glanced at him with a frown before asking, I dont know you, and how do you know me ?.

Mr. U chuckled and said to her, Im sorry for my ignorance, I am Mr. U, CEO of the U&ME collection. Miss Bai, dont you know how famous you are? You are a famous socialite, and besides, your husbands cheating made you more popular.

Bai Jun got angry at his second statement and warned him in a harsh tone. Mr. U, if you came here to make fun of me, it would be good if you leave on time.

Mr. U did not intend to annoy her, so he quickly apologized to her, and it was only then that she calmed down.

Why did you come to me ?. Bai Jun asked as she picked up her shot glass.

I saw a beautiful socialite like you sitting alone, so I got worried and decided to come and check on you. Mr. U replied with a smile.

I dont need your pity and sympathy, and I dont need you to care for me, so you can be on your way. Bai Jun said as she waved her hand for him to leave, instead, Mr. U chuckled lightly.

Its too early to leave, and the night is still young. You work for FJ, right? The Autumn fashion show is in a month and 2 weeks, shouldnt you be at home wrestling and waiting for the new weeks so you can go to work and stress your life out?. Mr. U probed.

FJ? Bai Jun said and scoffed before drinking from her glass.

As someone who was desperate, Mr. U, picked up Bai Juns slight actions immediately, and felt that things were wrong, and decided to probe more, as he might get a good opportunity for anything.

What happened, were you mistreated? you look angry at the mention of FJ. Mr.. U said.

Chapter 430 – Win-Win Situation

As FJ was mentioned, Bai Jun felt a hand grip her heart tightly. She always felt angered and pained whenever she remembered how she was mistreated in FJ, and by the people from the Fu family. She always felt like squeezing light out of them. Currently, Bai Juns heart is filled with pain.

I dont want to think about FJ and surging related to the Fu family, I came out here to get some rest. Bai Jun replied.

Mr. U couldnt let go of this tiny opportunity to slip by, so he pressured Bai Jun to talk about FJ and how she was wronged.

What did FJ do to you? I can see how much you dont want to talk about them because you were deeply hurt. Just tell me about it, and if you want to take revenge on them, I will help you, since I am not on the same path with them.

Bai Jun could guess a little about his intentions, so she glanced at him properly before scoffing. If you want to overtake FJ, you have to employ staffs who are ready to double FJs efforts over the past years, because aside from that, you cant shake them.

I can overtake them now, but I can shake them by helping you take revenge on them. We can work together to gain benefits from these. Mr. U said with a smile. All he needed was Bai Juns cooperation for this idea that just got into his head, to work.

Bai Jun who was starting to seem interested in the business collaboration raised a brow and asked, And what do you have to offer to shake FJ?.

I dont have much, and I can not do it alone since I need your help and cooperation to start. Mr. U replied smartly.

Whats your idea, out with it. Bai Jun said with a slight smile. Deep down in her heart, she was hoping that Mr. U would come up with a good idea that will be a big blow to FJ, so she waited patiently for him to speak.

.....

You want me to steal some of FJs designs for you?. Bai Jun queried.

Exactly. This is a win-win situation. You steal the designs and give them to me, while I use them for my show that will happen in 2 weeks, and that is the perfect way to take revenge on them. Mr. U said with a smile.

This is a perfect way to take revenge. And it will be more perfect if I could still the designs for the Autumn show, but this is like running into the lions den, so I will pass. It was nice meeting you. Bai Jun said and got up to walk away, but Mr. Fu pulled her back immediately after a few steps.

Miss Bai, this is my name card, please call me within 2 days if you change your mind, I will be waiting for you. Mr. U said with a smile before walking away.

Bai Jun glanced at the name card in her hand and saw Mr. Us real name and the U&ME logo and brand name on the card.

Weirdo. Bai Jun muttered under her breath before putting the name card in her bag. If there was an opportunity to steal the designs without being caught, Bai Jun would proudly do it.

All these plans and exchanges did not pass the sight and ears of a man sitting next to Mr. U on the stool. Because of his sitting position, Bai Jun and Mr. U didnt notice him.

The next day being Monday, Bai Jun went to work as usual, but her mind was not really there as she had other thoughts going through her mind. She was thinking of how she would steal the designs without being caught, and also when to submit her resignation later.

At work, no one had the time to make fun on her since her husband appeared on the news, as they were all busy, but that doesnt mean they were not talking behind her back, which Bai Jun didnt care about, as she would be divorcing Yang Peng, and quit her job.

The best news Bai Jun got or heard coincidentally, was from someone from FJs security team. Immediately after getting into the elevator and as the door was about to close, two young men in black suits, walked in while discussing something.

MAN 1: The CCTV cameras in the building are down, when will the maintenance be over?.

MAN 2: A little over lunch break. I dont know why there has to be a bug in the system now.

MAN 1: We have to fix the bug quickly before we get scolded. This system maintenance was supposed to be carried out last weekend.

A ding around came from the elevator, and the men walked out while still talking about the system maintenance.

Bai Jun walked out a few seconds later with a big smile on her face. To confirm what they were saying about the CCTV cameras in the building being down, Bai Jun kept glancing at the CCTV cameras in the hall to be sure they were not working and when she saw they were not on, her heart was gladdened.

Now, I have until lunch break to steal the designs. Bai Jun thought happily as she walked away and went into her office to sit down.

In Fu Huas office, he was currently speaking with Sunny, while Zimo was standing at the side.

I want you to act out a play with me. I want to catch a rat red-handed. Fu Hua said with a serious gaze on Sunny.

Sir, Is everything alright?. Sunny asked with a surprised gaze.

Everything is not alright. Stop asking questions and follow my instructions, and dont tell anyone about it, even to your assistant, and your deputies. Fu Hua instructed in a strict tone.

Sunny didnt know what was happening, and what her boss was driving at, but she nodded in compliance. Whatever he wanted her to do, she will do it.

Fu Hua picked up a flash drive from his table and passed it to Sunny and began to give out instructions in a strict tone.

Chapter 431 – Yang Peng Files For Divorce

Fifteen minutes later, Sunny returned to her office and sat on her seat for a few minutes before leaving with a flash in her hand. She went straight to the big office reserved for the fashion designers and called out Jia Lis name in other to get everyones attention.

JL?. Sunny called out as she hurriedly walked towards JLs desk. She looked a little panicked but tried to hide it.

JL heard the urgency in Sunnys voice and got up from her seat with a worried gaze.

JL, my system just crashed, copy the designs for the Autumn show and return the flash to me. We will use your system if something urgent comes up in the factory. Dont forget to save the file with Autumn Show 20XX Sunny instructed before walking away.

Jia Li immediately did as she was instructed. Because the designs were already saved as a file with that title, all she did was copy and paste the file on her system without checking the designs.

After doing that, Jia Li quickly left for Sunny's office to return the flash, and all this while, Bai Jun who was sitting so far away, paid attention to Jia Li and Sunny, and now, she was thinking of how she would steal the designs during their lunch break, and she hoped everyone got out of the office as quickly as possible when it was time for their lunch break, so she would have enough time to herself.

When Jia Li returned to her seat, she felt a gaze filled with malice directed at her, but when she turned to look around, she didn't see anyone. She felt the serene was odd, but she fixed her gaze back on her laptop and continued with her work.

Immediately it was time for a lunch break, a few designers left their desks and went out for lunch, while a majority of them stayed back to continue working, and this infuriated Bai Jun a whole lot.

Damn these people! Can't you see it's lunch hours? What are you still doing here?. Bai Jun screamed angrily in her head. She didn't know why so many people refused to leave for lunch today she was set out on carrying out her plans after getting a rare opportunity to do so.

Bai Jun thought of the possibility of stealing the designs with only a few people in the office, but it would be very risky since it would be easy to see her around Jia Li's desk.

At this point, Bai Jun wished she had superpowers, so she could stop time and steal the designs she wanted. Luckily for Bai Jun or so she thought, Chyou came to deliver instruction from Sunny.

Miss Sunny said everyone should come out for lunch immediately, and you have only 20 minutes to return to your desk and continue your work, Chyou said before turning to walk away.

Ah! Today is going to be a long day!. Linda said as she got up from her desk with a sigh.

How do you know that? Marié asked.

Linda leaned over and replied, I can feel it in my bones. The others laughed at her because she got that sentence from a song.

As they all passed by Jia Lis desk, Marié stopped in her steps and asked, Are you planning to starve today?.

Jia Li glanced up, she was surprised that Marié decided to speak to her today, but she replied, Im coming.

Youre coming? Do you have extra time somewhere? We only have 19 minutes right now. Linda said with a frown.

Alright, Im through, Jia Li said as she got up from her seat immediately. She was reminded that they didnt have much time for lunch today as their hands were full with a lot of work, so she decided to join them for lunch immediately.

Since nobody cared about Bai Jun, she sat in her seat and waited for everyone to finish leaving the room, before immediately rushing towards Jia Lis desk.

Bai Jun who was scared about the screen of Jia Lis desktop going off and which will require her to input her password, sighed in relief when she saw the screen still lit up.

Today is my day. Bai Jun said with an arrogant smile as she quickly fished out a flash drive in her hand and connected it to Jia Lis desktop, and proceeded to search for the file with the same title Sunny instructed Jia Li to name the file with.

Immediately she saw the file with that title, she smiled confidently and quickly copied it to her flash before running back to her desk to hide the flash away in her bag.

Jia Li, Fu Hua, FJ, Fu family? You all are going to suffer 100X more of the pain I went through. I will make sure I ruin your handwork. As for the Autumn fashion show in a few weeks, consider it, canceled!. Bai Jun sneered.

Bai Jun was feeling so proud of herself for completing her mission despite the little hiccups she experienced.

With her hands on her waist, she felt the urge to leave work immediately to go and celebrate, but she couldn't as she still needed to join the others in our cafeteria for lunch, so no one will suspect anything.

Back at the Yang family, Yang Peng who left the house in the morning returned with just a phone in his hand.

Mrs. Yang was surprised to her son back home so early, as it was rare. She abandoned the things she was doing and walked up to her son.

Peng, why are you back so early, is everything okay?. Mrs. Yang asked with a tinge of worry on her face.

Yang Peng smiled at her and said, Everything is fine, and I'm not coming from work.

Where are you coming from, did you have a private meeting with some clients?. Mrs. Yang probed.

Yes I did have a meeting, but with my lawyer. I just filed for a divorce, and I signed the papers before sending them over to the Bai family for Bai Jun to sign them.. Yang Peng revealed with a relaxed smile.

Chapter 432 – Bai Jun Submits Her Resignation Letter

‘What! You did what?’ Mrs. Yang asked in shock

‘I just filed for a divorce, it will be announced officially in the news this evening.’ Yang Peng announced further without care. He was happy to be free from the shackles that bound him.

‘You filed for a divorce? Why did you do that without letting your father and I know about it?’ Mrs. Yang asked with a deep frown.

Yang Peng glanced angrily at his mother and retorted, ‘Do you want to see the last tinge of hope I had to disappear into thin air before I can get my freedom? And why should I discuss this topic with your and dad again?’

‘We are your parents, you should consult us before taking this bold step. And why should you be this disrespectful to the Bai family? You should have waited for our families to discuss this matter first, before taking a step. Now, not only did you file for a divorce, you signed the papers already and sent them over to the Bai family and informed the media about it.’ Mrs. Yang lamented.

She still saw the Bai family as a family far superior to theirs, so she has always been afraid of offending them. And now, this step her son took, was what she would never allow him to do if she was informed.

‘There is nothing left for our family to discuss with the Bai family. Bai Jun has been staying at the Bai house for a few days and refused to come back, and so I thought that this was the perfect opportunity to send her the divorce papers. Mum, I don’t want you to question me again. If you encounter troubles dealing with the Bai family, inform me.’ Yang Peng said and got up to leave.

Mrs. Yang was in a dilemma because of her son’s actions which were insulting to the Bai family. Mrs. Yang agreed that her son deserved happiness, but not by offending the Bai family.

When the Bai family received the divorce papers which already had Yang Peng’s signature, there was a mixed reaction.

Bai Fen was whopping mad. Being someone that had a lot of pride in her, she felt insulted by Yang Peng’s actions.

‘We were ready to send them the divorce papers, couldn’t they have exercised a little patience?’ Bai Fen said angrily.

‘Why are you so worked up? Are you not happy that your daughter will be free to live her life now?’ The third daughter-in-law asked with a sneer.

‘Who asked them to send a divorce paper to us without discussing things with us? And this makes it seem as if they are the one rejecting my daughter when it’s not so!’ Bai Fen retorted.

‘There is no need to pick a fight about such a simple matter. Since Bai Jun and Yang Peng hate each other and can not continue to stay married, it is good for them to get a divorce, and it doesn’t matter who files for divorce first.’ The first son of the old lady said.

‘But this is so unfair to my Jun! Yang Peng was the one that publicly cheated on my daughter, and now, he dares to file for divorce first.’ Bai Fen complained bitterly.

‘Enough! When Jun comes back, she will sign these papers immediately, so they can be delivered straight to the Yang family.’ Old Mrs. said to them.

‘Fen, you should be grateful that your daughter still has a lot of time to make amends if she wants to, otherwise...’ The third daughter-in-law said and trailed off as a smirk appeared at the corner of her lips.

Bai Fen rolled her eyes at her before turning to the old lady to ask, ‘Mother, what of Jun’s flight, has it been booked yet? How is the arrangement for her in the US?’

‘I thought you didn’t want Jun to travel to the US immediately, but it looks like you are in a hurry to send her off.’ The first daughter-in-law sneered.

The reason Bai Jun wanted to send her daughter out of the country immediately, was because Yang Peng slapped her face by filing for divorce first when he was the one that committed an abominable act first which caused damage to her daughter’s reputation. Bai Fen didn’t want her daughter to be the topic of discussion any more, she wanted her to escape from it.

‘Every arrangement will be concluded tomorrow. Her flight had been booked for this weekend.’ Old Mrs. Bai said and heaved a sigh.

Back At FJ, immediately after the lunch break was over, Bai Jun went back to her desk to complete her work as soon as possible since she had plans of submitting her resignation letter at the end of work today.

Bai Jun knew that if she didn't finish her work before submitting her resignation letter, Sunny wouldn't accept it, so she invested a lot of time into her work.

It was rare to see Bai Jun so into her work. Those sitting close to the desk that glanced at her by coincidence and saw how busy she looked, and went back to their work immediately.

When Bai Jun finished working, it was a few minutes before work comes to an end, so she shut her desktop down. Next, she picked up her important stuff from her desk and put them in her bag, before she got to her feet with the white envelope that contained her resignation letter.

Waking with confident strides, Bai Jun went straight to Sunny's office to hand in her resignation letter which came as a surprise to the latter.

'What's your reason for resigning?.' Sunny asked with a neutral gaze.

'I am tired of working where I don't receive support from my teammates, and my supervisor doesn't care about my progress, coupled with the issues from my personal life. I am mentally exhausted and can not carry on any longer.' Bai Jun replied.

Sunny stared at her for a while before asking, 'Why did you choose to hand in your resignation letter today, you should have done it some time ago.'

'There is no particular reason. Miss Sunny, I will take my leave now.' Bai Jun said with a slight bow.

'Miss Bai, you still have to come to work tomorrow, and you can only leave after Mr.. Fu and the HR team has approved your letter of resignation,' Sunny informed.
