Chapter 433 – That Bastard!

Bai Jun turned around to say, Miss Sunny, I wont be coming to work tomorrow.

Your resignation letter hasnt been approved yet, so why wouldnt you come to work tomorrow? Sunny asked.

I dont care about my work here anymore, and Im sure Mr. Fu will approve my resignation with immediate effect since he doesnt want me here. Bai Jun responded with a rude gaze.

Sunny smiled and then heaved a sigh before saying, If you didnt want to come to work tomorrow, you should have submitted your resignation letter when you came to work this morning. Work hours have ended, and Mr. Fu will attend to your matter tomorrow, and until then, you are still FJs employee.

Well, Im sure I still dont need to appear here tomorrow because he will immediately approve of my resignation once he sets his eyes on my letter. Thank you, Miss Sunny, have a great life. Bai Jun said and walked away arrogantly.

She didnt care about the way she spoke to her superior at work, and it didnt and will never bother her.

Sunny intentionally reminded Bai Jun about her current employment status till her resignation letter was approved, but the latter didnt get it. It looks like Bai Jun didnt think things through about her contract with FJ, and she probably didnt read everything when it was first given to her to sign.

If Bai Jun was caught in her actions when she is still an FJ employee, the punishment she will face will be massive, but it looks like she doesnt care that she will be caught because of the CCTV cameras she thought were turned off.

Bai Jun being so confident that Fu Hua wouldnt hesitate to approve of her resignation walked straight to her car which was parked in the underground parking lot.

Immediately she got into her car, she picked up her phone to dial Mr. Us contact, and at the first ring, the call got connected.

I have the designs, where should we meet?. Bai Jun inquired as she played with the flash drive in her hand.

What? You really got your hands on those designs?. Mr. U asked in surprise. He was really shocked that she managed to get her hands on the gold mine he wanted.

Dont waste my time, where should we meet?. Bai Jun asked in annoyance.

Mr. U who was currently supervising the work going on in the creative department looked around and glanced at his wristwatch. Can you come to U&ME now, there is an important matter I have to settle immediately, I will meet you in the underground parking lot in 20 minutes.

Bai Jun ended the call after he said that and put her phone and the flash drive in her bag before driving out.

At exactly 20 minutes later, Bai Jun and Mr. U met up.

How did you manage to get your hands on the designs so fast?. Mr. U asked with a smile as Bai Jun walked towards him in quick steps.

Luck was on my side. All the designs for the Autumn show are in here, you can have them now. Bai Jun said as she handed over the flash drive.

Mr. U stretched out his hand to receive the flash drive as a playful smile played on his face.

I am surprised you went on to get your hands on this when we havent talked about the price yet. I was expecting you to ponder over my proposal, and get back to me so we can talk about the price, you really surprised me.

I didnt do this for money, so I dont need your money. I am doing this because I want to deal with FJ! I want Fu Hua to suffer a huge blow that he has never experienced or dealt with before. And as for Jia Li, she will be the prime suspect if FJ finds out that you used their designs for your upcoming show. Bai Jun said with a smile that was not a smile.

I can see how deeply your hatred runs for Mr. Fu. Thats okay, I have to get going so the productions can start this night. What are your plans after this?. Mr. U asked just as he turned to walk away, but stopped in his steps.

I dont think you need to know so much about my plans, but I will tell you since we are business partners. Im going to file for a divorce because I cant stand my shitty marriage to a loser, then Im going to leave the country immediately. Bai Jun replied.

Mr. U glanced at her strangely and then asked, You are going to file for a divorce?.

Yes, why not?. Bai Jun asked with a frown almost immediately.

How can you file for a divorce when your husband already filed for one this morning?. Mr. U asked with an interested gaze

Bai Jun narrowed her gaze as she asked, Im sorry, you said what?.

Mr. U saw her surprised stance and knew that she was unaware of the recent news that was making rounds on the internet this evening. It looks like you dont know whats going on. Your husband filed for a divorce today, and he posted about it himself before other news outlets helped him to spread the news. You have worked hard for today, and I think you should go home soon. And, thanks for this.

After comforting her, Mr. U patted her shoulder before walking away with a smile and leaving the dumbfounded Bai Jun all by herself.

Mr. Us words were still ringing bells in Bai Juns ears for another few seconds before she came back to herself. She quickly went online to confirm the news, and she saw what she was looking for.

That bastard!!! Bai Jun cursed angrily as she walked back to her car immediately. She turned on the car and drove away immediately. While on her way back to the Bai house, she kept trying to reach Yang Peng but failed to do so.

You coward! Who needs this shitty marriage, I was going to throw the divorce papers to your face! How dare you embarrass me and my family you worthless loser!!!.

Bai Jun kept cursing Yang Peng till she got back home.

Chapter 434 – Jasmines Reaction To Eating Adult Food

When Bai Jun got back home, Bai Fen quickly pulled her to a corner and told her about the divorce papers Yang Peng sent over, and about the news on the internet.

...now everyone knows that he filed for a divorce first!. Bai Fen said angrily.

Mum, as you can see, Im not in a good mood right now. Where are the divorce papers ?. Bai Jun asked directly.

Do I look like Im in a good mood too ?. Bai Fen asked in an annoyed tone. Here she was worried about her daughter, and the latter didnt seem to consider her feelings.

Bai Jun didnt have the strength to argue with her mother and quickly walked into the house to ask for the divorce papers.

Old Mrs. Bai glanced at her to tell her emotions, and seeing how angry she was, she said to her, Jun, just go ahead and sign the divorce papers. I am highly disappointed by Yang Pengs actions in publicizing this news.

He must have thought Jun wouldnt agree to sign the divorce papers, so he let the media know about the divorce papers so Jun will be forced to sign it. The third daughter-in-law said.

Its not like I was ever interested in this stupid marriage and a low life like him. Bai Jun said through gritted teeth as she picked up a pen and immediately signed the divorce papers before picking them up and standing to her feet.

Seeing as she was about to leave their presence with the divorce papers she just signed, Old Mrs. Bai stopped her. Where are you going?.

To give the divorce papers back to that disgrace of manhood!. Bai Jun retorted with an angry gaze.

Your words are so foul this evening. You must be very angry, so I suggest you go in to rest while we help you deliver the divorce papers to the Yang family. The first daughter-in-law said with a smile.

As everyone agreed to it, Bai Jun was forced to listen, so she asked for a minute and went into her bedroom and came out a few minutes later with a big envelope ✉ containing the divorce papers and a personal letter she wrote to Yang Peng. After handing the envelope to her grandmother, she walked away.

If not for the fact that she was not allowed to leave the house, she would have gone out to cause a lot of trouble for Yang Peng and the Yang family. If given another opportunity or time, Yang Peng would have been the next person she would have loved to deal with, because he caused her life to be in embarrassment from the time he came into the picture.

When Yang Peng got the divorce papers back, he saw the letter attached to it and opened it to read. The first sentence of the letter was enough for him to know who the letter was from, and so he didnt bother to continue reading it anymore.

Back in the Fu family, things were going on smoothly.

This little bun named Da Xia by her great grandfather and nicknamed Jasmine by her mother was currently having one of the best times of her life.

The little bun was currently sitting in her baby Walker with her silicone baby feeding set. She had one wrapped around her neck, one which was a small bowl that had a small quantity of adult food in it, and the third one was the spoon.

Yeah, that's right, Jia Li has finally allowed the little adult food snatcher to start trying adult foods for real, and the amazing thing about this is that the little bun was feeding herself.

After she was served the food, her round eyes glistened happily as she babbled excitedly. Her cute actions brought hearty laughter from the rest of the family members.

Da Xia is so cute, FangSu said as she gushed over the little buns cuteness.

And she seems to love adult food so much, Meixu said with a smile.

You really can't wait, can you?. Jia Li whispered to the little bun with a smile before going on to feed her.

Jasmine has just managed to eat two spoons of the food from her mother before insisting on feeding herself by snatching her spoon from her.

Jia Li didn't want to fight with the little bun during dinner with the whole family present, so she let her do whatever she wanted, and that's how Jasmine came to feed herself.

This was the first time the little bun was feeding herself with a spoon. Other times, she would hold her milk or water bottle on her own and would go on to feed herself. Other times, she would use her fingers to pick up fruits or anything to put in her mouth, but this was the first time she was attempting to use a spoon to feed herself.

Currently, the little bun was finding it difficult to locate her mouth with the spoon, and sometimes, the food will fall off from her spoon on its way to her mouth.

Understanding how frustrating the situation might be for his little daughter, Fu Hua decides to give her a hand. He would help to direct the spoon of food to her little mouth, and he had to struggle to do so because the little bun was still interested in feeding herself.

At a point, the little bun pulled the spoon from her father and went on to stab it into the bowl of mixed rice with veggies. From playing with the food, she held the spoon with her left hand and used her right hand to pick up the food and put it in her mouth.

Now finding it comfortable to eat that way, the little bun giggled excitedly and spoke a few incoherent words with her gaze on her mother, while pointing at her bowl of food.

Jia Li understood her but said to her while demonstrating so she could understand her words, I dont care how excited you are, but dont touch your eyes with your hands, or its really going to hurt.

The little bun smacked her lips with a smile before glancing back at her food. Before she could resume eating on her own, Fu Hua fed her some water.

Grandfather Fu glanced at his beloved great-granddaughter and said with a smile, Da Xia is intelligent and independent, it will not be hard to raise her.

Chapter 435 – Police Officers Pay A Visit To The Bai Family Unannounced

The next day at work, everyone is aware that Bai Jun sent in her resignation letter after work yesterday and everyone in the creative arts departments begins to wonder what her reason was.

Its no wonder I no longer feel any dark energy, Marié said with a smile.

Im glad she left, she should have left long ago. One of the newbies said with a snort.

But whats her reason for quitting work, doesnt it seem suspicious? Another person asked with a frown.

There is nothing suspicious about it. She was suspicious only when she refused to leave after having a messy private life, and given the fact we found out who she truly was and avoided her. Linda said.

Jun really is strong-willed only to leave now, I guess her fantasies were forced to stop.

Didnt you see the news yesterday? Her husband filed for a divorce. She would have been sent a warning from FJ sooner, but she chose to quit before then. Another person said.

I wonder what her next plans would be, she ruined her life all by herself, and thats a punishment she deserves for reaching out to what does not belong to her, Marié said.

I bet she regrets her whole existence now. Another person said with a low chuckle.

Right at this moment, Jia Li walked towards a few of them with a stack of papers in her hand. If she was making her way towards her desk, she has to pass through her colleagues who gathered at Linda's table.

Jia Li just learned about Bai Jun quitting when she went into Sunny's office just now, but she didn't care about it. She had a child, a husband, a family, and a job, so why would she waste her time on irrelevant people?

When Jia Li thought she had almost passed her colleagues, Marié blocked her path.

Jia Li glanced at Marié with a frown. She didn't know what she wanted from her this time around so she asked, Can I help you?

Marié what is wrong with you, what are you doing?. Linda asked with a frown as she got up from her feet. She was worried that Marié would upset Jia Li.

I just wanted to find out something from JL. I noticed you don't smell a lot like a baby these days, have you stopped nursing your child?. Marié asked with a smile.

Jia Li was taken aback by her question. This was the second time anyone from work has mentioned about her having a child, so she was kind of surprised.

The first person to ask about her child was Sunny. One day when she came in in the morning and went straight to Sunny's office because the latter asked for her, Sunny asked her if she was nursing because she had a baby's scent on her. Jia Li could not deny it and replied with a yes, then Sunny never brought up that topic again.

Now that Marié knew about her having a child from her scent which she tries to hide when she remembers it, Jia Li did not want to deny it since it wouldn't reveal any other important stuff apart from the fact that she had a child.

What? JL you have a child?. One of them asked as she gazed at Jia Li in surprise.

OMG! I can't believe this, I'm so shocked right now!. Another said with a shocked gaze.

Linda didn't look surprised either, because she kind of guessed some time ago that Jia Li had a child from her scent since she was always the one getting closer to her than the others.

Linda was sensible to know that Jia Li was a private person and didn't like to talk about her private life, and she respected that fact, and that was the reason she never confronted Jia Li about it

Jia Li gazed at her colleagues before saying to them, Yes I have a child. I don't like talking about my private life, because I like to keep things simple.

Wait JL, you really have a child? Is your child a male or a female?. One of them asked with an excited gaze.

Jia Li glanced at her and sighed, then she replied before quickly walking back to her desk, I have a daughter.

Jia Li was wrong to think that if she went to her desk, none of them would follow her. Right now, those interested in her stories immediately followed her to her desk and began to throw questions at her.

Can we see what your daughter looks like?

How old is she?.

Can we visit you?.

Linda saw Jia Li struggling to handle the others and immediately opened her mouth to say to them, I bet you all dont want your jobs anymore. We have a big show ahead of us, dont we have any work to do?

Lindas words were a reminder to the others who quickly left for their desks.

I know a little more about JL because I love to study people, do you want to hear them?. Marié whispered to Linda.

Im not interested, and if you love to study people and look into details, then you shouldnt be here, because you should be a psychologist, Linda said and immediately faced her desktop.

Alright, Im off, Marié said and turned to walk away.

Bai Jun who was relaxing at home with fruits surrounding her seemed not to worry about anything. Since her flight was on Friday night, she had 2 days more before she leaves China. Her things were still at Yang Pengs place, and she didnt bother to go and take them since they were just clothes, shoes, and bags. She had the money to get another one if she wanted.

While she was relaxing in her bedroom, 3 police vehicles drove into the Bai premises.

Madam, the police are here!. A servant rushed in to inform the few family members that were having some snacks in the living room.

As usual, Old Mrs. Bai, and her three daughters-in-law were having snacks and drinking tea while talking about Bai Juns future when she gets to the US before the servant came to interrupt them.

What are the police here for? Mother did you send for them?. Bai Fen asked with a frown.

All of us have been here, when did mother send for them?. The first daughter-in-law asked.

Although old Mrs.. Bai was surprised about the police visiting them without notice, she gave her permission for them to be allowed inside the house.

Chapter 436 – Miss Bai, You Are Under Arrest

What! you are here to make an arrest? Do you know whose house you are in?. Bai Fen asked angrily.

The Chief police officer just informed them that they were here to make an arrest after Old lady Bai asked them what they came for.

Mr. police, Im sure you must be mistaken about something. This is the Bai family, so tell me, which criminal do you think lives in our family?. The first daughter-in-law asked with a frown.

For the police to come to their house and say they came to arrest someone in their family, she was sure it was a serious matter.

Maybe one of the servants must have violated the rules outside or something because there is no criminal in our family. The third daughter-in-law said without a care.

No Maam, we are not here to arrest any of your servants or staff, we are here to arrest a member of your family who has violated the laws. The Chief police officer said.

Currently, there were a total of four policemen in the room with them, and the rest of them were waiting outside.

What? Mr. Officer, can you please tell us the member of my Bai family that must have offended you without knowing?. Old Mrs. Bai asked with a worried gaze as this has turned into a serious matter.

The Chief police officer showed them the paper he had in his hand while saying, We are here to arrest Miss Bai Jun for violating the company policies and rules of FJ as a staff.

What!. The first daughter-in-law and the third daughter-in-law exclaimed in shock

Mr. Police, what nonsense are you talking about? What company rules did my daughter break that would warrant her to be arrested?. Bai Fen asked angrily, but deep down in her heart, she was nervous and scared, as she didnt know what her daughter had done wrong.

FJ is pressing charges on Miss Bai, and after the evidence had proven that she stole the designs from FJs upcoming Fashion show and gave them to a rival company who has already begun production, the court has ordered for Miss Bai to clear up the money as written in her contract, and she is to be arrested to serve a jail term of 3 years with hard labor. The Chief police officer revealed.

Oh my goodness, this child will not kill us!.

You said my granddaughter did what!.

Mr. police, there must be an error somehow, my daughter will never do such a thing!. Bai Fen said in a nervous tone.

I know this is hard to believe, but we have pieces of evidence presented to us by FJ which proves that their claims and allegations are right. Please, allow us to do our job. The Chief security officer said as he glanced at each one of them.

What job do you want to do? You want to take my daughter, no way! At most if she actually did something like that, we would pay the fine, there is no need to serve a jail term. Bai Fen said arrogantly.

She could feel the seriousness of the matter, but she didnt care to know the details as she wanted to protect her only child. How could she allow her child to be sent to jail? There was no way that was going to happen, she would never allow it.

Can I see the evidence?. The third daughter-in-law asked with a calm look, and the police officer took out his phone and played a few video clips for those interested to watch.

The first video clip showed Bai Jun in a club sitting and talking with U&MEs Boss, Mr. U. The second clip showed Bai Jun on Jia Lis laptop on how she copied the designs into her flash drive. The third clip showed Bai Jun and Mr. U meeting up, and the other clips showed Mr. U giving the flash to has design department to start working on them.

The big proof here, was Bai Jun meeting up with Mr. U in the underground parking lot because there were two different videos of that scene. One from the CCTV camera, and one captured from someones phone, which picked up the conversations they had.

Bai Fen didnt know how she landed on the floor after losing her balance. She was so shocked by the series of pieces of evidence that proved that Bai Jun went against work ethics and FJs terms and conditions as an employee.

The Chief police officer didnt stop there, he went on to show the evidence that confirmed Bai Juns fingerprint on Jia Lis desktop. To make Bai Juns situation clearer, he showed them a picture of FJs rules and the punishment that comes with Bai Juns acts.

...Im sure Miss Bai signed the same contract as the others. And Miss Bai was still an employee of FJ at the time she committed this crime. Her resignation letter which was submitted to the creative arts director after work yesterday, just got to Mr. Fus desk this morning, and having a lot to deal with, it has remained unsigned, and this means that Miss Bais punishment will be heavier, for not coming to work as an employee of FJ without giving any reasons, but this offense is not the main deal.

There was a moment of silence as everyone was too shocked after everything they just heard. Bai Fen couldnt say another word as just one sentence kept coming to her thoughts, It is finished

Old Mrs. Bai almost had a heart attack. She clutched her chest with furrowed brows and couldnt say a word. The other two daughters-in-law were too infuriated to speak up. Bai Juns actions, just tarnished the remaining reputation they had left, and there was no way they would be able to still maintain their grounds in this city, their family, just hit the biggest rock bottom.

As the next mistress of the Bai family, all authority was now left in the first daughter-in-laws hands. She immediately called for a servant to direct the police officers to Bai Juns bedroom to have her taken away.

Bai Fen on seeing what was going on started crying and tried to block their paths, but the third daughter-in-law ordered another set of servants to hold her down.

Bai Jun was still in her bedroom eating fruits and listening to good music when she heard knocks on her door. She permitted whoever was knocking to come in, and to her surprise, she saw a servant lead four policemen into her bedroom.

What the hell are the police doing in my bedroom, dont you have any manners ?. Bai Jun asked in deep anger.

Miss Bai, we are sorry for disturbing your peace, but you are under arrest for.... As the Chief police officer was saying that, the other police officers in uniform immediately surrounded Bai Jun and handcuffed her hands.

Chapter 437 – The Kind Of Child She Raised, A Public Criminal

Before leaving with the shocked Bai Jun who kept crying for help from her family, and asking the policemen to let her go, the chief police officer, did not forget to drop some documents and letters from the court and FJ.

Mum, are you going to stand there and let them take me away ? I didnt do anything wrong, Fu Hua deserves this for messing with me!. Bai Jun screamed as she was pulled out of the living room.

Bai Fen sprawled at her mother-in-laws feet to cry for help, but the servants came and dragged her away.

You are crying for your daughter when you are not safe. You are a big disgrace!. The first daughter-in-law said in spite. She hated Bai Fen so much at this moment, that she would have loved to ask the police to take her along with Bai Jun.

I dont care about myself, I care about my daughter! Please dont let her go to prison, I will do anything to trade for her freedom. Bai Fen cried out hysterically.

You still have the guts to talk and plead, do you think you have options? Do you know the kind of situation our family is in now because of you and your monstrous upbringing? This scandal will appear on the news, and then everyone is going to call us out. Our business will go into ruins, and my children will be pointed fingers at, not just them, every one of the Bai family will be talked about. You have always been so selfish and useless, I dont know where you were picked up from!. The third daughter-in-law said angrily while pointing fingers.

I dont care what you say to me, I just want my daughter back!. Bai Fen cried as she tried to break free from the servants grip.

Old Mrs. Bai could not withstand todays shock and had an immediate breakdown. Her blood pressure rose, and she fainted. Now, everyone except for Bai Fen was running around to move her to her bedroom.

Bai Fen didnt care about her mother-in-law, and instead tried to run outside to stop the police, but the first daughter-in-law, asked the servants to drag her back and bring her to her.

When Bai Fen was dragged back to her, she immediately received a tight slap on her face. Bai Fen almost caused a scene after she was slapped, but with the first daughter-in-law having more authority than her, she ended up being locked in the room, while a call was made for Old Mrs.

Bai Jun's doctor to come over, and for the rest of the family members to come back home.

Bai Jun tried to fight with the police even with her hand being handcuffed but failed. She was pushed into the vehicle and taken straight to the police station where many news outlets and paparazzi were waiting for her.

Fu Hua made sure to tip the media off.

As for Mr. U, he was brought in for questioning after FJ filed a lawsuit against his company for stealing their designs after the evidence pointed rightfully at them.

Mr. U agreed to pay for the fine FJ sued him for, and because of the damage to his company's reputation, U&ME postponed their fashion show which has already been announced and decided on, causing the company to lose a lot of money.

Throughout that day, Bai Jun was trending online and in many media outlets, and the Bai family was not forgotten, they were all dragged into this mess which caused their business stocks to plummet.

When Yang Peng saw the news, he immediately sent all of Bai Jun's things to the Bai family, and when he looked at his parents that sat on the couch with deep regrets on their faces, he didn't know what to say to them.

When FJ's staff, especially Bai Jun's colleagues saw the news, they were shocked, as they couldn't believe that Bai Jun would go to such an extent.

Sunny with the instruction from Fu Hua, let Bai Jun's colleagues watch the CCTV footage that exposed Bai Jun going to Jia Li's desktop to copy the designs when they all left for lunch.

Is she a fool? Did she forget that so many cameras were watching her?.

Maybe she lost her senses for that particular moment.

No wonder she fled!.

I have never seen someone as evil as she is!.

Why do I feel that serving a jail term of 3 years with hard labor is not enough for her?.

Right? I think FJ needs to increase the jail term a bit.

Did Bai Jun not read the companys policy before embarking on this act?.

Does it matter now, the deal has been done? Now, she has to pay a hefty sum of money to FJ, and also serve a jail term of 3 years with hard labor.

That is well-deserving of her. I wish I could see how much she is suffering right now, and make fun of her.

U&ME is okay after only paying some money, but look at her, her punishment was worse.

There is no need talking about her, she is a human waste!.

While all these were going on, Jia Li had only one thought in her head, Fu Hua was due for questioning.

She was wondering how he knew so much and kept her in the dark because it was obvious that he knew of Bai Juns plans, and got ready beforehand to get evidence against her.

Jia Li wanted to see him right away and question him, but it was still work hours, and in a few hours, they would see each other at home, so she made up her mind to exercise a little more patience.

As for the Bai family, they were in a total mess after the news of Bai Juns crimes got out. When Bai Juns father got home, he was so angry that he slapped Bai Fen and pushed her to the floor. He was about to hit her again when his nephews pulled him away.

Shouldnt I just kill this woman now? See the kind of child she raised, a public criminal. Immediately I got so busy with work, and couldnt always keep my eyes on Jun, I entrusted her to you thinking that you would do a good job, but what is this? Since she came back to China, I couldnt recognize her anymore!. Bai Juns father said angrily.

Old Mrs. Bai had to leave her sickbed and come to plead with him before he agreed to let Bai Fen off.. It wouldnt be right to continue hitting Bai Fen, so she had to stop him.

Chapter 438 – The Little Bun Interrupts

When Fu Hua returned home, Jia Li was already back and expecting him. Once Fu Hua stepped into their bedroom, he said to Jia Li, Sweetheart, I know you have lots of questions for me, but I need to take a shower right now, Im so tired.

Jia Li gazed at him and replied, I know you need to take your bath first, you can do that while I go get you an appetizer.

Thanks for your understanding. Fu Hua said with a smile. He was aware that he had so many explanations to do, and he would never avoid that.

By the time, Fu Hua was done showering and dressing up, Jia Li had already brought in some fruits for him, and strawberries

While sitting on the couch, Fu Hua called Jia Li over, and when she came to his side, he immediately pulled her to sit on his thighs.

Now I feel comfortable. Fu Hua said with a relaxed smile.

But Im not comfortable. Jia Li said to him.

Jia Li smiled and leaned in to give her a quick kiss on her cheeks. First of all, I want to start by apologizing. Sweetheart, Im sorry for not telling you about any of these, and thats because I didnt want you to worry.

But you told Miss Sunny about it. Jia Li said with a frown.

Dont tell me youre jealous. Fu Hua said as he stared at her wide-eyed. Im not jealous, I was just saying. Jia Li replied.

Did you see how the drama played out, that was the reason I placed Sunny in the picture. I wasnt sure if you were a good actress, so I didnt tell you about my plans. Fu Hua said with a smile.

Actually, Im not a good actress, but when it comes to dealing with someone like Bai Jun who I dont like, I can be a good one. Jia Li said as she picked up a strawberry and put it into his mouth.

Fu Hua chewed on the fruit with a smile before pinching her cheeks.

Now please tell me how you knew about Bai Jun's plans?. Jia Li said with an anticipating gaze.

Fu Hua did not waste her time or tease her, he went straight to the point to give her the full details only he and Zimo knew about.

Zimo was the person sitting next to Mr. U at the bar with his back against him while he had a conversation with Bai Jun. This was truly a coincidence, and Zimo was happy to be present, so immediately he left the club, he contacted Fu Hua to tell him all he heard, and that was how they both went on to lure Bai Jun into committing her crime sooner.

Fu Hua sent those security team officers to lie in wait for Bai Jun to come to work, so they can take the same elevator with her and talk about the CCTV cameras and system maintenance.

This was not enough, but it gave Bai Jun the insight that it was a perfect opportunity to carry out her plans. And in order to make her plans smooth sailing, Fu Hua called Sunny to his office and asked her to act out a play.

Fu Hua did not give her details or go on to tell her about Bai Jun and Mr. U's conversation at the club. He only gave her some sets of instructions to carry out which she did, including making sure that everyone went out to have lunch during their lunch break, so Bai Jun could see the opportunity to steal the designs she wanted.

Fu Hua explained the beginning till the end of Bai Jun's matter and how much he wanted to get rid of her quickly, and that was the reason he created those circumstances in order to push her to act faster.

You are a genius! And you need to reward Zimo for his hard work. Jia Li said after giving him a thumbs up.

Since you said it, I will listen to you. I will reward him with an all-expense-paid vacation to any country of his choice for a week, but that will be after the Autumn Fashion show. Fu Hua said with a smile.

Not bad, and I'm sure he would be happy to receive his reward. Jia Li said with a smile.

What about me, I worked hard too, but who would give me a reward?. Fu Hua asked with a pout.

Jia Li chuckled at his childish acts and said, You are the Boss, so you can easily reward yourself.

No, I don't want that. Fu Hua said as he picked up a red grape

Jia Li smiled and circled her arms around his neck before going on to ask, Then what do you want?.

Fu Hua put the grape in her mouth while replying to her question, I want you to reward me.

With the grape in her mouth, Jia Li asked with a smiling gaze, How?.

Like this... Fu Hua said and leaned in to capture her lips in a gentle kiss. The kiss grew from a gentle one to a fierce one, as they both got a taste of the grape.

Fu Hua's hands were not bound to stay in one place. While kissing Jia Li, his hands began to roam all over her body.

When things were getting too heated for them, and they were about to take the next step, they were interrupted with the familiar cries of a little someone, and the gentle knocks of an adult.

Jia Li and Fu Hua exchanged gazes and chuckled over it before Jia Li got off his thighs and went to open the door to see Jasmine with tears in her eyes while in her grandmothers embrace.

Immediately she saw her mother, the little bun quickly stretched out her arms as she wanted to be carried.

Jia Li smiled at her and quickly carried her in her arms.

She has been looking for you. Take care. Fu Hee said after the little bun left her arms.

Thank you, mum. Jia Li said with a smile.

No worries. Fu Hee said with a smile and patted the little buns cheeks before leaving.

When Jia Li walked back inside the room, the little bun in her arms had already stopped crying and began pulling her shirt.

What do you want? Do you want some fruits?. Jia Li asked as she went to Fu Huas side to pick a strawberry from the plate.

Jasmine was smart, and she couldnt talk, but there was a way for her to communicate. Since her mother asked her a question, she pulled her shirt and leaned her mouth on her chest area to demonstrate her response.

Chapter 439 – Can You Make Your Words Clear?

Why are you pulling my shirt? what are you trying to do?. Jia Li asked as she carried her to go and sit on the sofa beside Fu Hua.

Fu Hua smiled from the side and said to her, She wants milk.

As if in agreement with her father, Jasmine put her lips on Jia Lis chest and pulled her clothes again, but when she didnt see any reaction from her mother, she started crying.

Jasmine stop it! Jia Li said as she tried to pry off the little buns hands off her shirt. Jasmine pouted and cried with her gaze on her mother before glancing sideways to stare at her father.

Fu Hua smiled at the little girl and stretched out his hands to carry her from Jia Li, but the little bun refused to go with him. She immediately laid on her mothers chest and continued crying.

Fu Hua gave up on trying to make her come to him and turned to Jia Li to persuade her again. Sweetheart, give her what she wants, she is crying a lot.

She is crying a lot? Jasmine, why do you want milk now, its time to eat your snacks, should I get them for you?. Jia Li asked the little bun who increased her tone.

The little bun was adamant and was particular about what she wanted. She wanted breastmilk, and that's it, so she continued to pull on her mother's clothes and cry.

Jia Li couldn't stand the cries of the little one that was beginning to annoy her to a great extent, so she gave in and asked Fu Hua for help to unbutton her shirt since she couldn't do it with the little girl in her arms who refused for her father to hold her even for a minute.

Once she saw what she wanted, Jasmine stopped crying and grabbed it with both hands and directed her lips to it, and began to suck.

You didn't give her milk yesterday, so I guess she must have missed it. Fu Hua said with a smile and he caressed his daughter's hair.

I thought she loved adult food, but why does she keep coming back for breastmilk. Jia Li asked with a frown.

The previous day, Jia Li did not breastfeed the little bun or pump any into her bottle, so the little girl didn't get to taste her milk the previous day. But now on the evening of today, she remembered her milk and started crying for it.

I guess she wants both. I know you want her to stop taking her milk before she turns a year, but don't force it. She is our first child, and we are not having another one soon, so I would want her to enjoy what she wants. Fu Hua said with his gaze on Jia Li.

When Jia Li was pregnant with Jasmine, and they were still trying to build their relationship, he already felt bad that the pregnancy would affect her career since it was unplanned, so he promised her that they won't have another child soon, so she could focus on her career and build it to a certain level before they can have another child.

And now still keeping his promise, he wanted their daughter to enjoy everything she wanted to the fullest as he loved spoiling her.

Jia Li understood his point, but said to him, I get you, but I'm worried that I'm not satisfying you as you want. You don't uhm... you don't suck my boobs anymore, so I thought I should stop breastfeeding Jasmine soon, so you can have full access to my body, and besides, she is going to turn a year in 2 weeks, she needs to stop soon.

Fu Hua couldn't believe his ears. Was this the shy and innocent wife he married almost 2 years ago? He was surprised to hear Jia Li talking about satisfying him with her body, but he was still able to detect the little embarrassment she had talking about it.

A smile played on Fu Hua's lips as he gazed at Jia Li with seductively. Jia Li on the other hand couldn't stand the heated gaze and immediately look away from him. Fu Hua smiled even more and said to her in a low tone...

Sweetheart, I love you, and you're doing your best to satisfy my sexual urges, and I also understand we have a child to consider too, so I'm not complaining. If you like me sucking your boobs, I will resume again.

Fu Hua's only worry was that he would finish his daughter's milk if he continued to suck on his wife's boobs, so he stopped.

How could Jia Li reply to him, she simply kept mute? She didn't want to admit to anything, so she fixed her gaze on the little bun that kept touching her face and pressing her boobs. The little bun was really having a good time.

Seeing as Jia Li refused to respond to him, Fu Hua chuckled softly and raised his hand to pat her hair gently.

Lets go for a massage this weekend. Fu Hua suggested.

Do we have time for that ?. Jia Li asked as she finally gazed back at him. She asked this question because of how busy they were trying to prepare for the Autumn fashion show.

We dont have time for that, but its necessary, or you will complain that Im not taking care of you. I will give... Fu Hua stopped talking midway, and no matter how Jia Li asked him to finish his statement, he refused.

Dont worry, you will find out soon. I decided on this because of you, but dont complain that its stressful, and dont forget, you have to give it your all. Fu Hua said as he got to his feet and winked at her before turning to walk away.

Darling, what are you talking about, can you make your words clear ?. Jia Li said with her gaze on the man that had his back against her, but he didnt reply.

What does he mean ? Jia Li thought hard.

Chapter 440 - Divorce

This same evening, Bai Juns sack letter from FJ, finally made its way to the Bai family. The person that received that letter was the first daughter-in-law. And when she walked into the living room where everyone was sitting in a sober mood, she announced the arrival of a letter from FJ.

Why would they send us a letter, why dont you read it out to find out. The third son of the Bai family said with a frown.

Without wasting time, the first daughter-in-law took out the letter from the envelope and opened it. The headline of the letter alone felt intimidating.

After reading the letter which contained the reason for Bai Jun being sacked, and how much fine to pay, and what will happen if the fine wasnt paid within the expected date given.

Bai Fen, just know that I and my family will not bring out a dime to pay for any fine. You and your criminal daughter should sort it out. I believe that since you and Bai Jun have a lot of money, and you have rich relatives, paying the money back wont be a problem. Bai Juns father said while pointing angrily at Bai Fen whose eyes were red from crying.

I dont have that much money when combined with Bai Juns and I dont think my brother will want to give me any money. Bai Fen said in tears.

Not when you have been abandoned. Bai Juns father said to the surprise of everyone.

What do you mean?. Bai Fen asked with a confused gaze. Her thoughts were in disarray, and that made her not understand the meaning of his words.

Not just Bai Fen, but all the members of the Bai family glanced curiously at the second son while waiting for an explanation.

Bai Fen, do you think you will continue to remain in this family after everything that has gone wrong? You must be braindead to think that I will want to continue to live with a woman like you. As we the Bai family are leaving this City, you will not come with us. Bai Juns father said in a clear tone as he made his stance clear.

What! You...you are abandoning me?. Bai Fen asked in total shock. She couldnt believe that her husband of over 20 years was thinking of abandoning her at this moment.

Everyone had nothing to say about Mr. Bais decision, its not like they didnt see it coming.

You are still asking questions? Why on earth do you think I will want to spend the rest of my life with you? Cant you see how you have destroyed my life and ruined my family? I am only giving you divorce with no alimony, and you are not satisfied, would you want me to kill you off and feed your dead body to the sharks?. Mr. Bai asked in an angry tone as he took steps towards Bai Fen.

Bai Fen was immediately scared for her life. Her husband just threatened to kill her if she doesnt agree to a divorce, and she didnt need to test him to know if he would really do it.

Old Mrs. Bai frowned at her son and asked him not to go too far with his words.

Mum, why wont I threaten her? And Im being very serious about it. See how she has ruined our family and made us a laughing stock. We just moved back to the city a few years ago in glory, and now we are forced to leave in disgrace, all because of a woman blinded by greed. She should be grateful I didnt stab her to death. Mr. Bai said angrily.

The man was very furious and wouldn't mind shedding his wife's blood to get some peace. There was nothing more terrifying than marrying a terrible partner who would lead to your downfall, it was a nightmare.

Old Mrs. Bai sighed and didn't say anything again. She was thinking if she had listened to Fu Hee's advice about getting rid of Bai Fen sooner before she caused another chaos in their family if they would have avoided today's problem.

(REMINDER: Fu Hee said that to the old lady during Bai Jun's wedding, just as she was about to leave)

Currently, the old lady had a lot of regrets in her life. She was already so old and could die at any time. But she was afraid of facing her husband if she died leaving her family in ruins. But there was another person she didn't know how to face, Grandfather Fu.

Old Fu must be highly disappointed in me and our family. I don't have any courage to face him at this moment. Old Mrs. Bai said in a weary tone.

Mum, please don't worry, we will send him a letter of apology before we leave this city in 2 days. Our house has already been put up for sale, and I believe within 10-15 years, we should be able to recover most of what we have lost. The first son of the Bai family said as he patted the old lady's shoulder.

Old Mrs. Bai laughed painfully and said to him, If you are still thinking that our family business can still survive in this country, then you don't have foresight. Even if we get a new set of investors, who would want to invest in something that will swallow up their money and not give them returns?. Bai Jun's act has finished us all, so we need to make a new plan, but before then, I want Fen to leave this family by tomorrow morning. I don't want to wake up in the morning and still see her in this house.

Yes, mother I will immediately contact my lawyer to get the divorce papers ready. The second son of the Bai family said.

Bai Fen has now seen how bleak her future would be without the Bai family's help, and immediately fell to the ground to plead for mercy, but no one listened to her.

You should have thought about a day like today when you were encouraging your daughters forbidden and hideous thoughts. You should have pictured a day like today.

There is no need to beg because your life is over. You should probably spend the rest of your life praying for the forgiveness of your daughters sin and yours.

The only thing the Bai family can help you with is to get the servants to help you pack your things tonight, in case you end up mistakenly taking what is not yours.

As all kinds of things were said to Bai Fen, she was already lost. That night, she didn't eat anything, and spent the night in the living room, crying, brooding, and thinking.. It was a really long night for her.

Chapter 441 – Birthday Plans

Although FangSu was happy that Bai Jun got retribution for her sins, she was still very much upset about the fact that some people were still mentioning her name alongside Bai Jun.

Some people recalled that Bai Jun and FangSu were once best of friends for a long time before they separated, and they were talking about their past, which annoyed FangSu as she hated being associated with Bai Jun.

During dinner, there was a big frown sitting on FangSus face. Seeing how upset she was, Fu Hee said to her, SuSu, there is no need to be upset about the news, its just people talking, and at least, some other people are saying that it was good that you separated from Bai Jun early before it became late, so cheer up.

Fu Hee was right. As much as some people were speaking about how long FangSu and Bai Jun have been friends before separating, some others applauded FangSu for cutting off ties with Bai Jun on time, before the latter went astray.

What is there to be sad about? Its not like anyone is dragging her online. But the case would have been different if she remained friends with the Bai familys daughter up till this point. Fu Lei said with a blank look.

FangSu still didnt feel better, as one of her lifes regret, was knowing Bai Jun.

Our Fu family is still being talked about on the internet given our history with the Bai family. Fu Geming said.

But its good that everyone knew that we were no longer close to the Bai family before this incident, so all they are going to talk about, is our history together, and what must have caused the estrangement. Fu ChuHua said with a smile.

Grandfather Fu who has been listening all this while and didnt say a word since spoke up at this point. Enough talks about the Bai family and eat. Im going to throw a big birthday party for my great-granddaughter in 2 weeks, everybody should prepare for it.

Grandfather Fus sudden announcement, successfully attracted everyones attention.

Oh my goodness grandfather, you are throwing a party for Da Xias first birthday?. FangSu said in excitement.

Fu Meixu smiled and said, This is good news. I should really get prepared for this big birthday bash!.

Father, we are in full support, and everybody in the family must carry out a special task to ensure the success of Da Xias 1st birthday party. Fu Lei said.

Fu Ling raised his hand and said with a smile, I will love to handle the technical aspect of the party.

Im available for anything. Fu YingPei said with a smile.

Everyone will definitely contribute something. Jia Li, have you thought about the theme for Da Xias birthday party?.

At Fu Hees question, Jia Li responded with a smile. Da Xia is her fathers little princess, so I decided to choose a Princess themed party for her 1st birthday.

Fu Hua smiled at Jia Lis thoughtfulness and continued watching over the little bun.

Good! Da Xia is our familys little Princess, and a Princess themed party is the best option for her 1st birthday party. Fu ChuHua said as she clapped her hands with a big smile.

With Jia Li's choice, we will set up a plan for the princess-themed party, so everyone can carry out the tasks delegated to them. Fu Hee said with a smile.

Everyone was happy and looking forward to Da Xias 1st birthday party.

That day is Jia Li's birthday as well, so something should be added to celebrate her. Grandfather Fu said with a smiling gaze directed at Jia Li.

That's right, we need to celebrate sister-in-law as well. Fu YingPei said with a smile.

Grandfather, I'm grateful for your idea, but I'm fine with staying on the sidelines. I want my daughter's 1st birthday to be perfect. I want her to be in the limelight, and there are other years to celebrate together. Jia Li replied.

On that day, Jia Li wanted all attention to be on her little daughter. She wanted only her to be in the limelight as she wanted a perfect birthday for her, so the party should be solely for her.

Sister-in-law, won't that be unfair to you? How can you not be celebrated on your birthday, brother say something! FangSu asked. No matter how she thought about Jia Li's reason, it still didn't sit well with her.

Fu Hua finally took eyes off the little bun that was gobbling down food all by herself to reply to FangSu.

I agree to what Jia Li wants. She is not saying she didn't want to be celebrated, but she wants Da Xias theme party to remain as it is without any alteration.

Oh! I get the point now. FangSu said with a smile.

Jia Li glanced at the little bun who was feeding herself with her spoon and couldn't help but smile. Now wanting her to thank the old man for planning to celebrate her 1st birthday in grand style, Jia Li snatched the spoon from Jasmine just to get her attention, which didn't sit well with the little bun who was about to cry.

Jia Li quickly said to the little bun who was already stretching her hands out to grab her spoon back with pouted lips, while gesturing with her hands, Jasmine, thank great grandPa, he is throwing a big birthday party for you, and there will be lots of food, drinks, balloons, and other fun things.

Because of her training, Jasmine had a rough idea of what her mother was saying to her with the help of her gestures. The little bun didn't know what a birthday party was, but she definitely knew what food, drinks, and balloons were as she has been thinking about them, and has seen them numerous times.

When Jia Li told the little bun to thank her great grandfather, Jasmine glanced at Grandfather Fu with an innocent gaze, before nodding her head slightly (Which could be considered a bow) to the amazement of everyone.

OMG, did she just bow? Fu Meixu said with a surprised gaze on the little bun.

I guess I didn't see wrongly as well, FangSu said in astonishment.

Good child, you know how to express your thanks at this young age. Fu ChuHua said with a big smile.

Fu Hua patted the little buns hair with a proud smile, while Jia Li caressed her cheeks after giving her spoon back to her.

Grandfather was over overjoyed with Jasmynes cute gestures of respect towards him, and praised Jia Li for it, before immediately asking Butler Lu to transfer a huge sum of money into Jia Lis account, for the mother and daughter to get nice outfits for themselves.

Following Grandfather Fus footsteps, the rest of the family, immediately transferred some money to Jia Lis account.

The little bun who didnt care about any other thing apart from food at this moment continued to feed herself.

(NOTE: Everyone, Im sorry about the month and Jasmynes age miss up, and I have corrected it in the previous chapter.. Jasmine is currently 11 months old, and there are 2 weeks left before her 1st birthday and not 6 weeks).

Chapter 442 – A Rare Opportunity

Jia Li knew that her little girl was a little spoiled, so she thought that learning little manners at that age wouldnt be a bad thing, so she thought the little bun things each time they were together.

At times, she would ask the little bun to repeat some words after her or point at things. Jasmine couldnt talk, but her ways of babbling could be counted as a response. Just like now, she could call bába which means Dad in English, and máma which means Mum in English. And when you are asked who she started calling first from her both parents, who do you think was called first?

The next morning at the Bai family, Breakfast was served hot for Bai Fen as her husbands lawyer arrived very early in the morning with the divorce papers for her to sign.

There was no need to think twice even if this was not what she wanted, but did she have a choice ?

After signing the divorce papers, Bai Fen glanced at the house which once welcomed her and brought glory to her, and has now turned her back against her. While reminiscing, tears dropped from her eyes. Although she regretted her actions which was somewhat the cause for todays disaster, her greater thoughts, and regrets, were all the good things she was going to miss as she didnt know what her fate would be like without the Bai familys support.

After glancing at the house one more time, Bai Fen picked up her luggage and left the building, and right outside the house, there was a cab already waiting for her.

Old Mrs. Bai was the one that asked for a cab to take her out of the Bai family, but only if Bai Fen would be grateful for her actions.

Immediately after Bai Fen left, the rest of the Bai family members, had breakfast and sat down to plan about their future since they could not remain in the City.

At FJ, good news has just been announced to the Creative Arts department, and more especially to the newbies that made it to be FJs Official creative designers, by Sunny.

The good news is that Fu Hua has given an opportunity to the newbies to participate in the Autumn show. The Top 5 best designs, will be picked, and clothes made out of them will be worn by a model and displayed on the Autumn fashion show.

This was indeed good news for the newbies as this was a big deal. The Big Boss was letting their works be displayed on the Autumn Fashion show, what a rare privilege and honor.

But if only the newbies knew that Fu Hua created that opportunity because of his dearest wife, Jia Li, they would surely worship at her feet after getting over the shock.

When this announcement was made, Jia Li finally understood why Fu Hua asked her not to complain he wasn't taking care of her.

Although an opportunity lay in wait for the 5 lucky designers, they all had to work hard, as they were only given till the end of work that day, to submit their designs.

The newbies were still getting used to their Big Boss's way of doing things. He was known to put them under a lot of pressure in order to produce a mind-blowing result, which worked all the time.

Even when stress came with this rare opportunity of substance, the newbies didn't dare to complain and instead put in all their efforts into creating a design they felt would be the best of all their creation.

There was one person who was kind of deeply annoyed, and that was Jia Li. She didn't see today's stress coming after struggling to run away from the little bun who wanted to follow her out in the morning. Jasmine's cries were capable of pulling down the Fu Mansion, and you can imagine what it would be like to hear her cry especially when she wanted to be stubborn.

Honestly, Jia Li didn't think she could pull off creating a new design from her head today no matter how hard she tried. But luckily, she got an idea.

Jia Li remembered that she has lots of drafts at home, so she closed her eyes, and began to imagine that she was at the Fu Mansion. In her imagination, she took out her special illustration booklet and started flipping through the pages in search of the perfect design to pick.

On the middle page, Jia Li stopped to glance at a red dress that looked attractive. Jia Li spent a little time considering if it would fit the Autumn Fashion Show before deciding to go with the illustration.

After deciding, Jia Li came back to reality and immediately picked up a sketchbook and pencil and began to draw like the rest of her colleagues who started before her.

After drawing, the next thing was for Jia Li to make her drawing come alive, and so she picked up a red-colored brush pen and began to paint her drawing.

At the end of work hours, everyone submitted their illustrations before leaving. When Fu Hua came back from work that day, Jia Li kept complaining to him until he was forced to shut her up with a kiss.

Jia Li pushed him away and asked with a frown, Are you trying to bribe me?. And then Fu Huas answer came, No sweetheart Im not trying to bribe you. Im doing pure business, and Im only comforting you, but Im sorry for stressing you.

Really?. Jia Li asked with a frown. His explanation didnt help to calm her nerves in any way. Although she respected him for treating her equally with the others, she was still a little annoyed and frustrated with his way of picking the wrong time to stress them. But it was not all his fault.

Yes... Im sorry, I left for work before you and had no idea you had to deal with our little princess before coming out. If I knew about that, I would have shifted the task to tomorrow, but still, Im sorry. Fu Hua said while holding Jia Lis arms.

Jia Li sighed in return and said, Forget it, how dare I be angry with you? If my Boss should be another person, I wouldnt dare to complain in his presence no matter how dissatisfied I am, so Im sorry too, but I really need a massage right now.

Fu Huas eyes immediately lit up at her last sentence, You need a massage, sure!

Chapter 443 – Jia Li Cant Use Her Hands After The Punishment

This evening, was surely one of the best for Jia Li as she just lay on the bed with her naked back in Fu Huas view while receiving a wonderful massage.

What Fu Hua couldnt get, is why on earth Jia Li was moaning softly when his hands were just on her back. He didnt tease her and only massage her back gently.

Whats with the moaning? Fu Hua asked with a low chuckle as he continued to knead her back gently.

With her eyes still closed, Jia Li replied with a smile, Your hands make my body feel so good.

Thanks for the compliment, but if you dont stop moaning, I cant promise you to keep my hands at a place. Fu Hua said.

There was no way he wouldnt feel anything while massaging his wifes back which was smooth and attractive, and then, she had to add a moaning to it, was she trying to test his patience or how healthy he was?

But your hands feel so good on my body, what can I do?. Jia Li asked in a soft tone. This young woman was really stubborn.

Fu Hua heaved a deep sigh and said to her, Im aroused, and do you want to know what I can do at this moment?.

Jia Lis eyes immediately flew open, and without thinking twice, she quickly turned over to ask forgetting that her upper body was bare before him.

What! Why are you aroused? Is my voice that powerful?.

As Fu Hua watched Jia Lis big buns bounce because of the way she turned over, something sparked in his lower region, which immediately sent a message to his neurons. And the message his brain interpreted was, Eat her clean, dont spare her

Fu Hua of course went on with his brains interpretation and concluded that he was going to eat Jia Li clean no matter what happens.

You have tempted me enough, now, dont cry and beg me to stop, because that wont work, see what you have done, you need to settle it. Fu Hua said while pointing at his arousal. His little brother was already up, and that was enough to scare Jia Li.

My voice is that powerful?. Jia Li asked as she slowly looked up from his arousal.

Yes. Stay in bed obediently, Im coming. Fu Hua said as he slowly got off the bed. He wanted to lock the door, and so he walked towards it, but the woman he gave a simple instruction, was already planning to escape.

Stay in bed?. Jia Li asked herself. Knowing the danger that comes with that instruction, Jia Li ran away, and before Fu Hua could turn around and give her a chase, she has already run into the bathroom and locked the door.

Jia Li!. Fu Hua called out to his wife in a frustrated tone. He couldnt believe his little woman would dare to run away after arousing him.

Im sorry, but you will have to take care of yourself, I cant help you. Jia Li said with a smile as she took off her clothes and got into the shower, not minding that he called her by her name.

Did you do this on purpose?. Fu Hua asked in a frustrated tone while still standing in front of the door to the bathroom.

How can I bear to that? Husband, you are the best, and Im sure you can handle that yourself. Jia Li replied in a raised tone because the sound of the shower was strong to swallow her words.

Fu Hua looked down at his little brother which was still standing at attention and touched it, before removing his hands.

Can you at least bath quickly?. Fu Hua said with a frown.

Of course, give me a minute. Jia Li replied quickly.

Five minutes later, Jia Li was done bathing. She wrapped a towel around her body and one around her hair and walked out of the bathroom only to see Fu Hua standing there with a frown.

You were still here?. Jia Li asked with her gaze on him. Just now when she came out, her gaze accidentally met his erection, and she was kind of surprised that he hasn't calmed down for a bit.

So you think you can escape from me?. Fu Hua asked with a frown.

Jia Li smiled sheepishly and looked past him to see if there was an escape route. What do you mean?

Fu Hua could obviously tell her thoughts, and so he blocked her way completely. Do you think I would let you escape this time around, no way! Come with me.

As Fu Hua finished saying his last sentence, he immediately took her hand and pulled her back into the bathroom much to Jia Li's horror.

During dinner, Jia Li couldn't hold her spoon properly because it was very heavy for her. The spoon kept weighing her down and dropping on the plate which frustrated her greatly.

Jia Li is something wrong with your hands?. Fu Meixu asked with her gaze on Jia Li.

Fu Meixu's question attracted a lot of attention to Jia Li because they could all see her struggling to eat.

Jia Li was embarrassed at the question and all the stares on her. At this point, she was tempted to glare at Fu Hua, but she knew if she did that, they would suspect something else.

Im tired, I did a lot of tasks at work today. Jia Li replied as she rubbed her palms together.

Fu Hua, how are you taking care of your wife?. Fu Lei asked with a frown. Fu Lei was angry that his son wasnt looking after his wife properly, and let her get overworked in his watch.

Fu Hua glanced at his father before glancing back at Jia Li without a smile. The task assigned to her was special, and I think she wouldnt want any other person to carry it out since she would earn more points from it.

Still, you have to look after her. Look at how Li girl is tired out, you can eat very well, but she cant. You... just stop eating and feed her to her satisfaction.. Grandfather Fu ordered with a frown.

Chapter 444 – Cry For Milk

How could Jia Li allow Fu Hua to feed her in front of everyone, that would be embarrassing? She immediately rejected Grandfather Fus order.

Grandfather dont worry, Im fine. Jia Li said with a smile.

How can you be fine, you have barely touched your food. Just let Fu Hua feed you since he caused all these troubles, dont be shy. Fu Hee said with a smile.

Fu Hua smiled inwardly. He was really having fun seeing his wife in that awkward situation. He didn't pity her, because she was at fault for arousing him and trying to escape. He had to teach her a fair lesson in the bathroom, and hence, the outcome of her muscle weakness.

Jia Li was still saying no to Fu Hee when Fu Hua brought a spoon of food to her mouth. Jia Li glanced at him with a blank look, but suddenly became annoyed when she noticed the smirk on his lips.

Are you angry with me? If you don't like the tasks I give to you, should I keep the points to myself, or freely give it to another person?. Fu Hua asked to the hearing of everyone.

Jia Li quickly opened her mouth to receive the food with a glare. Fu Hua's threat was sure to work on her. No one else knew the true meaning of the tasks and points they have been talking about, only both of them knew about it.

Good girl. Fu Hua said with a smile before going on to bring another spoonful of food towards her mouth.

Eat. Jia Li said to him. He was just feeding her without eating anything, and it was a surprise that she was still worried about him despite the grudges she had against him.

Grandfather said I should stop eating and feed you first, so eat up. Fu Hua replied with a smiling gaze.

Are you complaining?. Grandfather Fu asked with a frown.

No grandfather. Fu Hua replied and continued to feed Jia Li.

This is your punishment for bullying Li girl. You cant eat until the food in her plate all goes into her stomach, and you have to feed her properly. Grandfather Fu added with a frown.

Yes, grandfather. Fu Hua replied with a smile and continues to feed Jia Li.

Jia Li on the other hand was so embarrassed that she didnt dare to raise her head and only sat obediently to eat the food Fu Hua brought to her mouth.

Sister-in-law, lets go to the spa on Saturday, and then we can go shopping after that, FangSu said with a smile.

She thought it would be fun to go to the beauty spa and to shop for clothes in the company of her sister-in-law and her cousin.

Since Jia Li already had an appointment with Fu Hua on Saturday, she glanced at him to seek his opinion. Fu Hua met her gaze and nodded in response.

Then Jia Li looked back at FangSu and replied, Okay.

Seeing the exchange between Jia Li and Fu Hua, Fu Hee thought that Fu Hua was controlling her and immediately asked, Jia Li, is Hua bullying you? If he does that, dont hesitate to complain to us or to his grandfather to put him in the right place.

Sweetheart, did I bully you?. Fu Hua asked Jia Li with a smiling gaze. He was referring to the punishment he gave to her for toiling with his feelings, and Jia Li understood him.

How could Jia Li say that he truly bullied her, but because she bullied him first? That would be childish, so she went on to explain the reason for their exchange.

Mum is a misunderstanding. We were supposed to go to the massage parlor together on Saturday, but now I had to seek his permission to cancel on him.

Oh... Fu Hee said and went back to eating her food.

Today, Jasmine was absent from the dining table, because she played till late in the evening and fell asleep.

The little bun has made great progress in her physical activities. Jasmine was so strong right now that she could engage in a thug of war. Snatching things from her was a difficult task especially when she doesn't want to let go.

Jasmine could now stand on her own without holding onto anything, but she was yet to take the first step on her own, which was already great progress. And one thing the family has learned was not to rush her to take those first steps. Instead, they would encourage her and clap for her when she got up by herself.

Something funny about the cute little chubby bun was that she still puts anything she gets her hands on, in her mouth. She was so small, but her eyes are very sharp to see little things on the floor, or maybe it's because she is close to the floor

When Jasmine sees that little stuff, she would lean over and try to pick them up with her fingers. Next, she would take a look at it, before putting it in her mouth.

And now when you study her actions, you begin to wonder what's the use of stressing herself to look at those things when she would still put them in her mouth? Maybe she just wants to have a good look at what is about to enter her little mouth.

After the family dinner, the little bun woke up, and so Fu Hua had to feed her. Jasmine was still feeling a little sleepy, so she let her father feed her before he went to the workshop to do some work.

After eating adult food, she wanted her milk, but Jia Li refused to give any to her, and so she started crying. At last, Jia Li pumped some milk for her in her bottle before passing it to her, but the little bun hit the bottle off her hand.

Like seriously?. Jia Li asked in an annoyed tone.

Jasmine continued to cry while putting up her hands in the air, she wanted her mother to carry her.

No milk for you! If you don't want to drink from the bottle, then you have to forget about it. Jia Li said to the little bun.

Jasmine was sitting on the bed crying, and when she heard her mother say that, she fell back on the bed and continued to cry.

You can cry if you want, it's not bad to cry, and it's good your father is not here to take pity on you.. Jia Li said and picked up the bottle of milk from the floor.

Chapter 445 – Bai Fen In Her Brothers Place

Jasmine didnt have her father to defend her, so she continued to wail, while Jia Li asked a servant to get her bath things ready.

As the little bun was crying too much, Jia Li went to lift her in her arms. Jasmine thought that finally, her mother would agree to feed her milk directly, but it turned out that she was only going to hold her in her arms.

Jasmine sniffed as she pulled her mothers shirt before glancing up at her. The little bun looked really pitiful.

Why do you keep doing this to me all the time ? You just finished eating adult food, so why would you want to drink milk now, are you trying to overfeed yourself?. Jia Li asked with an annoyed gaze on the little bun who was still pulling her shirt.

Jasmine pouted her lips and glanced at her mother pitifully. She looked like she was going to start crying again.

Māmā Jasmine called out in a teary incoherent tone as she leaned her head on her shoulder.

This girl, you really know how to use someone. You are not even up to a year old and youre acting like this. Who thought you to act like this?. Jia Li questioned the little bum with a frown.

Jasmine was trying to get what she wanted by acting so smart, she even called out to her mother pitifully to achieve her goals.

Finally, Jia Li gave in, but not immediately. She told the little bun to have patience until after her bath before she could have her milk.

...if you cry, I won't give you any. Jia Li threatened. Jasmine was already about to kick up a fuss when Jia Li shushed her.

The little bun with her tear-stained cheeks stared at her mother with a finger in her mouth. Jasmine looked so cute especially with her hair tied in 2 buns plus the way she gazed at her mother.

After bathing and dressing her up, Jia Li thought the little bun would have forgotten about her milk, but that was a big lie. She still sought for her milk which Jia Li gave to her.

It looks like we have to start sleeping in separate bedrooms. Jia Li thought.

The next time Jasmine asked for her milk, Jia Li did not answer her and left her to cry to her satisfaction. When she got tired from crying, the little bun refused her mother to carry her as she still bore a grudge against her.

Instead of going to her mother, the little bun crawled to her father's feet, next, she held his leg as support and got up.

Fu Hua smiled when his little daughter came to him, and he immediately picked her up and placed her on his thighs before proceeding to deliver kisses to her face. When the mother and daughter were engaged in their feud, he didn't dare to interrupt, so his wife wouldn't be pissed off at him.

That day Bai Fen left the Bai Mansion, she asked the taxi driver to take her straight to the prison so she could set her eyes on Bai Jun, but she was not granted permission to see her. If it were to be in the past, Bai Fen would have bragged about her identity in a situation like this, but the good old days were long gone.

Bai Fen was furious that she wasn't allowed to see her only child whom she has been worried about. And when she asked why she couldn't see her, she was told she was not permitted to see her till a week later.

Bai Fen had to leave the prison in disappointment. When she got back into the cab, she asked the cab driver to take her to her brother's house, and when they got to the address, her brother was not at home, but she was allowed into the house by a servant who helped her with her luggage.

When Bai Fen's brother and his family came home that day, they were surprised to see Bai Fen there, because she didn't call before coming over, and coupled with the fact that they were unaware of Bai Fen's divorce.

Bai Fen immediately burst into tears when she saw her brother. She immediately went over to his side to hug him while crying bitterly. Her brother thought she was crying because of Bai Jun, and comforted her a little even though he was greatly disappointed with her.

It was not until a servant walked in and notified Bai Fen that her clothes had been sorted did her brother notice that something was wrong.

Did you come here with your things? Her brother asked with a frown.

Sister-in-law, why would you leave the Bai family and come here to stay? Bai Fen's sister-in-law asked in surprise.

I was asked to sign the divorce papers and was chased out of the house. Bai Fen replied as her eyes became teary again.

Why should only you bear the consequences of not raising your daughter well, why would they chase you out of their family? I'm going to find the people of the Bai family once I'm through with my meeting tomorrow afternoon. Bai Fen's brother said angrily.

He couldn't accept the fact that his sister was thrown out of the Bai family because of Bai Jun's actions and current situation. Even if he did not support his sister because of her ugly side, he still felt that both his sister and his brother-in-law should bear the responsibility of not raising their daughter well.

Bai Fen remembered that she has already signed the divorce papers, and immediately said, Brother, there is nothing you can do to bring me back to the Bai family and because I have already signed the divorce papers before I was chased out of the house.

What, you already signed the divorce papers? Sister-in-law why would you do that?. Bai Fen's sister-in-law asked with a frown.

Fen, did you lose your senses? How could you sign the divorce papers when you don't have anywhere to go to or plans about your future?. Her brother asked.

Bai Fen sniffed and replied, Brother, you are the only family I have, and that is the reason I came over to your place.. My husband threatened to kill me if I didn't sign the divorce papers, so I had no choice.

Chapter 446 – Sent Away

Bai Fen's brother was not comfortable with his sister staying in his place for who knows how long. He didn't like his sister's character for one bit, but it was not like he would throw her out of his house when she was already going through a lot.

But his decision didnt sit well with his wife who immediately called his attention. She complained and said that Bai Fen can not stay with them in the same house.

I also do not agree with her coming over, but what should I do, its not like I can throw her and her things outside this late at night, she is still my sister regardless.

I dont care what you do, but your sister can not live in the same house with us, she would corrupt our children and ruin the peace in our family. But if you insist on her staying here even after a week, I will leave the house for you 2 sblings to bond and reminisce.

Ah! It has not come to that. Give me a little time to pay a visit to the Bai family before I can rent a place for my sister to stay. Bai Fens brother said to his wife.

Im giving you a week at most, Bai Fen can not stay here past a week. I dont want her to ruin my family the same way she ruined hers. After saying this, Bai Fens brother watched his wife march into the bathroom angrily.

Bai Fens brother sighed tiredly and sat on the bed. There was no way he was going to allow his sister to live in the same house with his family because she will cause a lot of trouble. And now that his wife has given him time to send her out of the house, he has to meet the Bai family soon.

Four days later, everyone curious about the Bai family, heard another news that blew their minds. The Bai family secretly sold their company and their shares and left China to another country which they have not been able to find out.

The public also found out about Bai Fen being divorced and thrown out of the Bai family. These new findings sparked new reactions from many people.

A few of them who didn't know the real truth said that the Bai family was cruel because they abandoned Bai Fen, while a great number of them, said that Bai Fen should have been thrown out a long time ago since there were rumors about her being the reason the Bai family came to their current situation.

Since the Bai family knew they couldn't revive their business, they had to leave the country, and because they didn't want Bai Fen to know of their plans, they chased her away on time, and now the place that used to be known as the Bai family's mansion, has now been sold to someone.

After finding out this news, Bai Fen's brother confirmed that truly, Bai Fen couldn't live in his house, so he found another place for her to stay in.

When Bai Fen was told by her brother that he found a house for her, and for her to move out the next day, the former was unhappy and accused her brother of hating her and dealing with her in her moments of anguish.

How can you ask me to leave your house just like the others, you are my only family!. Bai Fen said to him in tears.

Fen, don't make it seem like I don't care for you. I found a place for you to live, and I have paid for everything, now what else do you have to complain about?. Her brother asked with a deep frown.

Bai Fen stared angrily at him and said, Why do I have to leave your house? You know I need moral support given my situation, so why are you driving me away? You don't want to share in my burden?.

Bai Fens brother became furious at her words. He pointed a finger at her and scolded her badly. Why should I share in your burden, did I ask you not to teach your daughter properly, or did I ask you to destroy your home? Since you got married into the Bai family, have I ever asked you to do something wrong, and have I ever contributed to any of your actions? The answer to these questions is no! I have never done any of that, so why should I share in your burden?.

Seeing that her brother was angry, Bai Fen became silent. She almost forgot her situation and the fact that she had no right to demand anything.

Fen, you are ungrateful and I can not live with someone like you. The most I can do is to help you financially, but not for long. I have found a house for you and equipped it with pieces of furniture and foodstuffs. For the next 2 months, someone will help you to clean and cook, so you can come out of your frustrating frame of mind. After 2 months, you will start to foot your bills by yourself. The servants will help you pack your things this night, and you will live after breakfast tomorrow.

After speaking with Bai Fen, he walked away.

Bai Fen broke down in tears again. She didnt want to leave her brothers house as she didnt think she could survive alone. She was thinking of her life after the 2 months of grace from her brother. She has never worked in her life, and now, she will get to taste how difficult life was.

The next morning, which was Saturday morning, the cab Bai Fens brother arranged, came to take Bai Fen to her new place.

To Bai Fens surprise and horror, the place her brother rented for her, was not in the main city, but somewhere people of the average level and below lived.

The place Bai Fen was staying now, was a 2 bedroom flat, which was not to her taste. She has lived in mansions all her life, and this was the first time she got to live in a small place, and that could be till the end of her life.

Bai Fen was so angry that she called her brother to complain about the house and the location of the house, but got scolded at the end.

You are really ungrateful! Why dont you find another person to help your stupid life if you dont like my ways? If you call me to complain to me again, I will take back everything I have ever given to you!.

Chapter 447 – Bai Fen And Bai Jun Finally Meet Up

Bai Fen was forced to adjust to her new lifestyle, and it was not like she had a choice. After a week passed, given the day she was told she could visit her daughter, Bai Fen immediately left for the prison after bringing a lot of food for Bai Jun.

When Bai Fen got to the prison, she was told that she couldnt give the food she brought to Bai Jun, because food was not allowed from outside. As if that was not enough blow to Bai Fen, she was only given 20 minutes to see Bai Jun.

Bai Fen was frustrated with the whole situation, and finally broke down in tears when she saw Bai Jun walk over with 2 prison guards acting as escorts. There were few visible scars on Bai Juns face when Bai Fen got a clearer view of her.

The first thing Bai Jun did when she saw her mother, was to run to her and cry with tears rolling down her cheeks while begging her to take her out of that place.

Mum, please save me, Im being bullied here. This place has terrible living conditions. Since I got in here, I have only showered twice, and Im being forced to work so hard every day that my palms are so rough! The food here is terrible, and I cant even sleep properly!.

Its okay. Bai Fen said in tears while hugging her daughter. She couldnt believe how much suffering her daughter was going through, while she at least, had a place to rest her head, someone to cook and clean for her, and also good food prepared and served for her.

Seeing how much her daughter was suffering, Bai Fen was forced to agree that she was truly living in luxury, and was not appreciative of her brothers assistance.

Mum, this is not okay! Look at me, am I not smelling? Look at my face, Im being slapped and bullied if I dont listen to the prisoner Bosses here, look at my skin, look at my lips. Mum, please get me out of here! What of father, and grandmother? You have to plead with them to help me out of here!. Bai Jun cried out in complaints after releasing her mother from the hug.

Never in Bai Juns life would she have imagined that one day, she would go to jail. She never imagined herself being locked up in jail with different calibers of people. Instead of seeing a prison yard as a place to hold criminals, she saw it as a place for the paupers and people way out of her league, and this could be one of the reasons she never considered the fact that she could be caught and land in jail.

Hearing her daughter mention the Bai family members, Bai Fen finally sat down and broke down in tears. Bai Jun being surprised by her outburst placed a hand on her shoulder and asked in a worried tone, Mum, whats wrong, why are you crying?.

Bai Fen slowly looked up at her and wiped her tears before slowly revealing the truth to her. Jun, your father divorced me and I was driven out of the family.

What! Bai Jun exclaimed in shock. This news came as a shock to her because she never imagined the consequences of her actions if she was caught.

Bai Jun still couldnt understand while her father and the Bai family chose to abandon her and her mother at this period. She still thought with all the crimes she committed, she would still be forgiven and given only a little punishment. But now that her punishment for committing a crime was being abandoned, she thought it was unfair to her and her mother.

Jun, as we are talking now, I have no idea where your father and the rest of the Bai family are. I heard from the news that they sold the house, company, and shares and left the country to start a new life. Bai Fen revealed in a shaky tone.

Bai Fen still found her current condition unbelievable. As she thought about the whole Bai family stuff, it still felt weird to her, that something like this could happen.

Dad and his family left us here to suffer and left to go fend for themselves?. Bai Jun asked in anger.

This is the situation we found ourselves in. I was driven out of the house without a dime. No properties, no Will, no money, nothing at all. I only managed to get a few of your things, and now, I have to pay off your debt to FJ Styles within 3 weeks. Bai Fen said in agony.

The fine Bai Jun had to pay was not a little sum of money, and if hers and her mothers money were added together, it still wouldnt be enough to pay off her debt.

Mum, how are we going to get the money? Were you able to get my car, we can sell it and add the money to the one we have, and then it should be enough to pay off the debt. Bai Jun suggested.

I have said so much to already and you still didnt get the main point. I said the Bai family didnt leave anything for us! The only let us go with our little properties, and nothing else!. Bai Fen said with a deep frown.

Bai Jun took a seat and said with a frown, This is too much, the Bai family really went too far. No alimony was given to you, and no property was left for me, are they expecting us to die?.

Bai Fen heaved a deep sigh and replied, Jun, I dont know what to say or do about our situation. Im scared to ask my brother for money because he is already very angry with giving me a little allowance plus the accommodation and feeding.

This all the Fu familys fault, this is all brother Huas fault! If I wasnt treated badly, I would not have thought about doing what I did. Bai Jun said in a grievance. She still blamed Fu Hua and the Fu family for the reason she turned out this way.

Bai Fen shook her head and said to her, No, its not their fault, its mine!.

Chapter 448 – Bai Fen Confesses The Truth

Mum, what do you mean its your fault? You didnt do anything wrong, the Fu family offended us first! I was supposed to get married to Brother Fu, but he got married to someone else, while I was busy harboring and growing my feelings for him! Who landed me in this state?!. Bai Jun asked angrily.

Bai Jun was angered every time she thought about this fact. As a little girl, while growing up, she had her own fair share of fantasies, and one of her fantasies was to get married to Fu Hua. But after she left the country to further her studies, those fantasies slowly died but didnt die off completely.

Now when her mother called her to tell her that she would be getting married to Fu Hua and their marriage had already been arranged, those feelings for Fu Hua she forgot existed, slowly started to rekindle.

Every day, Bai Jun would fantasize about a different scene with Fu Hua in her head, and that was how her love for him, grew to be very strong and unshakable, and that was the reason she still wanted to be with him after she found out that he was already married.

Bai Jun has always thought that Fu Hua and the Fu family toiled with her feelings and emotions, and that was why she tried to get revenge on them after she failed to get Fu Huas attention, without knowing that everything was her mothers fault.

Bai Fens eyes became teary again. She was tired of letting others take the blame for her greed, cunning acts, and foolishness, so she decided to spill the whole truth about their marriage with Fu Hua back then.

Fu Hee talked about Fu Hua settling down soon since she was worried about him still being single at his age back then... an idea came to me to get you married into the Fu family, so I deliberately mentioned you getting married immediately after coming back to the country... I mentioned all your achievements and every good thing about you in a bid to get Fu Hee to talk about you getting married to Fu Hua since you were single, and I planned on settling you down as I didnt mind your age. My plans worked and... before Fu Hee could get home that day, Old Mr. Fu had already arranged for Fu Hee and Jia Li to get married, and totally rejected the union between you two when Fu Hee mentioned it...

Bai Fen went on to explain everything that really went on. She talked about how she washed Fu Hees brain, so she could keep supporting her in trying to get her (Bai Jun) and Fu Hua to be together despite Fu Hua already being married.

Bai Fen explained everything, including the part where Fu Hee lost her title and was almost thrown out of the Fu family because of her, and down till the point Fu Hee gave up on the matter.

It was truly a shock to Bai Jun to learn about the other side of the story. She was beyond shocked to the point that she couldnt even speak again.

All this while Bai Jun had been blaming and hating on the members of the Fu family for toiling with her emotions, she didnt know her dearest mother was the Genesis of everything, and as she said earlier, she was at fault. If she didnt let greed get over her, none of her (Bai Jun) actions would have happened, and she wouldnt be locked in jail.

Although Bai Jun still liked Fu Hua a lot before the marriage with him came up, she wouldn't have had hatred for Jia Li or the members of the Fu family if the marriage talk wasn't mentioned and she finds out Fu Hua was married when she returned to China.

The only thing Bai Jun would have done if the situation went this way, was that she would only be jealous of Bai Jun in her mind, and that's all, no hatred would be attached. But since the marriage between her and Fu Hua was brought up to her by her mother, she invested her emotions into Fu Hua but got disappointed at the end, and that was what led to her present actions.

Mum, are you really trying to say that you brought this upon me? Bai Jun asked with a stupefied gaze. She just wanted to wake up from the terrible dream if possible. It was really hard for her to believe that her mother was the genesis of all her problems.

Now that she thought hard about it, she could no longer refute that her mother, also had her own ideas with her getting married to Fu Hua because she always supported her even while she was wrong with her actions and feelings.

Which mother will support her daughter loving another woman's husband, and having ideas of getting married to him? Bai Jun thought with a horrified gaze on her mother.

Staring into her daughter's eyes, Bai Fen was able to see the blame, anguish, disappointment, and hatred that were slowly building up in Bai Jun's sight. Bai Fen became afraid of Bai Jun's reaction.

Bai Fen stretched her hands to clasp Bai Jun's, but the latter flung her hands away.

Dont touch me! Mum, how could you be this cruel to me? You fueled my emotions, your hurt my feelings and emotions, you destroyed me, and you finally sent me to prison, what did I ever do wrong to you?! Bai Jun asked as she clutched her chest.

She was so hurt by the revelation, that she was starting to feel pains in her heart. She couldnt believe her own mother led her to her current state.

Jun, Im sorry, I was wrong. I only wanted the best for you at that time. Bai Fen said with a tone of regret. How could she not regret her actions after seeing how much her daughter was suffering?

Is the best you wanted for me now good enough for you?. Bai Jun asked while pointing at her current state. She had messy hair, dry skin, chapped lips, rough palms, visible scars on her face, and she smelled. So Bai Jun was asking her if she was satisfied with her current condition.

Chapter 449 – Fu Huas Money

Bai Fen saw the clear hatred in her daughters eyes and became afraid of losing her. No Jun, I didnt mean for all of these. I wanted to help you get into the Fu family because I know you would love it.

Bai Jun chuckled angrily and replied, You are right, I loved it so much that I almost went crazy. Mum, I dont want to see you again. I dont need your love and care, as you can see, Im already basking in your previous love.

As Bai Jun was saying her last sentence, she was standing to her feet. Bai Fen was scared of the outcome of this whole thing and got up from her seat as well.

Jun, why are you saying these? You are the only family I have left, we need each other. And I will help you to get out of here. Bai Fen said with tears in her eyes. She could tell how much her daughter was suffering, and now after confessing to her, she was starting to regret it. Maybe she should have left things the way they were.

I dont need you! Go and pay FJs debt yourself, and dont you dare touch my money! I cant believe my mother is the sole reason I ended up in jail. Bai Jun chuckled bitterly and turned to leave. Bai Fen tried to follow her, but the prison guards, came back to block her from following Bai Jun.

Jun, Im sorry, I didnt mean for all of these, I regret it!. Bai Fen cried out with a teary gaze on her daughters back, but Bai Jun didnt react and continued walking away.

At last, when the prison guards left her, she fell on the floor and cried really hard. She was regretting saying the truth, and she regretted her actions from the very beginning. She shouldnt have played tricks just to get her daughter married into the Fu family, and now, her daughter was paying for her sins.

Bai Jun went back to her cell filled with hurt. She has always thought that Fu Hua belonged to her and that Jia Li snatched him from her, but it looks like things were different. Learning that Fu Hua and Jia Li had already been arranged to get married before Fu Hee and her mother brought up that topic, she didnt know what to feel.

She has been busy hating the Fu family members for toiling with her emotions, without knowing that her mother was the architect of everything.

Finding out that the Fu family wasn't at fault, did not completely stop Bai Jun from still hating them. She just learned this news, so it will take a while for her to lose the knot in her heart.

Bai Fen was asked to leave the prison because she was causing a commotion by crying there. When she finally stepped out of the prison premises, there were only regret and suffering written on her face.

Bai Fen walked for more than 20 minutes before taking a taxi. In the taxi, she thought about how Bai Jun was suffering while she was still living a good life because of her brother's help. She cried with a hand over her mouth as she truly regretted her actions.

I shouldn't have had this idea in the first place! Bai Fen thought. She was talking about the idea of marrying Bai Jun into the Fu family. She was really regretting it now.

Today being Saturday, FangSu dragged Jia Li and Meixu to go shopping with her. She was so hyper about it that Fu Meixu asked if she was going to pay for their stuff.

I still haven't recovered from the hole you made in my pocket, so why should I pay for your bills? FangSu asked while rolling her eyes.

Why did you drag us to go shopping with you when you are not going to foot our bills, who does that? Fu Meixu asked with a frown.

I just needed you to come along. If you don't want to pay for your bills, you can just watch us shop to our hearts content. I really do not have any money, so, I can only afford to pay for our spa treatment.

FangSu said as all three of them walked outside the house.

You dont have any money ?. Jia Li asked with a surprised gaze on FangSu.

Yes Sister-in-law, Im poor, FangSu replied.

Jia Li didnt seem to understand the reason FangSu said she was poor, because she was a daughter of the Fu family, and should have stipends every month from the family. Jia Li didnt understand things until Fu Meixu just explained FangSus situation to her.

Jia Li, FangSu is a poor heiress who doesnt receive money from our family. Since the last trouble she caused, all financial support was cut off, so now, she has to rely on her hard work.

Hearing her cousin talk about her embarrassing situation out loud, FangSu was angry, but not at her. She was angry and blamed Bai Jun for her present situation.

Bai Jun is to be blamed for this! She washed my brain and used me, and I was blind to follow her lead. FangSu said out loud.

Stop blaming Bai Jun for everything, you are at fault as well. Why would you listen to your friend instead of your brother and Grandfather, you were really blind as you said. Fu Meixu said without a care.

FangSu knew she was to be blamed as well, but hearing it directly from Meixus mouth made her angry.

Jia Li saw that the cousins were about to fight and immediately intervened.

Can we leave already, I will foot the bills for today. Jia Li said with a frown.

FangSu forgot about her anger and immediately glanced at Jia Li with a brightened-up gaze. Sister-in-law are you serious about footing the bills?.

Fu Meixu also gazed at Jia Li with a smile. She was happy that Jia Li was going to foot her bills.

Im serious about it. Its not bad if we all spend Fu Huas money, so lets leave already. Jia Li replied.

When Fu Meixu heard it was her big cousins money they were going to spend, her smile slowly disappeared. This means that she had to curtail her big appetite as she was afraid of getting killed with a glare from Fu Hua.

I heard you calling my name, whats up?.. Fu Hua asked from behind their backs with the little bun in his arms.

Chapter 450 – Shop Shop Shop

The three young women turned around to see Fu Hua behind them. They were surprised as they had been busy conversing and didnt notice him coming over.

Oh! I was talking about spending your money. Jia Li replied.

Māmā... Jasmine called out to Jia Li as she stretched her little hands out to her.

Take Jasmine with you. I asked her if she wanted to follow you, and she nodded, so I quickly got her dressed. Fu Hua said as he handed the little bun over to the surprised Jia Li.

When Jia Li left the father and daughter in the room after dressing up, the little bun still had her gaze on the door even after her mother had left.

Fu Hua noticed her gaze lingering on the door, so he leaned over to her and asked if she wanted to follow her mother, and the little bun nodded adorably and called out Māmā

I will get you dressed up now. Fu Hua said with a smile as he lifted the little bun from the bed and carried her into the walk-in closet.

Da Xia is coming with us? Thats great!. FangSu clapped her hands excitedly. She was happy the little bun was coming with them.

You wanted to come with me?. Jia Li asked the little bun who had a neutral gaze.

Jasmine smacked her lips instead of replying, which was a good response anyways.

I asked the kitchen for her snacks because I dont trust the things outside. Which car are you going out in?. Fu Hua asked as a servant approached them with a cute lunch box in her hand, and another one carrying Jasmynes folded stroller.

We are going in Sister-in-laws car, FangSu said from the side, and so the servant took Jasmynes stroller towards Jia Lis car, while Fu Meixu took Jasmynes lunch box from the other servant.

Call me if there is anything. Fu Hua said after he kissed the mother and daughter on their cheeks.

Jasmine say goodbye to daddy. Jia Li said to the little bun while gesturing to her. Jasmine followed her and waved at Fu Hua.

Bye Princess. Fu Hua said with a smile as he waved back to the little bun.

Today, the little bun was obedient, and she was not overly active. Jia Li carried her towards her car and put her in her car seat after FangSu opened the car door for her.

Who is driving ?. FangSu asked.

I will, Meixu said with a smile and she walked towards the drivers side of the car and got in. Finally being able to sit in the car she has been admiring and even get to drive it, Meixu felt satisfied.

Okay, then I will look after Da Xia, FangSu said and got into the car to sit next to the little bun happily.

Hello, Da Xia, FangSu said as she waved at the little bun with a smile. Jasmine glanced at her hand before glancing at her face, and then she smiled at her.

You cute little bun, FangSu said with a big smile as she thought how good of an idea it was to sit next to her niece.

Jia Li passed the watermelon teether to Jasmine before getting into the front passenger seat. The little bun played with her together before putting it into her mouth.

Throughout the ride from the house to the shopping mall, FangSu played with the little bun and conversed with her.

On getting to the shopping mall, FangSu carried the little bun in her arms while Fu Meixu pushed the empty stroller, and in Jia Li's hands, laid Jasmine's lunch box.

Jasmine was curious about a lot of things as FangSu carried her into the mall. She kept pointing and babbling about things that fascinated her, and FangSu paid attention to her.

When FangSu wanted to pick some items for herself, she finally let the little bun go. She placed her in her stroller, and Jia Li took over to take care of her.

Jia Li opened the lunch box and took out a piece of rice cake and handed it to the little bun. Next, she brought out her water and gave it to her as well.

There was a space in the stroller, so Jia Li put her lunch box there and proceeded to push the stroller.

While sitting comfortably in her stroller and eating her rice cake, the little bun watched her Aunties pick dresses and try them on.

If FangSu tries on a new dress, she would twirl in front of the little bun and ask her if the dress was pretty.

Jasmine will either ignore her, clap her hands excitedly, or babble while pointing at the dress.

Looking at the two of them communicating, Jia Li couldn't help but smile as she remembered when FangSu has not still been redeemed. Thinking of the past, Jia Li didn't believe that FangSu would have a good relationship with her daughter.

FangSu was the symbol of a good Aunt to her niece.

After shopping for a while in that section, they went to the mens section to get some things for the main in their families.

FangSu specially picked something out for Zhang Junjie without anyone knowing because it was taken that she was picking out clothes for Fu Ling.

After shopping, Jia Li paid for everything and had their shopping bags sent back to the Fu Villa, while they continued hanging out.

Im hungry, lets find something to eat. Fu Meixu said as she drove with her gaze moving around. She was looking for a good restaurant close by.

I know a place close here, their services are topnotch, FangSu suggested and they all decided to try that place out.

And so the next few minutes, three and a half ladies were sitting around one table in a cozy restaurant.

There was no high seat for Jasmine, so Jia Li had to sit her on her thighs. The little bun really wanted to sit on her own, but Jia Li explained to her that there was no baby seat for her, and so she obediently let her mother hold her.

I love this place already. Fu Meixu said with a smile as she looked around.

I know right... You know, you can just thank me directly for bringing you to this place.. FangSu said with a cheeky smile.
