Chapter 451 - Ice Cream

Thank you my feet! Fu Meixu said and immediately called for a waiter to come and take their orders.

When the food was served, Jasmine became excited and stretched her hands towards the nearest plate close to her to pick the food herself, but Jia Li stopped her.

No dont touch it, I will feed you. Jia Li said to her in a soft tone. The little bun glanced at her mother, looked back at the food, and then smacked her lips while clapping her hands.

My Niece is so cute, FangSu said with excitement in her voice.

I hope she remains cute like this. Jia Li said as she used her spoon to mash some mixed rice before giving it to the little bun. She said that because the little wasnt disturbing, and she looked she will remain obedient for a while longer.

Jasmine was glad that her mother brought the food quickly, and she opened her mouth to eat it.

From the restaurant, the ladies went to the beauty spa. Since the little bun was sleepy, she was laid in her stroller, and it was adjusted so she could sleep comfortably.

After getting their facials done, they had their fingers and their toes cleaned up.

When they were about to leave the spa, Jasmine woke up. FangSu rushed to carry her in her arms and suggested they go to a cafe to get some snacks to eat.

FangSu got a small ice cream

Jia Li who was standing at the side, immediately grabbed her little hands to stop her from touching the Ice Cream.

Da Xia, dont touch it, I will give you to have a taste. Now watch me. FangSu said to her and immediately demonstrated how to eat the ice cream, but the little buns attention was divided. Her gaze was moving from FangSu to the ice cream in her hand.

At a point, the little bun had to protest with a curious gaze. Finally, FangSu brought the Ice cream to her lips to have a taste. Jasmine immediately stuck out her tongue to lick the ice cream.

After tasting the ice cream and seeing how nice it was, the little bun glanced at her mother in surprise and made sounds of excitement.

You like it?. Jia Li asked with a smile as she slowly let her hands go.

Da Xia, eat more, FangSu said as she brought the ice cream towards Jasmynes lips again, and before any one of them could react, the little bun grabbed the ice cream with her hands and put her lips on it.

Jia Li, FangSu, and Fu Meixu all let out gasps of shock. The little bun definitely didnt feel the coldness of the Ice cream, because she still had her entire mouth on it.

Fifteen minutes later, they were all on their way home, but the little bun was still eating her ice cream. This time around, Jia Li was feeding her with a spoon, and also eating with her, so she wouldnt have to gobble everything down her small stomach.

When they got home, all the shop bags they sent home, were still lined up in the inner sitting room, so the three ladies began to sort them out, while Grandfather Fu came to carry the little bun.

Seeing his great-granddaughters protruded stomach, the old man chuckled and asked her, Da Xia, did you eat a lot of food outside ?.

The little bun smiled at the old man and put her hands on his face. She caressed his face and then went on to touch his beards.

Grandfather Fu smiled warmly and carried the little bun away. He had prepared some strawberries for her, but since she has already had something to eat, he didnt want to overfeed her, and so he asked Butler Lu to carry the plate of fruits away.

After sorting out everything they bought, they had the servants take the shop bags to the bedrooms of each member of the family they got the items for.

When they had finished that phase, they sighed in relief. It is so tiring to shop for a lot of people. Im so tired, Im going to sleep. Fu Meixu said and disappeared.

Sister-in-law, Im running off to get my beauty sleep as well, FangSu said with a smile and disappeared.

Jia Li was tired as well, so she went to her bedroom. Fu Hua was not in there, and she wondered if he was in the workshop. But as she didnt have the strength to go find him, she changed her clothes and went to lay on the bed.

Before Jia Li could close her eyes, a knock was heard on the door. She slowly opened her eyes and asked for the door to be opened.

A servant appeared with a glass of freshly squeezed fruit juice in her hand.

Miss, first Madam asked me to bring it to you. The servant said with a smile.

Jia Li knew she was referring to Fu Hee as the first madam and she asked her to bring the glass of fruit juice to her.

When Jia Li touched the glass, she felt the chillness and smiled. She thanked the servant and asked her to put the tray down and leave.

When Jia Li tastes the juice, she could immediately tell the fruits Fu Hee used. She loved the drink and she drank everything up at once, before putting the empty glass down and going on to lay on the bed.

Later in the evening, the whole family gathered to have dinner, and Grandfather Fu fed the little bun personally.

In the next few days, the Fu family handled the birthday preparations of the little bun. All the guests could only come in with the invitation card sent to them, and their faces were to be screened before they would be allowed inside, which was something that wouldnt take time.

The machine had a screen or more like a lens, and once any guest glanced at it, the machine will immediately scan their faces and match their identities on the system before they would be allowed inside.

In this big party hosted by the Fu family, no media was invited, because Grandfather Fu said it was another party to announce his granddaughter-in-law to all his friends again, and he didnt want any outsiders as well.

Chapter 452 - Jasmines First Birthday Party

On Jia Li and Jasmynes birthday, the whole family sang a birthday song to them immediately they stepped out of the room.

Jia Li and Jasmine looked surprised to see the whole house decorated with balloons and other items. The balloons were so many that Jia Li kicked some of them as she walked.

This was the kind of thing the little bun liked so she asked to be let down so she could sit and play with them.

While everything was being finalized, Jasmynes official birthday cake arrived. At first, Jia Li didnt want to let the little bun see her cake for fear that she would start crying to have a bite, but Fu Hua asked her to allow her.

There are so many cakes coming today, so we can give her to try from any of them.

When Jasmine saw her birthday cake, she was excited and clapped her hands. Jia Li pointed at the cake and said to her, Today is your birthday, and thats your birthday cake, but you can only eat it after cutting it.

As Fu Hua said, more cakes were on their way. To Jia Lis surprise, every member of the Fu family customized a birthday cake for Jasmine.

2 hours to the party time, Jia Li and the little bun, bath and got dressed to take their official birthday photos. Fu Hua joined them for a few of their photos, and the rest of the family joined them in a few. But the main focus was on Jasmine.

It was really fun getting the little bun to stand on her feet so some shots could be taken. When everyone cheered her on, the little bun clapped her hands and smiled back at them, and that was how a perfect shot was taken of her while standing.

Jasmine's first birthday party was really loud as lots of the Fu family friends were in attendance. The little bun was afraid of the crowd and she didn't let any outsider touch or carry her.

And when it felt like she was being forced, she would make sounds of protests and hide in her mother or father's arms. You really can't force Jasmine to do what she doesn't want to.

Being the center of attention was not something the little bun really liked. She was shy and wouldn't stay at a place if her mother or father was not next to her.

When it was time to cut her birthday cake which had her picture on it, she almost cried because Jia Li made her stand in front of the table, and then turned to leave.

Seeing as the little bun had already pouted her lips and stretched out one arm towards her, Jia Li was forced to return to her side.

Fu Hua joined the mother and daughter pair on the stage to cut the birthday

After cutting her birthday cake, the little bun clapped for herself, and that caused her to receive cheers from the family and the guests. And immediately, everyone stood up to sing a birthday song for her.

After singing for the little bun, YingPei immediately went to carry the little bun away, because Fu Hua arranged a little something for Jia Li just to make her feel special on her day.

Fu Hua took the mic from the mc and gazed lovingly at Jia Li. Jia Li didn't see this coming, and it was so weird for her to be the center of attention. She almost ran away if Fu Hua wasn't quick enough to pull her back.

After taking the mic, Fu Hua held her hand and sang a birthday song specially for her, as the rest watched them with smiles on their faces.

After singing for her, Fu Ling immediately stepped forward with a crown

Next, Fu Hua stretched out his hand for a dance, and Jia Li took it with a gladdened heart. She remembered saying that she didnt want anything special on this day, but now, she was convinced that she can not stop Fu Hua from doing whatever he wanted.

Jasmine stared at her parents with a curious gaze. Seeing them dance on the stage, was the first time, so she was very curious about what they were doing.

The little bun went on to point at them and tried to say a few words Fu Yingpei couldnt make sense of. He didnt have an idea of what she was saying, but he still replied to her.

Your Dad and your Mum are dancing, do you like that ?. Fu YingPei asked with a smile.

Hu...dantch... Jasmine said while pointing at her the couple dancing on the stage. Fu YingPei concluded that he could never understand her language, and gave up on it.

Not long after, FangSu came to carry the little bun away, but YingPei did not allow her to take the little bun from him.

Brother give her to me, Im going to introduce her to a few of my friends, FangSu said while stretching forth her arms.

Fu YingPei moved a little away from her and said, I wont give her to you, go away.

FangSu frowned after being rejected and asked YingPei for the little bun again. Brother why are you doing this ?.

Jasmine who has been staring at her parents took notice of FangSu and wanted to go with her, but YingPei refused.

I carried her first, wait till I'm tired then I will give her to you. Fu YingPei said.

FangSu couldn't believe her ears, and she looked so annoyed at the moment. And before she could protest, Butler Lu came to their side to take the little bun away from them. Actually, the old man had sent him to take Jasmine from them.

Grandfather Fu was sitting with his friends and also wanted to show off his family's little princess.

After Jia Li and Fu Hua finished dancing, the Party continued. Guests were served food and drinks and souvenirs.

Towards the end of the party, Jasmine gave out gifts to the children that came for her birthday party with the help of Jia Li.

Jia Li would pick a gift and give it to her, and then instruct her to pass it to the child in front of them. When giving out any heavy gift, Jia Li would put her hand underneath hers to support her.

It was good that the gifts were well packaged, otherwise, if the little bun saw anything that fascinated her, she would forget about handing the gift to another person.

Chapter 453 - Jasmines Interests

Jasmine looked especially cute in her yellow princess-styled dress, and the crown made of pure silver fit her perfectly.

Jasmine received lots of expensive gifts from the guests, and also from her family members. The gifts the little bun received were much, that the servants had to put them in a store.

After the birthday party, everyone was tired already, and after sending off the guests, the Fu family members went into the house.

Jasmines birthday party was held outside, but the decors and arrangements made it not look like outdoor activity.

Since it was kind of late, Jia Li took the little bun to go have a warm water bath with the help of housekeeper Zu.

The next day after breakfast, Jia Li asked for the servants to bring all the gifts she and the little bun received the previous day, so she could see them.

The little bun sat next to her mother on the floor to unwrap their gifts together. Jia Li got so much jewelry and accessories as presents, while the little bun received cars, bicycles, back to school products, and many more toys and gifts.

When the little bun set eyes on her pink car gift, she immediately became interested in it. She took slow and unsteady steps towards the car, and when she got to that point, she touched the car and pointed at her mother while making little sounds.

You want to ride it?. Jia Li asked with a smile, and the little bun nodded in response, so Jia Li put her in the car and secured her seatbelt before picking up the remote to control the car.

When the car started moving, the little bun was shocked and stretched her hands out to hold onto something. But within a short time, she became very comfortable in her ride.

A few minutes later, Jia Li wanted to carry the little bun out of the car, but she refused to come down.

Did I do wrong by letting you ride in it?. Jia Li asked the little bun who seemed to be having a lot of fun in her new car.

I...māmā... tch... Jasmine said while pointing at the car. She was trying to tell her mum to make the car move again.

No way, I want to show you something. Jia Li said and turned her back on her, then she asked the servant to bring the gift set that had books in it.

After taking out the books which were storybooks and learning books for children of her age, Jia Li picked up one and read the title to the little bun.

Because the book looked so colorful, Jasmine forgot about her car ride and paid great attention to the book, and as her mother opened the book to point at some colors for her.

...Jasmine, youve got so many things to learn. Jia Li said to the little bun who currently had the book in her hands. She was seriously gazing at the fantastic colors before her. Even when her mother brought her out from the car, she didnt complain.

Jia Li checked out some of the gifts with the little bun. And now that she has seen so many colorful books, she abandoned the remaining stuff for her mother to deal with.

Seeing how the little bun sat at a place obediently to play with one of her books, Jia Li felt relieved the book was not in a paper form or else, the little girl would have torn it by now.

When Fu Hua came to join them and saw his little princess sitting all by herself and seemed to be busy with something, He asked Jia Li, Why is she so quiet?.

Jia Li glanced at the little bun who had her back towards them and then turned to reply to Fu Hua with a smile, She is playing with one of the books she received as a gift.

Fu Hua smiled with his gaze on his little princess before looking back at his wife. She seems so interested in that book, I will go and check it out.

When Fu Hua arrived at the little buns side, he squat next to her and had to call her in other to get her attention.

Jasmine heard her fathers voice and took a break to glance at him. Seeing her father made her smile. The little bun pointed at her book repeatedly in a bid to show it off to him.

Can I see what you are doing?. Fu Hua asked as he took the book from her to seriously go through it.

Jasmine smacked her lips after her father took her book from her. She still had her gaze on her book as if she was afraid it would disappear from her sight if she takes her gaze of it for a second.

Oh! you are studying colors. Do you want me to teach you?. Fu Hua asked with an interesting gaze.

Jasmine was now in a dilemma and didnt know how to reply to her father. She wanted to continue playing with her book, and she didnt need him to interfere with it.

Fu Hua smiled, even more, when he noticed the little buns gaze moving from the book to his face. As she remained quiet, he knew she wanted her book back, but didnt know how to say no to him.

Alright, I will let you have your book, for now, I will teach you some other time. Fu Hua said in a gentle tone as he handed the book back to her before walking off to Jia Li's side.

She is so interested in books, and I think it won't be difficult for her to learn new things. Fu Hua said as he sat beside Jia Li.

Jia Li glanced at him and replied with a smile, You don't know your daughter. She only likes colorful things, nothing else.

It will still be easy for her to learn a new thing since she is always so interested in things like that. Fu Hua replied.

Won't she be distracted?. Jia Li asked with a frown.

No, she won't. I will call someone to set up another playground outside for her. Fu Hua said.

He wanted Jasmine to build her strength and be physically fit with the help of some outdoor activities.

Okay, we will plan it together.. Jia Li said in agreement.

Chapter 454 - Utilize Opportunities

While the family of three was busy with the birthday presents, lots of people were gushing over the pictures from the birthday party.

In the picture that he posted, only a little of Jia Li's side profile was seen, but the side profile of the little bun was seen clearly.

Everyone was complimenting the little bun for how cute and beautiful she was. Many of them asked the reason they couldn't see Jia Li's face.

Even the picture Grandfather Fu posted of Jia Li and the little bun, Jia Li had her head lowered, while Jasmine was looking up at her. From the picture, it could be seen that Jia Li was saying something to the little bun that warranted their poses being that way.

As everyone was curious about Jia Li's identity, they were still happy that they at least got to see her side profile. Someone asked under Fu Hua's comment section when he would finally let them see his wife's face, but as usual, he didn't reply to anyone.

Grandfather Fu left this matter for Fu Hua and Jia Li to decide. Jia Li didn't seem to care about her hidden identity, while Fu Hua had something else in mind. He has decided to reveal Jia Li's identity as his wife soon, and he was going to do it in an unexpected way, and that's the reason he will not bring it up, anyone before then.

Jia Li being a normal citizen posted a selfie of herself without make-up and wished herself a happy birthday.

Jia Li had fans, so she received a lot of birthday wishes and comments under her post, but who would have thought that she was the same person the members of the Fu family were celebrating?

Jia Li's three friends who were also present at the birthday party wished her a happy birthday under her latest post.

On Monday, when Jia Li went to work, she received birthday gifts and cards from her colleagues. Sunny also handed her a bottle of perfume as a birthday gift.

Soon August came, and FJ Styles held their Autumn Fashion show. And a day after the show, FJ posted on their official social media pages the 5 outfits designed by their newbies that made it to the Autumn show, with their names included.

Although Jia Li wasn't trying to be popular, being in FJ, has made her more popular, and caused the media attention to be on her. She was like a mini-celebrity right now.

Jia Li also reposted the red dress she designed from FJ Styles page, on her page as well, with a little write-up, I had no idea this dress would look this pretty. Thank you @FJ_Styles for recognizing my arts.

Jia Li and her 4 other colleagues whose works were recognized, received some rewards from FJ. Their work tables were upgraded, and they had their little office spaces now.

Marié being amongst the people that got her own little office space, was very excited and couldn't stop talking about it.

Before the end of work that day, Sunny announced that she was going to give a treat to all the newbies who have been with them since January.

This was good news to the newbies because Sunny was usually very strict with them, and she doesn't smile with them at all. Now hearing from her that she was going to give them a treat, they were beyond happy.

At least she is not treating her group only, but our entire set. One of the newbies said with a big smile.

I'm glad this is the weekend, so I can drink all I want, Marié said.

Don't forget we are dining with our superiors, don't forget your manners at the end of work today, bring it along, Linda said to her.

Marié glanced at her and asked with a frown, Really? do you think I'm insensible to get drunk and act crazy in front of my superiors from work?.

We know how crazy you can be, so we are reminding you ahead of time. One of them said with a smile.

Are you serious? I don't want to lose my job or lose pointers, so I will definitely be on my best behavior. Marié replied.

Jia Li on the other hand was happy with the treat, but she had a baby-toddler at home whom she needed to get home to spend some time with after staying away from her for almost a whole day.

Jia Li went to Sunny's office to permit her to be absent on her treat, but Sunny refused.

I know you have a child, but I want you to be present today because I have an important announcement to make as well. I will permit you to leave after half an hour. Sunny said with a gentle gaze.

Thank you. Jia Li replied. Returning to her office, Fu Hua requested to have a video call with her. Jia Li fixed her earphones before answering the call.

How do you feel about owning a little office space?. Fu Hua asked immediately the call got connected. A big smile played on his lips while waiting for her response.

I love it, it feels like I am a small CEO of a company. Be careful of me, so I won't snatch FJ from you. Jia Li teased.

Fu Hua chuckled softly and said to her, I would really love to see you stand side by side with me in this Fashion World. Hard work brought me here, and not because I was my grandmother's grandson, so I would like you to work hard so you can meet me quickly.

I promise that I will meet you soon. Every little opportunity that comes my way will be utilized just to be a few steps away from you. Jia Li replied with a smile.

I love your spirit. I will reward you handsomely if you can achieve a lot before January. Fu Hua said to her.

He was setting a goal for her to reach before she celebrates her 1st anniversary working in FJ, and Jia Li took up the challenge.

What would my reward be?. Jia Li asked with a smile.

Fu Hua thought hard and said, I would have loved to pay for a 2 weeks vacation to anywhere you want, but I cant because Jasmine and I would want to come along, so I have decided to reward you with myself.

What!. Jia Li exclaimed in surprise as she chuckled hard.. She thought he had something reasonable to say or something that would sweep her off her feet, but it turned out that he would say something that is not relevant.

Chapter 455 - Big Opportunity

Giving myself to you is enough reward. Fu Hua replied. He was deliberately teasing her because he loved her reactions.

This means you havent given yourself to me all this while. Jia Li said to him.

Okay, now Im speechless. I will reward you handsomely if you pass my test. Fu Hua said as he has lost the zeal to continue teasing her before he gets into trouble.

Dont call me during work hours, I dont want to be distracted. Jia Li said in a kind reminder. She knew that there was no way they wouldnt speak for more than 5 minutes if they were to engage in a conversation. And being a young couple that loved themselves, they were likely to talk for a long time and forget they were working.

Dont miss my calls on purpose, I will let you continue with your work, for now, bye, I love you. Fu Hua said as he blew her a kiss.

I love you too, bye... Jia Li said while waving to him with a smile.

After work, Jia Li texted Fu Hua to tell him about the treat Sunny was sponsoring, and that she would be back home in an hour plus. Fu Hua replied to her text with an ok sign Sunny arranged for the companys bus to take them all to the location of the restaurant she booked. Those that had a means of transport like Jia Li, could come with their cars.

When Sunny said she was going to treat all of them to food and drinks, she truly set out for it. The restaurant she booked for their treat, was an expensive one, and the round table arranged, could contain them all.

There were looks of admiration on the newbies faces as they walked into the restaurant, and when they were directed to their room.

Miss Sunny, your monthly salary will be gone in feeding us today. One of the newbies said in pity.

Sunny smiled and replied to him, Dont worry about my money and eat, the bill is on Mr. Fu, so you can order what you like.

What! the Big Boss is paying ?. Linda asked with a surprising glint.

Even Jia Li was surprised by the revelation. When she was speaking with Fu Hua and also when she texted him and he replied, he never mentioned anything about the treat, so she was quite surprised to learn that he was going to foot their bill.

It feels so nice to eat whatever I like. One of them said with a big smile.

Im sure it feels so good to spend Mr. Fus money, I wont hold back while ordering.

When Jia Li heard this one, she rolled her eyes in her head. Why do you feel good about spending my husbands money She thought in her head. That sentence made Jia Li jealous.

Actually, Fu Hua didnt know about the treat until Jia Li mentioned it to him, so he decided to sponsor it from his purse. When he called Sunny to tell her that he would foot the bills, the latter was surprised, and agreed, while wondering who tipped him off about the treat.

Zimo was on a weeks leave, so it cant be him. Not bothering about the matter since it wasnt a serious case, Sunny went on with her work.

After everyone had settled down around the big round table, three waiters came in to take their orders.

Jia Li didnt order much since there would still be more than enough food served at home just for her.

There was a bottle of wine in their order, so when it arrived, Sunny popped it and poured a little quantity into everyones cup. After the first glass clinking, everyone was allowed to start eating.

Jia Li kept checking the time, and Sunny noticed it but didnt say anything, and finally, when 30 minutes was up, Jia Li got up and took permission to leave.

JL, why are you leaving already, we just got here?. One of them said with furrowed brows.

She has a husband, a child, and a family unlike most of us, Marié said.

Sunny had to speak up at this point. Jia Li, please give me a minute.

Jia Li sat back down and paid attention to what Sunny was about to say.

A few minutes later, Jia Li left the restaurant. Sunny had just told all of them to work very hard during this period, as FJ was planning an opportunity to let them showcase the level of their talents after working with them for a certain period, and then it was going to be a very big exposure for them.

...the date will be announced soon. But till then, dont stop working hard.

Sunny said to them.

The newbies drew attention to themselves right from when they joined the competition FJ held, and now, after some months have passed, people will be curious about their progress, and so, FJ was planning something to bring them back to the limelight once again.

When Jia Li got back home, the father and daughter were playing together, but she still saw an opportunity to ask him about what Sunny told them after the excited little bun welcomed her back home.

Fu Hua confirmed that something like that was being put under consideration, and Jia Li did not ask any more questions.

Grandfather said he will come with us to pay a visit to your parents next weekend. Fu Hua notified her.

This is exactly 3 years since Jia Li lost her parents, and every year, she would go to her hometown to visit them.

Grandfather is coming with us ?. Jia Li asked in surprise. This was the first time the old man was going to see her parents after they were buried, so it was a surprise to her that he wanted to come along with them.

Not only him, Mother and father are coming along as well. Fu Hua said. This news was more shocking than the first. To Jia Li, it felt like the entire Fu family was coming with her to pay a visit to her parents.

Jia Li was surprised by this news, but there was no rejection in her heart. Her father-in-law has never met her parents physically and virtually, so he must want to come along to pay respect to them.

As for Fu Hee, she was present during the burial of Mr. and Mrs.. Qin, so it can be said that she has met them before.

Chapter 456 - Second Anniversary

The next weekend, Jia Li, Fu Hua, Jasmine, Grandfather Fu, Fu Hee, and Fu Lei left for Jia Lis hometown to honor her parents. They bought fresh roses and incense and went along with some servants. Butler Lu was present as well.

Since The Fu family flew in with their private jet, they went straight to honor Jia Lis parents before going back to their villa in another community, which was very close to Jia Lis hometown.

Jia Li was not new to the villa, and because she was an adult, she found it easy to settle in, unlike the little bun who was restless. She disturbed a lot and couldnt sleep peacefully at night, and so did her parents.

Although Jia Li had slowly stopped breastfeeding Jasmine, this night, she was forced to put her breast in the little buns mouth, to see if she would calm down a little. Her plan only worked for a short while, so Fu Hua had to put a lot of effort into making the little girl sleep.

Jia Li hugged the little bun to sleep, and that was how Jasmine managed to sleep peacefully that night.

Because of Jasmynes disturbance the previous night, Fu Lei arranged for them to leave the next day at noon.

After Jia Li and the Fu family members left, Her Aunt learned of Jia Li visiting her parents, and went over to the Qins residence to find her, but the door was locked.

Jia Lis Aunt was so angry that she cursed and kicked the door. She was having the hope of seeing Jia Li and asking her for some money, but to her disappointment, It didnt look like her niece had stepped into that place in a long time.

When Mrs. Li learned that Jia Li came around to see her parents, she rejoiced and planned on how she was going to see her, only to be told that she never came around the area. Mrs. Li was disappointed and called her son to talk about it.

Li Huan has been very busy with work since he was promoted, and he was doing very well. There was no place he spends his vacation apart from his hometown, but he hasnt returned in a while, so when his mothers call came in, he thought she was calling because of it. But when his mother brought up the topic of Jia Li, he became so interested in it.

From their conversation, Mrs. Li learned that her son didnt know much about Jia Li, and they two havent seen each other in over a year, and they last spoke on phone about a year ago, so it has been quite a long time.

Mrs. Li had grown to the point of accepting that the young lady she wanted her son to get married to, was already married with a child, and so, she has begun to disturb Li Huan to start dating someone else soon, but he would always give an excuse of being too busy with work.

Like now, the mother and son were arguing about his dating lifestyle and how he should first take a step towards finding another woman he would love.

The problem Li Huan has is that he doesn't believe that he would ever love another woman the way he loved Jia Li. But this was none of Jia Li's business, she was happily married to Fu Hua, they both have an adorable daughter whom they loved so dearly.

The next month being September was Jia Li and Fu Hua's wedding anniversary, and when September finally came, Jia Li learned of Fu Hua's arrangement for the three of them.

Fu Hua had already booked plane tickets to 3 different countries to celebrate their honeymoon, and this will cost them a week and 3 days before they would return to China.

Luckily Jia Li's leave was approved. And even if Sunny didn't approve of it, Fu Hua will intervene.

This will be the first time Jasmine would be leaving China since she was born. All the little bun knew, was that she was going somewhere to her parents and as to which place they were going to, she didn't understand it.

Jia Li made sure to pack Jasmine's stuff first before packing hers. Fu Hua could pack his stuff himself, so he did that quickly before coming to help his wife out with her stuff.

After getting their things ready for tomorrow's afternoon flight, Jia Li said she needed to go to the hospital for a doctor's appointment. Fu Hua became worried and thought she was ill somewhere and immediately asked about it.

Are you okay? Are you hurting somewhere?. Fu Hua asked in a worried tone.

Jia Li saw the worry on his face and smiled, Im fine. Im only going to the hospital to enforce a birth control method. We cant get pregnant now, so we have to prevent any mistakes.

Since they were going on a week-long vacation, Jia Li was somewhat scared that they would have s*x in the heat of the moment, and forget to use protection. And since Fu Hua wouldnt let her take pills, she has to pay a visit to the doctor.

I have to come with you, this is something I am involved with, so I will come with you. Since Fu Hua insisted on coming with her, Jia Li didnt have any issues. All she did, was to dress the little bun and take her along with them, so she could have her checkup done.

Jia Li and Fu Hua spent more than 2 hours in the hospital before driving home. On their way home, Jasmynes mouth was very busy. Her doctor gave her a milk candy

The next day, Jia Li, Fu Hua, the little bun, Mei, and 2 other servants, traveled out of the country to celebrate their 2nd anniversary.

Going to the beach was one of the fun things the little bun experienced. Jia Li bought cute beach wears that would fit her perfectly.. When Fu Hua saw his daughter dressed in a swimsuit, he couldnt help laughing and taking beautiful photos of her.

Chapter 457 - First Time Beach Experience

The little bun was chubby and had her tied up in two buns, so her swimwear made her look so cute, especially when she was walking by herself.

Jasmine can now walk by herself, but because she was still not used to it, she still walked unsteadily, and would sometimes fall on the floor with her bottom, and when this happens, she would get up and continue walking.

Princess, you look so beautiful. Fu Hua said with a smiling gaze after taking a few shots of her.

Thanku... Jasmine replied as she clapped her hands excitedly. Jia Li taught her how to receive compliments, and she learned pretty quickly.

Fu Hua couldnt get over his daughters cuteness, and so sat on the floor with an affectionate gaze on her.

Princess, kiss daddy. Fu Hua said to her.

Okay, Jasmine replied with a cute smile and leaned in to kiss his cheek. Fu Hua hugged her tightly and planted kisses all over her face, and this was the scene Jia Li saw when she walked into the bedroom.

Do you want to kiss mummy too?. Fu Hua asked the little bun after he glanced at the smiling Jia Li.

Jasmine nodded in response, and Jia Li came to her side and squat next to her to receive her kisses.

Thank you, Jasmine. Jia Li said as she hugged her little daughter.

Princess we are going to the beach, are you ready?. Fu Hua asked as he lifted the little girl in his arms.

Yes!. Jasmine replied with her hands raised. The previous night, her father had shown her what a beach looked like through a video, and when he asked if she would love to visit there, she replied with a yes and so Fu Hua promised to take her to the beach the next day.

Good girl. Fu Hua said to her before glancing at Jia Li who was wearing cover-up beachwear.

After taking a good look at her outfit, he asked, Are you comfortable in it?. He didnt want her to be uncomfortable outside, so he asked that question.

Jia Li glanced at her outfit and said, I think its okay. My boobs are not showing much, and my bottom is all covered up.

Fu Hua sighed and said, Okay, lets leave now.

The family of three set out for the beach with 2 servants following them. There were huge sunglasses on Fu Hua and Jia Lis faces, which would make it kind of difficult to be recognized.

Jasmine was very happy to be on the beach. She kept giggling and talking while pointing at the sea. The little girl fell a few times after tripping over small heaps of sand.

Jia Li and Fu Hua held their little daughters hand and took her close to the sea, so she could know the feeling of water touching her feet at the beach. The little bun screamed excitedly when the cold water touched her feet, and it was a good thing she wasnt scared of it.

After her experience with the water, Fu Hua carried her out, and let her seat on the sand, but the little bun got up immediately. She kept pointing at the sand and saying, Dirty.

Jia Li and Fu Hua chuckled heartily after seeing the frown on the little girls face. Jia Li had to tell her she could still sit on it.

Jasmine, you can still sit on it, I will wash your bottom after playing with the sand. Jia Li said to her.

Nooo, Jasmine said with a frown. When she first fell on the sand while walking, she immediately clapped her hands to remove the sand on it after she got to her feet and now telling her to sit on the sand just like that wasn't going to work.

Jia Li and Fu Hua couldn't blame the little girl, they thought her what dirt was, and it looks like their teaching really stuck to her head.

Jia Li called for a servant who came to spray the beach clothing on the sand, and only then did Jasmine agree to sit. Fu Hua was going to teach her how to build a sandcastle

Jia Li didn't know how to build a sandcastle, so she watched along with Jasmine. While building, Fu Hua would ask Jasmine to hand him a paintbrush, a funnel, or any other tool, and Jia Li will show the little bun any tool she didn't recognize, so she could pass it to her father.

After building the sandcastle, Fu Hua asked, How is it?.

Awesome! The little girl said in an excited tone. She looked so marveled to see the sandcastle her father built. The 14 months old was thrilled as she clapped her hands excitedly.

Lets take pictures together. Jia Li suggested as she took out her phone and got ready to take a selfie of them.

After taking a few shots with their phones, they returned to their beach chair to rest. Jia Li washed the little girl's hands and dried them with a hand towel before handing the slightly chilled pineapple juice she got for her.

Thanku... Jasmine said as she received the pineapple juice from her mother and started to suck from her straw.

While lying on their beach chairs and watching the little bun who was playing all by herself under the watch of the servants, Fu Hua turned to glance at Jia

Lis outfit. He couldn't help not reacting and got up to cover her body with a clothing.

I can't believe other people are seeing what belongs to me. He said with a frown as he sat on her chair.

Jia Li understood what he was talking about and smiled, I had no idea my clothes have been readjusted, thank you!

That is not enough. Fu Hua said before making her adjust for him, so he could lay beside her.

We are at the beach, and a lot of people are watching, what are you doing?. Jia Li asked with a smile as he pulled her to rest her head on his chest.

You are my wife, and I can do what I want. Fu Hua said as he continued holding her.. Right now, he was no longer jealous because her soft meaty skin comforted him.

Chapter 458 - Jasmine With Her Great-grandfather

When Jasmine who was walking about with the servants behind her turned around, she saw her parents staying too close to each other. First of all, she stared at them for a short while before deciding to go back to their side while calling out to her father.

Daddy! Daddy!. Jasmine called out in her cute voice as she quickly made her way to her parents in wobbly steps.

A big smile formed on Jia Li and Fu Hua's lips as they watched their daughter walk towards them hurriedly.

I bet you that she is coming to separate us. Jia Li said in a low tone, She was talking from experience. She knew the little bun would be jealous if she saw them together, and would surely come to separate them.

She is our daughter!. Fu Hua said with a low chuckle. The little bun looked so adorable as she made her way to her parents. And finally, when she got to their side, she raised her hands in the air and asked her father to carry her.

Daddy...carry!. Jasmine said with a serious facial expression.

Jia Li leaned away from Fu Huas chest so he could lift the little bun. Jasmine finally relaxed after she settled on her fathers thighs.

You little girl, are you satisfied now ?. Jia Li asked as she pinched her chubby cheeks. Jasmine hit her hands away and brought her fathers hands around her waist.

Who does she take after ?. Fu Hua asked with a smiling gaze.

I dont know because its definitely not me. Jia Li denied it because she cant remember being this jealous anytime she saw her parents together when she was young.

If she doesnt take after you, then she takes after me. Although I cant remember acting like this when I was younger, Im sure I wouldnt want anyone near the person I love. Fu Hua replied with a smile.

Fu Hua admitted that he was a jealous person, which was true. He knew that since he discovered how much he loved Jia Li. He wouldnt want anyone to get close to his wife especially people of the opposite gender.

I agree with you, she definitely takes after you, and thats the reason she loves separating us anytime she sees us together. Jia Li responded.

Jasmine was oblivious to what her parents were talking about. She felt fulfilled in her fathers arms while knowing that he belonged to her.

From the beach, the family of three went to have lunch before retiring back to their hotel room. The next day, they took a flight to another country, the US.

Fu Hua wanted to show his little Princess Disneyland Park in California, so he made arrangements before their travel.

Jasmine was little but she was still astonished to see the sleeping beauty Castle. She watches a lot of Disney Princesses cartoons, so she was familiar with Princess Aurora.

Although Jasmine could not understand much, she still had a lot of fun. After touring 2 more countries, the family of three returned to China with the presents they got for everyone.

Jasmine was happy to see her great grandfather who always gave her a lot of goodies. She was all over him throughout that day. And the next day in the morning, she went to the strawberry garden with him.

The cute food monger could not resist food and when she saw the strawberries the old man picked and put inside the basket, she called out the name of the fruit and leaned over to pick one for herself.

Butler Lu who was standing close to the little bun took the fruit from her and put it back into the basket. Before the little bun could protest because she looked annoyed, Grandfather Fu smiled and said to her...

Da Xia, the fruit is dirty and needs to be washed before you can eat them.

Dirty, Jasmine repeated after him as she pointed at the strawberries in the basket.

Yes, they are dirty. Grandfather Fu said with a smile before glancing over at Butler Lu to instruct him to wash one of the fruits

A few minutes later, the washed strawberry was handed over to the little bun, but she refused to collect it. She hid her hands behind her and moved backward while calling the fruit, dirty

Hearty laughter escaped from the old mans lips as he watched his great granddaughters cute actions. He had to intervene so the little bun could accept the fruit.

Grandfather leaned towards the little girl and said to her in a doting tone, Da Xia, collect it, this one has been washed, you can eat it.

Jasmine trusted her great-grandpa, and so she collected the fruit from Butler Lu and took a bite from it. Loving the taste, the little bun took another bite and chewed on it.

Seeing how full her mouth was and how some of the fruit juices were dripping from the corner of her lips, Grandfather Fu smiled and took his handkerchief from Butler Lu and used it to wipe the corner of the little girls lips.

Jasmine made a cute gesture by offering the strawberry in her hand to the old man so he could have a bite.

Grandfather Fu didnt want to disappoint the little girl, so he leaned in to take a small bite and thanked her thereafter.

Da Xia, do you like it?. Grandfather Fu asked with a smile, and Jasmine nodded and said after him, Like it.

Good! When we finish collecting the fruits, I will let you have more.

Grandfather Fu said while pointing at the riped strawberries that were still on their branches

Jasmine nodded in understanding before going to sit on a small chair Butler Lu showed her to go to. The rule Jasmine learned about dining, was that she had to seat while eating or drinking, and she always obeyed it.

After collecting a lot of fruits, Grandfather Fu took the little buns hand and led her towards the house.. The height difference was much, but anyone that saw this scene would only feel love and admiration in their hearts.

Chapter 459 - Jasmine Being The Center Of Attention

After returning from the strawberry garden, Grandfather Fu personally served the little bun some washed strawberry fruits. His heart felt gladdened while watching Jasmine eat the fruit.

FangSu who had just come out from her bedroom heard her little niece was eating some fruits in the dining area, and immediately came to find her.

Grandfather, why didnt you give me some fruits like you gave to Da Xia?. FangSu asked as she tried to pick a strawberry from Jasmines plate, but the old man hit her hands away.

Do I still need to serve you now?. Grandfather Fu asked with a frown. If it wasnt his beloved great-granddaughter, then he wouldnt serve anybody.

Jasmine looked up at her Aunty that almost stole her fruit. I think she remembered that FangSu was always getting new foods, snacks, and drinks for her to try, so she picked up a strawberry and passed it to her.

A bright smile turned up on FangSus lips as she took the strawberry from her. Thank you, Da Xia!.

The little bun went back to eating her fruits again and ignored everyone, and Grandfather Fu continued to clean the corner of her lips.

After eating the fruit, FangSu just discovered that Jasmine did not call her by any name and just passed the fruit to her, so she asked the little bun, Da Xia, what is my name?.

Name... Jasmine said with a cute gaze on her. And she seems to not remember FangSus name.

Dont tell me you have forgotten my name!. FangSu said in a raised brow.

Stop distracting Da Xia from eating. For her to give you the strawberry, that shows that she loves you, you should be glad. Grandfather Fu said to her.

Grandfather, love is not enough, she needs to know my name! How can I explain that my niece doesnt know my name? FangSu complained.

You are asking for too much. Ask Lu to come over here, come with him as well. The old man instructed.

It turns out that the reason Grandfather Fu called for Butler Lu, was to ask for FangSus account to be unblocked.

Usually every month, all the members of the Fu family receive money from the old man. Although Fu Hua refused to collect money from his grandfather, the old man refused to cancel the scheduled transfer to his account.

FangSu jumped excitedly when she got a credit alert from her bank after her grandfather credited her. The little bun didnt know what made her Aunty happy, but she raised her arms and cheered her up.

Da Xia, lets go shopping!. FangSu said as she glanced at the little bun before proceeding to lift her from her seat.

Grandfather Fu didnt stop FangSu from taking the little bun away, instead, he turned to Butler Lu to leave him with a few words of instruction.

Im going with them, I need to pick a dress for Da Xia to come to Old Lius birthday party this evening. Ask for the bigger car to be ready for the event, and you are coming with me to the mall.

Grandfather Fu actually went to the mall with his granddaughter and great-granddaughter. When FangSu learned of the birthday party the old man would be bringing the little bun, to, she cried to be brought along.

Grandfather, I need to come with you to look after Da Xia, you cannot look after her by yourself, FangSu said to him.

Grandfather Fu was a little bit annoyed, but he agreed to let FangSu come with them.

Old Mr. Liu was one of Grandfather Fus close friends, so he canceled his schedule just to be there to celebrate with him.

This was old Mr. Lius 80th birthday party, so he invited a lot of friends from different dignitaries and the media was present as well.

When Grandfather Fus Rolls Royce made its entrance and stopped before the red carpet, All attention from the news reporters, turned to his car.

The cameras continued flashing lights on the car even before the car door opened.

Butler Lu was the first to step out of the car, and immediately, the 4 soldiers the old man usually brought with him when he went out for events like this, came out from another car and surrounded the back passenger car door he was to come out from.

When the car door opened, the old man slowly stepped out of the car, and the lights from the cameras started flashing nonstop.

Its really old General Fu!.

OMG! General Fu is here!.

While the commotion was ongoing, Grandfather Fu who was all smiles turned back to the car and lowered his body to the curiosity of the media and other guests present.

I mean, the old man just stepped out of the car, but what was he trying to get from the car? Oh! Its the little bun! The old man was trying to help his great-granddaughter out of the car.

Grandfather Fu carried Jasmine out from her car seat, and when her legs touched the ground, he immediately held onto her little hand.

When Jasmynes little feet were seen, the media almost went crazy.

Oh my God! Its a child!.

Could this be the little Princess of the Fu Family?.

When Jasmynes face was seen clearly, there were gasps of shock, and then the whole place was in an uproar.

OMG! Its the little princess of the Fu family!.

Thats Mr. Fu Huas little daughter right?!.

The little girl celebrated her first birthday 2 months ago!.

While the cameras were rolling, and many questions were directed to grandfather Fu about bringing the little bun out today, FangSu stepped out of the car.

FangSu who liked the medias attention didnt seem to be interested today, instead, she joined her grandfather and niece, amidst the attention that was given to her.

Jasmine refused to move an inch when she saw the many lights flashing from different cameras and angles. The little bun stared curiously at those lights while thinking hard of what they were.

Jasmine wore a light pink Princess dress and dark pink shoes with some precious stones on them.. As for her hair, it was parked in a bun with a cute pink hair ribbon The little bun looked so adorable tonight, and no one will be able to resist the temptation of not wanting to carry her home.

Chapter 460 - The Request

When grandfather Fu and FangSu noticed that the little bun refused to move, they became worried and squatted beside her to ask her questions.

Da Xia, are you afraid of them? Dont be, you are the star today, they are all scared of you. Grandfather Fu said while pointing at the cameras.

Butler Lu noticed the little girls reluctance to continue and asked the media to turn off their flash, and seriously, they listened to him, because they were all worried about the adorable little girl that suddenly refused to walk forward.

When the cameras were turned off, Da Xia glanced at her great grandfather and pointed at the cameras.

Yes, they have been turned off, we can leave now. Grandfather Fu said with a smile before Butler Lu helped him up by holding onto his arm.

Jasmine resumed walking while holding onto her old mans hand. FangSu who was worried earlier sighed in relief and continued walking with them, as the soldiers cleared the way for them.

When they got to the steps, FangSu lifted the little bun in her arms and walked the remaining journey with the old man.

The celebrant, Old Mr. Liu, came to the entrance to welcome Grandfather Fu when he heard her had arrived.

Today is your birthday, you should have stayed back inside. Grandfather Fu said to his friend after shaking hands with him.

Not after I heard you have arrived. Old Mr. Liu replied with a burst of hearty laughter.

I apologize for coming late. I insisted on taking my familys little princess with me. Grandfather Fu said with a proud smile as he glanced at the little bun in FangSus arms who was looking around curiously.

Old Mr. Liu glanced over to see the little girl in FangSus arm and went on to touch her hand in other to get her attention.

FangSu greeted Old Mr. Liu with an excited gaze before calling out to the little bun. Jasmine heard her name being called, and retracted her gaze from the people she was starting at, to glance at FangSu.

Da Xia, greet great grandfather Liu, FangSu instructed the little bun.

Jasmine glanced at the old man she was asked to greet and bowed her head slightly without saying anything.

Grandfather Fu and Old Mr. Liu chuckled heartily at the little girls obedience and actions.

Old Fu, I love your great-granddaughter already, I have a lot of goodies for her, bring her in!. Old Mr. Liu said happily as he ushered them in.

The news media snapped away and some of them recorded the little bun when she was greeting Old Mr. Liu.

The little Princess of the Fu family is so smart!.

I cant believe the Fu family are already teaching the little girl manners and ethics.

I think she is just 14 months old, and she is so obedient!.

The little girl is so cute, I want a child like her!.

After they went inside, Old Mr. Liu took Grandfather Fu to meet their friends who were already sitting inside. And when the old men from the other families saw that Grandfather Fu came with his granddaughter and great-granddaughter, they complimented him and also teased him for trying to show off in front of them.

Jasmine didnt feel comfortable being surrounded by the old men, so Grandfather Fu allowed FangSu to take her away, and of course, FangSu was very happy with the opportunity to take the little bun away, as she can finally have the opportunity to show her off.

On her way off to see a few friends and acquaintances, she came face to face with Zhang Junjie.

What are you doing here ?. FangSu asked with a surprised gaze. Before coming for the birthday party, she had texted Zhang Junjie about it, and he never mentioned that he would be present, so she was surprised to see him.

Initially I didnt want to come to a boring party since my family was invited. But when you told me you were coming, I decided to change my schedule at the last minute. Zhang Junjie explained.

FangSu blushed at his response and said in a low tone, You really came because of me ?.

Zhang Junjie smiled and didnt reply to her question again, instead, his gaze was glued on the little girl that has been staring at him since he appeared before them.

Is this your niece ?. Zhang Junjie asked while pointing at the little bun who finally looked away from his face to look at the finger that was pointed at her.

At Zhang Junjies reminder, FangSu remembered to introduce the little bun to him.

Ah! Forgive me, I had forgotten you couldnt make it to her first birthday party. Now, permit me to introduce my Niece to you. This is Da Xia, she is my first brothers little daughter and my familys little princess. Ever since she was born, she has taken that title from me. Da Xia, meet my friend, Uncle Junjie, say hello to him.

Jasmine refused to talk to Zhang Junjie and immediately hid away from him, by hugging FangSus neck and looking the other way.

FangSu chuckled at her cuteness before saying to Zhang Junjie while patting the little girls bottom, Im sorry, I think she is shy.

I dont mind her actions, she is beautiful. Earlier, you said I was your friend, did you mean that ?. Zhang Junjie asked with a half-confused, half-smiling gaze.

FangSu didnt seem to understand what he was driving at, and immediately said, Are you not my good friend ?.

Zhang Junjie chuckled at her ignorance and said, I guess we both address each other with different titles while talking to other people. You just told your little niece that I am your friend, and now, Im beginning to wonder how many people you have said the same thing to about me.

FangSu still looked a little lost, so Zhang Junjie had to explain things to her in plain language. I told my family that I had a girlfriend. For a few months now, I thought I made feelings and intentions known to you, but it looks like you didnt get it, so, Im going to make a request to you now, and you cant say no.

What kind of request is that?. FangSu asked with palpitating heartbeats. She has always liked Zhang Junjie, but he just said that he had a girlfriend, and now, he wanted to make a request to her, so she was a little scared of what he had to say.

Zhang Junjie smiled and asked, Will you be my girlfriend?.

Chapter 461 - Call Me, Jie

FangSu was currently in a state of shock. Zhang Junjie just told her that he had a girlfriend, and now he was asking her to be his girlfriend, she didnt seem to clear up things.

Zhang Junjie saw her staring at him like she had lost her mind and smiled. SuSu, I have always taken you to be my girlfriend, but Im at fault for not asking you out officially, and thats the reason Im doing that now. Lets date.

SuSu... did he just call me that? FangSu thought.

You... you mean what you are saying? You want me to be your girlfriend?. FangSu asked with hidden happiness.

I already take you as my girlfriend, so Im just asking you to fulfill formalities. Will you be my girlfriend? Zhang Junjie said with a smile. He loved FangSus facial expression.

Hell yeah! I will be your girlfriend!. FangSu replied with a big smile on her face that couldnt hide how happy she was.

Finally, the person she has been admiring asked her out, and it was a thing worth celebrating.

Good, now that we agree, lets go and meet my family. Zhang Junjie said and stretched out his large palm to her.

Now?. FangSu asked with a surprised gaze. She had no idea that he would want to introduce her to his family immediately.

Yes. Zhang Junjie replied, then he glanced at the little bun in her arms and said to her, Let me hold her.

Oh!. FangSu said and turned the little bun in his direction.

Jasmine glanced at her Aunty, then at Zhang Junjie expressionlessly. But when she found out that her Aunty was about to give her away to a stranger, she refused and hugged her tightly.

FangSu smiled and said to Zhang Junjie after the little bun rejected him, She doesnt like strangers holding or touching her.

She is so young but has a great sense of security. I love that about her. Zhang Junjie said.

Zhang Junjie took FangSu to introduce her as his girlfriend to his Zhang family. The Zhang family was happy to receive FangSu, and more especially, Jasmine who became the center of attention again.

FangSu couldnt stop talking while introducing the little bun to the Zhang family, but no one dared to touch her, they all smiled at her and greeted her from a distance when they noticed she didnt like being amid strangers.

Twenty minutes later, the little bun who didnt seem to like Zhang Junjie, was currently taking a cupcake

What did you do you my niece to make her accept something from you ?.
FangSu asked with a smile.

I didnt do anything, I guess she has come to like me, but she still wont let me hold her. Zhang Junjie replied with a smiling gaze on Jasmine.

Jasmine took the cupcake from Zhang Junjie before turning to give it to FangSu.

Da Xia, there is a lot of sugar and calories in this cupcake, so I will only allow you to eat just this one, or your mum will scold me if she finds out, FangSu said to the little bun as she removed the wrap from the cupcake before putting it in a plate.

Māmā Jasmine called out with her gaze on FangSu, and the latter replied while using her fork to cut the cupcakes into tiny pieces. Yes, your Mum will be unhappy if you eat a lot of sweet things.

Jasmine didnt understand everything she said, so she asked about her father. Daddy!.

Your Dad wont be happy too. Do you miss them ?. FangSu asked.

The little bun took a step closer to her and put little palms on FangSus knees before nodding. She missed her parents.

Dont be sad, you will see them soon, but first, taste the cupcake, FangSu said as she lifted the little bun on her thighs, and picked a piece of cupcake, and sent it into her mouth.

Zhang Junjie who has been observing the niece and Aunt duo, said with a smile, You two seem pretty close.

FangSu smiled and replied while cleaning the frosting on the little buns upper lips, Yes, we are close. But you dont know how hard I worked for her to be close to me.

How hard did you work? What tricks did you use on her?. Zhang Junjie asked with an interesting gaze. He was really curious about FangSus method.

Glancing at him, FangSu replied with a teasing gaze, You want to learn my tricks so you will use them on her? No way, I wont tell you!.

Zhang Junjie leaned in and said to her, Why wont you tell me, I am your boyfriend.

FangSu blushed at his words. He was directly referring to himself as her boyfriend, and she was still getting used to it.

After eating her cupcakes with the fruit juice her Aunt gave to her, Jasmine felt satisfied. FangSu had to wipe her lips clean after she finished the remaining juice in her glass. Just then, Butler Lu came to interrupt them.

Miss Su, Old General said its time to leave. Butler Lu said after slightly bowing in greeting to Zhang Junjie.

Oh! Tell grandfather I will be there in a minute. FangSu replied. Butler Lu nodded and left for the old mans side.

Brother Junjie... FangSu turned to Zhang Junjie to say, but she was interrupted.

Call my Jie. Zhang Junjie said to her. FangSu smiled and called out to him, Jie, I will be leaving now.

Thats okay, call me when you get home, I have something to tell you. Zhang Junjie said.

Okay, FangSu replied and got up with the little bun in her arms.

I will walk you to your grandfather. Zhang Junjie said to her with a smile. He wanted to meet Grandfather Fu, just to say a word of greeting, but FangSu was scared.

Dont worry, I can go there myself, FangSu said. Knowing she was scared, Zhang Junjie assured her, Dont be afraid, I just want to greet him, because it will be disrespectful if I dont.

FangSu seemed to accept his words, so she allowed him to follow her out.

When Zhang Junjie met the legendary old General Fu, he became a little scared but didnt fail in his manners. He greeted the old man while bowing, and introduced himself as Zhang Junjie, the son of the Zhang family, and as FangSus friend.

Grandfather Fu remembered who he was, because that time Bai Jun tried to snatch him from FangSu, the latter came to complain to him about it and begged him to get the Bai family to choose another partner for Bai Jun, and he listened to her.

Chapter 462 - Jealous Fu Hua

On their way back home, Grandfather Fu asked about Zhang Junjie as he also remembered that she appeared on the news with him.

FangSu who had been afraid to let her grandfather know about the special relationship between them developed courage and spilled everything out.

Grandfather, Junjie, and I are dating.

Grandfather Fu glanced at her and said, I was about to ask you again if you two were just friends. But why did he say he was your friend ?.

We were in public, and he felt it would be rude to directly say he was my boyfriend, so he had to introduce himself that way. Grandfather, what do you think about him ?. FangSu asked with an expectant gaze. She really wanted to know her grandfathers opinion about Zhang Junjie.

Its too early to ask. Check on Da Xia, is she sleeping properly ?. The old man asked with a worried gaze on his sleeping great-granddaughter.

FangSu glanced at the sleeping little bun in her arms to make sure she was comfortable before replying to her grandfathers question.

When they got back home, Fu Hua was already waiting at the entrance of his house, so immediately the driver parked the car, he walked towards the car door and opened it for his old man.

Grandfather Fu said immediately Fu Hua opened the car door for him, There is no need to greet me, I know you came for your daughter. She is sleeping, and nothing happened to her.

Fu Hua didnt feel embarrassed that his grandfather knew he was worried about his daughter. He just accepted his words and proceeded to help him out of the car, before taking the sleeping little bun from FangSu.

What did she eat over there ?. Fu Hua asked with his gaze on FangSu who just stepped out of the car.

She ate.... one cupcake with a little vanilla frosting and half glass of fresh fruit juice, FangSu replied.

Jasmine had some food with the old man before FangSu took her out and met Zhang Junjie along the way.

Fu Hua seemed satisfied with her response and went ahead to ask if his little princess was in discomfort, and it was at this point that Grandfather Fu had to intervene.

You should have allowed us into the house before throwing questions at us because I'm really surprised that you picked up the job of a detective.

Fu Hua had no words left to say. He slightly bowed to the old man before taking his daughter to leave.

Grandfather, why is my brother acting that way? He clearly allowed us to take Jasmine with us, why is he throwing a fit?. FangSu asked with a frown.

You will find out when you get married and have your own child. For now, continue working hard on your career. As for that Zhang boy, bring him home soon. Grandfather Fu replied and started walking towards the entrance of the house with Butler Lu behind him.

FangSu seemed elated and immediately ran to grab the old man's arm to ask, Grandfather, are you in support of our relationship?.

Until I sit with the Zhang boy before I can conclude. Grandfather Fu replied.

Grandfather, since you are in support of me dating, you have to speak to my father, because he will surely speak against it if he finds out, FangSu said in a low tone.

When did I say I was in support? Go and do your work!. Grandfather Fu said with a frown. FangSu was not moved by his change of tone, and instead, let his arm go and said to him...

Grandfather, I know you will love Junjie, he has a great personality. Don't worry, I will bring him home soon. After saying this, FangSu ran into the house.

Grandfather Fu stood at a place and watched his granddaughter skip into the house excitedly, before turning to ask Butler Lu, Do you think I was too rash by agreeing for her to date at this age ?.

Butler Lu smiled and replied, Sir, age is not a problem, young miss Su is the same age as Miss Jia Li.

What Butler Lu is saying is this, Jia Li and FangSu are of the same age, but the former was already married and had a year old daughter, so age didnt matter when it comes to allowing FangSu to date.

Grandfather Fu understood his words and sighed while walking into the house.

When Fu Hua brought his little princess to his bedroom, he gently placed her on the bed, and went into the bathroom, and returned in less than a minute with a warm towel.

Sitting beside her on the bed, he used the towel to wipe her face, arms, and legs before taking off her shoes and socks.

When Jia Li walked into the room, she saw Fu Hua covering the little girl with a small blanket.

My baby is back ?. Jia Li asked in a low tone as she made her way towards the bed with a smiling gaze.

She is back. Im thinking if we should move back to our place. Fu Hua said.

Jia Li looked surprised at his suggestion and asked, Why ?

I dont want her going to so many places, she is too young for that. Fu Hua replied.

Jia Li sat on the bed and said to him, Its better we stay here because the rest of the family will help Jasmine not to feel our absence every day when we leave her and go to work. And its not like she gets to leave all the time.

I feel like locking you two up and spending a lot of time with you. I want you two all to myself. Fu Hua said with a frown.

This young man was being jealous and wanted to have his wife and his daughter all to himself.

You are acting like you lack love, do you want some cuddling?. Jia Li asked with open arms.

You know I wouldnt say no. Fu Hua said as he immediately dived into her embrace.. Jia Li, on the other hand, wrapped her hands around his waist and kissed his forehead.

Chapter 463 - Scout For Models

FJ is yet to announce to the public about the new idea with their newbies, and the newbies were yet to find out about their idea as well. So basically, they were just working hard as normal with an extra effort.

Fu Hua spoke with FJs board of directors about coming up with something their newbies would do to attract the attention and interest of the public, and they decided that there will be a competition for the Top 10 newbies to showcase their capabilities.

And the Top 3 out of that competition, will be given a chance to partake in a huge project in the future, plus, they would receive an award

Fu Hua and his Executive board of directors, decided to fix a date in December to hold the big show and they waited until the 3rd week of October to notify the creative arts department about their decisions.

After Sunny got the final statement from Fu Hua directly, she announced to all the newbies about the news, so they could start getting prepared.

Sunny announced to them, that they would each design and make 5 dresses, and they should also prepare a name of their collection, so in total, 50 pieces of new dresses, will be displayed on the day of the show.

The thing about this competition, was that all the designers partaking in it would have to fight for resources which includes materials, models that will wear their clothes, and other things.

The workspace was not a problem, because Sunny and her assistant creative directors, made 10 rooms available for the newbies to work in.

Now, this was bound to be a very competitive show which will keep the newbies up on their toes to deliver something breathtaking.

FJ has made everything available, now it was left for the newbies to make use of them and use the resources to their own advantage.

The next day, the newbies moved into their new workspace which they would only occupy from now till the end of the show.

Jia Li could smell stress on the way. Before getting into FJ, she had no idea that there was nothing like rest in their log sheet, and Fu Hua didn't tell her that there was no break here.

Jia Li and her colleagues didn't see themselves fighting for resources in the course of this competition, but now that it looks like what they would have to do, everyone disbanded their friendship till the competition comes to an end. To the newbies now, they saw each other as competitors, and not colleagues.

Once again, Sunny and her assistant creative art directors had to supervise 3 students each, with one of them taking 4 students. And as usual, Sunny picked Jia Li, since she has chosen to mentor her directly.

Marié has always been Chyous favorite person, while the male creative director, picked Linda. And like that, they all picked a total of 5 people to oversee during the course of the competition.

First and foremost, the newbies have to choose a theme for their collection, and probably pick a name for their collection before designing, or designing before picking a name for their collection.

The newbies were given 4 days to finish their illustration and submit it to their Superiors for review, and after it has been approved, they could now start fighting for resources.

During dinner, Jia Li looked like she has been stressed and being worried about her, Grandfather Fu asked her if she was being bullied by Fu Hua.

Grandfather, my colleagues, and I are in a huge competition that is yet to be announced to everybody. Now, we have to fight for resources to make our dress, and also persuade models to wear them on that day. Jia Li replied in a tired tone. She was already exhausted from coming up with a few designs.

This was the first time Jia Li had to complain about work in front of the whole family, and this means that she was really stressed. Fu Hua who was watching the little bun feed herself chose to remain quiet.

Sister-in-law, are you looking for models? I will model for you, what kind of show is that?. FangSu asked with a smile.

I will model for you too, just give me the date for the show, so my assistant can add it to my schedule. Fu Meixu replied.

You both want to want to model for me ?. Jia Li asked with a surprised gaze on FangSu and Fu Meixu, because she didnt think they would want to wear her clothes on that kind of competition.

Yes, why wouldnt we want to wear your clothes ? Just tell us the kind of show it is, so we can be prepared. FangSu said.

I will definitely clear up my schedule if there is anything on that day. Fu Meixu replied.

Jia Li looked to be in a dilemma because she doesnt think they would be as enthusiastic as now when they hear the kind of show it is.

Seeing how everybody was waiting for her to speak, and the initiator of the whole deal wasnt helping her, she was forced to speak.

Actually, its an internal competition in FJ.

What! FangSu and Fu Meixu both exclaimed in surprise, as they didnt expect her to tell them that kind of thing.

How could an A-list celebrity, and an International model, model in that kind of small competition, they may end up getting laughed at ?

Why are you both screaming, what is wrong now ?. Fu Hee asked with a frown.

Aunty is just that this competition is so little for us to partake in. If it was something huge, there wouldnt be a problem accepting it, but it is not beneficial to my image especially, and my agency wont accept it. But Jia Li doesnt have to worry about getting models, because I will help her get good ones to use for her competition. Fu Meixu replied.

What do you mean by that, you just accepted to model for her, why are you turning her down now ?.. Fu Geming asked while staring at his daughter angrily.

Chapter 464 - Jia Li Gets Scolded Indirectly

Uncle, there is no need to scold anyone, they are right. This is an internal competition which might not make it big, and their reputation is important as no agency would want their models to partake in that kind of show with less exposure. Fu Hua said without batting an eye.

What do you mean by that, shouldnt you be helping your wife ?. Fu Lei asked in an angry tone.

I am actually helping her. She cant get things freely, she has to work for it. She has to learn how to convince people if she wants them to accept her proposal. Fu Hua replied.

But cousin, you have to be a little considerate of the fact that she has a daughter to take care of. Fu Ling said with a frown.

Yes, brother, Sister-in-law will be tired out, you saying this is not encouraging. Fu YingPei replied.

Everyone was not in support of Fu Huas method, as they all felt that it was unfair to Jia Li. But Grandfather Fu remained quiet now because he has just accepted the facts Fu Hua placed before then.

Surely having a child shouldnt be a barrier to work like the others, and Im sure this wouldnt be an issue. I am the CEO of FJ Styles, and I am also her husband, but I shouldn't because of my relationship with her, break the rules. And actually, I am helping her because she is too soft and can get bullied if I am not in his position. Fu Hua said.

Fu Hua was making sense, but still, there was a conception that he didn't have to take things that way, and shouldn't treat his wife like the rest of his employees.

Jia Li was seeing another side of Fu Hua. He wasn't willing to let her have things so easily and wanted to put her under pressure to learn. Jia Li had emotions, and she definitely felt bad even though he was kind of right from the work perspective because if he was not her boss, she wouldn't dare to complain to her boss, she would just have to put up with everything.

Jia Li currently had mixed feelings, and she felt like crying and hitting Fu Hua for what he was doing.

Seeing as everyone remained quiet, Fu Hua turned to glance at Jia Li before saying to her in a gentle tone, Jia Li, this is a piece of advice as your Boss. Miss FangSu and Miss Meixu have refused to model for your collection because they think the exposure won't be big enough to match their fame, what will you do to convince them that wearing your clothes for the competition will be worth it? And don't forget that you still need to talk to 3 more models.

Fu Hua, you are being harsh!. Fu Hee said as she angering got to her feet after slamming her chopsticks

Fu Lei had to pull Fu Hee to sit because she just violated a rule at the dinner table.

Mum, I'm not being harsh. I want Jia Li to be able to defend her efforts in the future because once we announce her identity as my wife, people are going to question her. Even though she is skilled enough and we believe her, but what about the others? She needs to work hard for everything she needs to the point that nobody will dare to question her because if they do, there will be many people having her back. Fu Hua replied.

Fu Hua was trying to make Jia Li strong and independent, but it looks like his method were fierce and unapologetic.

Jia Li didnt know when tears rolled down her cheeks and fell on her palms. She has been holding her chopsticks for a while now without eating anything.

Grandfather Fu was the first to notice Jia Lis tears. He felt bad that he didnt speak up for her, and so gently squeezed her palms in comfort.

Jia Li had her head lowered, so not many knew she was crying. Fu Hua also had no idea that his wife was crying until he heard her sniff, and that came as a shock to him when he lifted her face and saw her tear-stained cheeks.

You... why are you crying ?. Fu Hua asked with a surprised gaze. Jia Li got up from her seat and bowed slightly before walking away while wiping her tears.

Hua, your words were harsh. Grandfather Fu said after Jia Li left.

Fu Hua, how can you make your wife cry, you have to go after her. Fu ChuHua said with a wire is gaze.

FangSu and Fu Meixu felt guilty for not accepting Jia Lis proposal, and now, she got indirectly scolded by Fu Hua, and his harsh words made her cry.

None of you should raise your voice, Da Xia is still here. Grandfather Fu said with his gaze on the little bun who looked a little tense with the atmosphere in the dining room.

Princess, I will be right back. Fu Hua said to the little bun as he got up to chase after Jia Li, but Jasmine started to cry. She just saw her mother leave, and now, her father wanted to leave too.

Fu Hua asked his mother to look after the little girl before disappearing from their view.

When Jia Li walked into the bedroom, she sat on the bed and let her tears flow. She felt that her husband's words were a bit harsh, and she was not used to him speaking that way to her, so she felt emotional.

She has been working her ass off, just so she could prove her talents, only to be told off by him.

A minute later, she got up from the bed and wiped her tears. She kept asking herself why she was crying and only discovered she cried because Fu Hua was not just her boss, but also her husband, and yet he treated her like any other employee he had under him.

Jia Li was about consoling herself when Fu Hua walked into the room.. Jia Li thought she was seeking better until she saw him, and that's when she knew she still had a big lump in her throat.
