Chapter 521 – YingPei And Ling’ s Plan

In the Fu House, things were going differently. Fu Hua, YingPei and Ling had just returned home after going out to party. It was a bachelorette party Fu Hua’s friend that just come back to the country, threw for him.

The party was fun and as if knowing his friend very well, he (Fu Hua’s friend) did not invite any ladies to the party.

Fu Hua, YingPei and Ling came back in time for dinner.

As the male family members were sitting at the dinner table and enjoying their supper, Grandfather Fu paused with eating and held his chopsticks

‘Have you two found your partners?’ He asked.

YingPei paused with the food in his mouth for two seconds before continuing to eat. His heartbeats had already increased by a few times with that question from his grandfather.

Fu Ling was no better. How could he reply to his grandfather when he totally forgot the instruction he gave out the other time because he was carried away with work?

Fu Lei and Fu Geming glanced at their sons with interest. They were also interested to know if they had finally found a partner.

Seeing as they were not attempting to answer his question, Grandfather Fu cleared his throat and put his chopsticks down with a little noise.

YingPei and Fu Ling flinched and immediately stopped eating to look at him. Knowing that the truth could not save them at this hour, they both chorused a lie tactically.

‘Yes, grandfather!’

Grandfather Fu moved his gaze from YingPei to Ling, and then to YingPei before picking up his chopsticks.

‘Bring them to me after the wedding reception.’ He said and resumed eating.

YingPei and Ling glanced at each other but couldn’t continue eating as if nothing just happened. They totally forgot about their grandfather’s instructions and didn’t make any effort to woo a woman.

The two Fu brothers lost their appetite but they had to force themselves to eat a few more spoons of food before leaving the dinner table.

Fu Hua knew that his brother and cousin just lied to the old man but there was nothing he could do to help them, as he believed they could sort themselves out.

After YingPei and Ling left the dinner table, they met in the hallway to ask each other the same question that had been in their mind since their old man asked about their partners.

‘Do you have a woman to bring to the wedding tomorrow?’ YingPei asked with creased brows.

‘I was about to ask you the same question. I don’t have anybody to bring because I totally forgot about it.’ Ling replied in a frustrated tone.

‘I didn’t ask any girl out. I don’t hang out much as I used to do before and there is no lady that I have a close relationship with.’ YingPei said with a sigh.

‘So, what are we going to do? Grandfather will surely be mad at us if we don’t show him our partners.’ Fu Ling said with a frown.

The truth is that both of them are not ready to settle down. One was still busy building his company, while the other one was only thinking about living his single life for some time.

YingPei was quiet for a while before saying, ‘You have a female assistant and she is single. Why don’t you ask her to act out a play with you, I mean she can pretend to be your girlfriend just for tomorrow.’

Fu Ling didn’t like that idea so he countered it. ‘I don’t want to have that kind of relationship with my worker, that image is not going to look good.’

‘Are you still thinking about your image? At least, there is a solution for you. I can’t ask a colleague at work to pretend to be my girlfriend, my brother will kill me first.’ YingPei said.

‘It’s good that you know not to cross the line.’ Fu Hua said as he walked towards them. He managed to hear a little of their discussion on his way to his bedroom.

‘Brother...’ YingPei said with a pretentious smile. He didn’t know how much of their discussion he heard but it’s good he didn’t say anything wrong.

Fu Hua stopped in his steps when he got to their side, then he glanced at Fu Ling before looking at YingPei.

‘Do you think you can deceive grandfather? Get ready to date any woman you bring to him.’ After saying this to them, he was about to walk away when he remembered something. He fixed his gaze on YingPei and said, ‘Jia Li has 3 friends, you can choose one of them to date. If you don’t handle things properly, I will cut off your fingers.’

‘My fingers?’ YingPei muttered to himself in horror as he glanced at his precious fingers.

After Fu Hua had left, YingPei and Ling talked for a short while before leaving for their various bedrooms.

Now that they have seen they are not left with many choices, they have to become serious.

Fu Ling checked the time and saw it was already past 8 pm. It was late but he still found his secretary’s contact and phoned her.

Immediately she answered the call, he didn’t wait for her greetings and immediately said to her, ‘I want you to be my partner for my cousin’s wedding tomorrow.’

Thinking that it was just the normal role she always plays during business meetings, she readily agreed to it. Fu Ling knew what she was thinking but he didn’t clarify the situation. If he told her the truth now, she may become tense and may refuse him.

‘Send me your measurements and address, I will send your outfit early tomorrow morning.’ Fu Ling said to her.

After making the arrangements on his side, Fu Ling could finally shut his eyes to sleep. As for YingPei, he wasn't close to any of Jia Li's friends and what he was thinking was who he would ask out. Since this has something to do with his sister-in-law, he had to be very serious.

YingPei has interacted a little with Jia Li's friends during Jasmine's first birthday party but he wasn't that close with them.. Asking one of them out is going to be weird but it's not like he had another option.

Chapter 522 - Bride And Groom

After taking some pictures in her bridal nightdress, Jia Li sent the girls out of her bedroom so she could get some sleep early and wake up on time for her big day which is on the next day.

The feeling of being a bride was true happiness. Jia Li was all smiles as she turned off the lights and got under the duvet. She has never experienced this before and for that, she was beyond happy.

At first, given the circumstances that surrounded her and Fu Hua getting together, Jia Li never thought about having a wedding but as the relationship between them became better, she began to look forward to this day and at last, it came.

Jia Li glanced at her ring finger that was empty with a smile. The ring Fu Hua had put on her finger on the day they signed their marriage certificate was not there. Fu Hua personally took it off 2 days ago when he sneakily came to see her.

He had taken her fingers in his hand and said to her while taking off the ring, 'I didn't get this ring myself and when I put it on you, I haven't given my heart to you. But now that we are about to have a fresh start, old things have to make room for the new ones.'

When Jia Li remembered Fu Hua's statement, she smiled happily before heaving a sigh of relief.

'Fu Hua, I'm really looking forward to a new beginning with you and our family.' Jia Li said with her gaze on her ring finger.

After fantasizing about the big day, especially the exchange of rings, Jia Li laid on the bed and rested her head on the pillow and right when she was about to shut her eyes, her phone started to ring.

Jasmine was sleeping beside her and as she was worried about the little bun waking up due to her phone ringing so loud, Jia Li immediately picked up her phone to answer the call and without glancing at the caller ID.

'How are you?'

When Jia Li heard the familiar deep sexy voice from the other end of the phone, instinctively, her lips curved in a smile.

'I'm good and you?' She asked as she played with the ropes of her nightdress. She was glad to hear his voice right before she could lay her head to rest.

'I'm fine. How was your day? I learned from mother in the day that you were going to have a bridal shower, so how was it?' Fu Hua asked in a gentle tone as a smile played on his lips.

'Mmm... it was great, I had tons of fun.' Jia Li said.

'How is Jasmine?' Fu Hua asked. There was no way he wouldn't ask about his daughter he hasn't seen in a long while. He missed his little princess as much as he missed her mother.

Jia Li glanced at the little bun that was sleeping soundly and replied, 'She is good, she is sleeping now.'

'Now I know why your tone is so gentle.' Fu Hua said immediately. 'I missed you, so I called. Did you miss me too?'

Jia Li's cheeks turned to a deep shade of red when he asked that question. They have been together for almost 3 years, yet, she still gets shy when he made certain gestures or said some words under a certain atmosphere. 'I missed you.'

'Tomorrow, is our big day and I know that you may be a little nervous, so I called to talk about anything you want to. You can be my examiner and I will be your candidate.' Fu Hua said to her.

It was normal for most brides to be nervous about their big day for various reasons. One, it may be about last-minute tasks, important guest or their partners or even about the event itself. It was such an important day in their lives, so they are overly nervous about the event going smoothly without a glitch.

'Honestly, I am indeed a little nervous. I don't know what to talk about, so let's start from how your day went.'

From there, Jia Li and Fu Hua brought up interesting and funny topics one after the other to talk about until it was past 11 pm.

Since it was late and they had a big day ahead of them, Fu Hua had to conclude their chat.

'I can't wait to see you in the wedding gown tomorrow, I hope you have a good night.' Fu Hua said and made some kissing sounds in the background.

Jia Li smiled and bid him goodnight before keeping her phone aside and laying her head on the pillow with her face towards the ceiling. There was a big satisfied smile sitting on her face as she thought back to the little conversation she heard with Fu Hua.

Remembering how long, exciting and tiring the next day was going to be, Jia Li had to close her eyes and force herself to sleep, even when she was not feeling sleepy.

Trying to sleep was not an easy task for the Bride and the Groom. They were each having similar thoughts about their day.

Finally, an hour or 2 hours later, Jia Li and Fu Hua fell asleep while thinking about each other.

The next morning, Jia Li was woken up by the little bun who climbed on her body when she woke up from sleep.

The little bun placed her head on her mother's chest before moving her short arm on her stomach with her eyes closed.

'Jasmine, why did you wake up so early?' Jia Li had just asked when it just came to her mind that today was actually her day.

As Jia Li carried the little bun off her body to give her kisses on her cheeks, Jasmine greeted her, 'good morning' in a sluggish tone before rubbing her eyes.

Just then, Jia Li heard a ding sound from her phone and when she picked up her phone to check it, she saw a text from Fu Hua which started with, 'Hello, beautiful....'

Chapter 523 - The Morning Of The D-Day

After reading the text, Jia Li was all smiles as she returned one to him, before carrying the little bun off the bed so they could brush their teeth and have their bath.

Immediately Jasmine's feet touched the floor, Fu Hee knocked on the door and walked in with the stylists and a few of the servants that will help to get the Bride and the little bride ready.

'Good morning, Mother.' Jia Li greeted Fu Hee with a smile as the stylist and other attendants bowed slightly to her in greeting.

'Good morning, I hope you slept well?' Fu Hee asked as she touched her jaw with a big smile. The morning was good, and the day was going to be even more beautiful.

Jia Li nodded in response before the little bun came to the limelight. She greeted her grandmother in her adorable little voice, and Fu Hee couldn't get over her cuteness and lifted her in her arms before planting a kiss on her cheeks.

With the help of the stylists and other attendants, Jia Li and Jasmine were progressing a lot with their dressing. But the little bun was a little stubborn when her hair was being styled. She kept pushing the hands of the attendants off her hair.

'Is it painful?' Jia Li asked in concern. Jasmine nodded in response with a frown on her face.

'Ma'am, what are we going to do?' One of the attendants asked in a panic. There was no way she could touch the little bun's hair with her refusing and shouting. The little girl had to be willing before she touches her hair again, otherwise, it would seem like she was bullying her.

'I will coax her, while you continue with your work.' Jia Li said to her.

Jasmine was not deliberately acting stubborn today. Her hair hurt, so she had to react that way. But thankfully, she managed to stay calm after her mother chose another hairstyle for her, and coerced her into staying at a place.

After Jasmine got ready, she was placed on the bed, and her toy was given to her, so she would be busy with something, and not play around.

After bathing, the little bun was fed some food by Fu ChunHua, before she got dressed, so right now, she was satisfied, as she played with her teddy bear.

On Fu Hua's end, things were going very smoothly. A male stylist came over early in the morning to help him with his looks before leaving. The wedding suit wasn't that complicated, but very stylish.

As a Fashion Designer, definitely, Fu Hua wouldn't wear a normal suit. Even on normal days, his fashion senses were very high, and so on his wedding day, he also has to stand out more.

The style of his wedding suit looked complicated to the layman, but in fact, it was very simple to put on, notwithstanding how stylish it was.

After getting dressed, Fu Hua glanced at himself in the mirror before a smile appeared on his face, to show that he was indeed satisfied with his looks.

It was still too early to leave for Church, so he went back to his bedroom to sit on the couch with his phone in hand. He was going to officially announce his wedding to Jia Li today.

On all his social media accounts, Fu Hua made the same post. 'Finally, I will be able to give you the perfect wedding that you deserve today. Happy married life to us, Sweetheart'

Immediately after posting that on his story, status and timeline, he logged out and proceeded to dial Jia Li's number.

This time around, it took a while for Jia Li to answer because her hair makeup was being applied on her face. It was only when the makeup artist told gave her permission to answer the call that she was able to pick up her phone.

'Am I disturbing, what are you doing now?' Fu Hua asked in a gentle tone.

Jia Li smiled and said, 'My makeup is being done now.'

'Oh, I will call back later then.' Fu Hua said and wanted to end the call, but Jia Li stopped him.

'Are you dressed?' She asked in a soft tone.

'Yes. I'm waiting for the right to come to pick you up, so I can, at last, see you in that dress and bask in your glory.' Fu Hua said.

Fu Hua has been going on and on about seeing her in her wedding dress, and finally, in about 3 hours, he will be able to his bride in that white gown he has never seen her in.

Jia Li blushed before changing the topic. 'Jasmine is here, do you want to speak to her?'

'My Princess is there, give the phone to her.' Fu Hua said in a cheerful tone. He was more than happy to speak to his little princess.

Jia Li handed the phone to Mei, who in turn passed it to the little bun sitting on the bed. 'Jasmine, it's daddy, say hello to him.' Jia Li said to the little bun, and immediately, her eyes lit up. She pushed her teddy bear on one side, before taking the phone from Mei.

'Hello, Daddy!' Jasmine said in an excited tone.

It was a heartwarming scene to see the little bun speaking happily to her father. Jasmine didn't know a lot of words, but she tried hard to communicate with her father.

Soon, FangSu, Meixu, DanDan, Chang Chang, and Daiyu came to see Jia Li. They were happy and made a lot of noise while coming into the room.

Jia Li was teased, and some pictures were taken with her and the little bun.

At last, when they were ready to leave, the DanDan handed the bouquet

Immediately the small bouquet got into her hands, she smiled happily and touched the flowers with her tiny fingers.

'Jasmine, don't pull the flowers, do you hear me?' Jia Li warned with a serious look on her face, and the little girl nodded in understanding.

Chapter 524 - Charm Radiating At A High Level

Shortly before Jia Li and the rest left the bedroom, a servant came to announce the arrival of the groom and his groomsmen, so Fu Hee immediately covered Jia Li's face with her veil, before she was led out.

Fu ChunHua walked ahead of them with the little bun in her arms and immediately they got down from the stair, they saw Fu Hua standing there with a big smile.

Jasmine recognized her father and she was too excited to see him. She immediately called out to him before running over with her arms spread out as the rest watched with smiles.

Fu Hua was afraid the little bun may trip and fall, so he immediately walked over and lifted her in his arms. He threw her up and caught her before reigning praises on her and kissing her plump cheeks.

Jasmine hugged her father and refused to let go. She was ready to hold a conversation with him but this was not the right time for it. Her mother who was supposed to be the center of attention was gradually making her way down the stairs.

Fu Hua kissed his little princess on forehead and handed her to YingPei immediately after he caught sight of Jia Li, who was dressed in a magnificent wedding dress and her face was covered with a big veil.

All of Fu Hua's attention was now on his bride as he abandoned his little princess.

Fu Hua was mesmerized by all the glory surrounding Jia Li. He really couldn't see her face but he believed that her looks and aura right now as befitting for a Queen, ruling her kingdom.

The photographers invited, began to take quick shots as they captured Fu Hua's reaction on seeing his bride make her way down the stairs.

There was a beautiful smile on Jia Li's face when she saw Fu Hua's reaction. But because of the veil covering her face, no one could see it.

Fu Hua did not wait for Jia Li to get to the bottom of the stairs before going to meet her. He immediately walked over and took her hand from his mother as a smile played on his lips.

The photographers managed to capture this moment from different angles. And the videographer was not left out.

It was such a beautiful scene for the bridesmaids to be behind the bride on the stairs when the Groom took the Bride's hand.

'You look gorgeous!' Fu Hua said to Jia Li and the hearing of those at a close range.

Jia Li blushed and replied, 'Thank you.'

Seeing her parents together, Jasmine felt like going to separate them but somehow in her little mind, she agreed to go along with the perfect picture.

After taking some photos, Jia Li and Fu Hua got into the car specially arranged for them, while the bridesmaids and the groomsmen got into different cars. Fu Hee and Fu ChunHua got into one car as well and they all left in a convoy as their security and bodyguards drove in front and behind for security measures.

At the Fu house, Grandfather Fu and his sons had already left for the church, while the servants were putting together some things.

At Jia Li and Fu Hua's house, the servants there were also making some arrangements. The latest couple will be spending their wedding night here, so they had to arrange their bedroom and decorate it before they come home.

In the car, Fu Hua could not keep his eyes off Jia Li to the extent that she had to react.

‘Why are you staring at me?’ Jia Li asked with a smile without meeting his eyes. At this moment, she was shy and didn’t know how to meet his eyes with him staring at her that way.

‘Because you are beautiful. Your charm is radiating at a high level and that makes it difficult for me to take my eyes off you.’ Fu Hua replied with his eyes on her. There was this smile on his face that looked as if he just won a lottery. Yes, Jia Li is the lottery he was lucky enough to win.

Jia Li couldn’t help chuckling softly with the praises he just rained on her. He was making her blush really hard. ‘Can you stop making me blush, I might ruin my makeup.’

Fu Hua leaned in and whispered to her ear, ‘If you let me see your face, I might agree to your request.’

‘What!’ Jia Li exclaimed in surprise as she looked at his face. ‘You can’t see me until we say our vows. We have only a few hours before that.’

Fu Hua sighed and said, ‘If we didn’t have a wedding today, I may have stayed at home to ravish you.’

As Fu Hua said that, the driver raised the shield to separate them. Now, he can’t be distracted by what they were saying and doing.

Jia Li was a little bit embarrassed because of Fu Hua’s action. She really wanted to hide right now but there was no place to hide.

Fu Hua was just teasing her and he liked her facial expression each time he teased her. Today was a special day in their lives, so he decided to retire from teasing her.

Jia Li sighed in relief after Fu Hua didn't continue to tease her again. In order to make her more relaxed, Fu Hua talked about other things to make her calm.

'Do you know how our little girl is holding up there?' Fu Hua asked.

Jasmine was not in the same car with them because if she was present, she would not allow her parents to have a good time together.

'I'm sure she is doing pretty fine. She is with her godmothers.' Jia Li said with a happy look.

Jasmine was currently with her 3 godmothers. When she wanted to join the same car as her parents and YingPei refused to let her, she also kicked up a fuss but luckily, Daiyu came to take her from YingPei's hands.

Surprisingly, Jasmine stopped crying and allowed her to hold her.. Maybe, she felt safe in Daiyu's arms or the fact that she would have let anybody take her from her uncle's arms at that point.

Chapter 525 - Walking Down The Aisle

FLASHBACK...

Daiyu, DanDan and Chang Chang saw this happen. Daiyu decided to go over and take Jasmine from YingPei.

'Are you not afraid of going to meet him?' Chang Chang asked with raised brows. She meant that YingPei was the brother to the Cold CEO and it would need some nerves to walk up to him and ask to take Jasmine away.

‘Is he not a human being like me, why would I be scared to go over?’ Daiyu asked with a frown. To her, going to ask YingPei for Jasmine was not a big deal. If the little bun wasn’t crying, she wouldn’t have bothered.

‘Aiyo! I forgot that you are not afraid of anybody.’ DanDan said and she and Chang Chang watched her go over to YingPei to take Jasmine from him.

When Daiyu came over to YingPei’s side, she smiled and said, ‘She is crying a lot, can you give her to me?’

YingPei glanced at the crying girl in his arms before looking at Daiyu to ask, ‘Are you sure about that?’

‘I’m her godmother and she is a little familiar with me, there is no harm in trying.’ Daiyu replied with a smile.

Since there was no harm in trying, YingPei handed the little bun to her, who immediately agreed to go with her.

Some minutes later, Daiyu and DanDan were in the backseat of a car playing with Jasmine, while Chang Chang sat in the front side of the car with the driver.

‘Can you at least let me touch her fingers?’ This was Chang Chang’s 5th time begging Daiyu to let her touch Jasmine.

‘No way!’ Daiyu refused.

Chang Chang felt frustrated and asked with a big frown, 'How long will you continue to be stingy? Until we get to the church or the wedding reception?'

Daiyu shrugged her shoulders before putting her full attention on the little bun that was playing with her bouquet.

A while later, they all arrived at the church. Because it was a few minutes to service time, there was no delay with the Fu family members entering the church building.

Because of the kind of wedding they wanted, not many people were invited to the church, but the rest of the extended Fu family members were present. And just at Jia Li's request, some of the Huang family members were present.

When the wedding song started playing and it was time for Jia Li to make her way in, the eldest son of the Huang family came to her side and linked arms with her.

'It is my honor to walk you down the aisle.' He said with a smile. Jia Li smiled at him and although he couldn't see her facial expression, he could see her expression that she was more than happy for this.

When the instrumentalists started to play the song, 'Here comes the bride, here comes the bride' Jia Li and her maternal uncle walked down the aisle in slow steps until they made it to the altar where Fu Hua was waiting for her.

When her uncle handed her over to Fu Hua, Jia Li blushed and refused to make eye contact with Fu Hua, who couldn't hide his happiness.

After preaching to them, the priests let them exchange their wedding rings and say their vows to each other.

Both Jia Li and Fu Hua prepared personal vows for each other and said it out there without the help of a book. There was no need to write anything down, as their vows were well stored in their head.

When the priest said, 'I now pronounce you husband and wife, you may now kiss your bride' there were claps and cheers from everyone.

Fu Hua took the veil off Jia Li's face and a big smile appeared on his face. He mouthed, 'You are beautiful' while holding her shoulders before he leaned in to kiss her lips softly.

The kiss lasted 10 seconds before Fu Hua let her lips go and embraced her in a hug, while the photographers snapped away. There was a beautiful smile on Jia Li's face as she hugged him back.

Grandfather and every other person had smiles on their faces as they clapped their hands with their gazes on the couple hugging each other on stage.

When Jia Li and Fu Hua came out of the church building, they took pictures with everybody present.

The jealous little bun who had been watching her parents be together for a while now felt that it was time to be the center of attention, so she immediately kicked up a fuss in FangSu's arms and asked for her father to carry her.

Jia Li smiled at her cute little daughter. The little girl really held out for a while and now that she was asking to be carried, she had no problems with it.

From the Church, Jia Li, Fu Hua and the little bun were driven to a hotel reserved for them. Their wedding reception was in 2-3 hours, so they had enough time to rest and change into another outfit.

Thankfully, Jasmine fell asleep soon after they got to their hotel room. So Jia Li and Fu Hua had time to be alone.

‘Let me help you take off your dress.’ Fu Hua said with a smile. Jia Li didn’t trust him, so she said, ‘We still have a wedding reception and an hour later, the make-up artist will come to fix my makeup. You can’t play jokes here.’

Fu Hua immediately said to her, ‘What are you thinking about? I just want to help you or do you prefer to call any of the servants outside to help you?’

‘I believe that you are a gentleman that will keep to your words.’ Jia Li said before turning her back towards him, so he could help her to unzip her dress.

Fu Hua chuckled softly before helping her to take off her dress.. He kept to his promise to not touch her but his eyes followed her body till she got dressed in a set of comfy clothes.

Chapter 526 - She Was Brought Up Well

As Jia Li lay on the bed, she glanced at her wedding ring and asked with a smile, ‘How much does this cost?’

‘My love for you.’ Fu Hua replied.

‘Naughty!’ Jia Li said before glancing back at her wedding ring. ‘The ring

Fu Hua said with his eyes on her finger, ‘I made sure to pick a design that would suit you before it was made. I hope you like it.’

Jia Li answered immediately, 'Of course I love it! And most especially, you got it for me.'

Fu Hua was quiet for a while before taking her hand and kissing her fingers. He brought her into his arms before suggesting, 'I have one official photo of our wedding, let's post it on our social media pages to announce to the world of our union.'

'I just recalled that we didn't make any official announcement about our wedding. Posting one or two pictures wouldn't be bad and I'm sure the internet is going to be on fire.' Jia Li replied.

She absolutely had no problems with showing off about their wedding. She was most proud of it and for the first time, would like to post their pictures to show off a bit.

Fu Hua stared at her meaningfully and said, 'Actually, the internet should be on fire because I already posted about us having a wedding today, in the morning, so I'm sure the outside world must be in an uproar.'

'What! You couldn't wait?' Jia Li asked in surprise. She badly wanted to show him off today but it looks like he was even in more hurry than she was.

'How can I really not show you off? Come on, let's post our wedding photo or should we do a video together and post?' Fu Hua asked.

'Let's post a picture now, maybe we can post a video some other day.' Jia Li said, not thinking that his suggestion was a bad idea.

Jia Li and Fu Hua posted one of their wedding photos with a heartwarming caption underneath.

This was the time for them to relax, so they couldn't hold onto their phone for a long time. And soon, their lunch was brought for them.

Jasmine was still sleeping, so Fu Hua suggested they let her sleep for a little while, otherwise, she is going to start crying if she was woken up forcibly.

While Jia Li and Fu Hua were having the best time of their lives, the internet was on fire.

People were shocked that they have been married for so long but were having a wedding today. Others thought about how they were able to hold themselves and only talk about their wedding on their wedding day.

Someone even asked if they were old wedding photos or something but nobody came to reply to them not even their invited wedding guests said anything to them.

It looks like they were waiting for the Fu Family to officially release a statement about the wedding before they can say anything.

An hour later, Jasmine was awake and was being fed by FangSu, while Jia Li was getting her makeup done.

FangSu was already dressed in her reception dress, which was the same style as the other bridesmaids.

Their dresses were made by FJ Style for today. Their styles were the same but their colors were different. For them to appear in the wedding in that dress made by FJ, would be big publicity for that particular dress and FJ.

Jasmine seemed a little tired and just sat there and ate the food her Aunt fed her. The little princess looked quite obedient but at her current state, it would be easy to irritate her, so care was being taken around her.

Jia Li's hairstyle was quickly changed before she got into her outfit. And her jewelry was also secured in the right places.

After eating, the little bun brushed her teeth and got dressed. Later, Fu Hua came by to check on them.

An hour later, the wedding reception started. The Fu family didn't personally welcome their guests but only a few got that privilege.

There were greeters to show the guests to their table.

As Jia Li's colleagues made their way into the hall, they were amazed. They now truly believed how humble Jia Li was. That young lady doesn't show off at all. She has such a wealthy husband who can give her such a grand wedding but she doesn't show them off or make noise about it.

'Say, Jia Li is so rich but why is she quiet? If I were to be in her shoes, I can't just keep quiet about my wedding at least.' One of them said as she looked around the wedding hall. Her eyes were on the expensive and beautiful interior decor.

Another person said after having a look around. 'I must say that Jia Li is really humble and her personality is making me love her more. She doesn't boast and she is kind.'

'She was brought up well.' Linda said with a smile.

‘That’s true. Upbringing matters. No matter which family you get into, the upbringing will help you to navigate and keep you disciplined.’
Another person said.

Soon, one of the greeters came and took them to the table specifically arranged for them.

After most of the guests had finished settling down, the wedding reception began at the scheduled time.

When the right time to welcome the bride and groom came, a romantic song played and the guests got to their feet to welcome them in.

Jia Li and Fu Hua’s wedding reception was truly Grand. Important Families, world leaders, business tycoons, military, S-list celebrities and a host of the happening people that control the world, were present.

Not only were Jia Li and Fu Hua the center of attention but the little Princess of the Fu family also looked so adorable in her outfit that the guests couldn’t take their eyes off her each time they saw her.

Chapter 527 - YingPei And Daiyu

Soon, YingPei found the perfect time to meet Daiyu when she went to the Champagne table to pick a glass.

He has been thinking of which of his sister-in-law’s friends he should meet, until that time Daiyu came to take Jasmine from him.

He studied Daiyu for a bit and knew that she was different. She was not like Jia Li or like DanDan and Chang Chang. She looked more like a strong woman.

Before walking up to her, YingPei was a bit afraid as he thought, 'Hope she doesn't have the hobby of beating up men?'

YingPei thought like that because of the reason he was going to meet her and her personality and how she would react. Because of this, he had that thought, before thinking of a better way to communicate with her.

Luckily, he found her at the Champagne tower where fewer people were and went to meet her.

'Young master Fu.' Daiyu called out with a smile. That was her own way of greeting him

YingPei smiled and responded to her greeting. 'YingPei, call me YingPei.'

Daiyu smiled in understanding before fixing her smiling gaze on Jia Li and Fu Hua were dancing on stage.

YingPei followed her gaze to his brother and sister-in-law and asked, 'What are you thinking about?'

Without looking at him, Daiyu replied, 'Looking at Jia Li so happy today, makes me want a good man that will give me a perfect wedding like this.'

'Are you seriously thinking about that?' YingPei asked.

'Why not? Which woman doesn't want a perfect wedding like this?' Daiyu asked with her gaze on him.

Although before, she wasn't that interested in men and like what DanDan and Chang Chang said, she was always talking about beating them up if they bullied anyone of them but it looks like her views have changed.

YingPei smiled. 'That's not hard. I am a good man and I can give you the perfect wedding that you want.'

Daiyu seemed surprised by his words and stared at him in shock. 'Are you joking? In fact, why would you speak that way?'

'Because I'm ready to be serious with my private life. I'm ready to date, so I came to you.' YingPei replied. He wasn't sure he came off the right way but anyway, he was already giving this matter a shot.

Daiyu chuckled and said because she thought he was bluffing and she didn't take his words seriously, 'You look like you don't lack women.'

YingPei heaved a sigh and replied with his gaze on her, 'I don't understand what you mean but I lack women. I have dated a lot of girls before but since I came back to China, I haven't had any relationship. My last serious relationship ended before I traveled out and since then, others have just been flings.'

Daiyu kind of got interested in his story and so asked, 'Why did you stop dating because you don't look like someone that will like to stay single?'

'Working in FJ is tiring and besides, I didn't want to have any entanglement with any woman just for fun. I was ready to live my life until I meet the right woman.' YingPei replied and Daiyu asked immediately,

'Am I the right woman?'

YingPei smiled and said before drinking from his glass of Champagne. 'I'm not sure but I'm quite interested in you. We can only find out if we are right for each other when we go on a date, so what do you say?'

Daiyu found all this fun. She chuckled softly before asking to make sure of his intentions, 'Are you asking me out now?'

'Of course. Let's go on a date tomorrow evening by 4 pm, I will reserve a good place and send you the address. But if you permit me, I will come to pick you up.' YingPei said with a smile as he whipped out his phone from his trousers pocket.

'I haven't even agreed on the date and you are already saying this.' Daiyu said with raised brows. She was truly surprised by his boldness.

YingPei passed his phone to her while speaking to her and she instinctively reached out to take it from him.

'Let's start by exchanging contacts. Don't think that I'm a bad person. But let's say I was in the past but I will never treat you unfairly because you are my sister-in-law's friend and my brother will come for my precious fingers, so I don't dare to be deceitful.'

'Never would I have believed anyone who would tell me that I would be asked out in this matter? I would like to hear your story, so I will give you my contact. I'm not a weakling who needs help from anyone, my fists are strong enough for a good defense against scums.' Daiyu replied and passed his phone back to him after giving out her contact.

YingPei clutched his chest and said to her with furrowed brows while receiving his phone with the other hand, 'Are you trying to scare me away?'

'If you are not guilty of having any evil intentions towards me, there won't be a need to be scared of my threats.' Daiyu replied with a smile.

YingPei scrutinized her with his gaze while thinking if he made the mistake of picking her out of the 3 friends his sister-in-law had.

YingPei didn't have any absurd thoughts towards her but her threats were already starting to scare him away.

'After the party is over, I will introduce you to my grandfather. He wants me to start soon. I know we haven't yet gone on our first date but I have to do this today or I will be in big trouble.'

'I see, your grandfather wants you to settle down soon but it's all for your own good. Let me remind you that if we kick off well and find ourselves suitable for each other, we shouldn't rush things.' Daiyu said to him.

The feeling of a relationship and settlement being rushed wasn't a good feeling for her and she would like to take things gradually if things went well with them.

Chapter 528 - She Wanted To Disappear

'We saw you chatting with Jia Li's brother-in-law plus all the facial expressions you displayed. Tell us, what did you two talk about?' Chang Chang asked with a wink.

Daiyu who had just returned to their side huffed. 'I think I might have gotten myself a man.'

'What!'

DanDan and Chang Chang exclaimed with their palms over their mouth.

Thank goodness for the loud music playing in the background, otherwise, all attention would have been on them instead of the couple dancing on the dance floor.

'Can you not scream?' Daiyu said with a frown as she looked around to make sure they didn't attract much attention to themselves.

‘You...you...you what did you say? You got yourself a man?’ DanDan asked curiously.

‘You heard me right. I’m going on a date with Jia Li’s brother-in-law. Don’t bother me with questions, I will only reply after the wedding ends.’

The focus was on Jia Li today. Daiyu knew that her friends would be curious about how YingPei asked her out. It didn’t seem right for them to talk about that matter there, so she told them they would talk about it later.

DanDan and Chang Chang were already dying from curiosity but what could they do? Nothing.

FangSu invited Zhang Junjie to the wedding, so they were currently together, chatting and laughing happily.

Fu Ling was with his personal assistant and he was waiting to tell her of her new role. He was waiting for the reception to end before he tells her of her new role.

Meixu is the only one without a partner. As she watched the rest of the family members chat with others, she stood a place and started to reminisce about Shi Qiao because she was lonely.

Actually, Shi Qiao was good to her but because she was after revenge, she dumped him. Now that she was feeling lonely, she remembered him.

Meixu was still lost on the thought until some of her friends from the entertainment industry walked up to her to greet her.

After they left, she patted her chest and asked herself, ‘Who were thinking about just now?’

After dancing, Jia Li and Fu Hua did not leave the floor immediately. Fu Hua pulled her close to himself before lowering his head to meet her face. Then, he smiled before kissing her softly on the lips to the amazement of their guests.

Although there were only well-mannered people present, their actions were strong enough to cause their guests to cheer them on.

Fu Hua's move was unexpected and that caused Jia Li to be embarrassed. But no matter how embarrassed she was, she couldn't run away because Fu Hua was holding her waist tightly.

YingPei who had already run to his parents' side to find the adorable little girl, immediately covered her eyes when he saw what her parents were doing on stage.

The little girl was obviously uncomfortable with his hand over her eyes, so she tried to pull his palm away from her eyes but he wouldn't budge.

'Da Xia, you can't watch this, hold on for a minute.' YingPei had said to her with a smile, even though she couldn't see him.

Fu Hee didn't know what to say to her son. Jasmine was indeed too little to watch that scene but making her uncomfortable, she didn't know if his intention was to make her cry in the presence of their guests or what.

Jia Li's face was all red after the kiss. She could only curse inwardly as Fu Hua pulled her to leave the dance floor.

'Can you stop creating awareness, I'm sure everybody knows how much you love me.' Jia Li said in a low tone as they returned to their special seats.

Fu Hua smiled and whispered back to her, 'No, they don't know yet.'

After the cutting of the wedding cake, Jia Li and Fu Hua had to feed each other a piece of the cake and the wine, after making a toast.

According to the host's instruction, Jia Li had to feed Fu Hua first. What was there in feeding him?

Jia Li picked up a piece of cake and sent it into his mouth before using her handkerchief to clean the corner of his mouth. After that, she fed him some wine from his wine glass before relaxing comfortably on her seat.

As the guests clapped for her, she blushed a little. Doing something like this outside, was something she was not used to. Jia Li was shy because people watched her feed Fu Hua but she only found out the meaning of being shy with Fu Hua's next actions.

When Fu Hua finished eating the piece of cake Jia Li fed him, he washed it down with some wine, and now, it was his turn to feed her.

To everyone's surprise, he picked up a piece of cake and sent it into his mouth and inched closer to Jia Li who instinctively leaned backward in shock.

Fu Hua didn't give her time to escape from him, as he immediately stretched out his hand to pull her closer to him before forcing the cake in his mouth inside her mouth.

There was nothing disgusting with Fu Hua's action. He only held the piece of cake with his teeth before transferring it to Jia Li's mouth, he didn't chew it and his saliva didn't touch it.

Not minding that this was her wedding, Jia Li wanted to disappear when Fu Hua did that. Her cheeks turned a deep shade of red and they hurt because she was blushing so hard.

Afraid that he might want to do the same thing with the wine, she immediately took it from him as he picked up the wine glass.

The guests clapped and cheered on for Jia Li and Fu Hua. The couple really had their admiration.

Fu Hua chuckled from the side because he knew how shy Jia Li was feeling at the moment.

Jasmine who was sitting at the same table with her grandparents and great-grandfather ate the piece of cake in front of her. The little girl refused to be distracted from the cheers the guests made when there was food lying in front of her.

The older Fu family members (Grandfather Fu, Fu Lei, Fu Hee, Fu Geming, Fu ChunHua, Fu Juan and her husband) who were sitting at the same table as Jasmine laughed heartily as they watched her eat.

Chapter 529 - End Of Party

When the guests were almost about to finish eating, gifts were handed to them in a special well-packaged fancy bag.

When Jia Li's coworkers each got the fancy bag, they smiled heartily and immediately took a peek inside the bag.

Linda shook her head and said to them, 'Can you at least not embarrass yourselves?'

'At this point, I don't know what embarrassment is. If we were not here, I would have opened this bag properly to see the gifts inside and I'm sure it's something worth a lot of money.' One of them said with a big smile on her face.

Another said. 'I really have to thank Jia Li properly when she resumes work for inviting us to her wedding. There was no special treatment here, we were all treated equally with the important guests.'

Sunny and other FJ departmental heads were sitting at a different table, watching the performance on the stage.

At last, when the wedding reception came to an end, Fu Hua made a closing remark and after that, grandfather Fu came up on stage to say something to the guests.

Grandfather Fu was still highly respected and valued by his country, so honor and respect were always given to him wherever he appeared.

After the wedding reception ended, most of the guests didn't leave immediately. They went to greet the Fu family and the latest couple.

The Huang family went to see Jia Li and Fu Hua, before going to the Fu family's table to greet them. Because of time and the distance they would have to travel back to, they couldn't stay for a long time.

'This is my daughter, Da Xia.' Jia Li said with a smile as she gazed at the little girl clutching her feet and refusing to let go.

Jasmine was not always comfortable when strangers got close to her, so she would always try to avoid them, just like right now.

Old Mrs. Huang smiled and said to Jia Li after staring happily at the little girl. 'Da Xia is beautiful. She inherited the good genes from you and her father.'

‘Jasmine, this is great-grandmother Huang. Say hello to her.’ Jia Li said to the little girl but instead of obeying her mother, the little girl glanced at the Huang family before looking away.

Jia Li smiled apologetically. ‘I’m sorry, Jasmine doesn’t feel comfortable being around a crowd and people she is unfamiliar with.’

Old Mrs. Huang and her family chuckled heartily before the old lady spoke up. ‘What’s there to be sorry about, Da Xia’s action is right. It’s good to react this way towards people she is not familiar with, it is a good way for self-defense.’

‘Jia Li, take care. We have to leave now but we will keep in touch.’ The first daughter of the Huang family said with a smile.

‘Thank you for coming.’ Jia Li said to them with a warm smile but the third daughter frowned and said, ‘Why are you thanking us? We should be the ones thanking you for inviting us to your wedding.’

Jia Li smiled without saying anything. Just before walking away, the first son of the Huang family dipped his hands into his trouser pocket and brought out a red packet before handing it to Jasmine.

‘This is the gift we especially prepared for her.’ He said with a small smile.

Jasmine glanced at his hand but glanced back at her mother for approval. Jasmine only took the red packet from him after her mother gave her permission to take it.

After taking the red packet from him, she said thank you in her cute little voice before fiddling with the red packet.

Jia Li thanked her uncle and wanted to walk them out but they refused, so she stayed back with the little girl before Fu Hua joined them.

Immediately Jasmine saw her father, she ran to him and showed him the red packet she got as a gift.

Fu Hua was all smiles as he lifted her in his arms before asking who gave the red packet to her. Jasmine had no idea of who they were, so she pointed at her mother with her little finger.

Fu Hua kissed her cheeks and asked, 'Mummy gave it to you?' Jasmine shook her head in a negative affirmation.

Jia Li smiled and walked up to them and explained on the little girl's behalf, 'The Huang family gave it to her.'

'Have they left?' Fu Hua asked. 'Yes, just now.' Jia Li replied with a smile.

YingPei walked up to Jia Li's friends and pulled Daiyu away by the arms after taking permission from DanDan and Chang Chang whom she was chatting with.

Daiyu allowed him to pull her aside and asked, 'Where are you taking me to?'

'My grandfather is alone now, let's go and meet him.' YingPei said in reply as he released her arm and took her hand and walked towards the old man that was sitting with the remaining family members.

'Why are you in a hurry, what if your grandfather doesn't like me?' Daiyu asked. With the way, he was pulling her, made it look like he was impatient.

YingPei said. ‘You are one of my sister-in-law’s closest friends and that is enough reason for my grandfather to like you.’

‘Oh!’ Daiyu exclaimed and continued following after him.

Daiyu, DanDan and Chang Chang were already aware of how much the Fu family cherished Jia Li, especially Grandfather Fu but to Daiyu’s surprise, the old man would accept anyone related to Jia Li without any investigation.

Actually, it was not just those that were related to Jia Li that he would accept but those that she had a good relationship with.

For now, Daiyu couldn’t say she was lucky to meet YingPei because she still didn’t know anything about him, apart from just his name and his relationship with the Fu family.. Until they come to know each other very well, she can’t say that she is lucky to have met YingPei.

Chapter 530 - Introduction

YingPei brought Daiyu to his family’s table and introduced her to them.

‘Grandfather, this is Daiyu, she is one of Jia Li’s good friends and now, we are friends as well.’ As YingPei said this, there was a big smile on his face.

He didn’t want to outrightly say that Daiyu was his girlfriend because she was not. But introducing her that way would give them ideas that were good enough.

As he introduced her, Daiyu bowed in greeting to Grandfather Fu and the rest of the family members sitting there.

‘Is she your girlfriend?’ Fu ChunHua asked with a smile as the other family members looked on.

YingPei thought for a short while before replying, ‘You can say that.’

He was going on a date with Daiyu the next day, so it wouldn’t be wrong to say she was his girlfriend. And besides, she agreed to date him.

After introducing her to his family, he took her hand and left.

‘Why did he choose to date Jia Li’s friend, is he trying to play some tricks here?’ Fu Lei asked with a frown.

Grandfather Fu who has not said a word since YingPei came and left, replied, ‘He doesn’t dare to play tricks with his sister-in-law’s friend. But if he dares, I will cut off his legs.’

‘It will be good if he is serious this time around.’ Fu Hee said.

Fu Ling who just saw YingPei introduce a woman to the family, turned to glance at his assistant before saying to her, ‘Today, your role is my girlfriend. I’m going to introduce you to my family now.’

‘What!’ His assistant exclaimed in shock. This was a weird role and not just that, he was going to introduce her to his family as his fake girlfriend.

Fu Ling said to her, ‘I know this is a surprise to you but you just have to do this for me and I will give you a raise in your salary this month.’

‘Sir, this is not about money. I am your assistant and this might affect my work ethic.’ His assistant said with a slight smile.

‘I trust that you are a professional and can handle your work well. Why else do you think I would send you an outfit for today when I haven’t done that before? Your job is to be my fake girlfriend in front of my family.’ Fu Ling said with a serious gaze on her.

His personal assistant was shocked by all of this but she still asked, ‘Can I say no to this?’

‘You can’t refuse me when you have already worn my dress and come to my cousin’s wedding.’ Fu Ling said to her with raised brows.

Before she could reply to him and tell him that she wouldn’t have agreed to be his partner for the wedding if she knew about this matter, he took her hand and dragged her towards his family’s table.

‘You don’t need to speak if you are not given permission to.’ Fu Ling reminded her. What more could she say? It’s not like she could say ‘no’ to him.

When Fu Ling brought his personal assistant over and introduced her to them, Grandfather Fu asked, ‘How did you meet her?’

Fu Ling glanced at his partner and said replied, ‘She is my personal assistant.’

‘She is your employee?’ Fu ChunHua asked with raised brows. She was surprised that her son would choose to date his employee.

‘Did you choose to date her because it’s convenient?’ Grandfather Fu asked.

The reason he asked that question was since Fu Ling chose to date his personal assistant, it must be because she was working for him and it was easier to pick her since he didn't have to go the extra mile to choose another lady.

Fu Ling's assistant was nervous about meeting the Fu family members. She didn't come from a rich family and it was her luck that she became the personal assistant of her current boss and also thanks to her work performance.

She was already on tenterhooks each day catering for her Boss who was a member of one of the most influential families in the country. And now standing before the entire Fu family made her nervous and uncomfortable.

Luckily, she had work experience in dealing with important clients, so she just took the Fu family as important clients she must impress.

'Grandfather, you know I'm very busy and don't have the time to explore, so I just picked what was in front of me and it turned out to be good.'
Ling replied.

Grandfather Fu waved his hands which was a sign to ask them to leave. After they left, Fu Juan asked about his opinion on the ladies that were brought to them.

'Father, what do you think about the ladies YingPei and Ling brought over?'

Grandfather Fu replied with his gaze on her, 'That Lady YingPei brought over can't be bullied by him because she has a strong personality and it looks like YingPei would be the one to be bullied instead. As For Ling, he has a similar personality to Hua and the lady he brought over had Jia Li's personality and she would end up being neglected and bullied if she really loves Ling.'

‘Father, why do you say that about Ling?’ Fu Geming asked with curiosity.

‘Ling doesn’t look like he is interested in dating anyone now, so he might neglect her since he was forced to date. And if she likes him, she will be hurt but she might obediently continue to stay at his side.’ Grandfather Fu replied.

Grandfather Fu was already aware of what kind of personality his grandsons have and when they brought over the ladies they claimed were their girlfriends, he already assessed them.

‘Boss, I will take my leave now.’ She said to him.

‘Mmm... go ahead.’ Fu Ling said to her.. He stood there and watched her leave before turning to walk away, only to meet YingPei along the way, staring at him with a smile.
