Chapter 561 – A Prank

Now, it was time for the adults to have their checkups done. Jia Li was the last person to be checked from the female side, while Fu Hua asked the doctor to check him first.

The male and female family members were separated as they were in different rooms with their doctors.

After checking Jia Li's heart rate, blood pressure and taking her pulse, the doctor said to her in a gentle tone, 'Madam, your health is perfect but you still need to take care of yourself and the fetus.'

'What!' The women in the Fu family chorused again.

Jia Li seemed at a loss after what the doctor had said. 'Am I pregnant again?' She thought to herself in horror.

'Doctor, what do you mean exactly?' Fu Hee who was about to jump for joy asked for clarification, as the others fixed an anticipated gaze on the doctor.

The doctor smiled and confirmed what she had just said. 'Madam is really pregnant.'

Fu Hee jumped up and went to hug Jia Li who had already let Jasmine slipped from her watch. Fu ChunHua, FangSu and Meixu were excited as they went to congratulate Jia Li who seemed to have different thoughts in her head.

Right at that moment, Fu Hua appeared at the door with a smile and watched the women crowding his wife.

Jasmine saw him and ran to him for a hug while shouting, 'Daddy!' Immediately, all the attention was turned on him.

Fu Hee was so happy to announce the good news to her son, so she immediately told him what the doctor said and congratulated him.

Fu Hua who was holding the little girl in his arms glanced at Jia Li who didn't seem to be in a good mood. He smiled and said, 'I know because I was the one that told the doctor to say it.'

The women who have been rejoicing felt a wave of shock hit them. Fu Hee was the first to react and she did that angrily.

'What sort of prank is that?'

'A good one. I wanted to know what Jia Li's reaction would be to us welcoming another child soon and as you can see, she won't be happy about it.' Fu Hua replied.

With a frown FangSu said, 'Brother, this is not funny! I just finished jumping for joy only to learn that it was a prank.'

Jia Li looked annoyed more than ever. She couldn't believe that Fu Hua would play a prank on her with this matter.

Fu Hua glanced at everyone in the room before saying, 'Looks like all of you will be happy to have another child in the house but it's not left for me to decide, you will have to beg Jia Li to agree to it.'

After saying that, Fu Hua winked at his furious wife, while Fu Hee and the others turned to glance at her.

‘Fu Hua!’

Fu Hua chuckled hard as he easily dodged the pillow with the little bun in his arms.

What did he mean by that? He was obviously telling everyone to beg her to have another child soon and she was not ready for it.

The doctor who smiled at the side picked up her box and apologized to Jia Li.

‘Madam, I’m sorry about his but your husband put me to this. I will take my leave now.’

After the doctor left, Fu Hua winked at Jia Li again before leaving but who knew that Jia Li wouldn’t let him be. She chased after him to hit him.

Fu Hua couldn’t run that fast because Jasmine was in his arms, so he had to run into a room and lock the door quickly, so Jia Li wouldn’t catch him.

‘It looks like Jia Li doesn’t want another child now.’ Fu ChunHua said with a sigh.

All of them were disappointed but they couldn’t force Jia Li to have another child since she was not ready for it.

She was breathing heavily while hugging her father’s neck.

‘Daddy made mummy angry and now mummy wants to hit Daddy, so we have to hide.’ Fu Hua replied as he kissed her cheeks happily.

‘But you have to say sorry,’ Jasmine said with a smile. The little girl seems to remember that it was right to apologize when you are wrong and now, she was reminding her father of it.

Fu Hua smiled at his little princess’s smartness. He kissed her cheeks again and said to her, ‘Alright, Daddy will go and apologize to Mummy, will you help me?’

The little girl nodded in approval.

Fu Hua needed to have the little girl by his side, so Jia Li wouldn’t attack him physically.

Fu Hua took the little bun to the kitchen to make something sweet for Jia Li. And when Jasmine asked why he was making a drink, he replied, ‘Mummy will be happy when she eats something sweet.’

The health of the Fu family members was okay. Grandfather Fu was asked to follow a strict diet plan to have a healthy heart.

He was already old and there were some kinds of food he shouldn’t bother to eat anymore. Luckily, the old man had a healthy body and his bones were strong, thanks to his early days of military training.

Grandfather Fu was still walking perfectly at his age and didn’t need any walking stick for support.

At the end of the year, the Fu family had a big celebration and celebrated Christmas at home. But before then, they traveled to the Maldives to spend the holidays and made it back to the country in time to celebrate Christmas.

Spending holidays with the family together in a fun place, was the best threat ever.

Chapter 562 - Alix' s Return To China

Feng Alix made it to the headlines the day after the New year celebrations. The news of her pregnancy has been kept under wraps after much speculation from a few fans and many anti-fans. But a day after the new year, she released so many photos from her maternity shoot.

'Feed your eyes, a beauty is always a beauty.' Feng Alix had said under the photos she released.

A few people who still saw her in a good light congratulated her. Some anti-fans expressed their concern for Feng Alix passing her evil traits to an innocent child.

Some even said that by the time the child was born and grew up under her care, she would have become her replica in character and traits.

'Shouldn't the government ban some women like her from ever having a child because this is one of the reasons our society is ruined?'

No matter how many tongues were lashing at her, Alix didn't bulge. Right now, she was preparing to fly back to China.

It was not easy for her to convince her husband to let her have her child in China. The threat of the Suarez family towards her and her child was many that she managed to pull through till now.

Her baby was due in February and she wanted to leave immediately. Her husband had asked her to stay until she gave birth to their child before she could travel, but she refused.

Apart from the threats around her, Alix was in a hurry to go back to China so she could start making plans to meet someone soon. She had many agendas for going back to China apart from giving birth to her child.

Alix received so many death threats and mishaps, like losing her balance on the stairs because the rails were stained with oil.

Slipping and falling on tiles because of oil spillage. Given something to eat which was not beneficial to her and the child. Being scared to almost death by the grandchildren of her husband on several occasions.

They would sometimes hide insects in her bedroom, plate, car and resting area which caused her frights on several occasions.

After listing all these to her husband in tears, Mr. Suarez finally allowed her to travel to China and have her child there since it was a place she always felt at home.

Before leaving, Alix made another request, we wanted his lawyer to come with her as it would be of great help.

Mr. Suarez had 3 lawyers and Alix had to spell out the one she wanted and that was Carlo. At last, he agreed to let her leave with Carlo.

‘Was it your idea for me to come with you to your trip to China?’ Carlos asked two weeks before they came down to China.

‘Why not? Are you unhappy about it?’ Alix asked.

‘I have a life over here, why are you dragging me to travel with a pregnant woman like you?’ Carlos asked in an annoyed tone.

Alix chuckled heartily and asked, ‘Are you feeling irritated being with a pregnant woman like me?’

‘Of course! I am not your husband or bodyguard, why do I have to follow you around?’ Carlos asked.

‘In case you don’t know, I get what I want. This is what you have to pay for, for being Mr. Suarez’s exclusive lawyer.’ Alix said.

Carlos was the only lawyer out of the 3 lawyers Mr. Suarez had, that didn’t work for anybody and he was paid a hefty sum of money every month.

Carlos was really annoyed with Alix for bringing up things out of her selfish reasons.

‘How long will you be staying there?’ Carlos asked. Although Mr. Suarez had told him that he only had to follow Alix to China until she gives birth, he already knew that she would have other plans.

‘I don’t know, we will see about that.’ Alix had replied.

Two weeks later, Alix, Carlos and a servant Mr. Suarez assigned to look after Alix took a flight to China.

Arriving there on their first night, they spend their first night in the hotel and the next day, Carlos contacted an agency to see the house they had reserved for Alix.

Mr. Suarez had paid the deposit before Alix made the trip down to China. So now, Carlos was going to inspect the house on behalf of Alix, before they can make the full payment.

Alix with her unknown intentions wanted to find a house close to Fu Hua's place but that was not possible. It was going to cost a lot of money to buy a house there from anyone that was ready to sell theirs and knowing that her husband wouldn't allow that, she debunked that idea and instead, picked a house in a conducive place.

The first place she had picked was an expensive apartment where so many important people lived but she gave up on it because she didn't want anyone to monitor her or guess when she left her house and returned and all of those headaches.

At last, she picked a small duplex located in an expensive area to settle down.

Immediately after recovering from the jet lag, Alix immediately showed off that she was in China. She took walks in the hotel premises and took pictures next to the building to show off without minding that she could be attacked for exposing her location.

Two days later with Carlos's expertise and efficiency, Alix moved into her new place. Carlos wasn't supposed to live in the same house with her, so he also rented the building next to hers to stay.

Alix hadn't liked that idea but she couldn't make him live in the same house with her since the caregiver her husband had assigned to her, was present.

Alix's arrival in China caused sharks of reactions from many people who asked her the reason she came back when she looked like she was almost due for her child's birth. But that was not any of Alix's concern.

Alix was busy having different spa and beauty sections and taking so many photos in different places and posting them.

Sometimes, she would rant about her experiences about being pregnant like she was the first woman to ever become pregnant, which annoyed a lot of people greatly.

Chapter 563 - The Birth Of Her Child

A week to her labor date, Alix made a post. She posted a picture of herself in a sultry red bikini

'I didn't know motherhood could be this hard. I can't wait for this child to come out already so I can get some rest.'

There were so many comments and replies to her post within an hour.

'You should have thought about the consequences of being a mother before getting pregnant, who are you complaining to?'

'I had no idea you would carry your pregnancy to this day. I thought you would have gotten rid of it for so many reasons.'

'How can she get rid of the baby she intentionally made an effort to get?'

'I'm sure this child must be a bait for something and I pity it already.'

'Somehow I wish she would not be allowed to raise her child because she would be a terrible mother.'

'Her abdomen is pointing downwards and I think she is due soon. I can't believe she still has the energy to play at the beach.'

'Wait, how can anyone go to the beach in winter in that kind of clothes? I don't want to hear that she is not feeling this cold.'

After Alix had finished posting, she was immediately wrapped with a thick blanket and given a hot tea to drink before she was driven back to her place

News of Alix's return or pregnancy had no impact on the Fu's. They already had important things to take care of other than to pay attention to unimportant people.

On Fu Hua's birthday, he had a date night with Jia Li. He not only released some photos of that day but also a video.

Jia Li had no idea he was recording her, while she ate. It was almost at the end of the video that she noticed it and her eyes widened in shock.

'Are you recording me?' She asked with wide eyes, while Fu Hua chuckled hard.

'Smile for me, Sweetheart.' Fu Hua said as he brought up his phone close to her. Instead of smiling, Jia Li feigned a frown, which caused them both to chuckle hard.

'You still look beautiful anyway.' Fu Hua said before stopping the record and putting his phone away.

The two went for a walk close to the sea in the evening while holding hands and chatting. Instead of spending the night out, they returned to the Fu mansion to have dinner with everyone.

Some days after Fu Hua's birthday, Alix gave birth to a baby boy after several hours of labor. During her labor, she acted out a lot of scenes.

She cursed her child for trying to kill her while she was making an effort to give it life. She cursed the doctors and the nurses for allowing her to go through pain instead of doing something about it.

She slapped her caregiver for not giving her a glass of water fast enough and she threw things around in the hospital room she was admitted to.

She even forced her caregiver to place a call to the Suarez family and when the call got through, she didn't wait to hear the voice from the end before lashing out.

Alix almost lost her child during labor because she didn't push when she was asked to and she almost didn't want to push again because of the pain.

At last, when the baby came out, he wasn't breathing properly, it will be appropriate to say that he was losing his breath.

Instead of begging the doctor and nurses to do everything she could to save her child, she said to them, 'If anything happens to my child, I will make sure to close down this hospital and you will never get a job in your lives again. Then for the sacrifice of carrying this child till this point and the huge losses, I will make you all will see to it that it's settled.'

If something indeed happens to the child, she won't get any shares and the Suarez family will blame her for traveling down to China to have her child, so her child must live at all costs.

The purplish-looking baby who was struggling for air was immediately given oxygen to preserve his life while his vitals were being checked.

An hour later, after Alix has been cleaned up, she felt sleepy but didn't forget to post about the birth of her baby boy and she promised to share photos soon.

In her post, she had made a joke of how she cursed everyone she could think of while in labor pain. Then she went on to thank the doctors and the nurses who helped her to deliver her child and for tolerating her.

In a real sense, Alix didn't apologize or thank the doctors that helped her and obviously, the post she made was just to show off and was not actually for them.

That day, Alix couldn't hold her child. And she didn't bother to see him in the other room he was in. She was still tired after having pushed out a human and she was too lazy to stand up.

But because of her future plans, she made sure her child was okay and his health was improving, by sending her caregiver to record a short video of her child so she could see him.

Not just that she also inquired of the doctor of her child's health. The doctor had said her child had to be under observation for the next 48 hours to ascertain that he was okay.

Alix didn't care much as long as the child was alive.

Soon, the Suarez family heard the news of their new family member and Mr. Suarez began to make plans to come down to China to see the mother and child.

Alix hated the part of him coming over but she couldn't stop it. She didn't want to see him again as she felt that the time he had in her life had expired, but she still had to put up a front.

Anyways, if Mr. Suarez came over, she would show him off to everyone that was watching.. At least, he could still be of good use.

Chapter 564 - Seeking Pity

The day Mr. Suarez arrived at the hospital to see Alix and the child was the same day the child was released from the special room he was being observed.

Right now, the frail-looking child had returned his normal complexion and was laying comfortable in his cot. He was fast asleep, while Alix played with her phone.

She took one picture of her child and posted it on the net with the caption, 'I have a few special people in my heart and my son shares a birthday month with one of them. This is truly a great feeling.'

Right after she posted that, she dumped her phone to eat the food that was brought for her.

Some minutes later, there were already hundreds of comments under her post.

'I thought she would take a break after giving birth but no, I thought wrongly of her.'

'She is not acting like someone that just gave birth. It's like that her pregnancy was fake!'

'Maybe she had a child through surrogacy.'

'What does she mean by those words, is she trying to start up trouble?'

'She wants to be in the headlines.'

'A few days ago, Fu Hua celebrated his birthday, could she be referring to him?'

'She must be insane and need medical attention if that is what she meant.'

There was not even one good comment under Alix's recent post and it's not that she cared about it. It looks like her goal right now was to trend and top the charts.

When Mr. Suarez arrived in China, Carlos who was absent during Alix's delivery went to the airport to pick him up.

All the way to the hospital from the airport, Mr. Suarez continued to ask so many questions about the child and Alix and Carlos answered him.

Mr. Suarez came to find out about the child being given Oxygen for 48 hours after birth and was annoyed that Alix never mentioned it to him. But that didn't stop him from asking Carlos to stop by a store to get some things for Alix and the child.

At last, when they stepped into the hospital room, Alix faked a smile and welcomed him. Then, she tried to get off the bed while biting her lower lip as a sign of going through pains.

'Don't get up, I will come to you.' Mr. Suarez said as he rushed to her side to take her hand.

'Sorry I can't welcome you, I'm too weak and my whole body is still in pain.' Alix said with a weak smile. Her acting was top notch and anyone who didn't know her profession before would think she was an actress.

Mr. Suarez nodded and said to her, 'You should rest more. Have you eaten?'

'A little. I don't have much appetite for now.' Alix lied in order to gain pity from him.

'If you need anything, tell Carlos and he would get it for you.' Mr. Suarez said to her with a comforting smile. He was afraid she would remain weak for several days if she didn't eat properly.

Alix pretended to look even more pitiful before reluctantly telling Carlos the kind of food she wished to eat.

When he left, Mr. Suarez fixed his gaze on her before asking, 'Why didn't you mention the health challenges of the child after birth?'

Alix guessed that Carlos must have told him about the child being given oxygen. 'I didn't want to worry you. I'm sure you know the reason for my child's health. Your family or tried to get rid of my and the child.'

By reminding him of the dangers she faced in his house because of her pregnancy, Mr. Suarez didn't have the mind to about at her.

She had slipped and fallen twice. She had even jumped up and run with fright on several occasions, so he didn't blame her as he thought that must be the reason for the child's poor health.

But after each of those events, the doctor would come and examine her or she will be taken to the hospital for a thorough checkup and ultrasound.

Sometimes, the doctor would say that everything was okay and other times, he would ask her to be very careful, after which he would prescribe some drugs for her and tell what kind of particular vegetable she has to eat for a week consistently.

With guilt, Mr. Suarez asked Alix's caretaker to bring the child over so he could see him.

Seeing the child, Mr. Suarez was a little surprised. The child was frail and he was small. Because of Alix's choice of diet as she didn't want to add weight during pregnancy.

To her, it would be a hassle to shed all the pregnancy fats after childbirth, so why not prevent it on time than suffer later while trying to get rid of it?

It's not bad to watch your weight during pregnancy but going extreme to the detriment of your child's health is not proper.

'Has he eaten for today?' Mr. Suarez asked with a frown.

Alix wanted to roll her eyes at him, but she held herself back. 'Does it look like I will starve my child?' She asked.

Mr. Suarez thought no mother will starve her child, so he glanced back at the child before asking the caregiver to put him back in his cot.

The truth is that he was disappointed with the child's frail body and Alix noticed it and another plan began to cook up in her head

'Darling, don't worry about our child, the doctor assured me that he will be robust before he turns a month.' She said to him with a small smile, and he nodded.

When Carlos came back with the food Alix requested, the caregiver took it from and served it to her.

Because Alix wanted the old man gone, she told him to go back to her house to wash up, eat and rest before coming back to the hospital again.

Mr. Suarez thought she was worried about him, so he smiled and agreed to leave.

‘I’ll put in more money in the card for you..’ He reminded her before leaving.

Chapter 565 - Curious

Mr. Suarez spent 2 weeks in China before leaving back to his country. Before he left, he had asked Alix when she planned to return home.

‘My child is too young and I am too weak. Let him grow up a little and let me rest up a bit before coming back to face your family who might plan to get rid of him.’ Alix had replied without soaring him a glance.

‘But I told you the house is safe now, nobody will attack you or the child again.’ Mr. Suarez replied.

Alix was not willing to hear that. Whether his family would attack her child or not, she didn’t want to go back to that place again. She wanted to remain in China.

‘That’s what you said to me before but look how it turned out...’ Alix replied and at last, Mr. Suarez had no choice but to let her stay for a while.

Remembering how disappointed her husband was, Alix set out on a journey to make her child put on some weight so he can look more human because according to her her child was ugly. Ugly to the extent that she wondered if Carlos ever had plastic surgery.

Alix was yet to sign the will even though it was ready and she knew she had to please old man so she can sign the items willed to her as soon as possible.

Bai Fen from the Bai family who was divorced and thrown out of the family, mother to Bai Jun, surfaced on the internet after a long time, around March. She dragged Fu Hee to the mud.

Bai Fen has not been living a good life. But somehow, she got her brother to keep paying for her rent and some bills which included electricity and water bills. As for feeding and buying clothes for herself, she had to do those ones for herself.

Currently, Bai Fen lived alone. Her brother left her to pay the caretaker herself but as she couldn't afford it, she sent her away.

Bai Fen was still working in the factory and even today, her co-workers always made fun of her. How she fell from grace to grass.

If Bai Fen made trouble, she would be sacked, so she could only endure the humiliation.

As an opportunity for her to get revenge came, she made sure to make use of it. She couldn't be the only one suffering for doing wrong. Others were still living happily after doing wrong, so why would she be the only one to suffer?

With that thought, she struck in a hard way.

Somewhere around March, Jia Li took Fu Hee out for shopping, just the two of them. When Jia Li had brought it up, Fu Hee thought she was joking and had to confirm from her before hugging her excitedly.

Every member of the Fu family had money to cater to their needs, so none of them lacked money. But there was a feeling of joy that came when your daughter-in-law tells you to dress up as she wants to take you out. That's exactly how Fu Hee felt when Jia Li said she was taking her shopping.

'Mummy, pick me!' Jasmine said as she stretched out her hands for her mother to carry her, as they were already leaving the house.

'No, go back. Auntie Su will take you to buy ice cream and donuts.' Jia Li said to her.

Jasmine looked like she was about to cry when her mother refused her. 'No! I want to go with you and grandma!' She said in a determined tone.

The little girl wanted to go out to have fun with her mother and grandmother since she always had this thought that leaving the house, was to have fun.

Fu Hee didn't like that her granddaughter was about to cry, so she asked Jia Li to let her come with them.

'Jia Li, why don't you let her come with us, it won't be bad you know.'

'Mum, you don't know this little girl, she will cause trouble. She will want to touch everything that fascinates her.' Jia Li said as she held the little girl that wrapped her arms around her legs.

Fu Hee glanced at her daughter and smiled. 'Da Xia is at the age where she is curious about everything. She would want to touch and feel everything she thinks looks good.'

Toddlers have the tendency of wanting to touch everything they see, especially when you take them out to malls, fast foods and others.

Imagine taking them to a toy shop, you can't even stop them from touching things. And no matter how hard you try to stop them, you will end up being the one shouting and having a headache.

Jia Li knew this much about her little girl, so she doesn't like to take her out most times because she doesn't even listen.

When you think she is being obedient and you look away, she will use that opportunity to cause trouble.

'Mum, we are going to shop and taking her with us will cause our shopping experience not to be fun because we will have to keep our eyes on her the whole time instead of looking out for the clothes we came to buy.'

After complaining and with the little girl not relenting, Jia Li was forced to take her along.

So the three females, left for the big shopping mall in the City to shop to their heart contents.

It wasn't a new thing for people to stop and admire any member of the Fu family wherever they were seen. They were like the Kim Kardashian family in China.

When Jia Li, the little bun and Fu Hee were spotted, some began to take photos of them. A blogger who was in their midst of them took different photos of the three and later that day, she posted them with a captivating caption.

'Look how loving this mother and daughter-in-law are. They don't seem like they are in-laws at all, they look more like friends.. And can you see the little princess of the Fu family acting cute in front of her mother and grandmother? What luck it is to be a part of the peaceful and united Fu family.'

Chapter 566 - Her Response

'Jia Li and her mother-in-law are on good terms'

'I wish my mother-in-law would love me like this'

'I think we should all emulate this kind of relationship.'

'I wish I had come from the Fu family.'

'Jia Li is so lucky to have a mother-in-law who loves her.'

We don't know which one of the comments or maybe it was the post itself that sparked Bai Fen's reaction.

Bai Fen who has not been in the media attention for a long time, finally made it there after she sparked reactions from the video of her circulating on the internet.

'What a pretender! Who are you trying to deceive? This is someone that ill-treated her daughter-in-law. She abused her verbally and physically and even went on to try and get rid of her grandchild! Fu Hee, shame on you! I'm telling you all, do not be deceived by that woman, she is not a good person, she is evil! And I dare her or any member of the Fu family to say I'm defaming her!'

After the video of Bai Fen saying all of these went viral, there were so many hashtags and speculations, which aimed to find out the truth of her words.

'Is Fu Hee not the person we think she is?'

'Was Jia Li bullied in the Fu family?'

'What is the Fu family hiding from us?'

'Who knows how Fu Hua reacted to his wife being bullied?'

Currently, many people were calling the members of the Fu family out and asking them to confirm or debunk Bai Fen's words. This was happening two days after Jia Li and Fu Hee went shopping with the little bun.

Amongst the member of the Fu family who was being called out, Fu Hee was leading. Jia Li was called out as well because so many people were worried if she was being bullied by the Fu family.

The Fu family sat together in what looked like a meeting room to debate on this matter. There were so many news outlets, requesting to interview Fu Hee or any member of the Fu family willing to speak up about the matter.

'Fu Hee, you can't do this! We can't accept any interview from any news outlet there!' Fu ChunHua said in a grave tone.

Fu Hee who was in tears and trying to wipe them away, couldn't say anything. She really regrets her past actions and she had long repented. But who knew that Bai Fen would suddenly publicize the matter and cause people to curse and call her out.

'Our family really can't accept any interview but we have to clear the air. We can't sit and choose not to talk about this matter because it won't be for the best.' Fu Lei said with a big frown.

Fu Hee sniffed and said, 'I will take responsibility for my actions, after all, I did wrong in the past.'

'But mum, you will be criticized by everybody no matter the story you tell out there.' Jia Li said in a worried tone.

She also wished that her mother-in-law would not accept any interview because she was scared they will criticize her more for her past mistakes.

At last, Grandfather Fu spoke out. 'It's better to say something to atone for your mistakes than to keep quiet and admit it all and be dragged and hated forever.'

It will also be bad for the Fu family if they refuse to talk about the matter.

At last, Fu Hee had the interview but not with any news media outlet. She made a video from the Fu garden and released it on the internet. The Fu family page officially shared the video as well.

'I know many people have so many things to say about my mistakes over 3 years ago but I'm here to own up to my mistakes. I have apologized to my son and daughter-in-law long ago and I'm going to do it again. Son, I'm sorry for failing you in the past and Jia Li I'm sorry for mistreating you in the past, you didn't deserve it.

Also to everyone watching this, I hope you will learn some lessons from me and distance yourself from anyone that calls themselves your friends but is using you to achieve their goals, without caring about the cost of them using you.

I paid a huge price for being used by the one person I called my closest friend. I lost my title in the family and was almost sent back to my father's house. My father-in-law punished me according to the family rules, my son didn't talk to me for almost a year and I was not allowed to hold my granddaughter when she was born. But Jia Li being a sweet girl and a kindhearted person, pleaded on my behalf and would secretly let me hold her child when my son was away. But Hua knew that Jia Li would give their child to me when he was out.

At long last, my family forgave me and I won their trust again. And I'm grateful to them for giving me a third chance to atone for my sins.

With this, I am also rendering a public apology to everyone because of my past mistakes. Truly, no good woman deserves to be mistreated.'

Fu Hee's video became the top trending video and topic on the internet. Only less than 5% of people were criticizing her for mistreating Jia Li. The rest cursed at Bai Fen for stirring trouble and trying to ruin someone's family the way she ruined hers.

Bai Fen received so many backlashes from netizens, for threatening the peace of the Fu family and trying to garner attention to herself.

Although, some people were curious if Fu Hee actually tried to get rid of her grandchild.

Many people wondered the full story of Bai Fen using Fu Hee and how she fell for it and they begged her to accept at least one interview to them about it.

Fu Hee didn't accept any interview, instead, FangSu did to the surprise of a few.

When she was asked if the reason she accepted the interview was that Fu Hee was her mother, she denied that fact and instead said to their shock...

‘I accepted this interview mainly because I have a similar story like mum.. I once bullied my sister-in-law.’

Chapter 567 - Alix' s Plans

FangSu didn't want to experience her mother's situation so she had to come out to talk about it and also to reveal how evil Bai Fen and Bai Jun were.

FangSu told the story of the reason Bai Fen used her mother and Bai Jun used her. And now, everyone knew why. It was because of Fu Hua.

FangSu stated how she was used and when her mother who had recovered herself from the clutches of Bai Fen warned her, she refused to listen.

FangSu had said, ‘I didn't learn my lesson until I saw things clearly for myself. I finally discovered that I was only a tool in Bai Jun's hands after I heard her directly accuse me, overheard her plans to use me and also lying to me.’

Talking about the reason she had wanted Bai Jun to be the one to marry her eldest brother, she said, ‘We were more like sisters than friends. We were very close when we were younger and growing up, we went to the same high school and college. And as you know, we traveled out together, so after spending most of my life with her, I felt she suited to marry my brother after my mum told me about the plans she had with the former Mrs. Bai.’

FangSu didn't go into many details because it wouldn't be good to spread their dirty lining outside, and nobody would do that but she made sure to highlight and briefly talk about some major situations and conflicts with Bai Fen and Bai Jun.

Everyone learned the reason Bai Jun got into FJ but ended up selling their fashion show styles to a rival company and was imprisoned at the end.

Bai Fen and Bai Jun's secret was out. FangSu even added the reason Bai Jun got married.

For over a week, FangSu's interview was trending. There were so many backlashes and curses vented on Bai Fen and also to Bai Jun who was still in the prison.

Someone asked if people like them actually existed, and another person replied, 'There are so many they are worse than, and also many people that are worse than them.'

Some people made comments like...

'Even after Jia Li gave birth, Bai Fen and her daughter were still planning to enter the Fu family.'

'Not just that, even after FangSu and her mother gave up, the other two refused to submit. Greed is a curse.'

'It seems like I really have to be careful about the kind of company I keep.'

'I'd rather be alone than have people like Bai Fen and Bai Jun as my friends.'

'Hopefully, this will make that Fen woman not to show her face ever again.'

'Obviously, she was the genesis of everything but she had the guts to call people out, what a shameless woman.'

'comparing these evil doers, who do you think is worse. Bai Fen and Bai Jun or Feng Alix?'

To that last statement, a few people replied...

'There is no need to vote about this because no one is better.'

'It will be a waste of our time comparing their homelessness.'

Bai Fen who has been seeking attention finally got her retribution. She was paid in advance for that month and sacked. Her brother told her not to dial his number, come to his house again or try to contact him.

'... I can see you have the confidence to take care of yourself now, so there is no need for me to be in your life anymore.'

Did Bai Fen regret her actions? I think that is left for her to decide.

Getting unexpected results after she made and released that video will take a good time for her to get over it.

Soon, Jia Li and Fu Hua celebrated their first wedding anniversary in the year. There was nothing that special about that day, apart from the fact that Fu Hua took to have dinner after work and with them doing a little throwback on their wedding day, on their social media accounts and pages.

Many fans wished them a happy anniversary and for them to stay stronger together no matter the harsh situation happening.

Alix who has been going about posting almost on daily basis paused during the time Fu Hee was being dragged and when Bai Fen and Bai Jun were dragged because she knew she wouldn't be able to get much attention to herself.

Her son was now better looking and she sent some of his pictures and videos to her husband, so he could see how well she was taking care of their son.

Mr. Suarez had expressed his happiness and had sent her money for their upkeep, before asking her when she planned to come back. And to that question, Alix didn't give any reply to it, instead, she asked, 'Will your family give me peace and a sense of assurance if I come back now, do you 100% guarantee it?'

Mr. Suarez couldn't understand her anymore. But he still asked her to come back within a month before ending the conversation with her.

After the drama between Alix and her husband and the one going on the internet, Alix decided to start her plans. Now, she has known that she didn't have much time in China again, for now, so she needed to hurry up with whatever she planned to do.

Jia Li has been the one in her way, so she started making plans to bring her down. She couldn't go through Fu Hua because he was no different from a shield. The members of the Fu family loved and cared for Jia Li, so it wouldn't be possible to use any of them.

Since none of these were possible, she asked her lawyer to investigate Jia Li from her childhood up till her current point.

'Find out everything about her, especially, information that I can use against her. I don't care who you will hire and how much money is required, all I am interested in is the result. Go to her hometown, her high school... I shouldn't be teaching you how to investigate someone.'

Alix had said to her lawyer cum boyfriend, Carlos.

Jia Li has long been a thorn in her flesh and also to her, the person that snatched Fu Hua from her, so it was time to tarnish her reputation and get rid of her.

Chapter 568 - A Trap Not A Blessing

‘Do you feel happy using people?’ Carlos asked after Alix informed him of his next task. He seemed to be unhappy that she has reduced him to an errand boy.

Alix smiled and touched his jaw. ‘You are the only one who I trust to help me. We will go back soon but before that, I want to do the groundwork and if possible, floor it as well.’

‘Investigating that woman might trigger the Fu family, are you sure about this?’ Carlos asked with a frown.

With the way Jia Li was being loved by the Fu family, he was thinking that’s the same way they protected her privacy.

Alix moved her fingers away from his jaw and went back to sit on the couch before saying to him, ‘You are a lawyer, you should know how to do things quietly and smoothly.’

With her indirectly questioning his profession, he didn’t know what to say to her.

‘You have a big reward waiting for you if you manage to find out something interesting.’ Alix added with a profound smile.

She was obviously giving him a heads up that he wasn’t going to work for her for free and that there was a big reward attached to it, in order to encourage him to work harder.

‘You really know how to entice people. I will get to work now.’ Carlos said before walking away.

One thing Alix understood from Jia Li and Fu Hua’s relationship was that Fu Hua loved Jia Li with his heart. Imagine punishing his mother and sister greatly because they bullied his wife ?

That love wasn’t an everyday affair. And because of that, Alix was set to break them apart even if she might not end up getting to be with Fu Hua.

A month later, Alix was forced to return to the Suarez family if she was still interested in the 1% shares.

The will was long ready and would be read out soon, and her presence was needed to sign the agreement that belongs to her. Mr. Suarez had told her that if she doesn’t come back within a period, then she has to forget about those company shares.

How could Alix forget those shares when it was the very reason she had a child in the first place. A child she didn’t breastfeed or give her milk to.

How many times did Alix hold her child ? Actually, the number of times wasn’t important but the reason behind it.

She only holds her child when she wants to take close ‘intimate pictures’ or when the caregiver is busy with something else and the child is crying a lot, then she would have no choice but to lift him while calling for the caregiver to come immediately.

When Alix arrived at the Suarez house, she was welcomed personally by her old husband and a few members of the family.

Glancing at Alix whose figure had returned to its original shape and her skin was glowing, Mr. Suarez's daughter said to her, 'How did you manage to have time to take care of yourself when you just had a child?'

She was indirectly saying that Alix only had time to care for herself and not her child since she could look this good only after 3 months plus she gave birth.

'Don't be jealous of my body, as this is the advantage of being younger,' Alix said with a big smile on her face.

She knew those words were going to infuriate her but she said it anyway, to get back at her.

That night, there was a feast to welcome the new child back to the family. The grandchildren of Mr. Suarez were disgusted by the disorder in their family.

Alix was their step-grandmother, and now that she had a son, he would be their Step uncle, what a horror story in manifestation.

Carlos didn't go back with Alix. He spent a few more days in China before coming back, and two weeks later, he read out Mr. Suarez's will.

Although nobody was happy with the 1% shares given to Alix, they couldn't say much because she had a child, and Mr. Suarez wouldn't want to leave his flesh and blood, out of it.

Alix smiled when she got the copy of the agreement after putting down her signature. Right now, she had full rights to the shares as she was now a part of the shareholders. But when her child turns 18, she would automatically lose the right to the shares, as he would take over.

Later, when Alix had time, she read through the agreement she just signed and discovered that there was no loophole for her to make use of.

She couldn't sell the shares to an outsider as that was an inheritance. She was a minor shareholder and wasn't allowed to attend the meeting, except the general one.

This was a trap not a blessing. 'So much for all the trouble, I passed through?' Alix cursed.

A few days later Alix left the house, leaving her child to his nanny who was immediately employed when she returned.

Alix left to meet Carlos to inquire about the investigation she put him in.

'Did you find out any important information?' Alix asked.

'Don't send me to do this kind of work for you again. I'm not from China and it was really hard for me to find her hometown and also ask questions.' Carlos grumbled.

It took him a lot of time and effort to find a piece of valuable information.

'Okay. So what did you find?' Alix asked with an impatient gaze.

Carlos went on to bring out the file he brought with him and passed it to her. Alix thought some important document was in there so she went on to open it but to her disappointment, there were only two pictures of some unfamiliar people.

'What is the meaning of this?' She asked in an annoyed tone.

‘The older woman there is Miss Qin’s Aunty, Qin Mu Keer. She is her father’s sister. The other two are her children.’ Carlos explained.

Alix put the pictures down on the table and glared at him. ‘What do you want me to do with that information?’

Chapter 569 - Meeting Mu Keer

‘Miss Qin is not on good terms with her Aunt but I couldn’t find out the reason. But anyway, you can use her Aunt to cause trouble for her.’

Carlos stated.

Finally, Alix smiled. ‘This sounds like a brilliant idea. Did you find out where this woman lives?’

‘Yes I did and that place is terrible. I think being on bad terms with her niece must have put her in that situation.’ Carlos deducted.

‘So, this means that Jia Li abandoned her Aunt after getting into the Fu family. This is good news and will make a perfect headline. I would like to speak directly with this woman.’ Alix said with a triumphant smile.

She wanted to meet Mu Keer one on one to find out more secrets that could be bad for Jia Li’s image and then she came to make good use of it.

Carlos took the picture from her and put it back inside his bag while saying, ‘You will need to find an excuse to travel back to China.’

‘It’s time to open a business in China.’ Alix said with a meaningful smile.

She was going to operate and run her own business in China. She was not allowed to work in any of the Suarez companies and opening hers in another place, will surely not be a big deal.

When Alix brought it up with Mr. Suarez, he had said the distance was far.

‘It’s better than staying idle when I’m not allowed to work in any of your company and at least, your family won’t see me as a gold digger. I have to set up something for myself.’ Alix had replied.

‘I have enough resources to take care of you, why bother stressing yourself and your child is still young, are you willing to leave him and work tirelessly?’ Mr. Suarez.

‘I’m working to secure a future for the two of us. If something happens to you, your family will bully us. It’s not a bad idea to make hay while the sun shines, to prepare for the rainy days.’ Alix said to him. She was not willing to back down.

Mr. Suarez was annoyed when she mentioned about something happening to him but that was the truth. He knew his family will not take it easy on her if anything happens to him.

Now that he has agreed to let her start something for herself, he began to talk with her about changing the location but she refused.

‘In my country, your family will have the least power to attack me and I feel safe there. My mother can help me out.’ Alix replied.

Mr. Suarez glanced at her and asked, ‘Is your mother willing to take you back?’

When Alix was forced to leave China after Fu Hua dealt with her, she had not seen or contacted her mother. And Mr. Suarez knowing that she had a dispute with her mother for a few years now, was surprised when she mentioned her.

‘I haven’t spoken with her but no mother will abandon her child when her child comes to her for help.’ Alix said.

Alix mentioned her mother just for the sake of getting what she wanted and she finally succeeded.

Mr. Suarez gave her some funds that will be enough to start the foundation of her business. As for the rest of the money, she had to sort it out herself.

That was not a big deal for Alix because she had money now. Her husband’s will made it possible for all of them to inherit his shares and properties even when he was still alive.

Having gotten the permission and the funds to start her business, Alix hired an expert to draw up a business plan for her. She wanted to run a cosmetics line.

There were so many professionals to help Alix set up her business in China. Actually, if she just wanted to rest and watch the people she paid to do the job, she would have done it, but she didn’t want to. Hence, she started making trips to China to buy a building and start the renovation. Choose a place to start production and manufacturing.

Knowing about her bad reputation, she was worried her business would fail, so she hid her plans from social media.

While working on her business, she accomplished one of the reasons she went back to China. She made Carlos arrange a meeting with Mu Keer.

Carlos met Mu Keer and told her if she did a job for his Boss, she will be paid a huge sum of money. Sure, Mu Keer followed him to see his Boss.

When money was mentioned, count her in. Feeding was a struggle these days.

Alix had taken the trouble to come down to a place close to Jia Li's hometown to see Mu Keer. She waited in a restaurant she reserved for 3 hours.

She had huge sunglasses covering her face, and a nose mask, so her face wouldn't be seen to avoid mishaps.

The only thing Alix required from Mu Keer was for her to expose all Jia Li's shortcomings and secrets to the media and also sign an agreement not to mention her or Carlos as the people that put her to it.

'When you sign the agreement, the money will be yours. That will be a reward of % 15,000 for your hard work.' Alix said to the greedy-looking Mu Keer.

% 15,000 was a huge sum of money to Mu Keer, so why wouldn't she sign the agreement and listen to Alix's bidding?

Mu Keer signed the agreement immediately but Alix opened the envelope brought only % 1,000 and passed it to her.

Mu Keer was shocked and thought that she has been scammed but before she could ask questions, Carlos said to her...

'Mrs. your balance of % 14,000 will be given to you immediately after you reach our agreement. The % 1,000 should be enough for you and your children to feed and for you to pay some of your bills before we get back to you.'

Carlos also advised her to get a phone, so they can contact her when they are ready and she did that.

Before leaving the restaurant, Alix asked the owner to give Mu Keer food enough for three people to eat throughout the day.

Mu Keer was so happy that she thanked Alix profusely till she left her sight.

Chapter 570 - Mike

In July, Jia Li and Jasmine simply celebrated their birthday. They chose the same orphanage they went to last year, to celebrate with them.

The theme for Jasmine's 3rd birthday party was Rainbow celebration Pink and a Bubble Party.

The Rainbow

For the Bubble party, there were non-toxic bubble makers for everyone and there was also an arrangement for giant bubbles.

Jasmine who was beginning to open up to a lot of people as a result of her attending kindergarten and interacting with her classmates, had a lot of fun with the other children.

Jia Li made the little girl play with the children of her age there. Later into the party, Fu Hua arrived at the Orphanage and joined them.

Back home at the Fu Mansion, Jasmine celebrated with the rest of the family and opened all the gifts that were given to her.

Jasmine spent her weekend in her house, and with the dogs. Ocean and the others were still very protective of Jasmine and they would always circle her whenever she came out to play with them.

A week later, some arrived at City B's airport. He was a young handsome gentleman and when he spoke, you would know that he had lived outside for a long time.

From the Airport, a car came to pick him up and drove him straight to a familiar prison. When he got into the place, he showed his ID and said to them, 'I want to meet Ms. Bai Jun, tell her that her classmate Mike from Uni is here to see her.'

This person named Mike was here to see Bai Jun...

After confirming his identity, they ushered him to a small room, before going to bring Bai Jun.

When Bai Jun heard who came to see her, she was surprised and immediately followed the wardens out, to confirm if it was true.

On seeing Mike, while standing a few distances away from him, she called out to him in surprise.

A few minutes later... Bai Jun was already sitting opposite Mike.

'Why did you come down to China?' Bai Jun asked with interest. The pretty daughter of the Bai family has been reduced to something else. Her skin was rough and thankfully, it looks like she recently had a bath but the stench from the prison didn't smell good.

Mike took out a small bottle of oil perfume from his pocket and passed it to her while saying, 'I came to see SuSu.'

Immediately he said that a deep brown appeared on Bai Jun's face and the perfume she was about to use on her body, was left unattended after she opened it.

'If it's Fu FangSu you came to see, why did you come to meet me?' Bai Jun asked. She hated FangSu and the hatred ran deep in her venue that at the mention of her name, she would be irritated and angry.

Mike chuckled and said to her after seeing her angry gaze, 'I need your help to meet her. You know after what happened to us, she would never agree to meet me if I contact her directly.'

'And what makes you think I will help you to meet my enemy?' Bai Jun asked.

'I know you hate her but don't you think it will be better if she ends up with me than her current boyfriend?' Mike asked tasting the waters at the same time.

Bai Jun laughed angrily before replying, 'It will be good if she doesn't end up with anyone and remains single all her life.'

After saying that, she went on to use the perfume on herself. And when she felt better with her scent, she covered the bottle and put it inside her clothes.

'You know that we can't always have things our way and in that kind of situation, we have to improvise. I am the bad guy and that guy SuSu is dating is the good one, so which one will you pick for her as an enemy?' Mike asked.

'Are you trying to make use of my brain?' Bai Jun asked. She hated it when she is being used.

Mike sighed and explained further. 'I am not using you, I am only making you see the bigger picture.'

'Since I am forced to choose between you and Junjie, then I would prefer Fu FangSu to end up with you and be caught doing drugs together.' Bai Jun said.

Mike has been caught doing drugs before but because he came from a wealthy political family he was able to escape and that was the same reason FangSu broke up with him.

While the two of them dated for a year, FangSu was unaware of his other side until the news spread amongst their college friends and she broke up with him.

Now, Mike was back and set to make FangSu his again.

'It's good that you are seeing the picture now.' Mike said with a triumphant smile.

'Don't rejoice so soon, I can't let you have a smooth journey.' Bai Jun said to her. This was an opportunity to make some profit, so of course, she would make sure to take advantage of it.

Mike knew she was a smart person and was going to ask for something, so he asked her to go ahead. 'Ask me for anything and as long as I can get it done, I will do it.'

'Good.' Bai Jun seemed very satisfied with his reply.

'My 2 years sentence will be up in less than 2 weeks and as you can see, I don't have anything. I need a house, a 2-weeks thorough spa treatment and a lot of money for me and for our journey to getting Fu FangSu and making her yours once again. Do you agree to the deal?' Bai Jun asked.

Mike stretched out his hands for a handshake while saying, 'Deal' Bai Jun shook his hand but he ended up ruining her mood.

'Are you a bricklayer or something, your palms are so rough!'

Bai Jun glared at him in response before saying to him, 'Come and pick me up in 10 days.'
