

TIMELESS LOVE

CHAPTER 15 THESE SACRIFICES WERE NOTHING

Hathaway crept home, but she saw Paul Taylor sitting on the sofa in the living room. When Hathaway thought of the present time, she couldn't help but exclaim, "Dad, why haven't you slept?"

At this time, Hathaway was wearing a dinner dress and also wrapped by Leon Davis's suit. Her dress was badly deformed because of the sex with Leon before, which made her look a little disheveled. A wise man would know what happened at a glance.

Paul looked at her carefully and immediately shed tears, "I am sorry, Hathaway..."

Hathaway quickly came over and squatted down in front of Paul. She held Paul's trembling hand and comforted him softly, "Dad, don't say that. I am a member of the Taylor Family, and I should contribute to our family."

Paul's lips were trembling, but he couldn't say anything. He just looked at her sadly and kept crying.

Paul Taylor, who was nearly sixty years old, cried like a child in the presence of Hathaway, which made her eyes red. "You, Kenny and Ashley have given me a happy and free life for 24 years. Since you are in trouble, I should naturally take on all this."

Kenny Taylor, the elder brother of Hathaway, was eight years older than her. He had been trained as the successor of the Taylor Family since he was a child. He was required to do well in many aspects, so he almost had no childhood at all.

Although her sister Ashley was a girl and didn't need to take over the company, she was told at an early age that she couldn't decide the marriage affairs by herself because her marriage would be used to maintain the interests of the family.

Therefore, Ashley also followed the standard rules of respectable families when growing up, and she had to appear gentle and decent.

Hathaway was the youngest one, and she didn't need to take over the company or to maintain the family business by marriage, so she lived very freely. Paul used to say that she could do whatever she wanted and then marry someone she love

Because she liked painting, she could learn painting without scruple and be sent abroad to continue her study.

Ashley obviously liked acting and was good at dancing and singing, but she had to study management and economics. Hathaway still remembered when Ashley gave up her favorite art school, she hid in her room and cried all day.

Therefore, how could Hathaway, who had been pampered and raised like this, choose to escape when the Taylor Family encountered difficulties? The sacrifices she was making were nothing.

She also always remembered what Paul said when he asked her to return.

"Hathaway, I don't want to get you entangled, but I can't forget what your grandfather said to me on his deathbed."

"Your grandfather said that your second uncle was too cruel and treacherous, so the company must not be handed over to him, otherwise, the Taylor Group would be completely finished."

"Although your cousin Andrew is capable and his quality seems to be Okay at present, he is the son of your second uncle after all. I am worried that he will be deeply influenced by your second uncle and will choose to take a bad road in the future. So, the Taylor Group can only be handed over to you."

After spending some effort, Hathaway calmed Paul down and then helped him back to his room to rest. She then went upstairs to her room full of tiredness.

She put warm water in the bathtub and was then soaked in it.

The pain and discomfort from her thighs made her suddenly remember the sex between her and Leon tonight. She raised her lips and smiled wryly.

Who said that such a thing was joyful? Who said that sex was addictive? She felt that after what happened tonight, she had only a psychological shadow over it.

Leon had better not let her become sexual apathy, otherwise, she would hang on him for the rest of her life.

If she couldn't feel the pleasure of sex all her life, then she would let him take responsibility for it.
