

TIMELESS LOVE

CHAPTER 19 SHE WAS JUST A SISTER OF MY FRIEND

With this, Leon Davis hung up. After the desk was tidied up, Hathaway hurriedly turned on the computer, started to prepare and also informed Barry to go all out.

If Leon really intended to make a clear line with her like this, then this project was her only life-saving straw. She couldn't make any mistakes, otherwise, she would never have a chance to come back.

In the afternoon, Hathaway only took Barry to the Davis Group. It was really unimaginable for her and Barry, both beginners, to participate in such a big project, but she could only trust Barry.

At p

Hathaway, "Boss, I can tell you very clearly that I like women."

Barry's earnest appearance made Hathaway giggle. She turned her eyes and showed a beautiful smile.

At the entrance of the smoking room, a tall man passed by with his assistant. If he hadn't heard the nonsense she just said that he was not a man and that Barry White fell in love with him, Leon Davis would really think she was quite charming.

However, when he thought about what she said, he really thought that she needed a spanking.

Besides, she even smoked. Why did a girl want to smoke?
