

TIMELESS LOVE

CHAPTER 21 SHE NEEDED TO TAKE THE INITIATIVE TO ADMIT HER FAUL

Nick ignored her abrupt eyes and said, "Your sister just woke up, and her body is still very weak. You should not bother her too long."

With this, he led the medical staff out of the ward, leaving space for them.

In the quiet ward, Hathaway looked at Ashley in the hospital bed with her red eyes, but she didn't know what to say. The sisters just held hands tightly.

Although Ashley was in a coma for more than a month, Hathaway hired a careful nurse to take care of her from the beginning and never gave her up.

Therefore, Ashley's appearance was very neat and clean

e time being, and probably it's just because this meeting is in a public place."

What he said sentenced her to death again, which made her speechless for a long time.

Hathaway's mood was complicated, and she went to Nick's office after hanging up with Barry. At this time, There were no others in his office. Hathaway asked directly, "Tell me about the specific residence of Leon Davis."

She must not sit still, waiting for death. She should take the initiative to admit her mistakes and seek forgiveness from Leon Davis. She was going to fight for another chance.
