

The Love That Never Really Dies Chapter 830

He flipped the table all of a sudden.

Bang!

The next moment, his subordinate dropped down on one knee on the other side of the curtain.

The man in the house said, "It took me so long to come this far, yet Magnus destroyed everything!"

"It's my fault. I'm willing to receive any punishment!"

The next moment, blood spilled all over the curtain, and two fingers fell off and jittered on the floor.

Surprisingly, the subordinate maintained his posture by kneeling on one knee.

Seconds later, the whole place reeked of fresh blood.

The man inside the house seemed to have calmed down a little as he said, "Has Jonathan found the kids?"

"Yes."

"You're all garbage! You can't even get rid of a nobody after so many months! Why should I keep you all around?"

The man furiously flung a dart as soon as he finished.

Ding!

The dart hit Jonathan's photo at the center of the wall.

If one were to observe the room closely, a family tree with photos, which depicted the relationships between all Jadesons in detail, was put on all four walls, including Jonathan, Jared, and all branch families.

The family tree reflected that the Jadesons were powerful, so much so that the head of state would be astounded by it.

However, the family tree became smaller as one continued reading it from top to bottom, as though the Jadesons had been slowly eliminated by unknown enemies.

"Sir, what would you like me to do? Do you want the kids dead? Rest assured that I'll bring their heads to you at all costs once you instruct me to do it."

Since the room fell silent for a while, the subordinate, who kneeled on the other side of the curtain, proposed it to redeem himself.

However, the man inside the basement sneered, "Jonathan picked them up by himself. Do you think you're capable of taking their heads?"

He paused for a while and scolded, "Stop making trouble! Now that the killer is dead, Jonathan knows that danger is near. So, don't do anything at this moment to avoid unnecessary trouble."

With that, the subordinate dared not utter a word.

As if a thought flashed through his mind, the man in the room asked, "No. 3 used to report to me about Jasmine's niece. Is the news true?"

"Yes. She was the one who leaked the news to Jonathan."

"In that case, we should start from her. Fan the flames between the Jadesons' current successor and Jonathan's grandson, who showed up all of a sudden. When the Jadesons are in turmoil, we stand to benefit from it," He said viciously while pointing at Devin and Sebastian's photo that he had just put up.

This is indeed a wicked ploy!

Although Devin might not be bothered, his parents will never allow someone to replace their son as the Jadesons' successor.

As such, the family will never be peaceful once the confrontation occurs.

After Devin returned to Oceanic Estate, he was informed that Jonathan had brought the twins home.

He left Jadeborough for three days to investigate Calvin and only came home now.

Upon hearing the news, Devin was shocked. "Did you say Sebastian allowed you to bring them here? Did he not know where the kids were? Why did he suddenly ask you to pick them up?"

Jasmine snickered and added, "This proves that he had always been lying and wasn't suffering multiple personality disorder at all. I tell you what, everything that he does now is to ensure that he can gain a foothold in the Jadesons."

"That's right, Devin. You have to be on the alert for his tricks. After all, I can't even read his mind now."

Surprisingly, Stephen chose to stand by Jasmine's side now.

Devin couldn't help but frown upon hearing it.

"Dad, what are you saying? I mean, he only brought the kids home. What kind of tricks can he play? He knows he had three kids after what happened to Calvin. So, isn't it logical for him to bring them back to Oceanic Estate?"

Jasmine was furious as Devin still supported Sebastian.

“Are you silly? How will you stay as the Jadesons’ successor after he brings the three kids home? In case you forgot, Sebastian is the son of the late Shin. Now that Sebastian has three kids, how can you compete with him?”

“That’s right, Devin. I’m sorry that I didn’t tell you this before—When I served some tea to Granduncle Jonathan, I happened to overhear his conversation with the butler. He said he had to train Ian to become a qualified successor.” At that time, even Kira chimed in.
