

《The Mysterious CEO》

129 'sLan, I lied to you. I didn't adopt Little Champ from any orphanage. He is Mo Jiang's son.'s

Si Li and Lu Lan went to the rooftop of the hospital. They were standing near the railing and looking towards the sky.

Si Li was struggling inwardly how to tell to her. He didn't know, from where to start and how to convince her that it was not his choice while choosing this path.

Both were standing there, without saying anything.

After a while, Lu Lan broke the silence "Why didn't you tell me about my identity when you already knew about it?"

Numerous thoughts were running in her mind.

'When did he found her identity?'

'Why didn't he tell her before?'

'Wasn't he ashamed of her, as Lu Yaohua was?'

"If you know a thing about me and you also know that thing will hurt me, will you still tell me about that thing?" Si Li calmly asked back.

Hearing his reply, tears formed in her eyes and walked towards him and hugged him tightly and said in a raspy voice "I was very scared that you will leave me."

She couldn't convey in words, how much she missed him in these two days and how many negative thoughts were coming in her minds during these two days.

Si Li hugged her back and asked in a tender voice "Why were you scared? Don't you trust on my love?"

Lu Lan didn't know, how to reply. She had trust on his love, but she didn't have trust on her fate. Whenever she thought that now nothing would bad happened then in the next moment, fate decided against it...

After the death of her parents, Lu Lan struggled alone to fulfil her dream. After marrying to Si Li, she thought that now she had someone to rely on and however, now her past came in front of her.

Therefore, she was scared that what if Si Li wouldn't accept her as his wife, then what would she do without him and Little Champ?...

How would she live her life, then?...

After a while, Lu Lan calmed down and released from his embrace.

Si Li wiped her tears and softly said "Don't ever think about that I will leave you. I will never leave you, whatever happens. Understand?"

Lu Lan nodded and smiled slightly. She was very lucky to have such a person in her life.

Afterwards, Si Li took a deep breath and called her out "Lan..."

Lu Lan looked up towards his eyes. Fear and helplessness could be seen on his eyes

"Don't you want to ask me about anything?" Si Li asked.

Lu Lan was stunned for a moment. Initially, she was curious to know more about Si Li, but she didn't ask him nor force him to tell her. As she believed that he would tell her on its own.

However, now she felt that she couldn't wait anymore because now Little Champ was also involved.

"Lan, I lied to you. I didn't adopt Little Champ from any orphanage. He is Mo Jiang's son" Si Li continued.

"Mo Jiang?" Lu Lan asked.

"He is the elder son of Mo Family and elder brother of Mo Jinnan. He is my best friend. Since our childhood, we both were together."

"Where is he, now?" Lu Lan cautiously asked.

If Little Champ was Mo Jiang's son, then what was he going in Si Family?...

And where was Mo Jiang?...

Why didn't she hear anything about him?...

Si Li sarcastically smiled on himself and said: "He is fighting against the death."

'He is fighting against the death'...

What did it mean?...

Si Li turned towards the railing of the rooftop and again looking at the sky and said: "Do you remember, a few days before you went with Yan to Juan's villa?"

Juan's villa...

Lu Lan remembered that she asked many questions about the owner of the villa, but Si Yan didn't reply to any of her questions. He simply said 'I don't know anything about them. You can ask from Bro. He will tell you.'

As Si Yan was unwilling to say anything, so she didn't force him.

Lu Lan nodded "Hmmm..."

"You must have seen the persons in the photo frame which was hanging on the wall. The man in the photo is Mo Jiang and the woman in the photo is Liu Juan."

When Si Li said the name of 'Liu Juan'. Her voice was echoed in his ears 'Ohh..by the way, how is my husband? Is he alive or...Hahaha...'

His grip tightened on the railing and immediately cold light flashed in his eyes and dangerous aura emitted from his body as if he wanted to kill her, right at this moment.

Even, Lu Lan was trembled after seeing the sudden changes in him.

After a while, Si Li calmed himself down and continued further "Three years back, on Little Champ's birthday. There was a party in Juan's Villa. It was Little Champ's second birthday. Little Champ was a treasure for Mo Jiang. At that day, Mo Jiang took a day off because he went to make arrangement for the party. So, Mo Jinnan went to attend all the meetings on behalf of Mo Jiang. Even I went to City B for some work. We knew that it was Little Champ's birthday party, so all the members of the Mo Family and Si Family were very excited. They wanted to finish their work early and wanted to go to Juan's villa to help Mo Jiang and Liu Juan for the party. Even, I came back from City B because of Little Champ's birthday."

Si Li remembered, that day Mo Jiang called him more than ten times, only to tell him to come back to City Z to attend Little Champ's party. 'Si Li, it's Little Champ's birthday. You have to come back for your nephew's birthday party. What will Little Champ think about you, if you won't come? If you won't back before this afternoon, I will make sure to avenge for my son. I...I will make Little Champ to kidnap your son in the future so that you won't be able to celebrate your son's birthday ever in your life. Little Champ...Did you hear you have to kidnap Uncle Li' son, in the future? Now, did you hear, I have already told my son? You better think about the consequence, if you won't come.'

Mo Jiang's nagging didn't stop, so helpless Si Li came back. However, Si Li reached City Z in the evening instead of the afternoon.

Si Li still had regretted that if he had come back to City Z earlier, then he would have saved Mo Jiang...
