Then, she got off from the bed and went to the Little Champ. Seeing his small cheeky face, Lu Lan heart melted and she laid down beside him and hugged him and went to the dream world.

Even, Little Champ subconsciously hugged her back, when he felt the fragrance of his mommy nearby him.

Si Li returned home, it was already 1 am. As soon as, he entered in the villa, he switched on his phone, there were few missed calls of Lu Lan and a message of her 'HATE YOU'.

He knew that she must be angry. It was a special moment for them and he was not with her.

He immediately went towards their room and then he saw that his clothes were thrown on the floor. He went inside the room and switched on the lights and he saw that it was empty.

'Where could she go?' Si Li thought to himself.

Aside from their room, there was only Little Champ's room where she could go. He immediately to Little Champ's room.

As expected, Lu Lan was soundly sleeping beside Little Champ, Si Li went to pick her, so that he could take her in their room. However, before he picked her in his arm, a sound startled him.

"You are not allowed to take her away from here."

At that time, Little Champ opened his sleepy eyes.

"She is my wife, I have a full right to take her with me." Si Li immediately protested as if he was determined not to lose this time.

"NO! You upset her. Now, I will protect my mommy and my little sister."

Hearing the word of 'my little sister', a warm smile appeared on Si Li's face.

At that moment, Lu Lan opened her eyes as she didn't sleep yet. She instantly looked at Little Champ.

This child!

Didn't they agree, that they wouldn't tell Si Li anything about the good news?

"Mommy, did I wake you up?" Seeing Lu Lan's opened eyes Little Champ immediately asked in a low voice, as he felt guilty for waking his mommy up.

Lu Lan shook her head.

Then, Little Champ whispered in a low voice in her ears, so that Si Li couldn't hear his voice "I didn't tell him anything about my little sister because I promised you."

Although, Si Li heard the conversation between mother and son and let a laugh.

Even, Lu Lan didn't know whether she should cry or laugh.

This naive child!

Hearing Si Li's laughter, both mother and son pair shot Si Li an angry look.

"Hmmm, your little sister? How do you know that it would be your sister and not little brother?" Si Li amusedly asked.

"Because I want a little sister, right mommy?" Little Champ spouted in a tender voice.

"Yes, now come on and let's sleep," Lu Lan said and adjusted the blanket around Little Champ and her while ignoring Si Li.

"Yes, Let's sleep," Si Li said and laid down beside Lu Lan.

"Go away from here."
