

《The Mysterious CEO》

173 Beg to save his life!

There was dead silence in the spacious room. Today's weather was warm and sunny as the sun was spreading its bright light on the earth. However, its warmth was not able to reduce the chilling environment in the study room.

A man wearing a black coat was sitting on the chair behind the table. His stern face and sharp eyes could spread a shiver in anyone's spine. His aura had turned murderous. He seemed to be angry...No!!! VERY ANGRY!!!

The position in which he was sitting, was very coveted. Everyone wanted to snatch it away from him. Of course, he had to secure his position and to secure his position, he needed people who could be trusted like a loyal dog. If anyone from his men betrayed him, he became very angry. To subside his anger, he would kill the betrayer without a second thought.

Bo Xiao knew this very well. In fact, he knew that today was his last day.

However, Bo Xiao did not seem to be affected by it. His face was calm like a deep ocean. He was ready to accept all the consequences for what he had done.

When he let Liu Ruolan to be Liu Juan, he had already prepared himself for a deathwish.

However, he didn't know that the girl, whom he was thought as a threat to his position, was the one who made their boss not only to think twice but also agreed to let Bo Xiao go this time.

After a long silence, a stern voice echoed in the study room.

"Do you have anything to say?"

Bo Xiao looked up and gazed into his boss's sharp eyes as if he heard something wrong.

Was his boss asking for an explanation?

Since when his boss changed his style?

Bo Xiao knew that something was wrong. His boss never asked for the explanation and never gave the second chance to anyone, then what was going on now?

Whatever it is!

Bo Xiao decided to tell the truth and reveal his intention because he knew that if he lied now, he would not be able to look at himself in his eye and he would become a coward in his own eyes.

"She seemed to be a threat to my position, that's why I decided to eliminate her from this world before you got to know anything."

His boss felt enraged when he heard Bo Xiao's explanation. This indirectly implicated that, if in future Bo Xiao, felt his boss was a threat, then he would do the same thing with him as well.

Well, it was nothing new to see. Everyone wanted power, position, status. His boss had done the same thing to get the position in which he is today. Anyone would do the same thing, so there was nothing wrong with it, right?!

Soon, an evil smile came on the face of the man.

Bo Xiao felt uneasy when he saw the smile on his boss's face. He knew that this smile had some dangerous meaning behind it.

"Well, what will you do when I tell you that she begs me to save your life?"

The man knew that the thing which Bo Xiao detested the most was to beg anyone. Bo Xiao would kill himself rather than beg to anyone.

Moreover, now the girl whom he thought as a threat and to whom he had decided to kill before his boss could find out about her, had begged to save his life!

Why?
