

《The Mysterious CEO》

184 'For a good work, it's never too late.'

The first man came towards Liu Juan and when he saw the traffic sign turn green, he pushed Liu Juan towards the cars.

His intention was as clear as broad daylight. He wanted to create an accident scene and blame the car owner so he could claim hefty money as compensation.

Liu Juan already had an accident and she had survived that accident. Naturally, she would survive this accident as well.

Besides, even if Liu Juan would hurt more than it would be much better for them as they would claim more money from the car owner. Moreover, he wouldn't have to come here every other day to keep an eye on Liu just for a few hundred yuans.

This was a brilliant idea!!!

Why didn't he have this idea before???

Forget it! As the saying goes "For a good work, it's never too late."

Nevertheless, he would know soon whether it was a brilliant idea or not!!!

...

"Ahhh...."

"Swash..."

The first man immediately came in front of the car and started shouting and bawling loudly while taking Liu Juan in his arms, whose head was hurt and blood was flowing out.

"OH MY GOD... Liu Juan...my daughter...what happened to you??? Wake up...wake up..." The first man had crocodile tears in his eyes and cried his guts out like Liu Juan was his biological daughter.

Sure enough, every bystander felt that he was her biological father and felt pity for father-daughter pair. They shot disdain looks towards the car.

"Look at these rich people. They feel people who walk on the road are ants whom they can crush when they feel."

"Yes, they never take us like a human being."

"You just wait. I will call the police now and teach them a lesson." One of the bystanders felt very angry on seeing the pitiful cries of the first man. It seemed that he didn't have any good impression of rich people.

Soon, the crowd gathered around the car.

"Hey, come out... can't you see because of your reckless driving you have hit someone... come out and look at what you have done." One of the bystanders shouted exasperatedly at the chauffeur.

Inside the car, the chauffeur cautiously reported to his boss "Boss, it seemed that somebody is trying to make things difficult for us."

The chauffeur was sure that he was driving his car very carefully so there was no chance of having an accident because of his recklessness. There could be only one reason behind this accident and it was that the other party had voluntarily jumped in front of his car to get hefty compensation.

Shameless people!!!

The boss was sitting on the back seat reading a file with full of concentration. Unfortunately, certain someone didn't want to live anymore. Disturbing their boss's concentration meant asking for earlier death.

Even the chauffeur was very cautious while uttering a word to his boss as he was afraid of his boss's wrath.

Sure enough, his boss was angry!!!

The man brows frowned and he sternly said "Go deal with them. You have 2 minutes."

"Yes." The chauffeur didn't waste a second and immediately opened the door to deal with these money-grubbing people.

"Liu Juan..."

The moment when the chauffeur opened the door, the first man's crying voice brushed against the boss's ears.

'Liu Juan.'

Did he hear the right name???

It was possible for a person having a similar name but was it possible to have a similar last name as well?

It seemed that the person, he was looking for, came towards him instead.

Good!!!

Very Good!!!

"Wait..."

The chauffeur looked confusing towards their boss. He wanted to ask this boss why did he stop him? However, his boss didn't like being questioned.

Therefore, the chauffeur seated back and wait for his boss's next order.

"I will deal with them."

The chauffeur was stunned for a minute. Since when did his boss start to deal with troublesome people? He didn't understand his boss's intention. In fact, he didn't dare to understand. His boss hated smart people, so it was better to follow his orders.

The chauffeur immediately went to the other side of the car and opened the door for his boss.

When the crowd saw that the boss was finally making an appearance, they were ready to lash out at him.

However, when the crowd saw the man and his dangerous aura, they shut their mouths and retreated their steps back.

Even the first man stopped his fake crying. A few minutes before, he was crying like hell and now he shut his mouth like an obedient child.

What a turnover!!!

The man disregarded all the stares darted towards them as his full attention was on Liu Juan. He wanted to make sure that the person, he was looking for, was really her or not.

Liu Juan's face was covered with blood. The first man, who was pretending to her father, didn't even bother to send Liu Juan to the hospital first.

It was clear that he was least bothered about her. His main focus was on the money. If Liu Juan would die from this accident, he would claim more money.

The worse the situation, the higher the money he would claim!!!

It was as simple as that.

In fact, he had planned to take the hefty compensation money alone and run away from this city. His partners always sent him to keep an eye on Liu Juan. Moreover, when they violate her every night, he got his chance only in the end. So why should he share money with them despite all the suffering?

This situation was an opportunity sent by God. He should not waste it.

However, seeing such a formidable man in front of him, the first man was feeling scared and didn't understand how to continue his act.

Did he make a mistake by pushing Liu Juan???
