

《The Mysterious CEO》

193 Pity!

"Boss...Boss...you have finally woken up...thank God... You don't know how scared I was when we received your message. We rushed to the villa as soon as we received your message, but because of the damn weather, we couldn't take off your plane right away. When we were about to land, we saw the dense smoke in the skies...You don't know I felt at that time... I already decided to kill myself as well at that time... but then I thought to confirm your death first before, killing myself... luckily... we found you in the forest with a girl... afterward, we hijacked this hospital... you don't know about this, but this hospital has bad hygiene, as well as, the nurses and doctors aren't that good..." Xin Chao continued talking with no intention to stop anytime soon.

Whereas the doctor felt happy that the man had finally woken up but when he heard the words of the man 'This doctor makes sense, don't kill him now.'

The doctor felt that his heart sank!

What did he mean 'don't kill him now'?

Were they really going to kill all of them?

They had saved their lives, should they pity hospital staff and let them leave, huh?

"There were times... I feel that I needed to kill all these useless people... but you haven't woken up yet and our doctors have been killed as well...so...I thought to let them live for some more time...." Xin Chao's chatting was still continued.

"Okay enough! Do as you feel. Let's leave this place as soon as possible. This place isn't safe for us. That girl... where is she now?" The man interrupted Xin Chao in between as he wasn't interested in Xin Chao's chatting.

"That girl... Boss, you don't know how arrogant she is! First, I thought to leave her there, in the forest. But all of a sudden, she woke up at that time and told us that she had saved you. Moreover, she also threatened us that if we don't take her with us as well, you would punish us. Although I don't want to believe her, you know I don't want to take risks...so, I decided to bring her here with us. This useless doctor has treated her... but her right leg...well excess blood was lost...so this useless doctor has to cut her right leg to avoid poison spreading to her body. Afterward, she woke up so I told her about her leg, but instead of worrying about herself...she asked for you and didn't speak a word. I tried to talk to her... but she arrogantly sealed her mouth and didn't speak. Boss, was it true... that she saved you...but how could she save you?... when her leg was injured so badly...I don't believe her... should we kill her with these useless hospital staff, huh?" Xin Chao again started speaking nonstop.

When the doctor heard Xin Chao, he didn't know what to say. Other people's lives were not valuable in the eyes of Xin Chao. Whether they had saved them or not. If the doctor had known that they would kill all the hospital staff, then he wouldn't have saved this man and even that girl because she was going to be killed by these heartless people anyways as what Xin Chao mentioned.

"Bring her here!"

Although Xin Chao was a talkative person and seemed to be brainless sometimes, he was an intelligent person amongst all the men (Including Bo Xiao) and the most loyal person to his boss. So being an intelligent person, he knew that his boss wouldn't like to be questioned.

So without saying anything further, he went to get Liu Juan.

Inside the other room...

Liu Juan was sitting on the bed while staring outside the window. It had now been one month since she came here and she didn't leave this room even once as no one even bothered to take her out of here as well. She had become crippled now without her right leg so she couldn't walk properly in this lifetime.

At this young age, she had suffered so much that she wasn't yearning to live further. Moreover, now she had become disabled that meant she would become dependent on her big sister. Now, a miserable feeling overwhelmed her that she didn't wish to live after she found her big sister and made sure that her big sister would have a good life.

So, she decided to wait for the man to wake up. She asked every day about the man and the answer was still the same 'No. he hasn't woken up yet!'

Liu Juan was blankly staring outside with no thoughts in her mind as she didn't have anything to wish for and hadn't any expectations from life now.

'Click!'

She turned to look towards the door and found Xin Chao came with a nurse inside with a wheelchair.

"Boss has woken up and wants to meet you. Let's go."

Hearing this, a flash of hope was reflected in her eyes, which wasn't missed from Xin Chao.

Xin Chao's dictionary didn't have the word 'Pity'. Even if he somehow understood the situation that this girl had really saved his boss as he had seen that most of his boss's bones had been broken to the point that it was impossible for him to walk, let alone to run five kilometers in ten minutes, moreover, now his boss had asked to meet this girl that meant his understanding made sense and it turned out to be a real situation. So this girl had lost her leg while saving his boss, but still, he didn't feel pity for her.

As there was no place for pity in their world.

So what she had saved his boss?

Moreover, he knew that this girl wanted something from his boss that was why she asked the situation of his boss every day. So there was no need to pity her.

She would get the reward anyway, right?

Maybe Not!

The nurse helped Liu Juan to sit on the wheelchair and thereafter, Xin Chao and Liu Juan went to meet the man!

#####