

《The Mysterious CEO》

204 Answer!

This time, Liu Juan didn't wake up earlier than expected. Liu Ruolan felt tired of waiting so she left for her room leaving Bo Xiao alone. Whereas, the man got the details about Liu Juan and found that she went back to sleep, so he didn't bother to go and look for her. Moreover, he heard from the butler that Bo Xiao was still waiting outside the ICU and then the man knew that he would be able to get exciting news which increased the interesting things as they were going to happen soon.

So he ordered the butler to ban Liu Ruolan's entry into the hospital. In fact, he told the butler to lock her in her room as he didn't want any disturbance in his entertainment.

Bo Xiao stayed outside the ICU room and did his work there. The butler was personally taking care of all of the needs of Bo Xiao based on the order of his boss to which he wouldn't want to offend in case he would lose his life, like the in-charge nurse who was missing from her duty.

Like the doctor said, Liu Juan did wake up after twenty-four hours. This time, she woke up normally unlike in her earlier shocking way and as soon as she opened her eyes, her sight caught the shadow of a silhouette. She turned her head and found that Bo Xiao was standing near to the window.

She didn't know how long he had been here. Why was he here? What did he want from her that he couldn't wait for her to get better? There must be something as this was the second time he looked at her anxiously and was immediately by her side as she had awoken.

Liu Juan cleared her throat to let him know that she had woken up and sure enough, he sprinted towards her in a moment when he saw that she had opened her eyes.

"W-What...do you...want?" Liu Juan said in a weak and hoarse voice.

"How are you feeling now?" Bo Xiao asked back instead of answering her.

"Fine!"

Bo Xiao nodded in an understanding and saw that Liu Juan was still squinting at him and he understood why she was looking at him like this. He might as well get straight to the point then since she was already on guard.

"Why?.... Why did you save me again?" Bo Xiao asked the question which he wanted to ask desperately.

Both Liu Juan and Bo Xiao knew why Bo Xiao had used the word 'again'. The first time was the one when she begged her boss to let off Bo Xiao and Liu Ruolan's life and now again she saved him in the mission by taking the bullet.

"To repay you back!" Liu Juan said.

Bo Xiao frowned his brows as he knew that he didn't do anything which made her owe to him, then what was she talking about repaying?

"I didn't do anything for you and so what are you talking about repaying?" Bo Xiao asked.

"You saved my big sister and gave her a beautiful life that's why I begged our boss."

"And during the mission?"

"To get your help!"

Bo Xiao raised his brows as he was finally going to hear what she wanted in return to save his life. He knew there was a reason behind all of this. He patiently waited for her to continue.

"I want to leave this life and want to go away from this place with my big sister. I am not interested in fighting with you for the position. Help me to get out of here and you can take the position of the next boss." Liu Juan felt despised for being here. She wanted to go far...far away from here where nobody would know about her. From the time, Liu Juan had agreed with the man to work for him, she also started planning to run away and this time safely.

While planning she understood that she couldn't get away from here without somebody's help and that somebody should be a powerful person like Xin Chao or Bo Xiao.

Xin Chao was out of the question because of his loyalty towards the man. So the other option was left, Bo Xiao....

However, Liu Juan knew that he wouldn't help her without getting anything in return and moreover, he had planned to kill her before. So he was a risky option, but he was the only option left for her. So she took the risk of her life and luckily she was now saved.

Although her body had gotten many internal and external damages let alone having her right leg removed, she knew that she would get healed. Moreover, she knew one more important thing and that was if she would be put in a dangerous situation like this where death was standing so close to her then she knew that she wouldn't be able to make it out and neither would her big sister because her boss would definitely kill her big sister.

Bo Xiao laughed out at her mockingly when he heard her "You want to run away with your big sister, huh? Let me tell you an important piece of news or you could say bad news for you which also astonished me, how could you not know that your big sister wants to kill you as well?"

"I know about that already... I have known for a long time."

"Still?" Bo Xiao looked at Liu Juan as if he was looking at the stupidest person alive as she clearly knew that Lou Ruolan wanted to kill her and in return, Liu Juan decided to run away with her big sister for their safety.

"It's none of your business. Whether I still want my sister to be safe or not. You just tell me whether you will help me or not?" Liu Juan didn't bother to explain her feelings to him. That was her sister... even after everything... she knew it was her fault anyways that she turned out this way.
