213 Sort out feelings Part-1

Bo Xiao was badly injured so he was immediately sent to the hospital. Even Liu Juan was injured a little bit and her injury got worse when she executed her plan to kill both of the brothers.

It was Liu Juan who was the person who sabotaged the panel boards of electricity and completed her task in a matter of four minutes. She switched off the lights and ran to those brothers' room swiftly and shot them by entering into their room by the window which was very small, but Liu Juan still entered in the room through it and then she ran back to the electric room to switch on the lights.

In this process, she got a new injury and her old injury reopened. Still, she felt that it was worth it as long as she got her freedom. That was all that mattered to her right now. Her and her sister's freedom from this life of killing.

Seeing her injuries and her weak health, the doctor suggested that she stay in the hospital until she would recover fully. So she had to resign herself to the hospital ward once again.

As soon as Liu Ruolan heard about Bo Xiao, she immediately ran towards his ward and stayed there until the doctors treated him. She refused to budge while he was being treated to make sure he was out of danger.

A small operation was required to be made on him and after that, he was out of danger. But still, he was unconscious till the next morning. Meanwhile, nobody could do anything, so even the men who were loyal towards Bo Xiao left for their respective rooms and called for a day off.

However, there was one girl who was still staying there and didn't move even for an inch and had no intention to move and go back to her room unless and until she had satisfied herself that Bo Xiao was okay. And that would only happen when Bo Xiao would wake up. Therefore, that would be the next morning, still, Liu Ruolan didn't care and sat outside the intensive care unit (ICU).

Whereas, Liu Juan was in her room and she was expecting that Liu Ruolan would come and meet her. Unfortunately, Liu Ruolan didn't come, which had brought much disappointment to Liu Juan.

Nevertheless, Liu Juan didn't break down because she knew that once she cleared all of the misunderstandings between her and her big sister. Liu Ruolan would start to dote on her like she used to do in their childhood.

Dismally, this was not going to happen again ever!

The next day, Liu Juan got to know that Liu Ruolan was sitting outside Bo Xiao's room all night and retired for her room only after Bo Xiao woke up. In that instant, Liu Juan felt envious of Bo Xiao. He was getting the attention for which she was yearning.

A few days had passed. Liu Juan was recovering in her room and expecting every other minute that Liu Ruolan would come to meet her.

Well, what Liu Juan had expected never turned into reality.

Although Liu Juan was disappointed, it didn't discourage her and she chose to recover as soon as possible to execute the final plan towards freedom.

After one week, Liu Juan got discharged and the first thing she did, she went to look for Bo Xiao as she felt that it was time to execute the final plan.

'Knock... Knock...'

"Come in!" Bo Xiao's voice came from inside and Liu Juan pushed the door and went inside his ward.

"Liu Juan!" Bo Xiao's sparkling eyes lit up seeing her here. He wanted to go and look for her to see how she was doing, but then he didn't take the chance because of Liu Ruolan's constant pestering.

Bo Xiao barely got the chance to stay in peace because Liu Ruolan's nagging didn't stop or even if she stopped, she started explaining her plan, how to remove Liu Juan. As soon as Liu Ruolan was saying anything of her plan, Bo Xiao got irritated so much that he lashed out at her many times.

Nevertheless, Liu Ruolan was being like a thick person, she never stopped. In the end, Bo Xiao made the butler ban Liu Ruolan from entry into the territory of this hospital.

Meanwhile, Bo Xiao reflected on his emotions, he came to an understanding that he started to feel something special about Liu Juan which he had never felt for any other girls. There were many girls trying to come to his bed even Liu Ruolan was included in that list, but no one had caught his attention and only Liu Juan had caught his attention towards her, there was not a single passing day when he didn't think about her in the past ten to fifteen days.

Since he had sorted out his thoughts, now he wanted Liu Juan to stay here. That was another reason he didn't go to look for her because he knew that she would come to the topic to execute their final plan which he didn't want to do now.

"I hope you are okay now! I am here to discuss our final plan!" Liu Juan didn't beat around the bush and as per her personality, she came straight to the point.

Instantly, his sparkling eyes turned dull seeing indifferent attitude. It hurt him more now that when he knew how he felt for her.

However, he was wondering whether Liu Juan really didn't think about him like he did for her.

After all, he was the master of this estate and would be more powerful in the near future. Who did want to be next to a powerful person?

Nevertheless, Bo Xiao had made up his mind that if she didn't feel for him then he would make her feel for him.

Therefore, he rejected to execute their final plan "Sorry, Juan. I am afraid I can't discuss the plan with you!"
