Chapter 256 - The Real Truth (Part-3)

Markus?

Hearing his name, Liu Juan's face turned gloomy. He had won again and she was defeated, yet again.

Thinking about this fact, Liu Juan didn't know what to do. Should she leave everything and die as she had thought of or should she fight against Markus again?

She was confused and furthermore, Mo Jiang wasn't there to guide her. Liu Juan didn't realize but now she had been thinking about Mo Jiang all the time.

What was happening to her?

"I don't know. Where is Mo Jiang? I want to meet him." Liu Juan asked anticipantly.

"That shouldn't be your concern. Mu Che, send this lady to her sister." Si Li didn't ask anything further and stood up to leave but she didn't let him go.

"What do you mean that shouldn't be any of my concern? Mo Jiang is my partner. I want to meet him now!" Liu Juan squeaked.

But Si Li didn't bother with her and scooted off.

"Come back. You can't leave without a word." Liu Juan continued to scream. In fact, she had tried to get up from her bed despite knowing that her right artificial leg had been removed. Nevertheless, she could drag on the ground and she did exactly that.

However, Mu Che signed to the bodyguards and they dragged Liu Juan back.

"Leave me...Let me go..." Liu Juan's fighting skills were good so she kicked them but her energy level was down so her kicks didn't put much effect on the bodyguards' bulky bodies.

After a few days, Liu Juan was sent to a prison where her big sister, Liu Ruolan and

Bo Xiao had been kept since their plan had failed.

It wasn't that Liu Juan had been very cooperative towards Si Li's bodyguards in the past few days. She had tried to run away many times despite the fact that they hadn't attached her leg back to her body and perhaps that was the reason she didn't succeed a single time.

But she needed to see Mo Jiang and made sure that he was alright and alive. She was also from the Underworld and knew that partners could be turned into enemies at any time. Thus, she didn't trust Si Li's words. She needed to go and find Mo Jiang herself.

She knew that Mo Jiang wouldn't leave her behind like this.

Why?

Even though she didn't have an answer for it, she just knew.

But all her efforts to run away failed and the security around her room increased.

The rusted steel door of the jail opened and Liu Juan was shoved into the jail. Since she didn't have her right leg, she had received a pair of crutches to support herself.

When she was pushed inside the jail, she almost fell and even Liu Ruolan didn't bother to help her. Liu Ruolan just stood up to welcome her little sister to hell.

The guard locked her up and left. Liu Juan turned to look at her big sister whom she hadn't seen ever since Mo Jiang had locked her up after that hotel incident.

"Big sister..." Liu Juan had just opened her mouth to talk and she instantly received a kick on her stomach and she fell down.

'Thud!'

Liu Ruolan kicked her. "You bit*h! I knew it. You never want me to have a happy life."

"Big Sister..." Liu Juan coughed in pain and blood flowed out of her mouth but Liu Ruolan didn't care for it. She just wanted to lash out her anger which she had been holding inside her.

She couldn't believe that she had ended up here in the prison, all because of this bitch!

Now she wouldn't leave her!

Liu Ruolan held Liu Juan's hair and yanked her backward. She raised her other hand and started slapping her face.

'Slap'

"I can't believe that I have a sister like you witch! You have turned my life into hell. I will kill you!"

'Slap'

Another slap landed on Liu Juan's face. In fact, Liu Ruolan didn't have any intention to stop any time soon until she got a ferocious kick.

'Thud!'

A kick made Liu Ruolan land far away from Liu Juan. She g.r.o.a.n.e.d in pain and in that moment, she couldn't understand what had happened.

The kick was so powerful that even Liu Ruolan's wisdom teeth came out of her mouth.

It was the first time that Liu Juan did something against Liu Ruolan's abusive behavior.

"Hey, what are you doing? Behave yourself, otherwise..." At that moment, the guards came there hearing the commotion.

It wasn't their home where they could do anything. It was a prison world where the people only came and got out once they were dead. Since they had to live here for the rest of their life, they should behave otherwise, these guards would teach them to do that.

And that was what exactly the guards did with the two sisters.

Once the guards left, Liu Ruolan wailed until her tears dried out. After the incident with Mr. Jin in her childhood, no one had raised their hand on her but now...

While on the other hand, Liu Juan's old wound had reopened and immense pain arose in her body but her lips didn't let escape a single sound.

...

Now the things were very clear. Liu Juan didn't want to defeat Markus anymore as the person, for whom she had been fighting, wasn't important to her anymore.

Then what about Mo Jiang?

Liu Juan didn't know where he was neither did Si Li come to meet her again nor anyone.

The energy, the passion, the determination she once possessed, didn't belong to her anymore.

Thus, she had given up on food and everything and was on the edge of the end of her life.

Perhaps, this was life want.
