

When she opened the door and saw Lu Chen standing outside the door, Wang Xue paused. The smile on her face froze and was quickly replaced with hostility.

“Who asked you here?” Wang Xue demanded unpleasantly.

“Yijun did. What’s wrong?” Lu Chen wrinkled his brow. I just helped her pay off her loan sharks, and she’s still being so harsh to me?

There still ought to be a difference even if Wang Xue had always been harsh on him.

Before, he hadn’t succeeded the family estate and the business he had started had gone bankrupt. He had been really poor and unable to help the Lin Family back then, so he had sucked it up when Wang Xue had berated and looked down on him.

Recently, however, he had been giving a hand to the Lin Family every once in a while, yet Wang Xue seemed blind to the contributions he’d made toward the Lin Family. Her attitude irritated him to no end.

“Hmph! It’s good that you’re here. We’ll make it clear today—Yijun has already agreed to divorce you because you were caught fooling around at the bathhouse. Let's discuss it today, and set a time and date to file the divorce. In addition, after the divorce, Qiqi's custody will go to Yijun, and so will half of your assets," Wang Xue burst out before Lu Chen had even taken a seat.

Lu Chen froze, then slowly took a seat opposite Lin Yijun. "Yijun, is this why you've been giving me the silent treatment lately?" he asked.

Seeing that her mother had told him everything, Lin Yijun took a deep breath before she spoke. "That's right. I can't tolerate you fooling around out there; it's a betrayal of our relationship."

"Your mother told you about this, didn't she?" Lu Chen smiled bitterly.

"That's right, and my sister said so too. If my mother had made me suspect you, my sister informing me lit the fuse to our argument, because I believe her," Lin Yijun clenched and unclenched her teeth.

"Then didn't you ask why two women like them would be at a place like Moonlight Bath House?” Lu Chen asked.

Wang Xue and Lin Yijia blanched and shied away from meeting Lin Yijun and Lin Dahai’s gaze.

“Chen, what on earth happened?” Lin Dahai knew that something was amiss when he saw his wife and daughter’s reactions.

He hadn’t believed that Lu Chen was the kind of person who would fool around from the start. And now, he wondered if his wife was behind all the trouble.

“Yijia, you should tell Dad the truth or I’ll take my Ultimate VIP card back,” Lu Chen fixed Lin Yijia with his gaze and threatened.

Lin Yijia raised her head to steal a glance at him, but he didn’t look as if he was joking. Remembering the way Lu Chen had lost his temper yesterday, she quaked, somehow afraid of meeting his gaze.

Their family had been badly off lately, so she hadn’t even received her pocket money.

She didn't dare to leave the house anymore if not for Lu Chen's Ultimate VIP card.

Seeing both her father and elder sister watching her like hawks, Lin Yijia gritted her teeth and decided to sell her mother out.

"It's like this. Didn't Mum borrow a million from that loan shark, Wang Bao? She gambled the money away, and when Wang Bao came to collect the debt, he brought both Mum and I to Moonlight Bath House. Mum couldn't pay him back, so Wang Bao was going to keep me at Moonlight Bath House. Lu Chen appeared when Wang Bao had just ordered his lackeys to drag me away; Lu Chen paid off the money that Mum owed and rescued me from Wang Bao," Lin Yijia narrated the series of events exactly as they had occurred.

"Mum, how could you borrow from loan sharks like that?! Luckily Lu Chen was there, or you would have ruined Yijia's life!" Lin Yijia glared at Wang Xue with reproach in her eyes. She had heard about Wang Xue taking high-interest loans, but she had thought that Wang Xue had obtained the loans from online platforms, apps, and the like. She could never have imagined that it was from loan sharks like that.

“Y-you wasteful b*tch! Will you only be satisfied when you’ve run our home and family down to the ground?!” Lin Dahai roared, absolutely furious. If Lin Yijia hadn’t told the story, he would most likely have been kept in the dark forever.

Wang Xue knew that she was wrong and didn’t argue with Lin Yijun and Lin Dahai. Instead, she looked toward Lu Chen and questioned him. “I just want to know—back then, what were you doing in Moonlight Bath House?”

Lu Chen ignored her and looked straight at Lin Yijun. “Yijun, if I told you that I followed them when I saw Wang Bao’s lackeys grabbing and stuffing them into the car, would you believe me?”

Lin Yijun was full of doubt. She wanted to believe Lu Chen, but it was too much of a coincidence.

“Honestly, if you want the truth, the easiest way to get it is to obtain the tapes of the monitors from the Transportation Bureau. With your current contacts, it shouldn’t be difficult,” Lu Chen suggested, but he didn’t explain any further.

Lin Yijun’s lack of trust in him had upset him in the first place. If him telling her all that still didn’t make her believe him, then he didn’t feel like explaining anymore.

“How could there be such a coincidence? You were fooling around in Moonlight Bath House and came out when you just happened to see us,” Wang Xue declared haughtily. “Lu Chen, I’ll be honest with you. I’ve already found someone more suitable for Yijun. If you really want what’s best for her, then let her go and live life the way she likes.”

“Live life the way she likes?” Lu Chen smiled coldly, then looked toward Lin Yijun. “Yijun, what kind of life do you want?”

Lin Yijun still didn’t answer. She was in turmoil, not knowing whether to believe her mother or Lu Chen.

Reason told her that Lu Chen hadn’t lied, but another voice buzzed around in her head, accusing Lu Chen of deceiving her.

“To tell you the truth, I’ve found a wealthy businessman for Yijun. His company is worth a few hundred million and he doesn’t mind that Yijun already has a child. You only hit the jackpot once. You’re just an upstart and there’s no way you can compare with him. What’s more, you’ve probably spent most of the 100 million from the prize money already,” Wang Xue ranted on.

Lu Chen just smiled frostily. Richer than him? I really do want to know who in Chongqing dares to compare his wealth to mine!

“Mum, stop talking nonsense. When did I ever say that I would divorce Lu Chen? I believe him,” Lin Yijun clenched her teeth and declared when she saw that her mother was getting more and more out of hand.

Even if some doubt still lingered in her heart, saying that she believed Lu Chen was still better than letting her mother spew bullsh*t like that.

Besides, even if Lu Chen had really deceived her, she wasn’t mentally prepared to divorce him.

Wang Xue opened her mouth to retort, but at that moment, they heard another knock on the door.

Wang Xue's eyes lit up and she went forward to open the door again.

She wasn't disappointed this time.

When she pulled open the door, she saw a middle-aged man politely standing outside the door.

"Aunt Wang, good morning. I'm not late, am I?" The middle-aged man looked to be around the same age as Wang Xue, but there was nothing forced or affected about the way he called Wang Xue 'Aunt'.

"No, no you aren't. President Ding, come on in." Wang Xue put on a small smile and invited the middle-aged man into the living room.

Lu Chen and the others all turned to look at their middle-aged guest.

Chapter 194 Wang Xue Advises Lin Yijun To Get A Divorce

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

“Yijun, this is President Ding. Aren’t you going to get up and pour him some tea?” Wang Xue requested as she welcomed the middle-aged man into the living room.

The middle-aged man’s name was Ding Hua and he was the proprietor of a construction company. Over the last two years, he’d met a benefactor who had helped him to get a few projects and make some money so that he was considered a prominent man within Chongqing.

“No need, no need. I’m not thirsty.” Ding Hua’s eyes lit up upon his first glance at Lin Yijun, though he had already been astounded by her beauty when Wang Xue had previously shown him Lin Yijun’s photos.

He hadn’t thought that Lin Yijun would still be such a natural beauty despite having been married and had a child; her skin had been cared for so well that it was soft and supple like a 17-year-old’s.

Lin Yijun looked Ding Hua up and down and found it difficult to even force out a greeting.

Never mind that Ding Hua was so old, she wouldn't have anything to do with him even if he was still a young man unless she and Lu Chen were divorced.

"Yijun, don't you know your manners?" Wang Xue grumbled before turning to smile placatingly at Ding Hua. "President Ding, please excuse her behavior. My daughter can be shy, so why don't the two of you have a chat first?"

Wang Xue turned and threw a dirty look at Lu Chen while she made Ding Hua comfortable, wondering when he'd realize he wasn't welcome and leave.

Wang Xue behaving as if he wasn't there made Lu Chen furious. If not for Lin Yijun's sake, he would have lost his temper.

"President Ding, right? I hear that you're interested in my wife?" Lu Chen's face hardened as he looked at Ding Hua ambivalently.

"You are?" Ding Hua asked as he looked back at Lu Chen and frowned.

"Who I am doesn't matter. All you need to know is that Lin Yijun is my wife," Lu Chen stated mildly.

"I see," Ding Hua acknowledged as disdain shone in his eyes.

Lu Chen is Lin Yijun's husband, yet Wang Xue still wants to introduce me to Lin Yijun. I would be a real fool if I can't tell that Lu Chen is trash—trash that even his wife and mother-in-law look down on.

What right does a man like him have to marry a beauty like Lin Yijun?

"President Ding, just ignore him. My daughter will divorce him immediately," Wang Xue revealed.

"Mum, I'll leave if you keep talking nonsense. When did I ever say that I would divorce Lu Chen?" Lin Yijun seethed.

Even if I divorce Lu Chen, I still won't agree to a relationship with Ding Hua. Besides, Lu Chen is sitting right next to me; Mum acting so meanly shows her complete disregard for him.

Mum may not know Lu Chen's identity, but I do. He's the proprietor of Yi Qi Technology. When the Zhang Family rubbed him the wrong way, he had the Zhang Family Tower razed down to the ground. I also hear that he had Blue Water Bay blasted into rubble.

It's obvious that Lu Chen is a ruthless man, yet Mum still insults him like this. Even I don't know what Lu Chen will do when he finally loses his temper.

"Mum, can you just stop? Lu Chen is still here yet you're introducing other men to Yijun right in front of him. Just how poorly do you think of him?" Even Lin Yijia noticed the anger simmering in Lu Chen's eyes.

After last night's events, she too had found out about Lu Chen almost destroying the entire Zhang Family.

No matter whether she admitted it or not, last night had completely revised her opinion of Lu Chen.

Even she couldn't really express that emotion.

But she knew that she was no longer prejudiced against Lu Chen.

"Lu Chen? He's not fit to be your brother-in-law. He can't hope to compare with President Ding," Wang Xue hissed.

“Aunt Wang is too kind. Everyone wants different things in life, and fortune smiles on all of us in different ways. Perhaps Mr. Lu’s time to shine just hasn’t come yet. Oh yes, Lu Chen, have you found a job yet? Do you want me to give you one? My company is short of a security guard; you look fit and sturdy, like you were born to be one,” Ding Hua taunted, watching Lu Chen.

Mirth gleamed in Lin Yijun’s eyes when she heard the taunt Ding Hua threw at Lu Chen. You want the proprietor of Yi Qi Technology to be a security guard at your company?! Even the White House in America may not be worthy enough for that, she jeered inside.

“President Ding, you have a sharp eye! It so happens that he was a security guard previously,” Wang Xue exclaimed in surprise.

“Huh? Are you serious? Lu Chen really used to be a security guard? Lu Chen, I’m being serious here. Come work for me as a security guard. I’ll give you double the usual pay,” Ding Hua uttered with a straight face.

“Oh, is that so? Then tell me, what is your company's name?" Lu Chen asked with a mocking smile.

"My company is called Jialing Properties. If you accept, you can report to work tomorrow itself," Ding Hua chuckled.

"Jialing Properties, is it? Very good." Lu Chen smiled and a ferocious gleam flashed through his eyes.

He then took out his phone and dialed a number. "I want you to bankrupt Jialing Properties within ten minutes. Yes, and check if the owner is someone called Ding Hua."

With that, Lu Chen hung up. Wang Xue and Ding Hua couldn't hold their laughter upon hearing his telephone conversation. Only Lin Yijun narrowed her eyes. She held a hint of pity for Ding Hua.

Ding Hua's company was only worth 2 or 3 hundred million; it was an entity as puny as an ant in Lu Chen's eyes. Lu Chen bankrupting Ding Hua's company really was just a matter of minutes.

"Lu Chen, oh Lu Chen. You think too much of yourself. Who do you think you are, that you can bankrupt President Ding's company within ten minutes? Do you really have to make such a fool of yourself?" Wang Xue couldn't stop the jeers from dropping.

"Hmph!" Ding Hua couldn't hold from snorting in laughter as he studied Lu Chen. "Brat, are you still in dreamland? You can bankrupt my company within ten minutes? You? Let me see, do you think that you're a good fighter because you were a security guard, or that because you know a bunch of good fighters, you can ask them to smash up my company?"

"Hah! We'll see what happens in ten minutes," Lu Chen declared with a small smile.

"Hmph! What a poser!" Ding Hua snorted loudly. Lu Chen's attitude irked him although he was sure that Lu Chen couldn't bankrupt his company.

He was the proprietor of Jialing Properties, a prominent figure in the high society of Chongqing, whereas Lu Chen was just a mere guard. How dare he put on airs in front of him?!

“Brat, I don’t know what gives you the courage to shoot your mouth off in front of me, but I’ll give you a choice. Either you kneel down and apologize to me, or I’ll make you a cripple; choose.”

Ding Hua snorted then added, “I’ll give you ten minutes as well to think hard about it.”

Having said that, he pulled out and lit a cigarette, then lay back to enjoy it on the sofa.

In that instant, it was as if he was at home and not in another’s abode.

Lu Chen smiled coolly, also lighting a cigarette and lounging back on the sofa to pass the time.

The last shred of doubt in Ding Hua’s mind vanished when he saw that Lu Chen was only smoking an ordinary cigarette.

The ten minutes passed quickly and came up when they had each finished two cigarettes.

“So, brat. Do you want to kneel and apologize right now, or make me call someone to break your legs?” Ding Hua asked as he spun his phone in his hand.

Suddenly, his phone rang. When he took the call, his face turned ashen before jumping up from the sofa and staring at Lu Chen.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

“Ding, you’ve rubbed someone important the wrong way. Don’t drag me down with you. Our partnership is over!”

The caller was extremely important to Ding Hua because it was his company’s largest business partner. If this business partner pulled out of all their deals, there was no way they’d be able to proceed with most of their projects properly.

Ding Hua stared fixedly at Lu Chen. Could this brat’s call really have caused it?

He couldn’t believe it. How could a good-for-nothing whom even his wife and mother-in-law looked down on be capable of such a thing?

Just then, his phone rang for the second time. Ding Hua looked at the caller ID and unease welled within his chest. Can it be...

“Ding Hua, are you mad?! You offended the wrong man! Are you trying to bring me down with you? Consider this my official notice to you—all of our deals are off!” the caller bellowed before slamming the phone with a loud bang.

Again saying that I offended someone I shouldn't have?

Who on earth did I offend?

It was almost impossible for Ding Hua to associate Lu Chen with the two phone calls.

No matter how he looked at it, Lu Chen didn't look like someone that important.

"President Ding, it's serious! A few minutes ago, the company's account was hacked. All the money was transferred into some mystery account and someone read through all the confidential documents!"

Just then, Ding Hua's secretary gave him a call that made him lose it just halfway through.

"It's you! Everything is your fault, isn't it?" Ding Hua pointed at Lu Chen and bellowed. The fear in his chest grew stronger and stronger, and the knowing smile on Lu Chen's face terrified him.

Lu Chen pushed away the finger that Ding Hua pointed at him and laughed mockingly. "How is it my fault? I gave you a choice; you were the one who chose to stand against me.”

Wang Xue was shaken to her core. Though she hadn't heard the contents of Ding Hua's telephone conversations, she could more or less be sure that Lu Chen had really bankrupted Ding Hua's company within the last ten minutes.

But how was that possible?

How could Lu Chen bankrupt a large company worth billions at his whim and fancy?

Lin Yijia and Lin Dahai's faces were also frozen in shock.

Lu Chen had barely done anything; he'd only made a call, but the impression he gave them now was that of an ever-victorious general who controlled everything within his grasp.

Only Lin Yijun remained cool and composed, since she'd known that Ding Hua's company was done for from the start.

Ding Hua received call after call, almost each of them accusing him of offending the wrong person, withdrawing from their business deals with him, and telling him not to drag them down with him.

Ding Hua slumped onto the sofa as the terror in his chest grew.

I finally know what kind of existence I've offended.

He's a demon from the depths of hell, destroying me just like that.

He said that he'd bankrupt my company, and he really did; utterly and completely.

Ding Hua didn't even bother to field the phone calls anymore. He was a complete mess inside.

Thunk!

Ding Hua fell to his knees in front of Lu Chen. He was truly afraid, afraid that the next call would be the last one to break his back.

"S-sir, I'm sorry. Please forgive me! It's all your mother-in-law's fault. She told me that you and your wife had already divorced, that she would marry her daughter to me as long as I gave her 2 million. I had nothing to do with it! If I had known that you weren't divorced yet, I would never have come!" Ding Hua wept.

He wept in grief.

To think that a man like me is kneeling and begging for mercy in front of a youngster like this! Even if my company doesn't go bankrupt, I don't think I'll ever be able to show my face in public ever again.

Wang Xue trembled like a leaf, only now realizing how terrible Lu Chen could be.

Is this really the son-in-law that I've been belittling and berating all along?

Is this really my good-for-nothing son-in-law?

Even the president of Jialing Properties is on his knees, begging him for mercy. Is this really the son-in-law that I've always looked down on?

"Get lost. Never bother me again," Lu Chen dispatched him in an acidic voice.

I won't hold back since you dared to make a move on my wife. What do you take me for?!

Ding Hua's face was ashen as he picked himself up and silently left the Lin Family's house.

My company is finished. All my capital was stolen by hackers and all of my business partners have deserted me, so there's no way I can make a comeback.

All I can do now is liquidate the real estate I have for 10 or 20 million and start over.

But all my contacts have forsaken me. Do I really stand a chance of making a comeback?

Ding Hua was nervous and unsure; he was hesitant to even continue to stay in Chongqing.

"L-Lu Chen, you really bankrupted his company?" Lin Yijia asked curiously once Ding Hua left.

If that really was true, then just how powerful was her brother-in-law?

"What do you think? His company is only worth a few hundred million. Isn't it just a matter of minutes if I want it destroyed?" Lu Chen put forward mildly. The confidence in the set of his face made Lin Yijia avert her gaze.

"H-how did you do it?" Lin Dahai asked incredulously.

"Dad, it's simple. My team is stronger, with all the talents you can think of. It's a simple matter for them to investigate Jialing Properties' background. Once they did that, they used the information to contact and threaten his business partners to break off their business deals with Ding Hua, then hacked and cleaned out his company's account. With all that, it would be a miracle if he didn't go bust."

Wang Xue's eyes lit up and she asked, "You mean to say that you just had a hacker transfer all the money in Ding Hua's company away? There must be a few hundred million in there. What happened to it?"

Lu Chen glanced at Wang Xue, wanting to ignore her, but replied when he saw that Lin Dahai and the others were also looking at him questioningly. "Ding Hua's company won't have had much cash in their account. The most important thing for us was his company's confidential documents. The money was inconsequential and was obviously rewarded to my team."

"What a wastrel! Even if his company didn't have much, it must have had at least a billion! And you gave it all to your staff?! Are you so rich that you don't know where to spend it?!" Wang Xue couldn't help blurting out.

"Exactly. I am so rich that I don't know where to spend it," Lu Chen mocked.

Wang Xue was left speechless and unable to meet Lu Chen's gaze.

Having just seen Ding Hua kneel down to Lu Chen with her own eyes, an inexplicable fear of Lu Chen had been struck into her.

She couldn't say why, but in that instant, Lu Chen's gaze made the hair on her head stand on end.

"Lu Chen, when will your supermarket reopen? I want to work in your supermarket, is that okay?" Lin Yijia abruptly cut in.

She had been lounging around at home all this time. It wasn't a long-term option, and she wanted something to do. If she went to Lu Chen's supermarket, there was no way Lu Chen would make her a cashier or the like.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

“In a month or so. You really want to work?” Lu Chen looked intently at Lin Yijia. He knew that she’d graduated but hadn’t gone to work, spending her time following Wang Xue around without achieving anything in life instead. It would be good if he gave her something to do.

“Yes, I do. What position do you think I can have at your supermarket?” Lin Yijia looked at Lu Chen in anticipation.

“How about being a sales assistant? I think the job is quite suitable for you,” Lu Chen suggested earnestly.

Lin Yijia jumped up. “Lu Chen, don’t you think you’re making light of me? I did graduate from Chongqing University after all. You’re asking me, a university graduate, to work as a sales assistant?!”

“You think too highly of your university qualifications.” Lu Chen shook his head. “How about this—I’ll give you the pay and benefits of a manager, but you need to start as a sales assistant. I’ll promote you once you’re able to do the job properly.”

It just so happens that I planned to open another branch. If Lin Yijia proves herself capable, it's entirely possible to make her a branch store manager.

But only on the condition that she works her way up from the bottom.

Being a good manager is only possible if you can fulfill the role of a staff.

If you can't even handle an entry-level job, wouldn't you just mess things up if I made you a manager?

Lin Yijun and Lin Dahai both understood what Lu Chen meant. Lin Yijia was about to say something when Lin Dahai cut her off.

"I think that your brother-in-law is right. You've never worked at a supermarket before and have no clue on their working system. How are you going to manage your staff if you don't work your way up from the bottom?" Lin Dahai counseled.

"Yijia, listen to your brother-in-law and start from the bottom," Lin Yijun also advised.

Lu Chen's largest company was Yi Qi Technology. If her sister performed well in the supermarket, her life would be set once Lu Chen transferred her to Yi Qi Technology.

“How much will you pay me then?” Lin Yijia wasn’t satisfied, but she could only give in since both her sister and her father had agreed with Lu Chen. Now, the pay was what concerned her the most.

“How much do you want?” Lu Chen smiled at Lin Yijia.

“How about a monthly salary of 20,000?” Lin Yijia suggested tentatively. If that didn’t work, she figured that 10,000 was also acceptable.

“Alright, then your monthly pay will be 20,000. I’ll raise it to 50,000 when you get promoted to manager,” Lu Chen promised.

Lin Yijia felt a hint of regret when she saw that Lu Chen had agreed so readily. She would have “Then when should I report to work?” Lin Yijia was penniless now. She wouldn’t leave the house at all if not for the Ultimate VIP card she had that allowed her to go shopping in New Skylight Mall without having to pay a dime.

“When we come back from Qijiang.” Once they returned from Qijiang, he would assign her to handle matters in the new shop with Wu Lei.

“Okay, sure. Then... Lu Chen, may I have a month’s pay in advance? I’m really broke now,” Lin Yijia begged pitifully.

“You can, but this is the first and last time. I’ll ask the finance team to bank in your pay when you report to work,” Lu Chen told her sternly.

He knew that Lin Yijia had been gallivanting around with her spendthrift of a mother and picked up some of her habits which he would later need to help her curb.

She isn’t a rich family’s daughter after all, so why act like one?

“Dad, do you know of Kaitian Rough Stone Group?” Lu Chen put the question to Lin Dahai.

Kaitian Rough Stone Group was the company which he had told Du Fei to establish. In fact, Du Fei had chosen the name and Lu Chen had only been able to smile feebly and agree to the name when he saw how ecstatic Du Fei was upon choosing it.

Whatever it was, he would leave the rough stone business to Du Fei since it would help him to whitewash his past in the underground forces.

Even if he couldn't free him from his associations with the gray area of the law, at least he would be a successful businessman in the eyes of the world instead of just the head honcho of a triad.

"I do know. I've heard that it's a rough stone company that was founded only recently, with a paid-up capital of more than a billion. It became one of the top rough stone companies in Chongqing the moment it was registered," Lin Dahai shared.

"Not just one of the top—from today onward, it will be the only rough stone company in Chongqing. All the jewelers, including the Zuo Family's Yun Fei Jewelry Group, will have to buy their rough stone from Kaitian Rough Stone Group starting from today," Lu Chen chuckled.

"Did they monopolize the rough stone market? Has the Zuo Family agreed to this?" Lin Yijia asked curiously.

"Just three days ago, the Zuo Family might still have had the inclination to make moves against Kaitian Rough Stone Group, but I believe that the Zuo Family will come to buy our rough stones willingly after watching the Zhang Family's downfall."

"Huh, Lu Chen, are you saying that Kaitian Rough Stone Group is also yours?" Lin Yijia's eyes popped out. The company that could dominate even the Zuo Family's jewelry business belongs to my brother-in-law! Just how rich is he and how many companies does he own?!

Wang Xue's eyes widened. She had been astounded when she heard that Lu Chen owned a supermarket. But now she learned that Lu Chen also had a rough stone company! How could she not have known about this?

"Yes, I also founded Kaitian Rough Stone Group, though I seldom manage the matters there. Dad, aren't you interested in antiques and jewelry? Why don't you become a consultant there? The company is based in Biyang Lake at Green Island.

You can go there whenever you want. I'll give you 1 million every month, full benefits and a company car," Lu Chen looked at Lin Dahai and proposed.

Indeed, Lin Dahai loved antiques and studying rough stones. Lu Chen had sent him there firstly because it was a good fit considering Lin Dahai's hobbies and interests, and secondly, it was Lu Chen's arrangement for taking care of Lin Dahai in his old age.

After all, Lin Dahai had no sons, only two daughters. The duty of taking care of him and sending him off would naturally fall to Lu Chen and Lin Yijia's future husband.

Only that, Lu Chen was bringing it forward.

A salary in the millions and a company car?!

The entire Lin Family was dumbstruck by his proposal.

Even Lin Yijun was awe-struck. Lu Chen was basically throwing money at her father!

Lin Yijia, on the other hand, wallowed in deep regret. She had only just realized how stupid she had been to ask for a salary of only 20,000. If she had known that Lu Chen was so generous and obliging, she would have asked for a million as well!

Her lips quivered and the question hung on her lips, yet she couldn't bring herself to be so shameless.

On the other hand, Wang Xue's expression was filled with envy. She looked hopefully at Lu Chen, hoping that Lu Chen would also give her a position as highly paid and effortless as her husband's.

Even though she was still in sales as an assistant sales director, she hadn't had a single sale ever since she got the business deal with Jun Yue Group with Lu Chen's help. Furthermore, she'd gambled away all her savings, leaving her in no mood to hustle for sales.

"My dear son-in-law, why don't you give me a job too?"

Wang Xue steeled herself and looked toward Lu Chen with eyes full of anticipation. She, too, wanted a monthly salary in the millions and an effortless job.

Chapter 197 My Dear Son-In-Law, Give Me A Job Too

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

“Sure. I’ll arrange a job for you when a suitable position appears,” Lu Chen replied, smiling.

Wang Xue has had it out for me all along. Besides, she crossed the line when she introduced another man to my wife today. I couldn’t care less whether she lives or dies anymore, so why would I arrange a position for her?

Wang Xue’s face clouded over, certain that Lu Chen had done it on purpose.

In fact, everyone knew that Lu Chen had done it on purpose.

But no one said a word on Wang Xue’s behalf.

Because they had all seen how Wang Xue had treated Lu Chen; it was no simple feat that Lu Chen had resisted from falling out with her.

After lunch, the family went to Qijiang County to rebuild the grave of Lin Dahai’s father-in-law.

“Wow! Lu Chen, your car is so cool! How much did it cost?” Lin Yijia studied Lu Chen's BMW Steinway with envy when they went downstairs.

"About 3 million, I guess. Someone gave it to me as compensation when they smashed up my last car," Lu Chen explained with a smile. The only reason he said so was to keep Lin Yijun from misunderstanding because she knew that Chen Churan had given it to him.

Lin Yijun glanced at it but didn't say anything. She didn't think that the eldest daughter of the Chen Family had anything to do with Lu Chen either.

The family took two cars, with Lin Dahai and Lin Yijia as well as Qiqi sitting in Lu Chen's car. After all, Lu Chen was a real champion in their eyes right now.

Lin Dahai, in particular, had nothing but good things to say about Lu Chen. Lu Chen wasn't just his wonderful son-in-law, he was as good as his own son! Lin Dahai believed that even a biological son wouldn't treat him as well as Lu Chen did.

"Lu Chen, if I do a good job, will I get an incentive?" Lin Yijia had yet to give up. When she thought of the million as well as the benefits that Lu Chen was giving her dad each month, she felt pangs of regret that she hadn't asked for more.

Lu Chen smiled, knowing what was going through her mind. "If you perform, of course you'll get an incentive. Similarly, you'll get a pay cut if you don't do well. So whether or not you'll get a higher pay or how quickly you'll get promoted to manager depends entirely on your performance."

Lin Yijia was a little unhappy that she hadn't gotten what she wanted, so she just ignored Lu Chen and played with Qiqi.

Meanwhile, in the other car...

"Yijun, Lu Chen isn't good to me or to you. Look at the car he's driving—it costs millions, yet he's still letting you drive a car that only costs tens of thousands! Why don't you call him out on it?" Wang Xue was severely opinionated against Lu Chen and couldn't help criticizing him again.

Lin Yijun was at a loss for words. "Mom, I'm the one who didn't want another car," she explained.

She was telling the truth. There was more than a billion in her bank account, and she could have bought one already if she had wanted one.

“And mom? Lu Chen isn’t as bad as you think, so stop criticizing him. For one, dad never criticizes him. Last time, he helped dad make 40 million and earlier today, he gave him such a cushy job. If you treated Lu Chen better, don’t you think he would arrange a job for you too? Isn’t he good enough to you?” Lin Yijun coaxed.

Honestly, mom’s attitude toward Lu Chen is atrocious. It’s been years since I married him, yet she’s always looked down on him, asking me to divorce him at every chance she gets.

To tell the truth, if I wasn’t still in love with him, mom would have gotten me into trouble.

I don’t believe that Lu Chen was fooling around in the bathhouse anyway.

I shouldn’t have suspected him even if I didn’t see it with my own eyes.

Qijiang was a county of Chongqing City that was only an hour away from Chongqing. However, they got stuck in traffic on their way out of the city and by the time they reached Qijiang, it was past one in the afternoon.

The Wang Family was a normal working-class family without much influence in Qijiang.

Although their house was old, it had two stories and was rather large.

However, the road leading to the Wang Family house was blocked.

“Let’s leave the cars here and walk in,” Lin Dahai suggested.

“Okay.” Lu Chen nodded and parked his car by the roadside.

There were few luxury cars that cost millions in a small county like Qijiang, so Lu Chen’s car quickly drew a crowd.

Lin Yijia parked her car behind Lu Chen’s. Wang Xue and Lin Dahai then led the way. Some among the crowd recognized Wang Xue and were envious when they saw the two cars they’d driven here; others who knew her greeted her warmly.

Wang Xue's vanity was greatly satisfied by the envious gazes around her that there was even a bounce in her step.

"Aunt Xue, Uncle Dahai, it's good to see you guys. Yijun, Yijia, Lu Chen."

Outside the Wang Family home, an adolescent girl around the age of seventeen or eighteen greeted them.

"Qiong, where are you going?" Wang Xue asked.

The adolescent girl was Wang Qiong, Wang Xue's niece from her third younger brother.

"I'm going out to get some stuff," Wang Qiong answered as she bent down to pick Qiqi up. However, Qiqi wouldn't let her because she was shy.

"Aunt Xue, please head in first. I'm going to buy some stuff," Wang Qiong told them again before leaving.

Wang Xue and her family went to the main compound and met Wang Xue's mother.

The old lady was very happy to see Wang Xue and her family.

She was already more than seventy years old and didn't know how long more she could live. The old lady was over the moon to see her daughter—who had married and lived away from home—return with her family.

It was the old lady's first time meeting Qiqi and she held her for a while. Qiqi was a little scared of her at first, but she soon started happily calling the old lady 'great-grand'.

Wang Xue and her daughters stayed at home and helped out while Lin Dahai brought Lu Chen to take a stroll around the hill where all the graves were buried.

The hill was only a few miles away from the Wang Family home and Lin Dahai's two brothers-in-law—Wang Kai and Wang Jin—were hauling stones with several others.

"Uncle Jin, let me." Lu Chen saw Wang Jin having difficulty with a large stone tablet and went forward to take it from him.

The stone tablet was more than 160 pounds. Wang Jin was on the thinner side and found it difficult to move.

When he saw Lu Chen hauling the 160-odd pound stone tablet away like it was nothing, Wang Jin chuckled and exclaimed, "It's good to be young!"

Then he turned toward Lin Dahai. "When did you arrive?"

"We came over right after we reached your house," Lin Dahai said as he chucked a cigarette to Wang Jin.

"Didn't Wang Xue and the others come along?" Wang Jin asked as he caught the cigarette.

"All of us came," Lin Dahai replied as he brought the cigarettes over to the others.

"Kai, have a cigarette first," Lin Dahai offered.

Wang Kai nodded and wiped his sweat away before taking the cigarette and puffing on it.

The others were all the Wang Family's neighbors and acquaintances of Lin Dahai.

They comfortably accepted when Lin Dahai offered them cigarettes.

“Who is this?” they asked Lin Dahai in amazement after witnessing Lu Chen’s strength.

“My son-in-law, Lu Chen,” Lin Dahai beamed and replied.

“Lu Chen, this is your Uncle Jin, your Uncle Kai, and this is Wang Xue’s fifth brother,” Lin Dahai introduced Lu Chen to the other men.

Lu Chen greeted them one by one with a humble attitude.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Lu Chen and Lin Dahai spent the day helping out at the grave mound, only returning by nightfall once they were done with it.

Tomorrow, their family was going to invite a priest to recite some sutras. At the same time, they planned to employ more people so that they could repair the burial mound the day after tomorrow.

The practice of repairing the burial mounds was a folk custom in the Southwest Region.

In the rural areas of the Southwest Region, they would bury their dead in their family's burial mound, unlike in the cities, where the dead were buried in their designated cemeteries.

Thus, after a period of time, the burial mounds would be damaged. As long as the financial conditions of the descendants of that family weren't bad, they would spend some money to repair the burial mounds.

While they were having their dinner at night, they encountered a slight issue. Due to the addition of Wang Xue's family, they could not fit all the guests at one table. Plus, the living room wasn't big enough to accommodate two tables.

"Let's go to a restaurant to have our meals then. Xu Jie and his friends will be arriving soon," said Wang Wan.

Wang Wan was Wang Kai's daughter, and she seemed to be quite hostile toward Lu Chen and the rest of them.

Originally, she wanted to bring her boyfriend back to have a meal with her family. Unexpectedly, many people from Wang Xue's family came today, making her slightly uncomfortable.

"Let's go to the hall downstairs to eat. We can set up two tables there," said Wang Kai.

"Father, Xu Jie's friends are his business partners. All of them are business owners, so how could they have a meal with ordinary folks like them?" asked Wang Wan with a frown.

Regardless of how dense Wang Kai could be, he understood the meaning behind his daughter's words, which meant that her boyfriend did not think too highly of Wang Xue's family.

Of course, Wang Xue was not an idiot either, hence, she was unhappy when she heard Wang Wan's words.

"Wan, Xu Jie must be your boyfriend. What is his occupation?" asked Wang Xue.

"Aunt Xue, Xu Jie started his own business and he is the boss of the company. All his friends are company owners as well," said Wang Wan haughtily.

Wang Xue raised her eyebrows. She never expected Wang Wan to find herself such a competent boyfriend. At that moment, she was lost for words.

"By the way, Aunt Xue, is Lu Chen still working as a security guard?" Wang Wan cast a glance at Lu Chen as a hint of contempt flashed across her eyes.

The last time when they went to Wang Xue's house in Chongqing, Wang Xue was still complaining about the fact that Lu Chen was only working as a security guard and that he had nothing to show for it.

As such, Lu Chen was a useless person if she were to compare him with her boyfriend.

“That’s right. My brother-in-law is still a security guard. He shows no promise at all,” said Lin Yijia as she winked at Lu Chen when she heard the sarcasm in Wang Wan’s voice.

The look of contempt in Wang Wan’s eyes became more intense when she heard Lin Yijia’s words.

Wang Wan’s mother, Xu Fang, continued saying, “Wang Xue, although you guys live in the city, there is no future in being a security guard. Why don’t you ask Lu Chen to stay back in Qijiang? I will ask Xu Jie to arrange a job for him.”

Just when Wang Xue wanted to hit back with her own brand of sarcasm, Lin Yijia replied, “That’s great! I will leave this matter in your hands then, auntie!”

Lu Chen and the rest of them smiled bitterly within, knowing that Lin Yijia was trying to trick Wang Wan and Xu Fang.

Indeed, Lin Yijia could not bear to watch

Wang Wan and Xu Fang's look of contempt anymore.

Before today, she did not know whether Lu Chen was really that capable.

However, after today, she felt that not many people would dare to offend her brother-in-law.

Putting aside the matter of the Zhang Family, just by the incident alone this morning, whereby Lu Chen managed to make Ding Hua fall to his knees and apologize after his company went bankrupt within ten minutes after Lu Chen made a call, was enough for her to determine that Wang Wan's boyfriend's company was nothing in Lu Chen's eyes. Surely, he was less capable compared to Lu Chen.

Thus, she was ready to let her brother-in-law throw some eggs on Wang Wan and Xu Fang's faces.

Lu Chen shook his head as he could not fathom the meaning behind Lin Yijia's words. However, he did not say anything as he could not stand the look of arrogance on both of their faces as well.

“It’s no trouble at all. I only need to put in a word for you,” said Xu Fang as she smiled delightedly when she saw the grateful look on Lin Yijia’s face.

“Come on then. Let’s have our meals at a restaurant. I will ask my brother-in-law to treat us,” said Lin Yijia.

“Forget it. Xu Jie and the rest of them would definitely reject the idea of going to an ordinary restaurant to eat. Leave the reservations to me,” said Wang Wan.

When she heard Wang Wan’s words, Lin Yijia snorted coldly. She was just about to say something when Wang Xue slapped the back of her hands before glaring at her. “Stop your nonsense.”

“Fine then,” Lin Yijia said unwillingly as she pouted.

After Wang Wan made the reservations, she invited Wang Xue and the rest of the group to have their meals together.

Lu Chen said, “You guys go ahead. We will head over to Wang Jin’s place to eat instead.”

Wang Wan and her mother, Xu Fang, were just too snobbish for his liking. Hence, Lu Chen couldn't be bothered to follow them as he felt that it was just too annoying.

When they heard Lu Chen's words, Wang Xue and the rest of them decided to stay behind as well.

After all, Wang Xue still relied on Lu Chen to arrange a retirement job for her. So, she felt obligated to follow his orders.

"What a bunch of city bumpkins," said Wang Wan with disdain as she went outside. Although it was barely more than a whisper, everybody heard it.

Wang Xue, Lin Yijun and Lin Yijia were displeased, whereas Lu Chen and Lin Dahai pretended they did not hear Wang Wan's words.

"Haha! Please don't mind her. Wan has been pursuing her studies in the city since a young age. She has a nasty temper and her words are a bit unpleasant. Please don't lower yourself to her level." Although Xu Fang seemed to be making up some excuses for her daughter, her tone wasn't apologetic at all.

Lu Chen merely chuckled as he tried to lighten up the mood of those who were dissatisfied at the moment.

“Uncle, it shouldn’t be a problem for us to go to your house to have dinner, right?” asked Lu Chen as he looked at Wang Jin.

“Of course not. Let’s go to my house and have our meals then,” said Wang Jin as he ushered Lin Dahai and the rest of the group downstairs. At the same time, he could treat the men who came to help out today for a meal.

“Why did you refuse Wang Wan’s offer to have our meals in a restaurant? Anyway, our family has already given her over 2,000 the moment we arrived here! So, what does her family want now?” asked Wang Xue with displeasure when she arrived downstairs.

Her family rarely came back here. Hence, whenever they came back, they would give a few thousand to her mother, elder brother and younger brother. The money was a symbol of how well she was doing in the city compared to her family members.

In fact, Wang Xue was a very egoistic person. If it weren't for her losses back then, she would definitely give them more money.

"Mom, can't you see that we are not welcomed there? Why do you insist on going there when they keep snubbing you?" asked Lin Yijun.

Although Wang Xue was unhappy, they were still her relatives after all and she did not wish to make things awkward between them.

At the moment, in the private room of the restaurant...

"Xu Jie, my aunt's family came to my house. So, you must make me look good," said Wang Wan as she sat beside Xu Jie.

The reason why Wang Wan wanted to humiliate Wang Xue's family was because the latter had always looked down upon her family in the past. Now that she was in a relationship with a capable man, naturally, she wanted him to help her boost her ego.

"Tell me what I need to do to help you boost your ego? They are merely country bumpkins who live in the city,” said Xu Jie.

He heard that Wang Xue’s family were just ordinary people. Since Wang Wan wanted his help to make her look good, it was an easy task for him as he only needed to flaunt his wealth in front of them.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

While having his meal at Wang Jin's place, Lu Chen received a call and went out to answer it. The person who gave him the call was none other than the top billionaire in Qijiang county—Niu Dashan.

Niu Dashan was initially an unrefined person. In the past, he worked as Lu Zhong's driver before the latter single-handedly groomed him to become the person he was today after noticing that he had a good business acumen.

With Lu Zhong's strong support, he managed to start a real estate business in Qijiang. Especially after Lu Wenli was transferred from Chongqing to Qijiang as a secretary a few years ago, almost half of Qijiang's real estate was built by Niu Dashan's company which later on sealed his position as the top billionaire in Qijiang.

When Niu Dashan knew that Lu Chen had arrived in Qijiang, he gave him a call as he wanted to give him a warm reception.

Lu Chen did not feel comfortable staying in the Wang Family's house, hence he went out to meet Niu Dashan.

At the moment, Wang Wan and the rest of them returned from the restaurant and entered Wang Jin's house. Then, they began chatting with Wang Xue and her family.

"Aunt Xue, this is my boyfriend, Xu Jie," said Wang Wan as she introduced him around.

"Nice to meet you." After Wang Xue knew that Xu Jie was the boss of a company, she greeted him impassively. Even if she was stupid, she understood the reason why Wang Wan personally brought Xu Jie to Wang Jin's house to meet there. Obviously, she wanted to brag to them.

"Nice to meet you, auntie. By the way, I heard that Lu Chen came as well. Where is he now?" asked Xu Jie as he did not see Lu Chen anywhere around the house.

"He has something to do, so he went out," said Lin Yijun as she looked at Xu Jie.

"Oh, you are Yijun right? Wang Wan mentioned you before. By the way, Madam Fang said that you wanted me to arrange a job for Lu Chen, right? I'd like to get to know him so that I could decide which job would be more suitable for him," said Xu Jie as he smiled.

Lin Yijun did not know whether to laugh or cry as she looked at Lin Yijia in an accusing manner. If it weren't for Lin Yijia's antics, they wouldn't end up in this situation now.

"It's alright. Thank you for your kind intentions, but Lu Chen does not need a job," said Lin Yijun.

"Yijun, Lu Chen is only a security guard. There is no future in being one since he would only be able to earn a few thousand per month. It certainly won't be enough to buy a square feet of a house even in a small county like Qijiang. If he is a capable man, Xu Jie would be able to arrange a management level job for him," said Wang Wan as she smiled.

"It's alright. He will not stay behind in Qijiang anyway," said Lin Yijun.

"Yijun, he can earn over 1 million in Xu Jie's company per month, thus he can afford to buy a house in one month's time. I am afraid that even if Lu Chen works as a security guard for his entire life, he won't be able to afford a house at all," said Wang Wan intentionally.

“That’s right, Yijun. Xu Jie has bought a house for us already. It is worth 1 million. It has three rooms and a living room, and it is the best house in Qijiang. Speaking of which, I can bring you all there to have a look now,” said Xu Fang proudly.

“That’s okay. It’s already quite late,” said Lin Yijun as she was put into a difficult position. She obviously knew that her aunt’s family was flaunting their wealth in front of her, but it was difficult for her to refuse her aunt.

“Come on, let’s go. It’s so boring here anyway, I reckon it’d be better if we go out for a walk,” said Xu Fang warmly.

“Fine. Let’s go then.” Lin Yijun simply could not refuse Xu Fang anymore. So, she gave in.

“I’ll sit this one out and look after Qiqi here. Qiong, come on, let’s bring Qiqi to play.” Lin Yijia did not wish to show courtesy to her aunt’s family and left the hall with Qiqi in her arms while inviting her uncle’s daughter to tag along.

Xu Fang and Wang Wan were a bit unhappy about this. However, it was fine as long as Wang Xue and the rest of her family were going.

Their goal was to show off in front of Wang Xue and her family. Since Lin Yijia refused to go, could it be that she felt embarrassed for her actions just now?

Xu Fang's family then brought Wang Xue's family to take a look at their new house. To be honest, Wang Xue was quite envious.

The main thing was, this house was a gift from Wang Wan's boyfriend to Xu Fang's family.

She felt unhappy when she recalled that Lu Chen did not give her anything as a gift.

They were both son-in-laws but her own son-in-law just could not hold a candle to Xu Fang's son-in-law.

"Yijun, when are you guys going to move into a new house?" asked Wang Xue in a whisper as she stood beside Lin Yijun.

"Why should we change to a new house? It is still in good condition," said Lin Yijun as she smiled bitterly. Naturally, she knew the meaning behind her mother's words. Her mother wanted to regain back the dignity she had lost today in front of Xu Fang when they moved into their new house in the future.

However, she felt that there was no point in doing that at all. To be honest, she knew that Xu Jie's company was a small company based on his monthly income of 1 million. Hence, she did not take it to heart.

"Yijun, how are you getting on at work currently?" asked Xu Fang as she approached her.

Before Lin Yijun could reply to her aunt's question, Wang Xue replied in her stead, "Yijun is the Vice President of Dong Jia Electronics. Have you heard of Dong Jia Electronics before? Their market capitalization is nearly 1 billion."

In fact, she didn't even know the market capitalization for Dong Jia Electronics. She only blurted out such a high value as she wanted to regain the dignity she had lost.

“Wow, the Vice President of the company? Then, your income must be really high, right?!” asked Xu Fang in surprise.

“It’s alright,” said Lin Yijun as she smiled faintly, not wanting to toot her own horn.

Right at this moment, Lu Chen walked in. He had received a call from Lin Yijun just now, hence he came over to find her.

“Lu Chen, you made it. Come, let me show you around my house.” When Xu Fang saw Lu Chen, she dragged him into the small neighborhood.

Lu Chen did not know whether to laugh or cry and the same went to Lin Yijun and the rest of them as they followed Xu Fang into the small neighborhood again.

“Lu Chen, this is the house Xu Jie presented to us as a gift. What do you think of it? The renovation works will commence in a few days. When we are ready to move in, you all must come, alright?” said Xu Fang.

Lu Chen gave the layout of the house a once-over. It had three bedrooms and a living room, and it was located on the seventh floor. It was indeed a good layout. Xu Fang only let him off after he praised it continuously.

When Xu Fang, Wang Wan and Xu Jie heard Lu Chen's constant praise, they were extremely delighted.

They really enjoyed the feeling of admiration from other people.

Especially in front of Wang Xue.

In the past whenever Wang Xue returned, she would brag about her wealth in front of them.

After they left the neighborhood, Wang Wan said, "Yijun, let's go and do some shopping. The shopping malls here only close after ten at night."

Since Lu Chen was here, Wang Wan suddenly had an idea. She wanted to make it so that Lin Yijun and Lu Chen would never be able to raise their heads in front of her and Xu Jie anymore.

"Forget it. It's quite late and I don't have anything that I wish to purchase." Lin Yijun shook her head as she really didn't feel like doing any shopping for now.

“Don’t all women love to shop? Yijun, are you afraid that Lu Chen can’t afford to buy you anything as a gift, so you don’t dare to go because you’re afraid of humiliating him?” asked Wang Wan.

Lin Yijun frowned. Wang Wan was so direct this time that it was making her uncomfortable. No matter what, they were still cousins and they were blood relatives. Did she need to show off to that extent?

“Yijun, you should go. There isn’t much to do at home anyway.” When Wang Xue heard Wang Wan’s words, she was instantly pissed.

Since Wang Wan invited Lin Yijun to go to the shopping mall to flaunt her wealth, Wang Xue, who happened to know that Lu Chen was rich, wanted him to throw eggs on their faces.

“Fine.” Lin Yijun shook her head, not understanding Wang Xue’s intentions. Frankly, she felt that there was no point in making a fool of Wang Wan and her mother.

Chapter 200 Shopping

They were relatives after all, doing that would only alienate themselves from each other.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

The newly opened mall was the largest shopping mall in Qijiang County; it closed only at 10pm. Despite being in a small county, many branded goods were sold here.

Although it was nighttime already, there was still a huge influx of customers.

“Yijun, this shopping mall was built by the top billionaire in Qijiang County, Niu Dashan. It is one of its kind in Qijiang, and all of the stuff sold inside are branded goods,” said Wang Wan.

It wasn’t easy to build a large shopping mall in a small county like Qijiang as it required a certain amount of power and connections.

However, Lu Chen wasn’t surprised by this. Niu Dashan really had a good business acumen. Based on his talents, he would definitely not miss out on the opportunity to make some money.

“Yijun, let me tell you a secret—Xu Jie and Niu Dashan are close friends,” said Wang Wan.

Lu Chen was stunned and couldn’t help but give Xu Jie a once-over. If Xu Jie was indeed Niu Dashan's friend, then his future was bright.

However, Xu Jie's face flushed. Wang Wan had taken her bragging too far this time. How could he be Niu Dashan's friend based on his current status now? Wang Wan could really blurt out anything at all for the sake of tooting her own horn.

Xu Jie heaved a sigh of relief when he saw that Lin Yijun did not seem to know Niu Dashan at all.

As long as Lin Yijun did not know who Niu Dashan was, then his lies wouldn't be exposed.

Lu Chen laughed in secret when he saw the embarrassment on Xu Jie's face. In that instant, he knew that Wang Wan was just tooting her own horn.

However, he did not expose her lie as there was no reason for him to do so.

"Actually he is a very easy-going person, considering his status. He even treated us to a meal before and he is very amiable. If the opportunity arises, I will ask him out for a meal so that you guys can get to know him,” Wang Wan continued to brag.

Xu Jie’s expression changed again. The more Wang Wan exaggerated their relationship with Niu Dashan, the more frightened he got.

This shopping mall was owned by Niu Dashan. If his employees heard this, then things would get out of hand.

“Mr. Niu is a busy man. He won’t have the time,” said Xu Jie quickly as he nearly jumped in fright when he saw that Wang Wan was over-exaggerating things.

Wang Wan glared at Xu Jie. Obviously, she was unhappy that Xu Jie had interrupted her bragging.

Wang Wan brought everyone into a Louis Vuitton shop. Actually she had taken a fancy to a Louis Vuitton handbag previously. However, she restrained herself from buying it as she was waiting for this day to flaunt her wealth in front of Wang Xue’s family. She wanted Xu Jie to pay for it so that Wang Xue’s family would envy the luxurious life they were living.

“Yijun, have you owned a Louis Vuitton bag before?” asked Wang Wan.

Lin Yijun shook her head. In the past, she was poor. As such, she obviously could not afford such an expensive bag brand.

Now that she was rich, she did not have the time to buy it.

A hint of contempt flashed before Wang Wan’s eyes as she said, “I have taken a fancy to this Louis Vuitton bag. Why don’t you give me your opinion on it?”

Lin Yijun did not say anything. She only followed Wang Wan to the display shelf.

“This handbag costs more than 30,000. It is expensive, but as long as I like it, Xu Jie will buy it for me.” Wang Wan picked up the handbag and took a look at it. Then, she handed it to Lin Yijun.

“It is only slightly above 30,000, not very expensive at all. If you like it, I can buy it for you anytime.” Xu Jie knew that it was time for him to make an appearance as he put on a generous air and said those words.

“Oh my, Jie, you are too kind to me.” The dialogue between them was pre-discussed by her and Xu Jie. However, Wang Wan pretended to be delighted as she said those words.

Lin Yijun was disgusted. However, she tolerated it and did not say anything.

Wang Wan’s acting was really bad. She had to practice her routine in advance if she wanted to brag in front of her.

It was just a 30,000 handbag. Although she had never owned one before, that did not mean that she could not afford it.

Putting aside Lu Chen for now, she had over 100 million in savings. She could afford any amount of luxury items that she wanted.

“Yijun, do you like the items here? You can choose one for yourself,” said Wang Wan out of the blue. The cheapest item here was worth nearly 5,000 to 6,000 per item. She did not believe that Lu Chen could afford it since he only worked as a security guard.

“It’s fine. I don’t need anything,” said Lin

Yijun.

“Yijun, are you afraid that Lu Chen will be embarrassed if he cannot afford it? If he can’t afford it, then I will ask Xu Jie to give it to you as a gift then. Just go ahead and choose an item,” said Wang Wan generously.

However, she regretted it the moment the words left her mouth. That was because all the items here were expensive. If Xu Jie were to fork out his own money for Lin Yijun, she would feel pained.

Lin Yijun frowned. She was about to say something when she heard Wang Xue’s voice saying, “Lin Yijun, since Xu Jie wants to give you a gift, why don’t you choose an item then. How could you reject his kindness?”

Wang Xue had been bragging in front of her relatives all along. Unexpectedly, the tables were turned today. However, she couldn’t endure Wang Wan and Xu Fang’s constant bragging in front of her anymore.

Since Wang Wan wanted to flaunt her wealth, then she would trick Wang Wan into buying a 100,000 Louis Vuitton handbag for her that she had taken a fancy to previously.

“Fine then.” Lin Yijun smiled. She was irritated by Wang Wan's overbearing attitude.

“As long as Lin Yijun has made her decision, Xu Jie has to pay for it, right?” Wang Xue asked Wang Wan.

Wang Wan regretted her words, but since they had left her mouth, she could not retract them or else it would be akin to making a fool of herself.

“Yes. You guys can choose. Just choose anything you like,” said Wang Wan in a generous manner.

“Yijun, that handbag looks gorgeous. Let's choose that one.” Wang Xue smiled teasingly as she pointed at a high-end handbag on the left crystal shelf display.

Lin Yijun saw the price tag of the bag as well. She thought to herself that her mother really had good taste.

She walked over to the display and picked it up. It was indeed a gorgeous-looking handbag. To be honest, she wanted to buy it as well.

When Lin Yijun picked up the handbag that was worth 100,000, Wang Wan blanched. Even she did not dare to choose such an expensive handbag!

Xu Jie was the boss of a company, but he did not have that much money on him. He did not have much savings left especially after he had bought a house for her parents as a gift during their engagement. Thus, how could he simply buy a 100,000 handbag for somebody else?

“Lin Yijun, how could you be so greedy? This is the most expensive handbag here!” Wang Wan couldn’t be bothered to address Lin Yijun politely anymore; instead she directly addressed her by her full name. You could imagine how angry she was at Lin Yijun.

“Didn’t you say that you wanted to give it to me as a gift? You even asked me to choose whatever I like. I thought a 100,000 handbag is nothing in your eyes. Moreover, didn’t you say that Xu Jie’s monthly income is over a million? He should be able to give away a 100,000 handbag as a gift, right?" Lin Yijun did not feel like pretending anymore when she saw Wang Wan's rage. Wang Wan did not have a bottom-line, so Lin Yijun was getting quite tired at keeping up her act.

Wang Wan was really pissed. It was true that she said she wanted to give Lin Yijun something as a gift. However, she did not say that she wanted to give her something so expensive. She did not expect Lin Yijun to be such a ruthless person and make a fool of her.

"Lin Yijun, don't be greedy. I did say that I wanted to give you something as a gift. However, can you afford to own a 100,000 handbag? Are you even worthy of using it?" Wang Wan snorted coldly as she grabbed the 100,000 handbag from Lin Yijun's hands and placed it back on the shelf.

"Oh, if you can't afford to give it away as a gift, then don't pretend you can do so. Why do you need to act in such a pretentious manner? If Lu Chen can earn a few million per month, I would ask my daughter to buy the entire shop for you as a gift," said Wang Xue as she came to the aid of her daughter.

Chapter 201 Bragging

The moment Wang Xue spoke those words, they had shed all pretense of cordiality with each other.

“Miss, wrap this handbag up and give it to Miss Lin here as a gift,” said a bald, burly man as he entered the shop and pointed toward the handbag that was placed back on the shelf by Wang Wan.

Wang Wan and Xu Jie’s face changed abruptly when they saw the bald, burly man who had entered the shop.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Everybody was stunned when they heard the bald, burly man's voice.

Who could be so generous as to give away a 100,000 handbag as a gift?

When Xu Jie and Wang Wan saw the bald, burly man, their expressions changed in an instant.

Niu Dashan!

They had actually met the richest man in Qijiang County, Niu Dashan!

What kind of relationship did he have with Lin Yijun? Why did he have to present her a 100,000 handbag as a gift?

"Who are you? I don't need that handbag." Lin Yijun looked at Niu Dashan. She was not acquainted with him, so there was no reason why she should accept his gifts.

Niu Dashan looked at Lu Chen. When he noticed that Lu Chen did not have anything to say about it, he heaved a sigh of relief.

He was worried that Lu Chen would be upset when he stood up for Lin Yijun just now.

Lu Zhong was akin to his benefactor, and since Lu Chen was Lu Zhong's Young Master, he would have to act like a subordinate in front of Lu Chen.

After Niu Dashan sent Lu Chen back home, he prepared to do some shopping in the shopping mall. Unexpectedly, he bumped into Lu Chen and the rest of his entourage here.

Actually he had overheard their conversation for quite some time already. He noticed that Wang Wan kept acting pretentiously in front of Lin Yijun. If it wasn't for Lu Chen, he would have thrown eggs on Wang Wan's face a long time ago.

"President Niu, why are you here?" asked Xu Jie in an obsequious manner.

Niu Dashan did not bother to act courteously in front of Xu Jie; he did not even spare him a glance. He approached Lin Yijun straightaway and said respectfully, "Miss Lin, you can take everything in this mall that you favor away for free, no matter what it is."

Xu Jie looked embarrassed while Wang Wan's face turned pale.

What did Niu Dashan mean by this? Why did he feel the need to present Lin Yijun with some gifts?

“Who are you? Why should I accept your gifts?” Lin Yijun smiled for she did not know him at all. As such, she felt that his actions were quite funny. Was he mad, giving her gifts for no reason at all?

“Oh! My name is Niu Dashan. I worked in Jun Yue Group last time...” Niu Dashan said in a secretive manner. Obviously, he could not reveal Lu Chen’s name directly.

However, Lin Yijun understood the moment he said those words.

Jun Yue Group was Lu Chen’s business. She knew this when Lu Chen bought over Dong Jia Electronics. The only thing that surprised her was the fact that Niu Dashan was actually one of Lu Chen’s men.

How powerful could Lu Chen be?

“Oh, I understand. You can go ahead with your business then. I will take away anything that strikes my fancy,” said Lin Yijun openly.

“Ok. Then, I won’t bother you all anymore.” Niu Dashan nodded his head and glanced at Lu Chen. He knew that he had gotten Lu Chen’s approval when he saw him nodding his head.

Just as he was prepared to leave, Wang Xue suddenly said, “Oh my! You are the famous Billionaire Niu! Billionaire Niu, my niece told me previously that her boyfriend is your friend. Moreover, she wants to introduce you to us. We did not expect to bump into you here,” said Wang Xue as she looked at Wang Wan, her smile unable to hide her evil intentions.

Previously, Wang Wan kept acting like a pretentious prick. As such, she felt that Wang Wan was over-exaggerating things. As predicted, Xu Jie took the initiative to greet Niu Dashan just now. However, Niu Dashan did not even bother to look at him.

“I see, you must be Madam Wang. If you want to get to know me, you don’t need the introduction of others as I already know who you are. As for your niece’s boyfriend, he is not qualified to be my friend. I don’t have any friends in Qijiang,” said Niu Dashan arrogantly.

Hearing this, Xu Jie hung his head, shame filling his heart. If it wasn't for Wang Wan's pretentious attitude and her over-exaggerated words, he wouldn't have felt this afraid now.

How could the legendary Niu Dashan be his friend?

"Oh my! You don't say. Before this, they swore by it," said Wang Xue in surprise.

When Niu Dashan saw Wang Xue's expression, he suddenly understood what had happened.

He cast a light glance at Wang Wan and Xu Jie before he stated coldly, "I will ask my men to investigate Xu Jie's background. What qualifications does he have to call himself my friend?"

Xu Jie trembled. He did not expect Wang Wan's bragging to offend Niu Dashan.

"P-President Niu, I am really sorry. I am Xu Jie. Previously, my friend here tried to pass herself off as your friend in order to brag about it. I hope that you will forgive her for her insolence. Of course, it is my fault as well since I am her boyfriend and I did not manage to stop her in time. Please punish me as you see fit, President Niu,” said Xu Jie as he trembled in fright. If it wasn’t because he truly loved Wang Wan, he would have definitely sold her out.

Wang Wan was shocked. Xu Jie’s company had barely gotten off the ground. If Niu Dashan targeted their company, Xu Jie wasn’t in any position to fight back, nor would he have the opportunity to do so as his company would be destroyed by him.

However, she was really dissatisfied with the outcome. If she apologized, then it would be quite embarrassing for her.

“Xu Jie, can you be more ambitious? How dare you back off just because he scares you a little? You don’t deserve my respect,” said Wang Wan angrily.

“Fine! Since you look down upon me, then you can be his friend. Why don’t you explain things to him then?” Xu Jie was really pissed. Since Wang Wan did not know the situation she was in, he did not want to bother about her affairs anymore.

When Niu Dashan directed his cold gaze at her, she was so frightened that she started to tremble and immediately gave in.

“President Niu. I-I am sorry. I was wrong. I shouldn’t have passed myself off as your friend to brag. I will not dare to do it any longer in the future.”

Wang Wan was going to marry Xu Jie and the Wang family would rise to prominence in Qijiang. Therefore, she wasn’t stupid. If she were to let Niu Dashan destroy Xu Jie’s company, she would have no one but herself to blame in the end.

However, she extremely despised Wang Xue’s family in her heart.

At the moment, Xu Fang’s expression looked dark. She did not expect Wang Xue to be so ruthless as to expose her daughter’s lies in front of Niu Dashan. Was she trying to kill her daughter and son-in-law?

“I see that she was telling a lie. I really thought that she was your friend. We nearly jumped in fright just now when we heard it,” said Wang Xue as her smile got even brighter.

“They are just two small fries, so how dare they call themselves my friends? They are not worthy of it." Niu Dashan snorted coldly as he turned to the apologetic Wang Wan. "You are really gutsy. Do you know the consequences of using my name to brag and swindle other people?"

Wang Wan was shocked. She finally felt fearful as she quickly grabbed Xu Jie's arms. At the moment, Xu Jie was the only person who could help her.

"President Niu, I am really sorry. She is not a very sensible person. Please spare her on my account. I will give her a lecture when we get back," said Xu Jie carefully as he apologized to Niu Dashan.

"Who do you think you are? How dare you ask me to spare her on your account? Are you some big shot or something?" Niu Dashan laughed, a hint of cruelty in his voice.

Wang Wan and Xu Jie were so frightened that their faces paled as it took them all they had to prevent themselves from kneeling on the floor directly.

Ahem!

At the moment, Lu Chen coughed.

Niu Dashan looked at Lu Chen as Lu Chen gave him a look. In that instant, he knew that Lu Chen did not want to make a fuss out of it. He looked at Xu Jie and Wang Wan as he snorted coldly before finally taking his leave.

Xu Jie and Wang Wan finally heaved a sigh of relief once Niu Dashan made his way downstairs and disappeared from sight.

Wang Wan looked at Wang Xue. Then, she looked at Lin Yijun. There was a hint of ruthlessness in her eyes.

“You guys can leave first. I need to go back to get something.” When everybody had left the Louis Vuitton handbag store, Lu Chen suddenly recalled something as he turned and walked back into the store.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Lu Chen thought of Lin Yijun's expression as she held onto the expensive Louis Vuitton bag; she clearly had taken a liking to it. He had never bought Lin Yijun any handbags before and wanted to use this opportunity to do so.

"Miss, please wrap this handbag up for me," Lu Chen told the cashier as he handed the 100,000 handbag over the counter.

"Sir, this handbag costs 100,000. Do you confirm your purchase?" the cashier's eyes brightened as she asked.

"Just wrap it up," Lu Chen said as he took out his credit card.

Upon seeing that Lu Chen was capable of paying 100,000 with no hesitation, the cashier's gaze on Lu Chen changed. She wore a bright smile as she packaged the handbag Lu Chen bought promptly.

Wang Wan was taken aback when she saw that Lu Chen had went back into the Louis Vuitton shop. She smirked.

"Lin Yijun, Lu Chen went back to get you that Louis Vuitton bag," Wang Wan mocked.

She guessed that Lu Chen might have really forgotten something in the shop.

As for buying Lin Yijun a handbag from there? What a joke.

The handbags inside all cost at least 5,000. How could Lu Chen possibly afford them with a security job?

She still thought that Lu Chen was working as a security guard.

Lin Yijun grinned lightly. Her intuition told her that Lu Chen went off to get her the handbag. However, she was too tired to argue with Wang Wan about it.

In no time, Lu Chen came out with a Louis Vuitton paper bag. However, no one knew how much the bag cost as it was packaged nicely.

Lu Chen really went and bought her the handbag?

Wang Wan was stunned. She couldn't believe that Lu Chen really went back to get Lin Yijun the handbag she wanted.

“Yijun, you like this right? Take it.” Lu Chen handed the paper bag over to Lin Yijun.

Although Lin Yijun didn't say anything, she still felt a little thrilled that Lu Chen had bought her the handbag. This also reduced the tension between the both of them after their last fight.

“Open it up! Let's see what Lu Chen got you!” Wang Wan smiled bashfully before snatching Lin Yijun's bag over. She wanted to know what was inside so that she could taunt Lu Chen.

“Wang Wan, what are you doing?” Lin Yijun frowned. Wang Wan was out of line.

“Come on Yijun, I just wanted to help you to check it out,” Wang Wan said sarcastically.

Lin Yijun wanted to snatch the bag back. She wasn't afraid of Lu Chen getting humiliated. Lin Yijun knew Lu Chen wouldn't buy her something cheap.

She was just uncomfortable with Wang Wan's attitude.

Right when Lin Yijun reached out to snatch the bag back, Wang Wan had already opened the packaging of the bag and was taken aback.

He got her the newest Louis Vuitton bag?!

Wang Wan couldn't believe it. Lu Chen actually bought Lin Yijun the nicest handbag that Xu Jie couldn't even afford to buy her.

Xu Jie was shocked.

Didn't they say that Lu Chen is a security guard?

Where did he get 10,000 to buy Lin Yijun that handbag?

Xu Fang's eyes widened too. Right at that moment, she felt Lu Chen's remarkableness.

Lu Chen never spoke much the entire time. Even when she took Lu Chen to visit her new house, Lu Chen was also full of praises.

She did not expect him to spend 10,000 to get Lin Yijun a handbag.

Even Xu Jie didn't get it for her daughter.

"Lu Chen, I didn't know that you're so shameless! I can't believe that you resort to stealing just because you couldn't afford the handbag!" Wang Wan started accusing all of a sudden.

She could still wrap her head around it if Lu Chen got Lin Yijun a bag that only cost a few thousand. However, Lu Chen went ahead and bought the most expensive handbag in the store. Just one costs around 10,000!

How could she believe that Lu Chen was the one who bought it?

She was sure that Lu Chen stole the bag. He couldn't afford them even if he sold his kidneys.

"Are you kidding me? I stole the handbag?" Lu Chen couldn't bear with her accusations anymore. He laughed coldly and stared at Wang Wan.

Previously when Wang Wan had kept on bragging in front of them, he figured that he should just let it go because they were family. Moreover, the reason he went in after to get the handbag was because he didn't want Wang Wan and the others to feel humiliated, so he did so on purpose.

He did not expect Wang Wan to be so unabashed.

"If you did not steal it, let's go back and ask the cashier then!" Wang Wan raised her voice.

She would never admit that Lin Yijun's life was better than hers.

She also wouldn't allow Lu Chen to humiliate her in front of Wang Xue.

"By the way, Lu Chen, aren't you a security guard? Where did you get so much money then? The handbag costs 10,000 not 10," Xu Fang questioned, confused.

"Who told you that I am a security guard?" Lu Chen mocked.

"I don't care if you're a security guard or not! I asked if you dare to go confront the cashier with us?" Wang Wan yelled,

Xu Jie frowned. He pulled her arm, trying to stop Wang Wan from causing a commotion.

He felt that Lu Chen's identity wasn't as simple as some guy with a security job.

Most importantly, he had seen how Niu Dashan treated Lin Yijun; Niu Dashan was respectful toward her.

It didn't matter if he was being delusional or not. He knew that there was something extraordinary about Lu Chen.

However, Wang Wan was blinded by rage. Wang Xue had already humiliated her in front of Niu Dashan just now. Now that Lu Chen stole a handbag from a high-end store, how could she easily let it go?

"Sure. We shall do as you please." Lu Chen smirked and motioned them toward the Louis Vuitton store.

Wang Wan snorted. Then, she took the handbag and started making her way toward the store. Lu Chen gave her a sharp glare before following suit.

Lin Yijun and the others looked at each other. Then, they followed along too.

“Hey! Do you guys even know how to do your job? How could you not notice that one of the handbags has been switched?!” Wang Wan took the handbag over to the cash register and slammed it on the counter.

The cashier and another promoter frowned. They didn’t understand what she meant.

“Is this how you guys do your work after receiving your salary from your superiors?” Wang Wan lectured.

“Miss, we don’t need you to teach us how to do our job. Although you’re a customer, I have to ask for you to mind your manners,” the cashier interjected, annoyed.

“Hmph! How dare you talk back to me! Look closer! What was the handbag that he bought and what is the handbag that he left with?!” Wang Wan accused Lu Chen as she pointed at the handbag that cost 10,000 on the counter.

The cashier was confused. She tried to calm Wang Wan down and said, “Miss, there must be a misunderstanding. This is the handbag that this man bought just now.”

“Him? He’s just a security guard, how could he afford a 10,000 handbag? Are you the idiot here or am I?” Wang Wan mocked.

“This is his transaction receipt.” The cashier was speechless as she handed Wang Wan the bank receipt.

Wang Wan took over the receipt and compared them. The price of the bag and the time of purchase matched.

It was really Lu Chen who bought it!

Wang Wan’s heart sank.

But how could Lu Chen possibly spare so much money to buy a handbag for Lin Yijun?

She glanced at Lin Yijun and suddenly thought, Did Lin Yijun give Lu Chen some money in advance so that he could act along with her?

“Lin Yijun, I didn’t know you’re such a scheming b*tch! You actually paid Lu Chen beforehand for him to put on a show just to humiliate me? I really underestimated your entire family!” Wang Wan chuckled coldly.

Chapter 203 Slandering Lu Chen

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

"What does this have to do with me?" Lin Yijun asked innocently. Lu Chen is my husband, so what's wrong with him buying a bag for me?

"Hmph, stop pretending, b*tch! How else could Lu Chen afford a bag that cost 100,000 unless you gave him the money in advance?" Wang Wan jabbed sarcastically.

She glared at Lin Yijun and gritted her teeth.

Initially, she wanted to show off her superiority in front of Wang Xue and her family, but to her dismay, she was caught in Lin Yijun's trap and embarrassed by her instead.

"Are you saying that Lu Chen is poor?" Lin Yijun smiled. She really didn't want to insult Wang Wan and her family.

"Lin Yijun, how could you trick your own cousin with your schemes? I was wrong about you!" Xu Fang bellowed in a fit of anger. Her daughter was the scheming one, yet she could only pick faults in Lin Yijun.

"Auntie, you have seen it yourself too. You both kept showing off along the way, while we just kept quiet. Besides, Lu Chen only came back to buy the bag after we had gone out as he was afraid that you both would feel embarrassed. After he bought the bag, I didn't open it up straight away as I didn't want to embarrass you too. But Wang Wan insisted on grabbing it and opening it up, so please don't blame me for this. In the end, when she saw that the bag was the best one, she even slandered Lu Chen by calling him a thief. So tell me, who is the scheming b*tch now?" Lin Yijun snapped back in anger too. It had never crossed her mind that both Wang Wan and Xu Fang would be so shameless. How could they call her a scheming b*tch?

If Wang Wan wasn't her relative, she would've never held herself back from showing off to her!

Lin Yijun's words had gotten on both Wang Wan and Xu Fang's nerves. Instantly, their faces darkened.

They were furious that Lin Yijun's words had painted them as idiots, that they had brought this embarrassment upon themselves.

“Hmph, you just want to show off in front of your cousin, don’t you? How can you be so cruel to your own relative?” Xu Fang started to make a fuss.

Anger welled up in Lin Yijun so much that she began to laugh frantically. “Auntie, I would never show off or even tell others about my wealth, unlike some people who think they’re tycoons just because they have a little bit of money and can’t wait to show off to everyone how rich they are.”

Her words were obviously mocking Wang Wan’s love for showing off. Upon hearing that, Wang Wan could no longer hold back her anger and lashed out in a fit of rage, “What’s wrong with showing off? I have a rich boyfriend who’s a CEO, so why can’t I show off? Unlike a certain someone who has a husband—a mere security guard—so useless that he has to use his wife’s money to buy a bag!”

Wang Wan glared at Lu Chen contemptuously, her eyes full of disdain.

Lu Chen smiled. Initially, he did not want to argue with Wang Wan, but she had become even more presumptuous now.

"Pack up all the bags in your store for me. I'll take them all," Lu Chen suddenly stepped forward and said to the cashier.

"Huh?" The cashier was stunned. All the bags in our store add up to at least 4 to 5 million, and he wants to buy them all?!

The other salesperson was also dumbfounded. Mister, are you serious?

"Lu Chen, are you kidding me? You're actually thinking of buying all the bags here? Fine, then let's see if you can actually pay for them," Wang Wan mocked sarcastically.

Needless to say, it would cost him a few million to buy all the bags here. Yet, Lu Chen even dared to make such a bold claim. Is he trying to embarrass himself?

"S-Sir, are you sure you're serious about the purchase?" the cashier snapped back to his senses and asked.

"Do I look like I'm joking?" Lu Chen said as he took his card out and placed it on the cash register.

"Huh? If you buy all of them, it'll cost 4 to 5 million!" The cashier and the salesperson looked at each other awkwardly. Even if he could afford all of them, he wouldn't use so many of them, would he?

"Why are you still dilly-dallying? Quickly pack up everything!" Wang Wan shouted angrily.

The anger in her heart and her distorted perception of Lu Chen drove her crazy.

It had never crossed her mind that Lu Chen would actually buy everything in the entire store. Hadn't he embarrassed her enough?

She still didn't believe that Lu Chen could pay for everything here.

The whole lot cost 4 to 5 million in total after all.

Lu Chen was just a lowly security guard. Even if he was a guard in Zhongnanhai[1], he wouldn't have been able to afford that amount of expenses.

Watching the salesperson packing up the bags, Wang Wan smiled triumphantly on her face. Let's see how Lu Chen is going to settle this when he can't manage to pay later on.

He's going to buy everything, huh?

How ballsy!

Wang Wan felt delighted at the thought of the consequences that would fall upon Lu Chen later.

Meanwhile, Xu Jie frowned in contrast to Wang Wan's gloating.

He was not as ignorant as Wang Wan, having found a company himself after all.

He felt that Lu Chen only dared to say those words because he could afford to do so.

Yet, ignorance had blinded Wang Wan to the extent that she didn't even think of this possibility.

"Xue, how can you just watch Lu Chen do such a ridiculous thing? You didn't even stop him. He already asked the salesperson to pack up all the bags. What will happen to him if he can't manage to pay later on?" Xu Fang didn't believe that Lu Chen could afford everything in the store at all.

Seeing the few salespeople sweating profusely as they hurried to pack up everything, Xu Fang gloated happily.

If Lu Chen can't pay the full amount later on, these salespersons would definitely not let Lu Chen off the hook. Plus, if they called the police, then not only would he be embarrassed, he would have to compensate them for their losses too.

"Hmph, you don't have to worry about that. My son-in-law can even buy this entire building!" Wang Xue snorted coldly. She was confident about Lu Chen. After all, Lu Chen was a rich man, a few million was nothing to him.

Her claim that he could buy the whole building was a farce, having only said that out of anger. But it doesn't matter if it was true because once Lu Chen paid for the bags, no one would care if he could actually buy the whole building anyway.

"I'm just afraid that they would call the cops if he isn't able to pay up. By then, your entire family would have to stay in jail for the night." Xu Fang smiled, her eyes full of gloat.

They were relatives, yet they had become enemies because of this outing.

Lu Chen shook his head. Stupidity runs in the Wang Family indeed.

Wang Xue, Wang Wan and Xu Fang are all nincompoops.

Initially, he did not want to say a thing about this matter today since they were his relatives. But to his dismay, Wang Wan kept pushing his buttons again and again.

"Sir, we're done packing all the bags. It costs 4.54 million in total, but we'll give you a discount, so you'll only have to pay 4.5 million. Swipe your card here, please," the cashier wiped away his sweat and said while breathing heavily.

4.5 million!

Wang Wan and the others stared at Lu Chen mockingly, waiting to see how he would settle this.

Lu Chen nodded, took out and swiped his card, then keyed in his passcode.

Seeing that Lu Chen had successfully made the transaction, Wang Wan and the others widened their eyes in disbelief.

She had lost all hope!

With a blank look in her eyes, she slumped down on the floor, pale-faced.

She originally wanted to toot her own horn in front of Wang Xue.

Unexpectedly, in the end...

She had embarrassed herself instead.

[1] Zhongnanhai is a former imperial garden in the Imperial City, Beijing, adjacent to the Forbidden City; it serves as the central headquarters for the Communist Party of China and the State Council (Central government) of China.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!