

Wang Wan held onto her phone, still in disbelief that the men who had helped the Wang Family were here upon Lu Chen's orders.

However, the reality of the situation did not permit her to deny the facts anymore.

She could see that the group of people had finally captured Li Hu. They then tied him up and dragged him toward Lu Chen.

"Young Master Lu, how should we deal with him?" asked Song Hai as he held Li Hu in his custody.

"Who are you guys?" Although Li Hu was detained, he did not show a hint of fear.

"You really are a frog in a well. How could you not know that we are from the Sakura Ring? And you dare to call yourselves the Mafia?" scolded Song Hai as he laughed.

However, he himself only got to know about the distribution of the forces of the Mafia underworld in the surrounding counties after following Du Fei around for quite some time. Otherwise, all three of them wouldn't even know about the Mafia forces in Chongqing, let alone the ones in the surrounding counties.

The Sakura Ring?!

Li Hu was shocked. Although he had made a name for himself in Qijiang, he knew that he could not hold a candle to the Sakura Ring, which was the top Mafia group in Chongqing.

He did not expect Lu Chen to call the people from the Sakura Ring over. At the moment, he finally understood why Mr. Mu had to fork out 100 million to capture him.

Turns out Lu Chen is such an important person!

Lu Chen walked to the front of Li Hu and sized him up and down. Finally, he said, "Why did you want to capture me the moment you came? Tell me the truth and you might be able to continue making a living in Qijiang for quite some time."

Li Hu was stunned. Lu Chen's words were imbued with power and a strong sense of confidence. Although Li Hu had been a Mafia for many years, he still felt afraid when he heard this.

He had initially wanted to tell a lie. However, when he saw the sharp look in Lu Chen's eyes, he eventually made a smart decision after pondering over it.

"Somebody offered me 100 million to capture you," said Li Hu honestly.

Offered 100 million to capture me?

Lu Chen's eyes narrowed as he could not understand why somebody would fork out such a huge sum of money, 100 million to be exact, to capture him.

Could it be the Zhang Family?

"Who is that person? You better heed my advice and tell me the answer truthfully," said Lu Chen in a deep voice.

"I do not know him. He Zhinian was the one who introduced the both of us. I think his name was Mr. Mu," said Li Hu.

Lu Chen was stunned. Then, he turned to Du Fei and his men and asked, "Do you guys know this man?"

Du Fei shook his head and asked Li Hu, "Where is Mr. Mu from?"

Li Hu finally recalled something when he looked at Du Fei. Isn't the person in front of me Du Fei, the boss of the Sakura Ring? After all, Du Fei was his idol that he greatly admired back in the past.

Although seven to eight years had passed, he still recognized that the person in front of him was none other than Du Fei himself.

"He is from Beijing," Li Hu blurted out while suppressing the shock in his heart.

Unexpectedly, Du Fei had actually brought his men here to Qijiang. Has he come here for me?

"So, he is from Beijing then."

Lu Chen narrowed his eyes as a hint of killing intent flashed across them.

The day of reckoning had finally arrived, and he already knew who was behind this...

His Madam—Xiao Bieqing!

"Where is he?" asked Lu Chen in a deep voice.

“He is with He Zhinian right now. By the way, he seems to be trying to get to your wife and daughter,” said Li Hu as he recalled something.

Lu Chen’s gaze turned cold as he whipped out his mobile phone and gave Lin Yijun a call. Luckily, they were still safe.

“Wait for me at the hospital, I will come and pick you guys up in a moment. Which hospital are you at now?” instructed Lu Chen.

“We are at the Chinese Medicine Hospital in Qijiang,” said Lin Yijun who had no idea what was going on.

“Bring me to the Chinese Medicine Hospital,” said Lu Chen to Du Fei and Song Hai.

“By the way, since you have been cooperative, I will give you a chance. You can either choose to help Niu Dashan or you can rot away for the rest of your life in prison. I only need to make a phone call to send you there right away,” said Lu Chen as he turned to look at Li Hu.

He was ready to give him a chance as Li

Hu had given him a heads up that his Madam's men were after his wife and daughter. Of course, it was up to Li Hu to make that decision for himself.

With that, he turned around and got into Song Hai's car. As for the rest of the matters, he would leave them for Du Fei to handle.

After he got into the car, Lu Chen sent a text to Du Fei, wanting him to order Li Hu to bring them along to find Mr. Mu. He did not like the feeling of being in the dark about his enemy while he was out in the open. If only he could force Mr. Mu out of hiding, then everything would be easier to deal with.

Soon, Lu Chen and Song Hai arrived at the hospital. While they were walking in the corridor, they saw a few burly men acting in a suspicious manner in front of them, and they happened to be going in the direction of the Neurology Department as well.

Lu Chen then winked at Song Hai. Almost immediately, Song Hai got his meaning as he quickened his pace and marched toward them.

Slam!

Song Hai deliberately knocked down one of the men. In that instant, he saw that the man had a fruit knife attached to his waist.

Song Hai's face turned dark. However, he quickly apologized and said, "I am sorry. It wasn't intentional."

"Are you trying to court your f*cking death?" asked the burly men as he glared angrily at Song Hai. He immediately got up and wanted to punch him.

"Lao Wu, what are you doing? There are more important things we have to handle here." The other burly man stopped him as well as reminded him not to let his impulsiveness ruin the important business that they were here for.

"Damn it! Consider yourself lucky today." The burly man glared at Song Hai as he turned away and walked toward the Neurology ward.

Song Hai then turned to look at Lu Chen and gave him a nod.

Lu Chen understood right away that these men were definitely here for Lin Yijun.

Just then, Lin Yijun happened to walk out of the ward to answer a call. One of the burly men whipped out a photo and took a look at it before saying, "That's her! Get her!"

With a flourish, the few men rush toward Lin Yijun.

Lin Yijun happened to be answering a call from one of her clients when a few burly men rushed toward her out of nowhere. Her expression changed abruptly as she finally understood why Lu Chen wanted them to stay in the hospital and wait for him.

It turned out that someone was after her.

Lin Yijun spoke a few sentences to her client before she hung up the phone in a panic.

However, when she saw that Lu Chen and Song Hai were behind the burly men, her mind was put at ease and she relaxed slightly.

There was nothing for her to fear as long as Lu Chen was here.

“Get out of our way!” shouted Song Hai as Lu Chen and him rushed behind the burly men.

The burly men did not know what was happening behind them, so they turned around subconsciously. Before they were able to process the scene, one of their men was knocked down by a medication trolley which was approaching them at a fast pace.

The most outrageous thing was, this damn kid only gave out a word of warning when he was less than a meter away from them.

The corridor wasn't that wide. As such, these burly men weren't able to dodge in time and two of them were knocked over by the medication trolley.

On the other hand, before the other two people who successfully dodged the onslaught of the medication trolley could react, one of them received a blow to his temples by Lu Chen and fainted right away.

Seeing that the situation was bad, the last man standing tried to escape. However, he flew away and landed on the ground from a kick that Song Hai delivered to his back.

The two men who were knocked down by the medication trolley got up and tried to run. One of them took out the fruit knife and rushed toward Lin Yijun.

She was scared out of her wits this time and let out a shrill scream before running away.

Lu Chen was approximately three to four meters away from her. As such, he would not make it in time to rescue her.

Song Hai was stunned as he did not expect that man to be so ruthless as to abandon his fellow brother to deal with Lin Yijun.

Just as the man thought that he would finally grab hold of Lin Yijun, he suddenly felt a chill run up his spine—a paring knife had been plunged into him from behind.

Energy swiftly drained from the man's body and he turned his head around only to see a young man sprinting toward him.

The paring knife piercing into his back was clearly the young man's doing.

The stab wouldn't kill him, but he'd been incapacitated.

His legs buckled and he slumped onto the ground.

"What's happening?!" Still shaken up, Lin Yijun cried out to Lu Chen who had just run up to her.

"It's alright now," Lu Chen comforted Lin Yijun, not wanting her to be alarmed.

Lin Yijun only nodded; she wouldn't ask further if Lu Chen didn't want to tell her.

Lu Chen turned to instruct Song Hai, "Get some men here to guard this place."

Song Hai nodded and pulled his phone out to call his men.

Lu Chen then asked Lin Yijun, "How is grandmother? Is she alright?"

Lin Yijun nodded. "It was nothing serious, so she can be discharged after the drip is finished."

Lu Chen nodded again. "You should head in first. By the way, there's no need to tell them about what happened out here, it'll worry them otherwise."

"I know," Lin Yijun assured him.

With that, she turned and walked into the room.

As they were quite a distance away and the commotion hadn't been very loud, Wang Xue and the others in the room hadn't realized what had just transpired outside.

Lu Chen wanted to search for Mr. Mu personally but decided to stay back instead because he was worried that his enemies would come after Lin Yijun.

Anyway, he believed in Du Fei as well as his team's strength. Capturing Mr. Mu wouldn't be a problem as long as they could locate him.

The men Song Hai had called arrived almost half an hour later. However, not all of them came upstairs. Instead, many of them loitered around the corridors; some of them just stood around smoking; others chatted in small groups.

Of course, they weren't just chatting and smoking. At this moment, they were on the lookout for suspicious characters around the Neurology department.

Part of the normal crowd suspected that there was something out of the ordinary, but they couldn't put their finger on it although they felt that the atmosphere was unusually tense.

The old lady's drip finally finished slightly more than an hour later, during which no one else disturbed them.

Lu Chen and the others had only just sent the old lady back to the Wang residence when he received a call from Du Fei.

“Bloody hell! That guy is strong! He escaped and injured more than ten of my men in the process,” Du Fei fumed.

“Can you tell where he’s from? Do you think he can defeat you one-on-one?” Lu Chen frowned. The fact that such a powerful man lay in wait for him within the shadows made him feel like a prey being hunted by a venomous snake.

“I can’t tell. We’re probably around the same level. I had my men take his picture—unless he goes for plastic surgery—we’ll be able to recognize him once we see him,” Du Fei answered.

“Alright. Why don’t you bring your men back first? Oh, right. He’ll probably flee back to Chongqing, so do keep watch.” Lu Chen added.

Since Mr. Mu knows that I’m in Qijiang and managed to make his way here so quickly, it means that he already had his eye on me back in Chongqing.

He must have come after me in Qijiang because he hadn’t had enough time to come at me in Chongqing.

In fact, Lu Chen had gotten most of it right.

Mr. Mu had indeed been in Chongqing for days, only that he wasn't able to locate Lu Chen.

He only managed to pin down Lu Chen's whereabouts when the Zhang Family spread the word about Lu Chen and Dongfang Long's match.

However, he had changed his plans after watching a video of Lu Chen's match with Dongfang Long.

From watching the dual, he learned that he wasn't a match for Lu Chen at all.

Moreover, just as he was about to join forces with the Zhang Family to take care of Lu Chen, he found that his target had already left for Qijiang!

Mr. Mu had wanted to use the underground forces in Qijiang to deal with Lu Chen, but the latter had called Du Fei and his men over as reinforcements, thus foiling Mr. Mu's plans to capture Lin Yijun and her daughter while Li Hu distracted Lu Chen.

By now, Mr. Mu was already on his way back to Chongqing. Now that the plan in Qijiang had folded, he could only return to Chongqing and try to come up with another plan.

However, Mr. Mu sensed that Lu Chen might have seen through his identity, otherwise he wouldn't have sent Du Fei to deal with him.

Considering all that, Mr. Mu decided to lay low within the Zhang Family to avoid alarming his target. He would then wait patiently for the opportunity to deal with Lu Chen.

After all, Xiao Bieqing wanted him to bring Lu Chen back to Beijing alive, not dead. Hence, this restricted the measures he could take and increased the difficulty of his task.

Over the next two days, the Wang Family's ancestor's grave was finally restored, so Lu Chen and his family returned to Chongqing along with Wang Qiong.

Wang Wan kept pestering her father to ask Lu Chen for a loan before they left, but Wang Kai had straight-out refused.

The recent incident had revealed Xu Jie's true colors. Although it wasn't so bad that he would ask Wang Wan to break up with Xu Jie, he couldn't bring himself to ask Lu Chen for money.

Wang Wan and Xu Fang's attitudes toward Lu Chen before this also played a significant part in why he wouldn't ask Lu Chen for a loan on Xu Jie's behalf.

Back in Chongqing, Lu Chen directed Wang Qiong to start at the supermarket as an intern with Lin Yijia. Naturally, he would pay her generously as well.

"You can stay with Yijia first for these few days, but you can move in with us soon," Lu Chen said.

"Sure. Thank you, Lu Chen," Qiong accepted and nodded her head.

"Brother-in-law, are you going to let Qiong sleep in Qiqi's room?" Lin Yijia inquired.

"No, we're moving in a couple of days." The Saddle Hill Dragon Lakeview Mansions—where Lu Chen had reserved the most expensive mansion and ordered them to make the renovation a priority—had just completed a few days ago, in time for Lu Chen and his family to move in over the next few days.

“Where are you moving to? Where did you buy your new house?” Lin Yijia asked curiously. Before this, she would have thought that he was renting a different place if Lu Chen had told her that he was moving away.

“In Dragon Lakeview Mansion Area,” Lu Chen informed her.

“Wow! At Dragon Lakeview?! The cheapest mansion there costs at least 60 million, doesn't it? Brother-in-law, you're so rich!” Lin Yijia looked at Lu Chen with an expression full of envy. It had come as a real surprise that Lu Chen, whom they had looked down on all these years, was actually so capable.

“More or less. If you want to live in a mansion, you just have to work hard,” Lu Chen encouraged with a smile.

Lin Yijia would have rolled her eyes if someone else had said the same thing to her.

Work hard to make enough money to live in a mansion—what was it if not mocking her?

Yet, she believed it when it came from Lu Chen.

“Brother-in-law, you’re wonderful! I won’t let you down.” In that instant, a ridiculous thought crossed Lin Yijia’s mind as she gazed at Lu Chen. How wonderful if he wasn’t my brother-in-law! If he wasn’t, I would totally stand a chance at romancing him too.

If Lu Chen knew what Lin Yijia was thinking, he would probably turn tail and run for the hills.

Just a small misunderstanding had led to Lin Yijun giving him the silent treatment for ages. There was no doubt that Lin Yijun would murder him if she found out that her sister was interested in him!

“I’m going to bring your sister to take a look at the house. Go ahead and report to Wu Lei for work,” Lu Chen instructed.

“Lu Chen, can we take a look around the mansion as well? Qiong only arrived today and you're already putting her to work.

That's not very understanding of you, is it?"
Lin Yijia blinked as she guilt-tripped him.
