

Chapter 333 Paying Visits

Lu Chen planned to bring everyone out on a trip for a few days. However, he didn't expect the bunch of leaders to show up to pay their visits right before they could leave.

The first who came was Wang Wei. He had brought his wife, as well as his six years old son, with a few bags of gifts to visit Lu Chen.

"Young Master, Happy New Year!" Wang Wei greeted.

"Happy New Year to you too!" Lu Chen took over the gifts before gesturing for Wang Wei and his family to come in.

"Happy New Year, uncle!" Wang Wei's son greeted Lu Chen with good manners.

"Happy New Year to you too, Jian! Go have fun with Qiqi!" Lu Chen caressed Wang Jian's forehead before he ran over with the gifts; it seemed like he had specially picked out presents for Qiqi as well.

Someone came right after Wang Wei and his wife sat down.

It was Xia Jun, however, he only came alone.

Then, Wu Lei came too.

Lu Chen recalled Lin Yijia telling him that Wu Lei started dating her cousin, Wang Qiong. So, he joked, "Shouldn't you pay your visit to Qijiang County? What are you doing here?"

"That's because I heard her saying that they are coming over to visit you today as well. Wouldn't it be better if I'd just wait here?" Wu Lei joked along when he realized that Lu Chen already knew about him and Wang Qiong.

Just when Lu Chen was about to chatter along with him, someone else came.

This time, it was Du Fei and Xiao Zhan who came over with a private plane. Of course, they didn't know how to fly a plane, but they had professional pilots with them.

The Three Marquises of the Water Margin immediately got up from their respective beds when they heard that Du Fei and Xiao Zhan came over.

They had all stayed over at Lu Chen's place after a long game of mahjong up until midnight and they looked like they weren't completely awake yet.

Not long after, Wang Xue's family came as well.

Wang Xue supposedly should be the one paying them visits. However, with Lu Chen's status now, Wang Kai and Wang Jin felt like they should be paying their visit instead.

What surprised everyone the most was when Qingcheng Group's beautiful president, Li Qingcheng, came over by herself to pay her visits to Lu Chen.

Lu Chen laughed wryly when he saw her. He knew she was adamant toward the collaboration for the aerospace engines.

"Young Master Lu, I hope you don't mind me paying you a sudden visit for the New Year," Li Qingcheng apologized and smiled flirtatiously.

"Would you leave if I tell you that I mind, though?" said Lu Chen jokingly.

"Of course not!" Li Qingcheng giggled.

“There you go. Come on in!” Lu Chen smiled before gesturing to her to come in.

“Wow! Your house is really crowded! Isn’t that Chairman Wang? Hey, Chairman Wang!” Li Qingcheng saw Wang Wei and greeted him after coming in.

Seeing that it was Qingcheng Group’s beautiful president, Wang Wei immediately stood up and returned his greetings. “I just came over, too! I didn’t expect to see you here, President Li!”

Li Qingcheng was a very inspirational person. She went back to her country and took over her family’s business from her father when their family faced financial difficulties while she was doing her postgraduate studies in Harvard University.

After three years, she’d manage to revive her family’s dying business with the company showing signs of possibly overpowering the Four Great Families.

Her grandfather even changed their company’s name to Qingcheng Group in order to reward his granddaughter for her hard work.

Li Qingcheng was a successful woman that Wang Wei didn't dare disrespect.

"Of course! It's my pleasure to be able to visit Young Master Lu!" Li Qingcheng laughed.

Everyone agreed with her point.

Her arrival had attracted everyone's attention; it was obvious that she was very charismatic.

Right when Lin Yijia wanted to usher them to eat, Chen Guangxing came over with his daughter, Chen Churan as well.

Their arrival gave Lu Chen a surprise.

To be honest, Lu Chen and Chen Guangxing rarely contacted each other after he pushed Chen Guangxing and the others right into his trap during the earthquake donations; most of their interactions were also done through Chen Guangxing's daughter, like the exhibition last time as well.

Lu Chen didn't expect him to pay his visit at the first instance.

“Oh? Chen? You’re a rare guest!” Lu Chen greeted cheerfully.

Chen Guangxing waved him off before saying, “Come on young man! Keep your tricks to yourself!”

Lu Chen broke into laughter. From what Chen Guangxing said, he concluded that he was in a good mood.

“Happy New Year!” Chen Churan smiled softly as she passed Lu Chen a gift box.

“Same goes to you!” Lu Chen took the gifts and ushered them in.

Everyone’s gazes fell on Chen Guangxing and his daughter when they entered.

Even Li Qingcheng stood up to greet them.

As the head of the family, Chen Guangxing returned their greetings one by one before they were all ushered to dine in at the dining hall by Lu Chen.

There were normally a few maids in the mansion. However, Lu Chen gave them red packets and ushered them home to spend their New Year with their own families.

Fortunately, Wang Kai's family came early and helped them out to prepare the meals; the atmosphere was cheerful.

Tang Qingshan and Tang Dalong came along with their family right before they were about to start eating.

Tang Qingshan was Lin Yijun's godfather while Tang Dalong was her godbrother, as well as Yi Qi Technology's human resources department's manager.

During the open house dinner last time, Tang Qingshan was still reluctant to accept the fact of how Lu Chen was able to get a mansion.

However, after knowing that his son was only one of Lu Chen's workers, he'd finally realize that gap between Lu Chen and his son's status.

Lu Chen's status was something that his family could never achieve.

So, he brought his son over to pay his visits today.

"Happy New Year, Uncle Lin, Aunty Wang!"
Lin Dahai and Wang Xue came to greet them as Lu Chen and the others started dining already.

“Same goes to you! Come on in! We are about to eat soon!” Wang Xue took the gift that Tang Dalong gave her cheerfully and gestured for them to go to the dining room.

“Dahai, your son-in-law is really powerful, huh? I bet his net worth could total up to more than hundreds of billions!” Tang Qingshan exclaimed.

Lin Dahai laughed along with him; he didn’t want to upset Tang Qingshan.

“What are you even talking about, father? Our company’s property in Chongqing alone has a worth of more than 100 billion. Moreover, President Lu had also gotten a hundred year land lease of Myanmar’s Kokang Special Region along with more than 10 thousand army personnel there. They also have a few jadeite rough stone mines over in Kokang. His influence isn’t something that you can measure solely with money.” Tang Dalong briefed his father about Lu Chen’s company’s scale as he didn’t want his father to embarrass him again.

Tang Qingshan was taken aback; he didn't know that Lu Chen's company was actually that huge.

At the same time, a luxurious car drove past them before stopping at a car park. Following that, a young couple came out of the car.

"And these two are...?" Tang Qingshan was surprised. How could they drive their car in when he himself wasn't allowed to do so? Could it be that they had high statuses as well?

"His name is Xu Jing. He's my granddaughter, Qiqi's bodyguard. That lady beside him is his girlfriend. They probably came to pay their visit as well," Lin Dahai explained.

"Right, the car that cost about a million was Lu Chen's gift to Xu Jing. He probably gave him a pass so that he could drive into the mansion," Wang Xue chimed in.

Tang Qingshan's mouth fell agape; he was shocked to the extreme.

Lu Chen gave his bodyguard a luxury car that was worth a million? He must be really generous then!

Suddenly, a thought emerged in his head—he must make sure that his son never quit his job at Lu Chen’s company, no matter what kind of challenges his son would have to go through.

If his son really earned Lu Chen’s trust one day, his entire family would be prosperous!
