

Chapter 101 Compliment

Seeing Alyssa eating more and more, Audrey sneered, "Miss Graham, you might want to slow down a bit."

"Mrs. Hunter, thank you for reminding me." Alyssa finished and smiled at Audrey.

Her smile made Audrey unable to keep giving her a hard time. Audrey was still angry from before, and now she was full of anger again.

Emily approached Audrey and said a few words softly. After hearing Emily's words, Audrey suppressed the unhappiness in her heart and glanced at George next to Emily. She smiled happily and said, "George, I heard that the project you did for Hunter Group a few days ago has been successfully contracted. Why didn't you tell me directly about such a good thing? I wouldn't know it if Emily hadn't told me?"

George nodded, "Yes, we just signed the contract yesterday."

Audrey was full of joy, "Dad, George is so great! He's only a freshman and he's already so good. He will have a great future."

George curled his lips at Audrey's words. He finally felt that the dumplings tasted good.

Hearing Audrey's words, Kevin glanced at George and then Leon and nodded happily, "George is so young and he can make a business. I'm really glad. You are worthy to be Leon's brother."

Audrey, who had been very pleased, was unhappy again.

George's achievement had nothing to do with Leon.

It was earned by George.

Kevin didn't compliment George, but Leon instead. He was biased!

She looked at Kevin with dissatisfaction, "Dad, this project is made by George himself. He started sorting it out on his own from the moment he got the information. He's been up until midnight the last few days, working on it all the time."

"Really? George, you are great! No pains, no gains. George, you have to persevere and you will definitely become better and better. In the future, you will assist your brother. You guys can definitely make Hunter Group excellent and powerful."

Audrey could hear that Kevin was still complimenting Leon. She glanced at Leon with a disdainful face and said cynically, "George has been obedient and understanding since he was a child. George, eat more and study hard. You are not inferior to anyone."

Hearing Audrey's words, George looked at Emily, "Mom, I can't take all the credit. There is so much information that Emily reminded me to search for. Emily is the smartest one."

Emily smiled and said, "Auntie, George is being modest! George is very capable! He will definitely make a big career in the future."

Hearing Emily's words, George nodded and looked at George happily.

She loved to hear people praise George in her life. She ate the dumplings and thought they were delicious.

A certain harmony was finally reached at the dinner table.

Kevin took a bite of the dumpling and curled the corners of his mouth.

His two grandchildren were each good in their own way.

But Leon was brought up by him, so he had more affection for Leon.

If it came to achieving great things, Leon had more potential than George.

However, Leon was not mature and stable enough. After he got married this year, he was obviously much more stable from his attitude towards Alyssa.

He was satisfied and happy.

George also slowly grew up.

The Hunters had a new generation.

The New Year's Eve dinner ended with a peaceful atmosphere. Kevin was in a good mood and everyone was happy.

10:30 pm.

Leon took Alyssa home with him.

Kevin wanted to keep them, "Alyssa, you're not going to stay with grandpa?"

"We're used to going back to our own home. Grandpa, I should go home with Leon! But I'll come back to see you tomorrow! Don't worry. I'll be here tomorrow."

Kevin nodded, "Okay then, Leon, drive slowly."

Leon nodded, took Alyssa's hand, and led her in the direction of the car.

Soon they got into the car.

Leon drove and Alyssa sat drowsily in the back seat of the car.

As soon as Alyssa got out, she noticed that all her strength seemed to be depleted.

When Leon waited for the red light, he looked at Alyssa, who was about to fall asleep. She looked so pretty when she was asleep, just like a little angel.

She was really tired today, following him to so many places.

She behaved well today and helped him deal with a lot of people. Sure enough, she was really different after a month of experience in the workplace.

Soon they arrived at the villa.

Leon turned his head and saw that Alyssa was awake.

He said softly, "We're home."

"We're finally home."

Alyssa stretched out. After sleeping for a while, she felt comfortable. She smiled at Leon, pulled open the car door happily, and jumped out.

Leon got out of the car. Looking at Alyssa, who looked like a bunny, he couldn't help but smile.

At that moment, he saw Alyssa turn her head to look at him. His smile was still on his face, and he was inexplicably embarrassed.

Alyssa didn't feel embarrassed. She ran to Leon and kissed him directly on the face. Then, she looked at Leon and smiled, "Come on, I have a gift for you."

A gift?

Leon froze. He didn't seem to have received any gifts.

For a moment, he was looking forward to the gift Alyssa had for him.

Alyssa took him by the hand and walked forward.

Soon, under Alyssa's guidance, he saw a very small red velvet box on the table.

Soon the velvet box fell into his hands.

He looked down at it.

"This is for you. Open it."

Leon opened the box and saw a tie clip with an extremely simple style. Although it was simple in style, it looked very delicate.

For the first time, he felt happy on New Year's Eve.

It turned out that he could receive a gift for New Year's Eve.

He never seemed to have received any gifts before.

Seeing Leon's somewhat serious face, Alyssa asked, "Don't you like it? This one is very good. I think it's very nice."

"It's nice." Leon took Alyssa's hand, "You put it on for me."

Alyssa quickly helped Leon put on his tie clip. Seeing how good he looked with the tie clip, Alyssa smiled and said, "I have a good eye. You look great."

"Are you tired today?" Leon was satisfied. Sure enough, she had a good eye. The gift she chose for him was naturally good as well.

Alyssa nodded. She was really tired.

"Then let's go to bed."

"Sure!"

Alyssa followed Leon to rest. When they got to the room, they fell on the big bed together.
