

Chapter 71 Make Money And Keep Alive

"Besides being related to Eden, do you have any relationship with the other shareholders of Summit Group?" Alyssa noticed that Susan was a beauty from a distance, and even more beautiful from up close. She was probably in her forties, but she looked almost like a young girl. It seemed she had spent a lot of money on taking care of her body.

She heard Susan and Eden talking last night and knew what Susan could do as a woman.

It wasn't enough for a woman to look pretty, she had to be intelligent.

A woman couldn't just be an empty vase with someone who had a high IQ.

Susan looked at Alyssa, "You like Eden?"

Since Susan thought she was here because of Eden, she didn't deny it, "If you think so, I don't object."

Anyway, Susan didn't know her, so she could say whatever she wanted. All she had to do was to get the truth behind this.

Susan laughed, looked at Alyssa, and said, "Don't misunderstand, Miss. Although Eden and I know each other, our interests are bigger than our feelings. We're just doing this for the money. You and Eden can do whatever you want. Don't worry. I won't affect your relationship."

"What's going on with you two? Tell me everything so I can trust you."

"I'm just helping him make money."

"How?"

Alyssa got serious.

Susan, however, smiled and looked at Alyssa, "You don't have to worry about that. Miss, I advise you not to fall in love with Eden. Eden has so many women. You can't be Mrs. Cooper!"

Alyssa got angry at her words. She didn't want to be Mrs. Cooper, she was Mrs. Hunter!

Susan saw that Alyssa didn't say anything, so she thought she was angry and snickered, "Summit Group is going to raise money soon. Eden has money in Summit Group. He's definitely going to make a profit before they raise money. You will soon know how all this works."

"How?"

"Encourage the shareholders of Summit Group to withdraw the shares of Summit Group ..." Susan laughed and said softly, "Miss, you should have no idea what I told you, so I think it's better not to make it so clear. You go to the mall and see what you like. Eden will soon be able to earn a fortune. When the time comes, you can go to Eden for whatever you want to buy, and he will satisfy you."

Alyssa understood.

She turned around and left, got in her car, and called Hassan directly.

Hassan answered the phone. She put the phone directly to the side and turned on her Bluetooth to speak.

"I know what's going on. Susan is trying to motivate the shareholders of Summit Group to take their company's cash. Once they succeed, Summit Group will become an empty shell. How will you raise money for Vincent then?"

"How do you know that?"

"I found Susan this morning while she was walking her dog. She mistook me for Eden's woman, so I got her word. I could tell she really thought I was Eden's woman. If you want to do this project, I advise you to hurry up and stop those shareholders from taking the money."

"Where are you?"

"I'm on my way home."

Alyssa put the phone down and arrived at the Hunter's House as soon as she turned a corner, just in time to see Leon out the door.

She hurriedly parked the car and opened the door to find Leon smiling at her.

"What are you waiting for? Get in the car."

Leon got into the car, and Alyssa started it steadily.

Twelve minutes later, they arrived at the Hunter Group.

Leon looked at Alyssa but didn't get out of the car.

"What's wrong?" Alyssa stared at Leon.

"You're working on a case with the Summit Group? Be careful! Vincent and his team are hard-core."

"How did you know I was working on a case with the Summit Group?" Alyssa wasn't surprised and looked at Leon and smiled.

Leon was pleased. Alyssa didn't seem angry that he knew about the case she was working on.

He followed her, but she wasn't angry at all.

Alyssa still smiled and he was suddenly relieved.

It was as if it really didn't matter to her at all.

Alyssa looked at Leon and said, "Citic has more cases, and I can learn something from them. You know about the Summit Group case, so you probably also know that the Summit Group is a mess. Then you should be familiar with Summit Group. Can you tell me about it?"

Alyssa didn't care that Leon knew it at all. He could also help her after he knew about it, and there was nothing wrong with that.

"I know some of it. Vincent and his father had a bad relationship. Vincent stole the Summit Group from his father. Susan was Robert's secretary at the time and knew a lot about Robert and the Summit Group. She chose Vincent and helped him take down Robert."

"And then what happened?"

"Now, Vincent found out about the company's crisis and wanted to raise money. It's not surprising that he went to Citic. Hassan took over his case and is probably going to take a loss." Leon said what he knew. He looked at Alyssa, "You'd better stay out of this. Susan will definitely get the money out. Vincent will probably be schemed by Susan."

"I was out looking for Susan earlier. Didn't your people tell you?" Alyssa suddenly felt a little strange. Since Leon knew that she had been keeping an eye on the Summit Group, there was no way he didn't know that she had just gone out to look for Susan.

She looked at Leon and noticed that Leon was also looking at her.

Soon Leon took out his phone and said to Alyssa, "You be careful! Don't go to Citic today. Follow me to the office. No one will dare to hurt you."

Alyssa laughed, "It's not that bad. If they hadn't found out about me, how could they have shown their tracks? I'm sure Mr. Wood would have done it by now. There should be a conclusion today about what happened between Vincent and Susan. I'm still going to Citic. You get off!"

"You knew this was going to be dangerous?"

"Yes."

Alyssa nodded. She knew she could be retaliated or something.

"So you're going back to the office?"

"You're worried about me?" Alyssa was happy to see Leon's worried look, "But I think it's okay. With Hassan's background, he won't be able to anticipate the danger. I'm sure he has a solution. From the day I provoked Susan, he might have sensed something."

"You have so much faith in Hassan?"

"He's good and experienced, so naturally, he knows how to make money and keep alive. Leon, don't worry! I'll be fine."
