

Twin Tormentors By RARE Chapter 10

Chapter 10

LORENZO

Arriving at 0.X Apartments from the airport took approximately 30 minutes. Upon our arrival, we settled the tenant verification process and rode the elevator to where the apartment was. Valerie opened the door for me to enter but I couldn't help embrace the one across mine and breathe it in: it felt like I was breathing her! Not the door, but her. I closed my eyes and leaned against the door frame with my front, then gently caressed it. Just right beyond this door; she was in there!

"Come on in boss. You look like a freak when you do that!" Valerie teased causing me to unglue myself from the door and enter inside my apartment. I was actually gobsmacked and awed by how neat and clean the place looked. The colors were well coordinated, from white, to gray and black! I guess Valerie was highly used to Verzi's OCDs.

I walked around taking in the place, and I was actually in love with it. Compared to the Dark Woods Castle, this seemed rather uncomfortably small; but it was cozy and that was okay with me.

"Want to have something to eat?" Valerie asked prompting my stomach to grumble out loud.

"Yeah sure! Breakfast will be lovely and then I'll have you for dessert." I replied winking to her, she smiled before disappearing into the kitchen. Ever since Verzi came home with the news of Leigh-A*i, I have been in a very demented dry season; and that was entirely not by choice. But because my body refused to be close to any other woman except her. Well, Valerie did try but it was still not enough.

I couldn't shake off the unsettling feeling, the guilt that always crippled me whenever I laid my hands on any other woman. Dark Woods Castle was filled with women; of all types and tastes. They were all there for our pleasure. But all that fly and hype ran out the window as soon as Leigh-A*i was mentioned.

With the thoughts running wild in my head, I finished the house tour and settled for a hot shower just to ease the nerves. Since it was still early, I was planning to go out for the day and take care of some business. Verzi had a base here and some of the restaurants which were the subsidiaries of CAT Holdings. After making a quick mind map, I stepped under the hot spraying water and washed up.

Approximately 15 minutes later, I was wearing fresh black slacks with a white shirt. No tie or coat! I walked into the kitchen to find Valerie already dishing up.

“And here you go!” She called out placing a hot dish of waffles and strawberries in front of me. They were coupled with an insanely thick hot chocolate and an omelet. She added cakes with black coffee just for the fun of it and sat across me.

“Plans for the day? Or you are staying in?” She asked taking a bite of the soft waffles. I watched the way she licked her lips and how neatly she chewed. This woman, if only I wasn’t cuffed up on someone else, maybe I would give her a chance. Valerie was a very beautiful, young and strong willed woman I could ever come across. She knew where she stood with everyone and never overstepped her boundaries. She was very brave, competent and very awesome. Having someone like her, despite the titles and shit; it was utterly heartening!

“Going to some offices here and then to the base. Wanna tag along?”

“Can I?” She grinned widely clapping her hands! She always got excited over very little things. That’s what was amazing about her.

“Of course. You are still my PA remember? Or Cyprus made you forget that?” I stared into her bright eyes causing her grin to widen.

“Thanks Enzo.” She took a sip of her hot chocolate and we finished our breakfast with a smooth chatter. After a few minutes, she got up to clean up and I sashayed behind her, gently caressing her huge lush curves. Her breathing shuddered when I brushed my wood against her ass that was clamped in jeans.

“Aren’t you going to mess up yourself since you’ve already washed up?” She asked through a moan when I kissed her right behind her ear!

“I can always change!” I commented cupping her breasts into my palm and began molding them. Her moans encouraged me and I turned her to face me, then scooped her in an embrace and placed her right on the table. She leaned backwards giving me space to shred the jeans off her body. Once they were out of the way, I took hold of her small thong and tossed it to the side, then took a sweet dive in her core.

She moaned and rocked on my mouth as I fucked her with my tongue, her hands gripping my hair very tight. Her muscles began to buck and I pulled off from her, causing her to whine:

“Enzo come on!” She unbuttoned her tunic, and then pushed her bra downwards causing her big boobs to spill out of the small cramped space. She toyed with one when I worked on my pants.

“I know you like it!” I angled my very hard cock against her entrance and without further thought, pushed in to the hilt; causing her eyes to roll back into her head and her body to buckle from the hard table top. 1

“Gooooooosh yeeeeeeeeesss...” She cried out as I vigorously pumped into her warm love hole. I leaned down and sucked her skin right where my previous hickey was fading. She moaned out loud and circled her arms around me, pulling me more into her. Her soles dug into my ass driving me deeper inside her lotus!

“You like that?” I grunted against her skin causing her walls to clamp tight around her, drinking me fully. I know how she loved being talked to!

“Fuck yes... yes... aaaah!” Her pussy began to convulse violently as I continued my merciless thrusts, her muscles bucked harder and sweat broke from her skin. I raised my head and kissed her roughly, increasing the pace.

“You want to cum?” I dominated her, taking hold of one thigh so that I can fully drive my cock inside her.

“Please.... Yes! Let me cum!” she begged staring deep into my eyes. I smirked when I saw the desperateness in her eyes. Her face was bundled up in a pain look and her eyes held so much lust that drove me insane.

“Not yet!” I denied her, knowing fully what it did to her.

“Enzo please! I need to cum.” She leaned backwards and tried to toy with her clit, but I was quick to cuff her wrists with one hand and continued plowing in to her.

“I! SAID! NOT! YET!” each word was stamped with a violent thrust, totally morphing her being with one of the table. She let out a cry of frustration as I kept my insane pace and soon, that sensation brewed from the pit of my stomach. I knew with her orgasm came mine so I increased my tempo, the tip of my cock brushing against her cervix and causing her to cum very hard.

“I’m cumiiiiiiiiing!” she cried out loud as her orgasm slammed into her. Her pussy clenched very tight and I couldn’t last any longer. With one final thrust, I spilled my seed inside her, my cock bobbing really hard as she continued to spasm around me.

I fell on top of her as we slowly came down from our high; with my cock still buried inside her.

“Go wash up really quick! We need to get going!” I pulled out of her and turned to the kitchen to yank the paper towels; without sparing her any glance! That’s just how it was with her: Hot insane sex, with no strings attached!
